

Court Splits On First Case Of New Term

Jackson Returns
After Year At Nuernberg

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—The Supreme Court split 5 to 4 today in its first formal opinion of the new term.

It upheld a ruling that an interstate pipe line built by the Champlin Refining Company of Enid, Okla., makes the firm a common carrier under Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction.

Justice Jackson, delivering the majority opinion, held that the power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce extends over a private carrier.

It was Jackson's first opinion in more than a year, because of his absence at the Nuernberg Nazi trials. Justice Reed wrote a dissent in which Justices Frankfurter, Douglas and Burton joined.

The court affirmed 6 to 3 the conviction on Mann Act charges of six members of a "fundamentalist" cult which practices plural marriages.

Justice Douglas delivered the majority opinion. It noted that Justice Black and Jackson believed convictions should be reversed. Justice Murphy wrote a dissenting opinion.

The six were convicted in Federal Court in Salt Lake City. They said that in practicing plural marriage—their term for it is "celestial marriage"—they were observing a mandate from God.

The government replied that a professed religious belief in plural marriage could not absolve anyone under the White Slave Act.

The act bars transportation across state lines of women and girls for the purpose of prostitution, debauchery, "or for any other immoral purpose."

Porkers Due To Play In Bowl

FORT WORTH, Nov. 18. (AP)—Dr. Gayle Scott of TCU, president of the Southwest Conference, said Monday that the machinery of deciding the circuit's representative in the Cotton Bowl would be put into motion at once and that he was "confident Arkansas would be selected."

"It is true," Dr. Scott said, "that there is nothing official about the precedent of inviting the team that won the game between clubs that tie for the title. I don't believe it's in any minutes. But I know we have discussed it and always agreed that such would be the case."

"I think it is a good precedent and should be followed. No action has been taken up until now because we were in no position to know what teams were involved. I do think we should act fast now in order to secure a first rate opponent for the conference representative."

Tear Gas Used To Smash Gang Fight

An active weekend for Big Spring police was climaxed at about 1 a. m. Sunday when a riot was quelled at a north side establishment.

Two cars of city police and members of the state highway patrol waded in on a group, estimated to number 25 or more, finally using tear gas to restore order. Bottles, rocks and knives were favorite weapons in the melee, police said, and the city jail gained several temporary residents on charges of drunkenness and affray.

Plane Lost At Sea, 23 Aboard Killed

TOKYO, Nov. 18. (AP)—Fifteen military passengers and the eight-man crew of a U. S. Army C-46 transport plane enroute from Guam to Iwo Jima were killed late Saturday when the aircraft crashed into the sea about 15 miles from its destination, the air corps announced today.

Search planes and naval craft found bits of wreckage from the plane the next day. Victims' names were not made available immediately.

New 'Code' To Restrict Veto Under Study

NEW YORK, Nov. 18. (AP)—Foreign ministers of the United Nations' five great powers met today to see whether they could work out what the British call a new "code of conduct" to restrict the use of the veto in the U. N. Security Council.

The meeting was held at the suggestion of British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who had circulated among the members beforehand several proposals for putting restraints on the veto by voluntary agreement.

Those who attended the session for the United States were Secretary of State Byrnes, Senator Connally (D-Texas), State Department Counselor Benjamin Cohen and Charles E. Bohlen, Byrnes' Russian expert and interpreter.

Prior to the Big Five session—of America, Britain, China, France and Russia—Byrnes met with his top United Nations delegates to discuss the veto issue and review American policy which agrees with that of the other powers in opposing any basic change in the veto at this time, but calls for restraint by agreement where possible.

The ministers moved to lift the veto issue temporarily from the U. N. assembly and add it to their own tasks, finishing the satellite peace treaties and beginning American peace talks.

By such action Bevin and Secretary of State Byrnes were reported hopeful they could meet the anti-veto criticisms of small nations and simultaneously preserve cooperation with Russia. Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov agreed to talk things over. The formula of Big Five private talks was used when the charter was written at San Francisco.

The United Nations itself was asked in a sense of sanction the procedure. France proposed that the assembly's political and security committee drop all veto discussion until the foreign ministers have acted.

Edward Joseph Miller, 68, elected associate justice of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals Nov. 5, died today to a local hospital.

Funeral services will be held here tomorrow afternoon. Miller was born Friday, Dec. 13, 1877, in Sabine Parish, Louisiana, the son of Thomas E. and Susie Whitley Miller. He was a farmer, rancher, and teacher, and attended Simmons College (now Hardin-Simmons). He received his degree from the Sam Houston State Teachers College. He had lived here since 1903.

Miller was judge of the 35th Judicial District for twelve years. His lifelong ambition was to serve on an appeals court.

He was president emeritus of the Comanche Trail Boy Scout Council, an Odd Fellow and a Baptist.

He married Willie Jenkins at Brownwood in 1911. His widow and one daughter, Mrs. Anna S. Beck, Brownwood, survive.

The 35th District Court will be closed during the funeral services, District Judge A. O. Newman said today.

Courtney Gray of Brownwood is appeals court justice. His term expires January 1, when Miller was to have assumed his office. The position now will be subject to appointment. Gray was appointed last year by Governor Coke Stevenson to fill a vacancy.

Anti-Russian Combine Draws Attlee Denial

Says Britain And United States Not
'Ganging Up'

LONDON, Nov. 18. (AP)—The House of Commons unanimously gave Foreign Secretary Bevin's foreign policy a vote of confidence tonight.

LONDON, Nov. 18. (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee, rising to face a hostile faction of his own party, denied in the House of Commons today that Britain was "ganging up" with the United States against Russia.

Labor party rebels in the House had urged Attlee to deny that an Anglo-American alliance, as suggested by Winston Churchill, had come into being and had widened a world split between the United States and Russia.

