

Hearing Is Hated By Angry Sen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., angrily accused former Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey of insulting the Senate today and refused to hear further testimony on nickel deals involving Humphrey's mining interests.

Symington opened the second day of Humphrey's testimony by objecting to comments the former top Eisenhower administration official had made to the press.

He said the Humphrey statement Thursday was an insult to the Senate in that it charged the stockpile investigation was politically motivated.

Brushing aside demands by Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn., for a vote, Symington said he planned to adjourn the hearings for further investigation.

Humphrey started to make a statement, demanding to be heard.

"You wouldn't dare," Humphrey said, and Symington's gavel banged down.

"This hearing is adjourned," snapped Symington. "Don't ever try to tell a United States senator what he would dare or wouldn't dare."

Humphrey never got to make his reply comment from the witness chair but after the uproar subsided he renewed his criticism and added to it in the glare of camera lights.

Flushed with anger Humphrey said he does not repent anything he has said.

"This statement today has provided ample proof of the motivation of this committee," he said. "This is self-evidence of the prejudice with which the whole hearing has been held."

"I did not attack the U.S. Senate. I attacked the bitterness and prejudice in which these hearings have been held."

Humphrey, honorary chairman and former head of the M. A. Hanna Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, had expected to resume the witness chair at 8 a.m.

He was scheduled for further questioning by the special Senate stockpiling committee about "destruction of records" relating to the multimillion-dollar nickel deal.

But Symington delayed the session an hour and then began reading a 10-page statement which bitterly assailed Humphrey and his testimony Thursday.

Five Americans, One Filipino Released By Pro-Reds In Laos

By ANTOINE YARED
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Five Americans and a Filipino held captive for more than a year by pro-Communist forces were released today.

The men, who had all grown beards during their captivity, were cheered by a crowd of several hundred as they emerged from the twin-engine Soviet plane that brought them to Vientiane from Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plaine des Jarres.

Those released were Maj. Lawrence Bailey, Laurel, Md., assistant military attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Vientiane; John McCormack, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Edward R. Shore Jr., Galloway, Tenn.; Sgt. Orville Ballenger, Columbus, Ohio; NRC cameraman Grant Workill, Shelton, Wash.; and Lorenzo Frigillana of the Philippines.

All six appeared to have lost considerable weight.

Workill left soon after for Bangkok en route to the United States. NBC correspondent Jim Robinson, who accompanied him, said Workill would leave Bangkok for New York as soon as possible.

The other Americans and Frigillana were flown to the U.S. Air Force Clark base north of Manila for a medical checkup and interrogation.

Workill, Shore, McCormack and Frigillana looked healthy and in good spirits, but Ballenger was haggard and looked tired.

Bailey had to be helped from the plane to the airport terminal. An Army doctor, Maj. Estes Cohen, who made a superficial check of the men aboard the plane, said, "They are all okay except Bailey, who is pretty weak."

Shore and McCormack were civilian employes of the charter firm Air America, which flew for the right-wing Laotian government. Workill was with them when their helicopter crashed behind Red lines May 15, 1961.

Baillenger had been missing since April 22, 1961, when four American military advisers were captured under circumstances the State Department has refused to divulge.

Bailey was captured when his plane crashed March 23, 1961. Frigillana, an Air America mechanic, disappeared in December 1960, during fighting between neutralist and right-wing forces of control of Vientiane.

Pathet Lao chief, Prince Souphavong had promised their release following last month's Geneva accord, sanctioning a coalition government for Laos and pledging the country's neutrality.

A few minutes after the six men arrived American military officials whisked Shore, McCormack, Bailey and Workill away behind to talk to newsmen.

Bailey said his captors never beat him, that the only maltreatment was continuous questioning. Workill, 39, said the helicopter in which he was flying with Shore and McCormack, made a forced landing at Ban Veung San, about 40 miles north of Vientiane.

"We made a handy landing," he said, "and nobody aboard was hurt, thanks to Shore—the 30-year-old pilot. McCormack, 20, was the crew chief."

He said they left the helicopter in the jungle and without warning were surrounded by Pathet Lao troops.

The three of them were held for 11 months in a room which had no light in a place near Xieng Khouang, the Pathet Lao headquarters in the Plaine des Jarres.

