Snyder High School Boys Will Leave Friday For Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show

Forty-four FFA club boys of Snyder High School will leave Friday for the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. Leslie Browning, vocational agriculture teacher in the Snyder High School will take the boys to Fort Worth.

Browning feels that this will be good training for the boys, most of whom took part in the Scurry County Junior Fat Stock Show here March 2, as they will see show animals from all over the world. They also plan to see the rodeo Saturday night.

Browning has recently taken the position of vocational agriculture teacher, replacing his brother, Buford Browning. A 1936 graduate of the Department of Agriculture of Texas Technological College, he is qualified for his work and is showing a great interest in the FFA boys.

LESLIE BROWNING,
Vocational Agriculture Instructor
in Snyder High School.

This Golden Anniversary (1946-1946) Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show, which will be held in Fort Worth, March 18, through 17, is the oldest and largest livestock exposition in the Southwest.

Features of the show will include the original indoor World Championship Rodeo, Gene Autry in person, the Anheuser-Busch eighthorse team of Clydesdale horses, a horse show, jumping horses, and the Earl Carroll Vanities which will be held daily in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. There will be around 3,500 head of livestock at this show, and a special aviation exposition. Free exhibits will be on the show grounds.

Tractor Owners Meet Wednesday Night For Show

Sixty-five owners of Ford-Perguson Tractors and fourteen guests viewed "Talking Sides with Nature," a new motion picture released by Harry Ferguson, Inc., Detroit, Michigan, and shown here by the Scurry County Tractor Company on Tuesday night, March 5.

The occasion for the showing of this film was the annual owner meeting sponsored in cooperation with the distributor for this area and the factory. General theme of the meeting was "Getting the Most Out of the Ferguson System." Another motion picture film entitled "Flexible Farming" showed the use of the four basic Ferguson implements—the plow, cultivator, tandem disc harrow and the tiller.

The care of tractors and implements was covered during special presentation, refreshments were served and Door Prizes were awarded both owners and guests.

According to Mr. Worrell, Ford tractor dealer here, this meeting is the counterpart of thousands of similar meetings being held throughout the United States for owners of the Ferguson equipment.

On the basis of the economic prospects for different sections of the country, I feel that the best areas will be in the Southwest. Far West and Southwest. Prospects appear only fair in the Middle East, Central States and Northwest. The least favorable section from the standpoint of future prospects is the New England area.

One of the Best Wells In County Completed

One of the best wells in Scurry County's Ira-Sharon pool has been completed in the northwest one-fourth of Section 100.

Watson Oil Company No. 7-A, which was shot with 150 quarts from 1,675 to 1,750 feet, NW 1-4 Section 100, flowed four hours before the control head was put on.

This well flowed 100 barrels in four hours to completely fill storage tank erected.

Operators express the opinion this well is one of the best in the pool, and this week is flowing by heads every five or six hours.

Brad Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thompson Jr. was born in the San Angelo hospital, Sunday, February 24. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thompson of Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Curry of San Angelo.

INTEREST AND HOPE SPREAD INSECURING NEW POST OFFICE

HUNDREDS OF CITIZENS JOIN DRIVE, AND HISTORY OF POST OFFICE ALLOCATIONS IN AREA DISCUSSED BY WORKERS

In a move that has rapidly moved from an almost inaudible street discussion to a throng of workers, the desire of people here to secure a much needed Post Office building seems to be gaining ground in at least one respect—the number taking part in the drive.

The Times office has been besieged by visitors, phone calls and letters this week on the project, and although not as fully and thoroughly versed in the inner-workings of the big move as are most of the citizens that have been here for longer lengths of time, it is at once made aware of the need of a good federal building.

Pointing to the fact that Snyder is one of the oldest towns in this district, and basing their statements on studies they have made, many citizens allude to pre-war figures that should have caused a federal building to be standing here at the present time. At different times, one enthusiastic booster relates, Snyder was top-ranked in its postal receipts before the war, although failed to receive due consideration from the National Capitol. Research into all the phases will of course be made immediately by The Times, and findings placed before readers as they exist.

If out-ranked at all for its place in the sun in temporary figures, Snyder's permanent and solid population will of course out-distance any competition based on war-inflated, fluctuating population, and gain what it has long rightfully deserved.

Snyder Warehouse Blaze Hits $85,000

GI's Meet Here Monday Night To Form Club

In a meeting that attracted attention throughout this entire area, Scurry County ex-service men met here Monday night at 8:00 o'clock to form what is likely to be the first civic club of its kind in the nation, and in the general open meeting were joined by other citizens of the county, both men and women, showing an interest in the work planned by the GIs.

Preliminaries of the club were executed without delay, and the first officers selected. Included in the term-holding officers chosen by popular vote of the group were Colonel Tim O. Cook, president; Johnnie Beren, secretary and treasurer, and Bernard Longbotham, chairman.

In a temporary board of eleven members selected by the body vote to formulate plans for presentation at another meeting to be held Friday night, a final decision was reached to place a vice-president in the club, who will be selected in the forth-coming general meeting.

The 12 temporary directors who will serve until the permanent men are selected, which action will probably take place as soon as the by-laws of the club are rounded out and accepted by the new club, are N. R. Clements, Richard Brice,

Loss Does Not Count Against Insured Losses

City's Low Fire Loss Record Remains Intact—Large Crowd Turns Out for Conflagration

Snyder's worst fire in about three years started by an unknown source Sunday night at about 7:00 at the cotton warehouse at the Oil Mill site. According to Bob Terry, warehouse manager, the cotton was valued at approximately $85,000 and was a total loss. The fire boys saved about $5,000 worth of cotton picked on the grounds outside the warehouse. The cotton was government cotton which was fully insured.

The warehouse, which was property of the Sweetwater Cotton Oil Co., Sweetwater, Texas, was completely destroyed.

Although this warehouse was located outside the city limits the Snyder Volunteer Fire Department answered the call and fought the fire for several hours. According to N. W. Autry, Snyder fire chief, the local fire boys laid about 1,500 feet of hose in attempting to extinguish the flames.

According to city firemen the fire had possibly been burning for several hours before discovery and the alarm turned in which gave the local firemen little opportunity to save the cotton and building.

Fire and smoke could be seen for several miles, which attracted a large crowd that hindered local firemen in fighting the fire as the fire boys could not lay their hose and spot the trucks.

