Delegates Of All Interested Towns Gather In Morton

One Hundred Proponents Of Highway Enthusiastic As Initial Conference Sits In Cochran County

To Go To Portales

Another Session Is Set In New Mexico August 5 As Lubbock Men Lend Help To New Project

MEMBERS of the highway committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, who Tuesday met with other delegations from towns on the proposed route from Lubbock to Elida, N. M., at the auditorium of the Morton high school, report an enthusiastic gathering of some 100 representatives.

Several speakers were featured on the program for the day, among them three Lubbock men, R. J. Murray, chairman of the Lubbock delegation; James H. Goodman and W. H. Hankins. These men, in their addresses, urged the importance of the highway program to all cities situated in the territory served by the proposed road.

Is Nearest Route.

The proposed highway will facilitate a nearer route to Portales and Elida, as well as open up a new avenue for Lubbock's market, in the opinion of proponents of the proposal," said Mr. Murray. "It will be of vast importance to Lubbock and the cities along the route."

Speakers from other cities also were included, among them County Judge Winder of Cochran county, the county commissioners and George E. Lance, president of the Morton chamber of commerce and chairman of yesterday's meeting. All were highly in favor of a speedy decision as to the routing and con-

Canada Is Seared By Sun And Fires

Heavy Loss To Farmers And Loggers Seen As Sun Is Aided By Forest Flames In Summer Assault

(By Associated Press)

TORONTO, July 30. (By The Canadian Press.)—With crops seared by days of scorching heat, farmers in many parts of Canada tonight faced heavy losses while from coast to coast the ugly menace of fires was spurted from the forest areas.

The greatest monetary loss was said by the farmers in the three prairie provinces. The extreme heat in Western Canada went unrelieved again today. Thermometers in the west soared to new heights, Empress, Alt., reporting 104 degrees.

Fear Milk Shortage

Quebec an official of the provincial department of agriculture predicted a shortage of milk, butter and cheese, unless considerably more rain comes very soon."

In northeastern Ontario the forest fire situation was the worst since 1923, with 1,200 men fighting the various fires in the Kenora, Sturgeon River, Patricia and Head of the Lakes districts.

SLASHES ARE RUMORED

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Word came from the closely guarded meeting of republicans on the senate Finance committee today of changes in the House bill tariff duties on logs, shingles lumber and automobiles.

Oil Man Dies In Crash At Pampa

PAMPA, July 30. (AP)—His airplane falling after striking telephone wires in the takeoff, W. C. Farquhar, of Tulsa, was burned to death at Skellytown, near here today.

The gasoline tank exploded, destroying the plane.

Flying alone, Farquhar took off from a rough field and did not attain enough altitude to clear the wires. He previously had made two attempts but had halted before leaving the ground.

Easterwood Will Campaign Entire State In Airship

Dallas Legionnaire Tosses Flying Helmet Into 1930 Gubernatorial Race With Platform Drawn Up

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, July 30. (AP)—The forthcoming race for governor received an added starter today when Col. William E. Easterwood Jr., of Dallas, threw his flying helmet into the ring.

The Dallas capitalist, prominent in the American legion and in aviation circles, announced he would wage an active campaign for the executive chair after January 1. He said he would stump the entire state by airplane.

Platform Is Brief

Col. Easterwood's announced platform was brief but catchy: "Lower taxes and fewer laws."

In announcing his candidacy, Col. Easterwood said he had been importuned by hundreds of friends to make the race. He has not previously run for an elective office.

The new candidate, the sixth Dallas man to announce, has gained international prominence through his sponsorship of non-stop airplane flights. Four days ago he posted $25,000 for the first one-stop flight from Rome-to-Dallas.

Cochran County Test Looks Good

The Marland Oil company's well being drilled in Cochran county about 4 miles southwest of Lehman on the Slaughter ranch, has reached a depth of 4405 feet and is now drilling in 15 feet of lime, according to reports reaching Lubbock late Tuesday.

Officials of the company are greatly impressed over the favorable outlook for a producer and state that they hope to strike pay at 4500 feet, however, should they fail here they will keep on to a depth of 6,000 feet if necessary.

J. H. Hankins and Mr. and Mrs. Morton J. Smith, of Lubbock, were visitors to the well on Tuesday and state that enthusiasm is high over prospects for oil in that section.

FIRE AT McADOO

A loss of approximately $30,000, partially covered by insurance, was suffered in McAdoo, Dickens county, late yesterday afternoon when buildings housing the McAdoo Mercantile company, a garage and a drug store were burned to the ground.

The blaze started in the creamery department of the mercantile concern shortly after 5:30 o'clock and was never headed, R. J. Murray, Lubbock, told The Morning Avalanche. Mr. Murray has business connections in McAdoo, an inland town located 17 miles east of Crosbyton.

Curtis' Sister Has Her Say On Social "Precedence"

(By Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—Mrs. Dolly Curtis Gann, sister of Vice-President Curtis, in an interview in the August issue of the Ladies' Home Journal, talks frankly on the question of precedence which has been agitating the official and social sides of the national capital for some time.

Mrs. Gann said the Vice-President is entertained at official affairs as "a symbol of the United States," and any precedence he may expect, ask for or demand is not asked for as an individual."

Society Big Feature

Explaining that a very generous fraction of the Vice-President's duties and responsibility are purely social, Mrs. Gann asked two questions—who is to attend to all the social part, and who attends to the social side of things in your home?

"Unfortunately, brother has no wife," Mrs. Gann said, "but at the same time it is vesy necessary that he be accompanied to these functions by some woman of his immediate household who is in the position to return many courtesies.

"Any precedence which he may expect, ask for, or demand is not asked for as an individual, but in the name of every true American citizen who wishes due respect shown as a symbol of his government.

"It is not to bunting as bunting but to the flag as the flag that hats are always taken off. To any patriot this will seem mere common sense. He believes that to do less, would be in just so much to fall short in his sworn duty to defend and uphold the constitution of the United States."

Funeral Rites Are Set For Wednesday Afternoon

Mrs. B. B. Ater, 37, 1619 Tenth street, died Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the family residence after an illness of several weeks.

Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church with Rev. H. L. Munger, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Oscar N. Baucom, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Rix-Sanders will be in charge of arrangements with burial in the Lubbock cemetery.

Pall bearers are: D. E. Meredith, O. R. Copeland, France Baker, W. H. Spires, S. L. Williams, O. W. McCloud, J. O. Grissom and Howell Bradley.

Survivors are the husband and two daughters, Ruby Lee and Corinne.

ISSUE THREE PERMITS

Building Total Hiked With Tuesday's Activities

Three permits issued Tuesday boosted valuations in Lubbock for the month to $132,470.30 representing 39 permits, while those of the year were pushed to $2,605,511.30.

DeWitt Fears was granted a permit for the erection of a brick veneer residence at 2511 Twenty-Second street at a cost of $6,000. W. T. Coburn is the contractor.

M. S. Gunn will build a brick veneer residence at 1810 Seventeenth street at a cost of $6,500 with J. W. Green as contractor.

The third permit went to E. T. Allen for remodeling residence at 1909 Avenue K at a cost of $800. Harvey C. Allen is contractor.

Golden Promises Of Rail Service Given Panhandle

Quanah-Shamrock Line Will Spend Over Four Million Dollars If Permitted, Is Claim Of Rock Island

Construction Depends Only On Granting Of Petition Of Frisco To Build From Seymour To Vernon

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 30.—A four and a quarter million dollar railroad, with attendant handling facilities, was promised the rich east Panhandle of Texas at the Interstate Commerce commission hearing here today.

T. C. Fritch, vice president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Gulf railway, which is seeking to build from Quanah to Shamrock, 74 miles, as a witness for the Rock Island, said plans called for the expenditure of $4,217,854. The road, which would connect with the planned St. Louis-San Francisco branch from Seymour to Vernon, would be constructed of 80 pound rail and would bring about consequent development of the Panhandle including Shamrock, Wellington, Amarillo and other towns, Fritch said.

Fritch declared the Rock Island now is spending $200,000 yearly for terminal facilities at El Reno, but that if the Interstate Commerce commission grants application for the Quanah, Shamrock line that work would be discontinued eventually and terminal equipment installed at Shamrock. Other Rock Island officials indicated shops and offices would be opened and enlarged at Amarillo.

The Rock Island vice president said, however, that his road would not construct the Quanah-Sham-

Big Damage Suit Is Filed In City

Hockley County Man Enters Court Plea Against Cook County, Ill., Man; $50,000 Is Total Requested

J. H. Greenhaw, of Hockley county, Tuesday filed suit in the 99th District court at Lubbock, asking $25,000 actual and $25,000 exemplary damages against J. E. Grimes, Cook county, Illinois.

Greenhaw, in his suit, alleges that during the month of January, 1929, he and his 4-year-old daughter, Maurine, were driving in the city of Sweetwater and that Grimes, also driving there at the time and a pace violating the laws of the state, struck their car, demolishing it and injuring the little girl to such an extent that she later died. His suit charges negligence on the part of the defendant.

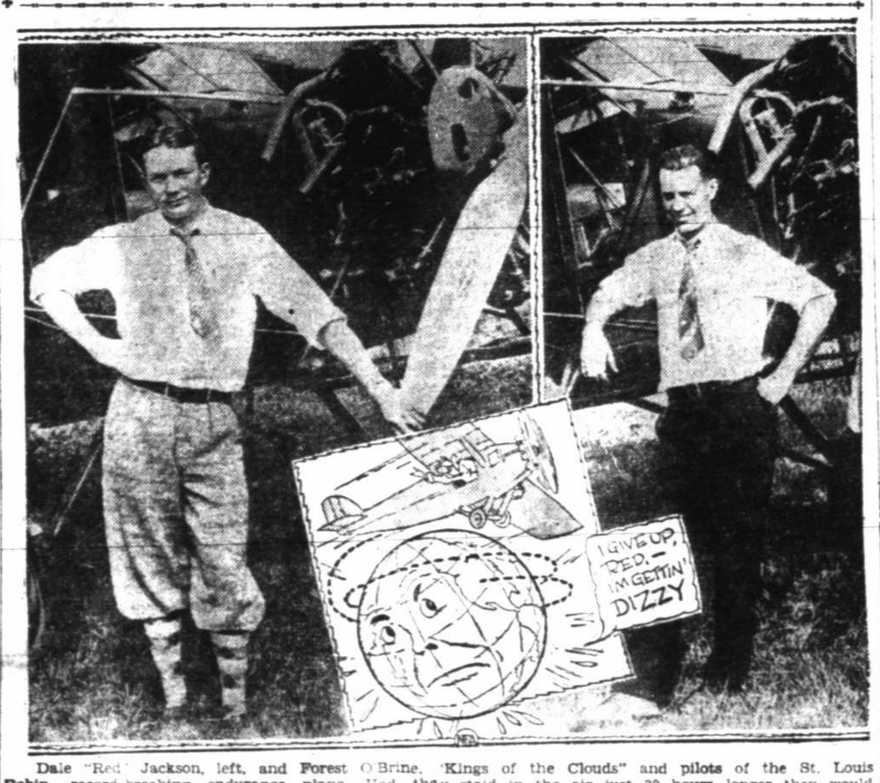

Together with the damages the plaintiff also asks cost of suit.