Workill said they spent terrifying hours under the watchful eyes of young Viet Minh guards who he added, "were full of hatred and roaming around with their rifles loaded and firing at random."

Workill said that for days they were given only rice and salt to eat.

"Our condition improved when we were moved last April 6 to a Viet Minh camp," also in the Xieng Khouang area, he continued.

"Viet Minh soldiers more or less did abide to international conventions for war prisoners," Workill said.

Ten other Americans are known to have disappeared in Laos here in December 1960 and March 1961. Six were believed killed in a plane crash but there has been no information on the other four.

Close Watch Kept On Easterly Wave

MIAMI (AP)—U.S. Weather Bureau officials were keeping an eye on a weak easterly wave in the Atlantic today but said no hurricane hunter planes were scheduled to probe the area.

The wave, 1,000 miles east of Barbados in the Lesser Antilles, was drifting slowly westward. As yet, the weather disturbance is not of crossing range of Navy reconnaissance planes.

Heat Eases Off In Most Texas Areas

By The Associated Press
Summer heat eased off a bit more over Texas Friday although a weak cool front stalled in its southward push.

Temperatures generally were 5 to 10 degrees lower.

The leading edge of the cooler air, starting to lose well defined shape, lay along an east-west line, through the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Ahead of the approaching front, a brilliant electrical storm roared through Houston Thursday evening, snarling traffic in zero visibility. Winds hitting 71 miles per hour in gusts accompanied the downpour.

Residents of the Westbury residential district in Southwest Houston blamed a small tornado for damage to four homes. It ripped away a porch, tore off a patio roof and smashed windows in the vicinity.

Lightning grazed several Houston buildings but there were no injuries. The storm left 1.78 inches of rain at the Houston airport and dropped the temperature from 89 to 68 in an hour.

Skies were clear to only partly cloudy and occasional showers had stopped throughout the state by Friday morning. Forecasters promised little change. Widely scattered thunderstorms were predicted in South and extreme West Texas.

Thursday's top temperature ranged from 102 degrees at Presidio and San Angelo down to 88 at Amarillo. The mercury reached 101 at Junction and 100 at College Station, San Antonio and Waco.

Speaking and dynamite firing chores Saturday, at the dam site west of Los Banos.

He flies to Castle Air Force Base at Merced this afternoon, whirled by helicopter to beautiful Yosemite Valley to spend the night, and takes the chopper again in the morning to Los Banos.

The helicopter will backtrack to Fresno, where Kennedy will make a few remarks at the airport before boarding his jetliner and winging down to Los Angeles.

Ates said Kennedy had no official activity slated for Los Angeles—only some time with his sister, Patricia, and her husband, actor Peter Lawford, at their Santa Monica home.

Los Angeles is the home port of Nixon. And there probably isn't anyone Kennedy would rather see take another political licking than the man he barely kept out of the White House in 1960.

Consequently, California has been tabbed for some outright political activity on Kennedy's part later in the campaign.

On this trip, though, Gov. Brown has a prominent role among the Kennedy newcomers and in the San Luis ground-breaking ceremonies, and this isn't calculated to do him harm in what is regarded widely as the top political bout of crossing range of Navy reconnaissance planes.

Stockholm, Sweden (AP)—Sherril Finkbine was told by Sweden's Medical Board today she can have an abortion there to end a pregnancy she fears will bring her a drug-determined baby.

"I can't say how happy and relieved I feel," she said, tears streaming down her cheeks. "A heavy burden has been lifted from me."

The operation is expected to take place next week, probably at Caroline Hospital where other foreign women have been treated in similar cases.

The 30-year-old Arizona housewife and television performer burst out crying when her teacher husband Robert brought her the news.

"It has been a great strain for her," Finkbine said while he was trying to comfort his wife. "Now we just hope that the operation can take place as soon as possible and that this affair can be forgotten. We have no other wish than to start a normal life again when this is over."

Finkbine also expressed thanks to the Swedish doctors and the Royal Medical Board for sympathetic appreciation of the case.

"We are glad that there is a country in the world where doctors act like this in spite of the enormous publicity our case has received," he said. "I admire the medical board for having considered our applications just like any other case. Sherril has been very near a complete breakdown these days in Sweden and I think it is a miracle that she has endured the long hard strains."

