NNELLEE WILL REOPEN ON SUNDAY

KARL HOBLITZELLE

President of the Interstate Circuit and Texas Consolidated Theatres, Inc., operators of the Connellee Theatre, opening Sunday, Aug. 18.

SUCCESSFUL SHOWMEN HEAD COMPANY WHICH OPERATES THE CONNELLEE THEATRE

Head of businesses by successful men has long been known to all divisions of commerce as a guarantee of successful operations.

Likewise, success has come to the Texas Consolidated Theatres because of its operation by men of long experience in the show business.

Outstanding men of the company, which have operated the Lyric and will operate the Connellee theatre, are known widely as those whose foresight and methods are outstanding in the southwest.

Karl Hoblitzelle, president of Texas Consolidated Theatres, is one of the most experienced theatre men in Texas and southwest theatre business. Mr. Hoblitzelle, known also for his connection with the Interstate Theatre Circuit, brought variety entertainment in past years to Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio, which had been denied them for a long period of time.

Mr. Hoblitzelle, although his major time and industry is required by his many duties as president of Texas Consolidated Theatres, occupied for many years responsible positions in public and civic organizations.

Currently he is devoting time energy in Texas' great centennial, being a member of one of the important committees.

Dallas' anad Fort Worth's dream of being on waterways with the Gulf coast is finding him as an ardent worker.

Mr. Hoblitzelle, as other heads of the Texas Consolidated Theatres, resides and maintains headquarters in Dallas.

R. J. O'Donnell, general manager of Texas Consolidated Theatres, is known as one of the "ace" showmen of the Southwest.

Possessive of ability desired by men of all businesses, he is known to be able to predict desires of the public in their theatrical entertainment.

Mr. O'Donnell is known as a "feeler of public opinion," knowing what Mr. and Mrs. Jones want to see in their film entertainment and uses their ideas for guidance of the Texas Consolidated Theatres.

Grover S. Campbell, district manager of Texas Consolidated Theatres, who perhaps has closer contact with the people of this section than any of the Dallas officials, is well known in Eastland.

Mr. Campbell formerly operated the Connellee here. He also operated a theatre in Ranger.

To Mr. Campbell's personality and connection with the company is attributed much of its success.

John A. Burke, city manager for the company, is known in channels of public and civic endeavor as well as his connection with the Connellee.

Coming to Eastland from Abilene six years ago, Mr. Burke is known as one of the most public-spirited of the Eastland citizenry.

Eastland's favorite sport, football, finds a champion in Mr. Burke. In the fall months he is found serving on committees of the Lions club, of which he is president, endeavoring to secure rides for football boys and pep squad girls.

Mr. Burke is active in Chamber of Commerce work. Last year he was one of the heads of the commerce committee which solicited ads for the successful fair catalog.

Mr. Burke has been with the Texas Consolidated Theatres for 10 years. His experience was acquired at Abilene, Temple and Paris.

OPENING TO USHER IN NEW ERA FOR FAMOUS SHOWHOUSE WHICH IS LARGEST IN COUNTY

Latest and Best Films Booked to Play First Week

Headline amusement news to showgoers of this section will be opening of the Connellee Theatre Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p. m.

The famous and historic showhouse this time is opening under the direction of the Texas Consolidated Theatres, known over theatrical circles over the nation for its efficient and public catering policies.

A new era comes with the opening of the Connellee Sunday, it is the conviction of Eastland business men and observers of theatrical enterprises in this section.

Texas Consolidated Theatre's opening of the Connellee, which will afford more spacious and comfortable quarters for the exhibition of current film releases, is being lauded by all Eastland business enterprises.

Opening film attraction is "Don't Bet On Blondes," one of Warner Brothers latest successes. Featured in the initial production for the Connellee are Warren William and Claire Dodd, Vince Barnett, Hobart Cavanaugh, William Gargan and Guy Kibbee. The picture will play Sunday only.

Entertainment values register high in this picture, John A. Burke city manager for Texas Consolidated Theatres, states in choosing "Don't Bet on Blondes" as the Connellee opening picture.

The picture is believed the comedy treat of the season. All the elements that make for the perfect screen entertainment will be seen by the showgoer.

Care was exercised in selecting "Don't Bet On Blondes" was also used in choosing a balanced number of short subjects. Programmed as shorts on the Connellee bill Sunday are "Strings and Strings," a musical revue with Hal Le Roy, popular star of stage and screen in "Main Street Follies," and Paramount News.