One of the 58 labor opponents of Foreign Secretary Bevin's policies, R. H. S. Crossman, said Britain must have no exclusive military or economic ties with the U. S. where, he asserted, "foreign affairs are in the hands of powerful, ambitious men" of the War and Navy Departments.

The discussion in Commons was not regarded as a threat to Prime Minister Attlee's government. Most observers said in event of sharp criticism, Attlee probably would demand a vote of confidence, and they predicted he would win in such a case by a wide majority, since few if any insurgents would go so far as to vote against the government.

Dissident laborites were represented as seeing the recent Republican election victory as a swing to big-business rule in the United States.

US Goes To Court To Stop Walkout

Thousands
Already Off Job

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18. (AP)—Some 20,000 miners quit work in four states today 72 hours ahead of the suspension deadline threatened in the nation's soft coal fields.

The idle included 6,500 in Pennsylvania, 6,000 in West Virginia, 5,500 in Illinois and 2,000 in Alabama. Heavy absenteeism from some working mines also was reported in some sections.

There are about 400,000 miners in the bituminous coal industry. Industry spokesmen said absenteeism in mines still operating was "running high" in some sections of the Pittsburgh area and "not too serious" in others.

Hardest hit was the Pittsburgh Coal Co., with five of its 14 mines closed and about 3,000 workers idle. A company spokesman said the miners failed to appear for work at three of the pits, while at the other two the miners showed up but returned home without entering the shafts.

The four captive mines closed, the Solid Fuels Administration reported, were Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation's Vesta No. 4 and No. 6, with 1,920 men; and Republic Steel's Clyde No. 1 and Crescent No. 2, employing 550 miners each.

Ohio, another big soft coal-producing state, reported all its mines were working. West Virginia mines also were operating.

Order Issued To Bar Termination Of Coal Contract

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—The justice department announced today Federal Judge Allen Goldsborough has signed a temporary order designed to restrain a walkout by John L. Lewis' 400,000 soft coal miners.

The department said the restraining order bars Lewis from terminating at Wednesday midnight his working contract with the government.

Goldsborough's order, the department said, expires November 27 at 3 p. m., unless "before such time the order for good cause shown is extended, or unless the defendants consent that it may be extended for a longer period."

A hearing on the justice department's request for a preliminary injunction to bar breach of contract was set for hearing November 27 at 10:00 a. m.

According to the justice department, Goldsborough's order today restrained Lewis and the United Mine Workers from "breaching any of their obligations under" the Krug-Lewis agreement, and "from coercing, instigating, inducing or encouraging the mine workers at the bituminous coal mines in the government's possession, or any of them, or any person, to interfere by strike, slowdown, walkout, cessation of work or otherwise, with the operation of said mines by continuing in effect the aforesaid notice or by issuing any notice of termination of agreement or through any other means or device; and from interfering with or obstructing the exercise by the secretary of the interior of his functions under executive order 9728; and from taking any action which would interfere with this court's jurisdiction, or which would impair, obstruct, or render fruitless, the determination of this case by the court."

Executive order 9728 is the order of President Truman seizing the 3,300 bituminous coal mines during last spring's strike, May 22.

Goldsborough is a justice of the federal district courts here and long served in congress as a democratic representative from Maryland.

The order was signed by Justice Goldsborough at 12:50 p. m. today. President Truman had called for a showdown fight with Lewis over the threat of another nationwide soft coal strike.

Lewis, rejecting a government proposal for a truce, has "terminated" the miners' wage contract effective Wednesday midnight—a signal for a complete shutdown in the mine fields. The government insists the contract still is effective.

In an effort to avert complete paralysis of industry, the government already has taken these two steps:

1. Posted notices at all mines appealing to the miners to stick at their jobs, despite Lewis, and pledging to "keep the mines open regardless of any action" by the union boss.

2. "Froze" coal stocks in dealers' hands and instituted rationing of deliveries. The regulations permit deliveries to public utilities, railroads, laundries, hospitals, food processing plants and refrigeration plants, tugboats and domestic consumers having less than 10 days supply.

Brewster disclosed that he and Senators Ferguson (R-Mich) and Knowland (R-Calif), committee members, went to New York last week to confer with Secretary of State Byrnes and Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Connally (D-Tex) about the diplomatic and political angles to the proposed European hearings.

Full-Scale Battle Raging In Greece

ATHENS, Nov. 18 (AP)—Greek fighter planes and relief troops were reported today to have joined battle with guerrilla bands making their third attack in five days on Archangel, west of ravaged Skra near the Yugoslav border. An army spokesman called it a "full scale military operation."

Salonica dispatches in Athens newspapers quoted a communique as saying that the attackers came from across the border and penetrated Greek defenses about a mile and a quarter.

The relief column speeded to the village, the report continued, inflicted heavy casualties on the band and left the battlefield littered with dead.

The Greek general staff submitted to Premier Constantinos Tsaldaris details of all attacks near the border since Oct. 1 for presentation to the American and British ambassadors to Greece.

The ambassadors, Lincoln MacVeagh of the United States and Sir Clifford Norton of Britain, were scheduled to call on Tsaldaris later today. The scheduled conference was believed connected with the government's consideration of proposals to complain to the United Nations about the activity of guerrillas who, the Greeks charge, have been supported and given refuge in border nations—Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

Sources close to the foreign office said Yugoslavia troops had been moved near the border, but the number was not known here.

Atheist Wins Radio Time

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18. (AP)—Robert Harold Scott, 52-year-old atheist who won a five-year campaign for the right to broadcast his views, told a radio audience yesterday "There is no God all-wise and all-good, who is also all-powerful."

