Future Teachers Of America Club Sponsor Beatnik Party

The Future Teachers of America gave a dance and party Saturday night, October 10, in the youth center.

The decorations were simple, but perfectly depicted an expresso house. All chairs were removed and small boxes with checkered table cloths were placed on the floor about the room. Candles in coke bottles were placed on each table. The windows were covered in black crepe paper. A sign was hung over the stage urging persons to join the F.T.A. A sign was placed outside giving the official name for the evening, "The Youth Expresso House."

The guests were all dressed as beatniks and many had grown beards for the occasion. Prizes were given for the best dressed girl and boy, Edna Brunson and Phillip Thompson were selected.

A program was given at 9:30 p. m. Mary Ann Bullard, the club's president, was mistress of ceremonies. Nickey Brazell and Jonn Frank Russell played the bongo drums, Martha Joyce, congo drums; Jimmy Lewis, bass and Jimmy Spearman played the guitar. This group accompanied the others as they read. Carla Shanor gave a version of Edgar Allan Poe's "The Raven." Gloria Evans gave the beatnik alphabet and Sharron Middlebrook read a letter from a beatnik. Cheerleaders Patty Brown and Marsha Plummer did a skit also. Hot chocolate was sold for ten cents a cup.

There was a large turnout for the party and it was considered a big success.

FUTURE TEACHERS THESE CREATURES?

Future Teachers Suffer Hardships

Did you wonder why several girls were wearing fall hats to school during October 12-16?

Even though some of the girls looked like they were going to be in a style show, they really weren't. Of course, this bold fact is hard to believe, but they were only being initiated into the F.T.A.

One hat that was especially noticeable, was worn by Dana Glenn. It was made of straw, and every time that you turned around in the hall, the fringe would hit you in the face.

Dana's hat really was attractive, as it did attract lots of attention. The hat was one of the latest fashions from Mexico. (100 years too late!)

Wearing a hat wasn't the only thing the initiates had to perform. They had to make a little bow to the old members when meeting them in the hall.

In addition to wearing the hats and making a bow, the girls had to give a piece of gum to the old members every time they met them during the day.

As the new members will discover in the future, it was worth enduring the many trials and tribulations to be in a club such as the Future Teachers of America.

Prominent Stars Of CHS Selected To Perform In Junior Class Play

Members of the Junior Play cast were selected Thursday, October 15. The title of the play tells the main plot of the story behind the play. The name of the play is "Seven Nuns A Las Vegas."

This play can be summed up like this. Six Columbas suffered greatly from arthritis. She prayed to the Saint and asked him to move her to a warmer climate. He did. He also moved six other nuns and the convent. He unknowingly sent them to Las Vegas. There the nuns came much excitement and national scandal. They ruin the night club business and become involved with a very prominent business man. Many other hilarious episodes take place and it all ends very well. (For some.)

The play is divided into two acts and the first act has two scenes. It was written by Natalia R. White.

There were sixteen people who tried out for parts. The ones who received parts were Dana Glenn, Sister Edna; Sue Abernathy, Sister Rose; Patsy Brown, Sister Columba; Mary Thomas, Sister Felicitas; Legene Burns, Sister Maria; Loyette House, Sister Anne; Geraldine Brents, Sister Frances; Nick Brazelle, Mr. Edelman; Jimmy Dutton, Priest; Judy Brown, Peaches; Gloria Evans, Sister; Nan Crittenden, Baby; Ann Beth Carroll, Reverend Mother; David Currie, George Green.

The play has been set for December 3, 1959 and rehearsals will be held every week prior to that date. Bob Erwin will direct the play and will be assisted by the student director, Martha Brown.

S. C. Members Installed

The installing of the new Student Council officers and new members took place during activity period, Tuesday, October 13, 1959. This outstanding performance was put on by the present Student Council officers.

"Water Birds", a film shown Thursday, October 16, 1959 during activity period, was a Walt Disney feature. This film was very interesting and educational to the students.

Another outstanding film, "Cardinal Tradition" was shown October 22, 1959 during activity period. The baseball fans especially enjoyed this film.

23 PER CENT FAIL FIRST SIX WEEKS

The Junior class leads the school the first six weeks with the lowest percentage of failures.

The Junior had 19 per cent failing, and the Freshmen were next with 21 per cent. The Seniors were only one per cent high with 22 per cent and the Sophomores lead the failures with 30 per cent of their class failing.

The percentage of failures in the whole school was 23 percent. (Let's see if we can't bring these percentages down next six weeks. Editors Note)

Two Ex-Cranes Join Teaching Ranks

There have been two new contributions made to the teaching profession by the graduates of Crane High School. Those teaching this year are Mrs. Bill Gregory, the former Ann Garner, and Melvin Delaney.

Mrs. Gregory graduated from Crane High School in 1955 and received her degree at Sul Ross. She received many honors while in high school and in college. She served as secretary and parliamentarian of the Texas Student Educational Association, was a member of the Alpha Kappa Phi, was in the house council her sophomore and senior year, was a member of the Kappa Delta Phi, voted class favorite her freshman year and was an all campus favorite her junior and senior year, and was a cheerleader her senior year. Mrs. Gregory is now teaching in Rush Elementary, (Lubbock) where she is a fourth grade teacher.

