Fifty Million Expected To Cast Ballots

Nation To Choose Chief Executive On Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)

Harry S. Truman and Thomas Edmund Dewey came to the fork in the presidential trial today.

Tomorrow the people will beckon one of them on.

The Democrat who holds the White House lease and the Republican who holds high hope of breaking it planned only the customary get out and vote appeals for tonight's windup to a long and exhausting campaign.

Expect 50,000,000 To Vote

Depending on how those pleas are heeded—and the weather—upwards of 50,000,000 citizens

ELECTIONS AT-A-GLANCE

(By The Associated Press)

Polls close as early as 4 p. m., EST, in some parts of the east and as late as 11 p. m., EST, in Washington and Oregon.

Estimated registration—over 66,000,000.

Estimated vote—over 50,000,000.

Voting precincts—more than 125,000.

Candidates for president—11 (Greenback and Vegetarian unlisted on any state ballot).

Senators to be elected 32; candidates 95.

Representatives to be elected 435; candidates 962.

Governors to be elected 32; candidates 100.

(Maine elected a Republican senator, governor, and three house members Sept. 13, making 33 Senate (two in Louisiana), 33 governorships, and 435 House seats being filled this year).

will visit the polls. They will decide, among other things, which party will control the next Congress—and especially the Senate.

But for all the oratory, energy and dollars expended in trying to sway the world's greatest court of public opinion, only time can tell whether the winner and his party will relish victory through each of the next four years.

Second Try For Dewey

The cold war in Europe and the hot war in China underscore the unfinished task of the peacemakers. At home high prices leave unanswered whether the current boom will turn into a bust.

For Dewey it is a second try—and the first time the Republican party has left its banner in the hands of a defeated candidate. The New York governor lost a popular vote decision to "the champ" in 1944. But Franklin Delano Roosevelt's fourth term victory in the electoral college was a whooping 432 to 99.

For Truman it is an uphill race in his own right the mantle that

At long last—after four years—another presidential election rolls around Tuesday.

The voters, in addition, will mark a blanket size ballot that

HOW TO VOTE

(1) Be sure to scratch all except ONE candidate for each office.

(2) In voting, DO NOT scratch, check, or in any way mark the name of a candidate FOR WHOM you are voting.

(3) In voting a straight party ticket, you are permitted to make a large X covering each party separately for which you do NOT wish to vote, or scratch out each candidate individually.

(4) In voting the split ticket, scratch names of all candidates you do NOT wish to vote for in their separate columns — remembering at all times to leave UNTOUCHED any candidate's name FOR WHOM you are voting.

You also will find on your ballot, the eight proposed amendments to the Texas State Constitution.

For example: If you are in favor of Amendment 2, (RE-DISTRICTING) strike out the whole amendment prefaced the word "AGAINST," leaving untouched the whole amendment prefaced by the word "FOR". The League of Women Voters of Texas urges your support of this Amendment 2. Cast all amendment votes in the same manner by scratching out the portion, "for" or "against," as you see fit.

DO NOT FORGET:

(1) If you make an error on your ballot — you may return it to an election judge, and receive another. The law clearly states that you may request a third replacement.

(2) The election judges want to assist you. If you are in doubt concerning any feature of the voting procedure, do not risk having your ballot tossed out — ask for advice.

The polls will open at 8 a. m. in 26 election places in Lubbock county, close at 7 p. m.

Mystery Malady Is Studied

Texas GOP Is Hopeful For Senate Win

"Victory Rally" For Porter Is Set In Houston

(By The Associated Press)

Texas Republicans, hungry for their first U. S. Senate seat in modern political history, put on their big pre-election push today.

Their nominee, Jack Porter of Houston, scheduled an early-morning radio address and tonight will stage a big "victory rally" in Houston. Climax of the election-eve rally will be a 17-station radio broadcast.

In contrast to the Republicans' fight-to-the-finish line Lyndon Johnson planned a comparatively quiet day at home in Austin. He did, however, schedule a radio broadcast during the day.

Demos Still Campaign

Tomorrow the Democratic nominee and Mrs. Johnson will go to Johnson City to vote, They will return to Austin tomorrow night to hear election returns.

By "spot" announcements and broadcasts over the radio, by newspaper advertising and last-minute button-holing of voters, the Republicans were fighting hard to elect their first U. S. senator since the days of reconstruction.

Supporters of Johnson and the Truman-Barkley ticket, though less active, were still campaigning in the same fashion.

Lloyd Wheelock, Porter's state campaign manager, predicted the Houston oilman would swamp "the so-called Democratic nominee" by land-slide proportions.

States' Rights presidential candidate Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina left Houston by plane yesterday for Columbia, S. C. He made his last Texas campaign speech Saturday night in Houston.

Robert W. Miller of Houston, States' Rights Texas chairman, asked all party supporters to vote and take friends along with them to the polls. In a wire to 91 party leaders in Texas, Miller said:

"Do everything possible. We can win."

Thurmond's closing campaign speech tonight will be carried by 17 Texas radio stations.

Eight Persons Die Violently In Texas

(By The Associated Press)

At least eight persons died violently in Texas over the Hallowe'en weekend.

Three died in plane crashes, three in traffic accidents and two from other causes.

Perry Franklin, 24, of Dallas and John G. Holder, 44, of Irving were killed Sunday afternoon when their plane crashed in Denton county.

Roy Lee Robertson, 24, of Seagraves died Saturday in the burning wreckage of his plane near Levelland.

Oscar Bairs, 20, of Box Elder in Red River county was killed when the auomobile which he was driving smashed into a bridge near Paris Saturday.

Tom Stinnis, 22, of Lancaster, Tex., was run over and killed by an automobile in Dallas early Saturday.

Mrs. Raymond P. Dulaney, 42, prominent Dallas clubwoman and former Southern Methodist university beauty queen, was killed Saturday night when struck by an automobile on an Austin street.

Mrs. R. M. Moore, 65, of Galveston, died Sunday in a Texas City hospital of injuries received in a gas explosion at Texas City Oct. 18.

The body of Levi (Smokestack) Jones, 35, was found Sunday on the edge of the Trinity river near Irving. Chief Deputy Sheriff Jimmie Rogers said at Dallas it was possible Jones was shot by deputies last month when they chased him into the Trinity river bottoms. The officers had been called after neighbors complained they were in fear of their lives.

NEW YORKER HAS WIDE MARGIN

Dewey To Get 49.5 Per Cent--Gallup

By DR. GEORGE GALLUP

Director, American Institute Of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 1—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York will win the presidential election with a substantial majority of electoral votes, final figures compiled by the American Institute of Public Opinion show.

Final figures showing the division of the national popular vote of the four leading parties follow:

|---|---|
| Dewey | 49.5 per cent |
| Truman | 44.5 per cent |
| Wallace | 4.0 per cent |
| Thurmond | 2.0 per cent |

These standings, based on balloting which extended up to Friday, do not include the popular vote for Norman Thomas and other minor party candidates. The combined vote of these candidates will be less than one per cent of the national vote.

Wallace To Get 4 Per Cent

Henry A. Wallace will poll about four per cent of the total vote. Even taking the Progressive party's most optimistic estimate of voting turnout, the total Wallace strength will run below 3,500,000 votes and is likely to be nearer 2,000,000. He will not carry a single state.

Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights nominee, will poll about two per cent of the national vote. His chief support is concentrated in the Deep South.

Gov. Dewey holds a substantial lead in 20 states and Pres. Truman in nine states. There are 15 "battleground" states where neither Truman nor Dewey holds a marked lead. The advantage of the leading candidate in some of these states is so slight that the position of the candidates in the actual voting could easily be reversed.

A state-by-state summary of these 44 states follows:

Gaines Wildcat Big Producer

Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Hawkins, south-central Gaines county wildcat, made 147 barrels of oil during a one-hour drill-stem test of a 50-foot section in the Devonian at 10,328-378 feet, to assure that the prospector could be completed as a prolific producer from that formation.

The well had previously made 59 barrels of oil in one hour from the interval at 10,278-328 feet.

Indications It Will Flow

The wildcat did not flow on either test. However, it has shown sufficient gas while the drill pipe was being pulled on both investigations to indicate that it would flow when put on production.

Gravity of the oil recovered from the test at 12,328-378 feet was 33 degrees, while the petroleum from the zone at 10,278-328 feet tested 30 degrees.

Important New Doscovery

Operator had drilled down to 10,428 feet, and was to run a drill-stem test at 10,378-428 feet, early Sunday morning.

This important new discovery is about 15 miles south and west of the town of Seminole, two and

Weary Men Battle Texas Forest Fires

LUFKIN, Nov. 1 (AP)—Weary firefighters were hard-put today to bring under control flames that raged in timberlands in three east Texas counties.

The Texas Forest service reported a total of 67 fires raging yesterday. Since Jan. 1, more than 350-thousand acres of woodland has been burned over—enough timber to build 23,000 five-room homes.

Engine failure late yesterday afternoon forced Pilot P. R. Wilson to make an emergency landing on a highway and left only Pilot Pete Singleton on fire spotting patrol, the Forrest service said.

Nineteen Die From Results Of Thick Smog

Four Hundred Persons Stricken In Pennsylvania

(By The Associated Press)

DONORA, Pa., Nov. 1 — A steady all-night rain washed the air above this Monongahela River industrial town where smog was blamed as an accessory in the deaths of 19 elderly people in 36 hours.

The death list was revised downward by one. The town's department of health first reported Gustine Polchak the 20th victim of a cardiac-asthmatic condition that took the lives of the others.

But a later investigation by health authorities disclosed Polchak had died of other causes.

Air Tests Studied

Meanwhile, chemists studied tests made of the air over Donora yesterday in hope of discovering whether there was any gaseous ingredient in the smothering mixture of fog and smoke which could have caused the deaths and suffering of more than 400 others.

The malady struck this Monongahela River industrial town of 13,500 late last Friday as a smothering mixture of fog and smoke lay low over the valley for the third straight day.

Old time residents couldn't recall ever seeing such a dense smog, as the combination of fog and smoke is known, but it caused no ill effects until early Saturday morning.

All Doctors Called

Then the town's eight doctors were besieged by calls from asthma and cardiac sufferers. Before midnight 14 men and four woman had died.

Nearby hospitals were jammed with people finding it hard to

Burglaries Are Reported Here

Two burglaries and numerous thefts were under investigation this morning of law enforcement authorities who also had cooperated to surround a tourist court and questioned a man and woman into an armed robbery near Colorado City Sunday night.

Officials said $65 was reported from a child's savings bank at the 2008 East Ave. D residence of Cliff Hereford, a negro.

Ice Company Loses $25.65

A. F. Holt called from 418 Ave. H to say that $25.65 had been taken from the cash register in a burglary of People's Ice company.

A ton and a half truck was reported stolen from Armstrong Warehouse and Storage company, from 700-block Broadway. The vehicle, valued at $1,000, was described as a 1942 Dodge, equipped with a fifth wheel, and licensed with tag MC 854.

Other Thefts Reported

B. H. Baugh reported that $12.50 in money had been stolen from a purse at 1713 Ave. G.

Tools and a tool box, total value $25, were reported taken from the car of Edward Brewer of the Avinger addition.

Bikes were stolen from Mrs. M. L. Gardner of 2312 Broadway, Cecil Gray Hicks of the Avinger theater and a Mr. Stillwell, who listed his address as Lindsey theater, and Robert Haigood of 2120 Eighth.

Wives Of Candidates Happy Campaign Is About Finished

By RUTH COWAN

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—Four women are probably happier than any of their sister Americans that another political campaign is about over.

They are Mrs. Harry S. Truman, wife of the Democratic candidate for president; Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey, whose husband is the Republican contender; Mrs. Henry Wallace, wife of the Progressive party nominee, and Mrs. J. Strom Thurmond, young bride of the States' Rights standard bearer.

If the poll takers are right and Governor Dewey is elected tomorrow, Bess Truman's disappointment will be for her husband alone.

Friendly but reserved and unassuming, she has never pretended to like the spotlight that fell upon her as first lady. Close friends say she would not personally regret leaving the White House.

Would Wipe Out Unhappiness

A Republican victory would wipe out the unhappiness Frances Dewey experienced four years ago when she saw her husband go down in defeat to the late Franklin D. Roosevelt. She also knew

Hunt Underway For Biting Collie Dog

Search for a full-grown male collie dog that bit seven persons in Lubbock Saturday afternoon was instituted by the city health department this morning.

