Church Youth to Trick-or-Treat for CROP

Church youth of Wellington will Trick-or-Treat-for-CROP on Hallowe'en evening, Thursday, Oct. 31, collecting funds that will be used to help feed the hungry in many parts of the world.

Boys and girls in high school and junior high from all churches wishing to participate will meet at First Baptist Church fellowship hall at 7 p. m. to receive their supplies.

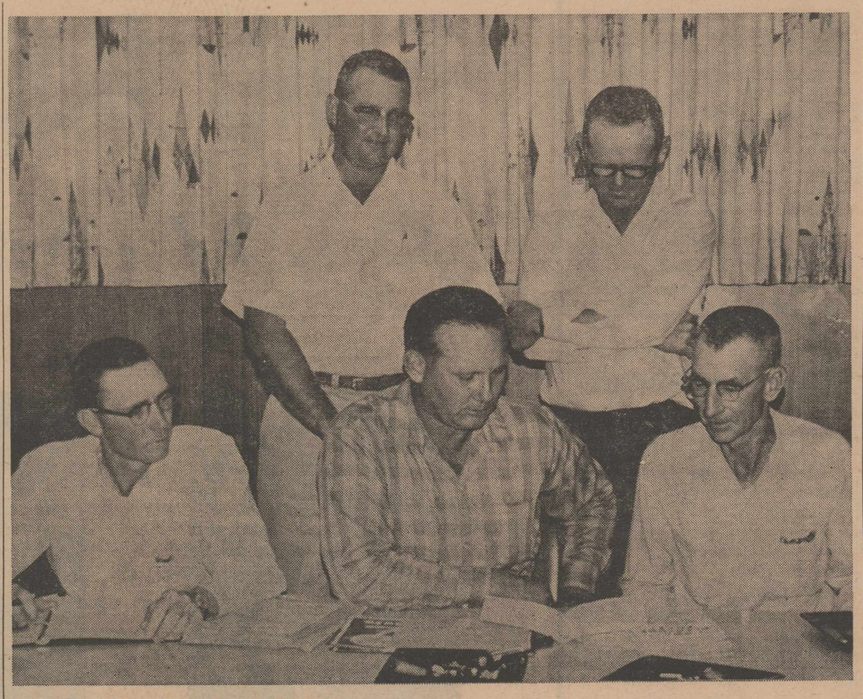

From there they will fan out over town to explain the CROP program and collect funds from those wishing to give.

When their work is completed, the boys and girls will return to the church for refreshments, according to Mrs. Gorman Owens, one of those directing the work.

CROP's primary purpose is to provide help to the hungry and to attack root causes of hunger, Mrs. Owens explained. CROP provides high-protein foods, food-for-work, emergency supplies, agricultural tools, seeds, fertilizer and funds for community and agricultural development.

On the adult level, crops and farm animals are given. Among the youth, money is collected and used to buy food.

The CROP program is sponsored through the Church World Service.

FARMERS UNION OFFICERS

Cemetery Fund Drive Starts This Week

The Wellington Cemetery Association is in urgent need of funds to continue its operations in the city's three plots, Zook Thomas, chairman, announced this week.

The Association has run completely out of money, due principally to the extra expense caused by the summer floods and heavy water damage, Judge Thomas explained.

Judge Thomas explained that this is the annual fund-raising drive, and he, and other officers of the Cemetery Association are urging that everyone who has an interest in any of the plots to make their contributions as early as possible.

"The strides we have made in improving the Wellington Cemeteries in recent years have

Elm Creek Watershed Application Is Made

The application for the Elm Creek Watershed project will be filed this week, Gary Reed, work unit conservationist of Soil Conservation Service, disclosed Tuesday, Oct. 22.

The project seeks a series of structures along Elm Creek at locations to be determined, to control flooding and erosion and provide the area with other benefits.

HISTORY CONTEST WINNER
Kathy Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, holds two drawings which illustrated her story of Collingsworth County's great Indian raid, which was first in its division of the historical illustrated composition contest sponsored by the Domestim Science Club.

The 153,000 acre proposed watershed extends into three counties, Collingsworth, Wheeler and Gray. It is in Texas only, and does not follow the course of Elm Creek across the state line.

The application for the watershed program is made under Public Law 566, and the instruments filed this week with the State Soil Conservation Service and the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts is titled: "Application for Assistance in Planning and Carrying Out Works of Improvement Under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act."

The north boundary of the proposed watershed begins on the Oklahoma State line, about two miles north of Elm Creek and extends northeasterly into Wheeler County. It goes to Shamrock and west to Lela, then northwest to Gray County about five miles north of Interstate Highway 40, then southwest to include McLean.

The southern boundary of the watershed from McLean is southeast to the intersection of Collingsworth, Donley, Gray and Wheeler counties, but it

Turkey Shoot Set for Sunday, October 27

Area sportsmen, both men and women, will compete Sunday, Oct. 27, in Wellington's newest sport—a turkey shoot.

Oris West, Chamber of Commerce manager, announced that the shoot will be held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars building on FM 338 a short distance east of town, beginning at 1 p.m. and continuing as long as anyone wants to shoot.

It is sponsored by the Collingsworth County Free Fair Association, and proceeds will go into the association treasury.

The first organized turkey shoot in the town's history was held Sunday, Oct. 13, and interest and participation far surpassed anything the sponsors expected.

Frozen turkeys and two-pound packages of bacon will be the prizes again this time, Mr. West soid.

It will be conducted the same as the first, in that there will be a 5-man lineup, with the winner of each lineup receiving a turkey or bacon, depending on which was designated before shooting started.

Clay pigeons will be used.

Mr. West is head of the arrangements committee and he will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Bud Higginbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McAlister, Troy Marsh, Tony White, Mickey Breedlove, G. T. Owens, Jr., and Billy Moseley.

J. B. Oney Re-Elected as Fire Chief

J. B. Oney was re-elected chief of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department in the recent annual election meeting.

Re-elected along with him were six other Department officers. These are Jim Sikes, first assistant chief; John Brown, president; Don Settle, secretary; Glen Norman, hose captain No. 2; Dr. Carter Holcomb, department doctor; and the Rev. Ronald Crosley, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, department chaplain.

There are two new officers: Clifford Throne, second assistant chief, and David Peters, hose captain No. 1.

Stephen Settle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Settle, was chosen mascot for the third consecutive year.

Teachers Set Variety Show October 28

Wellington classroom teachers will take to the stage Monday evening, Oct. 28, to present a benefit variety show, Mrs. J. I. Morgan, president, has announced.

The entertainment will begin at 7:30 p.m. and there will be between an hour and an hour and a half of fun, those in charge of the program announced.

Already scheduled is a skit by members of the Classroom Teachers Association, talent from both junior high and elementary school, numbers by the Sagebrush Singers, a group of high school, and a take off on Hamle by a group of senior girls.

Mrs. Bob McAlister will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets are now on sale.

Proceeds from the variety show will be used for a scholarship to be presented to a Wellington senior planning to enter the teaching profession.

Band Parents Meet Nov. 4

The Wellington Band Booster Club will hold its regular meeting Monday, Nov. 4, in the band hall, according to Jesse Peters, president.

Parents of all band members are urged to attend.

Tony White Named Chairman

Quarter Horse Show Slated for November 9

The annual Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show will be held Saturday, Nov. 9, the first time a fall date has been selected. This is an approved show of the American Quarter Horse Association, according to Tim White, chairman.

The entire show this year will be at the VFW Rodeo Arena at the northeast corner of town. Halter classes will be seen at 10 a.m. and the performance classes at 1 p.m. This is a reversal of show events as staged in the past.

Bud Higginbotham will be the ringmaster, and the show will be judged by Johnny McClellan of McLean.

There will be junior and senior divisions in the Halter classes in four of the five events planned: the cutting contest, reining contest, roping contest, western pleasure riding. All ages will compete together in the barrel racing. The winners will receive trophies.

There are three divisions in the halter classes, fillies and mares with six age groups; stallions with five age groups, and geldings with four age groups.

A grand champion and reserve champion will be chosen in each division. Trophies will go to first place winner of each age group and ribbons to second through sixth place winners, Mr. White said.

The entry fees will be $10 in the cutting contest and $5.00 in all others.

With conflicting shows not likely at this time of year, the show is due to be one of the largest Quarter Horse Shows ever held in Wellington, those working with it believe.

Bob Price to Visit Wellington, Dodson, Oct. 30

Congressman Bob Price is expected to deliver a major campaign address dealing with farm problems in Wellington Wednesday, Oct. 30, his campaign office said this week.

This speech will come during a town hall meeting from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in Wellington's community building.

His visit here will be one of two stops in Collingsworth County that day, as he will visit Dodson at 4:30 p.m.

Congressman Price will also make stops in Donley, Wheeler, Gray and Hall Counties on Wednesday, Oct. 30, it has been announced.

Price, seeking reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives, will begin the day's campaign schedule with an early morning stop for coffee and a town hall meeting in Clarendon at 7 p.m. A town hall meeting is set for Wheeler at 9:30 a.m.

Revival Opens Sunday At Dodson Church

Revival services will open at the Church of the Nazarene in Dodson Monday, Oct. 28, and continue through Sunday, Nov. 3, the Rev. Howard Smith, pastor, has announced.

The Rev. Comer Johnson, pastor of Wedgewood Church of the Nazarene in Fort Worth, will be the evangelist.

Services will be held twice each day, at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., Rev. Smith said.

Rev. Johnson has conducted services at the Dodson church in the past, and is well known among members of the Nazarene Church in this area, Rev. Smith said.

Skyrocket B Hosts Memphis Here Thursday

The Skyrocket B team will be host to the Memphis Cyclone B at Powell Field Thursday, Oct. 24, in what Coach James Stavenhagen expects to be one of the better games of the year. Game time is 7 p.m.

"We haven't played them this year. Scoring-wise, the teams should be about even, but you really can't tell too much about that. We do know we'll have to play good ball to play the Memphis team," he declared.

The Memphis B team is coached by a former Wellington teacher and coach, Denzil Lacy.

His team is composed almost entirely of freshmen and has had two one-sided defeats at the hands of Quanah, and then by Shamrock 56-0.

Memphis has had more than its share of injuries in recent weeks, and its schedule has been regarded by Cyclone coaches as unusually tough.

There are three sophomores and no juniors on the Memphis B team. Like Wellington, Memphis does not play a regular freshman schedule.

Two changes are due in the Wellington starting lineup this week. Eddie Popwell, moved to

Quail Plays at Mobeetie Friday Night

The Quail Quails and Bobwhites will travel to Mobeetie Friday night, Oct. 25, for a double header with that school's basketball teams.

To date, little is known of Mobeetie's teams, which are coached by Robert Phelps, and it is still too early in the season to determine the strength of either team.

Beard Grows Giant Yam

Joe Beard, 300 East Avenue, has proof that Wellington can grow them big.

He is exhibiting a sweet potato which he grew, and which measures 15 inches in length and 14 inches around. It weighs three and one-half pounds.

Mr. Beard believes that some farmers in sand might be able to grow larger yams, but he doubts if there is a bigger one on the Wellington town section.

Balanced, Experienced

Shamrock Returns as District Foe Friday

The Wellington Skyrockets and Shamrock Irish resume their traditional district rivalry on Powell Field Friday night, Oct. 25.

