Brownfield Woman Dies In Car Wreck

(Special To The Avalanche)

HOBBS, Oct. 23. — Mrs. Ines Richard, 38, Brownfield restaurant owner, died about 7 a. m. today, in Hobbs General hospital from injuries received in an auto accident near here late Saturday.

Injured critically was J. D. Perkins, 38, of Seagraves. Less seriously injured were Arthur D. Barton, 38, and Miss Estelle Adair, 25, both of Brownfield.

Traffic Toll Climbs

(Two minor Sunday mishaps, one in Lubbock and another on the Plainview highway near Lubbock, brought the total number of persons injured in the area over the weekend to 16.)

The accident occurred about 11 p. m. Saturday on the Denver City highway about three miles north of here. Investigating state police officers said a 1947 DeSoto convertible being driven north by Perkins, with Mrs. Richard, Barton and Miss Adair as passengers, and a 1947 Buick sedan being driven south by J. W. Findley of Hobbs, sideswiped each other.

Perkins' car left the highway and rolled over five times before coming to rest. Officers said all four occupants were thrown clear but probably not until the car had almost stopped rolling.

Suffers Severe Injuries

Investigating officers said hospital attendants had told them that Perkins' injuries included a broken arm, possible broken shoulder, fractured pelvis, and internal injuries.

Barton was described as suffering from a broken left arm and head injuries. Miss Adair suffered lacerations, bruises, and possible internal injuries. Hospital officials said Barton probably would be released Monday.

Five persons were riding in the car with Findley at the time of the accident. None were injured, police said.

Motorist Reports Wreck

State police did not learn of the accident until about 11:30 when it was reported by a passing motorist upon arrival in Hobbs. Two ambulances were dispatched to the scene by the policemen, and the victims were rushed to the hospital here.

Mrs. Richard died from internal injuries caused by a crushed chest, according to hospital attendants. State police said they still were investigating details of the accident.

The body of Mrs. Richard was returned to Brownfield today by a Brownfield Funeral home ambulance.

Services will be Monday at 3 p. m., in the First Baptist church at Brownfield, with the Rev. A. A. Bryan, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Brownfield cemetery.

Mrs. Richard had been a resident of Brownfield since 1942. She owned and operated a cafe on the Tahoka highway in the eastern part of town. Her husband

U. S. 'Iron Curtain' Envoys Meet Today

LONDON, Oct. 23 (INS)—Leading American diplomats from iron curtain countries arrived in London today for an unprecedented conference on U. S. strategy in the East-West cold war.

British Communists have announced they will picket the U. S. embassy, where the two-day discussions open tomorrow, presided over by George Perkins, assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

Perkins arrived in London from Paris by air with Alan G. Kirk, American ambassador to Russia. Others who will take part in the discussions are Waldemar J. Gallman, ambassador to Poland; Ellis Briggs, ambassador to Czechoslovakia; Cavendish Cannon, ambassador to Yugoslavia; Nathaniel Davis, minister to Hungary; Rudolph Schoenfeld, minister to Romania, and Donald Heath, minister to Bulgaria.

Perkins, on his arrival, refused to say what topics would be discussed. Unofficial reports previously have admitted the conference was called to discuss how best to handle the "outrageous propaganda" put out by the Soviets and Russian satellites.

YOUTHS FIGHT 'INVADERS'

PRAGUE, Oct. 23. (AP)— Three thousand Czech youngsters fought off a horde of "invading" parachutists today in juvenile "war games." The maneuvers were designed to teach the nation's youth defensive tactics against a possible future foe.

Truman Accused Of 'Planned Inflation'

By FREDERIC TUTTLE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—President Truman's Senate leader charged GOP "isolationists" today with being "far more dangerous" than Russia's U. S. agents, and top Republicans accused Mr. Truman of "planned inflation" to "pay off political obligations."

Senate Democratic leader Lucas, (Ill.) in a Chicago speech raked Republicans and others who fought the Atlantic pact and arms aid program. His address fired new preliminary guns in the 1950 congressional campaigns.

House Republican leader Martin, (Mass) charged the administration with "siphoning the wealth of the states into Washington." He declared:

Brokerage Charges Terrific

"No state in the union gets a full dollar back out of the money sent to Washington. The brokerage charges of the bureaucracy in handling the money is terrific."

Martin based his charge on a state-by-state tabulation of taxes paid out and federal money received. The table showed that California paid out $3,103,697,127 in 1948 and got back $393,448,101, while New York paid out $7,975,513,716 and received $432,941,740.

Rep. Taber, (NY) ranking Republican on the House Appropriations committee, contended that "it is no secret that government officials are considering further devaluation of the American dollar." Taber declared:

New Opportunity Possible

"A 40-cent dollar . . . would give Mr. Truman an opportunity to pay off some of his political obligations by supporting wage increases which would boost the government's tax take from the working man and the farmer."

Lucas said that "no Congress in American history has passed so much far-reaching legislation to strengthen your security and to widen the horizons of free people everywhere."

He asserted that throughout the first session "the majority of Democrats were working hard to fulfill the pledges made in the 1948 platform which received the

Poage To Study New Farm Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (AP)—Rep. Poage (D-Tex) says he is investigating the feasibility of an agricultural price support program to which the farmer would be called upon to contribute.

Poage, who doesn't like the idea of farm subsidies, said yesterday the proposal—which he advanced last spring—"has interesting possibilities."

In an effort to assay the proposal "most carefully," Poage said he had asked the Department of Agriculture and the staff of the House Agricultural committee "to dig up data."

May Introduce Bill

"What they produce in the way of figures and other information," Poage said, "may, or may not, lead me to introduce a bill on the subject at the next session of Congress."

Poage, a member of the agriculture committee, said he feels that the farmer should make some contribution to his own security —through possibly a processing tax—"just as the worker in industry does when he pays his social security taxes."

He said if a two per cent pro-

Brothers Charged With Fatal Stabbing Of Texas Airman

ROCKDALE, Oct. 23. (AP)—E. N. Knight, jr., 19, an Air Force private, was fatally stabbed in a fight near a night club east of Rockdale late last night.

Murder charges were filed today against Bill and Crump Morrison, twin brothers. They were arrested late today at the home of an uncle in the Watson Branch community 15 miles south of here.

Wayne Lawrence, 30, was seriously slashed in the fight and was in critical condition in a hospital here.

Sheriff Carl Black said the boys called him about 5 p. m., and told him to come get them. Black said the brothers told him they were not trying to get away and had been on the streets of Rockdale early today.

Settlement Of MoPac Strike Is Announced

(By International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23. — Missouri Pacific railroad officials announced tonight settlement of the 45-day-old strike by 5,000 operating employes in 11 states.

Union and company spokesmen announced that the strike would formally end at 10 a. m. (CST) tomorrow.

Although terms of the settlement were not announced, Roy Davidson, chairman of the strike committee, told newsmen that the main issues in dispute would be placed before a "tribunal" for action.

"Tribunal" To Rule

He did not elaborate on the nature of this "tribunal" or on the date of presentation.

However, Guy A. Thompson, trustee in bankruptcy for the railroad, declared that outstanding claims would be settled under the terms of the railroad act.

He indicated that differences would be presented to the Railroad Adjustment board.

Both union and company spokesmen declared that no announcement of the terms of settlement would be made before tomorrow morning.

The announcement was made shortly after 6 p. m. (CST) at the end of day-long conferences between the railroad management and representatives of the four operating brotherhoods involved.

Additional Workers Idled

Approximately 20,000 additional non-operating employes were idled by the walkout which began Sept. 9.

A railroad spokesman declared that some trains may be operating by tomorrow night and that full operations would be resumed within 48 hours.

He said that office employes of the MoPac had been notified to appear for work tomorrow at the St. Louis office. Other employes will be recalled as needed.

The crippling walkout paralyzed industries throughout the 7,200 mile 11-state system. Many were forced to close down because of the lack of supplies normally transported by MoPac.

Hawaiian Dock Walkout Ends

HONOLULU, Oct. 23. (INS)—CIO longshoremen and six Hawaiian stevedoring companies signed agreements today for the return to work of 2,000 dock workers who have been on strike for 175 days.

The long and bitter strike will be officially over when governor Ingram M. Stainback signs an order lifting the territory's seizure of dock facilities.

Employers said normal operations with regular employes will be resumed as quickly as possible at all Hawaiian ports except Mahukona terminals of the island of Hawaii, where negotiations are continuing on pay rates of 23 non-stevedoring workers.

To Resume Tuesday

Most companies expect to resume operations Tuesday morning. Full scale activity in Honolulu itself is expected to be under way by Wednesday afternoon.

The longshoremen agreed two weeks ago to accept a 14 cent an hour pay increase with 7 cents more next March 1. But a return to work was held up until pay rates were agreed for non-stevedoring workers.

The strike was the longest in history on Hawaii's waterfronts. It was estimated that each stevedore who remained idle for the full length of the strike lost more than $1,400 in earnings.

Bidault Gets 'Hopeless' Job Of Forming New French Government

BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Oct. 23. — George Bidault, leader of the middle-of-the-road Popular Republicans (MRP) agreed tonight to try to form a new French government. France has been locked in a political crisis for 18 days, without a cabinet.

Bidault, who served as chief of state in the provisional government in 1946 and later as France's foreign minister, accepted the task after party leaders conferred throughout the day under the deepening shadow that the impasses might lead to dissolution of parliament and new elections.

He is the third to try since the previous government fell on Oct. 6. President Vincent Auriol made the offer to Bidault after Edouard Herriot, 77-year-old president of the national assembly, tried and failed to reconcile the warring views of his own Radical Socialists and the Socialists. The MRP previously had refused even to try to form a government in this crisis.

Tonight, even among Bidault's own party colleagues, there was scant hope that he could succeed where two others had failed. He

COOL FRONT EXPECTED TO HALT RAINFALL

Area Gets Soaking Rain

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

SLOW rains and drizzles fell Sunday over the entire South Plains area, leaving moisture estimated at one-fourth inch and less in some communities and up to one and one-half inches in others.

But—good news for South Plains farmers to whom rain-enforced delays in gathering crops is indeed a serious matter— the weatherman last night predicted that rainfall will cease today. Skies, he said, would remain partly cloudy.

Cool Front Moves In

A mass of cool air which is moving into the area, he explained, would have a clearing effect on rain-laden skies, but temperatures probably will stay down as a result.

The South Plains was not by itself in receiving chilling rains and drizzles over the weekend. Gloomy fall weather hung over all of Texas Sunday, The Associated Press reported, with rain falling principally in West and North Texas.

Dallas, Clarendon, and Wichita Falls had rain. Other reports were that San Angelo, Ozona, Marfa, Big Spring, and scattered other points in their respective vicinities also had thunder storms and resultant moisture.

.46 Falls Saturday

In the South Plains area, indications were that rainfall was heavier in the areas east and northeast of Lubbock than south and west. Almost all rain fell slowly and intermittantly, however.

Lubbock's total precipitation for Sunday was brought up to .46 by a brief spurt of rainfall shortly before midnight last night.

Moisture estimated at more than one inch fell at Ralls, it was reported from there last night, while the neighboring city of Crosbyton had .87 inch Sunday.

Petersburg and Spur also had falls estimated at more than an inch, while Floydada and Idalou had received about three-quarters, unofficial estimates indicated.

Matador Gets Good Rain

Matador's rainfall Sunday was thought to be from one-half to three-quarters of an inch. Post had received one-fourth inch at minimum, while Snyder received an estimated half-inch. Spur had an inch or more.

The Santa Fe dispatcher's office reported an unofficial total of .50 there Sunday. That office reported that Texico and Tulia had received one-half inch falls.

Muleshoe had received .13 inch by a late hour last night, and Morton had had one-half to three-quarters of an inch of moisture.

Littlefield received an estimated one-half inch during intermittent rains and drizzles Sunday. Levelland had received .4, a local resident reported after checking his weather gauge.

Brownfield received one-fourth inch or slightly less during Sunday's rainfall, while Seagraves reported a heavier fall—an estimated one-half inch.

Lamesa and O'Donnell received less than one-half inch of moisture Sunday, and Tahoka reported about .50. All received touch-and-go showers and slow rains Sunday.

To the north of Lubbock, Abernathy, Hale Center, and Plainview reported less than one-half inch rainfalls. As in most other South Plains communities, skies remained heavily clouded there at a late hour last night.

The question foremost in the minds of most South Plains residents Sunday concerned possible damage to the cotton crop. In most communities, observers said it was too early to tell whether crops were badly hurt. It was the concensus, however, that damage thus far was relatively light and that the current rainy spell would not mean large dollars and cents losses to area farmers unless rains continued for several days.

In the matter of the cool air mass mentioned above, the Weather Bureau said colder air should start seeping out of the plains states into the Panhandle early today. There is no threat of severe cold, however.

As a reflection of the cool air, the minimum temperature this morning in the Lubbock area should drop to about 42 degrees, while the high this afternoon will be in the low 50's.

Sunday's maximum and minimum were, respectively, 54 and 46.

CORNERSTONE DEDICATION SET

HST To Make Major Policy Speech At UN Rites Today

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—President Truman will make a major policy speech before 10,000 spectators and representatives of 59 nations tomorrow at ceremonies dedicating the United Nations permanent headquarters in New York.

The chief executive, accompanied by Secretary of State Acheson and top congressional leaders, will attend the corperstone laying ceremonies on the fourth anniversary of the world organization.

Mr. Truman will be joined on the speakers' dias by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, and the seven vice-presidents of the General Assembly, including Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky.

Truman To Face Vishinsky

The dedication ceremonies will mark the first time since Mr. Truman met Premier Stalin during the Potsdam negotiations that one of the Soviet hierarchy has come face to face with the President.

The steel frame of the 39-story permanent site on East River drive is decorated with bunting and flags of the 59 members of the UN.

Thirty-two F-84 Thunderjets of the 33rd fighter wing stationed at Otis Air Force base, Falmouth, Mass., will participate in a 600 MPH aerial salute during the ceremony.

Two Passes Scheduled

The Thunderjets, among the latest and fastest of the Air Force jet fighters, will make two passes over the dedication area.

In effect, the world body will be holding an outdoor meeting during the dedication ceremonies.

The delegates of the 59 member nations will be seated in the same order as in plenary sessions held at Flushing Meadow. Facing them will be the rostrum on which the president of the assembly, Ambassador Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines, will preside.

Romulo, who will make the opening address at the start of the festivities, set to begin at noon, will be flanked by UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie.

Britons To Learn Of New Austerity Program Today

By DONALD B. SCHWIND
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 23. — Britons waited anxiously tonight to find out how hard — and where — the labor government's new austerity blitz will hit them. Prime Minister Attlee will tell them tomorrow in the House of Commons.

Even the best informed newspapers could only speculate on where the expected cuts in the budget — and consequently in the ration—pinched lives of the people —would come. Estimates in the size of the cuts ranged from £300,000,000 ($840,000,000) in the conservative Sunday Times to £250,000,000 ($700,000,000) in the conservative Observer.

The budget for the year through next March now calls for spending £3,300,000,000.

Pleasures May Suffer

The normally pro-government Sunday Pictorial speculated that the government would probably pull the belt in hardest around the purchase of gasoline and tobacco and the paying out of food subsidies. Cuts in such purchases abroad would save precious dollars for the government, but they would mean less pleasure motoring and fewer cigarets for Britons at all levels.

The stoppage of food subsidies would mean higher food costs to the citizen.

Little comfort could be found anywhere in the picture. Newspapers carried such headlines as "black Monday secrets" and "Attlee's last chance."

Middle Class Considered

Cabinet talks that shaped the coming slashes are understood also to have weighed seriously their possible effect on the nation's already truculent middle class voter when the general elections come some time early next year.

The British housewife, who has stood in long quest since the beginning of the war to pay too much money for too little food, may swing a lot of sentiment away from the predominantly Labor party.

Nevertheless, Attlee will broadcast to the nation tomorrow night—after he has revealed the "black Monday secrets"—a plea for cooperation, plus an explanation of the government's moves.

Accused Alice Man Goes On Trial Today

BELTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Sam Smithwick sat in jail and listened to the regular Sunday afternoon preacher the day before his trial for murder of a veteran newspaper and radioman was to begin.

He was feeling "all right."

He is charged in the July 29 shooting in Alice, of W. H. (Bill) Mason, 51, who had worked on various newspapers over the country and was a radio announcer when he was shot down one morning as he sat in his parked car.

Byron Skelton of Temple, attorney for Smithwick, said they'd "wait and see what happens in the morning" about asking for a continuance of the trial.

"We've summoned about 15 or 20 witnesses from Alice," Skelton said.

Sheriffs deputies said all the summons they knew anything about were for folks down in Alice but they didn't know whether any had got to Belton yet.

Judge Wesley Dice was sitting downtown drinking coffee.

"As trial judge, I can make no comment," he said, "but everything is ready to go as far as I know."

Judge Dice said the jury panel of 150 men would be on hand tomorrow. "They're a good cross section of Bell county farmers and businessmen."