Gerald Jarvis, director of public health, said the animal, owned by William Kirk of 3208 Ave. H, was given to a farmer of the Tahoka area who was driving a 1937 model black two-door Chevrolet, Saturday afternoon.

Kirk said the dog had been vaccinated, but Jarvis explained that it is customary to quarantine in a case where rabies is possible.

The new owner of the animal was requested to bring him to the health department for observation.

Chinese City Bombed After Red Victory

Chiang Kai-Shek Urges Continued Fight In China

(By The Associated Press)

NANKING, Nov. 1. — Mukden was bombed today by Chinese government planes shortly after the Communists completed occupation of the city.

There were many bomb explosions, including several within two blocks of the United States consulate. Casualties and damage were not known.

The bombing gave immediate point to the words of President Chiang Kai-Shek, who told the Kudmintang (governing party) central committee today that China "must accept the lessons of defeat by the Communists and fight on."

There was no hint of surrender from the weary Chinese leader, whose government has been shaken to its foundation by the wholesale defeats of his troops in the last three weeks.

Chiang declared: "We have had reverses in the northeast (Manchuria) but the Communists are not yet in a position to directly menace North China."

Americans Warned

American authorities meanwhile instructed U. S. Citizens to prepare to leave North China.

Authoritative sources here said the Communists had occupied Mukden completely at 3 p. m. (1 a. m. cst) and that the last government officials fled from there three days ago. The American consulate radio there is in communication with American authorities here and in Shanghai.

The Chinese navy is guarding the ports of Yingkiw and Huludao as possible escape avenues for whatever National troops managed to get out of Mukden.

Chiang praised both the bravery and skill of his North China commander, Gen. Fu Tso-Yi at Peiping. He said Fu "has made ample preparations and been sufficiently reinforced" to handle Red threats to that area.

Manchuria Threatened

The president insisted the "overall war situation does not give cause for worry."

Neutral observers recalled that Fu was in a precarious position in North China since the Communists had cut the corridor to Suiyuan and interrupted the normal supply route through which came the bulk of the food for his troops. They estimated that only the prompt transfer of the 12 government divisions now "sitting" on the Hulutao beach to Fu's command plus a rapid flow of war supplies would permit the northern general to hold his own with the Reds even temporarily.

Communist troops, with Mukden in their grasp, are expected to seize the rest of the great Japan-developed industrial empire of Manchuria within three weeks.

GOP Primaries May Result From Voting

DALLAS, Nov. 1 (AP) — If the Republican candidate for governor polls as many as 200,000 votes in tomorrow's general election, state laws require that the Republicans hold primaries in the next election year.

Political Writer Frank Chappell of the Dallas Times Herald said today that the GOP candidate for governor, Alvin Lane of Dallas, was considered likely to poll enough votes to require Republican nominating primaries in 1950.

Republican candidates now are named at the state GOP convention.

Most of the Texas Republican adherents would welcome the primary as an excellent means of furthering their goal of a two-party state, Chappell said.

Four Russian Soldiers Blamed

American Official Murdered In Vienna; Companion Becten

(By The Associated Press)

VIENNA, Nov. 1—Four Russian soldiers were blamed today for bludgeoning an American official to death and savagely beating his Austrian girl companion.

Irving Ross, 38, an official here of the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA), was found dead early yesterday in his abandoned automobile in the Soviet sector of Vienna.

Anna Sutkenina, Ross' companion, told Austrian police she and Ross were riding in the Soviet sector when four Russian soldiers stopped them near the south railway station. Two of the Russians tried to enter the car, she said, and when Ross resisted, they beat him over the head with their rifle butts.

Austrian police officials said today they had orders from district Russian headquarters that no one be allowed to visit Miss Sutkenina in Kaiser Franz Josef hospital. This applied to personal visits and "all police investigators."

The American provost marshal said a request for permission for U. S. investigators to visit her already had been sent to the Russians. This is a normal procedure, he said, in cases in which one occupying power wishes to

Wreckage Of Plane Found Near Matador

Rich Oklahoma Oil Man And Three Others Killed In Crash Of Plane Missing Since Thursday; Thirteen Die In Sooner Crash

(Special to the Journal)

MATADOR, Nov. 1—Wreckage of an all-metal Cessna 195 airplane, missing since Thursday, was found 18 miles southeast of here this morning, and positive identification made of the bodies of all four of its occupants who perished in the crash.

The dead, identified by an employe of the Denver Refining and Producing company, were: R. G. Rapp, multi-millionaire president of the company; L. S. Tunks, production superintendent for the company; Mrs. Tunks, and Ben Parr, the plane's pilot. All were from Oklahoma City.

Object Of Wide Search

The plane had been the object of a widespread West Texas airland search since it disappeared Thursday while en route from Oklahoma City to Denver City. Dozens of Army Air force, Civil Air

ANOTHER PLANE CRASHES

TEMPLE, Okla., Nov. 1 (AP) — Two National Guard fliers were believed killed today in the crash of their two-engined bomber which was returning to its base at Norman, Okla., after helping in a search for another wrecked plane.

The plane, a B-26, had left Wichita Falls at noon after helping over the weekend with the search for a private airplane which crashed Thursday near Keating Springs. The wreckage of that plane, with bodies of four passengers, was found earlier today.

Cotton County Deputy Sheriff E. A. Lewis said two objects left the ship shortly after it caught fire. It crashed in a farm field 3½ mile south and 1½ east of Temple. No parachutes opened.

One body was recovered, but there was no immediate identification.

patrol and private planes had scattered over thousands of square miles in search of the missing craft.

The wreckage, atop a small knoll two miles south of the C. D. Bird ranch, was first sighted at about 9:30 a. m. today by Russell Hofsess, pilot for Cities Service Oil company. The plane, it was reported, apparently had exploded upon hitting the ground, as it was broken into numerous pieces. These, however, were not scattered over a large area, and the plane apparently had not burned after crashing, according to R. T. Amis, Oklahoma City contractor who flew at low altitude over the wreckage following its discovery.

Heavy Brush In Area

The region in which the plane was located was blanketed by heavy brush.

An air-rescue team from Sheppard field, Wichita Falls, directed by Lt. Jacob McGlenny, landed in a plane on Highway 134 about a mile from the wreckage soon after it was found, and made its way on ground to the scene.

Bodies of the four occupants of the wrecked plane were reported to have been sent to Matador, but had not arrived there at 2 p. m. today.

AAF Transport Crashes Near Muldrow, Okla.

Plane Splits And Crashes In Storm; Victims Soldiers

(By The United Press)

MULDROW, Okla., Nov. 1—An Air Force transport split in mid-air and crashed in a thunderstorm near here today, and reports of the dead ran as high as 13.

Army officials at Camp Chaffee, Ark., 18 miles away, said 13 bodies had been recovered. Trooper Harry Davis of the Oklahoma Highway patrol put the figure at 12, and Sheriff Prentice Maddux of Sebastian county, Ark., reported the number as 10.

Muldrow is in extreme eastern Oklahoma, just west of the Arkansas line.

All Dead Were Soldiers

Maddux said all the dead that had been found were soldiers, although they had not been identified. They were flying in a two-engined C-47. The sheriff said no survivors had been found, although there was a report that two men parachuted from the ship just before it crashed.

The smash-up occurred at 11:15 a. m., just over U. S. 64, half a mile north of here. Maddux said the plane broke in two and parts fell on both sides of the highway.

One Saw Crash

At least one person saw the crash. Joe Powell, Van Buren, Ark., said he was driving along the highway when he heard an explosion in the sky.

"I looked up and saw the plane fall apart," he said. "The nose fell on a hill and the fuselage dropped about 400 feet away.

Where the plane had taken off from and its destination were unknown. Capt. Robert J. Cook, public relations officer of the Fifth Armored division at Camp Chaffee, said the plane was so badly wrecked that searchers could not find its serial number. The plane's pieces were scattered over a wide area.

Local authorities asked for 60 men from Chaffee to help comb a wooded area near the scene in an effort to find survivors or any other bodies.

Cook said identification of the soldiers killed would not be made public until the next of kin have been notified.

Escaping Gas Fatal To Five In Family

FREEHOLD, N. J., Nov. 1. (AP)—Five members of a family were killed and three others sent to the hospital in serious condition last night by escaping coal gas fumes.

Monmouth County Prosecutor J. Victor Carton said the poison fumes had escaped from a defective furnace.

The dead were Scudder Silvers, 32; his wife, Annette, 33; his mother, Mrs. Grace Silvers (age unavailable), and two daughters, Patricia, 12, and Joan, 7.

Three other children—Audrey, 13; Bruce, 10, and Guy, 6—were taken to Fitkin Memorial hospital. A pet dog was found dead in the cellar.

The bodies were found by a friend, Dr. Daniel Sagotsky, who said he had been asked to the house to watch a television program.

Rains Fall On Plains Sunday

Rainfall began on the South Plains early Sunday afternoon and temperature dropped a few hours later following arrival of a cold front about 5:30 p. m.

The U. S. Weather bureau station north of Lubbock recorded .10 inch precipitation as result of rainfall at intervals from 1:50 p. m. to 7 p. m. Sunday. Light hail also fell.

Temperature Drops

Temperature dropped from 62 degrees at 6:30 p. m. to 49 at 7:30 p. m., as effects of the cold front were felt. Minimum of 42 degrees was recorded this morning. Wind rose to 36 miles per hour sustained velocity about 11 o'clock this morning, with strong gusts.

South Plains precipitation reports received by the Santa Fe were: Lorenzo, one-eighth; Ralls, one-fourth; Crosbyton 1 inch; Abernathy, .90; Hale center, one-half; Ropesville, one-half; Meadow, one-half; Brownfield, shower; Slaton, one-fourth; O'Donnell, 1 inch; Wilson, one-half; Muleshoe, one-fourth; Sudan, 1 to-1½; Amherst, one-fourth; Littlefield, one-half; and Plainview, .26. Reports from off the South Plains received by the Santa Fe showed one inch fell at Kress and one

Huffaker-Edwards Vows Are Read In Wolfforth Church

HURLWOOD, Nov. 1. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lloydine Edwards, to Donald Huffaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Huffaker of route 1, Lubbock, which took place Oct. 28 at 7 p. m. in the Wolfforth Baptist church. Rev. Thomas E. Rutledge read a double ring ceremony as the couple stood before an altar decked with baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted with white tapers.

Miss Nancy Cobb played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. David Evans of Tahoka who sang "Always" and "Because" preceding the ceremony. She played "I Can't Begin to Tell You" as the vows were exchanged.

Father Is Escort

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white moire taffeta dress fashioned with fitted bodice and high neckline. A pedlum extended into a bustle at the back, with trim of small covered buttons. The bride carried a shower arrangement of yellow roses on a white Bible.

Mrs. W. T. Hines of Tahoka, matron of honor, wore a blue dress and corsage of rust colored pompom chrysanthemums.

The candles were lighted by Mrs. Bill Pollack and Miss Doris Nell Moore of Lubbock.

Merwyn Igo of Lubbock was best man and Billy Doyle Huffaker, brother of the bridegroom, and Bob Bowman, his cousin, were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. G. A. Edwards, 3823 Twenty-fourth, Lubbock, and a bell-shaped cake and punch were served from a table covered with white damask and decorated with white mums and candles.

After a trip to New Mexico, the couple will be at home near Lubbock where Mr. Huffaker is engaged in farming. For travel the bride wore a dark green suit with beige and brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Huffaker were graduated from Frenship High school and have attended Tech college.

Courtesy Is For Family

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson and son, Chuck, who have recently moved here from Brownfield, were honored at a housewarming given at their residence, 3602 Thirtieth, Sunday afternoon by West Texas employes of the Stanolind Pipe Line company, of which Mr. Wilson is superintendent.

Refreshments were served to Messrs. and Mesdames C. F. Simes and son, Tommy; Phil Gaasch and son, Ronnie; Bill Richmond; M. L. Mook and daughter, Kathryn; P. N. Sigley and daughter, Becky; Jimmie Byrd; J. P. Miller and daughter, Peggy Jo; Tom Chilton; Leo Kirk and children; Ted Whitehead and son, Jack; Sam Sayers; Mr. and Mrs. Butcher; Mrs. Hobart Mariner, Mrs. Molly Whitehead; John Lockerd, Tom Adams and Brent Thompson.

First Meeting Is Set By Child Study Unit

First meeting of AAUW Child Study Unit 4 is set for Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Everett Miller, 3307 Twenty-eighth, according to Mrs. Eldon Fuller, education chairman.

