Strike Ends; Subways Roll In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — This city's unprecedented, multimillion - dollar subway and bus strike ended shortly before dawn today minutes after entering its 13th day. Restoration of normal service was promised by noon.

For 3.5 million New York workers there still remained the problem of getting to their jobs. The monumental traffic crush associated with the strike built up even as the dispute was resolved.

Before the Transit Authority set the noon hour for resumption of full service of its 6,500-subway car and 4,000-bus system, Mayor John V. Lindsay had said he did not expect it before "late tonight or early Friday."

The striking AFL-CIO unions—the Transport Workers Union and the Amalgamated Transit Union — agreed to mediators' settlement terms shortly before 6:30 a.m.

By 8 a.m., the first segment of the 237-mile-long subway system was carrying its first paying passenger since New Year's Day. A half-hour later the Transit Authority announced that 3,200 buses were in operation.

Although describing it as "fruitless to get into the numbers game," Lindsay evaluated the new two-year labor contract for 34,400 workers at $52 million. But a TWU lawyer said it "is for $69,980,000 to the penny."

The workers went back to their jobs pending union ratification of the contract.

The release of TWU chief Michael J. Quill and eight other imprisoned labor leaders appeared to be only a technicality. When a judge sent them to jail for contempt of an injunction forbidding the strike, he specified they were to remain behind bars until the transit workers were ordered back to the job.

A union spokesman said the Transit Authority promised to drop its attempt to obtain $322,000-a-day in fines against the unions for damages.

Iran, Soviet Union Ink Trade Pact

MOSCOW (AP) — Iran signed trade and aid agreements with the Soviet Union today covering Soviet help for a new iron and steel works to be built near Isfahan.

Iran will pay for the help with natural gas piped to Russia.

The aid agreement provides for Soviet technical help in building a number of other industrial projects in Iran, including a gas pipeline to Russia.

Soviet Envoy Arrives In Peking

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)) — Soviet envoy Alexander N. Shelepin arrived in Peking today for talks with Chinese leaders after his week-long visit to Hanoi.

Shelepin's 24-hour stopover came on the heels of President Johnson's State of the Union message in which he pledged anew to defend South Viet Nam from aggression but made new overtures for peace.

A correspondent of the Japanese Kyodo news service reported from Peking that Chinese Communist observers there brushed aside Johnson's peace offers and attached significance only to his determination to fight on in Viet Nam.

Official Soviet reaction to the President's speech was slow in coming. Tass the Soviet news agency, told of the speech in a dispatch from Washington which said, inpart:

"Johnson said he couldn't foresee how long the Viet Nam war will go on and that it might well be a protracted and tough war or protracted and tough talks or both. On the one hand, the President expressed the the hope that he will be able to end the Viet Nam war, and on the other hand he left no doubt as to the United States' intention to carry on the war for months or even years."

Although Western officials hoped Shelepin, during his visit to North Viet Nam, urged President Ho Chi Minh's regime to join peace negotiations with the United States, the Soviet envoy's farewell remarks relayed by Tass gave no indication that he did.

He told Premier Pham Van Doug the Soviet people "wish you success in your just struggle against the American aggressors."

Prince Philip Plans Visit

LONDON (AP)—Prince Philip will visit five American cities —Houston, Dallas, El Paso, Los Angeles and New York— in March, to promote British exports, it was disclosed today.

The husband of Queen Elizabeth II also will visit Miami and Toronto to help raise funds for youth projects sponsored by the International Variety Clubs, of which he is an honorary life member.

His first engaement will be in Houston March 12, when he will meet Braniff Airlines executives. The Dallas company has bought the British Aircraft Corp.'s 111 Jetliner. Philip will fly from Houston to Dallas and El Paso in one.

He is to reach Los Angeles March 13.

Snow Falls In Big Bend

By The Associated Press

More than four inches of snow fell on Alpine in the mountains of the Big Bend Country Thursday.

The Alpine Avalanche publisher called it "wonderful."

"It is wet and slushy," said Publisher Jim Glasscock, who said that area welcomed all the moisture it could receive.

Glasscock said the snow continued heavily at midmorning, but there was no indication of how much of the countryside received the moisture.

Alpine has an elevation of 4,850 feet, meaning it generally has cooler weather. Thus while that town had snow, many other Texas areas reported only light rain.

President Outlines Cost Of War, Great Society Peace Drive To Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has outlined a massive work load for the new Congress under a record $112.8-billion budget and has assured Capitol Hill that U.S. fighting men will stay in Viet Nam as long as Communist aggression continues.

Democrats and Republicans alike applauded the determination he expressed Wednesday night in his State of the Union message to press for peace although "we have received no response to prove either success or failure" on the current American peace offensive.

While Democrats applauded his declaration that he would not permit the war to sidetrack his "Great Society" programs, Republicans attacked many of his domestic program proposals and his assertion that the budget deficit for the next fiscal year would be held to $1.8 billion.

On the domestic front, the President's sweeping proposals ranged from plans to combat crime in the streets to establishment of a Cabinet-level department of transportation. He asked for laws to guarantee equality for Negroes in the courts and in housing and a constitutional amendment which would extend the two-year terms of House members to four years.

He asked for money to push ahead on the health and education programs enacted last year and to expand the antipoverty program. He called for the complete rebuilding of entire central and slum areas of several cities and an attack on the polluting of the nation's rivers. He said he would propose legislation aimed at cutting down on traffic slaughter.

On the foreign front, he asked for "a new and daring direction to our foreign aid program" with help to nations trying to control population growth. He said he wanted expanded trade with the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

On "pocketbook issues," he asked that the newly lifted excise taxes be slapped back onto cars and phone calls. He also asked bigger withholdings from paychecks and a speed-up in corporate tax collections. The latter two steps would not mean increases in tax rates.

But the President said he would not hesitate to ask Congress for additional taxes "if the necessities of Viet Nam require it."

Reaction came quickly:

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said appropriations committees will take apart Johnson's domestic money proposals.

"Overly optimistic," said House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Johnson's prediction revenues would soar to $111 billion.

Some Democrats agreed. Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., ordinarily a staunch administration supporter, questioned whether defense spending could be held to Johnson's estimate of $58.3 billion.

Midwest Covered By Deep Snows

By The Associated Press

A huge storm dumped deep snows on the Midwest today and took dead aim on the Northeastern United States.

The snow piled up to more than 11 inches in Milwaukee and 8 inches in Rockford, Ill., Wednesday night.

The storm, which packed snow, sleet, freezing rain and strong winds, halted air traffic at Gen. Mitchell Field in Milwaukee and incoming planes were rerouted to Chicago.

Wind gusting up to 35 miles per hour piled the snow into 3-foot drifts. Schools were closed in southeastern Wisconsin Wednesday and thousands of workers were sent home early.

Snow drifted up to 2 feet in downtown Madison, Wis.

The storm zeroed in on Chicago with the city's worst storm of the winter. Four inches accumulated at O'Hare International Airport, but air traffic continued.

About 11½ inches fell at Buffalo Grove, about 25 miles northwest of Chicago.

Ice one inch in diameter formed on power lines in Chicago suburbs and in Streator, Ill. Work crews stood by for emergencies.

The snow struck northern Missouri, southern and eastern Iowa, extreme southeastern Minnesota, Wisconsin, northern Illinois, Michigan and northern Indiana.

Hazardous - drivig warnings were posted and extended eastward to all of Ohio and extreme southwestern Pennsylvania.

Two deaths caused by heart attacks while shoveling snow were reported in Milwaukee.

Eight inches of snow covered Minneapolis, including Wednesday's five-inch fall.

Light snow, mixed with sleet, pelted Nebraska.

In eastern Iowa, snowfalls of 5 and 6 inches followed a night of freezing rain.

The Weather Bureau said the storm was headed toward the Northeast, in the grip of cold temperatures.

Snow fell in New England Wednesday. Most of northern Maine was zero to 10 above. Some freezing rain fell, giving the snowpack a treacherous covering.

Rain and strong winds raked the north Pacific Coast. Wind gusts up to 51 miles per hour hit Tatoosh Island, Wash.

Price Ceiling Is Set Aside

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A federal appeals court has issued a stay order directing the Federal Power Commission to set aside its price ceilings on natural gas produced in the Permian Basin of Texas and New Mexico.

The 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Wednesday that the stay is to be in effect until the merits of the case are determined through litigation in the courts.

The decision said the stay order in no way touches on the merits of any issues raised in the controversial case.

The three-judge panel said producers would suffer "irreparable injury" if the rate ceilings were put into effect immediately and later modified or rescinded by court action.

"The court said producers would be required to refund amounts collected for sales of gas produced on or after Sept. 1 "to the extent that such collections exceed the rates determined to be just and reasonable (by the courts)."

The FPC ruled on Aug. 5, 1965, that the highest rate a producer might charge for gas produced in the Permian Basin was 16.5 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for gas from new wells, effective as of Sept. 1. The ceiling for all other gas was 14.5 cents per 1,000.

Some 300 producers contend that the reductions would cost them about $20 million a year.

Twenty Killed In Nigerian Outbreak

IBADAN, Nigeria (AP) — Twenty people were killed Wednesday in a new outbreak of political violence in the western Nigeria town of Ilesha.