Rev. Bill Mason, main speaker at the Lions Club dinner last Tuesday, talked on his first impressions of Snyder. He said that among the first things that caught his attention were the good highways and equipment, the up-to-date schools and school equipment, the modern churches and the progressive young people who showed such fine citizenship. He said that he was favorably impressed by the Scurry County Courthouse, but not by its grounds, and he stressed the need for an adequate water supply to provide for better lawns and gardens.

Rev. Mason added that he would like to see the Chinese Elm and Locust trees replaced by peach trees, which would be more beneficial to the town. He said that he would like to become a part of the progressive Snyder element and help in getting civic improvements.

Sam Williams, president of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, stated that his first impressions of Snyder were very similar to Mason's and mentioned the fact that he had had a great interest in Snyder since 1917. Williams read several telegrams from Congressman George Mahon in regard to a new post office, and said that Snyder had been promised a new post office building for 20 years.

Lion Long mentioned the organization of a Lions Club at Slaton with 30 charter members. He also announced the next Lion zone meeting, which is to be held March 21, at Lamesa.

N. T. Underwood, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said that Congressman Mahon had committed himself as favoring that the new federal building be located at Snyder. Underwood also stated that the magician show sponsored by the Lions Club netted the club $36.40.

Harold Lewis Wade played the piano for the luncheon, and Mr. Bill Mason entertained the club members with two accordion selections, "Cello Lindo" and "Continental Waltz."

P. A. Kewon was accepted as a new member of the Lions Club, and Frank Teagarden attended the dinner as the guest of Sam Williams.

Sgt. Othel E. Cumble is home on a 90-day leave. He has spent 27 months in the service, 21 of which was spent overseas in France, Holland, Belgium and Germany. Othel is the son of Mrs. W. S. Cumble of East Snyder.

Consumers Need To Save Ration Book Number 4

Every Snyder and Scurry County consumer is cautioned to save, by all means, their War Ration Book—even after they use Sugar Stamp No. 39.

Stamp No. 39 is the last sugar stamp, but spare stamps will be utilized for sugar later on. Every consumer will need their ration book for sugar—so be sure and hang on to same.

So states the Office of Price Administration, which issues the following statement on the sugar outlook:

The acute world sugar shortage is expected to ease only slightly in the coming year, according to Department of Agriculture reports. Cuba and Puerto Rico will contribute a little more than we got from them last year. But the Philippines and Java will be slow in getting back into production.

Total sugar available for rationing in the first three months of this year was about a third less than last year. The first shipment of Cuban and Puerto Rican sugar are coming in now. But our reserves are at an all-time low—so even when it reaches our grocery shelves, sugar will be anything but abundant.

That means housewives will have to continue guarding the family sugar bowl—and stretching every spoonful as far as it will go. Sugar Stamp 39 will have to last until April.

Farm-to-Market Roads Becoming Reality in Scurry

With a $58,000 farm-to-market project under way in the Fluvanna community, northwest part of the county, Scurry feels that it has a good start in the Texas farm-to-market road program, which is this week rolling along at an increasing pace.

Substantial progress, incidentally, has been made by the State Highway Department in the actual construction of the tremendous post-program.

Seven months ago, Scurry County recall, the commission, in cooperation with the commissioners courts of the state, selected the system of 7,206 miles of farm-to-market roads the State Highway Department was to improve with funds that will be available in three years following the war.

Three months after selection of these roads—including the Fluvanna project, V-J Day came along and 30 days later the highway department held its first post-war letting contracts.

The highway department has steadily moved forward with a letting each month to place this work under construction.

Bids have been received on work involving $2,150,000. This provides for 258 miles on 28 different roads involving Scurry and 30 other counties.

All farm-to-market roads will be dustless, two-lane roads with bridges of adequate strength to carry the normal amount of traffic that may be involved.

Maintenance of these roads will be the responsibility of the State Highway Department, The Times learns.

Counties furnish the right-of-way, which varies from 70 to 100 feet in width, depending upon the drainage that may be involved on the prospective roads.

With a favorable summer construction season, the winter of 1946 will see many of these roads in operation, the State Highway Department says.

The Second Annual Junior Fat Stock Show got off to a fast start Saturday morning with the FF/ and 4H Club boys and girls showing approximately 120 animals. The show officials estimate that 6,000 people viewed the animals; some of the visitors coming from as far as Fort Worth and Dallas.

Hugh Taylor, president of the Scurry County Junior Livestock Association, sponsors of the show, said, "The show was a great success and the animals brought more money this year than last." Mr. Taylor

Due to circumstances beyond our control, The Times was unable to get complete pictures of the prize-winning animals; therefore, we will not be able to show prize-winning animals with their owners.

war'd The Time to extend his thanks to all the folks of Scurry County and neighboring counties on their fine support and co-operation. He also asked that all bills against the show be presented to the county agent's office by Saturday.

Officials of the show estimate that the show animals sold for around $10,000 on the auction block. All the grand champion sales were hotly contested: the grand champion calf which belonged to Bruce Cox, of Fluvanna, was bought by Charles Weiborn of Snyder Implement Co. and Weldon Johnson of Snyder at 45c a pound, weight 830 pounds. The calf won two ribbons, grand champion $15.00 and first place in the milk-fed class, $25.00.

The grand champion lamb which belonged to "Sugar" Cox of Fluvanna sold to Sweetwater Cotton Oil Co., of Sweetwater. The bidding was hotly contested on this animal which weighed 100 pounds and sold for $1.00 a pound. The buyers returned the lamb to "Sugar" after purchasing it. The lamb won $10.00 for grand champion and $15 for first place. "Sugar" carried away one grand champion, two first places, second place and third place in sheep. "Sugar's" reserve champion lamb was bought by Richard Parker of Snyder at 40c a pound, weight 129 pounds.

The grand champion hog belonged to Billy Pylant of Fluvanna. It sold to Don Robinson, Allis-Chalmers dealer, for 35c a pound. See "STOCK SHOW" page Seven

Twelve Businesses Approved For GI On-the-job Training

Some 13 Snyder businesses have been approved for on-the-job training under the G. I. Bill of Rights, says Bernard Longbotham, Jr., Scurry County Service officer. These businesses, which have been approved by the Veterans' Administration, include: The Snyder National Bank, The Scurry County Times, Jack Caldwell's Tailor Shop, Joe Graham's Tailor Shop, Snyder Steam Laundry, Frank Arnett's Garage, Moore's Cabinet Shop, Buchanan's Tin Shop, Jack Keeler's Garage, Ewell Motor Co., King and Brown Electric Service, and Pete Benkenke's Boot Shop and West Texas Plumbing.