TYLER GIRL KILLED BY CAR

TYLER, Oct. 23. (AP)—Ann Terry, seven, died early today in a Tyler hospital of injuries received when hit by an automobile at the city limits of Lindale early last night. Tommy Terry, 2½, her brother, was not seriously injured. The two were struck by an automobile that did not stop.

'COMPLEX' SURVEY TO BE MADE

Atomic Group Slates Hearings On Problem Of Civilian Defense

By LEON SHLOSS
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. — The Senate-House Atomic Energy committee will hold public hearings early in the next session of Congress on the "enormous and complex" problem of civilian defense against an atomic bomb attack.

Sen. McMahon (D-Conn.), committee chairman, in making this announcement today said the problen involved warning services, protective construction, industrial dispersion, personnel shelters, inter-community collaboration and other related measures.

He said that also involved were emergency housing, medical assistance, fire-fighting, decontamination and evacuation. McMahon said these measures must be studied in the light of the various "forms of attack that might possibly be made against our country."

Sen. Bridges (R-N.H.), charged recently that nothing has been done toward working out a civilian defense against an atomic attack despite disclosure that Russia has exploded an atomic bomb.

McMahon said the "immense

Bomber Falls On Ranch As Motors Fail

(By The Associated Press)

MIDLAND, Oct. 23, — A B-26 bomber crashed and exploded twice on a brushy ranch 20 miles southeast of here today. All five men aboard were believed killed.

The twin-engined plane was demolished. It appeared impossible that anyone could have survived except by parachuting, and Air Force officers said they didn't believe there was enough warning before the crash for a jump.

Wreckage and small parts of bodies were scattered over an area a mile square.

Crew Members Identified

Biggs Air Force base at El Paso, the craft's home field, identified the crewmen as:

Lt. Col. Charles J. Lutz, 34, El Paso, commanding officer 2602 tow squadron, the pilot.

Capt. Thomas Hillman, 39, Shreveport, La.

Capt. James R. Butler, 31, El Paso, co-pilot.

Capt. Billy H. Miller, 27, Fort Worth.

Sgt. Robert E. Lee, 21, Biloxi, Miss.

The plane was flying from Biggs to Barksdale Air Force base, Shreveport, La. It was on course.

Several people heard the crash but none saw it because the sky in this West Texas area was heavily overcast.

Card Found In Wreckage

The plane was first believed to be from Biggs field after a card bearing the name "Captain Hillmann' was found in the wreckage. Biggs said a B-26 with Captain Hillmann and four other men had checked out of there.

The base ordered a crew from Pyote air base to the scene of the crash. An Air Force guard was posted around the area. Officers at Biggs said they were positive the B-26 was the plane that crashed.

Officers at the base said all the information they had received indicated the plane's engines quit suddenly and it nosed into the ground without giving the crew time to jump.

The crash occurred about 1:15 p.m. (CST) on the Boone cattle ranch.

Two Stabbings Are Probed Here

Two men were stabbed and another hospitalized with a broken shoulder as the result of altercations in outlying sections of the city Sunday.

Both stabbing victims, Emory S. Haywood, of 119 East Ninth and Thomas Garilay, 26, of Monroe, were released from hospitals here after treatment for minor wounds, officials said.

Man's Shoulder Broken

According to police reports, Haywood was wounded on a country road on the east side of the Avinger addition about 3:30 p. m. Another resident of the East Ninth address, W. L. Johnson, 55, was picked up for investigation by sheriff's officers a short time later on East Tenth. Johnson was transferred to West Texas hospital when he complained of a pain in his shoulder. Hospital attendants said the shoulder had been broken.

City detectives, meanwhile, were attempting to piece together details of the other stabbing. Garilay, taken to the Porter clinic following

Hi-Jinks For Festive Hallowe'en Parties

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Treat your family and friends to a new taste sensation this All Saints' Day. Frost and fill a layer cake with a delectable, new, and different fruit concoction of coconut, pineapple, and apricots. The apricot gives the face-in-the-frosting a real pumpkin color that looks natural against the confectioners' sugar background.

HALLOWE'EN COCONUT CAKE

Ingredients: 2 homemade white cake 8-inch layers, 1 cup cooked dried apricats, 1 cup drained canned crushed pineapple, ½ cup sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind, ¾ cup shredded coconut, confectioners' sugar.

Method: Allow cake layers to cool thoroughly while making the filling. Put the apricots, pineapple and sugar in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, for about 5 minutes, until sugar is entirely dissolved. Cool. Add lemon juice, lemon rind, and coconut. Chill thoroughly and then spread all fruit filling except ¼ cup between cake layers. (There will be about 2 cups of the filling altogether.) Cut out a paper pumpkin face 5 to 6 inches wide, removing eyes, nose, and mouth. Place in center of cake and sprinkle confectioners' sugar over the entire top layer. Remove pattern carefully and fill outline with the coconut fruit filling.

And here's a fine recipe for youngsters to make themselves on Hallowe'en.

JACK-O'-LANTERN GRAHAM CRACKERS

Ingredients: 2 cups confectioners' sugar, 3 tablespoons orange juice (about), 1½ teaspoons grated orange rind, 14 sugarhoney graham crackers, semi-sweet chocolate pieces.

Method: Mix the confectioners' sugar, orange juice, and orange rind together, using enough juice to make a spreading consistency. Spread a circle of frosting on the graham crackers; make faces with chocolate pieces.

Newest Beau-Catcher Craze Is Wearing Initial Pins

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Staff Writer

YOU'VE got to be a man of letters to get along on a high school campus this semester. Newest beau-catcher craze among the school crowd is to advertise love lives by means of initial pins. An easy way to get dates, say the girls. But a man's got to be up on his sign language.

The pins give a tipoff on anything from Susie's current hearthrob to her plans for the weekend. If a girl wears three pins, for instance, "W.A.D.," she undoubtedly means she's free for the weekend and wants a date. You can tell almost any sophomore by the way she wears her ABC's.

Some girls spell out their screenland hearthrobs such as Montgomery Clift or Gregory Peck. A neck gimmick on a class numeral pin is two metal numbers connected with a tiny chain. If she wears a '52 on her cardigan, above a '50, you know that Betty co-ed is a smooth sophomore and her steady date is a senior. He wears the same class numeral pins in reverse position on his tie or letter sweater.

Girls make up their own groups of initials into this new love language. Of course they prove great conversational pieces, too, because is a guy doesn't comprehend he's just got to ask.

COLLEGE playtime can be fun but if you want to make the grade in schoolwork, too, here are some common sense planning hints suggested for high school students and college freshman by the University of Illinois student committee of freshman advisers:

1. Plan a daily schedule including classes, exercise, fun and sleep. The study habit is a good habit.

2. An upright position at a desk clean of pictures or other distractions is more conducive to studying than lying on a bed or lolling in an easy chair.

3. Keep your work up to date. Don't let it pile up just before exams. Attend classes regularly.

4. Sleep and rest are absolutely necessary for clear thinking. It isn't smart to stay up all night before an exam.

5. Sitting at a desk and daydreaming is not studying. Too many hours of day-dreaming induce fatigue, not wisdom. It is better to break away from books entirely for a while and then go back to them.

6. If, while you are studying, you find yourself thinking of some little tasks you should take care of, make a list of them to get them off your mind. Then you can concentrate much better on the subject at hand.

7. Don't be frightened by what others may say regarding certain courses, teachers and exams. Form your own opinions. Different people have different likes and dislikes.

Don's be afraid of your teacher. If things do not go right, talk to her or an adviser; it may help a lot.

A PUZZLED young man writes from the Bronx, N. Y., asking how he can persuade his high school crush to leave her forwarding address, as she is moving away from his neighborhood and the school.

He has asked her several times, but she will not tell him. She does not have a phone so he cannot call her. There is very little time left before the moving date and poor J.M. is frantic.

Wouldn't it seem that if the girl really liked him she would leave her forwarding address? Or perhaps her parents object, and she doesn't want to incite their wrath. Or perhaps J.M. is a little too flowery in his notes, and she is embarrassed for fear he will write things that she would be ashamed to have other people see.

If he has been dating her, maybe she has encouraged him just because she wanted dates, and wasn't really particularly interested in him. She probably is a little too young to think of him seriously, and perhaps it is better that he doesn't waste his time trying to get in touch with her. But what do other kids think about this?

Banquet Will Honor Boys

Westerner Mothers club will give its traditional banquet honoring Senior High school Westerners on Nov. 5.

Plans for the event will be made at a special meeting of the club Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Garnet O. Reeves, 2510 Twenty-first.

At the meeting plans also will be made for a rummage sale the group will sponsor Oct. 29. Mrs. M. H. Adkisson is chairman and members who have articles to donate to the sale are asked to telephone her.

Birthday Party Honor For Margot Wilbanks

Margot Wilbanks was guest of honor at a party on her fifth birthday Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wilbanks, 3022 Twentieth.

A Hallowe'en theme was carried out in decorations and games. Little guests paraded in costumes and masks and were introduced to the "Hallowe'en witch" in a darkened room. Witches and black cat candles were used on the birthday cake.

Attending were Mrs. B. J. Tilger and daughter, Patricia; Mrs. L. M. Pastor and children, Kenneth and Evelyn and Sue and Frances Jean Galloway, Ellison and Michael Lynn, Brad and Janis Dale Parkinson and Phil Wilbanks.

Newsman Shown To Door After Asking About Mrs. Roosevelt

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 23 (INS)—A newsman interviewing Francis Cardinal Spellman at Fort Benning, Ga., last night was quickly escorted to the door by an Army public relations officer as soon as the newsman mentioned the name of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Columbus Ledger-Enquirer reporter Max Sirmay had only managed to ask "Have you and Mrs. Roosevelt . . . " when Capt. C. L. Hopkins said "that's all, brother," grabbed Sirmay by the arm and hustled him out.

The Cardinal, who was involved in a dispute with Mrs. Roosevelt during the summer over the issue of federal aid to parochial schools, is at Fort Benning to celebrate mass tomorrow morning before some two thousand Army troops.

Before the interview was brought to its end, Cardinal Spellman, who is just back from a 12-day European tour, said he knew nothing of Atlanta-Savannah Bishop Gerald O'Hara, reportedly in the Balkans for the past two years.

The Cardinal said he "didn't get behind the silken curtain" during the tour.

Scotland now has 616 movie theaters with a total of 584,000 seats.

World Peace Up To U. S., Educator Says

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. (INS)—Chancellor Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago declared Saturday that Russia's production of an atomic explosion places the responsibility of attaining world government on the United States.

Hutchins called for immediate action in behalf of world government in the current issue of Common Cause, the monthly journal of the committee to frame a world constitution.

The chancellor pointed out that the rush to arm the western world against possible Soviet aggression overlooks the fact that "there is no defense against the atomic bomb." He said:

"Fifty bombs could destroy a fifth of our cities, containing 40 million of our people."

He warned "If war breaks out, every nation must frantically start making atomic bombs."

Hutchins lauded democratic Senators Brien McMahon of Connecticut and Claude Pepper of Florida as the "only sensible voices in this hurricane of sound" that followed disclosure of Soviet possession of the A-bomb secret.

The chancellor labeled as a possible method of ending the cold war Sen. McMahon's proposal for the most direct communication between Russia and the United States, even to the point of regular broadcasts to this country by Marshal Stalin and by President Truman to Russia.

Hutchins wrote:

"Sen. Pepper saw the point. He called for an immediate offensive in behalf of world government, that might prevent the atomic catastrophe, not by 'controlling' atomic energy, but by preventing war."

He concluded, "the time is now. The object is world government. The responsibility is that of the United States."

MANY SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

Expert Installation Work Offered By Brick And Tile Co.

One of the strongest recommendations for the Brick and Tile Co., Fourth and Ave. R, is the long list of satisfied customers which have been served by the company within the past few years.

The firm has done many important asphalt tile flooring installation jobs over the South Plains and in other parts of the Southwest. Installation projects include the Lubbock Post Office, the Lubbock offices of the Borden Co., Purina Mills, West Texas Gas Co., Cobb's Department store, Dunlap's, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, U. S. Naval Armory, Texas Technological college, the Lubbock Public schools, and offices for the City of Lubbock.

In addition, Brick and Tile Co. has done installation jobs for the Atomic Energy commission, Los Alamos, N. M., the Guided Missiles project at White Sands, N. M., the U. S. Army at Fort Bliss, and for the Columbia Carbon Co., at Seagraves and Ulysses, Kan.

Principal products offered by Brick and Tile Co include brick and tile, asphalt tile, glass bricks, ceramic tile and structural glazed tile refractories.

The company's chief service is the installation of asphalt tile, rubber tile and ceramic tile.

R. J. Cheatham is the owner of the company, which was established in Lubbock in 1940. The firm erected a new steel warehouse in 1948. A railroad siding to the company warehouse was laid in 1945.

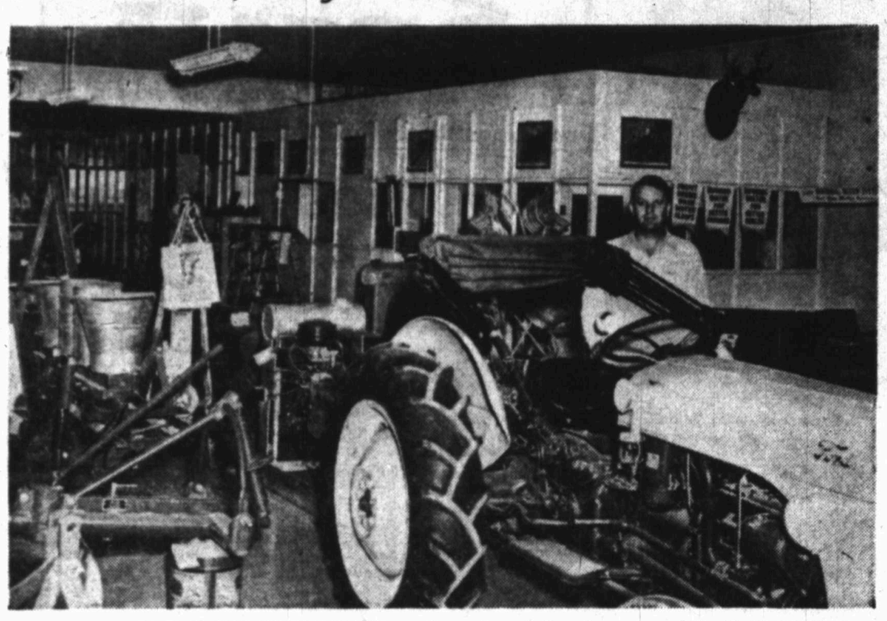

The firm's courteous employes will be glad to discuss your tile and flooring problems with you. Further information may be obtained by calling No. 8901. Mail inquiries should be addressed to Post Office Box 132, Lubbock.

MAIL ORDERS INVITED

London will have an eye bank.

AT E. K. HUFSTEDLER IMPLEMENT CO. — A portion of the showroom at the E. K. Hufstedler and Sons Implement Co., is shown. In this case, emphasis seems to be on tractors, and justifiably so, since the famous Ford tractor is one of the featured lines of the local company. In addition, the firm is dealer for Gleaner-Baldwin combines and Dempster and Berkley water systems. At the rear of showroom may be seen part of the company's large and complete parts department. The company offers expert repairs by factory-trained mechanics on Ford tractors and on both featured brands of water systems. Shown standing in right foreground is A. G. Graham, manager of the company.

Hufstedler Co. Is Ford Tractor Dealer

With harvesting of one of the largest crops in the history of the South Plains now underway at full speed, breakdowns of farm machinery and equipment can mean costly delays.

The skilled, factory-trained repair men at E. K. Hufstedler and Sons Implement Co., 2202 Ave. H, can save you precious time and money in the event of any breakdowns. They offer prompt and efficient work on farm equipment and machinery.

The E. K. Hufstedler company also maintains a large and varied stock of repair parts for all kinds of equipment.

The company, which has been in business in Lubbock continuously since 1930, is authorized dealer in this area for the rugged Ford tractor and for Gleaner-Baldwin combines.

Also featured by the firm are Berkeley and Dempster water systems, in addition to many other kinds of farm equipment and implements.

A special service, however, is the factory-trained service department maintained for efficient repair and maintenance of Ford tractors and for the featured brands of water systems sold by the firm, according to A. G. Graham, manager of the company.

Large or small, chances are that E. K. Hufstedler Implement Co. can take care of your farm needs.

Radio Lab Features Motorola, Victor Radios

Motorola and R. C. A. Victor radios are among the featured brands at Radio Lab, 1501 Ave. Q.

In addition, Radio Lab is a dealer for the famous International Harvester refrigerators, in addition to a line of smaller appliances.

One of the principal services offered by the company is expert repair of home and automobile radios. A drive-in shop for repair of car radios is maintained.

The company has been in business for the past 3½ years. Herbert L. Griffith is manager of the firm which employes a staff of expertly trained radio workmen.