Police said most of the victims were killed by gunfire.

About 400 persons have been reported killed or injured in almost daily clashes between rival political factions since elections in the region Oct. 11.

SNYDER PUPILS GET A HOLIDAY

Pupils in Snyder Public Schools will get a holiday from the classrooms Friday, but their teachers report as usual to their respective buildings.

In this year's school calendar, tomorrow is set aside as a teacher work day to enable the faculty members to complete chores ending the fall semester and make preparations for beginning the spring semester on Monday.

JOSEPH L. ROBINSON

J. L. Robinson Dies; Rites Set Friday

Joseph Lemuel Robinson, 89, who lived at 3100 Avenue U, died at 6:45 a.m. today in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Robinson was a retired chief traveling auditor for the Texas and Pacific Railway Co., a position he held for 30 years before his retirement in 1945. Upon his retirement he moved here from Dallas, and since that time had been engaged in bookkeeping and accounting work.

A native of Corsicana, Mr. Robinson was married on Oct. 18, 1899, in Hillsboro to Miss Jennie Virginia Williams. Mrs. Robinson survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Schiebel; two sons, Joe V. Robinson of Snyder and James B. Robinson of Dallas; two brothers, Jim Robinson of Waco and Guy Robinson of Phoenix, Ariz., and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the First Methodist Church. Dr. John English, First Methodist Pastor, and the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, will officate.

Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery, under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Johnny Schiebel, William, Joe F. and Jimmy Robinson, Roger Williams, Ralston Bridge, Borden Gray, and Joe Cox.

Region's Economy Strong, WTCC Delegates Are Told

EL PASO—The 132 - county area served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has grown into a $7 billion market with a population in excess of 3,200,000 people, Beeman Fisher of Fort Worth, WTCC president, said Thursday in speaking before the mid-year meeting of the chamber's membership in El Paso.

In speaking on the subject, "What Makes West Texas Tick?", Fisher presented for the first time statistics from a new survey of the 132-county area.

Fisher, who is president of Texas Electric Service Co., pointed out that this means the total $7 billion personal income of the people in this area exceeds that of any of 28 other states in the nation. It also is one-third of the Texas state-total.

It also means, he said, that the total personal income in the area approximates $27 million a day for the more than one million workers who live and work here.

Fisher reported that there are about 118,000 farmers and ranchers in the area and that their 1965 cash income exceeded $1.1 billion. The 1965 cotton harvest will approximate 3,175,000 bales, and almost 200,000 bushels of grain sorghum were harvested. These farmers and rachers have banked about $300 million from cattle sales, but there are about four million cattle and calves remaining on the ranches of West Texas, and 300,000 head are now being fed in commerical feed lots in West Texas.

West Texans also received $42 million last year from 4.5 million sheep and $28 million in mohair alone from some 4 million goats in West Texas, Fisher said.

The speaker emphasized the importance of tourism and income received for products and services from those visiting the area to enjoy the cultural assets and recreational facilities. These visitors, on the average, he said, pump about $40 a day into the economy of the area.

In the West Texas area, there now are some 32,160 air-conditioned hotel and motel rooms with 428 swimming pools for the pleasure of visitors. In addition, there are 1,953 holes of golf, 57 museums, 42 art galleries, and 10 full-sized zoos.

In addition, there are also 4,180 churches, 28 community theatres, and 10 symphony orchestras, 5,487 clubs and organizations, and more than 1,500 modern retail stores.

The speaker said that the new survey showed there are about 150,000 workers now employed in West Texas factories, producing $1.5 billion in value added by manufacture.

In the past 15 years, Fisher said, factory employment has been rising at 4 per cent per year in West Texas, while the state has risen at 3 per cent a year, and the national increase has been about 1.5 per cent.

In referring to the petroleum industry, Fisher said that in 1965, 600 million barrels of crude oil and three trillion cubic feet of gas, valued at more than $2.1 billion, were produced and that this was about one - eighth of the nation's supply.

In addition to reviewing the area-wide statistics, Fisher listed new industries and expansions in West Texas cities and towns and said that these new industries and expansions accounted for 9,300 new jobs.

SLIDES, FLOODS

Rio Death Toll Climbs To 283

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — The death toll from floods and landslides in the Rio de Janeiro area reached 283 today with disclosure that disaster also hit a valley city to the north.

A major water shortage caused when a boulder smashed a main line added to the misery as the area began a cleanup after three days of rain.

Authorities gave this breakdown of casualties: 184 known dead in Rio de Janeiro; 36 dead in Niteroi, across the bay; and 63 dead in Petropolis, a city of 62,000 nestled in the mountains 26 miles north of the city.

It was the flooding of Petropolis that sent the death figures soaring.

More rain hampered operations Wednesday night as volunteers searched for more bodies in the shantytown "Favela" slums on Rio's hillside. Most of the deaths occurred there.

The rain caused more landslides but no new victims were reported. Most of the hillside residents had been evacuated.

Gov. Francisco Negrao de Lima appealed to the public to conserve water after a landslide plunged a 150-pound boulder into a pipeline and cut off 40 per cent of the city's drinking water.

The shortage affected the city's most populated sections, including hard-hit Copacabana and Tijuca. The governor said it was likely to last several days.

The floods buckled streets and burst sewers and mains, clogging the drainage system. There were fears of epidemics and hundreds were being inoculated against typhoid and smallpox.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We just moved from the South to the West Coast. We have Southern accents, and every time one of us opens our mouth, we get looks that would freeze the ears off a brass monkey. Our son had three fights in school last week. He is only eight years old, and every fight has been because some kid said something hateful about the South. They undoubtedly heard it at home and were only repeating, but it hurts just the same. These Northerners claim that THEY are not prejudiced, that WE are. But they are sure not practicing what they preach. How are we supposed to cope with this kind of treatment?

SOUTHERNERS MOVED WEST

DEAR SOUTHERNERS: Only education will overcome prejudice. But those who refuse to learn cannot be taught. Try to teach your children to respect other persons' point of view, even though he may not share it. And to "speak softly but carry a big stick." (Teddy Roosevelt.)

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Four of us girls who work together have lunch at a small luncheonette every noon. We leave work a few minutes early to be sure we get a booth. We eat our lunches at a normal rate. The place fills up quickly, and when we have a cigarette leisurely with a second cup of coffee, the glares we get from the customers who are standing over us, breathing down our necks, are enough to kill. We ignore them as though they weren't even there. We do not intentionally sit there just to be mean. We've paid for our lunches and think a second cup of coffee (and a third if we feel like it) with a cigarette is not taking advantage. We'd like your opinion.

THE FOUR DOLLS

DEAR DOLLS: If you can, in good consicence, sit and have a second and third cup of coffee "leisurely," while others are standing and waiting to be fed, then you must expect glares. (I would glare, too.)

DEAR ABBY: I am planning my wedding and would like your opinion on something. We are making up the guest list, and my parents want to invite so many people who are strangers to me and my fiance that we are not able to invite many of our friends.

The church is small and our finances are limited. My father's business acquaintances and my mother's club ladies have used up most of the guest list. I realize my parents are paying for this wedding, but I don't think my wedding should be used as an occasion to pay off social and business obligations. How do you feel about this, Abby?

BLUE BRIDE

DEAR BRIDE: The close friends of the bride and groom should be first on the list, followed by relatives, and then close friends of the couple's parents. Since the number of guests must be limited, a compromise should be made. Casual acquaintances of the couple, and business and social friends of the bride's parents should be invited only if there is room.

Says Gas Was Beacon In Blackout

HOUSTON (AP)—A pipeline firm executive says natural gas total energy projects demonstrated spectacularly their effectiveness during the November power blackout in New York.

E. Clyde McGraw, president of the Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp., said Rochdale Village in Jamaica, Queens and Warbasse Houses, a large apartment project in the Coney Island section of Brooklyn, have natural gas-fueled total energy installations. Gas generates all the electricity for all the electric needs and provides steam for heating, cooling and hot water.

"These areas were like beacons in the darkness," McGraw said Wednesday in a speech before the natural gas men of Houston.

McGraw said "scary statements hinting at an impending shortage of gas supply" can hurt the natural gas industry in its battle for additional markets.

He said such statements are not going to encourage demand and "the lessening of demand can only further weaken prices."

McGraw suggested a "positive approach by all segments of the industry—including producers—to strengthen public confident and encourage use of natural gas."

He said natural gas now is being used by customers in 4 states with Hawaii as the lone exception.

He said this means the industry now is in a transition from an era of phenominal growth to an era of merely rapid growth.

"Natural gas industry growth therefore depends on new customers and uses," he said. "It is true the major markets have been pierced by the gas industry and the hectic post-war pace of new construction has leveled off...the keynote of the future in the energy business is competition.

"And that should frighten no one because the success that natural gas has become over the past quarter century was achieved only after contending with just about every contrived impediment that could be devised by man."

Wedding Depends On Luck, Trading Stamps

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — With a little luck and 2,400,000 trading stamps, Sylvia will be married on Valentine's Day.

That was the deadline set today by the friends of the Zoo Society who hope to obtain a mate for the 3½-year-old gorilla at the Baltimore Zoo.