Schedule of prices for the Connellee has been set at 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. The Texas Consolidated Theatres point out that the scale is a bargain for theatre goers as they will be able to see the latest releases in as comfortable and spacious a theatre as any.

Second attraction at the Connellee for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is "Every Night at Eight" starring George Raft and the popular radio-screen actress and singer, Alice Faye.

The picture is a pre-release.

The Paramount picture, which features Patsy Kelly, Frances Langford and a bevy of radio entertainers, has six song hits. Song hits which will be heard long after the picture plays Eastland are "I'm In the Mood For Love," "Take It Easy," and "Speaking Confidentially."

The picture is based upon a demand of the most desired entertainment of theatre goers and radio listeners, "The Radio Amateur Hour."

Also popular in this star-studded opus besides George Raft and Alice Faye is patsy Kelly, popular comedian of many recent short subjects.

On Thursday only, the Connellee will play "The Secret Bride," starring Barbara Stanwyck. Warner Brothers are the producers of this success destined film.

Warren William, who will play in the picture, will be remembered by Connellee Theatre goers Thursday for his performance in the theatre's reopening feature, 'Don't Bet On Blondes."

Others to be seen in "The Secret Bride" are Glenda Farrell, Grant Mitchell, Arthur Byron, Henry O'Neill, Douglas Dumbrille, Arthur Aylesworth, Willard Robertson and William Davidson.

Friday and Saturday's attraction will be the long awaited annual laugh riot of Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, in "Bonnie Scotland."

Mr. Burke, city manager for Texas Consolidated Theatres, points out that in policy with former managements of the Connellee, reservation will be made to accomodate the colored population of this section in the Connellee's balcony.

Prices for the balcony will be 25 cents.

HISTORIC SHOWHOUSE TO REOPEN ON SUNDAY

The Connellee Theatre, originally opened in 1918, will reopen under direction of Texas Consolidated Theatres Sunday. When opened in 1918 the theatre was the largest between Fort Worth and El Paso. Stage and screen stars of note have appeared at this theatre, now the largest in the county. Remembered as playing the Connellee is Raymnod Hitchcock, famous stage star, and many other luminaries. The Connellee again opens its doors—to an era as great and greater as the historic past on Sunday. It was built by the late C. U. Connellee, founder of Eastland.

R. J. O'DONNELL

General manager of the Interstate Circuit and Texas Consolidated Theatres, Inc., new operators of the Connellee Theatre, which is to re-open on Sunday, Aug. 18.

SOUND EXPERTS IMPROVE SOUND OF CONNELLEE

"See" and "hear" are two very vital words in the theatre business. For the success of aany theatre, one factor even more important than the film itself is that the projection and sound equipment must be mechanically perfect.

For the past two weeks sound engineers under the supervision of Mr. E. G. Zrenner, chief sound engineer of the Texas Consolidated Theatres, have been testing and adjusting the Connellee sound and projection equipment in preparation for the opening of this theatre Sunday, Aug. 18. Everything possible is being done to bring this equipment up to the highest degree in efficiency. Many changes have been made to improve the tone quality and with the completion of this work, the Connellee should rank as one of the best sound theatres in this section.

This equipment will be operated by skilled projectionists and theatre patrons can be assured that they can enjoy in this theatre the relaxation necessary to the complete enjoyment of the screen programs, as they will not have to be under a mental strain due to distorted sound or faulty projection.

WARREN WILLIAM MOURNS PASSING OF CANE CARRIERS

"Carrying a cane is rapidly becoming a lost art."

This from Warren William, the nonchalant hero of "Don't Bet on Blondes," which comes to the Connellee theatre on Sunday.

The Warner Bros. star still regards the walking stick as part of his character make-up.

"For many years, the kind of cane and the manner in which a man carried it were unfailing marks of character and position," he said.

"The man of affairs would stride along, striking the walk with a heavy malacca. The dandy swung a split bamboo. The dignified old gentlemen tucked gold headed teak under their arms."

In "Don't Bet on Blondes," the Warner Bros. comedy, Warren William plays a gambler who becomes a business man. His devil may care manner of flicking a showy malacca is definitely an index to his character.