Scott spoke from San Francisco over station KQW yesterday on the half-hour which for years has been devoted to the Salt Lake City Tabernacle choir. The station was one of three local stations whose licenses Scott sought to revoke if they would not allow him time on the air. The Federal Communications Commission recently ruled, in effect, that he could have his say.

KQW gave Scott a half-hour of free time for "a trial broadcast" and invited its listeners to send in their reactions.

"An Almighty God could have prevented all natural evils, great and small," Scott said. "He could have prevented disastrous earthquakes and tornadoes. x x x He could have prevented every natural evil of the present and the past. x x x"

He asserted "The fact that no deity of any kind has ever, in any way, made himself unmistakably known to everybody in every generation amounts to positive proof that there is no such thing."

The radio station reported numerous telephoned protests to the talk.

Stevenson Helps His Granddaughter Bring Down Deer

AUSTIN, Nov. 18. (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson was back at his desk today after a deer hunt in which he didn't even load his rifle.

He helped his 12-year old granddaughter, Scottie Gayle Stevenson, spot the two bucks which she killed on a Kimple county ranch, however. Scottie Gayle also killed a turkey gobbler with one shot through the neck.

Asphalt Seal Coat Being Placed On 18 City Blocks

A threat of more unfavorable weather this morning failed to halt Big Spring's paving program, city officials reported, as street department workers prepared to apply the seal coat of asphalt to 18 blocks.

Priming coat on the last two blocks was completed over the weekend, and the street department is anxious to complete the entire project officials said. Barring rain, the first seal coat was expected to go down this afternoon.

Man Charged In Fatal Stabbing

FORT WORTH, Nov. 18. (AP)—A charge of murder was filed today in Justice of the Peace Gus Brown's court against Willie T. Woods, 43-year-old Lake Worth resident, in connection with the stabbing of Edwin Paul McCullough, 25, a roofing company employee, Saturday night at a Lake Worth camp tavern.

Woods was released on $2,500 bail.

McCullough was dead on arrival at a hospital. He had been found in the lake waters, a deep gash in the left side of the abdomen. Brown returned an inquest verdict of death from a stab wound.

The wife of the slain man, Mrs. Alice McCullough, told sheriff's deputies her husband and another man had argued in the tavern and had gone outside. When she went to look for McCullough she found several men removing his body from the lake.

Panhandle Gets Low Of 28 Degrees

By The Associated Press

It was wool bathrobe and felt slipper weather the length and breadth of Texas this morning.

Floors were cold to bare feet weather at Amarillo, where the mercury slipped to 28 degrees, or at Brownsville, where it hit bottom at 31.

The weather bureau at Dallas eyed a new low pressure area centered in eastern Washington and northern Idaho, but declined to predict whether it would produce a mid-week wave of even colder weather for Texas or another onslaught of rains from the south.

Clouds were building up today, especially along the coast and the lower Rio Grande valley.

Low temperatures last night were in the 30's in the north and northwest; in the 40's in the southeast and south central sections and hovered near 50 along the coast.

Some Tax Cut Talk Is Too Rosy

There is a lot of rosy talk going on about hefty tax slices when the new congress meets. Some GOP leaders have predicted slashes up to 20 per cent on individual incomes.

Amid this atmosphere, it is worthy to note that Sen. Taft, one of the key GOP figures, has cautioned that there should not be too much talk about tax reduction until some means is first figured for reducing government expense.

This is the logical position, and one that is not to throw a bit of cold water on some of the more optimistic predictions of tax relief.

To set about providing tax relief without first curbing expenses would be to aggravate deficit spending, which already has contributed to the inflationary trend.

In the same connection, it is important that the budget not only be balanced, but that some arrangements be made about servicing the debt. These two factors could have a wholesome effect.

It is possible that some tax cuts may be in order in 1947, but not by such margins as many have been predicting. We've still got the fiddler to pay.

We Could Learn From Duval County

For years Texans have stuck their tongues in their cheeks or have felt downright indignation, depending on the candidate they favored of course, over the way Duval county cast its ballots.

They have a habit of going all one way down there. That was the case the other day when the veterans land amendment came up for a vote two days after general election. Duval county polled 3,087 votes for it, none against.

But compare these 3,087 votes to the less than 500 that Howard county polled in the same election.

We may not agree on the way they manage the vote down in Duval county, but we might learn a lesson or so in how to stimulate sluggardly voters into going to the polls.

Texas Mental Hospitals—By Paul Bolton

State Getting Away From 'Asylums' Gromyko's Nightcap

Editor's Note: This is the second of several articles on Texas' mental hospitals.

AUSTIN.—In providing care for the mentally ill, there are two extremes. The one is to imprison them until they die. That was the purpose of yesterday's "insane asylum." The other is to treat them as sick people, and try to cure them.

Texas is struggling painfully away from the asylum standard. Those in charge of the hospitals can well point with pride to how far they have come in a relatively few years. On the other hand, it is simple to point with scorn at the deficiencies in our treatment of mental cases.

We have come far, but we have far to go to measure up to minimum standards recommended by the American Psychiatric Association. That association, incidentally, was formed by institution heads from all over the nation.

What are Texas deficiencies? Probably the most flagrant is the lack of skilled personnel to treat patients.

In recent years there have been two expert surveys made of the state hospital system by specialists with the US Public Health Service. The first was requested by Governor James V. Allred. The second was requested by Governor Coke Stevenson. The first is known as the 1938 report; the second as the 1943 report. Those are the dates of their issuance. The reports furnish bases for the measurement of progress, and of how far we are from minimum goals.