Twenty-four women have registered in the group.

OES Chapter Changes Place Of Meeting

Truth chapter of Order of Eastern Star is changing its place of meeting from Seaman hall to First Presbyterian Fellowship hall. A meeting is scheduled for Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

PRESENTS PUPILS

Mrs. O. G. Evers presented a group of her piano pupils in recital Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A Hallowe'en party was given later in the afternoon with Mrs. Loyd Mackey assisting.

Taking part were Joyce James, Wally Jackson, Gary Byrd, Carolyn Horshler.

Woman Asks Help For Young Sister-In-Law, Whose Anxious Parents Punish Her

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My young sister-in-law Yvette, 17, is being drastically punished by her parents simply because she is, or wants to be, a typical "teenager."

She is very pretty and popular and, in my opinion, normally well behaved. She and my husband are only children of parents who, though American-born, are of French extraction and were themselves very strictly reared in accordance with "old world" ideas of discipline.

Yvette's first two years in high school were spent very quietly, in keeping with her upbringing; but now she has begun to take part in the normal activities of school life,—the pressure of opinion expressed by relatives and family friends having virtually forced the parents into letting her "date," etc.

However, difficulties have arisen, owing to the parents' inability to accept as normal and harmless the prevalent mannerisms of modern adolescents, such as use of slang, affectations in dress and the like. This, combined with Yvette's sullen resistance to suspicious questioning about her activities, causes the parents to feel that she must be curbed.

BLOWS MERELY MAKE GIRL MORE SULLEN

CONSEQUENTLY Yvette is severely spanked for a host of things, as for instance a slight impertinence, or tardiness in getting home from a social engagement, or other such "offense" in the parents' eyes. The chastisement, to which she must ignominiously submit, is so drastic that twice I was almost moved to urge medical attention after seeing the bruises.

Is there any way to persuade the parents that Yvette's behavior isn't nearly so serious, so willful or abnormal, as they seem to think? And that in any case they are making matters worse, alienating her further, by their punitive tactics, which, far from dampening her eagerness to be "one of the crowd," are causing her to become more sullen and less willing to obey than she ordinarily would be.

I believe the parents might listen to me if I had concrete suggestions to offer; and it would be impossible to exaggerate the value to Yvette of an enlightened change on their part.

Signed: N. R.

GIRL IS ACTING UNDULY DEFIANT.

DEAR N. R.: Let's not be blind sentimental advocates of teen-age whimsy and whoopla. It's no kindness to Yvette to give her unqualified backing in her feud with her parents. Rather, help her correct her own mistakes which are fomenting friction.

As I see the picture, Yvette is creating home difficulties for herself by feeling her oats and tending to run away with herself, like a colt broken loose from harness and frisking defiance, since relatives and friends joined forces to indict her parents as old fogies and heckle them into granting her typical teen-age privileges.

Taking into account their background and training, with its ingrained fear of the "wildness" of youth, and consequent notion that freedom for a young girl is synonymous with temptation possibly leading to ruin, Yvette's parents made a tremendous concession (for them), at expense of great internal anxiety, in letting her join the swim of extra-curricular co-ed activities.

And Yvette, instead of appreciating their great concession (from their viewpoint), which shows they are worriedly willing to risk "new mores," if necessary to make her happy—and taking care (1) to assuage their misgivings and (2) gradually increase their trust in her judgment, is "acting up" belligerently.

PARENTS PANICKY; GIRL DISOBLIGING

IT SEEMS she is tossing her head with a secretive air of hostile self-confidence, as if to say that with majority-sympathy on her side an a first round in the battle for "freedom" won, she doesn't have to "mind" her parents or consider their feelings, much less assuage their disquietude about the new arrangement.

This impression of her attitude is conveyed in your sketch of the "host" of unfilial discourtesies latterly beamed at her parents, and pointedly epitomized in her sullen refusal to respond to questioning (half fondly, half worriedly prompted, no doubt) about her activities.

Such behavior is grossly inconsiderate and self-defeating to boot, in the circumstances; and inasmuch as Yvette knows from experience that she will be spanked for it, perhaps she unconsciously courts abuse to give her parents a black eye in the public estimate, and thus overtly justify her essentially intemperate defiance of them.

In panic and ignorance, the parents are committing a crime against decency in whipping Yvette. That type of assault on a girl's dignity and modesty tends to foster delinquency rather than curb it. However, it seems that Yvette could avert such violence by taking the chip from her shoulder; and my advice to her is to do just that and be "instant in courtesy" with her parents hereafter. M. H.

Science Club Is To Meet

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college, will address the Tech Science club tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Annex G, of the Tech home economics building. His subject is "Some Aspects of Research and Teaching in a College."

Mrs. J. N. Michie is chairman of a social period to follow the lecture, assisted by Miss Margaret Weeks and Mrs. Lila Kinchen.

Wives and husbands of members are invited.

Members of the faculty in the departments of mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology and geology in the division of arts and science and all department members in the divisions of engineering, agriculture and home economics are eligible for membership, as well as graduate students.

The science club has been in operation since the opening of the college. John Penick is president.

Glen W. Teal Hurt In Riding Accident

Glen W. Teal, 27, of 1714 Twenty-eighth, was in a critical condition in West Texas hospital today as a result of a severe head injury suffered at about 6:15 p. m. Sunday when a horse he was riding slipped and fell on wet pavement at the intersection of Levelland highway and Slide road.

Teal, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Teal of his address, was still unconscious this morning. An attending physician said his condition, considering the severeness of the brain injury, was as well as could be expected.

At the time of the accident, young Teal was riding a bay pony to Lubbock from a farm south of Smyer which he had operated before moving to the city recently.

Two young boys whose names were not available were reported to have seen the accident occur. A motorist on the highway found Teal lying unconscious in the center of the pavement a few moments later, and he was immediately taken to the hospital.

Identification was made at the hospital by markings on his clothing, and relatives were notified.

14 SEAMEN DROWNED

PENZANCE, England, Nov. 1 (AP)—Coast guardsmen said at least 14 seamen were believed to have drowned early today when a small French tanker ran aground on the rocky Cornish coast during a storm. One survivor, who seriously injured, was found by searchers.

Fall Revival Opens At Baptist Church

A fall revival campaign, to extend through next Sunday, opened last night at the First Baptist church here, with Dr. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist church at Vernon for 12 years, as the speaker, it was announced today by Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor.

Rev. Dr. Hill, called one of the church's outstanding pastor-evangelists, is to speak twice daily during the week, at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. He has held meetings in many of the larger churches in the Southwest, and has preached on various occasions before assemblies and encampments, including the Texas Baptist encampment at Palacios, and the Plasino encampment in the Davis mountains, where the late Dr. Geo. W. Truett often spoke.

He was chosen one year to preach the annual sermon for the Baptist General convention of Texas, and is a member of various boards and denominational committees.

Shelby Collier, recently named head of the music department at Wayland college at Plainview, is directing the music for the meeting. Collier was music and education director of the First Baptist church at Austin until his recent acceptance of the Wayland post.

Yesterday's program resulted in Sunday school attendance of 1,941, Baptist Training Union attendance of 656, and 15 additions to the church, according to Dr. Grant. The public was invited to attend the services during the week.

China has resumed its prewar enamelware trade, selling large quantities of wash basins, spittoons and small bathtubs to the Philippines and South Sea regions.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. Chauncey Nelson of San Angelo announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Nelson, to Happy Hendryx, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Hendryx of 2433 Twenty-third. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride-elect's mother, at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Nov. 27.

Miss Nelson was graduated from Abilene High school, attended Hockaday Junior college, Dallas, and received a degree from the University of Texas, where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She has been chief hostess for Pioneer airlines since June of this year.

Mr. Hendrix was graduated from Lubbock High school and attended Texas Technological college. He was in the Army for five years, serving in England, Guam and Shanghai, China and was released in 1947 with the rank of captain.

POOR PALEFACED POLLY!
Maybe her paleness comes from a Borderline Anemia*. Girls who look pale and unhealthy are usually more pitied than popular. And their energy and their dispositions seem to suffer, right along with their looks.
That's true—but did you know that faded red blood cells are often the cause of fading color and vigor? If you're too pale and tired, you may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies reveal that up to 68% of women—many men and children—have this tiring blood condition.
Weariness and pallor have many causes—always consult your doctor regularly. But if you have this Borderline Anemia, remember: Ironized Yeast Tablets can help you reclaim your vitality and healthy good looks. They are specially formulated to help build up faded, shrunken and fagged-out blood cells. To feel better—to look better—to act more alert and alive—try IRONIZED YEAST TABLETS!

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

There were a lot of tears shed in Lubbock over the week end. First the high school played a whale of a game against Amarillo, favored heavily, only to lose. And then the Red Raiders turned in a carbon copy in battling a huge Rice team, dropping a one-touchdown margin game. But fans were treated to good football in both games, games in which normal American boys fought it out against odds and played their heads off, only to lose.

After the high school game, we heard nothing but praise for the way Lubbock had fought Amarillo virtually to a standstill. The Westerners, deep on the short end of the odds, stymied the Golden Sandies time after time, but could not put together more than one scoring opportunity. They were trying all the time and their mistakes were overlooked in the loss, because they had been so far down on pre-game betting.

But it was a different story with Tech. For some unexplainable reason, local college fans got the ill-conceived notion that Tech, because it had won four games this season, was better than Rice, which had lost four straight. So instead of having praise for the way the heavily outweighed Raiders fought the Rice line, or the way the backs tried to smash through it, they maligned the coach, the quarterback and anyone else they could think of who might have been responsible for the loss.

Frankly, we were shocked—and hurt—at the way the Texas Tech students booed Ernest Hawkins several times during the game. We make no pretense of thinking that Hawk is the best quarterback in college football; neither is he the worst. But we do know that he is trying harder than anyone else at that position, that he gives everything in him every day and that he comes closer to being reliable than anyone else available for the position. At no other time this year or last, in any city, have we heard the stands boo a player. There must be something rotten in the undergraduate body at Tech to stoop to such vulgar, disgusting and revolting an act.

We know that not all the students are implicated, or involved. We also know that others felt deeply ashamed, as much as we did in the press box when we had to explain to other writers what it was all about. It's a sad commentary on the vicious nature, the sadistic element, of a student body that allows it to express publicly a feeling that would be better kept submerged. The grandstand quarterback, who doesn't come out for the team and who, as Pat Robinson of the (INS) said recently, probably would keel over if he ran the length of the field once, is entitled to his thoughts. But if he can't do it better, let him keep a tight rein on his lip.

Press box comment concerning the Raiders was highly favorable. Non-partisan writers from Dallas, Ft. Worth and Houston all were high in their praise of Tech's performance. One writer, who had seen Rice in three other games, said that the Owls played their best game so far, even though their line outplayed the Texas line. And as for Huey Keeney, who made three tackles that stopped Tech runners from going all the way, it was without a doubt his finest performance of the year. According to the writers, Keeney has played adequately, but not brilliantly. Saturday he was more than adequate and often brilliant, as on his quick kick.

There's also this: Rice had lost to four better teams than Tech had played in the same period and the Owls were due to win. They came out fighting and Tech fought back, but didn't have the weight to open holes consistently. Tech gained almost as much ground, yes, but when they got down in scoring territory, Rice tightened up all but once. It's pretty hard for a line averaging 182 pounds to move one averaging 208 pounds easily. We thought that Tech's line turned in its most brilliant performance of the year, bar none.

And the backfield was trying just as hard to match the line. The backs were hitting hard, they were running hard. And the tackling and blocking in the game was the hardest of the season. There was brilliant football being shown for the fan who could appreciate football for football's sake. And when you get right down to it, after seeing all seven games so far, the Tech team turned in its best performance of the season. And because their best was not good enough, they're vilified. We've just about had enough.

Howard Payne And McMurry Hold Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Howard Payne and McMurry hold the lead in the Texas conference.

The Yellowjackets knocked Hardin out of the top spot last week by beating the Indians 19-7. McMurry blasted Austin college 19-6 to share the lead.

In another game last week, Southwestern won over East Texas Baptist 41-0.

McMurry takes this week off and Howard Payne plays a non-league foe Saturday, East Texas Baptist.

Conference games match Austin vs. Southwestern at Georgetown and Hardin vs. Abilene Christian at Abilene.

Baylor Risks Fall With Texas Steers

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The amazing Baylor Bears tackle Texas this week and Southwest Conference fans are still waiting for them to do a humpty dumpty tumble.