Showgoers Will See Unusul Set Of Short Subjects

On the opening week's programs at the Connellee theatre exceptional short features surround every feature attraction. On the opening program with the feature picture, "Don't Bet on Blondes," there is booked "Main Street Follies," starring Hal Leroy. This is a two-reel musical short, full of entertainment with several dance numbers by Leroy, who has become known to Hollywood as one of the leading tap dancers of the screen. Also on this same program is a Paramount musical variety, "Strains and Strains," and the latest news events in the Paramount news reel.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with the feature, "Every Night at Eight," El Brendel in "Radio Scout" and "Coo Coo News," complete the program. "Radio Scout" is a hilariously funny two-reel comedy starring Brendel, who is well known as a screen comedian for his work in many feature length pictures. "Coo Coo News" is a very amusing subject and will furnish many laughs.

On Thursday only with the feature, "Secret Bride," the following shorts will be shown: Shemp Howard in "Smoked Hams" and Paramount News. "Smoked Hams" is a Vitagraph two-reel comedy and this popular Broadway comedian in the starring role, and is a 20-minute laugh riot. The latest news events will be seen on this program in the Paramount News.

On Friday and Saturday with the feature, "Bonnie Scotland," a most exceptional musical short will be shown. Richard Himber and his orchestra in "Magic of Music" will bring to the screen this popular radio band in a screen act that will be most pleasing.

Colored Citizens to See Films Again as the Connellee Opens

Opening of the Connellee theatre will mean resumption of entertainment for colored citizens of this section, it is pointed out by the management of the showhouse.

From the balcony of the theatre, pictures may be viewed with the same clarity as offered patrons in the lower auditorium.

Prices of 25 and 10 cents in the balcony will prevail for colored citizens.

Acoustics in the balcony are as good as that in the lower section of the theatre. Seats will prove comfortable. The treated air in the summer time reaches to every recess in the higher sections, it is poined out.

EASTLAND MERCHANTS JOIN IN CELEBRATING OPEN

THREE FILM FUN MAKERS

Claire Dodd, Warren William and Vince Barnett who are among the six "laff" stars appearing in Warner Bros. Comedy of big business and rackets, "Don't Bet on Blondes," at the Connellee Theatre. The others are Guy Kibbee, William Gargan and Hobart Cavanaugh.

Connellee Books New Warner Hit

Laughter and drama, combined with a real love story, characterize the new Warner Bros. comedy "Don't Bet on Blondes" which will be the feature production at the Connellee theatre Sunday.

Warren William, for the first time cast in a light comedy role, and Guy Kibbee, have the principal parts. They are supported by a big cast of film favorites which includes Clare Dodd, William Gargan, Vince Barnett and Hobart Cavanaugh.

"Don't Bet on Blondes" is the story of a big time gambler, Warren William, who discovers that the insurance business not only offers all the thrills of his old profession, but is entirely respectable. So he opens a miniature "Lloyd's," and undertakes to write insurance on or against anything presented to him.

One of his customers is Guy Kibbee, portraying a lovable, but worthless, old scamp who is supported by his daughter, Claire Dodd. Guy insures her against marriage for $50,000, and William, to protect his investment, adopts racketeer methods to scare off her suitors.

How he failed to frighten one of them away, and how he was compelled to pay $50,000 to his father-in-law, form but a few of the many strange and laughable situations which feature the plot of the story.

Claire Dodd, heretofore a screen menace, is said to reveal new and delightful talents in a sympathetic "good woman" role. Others in the cast are Mary Treen, Spencer Charters, Herman Bing, Clay Clement, Errol Flynn, Maude Eburne, Walter Byron, Jack Normton and Eddie Shubert.

Robert Florey directed.

SUCCESS AT LAST

Success comes at last to George Raft, Alice Faye, Frances Langford, Patsy Kelly in this scene from Walter Wanger's Paramount romantic musical comedy "Every Night At Eight" at the Connellee Theatre. The film is the first to glorify the amateur radio hour. Showing Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Stanwyck Stars In Thrilling Play at Connellee Thur.

Barbara Stanwyck comes to the Connellee Sunday in her latest Warner Bros. production, "The Secret Bride," which is said to be the most powerful and dynamic picture in which she has yet appeared.

Musicomedy Glorifies Radio's Singing Trios

The Boswell Sisters, the Brox Sisters, the Pickens Sisters and many other trios of girl singers have attained popularity on the air waves, the stage and on the screen.

The careers, adventures and love affairs of three world famous, singing sisters have been glorified in Walter Wanger's Paramount picture, "Every Night at Eight," at the Connellee Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The story of "Every Night at Eight" centers around three girls, Alice Faye, Frances Langford and Patsy Kelly, switchboard operator, stenographer and bottle packer respectively in a mint julep factory. They have convinced themselves that as a harmony singing trio they are better than the Boswell Sisters. Having lost their jobs they enter an amateur radio contest hoping to win a prize. However George Raft, leader of an amateur orchestra wins the prize, but takes them under his wing after he hears them sing. Under Raft's direction the three girls climb to the top of fame's ladder as radio stars known the world over as the Swance Sisters.

