

Pioneer County Teacher Dies Here Friday

Miss Narcie Willard, one of the county's first teachers, died Friday, Oct. 13, in St. Joseph's Hospital, at the age of 87. Although she had been seriously ill earlier, she was thought to be recovering and her death came unexpectedly.

Miss Willard entered St. Joseph's 21 months ago, after she could no longer live alone at her farm home in the Needwood community.

She was born Dec. 23, 1873, in Columbus, Colorado county, the daughter of the late John H. Willard and Mrs. M. A. Mabry. The family came to this county in 1891 and were among the first families to settle in the northeast part of the county. The ranch which Mr. Willard acquired at this time, remained the family home and Miss Willard lived there until she entered St. Joseph's.

She attended an academy in Columbus and also studied art, which continued as her hobby through the many years of her life that followed.

She became a teacher in the Needwood school in her home community, one of the first established in the county. Although she was no taller than some of her smaller children, old timers who attended remember it as an excellent school and Miss Willard as an outstanding teacher, known especially for her love of children.

She was a charter member of the Aberdeen Methodist Church, organized in 1901, and served as its secretary and also as a teacher of small children in the Sunday school for many years.

Funeral services for Miss Willard were conducted in Kelo Chapel Saturday at 3 p.m., by the Rev. J. W. Read, when a large crowd of friends gathered to pay final tribute.

Burial was in the family plot in Needwood Cemetery under the direction of Kelo Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were the Rev. C. R. Hankins, the Rev. Vernon Willard, Elmer Willard, Raymond Roy, Earl Willard, all nephews and great nephews and E. W. Fain.

Surviving are two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. G. M. Thompson and Miss Willie Willard of Aberdeen community; N. E. Willard of Needwood community and Gordon Willard of Corsicana. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Brewer Bitten by Rattle Snake

Quinton Brewer received a rattlesnake bite on the right leg Tuesday, Oct. 12 as he and Lucian Bearden were doing electrical repair work at an irrigation well on the Barney Glenn farm in the Fresno community. The men are partners in B&B Electric.

The snake struck Brewer's leg just above the boot top, Bearden said.

Farris Wood stopped at the accident scene and helped Bearden to apply a tourniquet and bring Brewer to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he remained under treatment until Tuesday.

Grass growing around the well hid the snake.

Monty Mitchell, one of those in charge.

During the business session, new officers and directors will be elected and resolutions passed. Fred Bourland, president, will be in charge of the meeting.

Willie Knoll will be head cook for the barbecue, but he will be assisted by Wood Coleman, Bill Owens, Les White, George Adkins, Ben Brewer, Jack Phipps, L. A. Davis, Zeb Neely and possibly a number of others, Dee Burba, Farm Bureau office manager, said.

J. C. Hartman is in charge of getting the wood and Zook Thomas will direct the serving of the meal. Five hundred and seventy-five pounds of beef will be barbecued and served with all the trimmings.

The resolutions committee, headed by W. R. Breeding, has prepared seven resolutions to be presented. It was pointed out, however, that any member may introduce a resolution from the floor that night.

The resolutions to be presented to the members by the committee propose that:

1. The Farm Bureau work for legislation that would enable a farmer to release his acreage on any crop with an allotment, but retain the history of the farm as planted for any future allotments.

2. Oppose any legislation requiring a building permit for rural areas.

3. The Farm Bureau request the legislature to continue the Colson Brisco Road program, of $15,000,000 per year for new road construction, and that the 18% of the gas tax be changed so that $20,000,000 can be used for maintenance and improvements and not less than $15,000,000 be used for new construction.

4. A tax reform program which would allow the voters of Texas to ballot on a constitutional amendment to eliminate the ad valorem tax.

5. Work to get the legislature and highway department to raise the goal of FM roads from 35,000 miles to 60,000 miles.

She will return home Saturday.

Police Chief Marsh Ill

Chief of Police Troy Marsh was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital Friday afternoon suffering from a thyroid infection.

Mrs. Marsh reported Tuesday morning that he was feeling pretty good but would have to remain in the hospital most of this week.

Dudley McMillin Dies Suddenly Thurs. Morning

Dudley J. McMillin, 53, manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Company, collapsed in his office Thursday morning, Oct. 12 at 11:20 and was pronounced dead upon his arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital. He has had a heart condition for the past six years.

McMillin, who was born in Hugo, Okla., spent his early boyhood in Wheeler county, Texas, where he attended the public schools in Wheeler. After working in a bank in Wheeler for a few years he moved to Oklahoma City where he worked for the Barney Stewart Lumber Company from 1937 to 1947. In 1947 he founded the McMillin Building Company of Wellington and constructed many of the modern homes in Wellington.

He closed his personally operated business in 1955 because of his heart condition, but in 1956 he accepted a part time job as manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Company, a position he held until his death.

In Oklahoma City he was an active member of the Jaycees and the Methodist Church.

During his years in Wellington he was an active member of the Kiwanis Club and the Methodist Church, which he served on its official board.

A keen sportsman in the finest sense of the word, Dudley McMillin was interested in hunting and fishing, and the latter especially took him to many parts of the United States.

Flowers were another interest and his yard always featured these in profusion.

But his entire wide circle of friends was aware that the kind of work he did, building, was his great interest, and provided for him both profession and relaxation.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. J. F. Michael and the Rev. Davis Edens officiating. Burial was in the North Wellington Cemetery under the direction of Kelo Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Horace Small, Emory Hunter, Ernest Nipper, Wesley Busby, Leon Hartman, Elvis White, Herman Harris and Morris Wells.

He is survived by his wife, Lucille Warren McMillin, one son, Keith McMillin of Big Spring, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McMillin of Wellington; one sister, Mrs. Sandy Parsons Jr. of Wellington, and one brother, Donald C. McMillin of Tulsa, and one grandson, Mark McMillin of Big Spring.

Rockets Meet Speedy Ranger Eleven Friday

Wellington Skyrockets take another long ride Friday, Oct. 20, to meet the speedy Perryton Rangers, rated by sports writers as the No. 2 team in District 5-AA.

Game time on Ranger Field is 7:30 p.m. and this will be the second conference game for each team.

Probably the biggest obstacle facing the Rockets is the keenly optimistic attitude of the Rangers—and the knowledge they have knocked over some of the Panhandle football kinglypins in pre-conference play.

On the other hand, the Rockets go into the game victory-hungry... a dish they haven't had since their opener against Hollis. Coaches Frank Lindsey and Kenneth Grunevald are working this week on mistakes that showed up in the Spearman game—which Wellington almost won, and a spirit of optimism is building force in the team itself.

Perryton has a record of two wins and four losses. Gruber took the first game of the season, then the Rangers lost to Dalhart and Phillips, a game they could have won with a few breaks.

