Q. When you buy new tires you are charged an additional $.20. How much of this money does the dealer keep?

A. According to the Texas Water Commission, dealers received 2 and a half cents per tire that is sent to a processor. The Commission can use up to 12-cents, the State Comptroller gets up to 4-cents and the rest goes to pay for shredding tires for recycling or disposal.

Oilfield worker electrocuted

A 30-year-old Coleman man killed in an oilfield accident that occurred early Sunday morning near Colorado City.

Sidney Dewayne Berger died as the result of an incident that was reported to the Sheriff's Office at 3:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

According to reports, Berger -- a roughneck with the R & J Drilling Company of Brownwood -- was electrocuted when he walked through a puddle of water while carrying a droplight/extension cord from the drilling rig to a nearby mud pit.

The incident occurred approximately 10-miles Northwest of Colorado City, at a drilling rig which is located North of farm-to-market road 1808 on a lease belonging to Grand Banks Energy Company.

Funeral services were held for DeWayne Berger on Wednesday at the Stevens Funeral Home Chapel of Coleman with the Dr. George Ascher officiating.

He was born January 5, 1962 in Lamesa.

Berger attended school in Hobbs, New Mexico and moved to Coleman a year ago. He was a veteran of the Air Force and had been stationed at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines.

Berger was a Baptist and was an employee of R & J Drilling See OILFIELD, page 2

SPIRITUAL EXPLOSION: This sign on Hickory Street announces the upcoming 'Back To School' event that will be taking place beginning at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 15 at Ruddick Park.

Spiritual Explosion plans include games, music, fun

A day full of activities has been scheduled for the 'Spiritual Explosion' to be held on the last Saturday before a new school year begins.

The event is open to the entire community and will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 15 and will take place between the pool and the ball fields in Ruddick Park.

"Anything and everything will be taking place," committee members said.

There will be free food and activities including swimming and volleyball tournaments will be held as part of the event.

The schedule also includes performances by the Christian groups 'Heroes of the Lord' and 'Sosterian'.

A group of approximately 65 youth 'Panomine Group' of Austin are also expected to be in attendance.

Tony Castanon of Abilene and David Contreras of Austin will be the featured youth speakers at the event.

"The youth of our city have passed through many trials and tribulations," said Emmanuel Baptist Church youth president Michael R. Contreras.

"It is more than obvious that the youth not only need help but in a manner of tears and heartache are silently asking for help."

Local support is being gathered for a youth event to be held in memory of Robbie Smith.

Volleyball teams should register for the competition before Thursday, August 13, by calling Sammy Contreras at 728-5176 or 728-2634.

Six members of a team will be allowed on the court at one time, with contestants being between the ages of 12 and 20-years old eligible for the competition.

Funds have been established at City National Bank and First National Bank, in order to receive donations so the event might be available to students of the area without an admission charge.

For further information or questions call 728-5176 or 728-5753.

Two men hurt in Sunday stabbing

An investigation has begun into a fight that occurred on Sunday and resulted in medical treatment being required for two local men.

Joe Barrera, 52, of Box 236, Loraine, was stabilized at the Mitchell County Hospital for several cuts and was then transferred to a San Angelo hospital where he is listed in serious condition.

Also admitted for treatment at the local hospital was Manuel Barrera, 30, of 441 Cedar, Colorado City.

The Colorado City Police Department was notified at 9 p.m. on Sunday evening of a fight in progress with knives involved at a residence located at 441 Cedar.

Officer Jeff Dever responded to the call and found Joe Barrera on the ground and had been cut in several places.

The Mitchell County Ambulance Service was summoned to the scene and transported him to the hospital.

Reports indicate that Henry Barrera came to the hospital for the treatment of cuts which were the result of the same incident.

No arrests have been made and the case remains under investigation with the Colorado City Police Department.

Football is back for Westbrook Wildcats

Wildcat football is back! After the completion of the 1991 season football competition at the Westbrook Independent School System was halted.

America was at war at that time. "Use it up, wear it out, make it do, or do without," was a popular slogan, the musical Oklahoma! was released and Count Fleet won the triple crown of horse racing that year.

But the Wildcats of Westbrook Junior High and High School have regrouped and will return to the gridiron for action this coming season.

