Renewal In Order?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—The British government asked the American government again today if it did not consider renewed protests to Japan to be in order.

Sympathy Cools

LONDON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Sympathy for Japan in London newspapers cooled considerably today after reports that thousands of foreigners in the international settlement at Shanghai were in danger. At the same time, arrangements had been made by the government for dispatch of additional troops from Hongkong to Shanghai aboard a British warship. The troops were ordered out by the government in response to a request from Brigadier General George Fleming, British commander in the international settlement.

Plant Is Fired On

SHANGHAI, Feb. 1 (AP)—Bullets cracked into the Shanghai plant of the American Texaco Oil company today when a Japanese destroyer steaming down the Whangpo river raked the shore with machine gun fire.

Nobody was hurt but the company officials protested to the American Consul who took it up with the Japanese authorities. Shortly after the firing the American destroyer Parrott tied up at the Texaco wharf.

Given Free Hand

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Secretary Stimson in his latest instructions to Ambassador Forbes in Tokyo has given the ambassador a free hand to cooperate with other diplomats in Japan for the protection of American and other nations in China.

Uprising Recalled

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Just 32 years ago this summer the United States was forced to send infantrymen to China to protect its nationals in an emergency even more grave than the present one at Shanghai. It was the Chinese "boxers" whose uprisings spread death and terror then, besieging Americans in Tientsin and Peking until after a bitter struggle the army won through to free them.

Resolution Offered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—A resolution calling on the senate foreign relations committee to advise the senate and the country periodically on developments in China was introduced today by Senator Thomas (D., Okla.).

Clash Imminent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—A threatened imminent clash between Chinese and Japanese at Swatow, 500 miles down the coast from Shanghai, was reported to the state department today by the American consulate at that city.

Asked To Withdraw

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Feb. 2 (AP)—(Tuesday)—General Honjo, the Japanese high commander in Manchuria, sent word today to Tingchao the Chinese leader in the Harbin sector, that it would be best for him to withdraw, for Japanese troops are determined to occupy Harbin to safeguard foreign lives and property.

The Rengo (Japanese) news agency correspondent reported that an engagement which began early yesterday between Tingchao's forces and advancing Japanese troops was continuing early this morning, with the Japanese pounding hard on the Chinese right wing.

Question Revived

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. — The conflict in China may cause a turnabout in congressional attitude and revival of the $600,000,000 plan to build up the American navy to the limit. Purely for reasons of economy, the naval committee of the house announced some time ago that the big building program, approved by its membership, would go on the shelf. It was to stay there at least until after the Geneva disarmament conference.

Protest Filed

TOKYO, Feb. 1. (AP)—United States Ambassador W. Cameron Forbes filed a formal protest with the Japanese government tonight against the use of the international settlement at Shanghai as a base of operations against the Chinese. The British Ambassador made a similar protest and the Ambassador from France conferred with the foreign minister.

The American protest contends the Japanese are aggravating the situation at Shanghai by using the international settlement as a base.

Italy Joins Move

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—Italy formally notified the United States today it was joining in the move of the western nations in the Shanghai crisis.

JUDGE STATES MEASURE IS NULL, VOID

INJUNCTION ASKED TO RESTRAIN FARMER IS DENIED IN COURT

(By The Associated Press)

FRANKLIN, Feb. 1. — District Judge W. C. Davis today held that the Texas cotton acreage restriction law, passed by the 42d legislature, is "unconstitutional, null and void." He denied an injunction sought by County Attorney T. L. Tyson of Robertson county to restrain Fred L. Smith of Calvert, farmer, from planting more cotton this year than the law would allow.

In his opinion the jurist declared that enforcement of the law would be "the essence of tyranny and destructive of the fundamental principles of free government, would violate sacred guarantee of our constitution and would make the bill of rights a nullity and a farce."

The defendant being the owner and lessee of said lands, same being private property and having never been devoted to public use or invested with the public interest, he would be entitled to the rents and revenue therefrom, and it appearing that he could not profitably grow, cultivate and harvest any crop other than cotton on said lands, the enforcement of this statute would be to destroy seventy per cent of the revenues and rents derived from said lands, and there being no provision in said act providing for compensating him for said loss, same would be in direct conflict with article 1 section 17 of the constitution of the state of Texas and article 5 of the constitution of the United States."

The law would prohibit the planting in cotton this year more than 30 per cent of the total amount of land in cultivation in 1931.

County Attorney Tyson said he would appeal the judgment immediately to the 10th court of civil appeals at Waco and it was expected the case would be carried finally to the state supreme court, if necessary, since Attorney General James C. Allred has indicated his willingness to make the present case a test of the law's constitutionality.

THREE DIE IN WINTER WAVE

EIGHT OTHERS FEARED DEAD IN AIRPLANE LOST SINCE FRIDAY

By The Associated Press

At least three persons were victims of bitter winter weather, which in the last three days has touched nearly all sections of the nation.

John Taylor, a 14-year-old Boy Scout of Dee, Ore., was found frozen to death in the foothills of Mount Hood where he had gone alone to hunt. Two men froze to death in Minnesota. William Seifert, 67, in the Duluth business section and Emil Hill, 50, in an open field near Saginaw.

Warmer Forecast

Rising temperatures were forecast today for much of the midwest but the cold continued along the Pacific coast, in the Rocky mountains and in northern and northeastern United States.

Both land and aerial searchers for the missing Century Pacific airliner, unreported since Friday afternoon in southern California, reported a blizzard raging over the mountains near the spot where the plane was believed to have crashed with its seven passengers and pilot.

Ranchers in the northwest, where snow drifted as high as 20 feet, said some cattle probably would die.

Record Shattered

A record of 26 years standing was shattered in Yosemite national park, where an 18-inch snowfall Sunday brought the fall of the season on the valley floor to 137 inches. The greatest previous fall was 134 inches in 1906.

Mason City, Iowa, reported 18 below zero.

McLennan Brings In New Oil Producer

WACO, Feb. 1. (AP)—The Dixie Oil syndicate has brought in a producer on the J. Lee Davis property 14 miles southwest of Waco, in McLennan county and 14 miles northwest of Marlin. C. C. Curtis, the driller, estimated production would be between 1,000 and 2,000 barrels daily. The oil tested 35.1 gravity.

The well came in at a depth of 1,006 feet. The producer is several miles north of the Post Oak field where oil was found about ten years ago.

INJUNCTION IS GRANTED IN CASE HERE

OFFICERS RESTRAINED FROM ENFORCEMENT OF TRUCK LAWS

Opposition of motor truck operators to a law passed by the 42d state legislature, restricting net loads of commercial vehicles and combinations to 7,000 pounds, reechoed in 99th district court here this morning when Judge Clark M. Mullican granted a temporary injunction to restrain peace officers from enforcing the rule.

The only formality remaining before the restraining order was effected officially was posting of $100 bond by the plaintiffs and that was expected today by court attaches.

The truck operators, in their petition, cited granting of an injunction by the United States court of the southern Texas district, pending hearing of an appeal from a decision of that court regarding constitutionality of section No. 5 of the bill to the United States supreme court. Similar injunctions had been granted elsewhere in Texas, the petition stated.

Plaintiffs were

R. C. Harris of Lubbock county; Ray Sawyer of Lea county, N. M.; S. C. Broles and J. O. Barnett of Lamb county; Bays R. Bryant, J. K. Jackson, W. N. Lewis, and J. P. Jeffreys of Lubbock county; J. H. Rambo of Terry county, and H. C. Darden, J. A. Darden, Fred Darden, H. C. Darden jr., Mrs. H. E. Darden and J. D. Wardlow, all of Hale county.

Although an enjoinder against all Texas peace officers was asked, the petition specifically named Jack Reeves, state highway patrolman; Wade Hardy, Lubbock county sheriff; Mun Telford, Terry county sheriff, and B. L. Parker, Lynn county sheriff.

Demented Trapper Kills N. W. Officer

AKLAVIK, N. W. T., Feb. 1. (AP)—From the cold fastnesses of the north country by radio has come word that Albert Johnson, the demented trapper of Rat river, has slain a royal northwest mounted police constable.

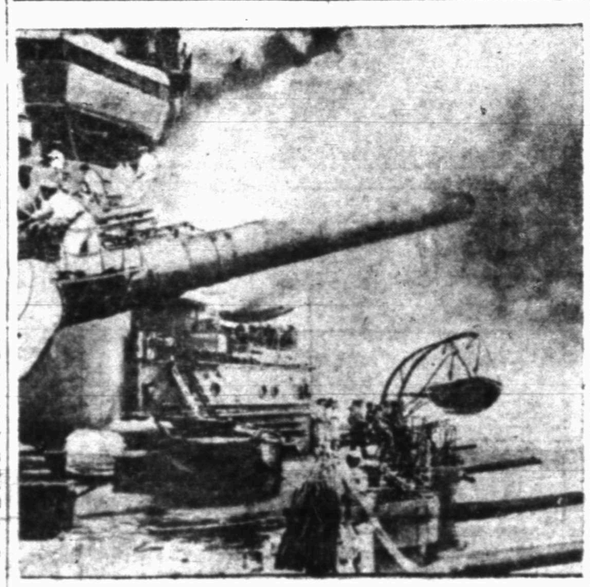

Constable E. Millen was shot and killed Saturday, said the message yesterday from a police patrol which sought Johnson for the wounding of another constable who went to his cabin to question him when Indians complained their trap lines were being molested. The patrol carried a portable field radio, its only communication with the outside world when away from its base.

BANKERS WILL ACCEPT CUT IN RAIL WAGES

LABORERS AGREE TO A TEN PER CENT CUT TO AID JOBLESS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 1. — Railway labor, from section hand to engineer, takes a 10 per cent wage cut today, with the hope it will give work to the jobless and speed the return of better times.

The agreement which authorized the nation's railroads to take $215,000,000 out of the pay envelopes of the workers for one year was signed last night by leaders of both sides.

It was a voluntary concession on the part of labor at the request of the rails. Had the workers chosen, they could have forced the carriers to take the requiction demand before a board of arbitration with consequent months of delay. Their rate of pay is protected by contract.