Baylor has been expected to fall in exactly half the games it has played. But a tie with Mississippi State is the only flaw on the Bears' record. Last week they crossed up the experts again, squeezing by Texas Christian, 6-3.

SMU Takes Step

Southern Methodist took a big step toward a second conference title when it beat Texas, 21-6.

Arkansas handed Texas A and M its seventh straight licking, 28-6, and Rice bounced back into the win column on a 14-7 decision over Texas Tech.

Baylor staged another last-minute goal line stand to win. Texas Christian got to the one-yard line but couldn't score. Baylor came from behind again, tallying in the fourth period.

This was the third straight conference victory for Baylor, the best record the school has had in a long, long time. It left the Bears tied at the top of the loop standings with Southern Methodist.

Despite its unbeaten record Baylor again is figured to fall this week. By most standards the Bears will. Texas has more power, more speed, and more reserves.

But Baylor ran into this same reasoning against Mississippi State, Arkansas and Texas Christian.

Doak Walker, who boosted his point total to 76 against Texas, and Gilbert Johnson were the two main reasons Southern Methodist walked all over Texas. The offensive power these two can generate is fearsome. They make the Mustangs a one-sided favorite over Texas A and M.

Arkansas' bruising fullback, Leon Campbell, and the great Clyde Scott worked behind a terrific line last Saturday. Half as good a performance this week will plow under Rice.

Pete Stout of Texas Christian held on to second place in scoring with 36 points. Five players are bunched at third with 30 points each.

New Air Mark Set By Baugh

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 1. — Berlin has its airlift but the National Football league still has the air arm—Sammy Baugh, the ex-T.C.U. great.

Baugh, the air general of the Washington Redskins, has added another passing record to his collection that includes four lifetime marks.

The veteran quarterback gained 446 yards through the air yesterday as he pitched the Redskins to a 59-21 victory over the Boston Yanks.

Baugh completed 17 of 24 attempts and hurled four touchdown passes in surpassing the former mark of 433 yards in a single game set by Sid Luckman of the Chicago Bears on Nov. 14, 1943 against the New York Giants.

Lifetime Totals Boosted

The field day enabled Baugh to increase his record lifetime totals in attempts to 2,214; completions to 1,275; yards gained by passing to 16,397 and touchdown passes to 136. The 'Skins also set a new team mark for yards gained by passing, gaining 501 yards to break the previous mark of 488 set by the Bears also on Nov. 14, 1943.

By winning, the Washington team stayed a half game behind the Eastern division pace-setting Philadelphia Eagles. The Eagles crushed the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34-7.

Meanwhile, the Chicago Bears and the defending champion Chicago Cardinals remained tied for the Western division lead. The Bears breezed to a 35-14 victory over the Giants and the Cards turned back the Rams, 27-22. In the other National League game, the Detroit Lions upset the Green Bay Packers, 24-20.

Two Powers Idle

The two powers of the All-America conference, the San Francisco 49ers and the defending champion Cleveland Browns, were idle. The 49ers have won nine straight games without a setback and lead the Browns in the western half race by a half game. The Browns are unbeaten in eight outings.

Three games were played in the All-America conference. In the "Big" game the Buffalo Bills downed the Baltimore Colts, 35-17, to tie the Colts for first place in the Eastern division. The Los Angeles Dons blanked the Brooklyn Dodgers, 17-0, and the New York Yankees trounced the Chicago Rockets, 42-7, in the other games.

Temple Seeks Paris Baseball Franchise

DALLAS, Nov. 1 (AP)—The possibility of moving the Paris franchise of the Big State league to Temple was discussed here yesterday.

At the Class-B Baseball loop's meeting President J. Walter Morris was instructed to go to Paris Wednesday and sound out local people on the prospect of their purchasing the franchise for its appraised value of $37,810. They will be given first option.

Fred Husband said he is interested in securing the franchise for Temple.

League officials reelected Morris president and Gilbert Tindell of Greenville vice-president. They voted to employ ten class men next year instead of eleven and to increase from six to seven the number of limited service players on each team.

Plainview Bouts To Open Boxing Season

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 1 (Special)—Amateur boxing will get the season underway here Nov. 15 under the sponsorship of the Plainview Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Jaycees are planning a series of inter-city bouts against Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Borger and the Amarillo Junior college. It will wind up with a large boxing tournament in this city.

Three divisions will be established for the boxers, novice, high school and open. The novice will be for boys who have never competed in boxing before; the high school will be open to boys who are in high school, but who have not fought enough to enter the open division and are better than the novice class; and the open division is open to experienced boys planning to enter the Golden Gloves.

Training for the fights will be done in the Dairy Barn office, where the latest in boxing equipment has been installed. Bud Dean, former coach at Petersburg High school, will be in charge of the training quarters. The quarters will be open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights from 7 until 10, with equipment free of charge.

Instruction in the training quarters will consist of teaching boys how to prepare their bodies for boxing, how to execute and deliver a punch, how to defend themselves, skipping rope and punching the light and heavy bags. As the novice grows more experienced, he will be taught more advanced boxing, but good fundamentals will be taught first.

Discussion, Movies Set For Grid Meet

A discussion of Tech and the Southwest Conference, movies of the Red Raider-Arizona game Oct. 23 and talks by 'Lubbock's three coaches will feature the weekly meeting of the Quarterback Club tonight at 8 in the main ballroom of the Hilton hotel.

W. G. McMillan, Lubbock contractor, former Texas Aggie athlete and ardent Texas Tech supporter, will speak on the Southwest Conference. It seemed possible that he might have some late information on the possibility of Tech's admittance to pass on to the crowd.

Coach C. R. "Pat" Pattison of Lubbock High school will rehash the Westerner's defeat by Amarillo; Coach Dell Morgan of Tech will discuss Rice's victory over the Raiders; and Coach Damon Hill of Dunbar High school will tell how he and his team made out with Amarillo's eleven.

Results of the poll of predictions made by members last week will be announced, the winner receiving two tickets to the Tech-Texas Mines games Saturday.

Tom Duggan, jr., club president, will rule the roost.

Wide Open Battle Looms For All-America Backfield Honor

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—If picking the national college football champion this year is tough—with every sector offering a candidate—selection of the all-America backfield promises to be tougher.

There have been no individual standouts of the Johnny Lujack and Bob Chappuis stripe of last year. As the season moves down the back-stretch, a wide open scramble looms for individual honors.

A number of athletes strengthen their bids with outstanding performances over the week-end as the nation's nine unbeaten and untied powers kept their records unsullied.

The present campaign, in fact, hasn't had such a one-day rash of backfield heroics.

Walker Hits Stride

Doak Walker, Southern Methodist's sophomore member of last year's honor quartet, hit his stride against Texas. Stan Heath, Nevada's passing wizard, went on an aerial rampage to write a new collegiate record.

Emil Sitko emerged as the new spearhead of Notre Dame's Irish while glittering exploits were turned in also by Jack Jensen of California, Norm Van Brocklin of Oregon, Chuck Ortmann of Michigan, Francis (Red) Bagnell of Penn, and Army's crack touchdown tandem, Gil Stephenson and Bobby Jack Stuart.

Appraisal In Order

Meanwhile, a new appraisal of the nation's top teams was in order even though all advanced in unbroken phalanx.

Michigan's Wolverines, ranked first for two weeks running, puffed past a hard-to-convince Illinois, 28-20, while two of the south's unblemished giants, North Carolina and Georgia Tech, had their hands full with a couple of neighborhood foes.

North Carolina, with Charlie Justice heaving two touchdown passes, topped Tennessee, 14 to 7, with one Vol scoring run nullified by a penalty. Tech rallied in the last half to vanquish Duke, 19-7.

California's Golden Bears, bidding for a Rose Bowl spot, edged past Southern Cal, 13-7, thanks to some fine ball-carrying by Jensen.

Major Teams Battle

The other four major unbeaten-untied teams to see action—Notre Dame, Army, Pennsylvania and Nevada—turned in smashing, one-sided victories. Clemson, the ninth member of the perfect list, played Friday, beating Boston College.

The headline games this week are at Philadelphia where Penn risks its clean slate against once-tied Penn State and at Norman, Okla., where Oklahoma and Missouri clash in a joust that may decide the Big Seven conference crown.

Top Honors Go To Laredo End

DALLAS, Nov. 1. (AP)—Sam Ward, 175-pound Laredo end, was singled out by the Dallas News today as schoolboy football's outstanding star in last week's games.

Ward scored two touchdowns, caught five passes and intercepted three Victoria aerials in Laredo's 28-0 victory.

Bill Adams, Victoria Advocate sportswriter, termed Ward the best schoolboy end he has seen this year.

Others on the News' list of schoolboy stars were:

Roy Pace, Temple back: Led Temple to a 15-to-0 win over Cleburne, scoring two touchdowns.

Sets Up Touchdown

George Wright, Palestine end: Blocked a punt to set up the first touchdown as his team beat Lufkin, 19 to 0. The 167-pound wingman also played an outstanding defensive game.

Jerry Blanton, Wichita Falls fullback: Made a pair of touchdowns as the Coyotes dumped the Quanah Indians 18 to 7. He also rolled up 147 of the Coyotes' 205 yards on 18 tries.

Marvin McNeil, Amarillo tailback: Got off a 69-yard punt that rolled dead on the Lubbock 1-yard line. It set up a touchdown in the Sandies 14-to-6 victory.

Gary Graham, Fort Neches back: Scored twice and netted 125 yards as the Indians upset South Park of Beaumont 20 to 19. The markers brought his season's scoring total to 67 points.

Completes 11 Passes

Billy Martin, Paris tailback: Completed 11 passes in 19 attempts to Paris' 13-to-12 upset of Bonham.

Jerry Glass, Borger fullback: Played a great all-around game and stopped a Plainview score by intercepting a pass on the Borger five late in the fourth period as his club won, 6 to 0.

Gahlen Dinkle, Marshall back: Although his team lost to Henderson 13 to 18, he was the outstanding back on the field, netting 78 yards in 19 tries. His team finished with only 76 yards on the ground. He completed 11 to 19 aerials for 85 yards, punted five times for 40.4 yard average.

Schoolboy Training Date Change Talked

AUSTIN, Nov. 1. (AP)—Another change in dates for high school football training was to be discussed today by the Legislative Advisory council of the Interscholastic league.

Because spring football training was considered to interfere too much with spring sports, the league schools eliminated it last spring and changed the date of fall training from Sept. 1 to Aug. 15.

Many coaches found the weather too hot in Mid-August. Today's proposal would return the opening date of practice to Sept. 1 and extend it from the current Dec. 1 regular season deadline to the date of the final state championship game.

The advisory council, in its opening session, yesterday was asked to consider the possibility of the league's taking over girls athletics and expanding the program.

Mrs. Ruth Motley of Lamar high school, Houston, asked that the league raise more of the girls sports to the state level in competition. She pointed out that tennis is the only sport in which the league authorizes a state championship playoff for girls. The council said it would name a committee to study the situation.

Addition of radio news casting, radio drama, original oratory and poetry reading contests to the league program was recommended by the council.

FULLBACK BUSTER—Line crushing fullbacks hold no terror for Marvin "Cowboy" Williams, Victoria, Tex., Junior College football player. He keeps in trim for the football season by riding bulls, busting broncs and bull-dogging steers. He is so ardent a rodeo follower he competes in rodeos in between football games. (AP Photo).

Bobcats, Lions Set To Tangle

(By The Associated Press)

Three conference games and one nonconference contest make up the full schedule for the Lone Star conference this week.

Top billing goes to the Southwest Texas-East Texas games before a homecoming crowd at Commerce Saturday afternoon. The Southwest Texas Bobcats, currently leading the conference race with three wins and no defeats, last week dumped the North Texas Eagles 24 to 14. At the same time the improved East Texas Lions won over the Sam Houston Bearkats at Commerce, 27 to 21, in a thriller.

The Lions have waited one year for this game or ever since the Bobcats spilled them, 20 to 7, before a homecoming crowd at San Marcos. The Bobcats reached the Heights last week; Saturday afternoon, they will have to be good again to win.

Another conference game which may affect the championship will send the Trinity Tigers, who rested last week, to Denton Saturday night to play the North Texas Eagles. The Eagles have suffered one conference loss against two wins.

Cougars Meet Lumberjacks

The third conference contest will be played Saturday afternoon at Houston, where the fourth place University of Houston Cougars meet the fifth place Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks. Last week, the Cougars lost to the West Texas Buffaloes, 28 to 13. The Lumberjacks defeated Louisiana college at Pineville, La., 21 to 12.