Coach Jim Hill and assistant coach Keith Stone will lead the Wildcats into a season of six-man football competition. Practice for the teams will begin on Monday, August 17.

WILDCATS

LISD reception planned

A reception will be held to honor the administration and teachers of the Loraine Independent School District.

The informal reception which is being sponsored by the Loraine Parent and Teacher Organization

(PTO) will be held from 6:30-7:30 p.m. on Monday, August 10, at the school's cafeteria.

Officers of the PTO encourage everyone to attend the event which will recognize both the new and old staffers of the school district.

County budget is tentatively okayed

A county budget for the coming fiscal year has been tentatively approved by commissioners at the conclusion of the series of budget hearings.

The $3.5-million budget has been figured to be a half-a-million dollar deficit budget, since the county's income for the next year is projected to be approximately $3 million.

The proposed budget will be presented at the August 10 meeting for adoption and the setting of the tax rate for the coming year.

At present, the budget for next year shows expenditures of $3.5 million -- an amount which is $270-thousand and 6.5-percent less than the current year budget.

Commissioners are faced with declining values in the county and have been notified by County Tax Assessor/Collector Mike Burt that the effective tax rate for the coming year will be 42.62 cents per $100 of valuation.

The county has been working through the process to provide a budget that will take effect on January 1 of next year.

First meeting is held concerning antique mall

A meeting of those interested in participating in the proposed antique store/mall concept met to discuss the possibility of starting a system in downtown Colorado City.

John Williamson, chairman of the 'Preserve Our Past' committee of the Chamber, presented a 22 minute video on the antique mall system which has begun in Baird. Chamber officials note that it is important for people interested in the antique store/mall concept to learn about the program and to offer suggestions for making the system a reality.

Over 20 people attended the meeting and expressed enthusiasm See MALL, page 2

HOUSING AUTHORITY RENOVATIONS: Concrete work to provide a driveway was being done on Tuesday as part of the renovation and remodeling jobs that have been funded for the project homes in the northern portion of Colorado City.

Inside work still needed at youth center

Help is needed to make a Mitchell County Youth Center -- expected to open in the middle of August -- a reality.

Work is being performed at the former location of the local museum to renovate the site into a Youth Center -- but donations of labor and money are needed.

Preparations at the building including painting and cleaning the area surrounding the outside are nearing completion, but inside painting, electrical work and rearranging remains to be done, Sheriff Patrick Toombs said.

The majority of the work inside the facility will begin after this weekend's 'Jumble Sale' which will be hosted by the staff and volunteers of the Heart of West Texas Museum.

Once the building is turned over to the Sheriff's Office, the major portion of the renovations required to be handled before the opening of the center will begin.

A fund has been established at First National Bank to accept donations for the materials including paint to be used in the project.

Donations may also be turned in to the Sheriff's Office with Sheriff Toombs or Deputies Tommy Dill or Phillip Rodriguez.

Volunteer laborers are also needed to complete the project and those willing to assist may contact Deputy Dill for more information about helping with the project.

Business owners of the downtown buildings will be contacted before the next meeting of the committee meeting, scheduled to be held within the next 3 to 4 weeks.

Bulldog players to meet

Practice sessions for the Loraine Bulldog football team are close at hand.

An important meeting will be held at the school's gym beginning at 7 p.m. on Thursday, August 6, for students interested in playing football during the 1992 season.

Coach Loy said that physicals are required of all incoming 7th and 9th grade boys planning to play athletics this coming school year.

The forms are available at the principal's office and should be completed prior to Monday, August 10, which is the first day of two-day workouts for the Bulldog's football squad.

Home Health to hold off on moving

The Home Health Agency which was set to move to a new home -- will do some more searching before they move.

Directors of the Mitchell County Hospital District were recently told that the Agency now employs 19 full-time staffers and has outgrown their current location at 130 West 5th Street.

The location of a building on Hickory Street was approved by the directors, but negotiations were not completed.

Board members will consider future options which are presented to them as the Agency searches for a new location.