They arrived here Aug. 5 after Arizona courts declined to sanction an abortion there.

Mrs. Finkbine said she had taken a tranquilizer drug—thalamidol—which has been banned for deformed babies born in Europe. She had obtained the drug abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Finkbine are expected to return to Phoenix at the end of next week, after the operation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government said today that barring an unexpected hitch it plans to apply for a federal court order today to end the four-day work stoppage stalling the moonshot program at Huntsville, Ala.

Stuart Hoffman, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, told a reporter the government plans to move into court on an affidavit by Dr. Werner von Braun, director of the Marshall Space Center at Huntsville.

Braun's affidavit says that continued picketing by electricians seeking union recognition is causing irreparable delay to the nation's space race with the Soviet Union.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Marilyn Monroe's will, filed for probate today, left an estate estimated in excess of half a million dollars.

The blonde screen star died Aug. 4 of an overdose of sleeping pills.

The will, executed here on Jan. 11, 1961, was filed in New York County Surrogate's Court.

It created a $100,000 trust fund to provide $5,000 a year for the maintenance and support of Miss Monroe's mother, Gladys Baker, who is in an institution.

The trust also provided for $2,500 a year for the maintenance and support of Mrs. Michael Chekhov, a friend and mentor of the actress.

The balance remaining in the trust after the death of Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Chekhov is to go to Dr. Marianne Kris, "to be used by her for the furtherance of the work of such psychiatric institutions or groups as she shall elect."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., charged today that evidence which would have nipped the Billie Sol Estes schemes was withheld deliberately from Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman by trusted aides.

McClellan gave the appraisal as called John C. Bagwell, Agriculture Department general counsel, for another day of quizzing by the Senate investigations subcommittee.

McClellan's subcommittee seeks to learn whether politicians used influence to help Estes amass a fortune from federal farm aid, and to snarl investigations of what Estes was doing.

McClellan testified Thursday that not until last April 11 did Freeman receive his first real picture of what the Estes deals involved. If they took the secretary only about 45 days to start a crackdown on the Pecos, Tex. promoter, Bagwell said.

In earlier hearings, witnesses swore that investigation after investigation of Estes had been attempted prior to April but never seemed to get anywhere.

Estes is awaiting trial on federal and Texas fraud and theft charges.

McClellan said that if Bagwell's testimony stands unchallenged, "it would appear that responsible subordinates had deliberately withheld from the secretary vital information that he needed to take appropriate action to prevent or halt the scheme and device imposed on the government so successfully by Estes."

The senator said he hopes to develop before the inquiry ends a full, documented story of who might have kept from Freeman information with which he could have nipped the Estes scheme right in the bud as it should have been.

Bagwell came under sharp critical questioning by McClellan and Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., the subcommittee's senior GOP member.

They criticized a memo Bagwell said he had delivered personally to the secretary April 11, outlining details of Estes' manipulations of profitable cotton planting acreage allotments and discussing alternative plans for dealing with them. Both McClellan and Mundt said the alternatives might have let Estes bail himself out of trouble with the government.

Bagwell denied this. He also denied that the memorandum itself withheld "vital" information from Freeman, as alleged by Mundt. Bagwell said he informed the secretary on all the details at a face to face meeting later in the day, and that the crack-down on Estes resulted.

Which set in motion by Freeman April 12, the general counsel said, brought cancellation of Estes' disputed allotment on April 17, and a $854,000 fine.

But Don't Just Stand There... Eat

VALDESE, N.C. (AP)—Imagine that you're working in a bakery. Suddenly, the conveyor belts carrying the bread stop, reverse, and begin hurling loaves at you.

It would be perplexing to say the least. And it happened here.

Suppose you're working at a hosiery mill. The machines stop, reverse, and needles become jammed with thread, gears break, socks become entangled.

That can be startling, and that happened here, too.

These and other nightmarish things occurred here Tuesday when machines turned on their operators because of a freak electric power disturbance. Telephone service also was interrupted, adding to the confusion. No one could find out what had gone wrong.

Workmen watched wide-eyed as power boilers spewed smoke and flame when forced drafts went backwards, blowing air through the furnaces instead of outward.

A Duke Power Co. spokesman said it was all caused by a phase reversal in a 44,000-volt line.

