School Board Adopts New Set of Educational Goals

Meeting in regular session, the Board of Trustees of the Aransas County Independent School District on Monday night approved the monthly bills for payment and approved the minutes of the April meeting.

The Board received, discussed and adopted, a set of educational goals for the School District as submitted by a special committee. The setting of educational goals is one step in the new procedure established by the Texas Education Agency for school accreditation. The local District is currently fully accredited by both the Texas Education Agency and the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

The firm of McCarty, Millikin and Green of Beeville were appointed as school auditors for another year.

The resignation of Aman Molina was accepted and Mrs. Gracie Rocha and Janell Stewart were elected as teachers for the 1976-77 school year.

Jimmie Luigi was elected to serve as the Director of the Plan A Special Education Cooperative. The cooperative is a joint endeavor between the Aransas Pass, Ingleside and Aransas County School Districts to serve the handicapped children.

The Superintendent reported on various programs in the local school system.

ties went to arrest him for violation of probation.

He had pleaded guilty last October to possession of marijuana and was given three years probation. He was arrested Feb. 2 on a second probation charge. This led to an all-night stand on the island before he finally surrendered to Sheriff Bob Hewes.

Arraignment was first delayed when Miller agreed to let Lynch undergo psychological testing at Memorial Medical Center. This took several days.

The death of his son and the following legal fight over the burial location delayed a court appearance.

'Gator Man' Gets 4 Years

Alligator farm operator Warren Lynch on May 6 was given a four-year prison term after pleading guilty to possession of marijuana.

Lynch, arrested in early February at his farm off Highway 35 between Rockport and Aransas Pass, will be formally sentenced May 16. He pleaded guilty and waived a jury trial before Dist. Judge John Miller in 36th District Court.

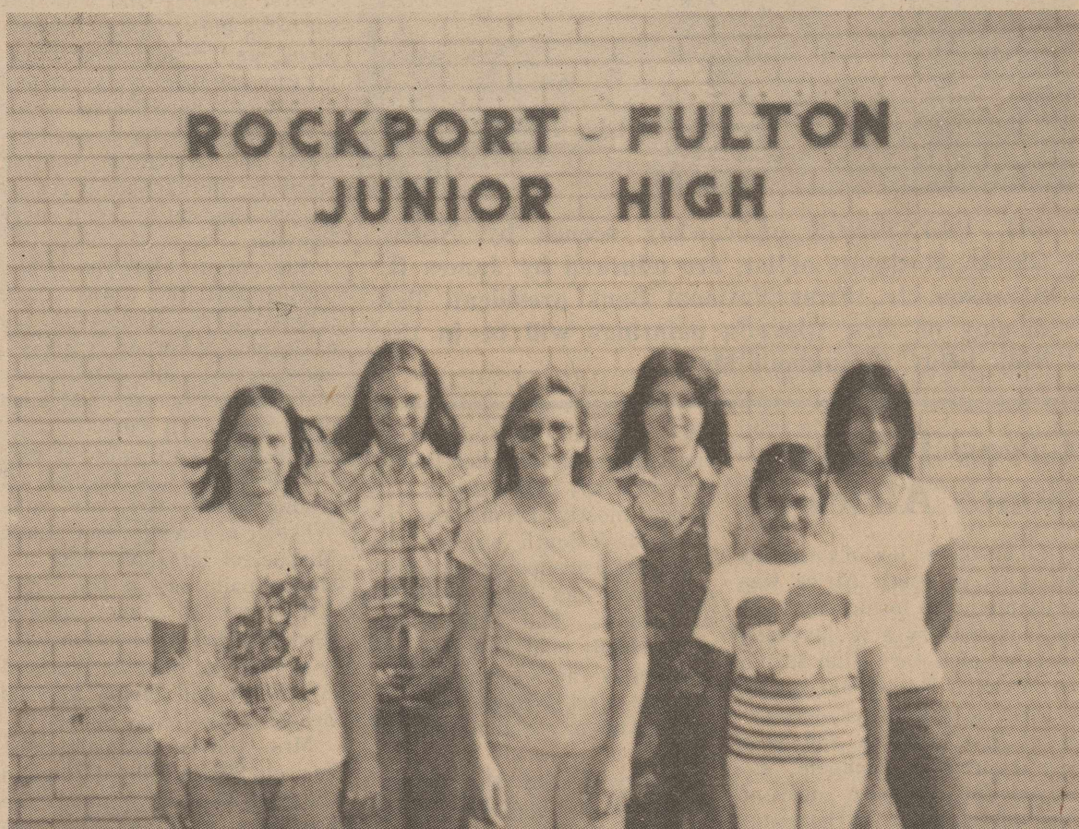

Lynch, 46, has been in either Aransas County jail or Memorial Medical Center in Corpus Christi since his arrest.

While in jail, Lynch's son, Brian, 24, died from car accident injuries touching off a brief legal fight on where burial would be. Lynch's former wife wanted their son buried in Wellington, Kan. Lynch wanted the son buried in Somerville in Central Texas.

Lynch gave up the fight and his son was buried last week in Kansas. The three-car accident happened at the entrance to the alligator farm on April 18.

Meanwhile, the farm is gearing up for summer tourist trade. Friends of Lynch apparently will operate the farm, at least for now.

