Pot Burned

Law enforcement officers Tuesday evening put the match to 1,200 to 1,500 pounds of marijuana which was confiscated when a plane was stopped with bullets as it was attempting to take off from the Colorado City airport in February. Those involved pleaded guilty Tuesday in District Court and the evidence was destroyed that evening. Pictured left to right in foreground are Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger, Sheriff's Deputy Mike Stutts and Sheriff Bill McGuire.

Absentee Vote June 18-July 3

Election Set July 8

Revenue Sharing Budgeted

July 8 has been set as the date for an election in Precinct 2 to decide if the sale of alcoholic beverages, including mixed drinks, is to be allowed in that precinct.

County Commissioners set the date for the election after County Clerk Marie Bassham certified that enough qualified registered voters had signed a petition which had been circulated in Precinct 2.

Only 89 names were required, 35 per cent of the 248 voters casting ballots in the last general election in that precinct.

According to legal requirements commissioners were required to call the election not less than 20 days nor more than 30 days after the list of certified petitioners was filed with them.

Commissioners received the certified petition Tuesday during their regular monthly meeting during which they also considered a number of other items including the revenue sharing budget for 1976.

Absentee voting in the election will be held June 18-July 3 in the County Clerks office with Marie Bassham as election judge for absentees, Joan Beach as assistant judge.

There are two voting boxes in the precinct, one at Westbrook School, where Doug Barber will be election judge, assisted by Keith Williamson, and one at Wolf Stadium Field House with Mrs. Billie Ruffin as judge, alternate being Mrs. H. B. Graves.

On election day, July 8, polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

According to the Tax Assessor-Collector's office, there are 694 registered voters in the two voting boxes in County Precinct Two; 234 in Box Seven and 460 in Box Two.

A number of additional voters have registered and will be eligible to vote in the election but the tax office clerks have not yet gone over the list of eligible voters. A person must have registered 30 days before voting in an election in order to be listed on the official list.

Mitchell County officially went "dry" following a county-wide election March 4, 1902, when the votes were 295 for prohibition and 263 against. However, for a short time in the 1930's, Mitchell County was "wet" due to a legal technicality following the repeal of the nationwide prohibition.

The last date a special local option election was held was Dec. 10, 1960, when the voting was confined to the corporate limits of Colorado City. The vote in that election was 714 for the sale of alcoholic beverages and 978 against.

This will be the first such election to be held only in one of the county's precincts.

The Record is attempting to develop an accurate map to show the boundary lines and will present the map for the election. The boundaries are complicated due to redistricting which was accomplished in 1969.

Precinct Two basically covers the northwest portion of the county including most of the west side of Lake Colorado City. In Colorado City, Precinct Two is bounded by Seventh Street on the south, Oak Street on the East and goes up the middle of Oak and over to Rogers Road.

The revenue sharing budget, a total of $147,829, approved by the county includes the following:

--$9,480, public safety.
--$5,000 county library.
--$5,149, recreation.
--$40,000, equipment.
--$50,000, seal coating county roads (this is paving the pavement so it will last longer).
--$8,000, capita. improvements for the courthouse including paneling and painting
--$8,000, rural fire calls.
--$4,500, new car for sheriff's office.
--$10,000, bridge repairs.
--$3,500, Farmer's Market.
--$4,200, Wallace Community Center.

New Stop Sign

4-Way Stop At 10th And Austin

There will be a four-way stop sign at 10th and Austin Streets effective tomorrow (Friday).

This was one of several items acted on by the city council of Colorado City Tuesday night in their regular monthly meeting.

The four-way stop at 10th and Austin had been under consideration for some time due to what council members termed dangerous situation at that intersection.

There is currently stop signs facing those travelling Austin Street when they arrive at 10th. However, due to a jog that 10th Street makes at that intersection, members of the council pointed out, it is difficult for anyone travelling any of the four ways to have a good view of oncoming traffic.

The council also received a legal opinion from the city's attorney, James Gregg, on disposal of city property and also granted City Manager James Campbell permission to advertise for bids for workmen's compensation insurance which the city will be required to have effective July 1.

The council also appointed Dr. Charles Spencer of Oklahoma City to codify the city's ordinances in order to do away with outdated ordinances and conflicting city laws. It will cost the city some $3,200 to have the ordinances codified and will take about six months, Campbell reported. The codification has been under study for some time but previously, it was thought it would cost too much as one firm had quoted the city a price of about $8,000 to undertake the job.

The council also approved the drilling of a water well at the city-county airport and also discussed the possibility of having a historical marker placed at the Civic Center to denote Oak Street as the city's first business street.