Next time your radio needs expert attention, or if you want to have it checked before it needs a thorough workover, drop it by Radio Lab, on the corner of Ave. Q and Fifteenth.

Six Schoolboy Teams Remain In Unbeaten, Untied Ranks

Lubbock And Port Arthur Lead List Of Powerful Grid Elevens

BY WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff

The blue chips are on the line this week in schoolboy football as conference games dominate a 49-game schedule in the City conference and Class AA.

Only six unbeaten, untied teams remain in these two divisions and one of these — Corsicana — faces a double tough foe this week in Waco.

Lamesa, Highland Park (Dallas), Ysleta, Marshall and Galena Park tumbled from the list of perfect clubc last week. The 13-7 defeat of Marshall by South Park of Beaumont and Ysleta's 20-7 loss to Borger were the biggest upsets.

Port Arthur, Lubbock, Grand Prairie, Henderson, Wichita Falls and Corsicana sport perfect records. Baytown and John Reagan of Houston are unbeaten but tied.

Lubbock Crushes Amarillo

Lubbock crushed Amarillo, 47-7, last week to sound a note of warning that this year might be IT. Ten years ago Lubbock won the state title. There's been some lean pickings for the Westerners since then.

The club that's been tabbed the best in the state, Port Arthur, faces Orange this week after being idle for one.

Henderson runs into Marshall and this game may be the deciding factor in district nine.

San Antonio Tech and Brackenridge clash in a tilt that may have a lot of bearing on the San Antonio district of the City conference.

Two top district 14 elevens, Kerrville and Corpus Christi, get together and the winner will be doped as the biggest barrier to Austin in this Class AA race.

Lamesa Is Defeated

Wichita Falls beat Highland Park, 14-7; Pampa pounded Lamesa, 32-13, and Galveston walloped Galena Park, 32-16.

John Reagan had a close call with Brownsville, winning 14-12.

Some of the top games this week are:

Sunset-Forest (both of Dallas); John Reagan-Milby (both of Houston); Elk City, Okla.-Borger; Wichita Falls-Quanah; El Paso High-Bowie (El Paso); Abilene-Sweetwater; Stephenville-Breckenridge; Denison-Paris; Highland Park-Denton; Nacogdoches - Conroe; Baytown-Pasadena; Temple-Cleburne; Harlingen-Alice and Edenburg-McAllen.

Giants Win Over Chicago, 35-28

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (INS)—The New York Giants scored the upset of the National football league season today when they stopped the Chicago Bears, 35 to 28, before 30,587 fans at the Polo Grounds.

It was one of the hardest fought games in the 25-year rivalry of the two teams, chock full of offensive and defensive brilliance.

The Giants lost their attendance war with the rival New York Yankees of the All-America conference. The Yanks drew 36,197 for their cross-the-river game with the San Francisco 49'ers.

Steve Owen's leech-like backfield defenders stole the spotlight from Chicago's Johnny Lujack, with Emlen Tunnel a standout on pass defense.

The Giants forged to a 14 to 0 half time lead but the always rough and ready Bears slammed across the New York goal line four times in the second half.

The Chicago juggernout appeared to be able to score every time it gots its hands on the ball. They caught up at 28-28 midway in the fourth period.

But with the Giants in possession on their own 15, Chuck Conerly hit Gene Roberts with a short pass and the "Chattanooga Express" galloped 85 yards for the payoff touchdown.

With two and a half minutes left, the Bears staged a grim race with the clock.

Steelers Retain Tie By Downing Bulldogs

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23 (INS)—The New York Bulldogs ran out of steam in the last half and the Pittsburgh Steelers beat them, 24 to 13, today in a national football league game.

The victory kept the Steelers in the Eastern division's first-place tie with the Philadelphia Eagles, who beat Washington 49 to 14.

More than 22,000 fans saw the two teams trade points in the first half. But Pittsburgh pulled away in the last two quarters as the Bulldogs tired obviously. It was New York's fifth straight defeat.

A 35-yard dash by Jerry Nuzum opened scoring for the Steelers midway in the first period. Joe Glamp kicked the extra point.

The Bulldogs took the kick-off and went all the way on the passing of Texas Bobby Lane. The Blonde Texan scored the touchdown himself, on a one-yard quarterback sneak. Nick Scollard converted.

Lubbock's Brown Tops Honor Roll

FORT WORTH, Oct. 23. (AP) — Bobby Brown, clever Lubbock T quarter, heads the list of stars on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's weekly honor roll roundup of the Texas outstanding high school football players.

Brown carried the ball four times for 24 yards, completed seven of nine passes for 108 yards and three touchdowns, returned one punt 23 yards, intercepted four of the six passes Lubbock stole from Amarillo and played the best defensive game of his career as the Westerners rolled past Amarillo's Sanies, 47-7.

Longview Back Stars

Sonny Jones, Longview back, averaged seven yards per try running on a muddy field, averaged 35 yards the boot in punting and blocked two kilgore punts while playing a great defensive game as the Lobos defeated Kilgore, 6-0.

Tom Bufkin, Longview guard who weighs 150 pounds, blocked a Kilgore Punt which set up the Lobos' winning touchdown.

Bobby Leggett, Harlingen quarterback, completed seven of 16 passes for 67 yards, one for a touchdown, and scored another six-pointer on a two-yard plunge to lead his team over McAllen, 19-14.

J. T. Seaholm, Austin center, caught a blocked punt in mid-air and carried the ball 50 yards for a touchdown as Austin defeated Temple, 18-13.

Jerry Fouts, Wichita Falls end, returned a punt 58 yards in the final minutes of play to set up the touchdown that ruined Highland Park's undefeated record, 14-7.

Bill Leach, Henderson back, ran 49 and 44 yards for touchdowns as his club surged past Tyler for a 37-0 victory in District 9-AA.

Bill Ross, Stephenville, scored four touchdowns, two in runs of 14 and 12 yards and two on pass plays of 13 and 16 yards, as the Yellow Jackets trimmed Cisco, 33-12.

Henry Wigger, Temple end, blocked a punt, caught the ball in the air and ran 40 yards for a touchdown as the Wildcats bowed to Austin, 13-18.

Jimmy Williams, Texarkana back, passed for two touchdowns as Texarkana defeated Gladewater, 21-7.

Bobby McCutcheon, Wellington, threw three touchdown passes and intercepted a pass and ran 35 yards for another marker as Wellington defeated Memphis, 35-20.

National Favorites Suffer Major Upsets

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP) — Boom! Boom! Boom! Down went North Carolina, Minnesota, Kentucky and Pittsburgh in crashing upsets.

Who's next? Well, there are only nine major all-winning college football teams left after "Black Saturday's" explosions.

Notre Dame, Army, Oklahoma, California, Cornell, Baylor, Pennsylvania, Boston U and Virginia are the bigtimers still hanging around with perfect marks. Of these, only Penn, Virginia, California and Baylor appear in for rough sledding next week. But more of that later. Let's get back to the broken four.

LSU Beats Tarheels

Louisiana State bottled up the great Charley (Choo Choo) Justice and toppled North Carolina, 13-7, in a night game at Baton Rouge.

Michigan, sparked by Chuck Ortmann's running and passing, rose up and flattened Minnesota, 14-7.

Southern Methodist, minus fluridden Doak Walker but inspired by Kyle Rote, deflated Kentucky, 20-7, and Indiana, beaten in its last 11 contests, shellacked Pittsburgh, 48-14. The surprise packages all took place on the victor's fields.

Minnesota had been ranked third nationally, North Carolina sixth, Kentucky seventh, and Pittsburgh 16th. There'll be some changes made.

Four Other Reversals

There were four other form reversals to make the dopesters unhappy. Iowa upended Northwestern, 28-21, Rice nipped Texas, 17-15, on Froggie Williams' 28-yard field goal in the last ten seconds, Kansas whacked Oklahoma A&M, 55-14, and little Memphis State downed Kansas State 21-14. Rice was rated ninth in the country last week and Texas 10th but the odds-makers had established the Longhorns a touchdown favorite.

Tulane, still aching from the lumps dished out by Notre Dame two Saturdays ago, barely squeezed by non-winning Auburn, 14-6.

Notre Dame, the Nation's No. 1 outfit, rested yesterday and so it looks like more bad news for Navy. The Middies, who entertain the Irish Saturday, were belted 28-7 by Pennsylvania.

Army Blasts Columbia

Army, the No. 2 combination, made up for their upset by Columbia two years ago, by pulverizing the Lions 63-6. It was the 16th straight game without defeat for the Black Knights. Columbia snapped a 32-game Army unbeaten string in '47 with a 21-20 victory.

Oklahoma, No. 4 nationally, thumped Nebraska, 48-0, and California, No. 5, whipped Washington, 21-7. Cornell, No. 8, just nosed out Princeton, 14-12, on Billy Kirk's conversions.

Baylor, ranked 11th, blanked Texas A&M, 21-0, Boston U tripped New York U, 38-0, and Virginia licked Virginia Military, 32-13.

There are three other all-winning schools that rate mention although they don't belong up there with the others yet.

Wyoming ran up its sixth win by scoring its first victory in history over Utah, 13-0. College of Pacific scored its sixth triumph by pasting San Diego State, 62-14, and Fordham, once a mighty power, kept riding toward the top by conking Syracuse, 47-21.

NEW CONVERSION RECORD

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23 (AP)—Cliff Patton, of Philadelphia Eagles kicked his 73rd consecutive point after touchdown in the second period of the game with Washington today to establish a national football league record.

Yankees Defeat 'Frisco 49'ers

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (INS)—The piston-like legs of plug-sized Buddy Young carried the New York Yankees to a stirring 24 to 3 upset win today over the vaunted San Francisco 49ers of the All America conference.

The victory placed the New Yorkers in a first place tie the idle Cleveland Browns and dropped the 49ers out of top spot and into third place.

For thirty minutes the Yankees staged a brilliant defensive battle with the 40-point-a-game San Franciscans. The Frisco cyclone was held to a 28 yard field goal by Joe Vetrano and the 49ers had a 3 to 0 halftime advantage.

At the outset of the third quarter, a misguided lateral by Don Garlin was pounced on by New York's Ed Sharkey on San Francisco's 33 yard line.

The educated right toe of Harvey Johnson deadlocked the game with a three-pointer from the 40.

Johnson Kicks 89 In Row

Young intercepted a Frankie Albert pass on the Frisco 21. Don Panciers hit Buddy with a weakside pitchout and the little negro flash burst across the goal line untouched.

Johnson added the conversion, his 89th in a row.

After Pete Layden brought Albert's punt back to the Yankees 49 yard stripe, Sherm Howard and Young made up the rest of the distance in ten plays.

Buffalo Bills Edge Los Angeles, 17-14

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 23 (INS)—The Buffalo Bills racked up their second All-America football conference win today before 21,310 fans by edging the Los Angeles Dons, 17 to 14.

The game was a bruising affair from start to finish, with the California club taking the worst of the vicious tackling. Burr Baldwin, right end of the Dons, was taken to Buffalo General hospital for X-rays after being carried unconscious from the field in the third period in a goal line play.

No immediate diagnosis was made of his injuries.

The statistics gave the Bills all the best of it. First down honors went to the Bills, 23 to seven, while the net rushing was 325 yards for Buffalo to 110 for the Dons. George Ratterman for the Bills outpitched Glenn Dobbs for the losers, 138 to 78 yards.

Tomasetti and Baldwin scored touchdowns for the winners, Chet Adams kicking both points. The winning marker was a field goal by Adams in the second period from the 11-yard line.

Crowe and Rogers tallied for the Dons, Nelson making the conversions.

ST. MARY LOSES, 41-14

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23. (INS) University of San Francisco's Dons handed their old football rivals of St. Mary's College a 41 to 14 pasting today — the widest margin the Dons have ever made over the Gaels in 23 meetings on the gridiron.

Sewell Is Named To Manage Reds

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 23. (INS)—The Cincinnati Reds announced today that James (Luke) Sewell has been chosen to manage the National league baseball club in 1950 and 1951.

Powell Crosley, jr., chairman of the board of the Cincinnati team, said Sewell, a coach with the club last year and former manager of the St. Louis Browns, would be "one of the highest-paid managers in the National league this year" but declined to specify the salary called for in the two-year contract.

Sewell replaces Bucky Walters, who was relieved of his managerial duties three days before the close of the 1949 season. The Reds finished in seventh place.

Crosley announced the selection at a press conference in the Netherland-Plaza hotel in Cincinnati and said it followed three weeks of consideration of seven or eight men including Bill Terry, former New York Giants first baseman and manager.

Sewell told the conference he was "surprised" by the choice and added:

"I really wanted this job, and when I learned there was a vacancy I went after it with all I could.

"I don't plan any changes as yet. I don't think the Cincinnati pitching is bad. We have a fine young staff and a good infield. but we need more power in the outfield."

Warren C. Giles, president of the Cincinnati club, said there has been "no decision" on the new status of Walters, who was reportedly offered a post as a coach for pitchers in the Reds' minor league farm system.

Two Baseball Rookies Of Year Are Named

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23. (INS)— The Sporting News, national baseball weekly, departed from its usual custom today by selecting two freshman baseball players as rookies of the year.

Selected for the annual honors handed down by the baseball publication were Roy Sievers, St. Louis Browns slugging outfielder, and Don Newcombe, the brilliant Brooklyn Dodgers' hurler.

The Sporting News, which usually chooses only one rookie for the honor, selected Sievers for the Amarican League and Newcombe for the National.

The choices were based on a poll of baseball writers. Winners in other years were outfielder Del Ennis, Philadelphia, 1946; Infielder Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn, 1947; and Outfielder Richie Ashburn, Philadelphia, 1948.

National League Eagles Defeat Washington Redskins, 49-14

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23. (INS) The National Football league champion Philadelphia Eagles today erushed the Washington Redskins, 49 to 14, before 35,000 fans at Shibe Park.

A 77-yard sprint by the Eagles' fleet-footed Ross Pritchard and a 54 yard gallop by the Skins Bob Goode furnished the games chief thrills.

Pritchard and Tommy Thompson also collaborated for a 75 yard scoring pass.

Baylor Still Boasts Perfect Mark

Five Teams Battling In SWC Title Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Southwest conference football field starts the stretch run this week with five teams still in the battle for the championship and Baylor swaggering with an undefeated, untied record.

Meanwhile, the circuit takes time out from a bulging intersectional schedule to brag about its gaudy record against outside foes, particularly teams from the South.

Baylor kept the only unbeaten standing unblemished Saturday by licking Texas A & M, 21 - 0 but the Bears are tied for the lead in the conference race with the Rice Owls, who shoved Texas aside, 17-15. Each has won two games.

Intersectional Triumphs

That intersectional record is a dilly. Southern Methodist knocked Kentucky from the nation's unbeaten ranks. 20-7, Arkansas edged Vanderbilt, 7-6, and Texas Christian nosed out Mississippi, 33-27, Saturday, making the conference's season standing against teams from other areas 12 wins, five losses and one tie.

The only Southern team to hold decisions over Southwest conference teams is Louisiana State which beat Rice and Texas A & M. The Big Seven, through the efforts of Oklahoma, is even. Oklahoma beat Texas and Texas A & M; Texas Christian whammed Kansas, and Southern Methodist trimmed Missouri. Against Eastern opposition, the record is one win, one loss. The West hasn't been able to come close to registering against the Southwest.

Williams Beats Texas

James (Froggie) Williams, Rice's great wingman who last week was picked as the outstanding lineman of the nation, added to his prestige in the game with Texas. He kicked an 18-yard field goal with 10 seconds to go to give Rice a hair-raising victory. This was the feature game of the week-end and it lived up to all expectations.

Texas had a 15-0 lead before Rice started to move. Pitchin' Paul Campbell had completed 10 passes for 136 yards and Texas seemed to have the Owls in the hollow of its hand. Then boom! Rice blasted and crashed to two touchdowns and put on an 80-yard drive that got the ball in position for Williams' Frank Merriwell field goal.

Southern Methodists' victory was spectacular, The Methodists, playing for the first time in three years without all-America Doak Walker, who was in a hospital fighting an attack of influenza, stormed from behind to win going away. Kyle Rote stepped into the Walker breach, grinding out 96 yards running with the ball, scoring two touchdowns, kicking two extra points and averaging 50 yards with his punting.

This week there are three conference games, the feature being Southern Methodist's joust with Texas at Dallas. One of the two will fall out of the title race, each having lost one game. Texas A & M and Arkansas meet at Fayetteville in a game meaning nothing in the chase, both having already been eliminated. Baylor faces Texas Christian, which clings to the rim, at Waco. Defeat for TCU would pitch it out of the race also.

Rice gets a breather, meeting Texas Tech of the Border conference at Houston.

Texas Western-HSU To Tangle

Game May Decide Border Conference

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're giving advance notice of an explosion out West Texas way come Saturday.

That's the date the two top challengers for the Border Conference football crown now worn by Texas Tech get together at Abilene. Undefeated and untied Texas Western meets Hardin-Simmons university, a hard riding cowboy club with only one loss and one tie marring its record.