Friday night they gave the Shamrock Irish a resounding 20-0 drubbing and this has perked up Perryton spirits considerably.

The Rangers run the Wing-T formation, similar to McLean's, and occasionally run

Scout Fund Kick-Off Set for October 26th

Wellington annual Boy Scout fund campaign will kick off Thursday, Oct. 26, with a coffee in the Greenbelt Electric building at 7 a.m., according to Jimmie Kelso, campaign chairman.

Kelso and his committee have plans almost complete for the start of this year's drive, he said Tuesday.

The advance gifts section is headed by Dr. J. M. Orr and Robert Posey.

The prospects chairman is Sandy Parsons Jr., and Zook Thomas and Dr. Carter Holcomb are in charge of the publicity and arrangements.

The general solicitation chairman is N. M. Higdon, and he will be chairman of the kick-off coffee meeting also.

Workers will be named by him during the remainder of this week.

The Adobe Walls Council serves 15 counties in Texas, and the Oklahoma Panhandle, and has representation on its executive board from each county. Thomas, Parsons and Dr. Holcomb are the members of the executive board from Wellington.

The council is rated No. 1 in Region 9, which is an area of three states. It is in the top 10% in its nation in its service to boys, according to Hollis Alford, assistant council executive who also serves as the executive for the Comanche District.

The council budget this year is $88,583.49, but no town is given a quota to raise.

In giving a breakdown of the Boy Scout dollars received, Kelso pointed out that almost half, 49.1 cents, goes to the extension and organization of the program, including the services of seven professional men, and materials needed. Alford is one of these.

Promotion and operation of Camp Kiowah, used by the Wellington units, and other activities such as the Scout expedition to be held here Nov. 4, Round Tables, and district conferences take 6.2 cents.

Another 1.4 cents is spent for badges, awards and the materials necessary in the advancement program. Here again, this comes directly to the Wellington units.

Training of cubmasters, den mothers, scoutmasters and Kiwanis advisors requires 4.2 cents of each dollar.

Field service, to the various cub packs, scout and explorer units, requires 13.1 cents.

Maintaining the council office costs 21.4 cents. Wellington units benefit in this way: The scouting records and records of advancements are kept here.

One and three-tenths cents goes for National fees, and many services come to the council from national headquarters.

Finally, 1.6 cents goes for insurance on camp property, equipment, workmen's compensation, etc.

Wellington maintains six Scouting units. Glen McLain is Scoutmaster of Troop 31; Gilbert Forrest, Scoutmaster of Troop 32; Gus Allen, Explorer Advisor of Post 31; Harry McEwen, Cubmaster of Pack 31.

Wellington has two colored units. Lorenzo Persons is the Scoutmaster of Troop 87 and Julius Mayse is Cubmaster of Pack 87.

This campaign covers only Wellington. The drives in Samnorwood, Quail and Dodson will be held later.

October 25 Voting Deadline

Nominate '62 C-C Slate of Officers

Candidates for 1962 officers and directors of the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce were nominated recently by a nominating committee and the board of directors, N. M. Higdon, manager, has announced.

Candidates for president are Bob Castleberry and Carl Wischkaemper; vice president, Morris Sullivan and Billy Jo Thogmartin; treasurer, Robert Lewis and Quinton Brewer.

Three directors will be chosen from a field of six candidates: Jack Sanford, Billy Hatch, Alvin Horton, Charles Allen, Dr. Chas. B. Jones and Dee Burba.

Chamber of Commerce members will vote by mail, and all ballots must be returned by Oct. 25. The vote will be canvassed at the directors meeting Nov. 6, and the new officers announced at that time.

They will take office on Jan. 1, 1962, with the three directors serving two year terms which expire Jan. 1, 1964.

Nominating committee members were Wood Coleman, chairman; Jones Singley, Henry Sullivan, Dr. J. M. Orr, and Velman Warrick.

For Underprivileged

Kiwanis Hold Pancake Supper Thursday Night

Wellington Kiwanians will hold their annual Pancake Supper Thursday night, Oct. 19 in the elementary school cafeteria, C. T. Hubbard, president, has announced.

This is a benefit event and all proceeds go into the underprivileged children's fund of the club.

Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. and continue until 7:30, and after that, those who wish can attend the junior high football game, the president pointed out.

Every Kiwanian has been given a job for the evening. Cooking pancakes will be Jim Milner, Jim Martin, Mack Saied Jr., and Morris Sullivan.

Bacon will be cooked by B. F. Chance, Gene Nelson, Dick Pendleton and Steve Owens.

Along with this will be served coffee and milk.

The remainder of the Kiwanians will serve the meal and then wash dishes.

The underprivileged children's fund operates to help any needy children, Hubbard explained, and usually works through the schools.

It has come about that the major help comes in fitting needy children with glasses, although any other need is taken care of.

The public is invited to attend and support the project.

Anti-Communist Talk Given for 3 City Groups

C. L. Kay, vice president for public service and industrial relations of Lubbock Christian College, in a dynamic address against communism, spoke before three Wellington groups Tuesday, Oct. 10.

At noon, he addressed the Rotary Club and in the afternoon held the interest of high school students for 55 minutes in a special assembly.

His evening address was at a banquet, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club and open to the public.

Kay pointed out to the group that communism now controls one-half the world, and this has been achieved in only 44 years.

1972 has been set by communist Russia as the date when it will gain world control, he said, but so well are plans going, that the timetable has been moved forward to 1969—just eight years away.

He told the groups they can help by sponsoring school programs on Americanism and by providing workshops on Americanism for teachers.

CC Decoration Committee Set

Initial plans for Wellington's Christmas decoration program were laid with the appointment of a decorations committee by Chamber of Commerce directors recently.

Members are Henry Sullivan, Jimmy Cochran, Quinton Brewer, Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Deskins Wells, Mrs. A. J. Fires, and Morris Sullivan. A chairman will be chosen from this group.

Plans will be worked out at a meeting to be called soon.

Savage Named Bank Examiner

Wesley Savage left last week for Dallas where he began work as assistant National bank examiner with the Federal Reserve System, controller of the currency. He received his appointment early in the week and left immediately for Dallas to report for work.

Savage is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Savage and has been staying here with his parents since graduating from the University of Texas late in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage were in Dallas over the week end to visit their son and attend the football game between Texas University and Oklahoma University.

National Newspaper Week

By Louis Spilman, Editor
Waynesboro (Va.) News-Virginian

National Newspaper Week is 22 years old in the United States this year.

But individual freedom in the United States is 170 years old this year.

National Newspaper Week was initiated and is sponsored annually by Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., an organization of executive heads of national, regional and state newspaper publishers and press associations.