Melvin Delaney, a prominent and loyal member of the Crane High School Band for many years, is now working as a Band Director at Wilson, just outside of Lubbock. Melvin graduated from Crane High School in 1955, and graduated from Abilene Christian College in 1959, and is now in charge of the elementary junior high and high school bands in Wilson, Texas. While in Crane High School, Melvin's favorite subject was Band, and his hobby was his car. Melvin boxed one year in the Golden Gloves in Odessa.

Nancy Garner returned to Crane for a week end visit. She brought her roommate at Sul Ross College with her.

Burr Wins Award; CIAC Initiation

Kay Burr, a senior, received an Industrial Arts Award from the Ford Motor Company for a project he submitted his Junior year.

Kay's project in the Wrought Metal division was a wrought aluminum bowl for which he received a gold pin.

More than 45,000 projects in 4 different competitive categories were entered in 75 local, regional contests last spring. Of these, 14,266 were sent to Dearborn for final judging.

The Industrial Arts Club had their initiation of the new members. Some of the things the boys were required to do were: roll their levis up to their knees, wear different socks, wear a tie, and part their hair down the middle. The girls were seen wearing different shoes, hair nets, flour or powder and no lipstick.

In Mr. Mayes shop classes the students are starting on their projects for the semester. The freshmen are finishing their baskets.

Mr. Barrett's classes are working with ceramics and leather.

Leanne Turner brought her roommate from college to spend the week end in Crane. They attended the Crane-Alpine game.

Mr. Burnside spent October 16 through 18 in Dallas. Larry Stiger accompanied him on the trip. While in Dallas, Mr. Burnside saw several ex-students of CHS. Among these were Barbara Wagon Sullen Davis, Tom Coffield, and Diana Leaman.

Miss Taylor flew to Farmersville, Texas on October 16 to visit her parents.

Skunk Gets Inquisitive Jr. Historians Scatter

The Junior Historians made a trip to Horseshed Crossing, they saw the old Cowden headquarters and irrigation ditches built years ago.

While observing an old dam, one of the members discovered a little black and white cat in one of the pipes.

Several moments were spent trying to get the animal to come out of his dwelling place. By this time, someone had realized that the little black and white cat wasn't really a cat, but that it was a skunk.

The brave group of historians were still determined to drive the skunk out into the open.

The skunk either became inquisitive, or he wanted to charge everyone up by his grand appearance. Nevertheless, he did come out, but he was the one that got charged up. One of the boys had a hot shot and when he touched the skunk with it, everyone decided that maybe they had charged him just a little outmuch. The brave group scattered but fast!

This is but one of the many unusual incidents that can and do happen on trips made by the Junior Historians.

CORRECTION

It has come to our attention that the information about Rex Wood, editor of the 1953 Annual Staff, which was published in the last issue of The Crane was incorrect. Rex is in the Air Force and is stationed at Tinker A.F.B. in Oklahoma. In addition to his duties at the base, he is attending Oklahoma University at Norman and working on the final hours of his degree.

Right Readers Hereby Commended

The library is open to students at all times, and Mrs. Inez Elmore and her library staff are always willing to help students who need assistance, "but the way some students use the library is disgraceful," quotes Mrs. Elmore, however, most students take advantage of the opportunities offered by the library.

Sammy Taylor, a freshman, and Charles Peek and David Hanley, sophomores, lead individuals who have read the largest number of books this year.

Biographies, adventure, mystery, romance, and hot-rod stories are books that rate as the most popular type of books checked out of the library.

Neither boys nor girls read more books than the other. Also from year to year there is a variation in whether students in the lower grades read more than the students in the higher grades or vice versa.

CHS Ranks High On Iowa Tests

Before you throw your paper down in disgust, read this small bit of praise. Instead of telling you what you have been doing wrong, this story is going to compliment everyone.

In the Iowa tests that were taken last year, all of the classes rated high on a nation-wide basis.

The number of freshmen taking the tests last year were 77. The sophomores had 59 to take the tests, and there were 71 juniors taking them. The seniors had the least number of students taking the tests with 52.

The classes should be proud of the fine job that they did on these tests.

As soon as this year's results are received, they will be published in THE CRANE.

Hallowe'en Originated In Europe

Halloween is a festival celebrated on October 31. Its name means hallowed or holy evening because it comes the day before All Saint's Day. The Church had celebrated All Saint's Day in the 600's, but not on November 1. As time progressed, Halloween began to be celebrated with pranks and parties, and with customs that are a mixture of many beliefs.

The Druids, an order of priests in ancient Gaul and Britain, had an autumn festival. They called their celebration Samhain or summer's end. It was a season for feasting on all the kinds of food which had been grown during the summer.

The modern custom of decorating for Hallowe'en parties with pumpkins, leaves, and cornstalks come from the Druids. The Druids also believed that on hallowe'en, ghosts, spirits, fairies, witches, and elves came out to harm people. They built large bonfires to scare such creatures away. From these Druidic beliefs and customs comes our modern use of witches and ghosts in Hallowe'en festivities.