Both clubs are pointing for Saturday's game. Neither has been defeated in conference play with three wins on their records. Both are given a good chance of dumping the Red Raiders of Tech—also undefeated against conference foes.

Western Wins, 7-0

Texas Western turned in its third conference victory Saturday with a surprisingly low 7-0 victory over New Mexico university in a muddy tilt.

Meanwhile Hardin-Simmons was held at a 27-27 tie by Houston University. The Cowboys had to rely on the passing of Quarterback John Ford for their scoring. Ford passed three touchdown aerials to end Dunnie Goode, and Harold Taylor scored the other when he caught a 21-yard pass from the H-SU quarterback.

In other games, Texas Tech defeated Arizona, 27-7, in a conference game while non-conference tilts saw Arizona State at Flagstaff tie Redlands, 20-20, and West Texas run over Trinity, 55-20.

Games next week find Texas Tech at Rice, New Mexico playing Arizona State at Tempe at Albuquerque; New Mexico A & M playing Highlands at Las Cruces and Arizona playing at Denver university.

Rams Run National Grid String To Five Games, Downing Packers

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23. (INS)—The Los Angeles Rams ran their National football league unbeaten string to five straight today by handing the Green Bay Packers a 35 to 7 loss at Memorial Coliseum.

The win, accomplished before 37,546 spectators, left the Los Angeles eleven all alone in first place in the Western division of the loop.

Los Angeles capitalized on fumbles deep in Green Bay territory for three of their scores, while the powerful Ram line took care of the Packers' offensive thrusts.

Southeastern Coaches Blast SWC Officials

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP) — Two Southeastern conference football coaches are unhappy about officiating in games they played against Southwest conference teams yesterday.

Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of Kentucky took swipes at the men in the striped shirts yesterday afternoaon following his team's 20-7 defeat by Southern Methodist. He charged the officiating lost the game for him.

Over at Fort Worth some five hours later, Johnny Vaught, coach of Mississippi, said "I thought I had seen the worst" after his team took a 33-27 triming from Texas Christian in a night game. "I just can't understand it. It just wasn't consistent officiating," he snapped.

Penalties Hurt Rebels

He did not, as had Bryant, single out any particular penalty for criticism. However, a pass interference ruling that set up a TCU touchdown and a called back 52-yard pass that probably prevented a Mississippi score figured in the 122 yards in penalties that were assessed against Mississippi. TCU drew 55.

Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian, whose blast at Arkansas and the officials several weeks ago broke into the headlines, had no comment on Vaught's statement. C. W. Davis of Southwestern university was the referee, Robert Tharpe of Georgia Tech the umpire, Charles Berry of Baylor, headlinesman, and Buck Cheves of Georgia, field judge.

Blasts McCulloch

Bryant loosed his blast particularly at Referee Ray McCulloch, declaring "I'd rather have the referee on my team than any of my players."

McCulloch, who left immediately after the upset triumph by the Methodists, said at Amarillo, where he was contacted by telephone, that "We called them just like we saw them," but said he would not comment on Bryant's charges.

McCulloch added that he would report to James H. Stewart, Southwest conference executive secretary who appointed him to officiate the game and that any comment would have to come from Stewart.

McMurry Whips ACC In Texas Conference

(By The Associated Press)

McMurry college's Indians hurdled what was considered their second big barrier to a second straight Texas conference championship with ease last week and Saturday they can take another big stride toward this goal.

The Indians polished off Abilene Christian college, 21-0, last week. This week they meet Austin college in Sherman.

Ray Morrison's Austin Kangaroos won their first game of the year by a convincing margin, beating Southwestern Missouri Teachers, 33-0.

In other games last week, Howard Payne brushed off Southwestern, 20-7, and Texas A&I dumped Daniel Baker, 33-0.

This week, Howard Payne meets Trinity University; Southwestern plays East Texas Baptist college, and A&I tackles Sul Ross.

McMurry's victory gave it clear title to the conference's leadership with two victories and no defeats. The Indians have a 4-2 record for the year and have scored 210 points to 115 for the opposition.

A&I sports the loop's best season record, four victories and one defeat.

Eddie Arcaro and Earl Sande both have piloted Suburban winners at Belmont Park three times. Re-Armed, brother of Armed, champion money winning gelding, began his racing career with a victory at Belmont Park.

Kermit Paces 3-A Grid Race

Kermit's power-minded Yellowjackets held onto their District 5-A grid lead last week by dumping Seminole's Indians, 20-7.

It was the sixth district victory of the year for the husky Jackets, who have only a tie with Andrews to mar their record.

The high-scoring Wink Wildcats kept pace with Kermit by mauling McCamey, 39-6. The win left Wink with a 5-1 mark, and a slight lead over Andrews, which has four wins, one defeat and one tie.

Andrews turned back Monahans, 19-14, last week to virtually eliminate the state champion Lobos from the 5-A title scramble.

This week's schedule boasts a "double feature" attraction. Kermit plays host to dangerous Monahans on Saturday night, while on Friday night Wink stages its homecoming game against Pecos.

Seminole this week goes to McCamey, while Fort Stockton is at Marfa. Winless Denver City entertains Tahoka, another club that has not scratched in the victory column this fall.

Andrews and Crane are idle.

Olton Wins Sixth District 3-B Tilt

Olton's Mustangs galloped nearer the District 3-B football championship last week by routing Farwell, 40-6, for their sixth consecutive conference victory.

With only three district games to play, Olton now appears to be a "shoo-in" for at least a share of the title.

Hale Center, which has been Olton's No. 1 challenger for top honors, was rudely bounced from the unbeaten list last week as Springlake roared to a 39-6 win over the Owls. It was the first setback after four straight district triumphs for Hale Center., defending district titlist.

Dimmitt Edges Anton

Dimmitt, loser only to Olton, preserved its fading chances in the first-place scramble by edging out Anton, 18-12. The victory kept Dimmitt in second place in the official standings.

Olton faces a tough assignment this week against Anton, which is dangerous despite its two conference reverses.

Dimmitt journeys to Friona, while Hale Center is at home against weak Whitharral. Improving Springlake is at Spade, while Farwell travels to Amherst.

Pattison To Speak At Quaterback Club Meeting At Hilton

An overflow crowd is expected to be on hand at the Hilton hotel tonight at 8 to hear Coach C. R. Pattison of Lubbock High school tell about the Westerners' 47-7 victory over Amarillo Friday night.

The occasion will be the weekly session of the Quarterback club and there should be joy all around. All three Lubbock institutions won their games last weekend for the second time this year.

Coach Dell Morgan, whose Texas Tech Red Raiders turned back Arizona 27-7 in a Border Conference game, will be on hand. So will Damon Hill, whose Dunbar High school Panthers beat Blackshear High school of Odessa 25-0.

A three-man committee was appointed by President Bill Collins last week and they will supply the program.

There is a possibility that pictures of the Amarillo-Lubbock game may be shown.

Baltimore Loses To Hornets, 17-7

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23. (INS)—Bad passes and fumbled footballs combined today to give the Chicago Hornets a 17-7 win over the Baltimore Colts before some 23,000 moaning Marylanders in an All-America conference game.

Chicago drew up the Baltimore death warrant early in the first quarter when End Jim McCarthy booted a 42-yard field goal for the first three points of the game.

Halfback George Buksoar climaxed a long Hornet ground assault in the waxing second period with a head-down charge to paydirt from the one and Quarterback Johnny Clement followed suit after another long drive minutes later. McCarthy kicked both points.

The Colts' lone score came in the final period when Quarterback Y. A. Tittle bucked over from the one yard stripe. End Rex Grossman kicked the Colt conversion.

Lubbock-Odessa Tickets May Be Reserved At High School Today

Reservations for tickets to the Nov. 11 Lubbock-Odessa game at Odessa will be accepted today and Tuesday at the office of E. J. (Pinkey) Lowrey at Lubbock Senior High school.

First call on the 3,150 adult tickets allotted Lubbock will go to holders of season tickets to Westerner home games. Remaining Odessa-Lubbock tickets will be distributed on a "first come, first served" basis to others, in the order in which reservations have been made.

The reserved seat ducats are priced at $1.50 each.

Reservations may be made by telephoning Lowrey at 2-2033.

More than 1,200 student tickets to the game will go on sale here later this week.

Detroit Lions Upset Chicago Cardinals To Gain 24-7 Victory

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. (INS)—The Detroit Lions upset the Chicago Cardinals 24 to 7 today before 23,215 National football league fans at Comiskey Park.

The Lions, winning their first game since their victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers on Nov. 21 last year, matched an early Cardinal score in the first period and added two more touchdowns and a field goal in the final quarter.

Sudan Now Atop 4-AN Standings

Sudan slipped into first place in District 4-A North last week by thumping Morton, 32-13, while powerful Littlefield enjoyed an open date.

The triumph, Sudan's third in a row in conference competition, gave Coach Francis Smith's Hornets a narrow half-game edge over the Littlefield crew.

In the only other district game last week, Coach Durwood Green's Muleshoe Yellow Jackets climbed out of a last-place tie by thumping Sundown, 38-13.

Levelland enhanced its prestige by tripping Class AA Brownfield, 26-7.

Littlefield's burly Wildcats play hosts to Sundown in the lone conference clash on this week's card. Levelland takes on Post, the top team in District 4-A South, while Morton, Muleshoe and Sudan have open dates.

Post Half Game Ahead Of Slaton

Coach Clarence Tillery's Slaton Tigers closed in slightly on the pace-setting Post Antelopes in District 4-A South last week by blanking Seagraves, 19-0, in the only conference game of the week.

The win preserved Slaton's perfect record in district play, and left the Tigers only one-half game behind Post, which has three straight successes in conference competition.

Coach Francis Bingham's Post team stepped outside the circuit last week to trounce Snyder, 13-7.

Post Plays Lobos

This week the Antelopes play another inter-district tilt when they are hosts to Levelland's Lobos of 4-A North. The game has no bearing on the official standings, but will be closely watched by area grid observers because it is expected to indicate the relative strength of the two divisions of District 4-A.

Slaton should fatten its conference record this week against O'Donnell, while Tahoka journeys to Denver City. Seagraves is at Coahoma in the remaining game on the docket.

Floydada Holds Down First In Class 3-A

Floydada's Whirlwinds, after a narrow escape with Matador's surprising Matadors last week, still hold down first place in the District 3-A grid standings.

Coach L. F. Gresham's Whirlwinds, who had been expected to roll over Matador with ease, were held to a 12-12 scoring deadlock by Coach Rafe Nabors' Matadors. Twenty-yard line penetrations also were even at 3-3, but Floydada was declared the winner on first downs, 11-5.

Fourth Whirlwind Win

It was the fourth consecutive conference triumph for Floydada, one of the wins being a 1-0 forfeit decision over Abernathy as a result of a recent eligibility ruling against the Antelopes.

Spur's Bulldogs now appear to be the only team capable of overhauling the Floydada club. Spur whipped Crosbyton, 27-13, last week to stay in second place with a 4-1 record. All other teams have suffered at least two setbacks in district play.

Spur In The Running

So it now appears that the title may be decided by the outcome of the Nov. 17 Spur-Floydada encounter at Floydada.

Crosbyton, Ralls and defending champion Lockney, each with two losses, retain a slim chance at a share of the crown.

This week's feature battle sends Floydada to Lockney. Spur has an open date, while other games are: Abernathy at Ralls, Matador at Crosbyton and Paducah at Tulia.

Meadow Broncs Set Pace In 4-B

Meadow's Bronhcos, who with the Lubbock Westerners and Floydada Whirlwinds comprise the South Plains undefeated schoolboy grid list, last week took over undisputed possession of top spot in District 4-B.

Coach Lloyd Hunt's Bronchos outscored Idalou, 26-14, while Ropesville's Eagles bowed to New Deal, 38-19. It was the first conference loss of the year for Ropesville, which in four previous district games had not yielded a point.

The New Deal Lions, by virtue of their convincing triumph over Ropesville, bounced back into the title picture.

Whiteface, another club which hasn't given up its championship aspirations, stayed in the running by walloping Plains, 26-0.

Ropesville plays at Idalou in this week's top attraction. Meadow draws a "breather" at Plains, while New Deal has an open date. In Thursday night contests, it will be Frenship at Whiteface and Petersburg at Cooper.

Longhorn League Remains Class D

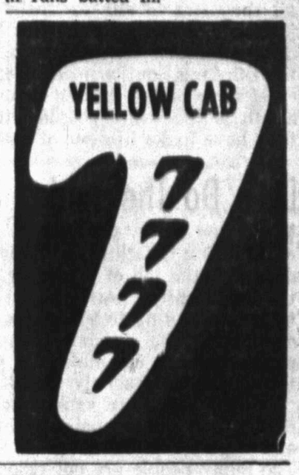

ABILENE, Oct. 23 (AP)—The Longhorn Baseball league voted to retain its Class D status, but raised the number of veteran ball players from two to three, in the annual fall meeting here today.

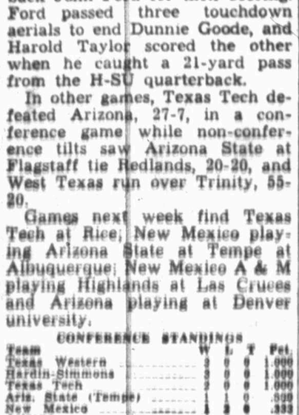

Hal Saylers, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, was re-elected league president-treasurer by acclamation. He presided today at the meeting which virtually wiped out possibilities of a realignment of teams in the Longhorn and West Texas-New Mexico leagues.

Abilene had indicated a desire to line up with the Longhorn league provided it would move up to "C" classification, and Roswell, N. M., had hinted that it would like to join the West Texas-New Mexico league. For geographical and travel reasons such an arrangement was considered appropriate.

After lengthy argument, however, and in closed session, the Longhorn league decided to remain in Class D, and Roswell elected to remain therein.

Babe Ruth and Mel Ott are the major league record holders in runs batted in.

WE CAN SOLVE IT

Our Racial Problem

MOST Southerners, white and black, are aware of the truth of the declaration made by Sen. Estes Kefauver, of Tennessee, in addressing a student group of the University of Texas the other day.

He said that people of the South will work out their "racial problems" better than any outsiders can do it, provided they are given the time and the opportunity.

No one pretends the lot of the Southern Negro is all that it should be. But it is so incomparably better than it was a generation ago as to be almost incredible. It is doubtful whether history can produce an example of a class of several million people who have been enabled to advance further than Southern Negroes in the same space of time.

The progress has been almost entirely the product of the white and colored peoples working together with the deep understanding which is possible because of generations of close association. It is an understanding which no outsiders, no matter how well meaning they may be, can apply to the problem.

It naturally cannot be supposed that Senator Kefauver's statement will discourage those who apparently are doing all they can to stir up racial dissatisfaction and strife in the South. But it does emphasize the fact, recognized by the thinking Southern negroes, that the chief hope of the colored people of the South is the white people with whom they have had a lifetime of association.

Let's Do The Job!

IT IS too early, perhaps, to say that Lubbock is falling down, or will fall down, on the job of providing fully for the Community Chest. It is not too early to say, according to those who are now conducting the annual financial campaign, that the community is attending to this job more slowly than it should.

Contributions are substantially short of the total the campaigners had hoped and expected at this stage of the drive. Too many people are not responding as generously to the appeals as had been anticipated — and is needed. The response must be improved if the $98,950 goal is reached.

Total final subscriptions below that amount will cripple the work of the various Chest agencies because the budgets for which funds are asked were trimmed by the Chest board of directors, composed of civic leaders and sound business men, to the barest of requirements.

It is impossible to believe that Lubbock will fall down on this job. We simply do not have the type of people, taken as a whole, who would fail in a necessary humanitarian undertaking of this kind.

Lubbock will provide for Community Chest needs sooner or later. Let's get the job behind us by giving, if we have not given already, or by giving more if our conscience tells us we have not given enough.

A Bright View

PRACTICALLY all Americans shared a feeling of relief when the first session of the 81st Congress closed Wednesday after 289 days. Contributing largely to the feeling is the fact that, with Congress at recess, there at least won't be any new taxes for awhile.

Whether the law makers did a good job during their marathon meeting is strictly a matter of opinion, so we won't go into that.

But there is one significant fact for which most Americans doubtless are thankful. The adjournment finds the nation at peace. True, threatening clouds are overhead. Anything could happen. But Congress adjourned without apparent serious fear that the law makers might be recalled to Washington suddenly to cope with emergency problems of deepest gravity. It has been a long time —at least 10 years—since a session of Congress has been adjourned in an atmosphere of hope comparable to that.

This, of course, gives no guarantees to the future. But, for the present, conditions and prospects could be so incomparably worse that Americans have infinitely more cause for thankfulness than for complaint.

Someone To Love

BY IRENE LONNEN ERNHART

Distributed By NEA, Inc.