CONVERSATION CORNER

...BY BARBIE LELEK

We went to Six Flags with Bobby and Dana Moody and their girls Kristin and Kaci this past weekend. Out of all the days in the Six Flags operating season, we had to pick Baptist Youth Day! It was packed with kids -- big kids, little kids, kids who climb on rocks, tough kids, sissy kids and yes probably even kids with Chicken Pox!! I have never seen so many T-shirts! I know the man who invented them must be a Zillionaire! I busied myself while waiting in hour-long lines with reading everyone's chest, most of them were nice at least! Because we were on vacation all week, I was a little worried that I might not have anything to write about, but it seems that everywhere you go, you see someone you know.

Sumer Lynch and Justin McGaha were seen waiting to get on the exciting, exhilarating, (well, cool anyway) Yosemite Sam Adventure ride.

Was Looney Toon Lad as brave as Kevin and Mary Ann Wright got?

Pee Wee Russell and his family rode the Roaring Rapids to cool off a little bit.

I even saw my niece from Snyder and a missionary to Africa I've met that was there, too!!

We saw Pee Wee again just minutes before we rode the most AWESOME ride in the whole park. The Flashback. I feel lucky that we lived through it to see Pee Wee another day! If you see him ask him what he thought of the ride. AWESOME, REALLY AWESOME!

Our local Rotary Club sponsors foreign exchange student for long and short term visits. Recently a bus load of exchange youth made a one night stop in Colorado City. There was a wonderful response from local families to take one or more of these kids into their homes and show them some good old American hospitality. There were 47 kids that were taken into 22 homes.

Robert and Lanette Ramage played host to two young ladies, one from the Ukraine and the other from Indonesia. Robert said the girl from the Ukraine was Russian at first then quickly corrected himself. He said that was like saying a Texan was from Oklahoma! Christy Easley played host to a German girl and they both joined the Ramages for a supper of green enchiladas and a movie.

Mildred Free enjoyed her young person so much that next year she wants at least three! Good for you Mildred.

Lynn, Joanna and Celeste Hargrove also hosted two girls. Both were 19 years old. Wendy Van Nueten was from Belgium. Yoko Nishikubo was from Japan. Hubert and Lurline Feaster (Lynn's parents) entertained the girls until the Hargroves got off work. Because of that two or three hour experience, these two in their 70's want to host some students next year. At the Hargrove home, Joanna made two meat dishes for the girls to try. Mexican food and spaghetti. Both girls really enjoyed the Mexican food. They have been out east where they don't know how to make it the way it should be made, real Tex-Mex. After supper everyone enjoyed getting to know one another. The girls were very open and friendly. When they left the next morning, everyone received a hug from them both.

Lynn and his family are also hosting another Japanese girl for the summer. Tomoa Kase from Chiba, Japan arrived at the Midland airport after a fifteen hour flight. Upon arriving at the Hargrove home, she also slept for fifteen

Lone Wolf Division responds to letter from citizens

The Lone Wolf Division of Cap Rock Electric has responded to a letter addressed to media, Cap Rock's board of directors and the co-op membership. Lone Wolf Division manager Kenneth Rogers says the letter is from a small group of Martin County co-op customer-members who apparently are dissatisfied with Cap Rock's management and some of the current co-op projects. Headquarters of the co-op are located in Stanton, which is in Martin County.

The member group cites concern for the co-op's nonprofit status. They believe the co-op leadership has changed. Rogers says the leadership of Cap Rock Electric is exactly the same as it has been for the past 53 years. "The CEO/General Manager of Cap Rock works directly under an 11-member board, co-op members elected to their director seats by the membership. Two of those directors are from the Lone Wolf Division. This is the same leadership structure of all electric cooperatives," said Rogers.

The letter also quotes from supposed court transcript of Midland District Court, where Cap Rock is currently engaged in a lawsuit against TU Electric, in a contract dispute. The lawsuit, brought by Cap Rock, asks the judge to declare a 1990 power supply contract with TU invalid, paving the way for Cap Rock to purchase wholesale power from a company other than TU Electric, which, according to Cap Rock officials, would translate into an instant 10% savings on electric bills.

The small consumer group alleges the court transcript exposes improper procedures by Cap Rock management involving giving false testimony, submission of altered or incomplete documents and exposure of the existence of success contracts for management. Rogers says this is simply not true.