Lynch gained national attention in early February when he fled to a small island inside the alligator pit when sheriff deputies

Poppy Day On May 29

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow..." --so went the immortal words of Col. John McCrae's poem. Little did he realize when he penned those lines that some day the very poppies of which he wrote would be the true symbol of all those who gave their lives in our nation's wars. But that is the case today.

Annually, the Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsor the buddy poppy sale in the Rockport area to raise money for needy and disabled veterans.

This is their way of "honoring the dead by helping the living". You, too, can pay your respects on Saturday, May 29 when the buddy poppies will be on sale in this community.

Do your part—buy a buddy poppy and wear it proudly.

Sealed Bids will be received from May 20th until 5:00 P.M., June 1 at the Navigation District office and opened at the regular monthly meeting on June 1 at 7:30 P.M. Commissioner Fox made a motion for the passage of the following resolution: Be it resolved that, on April 15, 1976, Aransas County Navigation District No. 1, series 1974, revenue bonds #7 - #12, inclusive, in the amount of $6,000 and interest coupon #3 of revenue bonds #7 - #70, inclusive, in the amount of $1760 became due and were paid to First National Bank of Rockport, paying agent. In other business the Board (1) agreed to the purchase of materials to pave the beach road with the County supplying the labor, (2) gave permission to Aransas County Riding Association to disband their parade on District grounds June 19th, and (3) agreed to provide stakes to Roy Johnson who will mark off the channel at the Ski-Basin.

C of C to Take Part in Art Festival

At the request of the Rockport Art Association, the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce agreed to operate the concession stand during the July 3 and 4 art festival.

President Mick Ladner announced that Mike Shellenberger had agreed to head the concession stand committee again this year.

The Chamber operated the concession stand last year, making a nice profit on food and drinks. Serving on the committee with Shellenberger will be Steve Mahnke, John McDavid, Jr., George Peirce and Dennis Jenkins.

A discussion was held concerning a motel tax. It was suggested the Chamber of Commerce write a letter to all motel owners in Aransas County and get their opinion on such a tax. If the response is favorable, then further action with the state representative would be forthcoming.

The Board voted to accept bids from local building contractors on a small remodeling job at the Chamber building.

Other business transacted was the appointment of Dave Connery as chairman of the banquet committee; resolution passed opposing the Clean Air Act; and a resolution was passed endorsing the salt water pool as a small boat harbor.

Attending the meeting at Sandollar Restaurant were Richard Beck, Bill Christian, Nancy Cooke, Curtis Goodman, Bill Janacek, Ladner and Joe Randow. Also present were Eddie Ratliff, Jerry Shaw and Shellenberger. Raymond Owens, Walter S. Falk, Jr., W.M. Muecke and Loyce Landrum.

City Focuses on Future Need For Sewer Service Expansion

Recognizing the necessity to plan well in advance for extension of sewer service to serve the steadily growing local area, the City Council Monday night discussed several plans that could be considered in connection with such future developments as the $5 million condominium complex to be erected on the bayfront site formerly occupied by Palm Village Resort.

With a member of the staff of Urban Engineering Company of Corpus Christi on hand, Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., and Alderman Charlie Garrett, N.F. Jackson, Dan Ward and Dr. J. Martin Shaw studied several possible plans and then decided that they will hold a workshop session in the near future to continue their deliberations.

Other actions at the Council meeting included: --Awarded a contract to George Miller Company for $8,070.68 to repair and paint the ground storage tank within 120 working days. The aldermen split, three to one, in voting to award this contract which was based on the only bid submitted. Jackson voted no and the other three aldermen voted yes.

--Council accepted a petition for annexation of Unit 4 of Harbor Oaks Subdivision.

--In accordance with a decision made at the last Council meeting, the aldermen adopted an ordinance increasing the city tax rate assessment from 33 1/4 to 40 per cent. The tax rate is $1.50 per $100. The increase in the ratio assessment was by split vote, with Garrett voting no and the other aldermen voting yes.

--Acting on recommendations made by the Park Board, the Council approved expenditure of $500 for new playground equipment at Spencer Park and $500 for additional picnic facilities at Mathis Park. The funds for these improvements are from Revenue Sharing allocations. The Council also agreed to have additional lighting installed at Memorial Park.

--Council set June 14 for a public hearing regarding proposed appropriations for the seventh entitlement period (July 1, 1976 through December 31, 1976) for Revenue Sharing Funds. Among expenditures being considered are purchase of a new police car and garbage truck.

Break Ground At 1st Baptist

The First Baptist Church of Rockport broke ground last Sunday for a new educational building at the corner of South Live Oak and Wharf Streets. The members of the church met for a brief ceremony immediately following the morning worship services at the church.

A growing church membership and a need for improving current facilities have created the need for expanded classroom space and fellowship hall.

The new building will be a two-story pre-cast concrete structure measuring fifty feet by one hundred feet. It will feature a fellowship hall containing more than twenty-five hundred square feet, Sunday School classroom space for children and young people from first grade through high school, one adult department and a large recreation area.

The Coastcon Corporation of Corpus Christi will supply and erect the external walls and second floor. The church's Building Committee is conducting the work.