Our three great freedoms set forth in the Bill of Rights are "Freedom of the Press," "Freedom of Speech" and "Freedom of Religion." The free press of Colonial America paved the way for these basic freedoms which became fact with the coming into force of the Bill of Rights on December 15, 1791.

These freedoms belong to the people. "Freedom of the Press" is not the property of newspapers, but of all the people. It is their guarantee of the right to know; their insurance against demagoguery.

"Freedom of Speech" is not the property of politicians and platform speakers, but of all the people. It is their own guarantee of free and unafraid expression of their convictions.

"Freedom of Religion" is not the property of minister, priest or rabbi, but of all the people. It is their guarantee of freedom of conscience and of divine worship in accord with that conscience.

National Newspaper Week is designed to focus attention on these freedoms. A free press is the partner of the people in the effort to preserve these rights.

Newspapers promote National Newspaper Week, not from a selfish motive, but to emphasize these basic and vital freedoms, the partnership of press and people and the need for everyone exhibiting dedication and diligence in the eternal effort to preserve these freedoms.

National Newspaper Week this year is October 15-21.

Two days are set aside for particular emphasis: Newspaper Day which is Sat., October 21, and Journalism Education Day, Monday, October 16.

It is of utmost importance we present a solid front for freedom in a world in which freedom is being attacked so violently and so unscrupulously. Truth makes us free. Let us now resolve to continue the dissemination of truth as the indestructible bulwark against ignorance, enslavement, bigotry and political chicanery.

Newspapers are, indeed, the guardians of freedom.

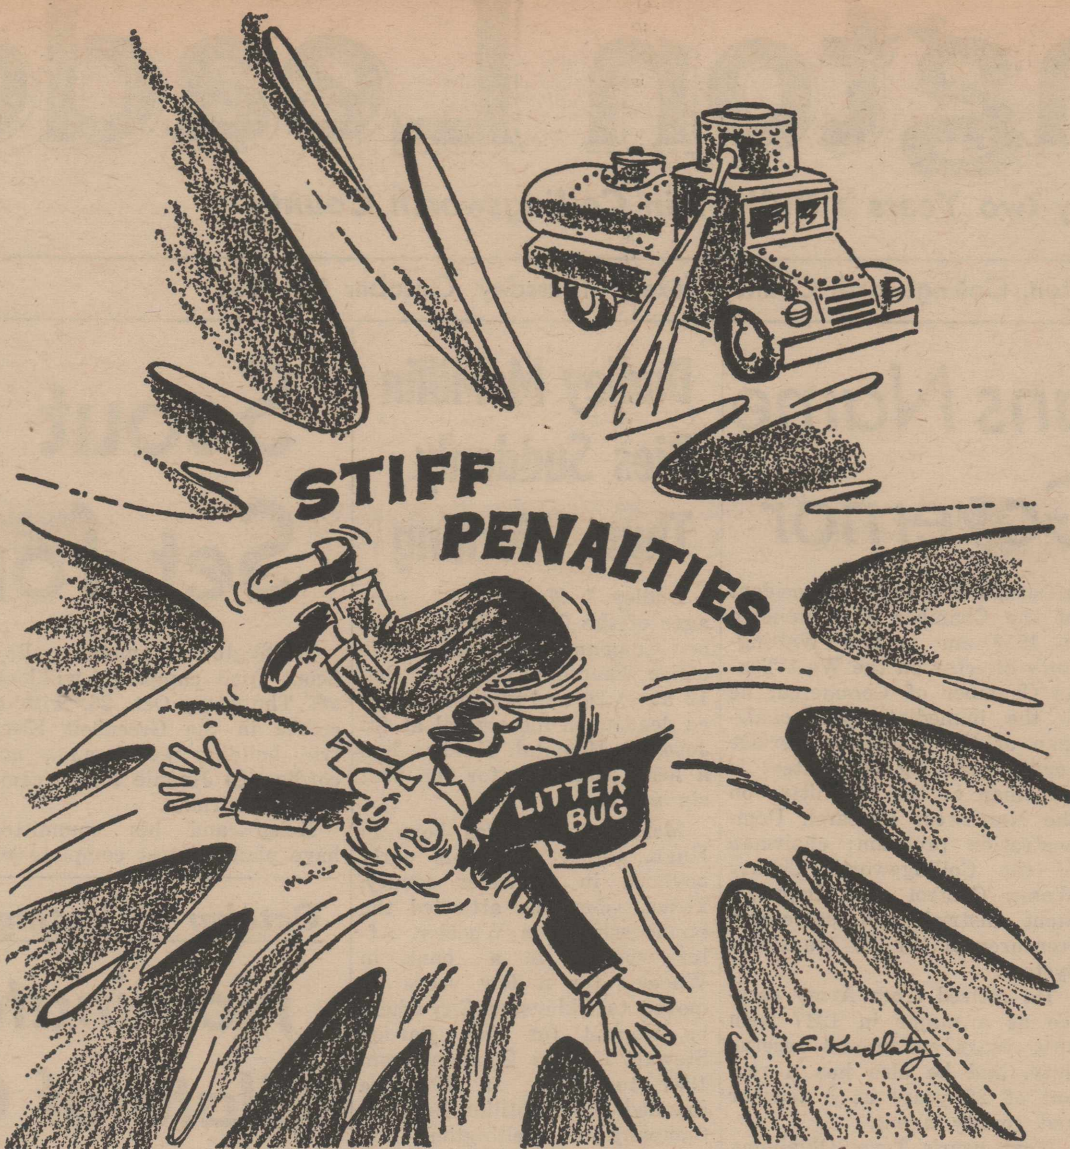

Modesty is that unspoken belief that others will come to discover what a great person you are.

It's a wise man who can distinguish between good sound reasons and reasons that sound good.

Nothing can really substitute for wisdom, but silence works nicely sometimes.

The girl who can stay on her toes stands a good chance of keeping ahead of the heels.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where a big magazine says in an editorial that "the principal danger to our liberties comes from outside America and not within."

My de-liberated neighbor says he is glad to get The Word from on high, and now he can start work on his fallout shelter and quit worrying about Communist infiltration.

Says the Reds have taken over a fat slice of the world by termite tactics, and it's nice to know they are going to give up this successful strategy and take us the hard way.

I see where a Chicago motive engineer has been researching and finally figured out how come some people don't buy boats.

In fact, he has smoked out eight reasons for this antisocial behavior; but he overlooked a ninth, which is that some people just don't want a boat.

My boatless neighbor says he notes that most boat addicts just ride around in same without getting anywhere, and he already puts in enough time on the job and at home going around in circles.

I see where a priest says it wouldn't be an un-Christian act to shoot down any neighbor trying to crowd into your fallout shelter during a nuclear attack.