Game time is 8 p.m.

Shamrock has a well balanced ball club, Coach Thayne Amonett said. The boys are good size, they have average speed, with a great deal of experience.

"They depend on controlling the ball in order to score and keep the other team from having a chance to score," the Wellington head coach said.

Only once this year have the Irish been beaten, and this was a 13-12 loss to Panhandle early in the season.

Since that time they have come along real strong, observed Coach Amonett.

"Somebody will be trying to knock them off before they meet Iowa Park in the last ball game of the season," the coach said.

In district play, the Irish have defeated Quanah 14 to 6, Memphis 26 to 0, and Childress 47 to 7.

Coach Amonett turned his attention to the Rockets:

"We feel our kids can be up and ready to play this ball game. We made several costly mistakes against Seymour or that would have been a closer ball game. We felt like our

Government, History Classes

Students "Elect" National, State Officials Tuesday

One hundred Wellington high school students participated in elections Tuesday, Oct. 22, in which they expressed their preferences for national and state candidates and voted on the 14 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

They are members of the government and American history classes taught by Mrs. Billy R. Long.

When the votes were counted, the American Party received 48; Republican 32; and Democratic 18.

This was the outcome of the other races:

Representative, 18th Congressional District: Bob Price 76, Dick Brown 20, write-ins, 2.

Lt. Governor: Ben Barnes, 76, Doug DeCluitt, 21; write-in 1.

Comptroller: Robert Calvert, 56; John Bennett, Jr. 42; write-in, 1.

State Treasurer: Jesse James 85, Manuel Sanchez, 12; write-in 1.

"These elections were held as closely as possible within the laws set by the government," Mrs. Long said. "Students, in units formulated planks which were then presented to a platform committee."

The classes participated in registration and voting. Election judges and tabulators were selected by each party to count the votes.

The ballots were placed in a locked ballot box and stubs in separate containers, simulating a real election. The 50-foot "No campaigning" signs were set up. Campaigning was permitted in the social studies classroom and outside the building only. Secrecy of the ballot was respected.

We hope this has given students an insight into the governmental process of voting and also party politics of major and minor parties and will encourage them to participate when they reach the age of 21," Mrs. Long said.

The vote on the amendments

County Has Two Traffic Deaths in September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Collingsworth County during the month of September, according to Sgt. J. L. Dalrymple, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons killed, two persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $4,530.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1968 shows a total of 33 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 17 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $47,375.

The September report for other nearby counties includes:

Childress: 7 accidents, no deaths, 4 injuries, $6,895 property damage.

Cottle: 3 accidents, no deaths, 3 injuries, $5,975 property damage.

Donley: 7 accidents, no deaths, 5 injuries, $3,910 property damage.

Gray: 12 accidents, no deaths, 5 injuries, $6,105 property damage.

Hall: 5 accidents, no deaths, 4 injuries, $3,360 property damage.

Wheeler: 7 accidents, no deaths, 1 injury, $2,530 property damage.

Trinity University Observes Centenial Oct. 28-Nov. 3

Trinity University in San Antonio is celebrating a birthday —its 100th; Trinity also is observing its annual homecoming—Oct. 28 to Nov. 3, and the combination of the two results in "Century I," the University's week-long celebration of 100 years of higher education in Texas.

Trinity alumni, former faculty members and friends of the University from throughout the state are expected to attend the Centennial Year homecoming festivities. The celebration begins Oct. 28 with four days of student activities on Trinity Hill. Festivities include a student homecoming banquet, a mock presidential election, opera preview, homecoming chapel service and an all-school party.

Week-end homecoming festivities begin Oct. 31 with the construction of booths and displays for the annual Friday evening all-school carnival-Fiesta. Trinity Hall displays will be judged Friday morning, and Fiesta opens at 8 p.m. after crowning of the University Homecoming Court at 7:30. A fireworks display is set for 9:30 p.m. on E. M. Stevens Field.

Saturday, Nov. 2, is Homecoming Day on Trinity Hill. Activities begin at 10 a.m. with a Centennial Convocation in the Earl C. Sams Memorial Center main gymnasium.

Strattons Visit in Hopper Home

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hopper recently were her mother, Mrs. Kate Stratton, and her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stratton of Midwest City, Okla., and their son, Joe Bob Stratton of the Air Force, stationed at Hamilton AFB. He lives in Novato, Calif.

Mrs. Bob Armstrong, mother of Mrs. J. B. Stratton, joined them.

Joe Bob Stratton is assigned temporarily at Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls, to attend an illustrators' school. He was graduated from Central State College, Edmond, Okla.

More Students Enroll in School, College

More and more Collingsworth County students are enrolled in schools across the country.

This is a supplemental list to that published recently in The Wellington Leader listing more than 200 boys and girls now attending universities, colleges, or other schools of higher learning.

Marvin Roland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roland, is attending an auto mechanics school in Denver, Colo.

Betty Moore, daughter of Mrs. Frankie Moore, is enrolled in Paul Quinn College, Waco.

A high school student, Phillip Wischkaemper, is attending Lubbock Christian School on the campus of Lubbock Christian College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wischkaemper of Slaton, formerly of Samnorwood.

Janie Smith, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Dodson, is a student at Mid-America Nazarene College at Olathe, Kan.

Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Needham attend Wayland Baptist College, Plainview. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Needham.

Terry Bouchelle, now minister of the Church of Christ at Weatherford, Texas, is attending Weatherford Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Ginn of Arnett are in Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma. She is the former Cherie Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell of Hollis.

Jackie Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Duncan, is enrolled in West Texas State University.

1968 Cancer Funds Up

A report released this week by the American Cancer Society for Texas reveals that Collingsworth's 1968 Crusade was the best held to date.

Money raised in 1968 totaled $1,240. The best year prior to this was 1967, when $1,146 was collected. The 1967 total represents donations of 18¢ per capita for this county, the report states.

Mrs. Edd Henard was chairman of the 1968 Cancer Crusade, which was held last spring.

Astronaut Walter M. Schirra, Jr., is the Texas Crusade Chairman.

Exempt License Not a Bargain

AUSTIN.—The exempt hunting license for residents who want to hunt on their own land is not necessarily a bargain, says J. B. Phillips, law enforcement coordinator for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

This exempt license may be obtained from a license deputy for 25¢.

Phillips says problems usually occur when a landowner with an exempt license gets an invitation to hunt on someone else's land. The exempt license is good only on the land for which it is bought. Since it could be unlawful to buy another license, the landowner must wait until his exempt license expires before he can buy another one and legally hunt on someone else's land.

Phillips says the exempt license is good only if the person resides on the property. He may not live off the property and legally hunt with an exempt license.

One Registrant Due Induction

Selective Service Local Board No. 20 has received a call for one registrant for induction and one registrant for armed forces physical examination for Nov. 6.

Bob Sanford Writes

Food is Good, May Be Texas Style in Madrid

This is the second of two articles Bob Sanford has written exclusively for The Wellington Leader telling of his life in Madrid, Spain, and his visits to other parts of the country. Sanford, a spring graduate in architecture from Texas Tech, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanford.

Now I'll explain a little about the Spanish customs. The working and sleeping hours were a little hard for me to adjust to at first. For instance, the average work day begins at 9 a.m. and lasts til lunch which begins at 2 p.m. The lunch break usually is three hours, and then the workday continues from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. The long lunch time stems from the old siesta custom which is still observed by some Spaniards. Lunch is eaten about 3 p.m. and dinner is anytime after 9 p.m. For the first week, there was one mighty hungry Texan, running around Madrid, but now I've found this a very relaxing and enjoyable way to eat.

All of the government agencies and some of the businesses use the 24 hour clock system; and the weights, measures, and currency follow the Decimal Metric System. The "peseta" is the principal monetary unit, and after devaluation last year the value is 69.90 pesetas to the dollar. The value actually varies from day to day, but never a great deal. A bus ride is 4 pts., coffee is 7 pts., and a ticket to the bullfight is anywhere from 70 to 300 pts., depending on if you want to sit in the sun or shade.

The food is extremely good. You can find variations ranging from Texas-style steak to fried octupus (which I had one time completely by mistake.) The Spanish are famous for their "tortilla" which is an omelette cooked with potatoes and eggs. Other good foods are "Gazpacho," a cold soup made with tomatoes and cucumbers; "Pailla," a casserole including mussels, shrimp, and yellow rice; and a combination plate appropriately labeled "cocina" (meaning kitchen) which is a type of stew and includes everything the cook feels like that day. Of all the drinks, "Sangria" is the most popular. It's a drink made by the pitcher and has red wine, cognac, fruit juices, and bits of freshly chopped fruit in it. The Spanish wines are very good, and, of course, there's always Coca Cola.

There are a great many things to do and see in Madrid and the nearby areas. The Prado is probably one of the most widely known art galleries and is said to have the largest collection of paintings in the world. There are also many other museums and galleries, one being specially dedicated to Spanish bulls, while some of the others are not so specialized. During the Summer and Fall, each country of Europe has a cultural exchange program in the form of operas, ballets, or something typical of their country. This season, the Festival de Espana had the Royal Ballet Company one week and a program on the Flamenco dance another week. Also, within the city, there are the most "mod" discoteques and sswinging night clubs in all of Spain. And the countryside is so beautiful that horseback riding, picnics, or just walking are very pleasant and entertaining things. So, there is something for every taste, including a combination of all.

I've found the simplest of day to day routines to be very enjoyable here. I live in the oldest and perhaps most picturesque parts of Madrid. It's exactly like those little narrow, winding streets you see on all the posters. The apartment buildings or "flats" are built directly next to each other and all have at least one or two windows with flowered balconies opening to the outside. After dinner, its fun to see all the people gather at their own balcony and visit with the neighbors on the opposite side of the street.

At about 11 p.m. the "serrano" comes and locks the doors to the main entry of each apartment building. This is the little man whose duty it is to guard the streets at night so that we can sleep peacefully. It's not a bad idea, but the serranos are usually about 70 years old, and fall asleep during the night. And if you come in after the doors are closed, he unlocks it for you and it is the custom to tip him. After about five times of not tipping him the first week I was here he informed me in the clearest English that I wasn't getting in unless I gave him at least one peseta. I gave him five and now we're friends for life.

Like most Spanish men, I am "pluri empleo," which simply means I have a secondary job. I work with an American architect during regular hours, and with an English-language magazine during off hours. I began with the magazine, and it is through these people that I got the job with the architect.

Working with an architect here is by far one of the best experiences I've had. It's a typical Spanish-like office where the atmosphere is very relaxed. I'm fortunate in having a job with a man that has a good reputation like he does. Some of the Spanish architects have been known to design a building, give the plans to the contractor, and be very surprised if the building looks anything like he designed. But the architect I work for is very conscientious and has a promising future.

Besides working with him, I have done some outside studies on Spanish architecture both here in Madrid and in other parts of Spain. There are still many more things to see and do and I hope to get in as many as possible while I'm here.

I hope this explains at least a little of what it's like to live and work in Spain. I've tried to include something that would be of interest to everybody. Being here in Spain is certainly an experience that I will never forget and will appreciate for the rest of my life.

There are approximately 20,100 bridges on the Texas highway system.

Season Schedule for Norwood Is Announced

The season schedule of the Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes was announced this week by Coach Kenneth Martindale.