(THE STORY: Financial troubles, inhospitable in-laws, and the housing situation have contrived to bog down Jenny's marriage to Tod Duncan. Besides, Tod seems unable to forget Lis Conover who jilted him. Then an old friend, Rick Morris, invites Tod and Jenny to visit his home in Centerville after Tod graduates from college. Tod thinks Rick is in love with Jenny and he is sullen when Rick suggests that, in view of no place to live, Tod and Jenny can live in their guest cottage instead of going back to the trailer camp where they had been living.)

XIX

THE cottage, originally built as a caretakers house had been used later by Rick's father for his study.

Jenny bought colorful paper drapes for the windows and painted some second-hand chairs and an old kitchen table bright yellow, for the kitchen. They moved their few belongings from the trailer, plus the old walnut marble-topped antique chair Nina was storing for them. The cottage was small, but once it was furnished and the curtains up, they were delighted with it.

Then Tod got a job with a distributor for farm implements. It didn't pay so much to start, but there was a promotion promised.

They celebrated in appropriate fashion with a party. Tod, using Rick's car, brought Nina down on a Saturday evening to spend the week-end. The four of them went swimming, had a picnic, and then as soon as the babies were put to bed, the four played bridge until late. It was like old times. Tod bunked that night with Rick at the big house and Nina slept at the cottage with Jenny.

Nina and Jenny lay awake until almost 2 talking. Jenny was so excited about Tod's new job, and she was thrilled with the cottage too. "It's wonderful how nice Mrs. Morris has been, Nina. She's such a help with the twins!"

"You surely aren't planning to stay here at the cottage!" Nina said.

"Only until Tod can find an apartment or house within our means."

"It'll be a problem all right," Nina said, "but I think I'd—"

"You'd what?" Jenny asked sharply.

"I wouldn't want you to—take me wrong or anything like that," Nina said. "But I think it would be best for all concerned if you moved back to Capitol City as soon as possible, even though it is a help for Mrs. Morris to take care of the babies so much."

"Why what do you mean, Nina?"

"You know Rick's in love with you," Nina said. She paused and then added, "You aren't mad are you, hon, for me saying it?"

"Mad? No, of course not," Jenny said. She was grateful for the darkness that hid the red creeping across her cheeks. "Only you're wrong—being silly, Nina—or jealous."

One of the babies whimpered in his sleep and she got out of bed and padded around to his bassinet.

Nina sighed, "I'll admit I wanted Rick to fall for me, but I gave up long ago. You and Tod have been throwing him at me ever since last fall, but he doesn't see anyone but you, Jenny."

Jenny broke in, "Rick is Tod's best friend and he's been so good to me, but it isn't anything like that, I know."

"Just the same," Nina insisted, "I think the best thing you and Tod can do is move back to Capitol City."

JENNY lay awake long after Nina's regular breathing indicated she was asleep. She remembered Tod's accusation: "Rick's in love with you." They had quarreled over it. And now Nina had brought it up. In some odd way both of them seemed to blame her. For something that didn't exist! Just because Rick was gentle and helpful and adored the babies, they had to jump to a crazy conclusion that he was in love with her.

Rick had gone to work at the Centerville Trust Company. The job had been waiting for him as soon as he graduated. His grandfather had founded the bank, and now that his father was dead, Rick was supposed to work into the leadership of the institution. Tod envied Rick's security; no worries, a good job just waiting for him to step into it.

Perhaps it was because the Duncans always had to struggle that the things money would buy were so important to Tod.

Jenny herself was contented. The babies were sweet and healthy and utterly fascinating.

Tod had to catch the 6:45 bus in the morning and the evening bus didn't get down until 6:30, which left him little time at home through the week, but he had Saturday afternoons off which didn't make it too bad. They would have liked to have a car, but they didn't have money enough for a down payment.

AT first Tod was interested in his job and excited at meeting new people, but as the summer wore on, the job became less interesting and more routine, and the commuting more tiresome in the heat and dust of midsummer. He would come home worn out, hungry and hot to find Jenny fresh as a daisy after a quick 5 o'clock swim in the park pool with Rick.

Jenny sensed, after the first few times she talked about the swim with Rick, that it irritated Tod, so she didn't mention it any more. He wasn't too fond of swimming himself and that's why she had gone early.

She tried instead to act interested in his day, asking about his work, and the people he had met.

But he nearly always came home in a disagreeable mood. She wondered why it was so difficult for Tod to adjust himself, to accept the small difficulties of life in a good-natured way. She told him that one evening.

"Why can't you just accept things as they are and not grumble about them all the time?"

His eyes blazed suddenly.

On The Line

By BOB CONSIDINE

INS Staff Correspondent

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Sen. Joe McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican with a war record as long as your arm, will offer his services to Capt. John Crommelin as counsel, when and if the Navy holds a court martial of the Naval hero.

To remove the offer from the realm of politics, McCarthy will ask a Democrat in the Senate to work with him. He hopes to persuade either Estes Kefauver, Tennessee, or Lyndon Johnson, Texas.

Crommelin, who earlier indicated that his long-time friend, Navy Capt. Joseph L. Kane, would be one of his legal representatives, if he is tried, is now under "house arrest" in Washington. His pay goes on but he is not permitted to leave the District of Columbia.

He is charged with unauthorized disclosure of secret documents. If he is found guilty and drummed out of the Navy, the 47-year-old captain, staunch member of the most decorated family in U. S. Naval history, will lose his $5,000 a year pension.

"His is an important case," Sen. McCarthy said today, before leaving for a brief vacation after months of work at the capitol. "It is a case that goes beyond the individual. There's a great principle involved here, the growing habit of high government officials to cover up the blunders of the past by stamping most of the relevant documents 'secret.' There's a growing mania for secrecy, and also a certain percentage of that secrecy is simply cover-up."

McCARTHY related some of the troubles the Senate committee investigating war assets encountered. War Assets officials put a gag on important employe-witnesses who were unable to tell the public the truth. Others, who broke the gag rule, were fired, McCarthy charges.

McCarthy, a Marine officer during the war, is not a close friend of Crommelin. But he has followed the case carefully and is willing to give up most of his fard-won off-season to help prepare the accused naval officer's defense. If he is unable to attract a Demo-

OF VOTERS BACK HOME

Solons Study Trends

By ROGER WARREN
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, — Senators and Representatives, following a brief vacation after the longest peacetime session, will soon be checking up with the home folks on public reaction to the record of the 81st Congress.

Regardless of what they say for publication, all of them are jittery as to the electorate's verdict. None is sure what his constituents think of the performance.

One rough indicator of public opinion has petered out lately. With few exceptions there has been a noticable falling off in mail. Senator Taft gets 700 letters a day. Senator Paul H. Douglas (D) of Illinois receives about 500.

TIDE: The drop puzzles the solons. They do not know whether their constituents are pleased — for a satisfied customer rarely writes—or are just plain apathetic. Yet it is important to know how voters feel in order to tailor next year's legislation and the 1950 and 1952 election campaigns.

The trend that swept the underdog Truman back into the White House a year ago showed that Republicans in upper financial brackets didn't go to the polls as usual. But low income industrial workers voted Democratic more strongly than two years before, as did many former G.O.P. farmers.

If this tide has not turned, Truman's candidates should be sitting pretty. But some doubt is raised because the 1948 record shows that in the 27 states outside the South, 17 per cent of the voters split their tickets compared with only nine per cent in 1944. This rise in independence might be dangerous for individual members of Congress regardless of their party labels.

REJECTION: But this is history. Today's voice from the common people is what the politicos are cupping their ears to catch. Many Republicans and numerous Democrats from Dixie are convinced that Joe Doakes is fed up with statism and wants less bureaucratic interference and control.

They cite the rejection of Leland Olds for reappointment to the Federal Power Commission as the tip-off. Senators were so sure that the public did not want his brand of power control that 53 voted against his confirmation and only 15 backed him.

This was in spite of the crudest example in history of the White House putting the heat on the Upper House. Although National Committee Chairman Bill Boyle stirred up small fry local Democrats to demand support, 21 Democratic Senators refused to buckle under to the President.

Mr. Boyle snapped the whip at Governor Tuck of Virginia, a Democrat, ordering that he bring pressure to bear on Senators Byrd and Robertson. But the peeved Governor bluntly informed the new national boss that he never had and never would tell a United States Senator what to do.

"MUSTS": Senators and Representatives during the week have been stuffing their trunks with reports, statistics, outlines of speeches and other data which they will use to drum up approval for their respective parties by explaining to Main street what Congress is supposed to have accomplished.

President Truman boasted that he got about everything he wanted. But Senator Taft put in a rebuttal to the effect that the Democratic Congress junked the "Fair Deal" with as much gusto as did the Republican 80th.

The Senator pointed out that his colleagues tossed aside such Truman "musts" as price-wage controls, the authority to build government steel plants in competition with private industry, the Brannan agricultural payment scheme, universal compulsory health insurance and the Truman plea to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act.

Just after Taft had poured out his cold water, Senator Francis J. Myers hurried to a Pennsylvania microphone to explain to Quaker State voters that the 81st Congress had done a swell job.

CREDIT: The Marshall plan had been renewed, he said, the Atlantic Pact ratified and funds appropriated to arm Western Europe. He admitted that all three were passed by bipartisan support. But he took credit for his party for a low cost housing act, which in the next six years will move 810,000 families out of the slums into decent homes.

He listed as achievements the adoption of six reorganization plans proposed by the Hoover Commission, the extension of grain storage and crop insurance and a new minimum wage law that raises the wage floor from 40 cents to 75 cents an hour.

"I don't hear any more the term 'Eighty-Worst' Congress," he told his radio audience. But had his ears been alert he would have heard Senator Owen Brewster of Maine, on the air a few hours earlier, using this very slur word to brand the body. "Most of the measures passed," snapped the Pine Tree State solon, "were merely extensions of laws passed by the Republican 80th Congress."

LIST: In January the President handed Congress a list of requests so long that even a rubber stamp legislature might not have acted on all items in a single year. And this was by no means a lackey Congress.

The Administration expects to make some more hay next year. It has three simple plans for election success: Hold the labor and Negro vote and win more farm votes. Its attitude on the big strikes and its championship of Taft-Hartley repeal are pleasing to union bosses.

The Democratic party has been in power 17 years. They perfected the art of taxing a man's money away from him and then making him happy by giving it back.

Down Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche, Oct. 24, 1929.)

Preliminary plans for the community chest campaign, to be started in this city next month, were formulated at a meeting yesterday in the office of the Chamber of Commerce of the Community Chest committee, of which G. P. Kuykendall is chairman.

A director for the campaign, from the American City Bureau, is scheduled to arrive Nov. 4

"During the interim much work must be done to have conditions in shape for the campaign," Mr. Kuykendall said.

The group in session yesterday began a survey looking toward appointment of various committees for the campaign. Other than Mr. Kuykendall, those who attended the meeting were C. F. Drexel, president of the Lions club; Dean A. H. Leidigh, president of the Kiwanis club; Charles A Whitacre, commander of the Allen Bros. post of the American Legion; and J J Clements, president of the Rotary club.

Other officers to serve during the ensuing year are: Mrs. Paul E. Carter, first vice president; Mrs. L. A. Knitt, second vice president; Mrs. John L. Vaughn, parliamentarian; Mrs. M. M. Brown, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. C. W. Moses, reporter.

Believe It Or Not -

'STATISM' CHARGE IS DENIED

New Opposition Campaign Scored

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The most significant development of the first session of the 81st Congress and of the political year to which its adjournment was climax was the highest-powered, most expensive propaganda campaign in many years by big economic interests to check adjustments in our economy embodied in the Truman social welfare program.

Those who have been on the scene here and who are familiar with previous such campaigns in the past can testify to its strength and purposes.

Seeking simple slogans to confuse, it lighted upon "statism" as a conjure word against the welfare program. This was conveniently supplied by a Southern Democrat formerly high in Roosevelt and Truman councils, James F. Byrnes of South Carolina. This, of itself, indicates the bipartisan nature of the campaign which draws upon elements in both parties, ultra-conservative Southern Democrats and Republicans, who have carried it forward legislatively in the old, familiar coalition in Congress.

No Party Rule

There is, in fact, no longer party government in Washington. This is both the strength and weakness of the revived campaign. Its strength is in the confusion it promotes. Its weakness is in the lack of a party to front for it as a party.

How spurious is this "statism" stuff, how syntehtic, how deceptive, may be shown very simply.

The Truman Fair Deal program, which suddenly has become "statism" or sarcastically "the welfare state" or "socialism," is no more and no less than the program Harry Truman laid before Congress in January, 1946, in his first annual message, and is nothing more nor less than leftovers of the Roosevelt New Deal, five times ratified by the voters, that had been suspended during a global war.

AS long as it got nowhere, its opponents in both parties did not bother themselves. Instead they concentrated their energies in the 79th Democratic congress and particularly in the succeeding Republican 80th Congress in trying to weaken and break down some New Deal safeguards for the public interest and some instituted long before the New Deal, especially in the field of utility regulation and public power policy. This counter-New Deal drive got fresh, but brief, impulse in the temporary setback of the Truman forces in the 1946 election.

But only a slight taste of that bipartisian counter-revolution was enough. Surprising vigor for continued New Dealism came to light in last November's election to confound the prophets.

Quickly a new line was devised. The election, it was said, was somehow a fluke. This description carried some weight in the early part of the Congress when little got done. There were jokes about the "Eighty-Worst" Congress, going back to Mr. Truman's crack about the 80th.

Finally Made Progress

The President was patient and persistent. Finally, there was a breakthrough with the long-range housing bill in June, and other measures suddenly were found to be moving forward, if slowly. Then the air was filled with cries of woe and rage.

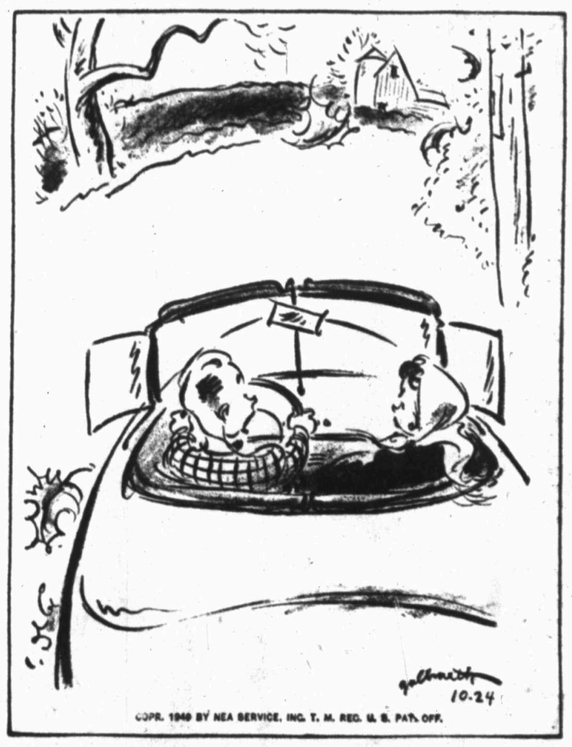

Jimmy Byrnes got off his "statism" attack which was followed by Herbert Hoover's "last mile to collectivism." The bipartisan front was unorganized. Unhappily for it, the coalition in Congress was becoming less effective. A minimum wage increase bill, formerly bitterly fought by many southerners, got through both House and Senate, and only two Southern Democrats and no other Democrats, voted against the social security expansion bill in the House.

BUT there was another ally. This was Russia and Communism. It was exploited frenziedly in the new crusade in the effort to identify all sorts of welfare measures and their advocates with "Communism." Russia's discovery of the atom bomb process added the necessary fright item to the catalogue.

A new hobgoblin has been created out of whole cloth and at considerable expense, but by those who can afford the cost of all the modern propaganda techniques. It will be waved around like the old "bloody shirt" in the next session and in the congressional elections next year to embarrass fair and honest Democrats and Republicans.

Authorities On Diabetes Disagree On Use Of Insulin For Treatment

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. — Can 99 per cent of diabetics stay well without insulin? Can diet alone keep them well?

These questions broke at the American Chemical society meeting in Atlantic City in September, where Dr. Michael Somogyi, of St. Louis, said it can be done. He is a famous biochemist.

Authorities on diabetes replied it wasn't true, and that Dr. Somogyi wasn't a physician. The controversy got so hot that Dr. Linus Pauling, president of the society, wired Dr. Howard F. Root, president of the American Diabetes association, Boston, that Somogyi did not say he himself treats diabetes but that collaborating physicians gave the treatments.

Subsequent reports make it appear that the two sides are not so far apart.

Two Reports Given

One of these reports is a new publication by Somogyi, in the bulletin of the Jewish hospital, St. Louis. The other is a letter to the Associated Press from Dr. Edmund L. Shlevin, president of the New York Diabetes Association, Inc.

Dr. Smogoyi repeats that 99 per cent is possible, and that 95 per cent success has been achieved for some time.

He says this is not always done without using, insulin at the start of treatment. It is insulin, he says, which finally makes it possible to get along without medicine. There are exceptions in mild cases where insulin is not necessary even at the start if diet is right.