Schoolboy Titles Will Be Decided

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas schoolboy football campaign speeds into November with only 10 undefeated teams and with district championships being decided all along the line in the City Conference and Class AA.

Only one unbeaten team was kicked out last week but three of them were tied.

South Park of Beaumont was tumbled 20-19 by Port Neches. Milby (Houston) was tied by John Reagan (Houston) 13-13, Alice was tied by Harlingen 0-0 and Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) was battled to a 6-6 deadlock by Paschal (Fort Worth).

Unbeaten and Untied today are Port Arthur, Waco, Henderson, Sweetwater and Amarillo. Undefeated but once tied are Alice, Arlington Heights, Baytown, Lamar (Houston) and Milby.

No Tumbles Expected

There appears little likelihood of any of the unbeaten teams taking a tumble this week except possibly Sweetwater, which meets Odessa in the showdown game of District 3 of Class AA. The winner of this game will be a top-heavy favorite for the district title.

Sweetwater whammed Abilene 28-6 last week, which was a touchdown better than Odessa trimmed the Eagles.

District 4 of the city conference will be in the balance Saturday night when Thomas Jefferson tackles Alamo Heights. These are the last undefeated teams in San Antonio district play.

Amarillo plays at Borger Friday in an important District 1 clash in Class AA. They are two of three teams that are undefeated in conference strife. Pampa, the other one, plays Lubbock Saturday.

District 6 matches its only unbeaten teams with Highland Park, (Dallas) playing at McKinney Friday while district 12 sends Galveston to Freeport in a similar battle. Galveston, Freeport and Baytown are unbeaten in conference warfare. Baytown plays Galena Park this week.

Austin, Kerrville Clash

District 13 features the clash of Austin and Kerrville, the last undefeated teams, and the contest expected to determine the champion.

Right now the state championship outlook in the City Conference is quite scrambled. Arlington Heights had been one of the top favorites but lost a key man through an injury. Since then Arlington Heights has been just another team. The tie with oft-beaten Paschal showed that.

Alamo Heights might well be the favorite since its victory over Brackenridge (San Antonio) but more will be known about it after the game this week with tough Thomas Jefferson.

Port Arthur continues as the No. 1 choice in Class AA.

That Girl on Broadway says the amount of time it takes a person to grow old depends to some extent upon the way he goes about it.

A loose tongue seems always to be running wild.

ONCE more, general election day is upon us.

Every eligible voter, everywhere in the U. S. should have numerous, sound reasons for going to the polls, but, here in West-Texas, citizens have an "extra-special" reason for casting a ballot.

That reason is the inclusion of Amendment No. 2 on the general election ballot of November 2.

To the people of this section —and of the several other areas of Texas long discriminated against in the matter of representation in the Legislature— it is more important that Amendment 2 be approved than the selection of the President of the United States.

The Constitution of the State of Texas plainly requires legislative re-districting in this state after each and every federal census, providing the census shows a sufficient shift in the population to require re-districting.

The various legislatures of Texas have flouted the Constitution ever since, in 1923, the then Gov. Pat Neff forced the Legislature to act in accordance with the Constitution by calling a special legislative session to get that job done.

Not since 1923—a quarter century ago—has any governor had the sense of fairness and responsibility to emulate the action of Governor Neff. And, of course, the members of the legislature have refused to act because, to do so, would eliminate the jobs of some of them and alter the districts of nearly all of them.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 on this year's ballot is not a perfect solution to the problem. There are parts of it which nobody likes —those who want fair play in re-districting as well as those who do not.

But it is a step in the right direction.

It is a step in the right direction because it provides for automatic redistricting by a board appointed for that purpose, IF any legislature of the future refuses to act as required by the Constitution.

Best thing that can be said about Amendment No. 2 is that its passage will result in some sort of redistricting. It is better than nothing—and "nothing" is what we have been getting, and will continue to get, if the matter is left in the hands of future legislatures.

Northwest Texas is not the only section of this state which has been discriminated against for all these years by selfish legislators.

The Rio Grande Valley similarly has been mistreated. So has the section around Corpus Christi. So has a part of the booming Gulf Coast.

Meanwhile, old, static, or diminishing areas of Texas have continued to enjoy represenation in numbers which they do not deserve and which they cannot defend under the Constitution of the State of Texas.

That isn't right—and even those who have refused to live up to the oaths of their offices know it isn't right.

TO help right a quarter-century old wrong, the people of Texas should vote for Amendment No. 2.

"Especially those of us who have squirmed for so long under the lash of discrimination should go to the polls and vote for Amendment No. 2. If we want relief in the matter of legislative representation, the way to help get that relief is to go vote—and vote for Amendment No. 2.

Passage of Amendment No. 2 should result in two more state senators from Northwest Texas and from three to five more state representatives.

That means we should have in Austin from five to seven more legislative votes; five to seven more representatives and senators working for our best interests.

We think—we believe you think—that's worth going after and the only way to go after it is for all of our eligible voters to cast a ballot for Amendment No. 2.

A big vote out of Northwest Texas, from Corpus Christi and the Valley will be necessary to carry Amendment No. 2.

Let's get out that big vote in Northwest Texas! Let's show our willingness to do for ourselves what we've been crying so long for someone else to do for us!

BY DREW PEARSON: ELECTION IS CLASH BETWEEN MANY PEOPLE TO CHOOSE LEADER

Dewey Has Conducted Astute, Skillful Campaign

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Drew Pearson's column today takes the form of a letter to his daughter in the question of how she should vote.)

Mrs. George Arnold,
Los Angeles, Calif.
Dear Daughter:

IT IS difficult, even for an old and seasoned political hand like your father, to advise one who will vote for the first time.

Sometimes a seasoned political observer tends to size up an election the same way a couple of doctors discuss an important surgical operation. They become so immersed in the technicalities that they forget the patients are human beings, and that elections are a clash between several human beings to pick another human being as their leader.

PEARSON

As a technician I would say that Governor Dewey had conducted one of the most astute and skillful campaigns in recent years. He made nobody mad. He called no names; he answered no challenges. He ignored a great many of the issues. He knew that he was certain to win if he made no mistakes and aroused no tempers. So his whole campaign was carefully geared to that end.

Dewey even managed to escape answering a question every other candidate has had to answer, namely, place his war record before the voters. However, he managed to duck this, even though Mrs. Matilda Burling, head of the Gold Star mothers, specifically asked him in a telegram if he had a farm deferment in 1942. Even one of Dewey's republican women's committee members in 1944, Miss Dorothy Frooks, addressed three inquiries to Dewey regarding his draft record, but got no reply.

Governor Dewey also managed to visit most of the 48 states and make several hundred speeches without any real discussion of the basic issues in the campaign. This, again, was astute politics. For if he had really talked about reclamation when he was in the West, he would have stepped on the toes either of the power companies or the power companies' enemies, and would thereby have lost votes on either side.

Instead he cleverly told about the large amounts appropriated for reclamation by the 80th Congress, but left out the fact that the 80th Congress also tied the money up with so many strings it was a bonanza to the big power companies.

Teamwork Under Dewey

Naturally Dewey's evasion of these issues has disappointed some people. But looking at it from the political technician's point of view, a lot of corners are cut by candidates to achieve their main goal—victory. And the interesting thing to me is that Dewey was able to confine his campaign to sweetness and light without having some of these issues thrown at him by certain of our leading newspapers.

Harry Truman, of course, has walked up to the plate and taken a healthy swing at every issue. He has not ducked one curved ball. The country knows exactly where he stands, which is his chief trouble in the South.

But the country also knows that, whereas Truman's record is excellent on paper, his record of performance is inept and sometimes inexcusable. He seems to have surrounded himself with men dedicated to the task of sabotaging all the fine things their boss stood for on paper.

On the other hand, Dewey's record in New York state has been excellent both on paper and in performance. And the men around him are Roosevelt brain-trust type dedicated to do or die for the boss and his policies.

So, undoubtedly, you'll have teamwork in the White House under Dewey. It may be very careful, sometimes cold-blooded, teamwork. There will be no fun and fireworks; none of the impulsive, sometimes courageous Trumanesque shooting from the hip. The White House poker game will be played close to the vest and certain newspaper moguls now so hell bent for Dewey's election are going to get sore at his tight-fistedness.

IN SIZING up the candidates, however, you also have to take a look at the political parties behind them. Te Republican party, since the Civil war, has drawn its financial support from the bankers, the utilities, and big business. Generally, of course, people get what they pay for, and the big G. O. P. contributors have not expressed dissatisfaction with the results.

If Tom Dewey can break away from this traditional G. O. P. hookup he will be a miracle man. He is a tough little guy and, once elected, he may be able to do it. This will be the most interesting thing of all to watch.

The Democratic party in recent years has drawn the bulk of its support from the big-city populations of the North, and for that reason has been far more liberal. It is bound to remain so if it is to keep northern city support.

But the Democratic alliance with an unhappy, rebellious South has made the party exactly what Dewey said it was—confused.

Man to man, the Democratic party has better legislators in it than the Republican, both in the House and Senate. And Dewey will even be lucky to have certain Democrats defeat some of the diehard isolationist Republicans who have been out of step with him in the past.

G. O. P.'s Chance

During Roosevelt's first two terms, this country saw some of the greatest social and economic reforms in half a century. They were long overdue, and the Democratic party deserves great credit for putting them across.

After January the Republican party, which claims to be the party of efficiency, will be given a chance to demonstrate this claim.

Harry Truman has put up a courageous and magnificent fight. If he had fought as hard and as efficiently during all the three years he would not be in the trouble he is today.

But thanks to the combination of Dixiecrats and Wallaceites he cannot possibly win this election. He will roll up a bigger popular vote than previously expected, which will be good. For it is always bad for one party to be too cocksure and overconfident.

Meanwhile, let's hope that Tom Dewey will be as broad-minded as he is tough and can bring his party back to the progressivism of Teddy Roosevelt, Abe Lincoln and pre-civil war days.

Well, that's how the candidates and the parties stack up. I don't know that I've given you any real advice, because it's a very confused situation. And the only thing I'm sure of is that we face one of the most interesting and important periods in our history.

Love from
Your father.

Bandleaders Wail That Good Tunes Are Lacking This Year

NOTES of a New Yorker—The First-Nights: "The Leading Lady" (by and with Ruth Gordon) was hugged passionately by Robert Garland of the Journal-American. His love letter, however, was the only one; the other sentinels find the star's performance mightier than her pen. John Carr'a dine's role of a drama critic was especially enjoyed by the aisle men . . . "My Romance" was snubbed as a routine operetta, with some tuneful songs and considerable yawn bait. . . . "Life with Mother" (which brought home Howard Lindsay and Dorothy Stickney) was listed as a hit by the reviewers, who were fussier with nearly all the other superior entries to date. Ward Morehouse called it: "A triumphant evening" . . . "Streetcar Named Desire," limited to 30 standees by the Fire Dept., has taken in $25,000 (one-fifth the production cost) from people willing to stand to see the hit . . . Critic J. Brooks Atkinson's eyebrow-lifter: "The music is seldom as good as it sounds" . . . Huh?

Stage Door: Variety reports bandleaders are wailing that the season hasn't offered any hummable show tunes. They apparently need new ear trumpets. Haven't they heard "My Darling, My Darling!" from "Where's Charley?" or "Greenup Time" from "Love Life"? . . . Hinterland critics are not infallible, either. Two of the biggest Broadway clicks were appraised indifferently in tryout towns. They were "Life with Father" and "Oklahoma" . . . Paul Duke will be the first one-man magician show at Carnegie Hall in December. Doesn't use a single prop—only his hands . . . Those huge arc lights at movie premieres cost $550 for a minimum of 3 hours . . . Lawrence Weber in "My Romance" is the son of the late great Broadway showman, J. Lawrence Weber . . . Ingrid Bergman (with a straight face) told reporters that after her trip to Sweden she had to relearn English. That's the Swedish story ever told by a press agent.

THE Airstocrats: One of the high marks was Edw. Murrow's interview with Dr. Peter Zenkl, former Deputy Prime Minister of Czechoslovakia (and Buchenwald prisoner), on the subject of Ilse Koch . . . The telesee commercial of Lucky Strike cigarettes doing a square dance was big time. Very clever . . . Peter Donald gets better with each program. . . When Jerry Bergen starts his telesee program Nov. 5th it ought to click. He is a funny pantomimist . . . Difficult to savvy NBC's squawk about giveaways. One of its best shows incited the Jackpot orgy, "Truth or Consequences" . . . Those warmed-over quips about Sinatra's torso are so dated, Mr. Dully . . . The Texaco telesee-Milton Berle show (Tues. eves) reports the advance telehooper has them leading the league with 64.9 . . . Make way for a miracle: Although an oil firm sponsors the Philharmonic, a recent program omitted commercials. Brother, that's philanthropy.