DIVORCES ARE FILED

Three suits for divorce were filed here yesterday in 99th district court, Judge Clark M. Mullican presiding, a survey of the official records showed. Two of the suits were filed by dissatisfied wives and the third was entered by a husband.

Desertion and immorality, failure to support and incarceration in a state penal institution were grounds entered.

Pay Board Urges Salary Hike For Uncle Sam's Men

All Federal Workers From Cabinet Members Down To Enlisted Men Should Get Raises, Is Decision

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30. — The interdepartmental pay board today recommended substantial pay increases all along the line for commissioned and enlisted men in the service.

The announcement came as the general staff of the army, acting under orders of President Hoover and Secretary Good, began its survey of army expenditures with the aim of reducing expenditures.

The navy, marine corps, coast guard, coast and geodetic survey and the public health service also were included in the recommendations of the interdepartmental pay board.

1908 Dollar Is Basis.

The pay board used as its base the value of the dollar in 1908, and said the cost of living had increased 104 per cent since that time. A summary of salaries for all federal employees, showing gains ranging from 25 to 175 per cent during the period, compared with a decrease of 3 per cent for army and navy pay, was included.

Among the increases cited were 33 per cent for congressmen, 25 per cent for cabinet members and 175 per cent for the foreign service.

Lindy Tells Of Discovery Of Ancient City In Mexico

Lindy's Plane In Near Crack-Up

COLUMBUS, O., July 30. (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindberg were near a crack-up in their airplane here late today. A tire blew out as they were landing at Port Columbus, and the plane was damaged slightly. Quick repairs were made and the Lindberghs resumed their flight from St. Louis to New York.

Ruins Of Indian City Date Back to Days Before Christ

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 30.—Details of the lost Maya City discovered by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and the manner in which he found it were revealed today by officials of Pan-American Airways. In February Col. Lindbergh piloted the first Pan-American plane to Panama and made a leisurely return.

Turning inland at Belize, British Honduras, he flew over the Mexican province of Quitana Roo where Maya Indians lived long before Christ.

See "Green Eyes"

Col. Lindbergh's attention was caught by what seemed to be two emerald eyes staring up at him out of the tangle of the jungle bush. His curiosity aroused, he swooped low to investigate.

The country he was passing over is uncharged land so inaccessible that though employes of the Carnegie Institution have long been pushing toward it they have never reached it.

Sees Ruins Of City

As Col. Lindbergh dropped low he beheld the ruins of a city some eight miles in diameter, eroded but not yet entirely erased by time. The jungle bush had matted the city over, but out of this tangled verdure there still rose numerous small pyramids and one stately pile of stone some 250 feet high holding aloft the ruins of an ancient Maya temple.

At the foot of this temple were two green pools of water that from high above had looked like eyes gazing out of the bush.

No Life Seen

Col. Lindbergh circled low over the lost city, there was no sign of any human life and the Colonel and his companions realized with no lack of awe that they were perhaps the first persons to gaze upon it since before the beginning of the Christian era.

Moody Starts On Expense Slashes

Governor Locks His Office Then Turns To Unsigned Appropriations Bills To Trim Where Needed

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 30. — Locking the doors of the executive office Governor Moody today began the task of trimming appropriation bills which remain unsigned on his desk.

The measures carry $5,060,485 for the Judiciary; $10,432,983 for departments of government; $16,451,282 for maintenance of state-supported schools; $10,372,136 for the care of state's wards in eleemosynary institutions, and $476,049, represented by miscellaneous claims and accounts.

Under the law, the governor has until August 10 to act on the money bills.

Tech Bill Included.

Included in the bills yet unsigned are two items affecting Texas Technological college. One providing for an expenditure of $150,000 for a new libarary building and the other for the college's expenses for the next biennium.

Louie Shropshire Celebrates Twentieth Year In Lubbock By Pledging Anew His Loyalty To City

AT 5:30 O'CLOCK Tuesday afternoon, Louie Shropshire, 1618 Texas Avenue, marked down the 20th year of his stay in Lubbock, during which time he has seen the city grow from a struggling population of about 1,500 to its present metropolitan size.

"I am just naturally proud of Lubbock," said Mr. Shropshire. "I have been here when times were hard and I have been here when prosperity was at its height. I have seen it grow and come into the little city it now is.

"When I first stepped off in Lubbock, Friday afternoon, July 30, 1909, at 5:30 o'clock, I had just 40 cents in my pocket and I wasn't at all sure where I would get any more. I started to work as a grocery clerk and with my first earnings bought a lot in the Overton addition, then located out on the bald prairie. I watched the city expand slowly but surely until that lot later bordered on what is now 18th street.

"There was no railroad then, no electric lights, or other improvements and Lubbock's best building was under construction at the site now occupied by the Temple Ellis building. It was of concrete blocks and housed the old Lubbock Mercantile company."

Following his career as a grocery clerk, Mr. Shropshire worked at one trade and then another. At one time he was employed at the Lubbock Avalanche in the mornings and during the afternoon ran a popcorn stand. His stock of trade one day he moved in a wheelbarrow, all comprising a variety store.

"I've seen some ups and downs during my stay here but always I have been a booster for Lubbock and will continue to be," he said.

Jackson And O'Brine Both In Good Health And Fine Spirits At Close Of 18 Day Flying Experience

Plane Is Not Hurt

Birdmen Say They Could Go Back to Clouds and Hang Up New Record; Started Flight July 13th

(By Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, July 30.—The end of the record-smashing endurance flight of the St. Louis Robin at 7:38 o'clock (C. S. T.) tonight, when its pilots, Dale "Red" Jackson, and Forest O'Brine descended from the sky which had been their home for 420 hours, 21 minutes. They exceeded the record of the Angeleno by seven full days at 2:01 p. m. today.

The plane made a perfect landing in the middle of the field with about 15,000 spectators watching it.

O'Brine Gains Weight

Both men were pronounced in excellent physical condition. O'Brine had gained two pounds since he and Jackson went up July 13, scaling 140 pounds tonight as against 138 pounds when the flight began. Jackson's weight was the same as it was when he went aloft, 154 pounds.

The heart action of both men was pronounced normal and physicians said their hearing was normal. They conversed easily with reporters and friends in the hangar.

Sorry For Friend

The fliers said they were influenced to change their plans about remaining aloft 500 hours and decided to land tonight, because of the tragic death yesterday of their friend, George Lea Lambert, who was killed in an airplane crash near Lambert-St. Louis field. Both fliers

The Figures On The Record Hop

ST. LOUIS, July 30. (AP)—Dale (Red) Jackson and Forest O'Brine earned $31,255 jointly or $15,672.50 each in the record-breaking flight of the St. Louis Robin which ended here tonight.

This did not include $2,756 in cash sums given them nor checks and cash which has been sent to chamber of commerce. Eighteen days pay as commercial pilots must also be figured into the total. The Curtis Robertson company, their employers, has declined to reveal their regular salaries.

The mileage of the Robin was estimated at 25,200 on a consumption of approximately 3,590 gallons of high test fuel, oil totaled 158 gallons and 48 contacts were made for refueling. The propeller revolutions, counted at 1,300 per minute, approximated 32,000,000.

Former Resident Is Complimented At Party

Women In Ladies Aid Circle Honor Mrs. J. C. Bowles Tuesday Afternoon In H. D. Phillips Home With Affair

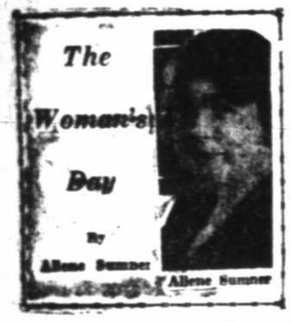

Shower Of Gifts Is Given To Mrs. Bowles At Party Given Yesterday In H. D. Phillips Residence

Mrs. J. C. Bowles, who lived in Lubbock before she moved to California two years ago, was honoree at a delightful social favor yesterday afternoon in the H. D. Phillips home, 1624 16th street.

Women in Circle 3 of the First Christian Ladies Aid were hostesses. Mrs. Bowles was formerly a member of this organization.

The "wash day" theme was featured in appointments and gifts which were hung on a line were presented to the honoree. Those who attended spent a pleasant afternoon together and were served orange sherbert and cakes with nasturtiums as plate favors.

Guests included Mesdames Bowles, Mary F. Hinton, L. W. Squyres, W. H. Wright, F. M. Edwards, W. J. Duncan, J. W. Kolb, Arthur L. Brown, J. O. Ballinger, Tom Garrard, Floyd Coffman, Leland S. Mast, James E. Watson, J. F. Gregory, T. Teal, H. D. Phillips, S. J. McFarland, J. F. Tom, and O. V. Bagwell.

For over 60 years Scott Rouse, of Toledo, Iowa, had proclaimed himself a woman hater. A sign on the forbidding fence around his shack warned "Women Keep Out."

Recently Rouse, aged 80, was found gagged with his own beard and bound to suffocation. He died later in a hospital.

Neighbors explained that an early tragic love affair soured him on life and women, especially.