"I have been kept informed as to what occurred during this lawsuit," says Rogers, "as have members of the board. This is not what happened in the courtroom - this is what TU Electric says happened in the courtroom. The consumer group is simply repeating what TU alleges - not what the court findings have been."

Other points to which the group's letter expresses concerns include the formation of other corporations within the cooperative, administered by management. The group alleges Cap Rock management would benefit from such corporations.

Rogers stated the corporation in question is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cap Rock Electric, a nonprofit company, and does not profit any individual.

The group also objects to the Cap Rock/Hunt-Collin merger. Hunt-Collin Electric Cooperative is headquartered in Celeste, Texas, and the membership has requested it be allowed to combine with the Cap Rock membership.

The proposed merger is presently before the Texas Public Utility Commission. Though a hearing examiner has filed an opinion that the merger would have negative impact on existing Cap Rock members, all facts were not taken into consideration and the case has not yet been heard by the Commission, itself.

Rogers said, "The hearing examiner was of the opinion that the merger would result in a $350,000 first-year revenue loss to Cap Rock, which could raise customer bills by 1-2%. But the examiner didn't consider the $1.5 million cash that Hunt-Collin has on hand, or payments due the co-op from other sources. These more than offset the revenue drop from rates the first year."

Rogers can probably best judge the impact of a merger, since the Lone Wolf/Cap Rock combination in 1991. "A merger of this type results in a stronger, larger organization, better positioned to compete in the future," he said. "There are some real savings for customer-members due to being able to spread overhead costs over more units."

The group claims neither Cap Rock's membership nor board have been given sufficient information on these projects. Rogers disagreed with this claim. "I think Cap Rock's board and membership are more fully informed than any I have ever seen. The membership receives a monthly newsletter, created for the purpose of informing the membership. This newsletter does not contain useless information, it contains lengthy explanations of all the co-op's major projects," said Rogers. "As for the board, they receive bulky packets of information from the co-op every week."

The consumer group asks Cap Rock's board to take action on five points:

Point number one asks that the present manager of Cap Rock be replaced. Rogers said that would be a crushing blow for the organization. "David Pruitt is one of the most professional and talented managers I've ever known," said Rogers. "He inspires high levels of performance from employees and is a firm believer in putting the customer first. It's true he is an aggressive, innovative type of manager, but in today's competitive business market, a manager without those qualities would not be very successful."

The second point calls for dissolution of all corporations set up for the benefit of individuals. Rogers said this point is moot, since Cap Rock Electric has no such corporations. "There are no corporations set up to benefit anyone," said Rogers. "That notion is preposterous."

The group also called for revocation of the Cap Rock/Hunt-Collin merger. Rogers said, "I do not understand any co-op member's objection to this merger. Base load and economies of scale are what make the difference to the bottom line of this cooperative, and adding meters is the only way we can gain those advantages. If our base load is not growing here in our own service area, we have to find other means to make it grow. Mergers are the most convenient and most successful way to do that."

The disposal of real estate acquired by Cap Rock was also listed on the group's list of requests for board action. Rogers said an office building, wholly-owned by

Cap Rock, had been purchased in downtown Midland. "Over 60% of Cap Rock's customer-members live in and around Midland," said Rogers, "and they didn't even have a place in their county to pay their electric bills."

Rogers says the building was purchased at a rock-bottom price, $5 per square foot, and has a drive-through window for bill payments. "This is a four-story office building," said Rogers. "Most of the building will be rented to tenants, which will provide cash-flow. Rentals will make the payments on the building, Cap Rock will have a rent-free, cost-free office in Midland, where it is badly needed, and Cap Rock customer-members will have another asset on their balance sheet. This purchase was a board decision and, in my opinion, a very sound business decision."

Rogers added that he believed some of the group's objections to the purchase of the building were based on a fear that Cap Rock would move to Midland. "I don't think there's any danger of that," he said. "Certain management functions may move to the Midland building, but Cap Rock's operations will certainly remain in Stanton."

Fifth point of the group called for an independent audit of Cap Rock. According to Rogers, Cap Rock is already audited annually by a Lubbock firm, plus audits conducted by the Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation, the co-op's Washington, D.C., bankers.