Dr. Arthur Watson, zoo director, says he has been told by officials of a trading stamp firm that they will supply a male gorilla for the nuptials in exchange for 2,400,000 stamps.

Banquet For Scouters Is Set Friday

Some 400 Scouters and their wives are expected to attend the annual banquet of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, at Big Spring Friday night.

The annual council business meeting will be held at 6 p.m. and the banquet will begin at 7 p.m. The Student Union Building on the Howard County Junior College campus will be the site of the sessions.

At the business session, council members, council officers, executive board members, advisory committee members and local council representatives on the national council will be elected. On the nominating committee are W. B. Fleck of Odessa, chairman, Lyle Deffebach of Snyder, O. F. Hedrick Jr. of Midland, R. J. Ream, Big Spring, R. L. Toll of Pecos and O. O. Whitten of Wink.

R. L. Tollett, District Chairman of the Lone Star District, Big Spring, and a veteran scouter as well as a member of the Region IX executive committee, will present Silver Beaver awards as a highlight of the banquet. The Silver Beaver is the highest honor a local council can bestow on a volunteer scouter.

Houston Man Indicted

HOUSTON (AP)—The Harris County Grand Jury has indicted Houston School Board trustee Asberry B. Butler Jr. for subordination of perjury.

Butler, 32, a Houston attorney, already is under two felony theft indictments.

The indictment returned Wednesday accused Butler of inducing a client to commit perjury in a felony drunk driving case in criminal district court Oct. 13, 1965.

Butler denied the charges and told newsmen political enemies are "out to get me."

He was indicted for felony theft by pretext Nov. 24 and again on Dec. 14. Both indictments accuse him of illegally obtaining money from insurance companies. He was released on bond.

The new indictment was returned to Criminal Dist. Judge E. B. Duggan, who set a $1,000 appearance bond for Butler.

Farmers Organize

AUSTIN, (AP) — The Texas Farmers Union said today it has chartered new organizations in Hill, Williamson and Travis Counties. The union said its organizers enrolled enough members in each of the counties to qualify them for charter affiliation with the union.

Quick Action Due On Excise Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — House action may start next week on President Johnson's request to have newly lifted excise taxes slapped back onto cars and phone calls. He also wants paycheck withholdings increased.

The bigger withholdings would not mean an increase in tax rates — the wage earner would just pay more as he went along and have less to pay at the end of the year. The same would apply to a speed-up in corporate tax collections asked by the President Wednesday night in his State of the Union message.

Johnson said his revenue proposals would help finance the Viet Nam war and domestic programs. He predicted his proposals would ultimately bring in more than $4 billion annually.

Johnson proposed no general tax increase but said he would make further requests later if the Viet Nam war forced an increase in revenue needs.

Sources close to the House Ways and Means Committee, where all tax legislation must originate, said it probably will begin hearings about next Wednesday.

Members were reluctant to comment on the chances for Johnson's proposals. But one, Rep. A. Sidney Herlong Jr., D-Fla., told reporters, "He'll get the tax increases. There's no doubt about it. Of course there will be opposition."

Opposition was quickly heard. A check of the Senate Finance Committee showed a probable majority inclined, at least for the present, against the proposals.

Some members said that if taxes must be raised, it would be better to hike the rates on tobacco and alcoholic beverages, or to rescind the special credit given companies which invest in a modernized plant.

Republicans have long been demanding that Johnson pare domestic programs before seeking any tax increase. Echoing such sentiments today, Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R - Mo., a member of the Ways and Means Committee, predicted a fight on the excise tax proposals.

Pair Of Beatles Vacation On Tobago

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—Beatles Ringo Starr and John Lennon and their wives are far from jolly old England and its winter chill.

They landed by plane Wednesday in Port of Spain—the land of calypso — and immediately boarded another plane for a short hop to the holiday isle of Tobago.

They planned to spend 10 days in the storied home of "Robinson Crusoe," where Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden honeymooned.

Pilot Is Identified

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — The Navy identified today the flier killed Wednesday on a training flight 11 miles north of Chase Filed at nearby Beeville. He was Lt. (j.g.) J. G. Kitchens Jr., 23, of Roanoke, Ala.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kitchens. He was flying an F9J Cougar jet.

Baby Boom Outpaces Food Crop

By SALLY RYAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The world produced more food than ever in 1965, but it couldn't keep up with the baby boom.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture reported world food production was up 1½ per cent, but the population increased 2 per cent.

Coffee production was up 51 per cent, but potato production was down 7 per cent, sugar 3 per cent and apples and pears 9 per cent. The rice crop was about the same as the big 1964 total, and wheat output was down slightly.

The booming demand from Asia and South America in particular lifted U.S. rice exports to a record, and raised the threat of tight supplies at home.

Growers in Arkansas, Mississippi, Missouri, Texas and California produced 3.5 million tons of rice last year, a record.

Usually South Viet Nam exports 300,000 to 400,000 tons of rice, but with the war, now it is importing rice — much of it from the United States.

The United States is feeding more of the world.

India, stricken by severe drought, will receive 1.5 million tons of food grains this winter. Chickens have been flown to Chile, hard-hit by storms.

More than half of the wheat, soybeans, dried peas and milled rice produced in the United States end up abroad.

At home, prices of canned corn are inching up, but canned pineapple is plentiful, and so is pineapple juice.

Prices of frozen orange juice concentrate have dropped with the big crop.

Baked Chicken, Mushroom Sauce

2 tablespoons butter
2½ to 3 pound frying chicken, cut into pieces
¼ cup instant blending flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
½ teaspoon paprika
Oven: 400 degrees
Yield: 4 to 6 servings

Melt butter in 13x9-inch baking dish. Coat chicken pieces well with butter; place skin-side up in baking dish. Combine remaining ingredients; sprinkle half over chicken. Turn chicken skin-side down. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes. Sprinkle with chicken pieces skin-side up. Bake 30 to 40 minutes longer or until chicken is tender. Serve with Sauce and cooked rice.

Mushroom Sauce

2 tablespoons butter
4-ounce can mushrooms, drained
1 cup chicken broth
1 cup light cream
3 tablespoons instant blending flour
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Saute mushrooms in butter until browned. Blend in remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Serve hot.

Stylist Says Short Hair Best

By KELLY SMITH

NEW YORK (AP) — Vidal Sassoon, the London hair stylist who makes Janes look like Joes, claims every woman in America ought to get rid of her hair "so she'll have time to do some real living."

Nightly pinups, teasing, bouffant hairdos and bobby pins are ridiculous, he says, "especially when this country is otherwise such a modern, spectacular place."

Short hair, he says, would give women time to be more feminine.

Sassoon expressed his views for 200 fashion writers attending New York Couture Group style previews Monday. The ladies gasped when shown one German model with platinum blonde hair shorter than Sassoon's.

"Every woman would cut her hair this way if she saw how easy it is," says Anna Lenz of Munich. To contrast her close-cropped hair, she wears makeup that takes on hour to put on.

"Men love my hair short," says Sassoon model Judy Mursch, 23, of Copenhagen, Denmark. "They rub their hands in it. They can't believe it's so straight thick. I think it's very sexy."

Kelly McKeown, 28, of New York, wears her blonde hair in what looks like a blown cut. "It's so interesting I get twice as many job bookings now," she says.

Sassoon charges $25 when he cuts a girl's hair, and she must have it recut every two to three weeks.

"Each girl's hair is done individually," he says, "it's styled to her bone structure and contour of her face. She can brush it any direction and it will look perfect."

Sassoon, 38 this month and handsome, has been cutting women's hair for 20 years. Most important is the over-all image.

"The clothes image is destroyed without a good haircut," he says. "Modern clothes need short, architectural hair." He has a new style, also short, ready for the Paris and Rome fashion openings, but he won't talk about it. He just laughs.

So far, ladies in this country aren't rushing to their hairdressers to cut their tresses.

In the words of beauty expert Virginia Graham: "Imagine showing your wedding pictures and have people ask, 'Which one's the groom?'"

Sassoon shrugs off criticism.

"A woman's haircut is the most important part of her dress," he says. And who cuts his? "Anybody I can find sitting around. You want to?"

Solons May Nix Plan's Extension

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson wants to spend $1 billion next year in a fight on hunger, disease, ignorance and overpopulation in foreign lands.

Whether Congress will favor this global extension of the "Great Society" at a time when some programs at home may be pinched to pay for the Viet Nam War remained in question. Johnson's plea for a $1 billion hike in auto and telephone taxes ran into stiff criticism.

Applause greeted the President's State of the Union message, however, when Johnson asked the legislators Wednesday night:

"To give a new and daring direction to our foreign aid program, designed to make a maximum attack on hunger, disease and ignorance in those countries determined to help themselves—and to help those nations trying to control population growth."

Johnson said it has always been part of U.S. foreign policy "to help improve the life of man" not only because of compassion, but also because this betters the chances for peace. He proposed:

—Placing U.S. farm resources and skill "at the service of those countries committed to developing a modern agriculture."

—An "international education act of 1966" to help schooling of youngsters in other lands.