My sensitive neighbor says he don't know if he could force himself to do this, though except maybe in case it was this neighbor who raises chickens.

But says it might be more humane to go ahead and shoot a man than to slam the shelter door in his face and thereby tempt him to the sin of squirting rat poison down your ventilator.

My blunderous neighbor says he hears lots of objection to a big, bossy central government, but he often feels the need of somebody to run his business for him.

Says, though, he is not sure government could do any better job than he does, as he has noticed that governments can also boo-boo.

On account of some politician or bureaucrat always has got to think up the orders a government puts out, and many of these creatures are not any smarter than people.

I note that the economic oracles have set up a paper idol called the Gross National Product, which is a figure that goes up $10 when $1 changes

Most Fire Injuries Can Be Avoided

Nineteen per cent of the fatalities caused by home accidents are the result of burns, according to Billy J. Thogmartin, Lone Star Gas Company manager.

Lone Star, The Wellington Leader and the 1961 Home Safety Program in Wellington.

"Forty-eight per cent of the persons who die from burns," Thogmartin said, "are either under five years of age or over 64."

"Almost 100 per cent of the common fire hazards responsible for this terrible toll can be eliminated if the homeowner will allot a mere 10 minutes a day of the family's time to the problem."

"A quiz prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters offers a room by room, attic to basement checklist by which the safety of the home can be measured. By using this quiz as a safety blueprint and as a training guide, the homeowner will go a long way toward elimination of home fire hazards." The quiz:

- Kitchen and Dining Room
1. Is the gas or electric range clean—the broiler, oven and burners free of grease,
  2. Have you hung curtains and towels so they won't blow over burners?
  3. Are members of the family forbidden to start fires with kerosene and other flammable liquids?
  4. Have you made sure that several electrical appliances, such as the toaster, waffle iron and coffee percolator, are hands 10 times.

My figure-rigger neighbor says this prosperity meter is now up above the $500 billion mark, but he thinks the experts are still pikers.

Says if they would just edit us a 1-cent dollar instead of the 50-center we've got, it would overnight boost the GNP to about $25 trillion, and we would all be 50 times as rich as we are now.

not connected to one outlet?
Living Room, Bedroom and Bath

1. Is there enough space around your television set for proper ventilation?

2. Has a lightning arrester—preferably one listed by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., been installed on the antenna lead-in?

3. Is your television set UL-labeled?

4. Are worn lamp and extension cords immediately replaced with new ones?

5. Have you removed extension cords strung around the room—under rugs, over nails?

6. If there is a wood-burning fireplace, is it protected by a metal screen?

7. Is the fireplace chimney cleaned and inspected periodically?

8. If a portable heater is in use, is it turned off before you go to bed?

9. Is the portable heater placed where it cannot be tripped on or over-turned.

10. If you use portable gas heaters or appliances, are the shut-off valves installed in the metal gas pipeline?

11. Do you make it a rule never to smoke in bed,

12. Have you put the radio or any other electrical appliance out of reach of anyone bathing or clutching a water faucet?

West Texas Utilities Wins Safety Award

National honors for an outstanding safe driving performance have been won again by the employees of West Texas Utilities Company in the Public Utilities Group 1 division of the 30th National Fleet Safety Contest conducted by the National Safety Council.

Group 1, in which West Texas Utilities Company was the second place winner, was composed of the motor vehicle fleets of 40 major American utility companies. In this group which was the largest in the contest, the vehicles of each

They were married in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. Grimes are members of the First Methodist Church where he is a member of the board of stewards. He is a 32nd degree Mason.

Other members of the WTU board of directors are M. D. Bryant of San Angelo and Price Campbell, Dan A. Gallagher, T. V. Grayson, Arthur S. Harker, E. L. Harwell, J. C. Hunter, Jr., J. F. Longley, W. G. Swenson and C. L. Young, all of Abilene.

of the competing fleets operated 175,000 miles or more per month during the year ending June 30, 1961.

West Texas Utilities Company was the first place winner in the 1960 contest.

The WTU fleet averaged 323 vehicles and more than 330 drivers. They were awarded second place at ceremonies held June 19 in Chicago as part of the 49th Annual Safety Congress, annual convention of the Council.

The award is based on the employees' safe driving record for the period from July, 1960, through June, 1961. During that period, WTU employees operated 5,227,938 miles with a rate of 23 of an accident per 100,000 miles of operation.

All accidents were counted in the contest except those occurring when a company vehicle was properly parked. The winners were determined after inspection of their records by an auditor appointed by the National Safety Council Contest committee.

"Credit for this national recognition in safe driving goes to our employees who operate the company vehicles," stated Cal Young, WTU president. "This is an honor of which we are very proud.

"We feel, strongly that driving safely on our streets, roads and highways is one of our responsibilities to the people we serve. Ours is a service organization, and certainly the safe operation of the large number of automobiles, pickups and trucks which we operate in 50 counties is as much our responsibility as is good electric service to our customers."

The WTU employees safety activities are directed by Doyle Gray, safety engineer, and George Clark, manager of the company's insurance and safety department.

Gray accepted the award for the employees at a luncheon in the LaSalle Hotel's grand ballroom. More than 600 safety experts from the nation's motor transportation industry attended the luncheon.

In presenting the awards, K. K. Halbrooks, director of the Accident Prevention Division of the National Automobile Transporters Association, congratulated the winners and other participants on steadily improving their safety performance.

The combined average rate of 1.25 accidents per 100,000 vehicle miles, was down 2% during the contest period from the previous rate, and was the lowest in the 30-year history of the contest.

Wayland Plans Parents' Day

PLAINVIEW.—Parents' Day at Wayland Baptist College on Oct. 23 will welcome parents of Wayland students to the campus where activities centered around a Western theme will provide for their entertainment and help to acquaint them with the college.

Hosts for the day's activities include John Lyman Alexander, Oscar Dile Holton and Everett Joe Hawn, of Quail.

Highlighting the day will be dedicatory ceremonies at 2:30 p.m. for the two newest structures on the Wayland scene—Owen Hall, where the program will take place, and Allison-Conkright Hall. Owen Hall, 100-unit residence for women, has been named by the trustees in honor of Dr. A. Hope Owen, president.

Music for the dedications will be provided by the 40-member, International Choir singing an original composition by their director, James D. Cram. The newly formed Women's Chorus with 17 members will sing under the direction of Dr. Joseph DeLange.

Parents from the 31 states represented at Wayland have been sent invitations by President Owen and Dr. Fred D. Howard, chairman of the Parents' Day committee, to attend classes with their sons and daughters and to eat with them at the "chuck wagon" at noon. Also of interest to them will be chapel period with students furnishing the program.