The disturbance, which occurred when equipment was being installed at a power company substation, affected only three-phase motors, and not the single-phase types used in household appliances.

The power company said the chances of such an occurrence are about one in a million.

Guerrillas Killed, Captured

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Government ground, air and sea forces have killed 40 Communist Viet Cong guerrillas and captured 60 more in a massive operation in mangrove swamps at the southern tip of Viet Nam, military sources reported today.

The operation began at dawn Wednesday in Ca Mau Province. It was reported still under way today.

Government casualties so far were not reported.

About 3,000 government troops were reported combing the mangrove swamps, supported by fighter planes and naval craft operating through the rivers and canals of the region near the coast.

The government forces captured a big Viet Cong ammunition dump Thursday after a 26-minute exchange with the guerrillas guard.

Six U.S. Marine helicopters ferried the ammunition back to a government-controlled area. It was the biggest haul of Viet Cong ammunition so far in the war against the Communist guerrillas.

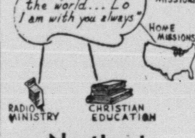

The operation was launched by 22 U.S. Marine helicopters and eight Vietnamese army helicopters which lifted a paratroop battalion into four villages at dawn Wednesday.

Judge Curbs Auto Mishaps

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—When Judge W. Blair Gibbons took over this beach city's traffic court last October, it didn't take him long to become concerned about rising traffic violations.

So, he sentenced a young woman speeder to four hours of watching wreck victims brought into a receiving hospital emergency ward. Made several young male speeders don jail uniforms and go forth to sweep streets of traffic accident debris. Showed 100 violators a color-sound police movie of traffic accidents that pictured the dead, the dying, the mangled—a truck driver burning alive.

During the show two women had to be treated for nausea and shock. "I want to reduce accidents, which have killed more Americans than wars, not to mention the pain, suffering and economic loss they bring," the judge said.

Judge Gibbons, 61, is a veteran of 33 years of legal practice. He gives violators a choice of a conventional sentence or a short odd one—like five days in jail or one day of sweeping. He cut $5 off the

Children Can Work, Build Muscle And Have Fun, At Same Time

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Parents deny our soft American youth, yet there are opportunities that aren't encouraged. Work around the house, for instance. The time to recognize this aptitude is not when youngsters are teenagers. A grade schooler begging for the chance to use tools employed by dad and mom is the ideal candidate for family helper.

One 7-year-old begged for a lawn mower for his birthday and was finally given one. The family reasoned it would be cheaper anyway than a toy he might select. And what an investment. The young worker now keeps about a quarter-acre of a lawn mowed. He was the envy of his birthday party guests—all of whom clamored for mowers when they got home.

The 7-year-old later requested hoes, rake and wheel barrow, and his family produced them at once. He has kept a vegetable garden so free of weeds that it looks

JUNIOR FARMER—This Connecticut lad is overjoyed at his good fortune in being elected to care for the family vegetable garden.

One can maintain this free labor which can breed responsibility as well as build muscle if one shows appreciation, but never criticizes. The idea is to keep the little fellow from learning that you have designs in his time.

The kids can be a great help indoors when they are permitted to work with suds, wax and vacuum cleaners—as many mothers have discovered. If one permits them to climb a step stool to do a chore, such as washing down walls and cupboards, results can be astonishing. They also like to polish—door knobs, barbeque hoods.

Many children enjoy getting into the bathtub and soap-paddling the bath ring. Some can do an adequate job of mopping the floor and many, given the chance, can do a thorough job of using vacuum cleaner or waxing machine. A little casual supervision may be necessary but often those bending chores that mother detests—moldings and base cabinet scrubbing—are sheer joy to eager small fry.

Grown-up cleaning equipment has great fascination for many children. Buy them their own tools and they'll be far ahead. Short-handled snow shovels, leaf rakes, lawn mowers, hoes and other equipment that makes tasks fun can give a small child a pride of ownership that you'd never suspect.

Those from Snyder were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Woolever, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bills and Darrell, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Floyd, Teddy and Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Riemisch, Jay, Joe and Julie, Mrs. Geraldine Steadman, Belinda Davis and Steve Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sterling, Connie, Don and Leigh, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Robinson, Paul Chris and Terry Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. ## In A Pickle For Hors D'oeuvres? This Is A Dilly

For summer entertaining, a hostess likes to have simple hors d'oeuvres that can be prepared ahead of time to eliminate that "last-minute rush" and still look party perfect when the guests arrive.