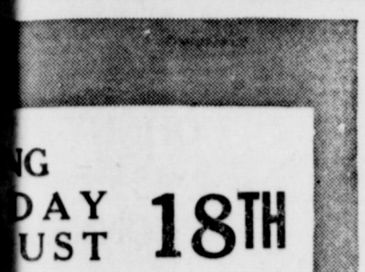

Romance, comedy, music and plenty of it are all rolled into this exciting, up-to-the-minute musical production. "Every Night at Eight" is the first picture to dramatize an amateur radio hour on the screen. It is one of the hilarious sequences of the film, with Walter Catlett and the Radio Rogues contributing to the comedy in this scene. Raoul Walsh directed. Dorothy Fields, James McHugh, and Ted Rio Rito wrote the music.

STAFF OF THE CONNELLEE THEATRE

LYRIC 'FAMILY' WILL WORK AT THE CONNELLEE

The Connellee theatre affords employment to seven local residents, all of whom are known by past connection with the Lyric.

Heading the group is John A. Burke, manager, who dates his Eastland residence back to six years ago when he came from Abilene.

Two projectionists are employed at the theatre. They are the ones whose operations are directly responsible for the high standard of exhibition of pictures.

The operators, Kenneth Koford and J. H. Davis, have union affiliations.

Mr. Davis came to Eastland from Abilene and is known as a capable, efficient projectionist.

Mr. Koford dates his residence to two months ago when he came from Breckenridge. Mr. Koford, as well as Mr. Davis, is known as a capable projectionist, keeping abreast of latest improvements which are of benefit to showgoers in their visualization of film productions.

Jack Cliatt, assistant manager, has been employed for several years at the Lyric. Equally at home in the projection booth, where he was operator, Mr. Cliatt is claimed a "trouble shooter" both for front office and inside jobs.

Cashiers are Mrs. Homer Norton and Miss Myrl Self. Miss Self dates her employment with the Lyric for several years. Mrs. Norton has been employed several months.

Walker Germany, doorman, who will greet patrons upon entering the Connellee, has resided in Eastland since last year when he moved from Gainesville.

Max Robinson is also doorman, assisting Walker Germany. Robinson has lived in Eastland several years, coming from Coleman.

Maintenance man is Lloyd Almire, who has been responsible for the upkeep of the Lyric and will continue in the same position at the Connellee.

Wets Have the Liquir; Drys Have The Law and Bootleggers Have The Business Is Vote Attitude

By GORDON W. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Aug. 13.—Nothing will produce as much silence in the state capitol as an attempt to discuss the outcome of the Aug. 24 election on prohibition repeal.

Politicians are so doubtful of the result that they will not give opinions except "off the record." "My district will be dry," or "The wets seem to be ahead in my district," are the strongest expressions heard.

There appears to be something more than a mere anecdote to the answer most frequently heard to prohibition queries:

"The wets have the liquor; the drys have the law; the bootleggers have the business and the drinkers are getting cheap drinks, so nobody's enthusiastic about a change."

Accurate figures are lacking as to the number of voters who can participate in the election if they are interested in it. This is a light-voting year. All odd numbered years are, because the general elections and the state elections to choose officials are held in even numbered years. Poll tax payments are heavier for those years.

Best reports indicate that there are about three-fourths as many persons qualified to vote this year as could have voted last year. Poll tax receipts total $736,280. With few exceptions the poll tax is $1, so there are approximately 736,280 entitled to vote as poll tax payers.

The 736,280 does not include those who are entitled to vote on exemptions. In communities of 10,00 or more, exemption certificates must be taken out. Using the same ratio for this year that prevailed last year between paid poll taxes and exemptions, the voting strength would be raised to 754,867. Available figures therefore place the comparative voting strengths of this year and last at 754,687 and 1,108,086 respectively.

However, those figures are not strictly accurate. Both fail to include the large number of persons in small communities and in rural sections who can vote on exemptions without taking out exemption certificates.

Equally indefinite is the number of persons who will be affected by the proposed constitutional amendment to permit old age pensions. The amendment limits it to those over 65.

When the question of old age pensions was before congress actuaries made estimates based on various ages. According to those estimates 5.4 per cent of the total population in 1930 was over 65; 6.3 will be, in 1940; 7.7 per cent in 1950 and 12.7 per cent in the year 2000 A. D.

