

"Show Boat" Held Over

A holdover performance of "Show Boat" will be presented Tuesday night at Colorado City Playhouse.

The Playhouse board of directors voted Friday night to have the holdover after all of the tickets for the regularly scheduled eight performances had been sold by Friday and there was a long waiting list.

Most of the tickets for the holdover Tuesday have already been sold but some are still available. The Opera House ticket office will be open from 1-5 p.m. Monday and 1-8 p.m. Tuesday in order to take reservations.

Although the final four regularly scheduled performances are sold out, those wishing to see the musical can get on a waiting list for Wednesday through Saturday nights in the event of cancellations. Reservations may be made by going by the Opera House or by phoning 728-3491. Ticket price is $3.50 per person. Curtain time is 8 p.m. each day.

INTERMISSION FOUND "First Nighters" enjoying a special treat in the Colorado City Playhouse "Red Dog Saloon" during Wednesday evening's opening of "Show Boat." On the other side, intermission for the cast and crew was just time enough for quick costume changes and minor alterations. Quin Thornburg (pictured standing as Lovess Curlee makes alterations) stars as Ellie, as comedian on the "Show Boat." Performances continue Tuesday through Saturday.

McKinnon Seeks Council Position

Mac McKinnon, 36, editor and publisher of the Colorado City Record, Friday filed as a candidate for election to the City Council of Colorado City in the April 5 election.

McKinnon has lived in Colorado City since August 1971. He was born in Gorman, was graduated from Dublin High School and attended Tarleton State University, Texas Christian University and the University of Texas at Arlington.

He is an Air Force veteran and prior to moving to Colorado City, was state editor for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"I want to be of service to our community," McKinnon said in filing for the council, "and I believe my experience in business and reporting on governmental activities can be useful in dealing with the problems faced by the city."

"My main priority, if elected, will be to work toward making sure the taxpayers get the very most for every dollar spent by the city. By doing this, taxes and charges for services can be kept at the lowest

Interest Peaks As Deadline Nears

As candidates come down to the wire, a real race has developed on the local scene with seven persons offering their names for a place on the Mitchell County Hospital District Board of Directors ballot.

Deadline for filing for election to local City Councils, school boards and the hospital district is Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Hospital Board President Murrell Blassingame resigned his position earlier this year to seek election to the County Commissioners Court. This vacancy plus two expiring terms of office for board members T.C. Moore and Bob Reilly have resulted in the field of seven candidates.

Moore and Reilly have served on the board since its inception 12 years ago and have both announced their intentions to seek reelection.

Record Breaking Cotton Harvest Nears End

This season's gigantic Mitchell County cotton harvest moved still nearer to its completion this week as all but two gins reported that they are finished for the year. Only the Buford Co-Op and China Grove Co-Op Gins reported that they still have cotton remaining to be processed.

As of Friday afternoon the eight gins reported processing 89,909 bales with 2,326 bales still on the yard for a total of 92,235 bales. Of this figure, 84,309 bales processed have come from Mitchell County fields and 2,326 of the bales still on the yard have come from this county for a total of 86,635 bales produced by Mitchell County farmers.

A breakdown for each gin is given as follows: Buford Co-Op Gin reported 11,174 bales processed and 1,826 on the yard for a total of 13,000 bales.

China Grove Co-Op Gin reported 11,200 bales processed and 1,000 on the yard for a total of 12,200 bales, 6,100 of those bales have come from Mitchell County.

Colorado Gin Company reported 4,951 bales processed and 1,000 on the yard for a total of 5,951 bales.

Farmers Co-Op reported 19,000 bales processed. They have completed ginning.

Westbrook Gin reported 10,057 bales processed. They have no more bales to gin.

Producers' Co-Op Gin reported 14,225 bales processed. They are finished for the year.

(Bud) Hull, Jim Dockrey, Frances Deregibus and Ray Anne Carlock comprise the remaining names to be placed on the ballot.

Three positions are open on the Colorado City Council. Mayor Marion Bassham and Councilman Loyd Ledbetter and Jesse Munoz all have terms which expire this year. Ledbetter and Mayor Bassham have declined to seek reelection. Munoz has asked reelection for a See PEAK Page 3

Sportsman's Delight Set In Summer Fun Preview

Sports fans should have a big time this weekend and if they wish to, they can spend a lot of money.