The early peoples of Europe also had a festival which was somewhat like the Druid holiday. In the 700's, the Church named November 1 as All Saint's festival, or the day honoring all saints. The old pagan customs and the Christian festival were combined into the holiday which people celebrate today as the Hallowe'en festival.

In early times in the United States, Hallowe'en was a time for playing harmless pranks. But in recent years, the once harmless pranks have turned into the damaging of property, endangering human lives, and defying the law.

When asked how she thought she differed from all other people in the world Pat intelligently stated, "My looks!"

CUTE SENIOR LIKES PAUL ANKA AND MYSTICS

Sandra Lee Ward was born in a Methodist hospital in Dallas only days shy of Christmas in 1941. Sandy has grown to be 5' 2" tall, weighs 114 pounds, which is very well-proportioned, and has black hair and brown eyes.

All through her four years in high school, Sandy has been very active. She has been a member of the following clubs: Tennis, Library, Junior Historians, Busy Body, FTA, Rainbow Girls, Political Science and Rodeo. Sandy is the secretary of the band this year and was voted class favorite junior year.

Football and volleyball are Sandy's favorite sports. Band, journalism and any kind of history are her favorite subjects. Sandy favors Miss Davis, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Dickason a teacher.

If you want to please this cute senior, sit her down to a meal consisting of Mexican food, hot rolls, iced tea, and strawberry shortcake. Then you could take her to see "Farewell to Arms" or any show starring Paul Newman and Susan Hayward. Paul Anka, "Star dust", and Oldsmobiles are the greatest, too.

To make the day even more perfect, you could take her swimming and skiing and then to visit a fortune teller. Sandy also enjoys being with her friends.

Sandy's most embarrassing moment was when she dropped the collection plate in church on a wooden floor. Her narrowest escape happened last year when Gayle Swafford was driving her car.

Sandy's most thrilling moment was when she placed second at the Labor Day Beauty Contest in 1958. Her pet peeve is someone who thinks they are so much better than anyone else.

To have lots of money and always be happy are Sandy's life ambitions. "The Crane" wants to wish her the luck in the world to one of the nicest Seniors of 1959-60, Sandra Ward.

Fashionettes

By CARRIE LOU CHANEY

Although the weather has been fairly warm, winter and fall outfits are dotting the halls of CHS. Several people have been spotted wearing wool skirts and sweaters or dark fall cotton dresses.

This week, blue seems to be the predominate color. SHARON MIDDLEBRIK looked nice, as usual, in her blue and gray pleated wool skirt topped with a white sailor blouse.

BEVERLY SHORT was really skirt worn with a blue and gray neat in her blue wool straight print blouse. Over the blouse she wore a blue wool skirt.

Also seen wearing a blue outfit was BARBARA DAVIDSON. She sported a blue and gray straight skirt with a blue wool sweater.

Several beautiful fall dresses were also worn this week. LINDA POOLE, who always looks very smart, had on a brown-print dress with turn-up sleeves and a wide belt. This full-skirted dress really looked cute on her.

FAY DICKSON looked like a doll in her multi-colored dress of red, orange, yellow, brown and green.

Wearing a blue, black, green and brown print sheath dress was GLENDA ISHAM. This dress had big puff sleeves with a tie on each arm. White lace edged the sleeves and the arms, also.

Another darling dress was worn by GLYNDA STEADHAM. Her outfit was a blue full-skirted dress that buttoned down the front.

MARY THOMAS looked good and warm in her brown slack suit. The top had a white wool collar and white wool edged the bottom of the blouse.

The girls are not the only ones who have been dressing neatly. BILLY HOGSETT looked nice in his red base-line sweater. Seen wearing mustard-colored shirts were BILLIE LIVERMAN and SCOTT COFFIELD.

MR. GOTHARD is teacher who always looks exceptionally neat. Keep up the good work, Coach!

All the STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS really looked extra nice Tuesday when they were installed.

EASY GOING SENIOR WANTS TO BE RANCHER; LIKES WESTERNS

BOBBY GENE BRUNSON

Bobby Gene Brunson made his grand entrance into this world August 3, 1941 in Crane, Texas, and he has been here ever since. Bobby has been very active during his high school years. He has been a member of the 4-H Club for nine years, being its president the past two years. He has also been in the Boy's Athletic Club and the "C" Club for four years. Bobby has played football for four years. He plays end position. Bobby had a tough job his Freshman year because he was the sergeant-at-arms of his class. His most thrilling moment was the first time he rode a bull in a rodeo. Getting out of Red's car alive so far — is his narrowest escape.

Bobby is very easy to please and get along with. He has no preference for any teacher. He claims woodwork and P. E. are his favorite subjects.

Bobby's favorite meal consists of steak, gravy, potatoes, and the usual, so he says. Just make sure there is plenty of it.

Any good western is tops with Bobby, but if it stars Glenn Ford, it is the greatest. He also digs "Willie and the Hand Jive".

As we said, Bobby is very easy to please because he does not have a pet peeve, which is very unusual. He does not have a most embarrassing moment either, so believe it or not!

Raising sheep is Bobby's hobby, and he has won a lot of money and honors from it.