Decreasing birth rates, increased longevity and the prospect of still greater longevity with care for the aged, account for the growing percentage.

If the exact number of persons over 65 were known for any given time, it would still be a matter of speculation as to how many could receive pensions until the legislature adopts regulations.

The decedent was walking the pipe line on his regular rounds, when he was first reported missing. He was due to spend the night of July 17 at a farmhouse, but never arrived. A searching party was started and tracks were found where he had crossed the Clear Fork in one of the two places the pipe line crossed the river.

The body was located, according to reports, by Two World war veterans, who were fishing on the river Friday They notices a scent and one remarked that he knew it was of a human body, because he would never forget the scent from his experiences overseas. An investigation revealed that he was right, and the partly decomposed body was found.

The body was still in a fair state of preservation, considering the time it had been in the water and exposed to the air. The shirt and trousers were almost intact, with a pencil still in the shirt pocket, his watch and money in his trousers pockets and the snake bite remedy he always carried with him, intact. Only his hat, which was found shortly after he was first missed, was missing from the body.

The body was found lying on its back, about eight feet from the water, where it had apparently been washed during the high water. It was estimated that it washed about 100 to 125 miles down the stream, which meanders through Young and Palo Pinto counties to the spot where the body was found.

Surviving relatives include his wife, Mrs. Nellie Ashcraft, two small children,; his grandmother, Mrs. Anner McCrary of Flomot; one sister, Mrs. Ollie Tanner of Flomot; one half-isister, Miss Bessie Ashcraft of Moran; his stepmother, Mrs. Nannie Wohlford of Moran, and two step-brothers, Willie Thomas of Wink and George O'Bryant of Ranger. H. E. Driscoll, Former County Relief Administrator, Moved to Plainview As District Administrator in Setup

Relief in Eastland County had the same beginning as any other county in Texas. Lots of confusion not due to mismanagement, but just in the strugge to find out what it was all about, naturally changes were in order until such time as efficiency and developments were made and men were fond who could handle the real job of relief administration either direct or work according to the set-up of the State and National government.

On February 11, 1934, H. E. Driscoll was sent to Eastland to act as county administrator. He came from the San Antonio relief office of Bexar county, where he first served as paymaster of relief and later as assistant chief auditor After arriving in Eastland Dr. Driscoll's first job was to perfect an organization, throughout the county. This he did with the cooperation of the county board and the citizens of the different communities.

Mr. Driscoll has had 173 projects confirmed during his administration. He has spent in the county under his jurisdiction for direct and work relief $1,044,315.-01. He has had an average of 21 employes under his direct supervision. He has been in close contact and touch without every city and hemlet in the county as to their needs and requirements. He has been fair and unbiased as well as constructive in his recommendations to the state and national relief headquarters. He has been courteous and considerate of all cases presented to him whether direct or work relief and projects. He has an outstanding record of being always recognized by the state and national headquarters as one of the most efficient administrators in the service. He has built up an organization second to none in the state for efficiency and economy of relief operations.

The question of dividing the state into districts was of national demand. Fortunately for the state relief set-up and the new counties that he will serve Mr. Driscoll has been retained in th service. His official capacity as County Relief Administrator of Eastland county terminated Thursday afternoon. He will assume active charge of District No. 17-A Saturday, August 10, as district administrator of counties consisting of Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Motley, Foyd, Castro, Parmer and Hale, with headquarters in Plainview, county seat of Hale county.

Mr. Driscoll states, "I have never in all my life enjoyed working in any community and with the citizenship as I have during my administration in the direct and work relief service in Eastland county. I am deeply and sincerely grateful for the fine spirit of friendship, and cooperation extended to me by the county board, Messrs Earl Conner of Eastland, chairman; Frank Kirk, oil operator of Gorman; Frank Robertson, insurance, Rising Star; E. L. Yarbrough, pharmacist of Carbon, County Judge Clyde Garrett and the county commissioners, the city commissioners of all cities and the county and home demonstration agent. These citizens have given me their undivided support and personal service at all and any time that they were called upon. Their advisory capacity was valuable to me in the proper administration of relief activities. The citizens of all communities located in every direction of Eastland county were especially considerate and helpfu to me. Those who were on relief were reasonable and in almost every instance cooperated with me in every respect. I am also grateful for every consideration and help extended to me by the civic organizations of all cities such as the Lions club, Rotary club, Chamber of Commerces, as well as the church organizations. The business interests of all communities in Eastland county will aways have a special place in my heart for their superior support and advice. The employes of my entire organization have always been loyal and always were on the job whenever duty called them. I deeply regret leaving, and in making new contacts and friends in my new environments I shall always remember Eastland county and its citizens as a happy medium of contacts."