The 1938 report said that a minimum standard should be one doctor for each 150 patients. The 1943 report said Texas could get by on one doctor for each 200 patients. The American Psychiatric Association's minimum standards for 1945-46 are complex. They say one psychiatrist for each 200 patients under continuing treatment, plus well-trained physicians. It appears that a minimum figure—a bare minimum—would be one physician to each 200 patients, and disregarding whether or not they are trained psychiatrists. Using that base, we find:

At Austin state hospital, the 1938 ratio was 380 patients to each physician. In 1943 the ratio was 309-one. In 1946, it is 325 to one. (Bear in mind that the 1946 ratio is on authorized physicians; numerous places have not been filled.)

At the San Antonio state hospital the 1938 ratio was one to 300; in 1943, one to 482; in 1946, one to 272.

Rusk state hospital showed a ratio in 1938 of one to 268; 1943, one to 307; 1946, one to 237.

Terrell state hospital: 1938, one to 417; 1943, one to 296; 1946, one to 266.

Wichita Falls state hospital: 1938, one to 382; 1943, one to 413; 1946, one to 296.

Abilene epileptic hospital: 1938, one to 301; 1943, one to 332; and 1946, one to 279.

Big Spring state hospital, put into operation subsequent to the 1938 survey: 1943, one to 335; 1946, one to 111.

It should be pointed out that in computing the 1946 ratio, the assistant superintendent only was counted as a physician. The surveys recommended that the superintendent and his assistant be counted in determining doctor-patient ratios.

But the big facts shown by these figures are:

1. If all positions authorized by the legislature were filled, Texas would have shown substantial progress since 1938.

2. However, even if every position were filled, only the Big Spring hospital would approach the minimum standards—although Texas was officially put on notice of minimum standards eight years ago and three years ago.

It is gliding the lily to point out the same discrepancy between minimum standards and actual standards in effect as to nurses, attendants and all the other personnel at the state institutions.

The American Psychiatric Association additionally recommended that the Superintendent, or medical director; and the assistant superintendent; and the clinical director of each hospital should be diplomates of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. That would mean three diplomats at each institution, or a total of at least 21 in the system.

At the time the last directory was issued by the group, only two men employed by all the state hospitals held such diplomas.

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

Gromyko's Nightcap

NEW YORK. — Doris Duke Cromwell is one of the major backers of the Katherine Dunham dance revue, "Bal Negro." Louis Prima cleaned up more by betting one of his racehorses at Jamaica a week ago than he earned in a week's personal appearance at the Palace Theatre in Chicago, his press agent informs me.

Meyer Davis gets the plum to lead the eleventh anniversary Ziegfeld Girls' ball at the Waldorf. . . . A reporter covering the UN says he hears Gromyko takes a nightcap to bed. . . . That's a hat, too, not a drink. . . . Olafsen and Johnson, who open at the Carnival in January, have submitted a plan for redecorating the premises with trap doors and other slapstick gimmicks. . . . The cost, which is giving Owner Nicky Blair a little case of bitter inwards, will be $35,000.

Tony DeMarco and Sigmund Romberg are looking icily in each other's direction since Victoria Schools left the Romberg concert troupe to go on a similar tour with the De Marcos. . . . Theatrical Producer Nelson Gross says he has $75,000 from an assortment of backers to invest in Broadway shows. . . . He insists that he has the patient good taste, however, not to jump at turkeys.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Army Duplicates Hospital Service

WASHINGTON. — President Truman is a sincere, hard-plugging advocate of unified armed services, but he should persuade his Army to obey the policy of its commander-in-chief.

At present the Army is building a special wing to Walter Reed hospital at 12th and Dahlia streets in Washington which will exactly duplicate the Navy's.

This wing is to take care of the President of the United States.

Simultaneously, the Navy also has a floor of its Bethesda Naval hospital reserved for the president. It is all set to take care of him at any time. However, medical officers have changed in the White House and a Navy doctor isn't in command any more. The Army now runs the show.

Roosevelt, always partial to the Navy, appointed Adm. Ross McIntire White House physician. But Truman, who served in the Army, selected Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham as White House physician.

And of course an Army doctor does not like to practice in a naval hospital. Therefore, the Army Medical Corps, wanting to avoid the humiliation of sending the President to a naval hospital, authorized a new wing to the Walter Reed Army hospital. Thus, at the expense of thousands of feet of scarce lumber, tons of strategic metal and several thousand bricks, the special wing for the President is being built.

NOTE — One purpose of Army-Navy unification was to prevent duplication and cut down expense.

US vs. USSR DEMOCRACY

Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes has been telling the following story about the difference — between democracy in Russia and the United States.

"An American soldier," he relates, "was talking to a Russian soldier in Berlin. The American said that in his country, he could go to Washington without a permit, go to the White House, wait his turn, get in to see the President, and tell him that he doesn't like American foreign policy. 'That's democracy,' said the G. I. 'That's nothing,' the Russian soldier replied. 'In my country I can go to Moscow, knock on the door of the Kremlin, walk in, wait my turn, see Stalin, bang on the desk and say 'Mr. Stalin, I don't like Truman's foreign policy either!' and nothing would happen to me. That's real democracy."

REPUBLICANS EYE JOBS

With the Republicans back in power in Congress, a move to put Republicans into important executive offices can be expected. President Truman will have to give Republicans increasing patronage in order to get Senate confirmation of Democratic appointees to the cabinet and other posts.

One early arrival in Washington may be Nelson Rockefeller, who never liked being booted out of his job as assistant secretary of state by Truman. Rockefeller has been keeping his hand in at the diplomatic game by entertaining United Nations delegates, and, shortly after the elections, he conferred to a friend at the United Nations.

"I guess I'll be back in Washington soon, now that my party won the elections."