—An "international health act of 1966" to promote U.S. medical aid abroad and help wipe out smallpox, malaria and control yellow fever "over most of the world in this decade."

—Assisting foreign population control efforts "by increasing our research and by earmarking funds to help their efforts.

"In the next year we propose to dedicate $1 billion to these efforts—and we call on all who have the means to join this work," Johnson said.

Administration officials declined to go into detail on the new proposals pending special messages the President intends to send to Congress later this session.

The $1 billion, officials said, is substantially more than the amount currently earmarked for activities in these fields now being carried on by a number of federal agencies. But they declined to say that this would mean any increase in over-all foreign aid spending, rather than just a shift in emphasis.

The Agency for International Development has $3.2 billion for various types of foreign aid this year. The Food for Peace program is shipping some $1.7 billion worth of surplus commodities abroad. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has overseas commitments. The government owns billions in unused foreign currencies. Much or all of the $1 billion could be found within these totals.

Americana Purchased By Waco Firm

Purchase of Americana Motor Inns in Snyder and Pecos by the Dormar Corp, of Waco has been announced here.

The Dormar Corp. is headed by Gordon Heath, a relative of operators of the Youngblood's Fried Chicken Restaurants and Arthur McKlemurry, both of Waco. McKlemurry formerly operated the Plantation House at the Six Flags Over Texas amusement center between Fort Worth and Dallas.

Heath said the only major change in operation will be the introduction of a specialized chicken and steak menu in the Americana Restaurant.

Bill Horn, manager of the Snyder Americana Inn, will be general manager of both the Snyder and Pecos establishments, as well as the Midland Americana when a transaction now being negotiated is completed.

Jerry Heath, brother of one of the owners, will be in charge of food preparation at the Americana Restaurants in both Snyder and Pecos.

Film Star Aldo Ray Sued For Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) —British actress Joanna Bennett, charging film star Aldo Ray with extreme mental cruelty and threatening her life many times, has filed suit for divorce.

Papers in the suit, filed Wednesday in Santa Monica, said the couple separated the day before.

The wife asked the court for an order restraining Ray from harassing her. She also sought custody of their two sons, Paul, 2, and Eric, 10 months. The couple was married March 25, 1960.

Nanda Seeks Assurance Of Lengthy Stay In Power

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister G.L. Nanda was reported seeking help today from India's political kingmakers to guarantee his staying in power.

As the senior member of the Cabinet, Nanda, who is 67, succeeded the late Lal Bahadur Shastri after Shastri's death Tuesday. He was said to feel strongly that the ruling Congress Party should not ask him to step down in favor of another candidate.

Nanda was acting prime minister after the death of Jawaharlal Nehru May 27, 1964, but gracefully relinquished power when the kingmakers chose Shastri as a compromise acceptable to the party's many factions.

Nanda met party president and reportedly said he should continue in office at least until general elections next year.

Other potential candidates also were moving to gather support.

The plum is the leader's seat on the Congress Party benches in Parliament. The man filling it is automatically asked by President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan to form a new government.

Party leaders discussed the situation informally today. The party's powerful working committee scheduled a formal meeting Friday to plan an election.

Challenges to Nanda may come from Defense Minister Y.B. Chavan and Information Minister Indira Gandhi. Both want the job, but whether they make a bid will depend on results of the maneuvering now under way.

Nanda also met today with U.S. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who represented President Johnson at Shastri's funeral.

Humphrey said he and Rusk expressed their pleasure at the peace agreement Shastri and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan reached in Tashkent just before Shastri's death.

Heath Goes To Session

Jim Heath, manager of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, attended the District 2 meeting of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Association yesterday at Littlefield.

Fifteen chamber managers attended the session and participated in discussion of a dozen topics, ranging from relationship of local chambers to their regional and national organizations, to industrial and economic conditions.

While in Littlefield, Heath inspected Littlefield's downtown improvement project which has attracted widespread interest.

Next meeting of the managers association will be held in March at a site yet to be designated.

Bear Blitz Blocks Allen's Ambitions

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago Bear legal blitz is keeping Bear aide George Allen from becoming the new head coach of the Los Angeles Rams in a growing National Football League rhubarb.

A Circuit Court hearing on the Bears' petition for a temporary injunction to keep Allen from fulfilling his Ram commitment was continued Wednesday until next Tuesday, Jan. 18.

The continuance came after Allen, 43-year-old Bear defensive coach, testified for 55 minutes on how he thought he was the new Ram coach as of last Monday, but Bear owner-coach George Halas thought he wasn't.

The 70-year-old Halas was represented in court by his son, Bear President George Halas Jr., and attorney Charles F. Short.

Allen, an eight-year Bear employe who also is director of player personnel for Halas, told Judge Cornelius J. Harrington he thought the breach-of-contract suit against him should be turned over to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Rozelle has said he regarded the dispute a matter to be resolved between the Rams, Allen and Halas.

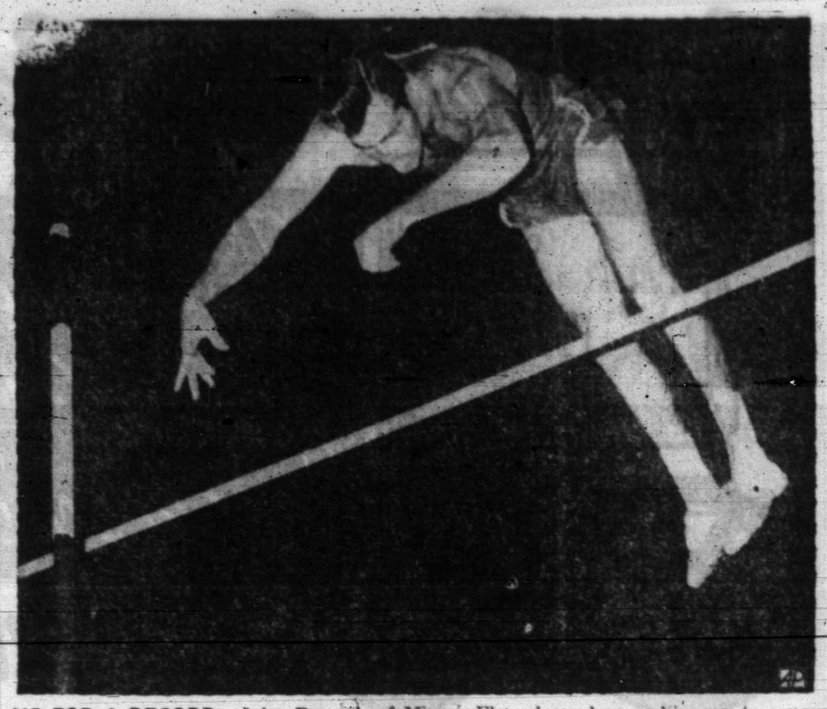

Wednesday's hearing brought a charge by Bear counsel that owner Dan Reeves of the Rams "is on trial in absentia for what he has done by waving the almighty dollar" to cause Allen to jump a Bear contract extending through 1967.

Allen's lawyer, Albert E. Jenner, told the court that Halas "welched after giving Allen permission to negotiate for the Rams job which he did not think Allen could get."

Allen testified that he assumed he had verbal permission from Halas to try for the Ram job, but never did get a formal go-ahead during his negotiations with Reeves between Dec. 28 and Jan. 4.

Allen told reporters after the hearing he considered himself Ram coach even though he has not yet signed a contract.

His Ram contract reportedly calls for $40,000 annually in a multi-year contract. He has received $19,000 yearly from the Bears.

Lincoln Ready For Buffalo Bills

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — San Diego Charger fullback Keith Lincoln says an injured left knee will not keep him out of the All-Star line-up that meets the American Football League champion Buffalo Bills Saturday.

Lincoln was an outstanding offensive performer in last year's All-Star Game even with a rib injury. In that game which matched the All-Stars of each division of the league, Lincoln handled the ball five times and accounted for 156 yards.

He grabbed a 73-yard pass on the game's first scrimmage play from Len Dawson. Later he ran 80 yards for another touchdown.

"Losing to Buffalo doesn't make me go any harder," Lincoln said of San Diego's championship game losses to the Bills the past two seasons. "I just think it's an honor to be selected for this game."

Even though Lincoln went unranked among the league's top 10 in both rushing and pass receiving this season, Sid Gillman, the Charger and All-Star coach, needed Lincoln's versatility.

"There isn't anything he can't do," Gillman said. "When Keith isn't running, he's blocking or catching passes."

Two other All-Stars, Paul Lowe and Dainard Paulson, also nursed knee injuries but are expected to see action in the nationally televised game set for the 70,000-seat Rice University Stadium.

Lowe is a San Diego running back and Paulson is a New York Jet defensive back.

In other developments, San Diego flanker Lance Alworth was added to the All-Star squad. He was given medical clearance for a rib injury received in the championship game.

Kathy Wins Sports Award

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kathy Whitworth of San Antonio, successor to fellow Texan Mickey Wright as the premier women's professional golfer, was named the Female Athlete of the Year for 1965 today in The Associated Press annual poll.

Miss Whitworth outdistanced Australia's Margaret Smith, the Wimbledon tennis titleholder, in the balloting by 274 sports writers and sportscasters. The golf ace collected 101 first - place votes and 441 points on a basis of three points for a first-place vote, two for second and one for third.