Our 42nd Year of Ginning Service

We Are Ready To Serve You

We are pleased to announce to the cotton growers of this area that our new Continental Moss-Gordon Gin Plants are ready to take care of your cotton during the 68-69 ginning season. The Continental Moss-Gordon Gin Plant was selected for its efficiency and economy in order to gin your cotton better as well as faster thereby enabling our members to realize more net return from their cotton crop.

Long Staple Cotton

All Long Staple Cotton will be ginned on one side of the downtown plant.

Your Cotton Is Insured

The Farmers Co-Op Gin has always maintained insurance to insure against loss by fire the cotton of its customers while in the process of being ginned.

But in recent years the Gin also carries a "floater" which insures the seed cotton of its customers from the field on the gin premises.

To afford this broad coverage the Insurance Company has stipulated that the customer must agree at the beginning of the season to have all of his cotton ginned at The Farmers Co-Op Gin in Wellington

Top Market Prices

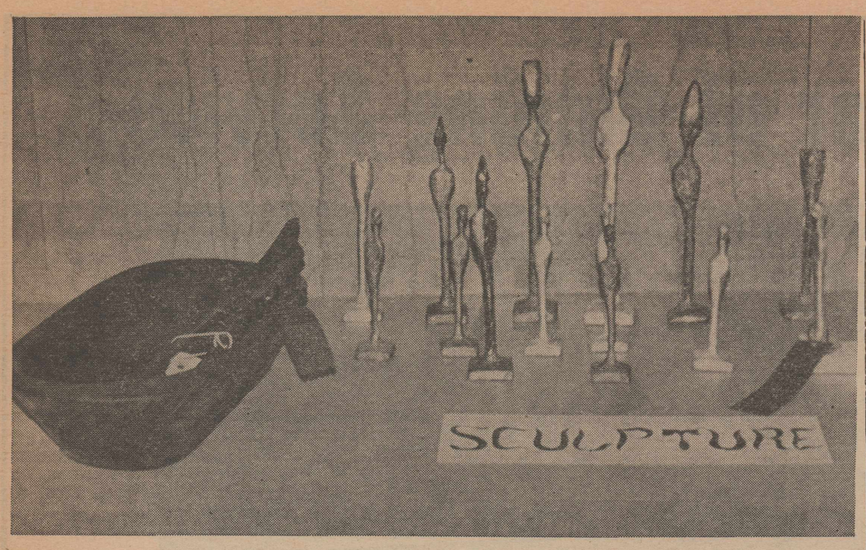

As usual all class cards and press tickets will be kept for you at the gin office. We will market your cotton at the highest prices available in the area.

THANK YOU

At the beginning of the 42nd year of service to the cotton growers of this area, the officers, directors and employees of the Farmers Co-Op Gin in Wellington wish to express their sincere appreciation for the courtesy and cooperation we have received in the past. We pledge you a continuation of the same high class ginning service that has proved profitable for our members in other years. Come to see us.

SCULPTURE WINNERS

These handsome pieces were first place winners in the sculpture division of the Sagebrush Arts and Crafts Festival Saturday, October 19. The metal chess set was made by Bob Sanford, young Wellington architect now living in Madrid, Spain. The wooden salad set was carved by Mrs. Larry Oswart.

Needham and Cleveland Win Golf Tourney

Jackie Needham, Wellington athlete attending West Texas State University, won the Wellington State Bank Masters Golf Tournament Sunday afternoon, Oct. 20, with a score of 216 on 36 holes played during the two week end contest.

The medalist trophy went to Weldon Cleveland, Jr., with a 33 on a 9-hole round Sunday. He placed second in flight one with 220 for 36 holes.

Henry Sullivan was third in the flight with 221.

Needham was tied with veteran golfer Lewis Morris at the end of 18 holes, which closed the first week end of play.

Morris, however, was injured while working at his farm near Quail and was hospitalized at St. Joseph's until Friday morning. Although he played the second phase of the tournament fellow contestants said he was still ill and was never able to play his usual game.

Winners in the other flights were:

Flight two: first, Willie Gregson with 219; second, Wayne Jones of Hollis with a score of 236 and third, Dr. C. L. Harrison of Hollis with a 239.

Flight three: first, John Coffee with 243; second, Dee Burba with 253; and third, Alvin Horton with 255.

Flight four: first, Weldon Cleveland, Sr., with 251; second, Chester White with 255; third, Roy Jeffrey, Jr., with 258.

All flight winners received identical trophies which were clocks with a golfer mounted at each side. A gift from Wellington State Bank was presented to the medalist winner.

Forty-two players were entered in the tournament, according to C. T. Hubbard, bank president.

UT Offers Speed Reading

AUSTIN.— Non-credit courses in speed reading, vocabulary and comprehension, and study skills are available free of charge for University of Texas students.

Offered by the Reading and Study Skills Laboratory, the courses began on Sept. 30. The vocabulary building and comprehension lab continues for 12 weeks.

The lab stressing flexible reading speeds continues for 8 weeks, with a second section for Law School students beginning on Oct. 28.

Study skill labs are offered for four-week periods beginning Sept. 30, Oct. 28 and Nov. 20.

Miss Pat Heard, RASSL supervisor, explained that the section for law students results from a pilot project in 1966.

The UT Student Bar Association sponsored the pilot reading program and received a citation for the project from the American Law Student Association.

Norwood Harvest Festival Set November 2

The annual Samnorwood Harvest Festival will be held Saturday, Nov. 2, featuring a chili supper to be followed by the coronation of the school queen.

The event is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

The chil supper, which will also include sandwiches, drinks and pie, will be in the cafeteria with serving from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

The coronation will be in the school gymnasium.

Nominees for Queen and their attendants have been selected and classes are earning points by a variety of methods.

A poster contest is under way, and there will be a costume contest preceding the coronation, with prizes to be given both pre-school and school age contestants, according to Mrs. Jimmy Thompson, who is in charge.

Mrs. John Birkey will receive funds at 8:30 p.m. which will determine the final standing of the candidates. Juniors and seniors will operate concession stands.

Complete details of the chili supper and coronation will be announced next week, according to Mrs. Jimmy Martindale, PTA vice president.

Alexander at Harding College

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander of Dodson last week was their three and one-half year old granddaughter, Denise Alexander, of Searcy, Ark.

Her father, Fred Alexander, brought her by plane, then flew in to pick her up.

Mr. Alexander joined the staff of Harding College with the beginning of the school year, and he and his family moved there from Rochester, Mich., where he was in the music department of Michigan Christian Junior College.

He was graduated from Wellington High School and Abilene Christian College. His wife also attended ACC.

While his daughter was here, Mr. Alexander, a pilot, flew to Fort Worth on business for Harding College.

Art Festival Quality Draws Critics' Praise

An impressionistic still-life painting by Marge Toft of Childress was judged Best of Show in the Sagebrush Arts and Crafts Association Fall Festival of Arts Saturday, Oct. 19.

The winner ot the student division was also an impressionistic still life, painted by Catherine Armstrong, who attends the Wellington Schools.

Both had as their theme bowls of flowers, although there were different judges for the two divisions.

The number of entries was smaller than in the spring show, but beautiful and crisp October weather was ideal for this outdoor art exhibit.

Judges of the show were Don Marcum and Harold Fox, of the art department faculty of Amarillo Junior College.

Both men praised the quality of the work exhibited and described it as being "as good if not better" than some of the Panhandle's major shows. They urged that local artists participate in district and Panhandle-wide shows.

Among the younger artists of the area, both expressed enthusiasm over the type of work being done in the Wellington area.

Both men are West Texans and graduates of the University of Texas School of Arts. Mr. Marcum was born at Briscoe and reared at Dalhart. He also has studied in Boston. Mr. Fox is from San Angelo and has studied also at the University of Kansas.

Crowds visiting this outdoor show were considerably larger than at the spring show and came consistently through the day, and included visitors from most surrounding towns.

Mrs. Toft is a part of the Wellington art group, as she and her husband, Ray Toft, are members of the Dord Fitz Art Class.

Her Best of Show painting also placed first in the division for abstracts. An entry by Patricia Cleveland was second.

Winners in the show were announced by Mrs. Hubert Bowen, Sagebrush president.

In the landscape division, first place went to a painting of Palo Duro Canyon's Lighthouse by Mrs. Bill Cunningham of Amarillo; and other winners were second, Mrs. Roy Jeffrey; third, Mrs. Toft; and fourth, Miss Bonnie Willis.

Mrs. Toft also was first in the still life division; second, Mrs. Earldine Mudlow of Estelline; third, Mrs. John Sherman; and fourth, Mrs. Floyd Teutsch of Dodson.

In the portrait division, first place was won by Jan Hudlow of Estelline, and second by Mrs. Grady Van Pelt.

Miss Hudlow, a high school junior, also was first in the figures division with a portrait of a dog; second place went to Mrs. Van Pelt and third to Mrs. Rosalie White.

A pen and ink drawing entered by Frank Jones of Amarillo received third place.

A metal chess set made by Bob Sanford, now living in Madrid, Spain, won first in the sculpture division.

Mrs. Larry Oswalt received third for a copper pitcher entered in the metal division.

Ceramics division winners were, first, Mrs. Ollie Buske; second, Mrs. Cal Sugg; and third, Mrs. Grady Van Pelt.

Decoupage: first, Jane Thompson; second, Florence Caterlin; and fourth, Jane Thompson.

Papier mache: first, Mrs. Weldon Cleveland, Jr., and fourth, Mrs. John Robert Henard.

Wood carving or sculpture: first, Mrs. Larry Oswalt; secone, Miss Bonnie Willis; fourth, Mrs. Oswalt.

Needlecraft: first, Mrs. Hubert Bowen; second, Mrs. Fletcher White; third, Mrs. Larry Oswalt; and fourth, Mrs. Bowen.

China painting: first, Mrs. C. C. Brown.

Student Division

Mrs. Floyd Teutsch of Dodson was judge of the student division.

Abstract oils: first, Edi Watkins; second, Katy Sullivan; third, Rosemary Popwell; and fourth, Gwen Lewis.

Realistic oils: first, Patti McAlister; second, Katy Sullivan.

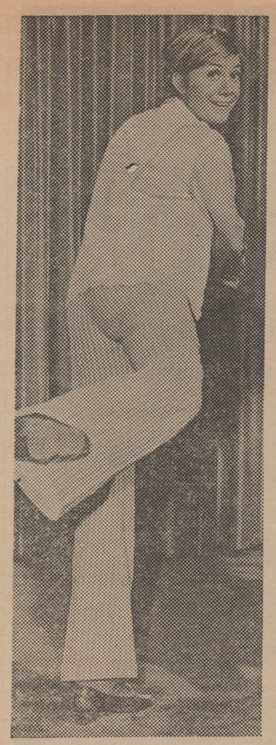

Drawing: first, Tommy Caldwell; second, Patti McAlister; third, Karen Caldwell; fourth, Tina Jenkins.

Tepera and water color: first, Katherine Armstrong; second, Rufus Sosa; third, Saul Garza; fourth, Jeanette Barber.

Crafts, decoupage and tile: first, Lucy Sullivan; second, Lucy Sullivan; third, Lois Johnson; fourth, Lois Johnson.

Wall hangings, wood sculpture, and burlap and yarn: first, Rufus Sosa; second, Jeanette Barber; third, Jesse Morrison; fourth, Jesse Bera.