"Due to the fact that employment is on the decline there is no reason why any young veterans should not seek training under this program and learn some worthwhile trade and draw subsistence while learning," Longbotham says.

Country Club Loses Caretaker Dwelling

Fire of undetermined origin, which was discovered Wednesday night at 8:35 o'clock, burned a four-room frame house of Snyder Country Club to the ground.

The structure, located two miles northwest of town, was unoccupied at the time.

The blaze had such a head start it was impossible for firemen, when they reached the scene, to save the house.

Forgers and Drunks Picked Up by Law

Sheriff Earl Strawn reports this week, one man picked up at San Angelo for forgery here at Snyder and two drunk fires assessed in justice of the peace court.

G. H. Peel, who is in custody of the sheriff's sheriff for forgery, was given two years at Colorado City Monday for forgery.

LOCAL RED CROSS NEEDS WOMEN WHO CAN SEW, KNIT

Women who can assist the local Red Cross in knitting or sewing are badly needed, according to Mrs. Parr, production chairman of the local chapter, who reports that a large quota of sweaters remains unknitted at the present time and 100 children's unlined caps must be completed by March 31.

Ladies are asked to come to the production room at the Red Cross building, which is open every week-day through Friday from 9 to 5 o'clock and Saturdays until 12 o'clock. All who can help with this work will be welcome, Mrs. Parr says.

J. W. (Tex) Condon So Told The Southwestern Livestock Show Recently.

EL PASO, Tex., March 7.—The Pacific Coast will "call more and more on West Texas and New Mexico for livestock supplies both for slaughter and replacements," J. W. (Tex) Condon told the Southwestern Livestock Show today.

Condon, of Washburn and Condon, Los Angeles livestock market agency, has been named auctioneer for the 17th annual Southwestern Livestock Show, which opens March 26 in El Paso. He has been active in the livestock industry in this part of the country since 1922 and is well known in Texas and New Mexico.

About 2,000 entries are expected in the Southwestern Livestock Show. Members of the Future Farmers of America and the 4-H Clubs will show an array of fat calves, breeding Whatta Job!

If Snyder could secure an explosive plant, some jobs in it could be filled immediately—even with the present shortage of help. There would probably be many early applications for this "executive's position."

Many new jobs were created by the war but one of the most unusual was that of "cotton pantie pecker" in a war plant handling explosives, the National Cotton Council reports.

Women employees in the plant were required to wear cotton panties for safety reasons. And to prevent powder rash these had to be changed every second day. To be sure that the rules were carried out, plant officials had the official unmentionables dyed in three colors—pink, blue and yellow.

The girls wore pink on Monday and Tuesday, blue on Wednesday and Thursday, and yellow the last two days of each week. The "pantie pecker" checked daily on the color worn.

TWO NAVY MEN RECEIVE HONORABLE DISCHARGES

Ellington, motor mate second class, of the U. S. S. Robert Lee Pope, sea- manship, of Hermleigh, have honorably discharged from the United States Navy, according to a release from Public Information Office of the Eighth Naval District.

Washington Attorneys Untangling World War II "Busted" Romances

Girls of Scurry and neighboring counties who loved and lost during World War II—and there's more of them than you may think—are intensely interested in the thousands of romances that attorneys in Washington, D. C., are already untangling.

Attorneys, in fact, are untying many romances to decide whether sweethearts may collect widows' pensions and their children's benefits.

Under special scrutiny this week are hundreds of proxy marriages to which GI Joe resorted when he was about to be shipped overseas and wanted to marry the home-own sweetheart he was leaving behind.

Not a single claim arising from an American proxy marriage has yet been held valid by U. S. Courts, attorneys for the Veterans Administration report.

Widow and child claims also hinge on such things as common law, polygamous and tribal marriages, as well as "affairs of the moment."

At stake are widows' pensions for such girls as the ones in Great Britain that American doughboys met loved but couldn't marry legally because of war and the rules of their commanding officers, before they were off to Normandy.

"The United States is trying to lean over backwards—may, we sometimes fall over backwards—in interpreting some of these claims in favor of widows and children," said one attorney on the staff on Edward E. Odum, Veterans Administration solicitor.

The claim experts in some cases, call a child legal but don't recognize the marriage.

"In other words, there are no illegitimate children," they explain. "We don't believe in visiting the sins of the father upon the children."

Many British girls cannot collect widows' pensions because of this ruling, but their children are receiving children's benefits from the U. S. government.

Children's benefits are paid:

1. If the marriage of a Yank to a foreign girl was legitimate. In such a case, the girl receives a widow's pension, too.

2. If the marriage was not legitimate but the soldier acknowledged in a casual letter or other writing that he was the father of the child; or if he was ordered by court to support the child.

3. If lacking indisputable proof the Veterans Administrator believes the child to be the offspring of an American soldier.

Proper Food In Diet Necessary For Good Health

Texas State Health Department Interested in Pellagra Prevention.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 7.—(From the Texas State Department of Health)—(That the inclusion of proper foods in the daily diet plays a very important part in the maintenance of good health was stressed in a statement issued this week by Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer.

"One of the most dreaded of all diseases, pellagra, is caused entirely by not eating the kinds of food which would insure a properly balanced diet," Dr. Cox said. "The public is prone to overlook the serious nature of pellagra. At best it is an uncomfortable and unpleasant disease, but aside from this, there is one possible result that can be very tragic. All too frequently pellagra leads to serious mental disturbances," Dr. Cox warned, "and in some cases, actual insanity."

According to the state health officer, pellagra is known as a disease which is no respecter of persons. There is danger of pellagra striking at any age and either sex when the diet is consistently faulty.

To make sure that the diet contains the proper pellagra preventive elements, it should include daily plenty of pure milk, some fresh, lean meat, and as many fresh vegetables, especially green vegetables, as possible. Tomatoes and whole wheat bread are also very valuable and eggs contribute their share to pellagra prevention, as do all varieties of fresh fruits.

Historical Society Seeks Old Cattle Registered Brands

Such Books Are No Longer In Use Because of Legislative Act

AUSTIN, Texas, March 7.—Books in which cattle brands were first registered in Texas—now no longer in use because of a legislative act—are being sought by the Texas State Historical Association for preservation in the University of Texas archives.

Two years ago the legislature voided all existing county brand books, and decreed that all cattle brands must be re-registered in each county by October 1, 1945.