CAPITAL CHAFF

All cabinet members are strengthening their legal staffs, knowing they face the most exhaustive series of congressional investigations in the last twenty years. . . . George Creel, who master-minded US propaganda in World War I, helped Adm. Ross T. McIntire write his new book, "White House Physician," the inside story of Roosevelt's losing battle for life. . . . Foreign governments have been snapping up New Deal legal talent. Former treasury attorney John Pehle is working for the French; Oscar Cox does legal work for the Italians, and Tommy Corcoran conducts numerous legal operations for the Chinese. . . . Conservatives in the SEC are making a determined effort to move that one-time anti-Wall Street organization from Philadelphia to New York, where it would be in Wall Street's hip pocket. . . . From a three-column Wall Street Journal story telling about GOP plans for the new Congress comes this small but significant paragraph: "The Republican program for social legislation has not been worked out in as much detail as the plans for budget and tax reductions. . . . Nine members of the new Senate are former newspapermen and publishers; three are former teachers. Sixty-four senators are lawyers. . . . One member of the House whom Republicans returned after a brief absence is Pennsylvania's Jimmy Van Zandt who had a 100 per cent zero record in the 76th, 77th and 78th Congress on progressive and war legislation.

NEW NAVAL BOSS

Navy enlisted men will find they have a new friend among the top brass in Assistant Secretary of the Navy John Nicholas Brown, of Newport, R. I. Millionaire Brown, who traces his ancestry directly to the Roger Williams Expedition which settled Rhode Island in 1636, can point to a rich naval background.

A member of his family, John Brown, led the first American Naval Expedition when, with a party men disguised as Indians, he boarded and burned the British Frigate Gaspee in Narragansett Bay shortly before the Boston Tea Party. A brother of this John Brown was a founder of Brown University, named for the family of the new assistant secretary of the Navy.

Brown himself served as an enlisted seaman in the First World War, and caused plenty of headaches among the supply officers. He stands six feet five inches in height, and the Navy simply couldn't find a uniform to fit him. His mother, trying to be helpful, ordered a uniform from the family tailor in Newport, but it was found to be nonregulation. Fortunately for everyone, it was stolen the first night after it arrived.

Although his family background was strictly GOP, Brown was a supporter of Al Smith in 1928 and of the late President Roosevelt in his first, second and fourth campaigns for the White House. He backed FDR despite his experience in World War I with the "Roosevelt Cot."

The Roosevelt cot was a special sleeping contraption invented by FDR while he was assistant secretary of the Navy, the job Brown now holds. When Brown enlisted, he was assigned a Roosevelt cot—which was not adjustable to his height. So he slept with that part of his body between his ears and ankles on the cot—the rest hanging over. The first night, the cot broke, but Brown was so tired from drilling that he slept through till morning. He awoke to find his head and feet on the floor, his middle on what was left on the cot.

"In spite of that," says the new assistant secretary of the Navy, "I voted for Roosevelt." (Copyright, 1946, By the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Army Chow Problem

NEW YORK. (P)—So General Eisenhower is going to improve Army chow—he says.

I wonder how his five-star program will fare when it collides with Otie, the moonstruck mess sergeant.

Otie—that's close enough to his real name—was a hill boy who was sentenced to the cookstove back in the early days in Tunisia. In those times many "Bolos"—troublesome boys who went AWOL or curled up with a bottle too often—were punished by being promoted to "mess sergeant."

It was the cruellest penalty available. It was also hard on the rest of the outfit. They had to eat the morose culprit's culinary mistakes. I don't know whether Otie originally was made a cook for misdeeds. There was always a mist rising in his mind. He couldn't tell one end of a gun from the other, and he certainly was the sloppiest-dressed and itchiest soldier in Africa. I always thought his officers exiled him to the mess tent so they'd only have to see him three times a day.

Otie managed to get four thumbs in your morning oatmeal—he cooked it crisp instead of mushy—but the heat from the cookstoves did something to his sterile personality. He began to collect pinup girl pictures and write poetry.

Somebody made the error of telling Otie that Edwin Markham got $100,000 for "The Man With The Hoe." He became mercenary. He began slipping copies under my plate, thinking I probably knew somebody who wanted to invest $100,000 for a quick profit.

One poem, I recall, went something like this:

"Roses are red
Violets are blue,
Your eyes are brown,
And mine, too!"

"Love stuff," Otie would say and spit out a stream of tobacco juice in modest confusion. And there was one that went roughly:

"My feet are in the mud of Flanders,
But, dear, my heart still wanders
Back across all those empty ocean miles and miles
To where your sweet face smiles and smiles and smiles."

Otie kind of expected extra pay for the long lines.

Well, when last I saw Otie he was still riding Pegasus by night and spreading ulcers by day with hamburger entrees that tasted like baked fat and sand.

It's a laugh to think of General Eisenhower ever telling Otie how to mend his cooking. That is, unless the general can write his orders in rhymed couplets. They might catch Otie's ear—one khaki Shakespeare bugling to another. Otherwise Otie's soup will still be thin as a bat's whisper, watery as night club Scotch.

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

Doug A Producer

HOLLYWOOD. (P)—After exiting from the Navy, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., was faced with two alternatives: 1, hiring himself out as actor for approximately $100,000 per picture; 2, entering the diplomatic corps. Instead of either, he took the ulcer route—he is now a movie producer.

"When I went into the war, I burned my professional bridges behind me," he said in his office at Universal-International. "Now I have burned my financial bridges. I've got to make good or else."

Making good is a family trait, and that may help explain why Doug turned down the cushy dough as a free-lance actor or the adventure and hard work of a diplomat. His plans for the future appear to be closely paralleling the career of his father.

Like Fairbanks, Sr., Doug the younger is planning to produce and star in exciting stories. The first will be "The Exile" and this week he announced he will make "Knights of the Round Table" from the Arthurian legends. Unlike his father, he will also produce, but not appear in, pictures that interest him, such as "Terry and the Pirates."