Papier mache: first, Maudine Reed; second, Saul Garza; third, Janie Davis; fourth, Rufus Sosa.

KICKING up her heels, Lana Cantrell practices for her stage debut as "Dorothy" in a St. Louis Municipal Opera production of "The Wizard of Oz."

Breathalyzer Projects to Aid Officers With DWI Problem

Studies by the Texas Department of Public Safety indicate that—depending on area—the use of alcohol is involved in from 40 to 50 percent of all fatal motor vehicle accidents in the state. Nationwide the U. S. Department of Transportation states that the use of alcohol leads to some 25,000 deaths and at least 800,000 crashes each year.

In an effort to deal more effectively with the driving-while-intoxicated problem in Texas, the DPS has obtained 90 breath analysis instruments and has trained 12 chemists and 450 highway patrol personnel in their operation. These Breathalyzer instruments will be located in about 80 of the state's most populous counties where the DWI problem is greatest.

Subjects who consent to the test will accompany the highway patrolman to an office where an instrument is located. There, the subject will blow into a tube attached to the Breathalyzer and the percentage of alcohol in his blood will register on an indicator on the instrument's face.

It is not yet known where the Breathalyzer will be located in this area, although Childress is a possible location, Sheriff John Rainey has indicated.

BIG BUSINESS

The Texas economy annually produces $2.7 billion in agricultural produce, $5 billion in petroleum and other mineral production and $7 billion in manufacturing output.

LETTERS
from the People

White Deer, Texas.

Dear Sirs:

I am asking for some information about the family that lost four children and house in a fire not long ago.

The TEL Sunday School Class of White Deer First Baptist Church makes quilts and donates them to such causes and we would like to know if this family will have plenty of covers for this winter.

The reason I am writing your office is that I went to school as a child with the two Scott boys, and I hope they say Hello to Mrs. Hattie Scott.

Yours truly,

Music Club Chooses Broad Field Of Study for the 1968-69 Season

From hymns and folk music to Broadway and Hollywood imagery, the Wellington Federated Music Club sets a broad scope for its 1968-69 season, with each part based on the study, "Music and Man."

With Mrs. Dan Henard as president, the Music Club is already well into that study.

At its first meeting, a salad supper, members entertained Mrs. M. G. Mathis of Amarillo, First District President, Texas Federation of Music Clubs. In her short address, Mrs. Mathis outlined her goal: to have the First District a working district and the best in the state.

She urged that more stress be placed on American composers in the programs of the district music clubs.

She then presented a program of piano music with her granddaughter, Miss Lee Mathis of Amarillo, playing the flute obbligato.

Mrs. Mathis is the mother of Paul Mathis, band director of the Canadian Schools, a former member of an internationally famous dance band, and a composer of music.

Three members of the Wellington Club serve on district and state boards: Mrs. B. M. Sims is editor of Texas Music News and Mrs. Hiram Cudd is assistant editor, and Mrs. L. W. Wells is a committee member. On the district level, Mrs. Sims serves the board for individual membership; Mrs. Cudd the history of music in Texas, and Mrs. Wells, junior composers.

Officers serving this year with Mrs. Henard are Mrs. Truett Holland, vice president; Mrs. Kyle Lindley, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Harry Patterson, parliamentarian; Mrs. Roland Jenkins, reporter; Mrs. L. W. Wells, librarian; and Mrs. E. H. Harwell, historian.

The club's second meeting was held Tuesday, October 15, in the home of Mrs. Bura Handley with Mrs. E. H. Harwell as co-hostess.

During the regular business meeting Mrs. Tony White was elected delegate with Mrs. Don Van Pelt as alternate, to attend the District Conference to be held in Borger on November 8 and 9.

The program was a Hymn Tableau of ancient and modern hymns. The commentary was given by Mrs. L. W. Wells. Members participated in singing hymns from the Methodist Hymnal. Mrs. Wells led the group singing and Mrs. Truett Holland was the accompanist.

Members present were Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Orville Vaughan, Mrs. Velman Warrick, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. B. M. Sims, Mrs. Harry Patterson, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Mrs. Tony White, Mrs. Roland Jenkins, Mrs. Kyle Lindley, and the hostesses, Mrs. Handley and Mrs. Harwell.

Auxiliary Lists Future Activity

Plans were developed further for the year's work of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary in the October meeting held recently.

Increased membership is one of the major goals, the president, Mrs. Wayne Cudd, reported. She has named to this committee Mrs. J. F. Michael, Mrs. Clyde Drake, Mrs. Clarence Littleton and she will work with them.

More workers are needed at the information desk during the evening, Mrs. Cudd said. Members of church groups or clubs might take this as a project, she suggested. A man and wife team could work together at the hospital, and those who are interested but who are not members of the Auxiliary or any other group are also invited, Mrs. Cudd continued.

There are two two-hour shifts in the evening, and the work usually includes answering the telephone or giving information to visitors. Candy stripers also help.

A vending machine for candy and snacks is due to be installed shortly.

A library, principally of light reading, is another project, and anyone who has paperback as well as hard cover books, and also magazines, may contact members of the Auxiliary. These are for the benefit of patients and those who are staying at the hospital with patients.

Who's New in the Wellington Area

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Lowry of Houston are the parents of a son, James Landon, born there October 17. He weighed six pounds and twelve ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rountree of Lutie and Mrs. Jack Lowry of Samnorwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lee are the parents of a daughter, Terrie Marie, born October 20 in St. Joseph's Hospital. She weighed five pounds eight and one-half ounces.

B&PW Observes National Week

The Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club is joining others throughout the counry in observing National Business Women's Week October 26 to 26.

Mrs. Bura Handley of the Wellington Club has explained what his week means.

"National Business Women's Week was first celebrated in 1928 with the announced purpose of dramatizing the contributions of women to the business and professional life of the country," she said

"From this early effort, National Business Women's Week has grown to be a nationwide salute to all career women. During the third full week of October each year, clubs throughout the Federation focus the attention of their communities on the tremendous contributions made by women in the world today and honor the outstanding achievements of women in all phases of economic, social, cultural, business, and professional life."

Consumer Buying Is Club Study

Midway Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Jess Motsenbocker Wednesday, October 16 at 2 p.m.

Mrs. M. C. Cleveland gave the prayer and Mrs. Ruth Wyrick the devotional. In the business session, directed by Mrs. R. H. Hill, Mrs. Emil Kersten gave the Council report. The club then gave a quilt to the Cecil Duke family.

Mrs. Creed Hill, home demonstration agent, presented the program on "Consumer Buying."

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Pat Bouchelle, Mrs. Billy Williams, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Wyrick, Mrs. Mattie Koen, Mrs. Ben Brewer, Mrs. Joe Terry, Mrs. Emmitt Cook, Mrs. R. T. Savage, Mrs. Harold Caldwell and Gene, Mrs. Creed Hill, Mrs. Chas. Cason, Mrs. Kersten, Mrs. Odessa McMahan, and Mrs. Motsenbocker.

Club Hears Book Review

The Belles Lettres Club met in the home of Mrs. A. B. Clark Tuesday evening, October 15, with Mrs. Bob Hightower, president, conducting the business session.

Mrs. Hightower and Mrs. Louise Vaughan reported on the Top of Texas District Convention held recently in Amarillo.

During roll call, members named the publications in their homes.

Mrs. Bob McAlister presented the program, a book review, "Revolt of Sarah Perkins," by Miriam Cockrell.

A salad course was served to Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. F. A. Hatch, Mrs. S. B. Owen, Mrs. Esdel Bartlett, Mrs. Pick Bartlett, Mrs. Jim Wood, Mrs. Dick Richards, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Coy Vaughan, Mrs. Louise Vaughan, Mrs. McAlister and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill, along with their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Floyd and Suzanne, visited over the week end with their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hill, Rockey and Kevin, in Jacksonvile. The entire group attended the Rose Festival in Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Morton of Oklahoma City spent the week end with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Starr.

Double Wedding Planned
Dr. and Mrs. James Milton Orr are announcing the approaching marriage of their twin daughters, who plan a double wedding for Friday, the twenty-ninth of November. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harris Observe 60th Wedding Anniversary Recently

A Wellington couple who was married as they sat in a buggy in front of Wellington's First Baptist Church observed their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, October 6.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harris, and a reception was held in their honor at their home at 905 Graham Street.

The hostesses were a daughter, Mrs. Ken (Lena Mae) Tretow of Amarillo, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Truitt Hardage of Farwell, the former Yvonne Harris.

Also present were the couple's sons, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harris of Amarillo and Austin Harris of Wellington. Their other daughter, Mrs. Austin Christoph of Arlington, was undergoing treatment in a Houston hospital and could not be here.

Mrs. Hardage received the guests and registered them.

Mrs. Tretow and Judy Hardage served cake and coffee from a table covered with a lace cloth and appointed in silver and crystal. Mrs. Milford Harris assisted.

Mrs. Harris, 79, is the former Nancy Killough, and was born at Hubbard in Hill County. When she was six her family moved to Henderson County, then Montague County, and in 1904 to Collingsworth, settling at Lillie.

Mr. Harris, 80, is a native of Iredell, Bosque County, and while he was still young, his family came to the Indian Territory and filed on land near T-Cross, between Wellington and Mangum. Selling out about 1905, they, too, came to Lillie.

Mrs. Harris recalls that she rode horseback into Wellington to buy material and a pattern for her wedding dress.

The couple was married by the Rev. J. W. Hembree as they sat in their buggy in front of the small white wooden Baptist parsonage. Grady King and Russell Messick came horseback from Lillie to be their witnesses.

Mrs. Harris recalls that as they drove across the Wellington square, their dressed-up appearance brought them to the attention of a large group of men and boys lounging on the west side, "waiting for something to happen". When the buggy stopped at the parsonage, here the group came running and lined up respectfully to witness the wedding.

In fact, Mr. and Mrs. Harris were one of three couples Rev. Hembree married that day, all sitting in their buggies in the middle of the street as he read the vows. There were no double weddings.

It was worth a story that ran for a column and a half in Wellington's pioneer newspaper.

The other couples were Rollie Smith and Eliza Trew and Tom Spatts and Alma Coe, Mrs. Harris recalls.

The couple returned to Lillie where her mother, Mrs. M. L. Boss held a reception to which the entire community was invited.

After farming several years, the Harris family lived in Wellington eight years, then at Cottonwood for a long period. They returned to Wellington in 1938 and later lived at Pampa.

Arthritis forced Mr. Harris to retire, and at the same time it became necessary for the couple to rear three grandchildren. At an age when most women begin to think of retirement, Mrs. Harris became a civilian employee at Amarillo Air Force Base, where she worked four years.

"You never know what you can do till you have to do it," she remarked.

They returned to Wellington in 1959.

Besides their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harris have eight grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Lucy B. Wells Observes First Birthday After Century

Mrs. Lucy B. Wells observed her 101st birthday October 10 quietly with friends and relatives in the home where she has lived for the past 61 years.

Mrs. Wells, who underwent an operation in April is in good health and is able to move about with the aid of a stroller and sits up each morning and afternoon. She lives with her daughter, Hattie D. Wells, who taught English and History in Wellington High School until she retired in order to take care of her mother.