"The absence of load-bearing interior walls will make possible the use of some volunteer labor," declared E.H. Davenport, committee chairman. "This will help keep our costs down."

Estimates put the cost of the building, including furnishings, at $160,000. The church plans an intensive financial campaign to raise the necessary funds. Plans call for the raising of the funds over a three-year period beginning this summer, according to T.A. Roach, campaign chairman.

"Anyone who has attended a wedding reception at our church knows we need a bigger fellowship hall-reception area," said Charles Fake, Pastor of the church. "The new fellowship hall will be three times as large as our present facility," he emphasized. Fake further stated, "We want to serve this community. The building will help us minister more effectively."

The church expects to have the building in use by October. Construction will begin as soon as the lot is cleared.

VOTE COUNTING MACHINES ORDERED

The Aransas County commissioners have ordered three vote counting machines.

The machines cost $1,750 each and may be delivered in time for use in the November general election.

Aransas County uses a punch-card ballot for voting. The ballots have been taken either to Corpus Christi or Bee County Junior College at Beeville for counting.

The counting machines which were ordered are about the size of a small suitcase and can be hand-carried. The machines can give either constant counts or final counts after polls are closed.

Ballots are hand-fed into the machine for counting. Officials said that counting should be speeded up and the machines should be more reliable than the use of computers.

Pilot Sets Deadline of 5 P.M. Monday for Ads and News Items

The Rockport Pilot has found it necessary to establish a new deadline for receiving ads and news articles.

The deadline for all ads (display and classified) and for all news items is 5 p.m. each Monday.

The reason for the deadline change (from Tuesday noon to 5 p.m. Monday) is that a change has been made in the schedule of the printing firm in Sinton which prints our paper. This firm prints more than 15 area weekly newspapers.

In order to have the Pilot printed on time for distribution in the Rockport area on Wednesday, we will have to deliver the page paste-up to Sinton earlier than in the past.

Some ads and stories can be brought in, or mailed in, on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday for use the following week, and this will help us greatly to continue publishing what we trust is an interesting and informative newspaper.

We hope that the new Monday 5 p.m. deadline will not inconvenience our friends who supply the ads and news articles which are vital to our existence. We will appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

Gives Talk on South Africa

An insider's view of the racial situation in South Africa was presented by a former resident of that country at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club May 5 at Sandollar Restaurant.

Charles M. Fenwick, formerly of South Africa and now semi-retired in Rockport, asserted that a great deal of misunderstanding of the country's attitude and practices with reference to so-called minority groups exists throughout the world.

He was critical of statements made recently by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger who, he said, failed to visit either South Africa or Rhodesia, confining himself almost entirely to one-party states, many of which are openly Marxist.

Fenwick asserted the key to understanding the social and political structure of the Republic of South Africa lies in a balanced appraisal of that nation's unique diversity of cultures, ethnic origins, religious faiths, languages and differing levels of economic and political sophistication. Actually, the fabric of the nation involves a complex web of life styles, aspirations and needs of about a dozen separate peoples, each with its distinctive historical background.

Contrary to popular belief, the population of South Africa cannot be divided into two groups, white and black, Fenwick asserted. In addition to these there are so-called Color-eds, a racially mixed group and Asians, mostly of Indian origin. Also, black South Africans are not a single group but consist of nine major and distinctive ethnic groups. The Blacks are economically politically and educationally the least advanced and the least homogeneous of the four major groups, Fenwick said.

History placed the White group of the republic in a position of guardianship over the Black, Fenwick asserted, who added that this long-established relationship carried with it an obligation to assist in preparing the Blacks for future responsibility and self-determination as independent nations. This situation is compatible to a large accepted policy of the great nations of Europe and America to assist less advanced nations in their progress toward independence. South Africa sees this plan as the only peaceful way to achieve this goal, he said. South Africa often has been criticized that her program denies fundamental human rights, yet there are no standards nor norms for such rights, according to Fenwick who pointed out that interpretation of these rights varies widely among Communist, Western World and Third World nations.

According to him, South Africa, with 320 years experience, places the emphasis on safeguarding the identity of various peoples, especially minority groups. In keeping with

Cowboy Scenes On Display

Several oils depicting cowboy scenes by Nancy Glover, local artist, are on display this month in the lobby of First National Bank. The display is the latest in a series of such exhibits arranged for by Gladys Gibson, chairman of the bank's continuing committee on art.

Mrs. Glover, who with her husband and daughter, Nancy, have been residents of Rockport for the past five years and also lived here some years earlier, says she has been interested and active in painting since she was a teenager reared on her parents' ranch near Beeville.

She admits that ranch and cowboy activities always have interested her almost to the exclusion of other subjects, adding that she attends as many exhibits as possible which feature western scenes.

Self-taught to some extent, she also has had formal art training with the late Ellie Wheeler of Beeville and Simon Michael of Rockport. She has shown paintings at the River Art Show in San Antonio, Rockport Art Association's July shows, the Beeville Western Art Show and Simon Michael School of Fine Arts Shows.

Mrs. Glover estimates she has sold 300 to 500 paintings in the past 20 years or more she has been painting. She also confesses that selling some paintings over which she has labored and agonized often is as traumatic as selling a favorite puppy or colt.