The Story Tellers: Pageant's piece on Show Gals lists Georgette Windsor as the wife of zillionaire Hervey Cushing, whose name is Harry. His kin have zillions, but Harry gets $15,000 allowance per annum. . . . The Jan. Literary Guild selection will be "Elizabeth, Captive Princess" by Margaret Irwin . . . Carl Sandburg's novel, "Remembrance Rock", is over 1,000 pages long. The author quips that his book reminds him of the 5-foot mother who looked at her 6-foot sons and said: "I look at them and wonder, how come?" . . . Esquire's best cartoon: Closeup of practically nekkid show gels with the man - at - the - night - club - rope barring a patron because he hasn't a tie. . . Advance peekers recommend Wm. L. Laurence's SEP article in the Nov. 6th number. He's the ace who reported the atomic bombing of Japan . . . "China's Captain Kit" (in Esquire) is a corker. It's about Frank Farrell, the scribe, when he was capturing spies for the Marines . . . Adela Rogers St. Johns' "Hollywood Hall of Fame" (in Movie Stars Parade) is a refreshing smartticle.

THE INTELLIGENTSIA: Westport sculptor Justin Sturm's bronze head of Theresa Helburn is blue. To match her blue-dyed hair . . . Lili Foldes, author of "Two on a Continent," has a second tome ready for April release. The title is "Thanks for the Memory" (Dutton) . . . Doubleday Doran will publish "The Dark Mare" in the Spring. Damsey Wilson, the author, is the wife of barrister George Glassgold. . . Don't miss Edgar Ansel Mowrer's "The Nightmare of American Foreign Policy" (Knopf). . . . J. Kugelmass has a neat name for his next Reader's Digest piece on Louis Braille: "He Gave Them Windows" . . . Simmon & Schuster expect Billy Rose's "Wine, Women and Words" to skyrocket. The initial $1 format printing is 100,000 . . . They say Sinclair Lewis' coin for his next novel (due in the Fall) will be $60,000 just for mag rights. . . London papers say there are 55 errors in Churchill's "The Gathering Storm."

Broadway Lights: Benny Goodman's 4 Columbia platters (made in 1941) will be reissued to cash in on Peggy Lee's thrushing on all 8 sides. She got $100 a week then and won't rate a dime from these. . . . "End of the Line" (which Frankie Carle is publishing) is a ditty by Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnston (Kathryn Grayson) of the moom-pitchers . . . Garbo's "Ninotchka," revived on 42nd St., is still funnier than Stalin's haircut. . . . Many squawks about Betty Grable's legs being seen only in a few split-second shots in "Lady in Ermine." That's like putting on a show without raising the curtain! . . . You can't disguise beauty. Life's recent photo of Lauren Bacall (in a man's shirt dangling outside her shorts) plus bare tootsies, makes you look thrice . . . Mary McCarty's artistry in "Small Wonder" is being done the hard way. Dentist visits between shows . . . Showfolks who want a lesson in acting should witness Jean Simmons, "Ophelia" in "Hamlet" . . . Mrs. Basil Rathbone has submitted a play to Gertrude Lawrence. . . . A newsmag critic's baffler: "It's really not a good show; only a show with good things in it."

"If what President Truman says about Governor Dewey is true, and if what Governor Dewey says about President Truman is true, then neither is worthy of being elected to the presidency!"

Move to the head of the class, Mister Redwine. Both have done such a good job of convincing us that the other is a so-and-so, we're voting for Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina!

An extravagant statement very often results in a man's feeling cheap.

WE ARE quite certain that our New Mexico neighbors are fully capable of making their own political decisions without any outside assistance—"outside" in this instance referring both to this column, and that in adjoining space under the byline of Droop Pearson.

But since the courtesy of this page was given over to Mr. Pearson the other day so he could state his opinion of Gen. Pat Hurley, Republican senatorial candidate in New Mexico, we think it no more than right that a few truths be spread out here to counteract, locally, the nasty attack made on General Hurley by the Washington colyumer.

It so happens that we are personally acquainted with both Clint Anderson, the Democratic senatorial candidate, and with General Hurley, too. We think so highly of both we're glad we don't have to choose between them on this voting day.

Pearson was out in New Mexico a week or so ago and while there dashed off a piece to the effect that some of the war decorations given General Hurley are subject for question. That's probably so, because all generals get decorations from time to time that do not necessarily mean anything much. But in characteristic style, Pearson didn't say anything about such decorations as a whole. As he always does when he wishes to take a crack at someone he doesn't like, he hammered out his phrases so the uniniated might think that Pat Hurley wasn't a soldier and that, if he wore a uniform, he did so in perfect safety.

WELL the truth is that General Hurley was shot at—and himself shot at the enemy,—in France in World War I.

The further truth is that he risked his neck countless times in World War II, in the Pacific and elsewhere, flying routes as an American officer in and over fighting areas.

He had less than 12 hours, incidentally, to leave civilian life and go flying off to the war zones upon the call of Gen. Ike Eisenhower who, incidentally, didn't find it necessary to call on Mr. Pearson for any help in winning the war.

Pat Hurley, whom we knew as a boy and later as a young man, is a first class citizen, a first class soldier and a first class patriot.

If Mr. Pearon says he isn't, well, everyone knows that the Pearson veracity has been publicly challenged by two presidents and numerous other people in and out of public life and who are generally considered to be pretty honorable citizens.

It May Be A Blessing In Disguise

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A woman reader of this column who lives in a small two-bedroom home with her husband and four children confesses: "It is only recently that I have outgrown bursting into tears when some super-duper housekeeper leaves, having discovered our house in a cluttered mess."

MILLETT

The reader's choice of the word "outgrown" is a good one.

For a woman isn't fully mature until she realizes that her job in life is to do the best she can for her family, putting what seems most important to her family first, and then refusing to compare herself with other women and what they consider important.

SHOULDN'T TRY

OBVIOUSLY, the mother of small children—especially if they are crowded together in a small house — can't be a perfect housekeeper.

She shouldn't even try to be—because that isn't what is most important to her family.

Knowing that, why should she care what another woman—who happens to be a perfect housekeeper — thinks of the way she runs her home?

It is always well for a woman to remember that she can't be everything.

Obviously, she has to let down somewhere. And since that is inevitable, she shouldn't allow the "letting down" to make her feel like a failure.

Nobody is a failure who puts first things first, and lets the less important things slide.

Today's Thought

My words shall be of uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.—Job 33:3.

* * *

It would be well for us all, old and young, to remember that our words and actions, ay, and our thoughts also, are set upon never-stopping wheels, rolling on and on unto the pathway of eternity.—M. M. Brewster.

Journal Jabs

THE day after her husband gave her a diamond ring as a birthday present, a California woman pawned it, bought a revolver and shot him. There's many a woman in this world a man can't afford to be nice to.

* * *

The man who is trying to find a mountain peak higher than Mt. Everest would be using better judgment if he were looking for the deepest cave in the world.

* * *

"SAN Antonio policemen found children playing ball in the street with a live hand grenade."—News item. This was, of course, slightly more dangerous than playing ball in the street with a ball.

Today's Journal Editorial

A BENEFICIAL MOVE

Several benefits to Lubbock are likely to result from the planned extension of mail deliveries to approximately 4,000 residents in five suburban additions—Clayton-Carter, Avinger, Flake, Morrow and Suburban Homes.

The new service likely will hasten the time when the additions will be taken into the city limits. It also will bring into tighter focus the need for a good deal of street naming and for needed revisions in many areas of street numbering, so as to maintain the proper sequence which has gotten a little out of hand in some recent additions to the city.

Proper street naming and numbering will be necessary preliminaries to the proper addressing of mail in the areas for which deliveries are contemplated. The matter doubtless is one which will receive the attention and action of the individuals and official bodies involved at the proper time.

Dewey Is More Likely To Ask For Tax Raise Than Decrease

WASHINGTON—Some time ago in this column mention was made of an organization called Pro America as being one of many groups actively supporting Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. Pro America was referred to as a successor of America First, which was the stronghold of pre-war isolationism.

CHILDS

From the national president of Pro America, Mrs. Louise Hawkes Padelford, has come a letter saying this is not true. Mrs. Padelford, the daughter of Sen. Hawkes of New Jersey, encloses literature to show that her organization favors the European Recovery program.

If I unwittingly did an injustice to Pro America I am sorry for it. I am glad to be corrected by Mrs. Padelford.

But the stand taken by Pro America seems to me to raise an interesting question for the future and in particular for the future of Dewey as president. Pro America is for helping Europe to recover, but it is also for giving tax relief "to all income groups."

Smaller Taxes Expected

Many who will vote for Dewey expect further tax reductions along the line of the four and a half billion dollar slash made by the 80th Congress. Dewey has not actually promised a tax reduction, as his advisers are quick to point out. He has even now and then used the word sacrifice in connection with America's responsibilities to the rest of the world.

But he has talked about "tax revision" in such a way that many Republicans are looking forward to a Dewey administration in the same way a small boy anticipates Santa Claus. They will be expecting a generous handout shortly after January 20.

The grim realities confronting the new president will, however, compel him to move in exactly the opposite direction if he takes account of those realities. He will more than likely have to ask the Congress not for a tax reduction but for a tax increase.

Will Pro America and others of such similar outlook recognize that necessity? Or will they decide that saving the world from Communism is an extravagant and futile undertaking? On the answer to those questions a great deal depends.

Shortly after he takes office, the new president will have to ask for a new appropriation to finance the European Recovery administration. Funds are already running out.

But if current headlines are any indication, that is merely the beginning. A western European alliance has been led to expect that the United States will furnish arms to equip a western European army.

Dewey's adviser on foreign affairs, John Foster Dulles, has presumably been in on these negotiations.

Both Dewey and Dulles, along with a great many other Republicans, have promised increased aid for China. They have attacked the Truman administration for not doing more for the Chiang Kai-Shek government.

While they have been vague about the nature and the scale of this aid, any increase will take more money. And a decision will have to be taken quickly since the nationalist forces in China are on the ragged edge of dissolution

Tax Cut Was Folly

In the face of these overpowering necessities, the tax cut put into effect by the 80th Congress is seen in its true light. It was a monstrous folly.

It was folly because of its effect on opinion. Heaven knows none of us like to pay high taxes. The cut encouraged us to believe we could have our cake and eat it, too —help reconstruct the world and yet get by with low taxes.

It was folly because it cut out all surplus and put the government close to deficit financing. Yet we find Pro America speaking in its literature of "excessive taxation contributing to inflation."

The pinch will come early in the new year. It will come when the urgent necessities of the moment catch up with shrinking tax revenue. Dewey, as president, may be able to carry his followers with him over that obstacle. But they will not be happy.

GALS COST MORE

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (U.P.) — Women are more expensive than men—even behind bars. Garret Heyns, a Michigan parole board member, reports that the state spends $2 a day to maintain each male prisoner and $2.87 a day for each woman prisoner.

Struggling Japan Rock-Ribbed Compared With Warring China

By RUSSELL BRINES
Associated Press Staff Writer

TOKYO, Nov. 1—Japan has not yet reached stability, but it appears almost rock-ribbed by comparison with China.

This is the conclusion I drew from a month's vacation on the continent. The din of clamorous China was still in my ears on returning to the outward calm of this occupied country.

The differences between the two countries are even greater now than they were a year ago, when I made another swing across China.

In Japan the ideological war is continuous and so are the battles for political power. But under the occupation they are being fought in the bloodless arenas of argument and political maneuvering.

Tension Increased

Even in Shanghai and Hong Kong, far from China's civil war fronts, it is impossible to escape the violence of China's struggle.

The fall of Tsinan, capital of Shantung province, increased the tension and apprehension in South China.

The Japanese preface their disputes with a recapitulation of their new civil rights, even though they still do not appear to understand them fully. Even the Communists talk about these rights.

But in Shanghai the people are in fear of the secret police and the retroactive laws which are designed to enforce the new economic program of austerity and stability.

The Japanese at times appear restless under the occupation. But none except the Communists show any marked anti-foreign feelings or betray any attitude which might jeopardize American aid. Foreign businessmen are impatiently confident of a future without government controls.