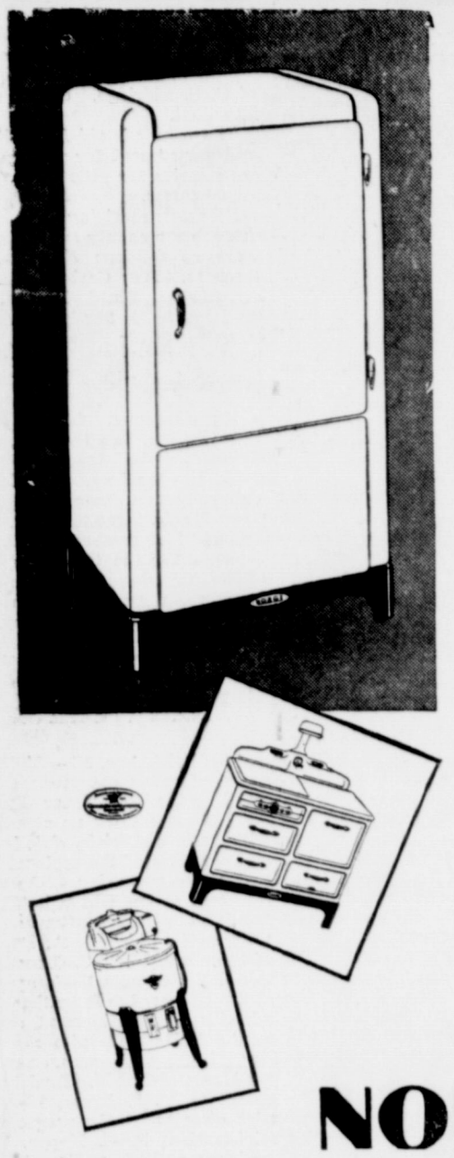

Mr. Driscoll states that the new district administrator with headquarters at Abilene Mr. R. C. Conley, will assume active charge of the Eastland relief organization Friday. E. W. Mayer who has been in the accounting department of Eastland will go to the Abilene office in the certifying office. Miss Estelle Smith, who has been secretary to Mr. Driscoll, will go to Abilene to be secretary to J. D. Wells, district case worker supervisor. Twenty-one now in escrow wi to the works progr tion at Abilene, t Winfield S. James, or, W. P. A.

OLD-FASHIONED SIMPLICITY

TELEPHONE SERVICE in this country is modern. It leads the world. Yet there is an old-fashioned simplicity about the Bell System. This applies to capital structure and financial methods as well as to the nation-wide plan of decentralized operation under centralized control.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company has only one class of stock and that stock is not watered.

It has 675,000 stockholders living in every corner of the land. Their average holding is twenty-eight shares. No individual or organization owns as much as one per cent of the stock. There are no secret reserves or hidden assets.

This structure is not of recent origin, but dates back many years to the early days of the telephone. It has lived on because it is right and in the best interest of the public. It has been fundamental in making the Bell System a distinctive American business.

★ ★ ★

In the Bell System, the American Telephone & Telegraph Company is the parent company, and operates the long distance lines connecting the 24 regional Bell companies. Bell Laboratories carries on the research work; Western Electric manufactures, purchases, and distributes.

Without this specialized organization back of the men and women of the Southwestern Bell, telephone service might be possible. But it could not be service as uniformly good, as quietly accurate, as far reaching, and as inexpensive as the service you know today.

And that's why the tobaccos in Chesterfield are carefully balanced one against the other . . . not too much of one — not too little of another.

We take the right amounts of the right kinds of four types of tobacco — Bright, Burley, Maryland and Turkish.

It is this balancing of tobaccos that makes Chesterfields milder and makes them taste better.

Water Cut Offer Is Not Effective Until September

Misunderstanding of the city's water bill discount offer of 15 per cent if paid before or on the 10th of each month has arisen, City Clerk Kelly stated Saturday.

The discount does not apply to July bills which are payable this month, stated Kelly, but will go into effect in September on August billings.

Many water consumers were at the city hall wanting to take advantage of the discount for July bills, Kelly said.

TWO-TREAD, AIR-COOLED Tires Never Wear SMOOTH

When you put two-tread, Air-Cooled tires on your car, it's just like getting a new set of tires free. Air cooled tires will give you practically twice the safe mileage delivered by the ordinary tire.