In return the workers received certain concessions to a compromise program they proposed, chief among them being assurance the rails would do as much as condition would justify to use the wage cut savings toward relieving the distress of 700,000 jobless and 600,000 only partly employed.

The final scene enacted in the conference room of a loop hotel climaxed 17 days of negotiations that were without precedent in the history of rail-labor relations. Never before had the two factions pooled their efforts to solve a problem of like nature or magnitude.

CHANNING POLLOCK'S "THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL" WILL BE PRESENTED HERE TONIGHT; PLAYERS ARE EXPERIENCED

A score of mechanical changes, made on the stage before the eyes of the audience, although unseen because of a darkened house, feature the performance of "The House Beautiful" to be held at 8:30 o'clock tonight in the new Senior High school auditorium.

"We carry our own special lighting system and we use the 'blackout' plan and make our changes right on the stage," John F. Mackenzie, manager, said this morning. "All of the changes for the two hours and ten minutes the performance lasts, are made on the stage.

"There are 22 persons in the company, three of them being members of the mechanical staff. We use 12 local men in making the changes of scenery. We use a 70 foot baggage car to carr your scenery."

Members of the cast, from Miss Ethel Intropidi, the leading lady and John Griggs, the leading man, on down, are experienced in dramatic work. All of them, Mr. Mackenzie said, have played in New York City and nearly all have had experience in stock companies. Some have had motion picture experience.

CHOICE SEATS REMAIN

Tickets for 'The House Beautiful' will remain on sale at Tech college and at Bowen's Drug store, Broadway at Avenue J, throughout today and at 7 o'clock this evening will be moved to the high school auditorium where tickets may be purchased prior to the show's opening.

Plenty of choice seats remain on the boards, priced at $1, $1.50 and $2, with a 50-cent reduction on any ticket used by a Tech college or high school student.

The company started its road tour at Princeton, N. J., on October 12, Mr. Mackenzie said, playing to students of Princeton university. From there the tour played through the central states, then to Memphis and St. Louis north along the Mississippi into Wisconsin and Minnesota and thence south through Kansas City and into Texas.

"We try to make the college towns with 'The House Beautiful' as we have strong endorsements from ministers and churches, college professors and others," the manager explained. "At San Angelo, our last

ONE IS BADLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

AUTO OVERTURNS THIS MORNING; VICTIMS BROUGHT HERE

An automobile occupied by four Lubbock men overturned on the Petit school road about 9 miles northwest of Levelland at about 11:30 o'clock this morning. All four were injured.

A Levelland ambulance brought two of the injured men to West Texas hospital, where they were received at about 1:15 o'clock this afternoon. X-ray photography was begun at once.

A. W. Jackson, of Jackson Bros. Grain and Coal company, was driving the automobile, which turned over two and a half times, stopping with wheels in the air. Jackson lives at 2223 Seventeenth street.

Mr. Jackson's injuries consist of a comminuted fracture of the left tibia just above the kneebone and abrasions and lacerations on the face, it was reported at the hospital following the examination.

W. B. Manous, 2123 10th street, is the most seriously injured of the quartet. He is said to have suffered concussion of the brain and a neck injury, "a slight misplacement of the cervical vertabra." The injury may prove serious and it was said physicians at the hospital would keep close watch on his case.

The other occupants of the car were only slightly injured, it was learned after the ambulance had arrived.

At the grain and coal company offices, E. M. Martin, a carpenter, and W. P. Coffman, a general workman, were said to have gone to Levelland with Jackson. A bricklayer also was in the group but office attaches could not recall his name.

Davis-Mason ambulance of Levelland took the injured men to Levelland where they received emergency treatment.

The four had been en route to Jackson's farm, near the Pep community, where they intended to do some work, according to Preston Lee, a Levelland man who accompanied ambulance attendants to the scene of the accident.

POLL TAX TOTAL MORE THAN 6,000

Between 6,000 and 7,000 Lubbock county citizens will be eligible to go to the polls in July to mark their ballots, attaches of the county tax collector's office indicated this morning. They estimated that many poll taxes, nearly normal, had been paid.

A hundred 51 persons paved poll taxes Sunday, the last day. Twenty exemptions because of age or physical disability, were recorded Sunday.

Employes in County Tax Collector A. J. Clark's office this morning were faced with stacks of mail. Taxes paid by mail postmarked not later than January 31, Sunday, are acceptable as on time. The office remained open Sunday. City and school district tax offices here also were open Sunday. An estimate of current state and county taxes paid thus far was impossible this morning, workers said.

Former Sheriff Of Hall Faces Charge

WICHITA FALLS, Feb. 1. (AP)—S. A. Christian, 65, former Sheriff of Hall county, told the record news he surrendered at his home in Turkey yesterday after being indicted at Austin on a fee extortion charge.

Christian immediately made $2,500 bond. He said he understood the indictment was in connection with mileage claims of one of his deputies for a trip to Galveston. He said he was "innocent of any intentional wrongdoing."

After three years as chief of police at Memphis, Christian was the Hall county sheriff from 1926 to 1930.

FOUR NATIONS PREPARE TO DEFEND CITIZENS IN SHANGHAI; AMERICAN FLAG IS TORN DOWN IN MISSION; U. S. SENDS TROOPS AND WARSHIPS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—Evacuation of some 4,000 Americans from five trouble points in China appeared an imminent likelihood today with reports growing more and more serious. Highly disturbing reports of increased tension at Nanking, Shanghai, Swatow, Cheefoo and Amoy were received by the navy and state departments.

BY MORRIS J. HARRIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

SHANGHAI, China, Tuesday, Feb. 2. — Shanghai boiled with indignation today at reports that Japanese warships had shelled Nanking, landing marines under protection of gunfire from destroyers.

Thirty thousand of the finest troops in all China were there and it appeared probable there would be a major engagement.

Nanking is the home of 200 American citizens.

Consular officers at Nanking warned Americans to be prepared to evacuate within two hours.

The United States destroyer Simpson, on duty there, shifted its position to get out of the line of the Japanese fire.

At Shanghai, military and naval forces of the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy joined to defend the embattled city against further sanguinary outbreaks.

The high command in Tokyo decided to ask the cabinet for permission to send a full army division to Shanghai.

Machine gun bullets from a Japanese destroyer whipped through the American-owned Texaco Oil plant on the Whangpo river and a Japanese Marine patrol in the Hongkew district ripped down the American flag over a school for Chinese boys.

American Flag Ripped Down

Dr. John Hawk, director of property owned by the American Methodist Episcopal church, South, reported Japanese marines had invaded the school for Chinese boys which the mission operates in the Hongkew district. They ripped down the American flag, but did not molest any of the staff. It was their second visit, Dr. Hawk said.

Wireless reports from Nanking said two Japanese cruisers and one destroyer were shelling the city while marines were put ashore. The Japanese have seven ships there. One American naval vessel and one British ship also are there.

Yesterday morning a crack division of 30,000 Chinese national guardsmen streamed into Nanking and took up positions on the city walls behind sandbag fortifications. They were intended originally for service here but with today's de-

HOOVER ISSUES ORDERS SUNDAY FOR STIFF ARMED PROTEST

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—America acted forcefully today to protect her sons and daughters in bloodied and burned Shanghai.

In the van of the great powers of the world, this country's available troops and warships were rushed to the Chinese port, while a third stiff protest went forward to Japan against the devastation and carnage unleashed by her invasion.

From the study in which Lincoln directed operations of the civil war, President Hoover broke the Sunday quiet yesterday to send out orders to army and navy. A radio to the Philippines sent 1,000 khaki-clad doughboys scurrying aboard the transport Chaumont, ordered to sail tomorrow. By another message Admiral Montgomery M. Taylor, commander of the American asiatic fleet, was sent to sea with the cruiser Houston and seven destroyers, steaming under forced draft for Shanghai. They will stand by, ready to evacuate the American population if necessary.

France Joins In

The American action came with Great Britain's despatch of three cruisers, infantry and artillery from Hongkong, while France for the first time joined in with representations to Japan for protec-

ARMS PARLEY IS AFFECTED

DIPLOMATIC LEADERS OF 64 NATIONS ARE TROUBLED TODAY

BY P. I. LIPSEY, JR.

GENEVA, Feb. 1. (AP)—Geneva became the political forum of a troubled world today as diplomats of 64 nations assembled here with mingled hopes and fears for the disarmament conference which is scheduled to open tomorrow under a cloud of warlike strife in the far east.

As the delegates arrived yesterday

GENEVA, Switzerland, Feb. 1. (AP)—Lo Wen-Kan, China's foreign minister, informed the League of Nations by cable today that there is no foundation for reports abroad that China is preparing to declare war on Japan.

for the disarmament conference China, through W. W. Yen, her spokesman before the league, renewed her plea to the league to take "effective measures to prevent Japanese aggression and to preserve peace."

China To Have Claims

He said China reserved the right to claim suitable reparations for damage done by Japan at Shanghai and the delegates to the conference, about to attack the perplexities connected with the problem of limiting and reducing armaments, expressed concern over the conflict there.

The diplomats and military and naval air experts assigned to the parley organized their forces today for the long sessions before them. Leaders of the league council sealed a report from the special commission of inquiry at Shanghai. The league council planned to resume its deliberations on the Sino-Japanese crisis tomorrow morning.

Last Name Dropped By Post Dispatch

HOUSTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—The Houston Post-Dispatch today dropped the last word from its name and announced it would be the Houston Post hereafter.

The Post, then some fifty years old and the Dispatch, a relatively new paper, were merged seven years ago by Governor Ross S. Sterling, then owner of the Dispatch.

J. E. Josey, insurance man and capitalist, recently succeeded the Sterling interests as publisher of the Post-Dispatch.

Motiveless Murder Puzzle For Police

CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Another apparently motiveless murder—the fourth since Jan. 1—puzzled police today.

The fourth victim, Earl Davis, 22, was beaten to death yesterday with a hammer in the garage where he was employed as a watchman, meeting death in the same manner as the other three.