Bobby has attended Crane school from the first grade to the twelfth so he is a true Craneite. His ambition is to be a rancher. "The Crane" knows Bobby will be a success and wants to wish a great Senior all the luck in the world.

Crane Football Squad Churn Brilliant Minds

The football team for this year is made up of at least thirty very intelligent boys. Besides attending practice every day and working very hard for the school athletics program, many of the boys find time to study and keep their averages above 90.

There were sixteen boys who play football on the Honor Roll the first six weeks.

The seniors who appeared on the Honor Roll were Bill Liverman with a 90.4 average and Jimmy Leo with an average of 90.4.

Juniors who made the Honor Roll were Roger Liverman, 96.3; Frank Van Court, 95.7; Bobby Honea, 93.8; Gene Griffin, 91; and Charley Wilmoth, 90.7.

Sophomores were Johnny Hoestenbach, 95.8; Scott Coffield, 94.2; John McKinney, 92.7; Charles Bower, 92.2; and Paul Lively, 97.8.

Freshmen were Calvin Kirkham, 94.3; David Williams, 93.2; James Agnew, 91; and Tony Dodds, 90.3.

Football Squad To Select Queen

Who will be the next lucky girl to join the football Sweetheart Hall of Fame? This is one of the anxious questions coming into the minds of all the girls roaming the CHS halls.

Some of the girls in the Sweetheart ranks of the past have been Jill Russell, Jean Shaver, Brenda Owens, Nina Gaye Barr, Lucy Crawford and Sue Ellen Davis.

The football boys will crown the Sweetheart at the homecoming game which will be when the Crane Golden Cranes challenge the McCarney Badgers on El Ave field on November 13, 1959.

22 REPRESENT JRS. ON EL AVE FIELD

The Junior High football team that is representing the Eighth Grade Cranes on the El Ave field are: Lee Conrad, quarterback; Gordon Foyil, halfback; Jay Ivy, halfback; Mike Robbins, fullback; Bill Elder, halfback; Ray Dickson, halfback; Derrell Cone, end; John Fausnacht, end; John McCleary, guard; Billy Butler, tackle; Jan Deem, center; Larry Sheppard, fullback; Eric Tanner, tackle; Jim Brents, guard; Mike Jones, tackle; Ronnie Poole, guard; Davy Dillard, tackle; Jimmy Short, end; Billie Brock, guard; Ronnie Dickson, end; Phillip Thompson, tackle; Billy Pierce, guard.

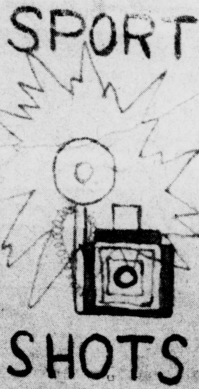

These boys whose names were mentioned above have represented the Crane Schools well. Several more games are scheduled this season.

Crane Juniors Blast Pecos

Saturday morning October 17, 1959, saw the Crane Junior Golden Cranes take their second victory of the season. They defeated the Pecos Junior Eagles by a score of 20-14.

Mike Robbins and Bill Elder scored six points apiece, while Conrad Lee racked up seven.

The Seventh Graders played on the same morning, but lost to a score of 8-0. This was a very hard played game.

FOOTBALL

Football is still in the highlight, with the Crane Golden Cranes downing the Alpine Bucks on El Ave Field October 16 for the first conference game of the season for both teams.

DISTRICT STANDINGS

Crane defeated Alpine. Denver City defeated McCarney. Seminole defeated Ft. Stockton. Games played October 25, 1959. By the time this paper goes to press, this will have already happened.

Crane versus Denver City. McCarney versus Ft. Stockton. Alpine versus Seminole.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

Congratulations to the Junior High Golden Fledglings on their hard-earned victory October 17. Keep up the good work.

BAND UNIFORMS

The new band uniforms surely added a grand flavor to the half-time activities during the Alpine game. Nice going, band.

INJURIES

The Crane Golden Cranes have been plagued with injuries this year. During the Alpine game, Scott Coffield was injured late in the third quarter with a bruised neck. Not seeing action in the game were Richard Hinnant and Bobby Honea. "Punk" Hinnant injured his knee during the Monahans game early in the season, and Bob suffered from a side injury. Speedy recovery to all of you.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Gee whiz, all it seems like everyone harps on here lately is school spirit. I, personally, think that the spirit shown by our student body for the past few games has been pretty good. Keep it up.

Mustangs Defeat Golden "Cranes"

The Golden Cranes met another defeat Friday night in Denver City when the Mustangs scored 29 points in the hard fought game.

The Mustangs are picked to win the District 4-AA Championship this year. They are undefeated for the season, now carrying a 7-0 record.

Starting lineup for the Crane Golden Cranes were LE Bobby Brunson, LT Bill Clark, LG Red Whittaker, C Roger Liverman, RG Bruce Boyd, RT Bill Liverman, RE Bobby Brunson, QB Charles Wilmoth, LH Gene Griffin, FB Paul Lively, and RH Jimmy Leo.

The Cranes were without the help of Billy Liverman, who late in the third quarter was taken from the field by ambulance to the Denver City Hospital, where it was thought he had a mild concussion. They were also without the assistance of QB Scott Coffield who was hurt during the Alpine game.