Dr. H. Bailey Carroll, acting director of the Association and an associate professor of history at the University, wrote to county officials asking that the books be sent to the association for permanent keeping.

Uvalde county has been the first to respond, he reported. Two leather-bound, hand-written books with records dating back to 1856 have been received from County Clerk H. H. Carmichael.

"These books should be kept in the university's archives, not only to preserve their historical value, but also aid in research and study," Dr. Carroll said.

Snyder Pals Meet In New Jersey, Say They Miss Home

West meets West up East in New Jersey, when Pfc Jesse E. Everett, son of Dorey Everett, and Sgt. Kenneth H. Snyder, son of Homer Snyder, get together on week-ends in Trenton, New Jersey. The two Snyder boys report that they feel much nearer home since they met about a month ago in Penn Station, New York City. Since then they have been meeting in Trenton for old-home-week, which includes a discussion of the latest local news and reminiscences of high school football days.

In a letter, "To Whom It May Concern," addressed to The Times office, they write: "We're a couple of Snyder boys who receive the Snyder paper regularly. We read of some of our friends and learn where they are now in about every edition. It certainly helps to know the whereabouts of some of our old chums. . . . We wish to say that we sure miss Snyder and all the folks there, and hope it isn't too many months until we are back home to stay."

Snyder and Everett attended Snyder High School together, where they participated in football and other sports, and they write that they hope to be out of the service and home for the football season this fall.

Everett is stationed in Brooklyn Navy Yard, N. Y. C., where he is a private first class in the Marines. Snyder, for the Army Air Forces, is now stationed in the separation center in Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Mmes. D. W. Beene and Inez Brown, and Misses Beverly Johnston and Patsy Moore went to Sweetwater shopping Saturday.

The recent outburst of thefts and burglaries in the Panhandle area accents the problem of juvenile delinquency. Criminologists will tell you that an adult criminal is, more often than not, simply a juvenile delinquent come of age.

We have laws and law enforcement agencies to deal with the problems when it reaches such anti-social proportions. But the problem of mounting lack of discipline and sense of perspective in the youth of today poses a question of really more serious nature, both because it is beyond the pale of the law and because it represents a change in the social trend.

Many of the citizens of Canadian and this area are prone, when discussing this subject, to say our school systems are at fault, or our churches are at fault. Perhaps, to some degree, they are. But doesn't the main fault lie with us, the parents of today?

First of all, let us take the position of the schools. We, the adults, are responsible for our school systems because we elect the board which handles it, and we set the taxes which pay the bill. Our teachers are woefully underpaid in this expensive world. If we want good, forceful teachers — and many who now serve us are every bit as good as we need — then we must pay the wages it takes both to secure that type of personnel and to give those we have secured an incentive to work hard.

Secondly, let us speak of the churches. More of both our youth and our adults are attending services today than in many years. Where are we failing? We fail because we, the adults, will not accept our Christian responsibility and work in the church. Every School in Canadian needs more workers. And when those who do work approach someone for help, they are too busy. But they are not busy to mourn the juvenile problem.

And lastly, let us think of our homes. Are we making homes which entice our children to want to be there? Are we keeping our sense of balance in tune with proper discipline and justice? The recalcitrant child in public is generally recalcitrant in private, as well. Only you and I in the privacy of our homes can answer that question. Only you and I in our homes can do anything about it.

There lies the crux of the juvenile delinquency problem.—The Canadian Record.

Editorial of the Week

PRAIRIE PEDAGOGUE

A human-interest story printed the other day in a Kansas newspaper goes a long way toward explaining why, in spite of the considerable cost of training and with inadequate compensation our universities continue to turn out teachers.

The article recounted briefly the story of Howard R. Barnard, now city librarian at LaCrosse, Kansas, who came from New York in the early 'eighties, attracted by opportunities for life on the Great Plains, and took a job as a cowboy. But Mr. Barnard, who came from a family of distinguished educators, soon discovered that many of his saddle-mates could neither read or write, and set about teaching them the Three R's. Soon his classes were augmented by the home-steaders' wives.

When he came into a modest fortune, he was able to realize his ambition to establish an ideal rural school. He opened the Entre Nous school, located with a view to serving the largest possible number of settlers within the area, and sent around a wagon to pick up his pupils. Tuition was free, Mr. Barnard shouldering the entire expense. For eight years the school flourished. Then came financial reverses and Mr. Barnard's fortune was swept away. Undeterred, he went back to teaching in the rural schools, and generations of children absorbed the fundamentals of culture under his kindly tutelage.

A decade beyond the Scriptural threescore and ten, Mr. Barnard has lived to see the seed he has sown bear fruit in Kansas and many other states. For they will tell you at LaCrosse that his strategically located college was the forerunner of the present-day consolidated school, and that the conveyances which the settlers good-naturedly dubbed "kid wagons" were the inspiration of the modern school buses.—Christian Science Monitor.

Lawn RECORD: A government trapper, who relates a 27-year experience, states that there isn't a mountain lion in the Cedar Gap section and he also states the hideous cries were probably made by a horned owl. His opinion is that this species of animal never makes such sounds.

In 2,760 counties, making up 90 percent of the total of 3,072 U. S. counties, there are no cities of 25,000 population or over.

OUR VITAL TEXTILES

Each of Scurry County's 1,350 farmers is vitally interested this week in announcement from Washington that senators are investigating a shortage of cotton clothing. Especially are farmers of this immediate vicinity interested in the statement that OPA is driving low-priced imports.

While our senators are conducting their investigation of the textile shortage, they might well add another chapter and find out why textile workers who insist on keeping strikes renewed are not on rock piles—or in solitary confinement.

Mills already have so many back orders on cotton goods that it will be many months, at the best, before the average citizen has much relief from the present shortage. Shortage of textile means, indirectly, a better market for our cotton crop and it will indeed be to Scurry County's interest, now and for all time, to find out why and how the textile shortage can be rectified immediately.

ON EATING LESS

President Harry S. Truman's appeal to all Americans to eat less in order that we may ship more food abroad will doubtless constitute, when citizens indicate cooperation, one of the greatest humanitarian moves since World War II came to an eventual close.

Since America has the greatest production facilities of any nation on earth, and since agriculture and science have advanced at least a century during the war years, there is no reason why we cannot banish hunger from the earth and have our neighbors in every quarter of the globe well nourished and in good health.