When the first tractive tread wears off, a new tread design actually wears on—your tires take a new lease on life with a second sharp tread design ready for thousands of additional miles.

Get the very latest in the way of tires—double your safe mileage at half the cost with the new Seiberling Air-Cooled tire.

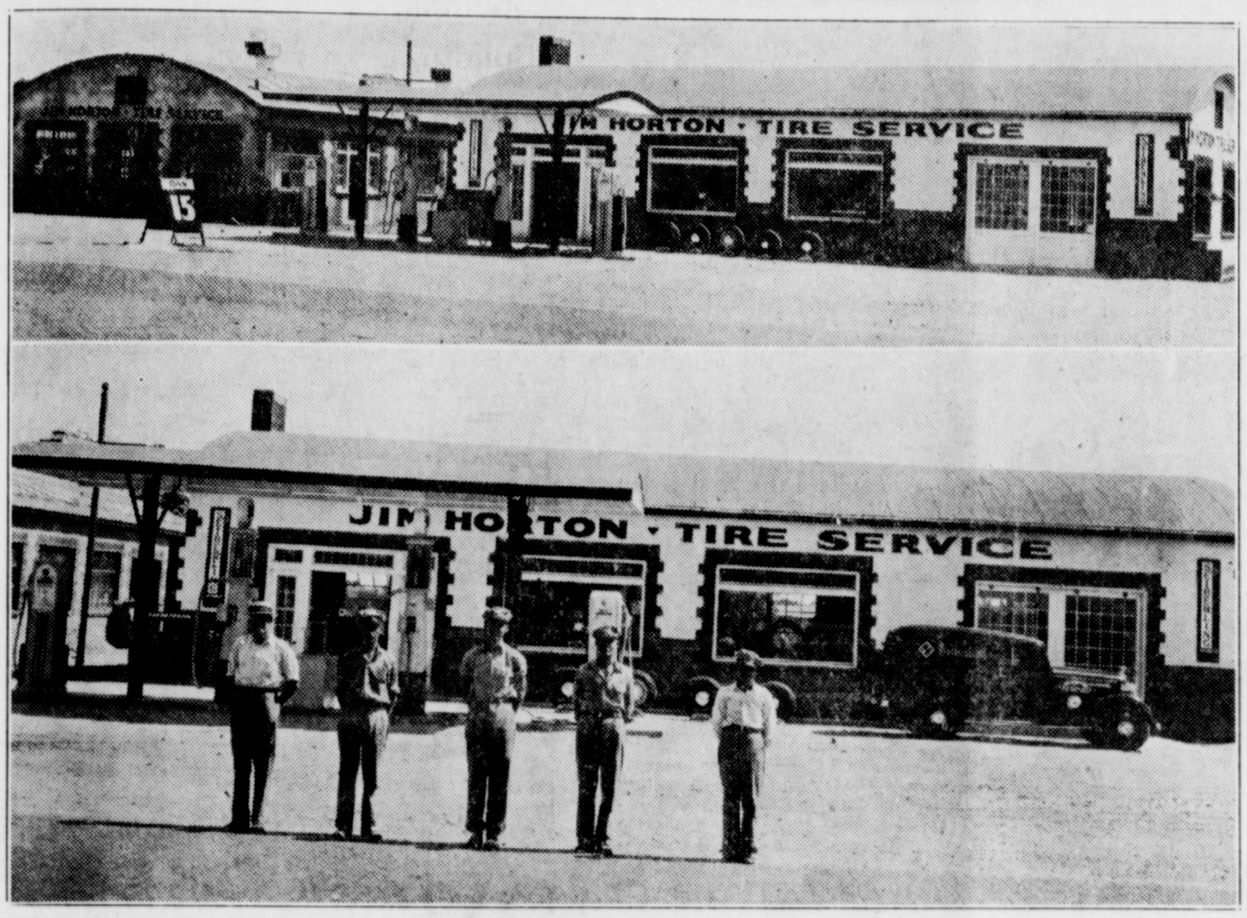

AIR-COOLED TWO-TREADS

The patented holes which carry off destructive heat generated internally in all tires have another important function. As the first tread wears off the holes become grooves forming the second anti-skid tread.

MORTON VALLEY RESIDENTS ASKED TO ATTEND FAIR AT GOOD WILL PROGRAM MONDAY

Invitation to attend the Eastland County Fair to be held at Eastland Sept. 25-28 was given approximately 250 residents of Morton Valley in the auditorium of their school opened early this year at a good will program by Eastland merchants Monday evening.