LITTLE SYMPATHY

Probably there are some who think that his, perhaps not untimely end, considering his age, but at least unnecessarily hard end, was about what he had coming to him, or at least, only about what he could expect.

For the mass of humans are not hit so hard by these heart tragedies that they can understand or sympathize very much.

It is queer when a man so succumbs, for tradition has it that man can pass on from one heartache to a new joy. Women are given a little more leeway with their emotions but even they are scored if they succumb too much.

POOR GEORGE!

The new fascinating "Intimate Journal of George Sand" probably can find little understanding today; not even with the world of women, most of whom simply cannot comprehend how, in what they term this "world of so many more interests than the woman who pined from love affairs had," any woman could be so crush by what seems so trivial to them—trivial, in words at least.

George Sand's journal or collection of letters to her lover, Alfred de Musset, are grist for the modern psychiatrist who finds here a typical neurotic woman genius, utterly incapable of being normal while disturbed by her love shock.

But how much George Sand may have deserved criticism in her own day or now, surely nothing about her and her attitude can so shock us as to learn that her lover to whom she sent this soul-naked collection of letters turned them over to his brother and friend to satisfy their curiosity and interest in a lovesick woman.

One can remember scores of men who have done this to women whom they once loved and the women who still loved them. D'Annunzio did it to Duse, to cite just one other case like de Musset. Would we had more Isadore Duncans to turn the tables occasionally!

THE DIVORCE CITY

Chicago earned her title of "the nation's divorce capital" this last year more than ever before, according to figures just released which show that Chicago had one divorce to every three marriages last year.

Eighty-five per cent of the divorces were granted on a charge of desertion and cruelty, which really means very little, for when a divorce can be gained for nothing else, that old hokum, "desertion and cruelty" is glibly dragged out — mostly because, despite our laws to the contrary, the bulk of all divorces are uncontested and are a matter of collusion between the parties, as they should be.

Speaker Will Be Named By Realty Dealers Of City

Murray Or O'Neall Will Be Presented To Convention As Lubbock's Speaker Is Hess' Belief

Lubbock's entry in the Home Town Speaking contest, to be held at Amarillo during the annual convention of Texas Real Estate Boards, will probably be chosen in the near future, according to Joe Hess, president of the local board. Mr. Hess stated that the choice likely lies between R. J. Murray and Chas. F. O'Neall.

A silver loving cup is to be given by the convention to the winner of this event. Every board in the state is allowed one speaker with five minutes time in which to tell of the wonders and opportunities of his home town.

Amarilloans Here.

Jack Shears, Ben Short, realtors, and Mason King, manager of the Trade Extension department of the Amarillo chamber of commerce, were in Lubbock Tuesday to meet with members of the local board of realtors. A call was made for a show of hands of those who plan to attend the Amarillo convention and the meeting was almost unanimous to attend for the three days, August 12, 13 and 14.

An extensive program has been outlined for the three days including speaking, dancing, golf tournaments and trips into the oil fields and Palo Duro canyon. Following the convention proper a tour will be staged into the South Plains and New Mexico where the Carlsbad caverns are to be visited.

To Take Literature.

Lubbock realtors will take literature furnished by the chamber of commerce to the convention telling of Lubbock and also printed invitations to all members to pay this city a visit on the tour to the caverns. A stop will be made in this city, according to present plans, at which time the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will serve luncheon.

Labor Day Ranch Party Is Planned

H. A. Johnson, manager of the recent Old Settlers reunion which was held on the Bud Johnston ranch in Yellowhouse canyon, Tuesday announced preliminary plans for a gigantic celebration to be held at the ranch on Labor Day.

Mr. Johnson stated that he had been approached by members of the Railroad Brotherhood at Slaton, members of the labor unions there and also members here, to stage the celebration. A complete program of entertainment is being planned for the affair which likely will be a two-day event. Tentative plans call for an opening on Sunday and continued program through Moday, September 2.

BCD Directors In Business Session

Airport And Street Signs Make Up Problems Talked by Civic Leaders; Field Purchase Recommended

Following an offer to compromise by Frank Jones, realtor, the board of directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Tuesday voted to recommend to the City commission that the city proceed with the purchase of the Jones estate tract of land, four miles north, consummation which has been held in abeyance awaiting agreement between Milt Jones, owner, and Frank Jones.

Milt Jones expresses that representations of the airport committee led him to believe that there would be no commission in the transaction while Frank Jones sought a commission of $2,000, claiming that the tract of land was placed in his hands for sale. He, however, has agreed to compromise by accepting a commission of $1,000.

Committee Has Say.

The airport committee, composed of George H. Benson, T. B. Duggan and Dr. E. P. George, claims that the tract of land was placed for consideration of the committee before it was put in the hands of Frank Jones for sale.

Directors also voted that President H. L. Allen appoint a committee to investigate the need, ways and means of creating a community chest and to find out the desires of organizations which will participate in the charity drive.

Authorization was made for the street sign committee to purchase 200 street signs to place at prominent intersections and to have names of streets and block numbers on curbs at about 200 locations on paved streets.

Government Is To Intervene In Try For Czar's Funds

Soviet Russia Attempting To Ignore Loans Made To Nicholas; Sum Now Has $280,000,000 Total

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The American government to protect its claims against the former provisional Russian government headed by Alexander Kerensky probably will intervene legally in any efforts by the Soviet government or private persons to take over investments which may have been made by the late Czar Nicholas II in this country.

While no official statement was made at the State department today on reports the Soviet has taken steps to recover such funds it was the unofficial opinion the American government would take a hand in any attempts to obtain them if found.

Loaned Huge Sum

The provisional Russian government was considered by the United States to be the only successor to the Czarist regime, since the United States has not recognized the Soviet government. During 1917, a total of some $187,000,000 was loaned the provisional government by the American government. This obligation, through the accumulation of interest now amounts to some $280,000,000.

Should the funds be personal ones of the Czar, it was said, the courts would have to determine whether they could be considered as belonging to the provisional government.

Oil Men Land At Lubbock Airport

Trio From Ft. Worth Spend Several Hours Here Then Hop Off On Tour Of Oil Prospecting In Section

David Donaghue, vice-president in charge of geological survey for the Texas and Pacific Coal and Oil company; George B. Fredell, manager of the aerial oil sales division of the same concern; and Pilot Buddy Jones, all of Fort Worth, landed at Municipal airport this morning and spent several hours attending to business in Lubbock.

The men are on a West Texas-wide survey of oil conditions.

Pleased With Port Here

Pilot Jones and his companions were particularly well pleased with the local airport and declared that "a little work and some improvements will make it one of the best in this section."

The visit of the oil men marks one of the first uses of airplanes by oil companies in this section. Use of planes in surveying large territories is expected to be a common occurance.

Hardware Dealers Lose To Santa Fe

Santa Fe sluggers hit in the pinches Tuesday evening at Merrill Park to hand the Hardware Dealers a 11 to 5 beating in the first City League game of the week.

The losers enjoyed a brief lead in the fourth but after the Railmen had taken their turn at bat, the story was different. The Hargrove brigade drew first blood in the third inning when Robinson hit one to deep center for a home run with one man aboard.

The Hardware crew came back in the fourth with four counters but the Railroaders did them one better in the same round with five. Four more in the sixth put the game on ice for the winners and Pressley, hurling unbeatable baseball, turned back the opposition in order in the last two rounds, striking out five of the last six batsmen that faced him.

Keesee started off strong for the Hardwaremen but weakened in the later stanzas, allowing 12 hits in all.

Schalk Catches 5 Hitless Games

NEW YORK, July 30.—Many players put in years in the big leagues without playing in a no-hit contest, but such games are no novelty for Ray Schalk, former White Sox backstop and now coach with the Giants.

Schalk has caught five no-hit games in his long career. He caught the games in which Reb Russell, Jim Scott, Joe Benz, Eddie Cicotte and Charlie Robertson didn't give the enemy a single bingle.

Robertson's was a perfect game, not a player reaching first base. Scott did not allow a hit for nine innings, but was beaten in the tenth.

Golf Marathons
Endurance Germs Hit Golfers

Marathon golf has become the new wrinkle.

From various parts of the country come reports of long distance pasture pool shooters winding merrily over the lea, pursuing the pill long hours over many parasangs.

Something should be done about it, of course, but then we'll have to wait until Congress convenes, perhaps, to get some kind of a law against it.

DO IT IN DAVENPORT

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., July 30.—Harvey Griggs and Harold Steik, Davenport, Ia., golfers, believed they established a record the other day for marathon golf when they played 126 holes in 14 1-2 hours on the course of the Geneseo, Ill., Outing club. At the end of the strenuous stunt both said they felt well and intended to play at least 18 holes on the following day.

WHAT: 165 HOLES!

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 30.—Marathon golfing records vanished into thin air the other day when Ralph Jessee, just out of high school, won the annual marathon golf tournament at Indian Lake, near Youngstown.

Ralph Jessee

Between the hours of 4:47 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Jessee played 165 holes consecutively. He wore out three caddies on the long trek.

"I'll do better next time," said Jessee apologetically. "I spent too much time looking for lost balls. Then, too, I'll be a better golfer next year."

Jessee used 10 balls during the grind. His best score was 42 and his highest 54. As a reward he received a loving cup.

The feat is claimed here as a world's record. Nothing is found in golf annals to show that anybody previously traversed a nine-hole course 18 1-3 times in a day.

Jacobs Advances In Tennis Match

Seabright Invitation Tournament Finds Berkeley Bell Favored To Repeat Past Performance

BY TED VOSBURGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 30. (AP) Losing only five games in two matches, Miss Helen Jacobs advanced majestically today in the semi-final round of the Seabright Invitation tennis tournament in which she is defending her laurels won last year.

After swamping Miss Anne Page of Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-2, Miss Jacobs, defeated a fellow Californian, Miss Marjorie Gladman, 6-0, 6-2.

Without any dominating individual figure, the race for tournament honors in the men's division waxed hotter today as the field narrowed down to eight survivors.

Only two foreign players were among this number as the Oxford and Cambridge university entrants were turned back in three out of four engagements and only N. G. Farquharson of South Africa and Cambridge remained with Sadakazuonda of Japan to supply an international angle.