Somogyi says it is not possible for persons now using large does of insulin to reduce dosages suddenly or to abondon it.

Somogyi says a dose of 20 units of insulin, an amount five time under what many persons get, should be enough after the mild stage has been reached.

He bases his predictions on 14 years treatment of 4,000 diabetics. The physicians who did this were at the St. Louis Jewish hospital and the St. Louis City hospital.

He says insulin is poisonous as sometimes given, and he cites a card sometimes carried by a diabetic reading:

"If I am found unconscious or behaving abnorally, my condition is probably the result of an overdose of insulin. I am not intoxicated."

Dr. Shlevin notes that Dr. Somogyi is one of the nation's leading biochemists and quotes the figures 99 per cent with no insulin and 20 units a day or less for the other one per cent.

Alarm Caused To Patients

"These statements," he says, "do not coincide with the experience of diabetic specialists or internists. Furthermore, his remarks, published in the press, have caused considerable alarm and misunderstanding to many patients. The term "insulin poisoning" is a rather far-fetched dramatic term."

Dr. Shlevin says insulin is responsible for the very life of juvenile diabetics. Somogyi says that for diabetic children the proportion of those needing insulin is reversed, which appears to be the same thing Shlevin is saying.

"About 70 per cent of diabetics," Dr. Shlevin continues, "require insulin and the average dose is somewhere between 30 and 40 units a day, although some may get along with much less while others may require much more.

"Dogmatism in dosage, particularly setting up a 20 unit standard, could only lead to disaster."

Temple Man Shoots Self To Death With Constable's Gun

SONORA, Oct. 23. (AP) — William Barney Hamm, jr., 24-year-old Temple man, shot himself between the eyes here early today using the town constable's pistol.

Constable Newt Poteet and Night Watchman Sam Adams watched as Hamm's body slumped to the floor of Poteet's filling station.

Justice of the Peace George Barrow returned a verdict of suicide.

Hamm was an all-state high school football player in 1941. He later played for Baylor university.

Hamm's parents could give no reason for the suicide.

Former Texan, Estranged Wife Found Shot To Death In Auto

PHOENIX, Oct. 23. (AP)—A former Texan and his estranged wife were found shot to death in the woman's car at Maricopa, 30 miles south of here, this morning.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Hendricks said it was a case of murder and suicide.

The couple were Claude Henderson, 54, and Vera Henderson, 42. Mrs. Henderson was found in the driver's seat with a bullet hole through her neck and cheek. Henderson's body was found in the back seat with a bullet hole through his right temple.

Officers Continue Hunt For Escaped Arizona Prisoner

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 23 (AP)—Escape artist Jack Tatum, 27, the only one of five jail breakers to reach freedom yesterday as two were slain, remained at large today while officers pressed their manhunt. Officers in neighboring states and Mexican authorities have been alerted.

A car, believed stolen by Tatum, was discovered south of Phoenix today. It was checked for fingerprints and other clues. The resident reporting the car said it had been parked about 8 a. m. (MST) yesterday.

U. S., Britain Split Over Red China Issue

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23(AP)—Britain and the United States are beginning to pull apart on the issue of recognizing the Communist government of China.

Indications are that London may establish full diplomatic relations fairly soon. Whether this happens will depend finally on whether the Communists leave the British alone at Hong Kong and promise to respect their rights there.

Official Washington, on the other hand, now regards recognition by the United States as months in the future.

Split Not Serious

The developing split between the two western allies on this issue is not regarded by either American or British diplomatic authorities here as a vitally serious problem. It is considered rather an inevitable reflection of their differing national interests.

British financial interests in China, for example, have been roughly estimated at 10 times those of the United States which may stand at about $50 million. The British have Hong Kong under long-term lease and regard it as one of the great empire assets they want to retain. British diplomats have been treated less badly by the Communists in China than American diplomats and citizens have been treated.

Bidault Gets Job

said he would not start his actual negotiations until tomorrow.

"Because of the length of the crisis," Bidault told reporters as he emerged from Auriol's office, "I judged it necessary not to employ any further delay. This is why I have definitely accepted.

Responsible Men Needed

"There are before us some international and financial obligations which require responsible men in the government."

There still appeared to be some sentiment in the assembly for the return of Henri Queuille as premier. Queuille's resignation precipitated the present crisis.

In the 18 days France has had two premiers without a cabinet, one for four days, the other for two. Both resigned because they were unable to enroll a team of ministers from the Socialist, Radical Socialist and Popular Republican parties. These are the middle-of-the-road parties which throughout the life of the post-war fourth republic have steered France between communism on the left and DeGaullism on the right.

This three-party coalition came apart Oct. 6 when Premier Henri Queuille, a Radical Socialist, resigned over the issue of wages and prices in a post-devaluation economy.

Complete Circuit Made

Since then President Vincent Auriol has made the complete circuit of the parties making up the ruling combination. All have failed, or refused even to attempt to form a government.

The Socialists, who brought on Queuille's downfall by demands for wage increases, failed when their man Jules Moch was unable to get the cooperation of the Catholic Popular Republicans (MRP).

The Radical Socialists failed last night when Rene Mayer was unable to get the aid of the Socialists.

The situation seemed made to order for Gen. Charles De Gaulle, who long has been demanding new elections to give his own followers, the French People's Rally (RPF), a voice in the assembly. De Gaulle's party was organized after the present assembly was elected on Nov. 10, 1946. He claims the present legislature is not representative of the political temper of the country. Normally the next election would be in 1951.

Poage To Study

cessing tax had been levied on all agricultural products during the last 10 years "enough would have been realized to have easily carried our price support program during that time." Poage envisioned creation of a fund to which both farmers and consumers, would contribute equally through general taxation. From it, farmers were to be reimbursed when agricultural prices fell below an equitable basis.

He said the average market price of any given commodity through its season of production could be classified as a "fair price."

"Thus," he said, "if the average market price fell below the fair figure, the government could make up the difference to the farmer."

"It seems to me," Poage said, "that such an arrangement would make for more self-respecting farmers. Under it, the farmer would get tangible help and he would be paying for a portion of his own security."

Five Fliers Lost In Bomber Crash

reported hearing a sputtering plane, then two explosions. They called Midland officers by car radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Boone and two hands heard the two explosions from their home on the Boone ranch about four and a half miles from the scene. They jumped into a car and drove across their south pasture to the crash. They were the first to reach it.

The plane dug a hole five feet deep in the ground. An arm, a hand and one foot were the only parts of bodies officers were able to find after searching more than an hour.

Small Pieces Left

Jim Allison, publisher of the Midland Reporter-Telegram, who went to the scene, said "the biggest piece of plane that was left could have been dropped into an ordinary barrel."

The crash occurred in almost level country covered by mesquite, grass and weeds.

Pieces of parachute were found among the wreckage, leading officers to believe that none of the crew managed to jump.

TWO PERSONS HURT IN LUBBOCK MISHAPS

A seven-year-old boy and a Latin-American laborer were hurt in mishaps on the local traffic scene Sunday.

Both, the boy, Ronald Hensley, of the Avinger addition, and Pedro Gonzales, were treated for minor lacerations of the face at hospitals here.

The Hensley boy was injured when cars driven by E. M. McAdams, 39, of the Avenger addition, and Derwood Hays, 16, of 809 Ave. M, collided at Fifteenth and Ave. E at 10:50 a.m. McAdams was given a ticket for failure to grant right of way, Hays for defective brakes.

Gonzales, highway patrolmen said, apparently drove his 1934 Ford into the back of a Fresh Bread company truck parked beside the Plainview highway four miles north of Lubbock about 4 p.m.

The driver was not in the truck at the time of the accident, it was reported, and major damage was caused only to the front of the car.

The two mishaps brought the total number of persons injured in the area over the weekend to 16.

A recapitulation of the injured list shows seven persons hurt, six of them Tech students, in an accident near Amarillo late Friday; two more hurt in a headon crash one mile northwest of Posey the same night; two pedestrians injured in Lubbock, also Friday; two women hurt in a collision at Main and Ave. J late Saturday; and the Hensley boy and Gonzales, injured Sunday.

Only three of the wreck victims, all Tech students, remained in hospitals. They were:

Ida Matney, 26, of 2617 Twenty-sixth, reported in fair condition with three broken vertabrae, five crushed ribs and a broken pelvis.

Rueben McGilvary, 27, of Hereford, fractured pelvis and lacerations.

Joyce Harris, 19, of Childress, fractured nose and possible broken neck, bruises and lacerations.

DUMAS WOMAN HURT IN HIGHWAY ACCIDENT

SOUTHLAND, Oct. 23. (Special)—A multiple-car accident near here about noon today resulted in serious injury to only one person.

Mrs. W. A. Cox, 43, of Dumas, was admitted to Lubbock Memorial hospital this afternoon, after suffering a broken right leg at the knee in the mishap. Her husband, 49, was treated for a broken nose, and her children, Mancy, 11, and Barto, 8, escaped with only bruises and shock. Only Mrs. Cox was hospitalized and her condition was not considered serious.

The highway patrol said the accident happened about six miles southeast of here when Mrs. Cox, driving a 1939 Buick sedan north, tried to pass a 1949 GMC truck being driven by Lenacio Molino, 34, of Corpus Christi.

Travelling north ahead of the truck was a 1942 Ford army staff car occupied by two soldiers, and ahead of it was an Army ambulance towing an unoccupied jeep.

Cutting back into the right lane ahead of the truck, the car driven by Mrs. Cox struck the left rear of the staff car, knocking it off the road to the right, Mrs. Cox's car swerving off the road to the left.

Molino's truck then plowed into the rear of the jeep, which was bent almost in two by the impact.

Only the Cox family was injured. A passing motorist took them to Post where they were given emergency treatment. They were then brought to Lubbock by a Mason Funeral home ambulance.

The highway patrol said the Army vehicles were on the way to Clovis, and were not connected with the Lubbock Air Force base.

an altercation in the Mexican section of the city, told officers he was uncertain as to who had assaulted him. He said he had risen from his seat in a cafe preparatory to leaving the place when one of four men attacked him.

He told investigators he did not realize immediately that he had been cut, and said he had not seen a knife in the hands of either of the four men.

A physician at Porter clinic said the shallow knife wound extended from Garilay's neck behind his left ear to a point over the right collar bone.

Other crime activity in the city, meanwhile, continued at a slow pace.

Rex Sallis, of 2818 Eighteenth, reported theft of a man's gray hat and two raincoats, total value $30, from his car parked in the 1200 block Ave. J.

Theodore Tallard, 29, an employe of the Tidwell shows, a carnival playing east of Lubbock, was arrested on a charge of reckless driving after a truck he was driving allegedly knocked down four gas pumps at the McLain filling station at 118 East Broadway about 4:30 p. m.

Wesley Haigood, an employe of the firm who signed the complaint against Tallard, said the accident occurred as Tallard attempted to drive a truck belonging to the carnival company through the driveway of the filling station.

man Kee (D-WVa) of the House Foreign Affairs committee, will arrive in New York from Washington at 10:15 a. m. (CST).

A police motorcade will escort the chief executive from Pennsylvania station to the UN site and 5,000 city policemen will guard the route which his group will travel.

The President will be introduced by Mayor William O'Dwyer and is expected to address the group for about 20 minutes.

When the President finishes his speech, Lie and UN architect Wallace K. Harrison will proceed via a ramp to where the three-ton cornerstone is waiting and place into it a container holding a copy of the UN charter.

Since representatives of the 59 nations will be present, the national anthem will not be played. In the event of rain, the ceremonies will be switched to the Flushing Meadow auditorium.

The President will remain in New York only five hours. After the cornerstone laying, Mr. Truman and Mrs. Truman will go to Mayor O'Dwyer's residence for luncheon.

The executive party will depart from the city at 3:15 p. m., and arrive back in Washington at 6:45 p. m. (CST).

Rail Strike Ends

neers, enginemen and firemen, railroad trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors called the strike over 282 grievances involving an estimated $12 million. Many of the claims were admittedly years old.

The 11 states served by the Missouri Pacific are Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado and Illinois.

Efforts of federal mediators to halt the tieup before the strikers walked out Sept. 9 failed when the strike was called promptly.

Many Charges Made

The long period of idleness was turbulent with charges and counter-charges by company and union officials. The Missouri Pacific which is in bankruptcy was accused by union of having enough funds for improvements but not enough to meet the demands of its workers.

Management countercharged the unions with obstructing final settlement of the strike. When they refused to return to work without first settling all of the 282 claims.

During negotiations, Guy A. Thompson, the railroads trustee in bankruptcy proposed that the 282 grievances be submitted to three referees for a hearing and decision. That decision was to be binding on the railroad but not on the union the strikers were to return to work as soon as the proposal was accepted.

Proposal Turned Down

The brotherhoods turned down the proposal and demanded that the claims be settled before any resumption of work.

Throughout the strike there were almost no reports of violence. Several days after the walkouts pickets halted a Cotton Belt railroad train "by mistake."

Pickets said the line which used MoPac tracks was carrying mail normally handled by the struck railroad. The line was allowed to continue operations after one day.

Negotiations were resumed after a breakdown between management and unions when Gov. Forrest Smith of Missouri invited governors of the affected states to meet in an effort to settle the paralyzing strike.

The governors submitted a plan which provided that as many grievances as possible be settled by negotiation. The negotiators were then to agree on a method to settle the remaining claims. When that was accomplished, the strike was to end.

Dock Strike Settled

Hall said he expects "peace on territorial and Pacific coast waterfronts" at least until June 15, 1951—the termination date of contracts both in Hawaii and on the coast.

Union Victory Claimed

He termed the strike settlement a "great victory for all unions in Hawaii" and declared that the gains were "well worth the long battle." Hall said:

"We've made great strides in the direction of parity with the West Coast dock workers. The union still hopes to achieve absolute wage parity with coast longshoremen. We don't demand parity overnight but it must come some time."

The union had asked for a 32 cent an hour boost—which would have brought Hawaiian dock wages to $1.72, ten cents under the West Coast scale.

Civilian Defense

complexity" of civilian atomic defense was obvious when considered in the light of the various measures to be studied. He termed the problem "enormous."

Hearing Preparations Slated

He disclosed that between now and January when Congress returns, the committee staff will be engaged in "careful" preparation for the hearings.

Witnesses, the chairman said, will include government officials connected with civilian defense and private individuals who already have expressed interest in the problem.

McMahon disclosed that the Atomic Energy commission has published some data on the characteristics of atom bomb blasts. He explained that this was technical information for use by doctors, engineers and scientists.

In addition, the senator continued, the commission will bring out a simplified manual on atomic bomb attacks in layman's language.

Security Problem Involved

It was understood that a security problem is involved in the layman's manual. A draft of the proposed manual is reportedly being distributed to military and intelligence officials for clearance.

McMahon said that five or six federal agencies have responsibility for civilian defense planning, with coordination the task of the National Security Resources board.

The NSRB has been charged with contacting state and local governments on which McMahon said the major responsibility will fall.

The senator said that governors of nearly all the states already have indicated their willingness to cooperate in the planning effort. He pointed out that the majority of the states now have civil defense directors and several of the states have enacted civil defense legislation.

Military To Do Planning

McMahon added that planning for civilian participation in active defense has been made the job of the military, and that wartime disaster relief has been assigned to the general services administration.

Other agencies involved, he said, are the Public Health Service, the Agriculture department, the housing and home finance agency, the munitions board, the federal security agency and the food and drug administration.

Committeemen will inspect various atomic installations during the congressional adjournament. A subcommittee headed by Rep. Holifield (D-Calif.), will meet in Los Alamos, N. M., Thursday to confer with experts on what McMahon said was "A phase of our atomic weapons development."

President Truman recently authorized use of a $30 million surplus of Atomic Energy Commission funds to launch a new program that eventually will cost $300 million.

enthusiastic approval of the American people." He added:

"The Republicans were working hard to delay, to obstruct and to block the progress of many of our legislative proposals."

Lucas paid tribute to Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), ranking GOP senate foreign relations committeeman, and a "few" other "outstanding Republican senators."

The administration chief said that "with great devotion to his country, Vandenberg joined the Democratic leaders in turning back the willful isolationists who tried to cripple the Marshall plan, scuttle the Atlantic pact, and reduce the military assistance program to a mere token of little value." Lucas declared:

Isolationist Group Rises

"One of the most astonishing and threatening developments during the entire session was the rise of an isolationist group of senators who attempted to halt our progress in stemming the tide of communism.

"These men turned their backs on the tragic lessons which most Americans had learned from the Soviet conquest of Poland, Czechoslovagia and the Balkan countries.

"These men were far more dangerous to the cause of world peace and the security of our democracy than the Communists and fellow travellers who operated under the orders of Joseph Stalin."

'Financial Scenanigan' Charged

Taber charged that the administration engaged in "financial shenanigan" which "the average citizen" and "few men in Congress" understand. Taber said:

"There are few men in public life today who are able to withstand the vicious pressure of organized groups who want something for nothing out of the government.

"Millions of wage earners have had one to several increases in wages over the past few years and today they are no better, and in some cases, worse off than they were before.