Miss Wright was chosen The AP's outstanding female athlete in 1963 and 1964. Last year she participated in only 11 tournaments, winning two.

Miss Whitworth won eight of the 30 tournaments in which she took part and emerged as the women's pro golf circuit's leading money-winner with earnings of $32,327.50.

Miss Smith, who also captured the U. S. tennis championship at Forest Hills, N.Y., was the poll's runner-up. She was chosen the top athlete on 36 ballots and drew 206 points.

Maria Bueno of Brazil, loser to Miss Smith in the Wimbledon finals, was third with 204 points. She was followed by bowling's Marion Ladewig, U. S. tennis ace Billie Jean Moffitt and three track stars, Tennessee State sprinters Wyomia Tyus and Edith McGuire, and Tamara Press, Russia's top performer in the shot and discus throws.

Means Joins Broncos

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Joe Means was named Wednesday as the new head football coach at Odessa High School.

Means, former coach at Phillips, succeeds Hank Watkins, who returned to McAllen High School after one year at Odessa.

James (Jocko) Harris, assistant coach under Means, will take over the helm at Phillips.

Dallas Hears Big Proposal

DALLAS (AP) — City officials are weighing proposals for a multi-million-dollar sports and cultural center near the south edge of downtown Dallas.

Clint Murchison Jr., wealthy financier and sportsman, has laid the plans before Mayor Erik Jonsson without mention of cost, the Dallas News reported today. It said Murchison's idea is to finance the project with both municipal bonds and private funds.

The plans call for a new sports stadium seating 55,000, a theatrical center and a sports arena for such events as basketball and ice hockey.

Several city leaders acknowledged that they have seen the elaborate plans but had little other comment.

Efforts to contact Murchison were unavailing.

City officials and civic leaders indicated they probably would not discuss the proposals until directors of the State Fair of Texas finish drafting plans to modernize the 75,000 - seat Cotton Bowl and the adjacent music hall, both on the fair grounds here.

Big Cat Springs Back

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Heavyweight Cleveland Williams, who suffered a near fatal bullet wound in the stomach in an altercation with a highway patrolman, expects to appear in his first comeback bout in a few weeks.

Williams said Wednesday he was fully recovered and had applied for a 1966 license in Texas. His application was accompanied by a doctor's report that Williams' physical condition was excellent.

Williams, 32, was ranked No. 2 by the World Boxing Association when he was wounded in November 1964.

Commodores Edge Volunteers, 53-52

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Clyde Lee got only five points, but his Vanderbilt teammates, Keith Thomas and Jerry Southwood, took up the slack and brought the Commodores from behind to a 53-52 victory over Tennessee.

The fierce struggle on Vandy's home court at Nashville on Wednesday night ended in a flurry of fisticuffs as Tennessee almost pulled the game out in the closing seconds.

"Everybody was excited," said an eye witness. "I don't know what caused it. I guess it was just fan reaction."

Several chairs were thrown, but no one was reported injured and police quickly controlled the situation.

Tennessee, led by Ron Widby, held an eight-point lead at halftime 30-22. The Vols stayed in front until Thomas' three-point play tied the score at 42-42 with eight minutes to go.

The Commodores, continuing to penetrate Tennessee's zone defense, led by five points with one minute left. The Vols closed the gap by scoring two baskets on intercepted passes.

Thomas was high for Vandy with 19 points. Southwood got 14, all in the second half. Widby got 21 points for Tennessee and teamed with 6-foot-9 Red Robbins in holding Lee, also 6-9, in check.

The victory cleared the decks for Vanderbilt's crucial Southeastern Conference game with unbeaten Kentucky on Saturday. Kentucky, 11-0, is second-ranked in The Associated Press poll, and Vanderbilt, now 14-1, is third-ranked.

The fourth-ranked St. Joseph's Hawks, led by Matt Guokas' 20 points, crushed Wake Forest 97-72 as part of a double-header at the Palestra in Philadelphia. The other teams in the AP Top Ten were idle.

Stan Pawlack's 37 points paced Penn to a 90-76 triumph over LaSalle in the other half of the Palestra twinbill.

Don Rolfes hit on 11 consecutive field-goal tries and scored 36 points altogether in leading Cincinnati to a 87-79 triumph over Dayton at the Cincinnati Gardens. The Bearcats limited Henry Finkel, Dayton's 6-11 star, to 13 points before he fouled out with nine minutes left.

St. John's of New York, playing at home, edged Syracuse 66-65 on Bob McIntyre's basket with 20 seconds left and his free throw a few seconds later.

Chicago Loyola, Miami of Ohio and Furman scored notable road victories. The Loyola Ramblers, 1963 national champs, upped their record to 12-1 by trouncing Western Michigan 117-86 at Kalamazoo, Miami's Redskins downed Ohio University 68-56 at Athens, Ohio, for the Bobcats' first loss in 30 home games. Furman beat South Carolina 73-66.

Garrett Is One Of Top Six Athletes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mike Garrett, Heisman Trophy winner and famed halfback at the University of Southern California, headed a list of six 1965 World Trophy winners released Wednesday by the Helms Hall Board.

The awards are given annually to the foremost amateur athletes from each of the six continents.

Other winners: Kipchoge Keino, Africa; Morio Shigematsu, Asia; Ron Clarke, Australia; Michel Jazy, Europe, and Edwin Roberts, South America.

Casper Has Fans In Native City

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Native son Bill Casper was the leading gallery attraction today as the $40,000 San Diego Open Golf Tournament got under way.

But lanky Al Geiberger had something else going for him — a bird tucked away in his golf cap.

Unlike a live sparrow that baseball's Mr. Casey Stengel once released from his cap during a game years ago, Geiberger's bird was plastic.

It was a good luck charm, indeed, for Geiberger, in Wednesday's pro-amateur competition, shot a six-under-par 65 and won $500 in first money in individual play.

As he left for the golf course, the bird was stuffed into his pocket by his 2-year-old daughter, Les Ann, who wished her father luck.

Rather bulky, the bird in the pocket was no help to Al's swing, so he shifted his featherless friend to his cap and wore it during the round — to good advantage.

The tournament setting is the 6,738 yard, par 35-36—71 Stardust County Club.

On deck is the defending champion, Wes Ellis Jr., who won a furious battle with Casper in a sudden-death playoff last year.

Ellis, who shot a 71 Wednesday, had a final-round 65 in 1965, but Casper came up with a 64 to tie with a 72-hole score of 267.

Casper had a 68 Wednesday in the pro-am round.

Missing from the tournament are Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. They are filming a television series at Palm Springs, Calif., which has stirred up a small storm by the San Diego sponsors — the Century Club.

Tournament director Sid Lind said attorneys are drawing up a formal protest addressed to the Professional Golf Association.

He said the contract with the PGA stipulates that pros cannot appear in competition or an exhibition within 200 miles of an official PGA tournament on conflicting dates without permission from the sponsors. No such permission was granted and, Lind noted, Palm Springs is about 150 miles north of San Diego.

Buffington Resigns Post

EDMONTON (AP) — The Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League announced the resignation today of Harry Buffington as defensive coach and assistant to Neill Armstrong, the head coach.

The club said it learned from President Hugh McColl, attending a coaches conference at Washington, D.C., that Buffington will return to college football coaching. No details were given.

Buffington, released from the remainder of a contract which was to expire in March, joined the Eskimos in 1964. He coached at Oklahoma State 1955-62 and at Texas Tech in 1963.

Bulldogs Bite Panthers Twice

IRA—The host Bulldogs took two basketball decisions from visiting Hobbs Tuesday night as the Panthers' girls team fell, 37-56, and the varsity stumbled, 41-61.

Holding only a two point lead at halftime, Ira began to pull away in the third quarter of the boys game and steadily increased its lead in the final stanza. Aaron Crawford pitched in 20 points for Ira while Tommy Lay dunked in 14 for Hobbs.

Renoka Hooker scored 20 points for the Ira girls, and Jenny Medrano meshed 16 for Hobbs. The Ira girls ran up a seven point bulge in the second quarter and never were threatened thereafter.

Ira hosts Westbrook Friday.

IRA (61)—Larry Holladay 4-1-9; Larry Wiggins 5-2-12; Jack Payne 2-0-4; Aaron Crawford 10-0-20; Dennis Grizzle 0-1-1; Ricky Sterling 2-0-4; Neil Lloyd 1-1-3; Jimmy Wilson 0-2-2; Johnny Lindsey 3-0-6. Totals: 27-7-61.

HOBBS (41)—Tommy Lay 5-4-14; George Martinez 1-2-4; Gary Nettleton 2-1-5; Randy Williams 2-6-10; Arnold Reyes 1-2-4; Windle Cave 0-2-2; Kenny Martinez 0-2-2. Totals: 17-19-41.

Auerbach Gains 1,000th Victory

By The Associated Press

When Red Auerbach won his first game as a National Basketball Association coach, Dave DeBusschere was only six years old.

Nineteen years later, Auerbach has 999 more victories for an NBA milestone while fellow coach DeBusschere has scored 41 points for a personal milestone.