PIPELINE TAX ATTACKED

AUSTIN.—Three gas pipeline companies brought suit in Austin to try to knock out the new tax on production of gas under dedicated-reserve contracts.

This is merely a token tax, designed to find out whether this new approach to the taxing of natural gas is constitutional. Suit was expected.

Two previous efforts to levy an additional tax on gas have been knocked out by the courts. Rep. Robert C. Eckhardt, of Houston, devised this new method and believes it is valid despite some amendments he opposed on the ground that they would weaken the chance of standing up in court.

LAND BOARD TO OFFER MORE GI LOANS

AUSTIN.—Veterans Land Board of Texas advertised for bids for $25,000,000 more in State bonds to expand the program of farm and ranch loans to Texas veterans.

Step-up in the program was announced by Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who said tracts to be subdivided for sale to GIs will be appraised before the owner has surveys made.

DANIEL CHALLENGED BY WILSON

AUSTIN.—Political newsmaker of the week was Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. He walked into the State Democratic Executive Committee meeting to charge that Governor Daniel had made a deal with Secretary of Navy John Connally of Fort Worth by which Daniel would support Connally for governor and would himself run for lieutenant governor.

Wilson challenged Daniel to run for a fourth term (against Wilson), rather than to support Connally for the place "when he has barely got his seat warm in Washington."

Connally, in Texas making a speech, said he had no comment, that he had "quit reading fairy tales a long time ago."

Daniel said any fair-minded person "who reads the entire statement is bound to know it is false and a concoction of his imagination."

PADRE STUDY HELD WITHOUT SADLER

AUSTIN.—Gov. Price Daniel got together his special committee to study the idea advanced by Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler to make Padre Island a state park instead of a national seashore area.

Sadler, a member of the committee, did not get word about the meeting and was not present.

State Parks Board Chairman J. Carter King of Albany, said the whole appropriation of the board for the next two years would not scratch the surface of making Padre into a state seashore area. King is worried about the 74 presently designated state parks.

Daniel asked the study committee to have a recommendation ready in time for the winter special session of the Legislature to take policy action on the state vs. federal issue.

Daniel feels Padre should be dedicated as a public area, by one means or another.

Blanton Named By Greenbelt

Russell Blanton of Route 1, Claude, was named to the board of directors of Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc. in a meeting of the board here Saturday, Oct. 14, it was announced by George Henry, manager.

Blanton is filling the vacancy created by the death of A. B. McClure of Claude about two months ago. His term runs until April 1962.

WATER POLLUTION BOARD TO BE NAMED

AUSTIN.—Governor Daniel will soon name the members of the new State Water Pollution Control Board. This new agency will operate to some extent as a branch of State Health Department, in that its executive secretary and only full-time official will be the Health Department's director of water pollution control.

Many areas of Texas are having pollution problems, and those who sought help in Austin went to four or five offices without finding much response.

So legislators set up a new agency, but did not give it any operation money. It authorized Gov. Daniel and the Health Department to allocate part of their appropriations, if they can spare it, to the new agency.

Daniel will ask this winter's special session of the Legislature to make some improvements in the law and to provide some cash for the agency to begin a real attack on water pollution.

After Nov. 7, no one can discharge any kind of waste into the waters of Texas without a permit from this board.

WHEATLEY WILL OPPOSE RAMSEY

AUSTIN.—Texas got the first announced candidate for the Democratic primary next May 5. He is a young West Texan who has set out to be a giant-killer.

Keith Wheatley, 28, of Stamford, announced as a candidate against Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey for the remaining two years of the late Commissioner Olin Culberson's term.

Wheatley, an independent oil operator and son of State Rep. J. C. Wheatley of Haskell, said the little men in the Texas oil business are being starved out by the Railroad Commission's proration policies.

CONSTITUTION REVISION TALKED

AUSTIN.—Talk continues about revising the 1876 Texas Constitution.

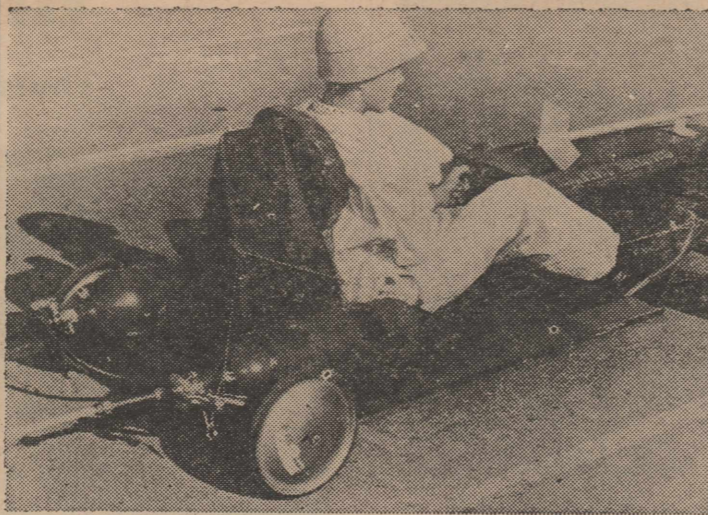

Texas League of Women Voters, unable to get legislative support for its pet project of constitutional revision, got an ally in U.S. Rep. Jim Wright, speaking to University of Texas Young Democrats.

Wright said that for too long "we have patched new pieces of cloth onto an old garment." He also advocated streamlining of the state administrative agencies along the lines the Hoover Commission recommended for federal government.

Legislators objecting to the revision, among other reasons, say that complete revamping would result in far more errors than in the present day piece-meal procedure.

AMA Cites Young For Excellence, Shows at Ritz

When the American Medical Association gives a movie its approval, it's news. When it cites one for "excellent portrayal and authenticity," it's an event! It did this for "The Young Doctors," the dramatic new motion picture due to open Oct. 19-20 at the Ritz theatre, manager Lydia McPherson announced.

In making this announcement, Mrs. McPherson also gave some of the history and background of this widely acclaimed and highly distinguished picture. The film was produced by Stuart Miller and Lawrence Truman, a pair of energetic young producers who believe that a movie can't be good unless it reflects the real life situation it is recreating as faithfully in every detail as it is humanly possible to make it.

So, when it came time for them to produce the motion picture from Arthur Hailey's provocative novel, "The Young Doctors," with Frederic March, Ben Gazzara, Dick Clark, Ina Balin and Eddie Albert in the leading roles, these young men went to the doctors—and hospitals—for their information.

They even asked the American Medical Association to read the script, make corrections if necessary, and to watch production to make sure that everything was as proper and authentic as these zealous guardians of medical professional ethics could want it. They didn't have to do it, but they did.