"Anyone concerned with the average family's clothing and food bill should keep in mind the billions of dollars the Roosevelt and Truman administrations have spent in subsidies to boost prices . . .

"As a result of Mr. Truman's planned inflation, the low income family is 20 per cent worse off than it was before. That is part and parcel of the Truman welfare state."

Truman Returns To Washington From Cruise On Chesapeake Bay

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (INS) President Truman returned to the capital today after a weekend cruising on Chesapeake bay during which he led newsmen a brief but merry marine chase.

Mr. Truman's yacht, the Williamsburg, docked at the naval gun factory at 3:20 p.m. (CST) and the chief executive motored directly to Blair house, his temporary residence.

There the President made preparations to train to New York Monday morning to deliver an address at the laying of the cornerstone for a permanent UN headquarters.

NEWS BRIEFS

Thirteen Gideon members attended a prayer and praise service at a breakfast Sunday morning in Hilton hotel. The group voted to hold similar breakfast services each Sunday morning from 7:30 to 8:30 a. m. at the hotel. Earl Burnett, president of the local Gideon camp, presided at the Sunday morning service.

The story of the founding of Girlstown, U.S.A., near Whiteface, today will be told over a radio network program by Jack Berch, insurance company entertainer. Time of the broadcast is 10:30 a.m. over the following West Texas stations: WBAP at Fort Worth, KGNC at Amarillo, and WOAI at San Antonio. The program will be heard at 9:30 a. m. over station KTSM at El Paso.

Senator G. C. Morris, acting lieutenant governor of Texas, will be guest speaker at noon today at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce in Hilton hotel.

Services Scheduled Tuesday At Muleshoe For Shooting Victim

LEVELLAND, Oct. 23. (Special)—Graveside services for Mrs. Leo Nichols, 28, victim of an Oct. 14 shooting at her farm home near Whiteface, will be held in Muleshoe at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

The husband of the dead woman, meanwhile remained in county jail here in lieu of $20,000 bond set following a charge of attempted murder filed shortly after the shooting.

E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, said in Lubbock that "new charges would be filed against Nichols in Morton," probably tomorrow.

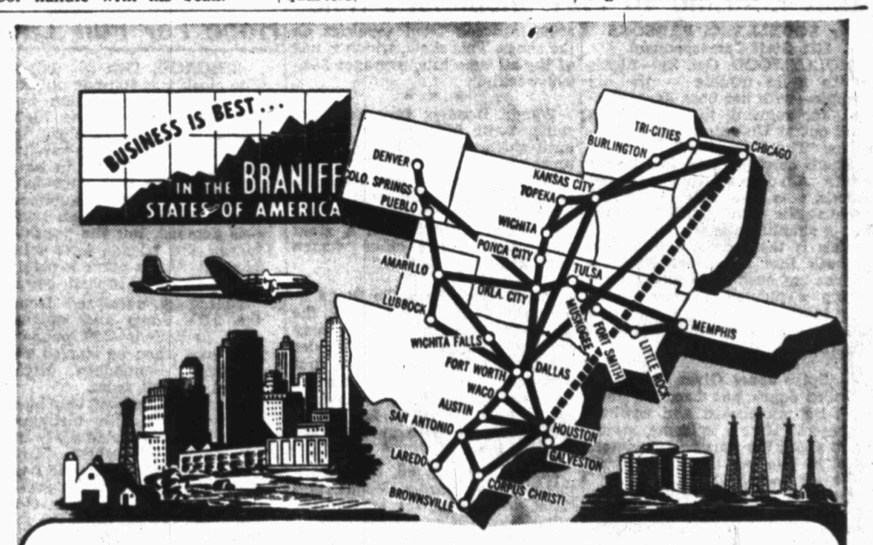

Mrs. Nichols died in Phillips-Dupre hospital here Saturday of a gunshot wound in her chest.

ZONE PROBLEM GETS HOT

DENVER (AP)—Uncle Sam's postal zoning system apparently confuses Roman A. Vargas, jr., of the Philippies. Vargas answered a Colorado state publicity department advertisement in a magazine, printing his name and address in the proper space. In the "zone" blank he wrote: "Torrid."

DON'T IMPLODE THAT TUBE

NEW YORK (AP)—An "implosion" is just the reverse of an explosion. It occurs when something bursts inward instead of outward, such as the breaking of a highly evacuated device like a large electronic tube.

Your Business Belongs In The Skyline of the Braniff States of America

The rich 9-state area that Braniff serves is a region you can't afford to overlook. The Braniff States of America offer you the best potential market you can enter. Here's why:

Over a 10-year period, increases in retail sales, farm incomes, bank clearings, manufacturing facilities, the value of manufactured products and total output have been well above the average for the rest of the country.

Alexis Smith Is Suspended By Jack Warner After Refusing To Play Shoplifter's Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 23.—Alexis Smith is in trouble — the big trouble—with her boss, Jack Warner, for refusing to report on a lend out at Universal-International for "The Shoplifter."

She is on suspension, and within hours Andrea King replaced Alexis, who turned down the role because she didn't think the heroine, a shoplifter, is a nice girl.

This is the second time within a week that a Warner Brothers actress has been suspended for refusing a picture. Lauren Bacall was taken off the pay roll, and Ginger Rogers given her role in "Storm Center."

Spike Jones Given Role

Spike Jones has been on tour with his washboard and cowbell orchestra. Here is some major news about the music depreciator, who is one of the best letter writers I know.

Spike has signed a contract with producer Harry Sherman to become a full-fledged movie star. In his first film, "Really, Mr. Greeley," Spike plays the reporter sent west by Horace Greeley when he gave with his famous "go west young man."

Exciting to Ted Bonnet's friends in Hollywood, where he worked as a reporter and press agent, that he stands to make a fortune with his book, "The Mudlark." Darryl Zanuck paid him $75,000, plus a bonus of twenty-five cents on every copy over 30,000 sold.

The big search, Darryl told me, is to find a boy to play the youngster who sneaks into Windsor castle while Queen Victoria and Disraeli are at dinner.

May Get "Pacific" Role

Carl Brisson is a hot contender for the Ezio Pinza role in "South Pacific" when Pinza comes to MGM in January. Carl has the middle-age appeal that Pinza has, and while he hasn't the operatic voice, he has a good singing voice and plenty of charm.

Mary Martin has agreed to do the show for another year, and has bought an apartment at the Hampshire house as a permanent residence. She is earning well over $6000 a week from royalties on the songs. This show, which is one of the all time hits, averages $44,000 weekly.

Clare Luce Back On Stage

Actress Clare Luce is back in the theater with both feet. She may be playing a part in the movies before long. She is doing the first American production of George Bernard Shaw's "The Millionairess," which played in London in 1936 and gave Deborah Kerr her first big break.

Despite denials all New York thinks that Frances Fonda and Hank are finding the going difficult.

The reason Guy Madison is rowing with his boss, David Selznick, is because he wants to get out of the baby face juvenile roles.

Lex Barker, the new Tarzan, whose wife quitely divorced him a few weeks ago, having a large evening with Elaine Howe at Ciro's.

Dick Haymes is really very sick with virus flu, and will be out of the Ambassador show for a week. He will be replaced by Everett West, of Broadway's "Mexican Hayride."

Romance Hits Snag

Peter Lawford's big romance with debutante M'Liss Weston, has hit a snag, and on Pete's second visit to New York he had other interests.

The widow of one of New York's best known restaurateurs is not very happy over the coming marriage of Mayor O'Dwyer to Sloane Simpson.

MGM has received a frantic cable from Deborah Kerr to rush her some baby food. Deborah didn't realize that the baby food shortage is still on in England, and her parents have been unable to get the right vitamins for her little girl.

Boy, Facing Slow Death, Clings To Hope For Full Life

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. (INS)—The clock was running out on 17-year-old Paul Nelson today, but the one-time high school fullback still clung to his hopes for college, varsity football, and a career in law.

Doctors say that Paul—his spine severed in an automobile accident in August, 1947—is doomed, but the youth's family and friends have told him only that a nerve is being squeezed by a broken bone.

Nelson is paralyzed from the neck down and weighs only 70 pounds—125 pounds less than when he starred on Chicago's Amundsen High school football team.

His teammates will help him celebrate his 18th birthday Tuesday at a bedside party in his home. His nurse, Mrs. Peggy Frederickson, who has attended him since the accident, will be 24 years old Thursday but will also be in on Tuesday's party.

Last year 14,000 birthday gifts and greetings arrived from all parts of the United States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii—each one strengthening the oft-repeated "white lie" as to the true nature of his injury.

Paul has fought off death twice in the past year—first when he was stricken with an intestinal obstruction and then when he survived a bladder infection.

He receives special instructions at his home four days a week and is due to graduate with his high school class in January.

crat to his side, he will make the offer alone.

"I don't think the public has quite grasped what's going on in that unification fight," he said. "You don't think that all those outstanding men would stick their necks out as far as they did, if they did not do so with justification, do you?"

"Crommelin spoke up on his own because he could no longer stand by and see his service shot to pieces by arbitrary edict. The Marine Corps is being discriminated against, too, its traditional work being taken over by the Army in such a way that—if the time ever comes—the Department of Defense can say that there is no longer any need for the corps."

Has Several Decorations

The vigorous, outspoken man is the eldest of five brothers, all Annapolis graduates. Four went into naval aviation, and the other, Henry was turned down only because of his eyes. All five had great war records. Two were killed, Charles and Richard, after collecting a total of three Navy crosses, three Distinguished Flying Crosses, an Air Medal and a Purple Heart.

Capt. Crommelin's brother, Henry, also a captain, and his brother Quentin, a lieutenant commander, remain on active duty. The former commands the naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba. Quentin is stationed at the naval air station at Pensacola.

JOHN Crommelin was on the carrier Enterprise when it sank the Jap battleship Hiyei and two large Jap carriers off Guadalcanal in '42. He was chief of staff aboard the carrier Liscombe Bay when it caught a Jap fish in its belly off the Gilberts in 1943 and went down with a loss of 700 men.

Crommelin, badly burned, was blown out of a compartment—the only one who escaped death at that station of the ship. On deck, with the skin hanging off him, he gave the order that stopped the survivors from throwing debris overboard. It was hitting the men in the water. He jumped into the sea as the Liscombe Bay began going down, reached a raft and thought he was about to die. Four weeks later he was back in the air, fighting again.

He still is, and he hasn't a warmer champion in Washington than tough, two-fisted Joe McCarthy.

Withdrawal From Public Eye Unsuccessful

Private Life Lacks Seclusion For International Lover, Wife

By JOSEPH RAITI
INS Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. — Sigmund Engel, the "cash and marry" international Romeo, ended 10 days of wedded bliss tonight and concluded that his private life is about as secluded as President Truman's morning walks.

Engel and Mrs. Pauline Langton Engel, "his first true love," retired into what they had hoped would be obscurity 10 days ago pending opening tomorrow of the 83-year-old Lothario's trial.

The octogenarian lover is charged with a confidence game in which he allegedely took $8,700 from Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, a comely Chicago widow.

During the couple's withdrawal from the public eye, Mrs. Engel didn't let her husband get too friendly with women pedestrians and once admonished him for stepping aside gallantly to let another woman pass.

However, his wife wasn't the only one keeping tab on the dapper manipulator of women's hearts. Like the ever-present lamb in the nursery rhyme, everywhere that Sam went a private bodyguard and state's attorney's investigators were sure to go.

Attorney Hires Bodyguard

The bodyguard was hired by Engel's attorney, J. Edward Jones, whose father, Charles, is keeping the congenial Casanova out of jail with a $37,500 property bond.

The state attorney's men are making sure Engel will appear at the trial tomorrow where the state will present 53 witnesses to show just how congenial Sam can be.

The state says he posed as a millionaire, showered scores of women with gifts, promised marriage and then deserted them after they had sold their belongings and given him the money realized.

If acquitted or granted a postponement Sam plans a 15-week appearance on the Chicago stage. His attorney reportedly arranged a six-week booking at $1,000 a week but Engel brushed it off as "chicken-feed." Then he added:

"We'll get the big stuff first and take the little stuff later."

Scurry Activity Continues At Full Blast

New Discovery Well Completed In Ector

A new discovery from the Clear Fork of the Permian has been completed in central Ector county at Edward C. Lawson of Tulsa, No. 1 Augusta Barrow.

This new field opener is 14 miles northwest of Odessa, and 660 feet from south and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 44, block 44, TP survey, T-1-S.

It reported an official 24 hour flowing potential of 452 barrels of 39 gravity oil, flowing from open hole in the Clear Fork at 5,554-95 feet.

That zone had been treated with 3,000 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 1,170-1. Flowing tubing pressure was between 200 pounds and 100 pounds. There was no casing pressure because there was a packer on the tubing.

The 24-hour potential was based on an actual flow of 113.64 barrels of oil in six hours through a one-half inch tubing choke. There was no formation water.

The originally reported total depth of 5,587 feet was corrected by steel line measurement to make it 5,595 feet.

This new discovery is three and one-half miles south of the cleast Clear Fork production on the south side of the Goldsmith field, and four and one half miles east of the nearest Clear Fork production on the south side of the TXL field.

DIAMOND M FIELD EXTENSION COMPLETED

Newman Brothers and associates No. 1 Eiland, central-southwest Scurry county wildcat, has been completed as a major extension to the Canyon lime producing area in the Diamond-M field.

This development is located one and one-half miles northeast of the nearest completed oil wells in that field.

It has been finished for a calculated 24-hour potential of 384 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil, and with a gas-oil ratio of 810-1. That production was natural and the 24-hour potential was based on an actual flow for nine hours of 144 barrels of oil, through a 10/64th inch tubing choke.

Top of the Canyon reef was at 6,595 feet according to an electric log. That gave it a datum of minus 4,178 feet and it correlates to be seven feet low to the highest well so far completed from the Canyon reef in the Diamond M field.

On preliminary tests taken before and potential gauge was run, the well flowed for six hours on a one-quarter inch tubing choke and made 210 barrels of oil. In another test with a 13/64th inch tubing choke the project flowed 130 barrels of oil in five hours.

The new producer is 467 feet from south and west lines of the north half of section 202, block 97, H&TC survey.

DRILLING PERMIT ASKED FOR SCURRY WILDCAT

Burdell Oil company and others, have filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting a permit to drill a 7,200-foot rotary wildcat to test the Canyon reef in central-northwest Scurry county ten miles northwest of Snyder.

The venture No. 1 Eula Burt Neller, will be 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 340, block 97, H&TC survey, and one and one-half miles west of the nearest producer on the west side of the North Snyder field.

Drilling is scheduled to begin immediately.

NEW VENTURE SLATED IN ECTOR COUNTY FIELD

J. C. Barnes of Midland is to start operations at once on his No. 1 C. H. C. Anderson, which is to be a quarter of a mile stepout from production on the east side of the Yarborough & Allen field in southwest Ector county.

The venture will be 660 feet from south and west lines of the south half of the northwest quarter of section 22, block B-14, psl survey.

It is scheduled to dig to 10,800 feet to test the Ellenburger.

POTENTIAL TEST SET ON SCURRY WILDCAT

Lion Oil company No. 1 Strom, southwest Scurry county wildcat one mile west of the Diamond-M field, is due to take a potential test and complete from pay at 6,686-6,710 feet through casing perforations.

Operator was connecting to tank battery and it will likely have its completion test run by the end of the week.

The prospector topped the Canyon reef at 6,686 feet on an elevation of 2,346 feet, which makes it 100 feet low to the closest producers from that formation in the Diamond-M field.

The probable extender is 662 feet from south and 1,836 feet from west lines of section 198, block 97, H&TC survey. That makes it 11 miles southwest of Snyder.

A drillstem test at 6,680-6,705 feet before the casing was run, showed flowing oil at the rate of 25 barrels per hour, natural.

TESTING TO CONTINUE ON SCURRY EXPLORATION

C. L. Norsworthy, jr., and associates, No. 1 Feldman, central-east Scurry county Ellenburger exploration, ten miles east of Snyder, and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 63, block 3, H&TC survey, is moving off rotary drilling rig and will move in a portable unit to continue testing.

This venture kicked off Friday night, after having been shutin for an extended period and flowed drilling mud, wash water and some

Society Figure Is Found Shot

HOUSTON, Oct. 23. (AP)— Allen Thomas Sturges, 26, New York cafe society figure, clung to life today many hours after he was found shot through the head in a bedroom here.

A hospital attendant said at 6 p.m. that his condition was critical.

Homicide Detectives J. D. Irwin and Frank L. Murray said last night that Sturges attempted suicide. Three notes were found in his pocket.

For hours before police say the shot was fired—at 5 p.m., CST, yesterday — the New York Journal-American called the Associated Press in New York and reported it had been tipped that Sturgess had tried suicide. The Journal-American declined to say where the tip came from.

Houston detectives said Brownsville officers were seeking Sturges on two felony warrants. Sheriff Boynton Fleming said at Brownsville that Sturges was charged with removing a mortgaged automoile from Cameron county and with check swindling.