Mrs. Glover maintains a studio at the Art Colony on Fulton Beach Road where she says she tries to work every day when homemaking responsibilities permit. She said interest and support of her family and friends had contributed substantially to her devotion to painting through the years.

This philosophy, South Africa believes the only way to achieve this objective is to equip each so-called nation or group to attain the real meaning of self-determination.

Fenwick declared that the framework of political independence coupled with economic cooperation will be determined by the unique combination of historical, political, economic and ethnic realities of South Africa and not by popular cliches like one man one vote which promise instant and complete solutions in the complex field of inter-group relations.

He said, "All South Africans ask is to be given a chance. They are not asking for gifts and handouts as do many of America's supposed friends. If you love law and order and, the free enterprise system which has made your country so great, then only by giving the present governments a free hand to handle their own problems in their own way will you be assured of allies in that part of the world."

Mendiola, Darryl Green, Charlie Edler and Bobby Lewis (44.1); Darryl Green in the 100 (9.9) and 220 (22.3); Charlie Edler in the 120 HH (14.9); and Raul Rameriz in the Mile Run (4:35.1).

The trophies were won by the 440 Relay Team at Flour Bluff; the Varsity for being Runner-Up at Flour Bluff; the J.V. for winning the meet at Bishop; and the Varsity and J.V. for winning the Sweepstakes Trophy (most combined points) at Bishop.

The two young men that qualified for the Regional Meet were Raul Rameriz in the Mile Run and Darryl Green in both the 100 and 220.

The Pirate track team con-

A.C. RAIDER NEWS

The A.C. Raider's women softball team traveled to a Port Lavaca tournament last weekend, bringing back the sportsmanship award out of 16 teams.

The Raiders played some good ball with Rita Parish highlighting the last game with the only triple play of the tournament by tagging a runner going to 3rd, stepping on 2nd and throwing to 1st.

Although the Raiders didn't bring back one of the six place trophies, the other teams knew Rockport had been there.

They wish to thank Freda Herron for her happy spirit and fine playing. Also, to the four girls of the A.C. Raider II team that saw some action: Barbara Lewis, Theresa Lewis, Mamie Gonzales and Belinda Cross.

Other players going and taking part were, Barbara Cross, Vicki Anderson, Rita Parish, Marietta Coggins, Anna Sanchez, Darlene Davis, Donna Duty, Gay Taylor, Claudie Shelton, Lowana Sutton and Shirley Rathburn.

The sponsors of our team are First National Bank, Bob McBee, Marshall Funeral Home, Pearl Distributors and B&B One Stop Drive-In.

Presby. Women Have Meeting

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Trulie Elder, vice-president presided at the Presbyterian Women of the Church meeting May 6 in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Reports were heard from the various chairmen and the following announcements made: Family Night Supper of Church on May 19th with Circle 3 in charge; Circle 1 will meet May 13 with Mary Whitcomb, Circle 2 at Church May 13 with Van Morgan as hostess.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the presentation of a life membership pin to Mrs. Margaret Hight for her service to people and the church.

Another highlight was the showing of the film on the birthday objective for the W.O.C. for this year -- offering goes to Bangladesh, Mountains of Kentucky and Goodland Children's Home for Indians. After the film, Mrs. Alice Morrison played "Over the Rainbow" as everyone sang the words and then following the rainbow on the wall to present their offering for this occasion in the pot at the end of the rainbow.

Refreshments of cookies, coffee and ice tea were enjoyed during the social hour. This was the last regular meeting of the W.O.C. until September.

MRS. LESLIE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Dorothy Leslie entertained at her home in Peninsula Oaks on May 5 with two tables of ladies playing "Pennies From Heaven" (a canasta related game). Playing were: Kay Snapp, Louise Zeisler, Leta Posey, Bessie Glass, Katie Lou Mundine, Charlotte Lee, Betty Jean Ware and the hostess. High was won by Betty Jean Ward and low by Louise Zeisler. Refreshments of fruit jello, cookies, coffee and ice tea were served by the hostess.

The Kinsey Report

Herman Johnson's title is City Secretary but he really performs the functions for the City of Rockport that would be handled by a city manager in a larger city.

His services for the city (and thus for the residents of Rockport) are extremely important and he carries out these duties quietly, efficiently and without a lot of fuss. He is involved in just about every facet of the city's operation, either administratively or in an advisory capacity.

The City Council relies on him for detailed information on just about every matter that comes before the mayor and the aldermen for action.

With regard to budget items, Johnson keeps close track of the money coming in from taxes and other sources such as Revenue Sharing funds, sales tax receipts and federal grants.

He personally checks on such things as alleged violation of city zoning regulations, and also does his best to answer questions put to him by residents who often are confused about why certain actions are taken by the city, such as shutting off their water when they fail to pay their water bills.

Johnson answers all such questions (sometimes they are "demands") courteously and intelligently.

At every City Council meeting he does his best to be completely informed on the background of every issue on which the Council is expected to act.