For the second year in a row, the Colorado City Optimist Club will be sponsoring a summer fun show at the Mitchell County Fair Grounds. The gates to the event will open at 10 a.m. Saturday and it will run through Sunday.

The purpose of the show is mainly for the display of recreational equipment of every conceivable type but added to this year's event are a number of other attractions which will entertain adults and youngsters alike.

In the same area at the same time there will be a motorcycle rodeo, an archery contest, a black powder demonstration and an old-time fiddlers' contest.

The motorcycle rodeo is set to start at 1 p.m. Saturday. Registration for the event will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday and will last until noon.

Motorcycle buffs interested in entering should contact Danny Bell at 728-2064. The entry fee is $6 for any

Budget Possibilities Considered By Council

Areas where expenses could feasibly be cut was the topic of discussion during Friday morning's budget workshop for City Council members.

Mayor Marion Bassham opened the meeting by saying, "I have studied this thing and just don't see anywhere we can cut down."

Councilman Elmer Martin suggested cuts could be considered in the capital improvement areas of the budget as well as in the area of salaries.

He suggested City Manager Ray Mason and Secretary Brenda Tarter could work up figures for cutting employee raises from the seven percent plus 15 cents an hour increase to a flat eight percent increase for regular employees and a flat seven percent increase for the city administrators.

He suggested the city purchase one dump truck at $4,000 rather than two dump trucks at $8,000 and cut the street improvements from $25,000 to $12,500.

Another area he suggested for possible cuts was the proposed development of water wells. He indicated this could be cut from the proposed $10,000 to $5,000. He concluded by stating if these areas were cut back the water rate increase should be increased only $1 rather than $1.50.

Councilman Loyd Ledbetter and Mayor Bassham were quick to defend the wage increases. They both indicated this should be left as proposed.

Ledbetter noted the proposed budget figures showed a loss at the Civic Center of $7,200 and at the museum of $6,000. He indicated all the figures were inflated to allow for increased costs during the year. "This gives us the necessary buffer zone so that if there are re-

Historic Prude Home Dedication Set Sunday

The public is invited to attend an open house and dedication service planned for today (Sunday) in honor of the John C. Prude home now owned by Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Rowe.

A Texas Historical Marker dedication ceremony is scheduled to be held by the Mitchell County Historical Commission and open house will be between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

The home, located at 334 East Fourth Street was built in 1907. It belonged to Mrs. Lois Prude-Bennett until her death.

It has been refurbished by the Rowes and is decorated with many fine antique furnishings.

Hardwood floors, windows and woodwork have been retained throughout the home giving an air of true authenticity to the renovations.

The Rowe family has also purchased the old railroad depot on North First Street. This building will be dismantled and reconstructed in miniature on the grounds of the Prude-Bennett home.

Marble top counters and heavy wood paneling from the old depot have been used in remodeling the kitchen of this historical home.

Mrs. Rowe, who is originally from Loraine, is a retired teacher from the Odessa School System. A.W. Rowe works for Amoco Oil Productions.

Any American who has spoken with a fellow American, been within ear-shot of a radio or in viewing distance of a television screen within the past week is aware that the United States competed against the Soviet Union at the Winter Olympics in the sport of hockey and won.

The American team went into the games being told the odds were heavily in favor of the Russians and that there was little hope of winning the coveted gold medal.

The Americans were smaller, slower and not nearly as impressive looking on the ice as were their Russian counterparts. But from somewhere deep down inside, the American team found the heart and raw courage to fight, claw and scramble to victory; to win and win and win again against all odds.

The entire world watched via satellite as this amazing revelation in human spirit was broadcast across the globe.

Americans everywhere are clamoring to follow these new found heroes and their new image.

Why? Why has an insignificant matter such as winning a gold medal for playing hockey become the singly most significant thing to happen to the American people in the past twenty years?

Freedom In Christ

Bob Grayson
Pastor
Calvary Baptist Church

The Christian life is full of paradoxes. Truths such as "you never live until you die," "you only get by giving," "the servant is greatest among you" and "as long as you think you can see you are blind" are found in the Bible and verified by human experience. But another paradox that is so true and one which makes a lot of difference is "you never become free until you are a slave."

The one who thinks that he is really free to do his own thing is most often a slave to sin and its consequences. But the person who becomes a slave of Christ is set free to live an abundant life of purpose, power, and peace. Freedom doesn't mean you can do just anything but rather it means you have the power to do what is right.