Auerbach gained the 1,000th victory of his coaching career Wednesday night as Boston defeated Los Angeles 114-102. DeBusschere, the NBA's youngest coach, reached a personal high scoring mark as a player in Detroit's 129-111 triumph over Philadelphia.

In the only other game San Francisco topped New York 122-114.

Auerbach began his NBA career with Washington in 1946, the year the league began. He remained with the Capitols for three years and moved to Tri-Cities for his only losing season before settling down with the Celtics in 1950.

The Lakers were at a disadvantage against Auerbach and the Celtics. They played without league-leading scorer Jerry West, who was back in Los Angeles for treatment of an eye injury suffered in the All-Star game Tuesday night.

DeBusschere, who became a playing-coach last season, never had scored more than 33 points in a game before Wednesday night. He connected on 11 of 14 first-half shots as the Pistons raced to a 66-48 lead.

Ivy League Pans New NCAA Rule On Grade Status

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The threat of an Ivy League revolt still hung over the National Collegiate Athletic Association today as it cleaned up the last details on its 60th annual convention.

The convention proper wound up Wednesday, passing a number of amendments implementing its controversial 1.6 rule, a rule that establishes a minimum grade level for athletes—about a C minus.

And it's over this rule that the Ivies are up in arms. They have let it be known they will not live with it, will not abide by it and are ready to accept the penalties involved.

The penalties could include ineligibility for NCAA championship events, including the indoor track championships and the basketball championship, both coming up next month.

"Certainly we'll accept the penalties," said Jerry Ford, athletic director at Penn. "Here and now. It's a matter of policy."

The Ivies — Penn, Brown, Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Dartmouth and Princeton —oppose the rule on principle.

"Our position is that there is no distinction between students and student-athletes," Ford said. "The NCAA is in the business of legislating for athletes.

"When the NCAA goes into the area of grades and admissions and financial aid, they are intruding on an area which, in our opinion, is not in their province."

The rule was adopted last year, but did not become effective until Jan. 1, 1966. An amendment delaying it another year was defeated Wednesday. The Ivies did not take part in the discussion.

A resolution was adopted urging the U.S. House of Representatives Judiciary Committee to conduct extensive hearings into the free-agent player draft, that is, a draft by both professional football leagues.

A resolution by the University of New Mexico calling for the return to the one-platoon game in football was tabled.

Everett D. Barnes of Colgate was re-elected president.

The American Football Coaches Association, selected Southeastern Conference Commissioner Bernie Moore for the Stagg Award for contributions to the game.

Jr. Cagers Vie Tonight

There are important basketball games scheduled today in both the Travis and Lamar Junior High School gyms.

Travis 8th and 9th grade teams host Sweetwater in 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. tilts respectively. Lamar's gym will be the setting for a 4:30 p.m. battle between the Travis Blue and the Lamar Red and a 5:30 p.m. clash between Lamar Gray and Travis White.

Also today, the Lamar 8th and 9th grade teams will be at Colorado City for 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. tilts respectively.

The varsity entertains Brownfield Friday night following "B" team tests between the two schools.

Baptist Basketball Team Ranks High

DODGE CITY, Kan. (AP)—Two Texas schools hold places in the top 10 in the season's first poll of coaches in the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Dallas Baptist (13-1) is fourth and Wharton (14-3) is eighth.

In first place is Moberly, Mo. (9-2), followed by Burlington, Iowa (6-2) and Cameron (Lawton), Okla. (11-1). Murray State, Okla. (6-1) is fifth.

Dallas Baptist leads on team defense with a 61.1 average in 14 games.

Rights Groups' Support Shrinks

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Unprecedented gains in the fight against racial discrimination have turned into a double-edged sword for civil rights organizations, whittling away their support as well as the foundations of segregation.

In the absence of crises, civil rights organizations are losing funds and followers. Unspectacular programs such as voter registration or job improvement do not attract much money or members.

"Our financial situation is pretty desperate," said John R. Lewis, national chairman of the Atlanta-based Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

The committee is the smallest and least organized of the civil rights groups and usually has financial problems. But the bigger organizations also are feeling the pinch.

Included is the oldest and largest, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, founded in 1909. Its executive director, Roy Wilkins, reported recently in New York that the NAACP lost nearly 25,000 members in the past year and had an unadjusted deficit of more than $200,000.

Coupled with a 45,000-member loss in 1964, this reduced membership from a 1963 peak of 535,000 to 440,159.

Wilkins attributed the decline to a belief of some supporters that the civil rights battle is over. So did Lewis.

"One of the reasons," Lewis said, "is a feeling on the part of a great many people that the basic problems we have been struggling with are solved. Then there is just a tendency on the part of the American public, when they cannot see the dramatic action, to slow down on support."

The Congress of Racial Equality, experiencing wholesale changes in leadership, and the Southern Christian Leadership conference, headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., plan to revamp their fund-raising methods.

CORE's community relations director, Alan Gartner, gave this analysis in an interview:

"The public feels in a general sense that because of the voting rights and civil rights bills, the diminution of major demonstrations and the antipoverty program — the movement as it has been is no longer a relevant matter. We disagree, of course."

Gartner said CORE had debts last Aug. 31 totaling "very close to $300,000." It has been reduced to about $210,000, he said, "a very significant cut."

"Financially, we are certainly in need," said the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, treasurer of the Atlanta-based conference. "But we are not drowning. We are still able to pay our bills."

"People usually give more when there is a crisis," he said.

Enactment of the civil rights law of 1964 and the voting rights law of 1965, accompanied by continuing desegregation in the South, eased tense areas.

Federal agencies are enforcing nondiscrimination politicies; federal examiners are registering Negro voters in four states; federal funds are going into new programs for the poor.

"Certainly it might be expected with the federal government moving into the civil rights field that it is going to be a factor," said Clarence Coleman of Atlanta, Southern regional director of the National Urban League.

Coleman said the Urban League depends largely upon civic United Appeal fund drives and therein lies a problem born of new federal programs. Anti-poverty funds for Atlanta were double the $5 million raised by the United Appeal, he said.

"This makes it a little more difficult for the United Fund," he said. The Urban League itself is turning increasingly to federal agencies, he said, having received $289,000 last year in Atlanta from the Department of Labor for a job training program.

CORE's new national director, Floyd B. McKissick of Durham, N.C., has talked of developing new techniques to fit today's situation, a drive for members and an overhaul of the organization's financial setup.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — In this account of Mexico before Cortes, it tells all about fashions and how the ladies dressed (or didn't) and we find an account of many things found from the dusty civilizations.

You think the beauty parlor is a modern nuisance? It isn't.

On page 33 we see "In Tlatilco the women brightened up their elegance by dyeing their hair red."

Apparently this was taken verbatum from ancient Indian publications, one called "Lousy Cave Arrangements" which was sort of the "Good Housekeeping magazine of that day.

At any rate, visualize a pair of ladies meeting in the market of Tlatilco and one of them says, "Jayne, what a lovely color of hair you're wearing today. Did you fall in the watermellon soup and come out that way?"

So Jayne says, "Of course not, Hyasinth. This is done with a new Egyptian product we get at the drug store and it is considered even more stylish than painting your whole body green."

Naturally, this is all it takes. The rush is on at the drug store and all the Tlatilco ladies buy up every last speck of henna.

A week later the war party of men comes home and they are staggered by all the red hair around town.

Men run up and down the streets sobbing, "My wife My wife! The enemy tried to scalp her and how she's bleedin' to death."

It took a while to get accustomed to the new fashion, as it often does, but the men finally began to like red heads since there was nothing else around and peroxide had not yet been discovered. This was around 1000 A.D.

And just to show you there is nothing historical about history, it says the ladies were ever increasing their wardrobes.

One of the fashion writers of that day wrote, "They wore ballerina skirts or wide, short pants decorated with hanging trimming. They also wore embroidered boleros, hats in a thousand different styles, or turbans."

Of course when a person reads about things like this going on centuries and centuries ago, he really has no comment. And especially in the part where it says, "Jewelry increased in number and value."

The ladies of that era had a taste for jade beads and similar trinkets and they even kept little treasure chests around the house.

The account must have been written by a woman because there is no mention about how the ancient ladies came by their jewelry. A sensible guess would be that the men were in hock up to their eyeballs with the local jewelers and every Friday they had to go around and make another payment on the last purchase.

There is a remote chance that some of the greater warriors would bring home beads and bracelets and earrings among their spoils of war and they would give the impression they had brought these things at an elegant shop a few towns down the road.

Apparently the ladies did not care where the gifts came from — as long as they kept coming — and the greatest warriors who grabbed off the most jewelry in raids could always plead bankruptcy at home because they had heavy payments with the jewelry store.

All of which is very well but about the only thing of historical importance I can see is that mankind has suffered from these femine maladies since practically the beginning of time.

First Lady Approves Of Speech

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson gave applauding approval to her husband's "earnest day and night" peace efforts, and heartily endorsed a four-year term for members of the House.

The subjects were included in her husband's State of the Union message.

"Being the wife of somebody in Congress for 12 years," she commented after the speech Wednesday night, "I was glad to hear that about a four-year term.