The Cranes will journey to Seminole to challenge the Indians on October 30.

CHS Band Performs Show Honoring U.I.L.

The Crane Golden Crane Band saluted the 50th anniversary of the University Interscholastic League at the Alpine game, October 16.

They formed a dinosaur and played "The Hawaiian War Chant". The dinosaur represented the first animals that competed against each other. The band then formed the letters "NIL" across the field. From this they made a pennant with a "C" in the middle of it, representing Crane. They then formed a stage, and finally a map of Texas covered the field. "The Eyes of Texas" was played here. They marched down the field and formed a "CHS", which was marched off the field.

At the Denver City game the band performed a precision drill which is similar to the drill they will do at marching contest later this season.

Crane Licks Badgers In Furious "B" Battle

Halfback, Tommy Elliott, and fullback, Johnny Hoestenbach, scored a touchdown each to give the Crane B teamers their first win of the season 12-6. McCarney's only touchdown was set up by a fumble on Crane's own 15 yard line.

Halfback, David Williams, quarterback, Junior Kirkham, and end, Ronnie Spradling, were standouts on offense. Ronnie Spradling, Junior Kirkham, Johnny Pierce, Bennie Clayton, and the rest of the team produced a very thorough defense.

The B team will be looking for their second win of the season when they play Rankin at Rankin.

Marsha Kadish was home from Sul Ross College for the game between Alpine and Crane.

12% OF STUDENTS OWN CARS 12% MAKE THE HONOR ROLL

Approximately 33 students out of the 267 students enrolled in Crane High School own cars.

The Senior Class has the largest per cent of student owning cars. 25 percent of the seniors own cars, next is the Junior Class with 21 per cent.

Some of the automobiles are strange combinations and might be called "Cadillacers," "Oldsmere," and many others. As in the case of Tex Brents, many are a mixture of various makes. When Tex was asked what kind of car he has he replied, "The body is a 1950 Chevrolet, and the rest might be from a de-orbited satellite."

To disprove the old theory that, everyone owning cars spend all of their time making the drag and running around all of the time, 12 per cent of the students that own cars made the Honor Roll.

Most of the car owners have to pay for their own gas. Carla Shanor bought her car and pays for the gas also. As you soon find out when you own a car, there are more expenses other than the gas bill.

Listed below are the students owning cars in CHS.

Freshmen: Clarence Earp: 1950 Custom make.

Ronnie Dickson: 1955 Studebaker.

Jerry Brents: 1950 Chevrolet. Gary Cook: 1953 Ford. Malcolm Wommack: 1956 Chevrolet.

Gary Gay: 1939 Chevrolet and a 1946 Chevrolet.

CRANES INVADE INDIAN CAMP IN 4AA CONFERENCE BATTLE

2 line 24 pt. 2 col Machine

Crane Invade Indian Camp in 4-AA Conference Battle

Starting back with the year 1954-55 we find that the Seminole Indians have only beaten the Crane Golden Cranes one time.

The Indians defeated the Cranes 26-7 in the 1955-56 season, but the Cranes went on to win the district, then on to Coleman to Bi-District, only to be defeated by Stamford in the Quarterfinals.

In 1954-55 Crane defeated Seminole 17-7, then lost to Seminole 26-7 in 1955-56, then in 1956-57 behind the brilliant blocking of ALL-AMERICAN James Byerly Crane whipped the Indians 20-13. Then in 1958-59 Crane slipped by the Indians 8-6.

Seminole, like Crane, has played a tough schedule with rugged opponents. Seminole won their first Conference game with Ft. Stockton 28-0. Crane also took their first Conference game with Alpine 40-0.

In the Crane-Seminole game Crane will not be at full strength and will be the underdog. Halfback Richard Hinnant will probably be out of the starting line-up, but the Crane Golden Cranes will be out to take the Indians in hard fought style.

The Seminole Indians will be guided by Robert Bice, a relatively small junior at 150 pounds. Bice is a southpaw and has started as quarterback for Seminole for the last two years. The other big gun for Seminole is fullback Carol Norton, a senior weighing 185 pounds. Bice and Norton are known as the one-two punch in District 4AA. Norton is probably the most powerful runner in the district and probably was last year, although some will debate that Denver City's John Johnson was stronger.

The Golden Cranes will be spearheaded by ALL-DISTRICT

Jimmy Leo. Leo is a fine broken field runner, a good southpaw passer, and a hot competitor at 150 pounds. Leo could develop into the best half-back in the district.

Crane's line will be backed by Billy Liverman, one of the league's finest tacklers, and Bobby Brunson and Richard Whittaker who don't have to take much from anybody.

Seventh Graders Lose

To McCarney Jrs. 36-22

The Crane Seventh Graders were defeated Thursday evening by McCarney to the tune of 36-22. It was a close-fought game, but no avail.

Scoring for Crane was Glenn Asher, six points, Kenon Foyil, 14 points, and Larry Sheppard, two points.