The garage is about two blocks from the office of Dr. James Shaffer, a dentist, beaten to death Jan. 23 while working on a cross word puzzle. The previous victims were Charles Pagel, killed in a hotel, and Charles Tyrell, slain in a rooming house.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

COMPLIMENTED

It was in the city of Spokane. I had just finished a speech before an assembly of teachers of the Washington State Teachers' association. I was following a crowd to a smaller room, where I was to lead a section meeting. We had to pass down a stairs. At the bottom of it, to one side, stood two tow-headed boys. I paused to talk to them and learned that they were brothers, one ten and the other eight years old. Volunteered the older, "I heard your speech, Mister, I heard all of it, and it sure was a good one," to which I sincerely replied. "Thank you: I appreciate your kind words more than if the same had been said by all the grown-up people upstairs."

It was not a bit of oratory nor an attempt at being humorous. It was a simple description of some of the uncomfortable feelings a pupil suffers in the classroom and some of the things which occur, to cause, these painful feelings.

If I made it plain enough for the ten-year-old to grasp it should not have been too hard for the teachers, except that they were teachers and he was a pupil. He very recently, no doubt had had some of the experiences I described.

Doubtless many of the teachers had forgotten like experiences of their own when they were school children. Having been teachers for several years, it was, moreover, not very easy for them to put themselves, through their imagination, into their pupils' places. Nevertheless, it is possible for us teachers and for us parents to do so. Such achievement is essential to our understanding children.

Anyway, I tried to make those teachers see that because we are human beings we do many things without knowing that we do them, which cause our pupils to experience intense, inward pain. Upon our temptation to employ shame, ridicule and sarcasm, I dwell most, pointing out that we are prone to resort to wisecracks, that we do so not on purpose to injure the child's feelings and destroy his personality, but because we get a "kick" out of it. We do it about as non-consciously as a dog wags its tail.

The injury to the pupil had never come to our attention. Once we realize the harm we do, the suffering we cause by such offense against the sacredness of the child's personality, we shall strive to keep ourself from sinning further in this manner.

The subject discussed was "Building Personality in the Child at School," which happens to be the title of my latest book. Teachers and parents interested further in this subject might wish to read a series of articles of mine on "Personality Problems" running in the Journal of Education: a second series in American Childhood and a third in Child Welfare Magazine.

Teachers, parents and Children are invited to send in their questions, problems and criticisms. Please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if you want a personal reply.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr Garry C. Myers, in care of this paper or Central Press Association 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear."

THE giant took the glass and said, "I guess you little lads have read about real strange things happening. Well you will see one soon. However, we will wait a while. A plan I have will make you smile. I'm going to serve you all some lunch because it's almost noon!"

In glee the bunch began to squeal! Cried Scouty, "Fine! Bring on the meal! I know we all are hungry and some food will taste just right. But I will help prepare it. Gee, you always can depend on me. To earn my dinner I will gladly work with all my might."

"Well, thank you, son," the giant said. "All I need do is go ahead and take soup from the ice box. I can heat it in no time. There's hardly work for more than one. I'll get the meal because it's fun. Just wait a minute, lads, and then up to the table climb."

It didn't seem much time at all until they heard the giant call. "Already for our little feast." Then they sat down to eat. In half an hour they all were through. The giant said, "I now will do a little stunt that I feel sure will turn out quite a treat."

He grabbed the magnifying glass and said, "Now all of you must pass before this thing, one at a time. 'Twill make you Tinies look real quickly to your normal size. Why, say, you won't believe your eyes." "How you can do that," Scouty said, "I really do not know."

"All right, you're first. Please step right out," the giant cried. Then came a shout, "Oh, look! Wee Scouty's growing. My, he's big as he can be." And, sure enough, the lad grew fat. "Well, goodness me, just think of that," said Dinky. "When you're through with him, please do the same with me."

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

"Sorry to wake you up, but here's an A. P. dispatch which might interest you," with a sigh.

"Well, what is it?," sleepily.

"The interscholastic league has adopted Bonner Frizzell's eight-semester eligibility rule," still sighing.

"That's good. I thought they would," perking up a bit.

"Oh yeah?" not too heartily.

"Er, ah anything else?" he was getting interested.

"Yeah," with sinking heart. "They also adopted the one-year transfer rule."

"Fine. That's great," he was wide awake now, and quite enthusiastic. "Well, well. I'm glad of that. How was the voting?"

"Terrible. It was 460 to 235 in favor of the eight-semester rule and 422 to 276 in favor of the transfer rule."

"That's fine. That's great. I knew they'd see the light. Now you'll see a higher standard in high school athletics, better understanding, more morality, a greater etc., etc. . . ."

"Yeah. Well, just thought'd tell you. G'night."

The above conversation burned up the telephone wires Saturday night when the news came in from Austin about the rules. This correspondent and Doctor M. H. Duncan were doing the burning. That is this department was doing the burning and Duncan was being pleased. No, Henry. If you've got only one more year at Cripple Bend you might as well go on to school there next year. Twouldn't do you much good to change now. You would have to go to school a year before you could play football and then you would be ineligible on account of you'd have been going to school four years. Sorry, Henry.

So that's that. The eight-semester rule does not become effective until next year, but the one-year transfer rule goes in this year. So Amarillo wins the district championship next year because it has a bunch of old timers coming back and because Weldon Chapman and Odus Mitchell and Noble Atkins and Paul Wright and Froggie Lovvern can't use the boys who have moved to town this winter or who anticipate such a move this summer.

Chapman and Mitchell were talking about it out at the gym Saturday night just before the news came in. Both felt pretty sure that the rules would pass but they hoped they would not become effective until 1933. We tried to cheer them by saying it was not likely that the one-year rule would pass until next year. Imagine our chagrin when we came back to the office to find the news on the wire.

Tonight we have with us the University of New Mexico Lobos from Albuquerque. They meet the Texas Tech Matadors at 8 o'clock on the Tech floor. They play again tomorrow night at the same time. It might help the Matadors along if all of us basketball fans went out to welcome them home after an unsuccessful tour over Texas and Oklahoma.

Intramural football continues to flourish at Tech and Lubbock High school. The four Tech teams played a couple of exhibitions Saturday. The Sophomores and Seniors at the high school play this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The game today will be played on the junior high school field.

Personally we would not give you very much for all the intramural football games in the country. As a matter of fact we would not walk a pair of blocks to see an intramural football game even if we had a free ticket provided we could elude our professional duties. No, not after seeing 29 games on various gridirons last fall. We like football very much, as an intercollegiate or interscholastic sport where there is reason for rivalry, where a strange team tries to knock over our home club, where there is blood and thunder and attempts for revenge. But we get very little kick out of seeing teams of the same school clash with each other under the pseudonym of a game. But that is just one man's way of looking at it. You, for instance, or you might get a kick out of watching intramural games, especially if you have not been afforded the chance to see games in season. We are not trying to dissuade you from seeing the games. We had rather see a varsity team scrimmage the reserves or even indulge in signal practice than see intramural games.

The theory of intramural football, intramural anything, is oke. It's mighty fine to see such a large percentage of students taking part in athletics. The exercise is good for them. It brings them together in a sociable manner. It promotes brotherhood and friendliness, even if it does not promote good looks. It gives the fellows something to do when otherwise they might be hanging around the corner drug or wearing out the city and county pavement.

HARD PLAY IS EXPECTED IN TWO GAMES

CONTEST WILL MARK FIRST CLASH OF TWO TEAMS

Coach John O'Dell Morgan and his Texas Tech Matadors came home yesterday, weary and worn from ten days on the road with a show that was a flop nearly everywhere it appeared. But a full night's sleep and a light workout this morning and they were ready to anticipate their game tonight with more than an idea of losing. They meet the University of New Mexico Lobos tonight at 8 o'clock in the first of a two-game series.

The Lobos and Coach Tom Churchill were due to arrive early today. They played at Roswell Friday and Saturday nights and were expected here yesterday.

Tonight's game marks the first between Tech and its new league associates of the Border States Conference, even though Tech's affiliation with the loop does not become effective until the football season. It so happens that the University of New Mexico basketball team was the first club of the new conference to play Tech in an athletic game. About this time last year the Matadors were touring through New Mexico and far West Texas. They were at Albuquerque for a two-game series with the Lobos and they split even on the series.

Reports from the Lobo lair have it that the cagers are much tougher this season than they were a year ago, and if that is the case the Matadors may expect nothing less than a ball game of considerable dimensions.

Coach Morgan, reporting this morning for the trip which ended yesterday, said his boys did not take to the road in a complimentary manner, but that he knew they were capable of playing better basketball and winning more games than was the case last week and the week before. The Matadors won one game in eight starts on the trip. Saturday night they played a 27 to 26 game with the Southeastern State Teachers College Savages at Durant, Okla., getting the short end of the score as usual. Their lone victory of the trip came at Lawton when they divided a series with the Cameron Aggies.

Coach Morgan intimated that he would start his regular lineup composed of Hodges and Crews at forwards, Fisher at center and Tadlock and Dunn at guards. Darr and Moody will be ready to go in at forwards and Emmons and Crites probably will see service at guard and center.

Jonesboro, Ark., scene of the recent "evangelistic war," may become headquarters for a Mennonite colony from Indiana.

BAYLOR BEARS WILL RISK PERFECT AVERAGE IN AGGIE CLASH TONIGHT

Onie McGuire, below, six-foot, two inch center, is not listed as the regular center on the University of New Mexico basketball team which appears here tonight against Texas Tech. But Onie sees a lot of service in the Lobo games, is a deadly shot from almost any part of the floor and can go in at guard as well as center when he is needed. The game tonight starts at 8 bells.

McGUIRE — CENTER

(By The Associated Press)

The Baylor Bears risk their perfect percentage in the Southwest conference basketball race against the Texas Aggies at Waco tonight. It is the only game scheduled in the circuit until Friday night, when the Bears play the first of two games with Arkansas.

The Aggies were expected to be in better condition than when they were first beaten by Baylor this season. Merka, giant center, has just become eligible for competition and Veltman, star guard, is in better physical condition. A defeat would leave Baylor tied with Arkansas for the conference leadership. A defeat would leave Aggies where they are now—still without a conference victory.

Considerable changes in the present standing of the teams are possible at the week-end. Baylor's one contest with A. and M. and the two with Arkansas—rated just about the equal of the Bears—might greatly alter the present status of affairs.