Town Talk

By MAC McKINNON

How do you recapture youth, the joys of yesteryear, those years that so rapidly escaped, unappreciated?

Many have hoped and searched for a way to recapture some of their years, hoping to find that elusive "Fountain of Youth."

That, put simply, is the plot of "The Silver Whistle," now on stage at Colorado City's Opera House.

You've heard, and have imagined, I suspect, of the funny things that could and have happened to people seeking to regain their youth.

Imagine an old people's home operated by a church in a poor parish in the summer of 1948. The residents include a dreamer, (Porter Richardson); an alcoholic (Marie Jackson), nobody can find out where she's hiding her bottle, a chronic complainer (Martha Bisnette) who contends the church is too cheap to have her appendix taken out, (Ada Womack) one woman who contends everything is sinful, one woman (Midge Ledbetter) who has had three husbands and is apparently looking for her fourth and one man (Tandy Curlee) looking forward to his funeral because it's gonna be fancy.

The home is seen after by a minister (Paul Hunter) of a next door church and a middle-aged spinister (Micah Mitchell) with whom the minister has an "understanding," that they'll someday be married.

In walks a man (Carl Beery Moore) claiming to be 77, looking every bit of being less than 50. He has a way with words and his slick talk excites everyone in the home and upsets the "understanding" of the minister and spinster.

His eloquence, his silvered whistle words and promises of a youth potion really seem to work. What is his real secret or maybe I should say secrets? So see it and find out.

While the old folks are stealing your heart, they'll keep you laughing. And they make you appreciate what you've got, in years and happiness.

The play is well done by all participants. It's Trina Taylor's first crack at directing and she's done a remarkable job.

Carl Beery Moore has the lead role and does a terrific job. He is also the straight man for two residents of the home, Tandy Curlee and Porter Richardson. These two are veterans of the Playhouse stage and always turn in good performances but their portrayals in "The Silver Whistle" may be their best yet.

You'll certainly enjoy this production and tickets are only $2.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. today, Friday and Saturday.

Farmer's Market Meeting Tuesday

A meeting has been set for 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 17, in the City National Bank's Charles C. Thompson Room to finalize details of a Farmer's Market which will be established as a Bicentennial project.

A meeting was held in late May to discuss with the public details of the Farmer's Market and what was needed.

At that time, a committee was appointed to draw up rules and regulations for operation of the market and to help finalize plans for the market.

A location for the market has not yet been finalized but the County fair grounds on West Highway 80 are being considered as a site.

The market will be operated one day a week and possibly two days a week during prime production time. Those working on the project are hoping to have the market open soon as local produce gardens are beginning to flourish.

The Farmer's Market was first suggested by Mrs. C. C. Thompson who is chairperson of the County's Bicentennial Commission. Mrs. Steve (Carolyn) Smith is heading the project as a project of the Bicentennial Commission's Horizons Committee.

The public is invited to attend the meeting Tuesday and help in the formation of the Market.

Three Day Total

Dr. Cowan Delegate

Dr. Kenneth Cowan of Colorado City represented the Colorado Basin Medical Society at a meeting of the Texas Medical Association's House of Delegates last week in Austin.

In the meeting, the delegates advocated the medical profession's continuing provision of full medical services to patients.

The action was taken at the special session which was called to review the crisis in professional liability insurance in Texas.

The policy stand was based in part on the delegates' anticipation of long-term remedies to the problem to be formulated by the newly appointed Medical Professional Liability Study Commission, according to information from TMA.

In an address before the meeting Gov. Dolph Briscoe announced the immediate activation of the 18-member commission created by Senate Bill 491. This commission is to make specific recommendations, including proposed legislation, regarding the medical liability situation.

Barbershop Music Set For June 19

The Cultural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is planning the second in its series of programs on Thursday evening, June 19.

The evening will feature Barbershop music. Performing will be the Big Country Men's Chorus of the S.P.E.B.S.Q. Sa., Inc. of the Abilene Chapter.

Among their musical selections will be patrotic songs, a George M. Cohen medley and other familiar tunes.

The Big Country Chorus is under the direction of Chuck Weeth of Abilene.

"The Cultural Affairs Committee is pleased to be able to secure this very popular and talented group for a performance in Colorado City.

"However, because of the large number of members in the Chorus, it will be necessary to make a nominal charge in order to help defray expenses," Mrs. George Witten, chairperson of the committee, explained.

Tickets may be purchased or reserved for one dollar ($1) each by going by the Chamber of Commerce Office in the Civic Center or calling the office at 728-3403 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Giants, Dodgers Tied

The Giants and Rangers are leading the pack in the second half of Little League Competition as they both won in games this week.