But Fairbanks, Jr., says he will make no attempt to recreate his father's films, except in spirit. No one could reproduce that vital personality. Besides, it's hard to make films on such a grand scale with present costs. "Thief of Bagdad" cost a million dollars in the '20's (a lot of potatoes in those days); today it would run three or four, Doug says.

Despite all the activity, Doug's

Turkey Day Clash With Hurricanes Winds Up Program

By The Associated Press
Arkansas' Razorbacks, with a title already in the books, today are awaiting a verdict from Houston as to whether or not they will share the Southwest Conference crown with the Rice Institute Owls.

The verdict is in the hands of the Owls, who by defeating Texas Christian and Baylor this week and next can stake a claim to one-half of the title.

But regardless of how Rice Owls comes through against the Horned Frogs and Bears, the 1946 campaign will be something for followers of the Ozark eleven to remember.

Last September, the Razorbacks, starting out with a new coach and nothing particularly spectacular in the way of material, were not given much of a chance to even figure indirectly in the championship picture.

But John Barnhill, the war-time mentor at Tennessee, worked his Porkers long and hard and came up with one of the best conditioned outfits in the country and a team that played tough football.

With only the annual Turkey Day clash with Tulsa's Hurricane remaining on the schedule, (outside, a probable Cotton Bowl appearance), Arkansas' record stands at seven wins and two defeats, the losses being to Texas and Mississippi.

Arkansas clinched the title tie

have filled your physician's prescriptions since 1919

Saturday by defeating the Southern Methodist Mustangs, 13-0, in a homecoming game at Fayetteville, on gallops of 88 and 85 yards by Clyde Scott and Aubrey Fowler.

While the Porkers were sewing up its end of the deal, Rice was plowing into its assignment by dealing misery to the Texas Aggies, 27-10, and Texas Christian was cooperating by defeating Texas, 14-0.

The defeats knocked the Aggies and Longhorns out of a chance to finish in a tie with the Barnhill-coached eleven.

In a non-conference encounter, the lowly Baylor Bears again took it on the chin, a 17-0 loss to Tulsa.

The odds are strong that Rice will come through against Texas Christian and Baylor, but Fort Worth fans are booming the Frogs after their fine play against Texas. Dutch Meyer came up with a defense that all but stopped the highly rated Texas passing attack.

Even if that same defense operates at Rice Stadium, the Owls should not be in too much trouble. They have a rugged defense of their own and their fleet of backs should be to crack the Frog line. Southern Methodist is scheduled to break into the conference win column by taking Baylor in a homecoming tilt at Dallas on Saturday.

Texas and Texas A&M will be idle this week while preparing for their traditional battle on Thanksgiving, this year at Austin. Texas will be out to make it eight straight over the Aggies and a win would do much to erase the sting of the losses to Rice and TCU.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

In their four District 3AA starts, the Big Spring high school football Steers have shown the most impotent scoring punch but the best defense of any of the circuit's teams. In chalking up two victories in four starts, the homelings have chugged to 18 points in just 19 for the foe. Only Odessa's Broncs tallied more than once against the Longhorns and they were lucky to dent the line twice.

San Angelo's Bobcats scored on a long pass, then booted the point to nose out Johnny Dibrell's gang, 7-6, while La-messa and Midland failed to reach touchdown land. They fell by identical scores—6-0.

Against those same four clubs last year, the Longhorns succeeded in collecting 18 points yet gave up 72 points and lost in all four outings. A large share of the credit for riveting a new defense for the Steers can go to Herschel "Mule" Stockton, the line mentor, who obviously knows his business. Mule's line is recognized as one of the best in West Texas if not in the entire state.

Against eight foes to date, the Bovines have rolled up 66 points while limiting the opposition to 59. Only North Side got out of hand, scoring 20 points against the villagers, and most fans are still trying to reason out how we lost that one.

Despite the fact that they took a beating in statistics in the Midland outing last week—due mainly to Midland's desperate last minute drive that moved 72 yards down field—Our Town still holds the edge in overall gains for the campaign. In their eight games, the Longhorns have rolled up 1124 yards to 1248 yards for the opposition but more than make up for that deficit in their passing game.

Their aerial gains have amounted to 662 paces as compared to 451 yards for the common foe. In all, the Herd has picked up 1786 yards while limiting the enemy to 1699 steps.

On the other hand, first downs favor the adversary, 89 to 76. Midland piled up twice as many down renewals as did the Big Springers.

Gerald Harris and Horace Rankin have been the big guns in the Big Spring attack thus far. Each man has accounted for better than a quarter of a mile in gains. Harris, who doesn't do any passing, is the rushing leader. He's picked up 447 yards in 86 thrusts at the line for an average of 5.2 steps.

Rankin has gained 282 paces in 80 attempts for an average of something like 3.5 yards and his passing arm enabled the Longhorns to go for an additional 265 steps. Coupled with the 8 yards he collected in the one pass he caught, that's 555 yards The Hoss has accounted for over the season.

Other ball carriers and their records for the year include:
BOBO HARDY—211 yards in 68 carries for an average of 3.1 yards.

GEORGE WORRELL—122 in 24. Average: 3.6.
JACKIE BARRON—39 in 13. Average: 3.

ERNE ACHE—5 in 4. Average: 1.4.
GORDON MADISON—No gain in two tries.

Rankin's 265 yards in passing gains have come as result of 17 completions in 41 attempts. Barron, the team's other tosser, has tried 58 overheads, completed 24 for an aggregate advance of 310 paces. Madison, slated to step in Rankin's shoes next year, has tried one pass and it fell incomplete.