Rogers said of the small but vocal group of consumers, "I believe these people have been misinformed. It has been necessary over the past few years for electric cooperatives to change. No one knows that better than we at Lone Wolf. But people are resistant to change. Cap Rock Electric cannot remain unchanged and survive. I believe this group does not have all the facts and are acting on misinformation."

"I have highest regard, trust and respect for David Pruitt and his management abilities," said Rogers. "I trust Cap Rock's customer-members will feel likewise."

Hunting leases sought

The Chamber of Commerce is seeking information about Mitchell County hunting leases -- to provide to hunters who are attempting to lease property for the upcoming seasons.

"The Chamber of Commerce gets many requests for hunting lease availability in Mitchell County," said executive vice-president Jay McCollum. "Due to our limited lease information we can give little information or assistance to the callers or lease holders."

The Chamber hopes to be able to gather the information and provide the lease information so that interested hunters can contact the owner/lease operator of the land and work out the terms of an agreement.

Game Warden Randy Bullard has noted that over 500 deer and turkey hunters and over 300 dove and quail hunters come into the county each year and that there is a much larger demand for leases than are available.

To improve information on hunting leases that are available in the area, the Chamber has made a form to be used by the land owners to provide information relating to their land.

Chamber officials need information about the local leases by August 15 in order to be able to distribute the information before this year's hunting seasons begin.

For more information contact the Chamber of Commerce office, located at 157 West Second Street or by calling 728-3403.

LORAIN PERSONALS

Roy Holman I am sorry I thought you were not among the living, but when I saw Max the other day someone said Max is the only one of the Holman's living that Roy and Mae were both gone and I believed they were right. I am happy to be able to apologize to you for another one of my blunders. I can get things in a mess more than anyone I know, but I am always happy to correct it. I hope you will accept my apology.

Earl and Velma Smades of 3329 S. Maple, Rapid City, South Dakota visited with Gladys Payne last Thursday. Her granddaughter of Midland also visited with her grandmother.

Rev. Harold and Marilyn Davis and their daughter visited in Loraine and Colorado City last week. They are Willa Dean Forbes' kids and grandkids. They attended church with her on Sunday. He is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Whitehouse, Texas.

Iva Armstrong and I went to Colorado City to visit our neighbor Inez Webb who is in the hospital there. We found her doing better the day we were there. We just wish she would get better soon and come home. It looks lonesome over her way.

While we were there we saw several people we had not seen in a while. Friday Moore was one of them. She is such a nice person.

I also saw Ester Garcia, whom I had not seen in a long time. She still works at the hospital, at least she was working the day we were there. She is another girl I watched grow up, get married, and have her children.

Lela Bowlin had surgery on one of her feet lately. She is doing real well and is staying with Delmas and Betty while she is recovering.

Iva and I also visited Ruth Holman while we were in C-City. T.L. was taking his afternoon nap so we didn't get to visit with him. We had a good visit with Ruth.

We also saw Mrs. Griffin while we were there. She is Orville Griffin's mother. I have known her a long time, but I don't think she remembered me. We had a nice visit anyway. Mrs. Griffin is Demp Darden's sister. She said he came to see her everyday.

Well, school is almost ready to open for serious business. We will all be much busier when that happens. There will be football games, cheerleaders to watch and listen too. Also lots of visiting a the ball field. Some of those people we don't see very often except on the hill when the games start. It will be a fun time.

Our Centennial Celebration at the First Baptist Church is just about ten days away so don't forget about it. You are all invited so come join us on Sunday the 16th of August. We will welcome you, sing for you, preach for you and feed you at 12:00 o'clock so come spend the day with us.

Now that school is starting and you guys and girls will be busy with lots of things, I have borrowed a clipping out of the Abilene Reporter News. They have written about some Cooper baseball players, but we will write about Loraine Bulldogs and their game of life. "When the one great scorer comes to write against your name, He marks - not that you won or lost - but how you played the game," written by Grantland Rice.

I hope all of you take this to mean you and be a good sport and display sportsmanship this entire year. We should all strive to do the very best we can in a sportsman kind of way. Let's all try to make this a better school year for our town and its citizens, and especially our children.

We have a new Superintendent, a new Principal and you have already met them both through the paper. We also have a new secretary and some new teachers I believe. And now as parents and grandparents let's all strive to make this a good year and for everyone concerned.