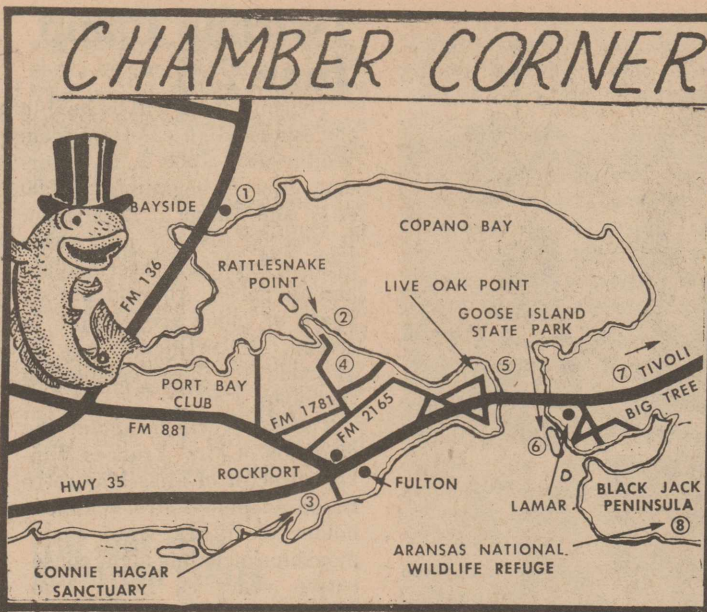

An alderman or the mayor will say, "Herman, what's this all about? Give us all the information you have, other than the data we considered at our last workshop."

Johnson will outline the facts, as he has been able to assemble them, and then he often will say, "The decision on what to do is up to the Council."

If a member of the Council says, "What would you recommend?" Johnson will cautiously state what appears to him to be the best course of action, but invariably he will conclude by adding, "However, it is up to you gentlemen to make the official decision."

The City of Rockport is fortunate to have a man with Johnson's ability, intelligence, dedication and willingness to work tirelessly to carry out his duties.

And, this story won't particularly please him because he shuns publicity and prefers to remain in the background.

Recent new members to the Chamber roster are Island Charter operated by Gary Clouse; Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce; The Bookstore, owned by Pat Picton; and The Sailfish and Sailing School owned and operated by Holly Beckley. We're happy to have these folks in our community and as supporters of the Chamber of Commerce.

We have received several calls in regard to a bad bumper sticker seen on cars in this area. The bumper sticker is definitely the work of some short sighted, small minded individual or individuals. The Chamber of Commerce and other organizations have worked long and hard and spent lots of money getting people interested in spending the winter months here. Certainly everyone knows how much these "winter Texans" mean to us and to our economy. We implore any out of state visitor not to take exception to this bumper sticker, just consider the source.

Recently a sailing club visited our area and was entertained by the local sailing club with a barbeque at the Lion's Club Pit in Navigation Park. The Red Carpet Committee of the Chamber helped host this event. It was learned that more of the Houston area club members would have made the trip if there had been available dockage.

Bearing this in mind, the Board of Directors at their last meeting passed a resolution endorsing the idea of turning the salt water swimming pool into a small boat harbor. It would certainly be an ideal spot and would bring in revenue for the Navigation District. But most important, this area is becoming more and more a boating paradise and more dock spaces are needed.

Storefront '76 has 15 entries, according to Nancy Cooke. Several business places are beginning to paint and plant. One attractive entrant is Blair's Wholesale Sea Shells, all spruced up in Bicentennial colors. Seen along Austin Street are new planters and clean sidewalks. We hope every business in the County will be encouraged to participate in Storefront '76.

A.C. RAIDERS II NEWS

The Raiders girls team played two fine games last week by losing to the Baby Bombers, probably the best girls team in the state, 8 to 2, then winning one from Johnston Transmission by coming from behind in the last inning, scoring 6 runs to pull the game out of the fire by one run and ending the game.

These first year girls are playing some fine ball and playing some exciting games. These are all hometown girls, all but one girl is between the ages of 12 to 15.

The club would like to put these girls in some tournaments, but money is short, so anyone who wishes to give these fine ballplayers a hand with a donation of either money or equipment would be greatly appreciated.

Make checks out to A.C. Raiders and mail to P.O. Box 620, Aransas Pass, Texas 78336.

The members of the ball club are Alma & Connie Rivera, Barbara, Helena, Theresa & Brenda Lewis, Belinda Cross, Mammie Gonzales, Cindy Gordon, Tommy & Terry Huff, Carrie Shuff, Darlene Dilworth and Carolyn Farnsworth. The girls sponsors are Los Amigos Restaurant and A.C. Raiders I.

ROCKPORT MAMAS WIN TWO MORE

The Rockport Mamas continued their winning streak by defeating the very tough Flour Bluff Sluggers 5 to 3 April 28. Handicapped by a shortage of players the Mamas rose to the occasion and played one of their best defensive games yet.

On May 3 the Mamas beat the Coyote Queens 6 to 1. This brings them within two wins of a playoff berth for the division championship. Margie Bush hit a home run but it was wiped out when she failed to touch second base.

The Mamas seem to play better each game realizing that each win brings them closer to a chance to bring a championship trophy home to Rockport.

The Mamas entered the Corpus Christi tournament May 1 and 2. After losing the first game they won five straight games before losing out, one game short of a trophy.