This recipe from Bond home economists combines two summer favorites—pickles and ham salad—to make colorful pink and green wheels. Cool and crisp, these ham-stuffed pickle rings are an attractive addition to any hors d'oeuvre tray.

HAM-STUFFED PICKLE RINGS
12 whole large dill or kosher dill pickles
1 cup ground ham
2 tablespoons mustard
1-3 cup mayonnaise

Core pickles. Blend center meat from pickles with ham, mustard, and mayonnaise. Stuff filling into pickles. Wrap in saran and chill. Remove from refrigerator, and cut into thick slices for hors d'oeuvres.

Kitchen arithmetic: a quart mold holds four cups.

A DAILY VIEW From me to you

And the Lord said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against me... and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, and whether they hear or refuse to hear... they will know that there has been a prophet among them.'"

Ezekiel 2: 3-5 (read chapter 2 and 3:1-11)

Hasn't this been our problem? We have been afraid to speak for the Lord. Too often we know the will of God for ourselves, our town, our nation; but we are afraid of what someone will say, or what they might do; and thus we remain silent, going along with the crowd. Probably something like this happened to Jesus. When the paid agitators began to shout for Barabbas and for Jesus' crucifixion, the crowds there probably were shocked, but were afraid to speak out for what they knew to be right.

God put the word of life in the mouth of Ezekiel and told him to preach it to matter what the consequences. This Ezekiel did. This we also must do.

Texans To Meet Raiders In Midland

MIDLAND—The Oakland Raiders, who bounced back from a 13-3 defeat by the Dallas Texans to beat the powerful Boston Patriots, 21-20, Saturday, will get a chance to avenge the Dallas defeat here tomorrow night.

Cotton Davidson came off the bench to fire two touchdown passes for the first decision, but apparently the Oaklanders found one offense to go with their tough defense in the game with the Patriots. Alan Miller scored a pair of touchdowns and Don Heinrich had a superb game at the Raider controls.

The Texans moved the ball well against Oakland at Atlanta, but whenever they got close the Raiders would rise. Finally Davidson came on and passed to Frank Jackson and Henry Cambridge made the difference.

The contest will be broadcast for Dallas listeners over Station WRR with Charley Jones on the side. A crowd very close to the Midland Stadium capacity is anticipated.

Dallas played Denver in Midland last year, winning handily and earning the Most Valuable Player trophy for Abner Hayes.

Twins Nudge Yankees, 9-8

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Big Frank Sullivan got credit for his third victory without a loss Thursday when Minnesota's Bernie Allen looped a one-out single to left field in the 10th inning, driving in the run that beat the New York Yankees 9-8.

It was Sullivan's third appearance against the Yankees this season and they haven't got a hit off him yet. He's credited with one victory and two saves against the World Champions.

Chicago beat Cleveland again, 11-4, and Kansas City won its 13th straight over Washington, 4-2, in the only other American League games scheduled.

In the National League, leading Los Angeles widened its margin to 2½ games with a 7-3 victory over Pittsburgh while second-place San Francisco lost to Chicago 6-0. Cincinnati trounced Milwaukee 7-1 and St. Louis edged Houston 3-1. Philadelphia and the New York Mets were not scheduled.

The Twins' victory over New York trimmed the Yankees' leading margin to 5½ games over idle, second-place Los Angeles. The third-place Twins, who were in danger of falling hopelessly behind, now trail by 6½.

Sullivan, who is 6 feet 7, picked up from the Philadelphia Phillies has to rank as one of the big reasons the Twins are still close. He's either won or saved the game the last three times Minnesota beat the Yankees.

One came in relief of Dick Stigman in the Twins' 5-4 triumph Aug. 6. One was in relief of Ray Moore in Minnesota's 6-1 verdict Monday. Then there was Thursday's victory. All were no-hit relief jobs.

The Yankees, trailing 7-4 going into the ninth, appeared to be on the verge of pulling it out in typical Yankee fashion before Sullivan and a couple of first-year men, Rich Rollins and Allen, won it for the Twins.