Mr. Carroll Attends Organization Meeting

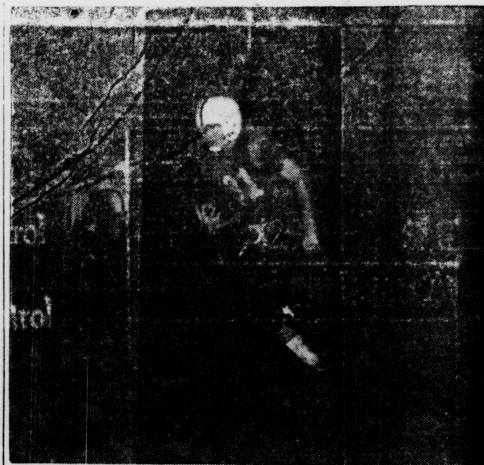

C. A. Carroll, principal of Crane High School, attended a district organization meeting for football in Fort Stockton, October 9th.

Representatives from Crane, McCarney, Fort Stockton, Alpine and Marfa attended. Mr. James Huckabey, Superintendent of Fort Stockton Schools, was elected as chairman for football district 4AA.

Rules for the 1960 football season were drawn up and also the district football schedule was planned.

Coaches Dan Anderegg and Jack Gothard appeared on the television show, Look at Sports, over KOSA in Odessa. Mr. Anderegg was quoted as saying, "We are going to Denver City to play ball, not to shake hands."

Miss Taylor was absent one day due to illness.

LIGHTNING LEO IN AUTHENTIC ACTION — Jimmy Leo scampered 70 yards with a punt return for the first touchdown in the Crane victory over Alpine 40-0.

GOLDEN CRANES DEFEAT BUCKS IN FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

The Crane Golden Cranes were host to the Alpine Bucks on October 16, 1959.

The game proved beneficial to the Golden Cranes as they were victorious. The final score was Crane 40 and Alpine 0.

This was the opening conference game for the two teams in the district 4-AA football championship.

The Crane attack was led by Jimmy Leo, by scoring 15 points. He went 70 yards with a punt return for the first touchdown, 240 then received a pass from Scott Coffield and ran 47 yards for additional points. He kicked three extra points.

The night's pace was set for the winners, when Gene Griffin raced 44 yards on Crane's first offensive play.

Scott Coffield scored on a two-yard plunge, while Frank Van Court and Charlie Wilmoth each made four-yard plunges. Wilmoth kicked one extra point.

The Bucks were limited to five first downs and 61 yards rushing. Crane made 17 first downs, 240 yards rushing and 88 yard passing.

HISTORY-MINDED SCRIBE DIGS UP CHS ODD FACTS

Do you know your school? Do you know where the picture hanging in the library came from, or the story behind the picture hanging in front of the auditorium of L. L. Martin, former superintendent of Crane High School?

Have you ever been so adventurous as to gaze into the trophy cases and note the contents? There are a wide variety of awards in the trophy case. They date as far back as 1934 and right on up to 1959. There are a total of 89 trophies.

The pictures in the study hall were presented to the school by two clubs. The picture entitled "The Craftsmen" was presented to the school by the "Tormentors Club" in 1934. The other entitled "The Oregon Trail" was given to the school by the J. H. Troupers Dramatic Club in 1931-32. Both pictures are very old. They were brought over from the old school after our present school was completed.

The picture of L. L. Martin was a gift to the Senior Class of 1950. It was painted by the late Mrs. John R. Hays in 1951. Mrs. Hays dedicated the picture to Mrs. Inez Burns because she had taken more interest in her painting than any other person.

The picture also stood as an apology from Mrs. Hays to Mr. Martin because she didn't believe him when he promised to build a million dollars worth of school.

The portrait is eight feet tall and four feet wide. It is hand-painted and no measures or rules were used. Mrs. Hays drew the hands and feet from memory with the help of her sons, but the face was drawn from a picture in an annual. Mrs. Hays painted from two to four each evening till the picture was finished.

There are many things about Crane High School that have an interesting story behind them. Find out how well you know your school.

Opinions Varied But Firm On Teenage Marriages

Many students and teachers were quizzed with the question of the week. The opinions were divided, but the ideas were steadfast. We asked the following questions: Do you approve of teen age marriages? What do you consider the proper marrying age? Do you feel that the parents should continue to educate their children after marriage?

MRS. INEZ ELMORE — No, I do not approve of teenage marriages. I think that a girl should be at least 18 and a boy 24 before any serious thoughts about marriage. Teenagers jump into marriage too fast, that's why there are so many divorces. I hate to see a boy and girl marry without a definite future. I feel that if parents are able they should continue their child's education.

EDNA BRUNSON — It just depends on the people. About 20 or 22 is about right though to get married. No, I don't think parents should educate their children after they marry, because they are no longer responsible for them.

GLORIA EVANS — I don't approve of teenage marriages until after college. If the children would like to continue their education, I think the parents should help. COACH GOTHARD — I don't approve but there's not much I can do about it. I think the couple should at least finish high school before marrying. No, I think that the couple should be on their own and have no support from their parents.

MISS DAVIS — I think that when they are old enough to know the true meaning of marriage, which is not until they are much older, is when they are ready for marriage. If the children need the parents help to further their education, I feel that the parents should help as much as possible.