There are two teams in the conference which have not yet won a game, but there can be no more than one in this humiliating situation after Saturday night, when the Aggies go to Dallas to play Southern Methodist. Texas Christian which massacred the Longhorn five at Austin recently, will attempt to repeat the performance when Texas goes to Fort Worth Saturday. Rice institute has no game scheduled this week.

Standings:

	W	L	Pct
Baylor	3	0	1.000
Arkansas	3	1	.750
Texas Christian	2	1	.667
Rice	3	2	.600
Texas	2	3	.400
Texas A and M.	0	2	.000
Southern Methodist	0	4	.000

MISSOURI MEETS SOONERS TONIGHT FOR FIRST PLACE

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 1 (AP)—Missouri and Oklahoma tangle this week-end at Columbia to decide which shall have sole claim to first place in the Big Six basketball race.

Each has three conference victories. Oklahoma has lost to Kansas State and Missouri bowed to Iowa State.

Missouri returned to a tie for first place last Saturday night by defeating Kansas at Columbia, 26 to 22, with a brilliant execution of a strategem evolved by Coach George R. Edwards.

Playing without two regular guards in their lineup, the Jayhawkers chose to put up a tight defense, but the Tigers countered with a refusal to mix until the Kansans spread out away from Tiger offensive territory.

Finally, with the score 15 to 8 against them, the Jayhawkers opened up and passed their opponents, only to lose in the closing minutes.

MAJOR LOOP CLUB OWNERS TO MEET

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—Major league club owners and other dignitaries of the national pastime were clustered here today for the final get-together before the opening of the 1932 campaign.

The occasion was the annual mid-winter schedule meetings, the American league today and the National tomorrow. Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis was on hand to preside.

There was very little business to be transacted in either league. Technically, the purpose of the meetings was to approve the schedules drawn up by Presidents John P. Heydler of the National league and William Harridge of the American last month.

Actually, the confabs do little more than provide a fine opportunity for the boys to get together on any last-minute trades and, in several instances, permit club managers to get acquainted with new players.

Tony Lazzeri, veteran Yankee infielder, was understood to be on the auction block. The Chicago White Sox admittedly were interested in Tony.

PRO FROM NEW JERSEY WINS GOLF MEET

GUS MORELAND, GENE SARAZEN TIE FOR SECOND PLACE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sporth Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Clarence Clark, giant golf wizard from Bloomfield, N. J., today was the new Texas open champion. Clark, professional of the Forest Hills Field club at Bloomfield finished the 72 holes yesterday with a score 287, three over par.

Clark won $600 and had a new ranking—that of a star who has a fine golf stroke and a contender worthy of consideration.

The first round he shot a 72, one over par. He added a 72 for a 36 total of 144 that left him only one stroke behind Ray Mangrum and Paul Runyan, leaders at thhat time.

Yesterday in the finals he had to fight hard to snare a 36 on the first nine and took 38 on the back nine. It gave him a 74 and a 54-hole total of 218. He was three strokes behind Ray Mangrum.

But Clark is a fighter.

On the final 18, he conquered par 36 for a 69 and a grand total of 144-143—287. When he posted his score he replaced Abe Espinosa, Chicago professional, who won last year's tournament with a 281.

Long before Clark finished, Gene Sarazen, New York, had finished and posted a 145-143—288. Fairway runner went to Clark and told him Sarazen's score. He pulled up at the 17th tee needing two pars to finish in front of Sarazen and Gus Moreland, who also had posted a 288. Clark got his four at the 17th and walked over to the 18th tee. It was a par three hole and a difficult one. Clark's tee shot stuck within a few feet of the cup. His putt stopped on the lip to give him a sure three and a 287.

Tied for second place were Sarazen and Moreland. To Moreland went the honor of shooting the best individual score on the final round. After taking a 72 on the morning round, he got his putter working and finished with 35-32—67, four under.

At the end of the first 36 holes, Paul Runyan of West Chester, N. Y., and Ray Mangrum of Los Angeles were leading with cards of 143. Runyan finished 290. Mangrum shot a 72 on the first 18 of the final round that gave him the 54-hole lead with a 2-15 but the former Dallas youngster hit the sky the next day with 43-37—80 that gave him 295.

Harry Cooper, fast playing Chicago professional, promised to make things interesting when he toured the course in 69 on the morning round but a 37-35—72 left him with a 299.

After Clark's score had been posted, Dudley Bell of Houston and Wiffy Cox of Brooklyn were out and had chances to finish in front but the best Bell could do was a 70 for a 290. Cox had a bad 38 on the back nine to finish with a 74 and a total of 292.

Abe Espinosa, defending champion, was consistent but this time it merely left him among the money winners without a title. He put together a trio of 75s and one 74 for 299.

Scores from 287 to 303 finished in the money. There were 18 prizes and those who claimed them were Clark, Sarazen, Cooper, Bell, Paul Runyan, Cox, Dave Hackney, Mangrum, Ralph Guldahl, Dick Metz, Tony Manero, Joe Kirkwood, Lefty Stackhouse, Abe Espinosa, Ted Longworth, Tom Lally, Willie McGuire and Joe Paletti.

Reiselt Leads In Billiards Tourney

CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—With fifty of the sixty games completed, Otto Reiselt holds a full game lead over the rest of the field in the world's championship three-cushion billiard tournament.

Reiselt, although idle since Friday night, received some help last night when two favorites were turned back. Reiselt has won six games and lost one and has four left, all against formidable foes.

Augie Kieckhefer missed a chance to tie Reiselt last night but he was surprised by the veteran Frank Scoville, losing 50 to 36 in 56 innings. This defeat dropped Kieckhefer into a tie with Art Thurnblad, the defending titleholder, with five won and two lost.

Gus Copulos was beaten by Len Kenney of Chicago, 50 to 32 in 47 innings. Both Kenney and Scoville took early leads and never gave ground.

BREATH-TAKING SMASH ON DANGEROUS BOBSLED COURSE STEALS THE SHOW FROM OTHER WINTER OLYMPIC GAMES

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 1. (AP)—Once more the men who made a dangerous international sport of the youngster's pastime of sliding down a hill have stolen the show from a couple hundred serious minded competitors in half a dozen winter olympic fields.

A breath-taking smash on the most dangerous curve in all bobsleighdom—a smash that sent Captain Werner Zahn, Dr. Hans Mehlhorn, Heinrick Rossner and Charles Devine to hospital cots with broken bones, cuts and bruises—rocketed the Bobsleighers back into the spotlight with the first real proof of the dangers of the sport.

Zahn, ace of German Bobsled drivers, is definitely out of the games, starting Thursday, with a fractured left arm. Dr. Mehlhorn, his brakeman, suffered a broken bone in his left hand. Rossner's back was badly wrenched and Devine, a Lake Placid boy borrowed for the moment, suffered from shock. All were cut and bruised about the head and body.

Zahn and his companions were hurt when their 500-pound Bobsleigh, traveling a mile a minute, smashed over the top of zig-zag curve, most dangerous on the mile and a half run on Mt. Van Hoevenberg, and sailed 100 feet through the air before it crashed into a tree, shattering the bob and flinging riders into the brush and rocks of the rugged mountainside.

Harry Homburger, pilot of the Lake Saranac Red Devils, and Hubert Stevens, another famous local pilot, both made full runs down the treacherous course before authorities called a halt over the violent objections of foreign teams. They insisted their necks were their own to break as that wanted.

U. S. SKATING TEAM BEST EVER ENTERED

(This is the first of a series of stories written exclusively for The Associated Press by coaches of United States Olympic squads on their prospects for the third winter Olympic games.)

BY WILLIAM TAYLOR
Coach of the United States Olympic Skating Team

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 1 (AP)—The United States has the best speed skating team it has ever been able to enter in the winter Olympic games.

For that reason, I believe, and the boys are confident, that we will win more than our share of the prizes. I do not want to discuss the ability of one boy above another because each will give everything he has. We can't ask more.

Previously the United States has failed to win an Olympic speed skating championship, although Irving Jaffee had the 10,000-meters title in his grasp at St. Moritz in 1923 when soft ice forced cancellation of the race.

Inability to get the proper training abroad for the 1928 games helped spoil our chances. This year we have had six weeks of intensive drill. The boys are ready.

I believe too that we are bound to benefit from the use of our own style of racing in the coming games, abroad they skate against time and in lanes. Here we skate in heats, man against man. We cannot deny that the invading athletes will be handicapped.

Our chief competition, I believe, will come from the same nations we tried to beat in 1928, Norway and Sweden.

Mineral Wells To Hold Coach School

DALLAS, Feb. 1 (AP)—Dr. R. N. Blackwell, former business manager of athletics at Southern Methodist university, has announced that he would conduct a summer coaching school at Mineral Wells the second and third weeks in June.

Instruction will be given in football, basketball and baseball. Dr. Clarence W. Spears, head football coach at the University of Oregon, and Jimmie Kitts, coach of the Athens Hornets, national interscholastic basketball champions, were named as two of the instructors.

Horned Frogs Down West Texas Buffs

FORT WORTH, Feb. 1 (AP)—A sparkling smooth floor game and ability to count almost every time they got near the hoop gave the Texas Christian university Horned Frogs a brilliant 37-41 victory over the giants from West Texas Teachers college of Canyon here Saturday night. It was the first defeat that Coach Sam Burton's team has suffered this season.

The Frogs turned in their best game of the year to defeat the Buffs. Their passing was excellent almost all the way and their scoring plays worked frequently.

Adolph Deitzel, played a great game both on the offense and defense and accounted for six field goals and three tosses for fifteen points and the high scoring honors.

Joe Fortenberry, led the Teachers with 12 points.

Thought For Today

Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.—I John 4:11.

THE law of heaven is love.—Hosea Ballou.

"Kingdoms"

One of the interesting little developments in current history that went almost unnoticed by the world at large was the signing by King George recently of the Westminster statute, which turned the dominions of the British empire into kingdoms.

Thus, technically, the Dominion of Canada is now the Kingdom of Canada, the Dominion of Australia is the Kingdom of Australia, and so on.

Actually, it makes very little difference; and the word "dominion" will probably continue to be used in ordinary speech. But the action seems to mark the culmination of the long movement for complete autonomy within the British empire. The various "kingdoms" of the empire are now, to all intents and purposes ,independent nations. Only imperial sentiment, attachment to the homeland and loyalty to the throne bind them to Britain.