Out of town callers included Col. L. T. Godfrey of Roswell, N.M., and his sister, Mrs. Grady Brooks of Wolforth, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duke of Kirkland, Texas. Col. Godfrey and Mrs. Brooks were accompanied by Mrs. Joe Baumgardner. In addition numerous friends called during the day. Mrs. Wells' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. China B. Smith of Iowa Park spent the week ends prior to and after her birthday.

On the occasion of her 100th birthday a year ago, Mrs. Wells was visited by her friend of many years, Mrs. J. H. Birchfield, who is 90 and who was confined in St. Joseph's Hospital with a broken hip at the same time Mrs. Wells was recovering from her operation. Mrs. Birchfield is now at her home at 1007 Bowie Street in Wellington and has made a remarkable recovery from her hip injury.

Mrs. Wells is the widow of Henry C. Wells, early day merchant, storekeeper and stockman, who was the prime mover in founding The Wellington State Bank.

She moved to her present home in 1907 at a time when her home and the original Godfrey home were the only two houses on that edge of the township. There was one house on the section which was known as the Cocke house and later as the Collins home.

Mrs. Wells has lived in three locations since coming to Wellington in 1901. Her first home was on the J. H. Colson farm three miles east and one south of Wellington and the second was near the present location of the Singley Mill & Elevator. After a few months in the house which was only a short distance south of the home of Judge P. W. Myers, she moved to her present home.

Mrs. Wells is still active mentally and has continued her interest in current events.

Week end guests in the home of Mrs. A. T. Lentz were her three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Bray and son, Wess, of Fort Worth, Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Jim Leach of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shanks.

Altar Society Plans Activities

The Altar Society of Our Mother of Mercy parish met in the home of Mrs. Russell Yates at 1106 El Paso Wednesday, Oct. 16.

The president, Mrs. Allen J. Peters, conducted the session, which was attended by Mrs. Yates, the secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Frank Hajek, Mrs. Quinton Brewer, Mrs. Lucien Bearden, Mrs. Frank Aguirre, Mrs. Eddie Soldana, Mrs. Adam Sosa, Mrs. Rudy Ramirez, Mrs. Cruz Conzalez, Mrs. Trinidad Cantu and Mrs. Simon Cantu. Also present for the second half of the meeting was the Parish Priest, Father Pat Burke.

Several items of business were discussed, the major project for the year being the introduction of a monthly hot tamale sale for the benefit of the citizens of Wellington who enjoy Mexican food. Details of the sale will be announced later.

The November meeting was slated for the second Wednesday of the month, and will be held in the home of Mrs. Frank Hajek at 1105 Dalhart.

Fr. Pat closed the two-hour meeting with a prayer and a blessing.

WSCS Observes Week of Prayer

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of First United Methodist Church will participate this week in one of the most important annual observances of United Methodist Women throughout the United States.

The program for women of First United Methodist Church in Wellington will be held at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 25 at the church.

The "Call to Prayer and Self-Denial," initiated in 1887, focuses on guided mission study, a much needed offernig for special world and national projects, and a deepened spiritual life. More than 1,541,500 women in 33,000 societies and guilds in all 50 states will join in the observance.

The Call is sponsored by the Women's Division of the United Methodist Board of Missions. The Division, one of the four major units of the Board of Missions, is the national body through which all local Women's Societies and Guilds function.

The theme of the 1968 Call to Prayer and Self-Denial is "Christ, the Giver of Life."

The one major event of the observance is the program meeting for interpretation of mission projects for which a special offering will be made.

Dodson HDC Meets Tuesday

The Dodson Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. J. C. Talley Tuesday, October 15. Mrs. Chester Wadley was the co-hostess.

Mrs. Leta Hill, home demonstration agent, discussed consumer competence and "Latest Tips on Food Buying."

Those attending were Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Gilbert Hunt, Mrs. T. J. Bowling, Mrs. Thurman Crownover, Mrs. Truett Holland, Mrs. C. E. Hightower, Mrs. Don Dennis, Mrs. Purl Tippie, Mrs. Lloyd Patterson, and three guests, Mrs. Clarence Black, Mrs. Ruth Brannigan and Mrs. Abbie Sanders.

Rose Shadid Has Excelsior

Miss Rose Shadid was hostess and program leader when members of the Excelsior Club met Thursday evening, October 17, in her home.

Her discussion of the life and works of Leonardo da Vinci was part of the club's year-long study of art.

Miss Shadid called him a man ahead of his time as she recounted his studies of anatomy in order that he might draw more perfectly the human form.

A dessert course was served to Miss Sara Jones, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. Henry Vaughan, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. J. F. Michael, Miss Bonnie Willis, Miss Marie Shadid, and the hostess, Miss Rose Shadid.

Mrs. Clubb Is Class Speaker

The Naomi Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church met Thursday, October 17 with Mrs. Ray Clubb as hostess.

Mrs. Leroy Gaston gave the devotional, then Mrs. Clubb showed slides of her recent month's trip to Washington, Oregon and Canada.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Silas Crawford, Mrs. T. B. Wilkins, Mrs. Charles Cason, Sr., Mrs. R. C. Bryan, Mrs. W. F. Harbin, Mrs. Homer Ingram, Mrs. John L. Brim, Mrs. Ben Wilhelm, Mrs. Cicero Gulley, Mrs. A. A. McQueary, Mrs. Louise Kendrick, Mrs. C. T. Hubbard, and Mrs. Spurgeon Morgan and the hostess, Mrs. Clubb. Visitors attending were Mrs. Grace White and Mrs. Gaston.

Fidelis Has Salad Supper

The Fidelis Class of First Baptist Church met in the parlor of the church for a salad supper Thursday evening, October 17.

Mrs. Bill Langford gave the devotional on "Prayer." Group singing followed, then Mrs. Bill Smith was in charge of the games.

Those attending were Mrs. Tom Caterlin, Mrs. O. R. Spear, Mrs. Riley Dunson, Mrs. Lottie Moody, Mrs. John Ingram, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. Bruce Hite, Mrs. E. M. Cook, Mrs. Ollie Raburn, Mrs. Howard Riggs, Mrs. Guy Clement, Mrs. Sam White, Mrs. A. B. Clark, Mrs. J. L. Harper, Mrs. Bill Langford, and Mrs. Bill Lacey of Stratford.

JFF Plans Holiday Party

The JFF Club met Thursday night, October 17 with Mrs. Howard Holton as hostess.

Members told their favorite television programs during roll call. Plans were made for the Thanksgiving party.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Herman Belew, Mrs. Raymond Horton, Mrs. R. L. Mabery, Mrs. Lloyd Wooldridge, Mrs. Dick Sweat, Mrs. Woody Wood, Mrs. Hubert Leach and Mrs. Drury Lacy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McQueary were in Mineral Wells over the week end to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McQueary.

Collingsworth Stories

Winner of History Contest Announced

Winners of the contest to determine the best illustrated compositions dealing with Collingsworth County history were announced this week by the Domestic Science Club, which sponsored it among high school and junior high students.

Kathy Cox received first place in the high school division with "The Indians Are Coming." This tells the story of the famous but false Indian raid of 1888, which started in Collingsworth County. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, Jr., and is a junior in Wellington High School.

Sharon Gaston, a senior, placed second with "The Adolescence of Collingsworth County." She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Gaston.

Four eighth graders were winners of the junior high division, since two students could work together on a single entry.

"The Community of Collingsworth" won first for Mitzie Pendleton, who wrote the story and Katy Sullivan, who illustrated it with a water color painting of the county's first courthouse and a map showing the county in relation to others in the Panhandle.

Second place went to "The Mill Iron Ranch," written by Janet Holland and illustrated by Nicky Guthrie. This story, filled with facts about one of the most famous of Panhandle ranches not only traced its beginnings, but told something of its more recent operations.

Kathy Cox used a light touch in illustrating her Indian Raid story. The first shows a cowboy chasing a wounded steer which was the cause of the whole alarm; followed by a drawing of the curious farmer and his imagined Indian raid, and finally, "Collingsworth's Paul Revere," as he spread the story all the way to Salisbury.

Sharon Gaston's story was a resume of early and "adolescent" Collingsworth County history. Her illustration was a double fold pencil sketch showing accurately the west side of the square, at a time when it was filled with false-front wooden buildings.

It was pointed out by Domestic Science members that there were several excellent entries, well written and filled with authentic material, that were not accompanied by illustrations of any type and therefore could not be considered in the final judging.

Former Lillie Man Buried Here Wednesday

Homer Edward Davis, Sr., 68, of Northfield died Saturday, Oct. 19 at Childress.

Mr. Davis and his family lived in the Lillie community from about 1943 to 1953, when they moved to Tell. A year later he went to Northfield, where he operated a store.

Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church in Childress at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, and burial rites were conducted at Memorial Gardens in Wellington at 12:30.

Kelso Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Mr. Davis was born March 9, 1900, at Madill, Okla. He was married to Miss Faye Lucille Carter about 1923.

Mr. Davis was a Baptist and a veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Faye Lucille Davis of Northfield; and 11 children: Paul Davis of Lake Jackson; Mrs. Frances Jones of Bennington, Okla.; H. E. Davis, Jr., of Wellington; Mrs. Dorothy Daniels of Odessa; Mrs. Helen Nix and Bobby Davis of Wichita Falls; Harry Leslie Davis with the Marine Corps in Vietnam; Jackie Davis of Arlington; Mrs. Betty Sue Simpson of Northfield; Kenneth Davis and Danny Ray Davis of Monahans.

Eleven brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Cindy Lee of Fresno, Calif.; Bob Davis and Mrs. Hattie Potts of Boswell, Okla.; N. R. Davis of Burkburnett; Odie Davis and Ocie Davis of Iowa Park; Mrs. Mary McGarry of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Bertie Barnett of Wellington; Mrs. Lizzie Wilbur of Los Angeles; Mrs. Dovie Bruce of Dumas.

There are about 25 grandchildren.

Ko Shari Plans Holiday Events

Members of Ko Shari, high school girls social club, have chosen December 21 as the date for their annual Christmas dinner. In the meeting held Monday, October 14, it was also decided to hold a private formal New Year's Eve for members and their dates.

In an earlier meeting, four new members were formally initiated. These girls are Mary Saied, Carol Cochran, Jane Campbell and Judy Jones.

Also guests of honor were their mothers, Mrs. Mack Saied Jr., Mrs. Jimmy Cochran, Mrs. Cliff Campbell and Mrs. Howard Jones.

Guests, members and their sponsors were served spiced tea and cookies after the initiation.

Soil Conservation Material Available

Material on soil and water conservation is avilable for women's clubs at the Soil Conservation Service office, Gary Reed, work unit conservationist, has announced.

There is a considerable amount of information on the organizational set-up of Soil Conservation Service, and the work it does. The need for selling urban residents on the need for soil and water conservation is stressed, Mr. Reed said.

Most women's clubs in the county hold at least one meeting during the year that is related to conservation.

BEST OF SHOW
Marge Toft, Childress artist, holds the impressionistic still life that was judged best of show at the Sagebrush Fall Festival of Arts and Crafts.

Final Rites Held for Mrs. E.M. Strickland

Funeral services for Mrs. E. M. Strickland, a Wellington resident 51 years, were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11 at First Baptist Church. The Rev. Leroy Gaston officiated.

Mrs. Strickland died Monday, Oct. 7, in a Baton Rouge, La., hospital after being in ill health several months.