MR. ADKINSON — No, I can't say that I approve, but it is really depending on the case. About 23 or 24 should be about right. Yes, if the person would have continued their education anyway, I think that the parents should help.

CARLA SHANOR — It depends on the person's mental maturity. About 18 or 20 would be about the right age. No, I think they should be on their own as far as finances refuse to say anymore because my mother reads this paper!

SURLEY TOOKE — On the one hand, it depends upon the people involved. Some teenagers mature before others, therefore, some are ready for marriage before others. Between 18 or 20 is the right age, I would say. No, I think that after a boy and a girl marry, they should be on their own. The parents should leave them alone and let them make their own decisions, and not interfere unless they are asked to.

SAM COOK — I don't approve of marriage at all! But I think that by the time you are 30 or 40 you should know what you are doing. Nope, I sure don't think they should send them to school.

MRS. HILL — I'm not like Sam, I am in approval of marriage, but not very often am I in approval of teenage marriages. Not in most cases, should the parents send their children to school.

TEX BRENTS — Well, if it is for real I do, but if it is this thrill stuff, I sure don't go for that. After they finish high school should make them about the right age for marriage. No, after they get married, they are big boys and girls. That means that they should pay for college themselves.

JEFF HENDERSON — Nope, I shore don't approve. 'cause it'll be about three more years, 'fore I start thinking about it. A girl knows what she's doing. If a boy is 20 or 21, why not?

If the parents plan to finance them through life, they should continue to educate them.

Stricter Curriculum Is Planned For Next Year

A. V. Patterson, Curriculum Director, says that there will be quite a change in the curriculum next year. Committees consisting of teachers are going to study reports made of curriculum made last year. They are supposed to make criticisms of the reports by next spring.

Next spring the reports will be sent to Austin where they will be studied very carefully. From these reports from all the different schools in Texas, a new set of laws for curriculum will be made.

MRS. ELMORE MEETS AUTHOR OF NEW BOOK

Robert Heinlein is one of the outstanding science-fiction writers of today, and his stories have appeared in many magazines and anthologies.

Heinlein wanted first to become an astronomer and this interest in stars persisted through his training at Annapolis and his service in the Navy. And now that he is writing science-fiction, the stars are in their proper places and his space flight formulas are mathematically correct.

His other interests are chess, mathematics figure skating architecture and especially travel. He hopes to live long enough to go to the moon — a trip Mr. Heinlein opposes!

While in Denver, Colorado, during the summer, Mrs. Elmore met Mr. Heinlein and his wife. He told Mrs. Elmore that when he begins to write a book, he moves to a desolate area in the mountains of New Mexico.

HAVE SPACE SUIT WILL TRAVEL is one of the latest science-fiction books written by Mr. Heinlein. In the paragraphs that follow, the book is described.

"You see I had this space suit . . . Kip had come into possession of the space suit in an absurdly amusing way. It wasn't exactly the latest model but he found it 'like a fine car, its helmet like a Swiss watch.' His home efforts to repair the suit resulted in travel much more startling than the mere trip to the moon that he expected to make.

On the way — also in a strange but hardly amusing situation — Kip meets Peewee, a genius child of ten, who from then on shares his adventures and is, with him, involved in an interspatial cold war of mind stretching dimensions. Again we meet strangely delightful non human creatures Friends of Willis the Martian Bouncer in RED PLANET will not be disappointed.

It is on a planet much older than earth that the story comes to an astonishing — and serious — climax. Kip finds himself asked to take an agonizing responsibility for the human race of his time. What then?

As always, Robert Heinlein's story is carefully limited to the mathematical-physical possibilities of the real universe . . . but as fantastic as the universe itself.

Homemakers Cook Brains, Tongues

The Homemaking Class had a lab last week on the preparation of variety meats such as the brain, tongue, liver, heart, and kidney of the cow. In preparing these varieties, the girls let the meat cook for about three hours, seasoned it, and set it on the table for the other girls to taste.

Even though a student seriously asked, while pointing to one of the cooked brains, if that was the cows blood vessels, the girls found that these odd meats were really quite tasty.

Last Friday various members of the class gave interesting demonstrations on china and glassware. They also saw a film on glassmaking. The class has been divided into committees. Every two weeks, one of the committees will be in charge of decorating the showcase upstairs outside of the Homemaking Lab.

Scott Coffield received a neck injury while playing in the Crane Alpine game. He was admitted to the hospital for a short time but released when his condition was improved.

For Better Service Use Bulletin Boards

The bulletin boards are found throughout the school building in such places as the front office, in the library, and in front of the Conference room.

They carry both good and bad news, for example, lists of the students that made the Honor Roll, information on the various contests held throughout the year, up-to-date information on college scholarships, and information on the Armed Forces (are good news) but then there is also found on the bulletin boards bad news such as football failures, per cent of class failures, and Six Weeks tests schedule might even by thought of as bad news.

In the library Mrs. Elmore keeps an ingenious display on books for the benefit of the readers. She also keeps lists of the different kind of magazines found in the library on the bulletin boards.

To get better results during the school day use the bulletin boards.

Algebra Problem Hard Fire Drill To Rescue!