The girls played their hearts out and the coach is very proud of the whole team. Sixth place isn't bad for a 21-team tournament.

If you enjoy softball the girls really need your support for these next two games. Ask any player for time and place.

Veterans Children Receive VA Help

Almost 48,000 children of veterans are receiving training with financial help from the Veterans Administration, Paul
F. Barnett, Acting Director, Houston VA Regional Office, said today. More than 44,000 of the children are enrolled in college-level courses.

The VA pays up to $270 per month to help educate children of veterans who are permanently and totally disabled from service-connected causes or whose parent died as a result of military service. Also eligible are children of servicemen still listed as missing in action.

Marriage of the child is no barrier to VA educational assistance, Barnett said. Generally, the child remains eligible until his 26th birthday. The children may receive up to 36 months of schooling, or the equivalent of 36 months if enrolled part time. The aggregate entitlement may not exceed 48 months.

If eligible children under 18 have graduated from high school or are above the age of compulsory school attendance, the VA may begin this schooling before they reach age 18.
Some handicapped children may begin special vocational or restorative courses with VA financial help as early as age 14.

Complete information on eligibility criteria for education assistance for veterans' children may be obtained from any VA office or veterans service organization.

REPORT EARNINGS ESTIMATE CHANGES TO SOCIAL SECURITY

Working people under 72 getting social security retirement, survivors, or dependents payments should report any changes in their 1976 earnings estimates as soon as possible, according to Albert W. Hornung, Operations Supervisor of the Corpus Christi social security district office.

"Social security payments to people 72 and over aren't affected by their earnings. But earnings can affect payments to people under 72," Hornung said. "They should report any change in their work or earnings on the post card sent to people who work and get social security checks. If the post card is lost, the report can be made by calling or visiting the social security office."

People who find they are earning less than they originally estimated may get additional social security payments during 1976 if they report the change. "But people earning more than they originally estimated who don't report the change may get social security payments not due them and have to pay back some money at the end of the year," Hornung said.

Some persons have asked if they could draw checks all year and then pay back, if necessary, at the end of the year. The answer is "No," Hornung said, if it involves an estimate known to be false at the time it is made.

Social security payments are not affected by earnings of $2,760 or less for the year. Payments are reduced $1 for each $2 earned over $2,760, but no matter how much people earn in a year they can get their full social security payment for any month they neither earn over $230 nor do substantial work in their own business.

FISH-ONE-STOP NUTRITION CENTER

College Station-A little fish goes a long way to provide many nutrients for every age, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, a foods and nutrition specialist, says.

"Most fish and shellfish contain low amounts of fat and high amounts of protein. And most fish-except shrimp and crayfish-contain small amounts of cholesterol in comparison with other foods. Certain organ meats and egg products contain 10 times as much cholesterol as fish and shellfish," she added.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Fish provides complete protein essential for good nutrition-protein builds and repairs. This nutrient is needed by every cell in the body. Children need it for building strong muscles, and adults need it to repair muscles and other cells.

"Fish products are easily digested because they contain little connective tissue. They are good for diets of young children and elderly people, where ease of digestibility is important," the specialist added.

She noted that calcium, iron, iodine, potassium, phosphorus, copper and manganese are minerals found in fish, and all are essential for good health.

"Calcium and phosphorus help maintain strong bones. Calcium also helps clotting of blood and regulating of the heartbeat. Fish containing small bones, such as salmon, are good sources of these minerals.

"Iron is another mineral present in fish and is needed by all cells-the red blood cells in particular. These cells carry oxygen in the air through the blood vessels to all cells in the body. Lack of iron in the diet makes a person feel tired and run down and can lead to anemia," she explained.

Seafood is a rich source of iodine, a mineral often found lacking in the diet, according to a nutrition survey. When seafood is a major part of the diet in certain iodine-deficient areas, the iodine deficiency simple goiter can be prevented, she added.

"Certain fat-soluble Vitamins A, D, E, and K are present in fish. Specifically, Vitamin A is necessary for growth and helps night vision, and Vitamin D helps the formation of strong bones and teeth. Vitamin E plays a role as an anti-oxidant that inhibits the oxidation of unsaturated fatty acids and Vitamin A. It also helps maintain normal resistance to blood cells to rupture by oxidizing agents.

"Vitamin K is necessary for the synthesis of prothrombin, an enzyme essential for the normal clotting of blood. Also, the B-complex thiamin, niacin and riboflavin is present in fish. The B-vitamin content of fish is about the same as that of meat from animals.

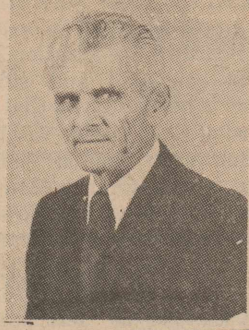

"These vitamins help use energy from food and keep the nerves and skin in good condition," she said.

Whatever its faults, the Establishment has the wherewithal to insure that those who would have no establishment are supplied with the requirements for keeping their rebellious selves from starving.

The American alligator is not pretty. As a matter of fact-he's one of the ugliest fellows I know. He can be a nuisance too, but, thank goodness, many legislators and conservationists feel the same way I do: No species of wildlife must be allowed to disappear from the scene if it can be prevented.