Hardy leads the pass receivers both on catches and yardage gained. He's gathered in an even dozen and loped for 152 paces. One

Many A Football Puzzle Will Be Solved Saturday

NEW YORK, Nov. 18. (AP)—Like a well-staged mystery play which saves its climax for the final act, a college football season that has kept everybody guessing since early September will reach a dramatic peak this week-end with most of the puzzles being solved on the same afternoon.

The Big Nine and Pacific Coast conferences will crown their champions before Saturday's sun goes down and by that time the officials of the two leagues probably will have decided whether to match the winners in the Rose Bowl or clear a path to Pasadena for Army's unbeaten team.

Army, which followed its scoreless tie with Notre Dame by clipping Pennsylvania, 34-7, rests this week for its Nov. 30 finale with Navy. The Cadets are itching for a Rose Bowl bid and, what's more important, academy officials appear willing to accept one this time if it comes.

The coast team for the Rose Bowl will emerge from Saturday's important struggle between Southern California and UCLA.

Last Saturday was an open date for the Trojans, who still have non-conference dates with Notre Dame and Tulane. UCLA winds up against Nebraska Nov. 30.

Illinois, which blasted Ohio State's title hopes Saturday, 16-7, can wrap up the Big Nine flag this week at Northwestern, whose 27-0 licking by Notre Dame kept the Irish abreast of Army in the race for the mythical national championship.

Michigan stayed in the running by knocking off Wisconsin, 28-6, and if Illinois should falter the Wolverines could take the title by winning this week at Ohio State.

Six teams have come down to the wire with four of them tied for the lead. Oklahoma, which turned back Missouri, 27-6, enters Nebraska, 33-0 winner over Iowa State, this week with the winner clinching a tie for the crown.

Georgia, which shares honors with UCLA as the only all-victorious major teams, and Georgia Tech, which walloped Tulane, 35-7, for its seventh straight win, warm up against lightly-regarded opponents this week in preparation for their Dixie classic the following Saturday.

Fresh from a 41-0 triumph over Auburn, Georgia will invade Chattanooga and Georgia Tech will entertain Furman.

Eagles Beaten By Union, 6-0

ACKERLY, Nov. 18.—The Union Bobcats nipped Ackerly's Eagles, 6-0, in a six-man football game played here last Friday afternoon.

Hambright, Union back, swept right wing for 20 yards in the fourth quarter for the Union tally. Try for extra point was blocked by G. Rodgers, Eagle back.

Ackerly fought eagerly until the final gun but was unable to penetrate the stout Bobcat line.

Grace Oaks, Ackerly high school football queen, was crowned in a ceremony at half-time by J. C. Ingram, co-captain of the Eagle team.

Price Re-Named WT-NM Leader

LUBBOCK, Nov. 18. (AP)—Milton Price of Dallas has been re-elected president of the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League, as were vice presidents Bob Seeds of Amarillo and Sam Rosenthal of Lubbock.

At a meeting of the league officials here yesterday Price was authorized to vote the group's approval of a substantial raise in Class C salary limits. No figure was established but the league followed the precedent of the Lone Star League which last week authorized Price to approve an advance from $2,200 to $2,800 monthly.

A league ruling bringing a non-playing manager under the circuit's salary limit was abolished. All teams participating in the 1946 season announced readiness to participate in next year's schedule.

Five Towns Post Franchise Money For Baseball Loop

Big Spring Will Field Nine If It Gets Park

In the words of Lou Baker, who helped represent Big Spring at Sunday afternoon's baseball meeting at the Settles hotel:

"The time for action is now!"

Lou, of course, was referring to the job the town has ahead of it if it fields a team in the newly organized Westex professional Class D league next spring.

Joe Langston, who has propositioned the local delegation on running the business office of a local team enters the circuit, committed Big Spring to the organization by posting a $900 franchise guarantee, which will protect the city's territorial rights.

Now, the big hurdle remains a playing field. Whether or not Big Spring is represented in next year's professional wars depends on construction of such a facility. Baker and others of the local delegation sitting in on the Sunday conclave expressed confidence a stadium could be financed and built before spring.

Langston said he was reasonably certain he could arrange a working agreement with a major league club if he were able to work into the local picture.

Four other cities besides Big Spring posted franchise guarantees at the Sunday conclave and indications are the circuit—formally christened the Westex league—will go with eight clubs in 1947. Brownwood, Ballinger, Midland and Sweetwater were officially represented at the conference and Howard L. Green, elevated to the post of league president Sunday, said he had been informed Odessa, San Angelo and Coleman were seeking alignment with the organization.

An $1800 salary and 15-player limit were tentatively voted by the club representatives. Three class men, five limited service players and seven rookies will comprise the team's rosters, the delegates voted.

The next league meeting will be delayed until after the Minor League convention at Los Angeles early next month.

Attending the Sunday session were Harold F. Webb, George R. Bennett and A. R. Beals, all of Midland; Wilson Middleton, W. O. Middleton and Bill Moore, all of Ballinger; Mack D. Duce and Pete Starnes, both of Sweetwater; Harry Faulkner, Dallas; Jack Knott, Brownwood; Green and Stubby Greer, both of Abilene; and Baker, Langston, Ira Thurman, Pat Stacey, E. H. Sanders, LeRoy Gressett, Clarence Fox, Jr., Claude McAden and Tommy Hart, all of Big Spring.

Another Frost Kills Foliage

Another frost Sunday morning helped to put finishing touches on green vegetation in this area, but even so a few trees and plants withstood the frigid biting.

The US Weather bureau at the airport recorded 31.8 degrees Sunday morning while the US Experiment Farm, on the brow of the caprock north of town, had 28 degrees. Fields and "ranches" carried frosty blankets which completed turning grass a yellowish hue and helped to defoliate cotton.