Hostility To Foreigners

In Shanghai the hostility toward foreigners seems to be part of the atmosphere. American businessmen in China are extremely pessimistic. They say Chinese policies are crippling them, even though the Chinese themselves admit they need both foreign business and foreign help.

The Japanese have just been shocked by a bribery scandal amounting to $10,000,000 (J. S.). This is considerable, but it appears minute alongside the corruption of many Chinese officials.

Japanese industrial production is increasing, despite many complications. War and unrest have restricted China's industrial output, which always has been smaller than Japan's.

As for inflation, prices of essentials remain fairly stable in Japan. Everyone knows what happened in China before the government took steps to check runaway inflation. Now there are signs the new gold yuan, issued as a stabilizer, is beginning to skip.

Japan's confident people are slowly rebuilding their bombed metropolitan centers.

But the continuing deterioration of Shanghai's towering buildings—untouched by war—and the increased restlessness are saddening to one who knew that city before the war.

Gallup Poll Gives Dewey Wide Margin; Is Nearly 50 Per Cent

sets of Democratic electors are listed on the ballot.

Consequently the institute's figures for these four states are not to be regarded as forecasts of the vote. If the circumstances were normal, the figures below should represent, with a high degree of accuracy, the actual outcome of the vote in these four states:

| State | Dewey | Truman | Wallace | Thurmoud |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Alabama | 28 | x | 2 | 70 |
| Louisiana | 27 | 39 | 2 | 32 |
| Mississippi | 9 | 15 | 1 | 75 |
| S. Carolina | 9 | 38 | xx | 53 |

X—Not on the ballot.
XX—Less than one per cent.

The probable turnout in tomorrow's election has aroused much speculation, particularly as to whether it will be greater or smaller than 1940. The 1940 total of 49,901,835 was the largest number of votes cast in any American election.

Would Be Low Turnout

Tomorrow's turnout would only have to run to some 50,000,000 to be hailed as setting a new record for number of votes cast. While it would indeed be the largest vote in our history, in proportion to population it would actually be a very low turnout.

A vote of 50,000,000 would represent only 54 per cent of the total number of citizens 21 years of age or more. The ratio would be only 57 per cent if the turnout were 53,000,000.

Rate Of Voting Lower

This would compare unfavorably with 1940, when 63 per cent of the adult citizens voted. Even to equal the 1940 voting rate, tomorrow's turnout would have to be in the neighborhood of 58,000,000 because of the great increase in population in the past eight years.

The rate of voting in 1940 was, in itself, low when compared to earlier decades. In the year 1900, when only men voted, the total votes cast in the presidential election constituted 75 per cent of the potential voting population.

May Be Low Proportion

Readers studying election returns Tuesday night and Wednesday should, therefore, keep in mind that a turnout which exceeds 1940 may in reality represent a low proportion of the greatly increased electorate.

The following table shows the number of votes cast in the last four presidential elections. It will be noted that the total vote dropped in 1944, a war year.

|---|---|
| 1932 | 39,750,162 |
| 1936 | 45,648,090 |
| 1940 | 49,901,835 |
| 1944 | 47,974,868* |

*Includes armed forces.

This year marks the second election in recent history when the traditional Democratic pattern in the South has been broken up.

In 1928 when Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith were the opposing candidates, the Democrats lost seven of the 13 Southern states. Hoover carried Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. This year the Democratic threat in the South comes from the States' Rights candidate, Governor J. Strom Thurmond, with today's poll showing him well in the lead in at least three states.

Minor Parties Weak

Besides Truman, Dewey, Wallace and Thurmond there are seven other candidates running for President this year, as follows:

Norman Thomas, Socialist Party; Edward A. Teichert, Socialist Labor Party; Claude A. Watson, Prohibition Party; John G. Scott, Greenback Party; Gerald L. K. Smith, Christian Nationalist Party; Farrell Dobbs, Socialist Workers Party; and John Maxwell, Vegetarian Party.

These candidates are not on the ballot in all states. Some in fact have qualified in oly a handful of states. Altogether, these candidates will likely poll less than one per cent of the popular vote, as previously indicated.

G. O. P. Comeback In Mid-West

The Republican Party, underdog for so many years, made its comeback since 1936 largely in the middle western section of the country that lies between Ohio and the Rocky Mountains.

Of the 1,056 counties in this region the Republicans carried only 121 in the smashing Republican defeat of 1932 which ushered in the New Deal. In every subsequent presidential election the G. O. P. gained counties in the Mid-West area until in 1944 it carried 816. Elsewhere the G. O. P. gains were comparatively small.

In fact, in New England the Republicans actually carried fewer counties in 1944 than they did in 1932.

Popular Lead Comparisons

Governor Dewey's popular vote percentage in today's final poll runs lower than the percentage of the winner in elections in the past 20 years.

In the Republican victory of 1928 Mr. Hoover polled 59 per cent of the major party vote. Mr. Roosevelt's victories, 1932-1944, ranged between 54 and 62½ per cent.

The record follows:

| | Winner | *Pop. Vote | Electoral Vote |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1928 | Hoover | 59% | 444 |
| 1932 | FDR | 59 | 472 |
| 1936 | FDR | 62½ | 523 |
| 1940 | FDR | 55 | 449 |
| 1944 | FDR | 54 | 432 |

*Per cent of major party vote.

American Slain

interview someone in the zone of another occupier.

U. S. Army investigators said "there are many questions to which we lack answers," including a motive for the vicious beatings.

Unofficial American sources said Miss Sutkenina was the last of a number of presons Ross was driving home from a Saturday night party.

One theory American investigators are considering is that Miss Sutkenina, described by Austrian police as an Austrian, may be a Russian native in Austria as a displaced person.

An Austrian police official described the slaying as "the most brutal I have ever seen." Police said Ross' skull had been crushed by blows and that his body bore wounds indicating he had been bayonetted. The car was spattered with blood.

Miss Sutkenina told police she jumped from the car when the soldiers attacked Ross. She was seized, however, beaten and forced back into the automobile. Later she jumped from the car again or was thrown out. Austrian police found her and took her to a hospital where doctors said she had suffered a skull fracture.

Family In Vermont

Ross, wife and three young daughters live in east Hardwick, Vt., and his parents are residents of Waterbury, Conn., where he was born.

(His parents said last night his wife and daughters planned to leave the United States for Austria this week.)

He had served in Austria for more than a year as special assistant to Westmore Wilcox, chief of the ECA mission here. The ECA administers the Marshall plan. Ross was a relief administrator in New York from 1932 to 1942.

Miss Sutkenina did not regain consciousnes until about 12 hours after she was found. Doctors said her condition was serious but that she is expected to live.

STOCKS MAKE ADVANCES

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP) — Selective buying lifted the stock market fractions to more than a point today.

Turnover increased considerably as quotations were marked up, with volume for the full day at the rate of more than 1,000,000 shares.

Some traders threw off recent pre-election caution, but for the most part operations were not aggressive. In many cases key issues were highly sensitive to only small demand.

The rise in the steel group possibly indicated that the effect of U. S. Steel Corp.'s decision not to vote a special dividend was wearing off. Steels also attracted wide attention in London stock trading.

Gainers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, National, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Caterpillar Tractor, Douglas Aircraft, Schenley, Western Union, American Smelting, Dow Chemical, Dupont, Philip Morris, Radio Corp., American Woolen, Santa Fe, Central R. R. of New Jersey (at a new 1948 high), Standard Oil (NJ), Transcontinental & Western Air, and Loew's.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP) — Cotton futures moved slightly lower in early dealings today under pressure of hedge selling. When offerings dried up, the market steadied on trade orders and short covering, prior to the election holiday. Active producer selling was attributed to the fact that movement of the crop cotton is currently at its peak. There was some commission house liquidation. Buying was stimulated by prospects of a more active export demand in the current quarter.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (AP) — Corn overcame the weight of heavy cash arrivals to move upward on the board of trade today. A good demand developed for the outpouring of cash grain and prices ruled steady in the spot market. That encouraged buying of futures.

Soybeans, oats, rye and lard also tended upward most of the day. Wheat was inclined to lag, being depressed by receipts of good moisture in the winter wheat belt.

Wheat closed unchanged to ¼ higher, December $2.27⅞-¾; corn was ½-⅝ higher, December $1.37⅛-½; oats were ⅝-¾ higher, December 78-78⅛.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Nov. 1 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard, 2.46¼-43¼.
Oats No. 2 white 97½-98½.
Corn No. 2 white 1.70-80.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 2.55-60.

Markets At A Glance

STOCKS — Higher; steels lead slow climb.
BONDS—Mixed; some rails advance.
COTTON — Quiet; hedge selling, short covering.
CHICAGO:
WHEAT—Steady; late rally cancels early losses.
CORN — Steady; good demand cash grain.
OATS—Steady with other grains.
SOY BEANS—Firm; commission house buying.
HOGS—75 cents to $1.00 lower; top $24.75.
CATTLE — Steady to 50 cents higher; top $39.25.

Funeral Held Today For Lubbock Woman

Funeral services were read at 2:30 p. m. for Mrs. Cecil Tarpley, 33, who died at 1 a. m. Sunday of a malignant illness, at 2417 Twenty-fourth.

Services were at Thirty-fourth Street Baptist church, Rev. John P. Baker, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park cemtery, under direction of Sanders Funeral home.

Mrs. Tarpley had lived in Lubbock 16 years, before moving to Cleburne two years ago. She attended Lubbock public schools.

Survivors are the husband and two sons, Ronnie and Dale; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lang, of 2417 Twenty-fourth; five brothers, C. L., R. F., T. J., M. L., and R. E. Lang; and three sisters, Mrs. Jack Brogden, Mrs. Elizabeth Fleeman, and Mrs. J. C. Robinson.

DOUGLAS TO VISIT U.S.

LONDON, Nov. 1. (AP)—Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas will fly to the United States tomorrow for brief consultations in Washington, the American embassy announced today.

Nation Votes On Tuesday

fell upon him—as he put it—with "the whole weight of the moon and stars and all the planets" when Roosevelt died April 12, 1945. From the heights of popularity in the months that followed, Truman had to put down rebellion in his own party last summer. He was not completely successful.

Truman Disputes Polls

But the President stoutly disputes the poll takers who show Dewey far in the lead. Even without the votes he will lose in the South to States' Rights Democrat J. Strom Thurmond and elsewhere to Progressive Party Candidate Henry Wallace, Truman insisted in his campaign windup that he is going to win.

"The North, the South, the East and the West are falling in line," he declared at St. Louis Saturday night.

For his part, Dewey too was confident. He spoke of "the eve of victory" as he closed out his campaign in New York's Madison Square garden—the city where he rose to fame as a racket busting district attorney.

Dewey then went to his Pawling, N. Y., farm to rest until he returns to New York late today to vote and await the outcome.

Truman went on home to Independence, Mo. He will cast his ballot and follow the returns there, but only until an early bedtime.

While the presidency is the big issue tomorrow, the Senate battle commands nearly as much attention.

GOP Has Upper Hand

The Republicans, who smashed 14 years of Democratic rule of Congress in the 1946 off-year elections, now hold the upper hand in the Senate by only a 51 to 45 vote margin.

Thirty-two seats are at stake. And in 11 pivotal states the races are so close that politicians do not rule out the possibility of an unprecedented 48 to 48 tie.

Such a result would leave the deciding vote on party line issues up to the vice president—California's Gov. Earl Warren if Dewey wins, or Kentucky's Senator Alben W. Barkley if Truman retains the White House.

In addition, 432 House seats, 32 governorships, hundreds of state and local offices and scores of referenda issues will be settled.

Republican Maine elected a Senator, governor and three house members in September.

his disappointment when he lost the Republican nomination to the late Wendell Willkie in 1940.

But whether they went on campaign trips as did Mrs. Truman and Mrs. Dewey or stayed mainly near the hearth as did Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Thurmond, the weeks just past meant strain and tension for each one.

They had to be gracious on every occasion—have an ample supply of chit-chat yet be guarded about political opinions.

Each left the speechmaking to her husband. There were no give-and-take news conferences for women reporters such as Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt used to hold.

To Be In Missouri

With Mr. Truman and their 24-year-old daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Truman will await the election returns in the family home at Independence, Mo. Whatever the returns show she will have an official task ahead of her when she returns to Washington.

That will be to take part in at least the first phases of the White House fall and winter social season of state dinners and receptions. Usually announced in October, the social calendar this year has been delayed until after election.