Many people are afraid of alligators, and, I must admit, his looks do nothing to calm those fears. In spite of the fact that we have absolutely no record of an unprovoked attack upon a human by the American alligator, there are still many people who look upon him as a sly, vicious killer who should be eliminated from any area that even might be used by man.

Some years ago the Federal government declared this ugly old man of the swamps an "endangered species", and the Texas legislature closed the season entirely so that no more alligators could legally be killed in the state. The Louisiana legislature did the same thing. They have made a remarkable recovery both in Texas and Louisiana. In fact, they have done so well in our sister state to the east that last year Louisiana opened a limited season in one area for a short time. Now the Federal people are considering a change in status from endangered to "threatened."

There are 97 counties in Texas that have habitat listed as suitable for alligators. In 34 counties Texas Parks and Wildlife biologists find the population is increasing and in 24 the population is stable. There are, however, 11 counties where biologists find that the population is decreasing in spite of the closed season. There are 11 more counties where suitable habitat exists but where no alligators are known to live.

In 17 counties the biologists list an "undetermined" population. One would think that these counties would have low populations, but the biologists say this is not necessarily true. At least six of these counties have good numbers of alligators, but, the biologists say, they just haven't been able to do enough work there to estimate a population trend.

A good estimate of the number of alligators now living in Texas is 40,762. This is a 11.5 percent rise from the 36,558 thought to be here in 1974. Biologists believe that part of this increase is due to more efficient census methods.

There are only four counties with alligator populations in excess of 1,000. They are Jefferson (13,611), Chambers (6,500), Brazoria (5,000) and Orange (1,150).

No -- he's not pretty, but he does do a good job of controlling turtles, snakes and rough fish. His wallowing out of "alligator holes" creates good habitat for many water birds and animals and tends to conserve swamp habitat during periods of drought. He is a valuable asset and, it would seem, we have stemmed the downward plunge in his numbers.

High School Athletic News

At the present time, there are 21 Pirate athletes lifting over 200 pounds. In early January, this year, there were only four that could get over the 200 pound mark on the bench press.

One Pirate, sophomore Bobby Lewis, has gone over the 300 pound mark — 305 pounds. This makes Lewis the strongest athlete among those lifting.

Those Pirates lifting over 250 pounds are: Eugenio Garcia, John Picton, Bruce Barre, Bill Adams, Ruben Carpenter and Ronnie Ormand.

The enthusiasm in the weight program has been tremendous. The weight program will be carried on throughout the summer in the summer recreation program. Anyone interested is invited to the High School facilities. The summer track program will get into full swing in early June and the facilities will be open from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., four days a week — Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. More information on the summer track program and the recreation program will be announced later this month.

What's invisible, usually doesn't hurt a bit, affects millions of Americans, is controllable, yet when left untreated can cause stroke, heart failure or kidney disease?

The answer, says the Texas Department of Health Resources is high blood pressure or hypertension. The state health department is helping call attention to this problem in May, designated as High Blood Pressure Month.

Uncontrolled high blood pressure is a major national public health problem. It is the primary cause of 60,000 deaths in the United States each year. And, says the National Institutes of Health, it is a contributing factor in 1,500,000 heart attacks and strokes that occur each year in this country.

An estimated 23 million Americans, or about 15 percent of the adult population, have high blood pressure. That's one in seven adults, not only in Texas but throughout the land.

The prevalence rates of high blood pressure rise steadily with advancing age, and in every age group the prevalence is higher for blacks than for whites.

Among American blacks, not only is the prevalence about twice as high as that among whites, but it is more severe and occurs at an earlier age. High blood pressure afflicts not only the elderly but also young and middle-aged adults in the most productive years.

Although detection is simple and painless—and drug therapy is practical and effective—the great majority of hypertensive people are not receiving satisfactory treatment.

Half of the estimated 23 million hypertensive Americans don't even know they have it, according to the National Institutes of Health. Of those who do know, less than three million of those with high blood pressure are receiving adequate treatment—treatment to reduce their blood pressure within normal limits.

The Texas Dept. of Health Resources local health units and regional offices are detecting high blood pressure in people throughout the state through the simple taking of blood pressure at clinics and in medical screening programs. In addition, they are cooperating with other agencies in health fairs and some open houses of local health departments to provide special screening.

How does high blood pressure affect your body?

Blood pressure varies among people, and in the same person at different times. It decreases during sleep and increases during exertion or excitement. There is a considerable range of normal pressure, which can be explained to you by your doctor. An important thing to know—and something your physician checks—is that when pressure goes above so-called normal limits and remains elevated, patients have high blood pressure or hypertension.

With high pressure in the arteries, the heart must pump harder. When high blood pressure is present for long periods, the heart enlarges. Eventually, under the continued extra burden, the heart weakens, loses efficiency and pumps less blood with each beat. The kidneys, unable to function effectively because of reduced blood flow, fail to excrete enough fluids, and tissues become waterlogged, adding still more to the burden of the heart.

Hardening of the blood vessels—or arteriosclerosis—is the major cause of high blood pressure. The blood vessel changes may be a factor in stroke, kidney failure or heart failure.

Proper treatment reduces the danger. In most people, high blood pressure can be lowered and kept under control with continuing treatment. This greatly reduces the risk of serious complications.