"You don't have to dissipate your energies so much."

The Johnsons' daughter Luci and her fiance, Airman 3.C. Patrick Nugent, now assigned to nearby Andrews Air Force Base, also were spectators as the President spoke to the joint session of Congress.

"It's always one of the most dramatic events of the year," said Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson had invited the wives of five of the President's peace envoys to be among her guests in the executive gallery: Mrs. Arthur Goldberg, Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, Mrs. McGeorge Bundy, Mrs. Thomas Mann and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams.

Later, asked about her husband's speech, Mrs. Johnson said:

"I loved most of all hearing the over and over reiteration of the earnest day and night work our country has put in for peace . . . traveling into 30 nations, talking to top envoys and talking to more than 100 nations."

Beside that, she said, it would be "a reassertion of the strength of this country" to go forward with our education, health, conservation and beautification programs.

Annual dog food sales in this country are double the volume of baby food sales.

Guns And Butter Speech Reveals Anti-Inflation Plan

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Probably no president ever has avowed more firmly the policy of guns with butter.

"We will not permit those who fire on us in Viet Nam to win a victory over the desires and intentions of the American people," President Johnson promised Congress Wednesday night.

But there were strong hints, in the next 5,000 words of his State of the Union message, that — as far as federal spending goes — the country will get a lot more guns and only slightly more butter.

Johnson made clear his view that, while the nation can afford a record $112.8-billion budget in fiscal 1967, it cannot afford the costlier spread called inflation.

So if it was a guns-and-butter message, it also was an anti-inflation message — an elaborately pieced together plan for keeping prices in reasonable restraint, while waging a war, without sacrificing home-front progress and without imposing a general tax increase which might precipitate a recession.

To prevent an overheating of the economy in the military buildup phase of 1966, Johnson proposed some fiscal fire extinguishers.

One is an apparently rigorous downhold on domestic spending. He said that while the outlays for Viet Nam will climb another $5.8 billion next year, all other federal spending will rise only $600 million.

Johnson reassured those who feared that his "Great Society" programs would come under the ax, saying, "I believe we can continue the Great Society while we fight in Viet Nam." But some programs, he admitted, will suffer — "because of Viet Nam, we cannot do all we should, or all we would like to do."

Whatever his budget cuts may prove to be, they cannot cushion the strongly inflationary pressure of an arms program on top of a boom.

So Johnson called also for three special tax actions — quickie, one-shot doses of anti-inflation medicine, to cool the spending fever of industry and consumers during the build-up period.

1. Rescind temporarily the telephone and auto excise tax cuts that took effect 13 days ago.

2. Alter the income tax withholding system. Instead of withholding 14 per cent from all paychecks, scale the rate up to, say 20 per cent, for higher-paid taxpayers.

3. Speed up corporation tax payments — not increasing the amount to be paid, but collecting more of it in 1966.

Net result: $4.3 billion removed from the spending stream.

And eventually, the military spending will ease off. Well before the end of fiscal 1967, the government actually will be in the deflationary posture of taking more money out of the public's pockets than it puts in.

The plan will work, Johnson told Congress, "if you approve every program I recommend."

There's the catch. Will Congress be willing to revamp the whole tax withholding system for a negligible and temporary revenue gain? Will it renege on the excise cuts and change the tax rules for industry?

Quite probably not. But Johnson has served notice: If his plan doesn't work, he'll come back for something more drastic — more military appropriations and a real tax increase.

Pipeline Blaze Claims Fourth Victim

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A high pressure pipeline flash fire claimed its fourth victim Wednesday when Bobby W. Moulton of Beaumont, Tex., died in a New Orleans hospital.

Three men remained in critical condition from burns suffered in the accident.

The fire erupted Monday night at a dump pit near a Texas Eastern Gas Transmission Corp. line.

The other victims were Richard L. Morman, 33, of Baytown, Tex., C. R. Lipscomb of Centreville, Miss., and Dennis Bellar of De Quincy.

Actress Is Real Live Cinderella

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—She was only a grocer's daughter, but she refused to be put on a shelf.

So, at 23, Rita Tushingham, who never took a formal drama lesson in her life, has become one of Britain's brightest young film stars.

Her story is that of the ugly duckling who became a success without turning into a swan—a Cinderella who looks more like a wistful gnome.

Rita is 5 feet 2 and built a bit like a pigeon-chested roving guard for a girl's hockey team. Her face would never win a beauty contest, but her face is her fortune. It looks like an elf toy drawn by Walt Disney, and shines with the awkward grace of youth.

"It's the face that helps in films," she said. "It has to have something that comes through. I've been lucky."

Going to football games in her native Liverpool stirred Rita to dream of a career in the theater.

"I thought the response of the crowd was marvelous," she said.

Rita quit school at 15, spent three months taking a business course during which she learned to type and write "I love you" in shorthand.

She landed a job as assistant stage manager with the Liverpool Repertory Theater. She played a few small parts, served as a prompter, and worked from 9 in the morning until 11 at night.

"It was good training," she recalled.

"But I had to leave because I wasn't experienced enough. I hadn't been to drama school. So I went and got myself a film part."

The part she got was the role of heroine in "A Taste of Honey," and she got it by winning out over 2,000 other applicants. Her biggest previous role had been one in which she played the back legs of a donkey in pantomime.

Since then her touching, homely features have been in five other films.

She is married to Terry Bicknell, a television cameraman, and they have a 20-month old daughter.

Rita says she likes "being married, antiques, Buster Keaton, Cornwall when it's windy and rough, cooking roasts and making puddings, coach horses, Labrador dogs, children—and I'd like to lose 10 pounds and put them in the bank.

"I dislike snobby people, routine housework and getting up early in the morning, and central heating."

Her philosophy:

"It is important to have a base in life, and from that base you can enjoy it. To me the base is family.

"Your profession should give you enjoyment, but it should never be your life."

Cost Of Borrowing Climbs As Loan Demands Rise

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The cost of borrowing is still creeping higher as the demand for loans rises at both consumer and business levels.

One result is that the return on long-term bonds also is higher of late and well above the yield from most of the popular common stocks.

Another result of increased interest rates and greater loan demand is that many of the nation's banks are enjoying more business. And early reports show their profits up smartly from a year ago.

A third result is that the U.S. Treasury is paying more to lenders and is all but frozen out of the long-term bond market where there is a legal ceiling of 4¼ per cent on the interest it can offer. The Treasury's interest costs, much of it for short-term securities, this year may hit $13 billion.

The volume of bank loans to business has risen sharply since last summer. Demand for funds is spurred by increased business activity as well as by plans to expand plants and buy new equipment. The cost of borrowing has gone up in recent weeks, as business customers discover when they go back to their bank for a new loan.

Consumer credit also is in a new growth stage. The more affluent the society becomes the more confident consumers are of their ability to handle more installment debt. They are estimated to have taken on $74 billion of such debt last year, and to have made monthly repayments totaling about $67 billion as they reduced old commitments. At the end of the year perhaps $66 billion of installment credit was still outstanding, compared with $59 billion a year earlier.

Some high-grade corporate bonds now yield around 5 per cent. Their interest rate often is fixed below 5 per cent, but the market price of many of them has dropped to a level that gives today's buyers a 5 per cent return. High-grade municipal bonds are yielding about 3.6 per cent but are popular as offering a return free of federal income taxes.

Corporate dividends have risen in recent months, but market prices of common stocks have gone up even more. At today's prices the return from many common stocks is well below the yield from high grade bonds. But stock traders tend to look more for price increases in the stocks of their choice than for the yield, welcome as fatter dividend payments are.

The concept of a company or its foundation matching their employes contributions to their alma maters now has 300 companies pouring more than 11 million annually into education.

Junior Editors Quiz on FUNGI

QUESTION: Why don't fungi look green like other plants?

• • •

ANSWER: The simple, odd little plants called fungi are low in the scale of plant development. They don't look green because they have no leaves with green chlorophyll, which the higher plants use to manufacture their own food in the process called photosynthesis. Fungi must live on other plant or animal matter. Some are very helpful to man, as they remove useless or decayed matter. Some, like the mushrooms, are delicious to eat. The mushroom is an umbrella-like structure which grows up from the main part of the plant, or mycelium, a mass of white threads which is concealed underground or in rotted material. The mushroom scatters tiny spores which are like seeds and from which new mushroom plants can grow. Some of the wild mushrooms are extremely poisonous—it's best to leave all wild mushrooms alone. Besides the mushrooms, you will find many kinds of interesting fungi growing on trees, such as the bracket kind, or on fallen logs or on the ground, such as the puffball variety. Many of these plants have strange habits and are fascinating to study. Winter is a good time to get acquainted with them.

• • •

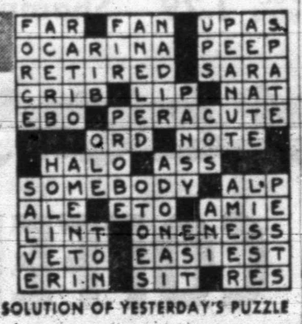

FOR YOU TO DO: Take a magnifying glass and a notebook and see what kinds of fungi you can find growing outside. Check your notes later with a nature book or encyclopedia. 1-13

US, Soviet Diplomatic Peace Maneuvers Apparently Enrage Peking

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Red China's leadership is reacting with rage to American and Soviet diplomatic maneuvers, as if gripped by a major peace scare.