Yet there is every reason to suppose that those intangible ties will be as binding as the most loyal son of the empire could wish.

Beauty Contests

The father of the young French girl who has just been elected "Miss France" for 1932, has burst out with angry letters to the newspapers protesting against all beauty contests as degrading and insulting.

Having, apparently, somewhat old-fashioned ideas about what is good for girls and what is not, he asserts that "to take young girls around France and to other European capitals with pompus royal comedy, exposing them to the curiosity of blase revellers, is an insult to honesty"; and there are probably plenty of American parents who will agree with him.

In theory, a contest to select the nation's loveliest girl is a charming thing In actual fact, most of the charm is rubbed off long before the contest is over. The Frenchman is not alone in his indignation.

Yet, if a third party found itself at the head of the government, it would have no one to blame but itself.

Wiseacres say Al Smith has definitely made up his mind not to run. But as far as the Empire State Building is concerned, he's still up in the air.

If this country is as dumb as educators say, all Roosevelt has to do is raise a mustache, develop a grin and say "dee-lighted" to be elected.

And if the country doesn't choose to "Get Rich With Ritchie" the Democrats will probably have a tough time convincing voters that they will not get baked with Baker.

A New York youth was sentenced to 15 years for stealing an apple. Which just goes to show how much Adam and Eve got away with.

Yet, New York now owes over two billion dollars. That's almost enough to allow her the privilege of saying she can't pay.

Broadway shows are flopping every day. One of these days Jimmy Walker is coming back to town and start reprisals against mid-westerners for staying at home.

Flyers are planning a round-trip from Ireland to America and return. Foreigners used to flock to America, but since the depression they just want to come over, take one look, and fly back.

Nevertheless, the Austrian archduke who was challenged to four duels was lucky. In America he would have got a couple of black eyes.

Students of Northwestern University are going to grade their professors. To be accurate, of course they'll have to be absent-minded.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says a well known movie actress has corns on her hands from putting on and taking off wedding rings.

A really homely girl is one that even a kleptomaniac won't pick up.

WE hear a lot about the efficiency of the Soviets, how their mass methods are successfully carried to completion and how the Communistic system will some day be embraced by the world at large.

There is some truth emanating from Russia.

There is a great deal of untruth emanating from there and it is a matter of record that foreigners, who go to Russia to gather materials for books and magazine articles, are shown the bright side but never see that which is not so pleasing.

Trial of eleven Soviet railroaders in Moscow recently indicates that the Communistic plan is not such a noble experiment, after all. The men were on trial for their lives after a series of accidents, all at one siding and all so unnecessary, in which 68 persons were killed and 128 were injured.

It all started when a drunken shoemaker threw himself under the wheels of a train at Kosina.

The train was stopped and while railroad workers attempted to extricate the body of the cobbler another train swept 'round a bend and plowed into the one stalled, grinding bodies of some passengers to bits.

Workers began pulling battered bodies from the mass of wreckage, placing the injured along a nearby track.

While they were so engaged a third train came lumbering around a bend and ran over the injured lying in its path.

THAT is about the best description of the Soviet system The Plainsman has ever seen. It proves that it is humanly impossible to say "Eeenie, meenie, minee, mo! You're an actor, you're a bricklayer and you're a railway engineer" to persons wholly unfitted for such places.

The incident. The Plainsman thinks, also gives an insight into the intelligence of the average Russian of the driven class.

It takes intelligence upon the part of any people to assure the success of any venture, particularly one of the vast proplem of changing an entire form of civilization.

Here's a good story mailed to The Plainsman by R. O. J., at Littlefield

Second Stranger: It sure is.

Second Stranger: I can't. I'm the host!

SUTTON Christian, the blond-haired lad who for more than two years was on the staff of The Journal, has finally gotten his big break. In some respects the best reporter to ever grace a Lubbock typewriter, Christian, a dreamer, longed to go where the news wires snap the hottest.

He left Lubbock made a hobo trip over half the world and finally settled in Shanghai 18 months ago, where he became city editor of The Press and married the American sobester on the paper.

Now he's where he's always longed to be, within the inner circle of a world-moving story of incalculable importance. Newspaper readers the world over have their eyes glued on Shanghai.

Newsmen on The Journal who worked with Christian can see him in their minds-eye, living in seventh heaven and with his cable correspondence probably running as high as $500 per week during the present crisit at "The Cross-Roads of the World".

Christian got a break. But he made it for himself in the long and dangerous trek from here to Shanghai.

SPEAKING of Shanghai, perhaps you'll be interested to know that newspapers and press associations are spending thousands and thousands of dollars per day protecting the news on the situation growing out of the Chinese-Japanese altercation. Press associations have assembled large staffs at Shanghai and over the Orient; larger papers of United States have their own correspondents at the scene of activities and other metropolitan dailies are paying high space rates and cable tolls to members of newspaper staffs in the Chinese city.

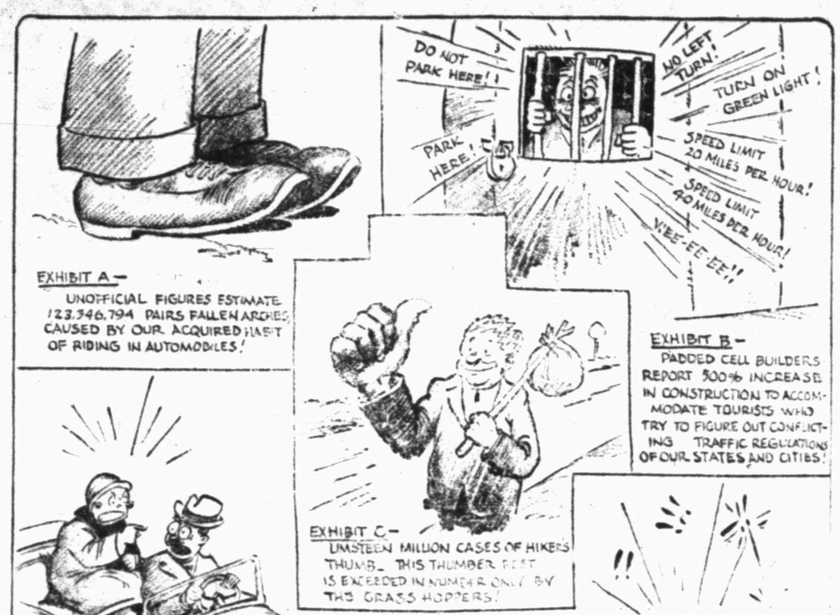

News pictures, to be rushed to United States, are also being gathered at great cost and risk of life, and after they are received on this side additional expense will be entailed in transmitting them by special planes and television.

It costs money—big money—in order that newspaper readers around the world from the scene of action may keep abreast with the times.

Government's Own Reconstruction Load Is Heavy Enough, Congress Finds, So, Therefore It Can't Finance Cities

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1—This year's federal deficit of two billion dollars has given the government plenty to worry about, but it has also had brought forcibly to its attention the fact that American cities, including the very largest ones, have also been having serious financial troubles.

Dutcher

New York and Boston vainly appealed to Congress that municipalities be allowed to borrow from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, pleading inability to borrow on prospective tax collections. The plights of other cities, including Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit, have been common knowledge.

Although the many charges of graft, mismanagement and overspending by municipal governments are often well-grounded, the cities, except perhaps in the case of Chicago, are not now in bad straits merely on that account. In fact, poor management is not infrequently blamed for the fiscal troubles of the federal government and for the failure of many banks and business corporations.

Nearly all cities and states have excellent records for paying off their obligations on time and their taxing powers and taxable properties have always been regarded as top-grade security. But now they are beset by many defaults on tax payments, deflated property values which make property owners shriek at boom time assessments and the prospects of tax increases and, finally, a slump in the market for municipal bonds and short term loans coupled with unwillingness of bankers to load up with the obligations at this time when liquid funds are considered so desirable.

Many cities which find themselves unable to borrow are really in good financial conditions. It is a normal practice to borrow in anticipation of tax receipts, as Mayor Walker of New York and Mayor Curley of Boston have pointed out. Suddenly deprived of the privilege, they become faced with possible breakdowns of city government. Curley reported indications that many banks in New England would refuse to make such short-time loans. He declared that while the reconstruction corporation was designed to support banks, "the injurious effects of the closing of financial institutions in America can in no wise be compared with the tremendous injury that will result if provision is not made for safeguarding the municipalities of America." He warned against disastrous effects of any suspension of health, police, fire protection, welfare and educational activities.

Although many cities have borrowed heavily in prosperous times, the condition of few is to be compared with that of Chicago, whose finances went chaotic some time ago. Usually states and cities are not considered mainly responsible for recent declines in their bonds which make the obligations unprofitable or difficult for the bankers to handle. Nevertheless, municipal bankers have been demanding retrenchments and curtailments of expenses, notable examples having been observed in Detroit and New York.

Congress did not refuse the reconstruction finance bill for support of the banks, but it didn't care take on the burden of municipal financing, either. Senator Reed of Pennsylvania pointed to an already "serious condition in federal bonds," asserting that bonds sold in September at par were now at 82.

Senator Couzens of Michigan, pointing to a widespread condition in which some tax delinquents won't pay and some can't, says it is notorious that tax collections are not being pushed diligently. He boasts that Detroit, after at first being refused loans by some banks and then putting her affairs in order, was able to borrow necessary money from her own automobile concerns and public utilities as well as $7,500,000 from a New York bank only last December. Detroit cut her budget $60,000,000, devised a plan for collection of delinquent taxes and adopted "a program of uncompromising economy to bring expenditures within income."

SORE THROAT

"ONLY a sore throat"—with the emphasis on the "only."

It is the little things that count. If medical schools would teach medical students nothing but the little homely things for a while many of the complaints you hear about doctors would cease. But no. They learn about a chondroplasia and myositis ossificans traumatica and how to remove the entire stomach, and it is until the poor student gets into a hospital or out in practice that he learns by bitter experience about quinsy and ingrowing toe nails and warts.