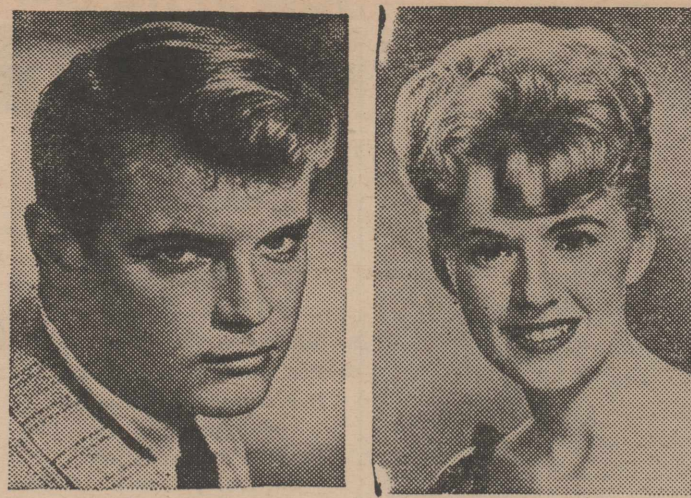

The result is a motion picture production which is not only as great a motion picture entertainment as the book was a success but it is as faithful a depiction of what actually goes on inside a great metropolitan hospital as Miller and Truman could make it, and no body makes it better than they.

Mrs. McPherson went on to explain that three great New York hospitals were used to provide authentic background for the romance in "The Young Doctors." To further guarantee authenticity, the services of Dr. Charles F. Begg, head pathologist of St. Luke's Hospital in New York City, were commissioned to watch every foot of film as it went through the cameras and emerged from the developing tanks to make sure everything was in apple pie order.

All this added up to make "The Young Doctors" one of the finest pictures of its kind. So much so that the Physician's Advisory Committee of the American Medical Association, which police dogged every foot of film in production and then took a final long, hard, critical look at the finished product, was able to write the producers giving their full approval and support of this film.

Manager McPherson expressed pleasure and delight in being able to bring this motion

Band Plays at Homecoming of SW State

Wellington's fast-stepping Skyrocket band participated on Saturday, Oct. 14, in the Homecoming Parade and other events of Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla.

Each of the 24 bands taking part in the day's events received a participation award.

Sen. Preston Smith

Lubbock Sen. Announces for Lt. Governor

State Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock today announced that he will be a candidate for Lt. Governor of Texas.

This will be his second campaign for the state's second highest office. He ran in 1950, placing third in a field of 12 candidates, and leading the ticket in 68 counties.

Smith, 49, a veteran lawmaker and businessman, was unanimously elected president pro-tem of the Senate during the first special session of the 57th Legislature. He served as Governor of Texas on Aug. 4 in the absence of Gov. Price

Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey.

His career in Texas government began in 1944 when he was elected to the House of Representatives, where he served three terms. In 1956 he was elected state senator from the 11-county 28th Senatorial District, and was re-elected without an opponent in 1960.

During his tenure as a member of the House and Senate, he has served on many of the state's most important legislative committees, including the Senate Education and Agriculture Committees.

He served as vice chairman of the Senate finance committee, during the last two sessions and is presently a member of the Texas Legislative Council, one of the state's most important fact-finding and recommending bodies.

Smith is a graduate of Texas Tech College in Lubbock. He and his wife, Ima, have two children, Mickey 20, and Jan 16.

His formal announcement will be made at a later date.

Gelden Says Men of 62 Should Inquire on SS

Hel Gelden, manager of the Amarillo social security office, said today that he could not authoritatively discuss the water table in Deaf Smith county, or the wheat harvest in Ochiltree county, or the row crops around Childress or Hall county; but that he could talk with authority about social security and how it affects the farmers and other residents of the Texas Panhandle.

Possibly the most important question of the day is the matter of the reduced age at which men can file for benefits. "Not every man who is 62 years of age should file an application," Gelden said. "But every 62-year-old man whose earnings will not be over $1200 this year, and those who will neither be active in self-employment nor work for wages of more than $100 in one or more months, should consider the matter thoroughly," he continued. "Men at least 62, but not yet 65, should not be too quick or too hesitant about filing at the reduced age."

"Visit the social security office or talk to the representative when he comes to your town," Gelden said. "He will be able to give you all the facts you will need to make an intelligent decision. It will pay you to talk it over."

Purina Tells of Long Term Dairy Research

A long term dairy research project spanning nearly eleven years has brought out new proof that the manner in which a dairy heifer calf is fed during the growing stages has a vital influence on her entire productive life.

On Oct. 19, 190, two groups of dairy heifer calves at the Ralston Purina Research Farm in Missouri were placed on the feeding experiment. Five were fed one gallon of whole milk per day to four months of age, along with a grain ration of ground ear corn and cottonseed meal. After four months these heifers were placed on good pasture without grain during the summer months. They were fed hay and corn silage during the winter months.

The other ten calves were raised on the Purina dairy calf and heifer growing program which calls for milk replacer from three days to one month of age, a dry starting ration, free choice, beginning the first week through four months, and three pounds of dry and freshening ration per day while on pasture. Each heifer was bred as she reached breeding weight. When they freshened, they were all fed the same milking ration.

Lifetime production of the cows was sharply influenced by the growing programs. The Purina program cows averaged 1,517 pounds more milk than the experimental cows during the first lactation. The Purina program cows averaged 2,415 pounds more milk during the first four lactations.

The experimental group completely "ran out of gas" during their fifth lactation. None lasted through more than four full lactations. The last Purina program cow left the herd Aug. 23, 1961 in her eighth lactation at 3,800 days of age. She produced 111,095 pounds of milk during her lifetime, or an average of 29.2 pounds of milk per day of life.

Top Profits from Grains
Much college and feed industry research has been conducted to find how to use home grown grains most effectively in livestock and poultry rations. All feeders know that grain alone is not a sufficient or profitable ration.

The question that research has answered is how best to supplement home grown grains for maximum returns.

It is a tendency of some farmers to want to skip on the supplement and overload the ration with grain if there is an abundance of grain. Robert E. Spangler, assistant manager of the Ralston Purina Research Farm in Missouri, recently pointed out that "Most of our experiments on levels of concentrate show that a farmer makes more money by having his formula mixed right and selling extra grain for cash, if there is any left over."

Research has developed carefully constructed rations of grains and protein supplement, taking into account the kind of animals or birds on feed, the kind of grain in the ration and the stage of growth or production of the animal or bird. Feed company research often has actually effected reductions in the protein content of the ration.

Examples of this are the reduction of some dairy rations to 16% protein, the graduated reductions of protein for turkeys and hogs as their needs decline, and the reduction of protein in some pullet and layer rations, all of which put less concentrate in the mix.