Many people, Christians included, are slaves to habits such as foul language, gossiping, overeating, drinking, smoking, immorality, as well as attitudes of superstition, fear, guilt and prejudice. Many think of these things as freedoms but it is obvious that they dominate, distort, and destroy life without adding to the quality of life. But Christ offers us Himself as the answer to every enslaving attitude and action.

I recently received a chain type letter in the mail that appeared to be a Christian letter that guaranteed good luck to those who sent it on to others. Also harm was threatened to those who broke the chain. Those who understand God's Word would recognize that such superstition is contrary to all Biblical truth. The term "good luck" is a bad term for a Christian to use because we believe in a sovereign God, not luck. Christ can free us from superstitions and misunderstandings if we will get to know Him.

Freedom is to be and do what we should is the greatest freedom we can ever experience. It is the type of freedom that satisfies and it is the type of freedom that is found in a living, loving, personal relationship with Jesus.

Four other candidates for the three seats have come forward. J.O. Dockrey, Nina Katherine Crout, Odis Wise and Mac McKinnon have all asked for a place on the ballot April 5.

Colorado City School Board of Directors terms of office for Eddie Piland, Edward Roach and Fleta Lewis expire this year.

Mrs. Lewis has declined to seek reelection, while Piland and Roach have both announced their intentions to run again.

Two other candidates, Rex Beights and Coleen Palmer are asking election to that board.

In Westbrook all four incumbent School Board members have chosen to seek reelection. They are W.D. Conaway Jr., Cleburne Rich, Don Burnett and E.A. Oden.

Westbrook City Councilmen W.A. Bell, Sidney Jones and Mayor E.A. Oden all hold terms of office which expire this year. Bell has stated he will not seek reelection.

There are no candidates seeking election to the council at this time.

Loraine City Council members who hold expiring terms include Roy Holland and Doris Henderson. Both persons have declined to seek reelection.

Eddie Galvan and Claud Woods have announced their intentions to seek a place on that ballot.

Loraine School Board positions for Hubert Meadows and J.D. Clifton expire this year. Clifton has announced he will seek reelection and Stanley Moore has asked for a place on the ballot.

At various times during the show there will also be black powder demonstrations as area collectors and enthusiasts of old time weapons will be showing off their rifles.

For a different type of enthusiast, an old-time fiddlers' contest is also in the works for Sunday afternoon.

board candidacy. Mrs. Palmer said, "I believe there is a need for a more balanced curriculum. We aren't giving our students, especially on the secondary level, the necessary exposure to electives that will benefit them after graduation."

She further added, "I see the need to emphasize the instruction in the practical areas of journalism, drama and music. Even though they are being offered, these subjects are overshadowed by extra-curricular activities that have no practical value after graduation."

Mrs. Palmer went on to say, "I'd like to see instructors trained in these individual subjects teaching our students."

She also said that she was in favor of the school always having a strong sports program because of the self-discipline it gives a student.

Hoyt Roberts is the consultant for the contest and Johnny Tammen is the person to contact at 728-5511 if you are interested in entering.

The main attraction, however, will still be the recreational equipment on display in the fair barn.

Included in the items to be shown by merchants from all over the area are motorcycles, sailboats, motorboats, hunting equipment, diving equipment, camping gear, fishing items, skiing equipment, recreational vehicles and sportswear displays.

There are only a very few booths left for merchants to display their goods. Anyone else interested in securing a booth should contact Rex Beights at 728-5858 or Larry Hearn at 728-5047 as soon as possible.

A security guard will be on hand during the entire show to protect the merchandise.

The Optimists are also providing a concession stand to dispense goodies such as soft drinks, popcorn, candy, hot dogs, sandwiches and burritos.

McKinnon is active in a large number of community activities including being past president of both the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce and Colorado City Playhouse, Inc., and is still on the board of directors of both organizations. He is vice president of the Wallace Community Advisory Council, secretary of Colorado City Industrial Team, Inc., president of the Colorado City United Girls Softball Association, incoming president of the Colorado City Noon Lions Club and president of the Colorado City Mutual Investment Club.

Carrell Honored With Baby Shower

Mrs. Don Carrell of Roscoe was honored Feb. 24 in the Texas Electric Reddy Room with a baby shower.

Hosting the occasion were Karla Erwin, Melody Stubblefield, Doris King and Roberta Turnbull, all of Colorado City.