Down by three with two out in the ninth, New York's Bobby Richardson lifted a grand slam homer just as Sullivan left the field on fouls that might cause a tie. That gave the Yankees an 8-7 lead.

Minnesota, however, came back to tie it in the Twin half of the inning with Rollins' single driving in the equalizer. Sullivan blanked the Yankees in the 10th. Then in the bottom of the inning Allen's soft single, his fourth hit of the game, brought in Bob Allison with the winning run. Allison had walked and moved up on a sacrifice.

The loss was tagged on Marshall Bridges, his first of the season against six victories. Clete

Boyer had his 15th homer of the season for the Yanks and Allison his 18th for the Twins.

At Cleveland, the White Sox pounced on the stricken Indians for seven runs in the first inning and coasted in.

The big burst made it easy for Eddie Fisher (5-4), who gave up 12 hits including ninth inning home runs by Jerry Kindall and Ty Cline. Jim (Mudcat) Grant lost it.

Ed Radow (11-13) limited Washington to four hits but had some control trouble as the A's pushed their record against the Senators to 15-3. The A's broke a 2-2 tie in the fifth on Ed Charles' triple and Jerry Lampe's double. George Alusik's single drove in another for insurance.

Officials To Converge On Fort Worth

FORT WORTH (AP)—The Southwest Football Officials Association will hold its annual meeting here Aug. 25-26 with rules interpretation by Abe Martin, Texas Christian coach who is a member of the national rules committee.

There will be 250 of the 2,188 members of the association on hand. Napper Davis of McAllen is president.

The main discussion will involve a demand from the NCAA Rules Committee for tightening the association, said the officials on fouls that might cause injuries, such as piling on, clipping and using the arms on offense.

Howard Grubbs, secretary of both the Southwest Conference and the association, said the officials will be urged to be stricter than ever before in enforcing these rules.

Draft Helps Denver Club

DALLAS (AP)—The equalization draft of the American Football League wound up Thursday with Denver coming off best—in fact, the Broncos appeared to have been the only club to profit materially.

The draft was designed primarily to help the lowest ranking clubs on fouls that might cause injuries, such as piling on, clipping and using the arms on offense.

Stagg Leaves Hospital Bed; Attends Birthday Celebration

By HAROLD V. STREETER
STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Century-old Amos Alonzo Stagg's strength is fading, but he still has all his courage.

The man who for 70 years coached thousands of college boys emerged from hospital confinement Thursday night to appear at one of the 12 parties held across the nation in honor of his 100th birthday Thursday.

Stagg, who was born before football was played in the United States, started coaching it in 1890 and quit reluctantly at 98, two years ago, is but a shadow of himself. Cataracts over both eyes have nearly blinded him. His once proudly erect body is stooped. His mind is alert at times; again it wanders.

But he knew, from the influx of old friends and former players, from the telegrams read to him by his 87-year-old wife — from President Kennedy, from Herbert Hoover, from Richard M. Nixon — that big things were stirring.

Nurses at his convalescent hospital, where he has been confined since February, had feared even the short trip downtown to the Civic Auditorium by car might be too much for him.

Shortly after 8 o'clock there was a hush, a gasp and then a bedlam of handclapping and cheers among the 370 birthday celebrants, including California's Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

But he knew, from the influx of old friends and former players, from the telegrams read to him by his 87-year-old wife — from President Kennedy, from Herbert Hoover, from Richard M. Nixon — that big things were stirring.

Pro Doubleheader Set In Cleveland

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Welcome home Bill Plum and the Cleveland Browns.

That was a popular slogan for the past four years at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium when the Browns made their first appearance each season. Now it best symbolizes professional football's first doubleheader in history for it will take two games at one field if the Browns' fans want to watch their favorite whipping boy.

Plum is now quarterback of the Detroit Lions, who play the Dallas Cowboys in the opener of the twin-bill Saturday night. Then his old teammates take over in the second game of the National Football League exhibition card against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The unique doubleheader is the highlight of a solid weekend of NFL exhibitions. Three are scheduled in the American Football League. In the NFL, the Los Angeles Rams meet the Minnesota Vikings in Portland, Ore., the champion Green Bay Packers play the St. Louis Cardinals in Jacksonville, Fla., and the Chicago Bears and Philadelphia Eagles meet in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

On Sunday, the New York Giants begin a two-game West-Coast tour in San Francisco against the 49ers.