Our agricultural progress during the past six years amounts, practically, to an industrial revolution and with the right guidance and financial backing we can live in a world where the disease of malnutrition will never, again, be known. We must, though, not only believe in the Christian principles of being our brother's keeper—if we feed the world—but we must practice those principles in all our international dealings.

OUR ANNUAL HEADACHE

Income tax paying time is not only with us, again, but citizens of Snyder and Scurry County will have bigger headaches than ever in computing their annual tribute to the federal government because of an evidently widespread confusion on total taxes each must pay to Uncle Sam.

Income tax paying time should not be such a tremendous headache, but with social security, withholding taxes and other complications, our income situation leaves the average person, to say the best, muddled. . . . Too, the matter of exemptions and deductions are rather important, and only income tax experts can safely guide us through the March 15 deadline.

Even with the tax burdens we have to bear, we should all be grateful to live in a land so blessed by God and Nature that it is, today, the only nation of abundance on this earth. With such a rich heritage as a background, we surely cannot object too strongly to paying enough income tax to keep the government operating and acting as our sanctuary and strength in time of need — of the past five years — of war.

In Central Australia some bushmen believe they can help perpetuate themselves by anointing themselves with the fat of the kangaroo.

GOV. COKE STEVENSON

Stock Show Will Feature Texas
Gov. Stevenson

Scurry County people attending the Fort Worth Exposition and Fat Stock Show will have an opportunity to see Governor Coke Stevenson 'strut his horseanship' in the grand parade March 8th, when the Exposition formally opens. He will participate in an all-mounted parade and preside over the opening ceremonies of the golden anniversary of the Southwest Exposition and Fat Stock Show.

Invitations for the governor to open the exposition were extended by Amon G. Carter, vice president of the show, and Edgar Deen, general manager. The governor will speak briefly to more than 6,000 spectators in the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum at 8 p. m., formally opening the world championship rodeo.

Near the head of the parade will ride a typical son of Texas, Gene Autry, singing star of western movies and rodeo impresario, who will be the star of the rodeo during the ten-day stock show season. It will be like a homecoming for Autry who was born at Tioga, a few miles north of Fort Worth in Grayson County.

I Give You Texas

BY BOYCE HOUSE

The only diamond mine in North America is in Arkansas.

Your columnist visited the mine, back in 1925. I hired a service car and drove over from Nashville, Ark. The highway passed through a huge peach orchard, said to be the biggest in the world. Folks said it was divided up into streets and avenues so it was no trouble to find any particular worker during the picking season as a record was kept in the office and they knew he would be working on 23rd Street near Avenue M, or something like that.

The diamond mine is near Murfreesboro. The field was discovered by a farmer in 1907. As the story was told to me, the farmer was recovering from a fever and was sitting under a tree when some of the children, who were plowing, turned up a peculiar stone, which he noticed. The rock proved to be a diamond which sold for $2,500.

On the day of my visit, as we approached the town, the driver crossed a railroad track without looking in either direction. At my exclamation, he said, "Oh, they don't have but two trains a week, Monday and Thursday, and this is Saturday."

Surrounding the diamond mine was a solid fence and the gate was opened by a man who had a rifle. Our credentials proving satisfactory, we were admitted and walked about the place with a guide. There were armed men pacing up and down close to that high board fence like sentinels. There was a sifter through which the rocks were run and the diamonds were sorted out. Your observer was shown 20 or so and had the privilege of letting them trickle through my finger. I sorter thought they might give me one as a trifling souvenir of my visit but they didn't—of course, I wasn't expecting a diamond of the headlight size, just a modest little half-carat one.

There were really diamonds in the rough and it would take a trained eye to see that they were precious stones just waiting to be cut and set into rings and bracelets.

No accurate figures on the total output have ever been published but the Smithsonian Institute reported in 1928 that 10,000 diamonds with a conservative value of $150,000 had been taken from the field.

By GEORGE MAHON

This is being written as I return by train from Perryopolis, Penn., where I have been to attend the funeral of Congressman J. Basil Snyder, who died suddenly at the age of 68. Mr. Snyder was chairman of the House Subcommittee on Military Appropriations.

Having served on this subcommittee myself with Mr. Snyder, I was one of the group appointed by Speaker Rayburn to attend the funeral. Several Pennsylvania members, including Senator Guffy, was present. The Secretary of War was also in attendance.

It was Mr. Snyder's committee that handled the atomic bomb project, appropriating the money and co-operating with the War Department on the venture. One of the highlights of my association with Mr. Snyder was in connection with this subject and the trip which he made through the atomic bomb plant in Tennessee last May.

Mr. Snyder had long been a resident of Perryopolis, a little town of 1,500 people in an agricultural and coal mining area of Pennsylvania. There was character and kindness in the faces of the people at the funeral. I was reminded once again that the rural areas and little towns make a large contribution to the greatness of America.

Today the House Appropriations Committee put the final touches on the Annual Agricultural Appropriations Bill. The bill is scheduled to be voted on in the House on March 6th and go to the Senate for action there.

Some of the provisions which we have put in the bill which will interest West Texans are the following:

AAA fun which are paid to producers for co-operating with the Soil Conservation program will be about the same as last year—$300,-

Nazarene Pastor Returns From Pastors Meeting

Rev. Paul Inglis, pastor of Snyder's Church of the Nazarene, Mrs. Inglis Church of the Nazarene, Mrs. Inglis, Model Robinson and child returned last Thursday night from Abilene, where the group attended, from Tuesday through Thursday, the Abilene District Nazarene Pastor's Convention.

Dr. Hardy C. Powers, general superintendent, addressed the meeting as one of the principal speakers.

A Sunday School worker's convention was held at the church last Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Reverend Inglis reports that the pastor's convention is held annually by the ministers of the Churches of the Nazarene of this entire district.

In his messages to the Snyder attendees and others, Dr. Powers presented as a challenge to the church the commission and scope of the gospel. He said it is world-wide and the church must accept the challenge or fail as the only hope to meet the present world needs.

Dr. Powers is one of the outstanding Nazarene speakers in the state.

000,000. This is, of course, the largest single item in the entire bill. An additional $250,000,000 is provided the REA for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1946. When this is added to other funds recently made available, it will insure a tremendous expansion in rural electrification.

The sum of $25,000,000 is proposed for loans to veterans who wish to buy farms under the Farm Security Administration. An additional sum of the same amount is proposed for the regular loan program to farmers seeking to purchase farms under the FSA.