Dr. Clendening

One may almost tell how good a surgeon or specialist a man is from the title of the papers he reads at a medical society. The bigger he is the smaller his subject. One of America's leading surgeons consented to read a paper before a medical society the other day. He announced the subject would be "Corns."

It goes for dentists, too! As a fellow medical practitioner said to me not long ago, when I had sent him into consultation on a tooth extraction case, "If these 'birds' would only learn the simple fundamentals things instead of the brand new shining technique! If they would just learn not to stir up an acute infection—not to curette the socket of an infected tooth, it would be so much easier on all of us."

But this is preliminary to "only a sore throat." Nobody is able to add up the amount of agony that a sore throat can cause.

Never neglect it. Never despise it. There were two answers an old surgical chief of mine was found of giving to the question, "How shall I treat that?" One was "With contempt," and the other "With respect."

"With respect" is the way to treat "only" a sore throat. What might it be—in man, woman or child? Well, it might be mumps.

It might be scarlet fever. That's especially worth thinking about this time of the year, when Johnny or Mabel complains of "a little" sore throat. During army experience I was sent up to see how the sanitary arrangements of a neighboring camp were. The head doctor met me and in reply to my question said the health of the camp was pretty good except for a peculiar epidemic they were having due to infected milk. It consisted in a sore throat and a red rash over the body. Just scarlet fever, that's all it was!

Then remember also this time of year, a sore throat doesn't have fibria. And the throat doesn't have to be very sore, either. Nor is it necessary that the child have a fever. Diphtheria is almost a temperatureless disease.

Of course, it is most likely to be acute tonsilitis—that sore throat. But it is not likely that anybody who has acute tonsilitis will refer to it as only a sore throat. As one patient said, "I have a sore throat this was intended for a giraffe." In general, people who have tonsilitis feel worse than those who have diphtheria.

Another common form of sore throat is called Vincent's angina. Ancina was the Roman goddess of quinsy. This is an infection with the germs which cause trench mouth.

The important thing about sore throats is to recognize what they are early, for in many cases there is something to do — isolate the scarlet fever patient; get antitoxin into the diphtheritic.

Reckless financial methods, evidently, can be found among the international bankers' select circles now and then.

Charley Dawes is quitting as ambassador to go back to banking. With things as they are now, he got along way to go back.

IN NEW YORK with Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Feb. 1—New York, among other things, is a fur center. It always was and it probably will be unless the gulf stream keeps on driving winter elsewhere. It began with a few pelts and it's wound up with half-off sales on the "Avenoo."

Tourists, wandering through the dizzy trails of the Wall Street zone, are reminded of this by a tablet attached to a lower Broadway building. To be sure, many of them are so busy breaking their necks trying to see the canyon tops that they miss the marker. But there it is—and it announces the location of the first building in the big town.

It seems that old Captain Adrian Block and his crew found themselves without roof or floor when their ship burned down and moved ashore, putting up a temporary lean-to. When he finally got home to dear old Holland he had to admit to the home folks that he hadn't seen any jewels lying about, but there were plenty of good fur-bearing animals and it might be a good chance for the boys to get a raccoon coat.

So it wasn't long before beaver muffs were as thick as Indians. And a storage place had been built just up the street. Which is why if you don't happen to know it, that this little animal is on the state seal. In those days you could pay off the rent or the grocery bill with a couple of furs. Today you can get the company of a blond chorine.

The fur belt and the salt and cloak belt are now twin industries that have built a city within a city, from the fringe of Times Square southward. Warfare flares up quickly in this belt, due to an old feud over closed and open shops plus the congenial excitability of the humans who make this spot on the map a tourist and crowded one in the city.

BRIDGE WIDOW WANTS TO JOIN LOCAL CLUB

Dear Plainsman: Sometime ago you spoke in your column in The Journal of forming a club for you poor husbands whose wives play bridge all the time. May I join you?

Speaking of not finding the wife at home, she is always out playing bridge, what about the bridge widow? Your husband never comes in except for meals. As soon as he gets off the job, about 4:30 p. m., why friend wife might want the car or want friend husband to accompany her to a show, church or most anywhere, but no, "I have a date to play a few hands of bridge. You go alone, I'll be in for supper."

About eight o'clock he comes in for the aforesaid supper. Friend wife would like for him to stay home tonight and entertain the children or herself. No, as soon as he swallows a bite, he says that he has promised to come back and play a few hands of bridge. And out he goes until 12 p. m. or later. This happens every day, every night, all day Sunday and Sunday night. What are we going to do?

I am for anything to get a little rest from bridge. You have my sympathy and I will join you if you will allow a woman, who has no use for bridge, to see if we cannot see more of our husbands and wives and less of bridge.

A Lonely Bridge Widow.

(Dear Bridge Widow: You certainly have my sincere sympathy. Thus far I haven't been able to do a great deal toward organizing the Bridge Widowers club but I'm sure it would be nice to have a ladies' auxiliary. When we get our club organized you can be honorary president. How's that? Consolations. The Plainsman.)

ALLEN MURDER CASE STARTS

YOUTH WHO SHOT TO DEFEND SISTER'S HONOR CHARGED

(By The Associated Press)

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 1—Edward H. B. Allen, gentleman steeplechaze rider, confronted a different kind of hurdle today—a charge of murdering Francis A. Donaldson, third, his debutante sister's suitor.

At the last minute—the trial was called for this morning—Stewart Nase conducting his first prosecution since becoming district attorney this year, decided to depart from the usual procedure and said he would ask for no specific penalty in his opening address to the jury.

Climaxed Long Row

Circumstances and the evidence which have become known from the inquest and from subsequent statements by socially-prominent persons involved indicate the slaying was the climax of long-standing differences between the Allen family and Donaldson over his attention to Miss Rose Allen.

Horace Allen, the father, had said Donaldson wronged his daughter. Mrs. Allen, before her death last year sought to block the romance. Strained relations between the 18-year-old society girl and her father and brother reached the breaking point Nov. 10, the day of the shooting, and she moved to a hotel in Philadelphia.

At the hotel she met Donaldson and it was decided he should call on the Allens to attempt a reconciliation. Accompanied by a friend, Albert Gallatin H. Lucas, he went to the Allen apartments at the Green Hill Farms hotel.

Struck In Face

Versions of what ensued will be most testimony in the trial. Horace Allen said Donaldson was ordered to leave and that he replied by striking Eddie Allen in the face.

With that the younger Allen rushed from the room. He returned with a shotgun and met Donaldson in the foyer. There was a flash, a report and Donaldson fell mortally wounded.

Rose Allen placed full blame for the tragedy squarely on her brother and her father and said she never would forgive them.

ANNIVERSARY IS TO BE OBSERVED

In observance of the 22nd annual Boy Scout anniversary week, Lubbock troops will participate in appropriate church programs, scout-family gatherings, formal recommitment of the scout oath, and service club presentations, D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council executive, announced. He has suggested that other South Plains troops follow similar programs.

Lubbock troops will arrange with their churches for scout services next Sunday, first day of scout anniversary week, for troop-parent dinners and programs Monday night, and reswearing of the scout oath simultaneous with other boys throughout the nation at 8 o'clock that night.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, scouts will present short programs before Lubbock's service groups, the Lion, Rotary, Kiwanis, and American Business clubs.

At a time necessarily kept secret, an emergency mobilization of all Lubbock troops will be ordered. The span between the time a troop receives the order and the time it reports at least 50 per cent of its active membership assembled will determine identity of the winner of a mobilization pennant, Executive Jennings said.

HOUSE BEAUTIFUL

stop, we were sponsored by the Episcopal church.

"The House Beautiful' is a very clean play. It is not like the 'Crazy Quilt' that, I understand, has been drawing huge crowds. We have been doing fairly good business."

Miss Introposki has had considerable experience in dramatic work and comes from a family of troupers, the manager said. Her mother was on the stage for many years. She has played in some of the well known productions and with "The Trial of Mary Dugan."

John Griggs is a young actor. He was formerly with George Arliss and has had considerable stock and road experience.

Crosby Gaige, the producer, has been producing Channing Pollock's plays for years. "The House Beautiful" is a new play, first being produced in the season of 1930-31 in New York City. Another company is now on the road with the play showing in the east, while the one that is here is showing in the south and southwest.

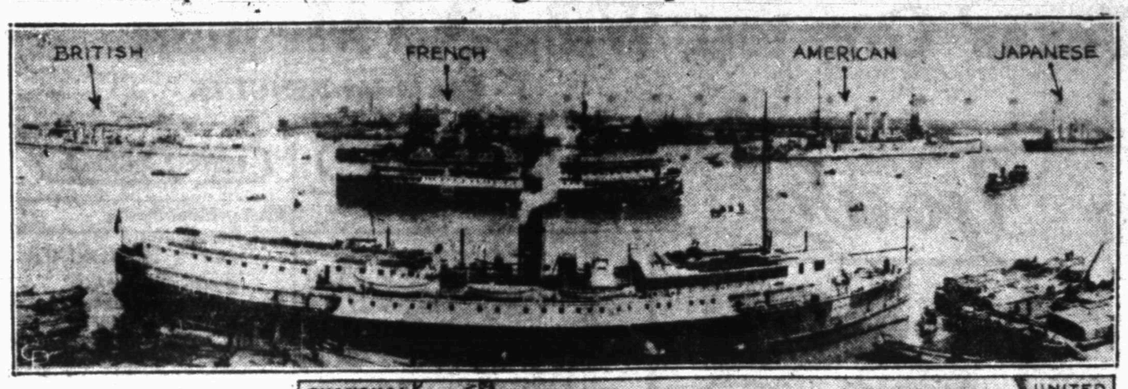

Mr. Mackenzie sees "a return to road shows," as soon as financial conditions improve. "Everything points to the road show coming back and becoming every popular", he explained. "There is a difference in these shows of today and those of a generation ago.

"Today producers go in more for types. A generation ago a company like we have here would have men and women with years of experience in stock companies before they tried the road. Generally it took a woman with five or six years stock experience before she could get a place with a large road troupe."