Pallbearers for the service were E. W. Clement, Calvin Mitchell, Louis Graham, Bob Copeland, Tom Wilkins and R. T. Savage. Honorary pallbearers were Herman Belew, Howard Crosby, Rev. J. E. Young, John E. Roberts, Luther Sullivan and Dr. Chas. B. Jones.

Burial was in Memorial Gardens under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Mrs. Strickland was born in Montague County Nov. 19, 1894 and was the former Alta Edith McClure. She and Mr. Strickland were married at Hollis Oct. 24, 1914, and lived there until they moved to Wellington.

Survivors are three daughters and five sons: Mrs. Fred Williams of Wellington, Mrs. Howard Poor and Mrs. Sam J. Robinson of Baton Rouge, Don H. Strickland of New Harmony, Ind., E. M. Strickland, Jr., of Austin, Kenneth Strickland of Dallas, Jerry Strickland of Mauriceville and Jimmy Strickland of Norwich, England.

Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Lela Prather of Hereford, 14 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Rolan Bryan over the week end were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown and children, Ronald and Lanell, of Texline.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ingram of Amarillo visited his mother, Mrs. John Ingram over the week end.

Ti-i-ca Plans Terror House

Ti-i-ca Social Club will hold a House of Terror for children of the town on Hallowe'en night, Thursday, Oct. 31, from 6 to 9 p.m., in the basement of the old First Baptist Church.

There will be ghosts, goblins, a spooky room, and sinister tea room, Ti-i-ca members say. There will be an admission charge.

Final plans for the event were made at a meeting held Monday, Oct. 21 in the home of Mrs. Dee Burba. Mrs. Perry Mac Scott, home economics teacher, was the guest speaker, giving a skit: "The Split-Level Child."

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis and 8-months-old son, Kacy of Monahans, spent the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McKinney.

Mrs. C. E. Jackson visited for several days recently with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jackson of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dudley, publishers of the Hollis Weekly News, attended the Sagebrush Arts and Crafts Show in Wellington Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lancaster returned from Norwood, Mo., this week from a visit with their son, Bob Lancaster.

Texas ranks 4th among all states in rural population.

Other Editors Say . . .

More Competitive?

Because of the "lost time" necessitated by the present systems of the airlines, it is possible, as Canadian railroads have proved, for the rail lines to be competitive on passenger hauls over normally short distances. For instance, if a person who lives in St. Louis wants to hop to Kansas City through the air, he must confirm his reservation forty to sixty minutes before departure time after having spent a half hour or so getting to the airport. Reaching Kansas City, a half hour or so wait is often necessary before luggage can be claimed by the passenger, and then another half hour or so drive is needed to get downtown or into a residential section where visiting. In addition, too often, luggage is not tagged and it is possible for almost anyone to grab a bag that looks like it might contain something of value. Travel to and from an airport takes more time than the actual flight between the cities. On long distance travel, it is doubtful if rails will ever again become competitive, but in the East and in Canada, short hauls are proving profitable. Where successful however, the passenger is given the "red carpet" treatment, something which our railroads in this area do not do. Too often the rail employees act as if they were doing you a favor to let you ride their uncomfortable and often dirty coaches.

Fall Change-over

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN.—At least half a dozen Democratic nominees for statewide office are weathering an unsually sharp attack from Republican challengers this year.

In a final flurry before the Nov. 5 general election, the attacks will be stepped up.

Taking no chances, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Preston Smith, Ben Barnes, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin have returned to full-time campaign status.

Their Republican challengers are Paul Eggers, Douglas DeCluitt and Sproesser Wynn.

Polls have indicated the statewide Democrats leading, but battle-wise veterans who face hard-charging opponents can't be sure how many Richard Nixon supporters will decide to vote a straight Republican ticket in indignant zeal for a "change".

Group Seeks More Money

In their Association meeting here county judges and commissioners voted to ask the Legislature to give them more money for county business, and in several ways.

First, they endorsed Constitutional Amendment No. 7 on the Nov. 5 ballot. It would take the state out of the property tax field a little at a time between now and 1976. County officers want authority to levy this tax for county purposes as fast as the state abandons it.

A bigger share of automobile license plate fees also is sought. Where a county gets the first $50,000 in license plate fees, and half of the next $25,000, they would like for the legislature to allow them to share with the state up to a total of $1,000,000 a year instead of $175,000.

Other resolutions called for the state to participate by getting federal aid for crime prevention purposes, to make the law clear that local units of government are exempt from the state sales-tax law, and to revise the law so delinquent tax suits for less than $25 can be filed.

Judges and commissioners opposed the proposal that they be given zoning powers like the cities have. This legislation will be proposed to the next legislature so as to make rural areas eligible for Federal flood insurance under a new program. Without zoning or building controls, flood insurance will not be available.

County Judge W. D. Henson of Dallam County was elected president of the association. Judge Kenneth Douglas of Navarro County is vice president and Harris County Commissioner E. A. Lyons is secretary-treasurer.

Land Sale Set

A big sale of forfeited veterans land tracts is scheduled for Nov. 19. A list of tracts and their locations is available from the Veterans Land Board here, which will receive bids until the day of the sale.

Some tracts are available only to eligible veterans at 5½ percent interest. Non-veterans are free to bid on most of the property, however, although they will have to pay 6½ percent interest if they are successful purchasers.

Enrollments Boom

Preliminary figures show there are 374,418 students enrolled in Texas higher education facilities today.

This represents a gain of 28,515—or 8.24 percent—over the 1967 fall enrollment of 345,903. Figure varies less than one half of one percent from the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System staff projection.

Public senior colleges have 212,035 students, public junior colleges 87,581, private senior colleges 61,819, private junior colleges 9,687 and medical and dental units 3,111.

Fourteen Votes

Campaigning is becoming a bit heated on the 14 proposals to amend the constitution on which Texans will vote Nov. 5.

Texas Municipal League and the Texas Water Development Board have come out against Amendment No. 12. This would allow cities, counties and navigation districts to issue bonds to finance buildings and equipment for manufacturers.

Both groups of public officials fear that huge industrial bond issues will drain off investment money needed by the cities and the water agency from their own bond issues.

On the other hand, the proposal is being supported by regional chambers of commerce and others. They say 44 states have such plans to attract industry, and Texas needs it, too.

Texas State Teachers Association, Texas Association of Classroom Teachers and Texas Association of College Teachers all have come out for Amendment No. 9. It would enable public school teachers to put 6% of their full salary into the retirement fund. Limit now is 6% of $8,400 a year.

Texas Public Employees Association came out for Amendment No. 1, to raise the retirement "deduction" from 5% to 6%, and to allow investment in corporation stocks of the trust fund built up for their retirement.

Texas A&M and the University of Texas may not agree on Thanksgiving Day football matters. But they are agreed on supporting Amendment No. 3. It would allow the investment of the University of Texas Permanent Fund in a higher percentage of corporation stocks, on the theory that the fund will make more money this way.

Amendment No. 5 would raise the pay of legislators from $400 a month to $700, and it is being supported by legislators and others who think it's become a full-time job.

Amendment No. 2 is being supported by older Texans. It would raise by $15,000,000 a year the amount the state can spend on old age assistance, aid to the needy blind and disabled, and to dependent children.

New Job

When Gov. John Connally's term expires in January, he will move to Houston to join one of the state's biggest law firms. He will become a senior partner in the firm which will then be known as Vinson, Elkins, Searls and Connally. It represents a huge list of major business firms.

Connally said he hopes to get in a little Canadian or Pacific Northwest hunting before reporting for his new duties in Houston. He disclaimed any plans to re-enter politics.

Riot Insurance Cleared

State Board of Insurance has set in operation a plan under which policywriters in Texas can come under federal re-insurance in event of excessive losses from riots. Re-insurance is financed by premiums paid to the government by insurance concernes.

Board also named a governing committee to administer the plan. It includes James F. Devereaux, Joe Dorsett, O. A. Edgeworth and F. F. Wasko of Dallas, Raymond Mauke of Houston, and Oran F. Needham of Fort Worth.

Attorney General Rules

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin declined to give unconditional advance approval to Secretary of State Roy Barrera's directive for counting confused and unclear election ballots. Each election judge must make his own determination of the intent of the voter in marking his ballot by either "scratch" or "X" method, Martin said.

Short Snorts

- State Supreme Court will review an appeal by Pasadena in a land annexation suit with Houston.
- State Department of Health had massive amounts of antitoxin drug flown here to combat a diphtheria epidemic that has struck 60.
- Agriculture Commissioner White gave cotton farmers in 17 Coastal Bend Counties until Nov. 1 to complete harvest and cleanup of fields under pink bollworm law plowup rules.
- New officers for the 27,000 member Texas Public Employees Association are C. A. Shoemaker, president; Charles K. Foster, vice president; and Homer A. Foster, secretary.
- Gov. Connally re-appointed Glen McLaughlin of Austin, personnel chief of the Department of Public Safety, and named R. T. Runyon, police chief of Corpus Christi; Gerald Byrd, a police lieutenant in Sweetwater; and incoming District Attorney Bob Smith of Austin to the Commission on Law Enforcement Officers Standards and Education.
- Railroad Commission made no change in the November oil production, holding it at 41.3% of the wells' ability to produce, the same as October.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where some folks trying to get up a March and Demonstration in favor of Patriotism in Chicago were disappointed because only a few participants showed up.

Of, course, walking down a street carrying a sign won't prove you're a patriot. It usually just demonstrates that you don't have anything useful to do, and that the country would be just as well or better off without you.

The best demonstration of patriotism a citizen can put on is behaving himself, paying his taxes, and raising reasonably well civilized kids while staging about a 50-year work-in.

A TIME FOR DECISION

A Presidential election, the most important one in our lifetime, is close upon us. With three candidates in the race Texans are confronted with such a variety of appeals that some confusion is not surprising. We see some of our top state political leaders urging support of Hubert Humphrey on the self-serving appeal of party loyalty. We see fine Texans tempted to support George Wallace because they like his outspoken position on certain issues and are thus swayed by an appeal of sheer emotion. With full respect for the right of every Texan to make a personal decision, this message in behalf of Richard Nixon is offered as

...AN APPEAL TO REASON!

HUBERT HUMPHREY WILL NOT change. He has proved consistently anti-Texas. He is famous for his filibuster against Texas owning its tidelands. He has fought our right-to-work laws and sought to destroy our vital oil depletion allowance. On every issue of world importance his position is contrary to that of most Texans. Humphrey, an ultra-liberal founder of the ADA organization, would gain executive authority for radical minority viewpoints should he become president. This cannot happen by popular vote. In view of his vicious attacks upon George Wallace, what a ghastly miscarriage of intent it would be if Wallace supporters themselves should throw the election into the House of Representatives where every Wallace vote in Texas would automatically go to Humphrey!

GEORGE WALLACE CANNOT be denied his impressive showing. A number of fine people heed his third party call. The very least that can be said is that he has dramatized the desires of many people for a change of direction in the affairs of our government. However, the very most his supporters can hope for is to split the popular vote so that all of us would be at the mercy of Washington politicians who would elect our president for us. This is Hubert Humphrey's only hope for election. The more positive way to vote for change is to recognize the many fine merits of Richard Nixon and his program, then vote for Nixon to assure the election of our president by the people instead of by the Congress!