Berkeley Bell, of Texas, intercollegiate champion who is favored to succeed to the title won last year by John Van Ryn, was forced to come from behind and fight his hardest to defeat Ed. Feibleman, former Harvard star, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4. Bell next will encounter Onda who advanced today by defeating Herbert Bowman of New York, 6-1, 2-6, 6-3. In the doubles Bell and Gregory Magin, Newark, N. J., defeated Edgar F. Dawson and Edward Feibleman of New York, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, in a first round match.

Cards Cop Opener From Robins, 10-9

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 30. (AP)—The Cardinals ended their losing streak of three games today by winning the first game of the series from Brooklyn, 10 to 9, in an eleven inning swatting bee. A pair of singles and a stolen base brought the winning run.

The Cards fell on Doug McWeeny for five runs in the sixth inning to overcome the Robins' early lead and tie the score. Home runs by Orsatti and Sherdel marked the rally. The Robins broke the deadlock with a pair of runs in the ninth but St. Louis tied it up again in the home half.

On The Job

After several seasons with the New Orleans club in the Southern League, Ray Gardner, shortstop, is playing a good game for the Cleveland Indians this season, though not being used regularly as yet. In 34 games, Gardner had a batting mark of .323 the other day and he has shown speed on the big league baselines with eight stolen sacks. Gardner is 27 and bats and throws right-handed.

Peck And Bradshaw Match Features Today's Play

Second round matches of the City Open golf tournament will get under way today with promise of plenty of action on the 18-hole course at the Lubbock Country club. Although there are yet three first-round matches to be played, pairings for second round have been made in the four flights.

At the end of Tuesday's play, four golfers had advanced through the first round in the first flight and one consolation match had been played off. No extra hole matches were necessary in the ranking flight with the favorites coming through according to advanced dope.

Bradshaw Wins Match.

First round results in the first flight played Tuesday follow: Bradshaw defeated Dowell, 4 and 3; Higginbotham defeated Dow, 8 and 5; McLarty defeated Fluke, 4 and 3, and Daniels defeated Edmisson, 4 and 3. In the first consolation match, R. Henerson downed Hal Arneti, 2 and 1.

Two great battles were waged in the second flight, McFarland was forced to go to the 20th hole to defeat Shaw, 1 up, and Morris was extended one extra hole to down Noston, 1 up.

In the third flight, Roberds defeated Miser, 6 and 4; Graham defeated Aldredge, 3 and 2; Freeland defeated Ater, 4, and 3; English defeated Benedict, 6 and 5, and Barnes defeated Qualls, 1 up at the 18th hole.

Two In Fourth.

Two matches were played in the fourth flight, Swartz downed La Fon, 6 and 5; L. Doherty defeated Soash, 5 and 3.

Second round pairings scheduled for today find the strongest golfers entered in the tournament matched in crucial battles. Bob Peck, medalist, will meet J. K. Bradshaw, 15-year-old caddy, who turned in an 81 during the qualifying rounds, and came back Tuesday in his first round match with Dowell with a 75. Peck is ceded a slight edge over his youthful opponent. Jack May reigns a slight favorite in his match with J. O. Smith. Higginbotham is promised stiff going with McLarty and E. T. Daniels, runner-up to the medalist, is doped to defeat Ross McWhorter in their second round match.

Six In Consolation.

Jennings meets Dowell. Dow meets Fluke and Yager meets Edmisson in today's consolation matches.

Macks' Ace Hangs Up 18th Win As Tigers Go Down

Hugmen Win Seventh Successive Game Of Home Stay Over Chicago, 7-3; Sens Trim Browns

PHILADELPHIA, July 30. (AP)—George Uhle weakened in the ninth inning of a pitching duel against Lefty Bob Grove today and enabled the Athletics to pull out a 5 to 4 victory over the Detroit Tigers in the tenth. Up to the ninth, Uhle had allowed only four hits, but in that inning Al. Simmons came through with a homer with one on base and Foxx followed with a single to drive Uhle from the mound. Dykes' double-off Graham scored Foxx with the tying run. Whitehill took the mound in the tenth after Bishop had walked and had been sacrificed to second. He walked Cochrane, then Simmons singled to bring in the winning run.

The New BUICK

NEW Fisher styling ··· NEW 99 Horsepower Valve-in-Head Engine*
NEW Controlled Servo Mechanical Brakes ···NEW Steering Gear
NEW Road Shock Eliminator ·NEW Double Acting Shock Absorbers
NEW Non Glare Windshield

New Controlled Servo Enclosed Mechanical Brakes

Buick's new controlled Servo mechanical brakes—the most effective braking system ever developed—not only are of the favored internal-expanding type, but are fully protected against dust, dirt and moisture, and provide maximum braking under all road and weather conditions. These remarkable new brakes are self-energizing, which means that part of the braking effort is provided by the car's own motion—and they are fully controlled through the foot pedal, thus eliminating all possibility of "grabbing." A single test will prove Buick's new controlled Servo brakes the smoothest, most positive, and most easily operated ever developed for any motor car.

New Longer Springs—with New Double-Acting Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers

The new Buick introduces an unparalleled comfort combination in its new, longer rear springs and new double-acting Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers. The new rear springs give the car a free and easy cushioning motion, which is controlled in both directions by the double-acting shock absorbers—thus eliminating both bound and rebound under severest road conditions. Through the medium of these two wonderful new comfort factors, Buick has widened still further its decisive leadership in riding luxury.

New Road Shock Eliminator—New Steering Gear

Two vitally important features of the new Buick—a new steering gear and new road shock eliminator—mark the greatest contribution to handling ease and roadability achieved in recent years. The new steering gear, of worm and roller type, provides matchless steering ease throughout the entire turning range. The new road shock eliminator, built into the frame on the steering gear side, effectually absorbs road shocks and prevents their transmission to the steering wheel. The result of these twin features—found only in Buick—is unrivaled driving comfort at all speeds.

America has taken this new Buick to its heart. Millions have thronged to see it . . . tens of thousands have already placed orders . . . other thousands have requested demonstrations . . . and the reasons will be instantly apparent when you call at our showrooms and inspect the matchless array of new Buick models. **

The fact is that in the five major elements of motor car appeal—beauty, performance, comfort, safety, value—this new Buick with Body by Fisher strides far ahead of any other car in the entire quality field.

New Fisher Styling

The new Buick Bodies by Fisher are longer, lower, more luxurious. They reveal new Fisher styling—new beauty of line and appointment—new colors—which have won the outspoken admiration of all who have seen them. And in addition they introduce a host of new features of utility and convenience, including the new Fisher Non-Glare Windshield for safer night driving; new and richer upholstery; and new fittings and appointments of princely luxury.

Pacemaker of Performance

Moreover, Buick for 1930 reveals this same marked supremacy—this same increased leadership—in fleet, spirited behavior on the road. Its new and bigger Valve-in-Head engine—developing 99 horsepower—provides matchless new virility, pick-up, swiftness and flexibility. A single drive will prove it the pacemaker of performance. And the same drive will disclose marvelous new handling ease, comfort and safety, due to a new and improved steering gear and new road shock eliminator; new double-acting shock absorbers which check both bound and rebound; and new controlled Servo enclosed mechanical brakes, the most effective braking system employed on any car in the world.

See, Drive and Own This New Buick

Bear in mind, this new Buick with its many advancements is offered at new low prices—in three new series and three new wheelbases, with only one standard of quality throughout—the finest in its field.

Visit our showrooms today. See the new Buicks and arrange to drive one. Among the 14 attractive body types is exactly the Buick for you.

 So great is public confidence in Buick that thousands of motorists placed their orders for new Buicks before ever the car was shown. . . . Year after year, Buick sells more than 100,000 cars to Buick owners alone—more than the total output of the majority of cars in the Buick field.

New Peaks of Power in The New Buick Valve-in-Head Engine

The wonderful new Buick Valve-in-Head engine—developing 99 horsepower—represents the splendid climax of 26 years of concentration on this one outstandingly efficient type. It is a bigger engine—a sturdier engine—and provides greater speed as well as a power reserve more than adequate to any need which may arise. Moreover, this great new power plant is smoother and quieter, as well as more powerful, and provides a measure of all-round performance without parallel in the Buick field.

*The new engine in the 132-and 124-inch wheelbase series develops 99 horsepower—the new engine in the 118-inch series, 80½ horsepower. Also it achieves this additional performance without increased gasoline consumption.

The New Fisher Non-Glare Windshield . . a Vital Contribution to Motoring Safety

The new Fisher non-glare windshield—a vitally important feature exclusive to Buick-built cars—adds immeasurably to the safety, pleasure and comfort of night driving. This new windshield—tilted at an angle of 7 degrees—protects the driver against the annoying and frequently dangerous reflection or glare from other cars. Test the new Buick and experience the remarkable advantages of this new and exclusive feature.

IT'S UP TO US

BRAZOS COUNTY, home of Bryan and Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, has voted a road bond issue in the neighborhood of a million and a quarter dollars. The good citizens of Brazos county are evidently tired of wallowing in mud and jarring their eye-teeth on ruts of dirt highways.

Last Saturday, a couple of hundred citizens of Van Zandt county held a little meeting, slapped their "John Henrys" on a petition and directed their commissioners to call an election on a similar project. Van Zandt, like Brazos, expects to have around $1,250,000 of its own funds to lay on the line with state and federal resources for a county-wide network of paved roads. That's a progressive spirit.

The Morning Avalanche has noted a number of jibes—all in fun, of course—cast at local citizens who happened to move to Lubbock from Van Zandt county. "The free state of Van Zandt" has been one of the standing jokes of this section but now, as Van Zandt moves for progress and Lubbock contents itself with ox-cart highways, the joke seems to be turned on us.

Brazos county is perilously near "the gumbo belt" of East Texas, which likewise has furnished us West Texans considerable amusement. We can't help but wonder who'll be the most amused in the next year or so—the Brazos county folks on their spanking new highways, or the Lubbock county folks still bumping along, bumping along, bumping along?

"Central Texas," we have heard it declared, "is in a terrible shape. They have had so many bad crop years down there that it is doubtful if the country ever will come back like it used to be." Well mebbe so, but McClennan county, where Waco's Amicable building stands, has voted hardsurfaced roads with a vim, vigor and vitality which would be a credit to any and all parts of West Texas.