The program, largest attended of any yet presented by Eastland merchants in the series to extend to 12 communities, was arranged by T. E. Richardson and A. E. Herring.

Invitation to attend the annual event and stress of need of cooperation of the Morton Valley community was given in talks by C. Metz Heald, county agent, and H. C. Davis, secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

Importance of sending a good community exhibit to the fair was emphasized by County Agent Heald.

"The county fair is the show window of the county and reflects its activity," Heald stated. Likewise, Heald stated, the community booth is its show window.

"I've been watching the fair for the past five or six years," stated County Agent Heald who early this year transferred to Eastland county, "and had the pleasure of judging." The speaker praised the annual event and stated it was one of the outstanding in the state, different and individual.

Additional reason for unusual exhibits this year is the Texas Centennial next year when Texas will show its products to visitors over the country, the county agent stated.

George I. Lane, county supervisor for rural resettlement, told of the administration's work to help "unfortunate" farmers in circumstance "through no fault of their own."

Lane explained that the government is aiding farmers to regain financial stability, extending them credit and all money is expected to be repaid.

The government is endeavoring to instill confidence in the "unfortunate" farmer group, Lane stated, asking that encouragement be given if any of the community contacted those in that group.

Opening feature of the evening was orchestra music by the "Texanians," directed by Clyde Chaney. Members of the orchestra were Parker Brown, Frank Lovett, Jr., Jack Brown, Horace Horton, Leslie Cook, Rex Gray, Misses Olivette Killough and Jo Earl Uttz.

Vocal accompaniment was given by Miss June Bentley.

Appearing in blackface acts were Cy Reed, J. B. Moreno, Bud Ferris, assisted by H. C. Davis.

A string band, composed of Ben Pargin, Desmond Daniels, Luther and Johnson Smith, played.

Accordion numbers were played by Edmund Herring.

The 9:49 Bible Class quartet, composed of B. M. Collie, Dace Myers, A. E. Herring and John D. Harvey, sang several numbers.

A skit was enacted by Earl Frances, J. B. Moreno and H. C. Davis.

Eastland residents making the trip included Albert Taylor, Milburn McCarty, A. L. Agate, Mrs. Agnes Harwood Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Lucas, Horace Wade, Ben Scott, Bert Finley, Edwin Johnson, J. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George Brogdon, John D. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Dace Myers, C. Metz Heald, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woody, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Richardson, A. E. Cooperation Is Asked in Making Up Fair Catalog

Additional entertainment features—presentation of a livestock show—these and other reasons were cited Tuesday by Secretary of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce H. C. Davis for cooperation of Eastland merchants in preparation of the catalogue for the annual Eastland county fair, to be held Sept. 25-28.

"It seems destined to be the biggest and best fair ever presented" Davis said, "from current indications." Reception of good will programs in the various communities visited by Eastland merchants was given as foundation of the interest.

Secretary Davis urged merchants and professional men to have their ads ready as the catalogue is expected to go to the printer this week.

Pythian Lodge Installs Officers

Officers of Eastland Knights of Pythias lodge for this year, elected June 18, were installed at the weekly meeting held Tuesday night.

Officers installed were D. A. Massner, chancellor commander; Glenn Graham, vice chancellor; Wade Johnson, prelate; T. J. Powell, mastor of work; Jack Hilburn, master at arms; C. L. McCoy, inner guard; E. P. Patterson, outer guard.

First and second rank was conferred on Austin Williamson and second rank on R. F. Tierce.

Baptist Pastor Addresses Lions

Dr. C. T. Alexander, temporary pastor of the Baptist church, addressed members of the Lions club Tuesday on "Education."

A youth who has been aided by Lions in their crippled children's work, Billy Duffield, was a guest of the organization.

Program committeeman for the day's program was C. S. Eldridge, county superintendent.

Johnny Kitchen, high school coach, was a visitor.

Permit Required To Move Houses, Officials Warn

A permit must be obtained at the city hall to move houses or the mover is subject to a fine ranging from $25 to $200, City Clerk Kelly warned Wednesday.

The warning was made following complaint to the city clerk and Police Chief W. L. Mead by several citizens whose property and children's lives had been endangered by unregistered movers.

In several instances, Clerk Kelly stated, telephone lines had been broken down.

The clerk will issue permits to move at no cost and in turn notify telephone and light company linesmen as well as motor patrolmen to supervise the house relocation.