AMHERST MAN HURT

Warships Crowd Port Of Shanghai As Japs Move Into Chinese City

With the arrival of additional Japanese warships at Shanghai the great port of the Far East has taken on an appearance similar to the view above, taken in 1927, when allied warships stood ready during Chinese revolutionary battles. The map shows the sailing distance to Shanghai of U. S. navy vessels in the Pacific, with their number of officers and men, some of which have sailed for Shanghai.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1 (AP)—The cotton market today experienced a steady opening with only moderate trading. Liverpool cables were better than due and private advices from that market reported that Japanese were buying considerable cotton there.

First trades showed gains of 2 to 3 points. As the stock market opened firmer, owing to the satisfactory settlement of the railroad wage question, the market here continued to improve after the start. March trading up to 6.75, May to 6.92 and July to 7.07 or 5 to 6 points above Saturday's close.

Toward the end of the first hour the market was quiet and prices had eased off one point from the top.

The market was somewhat more active most of the morning owing to the advance in the stock market and also to higher grain prices.

The improvement was due to the railroad wage agreement and to the war-like news from the Orient coupled with a good demand for spots.

March traded up to 6.80, May to 6.97 and July to 7.13, up 10 to 11 points from Saturday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the highs.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 2 points up to 3 points off with near months relatively steady while there was some southern selling for the later deliveries. May sold at 6.89.

Offerings were comparatively light, however, and were well enough taken by local buying or a continued trade demand to give the market a steady undertone. March sold up to 6.75 and July to 7.08, making net advances of about 3 to 5 points on the more active months and prices held within a point or two of these figures at the end of the first half hour. General business was quiet as if traders were waiting for further developments in the far eastern situation.

Liverpool cables reported covering, trade calling and Japanese buying in that market but said sentiment in Manchester was unsettled with buyers of cotton goods cautious.

Trading became slightly more active later in the morning. Firmness in wheat and stocks was a contributing factor on the advance while there may have been some Wall Street and local buying encouraged by the settlement of the railway wage dispute over the week-end. March advanced to 6.78 and July to 7.13, making net gains of about 7 to 8 points on the more active positions, and prices were within a point or two of these figures at midday.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—The stock market made extensive progress in moderate trading today.

The announcement of the 10 per cent railway wage reduction and ordering of the regular extra dividend of 25 cents by Standard Oil and others of N. J., were tangible bullish developments and speculators continued to bid up aircraft and chemical stocks on the basis of developments in the Far East.

Advances of 3 to 5 points appeared in U. S. Steel, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Coca Cola and Eastman. Speculative efforts to discount vague "war boom" gossip brought 2 point advances in United Aircraft, Douglas Aircraft, Atlas Powder and DuPont. Other shares making similar gains included Southern Pacific, New York Central, Standard of N. J., Bethlehem Steel, McKeesport, Case and Liggett and Myers B. Issues up a point or more included General Motors, General Electric, American Smelting, Cerro De Pasco, Curtis-Wright A, and others.

In leading banking quarters, talk of a war boom was regarded with incredulity, for it was pointed out that the financial position of the Far Eastern countries could scarcely be regarded as favorable to prolonged, large scale hostilities.

Grain Market

CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Helped by upturns in securities, grain prices scored an early advance today. The grain market also was stimulated by indications that the Far East crisis was becoming more serious and by apparent likelihood that damage had been done to domestic winter wheat. Opening 1-8 to 1-2 higher, wheat afterward showed additional gains. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 higher and then reacted a little.

DEVELOPMENTS IN POLITICAL VANES ARE SEEN TODAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—The incessant swing of political weather vanes has brought new developments in the contest for the year's presidential prize.

The engrossing Smith-Roosevelt power in the Democratic fold developed a bit over the week-end, but most conspicuous of the new factors was one affecting the practically unopposed Herbert Hoover. Anti-prohibition pressure on the president was the interpretation placed here on the New Jersey Republican committee' failure to come out at once for the renomination of Mr. Hoover. This state was one of the first to enroll under the Hoover banner in 1928, but now its party heads have put off deciding whether to send their delegation to the convention uninstructed, or to support the president.

Democracy's news was led by a Massachusetts declaration for Alfred E. Smith. Time is soon to bring a showdown on his intentions. Work for Governor Roosevelt's declared candidacy is being pushed in Massachusetts and many other sectors. There is prediction that Smith's name will go formally into New Hampshire's March 8 primary. If he makes no move to stop it, this state and one or two others in the east will bring Smith into a head-on collision with his successor at Albany.

U. S. PROTECTION

tion of the international settlement of the Chinese seaport and the promise of an armored cruiser now stationed in Indo-China.

Short of presentation of an ultimatum-like demand to Japan for withdrawal of her invading force, the American action was the most forceful conceivable. Use of regular army abroad has for precedent only the relief of Peking in the Boxer rebellion of 32 years ago and the A. E. F. of the World war.

Virtually the entire U. S. Asiatic fleet will be massed at Shanghai but the commanders were carefully instructed to use the "utmost forbearance" toward both the Japanese and Chinese. Their assigned task was purely one of protection, not only of the large American and other foreign population of the treaty ports (some of the warships will take stations up the Yangtze river) but of the enormous property investment in commerce and mission enterprises.

Followed Conference

The orders followed long consultation between President Hoover and state, war and navy secretaries, as well as ranking officers of the army and navy. They were issued after desperate pleas for help from Shanghai's Americans, who are guarded now only by 1,300 marines and five destroyers at anchor in the harbor.

The president's action in despatching troops and ships was announced in a terse White House statement which recited the receipt of a plea for reinforcements, the order for troops, and concluded:

"As soon as conditions permit the troops will be returned to Manila."

Air Demonstration To Be Given Today

Major Jack Sheppard, is expected to arrive this afternoon about 3 o'clock from Marshall, Mo., with a demonstration plane of the Nicholas Beazley Airplane corporation to put through a series of demonstrations at the municipal airport north of town. He will be here two days.

The plane, N. B. 8-H 90 h. p. Lambert trainer of the high wing parasol type, is on a tour of the southwest going as far as Mexico City where he will demonstrate it before high Mexican government officials.

David C. Ruse, Dallas flier, who is establishing a school here, has arranged for Major Sheppard's appearance.

Six Men Sought In Huge Gold Robbery

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Feb. 1 (AP)—Police today sought six men who were reported to have gagged and bound a night watchman and stolen gold materials valued at between $50,000 and $60,000 from the Horton Angel company plant yesterday.

The loot was in bullion, wire and rolled stock which the company supplies jewelry firms.

Police found an acid vial on the floor, indicating that the thieves had tested the stock before taking it.

MAJOR BATTLE BETWEEN TROOPS OF CHINA AND JAPAN LOOMS TODAY AS JAPS' GUNS OPEN UP ON NANKING

velopments it appeared they probably would be needed to defend Nanking.

Last night the mayor of Nanking was assured by the Japanese consul that the seven naval ships in the Yangtze river would open no offensive against the city if the Chinese refrained from hostile action.

Before the shelling began, civilians moved back in droves away from the waterfront.

The Chapei district of Shanghai where the most serious fighting of the past week took place, was quieter but it appeared trouble might break out again in Hongkew where the Japanese were in control.

Section In Darkness

That section was in complete darkness, for all the lights had been shot out and some of the wires had been cut. The Japanese threw up barricades and barbed wire entanglements which isolated Hongkew from the rest of the city.

In the harbor lay four American destroyers, and six more American ships, including the cruiser Houston, were on the way from Manila.

A British cruiser with 800 men was on the way from Hongkong and other British vessels were standing by for orders to follow her.

Other European nations also had ordered their vessels in the Orient to proceed to Shanghai to protect their nationals.

Martial law went into effect in the international settlement in Shanghai at ten o'clock last night and the thousands who had been jostling each other in the streets were herded back to their homes.

An unaccustomed silence fell on the city and, except for occasional bursts of firing which have come to be regarded as normal, there was no sound-of-warfare.

Nobody Knew Why

The artillery which was blazing last night and today over toward Chapei was still. Nobody knew why and nobody wanted to go over and find out.

American marines and other foreign troops patrolled the settlement streets and working parties hurried the job of throwing up barbed wire entanglements along the borders of the settlement and the boundaries of the individual foreign areas.

Only the main streets were left open to traffic. Across the others were barbed wire hurdles ten feet high.

Most people were glad to stay inside. Anybody who went out had to have a pass with his photograph pasted on it.

Barricades Thrown Up

There were sand bag barricades and machine gun nests at half a hundred strategic points and the city belonged to soldiers until four o'clock in the morning when the new restrictions permit civilians in the street. The arrangement is to continue indefinitely.

French Prepare Too

French authorities mounted machine guns at important street intersections and closed many streets with barbed wire. Chinese newspapers said they refused to let Japanese troops enter the French section to guard Tungwen college, Japanese institution on the western border. A small force of Italian marines was added to the forces patrolling the boundary lines of the international settlement.

E. Koechlin, French consul general at Tientsin, announced today that a battalion of French infantry had been ordered to Shanghai. The French cruiser Waldeck Rousseau also is due from the south. This will increase the French defense force to 5,000.

The British cruiser Suffolk also arrived from Hongkong this morning with a party of marines aboard.

Peace Negotiations Fail

Negotiations by American and British consuls to bring about peace between the Japanese and Chinese broke down. There were reports that a truce had been agreed upon but the foreign authorities denied them and said the peace negotiations had not changed since the close of a parley Sunday afternoon at which no agreement was reached.

Arrival of the American destroyers and knowledge that additional international forces were on the way, together with the lull in firing throughout the city, eased the tension in the foreign colony.

The defense forces of the international settlement increased their guard as much as possible. Using the forces at their command, the authorities began the construction of secondary defense lines within the settlement. A tour of the settlement's western borders, where British troops, volunteer forces, United States marines and a small force of Italian marines were patrolling, revealed conditions quiet.

Chinese Troops Not In Evidence

In the area under the command of the Chinese forces everything also was found to be quiet and no large bodies of Chinese soldiers were evident.

Japanese cotton mills, within the international settlement and in the area patrolled by the United States marines, were barricaded today and machine guns appeared on their roofs.

A hectic situation prevailed in the business section of the settlement. Streets were jammed with all kinds of humanity. Thousands of Chinese refugees rushed about in search of safer territory. Most Chinese shops were closed. Foreign stores continued open.