I have been asked to bring to your attention that the Loraine PTO club is sponsoring an informal reception honoring all teachers and administrators, both old and new. It will be held in the school cafeteria from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Monday, August 10th. Please try to attend.

Faye Lee, thanks for being so nice about all the things you do for me. I love you for it.

Thanks Coach Loy for your help.

Jerry Lynn Graham of Bridgeport and her father Jerry Graham spent the weekend with their mother and grandmother Mr. and Mrs. Roy Price.

On Friday morning, July 31, First Baptist Youth and friends left for a fun filled day at Six Flags. The group left at 6:00 a.m. and stopped at Weatherford for a quick breakfast and then on to Six Flags to join other kids from other towns for Baptist Youth Day. The day was enjoyed by all and ended with the group returning Saturday at 2:30 a.m.

Those going were Brian, Krystal and Dawn Butler, Gina Daniel, Tye and Tanna Henderson, Wendy Mosher, Misty Bailey, Michael Moore, Craig Finley, Kamil, Kahla & Krisha Lamb, Cory Wooddell, and sponsor James and Cindy McLeod and Robert Dale Finley.

NEWS FROM

LORAIN SENIOR CITIZENS CENTER

By BESSIE ANN VAUGHN

In July the center was decorated in a patriotic theme with wall cut outs and collages in red, white and blue, and on each table a small flag was prominently displayed.

On July 4th prior to the noon meal Heather Lucas sang several songs with a patriotic theme accompanied by Vida Mae

McDaniel on piano and backed by our own Kitchen Combo Band. Heather who is 9 years old did a wonderful job as did Vida Mae and the band. The audience got into the spirit of the celebration and did a "Sing-a-Long" on several songs as "God Bless America," and "America the Beautiful."

On July 8th and again on the 22nd Home Health Care came to monitor blood pressure readings and as always we appreciate their good care and service to the people.

In July get well cards were mailed to Doris Yarbrough, Fern Coon, Chrystene Hall, Della Matejovsky, and Bobby Rankin.

Later in the month a sympathy card was sent to the Yarbrough family as Doris Yarbrough passed away. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to this family. Doris lived in the Taylor-Witta Complex for several months. Lavonne Bridges from Anchorage, Alaska visited the center several times in July and played piano and song for us. She is the talented daughter of O. W. and Winnie Richburg.

Friday night, July 17th, family and friend helped Leona Linam celebrate her birthday. The celebration was held in conjunction with a table game party and everyone had a wonderful time. Reports were that the cake, cookies and punch were delicious. May you have many more birthdays Leona!

Nell Baldwin, program coordinator form Council of Governments in Abilene came in July to monitor activities and programs. We are always glad to have Nell and hear the nice things she says about the center.

Volunteers go to the Mitchell County Library and get films to show here twice monthly. The members seem to enjoy the movies and we really appreciate all the volunteers who do this and many more things in and around the center.

I overheard some women making plans to visit Branson, Missouri in August. Doesn't that sound like fun and something to look forward to? They aren't going to let the dog days of summer keep them house bound.

Commodities were distributed Tuesday the 14th to those who qualified and wanted the food items of cornmeal and butter.

Members having birthdays in July were Cecil Martin, Harvis Hamilton, Mary a. Meadows, Verlie Liles, Neal and Lillie Miles, Geneva Killian, Leona Linam, Jr. Sadler, Kay Maynard and Bessie Ann Vaughn.

1 of 7 people signed the attendance sheet the day of the 29th and ate turkey and dressing along with the birthday honorees.

Doris Henderson made the special birthday cake to center on the decorated table and Darlene put a small gift for the sweet tooth at each name card.

Life in general is a pretty serious affair so come down and laugh and chat with us.

See you at the center!

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for the City of Loraine, Texas. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. Cook's CORNER

Today's recipe comes from Betty Fuller. She was raised in Colorado City and graduating from Colorado High School in 1958. Betty is married to Tommy Fuller, a farmer with land south of town and in Tarzan. After graduation they lived here for a year before moving to Ropesville, where Tommy farmed for eight years. They moved back to Colorado City so they could raise a family at "home". The Fullers have three children. Beverly Jordan who works as a Speech Diagnostician in Arlington, Kimberly Lewis who lives in town, she is currently taking courses at Hardin Simmons to receive her degree in Speech Pathology, and Brandon who is a senior at Texas Tech, studying Mass Communications. They also have two handsome grandsons, Kaleb Jordan and Axel Lewis both who are three and half years old.