BRIDE OF LOCAL BOY

MRS. CLYDE W. BOREN

Clyde W. Boren Weds Detroit Girl In Evening Ceremony February 22

Clyde W. Boren of Snyder married Miss Hilda Smith of Detroit, Mich., in an evening candlelight ceremony in the Bethany Presbyterian Church in Detroit on February 22. The church was decorated with basket arrangements of white gladiolus and white carnations, which formed the background for the 7 p. m. candlelight ceremony. White tapers in tall candelabra flanked either side of the altar, and candles in small candelabra graced the side windows. Music for the service was offered by the church organist and the soloist, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Smiling Through the Years." The Rev. Platte E. Amstutz officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white wedding dress with a lace bodice ending in a peplum; the bouffant skirt was of silk organza sweeping into a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a headpiece bonnet of shirred net trimmed with white beads. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and sweetpeas.

Attending the bride were Gladys Prohrup, maid of honor; and Helen Howden, junior bridesmaid. Both attendances wore dresses of white net with fitted bodices, small peplums, and full skirts. Their headpieces were white net bonnets. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of red roses, and the junior bridesmaid carried a colonial bouquet of tallman roses. Fred W. Boren of College Station, Texas, brother of the groom, served as best man, and David Smith, brother of the bride, served as usher.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, was dressed in an aqua crepe street-length dress and wore navy blue accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. C. M. Boren, wore black velvet with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations. The groom, recently discharged from the Army after serving in India, wore his uniform for the ceremony.

The wedding reception was held at the American Turners of Detroit. Decorations were white, and the wedding cake topped with a white wedding bell suspended from an arc of white rosebuds. A buffet dinner was served to the guests.

After the reception, the couple left for a three-week honeymoon through the southern states. They will make their home in Snyder, Texas.

Girl Scouts of America To Observe 34th Anniversary On March 12th

On March 12 the Girl Scouts of Scurry County and America will observe their 34th birthday, and in the history of this nation no worthier organization for womanhood has been started than the Girl Scouts.

We have always looked upon women as not only noble persons but people who uphold the Christian ideals of this world. If we continue to look on women as the finest humans this side of heaven we will have to continue clean, wholesome and character building programs for our girls. In their formative years, when impressions are being made that will last a lifetime, our girls need enduring youth programs like the Girl Scouts to make them clean, Christian women in the world we will have to face tomorrow.

Naturally, the day and age has long since passed by when girls, like small boys, were supposed to be seen and not heard, and it has never been sane doctrine to penalize teen-age youths by repressing their activities and blighting growing bodies by not allowing plenty of fresh air, plenty of exercise and plenty of enjoyable entertainment. Girl Scouts, Scurry County and the nation salutes you on occasion of your 34th birthday, and to you, as torch-bearers, we place our dependence for a finer, nobler and more humane world ahead.

In reading, rather diligently, the Charter of the United Nations, one concludes from the government bulletin that if all the unnecessary testimony was deleted from the publication, as well as needless testimonials, and the concrete purposes of the organization were set down on fewer pages, the average persons would be much more interested in seeing the United Nations go forward. A total of 398 pages are utilized to say what could well be said in not over 25.

The Big Spring hospital project, as well as others in the Dallas Area, has been turned over to Army engineers by the Veterans Administration.

Gwynette Gadwood, an astrologist—Joann M. Glau.
Aunt Hettie Higginbotham, Sylvia's aunt—Janet Martin.
Whaley M. Whorter, Sylvia's fiancée—Louie Vaughn.

Hargrove Recalls Horror of Prison, Joy At Freedom

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas, March 7.—(From Brooke Army Medical Center)—Master Sgt. Carl S. Hargrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hargrove, 1900 Ave R, Snyder, Tex., and a liberated prisoner of war of the Japanese, is a patient at Brooke General Hospital, Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Sergeant Hargrove, who has been in the Army 6 1/2 years and who plans to make it his career, was attached to the Headquarters Detachment of the United States Forces in the Philippines. He served under General Douglas MacArthur in Manila until December 24, 1941, and then moved to Corregidor where he served, in the gallant defense of the Philippines, both under General MacArthur and General Jonathan M. Wainwright, now commander of the Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston.

General Wainwright, in a recent address to the liberated heroes of Corregidor at Brooke Army Medical Center, said that at no time in the history of the United States has so small a force been so isolated and withstood such a barrage of shell-fire as the Japs poured on them on April 29, 1942, the Emperor's birthday. I was on that day that the defenses of Corregidor crumbled, and General Wainwright praised the men for "standing by me in those dark days and maintaining the highest traditions of our country and our army."

Hargrove was captured with the fall of Corregidor on May 6 and was imprisoned in the Caabanban camp in the Philippines, Tanagawa and Tsuruga in Japan. He weighed 170 pounds when Corregidor surrendered; two years later he weighed 98.

"The prettiest sight I ever saw," he said, "was the day the first American planes came over Tsuruga and dropped bales of food, clothing and medicine for us. MacArthur had warned the Japs on pain of death not to touch any of it, and we all gathered the stuff and turned it in the kitchen. Some day I hope to meet the pilot of that plane. Its name was 'Ready Betta' and I've never seen or heard of it since."

The day that plane was August 28, 1945. From the time of their capture until then, the prisoners had nothing to eat but rice, carrot tops and sweet potatoes—until they were moved to Tsuruga and made to work as stevedores on the docks. Then they were able to "swipe" soybeans from the ships. They soon became so adept at making off with Jap food from the vessels that at one time 15 American prisoners took 140 2 1/2-pound sacks of soybeans without being detected.

Sometimes they were caught, and it meant severe punishment, but "the food was worth it," Hargrove said. The second most wonderful sight was the day the men landed at Yokohama—free Americans once men. "General Eichelberger stood there shaking hands with each of us as we got off the train," he said. Everybody went crazy. They took us down to quartermaster and served us hotcakes and bacon, but we were too excited to eat."

Hargrove said they saw their first American planes after the fall

SCHOOL OFFICIALS MEET

Those attending a meeting in Abilene Tuesday, February 26, for the school officials of this district, were: Mrs. Gaston Brock, County School Superintendent; J. T. Bryant, superintendent of Hornsblough, Pymon, and O. Z. Porter, superintendent of Ira schools.

They attended a luncheon at the Windsor Hotel in Abilene.

of Corregidor in January, 1945, when Osaka and Kobi were bombed.

"We felt pretty good about it," he continued. "We were even bombed out once; but no one was and we were glad to see our planes, even if we did have to dodge the incendiary bombs, the first we had ever seen."