Perhaps we enjoyed our jibes at other portions of Texas as this great Western territory blossomed and bloomed from a cow country to a wonderful agricultural empire but at the rate we're going on hardsurface roads we haven't much ground upon which to stand when we hurl the "non-progressive" epithet at our neighbors.

Some folks may like to see East, Central and South Texas, along with parts of West Texas, going ahead in this business of highway improvement while Lubbock and the majority of the Plains counties stand idly by—most of them unable to get their citizens to agree on anything of a road-building nature. However, The Morning Avalanche isn't in the latter catergory and finds little to be proud of in our present predicament.

Let's pass those bonds and build those roads before we find ourselves the natural object of pity on the part of other Texans.

NO DANGER OF EXTINCTION

Influenced by gasoline fumes and superficial appearances many people have predicted that the coming generation would have to go to a museum to see a specimen of the horse. Already they said, the motor car has made Dobbin a back number and the onward roll of rubber-tired progress soon would obliterate him. All of which helps to demonstrate that what everybody seems to be saying isn't necessarily true.

The horse-rearing industry in the United States is picking up right at the time when more motors are produced and owned than ever before. Wayne Dinsmore, who keeps tab on horse statistics as part of his job as secretary of the Horse Association of America, says there are more than 20,500,000 horses in the country now; that the business of horse-breeding, which has suffered a temporary slump is reviving showing a vast improvement in breeds and that the United States has more horses and better horses than any other nation.

The good old "hay-burners" are in favor as motive power on a vast majority of the farms and more than $1,500,000 of them are doing duty in the cities. Mr. Dinsmore says when the horse is in danger of becoming extinct, his association will be the first to learn of it, but that there is no cause as yet for worry.

SUGAR EVADES THE RULE

A few days ago we ventured the opinion that the price of sugar might not be governed strictly by the law of supply and demand, and that the recent advance of a quarter of a cent was not entirely justified by the report that a meeting of sugar producers was to be held in Amsterdam to talk over methods of limiting production. We hinted that the increased price might be due to the canning season, and the necessity for having sugar for this purpose, rather than to any lack of supply. For expressing this opinion we were politely called to account by a sugar man, who said the increase was due to higher Cuban sugar prices.

Now come statistics from John F. Sinclair, who predicts a record sugar crop. He says the Cuban crop is the largest ever produced; the Java crop is large; the Louisiana cane sugar crop promises to break the record, and beet sugar prospects both here and abroad are extraordinarily good.

When such reports reach the market concerning the wheat crop, the price falls. The same is true of the price of other grains, of cotton, potatoes, and all other agricultural products. Why should sugar be an exception to the rule?

Go ahead and be snobbish, as the eminent Boston professor advises. And you could try it some time on a traffic cop.

UNCLE SAM'S STAND ON REPARATIONS IS ANALYZED BY WASHINGTON WRITER

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Why the ex-allies are so determined to wish their war debts to the United States off onto Germany to pay is easy enough to understand.

Germany (A) owes the ex-allies (B) and B owes the United States (C).

Naturally, one would say, it is up to B to collect from A, and pay C.

If A's debt to B were just like B's debt to C, perhaps this really would suit B—but the fact is they differ considerably.

A owes B because A was licked and B, the winner, says the debt is on that foot. However, it will stay there only so long as B can keep it there, if necessary, by force — a pretty problematical kind of a debt.

B's debt to C represents cash actually advanced by C to B. There is no chance that C ever will try to collect it forcibly, but B cannot repudiate it without intolerable national humiliation—and, still more to the point, vast loss of credit.

Obviously it would pay B to trade off its doubtful claim against A for cancellation of C's airtight claim against itself.

Quite as obviously, it would be a mighty bad bargain for C.

• • • •

The ostensible purpose of the recent "reparations conference" between Germany's and the ex-allies' negotiators (with Owen D. Young and J. P. Morgan on hand, as "unofficial representatives" of the United States) was to decide on permanent plan for payment of German war indemnities to the ex-allies.

It resulted in a scheme to establish an "international" bank, to accept Germany's money and divide it among the ex-allies—and, incidentally, to keep up a series of payments on what the ex-allies owe to the United States.

This is all right, so far as appears on the surface.

It is none of the United States' business whether the ex-allies choose to have Germany pay money into their various accounts in an international bank. There can be no objection to acceptance of checks against these accounts, in settlement of debts owed by the ex-allies in this country.

Yet there was a tendency at the reparations conference which worried American government officials to make the ex-allies' payments to the United States dependent on their collections from Germany.

Such a hook-up is what Uncle Sam has fought against all along.

• • • •

The circumstance that J. P. Morgan and Owen D. Young were at the conference, and the additional circumstance that Owen D. Young is credited with furnishing the inspiration for the creation of an international bank, do not allay Washington's anxiety.

After All, J. P. Morgan and Owen D. Young are international bankers themselves.

Now American international bankers have enormous private interests in the ex-allied countries—and the more easily these countries succeed in settling their governmental war-time obligations in the United States, the better the international bankers' private ventures are likely to turn out.

Not that anyone suspects them of putting their private interests above Uncle Sam's—but may they not be unconsciously influenced by the former?—that's all.

• • • •

Anyway, Washington officialdom is dead set against any American representation in the international bank—because that might be interpreted as American recognition of the reparations conference's plan, whatever, in the long run, it may prove to be.

If say at the end of 37 years, during which Germany is bound to pay approximately $487,000,000 annually into the international bank—

The ex-allies were to say, "This ends the whole thing—reparations payments, debt payments and all—so if you Yankees have anything further to collect, go ahead and collect it from Germany, because we're through—"

It would be pleasant for Uncle Sam to be in a position to reply, "Yes, but I never sanctioned the plan —

But not so pleasant if an American director had had a hand in every one of the international bank's transactions, from the minute it opened it's doors, and Uncle Sam thereby was committed to some agreement he had signed without reading the fine print.

• • • •

Rather curiously, the ex-allies are most insistant that the United States federal reserve board be represented on the international bank's board of directors.

They want one of the big interested American bankers anyhow,—to make it as official as possible.

Washington emphatically says 'No.'

Theoretically, it appears that the United States government lacks the power to make the veto stick—but, practically, financiers generally agree that it can. It can prevent any appearance of official approval of the plan, at all events.

Congress can raise an awful row about it, too.

OLD-TIME "FAMILY DOCTOR" OFTEN MORE USEFUL THAN SPECIALIST

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

Much is written in these modern times of the disappearance of the old-time family physician and his replacement by the specialists, who are familiar with all of the details of some single portion of the body or with certain types of diseases.

The old-time practitioner had his merits. Not infrequently he practiced by rule of thumb as well as by science. Most of the time he was up to the knowledge of his day. He practiced particularly the art of observation of the man as a whole and on the basis of these observations he not infrequently accomplished a great deal for his patients even in instances where the modern specialist may overlook conditions because his mind is focused on a single point.

One thing which the old-time practitioner noticed particularly was the fact that new cures always helped any chronic condition temporarily. This is a result of the eternal hopefulness of the patient with a chronic disease. In conditions in which there is a psychologic background particularly, such as some of the nervous disorders, bed wetting and similar complaints, the new cure seems to work wonders, but is unfortunately usually only temporary in its effects.

Mexico has devised new regulations to stimulate travel. The old conditions were all right, but they made people go in the wrong direction.

Anniversary Notes

LAFAYETTE HONORED

One hundred and fifty-two years ago today, on July 31, 1777, Congress bestowed the rank of major general upon the Marquis de Lafayette, a French general and statesman.

At the first news of the American revolution, Lafayette became enthusiastic for the cause of the colonists. Evading vigilant government officials, he fitted out a ship and, sailing from Passages in Spain, landed on April 24, 1777, at Georgetown, S. C., with 11 companions among them Baron de Kalb.

Layfatte's arrival in this country did much to renew hope of the supporters of the revolutionary cause who were discouraged by many setbacks.

On July 31, Congress commissioned Lafayette and he was attached to staff of General George Washington who speedily came to regard the young officer with the highest esteem.

After serving with the revolutionists until December, 1781, Lafayette sailed for home. On a visit to North American in 1784, after the conclusion of peace, he was received with tremendous enthusiasm.

CHILD WORK BEGINS

Welfare Program Is Under Way At Washington

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP) — President Hoover's Child Welfare program got under way today with the first meeting of a large committee which he assempled to prepare for a nation wide conference at the White House.

Delivering a short address, the Chief Executive outlined the general scope of the work which lies before the committee, emphasized its importance and asserted that personally it had his complete support.

SONG

Come, Celia, let's agree at last
To love and live in quiet;
Let's tie the knot so very fast
That time shall ne'er untie it.
Love's dearest joys they never prove,
Who free from quarrels live;
'Tis sure a godlike part of love
Each other to forgive.

When least I seemed concerned I took
No pleasure, nor had rest;
And when I feigned an angry look,
Alas! I loved you best.
Say but the same to me, you'll find
How blest will be our fate;
Sure to be grateful, to be kind,
Can never be too late.

SALES POSTPONED

School Land Will Not Sell On September First

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—Sale of 1,500,000 acres of public school land advertised for September 1 has been postponed indefinitely, J. H. Walker, chief clerk of the General Land office, announced today.

Walker said inability to receive lists of the property from the printer in time for distribution caused the postponement.

The property, which is located in West Texas has been made subject to forfeiture for non-payment of interest.

The SHINING TALENT

By ELEANOR EARLY © 1929 By NEA Service Inc.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

MOLLY BURNHAM, sob sister on a metropolitan paper, is renewing college friendships with her old roommate, RITA MELNOTTE, and Rita's husband, BOB NEWTON. Molly is having a little dinner party, to which she also invited RUTH WOODS, and Ruth's husband Zip.

But Ruth protested that she was not feeling well, and that Zip was working late. Ruth has changed a lot since her marriage. Within a few months she lost her little baby. And then all her dreams and gaiety seemed to have embittered Rita. While Molly, who has made a remarkable success during her brief career, has indefinitely postponed her marriage to JACK WELLS, a struggling young architect, whom she loves devotedly, but who has scarcely a penny to his name.