Betty is the owner and operator of The Style Shack. She likes to "piddle around the house", cut hair and decorate. She learned to cook from her mother, mother-in-law and a lot of trial and error! She enjoys cooking when she has time. She is very busy and often uses the convenience of her microwave oven to make meal time quicker. Betty remembered one cooking goof being the time she dumped a Chocolate Cream Pie on the floor when taking it out of the oven! Betty's helpful hint: Note: If she has one!

Fresh Country Peach Ice Cream

The Ladies Auxiliary had their regular meeting on July 23 with president Estella Rivera presiding and 8 members present. It was reported that the Auxiliary received 13 Award Certificates from State and 11 Citations of Merit from District at the Dallas Convention. Also a check was sent to the V.A.

Medical Center in Big Springs for the birthday and coffee fund. Cake and ice cream was taken to the D.A.V. Home on Hickory St. Donations were given to a senior citizen couple, a lady with 2 kids in need of help.

The next meeting will be on August 13, 1992 at the Post Home.

McGee awaits transplant

Lane McGee, formerly of Colorado City, is awaiting a heart transplant at Baylor Hospital -- and could use words of encouragement from his friends.

Lane is the son of Lilly McGee and graduated from Colorado High School in 1952.

The McGee's have been told that Lane is next on the list to receive the transplant operation -- once a suitable donor has been located.

People wishing to write may do so by addressing the letter to him at Baylor Hospital, 13000, 3500 Gaston Street, Dallas, Texas 75246.

Thursday, August 6 at the high school's field house.

Equipment issue will take place at the meeting and the 9th graders can turn in their completed physicals.

"It is very important that the high school students wanting to be part of the Wolves football program attend the meeting," Coach Mark Howeth said. "Those unable to attend should call or get in touch with me before the meeting in order to be a part of what's happening with the program."

Coach Mark Howeth reminds the incoming 7th and 9th grade student/athletes that physicals are required and must be completed by August 10 in order to compete in athletics during the upcoming school year.

Two-a-days for the football squad will be held from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. during the week of Monday, August 10 thru Friday, August 14 at the Colorado High School football complex.

An inter-squad scrimmage has been set for Saturday, August 15, to conclude the two-a-day activities.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Did you know that taxes are not high enough, as stated by some on the House Ways and Means Committee? After Congress increased taxes, they promised that they would greatly reduce the deficit. Our deficit is 100 billion greater than last year. That's an increase, if I can calculate!

I'm glad our boys and girls in uniform protect us, which is Congresses first duty. The House is controlled by Republicans, but not the Senate.

When will America wake-up and throw the bums out of Congress?

Westbrook Golden Age Club celebrates 34th

This weekend's barbecue fundraiser at the Westbrook Golden Age Club will recognize the organization's 34th birthday.

The dinner to include beef or chicken entrees with servings of potato salad, beans, cobbler and tea, will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, August 8, at the Golden Age Club building.

Tickets will be available at the door and proceeds from the celebration will fund general repairs on buildings owned by the club.

The Westbrook Golden Age Club was founded in August of 1958 by the late Mrs. Margaret Powell.

Over 30 active members of the organization meet for the monthly meetings which are held at the Golden Age Club building -- to enjoy a dinner and play dominoes or 42 -- and the club is seeking more members, who may join by paying the dues amounting to a dollar-a-year.

This year's officers of the Westbrook club -- registered as the smallest town in the nation with a Golden Age Club -- include Darlene Hines, president; Lula Leach, vice president; and Frances "Bill" Proctor, secretary.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

....BY JIM BAUM

On the night of May 8, 1884, Colorado City was hit with what must have been one of the most destructive storms in the town's history. Total known damages were estimated at $90,000, which would probably equal 9 million dollars in today's money.