A corsage of green and yellow socks was given by her grandmother, Mary McDonald of Kermit.

Cake, punch, nuts and mints were served from a table covered with a yellow and white lace cloth.

The refreshment table was decorated in yellow and green, carrying out the color scheme used in the shower.

Roberta Turnbull of Colorado City created the cake, shaping it like a baby's diaper shirt with "Welcome Baby" written on the top.

Guests attending the shower were from Colorado City, Odessa, Boyd, Kermit and Seminole.

The honoree's mother, Mrs. Garbo Wright and mother-in-law of Kermit were there also.

Mrs. Carrell was employed as a nurse in the OB unit at Root Memorial Hospital until February 1980.

Why has this tiny triumph become so vastly important to the American public?

Well, I hope President Carter and this nation's leaders are listening because I hear a nation unanimously shouting, "We're tired of being on the losing team. We're tired of being put into losing situations."

It's almost ironic that not since 1960 when President Kennedy was telling America and the world, "Ask not what your country can do for you, but instead, ask what you can do for your country" has the American hockey team been able to beat the Russians and achieve the gold.

Our leaders have drawn lines again and again in the past twenty years; lines that we have been forced to back off of.

We have been prodded and demoralized by nations not much larger than the state of Texas itself. There is no doubt our government has been self-serving and ill advised in some of its actions in the past twenty years but I believe the American people have reached their limit.

It is time to draw the line.

We have been a nation held hostage for 120 days because we and our government did not have the courage of our convictions. We did not treat Iran as we would any other terrorists.

We have a national policy, developed because of hostage taking during that fanatic time when any airplane ride might wind up in Cuba. That policy is similar to that used by major metropolitan area law enforcement agencies. It is simply, we will not negotiate for the life of a hostage. The hostage is considered a dead man and the ultimate goal is the capture of the offender.

There can be no exceptions or terrorism will flourish as it now does in poor war torn Ireland.

If the American government had taken that stance and been honest enough to say to the world, "look people, these hostages are dead and we cannot go in and do anything about it militarily," the Middle East situation would not be in the state it is today.

Perhaps if this had been the government's attitude the situation in Afghanistan would not exist and the hostages would be of no value to the Iranian terrorists and a trend would not have been set.

I personally believe the President's proposed withdrawal from the Summer Olympics was totally wrong both morally and politically, however, I believe we must stand fast behind his decision simply because it has been made.

This then, in my opinion, is the final dividing line. If we back-off from this stance the Soviet Union will march right through us just like Sherman marching through Georgia.

It seems to be decision time for all Americans and we either stand together or fall apart.

I am encouraged by the reaction of most of the youth of America who have answered the President's proposed draft question by saying in general, "I don't want to go but if I have to I will."

Letter To The Editor

Editor:

I believe we have a right to voice our opinions and that is why I would like to say that I feel our ambulance service has been done an injustice.

The people's comments and publicity about the service have been unfair and I believe they are unjust.

I never thought about this very much, but during my time of need, they were there; prompt, efficient and qualified. I could not have asked for better service.

In fact I believe we are extremely lucky to have this very fine service in Mitchell County.

Wednesday night my mother was in need of medical assistance and from the time of the call and the time they arrived was approximately three minutes. I was so thankful to have such capable persons on hand.

I think it is time we stop complaining and commend this service and the fine staff that makes this a conscientious department in our community.

Sincerely,
 Fern Brown

Extremely High Fatality Rate Due To Speeding Forces DPS To Crack Down

Due to the Texas high fatality rate on the highways, the Department of Public Safety is going to try some methods they have avoided in the past in helping control speeding.

Sgt. Richard Campbell, DPS Sgt. of Mitchell, Scurry and Nolan Counties, gave some of the department's goals and objectives that the DPS will use to enforce the law.

They have four goals they would like to see succeed. The first is the reduction of fatalities in the State of Texas. The increase in the number of fatalities over the past four years have been extremely high and quite a few could have been avoided. In 1976 there were 3,230 people killed in traffic accidents, 1977 there were 3,698, 1978 there were 3,980 and 1979 there were 4,209, an increase of nearly a thousand in a four year period.

Their second goal is to attempt to achieve a voluntary compliance of the public to drive the national speed limit of 55 mph. The state gives a certain percentage for complying with the speed limit by the people of Texas and if they fail to comply, then Texas is subject to losing $8 million dollars of federal funds. This money is used for building highways and the upkeep of the ones we have, so the loss of this money would affect everyone.