The object of feed industry research on the use of home grown grains is to build rations that are permanently profitable to the feeder. Farmers are wise to follow carefully recommendations from this research when they have their grains mixed into feeding rations.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Browning and two children took his mother and sister, Mrs. Paul Browning and Miss Pauline Browning to Pampa Sunday to visit Mrs. Mandy Little and her daughter, Mrs. Lola Ward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Little. Mrs. Little is a former resident, but has lived with her son in Pampa since falling and breaking her hip about a year ago.

Elementary PTA Will Not Hold Annual Carnival

Members of Wellington Elementary School Parent-Teachers Association voted in meeting Wednesday, Oct. 13, not to hold the annual school Halloween Carnival this year. Instead a Family Fun Night has been scheduled for Nov. 17 with plans to be announced later.

It was brought out in discussion that not all children are able to participate in the carnival because of the expense of the various fun events. The amount of work and time which teachers must put in was pointed out, Mrs. Tubal Cain, a PTA officer, reported.

Individual classes will have their own Halloween parties.

Mrs. Jimmy Milner was in charge of the Wednesday program and introduced Mrs. G. B. Hopper, director of the school lunch program. She spoke of the types of lunch es prepared each month, the process of preparation and the number served. She introduced her co-workers, Mrs. Emma Jones, Mrs. B. F. Evans, Mrs. Edna Downing and Mrs. Ruby Patterson.

PTA members then toured the cafeteria and refreshments were served.

Rooms tying for having the most parents present were those of Mrs. Les White and Mrs. Oleta Burquist.

Mrs. Bernice Welch's first grade won the contest for having the most parents as members of PTA. The contest has been in progress since the first of school and closed Wednesday. The prize was $10.

The Rev. Glenn Hickey, pastor of First Baptist Church, gave the invocation opening the meeting.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Charles Cason, Jack Davis, elementary school principal, was named as a delegate to the state convention, and Mrs. J. H. Killian of the budget committee read the proposed budget, which was adopted.

December 1 has been set as the final date to sign up to participate in the 1962 wheat stabilization program, Millard Brown of the county ASC office, announced this week. ## Places Open in Department of Public Safety

AUSTIN.—Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today more than 100 openings are available for men between 21 and 35 in the uniformed services of the DPS. He said applications for entrance in the next student patrolman school, a 16-week training period at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy at Austin, will be accepted until Oct. 20.

"With the increase in salaries voted by the last session of the Legislature, we are now in a position to offer pay that is in line with business and industry," Garrison said. "But when all benefits are considered, as well as the fact that these jobs offer a career of service to their fellow Texans, we regard them as outstanding opportunities for young men." The DPS director explained that a larger number of vacancies exist at the present time as the result of men being called into the military service, and a recently authorized increase in the department's uniformed services.

He said that upon completion of the 16-week training course, graduates will become commissioned officers and will be assigned to the field. The salary while in training will be $331 per month and will increase to either $395 or $412 per month upon graduation, depending on the nature of the assignment. Longevity pay increments of $10 extra per month will be added for each five years of service for each of the uniformed services, which are the Highway Patrol, License and Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service and the Drivers' License Service.

In addition, uniforms and equipment will be provided, and the officers will participate in the state retirement plan.

Applicants must have a high school education or the equivalent, be in good physical condition and be of good moral character. They must be not less than five feet, eight inches, nor more than six feet, four inches tall; and weigh not less than two pounds nor more than three pounds per inch of height.

Those who meet the basic qualifications on their applications will be permitted to take a written examination which will be given in several cities over the state Oct. 24, 25 and 26.

This is National Newspaper Week and something should be said about newspapers and the work they do. Newspapers publicize all kinds of events from Fairs to football and from tots to traffic safety, but they are modest to a degree of shyness when it comes to promoting themselves even during National Newspaper Week.

The Panhandle of Texas has more outstanding and truly excellent newspapers than almost any other similar section of the United States. This fact is attested by the number of state and national prizes that the Panhandle papers both daily and weekly have won and we can not so modestly say that The Leader has ranked right along with the best of them through the years.

The Panhandle does have a few papers that are not so excellent. This may be due partly to the amount of work and money the publisher puts into the paper; but in the main it is due to the attitude and support of the people the paper seeks to serve. Much of the progress and prosperity of a community depends on the many services rendered by the newspaper. It has been said that a town's trading area can be determined by the circulation of its newspaper.

The truth and the free flow of information through newspapers and other media is a weapon that has served us well since the birth of this free nation—Felix McKnight of The Dallas Times-Herald once said. But a newspaper is more than just that. Newspapers create a community image. Its public service is more than just a newspaper reporting news—it is whatever a newspaper can do in addition to reporting news—such as campaigning for farm safety, fire prevention, traffic safety, fine schools, parks, playgrounds, and hundreds of other things that make life more worthwhile. This is all public service and newspapers strive to do everything they can to improve a community.

John Coleman is the new Lt. Governor of Kiwanis. His district goes as far as Lawton in Oklahoma and includes a considerable part of West Texas. This is the third time a Wellington man has been Lt. Governor since 1946. The other two were Judge Howard Riggs and Cameron Beam. This is quite a record for a town of our size.

This is the time of the year when people display giant pumpkins and other unusual products of the field and farm. With Luther McPherson, it is a tremendous sweet potato that he grew in his back yard. It weighed 9½ pounds. The single vine produced over a bushel of potatoes. Luther says that the largest sweet potato shown at the State Fair of Texas weighed only 7½ pounds.

Jerry Elbert was one of the main reasons the Red Raiders upset the Horned Frogs last Saturday. He recovered a TCU fumble on the Frog 34-yard line that set up Tech's only touchdown. He also intercepted a pass to halt a dangerous looking Frog drive. Texas and Rice did all right by the Southwest Conference with their victories over Oklahoma and Florida. The conference has always done well in the intersectional contests. It is when they get to battling among themselves that you can expect anything to happen.

J. K. Porter, who brought back notes on the game, says the Rockets played a much better and more exciting game than the score would indicate. Although neither team scored in the last half, Wellington gained a total of 109 yards on the ground as compared to 71 for Spearman.

Flu or virus or something has been rampant in Wellington for the last ten days, so here goes with a stale one: Teacher: "Why were you absent from school?" Pupil: "I had the Egyptian flu." Teacher: "How did you get that?" Pupil: "From my mummy." The Rev. Davis Edens is in Abilene this week to attend a pastors' and laymen's school.

Honor Tom Crabtree on 75th Birthday

Friday night, Oct. 6, members of the Quail Church of Christ met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Crabtree for a surprise birthday party on his 75th birthday. The group met on the lawn and entered the house singing "Happy Birthday."