By custom several of the events, including the important diplomatic dinners and reception, are held before the holidays and the others prior to lent.

Mrs. Dewey has been New York's first lady for the past six years and thus has had considerable experience at official entertaining. Attractive, slender and photogenic, she is a charming hostess. The move from the governor's mansion in Albany to 1600 Pennsylvania avenue would not be an abrupt one for her.

With their two sons, aged 13 and 16, the Deweys will be at New York's Roosevelt hotel for the election returns.

Man Is Killed By Car Near Lamesa

LAMESA, Nov. 1. (Special)—Jose Gregorio Paredes, 23, from San Ignacio, Tex., was fatally injured when he was struck by an automobile at Arvana community, six miles north of Lamesa, while walking along the Lamesa-Lubbock highway at about 10:30 p. m. Sunday.

Deputy Sheriff Edd Hatch said this morning that charges of failure to stop and render aid were being prepared against a man and a woman, both of Lubbock.

Investigators of the accident said the woman, whose age was listed as 29, was driving the car which struck Paredes only a few feet from the intersection at which he would probably have turned off the highway to go to the farm of B. B. Bratcher, where he was employed as a cotton picker.

Authorities said the woman and her male companion drove on to Lubbock, where they notified police of the accident. Both were returned to Lamesa early this morning as the investigation continued.

breathe. An emergency aid station was set up and hurried calls went out for oxygen equipment.

A doctor estimated the town's medical men treated between 400 and 500 cases.

The fog lifted yesterday and the number of sufferers eased off but there were two more deaths —both men. At least 32 people remained in the Charleroi-Monessen and Monongahela Memorial hospitals, two of them critical.

The state department of health sent in a team of chemists headed by Dr. Joseph Shilen of the industrial hygiene bureau. The American Steel and Wire company, largest industry in the town and a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel corporation, called on the Independent Hygiene corporation of Pittsburgh to join with state authorities in analyzing the air over Donora.

Numerous tests were made yesterday and others were planned for today. Dr. Shilen said he hoped to have a report on the first tests this afternoon.

"But it is my guess," he added, "that we will not find anything worthwhile. The greater part of the fog had passed by the time we got into operation."

The Donora Zinc works of the American Steel and Wire company closed and plant Superintendent M. M. Neale said they would remain so until it was determined whether the fumes and smoke given off by the smelter furnaces had anything to do with the conditions.

Jaycees Hear Talk On Tech-Rice Game

Dewitt (Judge) Landis, who briefly discussed last week's Tech-Rice football game, was the feature speaker at today's weekly Jaycee luncheon at the Hilton hotel.

Approximately 80 members and seven guests attended the luncheon, at which Doyle Justice, county chairman of the redistricting committee, urged support of Amendment No. 2 in Tuesday's general election. An impromptu singing duet by C. A. Rodgers and Harold Chapman, and a discussion by Gordon Sanders on the recent reorganization of the Tahoka Junior Chamber of Commerce rounded out the program.

Guests present were G. C. Davis, L. E. Crites, Bill Cook, Troy Price, Leonard Condin, Joe Cardwell and C. W. Denison. Bill Anderson, a new member, was also introduced.

Funeral Set Today For Lubbock Child

Funeral services were to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Sanders Funeral Home chapel for Gordon Lee Sartor, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Sartor, of 208 Ave. T, who died late Saturday in West Texas hospital.

Cause of the child's death was not announced. Rev. John P. Baker, pastor of Thirty-fourth Street Baptist church, was to officiate, under direction of Sanders morticians, and burial was to be in Lubbock cemetery.

Voting In County

mates for this year, however, run to as high as 7,500 to 10,000.

County Auditor Joe Boyd said 25,750 ballots had been printed.

More than 23,000 could vote in Lubbock county, based on poll taxes and estimated exemptions, J. B. Johnston, county tax assessor-collector, said.

Early Vote Urged

The voters are urged to go early to the polls. The 2½-by-1½-foot ballots, listing columns for Democrats, Republicans, State Rights, Prohibition, Progressive, Socialist, Independent, and write-in choices, also have eight amendments for the voters to mark.

State law allows only eight persons to conduct an election in a given precinct voting place, so the work of counting is expected to be difficult — particularly since there is indication of numerous split ballots.

GOP Seeks County Posts

Lubbock county, for the first time, will decided between Democratic and Republican candidates for several county and precinct offices, not to mention congressional and state senator and state representative aspirants.

Mohler D. Temple (R) will contest George Mahon (D) for congressman from the 19th district. Fred L. Parham (R) is running against Kilmer B. Corbin (D) for state senator, 30th district; Frank Parris (R) against Preston E. Smith (D) for state representative.

Other Races Listed

The ballot further shows these races between Democrats and Republicans:

For county judge—Walter Davies (D), Mack Hiatt (R).

For sheriff—Grady Harrist (D), George J. Young (R).

For tax assessor-collector—J. B. Johnston (D), F. E. Carter (R).

For county treasurer — T. E. May (D), Mrs. Leland T. Hiatt (R).

For commissioner, precinct 1—R. O. Short (D), Otto Rea (R).

For commissioner, precinct 2—George G. Green (D), Ira Brown (R).

For commissioner, precinct 3—Ottis Isom (D), H. O. Gwinn (R).

For constable—George B. Jones (D), W. H. Castleberry (R).

Judges Are Listed

Thes following presiding judges will conduct the elections, assisted by associate judges, in the 26 election precincts of the county:

Precinct 1, southwest corner of courthouse, L. B. Wright.

Precinct 2, southeast corner of courthouse, J. B. Durham.

Precinct 3, northeast corner of courthouse, M. M. Stiles.

Precinct 4, northwest corner courthouse, Frank M. Maddox.

Precinct 5, Dupre school, Guy Casey.

Precinct 5-A, Roscoe Wilson school, O. A. Lambert.

Precinct 6, Junior High school, George W. Foster.

Precinct 6-A, Senior High school, A. S. Jackson.

Precinct 7, K. Carter school, H. W. Sims.

Precinct 8, Northwest Slaton, J. H. Brewer.

Precinct 9, East Slaton, Charlie Whalen.

Precinct 10, Southwest Slaton, Leonard Harral.

Precinct 11, Roosevelt, Douglas Pounds.

Precinct 12, Idalou, J. B. Mitchell.

Precinct 13, Becton, G. K. Bullock.

Precinct 14, Monroe (New Deal), W. O. Fortenberry.

Precinct 15, Shallowater, J. F Vance.

Precinct 16, Frenship (Wolfforth), Ed Schroeder.

Precinct 17, Cooper (Woodrow), D. W. Huckabee.

Precinct 18, Posey, Mert Gentry.

Precinct 19, McClung, Marvin Winniford.

Precinct 20, Abernathy, Ed Hardin.

Precinct 21, Estacado, Dip Fox.

Precinct 22, Hurlwood, W. A. Martin.

Eight Amendments On Ballot

Eight changes in the state's constitution are offered. This is the ballot order of the proposals and what they do:

No. 1—(H.J.R. No. 30) — Proposes workmen's compensation insurance for county employes.

No. 2—(S.J.R. No. 2)—Proposes that a special state board redistrict the state for legislative purposes when the legislature fails to perform this constitutional task.

No. 3—(H.J.R. No. 13)—Proposes that a husband and wife may legally divide their property between them to claim such property separately for taxation and other purposes.

No. 4—(H.J.R. No. 7)—Proposes that the legislature may provide by law the line of gubernatorial succession beyond the succession of the lieutenant governor.

No. 5—(H.J.R. No. 35)—Proposes preservation of the $5,000 homestead exemption from state property taxes should the tax purpose be changed.

No. 6—(H.J.R. No. 36)—Proposes abolishing the fee system and substituting salaries for all county and precinct law enforcement officers.

No. 7—(H.J.R. No. 24)—Proposes abolishing the state general fund property tax and permitting counties to levy the tax instead for flood control and farm road use.

No. 8—(H.J.R. No. 39)—Proposes a retirement system for state judges.

GOP County Leader Issues Vote Appeal

An appeal to turn out at the polls Tuesday was issued to all Republicans "and to Democrats who are interested in having the two-party system in Texas" by Mrs. Wright Kerr, county Republican chairman, this morning.

Mrs. Kerr, in urging voters to support the Republican nominees, pointed out that the strength of the Republican convention in Texas by law is determined solely and entirely by the number of votes cast for the Republican candidate for governor. In other words, the number of votes cast for Dewey and Warren for president and vice-president has no effect on the county convention strength.

In supporting Alvin H. Lane for governor on the Republican ticket Mrs. Kerr cited him as an "ideal candidate," a native Texan, an overseas veteran and not a professional politician. He is a Dallas lawyer.

Mr. Kerr said the Republican county convention will station "supervisors" at each polling place in Lubbock. The assignments announced were: Mrs. M. D. Temple, precinct 6; Mrs. Hayes Sieber, 4; Mrs. Ann T. Aston, 5; Mrs. R. G. Porter, 2; Mrs. J. A. Mullins, 7; Mrs. George J. Young, 5-A; Graham Brotherson, 1; Mrs. S. C. Stone, 5-B; Mrs. Mack Hyatt, 6-A; and W. G. Dingus, 3.

Rains Over Area

inch at Happy.

Reports received by the Fort Worth and Denver railway included: Turkey, Quitaque, Sterley, Petersburg, one-half inch each; Hart, .71 inch; Dimmitt, .85 inch; and Silverton, 1.39 at midmorning, when rain still was falling at Silverton.

Sunday afternoon rainfall in Lamesa was officially reported at 1.8 inches, with much heavier rains in other parts of Dawson county last night. Unofficial reports this morning listed as much as six inches in the southwest part of the county, near Patricia, with lighter falls reported in other sections. Widespread damage to cotton crops from the rainfall and high winds was reported, and in many fields it appeared probable that pickers would not be able to work for several days because of the rain.

Amarillo recorded 3.27 inch of rain and some hail from 6:30 a. m. Sunday until rain ceased this morning, the weather station here learned.

Big Spring received .07 inch and Abilene, .39.

The Lubbock forecast called for partly cloudy skies today, tonight and Tuesday; fresh to occasionally strong wind and lower temperatures. A maximum temperature in the upper 60's was forecast for this afternoon and low in the upper 30's tonight.

Fines Totaling $451 Assessed By Davies

Six persons pleaded guilty of misdemeanor offenses this morning, and County Judge Walter Davies assessed a total of $451 in fines, County Attorney John Steele said.

Fines of $100 and costs were levied against E. N. Haddock, about 40, and Francisco Rodriguez, about 42, for drunk driving, and W. H. Tarrant, about 42, and Willie M. Jimerson, 41, a negro, for liquor law violation.

A fine of $50 and costs were assessed against Emery Vesco Smith, 36, of Lubbock, for drunk driving, and one of $1 and costs against S. D. West, for check law violation.

Police Roundup

$15 were reported taken from a trailer of Mrs. I. D. Summers of 515 Ave. Q.

Santos Barazo of Lubbock route 3 said a .22 rifle valued at $39.50 had been stolen from his car parked in Mackenzie State park.

Mrs. O. W. Woodson of 505 Fourteenth reported a $12.95 tricycle stolen.

Stop Sign Said

James Cannon of Abernathy said his bike, valued at $60, was stolen here.

Not even the city of Lubbock was exempt: a stop sign was stolen from Fifteenth and Ave. X, police said.

The run to the tourist camp resulted from a police radio car's sighting a "suspicious car" at 7:49 a. m. It carried a license number that had been the subject of radio traffic back and forth between Lubbock and Austin last week, officials said.

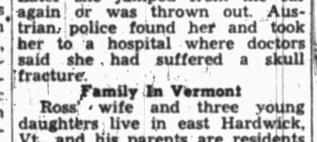

Investigation ino two armed assaults, one near Colorado City and the other near Hobbs Friday night, was linked with the efforts here, officials said.

Three unknown males and a girl were said to have held up a man between Colorado City and Loraine and to have taken a bill fold, papers and a .30-.30 rifle from him, then to have "probably headed toward Lubbock." Colorado police had broadcast at 8:50 p. m. Sunday. A car was described, but the license number was not obtained. The suspects "may be using only one license plate," police here were advised, and the car they found answered that description. The subjects were believed to be "heavily armed, and caution should be used in arresting them." A machine gun was used in the Colorado City robbery, they further were advised.

In the Hobbs robbery, there were two unknown males, about 28 and 22, and a girl, about 18. License number of their car also was incomplete.