Their third goal is to achieve the reduction of consumption of gasoline. Campbell stated that those speeding are not helping in the energy crisis.

The fourth goal is to educate the need for safety and the using of seat belts. An estimated 700 deaths could have been avoided with the use of a seatbelt, he said.

Every tactic the DPS uses will be legal and they hope this will help people to comply with the law. One of the methods they plan to use is unmarked cars with radars; they may be cars, pickups or trucks. The unmarked unit will clock the speed of the violator and notify a marked car to enforce the law.

Campbell said, "They were sincere in getting people to comply with the laws and there are some good reasons they should do so; fatality rate, federal funding and gasoline consumption."

Along with the effort to control speed, they will also put their efforts into the DWI violators.

Lario Oil & Gas Co., Odessa, will re-enter and deepen to 8,700 feet at the former King Resources Co. No. 1 Sun-Harkrider, Mitchell County 7,022-foot wildcat failure on the north-east edge of the Seven Rivers Unit of the Howard-Glasscock multipay field, 1 3/4 miles west of the depleted Albaugh multipay field and 12 miles south of Iatan. It is the No. 1 Palmer.

It was abandoned Jan. 13, 1969.

Location is 660 feet from the south and 710 feet from the west lines of 9-17-SPRR.

The Albaugh field produced from the Fusselman at 8,465 feet; Pennsylvanian, 6,550 feet and Yates sand, 1,195 feet.

Ritchey Snags Acting Part In New Movie

Roy Ritchey, a 1972

graduate of Loraine High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Ritchey of Looney Community, has snagged a top role in the film "Hangar 18" being shot in Big Spring. He has been a resident of Big Spring for three years and is a carpenter by trade. He went to work for the company in the construction department and the company announced they would be hiring local people for parts in the film. Ritchey applied and was accepted for this role because of his build.

He was selected for one of two dead aliens in the UFO movie and two hours after being selected was flown to Hollywood to be fitted with alien eyes and clothes. Dr. Greenspoon, designer of the "Incredible Hulk's eyes" will design his eyes. The movie came about from a rumor which circulated back in the UFO heyday and some Hollywood ingenuity. Rumor was that the Air Force has recovered alien spacecraft, complete with aliens, which had fallen to Earth after colliding with an Air Force space shuttle. The spacecraft and its occupants were supposedly hidden by the Air Force in a hangar at an abandoned air base. Webb Air Force Base, dusty, deserted and windblown makes the ideal setting for this film.

Westbrook FHA Chapter Meets

On Thursday, Feb. 21, the Westbrook FHA chapter held its monthly meeting.

President Sharla Rollins presided over the meeting and Lisa Anderson read the minutes. Sharla told about the upcoming area and state meetings. The group also discussed FHA Week.

President Rollins turned the meeting over to the guest speaker, Patricia McKinney. Mrs. McKinney spoke about the importance of exercise and diet. She then illustrated sample exercises and showed the girls an aerobic dance.

The sophomore girls prepared the refreshments.

Seven local youngsters involved in a Feb. 24 incident at Wolf Stadium in which 18 lights were shot out, met with Mitchell County Judge Bill Carter Thursday. Their parents were also at the meeting.

The youngsters, including three 14-year-olds, two 13-year-olds, one 12-year-old and one 11-year-old, were ordered by Carter to pay $88 per person for the damage to the lights by June 1. Estimated damage to the lights was $616.

Public Notice

In accordance with Senate Bill 621, passed by the Texas Legislature in 1979, information in the pamphlet is applicable to property taxes collected by all levels of local government, including counties, cities and school districts.

Brenda Tarter noted that while cities may not offer a general homestead exemption, such is available from school districts and counties. She pointed out that disabled veterans also are eligible for exemptions. Additionally, owners of agricultural land have the option of having such property taxed at its productive rather than market value.

April 1, 1980 is the rendition deadline for the City of Colorado City and Brenda Tarter urges citizens to render their property.

...you can't afford to wait.

We'll make a factory-strong assembly and have you back on the job in hours, not days. No waiting, no special orders from the factory, no costly delays. Whether you need one assembly or 25, let us make them fast and dependable with Gates Hydraulic Hose and Fittings. You can't afford to wait.