During the diuner party, the door bell rings furiously. Bob goes to see who it is, and returns with Zip, Ruth's husband. Zip is crying and talking incoherently, and the girls are afraid he is drunk. Molly asks Bob, who shakes his head sorrowfully.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

Bob put his arm about his wife's shoulders, and reached for Molly's hand.

"Ruth's dead, girls," he said. "Poor little kid."

Zip raissed his swollen face from Molly's shoulder. His soft brown hair that Ruth had loved clung to his forehead in moist strands and his chin trembled like a child's.

"Ruth's dead," he repeated. "Did you hear Bob tell you?"

They drew him into the apartment, and Molly wondered if the gay, pretty background of her little dinner party would wound Zip more deeply. She knew that when one grieves extravantly, the gaiety of others seems harsh and heartless. She was sorry that Zip had found her making merry with Rita and Bob. It would have been better if she had been alone. But Rita had heated the coffee, and now she brought Zip a steaming cup.

"It will make you feel better," she said. "Buck you up, I know."

He took it obediently and held it on his knee. His hand was shaking so he could not raise it to his mouth.

"She died in her sleep," he told them. "When I came home she looked like a ghost. And her eyes were red. I knew she'd been crying. I told her"—Zip's voice broke, and he buried his head in his hands—"I told her that other women had lost their babies. I told her there wasn't anything unique about her sorrow. That others girls had gotten over it."

"Never mind that, Zip. Don't tell us," whispered Molly comfortingly. "Ruth knows you never meant to hurt her."

"Yes," he cried fiercely. "I want to tell you. I told Ruth I was sick of her sniveling and crying. I told her she was making my life a regular hell . . ."

"Zip!" Molly darted from the bed where she had crouched, and flung herself on her knees before him. "Stop it! We don't want to hear those things. Don't torture yourself, poor Zip. Ruth doesn't want you to, dear. She always wanted you to be happy."

"Something in Ruth died, Zip, when she lost her little baby. Perhaps that's why she died. Maybe she's with that little baby now."

Zip groaned. "I killed her," he said. "I killed her with words. She got all white and trembly, and she put her hand over her heart. And then I was frightened. And pretty soon she let me put her to bed.

"She lay there so white and still. But she wouldn't let me call a doctor. She wanted me to sit beside her, and hold her hand. And she kept opening her eyes, and smiling.

"After a while she wanted to sit up. She was very weak. Whispering then . . . My God, I ought to have known! I lifted her, and put pillows behind her back. And put my arms around her. I asked her if she was comfortable that way, and she said yes.

"She was quiet then for a long time, and I was frightened again.

"'How are you feeling?' I asked.

"'Beautiful!' she said. And she opened her eyes, and smiled again.

"By and by I thought she was asleep. My arms were numb, and was afraid I might let her slip back on the pillows. I wanted her to sleep, you see. I thought she would be better when she woke. So I took my arms away."

Rita was crying now, with her head against Bob's shoulder.

"And when I stood up," Zip was saying, "I bent to kiss her. I kissed her forehead. And she didn't move. Then I—"

Rita screamed. "Stop! Zip, don't."

"I kissed her lips," he concluded simply. "And then I knew. I don't know how I knew. I just knew. Ruth was dead."

"And the last word she ever said," moaned Rita, "was 'Beautiful.' Was not that just like Ruth, Molly? Oh, poor, poor little Ruth!"

"You called a doctor?" asked Bob.

"Somebody did," Zip said. "The woman upstairs came down. And her husband. Yes, they got a doctor. He said she'd been dead for an hour. Two hours maybe. He was wrong though. Because she smiled at me, you see. And put her fingers in my hair. And when I asked her how she was, she said 'Beautiful.'"

Rita's big dark eyes were starring mad.

Bob caught her to him. "Steady, Rita. Steady, dear," he besought. "Careful, darling."

"Zip!" Rita's voice was piercing. "Don't you see?—Ruth lived to make you happy. And she died to make you happy . . . And she came back from the dead to comfort you."

He shook his head miserably. "I killed her," he said, "with words."

Molly had begun, nervously, to clear the dishes away. Presently Rita came to help her. They folded the table cloth, and stacked the dishes in the sink. Then Molly emtied the ash trays.

"And life goes on just the same," she kept thinking. "Dishes and ash trays, and coffee cups."

"How did you get in town, Zip?" asked Bob practically.

"Drove in."

"Good Lord! They shouldn't have let you out tonight. You should have telephoned us. We'd have gone to you. What was that doctor thinking of!"

"He didn't know," said Zip dully. "They'd all cleared out. Left me alone with Ruth. I got scared. Had to get away."

He looked about him wildly. "Ruth wanted me to tell Molly," he said. "Molly sent her flowers today. She had some of them pinned on her dress. She told me they were from Molly. And then, when she died, she said, 'Tell Molly, Zip.'"

Molly, in the kitchen, put her fingers in her ears.

"He'll drive me crazy!" she whispered. And Rita nodded through her tears.

"Do you mind," asked Molly presently, "if I go out for a minute? Will you and Bob stay with Zip? I want to phone Jack."

It took some minutes to put through the call, and when at last she heard his voice she felt that she was going to faint. She raised her hand, shakingly, and pressed her cold fingers against the quivering column of her throat.

"Oh, Jack," she cried, "Ruth is dead and I want you!"

"Dead?" he exclaimed incredulously. "An accident, Molly?" And then, agitatedly, lover-like, "Are you all right? You're not hurt?"

"Oh, it wasn't an accident, dear. Heart failure, I think. Zip is here now. He came a few minutes ago. We've just heard."

"You're sure you're all right?" he interrupted. "You're telling me the truth, Molly?"

"Jack, darling, of course I'm all right! But poor Ruth. And poor Zip."

She choked back tears, the feeble impulse of women to be weak when they would be strong.

"Poor Ruth!" he repeated. "Lord, that's tough! How's Zip taking it?"

"Oh, dreadfully," she moaned. "Hes simply all broken up . . . . Listen, Jack, I want you more than I ever wanted you before. Can you come over?"

"Why, of course I can. Surest thing in the world, Sweetheart. I can make the midnight."

"But it's after 11 now," she reminded him.

"That's all right. How long do you think it takes to chuck a clean shirt in a bag. Listen now, Sweetheart, get to bed as soon as you can, and get a little sleep. You must be all shot, you poor little kid. Why don't you get hold of Bob Newton?"

"Bob's here now, Bob and Rita."

"That's good," he approved. "They'll take Zip off your hands. Take care of my girl, won't you, Molly? Do it for me, Sweetheart. Don't stay up all night. Let Bob take care of things. Will you be able to sleep, dear?"

"Oh, yes," she lied. "I will. And I'll meet your train in the morning. Hurry now, or you'll miss it. Listen dear, can you hear me? I love you."

"And I love you!" he cried. "More than ever, Molly. I was thinking about you when the phone rang. I don't ever do anything but think about you, I guess. It's wonderful to hear your voice. Do you honestly love me as much as you used to?"

"More," she assured him. "I'll tell you tomorrow. Don't miss your train. Goodnight, dear."

She slipped the receiver slowly in place. One of her dearest friends was dead. And she could still talk about love! Was there something wrong with her? Something cold and heartless? Were other people like that?

"Tomorrow!" her heart kept singing. "Tomorrow!"

But she thrust the anticipation from her. And conjured, instead, a vision of Ruth.

Bob and Rita took Zip home with them. And Molly, when they had gone, found the memory book of her Freshman year, with all its heart-wrenching memories of Ruth. For she and Ruth and roomed together that year, and that was the year Zip gave Ruth the moonstone she called her engagement ring. All night Molly sat with the book across her knees.

When dawn came, she put coffee on, and while it was boiling, she took a shower. Then she lay quietly down, not to sleep, but to relax, so that Jack would not know she had not slept all the night.

When the train came, she was waiting.

YOUTH IS INJURED

Hugh Broussard Loses Leg In Car Accident

BIG SPRING, July 30. (Special)—Hugh Broussard, age 17, employed by the Cosden Refining company was the victim of an automobile accident here this morning which resulted in amputation of the right leg, at the knee. Broussard was riding the turtle back of a Chevrolet car when the driver, in order to miss a car coming in the opposite direction ran into a parked truck by the side of the road, catching Broussards leg between the fender and body of the truck which almost severed his leg at the knee. He was rushed to the Big Spring Hospital for treatment.

Four numbers of Sir J. M. Barrie's "The Clown," a humorous monthly written for the scholars of Dumfries Academy, were recently sold in London for $2,550.

INSANITY IS PLEA

'Witch Slayers' Face Court With "Not Guilty" Plea

KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 30. (AP)—A plea of insanity was indicted today as the probable defense of Eugene Burgess, and his wife, Pearl, confessed slayers of Mrs. Etta L. Fairchilds, whom the couple believed had bewitched their daughter. Their counsel announced at their arraignment on a first degree murder charge today that he would serve legal notice that his clients were insane.

Burgess and his wife, grimly unrepentent of the slaying of the alleged "witch," which they committed by beating her with a lead pipe and hammer, stood mute in court today and a plea of not guilty was ordered entered.

Summer Months Hard on Stomach Sufferers

Quick, Natural Relief from Simple Herbal Compound

How much suffering a weak stomach can cause! Painful gas, bloating, sleeplessness, loss of weight—vigor. Bad enough at any time but wh exhausting summer heat ad/e strength is drained from ry/ediest body.

Bu- here is one of many thousands who found a way to relief:

Mrs. A. M. Owens, of 1716 Taylor St. Rt. 5, Box 34, Little Rock, Ark., says "I was so weak I couldn't walk across the floor. I had spent a fortune trying to get well and would be in my grave if it weren't for Tanlac. Now I eat and sleep fine and have gained 22 lbs."

It's never too late to try Tanlac. So go to your druggist now and get a bottle. No mineral drugs—only Nature's own medicinal herbs, but its efficacy is so apparent that often only one bottle is needed to bring desired relief. Money back if it doesn't help.