Temperatures rose slightly, getting to 36 degrees Monday at the airport and 34 degrees at the farm.

Bowel Cleaning Power Of Inner-Aid Medicine

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores here.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 18. (AP)—The United States polo team overcame a seven goal handicap here yesterday to defeat a Texas All-Star team, 10-8 in a warm-up match for the international series with Mexico beginning here next Sunday.

KIDNEYS GETTING YOU UP NIGHTS?

If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your water—but have only scanty passages—yes, and have backache due to excess acidity in the urine, be glad you're reading this:

Three generations ago Dr. Kilmer, a famous doctor, found hundreds of his patients with this trouble. Painstakingly he made a medicine of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams—"Nature's own way to relief." He called it "Swamp-Root" and millions of grateful men and women have taken it—often with amazing results.

Swamp-Root goes right to work to flush out kidneys...increases the flow of urine, helping torpid excess acidity...so the irritated bladder gets a good flushing out, too. Many report getting a good night's sleep after the first few doses. Caution: take as directed.

For free trial supply, send to Dept. S, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your druggists.

Kilgore Looking For Invitation

KILGORE, Nov. 18. (AP)—The visiting team in the little Rose Bowl game scheduled at Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 7 will be named Wednesday and Kilgore Junior College will be all ears.

This game, matching crack junior college teams, will probably have Compton College of Los Angeles as the host eleven.

Kilgore, which last week won its fifth Texas junior college conference title in eleven years (counting three years when there was no football in the conference due to the war), is believed solidly in line for the invitation.

Coach Jimmy Parks of the undefeated, untitled Rangers, while making no comment when asked if Kilgore had been invited, did indicate he had been contacted.

L. H. Thomas Bags Eight-Point Buck

L. H. Thomas, who has made several deer hunts in his time with nothing but the sport of the excursion to show for his efforts, set the pace for his party near Fredericksburg, Saturday.

He had bagged an eight-point white tail buck in the Fredericksburg area, the first one dropped by anyone in the party. Rev. Roy Clark brought the buck back here for storage Saturday. Others in the party are Mrs. Clark, W. R. Puckett, Odie Moore, Cecil Mason.

Frank Covert, Horace Reagan, Ralph Baker and Truett Thomas left Monday morning to hunt black tail deer in the Davis mountain expanse.

TOJO TOOK BLAME FOR THE WAR, WAR CRIMES PROSECUTION SAYS

TOKYO, Nov. 18. (AP)—Hideki Tojo, Japan's wartime premier, has acknowledged chief responsibility for launching the Pacific war, the prosecution told the allied war crimes tribunal today.

It quoted Tojo as saying last spring during questioning in Sugamo prison that "I, as senior member of the cabinet, am chiefly responsible" for the attacks on Pearl Harbor, Hongkong, Malaya and the Philippines.

Tojo heads the list of 27 alleged warmongers on trial.

Joseph W. Ballantine, special assistant to the U.S. secretary of state, told the tribunal later in the day that the state department had opposed a meeting of President Roosevelt with the then Japanese Premier Fumimaro Konoye in the autumn of 1941, as proposed by Konoye.

The department felt, Ballantine said, that if the talks failed, the Japanese leaders would then be in a position to declare that the United States was responsible.

Truman May Have Trouble With Members Of Own Party

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. (AP)—Signs multiplied today that President Truman will have difficulty getting united Democratic support for whatever legislative program he submits to the new Republican-dominated Congress in January. If he hopes to win it, he may have to drop many past proposals.

Democratic leaders, still groggy from the Republican election landslide, have delayed any move to organize their forces for their new role in the minority.

They apparently are agreed, however, that Mr. Truman will write the official party program in his State of the Union message. They seemingly have no intention of attempting to fix objectives, as the Republicans of both House and Senate already have done.

Mr. Truman has given no concrete indication yet of the direction he intends to pursue in his recommendations, except to urge that the legislative and executive branches cooperate for the welfare of the nation.

But Southern Democrats who haven't gone along in the past with many of the President's proposals openly hope that Mr. Truman won't bring up again such left-overs from the late President Roosevelt's agenda as anti-poll tax and anti-lynching legislation and proposals to establish a permanent fair employment practices commission.

New Deal Senators and Representatives, on the other hand, have seized on a phrase in Mr. Truman's true message, in which he urged continuance of "a progressive concept of government," as a sign that he intends to continue to follow the Roosevelt line.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), for one, has made it abundantly clear that he wants what he calls a "liberal" program and will fight proposals that he feels don't measure up to that standard.

Mr. Truman has given no concrete indication yet of the direction he intends to pursue in his recommendations, except to urge that the legislative and executive branches cooperate for the welfare of the nation.

He anticipates an enrollment of more than 150 for the two-day course, which will be climaxed by a basketball game the night of Dec. 2 by a game between West Texas State college and ACC of Abilene.

A. C. "Bugs" Morris, ACC, and Gus Miller, veteran Canyon mentor, will serve as chief instructors of the school. All courses will be conducted in the high school gymnasium.

British Soldiers Die In Palestine Road Bombing

JERUSALEM, Nov. 18. (AP)—Police, using trained dogs, attempted today to trail attackers responsible for the death of an RAF sergeant and four British police officers who were killed last night when the truck in which they were riding was blasted by a mine on the outskirts of Tel Aviv. Six other policemen were critically injured in the explosion.

Reports from the scene said the mine, placed in the middle of a street in a sparsely settled residential district, apparently was electrically controlled.

The blast shattered windows in houses within a radius of two blocks and caused panic among residents in the area.

During a roundup of suspects in the neighborhood, police said, six Jews were slightly injured in a scuffle.