"On July 30, we were living in a warehouse on the docks at Tsuruga and were bombed with carrier-based planes and P-51's. The planes came in so low we could see the pilots. Everybody would stand up and wave their hats and cheer until the planes got too close and we had to duck. But the bombs did a lot of damage that day, and our morale really went high."

Hargrove was liberated on September 10, 1945, and returned to the States on October 15, 1945. He wears the Presidential Unit Citation with two Oak Leaf clusters, the Good Conduct medal, the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with two Battle Stars, the Philippine Defense ribbon with one Battle Star, the Combat Infantry Badge, and the American Defense ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark Sr. returned to Snyder Saturday, after being at the Health Resort of Marlin, Texas, for about a month.

Scurry Countians Urged to Support President's Plan

Every Scurry County citizen is vitally interested, because it concerns his own cupboard, this week in President Truman enlisting the aid of Herbert Hoover and other leaders in a campaign to persuade us all to eat less so more food can go to the hungry populations of Europe and Asia.

If you don't think food is mighty important, consider the fact that if each Scurry County person ate a pound less per week we would have 14,000 pounds of food for overseas relief. If this amount were saved every four weeks that would be 56,000 pounds, or 28 tons, for feeding people starving in Europe and Asia.

Hoover earlier gave support to the President's appeal for food saving to cope with famine abroad and expressed belief it was possible to meet the need by voluntary action.

"Our national self-respect and our duties as human beings demand that we do all possible to stop the spread of famine," Truman's telegrams said.

"We have now, in this war, had experience with compulsory rationing and an examination will show that consumption per capita was no greater and probably less under the voluntary system."

In the meantime a well-fed world in the future was forecast by Secretary Anderson.

In the meantime a well-fed world in the future was forecast by Secretary Anderson.

Agricultural and nutritional science have been developed to the point where it is now possible to banish hunger from the earth," the agriculture secretary said in testimony before the house appropriations committee, released today.

Agriculture's wartime progress, Anderson said in advocating a billion-dollar agriculture department appropriation bill, practically amounts to an industrial revolution on the land. From this revolution there is no turning back."

Brown Flour Milling Has Already Started

In an announcement this week for Times readers and other people of this area, the Pioneer Flour Mills at San Antonio report they have started the manufacture of a darker flour under a government order designed to help share short supplies of wheat with the hungry abroad.

Adolph Beckmann, official of the mills, says:

"The principal change will be in the grinding and compounding of the flour. It will not be black flour. There has been some misrepresentation. . . . Actually, there will be little change in the quality of the flour. . . . There will be some brown specks in the flour but that is all."

Promotion Given Kenneth Snyder In Military Services

Kenneth H. Snyder, son of Homer Snyder and grandson of Mrs. A. M. Curry, received the promotion of sergeant, according to an army release. Snyder, who is now stationed at the 20th Separation Center, Ft. Dix, N. J., entered the Army Air Force June 7, 1945.

He spent 13 days in Fort Sam Houston, Texas, before going to Sheppard Field, Texas, for AAF basic training. From there he went to Fort Dix, N. J., in September, 1945.

Snyder was promoted to corporal December 7, 1945 and received the promotion to sergeant on February 15, 1946. He is now in charge of the storage section of outgoing records department in the Separation Center.

Flame Cultivator Will Reach Many Farms This Year

Many Farmers Will Use New Innovation In Operation of Farms

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Manufacturers of the new flame cultivator, a key to the complete mechanization of American farming, have disclosed that quantity production will make the machine available in reasonable numbers for the 1946 cotton crop.

Demand for flame cultivators is expected to be great, the National Cotton Council says, since its successful development will eliminate the laborious tasks of weeding and chopping cotton by hand.

Prive C. McElmore of Montgomery, Ala., cotton farmer who invented first flame cultivator, says he experimented with it because he felt that mechanical cotton pickers never would be used on many farms as long as extensive hand labor was needed for cotton hoeing.

Flame cultivators destroy weeds and grass but do not damage the tough outer covering of cotton stalks.

"It's a buy!—with an OIL-PLATED engine!"

You want an eye-ful of 1946 style. . . . And you're taking in many an earful on chassis features. . . . And you can have an OIL-PLATED engine—a wear-fighter!—by saying one mouthful. . . . Just say you want Conoco Nth motor oil—because you want minimum carbon and sludge, plus fat mileage. Those gains depend largely on wear-resistance, and that's what OIL-PLATING is for. Here is how it works. . . .

In any make of new car—or equally well in your old car—OIL-PLATING will make an addition to inner engine surfaces. That's where it's fastened durably—across the path of wear—by Conoco Nth oil's magnet-like action. This power to OIL-PLATE and protect comes from the added Conoco Nth ingredient. It will add to the safety of your new car investment. . . . It will add to your veteran car's chances! . . . And the cost it adds is a few cents! Get your correct grade of Conoco Nth oil for Spring; see Your Conoco Mileage Merchant. Continental Oil Company

The Grin that Won a War

DON'T LET HIM LOSE IT NOW!

HE WENT INTO BATTLE with a smile and a wise crack . . . he took everything the enemy could throw at him, and suffered in silence when wounded.

We can't let him lose that spirit now. During the endless months of impatient waiting to come home . . . or the long weeks of convalescing . . . thoughts may weigh heavily on his mind.

We at home helped him keep his chin up. When he's back, proudly wearing the little gold eagle, emblem of an honorable discharge . . . will that grin fade? Will that happy-go-lucky smile change to bitterness? The grin that won a global war can win a private one and the Red Cross is ready to help wherever need for its counsel and guidance exists.

Through the long, grueling years of war the Red Cross reached across the sea and extended a friendly hand to our fighting forces . . . and those returning home can find in every local chapter the same symbol . . . the same spirit of helpfulness.

YOUR Red Cross

MUST CARRY ON . . .

GIVE!

This space is contributed by
Texas Electric Service Company in the interest of the American Red Cross Fund Campaign

LET'S TAKE STOCK NOW

Everybody wants goods.

Manufacturers want to make them for you.

Yet months after the war's end, you still find it difficult to get many of the things you want and should have.

So, isn't this the time for all of us to take stock . . . to learn a lesson . . . to find out, if we can, what will cure the troubles we are having and prevent their recurrence?

Let's look ahead and agree on a program that will insure the full production everybody agrees is the real answer to most of our problems.

Suppose we begin by taking a good look at three roadblocks to prosperity..