RICHARD NIXON CAN...AND WILL supply dynamic, experienced leadership for an immediate change of direction—at the top—in all our national affairs at home and around the world. Your concerns are his concerns!

- NIXON ON LAW AND ORDER is pledged to help improve local police protection, to appoint an Attorney General dedicated to rooting out crime, to restore balance in our courts strengthening peace forces against criminal elements and to cease freeing so many of the guilty on technicalities.
- NIXON ON VIET NAM will call upon his experience as vice-president during eight great Eisenhower years of peace to reform world alliances now in disarray, to redirect our strategy on new global terms. He will end this war and avoid future ones by dealing with adversaries in the only way they respect—through strength, collective security and patience.
- NIXON ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT is pledged to move control of local schools and all other governmental functions which properly belong at the local level closer to the people.
- NIXON ON OTHER PROBLEMS has solid solutions PLUS solid backing of enough members of Congress to implement those solutions.

IF YOU REALLY WANT A CHANGE... AND IF YOU WANT TO BE SURE YOU REALLY GET IT... VOTE FOR NIXON/AGNEW

Wellington Drops Game to Seymour 18-0

By JACK FORD

A well-balanced Seymour Panther football team jumped to an early lead and went on to defeat the injury-loaded Skyrockets 18 to 0 at Seymour Friday night, Oct. 18.

The strong Panthers were able to overcome the Rockets offensive and defensive teams, especially in the passing department. The Rockets could not seem to get their drives going when they got their hands on the ball.

The Rocket defenders were able to slow down the Panthers on the ground but on the third down crucial plays the Panthers would pass and keep their plays going most of the time.

The whole Rocket team, led by Charles Mauldin and Gary Brewer did show some bright spots during the game. Tony Hurst gave the fans some thrills in returning Panther kickoffs and the interception of a Panther pass. Teddy McLain on defense blocked two trys for extra points after Panther touchdowns, to keep the score down.

Others doing their parts well at times were Ricky Brown, Nicky Watts, Larry Robinson, Andy Lowe, Danny Watts, Jimmy Bohannon, Larry Kane, Mark Killian, James Jones, Jerry Wooldridge, Ricky Nall, Danny West and Chuck Wilbur.

But in this game the Panthers were just too well balanced in their running and passing and their defense did a fine job in stopping the Rockets.

It was late in the first quarter when the Panthers scored. They took the kickoff and drove to the Rocket 9 yard line where the drive stalled. The Rockets took over but were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt. The ball was downed on the Panther 49 where the Panthers took over and drove to the Rocket 20. From there they passed for the first score. The try for extra points was blocked.

Both teams then played for field position until midway the second quarter. The Panthers put the ball in play on their own 15 yard line and drove to the Rocket 26 and from there passed for another touchdown. The try for extra point failed. Score at the half was Panthers 12, Rockets 0.

Returning after the half time the Panthers put the game on ice early in the third quarter. by running and passing for another touchdown. However, the try for extra point was blocked again.

The Rocket defense set in then and kept the Panthers at bay for the rest of the game. Neither team seemed to get anything started except when the Panthers took the ball on the Rocket 21 and started passing, but the Rockets came up with a pass interception and stopped that threat.

The Rockets lost to a fine Panther team with the final score Seymour 18, Wellington 0.

This Friday night, Oct. 25, the Rockets play the Shamrock Irish at Powell Field at 8 p.m. This will be another top game as the Irish are undefeated in district play. The Rockets will be the underdog and could be the spoiler.

The Rockets are still bothered with injuries and will have to play top football to win this one. They will need all the support they can get, so let's all get out to Powell Field and cheer our Rockets on to victory.

Norwood Defeats Flomot, Splits With Briscoe

With basketball taking the spotlight in three of the county's four schools, the Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes were victorious in their opener against the Flomot Longhorns, then split a double header with Briscoe three days later.

In a game at Norwood Tuesday, Oct. 15, the Eaglettes won over Flomot girls 51 to 46 and the Eagles took their game by a tight 60 to 58.

Again playing on their home court, the Eaglettes were victorious over the Briscoe girls 57 to 37, but the boys lost 63 to 40, coach Kenneth Martindale reported.

High scorer for the Samnorwood girls was Karen Waters with 21 points, while Pam Morris of Flomot had 19. Norwood starters were Karen, Jan Christner, Rita Lackey, Odessa Stice, Betty Coleman and Ruth Dwight. All members of the team saw action.

The game by quarters:

Norwood ...	20	30	41	51
Flomot	9	26	36	46

The boys game was even closer, and the score was tied with two seconds remaining. Norwood received possession of the ball, shot and made the two necessary points.

Ray Dwyer was Norwood's high pointer with 20, and Billy Green had 24 for Flomot.

Starters were Gary Oldham, Ray Dwyer, Johnny Breeding, Glen Bruton and Robby Dwight. Kim Janes and Larry Waters also saw action.

The score by quarters:

Norwood ...	7	30	40	60
Flomot 14		32	44	58

High pointers in the girls game with Briscoe were Rita Lackey of Norwood and Phyllis Aderholt of Briscoe, each with 19.

The score by quarters:

Norwood ...	11	27	37	51
Briscoe	7	17	27	37

Briscoe boys were able to widen their margin over the Eagles consistently through the game to take a 23 point victory.

Ray Dwyer was high pointer for Norwood with 12 and Rusty Atherton of Briscoe scored 15 points.

The score by quarters:

Norwood 14		22	25	40
Briscoe	15	34	48	63

Shamrock B Rolls Over Rockets 26-0

The Skyrocket B team bowed to the Shamrock Irish B 26-0 in a meeting at Powell Field Thursday night, Oct. 17.

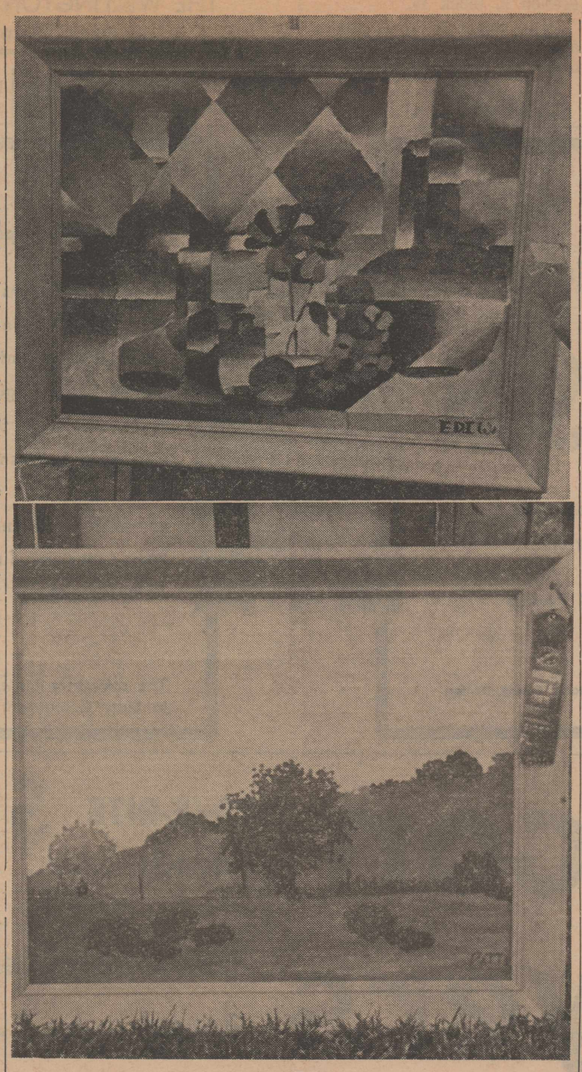

"The Irish have a lot of enthusiasm and are playing good football," declared Coach James Stavenhagen. "However, our boys didn't play up to their capabilities. I feel it was probably due to the fact that we have had to change some personnel around and had to play them in new positions. I feel our boys were a little confused, but I hope by this Thursday night to have them playing up to their capabilities."

Out of the Shamrock game were Joe Montgomery, center and linebacker, who has a sprained ankle, and Danny Gray, fullback, who is reported to have a possible rupture.

For that game, Jackie Pendleton started in Gray's place while Eddie Popwell was moved to center and Kenny Black to offensive tackle.

"We did a good job defensively most of the time," said Coach Stavenhagen. "Three of Shamrock's touchdowns came on long passes, where our defensive secondary made a mistake. Shamrock earned one touchdown.

"I feel about the only thing good about our club Thursday was its defense. Some of the boys who turned in real fine defensive games were Chester Gibbons, Joe Cummings, David Moore, Julius Johnson and Black," the coach continued.

FLB Manager Attends Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams have recently returned from Corpus Christi where they attended the 15th Annual Meeting of the Texas Federal Land Bank Association Managers.

Williams, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Shamrock, was elected as one of the four directors of the state-wide group for a two-year term.

The meeting was held at the Emerald Cove Hotel and was well represented by manager, assistant managers and their wives from throughout the state. Herbert Decker and George Cunningham, president and vice president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston were present, as well as various members of the Farm Credit Board.

The group heard interesting talks from John A. Cypher, Jr. who told of the vast King Ranch holdings and operations in Australia, and from Walter E. Kruse, state director of the Livestock and Meat Board. The meeting was climaxed by a banquet on Thursday night.

The 1969 meeting will be held in San Antonio.

August Bond Sales $2,099

According to a report received today from John Forbis, chairman of the Collingsworth County Savings Bonds Committee, the sales of United States Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares in Collingsworth County during the month of August totaled $2,099. Sales during the first eight months totaled $65,-021, and this is 50 percent of the 1968 goal of $130,000.

Sales in Texas during the month of August totaled $14,-390,299 which is an increase of 3.8 percent over the same period of 1967. January-August sales reached a new high in the state of $121,220,421 — an increase of 8.2 percent over January-August sales during 1967.

Nationally, sales of Series E and H Bonds and Freedom Shares were the best for August in thirteen years and total cash sales for the January-August period amounted to $3,-430 million for 62.3 percent of the national goal.

Beth Smith Attends LCC

Dr. Deason Now at Vidor

Dr. Mike Deason, who was graduated from the Texas A&M School of Veterinary Medicine in August, is now associated with Dr. Jack H. Williamson at Vidor.

He formerly was employed by the Soil Conservation Service here and left to enter Texas A&M University.

He is married to the former Margaret Rose Sisk, granddaughter of Mrs. E. A. Singley. They have a son, Bret.

Mrs. Ina Stevenson Moves to Lubbock

Mrs. Ina Stevenson, who has lived here about six years, left Saturday for Lubbock to make her home.

Here to help her move were a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stevenson, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Linda Compton of Lubbock.

Mrs. Stevenson also lived in Wellington when her children were young, then moved to Rogers, Ark. She had lived in Lubbock a short time, also.

A daughter, Mrs. Frank Jones, lives here, and there are other children living away.

Shamrock Downs Seventh Grade

Wellington 7th grade Firecrackers lost their game to Shamrock 22-0 Thursday evening, Oct. 17, but their playing was considerably better than the score.

"We just didn't click," their coach, Raymond Hamilton, said.

The Wellington boys had two pass plays that went to the Shamrock 25.

They have a pretty good passing game going now from quarterback Mike Williams to halfback Keith Davis. Tommy Holton is another back that catches the ball well.