Cotton Advances Then Drops; Stock Sales Low

December Reacts Sharply; Market Close Is Uneasy

Relatively Firm Cables In New York Lend Strength To Opening; Final Prices Show Some Gains

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 30.—After advancing sharply cotton lost a good part of the gain under realizing in today's trading. December contracts which had sold up to 19.37 early or 38 points net higher, reacted to 19.13 and closed at that figure, with the general market closing barely steady, although the final prices still showed net gains of 11 to 18 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 17 to 26 points in response to the relatively firm cables, complaints of dry weather in Texas, and apprehension of boll weevil in the east. Buying appeared to be stimulated by a private report claiming a sharp drop in the condition of the crop. With prospects that the condition would be down to or below the 10 year average by August 1.

October Advances.

October advanced to 19.12 and March to 19.49, but these figures seemed to attract Southern hedging and realizing and the market eased under profit taking and New Orleans selling.

Some uncertainty as to the showing of tomorrow's weekly weather report tended to promote evening-up of accounts and realizing or liquidation became more active in the last hour as demand tapered.

October sold off to 18.88 and March to 19.23 or about 24 to 26 points from the high level of the morning.

Closing quotations were at about the lowest prices of the day. Liverpool cables reported covering with local and continental rebuying on unfavorable crop accounts from this side and said the Manchester cloth market was unsettled with buyers cautious.

Exports today, 14,816, making 8,227,266 so far this season.

Port receipts, 6,898. U. S. port stocks 526,258.

Early Advance In New Orleans Aids Profits

NEW ORLEANS, July 30. (AP)—An early advance of approximately 1.50 a bale in the cotton market today met considerable profit-taking and the close showed recessions of 19 points under the highs, but a net advance for the day of 11 to 16 points. October closed at 18.77, or 15 points net higher. The closing tone was steady.

Liverpool Up Some

Liverpool cables were 3 to 4 points better than due and first trades here showed gains of 12 to 13 points. Prices continued to advance after the start. Shorts covered freely in an oversold market and October traded up to 18.91 and December 19.10, or 29 to 30 points above Saturday's close. Additional covering carried active positions to levels 34 to 35 points over the previous close but here heavy profit-taking was encountered. October finally sold off to 18.77 and December 18.96, or 19 points below the highs. Final prices were at the lowest.

Livestock Around Eleven Markets In United States Rules Generally Low

FORT WORTH, July 30. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Trading in several classes of cattle here today was dull.

A few very plain grass slaughter steers sold at quotably steady prices around 8.50 and 9.25. Trade in she stock and low cutters appeared weak to 25c lower. Fat cows sold around and under 8.00; butcher grades at 6.75 and 7.00; low cutters at 4.75 and 5.25.

Prices In Line

Prices paid for limited supplies of fat yearlings, sausage bulls and other classes of cattle about in line with those of yesterday. A small lot of choice fat yearlings topped at 14.50 and a few sales of grassy slaughter yearlings sold around and under 11.00. Sorts of sausage bulls sold at 6.50 and 8.25.

Slaughter calves and vealers ruled dull but sold mostly at barely steady prices. Packers purchased a few heavy fat calves as high as 11.50. Other heavy averages sold down to 10.50; light vealers reported at 12.00 @12.50.

Hogs Sharply Lower

Hogs ruled sharply lower. Truck hogs cleared at levels 25 to 35c lower and bids on carlot butchers measured a full 35c decline. Best rail hogs sold at 11.00 and best truck hogs at 10.90; others on down to 10.50 and less.

All classes of sheep and lambs sold at prices fully steady. Fat yearlings 10.25; good 2 year old fat wethers 8.25; desirable aged fat wethers reported at 7.25; fat truck lambs 11.00 to 12.00.

MIDWESTERN REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 30. (AP)—(U.S.D.A.)—Moderate receipts of cattle failed to stimulate trade today at most points around the 11 market circuit. Demand at Eastern dressed beef markets was slow with the less desirable grades working lower.

Strictly choice fed steers and yearlings were fully steady but packers continued to hammer down the general run of beef steers and yearlings.

Price Spread Wide

The prevailing price spread is the widest of the season with highly finished natives at 16.00 and above while plain white grassers sell downward to $8.00 and below. Chicago had a top of $16.70 on finished light weight steers and a three car shipment of outstanding 160 pound beeves at Kansas City scored $16.30. Well bred Western steers suitable for feeders are materially lower than last week with country demand slow at the demand. Aggregate receipts were estimated at 37,000, a decrease of 9,000 from a week ago and slightly more than the corresponding day last year.

Another decline of 15 to 35 cents was in force on hogs with late trade at most markets 25c or more lower. The day's extreme top of $11.90 was paid at Chicago. Total offerings were around 79,500 as compared with 84,079 last Tuesday and 66,604 a year ago.

Fat lambs were moderately active at generally steady to strong values some points reporting a slight advance. Aged stock was little changed. Closely sorted native lambs in Chicago made 13.40 to 13.60 and choice rangers realized 13.50. The supply approximated 41,700, a decrease of 7,500 for a week ago but 4,300 heavier than a year ago.

LUBBOCK LIVESTOCK

The following report furnished by McDonald Packing company:

Cattle: calves, choice white fact, 10.00 @ 11.00; good to medium, 9.00 @ 10.00; common and dogies, 6.00 @ 8.50; yearlings and heavy heifers, choice, 8.00 @ 9.00; cows, choice, 7.50 @ 8.00; good to medium, 6.00 @ 7.50; common and cutters, 4.00 @ @ 60.0; canners, 2.00 @ 4.00; bulls, heavy butchers 6.50 @ 7.00; heavy bologanas 6.00 @ 6.50; medium and common 5.00 @ 6.00.

Hogs: choice butchers 9.75 @ 10.25; choice light weights 9.00 @ 9.50; choice heavies 8.50 @ 9.50; packing sows 7.00 @ 9.00.

ST. LOUIS REPORT

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 30. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs: 16,000; slow 25 to 30c below Monday's close; pigs 25 to 50c lower. Wheat Values At Chicago Plunged To Lower Points

Other Grains Fall Down In Sympathy as Fears Heard For Glutted Market; Rain Expected In Belt

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN
Associated Press Market Editor

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—Increasing suggestions that big shipments of domestic winter wheat may glut terminal markets did much to overturn wheat values today. The world's wheat available supply showed 8,161,000 bushels enlargement for the week, with crop damage reports seeming to have lost effect as an immediate price influence.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled at 2 1-2c to 4 1-4c under yesterday's finish. Corn closed 2 1-2c to 3 5-8c down. Oats 3-8c to 1-2c to 1c off, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 25c.

Traders Uneasy

Wheat traders today showed decided uneasiness over expansion of wheat arrivals at Chicago, receipts here today totaling 958 cars compared with 257 cars a week ago.

Downward slides in wheat prices began at the outset of trading, and despite frequent rallies continued until the market just before business ended was 7 1-2c under yesterday's top figures. A leading Chicago crop expert who returned today from an eight weeks tour of the northwest said Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta promise 255,000,000 bushels compared with 510,000,000 bushels last year, and the Dakotas and Montana 135,000,000 bushels this season against 241,000,000 bushels harvested a year ago.

Corn Oats Drop

Corn and oats prices dropped with wheat. Timely rains in eastern Nebraska helpful to corn growth were an independent factor in easing the corn market, together with a forecast of showers in parts of Iowa, Illinois and Missouri.

Provisions were responsive to downturns in the values of hogs.

Trade Goes Slow For Cash Grains

Reduced Values Brakes For Sellers; Oats Are Well Taken But Wheat In Ft. Worth Is Dull

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 30.—Trade was slow on the Fort Worth cash grain market today with the reduced values acting as a brake on sellers. Oats were fairly well taken but wheat was duller than any time since the big advance started. Estimated receipts: Wheat 156 cars, corn 9, oats 11, barley 12, sorghums 1, hay 6 cars.

Export grains: Exporters bid as follows, basis delivered Texas Gulf ports: Wheat 4 1-2c lower; No. 1 ordinary export wheat 1.34 1-2 to 1.35 1-2; No. 1 soft red mixed 1.34 1-2 to 1.35 1-2; No. 2 barley unchanged, 73 to 74c.

Milling Wheat

Milling wheat: Mills bid as follows, basis delivered T. C. P.: Around 4 1-2c lower in sympathy with contract markets: No. 1 hard milling 1.36 1-2 to 1.37 1-2; 13 per cent protein 1.40 1-2 to 1.41 1-2; 14 per cent 1.44 1-2 to 1.45 1-2; 15 per cent 1.48 1-2 to 1.49 1-2; 16 per cent 1.52 1-2 to 1.53 1-2.

Dealers bids and offers on other grains as follows, basis delivered T. C. P.:

Corn dull, 3c lower: No. 2 mixed 1.14 to 1.15; No. 2 white 1.18 to 1.19; No. 2 yellow 1.21 to 1.22.

Oats: No. 2 red 58 to 59.

Barley: No. 2 barley 73 to 74.

Sorghums: No. 2 milo per hundred pounds unchanged; No. 2 kaffir 1.60 to 1.65.

Sorghum heads: Milo per ton 22.00 to 23.00; kaffir 21.50 to 22.00.

Total Sales Are Crowded Down To Low Season Mark

Prices Rebound As Bears' Attack Is Futile; High Rating Is Given Stocks Of Insull Corporation

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Stock prices today rebounded in another day of quiet trading, total sales falling to a new low for the month at 2,686,290 shares.

Confidence appeared to have been restored by the failure of bear attacks yesterday to bring out any considerable liquidation.

Call money held at 10 per cent all day, and time money was firmer, with the shorter maturities moving at 8 3-4 per cent. Predictions of extra or increased dividends by U. S. steel proved premature, but the corporation announced record peacetime earnings for the second quarter, equal to 6.68 a common share, against 5.04 in the previous quarter.

Gas Shoots Up

In common with the spectacular upturns in the Insull stocks on the curb, Peoples Gas shot up 37 1-2 points to a record price at 362 1-2. Some of the rails rallied briskly. Chesapeake and Ohio and Atchison selling up about 6 points each. Commercial solvents soared about 20 points and, Auburn Auto equalled its previous record of 405.