Evidently Peking dismisses as empty propaganda the suggestions from Soviet bloc Communists that if the United States intensifies the war in Viet Nam, the Soviet Union will introduce significant escalation of its own.

Peking has weighed the evidence and expressed the conviction that Soviet words are not to be trusted. By implication, Red China accused Moscow of colluding with the Americans in a search for a road to negotiations.

The timing of a recent Peking blast reflects the Red Chinese leadership's attitude toward Soviet moves. On the day that Alexander N. Shelepin and his delegation arrived in Peking en route to Hanoi, People's Daily printed a long tirade against the United States and its motives in continuing a pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam.

When there was a bombing pause last May, it recalled, there were "murmurs from among the modern revisionists" —meaning the Soviet leaders— that the suspension was too short and "the trick had not been very well played."

Now, it continued, "the Johnson administration appears to be taking the advice of these people."

Evidently "these people" included not only advisers in Washington, but those same "modern revisionists."

The paper, which is the official voice of the Chinese Communist party, then presented this as evidence against the Russians:

"In pursuing its 'peace talks' hoax, the Johnson administration laces special hopes on the Khrushchev revisionists and their followers. It began the 'pause in bombing' on Dec. 24, and on the same day its ambassador in Moscow, Foy D. Kohler, called on Soviet Foreign Minister V.V. Kuznetsov.

"Three days later, it published its '14-point' proposition" —the American terms for peace talks with North Viet Nam.

"The next day the Soviet Union announced that a delegation headed by Shelepin would visit Viet Nam. Then on Dec. 29, the senior U.S. officials began their travels overseas as salesmen for the 'peace talks' scheme. On the same day, Kohler called on Nikolay V. Podgorny, president of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R."

The paper quoted comments abroad to show that the Soviet and American actions might have "common features," and that "before taking the decision that Shelepin should visit Hanoi, the Soviet Union obviously was tipped off in one form or another by the United States about the pause in its bombing."

There were evidences of heavy pressure on North Viet Nam's Communist leadership from both Moscow and Peking. Comments from Hanoi welcome Soviet aid but at the same time invariably mention gratitude for Chinese aid, too. Still, there has been less emphasis on China in recent days from Hanoi than there has been in the past, and possibly Peking is worried about the Soviet delegation.

This does not mean that peace is around the corner. If present peace offensive efforts fail, the war could intensify. The presence of Soviet military brass with the delegation in Hanoi could mean that if no road to negotiations is visible, the Soviet Union will be prepared to introduce modern weapons and massive military aid.

The Communist press of Europe has been dwelling on this possibility, and there is implied in it a prospect of a Soviet-American showdown in the style of the Cuba missile crisis of 1962.

Hot Fight Seen On Rights Plan

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's bid for laws to guarantee equality for Negroes in the courts and in housing is expected to touch off a hot fight on Capitol Hill.

"This will be the toughest one yet," predicted a high administration veteran of congressional struggles over the 1964 Civil Rights Act and 1965 Voting Rights Act.

Johnson, in his State of the Union message Wednesday night, proposed laws to:

—Guarantee nondiscriminatory selection of jurors in state as well as federal courts;

—Strengthen federal court authority over violence against civil rights workers and stiffen the federal penalties for such violence;

—Ban racial discrimination in the sale or rental of housing.

Justice, the President said, is one of the roads converging on the Great Society. And "simply defined," he declared, "justice means a man's hope should not be limited by the color of his skin."

Of pressing tactical concern to the administration were the reservations expressed by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. He lent vital support to the 1964-65 civil rights legislation, and is regarded as the key to breaking any Southern filibuster over racial laws.

"This is really using the ax on the judicial sovereignty of the states," Dirksen said.

Justice Department lawyers have a head start in meeting Johnson's demands for laws to deal with discrimination in the selection of juries. He ordered preparation of such a law several months ago.

And they have been struggling over a draft bill to increase federal jurisdiction over racial violence since last March 26, when Johnson ordered a law to curb the activities of the Ku Klux Klan.

President John F. Kennedy once issued an executive order aimed at ending racial discrimination in federally aided housing. Still, civil rights groups have clamored for more action. Justice Department experts have yet to get their teeth into this area, but they say they'll be on sound constitutional ground in extending antidiscrimination laws to privately financed housing.

The administration is expected to ask Congress to make the federal jury selection system a model for the states to follow.

While no firm decisions have been reached on the language of the legislation, one of its victims is expected to be the "key man" system of federal jury selection as practiced in the South and some other judicial circuits.

Under this system, prominent community leaders are asked to submit lists of recommended, trustworthy jurors. This method often excludes from jury service a large percentage of the population—people who, by virtue of race, poverty or lack of social standing, are unknown to the "key man."

PREPARE FOR STUDY — Preparing for a mission study at Fluvanna Methodist Church are, from left, Mrs. V. A. Wills, Rev. Kiel Quesenberry, Mrs. Fowler Mathis, Mrs. Leo Beaver and Mrs. Panch McDonald.

Fluvanna Methodist Study Set

FLUVANNA—Lay workers of Fluvanna Methodist Church are preparing to present a mission study, "Mission: The Christian's Calling," for all age levels.

First session will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will serve a hot dog supper for the evening meal. The movie "Step Sitters," will be seen, and small class sessions will conclude the evening.

The remaining sessions will continue through Feb. 2 on each Wednesday night at 6:30.

Persons preparing for the school are Mrs. Leo Beaver, chairman of missions, Mrs. Fowler Mathis, Mrs. Panch McDonald, Mrs. Sam Bruner, Mrs. V. A. Wills and James Beaver.

The theme for Methodist Mission Studies this year marks a new direction in mission study. For the first time in the modern missionary movement, not only the professional Christian, but the everyday layman is beginning to be seen as a missionary for the church, said the Rev. Kiel Quesenberry, pastor of the church.

Tourists To Antarctica

NEW YORK (AP)—A hardy group of more than 50 tourists is en route to the icy wastes of Antarctica, led by Capt. Finn Ronne, a seasoned polar explorer.

Included in the group of mostly women is Mrs. Bessie Cleveland Sweeney, 83, of Washington. Only a handful of women have ever set foot on Antarctica.

The tourists flew to Buenos Aires Tuesday to join other tourists and a group of scientists who will sail to the frozen continent aboard an Argentine navy research ship the MS Lapatia.

The National Zoological Park in the nation's capital attracts an average of 3 million visitors a year. The park has 2,500 wild animals.

Will Our Astronauts Find Soviet Flag On The Moon?

DALLAS (AP) — U.S. astronauts making their first landing on the moon may find the Russian flag already planted there, space agency administrator James Webb said Wednesday.

He told newsmen that Soviet space explorers are ahead of the United States "and will be for the next year or two."

Webb, nearing the end of his fifth year as head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said he feels this country will beat Russia to a lunar landing but he is not as confident as 12 months ago.

"A year ago I would have said the Saturn V would be far bigger than anything they could do," he said. "I'm not so sure now. They have a very vigorous program.

"The day before yesterday they flew Cosmos 104. This year they have flown Proton 1 and 2, both four times the size of Gemini, and they have announced a big new rocket."

Webb talked to reporters while here to address the Dallas County Medical Society.

The NASA chief said he was particularly impressed at the Russians' capability for orbiting their 27,500 - pound Proton spacecraft.

Someone asked if the Proton series promises ability to maneuver, like this country's Gemini vehicles, and he replied:

"Any time you can put up a spacecraft that weighs 27,000 pounds you've got a capability to do a lot of things you cannot do with a smaller spacecraft.

"You can develop the maneuverability, but it's very hard to develop the large capacity of large spacecraft — and this is where we have been behind and are still behind."

Webb was asked what would happen if the Russians reached the moon first and laid claim to it. He expressed the view that this was unlikely, adding that he believed U.S. policy would be "not to allow" such a development.

Freeman Pushes Rural America

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)— Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman is becoming one of the biggest land promoters in history.

He started the new year with a broad-based campaign to sell rural America as a place for Americans to work and live. This is a new approach for his efforts to bring prosperity to rural areas long marked by poverty.

In the past, his appeals for rural assistance were made largely on the basis that rural America was entitled by fair play to many of the good things of life offered by modern America.

Having made only limited progress with this line of attack, the agriculture secretary has turned to the sales tack that rural areas offer Americans, particularly disillusioned urban residents, something they need and want.

That something, Freeman says, is escape from the "cages of steel and ribbons of concrete" in the cities for a "better, more gracious, more abundant and healthful life than we enjoy today."

Freeman sang the praises of the rich possibilities of rural living in three recent major speeches. Aides expect him to keep drumming away at this theme.

Back of it all is an effort to arouse local leaders and government agencies, including Congress, to a need for providing facilities in rural areas which would encoarage Americans to halt rural migration to the cities and cause many to turn to the countryside for future living.

What's needed, he says, are better educational facilities, better water and sewage systems, more doctors and health services, more cultural advantages—and above all, more and better economic and job opportunities.