STRIKES

Whatever their justice or injustice, strikes paralyze production, force people to use up their savings, and result in losses that can never be made up.

PRICE CEILINGS

Full production isn't possible when industry suffers losses because of rising costs and frozen prices. Price ceilings limit production — goods just don't get made.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

Continued huge government spending means continued high taxes. High taxes discourage production, hinder the creation of jobs, and leave you less to spend.

ISN'T THIS THE WAY?

The people, through Congress, can remove these roadblocks in the long-range interests of all . . .

By establishing a labor policy that will treat labor and management exactly alike, and above all be fair to the public;

By removing the shackles of price control on manufactured goods;

By cutting down on government spending now and balancing the Federal budget by the 1947 fiscal year at a level of income and outgo that taxpayers can stand.

Do you believe this program is in the public interest?

Your Representatives in Congress are the only ones that can put it into effect. Tell them how you feel about it.

More Oil Found In 1945 Than Was Produced Here

Scurry County, with 134 producing wells in the Sharon and Ira oil fields, and with an average monthly pipeline run of 32,000 barrels of crude to the Col-Tex Farm in Mitchell County, has a deep interest in this week's announcement on 1945 oil discoveries.
 According to the Oil Weekly's Yearbook Forecast, Houston, more new oil was found or proved to exist in the United States during 1945 than was produced.
 This was in spite of the fact the nation's crude production for the third straight year hit a new high, with 1,710,275,000 barrels produced—an increase of 32,000,000 barrels over 1944.
 World production of crude during the year hit a figure that is likely to remain the peak for several years—2,768,885,000 barrels.

Candidate For Governor

BEAUFORD H. JESTER

Railroad Commissioner Beauford Jester, of Corsicana, Sunday announced his candidacy for Governor of Texas, subject to the Democratic primaries in July.

Touching upon his platform, Jester says: "I am determined to bring prosperity to Texas farms and ranches. We must revitalize Texas agriculture. There must be a continuous program for soil conservation, and I am opposed to price ceilings or cotton. I favor an immediate increase in the price of crude oil . . . public schools must be improved, and I favor increases of pay for public school teachers, salaries in keeping with the valuable service they are rendering."

Further outlining his plan, Jester stated that: "I will strive for a fair deal for both labor and management . . . I favor payment of the $40 per month Old Age Pension as voted by the people of Texas on August 25, last. I favor a building and health campaign for every town and city of Texas to improve the housing and health conditions. I will encourage construction of private homes, particularly for veterans . . . encourage housing projects being done by private enterprise, built by local labor, and financed by Texas money."

"Texas should protect all property rights in submerged oil lands through the guarantee to our state by the annexation contract between the United States and the Republic of Texas. I favor a full and early development of an expanded highway program . . . establishment of feeder airlines in Texas so the towns and smaller cities can be served by air mail, passenger, express and freight service."

I am opposed to the levying of any new taxes."
 Concluding his Sunday announcement, from which the foregoing excerpts have been taken, Jester says: "I am a life-long Democrat, and as such have always supported the nominees of my party."

Correspondent Traces History of Cotton Fabrics

Kathryn Cravens Makes Interesting Discoveries About Cloths Made From Cotton

Memphis, Tenn.
 Most of the cotton fabrics familiar to America have gone all over the world to get their names, Kathryn Cravens, war correspondent and radio commentator who has returned to the United States from Europe, recently informed the National Cotton Council.

For instance, Miss Cravens discovered that cotton denim obtained its name from cloth made in Nimes, a city in southern France, and that it originally was called "serge de Nimes." Denim is the popular fabric used for work clothes, and for cotton underwear that was so popular in fashion in sports clothes.

At Lion, France, she found that the fine white cotton lawn, which has dressed babies and debutantes for many years, was named for the town. Cotton chumbray is so named because it once was manufactured at Cambrai, France, she said. And lisle hose gained its name from the French city of Lille, which once was spelled "Lisle," Miss Cravens added.

 "Buckram, quite a necessary item in the manufacture of women's hats, is named for the city of Bukhara in Asiatic Russia," she said. "Calico was first imported from Calicut, India, and madras for shirts gets its name from a seaport and province in India. Balbriggan, the star with our grandfathers, is named for a manufacturing city in Ireland."

Miss Cravens also disclosed that cotton means, a name which applies to both trousers and a cloth, can be traced back to Genoa, Italy, where it was first manufactured. The American term, "Jeans," comes from the French word, "Genes," from Genoa.

Probably the most unusual textile background uncovered by Miss Cravens was the derivation of poplin, one of the best known cottons. Poplin originally was called "pape-line," which means papal. The word

THE TRUTH ABOUT HOME BUILDING in 1946

IT'S TIME VETERANS AND ALL CITIZENS WERE TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT THE HOME BUILDING SITUATION.

The main bottleneck to home construction is production of materials and equipment.

No legislation, Presidential announcement, government control plan, or system can produce a single additional home until production of materials is speeded up.

Lumber Dealers and the Building Industry are eager to build homes for veterans and all citizens who need them. The reason few homes are being built is because materials are not being produced.

WHY?

1. Governed by OPA's war-time pricing formulas, it is still more profitable for lumber mills to make items formerly required for war use, than it is to make lumber usable in Home Construction.
2. OPA's war-time pricing formulas are still keeping thousands of small mills out of production.
3. OPA's enforcement policies have allowed the creation of a large black market in lumber which is moving outside of regular channels of trade.

4. OPA's slowness in adjusting mill ceiling prices on hardwood flooring, siding, millwork and plywood has contributed to the difficulties mills are having in securing necessary manpower.

With 400 brick and tile plants closed, it took 6 months for OPA to adjust prices. Now an additional 125 plants have opened and production is up 35%.

Clay sewer pipe, cast iron soil pipe and Gypsum board manufacturers have experienced a similar OPA delay in the granting of price adjustments to make increased production possible.

No amount of juggling with an insufficient supply will produce a single home more than can be built with material available.

The OPA can hardly hold present price ceilings when it has no control over volume of employment, labor wage rates, cashing of government bonds, and installment or credit expansion—BUT THE OPA CAN ACT AS A BLOCK TO RECONVERSION BY CLINGING TO UNREALISTIC WARTIME PRICE CEILINGS.

Unblock the production of materials caused by unrealistic wartime price controls and the building industry will build enough homes for veterans and all Americans!

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of materials will simply add additional difficulties to the problem facing the building industry.