An inspection of the Hongkew area showed the Japanese forces were continuing their strict patrols, while many sections showed the results of heavy machine-gun fire.

Sunday A Bloody Day

Sunday was a bloody day. There were outbreaks of rifle fire in the downtown area of Hongkew and in the French concession with a loss of many Chinese lives and fewer Japanese. Japanese forces were reported to have caught 28 Chinese in the yard of the Chinese Christian church in Hongkew and to have executed 20 of them.

All through the lower section of the Yangtze river valley a wave of apprehension spread. Reports from various river ports as far west as Hankow, 650 miles away, told of feverish preparations by the Japanese communities against possible Chinese attacks.

DECLARATION OF WAR MIGHT BE AVERTED

NANKING, China, Feb. 1. (AP)—A belief that the impending arrival of additional American and British troops at Shanghai might yet avert a Chinese declaration of war on Japan was expressed in informed quarters here today. The decision of the Nanking government to issue a formal declaration of war, made last week before the government left Nanking and retired to Honanfu in the interior, was held in abeyance, these sources said, to see how the situation at Shanghai developed. The declaration, it was stated, might never have to be made if the arrival of American and British troops had a quieting effect and prepared the way for a settlement of the Shanghai dispute.

Planes carrying mail over Canadian prairies are to be equipped with radio receivers to aid pilots flying in winter weather.

you may travel this path that leads to leisure

IN EVERY HOME there stands a clothes hamper. And into it go hours of labor, backaches, frazzled nerves—the weekly washing. But this hamper needn't hamper you. Let us show you the lane that leads to leisure, through our modern laundry service.

Invest your washday in serving as a comrade to husband and children. It will bring far greater dividends than hours wasted at a washtub. Just as you have made an art of homemaking, we have made a business of washday.

Hundreds of women in this community use our service every week. Many of them, doubtless, are your neighbors. They know the joy of worry-free washdays . . . and they know, too, that our way safeguards health as well as clothes!

We are as convenient as your telephone. Call now, and a routeman will stop at your home to explain the different services we offer and help you select one suited to your needs. Start to enjoy that extra day of freedom this week.

One or more of our many services will fit any family budget.

By The Associated Press

Compiles Sin List

MONTREAL — Prof. Rene Du Poure of McGill university, who calls himself an "old sinner," considers a clergymen's seven cardinal sins too good. So he has compiled his own. They are: Stupidity, ugliness, moral turpitude, cowardice, meanness, hypocrisy and pessimism. He considers pessimism the worst.

Finally Injured

CHICAGO — Major General Frank Parker escaped all forms of injury in the World war. But yesterday, at a luncheon in General Pershing's honor, he suffered a three-inch scalp wound when a metal eagle on a fabic flagstaff fell on his head.

Made 'Em For Fun

BALTIMORE—Denton Ditto, 21, made bombs for fun. He had a unique laboratory in the cellar of his home. One of his own creations, a bomb fashioned from a section of heavy pipe, exploded yesterday and killed him. Part of the pipe was found in his chest.

Honest About It

SAN DIEGO—Haw K. Yamata, a Japanese, is held on a charge of issuing worthless checks. Some were signed "I. Nogota" and others "K. Nosumi." Haw!

A Psychic Bid

MINNEAPOLIS — Mrs. William Blomberg bid seven spades. Unfortunately, she did not have the ace. Her husband-partner was so enraged he popped her one on the face. She told the court about it yesterday and got a divorce.

State Has Heart

BOSTON—Sometimes even a state has a heart. The Massachusetts fish and game department announces it has leased a strip of land 10 feet wide running along the bank of the Westfield river for a distance of 2½ miles so fishermen may fish without fear of trespassing.

VARIED COLORS ARE TO FEATURE NEW AUTO TIRES

AKRON, O., Feb. 1 (AP)—Nations prosaic tire shops are preparing to blossom out in a symphony of color.

One of the large manufacturers here is preparing a stock of tires intended to harmonize with the color scheme of the particular automobile to which they are fitted.

While the company has not made official announcement of its plans because the new tires have not reached the stage of production where they can be supplied to all dealers, it is possible they will make their appearance during the Cleveland automobile show, which opened Saturday, or at the Chicago show, later.

Not only may the automobile purchaser choose mauve, pink, orange, green, blue, buff or yellow tires to harmonize with his new roadster or town car—he may choose a combination of tire colors with a variety of tones, shades and blends.

Nor will the new tires be limited to solid colors. Polka dots, mottled patterns, strips and modernistic designs are not improbable.

MANEUVERS TO BE STARTED

PACIFIC FLEET WILL SEEK TO "CAPTURE" HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

(By The Associated Press)

NAVAL BASE, San Pedro, Calif., Feb. 1.—The United States battle fleet weighed anchor today and slipped out into the Pacific, westward bound, fully equipped for any emergency.

Decks were cleared for action, battle orders in the hands of all units, radios silenced and the 65 ships and their crews ready, together with an army expeditionary force convoyed by the fleet, to "recapture the Hawaiian islands."

Nine super-dreadnaughts, two giant aircraft carriers with some 200 military airplanes, six fleet submarines, thirty odd destroyers, four scout cruisers, two transports and all the necessary supply, hospital and repair ships, as well as mine sweepers, comprise the force which put to sea from the naval bases of San Pedro, San Diego and San Francisco.

Leigh In Command

Thus began the 1932 joint army-navy maneuvers. Admiral Richard H. Leigh, battle force commander, is in command of the great "blue" fighting force. His mission is to recapture the Hawaiian islands which theoretically, for the purpose of these exercises, are in the hands of a "black" force.

Down in the Hawaiian islands Major General Briant H. Wells, army commander, with Rear Admiral George T. Pettengill, naval commander, have the mission of holding the islands against this attack.

The blue fleet forces today were steaming to a secret rendezvous to form the attack convoy for the 2,300-mile westward cruise.

Seek To Squelch Alarming Rumors

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 1 (AP)—Military commanders were instructed by the war department today to advise their barracks chiefs to cooperate fully with local municipal authorities to punish persons who spread false and alarming rumors.

The military and police authorities were instructed to detain persons found spreading false information and turn them over to the proper civil authorities.

At the same time the war department announced that the daily reports from the nation's military chiefs showed peace prevailed everywhere in the republic. Train movements were regular and all communications normal, it was said.

General Juan B. Izaguirre, chief of the Guadalajara military zone reported that several suspicious persons recently arrived in the state of Jalisco and began to spread sedition as propaganda. Orders were issued for their arrest, it was said.

EXPERIMENTS TO ASCERTAIN SPEED OF LIGHT ARE NEARING COMPLETION

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 1 (AP)—Experiments begun by scientists more than 300 years ago to ascertain the speed of light seem near completion here.

The speed of light is the yardstick of science. Other yardsticks may warp or be shortened or lengthened by temperature changes but the speed of light is recognized as constant.

Astronomers measure the distance from the earth to stars and planets by it, using "light years," the distance light would travel in a year. But they have never been able accurately to reduce a light year to miles.

Galileo Galileo, Italian scientist, made one of the first estimates of light's speed by flashing lantern light back and forth across hilltops. Employing much the same principle, Dr. Albert A. Michelson, American physicist, used mirrors to flash light from mountain top to mountain top near here in 1927 and found it traveled 186,284 miles per second.

This value was accepted by scientists but Dr. Michelson felt a still more accurate measurement could be made.

He had a mile long tube of corrugated steel 36 inches in diameter built on the Irvine ranch near Santa Ana, Calif. It was sealed, reduced to a near vacuum and light from and arc lamp flashed back and forth through it by mirrors.

But Dr. Michelson, who was 79 years old, died last May before the first five of his observations were completed.

Dr. F. G. Pease of Mount Wilson observatory, and Fred Pearson of the University of Chicago, who had aided him, resumed the observations today and hope to complete them within a comparatively short time.

Negro Given Death On Assault Charge

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 1 (AP)—Death by hanging was the punishment fixed by a jury which Saturday night convicted Harry Worden, 26, of a charge of criminally attacking a 15-year old Carthage high school girl during a highway holdup.

His brother, Lew Worden, was sentenced Wednesday to be hanged after he pleaded guilty to a similar charge as the outgrowth of another holdup.

"B. C." Relieves Your Headache In 3 Minutes

Realizing that no one drug can conquer even ordinary headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients used by many physicians so-blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time.

You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name B-C. 10c and 25c packages and when you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches from inorganic causes, B-C will give you soothing relief in three minutes.

B-C should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. (Adv.)

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES RETAINS HIS KEEN, IF PHILOSOPHICAL, INTEREST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1. (AP)—The heavy weight of 90 years which finally forced Oliver Wendell Holmes from the bench has not succeeded in diminishing his keen, if philosophical, interest in life.

His friends feared the end might be near when he admitted frankly Jan. 12 that his supreme court duties had become too much for him. But the old New Englander has no intention of sitting back to await the inevitable.

Relieved of the strain, he has regained some of his characteristic sparkle and his general health shows signs of improvement. He reads an hour or two every day—classics mostly, in original Greek and Latin.

Almost every afternoon when the sun is shining he goes driving. The motor is rented but the chauffeur has been driving the retired justice for years and knows he dislikes a snail's pace as much as he does speed.

Justice Holmes has been seen passing the capitol several times but he has not returned to the semi-circular room where the court is sitting. His associates on the bench are welcome at his home. Some of them drop in occasionally and Justice Brandeis, perhaps his most intimate friend, is there frequently.

A young author who compiled a book of his dissenting opinions called on him the other day to find him genial and alert.

Profits In Sale Of Foreign Bonds Seen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (AP)—A statement made public today by the senate finance committee showed J. P. Morgan and company made gross profits of $10,883,626 from the sale of foreign bonds in the United States from 1919 to 1932.

At the same time, the committee released documents furnished by Senator Johnson, (R., Calif.), which estimated total foreign securities sold to the American public from 1914 to 1931 at $15,000,000,000.

These documents, partially checked by Kuhn, Loeb and company and the commerce department, estimated the American investing public has lost more than $2,000,000,000 on the issues as the result of defaults and depreciation. The bankers who sold them were said to have made nearly 1,000,000,000 in commissions.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