Baltimore won its second straight game Thursday night, whipping the Redskins 34-14 in Washington.

San Diego, which has never lost an AFL exhibition, is at home to the Denver Broncos, the Boston Patriots play Houston at New Orleans in that city's test of whether or not it can support professional football and the Oakland Raiders and Dallas Texans meet in Midland, Tex., all on Saturday night.

Two-day workouts are scheduled to get underway Monday morning.

Twins Nudge Yankees, 9-8

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Big Frank Sullivan got credit for his third victory without a loss Thursday when Minnesota's Bernie Allen looped a one-out single to left field in the 10th inning, driving in the run that beat the New York Yankees 9-8.

It was Sullivan's third appearance against the Yankees this season and they haven't got a hit off him yet. He's credited with one victory and two saves against the World Champions.

Chicago beat Cleveland again, 11-4, and Kansas City won its 13th straight over Washington, 4-2, in the only other American League games scheduled.

In the National League, leading Los Angeles widened its margin to 2½ games with a 7-3 victory over Pittsburgh while second-place San Francisco lost to Chicago 6-0. Cincinnati trounced Milwaukee 7-1 and St. Louis edged Houston 3-1. Philadelphia and the New York Mets were not scheduled.

The Twins' victory over New York trimmed the Yankees' leading margin to 5½ games over idle, second-place Los Angeles. The third-place Twins, who were in danger of falling hopelessly behind, now trail by 6½.

Sullivan, who is 6 feet 7, picked up from the Philadelphia Phillies has to rank as one of the big reasons the Twins are still close. He's either won or saved the game the last three times Minnesota beat the Yankees.

One came in relief of Dick Stigman in the Twins' 5-4 triumph Aug. 6. One was in relief of Ray Moore in Minnesota's 6-1 verdict Monday. Then there was Thursday's victory. All were no-hit relief jobs.

The Yankees, trailing 7-4 going into the ninth, appeared to be on the verge of pulling it out in typical Yankee fashion before Sullivan and a couple of first-year men, Rich Rollins and Allen, won it for the Twins.

Down by three with two out in the ninth, New York's Bobby Richardson lifted a grand slam homer just as Sullivan left the field on fouls that might cause a tie. That gave the Yankees an 8-7 lead.

Minnesota, however, came back to tie it in the Twin half of the inning with Rollins' single driving in the equalizer. Sullivan blanked the Yankees in the 10th. Then in the bottom of the inning Allen's soft single, his fourth hit of the game, brought in Bob Allison with the winning run. Allison had walked and moved up on a sacrifice.

The loss was tagged on Marshall Bridges, his first of the season against six victories. Clete

Indians Back On Warpath

By The Associated Press
League-leading Indianapolis got back in the American Association win column Thursday night.

Right-hander Al Worthington checked the Omaha Dodgers on five hits for a 7-2 decision. Louisville Omaha beat the Indians two straight after Indianapolis had won 21 of 29 games.

Jerry Casale limited Oklahoma City to six hits as Denver defeated 4-0 to shutout Louisville. The outcome at Omaha dropped the Dodgers 9½ games behind Indianapolis.

Fred Orth hit a two-run homer for Louisville and limited Dallas-Fort Worth to four hits. He also brought in a run with a squeeze bunt in the ninth inning.

Denver peppered away at George Witt and finally kayoed him in the eighth. Glenn Nelson homered for the Bears in the fourth inning.

All One Gives to God

COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

HOW MUCH

— Am I Really Worth? Exactly what do I weigh? Am I heavier than my money, or, is it getting the best of me? The all-important question is — when God puts me on the balances — will the weight hand deceive Him? If all a man has to offer the world is his body created in God's image — his chemical composition — his dead weight... then that man is of little value to himself, to humanity, to God. Mister, don't try to analyze your worth by pointing to the pile of silver you control. No one grows bigger when he says "no" to the varied opportunities he has to serve God. Far better to say, "silver and gold have I none," if I am given to serving God, helping the lost to find their way to a place of worship... to His church.

So They May See == Psalm 91 == So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