You are trying to work that problem in algebra before the bell rings, but really there is no need to hurry because you still have 23 minutes.

Let me see, four times 96 and then divided by 4x5 the 60 comes across the equal sign and becomes a minus, or it may be a plus. At any rate the 60 taken away from the 90 becomes a 30, I think! No, no, that is all wrong! The 60 is a plus and added to the 90 makes 150 and then — THE BELL IS RINGING! That 20 minutes surely did pass quickly. But wait, it isn't time for the bell to ring yet; Oh, that was a fire drill.

Oh, good! I get to go down the fire escape. Here is the door. But it sure is dark in here, and I wish that whoever is pushing me would stop. I don't know my way around here as it is. Here is the little doorway and everyone says to hold on to this bar and then get up enough courage to slide on down. But golly, it is dark and cold in here. I hope whoever is in front me can get that little door open in time so I can get out of this thing. First, I shut my eyes tight and hold my breath, then I ask someone to make me go on down the thing because I can't get up enough courage to do it. Oh, you don't have to tickle me to make me turn loose of this bar! Oh, I'm slipping and I am now on my way to the end. The door is open and the sun sure is bright, or it may be that I am dizzy after making all of those turns to get down here. I hope I don't fall when I get out like I have seen so many of the kids do. Ah, I made it out without a catastrophe happening.

Now back to the algebra problem, if that 60 is a minus and you divide by the 4x then —

Big Lake Gate $1,064

The total amount of money taken in at the gate at the Big Lake football game here on October 2 was $1,064.

Considering that it had rained all afternoon before the game and the weather in general was bad, this was a very good total.

Experiences Exciting Lower Classmen Beware Class Meetings Hectic

Attention lower classmen! Are you eagerly awaiting the day when you will be classified as a great and mighty senior? Maybe you wouldn't be half so anxious if you knew just exactly what goes on in the class meeting of the seniors of 1959-60.

Permit this senior to let you in on some of the trade secrets of the Senior Class meetings. The meeting has been called to order by the president and the sergeant-at-arms is threatening to take your name just because you were talking to that boy across the room. Well, how was I to know that the meeting had been called to order, and as far as that goes, I have a complaint to make. I don't think that our class president yells loud enough for those in the second row to hear, because I'm sitting in the second row and I don't hear him yell.

MEETING BECOMES MYSTERY What is everyone waving their hands in the air for? Well, mine goes up, too. Oh! Were we voting? May I ask what we were voting on? What do you mean, if I would pay attention I would know what was doing. I think that I was talking about something more important than what you were voting on!

I just can't understand why our sergeant-at-arms has to yell at us all of the time. After all what did we elect him for? We are very capable of carrying on a class meeting without his taking names. Do you know that he has taken my name down at least 40 times already, and haven't done one single thing to make him mad at me. Are we voting again? I declare I have never seen so much voting in my life, and what are we voting for this time? Don't you tell me to be quiet! This is a free country and I can talk if I have a mind to. What! The meeting has already gone to pieces. No! Oh, the meeting has been adjourned. Well, I can certainly say one thing, we certainly didn't accomplish much during this class meeting.

President Of Band Plans Marriage To Millionaire

This brown-eyed girl you see is none other than Beverly Irene Blount. Among her nicknames are "brown-eyes", "bossy", "table cloth", and "the brain". Beverly was born in Clarksville, Texas, June 15, 1942. From there she moved to Rankin, after two years in Rankin, she moved to Jal, New Mexico. Then after a year in New Mexico she finally got wise and moved to Crane.

BEVERLY IRENE BLOUNT

Beverly is very active in high school. She has been in the Rodeo Club, Stage Band, secretary of Junior Historians, FTA, vice president of Busy Body Club, and the present vice president of the Political Science Club. Other organizations are Rainbows, National Honor Society and the Band of which she is president.

When Beverly is not busy with these, she likes to buy clothes and be with her friend.

FAVORITES

Beverly's favorite subject is an unusual one for she likes anything hard. The harder it is the more she enjoys it. She really does dig the Band, also, "Don't Be Cruel" is Bev's all out favorite song. Paul Anka and the Skyliners are her favorite singers. Beverly likes all the teachers, but Charles Burnside rates a little higher to her.

If you really want to see Beverly's eyes get big, just take her out for a Mexican dinner with lots of hot peppers and iced tea. After that a huge piece of chocolate pie would just really top the day off.

For a favorite movie, Beverly puts "Giant" at the top. She really does enjoy movies, especially if Paul Newman and Kim Novak are starring in it.

EXCITEMENT

Beverly has had lots of excitement in her life, but for her two most thrilling moments that she will never forget were when she realized she was a senior, and when she had the highest average during her junior year.

Beverly's narrowest escape was one night at Rita's Hideaway. She refused to give any detail. Also, one day at the swimming pool with Rudy Smith in 1955 was Beverly's most embarrassing moment.

Beverly's pet peeve involves herself. She says she could do without some of the hairbrained things she does. Mr. Burnside embarrassing her doesn't exactly tickle her pink.

FUTURE

Beverly's life ambition is to further her education, marry a millionaire, and have lots of fun. The Crane would like to wish this outstanding senior lots of happiness in her future years.