The 7th grade will have Memphis as its next opponent, with the game to be played there.

Starting in the Shamrock game were Randall Hodges, left end; Dickie Johnson, left tackle; Keith Davis, left guard; Hubert Baker, center; Stevie Kane, right guard; Troy Futch, right tackle; Paul Wilbur, right end; Mike Williams, quarterback; Tommy Holton, left half; Ivory Darton, fullback, and Brent Wade, right half.

Mrs. F.F. Popwell Visits Relatives

Mrs. F. F. Popwell has returned home after a 10-day visit with relatives.

A nephew, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCutchon and his son and daughter of Del City visited here a few days, then Mrs. Popwell accompanied them to Weatherford, to visit her brother, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carpenter.

She then went to Corsicana to visit two cousins, Mrs. Susie Osborne and J. J. Teague. En route home, she visited a niece, Mrs. Lloyd Blumley and son at Vernon.

The McCutchons remained for a few days with Mrs. Popwell, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Popwell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Carpenter here.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The Astronauts, Schirra, Cunningham and Eisele splashed down Tuesday morning, Oct. 22, 1968 after spending 11 days orbiting the earth aboard Apollo 7. They seemed to be in good spirits and physical condition as the three smiling men left the helicopter that picked them up and carried them to the Carrier Essex. They had not been passengers in this test flight. Instead they were pilots, engineers, navigators, astrologists, scientists, repairmen, and TV performers.

The flight of Apollo 7 was the test flight prior to sending Apollo 8 in an orbit around the moon. This latter flight, scheduled for December or early January may be one wide circle around the moon or perhaps 10 orbits around the moon at a distance of no more than 100 miles above the lunar surface. Apollo 7 traveled a far greater distance than would be required for either of these flights.

Someone asked how far it is to the moon and I looked it up to find it is 239,000 miles and Earl Keller says it is the same distance back, which I doubt. Even before Einstein, I doubted the distance being the same coming back as going. Consider the Seymour football game and the Oklahomans crossing Red River after the Texas-OU game. Anyway, Earl figured on the calculating machine that the astronauts traveled over 4 million, 488 thousand miles before returning to earth. If these figures are correct they traveled over eight times the distance required to orbit the moon and return.

Another question asked about the moon which I hope to answer in a serious manner concerns the temperature of the moon and how close can the astronauts come without burning up from the reflected rays of the sun or freezing from the extreme cold of the night which lasts two weeks. The heat will be no problem for the temperature does not rise much higher than freezing and during the long night the temperature falls to 200 degrees below freezing so there is no problem about heat except keeping it normal inside the capsule.

The Kiwanis pancake supper will be held in the school cafeteria this Friday from 5 to 7 o'clock giving the last visitors plenty of time to get to the football game with Shamrock. The menu consists of pancakes and sausage with coffee or milk as a beverage. You can secure tickets from any Kiwanian; but if you have none I am sure you can get one at the door. The money goes for the underprivileged children's fund.

Hallowe'en is only one week away. In Europe it was one of the harvest festivals held before the onset of the long cold winter. Much of the superstitions come from Europe—witches on a broomstick, bats clouding the face of the moon, and hobgoblins roaming in dark places. But the use of the pumpkin was started in America for this vegetable is a native of this continent. There is no record of who was the first person to cut a face in a pumpkin to make a jack-o-lantern; but this distinctive orange vegetable remains a symbol of Hallowe'en as well as Tranksgiving.

On Oct. 7 I went out to pick up the morning paper and the full moon was setting in the west. As I straightened a black creature covered the moon like a bat in the storybooks. It was a crow silhouetted against the face of the moon, and since the bird was flying due east he was there several seconds before he passed on directly overhead. It was like something out of Poe — eerie.

Cartoon in The National Observer shows an irate householder poking his finger in the nose of an opinion poll taker and saying:

"I am 50% against Nixon and 50% against Humphrey and 100% against Wallace—now what are you going to make of that?"

Tom Wilkins is a bustling, cheerful young man and it is a pleasure to have him as a business neighbor; but sometimes he gets too energetic for the comfort of his neighbors. This week he swept the street —not the sidewalk—in front of his business and the contrast was so great that all the rest of us had to sweep the street in self defense.

Next Sunday they will set the clocks back an hour just in time to keep people getting up in the dark.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deger and children of San Marcos were here over the week end to attend the funeral of his uncle, Oscar Deger, and to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Deger of Samnorwood and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scarberry.

Quail Teams Split Opener With Flomot

Quail Quails and Bobwhites split the double header with Flomot that opened their basketball season Friday night, Oct. 18. The games were played at Quail.

The Bobwhites lost their contest 36 to 23, while the Quails had a run-away 58 to 31.

The boys game was fairly good for an opener, although there were lots of mistakes, Coach Billy Wilson said. Fans found it a better game than the score indicated, as Quail did not get ahead until the third quarter, then "got a little lucky on them" acording to the coach.

The Bobwhites had too many mistakes, threw the ball away too many times, had too many violations and didn't score enough, Coach Wilson summed up.

Bobwhite high point players were Paula Langley and Joyce Johnson with 9 each. John Blevins was high for the Quails with 19.

Central Standard Time Returns on Sunday, Oct. 27

Collingsworth, along with most of Mid-America, returns to Central Stanard Time at 2 a.m., Sunday, Oct. 27.

It is suggested that you just turn your clock back one hour before going to bed Saturday evening.

If, for example, a family retires at 12 midnight, they may set their clocks at 11:00 and they'll be "on time" Sunday morning.

This is what most people's inner time machine tells them is the "right time" anyway.

This summer was the first time that Daylight Saving Time was the law of the land, with all states conforming to uniform time. Clocks were turned up an hour in April and the lost hour will be regained Oct. 27.

kids played real fine football but at times they made errors that were costly.

"Seymour almost upset Iowa Park the week before, and they have a real fine ball club. The score indicated we did a pretty fair job."

Two injuries still hamper the Rockets: those of Teddy Martin and Gary Brewer. Other than that, the boys who wear the red and white appear to their coaches to be in pretty good shape.

Elm Creek

does not extend into Donley County. The watershed remains near the county line to a point a mile west of FM 1547, the Dozier to Lela road, then runs southeasterly to Lutie, and then in a generally easterly direction to the state line.

If the application is approved the next step will be a hearing, conducted within the proposed watershed, by representatives of the State SCS and Association of SC Districts, Mr. Reed explained.

Studies have set the annual flood water damage to the Elm Creek Watershed at $65,000 annually. A devastating storm occurs about one year in every five on the watershed, it is estimated.

The type of structures to be built will be determined when engineering studies are made.

In addition to flood and erosion control, it is expected that the project will give some irrigation, fish and wildlife development can be expected, development of recreational facilities could be anticipated, as fishing, boating, camping and picnicking at all the structures is likely.

Men In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Janes and family were in Big Sandy recently to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Boyce, who formerly lived at Quail.

Their trip was especially to visit with her brother, Marine Pfc Garland Boyce, who has completed his training at Paris Island, S. C., and will leave soon for Vietnam.

The young Marine, who attended school at Quail, worked with a brother, Murrel Boyce, in Tennessee before entering service about a year ago.

been so great that it is easy to forget what our cemeteries were at one time. We must not lose sight of this, and it is only through our donations that we are able to keep them in the condition they are now," Judge Thomas said.

It was pointed out that much of the improvement work on the plots has come from the Wellington Garden Club, and this does not come out of the Cemetery Association budget.

Letters asking for contributions have been mailed, and the public is urged to give them their consideration.

Farmers Union

Mr. Tate, Mr. Hightower, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Phipps.

A resume of the recommendations contained in the resolutions is:

—Because of potential surpluses of farm products, Congress is asked to extend and make permanent the 1965 Food and Agriculture Act.

—Passage of the Mondale Farm Bargaining Bill.

—Recommended a consumer education program to emphasize that the bargain the consumer gets in food and natural fiber products is due to the low price paid the farmers and ranchers for them.

—A national reserve supply of cotton, wheat and feed grains equal to one-half of one year's domestic consumption of these commodities and that this reserve not be sold for less than 100% of parity.

—The continued fight for 100% parity on products for domestic consumption on commercial family farms.

—Passage of the Metcalf Bill S-2613, to amend the Internal Revenue Code to provide that farming losses incurred by persons not bona fide farmers may not be used to offset non-farm income.

—That agricultural water rights be protected to insure an adequate water supply for all necessary agricultural production and processing.

—Removal of the $20,000 limit a farmer may receive under the 1965 Farm Act, and that there should be no limitation of payments.

—Continuation of the sale and lease of cotton allotments within any county that has a cotton allotment.

—That an export certificate payment be made to producers on exported wheat in the amount of 75¢ per bushel.

—That private enterprise give more notice to establishing and financing of small processing plants and factories in rural locations.

—Since Texas will not qualify under the 1967 Wholesale Meat Act passed by Congress, the Collingsworth County Farmers Union urged state legislation be passed for a state mandatory meat inspection program to be at least as strong as the federal requirements.

—That the Texas legislature pass legislation to prohibit large non-farm-oriented corporations from entering into active production of food and fiber products in the State of Texas.

—That the United States Department of Agriculture increase the wheat price support loan rate to equal the price of wheat established under the international grain agreement.

—That action be initiated immediately to exempt the Commodiy Credit Corporation from the 1969 fiscal year tax budget cut.

Faith Baptist

He was graduated from Sul Ross College at Alpine in 1951, having attended on a football scholarship, and from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1955.

Churches he has served as pastor have received major honors. The First Baptist Church at Balmorrhea was selected as Church Achievement winner on the association, district and state levels for three consecutive years. First Baptist Church at Cactus was recognized as the Church of the Year and he as Pastor of the Year by the Texas State Convention. Both programs are sponsored by the Direct Missions Department of the church.

Just prior to his coming to Shamrock, Rev. Wilson was pastor of Skyline Baptist Church in El Paso from 1961 to 1965, and there he built a new educational building and added 800 members to his church.

CHRISTIAN
FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Tom Christian, his wife Anne, and their three children, Frances Anne, Joe Tom and Richard William live southwest of Claude. As a Church School Superintendent and president of Methodist Men, Tom has devoted much time to his family, his church and his community.

As a scholarship graduate of West Texas State University and while in the Navy as a member of the U. S. Navy Ceremonial Guard, Tom Christian has earned many honors and has been recognized for his leadership.

Tom Christian, an Armstrong County farmer-rancher, is an advocate of strong state government based on a common sense fiscal policy, sound law enforcement designed to protect the people,not the lawbreakers,and is opposed to a state income tax and stands for reduction in waste and an increase in efficiency in state government.

Tom Christian is a sportsman with a vital interest in the canyon area. Tom has worked hard to organize the nationally famous Palo Duro Shooting Preserve and to introduce Auodad Sheep to the canyon. It is becoming a major tourist attraction drawing people from all over the U. S.

His inspiration to the young people and his experience as a teacher and coach qualifies Tom Christian to construct legislation related to education. He believes in a strong educational system and local control of the schools.

The Panhandle of Texas is known for its vitality and energy. Tom Christian offers an active and fresh approach to the legislative log jam of obsolete and ineffective bills and bureaus. Tom Christian can represent the people without previous commitments and owes his allegiance to no one.