Remember, the way to know whether your blood pressure is high is to go to your doctor and have the pressure taken. The fact that you feel fine is no assurance your blood pressure is okay.

It is important to have regular checkups to discover if you have high blood pressure. And there's one other point: carefully follow the instructions of your doctor. So have regular physical checkups and do your friends and family a favor by telling them of the dangers of high blood pressure.

Students participating will furnish their own shoes and clothing and pay their own entry fees into the meets. The school district will provide the facilities, supervision and transportation to and from the meets. Students will provide their own transportation from home to the school and back. The track meets will be held on Thursdays and Saturdays during daytime. The schedule of meets is as follows:

- June 10 - Aransas Pass,
- June 12 - Tuloso-Midway,
- June 17 - Rockport,
- June 19 - Beeville,

Baptist Ladies Hold Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met May 4 at the church. Mrs. James Russell was the hostess.

After enjoying refreshments of cookies, coffee and iced tea, the business meeting was called to order. Mrs. Russell was in charge. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. C.O. Lutz, the secretary. She reported ten ladies of the church attended the Associated meeting in Refugio.

Geographically, the honor students include 257 graduates of Houston area high schools, 264 from Texas high schools outside the Houston area, 391 from out of state and 49 from high schools in foreign countries.

Taken by classes, there are 219 freshmen, 226 sophomores, 219 juniors, 267 seniors, and 34 fifth-year students on the Honor Roll.

Included in the list was Richard Glenn Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Little of this city.

Austin-A scant one-half ounce was enough to set a new Texas record for chain pickerel taken from Caddo Lake.
Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials recently certified the fish caught by James Pyle of Marshall which weighed four pounds seven ounces, beating the old record from Caddo of four pounds 6½ ounces landed in 1971.
Pyle's pickerel measured 24½ inches long with a girth of 11½ inches. He caught the fish
March 27 with a mid-water plug on 17-pound-test line.

We're just the beginning.

Tornado Season Here Again

College Station—Hot, humid, windy weather can be a dangerous signal for Texas during the spring months.
Why?
Because these weather conditions breed tornadoes, and Texas is the most tornado-prone state in the nation, says Dr. Gary Nelson, agricultural safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.
Texas has an average of 102 tornadoes a year, with most of them occurring in April and May when there are violent winds, severe thunderstorms, and masses of cool and warm air colliding with each other.
Eight out of 10 tornadoes occur between noon and midnight, with more than 20 per cent in the two-hour span from 4 to 6 p.m.
Tornadoes, which take an average annual toll of 184 human lives in the U.S., usually travel southwest to northeast and stay on the ground about 10 minutes. Their forward speed is about 30 miles per hour, but wind speeds in the funnel of a tornado can get up to 300 miles per hour, explains Nelson.
The National Weather Service issues a "tornado watch" when atmospheric conditions are favorable for the development of tornadoes. A "tornado warning" is issued when a tornado has actually been sighted or detected by radar.
"If you hear of a tornado watch, stay tuned to a radio or television for weather reports," says the Texas A&M University System engineer. "If a tornado warning is issued, take cover in a basement, cellar or civil defense shelter and keep a

COUNTY PERSONNEL TO RECEIVE RAISES
Aransas County elected officials and employees will receive 15 per cent salary increases July 1. The action was taken at a Commissioners Court meeting by split vote, with Judge John D. Wendell voting yes after the four commissioners split on the issue, two against two.
Commissioners J.M. Sparks, Jr., and Albert Wofford voted in favor of the raises and Commissioners Raymond Owens and W.B. Allen voted against the 15 per cent across-the-board pay hikes. Judge Wendell broke the tie by voting in favor of the raises.

BEAUTIFYING WATERFRONT
The Aransas County Navigation District and the civic affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce are beautifying the Rockport waterfront.
Working with a grant of $500 from the Navigation District, Mrs. Charles Roe, Sr., Mrs. J.D. Griggs and Seth H. Steele planned the plantings and ordered the trees and shrubs for the project.
In all, about 185 palms of two species and oleanders will be planted.
Emory M. Spencer donated the heavy black dirt needed for the project, which was hauled by the county. The county also aided with a posthole auger to make the digging of holes easier in the hard-packed shell that surrounds the Turning Basin.

battery-powered radio handy in case power lines are down."
The safest refuge, says Nelson, is a tornado shelter, underground excavation or reinforced concrete structure.
"If you don't have a basement, stay in the central part of the lowest level of the house or get in a closet or bathroom or under heavy furniture. Open a few windows but stay away from them," the engineer warns.
"If you're in an office or factory, stay in an inside hallway on the lowest floor or go to a designated shelter."
"Get out of mobile homes or old, poorly built buildings and stay away from any structures with free-span roofs such as gyms or auditoriums."
"If you're caught in open country when a tornado hits, head for a nearby building or lie flat in a ravine or ditch. Don't stay in a car unless you can drive away from the tornado at

Some people suspect their friends quicker than any one else and are ready, at all times, to accuse them of unkindness.

One of the keys to old age is in knowing how to relax and break the tension which builds up while making a living.

Give the other man credit for some sincerity of purpose and you might be able to understand him better.