The evening was spent visiting and singing.

The birthday cake depicted the era from the Indian and Buffalo until the present Rocket age.

Some of the highlights of his interesting life were brought out at this time.

Mr. Crabtree was born Oct. 6, 1886, at Celina, Clay county, Tennessee, and attended school at Mont Vale Academy and Mont Vale College in his home town. At intervals while just a boy, he taught school in the rural free schools of the county.

Baseball being his favorite sport, he was a member of the Upper Cumberland Champion Baseball team, as both manager and player.

His first venture west was to Cordell, Okla., where he worked as assistant to the depot agent for the Frisco railroad, through the money panic of 1907.

He voted his first ballot in the first general election of the State of Oklahoma, just after Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory were combined to form the state.

He returned to Celina to complete his work at Mont Vale College. For a while he was printer's devil, type setter and assistant editor of the Celina Messenger, a county paper published in that town.

Next Mr. Crabtree was employed by the Brown Shoe Co., in St. Louis. He came to Quail to spend the July 4 holidays, 1910, with a sister who had recently moved there with her family. At Quail, he met a number of old family friends and was induced to remain. Mr. Crabtree was employed by the late Dr. Ed Beck as manager of a general country store and remained until Feb. 16, 1913 when he and Miss Hettie Crabtree of Granite, Okla., were married. They farmed near Granite until 1919, when they returned to Quail.

In the late season of 1919, the Quail Mercantile Company a general country store, was organized with Mr. Crabtree as manager. He became individual owner in 1927. Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree have managed the store 42 years, during which time they have become so much a part of the Quail community that few can imagine it without them.

Mr. Crabtree became a member of the Church of Christ at the age of 14, and his greatest interest is his work in the Church.

Attending the birthday party were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Blevins, Mr. and Mrs. Ople White and Margie, Mr. and Mrs. Creed Baker, Rosie and Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carter; Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Lennie, Penny and Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blevins, Kay, Mickey and Karen; Mrs. Recie DuBose; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry DePauw, Margie and Jackie; Mrs. Fred Bourland; Mr. and Mrs. Obie White; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stephens and Jerri; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman.

Only Damage: A Shock of Feed

Larry Blood, pilot for Morrow Spraying Service, walked away from his undamaged plane late Wednesday, Oct. 11 after he ran out of gas and was forced to set it down in a field of shocked feed on the Robert Simpson farm on Buck Creek, Gene Morrow, owner, reported.

He had been spraying cotton with defoliant in the area. Blood got the plane on the ground without incident and rolled for some distance between rows of shocks, then seeing he was going into some brush, was forced to turn the plane and it struck a shock and stood on its nose, according to Morrow.

Wellington firemen, notified a plane was down, were unable to reach the area before dark and spent considerable time hunting in cotton fields of the vicinity before locating it, Hiram Cudd said.

Morrow and Blood returned Thursday morning, set the plane upright, put in some gas, reshocked the feed and Blood flew out.

Blood, 28, is from Wichita, Kansas.

Quail Sophs Pull Cotton

Mrs. DePauw served refreshments to the pullers.

Working were Lonnie Brim, Dan Langford, Dolly Hughes, Margie DePauw, Sue Ward, Lynn Hill, Marjorie White, Jackie DePauw, Mary Finley, Duane Campbell, Kirby Word, Eddie McGill, Johnny Carson, Carrol Kennedy, Robert Russell, Rita Clay, Mike Mitchell, and Junior Portillo. ### PAPERBACK BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS

AUSTIN.—Students in 110 classrooms in Texas will be using some paperback school books in January.

Legislators, looking for ways to save money, told the State Board of Education to test out paperback school books and report back by 1963 on whether tax money can be saved.

The board will adopt new books at its meeting Nov. 13. It will vote on 27 books recommended by a teachers textbook committee. Protests have been made by Rancher-Writer J. Evetts Haley of Canyon, speaking for the Texans for America organization.

Football

Joe Henard received an injured back and Bryan Hatch rib injuries in practice last week. It is not definite if either boy will get to play Friday. Delmer Duckworth, also with a rib injury, played a little Friday and should be in better condition this week.

Herman Childress was unable to suit up against Spearman and his status also is indefinite for this week's game. Jackie Daves, with an injured shoulder, played only half the game last week and he should be in better condition this time.

The bright spot is Gary West, out with a leg injury, who is gaining strength, although it is still slowing him up.

"We're not so far outclassed that the Rockets can't get in there and play a good game of ball," Coach Lindsey summed it up.

Probable Ranger starters are:

Terry McWhorter, 160, and Danny Witt, 171, ends; Don Wagner, 190, and James Fountain, 204, tackles; Byron Simpson, 146, and Jackie Simmons, 145, guards; John Erickson, 155, center; Roger Wright, 147, quarterback; Benny Conley, 150, and Johnny Leicht, 150, halfbacks, and Joe Champion, 175, fullback.

Lynx Beat Skyrockets in Conference Game

A heavier Spearman line paid off for the Lynx as it stopped a determined Rocket drive on the 7-yard line giving them a 14 to 6 conference victory in a game played at Spearman Friday.

Wellington scored first early in the first quarter after Herb Duncan had set up the opportunity by intercepting a Lynx pass on the Spearman 38-yard line. Nice carries by Craig Bergvall, Gary West and Richard Mauldin gained a first down on three plays. Bergvall picked up 12 yards and another first down on one try. Mauldin used a quarterback sneak for a third first down and Gary Holliman rammed it over from the one yard line for the lone Rocket counter.

Spearman received the kickoff, but it had to be kicked over because of an offside penalty. On the second try, Parks returned the ball to the Lynx 30. Vernon picked up 15 yards on a pitchout and Maxwell made 15 more. A pass completion put the ball on the Rocket 6-yard line and Parks ran it over for the first counter for the Lynx. Their try for conversion failed, leaving the score tied 6 to 6 at the end of the first quarter.

Spearman's second touchdown came after the ball had changed hands twice. A series of nicely executed passing and running plays took the ball to the Rocket 9-yard line where Eldon Vernon drove over.

The Rockets dominated the offensive play in the second half with Wellington making 109 yards rushing in the second half to only 71 for Spearman, and also making six first downs as compared to five for the Lynx.

Three Rocket drives produced sensational running by Jackie Daves, Bergvall, West and Mauldin, but they were halted three times deep in Lynx territory; once on the 7-yard line.

Wellington tried five passes in the first half and completed three of them for 64 yards. They tried two in the second half and completed none. One pass caused considerable comment among Wellington fans. The ball was caught and the fans thought the whistle blew before the Rocket player stumbled and fell juggling the ball.

Wellington's next game will be with Perryton, Friday evening, Oct. 27, at Perryton.