A number of baseball games were delayed or postponed Monday and Tuesday nights due to rain and wet grounds.

In the Junior Teenage League, only one game was played Monday as the Colts won over the Lions 5-4 behind the relief pitching of Kevin Geiger. The game between the White Sox and Braves was postponed due to rain and will be played at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Tonight, the Braves play the Lions at 6:30 and the White Sox play the Colts at 8:30.

In the Church League softball competition, Church of Christ defeated Loraine "B" Monday with the second game rained out and Tuesday games cancelled due to wet grounds. Tonight, St. Ann's plays Calvary in the first game and Loraine "B" plays First Methodist "A" in the second game.

School Board Gets Preview Of Community Center

The Colorado Independent School Board Monday night got a preview of the plans for new Community Education center starting this fall.

At the board meeting the members were given a sneak look at some of the plans that Barbara Gray, head of the program would like to do. Mrs. Gray and Keith Long of the Educational Service Center of Region 14, will be putting together the program.

A short film was presented on the video viewer that will be used at the Wallace Education Center. At the Center there will be a Senior Citizens Center, Referral Service, Enrichment Classes, Adult Basic Education, General Equivalency Diploma (GED), Vocational Classed, and Recreational and Social Classes.

The idea of Community Education is to bring together people of the community and help rid it of some of the problems. The classes will have something for everyone.

The short range plans, September of 1975, is to get the Senior Citizens program going. There will be day-time and night-time activities. The day-time will consist of Recreation programs, Short Courses, transportation to and from the center, a referral service, meeting place for organizations and also a learning center.

The evening programs will consist of academic classes and technical-vocational classes out of Western Texas College. There will be adult vocational classes in typing, nurses aide training, reading and clerical office practice.

During the fall of '75 there will be a survey taken to see what the community would like for the center to provide. Volunteers from the High School, PTA, and other organizations will teach the various courses. There will be a charge of $3 for the short courses and there may be some scholarships given to help people who would like to take the course but can't afford it. Senior Citizens will be able to take the short courses at half of the regular price of tution.

Examples of the kinds of courses that would be offered are: physical fitness, bridge lessons, first aid, cake decorating, flower arranging, arts and crafts, music appreciation, Bible study and square dancing. Upon completion of courses, certificates of achievement will be given.

The long range plans for the summer and fall of 1976 will be youth programs and nutritions programs for the Senior Citizens and Youth (Summer). There would also be a ...k Activity Center there.

Other items on the agenda were bids for new furniture for the new High School. Bids were taken from four companies ranging from $21,781.93 down to $18,502.82 (plus $467. installation fee). Indeco Sales of Lubbock was the lowest in price and had a limit of 60-90 days delivery. The other companies were The American Desk Company of Temple; Carter Craft, Inc. of Plano; and Joe Toombs Co. of Lubbock.

The architect of the High School gave a report on the progress of the work. It appears that completion will be about Nov. 7. The move will take place immediately after that.

New Manager

Roy Davidson, left, is the new manager of Colorado City's C.R. Anthony Store, succeeding George Jameson who was promoted to Anthony's Brownfield store. On hand to welcome Davidson to the Colorado City store was Kenneth Sweet of Oklahoma City, personnel manager for all the Anthony's stores.

In Appreciation

Sunday's reception for the doctors saw a large turn out. In the two hour period, 2-4 p.m., about 300 people attended the "come and go" event at the C. C. Thompson room at the Bank Annex. The reception was to honor the doctors of Mitchell County for the work they have done. The reception also gave the public a chance to meet Dr. Aguillion. The new physician is taking Dr. Chinn's place. Dr. Chinn is leaving to teach at Texas Tech Medical School this fall. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served.

Since higher fuel costs are pushing the price of electricity up, it's important to use it wisely.

These two simple tools can help.

Proper insulation and weatherstripping will help you use electricity more efficiently for air conditioning. You can check the insulation and weatherstripping in your home with just a ruler and a flashlight.

Inadequate insulation is a major cause of energy loss in most homes — in both summer and winter.

If the insulation in your attic measures less than six inches, we suggest you call a qualified insulation contractor who can evaluate the efficiency of your present insulation. He can also tell you how to bring your insulation up to recommended standards.

To check the weatherstripping around exterior doors, have someone shine a flashlight around the edges of each closed door. If you can see light, it means you may have to add or replace worn weatherstripping.

Saving electric energy takes very little energy on your part, but since electricity is costing more, it's worth the effort.