Midland Steel products was a weak spot, closing off about 10 points. Commercial Investment Trust more than lost yesterday's gain, falling back 10 points. Eastman Kodak slipped back about 3 1-2 points on the granting of rights.

Foreign exchanges were steady, Sterling cables holding around 4.85 1-2, and the Canadian dollar mounting to 99 3-4 cents.

Rail Hearing

rock branch if the Frisco were denied its application for the Seymour-Vernon line which would give a direct route to Fort Worth via the leased Gulf, Texas and Western railway to Jacksboro and the Rock Island from Jacksboro to Fort Worth. Shamrock, northern terminus of the new tap into the Panhandle, is 96 miles east of Amarillo and on the Rock Island main line.

Much Testimony Over

Testimoy on the Frisco's proposal to obtain trackage rights on the Rock Island from Jacksboro to Fort Worth, lease the G. T. and W., and construct the line from Seymour to Vernon previously had been concluded. The Rock Island then asked permission to build a connecting branch from Quanah to the Vernon-Seymour route at Beaver Creek, a 34-mile road.

T. H. Wilhelm of the Rock Island traffic department, told I. C. C. Examiner Charles D. Mahaffie the new road would shorten the distance to Dallas and Fort Worth markets from the Panhandle by about 80 miles. The present route, via El Reno, is 457.6 miles, he said, while the new direct line would be 378.3 miles. He said he expected the new line to be profitable because of the development of the East Panhandle with an increase in oil, casinghead gasoline and carbon black transportation. M. J. Dowlin, assistant general freight agent for the Rock Island, said he estimated the Rock Island would increase its earnings $679,320 the first year and $816,047 the fifth year after the new line opened.

Witness Is Halted

The Frisco's presentation of testimony ended abruptly when Examiner Mahaffie objected to cumulative testimony during the interrogation of E. E. Gose, Quanah real estate operator. Mahaffie said Gose's testimony did not cover new ground.

H. W. Press, Frisco statistician, had testified as to the earnings of the planned Vernon-Seymour line, adding that expenses could be considerably reduced. The G. T. and W. shops at Jermyn could be closed, he said, effecting a savings.

Mill Man On Stand

J. Perry Burrus, Dallas mill operator whose company owns mills and elevators at San Antonio, Galveston, Fort Worth, Dallas, Sherman, McKinney and Kingfisher, testified he believed the Rock Island-Frisco route from the Panhandle would be better than the Fort Worth and Denver City line because the latter line favored Kansas City in shipping grain. He declared a more direct route to Fort Worth and Dallas would increase his profits as well as those of grain raisers. His plants handled 12,000,000 bushels of wheat in 1928, he testified.

Indications today were that the hearing could not end before Saturday.

Testimony is yet to be introduced on the Fort Worth and Denver's application for a line from Childress to Pampa via Wellington and the Clinton and Oklahoma Western's plea for an extension in Gray county.

BURNS ARE FATAL

BORGER, July 30. (AP)—Francis M. Stone, 51, pumper for a petroleum company, died last night of burns received when a spark from an electric gasoline pump switch ignited gasoline soaked clothing. His widow and five children survive. Burial will be in Waldron, Ark.

HARD ON "LEGGERS"

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—The quarantine by Federal and State authorties in Florida against the Mediterranean Fruit fly was said today by Assistant Secretary Lowman of the treasury to have worked a hardship against rum runners and had forced them to seek other avenues of entry into the United States, especially through the Canadian border.

Throngs Go Wild As Robin Birdmen Land After Setting Flight Record

Lindy And Bride Laud Robin Boys

ST. LOUIS, July 30. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife stopped at Lambert-St. Louis field forty minutes today to congratulate Dale (Red) Jackson and Forest O'Brine, world's champion endurance fliers. The Lindberghs were flying from Santa Fe, N. M., to New York City.

"We just dropped in to congratulate the boys," Colonel Lindbergh said, leaning from the open window of his cabin plane.

"It's a wonderful thing they're doing. I'm glad we got here while they were still up."

They left at 11:05 a. m.

said they desired to attend his funeral tomorrow afternoon.

Jackson told newspapermen he thought they could have flown the St. Louis Robin 300 hours longer. O'Brine declared they could take the same plane as it now stands and break their own record.

Had One Big Thrill

Both men agreed that their biggest thrill of the entire flight was this afternoon when they flew low over the field and saw a crowd of 8,000 to 10,000 watchers standing in the rain waiting to see them land.

Both said the first 100 hours of flying was the hardest and after that it was not bad at all.

Both fliers looked fine, having shaved this morning.

Both Walk Well

When asked if he could walk well, O'Brine said he felt "just a little weak." Jackson said he felt fine. Both men were able to help elbow their way through the crowd and Jackson ran part of the way up the concrete to the hangar.

Jackson was at the controls when the plane landed. It swooped twice across the field as the crowd cheered wildly and then swept to a landing after zooming over a hangar. The official landing time was announced as 7:38:30 p. m. (C. S. T.)

The crowd got beyond control as soon as the plane was brought to earth. Police lines were swept aside as the throng charged toward the plane. Several persons were injured, none reported seriously, in the wild dash.

Both Embrace Wives

Both embraced their wives who had remained at the field almost constantly since the flight began.

Major William B. Robertson, president of the Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Manufacturing company, which sponsored the flight, said he was "tickled to death" with the outcome. "The boys look like they were ready to start again," he said.

Meetings Fail To Bring Strike Any Near Settlement

Half-Million Workers Still On Strike In England As Wages Are Cut; Spinners Plan Negotiations

(By Associated Press)

MANCHESTER, Eng., July 30.—Three meetings of different cotton organizations today failed to bring about resumption of negotiations in the great cotton industry stoppage which has laid off half a million workers in a struggle over wage reduction.

A committee of the Master Cotton Spinners federation confirmed the action of the employers' wages committee in reducing wages 12 1-2 per cent, but stated readiness to reopen negotiations.

Steps Are Endorsed.

The Spinners Amalagamation federation discussed only domestic affairs, while the general council of the Amalgamated Weavers association at Bury simply endorsed the steps taken by their representatives.

The Weavers' association also passed a resolution expressing the fullest appreciation of the determined stand taken by their members in the dispute and of their loyalty to stand firm for maintenance of the present wage rates.

Many In Discussion.

Delegates from 37 districts engaged in the weavers' discussion, to which special significance was attached because they had refused to discuss the reduction of wages until Saturday.

A new branch of the trade was drawn into the dispute today on posting of notices by the Cotton Waste Spinners and Manufacturers association that the present wage scale would end on Monday. The employers of this association seek similar reduction of wages and will meet representatives of the workers tomorrow.

STATEMENT IS MADE

PRESTON, England, July 30. (AP)—Tom Shaw, British minister of war, in a speech here last night said his government intended to give Egypt independence on terms which would establish happy relations between Britain and Egypt but insure the safety of British communications with her eastern empire for all times.

His statement was much more definite than previous official intimations.

struction followed by efforts to get designations as state highways by the Texas and New Mexico.

Another Session Set.

No definite action was taken at the Morton meeting though next Monday, August 5, was set as meeting date in Portales, N. M., at which time representatives will go before the commissioner's court of Roosevelt county, N. M., to argue on a given point for the road to cross the state line. It is understood that this problem will more than likely be the hardest facing the proposal and with a decision reached between the two states as to a common meeting point at the line, speedy action should follow. With the completion of the road it has been pointed out that the new route will shorten the distance to Farwell from Lubbock by 45 miles.

According to an announcement made last night by Mr. Murray, Lubbock at this time is working on a highway project to Roswell via Bledsoe and that this road is hoped to be presented to the state highway commission for consideration at the same time of the Lubbock to Elida proposal. A conditional designation already has been granted for the route to Bledsoe via Levelland and further action only awaits taking over by the state and getting New Mexico to agree to building the road on from Bledsoe to Roswell.

Members of the Lubbock delegation to the Morton meeting included: R. J. Murray, J. H. Hankins, Elmo Wall, E. J. Parsons, Ray Grisham, Richard Douglas, Judge James H. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Morton J. Smith.

By a majority of three votes, Laurence O'Neill, ex-Lord Mayor of Dublin, Ireland recently won the Free State Senate seat which the Marquis of Lansdowne resigned.

CAPTAIN BRENNAN PRAISES ORGATONE

Well Known Plainview Salvation Army Leader Makes Strong Statement

One of the most noteworth features in connection with the introductions of Orgatone throughout the south and west has been the large number of ministers of the Gospel who have unhesitatingly and voluntarily given this wonderful medicine their unqualified endorsements.

Captain Chas. Brennan, well known leader of the Salvation Army of Plainview, Texas and residing at 1109 Ocean street, is one of those to come forward and add his endorsement to the thousands of others who have been restored to health by its use. Captain Brennan has been in charge of the Plainview Salvation Army for the past two months having been transferred there from Childress, Texas, and is not only held in the highest esteem by the hundreds of his church followers, but is exceedingly prominent as a man and citizen. In describing his trouble and failure to heretofore find relief, Captain Brennan said:

"I suffered from a general rundown condition and nervousness more or less for the past year. I could not sleep soundly and for the past several months I suffered from attacks of indigestion. The pains in my head would sometimes seem like they were going to put my eyes out they were so severe, and the relief I got from them was only temporary. I had to diet myself with great care, and I couldn't get any restful sleep at night. I had practically no appetite at all and what I did eat always caused that gasto form and bothered me for hours at a time. I not only suffered a great deal of pain, but became so weak and run down that I would tire quickly in trying to do my work.

"After hearing of the good work of Orgatone was doing I decided to give it a trial, and the results I have gotten have been most satisfactory. I sleep well at night now. Eat anything I like, and relish every meal. I'm not nervous any more, and feel full of life and vigor. My headaches are a thing of the past. Orgatone has proven to be the right thing forr me and I am glad to recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried." Commenting on the above statement, Harvey Martin, the Orgatone representative said:

"I distinctly recall a number of other members of this high calling who have publicly expressed their indebtedness to this medicine and who felt it their duty to tell suffering humanity of the great benefits that they had derived from its use and not a day passes but what the Orgatone Drug store over the country receive dozens of statements from people in all walks of life who have been relieved after suffering for years."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store who are direct laboratory agents. Adv.