The storm struck shortly after sunset and the Colorado Clipper stated that prior to the outbreak, "the evening was so pleasant that no one anticipated the direful happenings that were to follow."

What had been a gentle breeze became a strong wind and the sky grew black and became a solid mass of menacing clouds.

"Heaven's Artillery Playing Fast and Loose in the Queen City," read the Clipper's headline.

"At precisely five minutes of 10 o'clock there came an awful shock of thunder which seemed to shake the foundations of the very hills," the newspaper continued.

After that, it was katie-bar-the-door. Lightning flashed, hail pounded the town and rain poured down in sheets. "Every dwelling swayed and creaked and groaned till it seemed that every timber would be splintered in a thousand pieces, while window-panes were shattered into bits and pieces and residents feared for their lives. When the storm finally abated, "brave men were out to render succor to those in distress," the Clipper stated. Miraculously no one was seriously injured.

The Clipper itemized all known damage, and where possible, the value of the property lost. The following is just a sampling:

"Methodist Church, wrecked, damage $5000.
Baptist Church, partial wreck, damage $2000.
Public School building, completely unroofed and north wing wrecked, $1800.

Lone Wolf Creek arch bridge, on Second Street, damage, $2000.
Great Western Stables, front wall and roof, damage, $1000.

Hughes & Frenkel, skating rink, completely wrecked, $1500.
Palace Saloon, completely paralyzed, $500.

Poor House, total wreck, $60.
Moor Brothers livery stable, damage to front, $500.

First National Bank, unroofed, damage to building, $200; to furniture in dormitories, $300.

R. P. Robertson, wind-mill destroyed, damage, $250.
W. W. Marshall, buggy house and damage to buggy, $200.

W. B. Brown's barn, $400.
Beer hall at stock pens, $100.

The merchants signs are scattered all over the city.
Barton Peck informs us that every house on Lone Wolf Mountain is swept away, although no one is reported killed.

Nearly every residence in the city is more or less damaged."

The Clipper went on to list column after column of residences and businesses that had been damaged. And this priceless edition of the Colorado Clipper from more than 100 years ago had short stories which gave details of some storm related incidents.

A few were tongue-in-cheek;

"Big Jimmie says when the storm struck him he was at Page and Charlie's Saloon and for fear the bottles would get broke and the liquor wasted, he tried to drink it up to save it."

And another story: "Captain W. W. Marshall had a hen sitting on a nest in his buggy and the storm carried her away, nest and all, and the latest dispatch from Corpus Christi said she had arrived safely and was still sitting."

If that tale stretches the Clipper's credibility too much, we'll try another one; "A. B. Robertson tells a story of his dog that examples the terrific force of the wind last night. The dog was chained in the yard, and for two hours, while the wind blew, the dog was in the air full length of the chain, and did not touch the ground during the time."

By reading these gems from an old newspaper, we learn much about the people who lived in the town we now call ours. First, they were able to keep their sense of humor, despite heavy losses. Secondly, their spirit was never broken ("brave men" worked to help their neighbors).

And women did their share too. "The ladies of Colorado had a meeting this morning," the Clipper noted. "(They) have organized for immediate work to raise funds to rebuild the Methodist Church and at an early day will give a strawberry festival to start the fund."

Colorado City, 1884, was made up of men and women much like those who live here today. Folks with a fighting spirit who are determined to see their town bounce back again.

It always has. It will again.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is asking the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) for approval to begin charging $3.00 per bill, for duplicate paper copies of a customer's bill up to 15 pages. If the customer's bill exceeds 15 pages, an additional five cents per page will apply. If the customer's bill is lost or mutilated for reasons other than negligence by the customer, no charge for a duplicate copy will apply if a customer notifies Southwestern Bell within 60 days of the billing date. The effective date of this application is December 4, 1992.

If approved by the PUC, this application will increase the Company's annual revenues by $835,000, which is an increase of approximately two one-hundredths of 1 percent (.02 percent) in the Company's adjusted revenue for the 12-month period ending December 31, 1991. The application could affect all of the Company's approximately 4.6 million residence customers and all of its approximately 575,000 business customers should they choose to request duplicate copies of their bills.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the PUC as soon as possible. The deadline to intervene is August 7, 1992. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

This matter has been assigned Docket No. 11223.