Court records in Los Angeles showed that Allen T. Sturges was fined $500 in 1945 after pleading guilty to robbing the home of actor Bruce Cabot of $1,500 in jewelry on March 15 of that year. He was placed on five years probation and ordered to leave California.

Sturges was found in the bedroom of pretty Miss Marion Yturria, 23, employed by an airline here. Officers said he apparently broke into the house in Miss Yturria's absence. Miss Yturria said she met Sturges only last Tuesday.

One of the three notes was addressed to Miss Yturria. It expressed endearments and regrets. A second named his mother as Mrs. A. T. Sturges of New York, stated he was born at Midland Park, N. J., March 3, 1923, and that he was "known by all newspapers in New York."

The third note purported to be a will, leaving all of Sturges' possessions to his mother and directing that his body be cremated.

The family attorney in New York City, Elmer M. Olson, said Sturges' mother is Mrs. E. N. Taveniere, widow of a former New York banker. Olson said Mrs. Taveniere is seriously ill at her home in New Jersey.

The family is not wealthy, the attorney said, but was well known during Taveniere's lifetime. He added that Sturges had no income from his own father, who died some years ago.

Visiting With The South Plains Press

Lubbock's Parallel Parking Snags Petersburg Newsman

By TOM DAVIS
Avalanche Staff Writer

Parallel parking in Lubbock is the latest problem to confront J. L. Suits, editor of The Petersburg Journal, who often professes to be baffled in this mechanical age. He writes:

"Our neighboring city of Lubbock is taking on city airs, you have to park your car parallel when you visit that town instead of heading it in slounchwise.

"That might be a good idea where a town has more than its share of reckless drivers, but will be hard on the business of fender and body shops.

"As far as we are concerned, we will have to stop and park our car at Idalou or New Deal and catch the bus on in. We can't park parallel, lived in the country too long we suppose where there is plenty of space.

"The last time we tried it when we visited Lubbock we got all tangled up with the car behind us and it took the whole fire department to untangle us, pick our car up and set it over next to the curb. Nice fellows, those fire boys," Suits concluded.

Mr. Suits might be glad to know that there are still a number of "slounchwise" parking places left in Lubbock. And if he can't find one, the fire department is still available.

Crosbyton Coach Busy

The busiest man in Crosbyton seems to Fred Cunningham, football coach and high school principal, and it was W. H. Curry, editor of The Crosbyton Review, who "fixed" Cunningham by printing a letter sent to the newspaper by Cunningham's brother. The letter to Curry:

"Dear Sir: Having a brother coaching the football team in your city and finding him too busy to write, am enclosing $1 for which I would like to have a few issues of your paper during the sports season. Thanks, Frank Cunningham, Lamont, Okla."

Decline In Meat Prices Foreseen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.(INS)— The government, in a special study of the livestock situation, tonight predicted lower meat prices for the American public next year.

The Agriculture department forecast that most of the price decline will be in pork, with lesser drops in beef and veal.

Prospects of a record peacetime pork supply next year—seven to ten per cent above 1949—are expected to give the main impetus to lower prices.

Peak Pig Crop Seen

The department predicted a peak peacetime pig crop for next spring —five to ten per cent above this year—and forecast a jump of nine to 13 per cent in this fall's hog output.

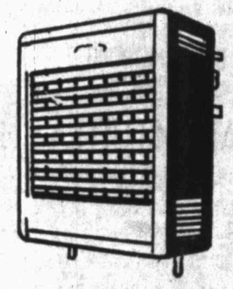

This fall's crop will be marketed next spring and spring production will appear in retail stores next autumn.

These factors also are expected to be chiefly responsible for lowering beef and veal prices through competitive influences.

The department said that it believes the nation's retail beef and veal supply will remain at just about the present level during 1950.

The agency expects that there will be more cattle on farms next Jan. 1 than at the same time this year. But agriculture experts figure that the ranchers will postpone slaughter of the increase in their herds until a later date.

Elsie
And The
LOOKING CLUB
By Mailing
4 Chocolate Milk Caps . . . Plus 10c

Elsie the Cow, Queen of two World's Fairs, immortalized in stone, in film and in pigment, is now the charming heroine of a book all her own!
The story was done by Monte Sohn, the illustrations by Walter Early, both of whom have had considerable to do with the development of Elsie as an international character.

New Discovery Well Completed In Ector; Scurry Test Staked

oil during a two hour and 45 minute period.

Net amount of new oil recovered was five barrels. It came from open hole between the bottom of the 5½-inch casing, cemented at 7,340 feet, and the total depth at 7,357 feet. That zone had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

Informed sources say that the water coming from the above zone is all wash water, and they say that no indications of sulphur water has been developed.

An electric log survey showed top of the Ellenburger to be at 7,30* feet. Top of that horizon had been picked from samples to be at 7,310 feet.

As soon as the portable unit is moved in, it is planned to perforate the pipe between 7,308 feet and 7,340 feet, and try to make an oil well from that zone.

The venture developed considerable free oil, and had no water on a drill stem test which covered that section, as well as the 17 feet of the hole which is open now at the bottom.

DEEPENING OPERATIONS UNDER WAY ON WELL

Deepening was in progress at L. M. Lockhart of Corpus Christi, No. 1 B. M. McHaney, south of production on the southeast side of the North Snyder field.

It was making hole past 6,727 feet in shale and was continuing to drill ahead.

It is contracted to drill to 7,000 feet to explore the Canyon lime reef.

The drillsite is 467 feet from north and west lines of section 177, block 3, H&GN survey and four miles north of Snyder.

Another project in the same area, Castleman & O'Neill and others, No. 3 Huckabee, was making further progress. It was making hole past 6,596 feet in shale.

Projected depth is 6,800 feet.

Location is 900 feet from south and 467 feet from west lines of the northeast quarter of section 160, Block 3, H&GN survey.

NEW LOCATION STAKED IN SCURRY COUNTY

The Superior Oil company has staked location and is to start drilling imediately at its No. 7 F. M. Addison, contracted 7,500-foot exploration in the Sharon-Ridge-Canyon field of southwest Scurry county.

The drillsite will be located 2,033.7 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 122, block 25, H&TC survey.

That makes it 12 miles southwest of Snyder.

Rotary tools will be used.

NORTH SNYDER WELL COMPLETED AFTER TEST

Sunray Oil corporation has completed its No. 5 - B R. B. Brown in the North Snyder field for a daily potential of 1,200 barrels of 43.5-gravity oil, natural with no water. Gas-oil ratio was 901-1.

Flowing tubing pressure was 500 pounds and the flowing casing presure was 550 pounds.

The flow was from open hole between the 5 1/2 inch oil string cemented at 6,640 feet and the total depth at 6,797 feet in the Canyon reef.

This new source of oil is 2,081 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 21, block 1, J. P. Smith survey.

NATURAL FLOWING PRODUCER COMPLETED

Castleman & O'Neill, J. R. Hunter and Walter Duncan have completed their No. 2 C. W. Huckabee as a natural flowing producer from the Canyon reef, one location east of the nearest producers from that formation on the east side of the North Snyder field of north central Scurry county.

It made a 24-hour calculated potential of 2,708.5 barrels of 43-gravity oil, and no water. The 24-hour potential was based on a six-hour flow of 667.25 barrels, through a three-quarter inch choke.

The production was from pay between 6,670-850 feet in the Canyon. Top of the pay and top of the reef was at 6,664 feet on an elevation of 2,422 feet. That made it 491 feet low to the operators' No. 1 Huckabee, one of the highest wells so far completed in the North Snyder field.

Flowing casing pressure was 900 pounds and the flowing tubing presure was 525 pounds.

The new producer is 660 feet from east and 467 feet from north lines of the northeast quarter of section 160, block 3, H&GN survey.

DRILLING CONTINUES ON SCURRY COUNTY TEST

Olson, Glasco, Chambers and Zonne, No. 1 Green, central Scurry county wildcat, two miles north of Snyder and two and three quarter miles south and east of the closest oil wells from the Canyon lime reef on the southeast side of the North Snyder field, was making hole below 6,966 feet in dry Pennsylvanian shale.

This venture, located 660 feet from north and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 157, block 3, H&GN survey, topped the Canyon reef at 6,928 feet on an elevation of 2,447 to give it a datum of minus 4,481 feet.

A drillstem test was taken at 6,917-37 feet. The tool was open 15 minutes. Recovery was 15 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water.

A core at 6,937-47 feet recovered only dry shale.

The venture is apparently to dig ahead until it finds and tests the Strawn lime section of the Pennsylvanian.

POTENTIAL TEST ON COCHRAN WELL SLATED

Lion Oil company No. 1 Masten, central Cochran county development, three-quarters of a mile southwest of the closest completed producers in the Levelland field, and 440 feet from north and east lines of labor 12, league 132, Carson county school land survey, is preparing to take potential test and complete.

This project tested the open hole in the San Andres-Permian at 4,943-5,025 feet, with 6,000 gallons of acid.

After the acid load and residue had been recovered the well flowed an average of 9.36 barrels of 29 gravity oil, through a one-half inch tubing choke. There was no water.

Mrs. Jessie M. Smith, 83, Dies At Daughter's Home

Mrs. Jessie M. Smith, 83, of Ames, Iowa, died about 2:30 a. m. Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. G. Harbaugh, 2411 Thirtieth, after an illness of several weeks.

She had been in the home of the daughter here about a week. She had been a resident of Iowa all her life.

Sanders Funeral home announced that the body was sent by train Sunday afternoon to Zearing, Iowa, her former home, for funeral services and burial. Complete funeral arrangements had not been made Sunday, Sanders said.

Survivors include the daughter; four sons, Leslie M. and Donald Smith of Des Moines, Iowa, James L. Smith of Sioux City, Iowa., and Robert H. Smith of Zearing, Iowa; and one sister, Mrs. Queen Bank of Pomona, Calif.

Graveside Services Slated Today For Abernathy Infant

ABERNATHY, Oct. 23. (Spl.)— Graveside services are to be read at 2 p. m. Monday in Abernathy cemetery for Dale Glenn Holt, two-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Holt of Abernathy, who died at 1 p. m. today in St. Mary's hospital in Lubbock.

Rev. George Turrentine, pastor of the First Methodist church of Abernathy, will officiate at the service for the infant. Rix Funeral home of Lubbock will direct burial.

Survivors in addition to the parents include the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Loma Chapman of Skellytown; and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Edna Holt of Abernathy.

South Plains Press

paper was established on Oct. 11.

Even with the hustle-bustle of starting a new paper, Crow is somehow finding time to write a column for the front page, naming it "From the Crow's Nest." On this and the paper, Crow derserves a bit of congratulatory chirping. A personal column is often the spark that makes a newspaper both interesting and worthwhile.

Somewhat weary after putting the first edition to bed, Crow wrote:

"I thought all the editor had to do was drink coffee, look over what the other fellows in the shop were doing, shoot the breeze with the boys. In fact, I thought it was a high-class loafing job. I am all wrong. It is a big job, and I am wondering if I am capable of filling the shoes of an editor. I think I would make a good printer's devil."

LAFB Paper Named

While on the subject of newly established newspapers, a name has been found for the weekly publication at the Lubbock Air Force base. They call it The Roundup, a name suggested by Miss Margie Bridges, civilian employe at the base.

Brownfield's Harvest Festival was a big show, but Editor Charles Didway of The Brownfield News had just one little complaint:

"For weeks we'd been telling our readers that four jet-propelled fighter planes would be here for Wednesday's Harvest Festival, but only two showed up. Four was the original agreement, but two would have been enough if they had staged a half way descent demonstration. We sincerely hope that the Air Force doesn't make a practice of doing things by halves. It would be bad for the country."

Lockney P-TA Commended

Congratulations went to the Lockney grade school Parent-Teacher association in the editorial columns of The Lockney Beacon when Edgar R. Hays, editor, commended their decision to eliminate games of chance from their school's Hallowe'en carnival.

"We are sure the sponsors of these games in past carnivals meant no harm in sponsoring them but it is fairly obvious that games of chance, where a participant must pay his money in order to have a chance to win more money, teaches gambling and certainly most students will learn more about that than they need to without being taught it in school affairs."

Funeral Services Are Held For Young Lubbock Resident

Funeral services for John L. Williams, 23, son of Mrs. Margaret H. Williams, of 1918 Seventh, were held in First Presbyterian church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday with Rev. William F. Rogan, director of Presbyterian student work, officating.

Interment followed in East Lawn Memorial Park cemetery under direction of Bryan McDonald and Son Funeral home.

Young Williams died at 9:10 p.m. Friday in Lubbock Memorial hospital, where he was taken after having been found unconscious at his home at 2 o'clock that afternoon.

He served in the infantry from September, 1944, until March, 1949, and had been enrolled in the University of Texas as a business student.

Americans 'Virtually Imprisoned' By Reds In Manchurian Port City

By SARAH PARK
INS Staff Correspondent

SEOUL, Oct. 23 — Two American consular officials newly arrived from the Russian-controlled Manchurian part city of Dairen today asserted that American residents are "virtually imprisoned" within the city limits.

The Dairen consul, Paul Paddock, 41 of Marshalltown, Ia., and his vice-consul, Culver Gleysteen of Jenkinton, Pa., arrived in the South Korean port of Inchon aboard a British ship today.

Red Treatment Described

After their arrival they told a news conference of foreign correspondents in Seoul that the Russian treatment of Americans in Dairen might best be described as "harassment."

Both men had been arrested by the Russians, Paddock once and Gleysteen on two occasions. Both were released within a short time.

Paddock said that he and Gleysteen had not left the Darien city limits since a year ago in August. They arrived in Dairen in June, 1948 on an eight-months assignment but said the Russians had never granted visas for their replacement.

Nor, they said, would the Russians grant visas for Vladivostock, the only port from which ships may leave for Dairen.

Two Deliveries Received

Paddock said that they had received only two courier deliveries from the time of their arrival.

The two American officials said that in the last five months they have not felt free to leave the two-mile square area within Darien which includes the consulate office, residence and business districts.

Paddock also said they had never received written communications from either Maj. Gen. Levushkin, chief civil administrator of Darien nor Col. Pashin, his deputy, during their Darien stay.

Paddock said his interviews with the Russians were never "discussions." He said the two men would read previously prepared answers to Paddock and that would end the conference.

Official Arrested By Reds

Gleysteen, after lunching with American Ambassador John J. Muccio and correspondents at the embassy residence, told of how he had been arrested by Russian police in April of 1949 and held incommunicado for four hours. He was charged with trying to signal seaward with jeep headlights although Gleysteen said he "wasn't near a jeep." He was taken to the Russian commandatura and questioned by a young officer who was "obviously" a MVD member.

Gleysteen was forbidden use of a phone to contact either Paddock or the Soviet consulate but was finally released.

Paddock said that two weeks later they both were arrested on the same spot for not having proper passes for the area. They were released that afternoon.

Political Aspects By-Passed

Paddock shied away from discussing the political and economic aspects of Dairen, promising to do so at another news conference tomorrow.

Paddock said that Americans are forbidden to enter nearby Port Arthur, ceded to Russia by a treaty with China, and that Russians tailed them constantly in Dairen. The same treaty gave Russia a right to a voice in the control of Dairen.

Crewmen aboard the British ship said that the atmosphere of fear that existed in Dairen was evident even during their 10-hour stay. They were forbidden to leave their ship and all their cameras were held by the Russians while they were in port.

Restrictions Still Exist

Paddock said that restrictions on Americans and other foreigners were in existence when he arrived and these remain in force but "irregularities" increased in Dairen as the need for careful relations by the Russians with the Chinese Nationalists decreased.

He said one Chinese clerk employed by the Americans was arrested by the Russians five days before the consulate officially closed Sept. 21.

Arriving aboard the ship with the State department officials were Mrs. Anna Slinkina, 58-year-old Russian who is bound for Los Angeles to live with her son, George Mahoff, engineer at Douglas Aircraft Co., and Mrs. Valentina Schumann. Mrs. Schumann, a German, is en route via the U. S. to Germany to join her husband.

Woman Estimates Number

Paddock refused to guess how many Russians are in Dairen but Mrs. Slinkina, who has lived in Manchuria 41 years, said that there are between 4,000 and 5,000.

She added that there are more Chinese police in Dairen than Russian but other passengers said that Russian police police the Chinese police.

One crew member told of an incident when a Chinese crewman attempted to converse over the ship's side with a Dairen Chinese. Dairen residents were not permitted to approach closer than 20 feet of the vessel. The crewman said that a Russian guard whizzed up to the pier and shouted to the Dairen Chinese to leave the pier.

Other Ships Present

Two small Russian and one North Korean ships were reported in the port at the same time as the British vessel, which Paddock asked not be identified by name.

Paddock and Gleysteen were accompanied by two black Mongol dogs named "Angry" and "Sambo." They said they obtained news only through the radio and they commended the "Voice of America" program.

Paddock said the thing he missed most was "American girls" and he said he was surprised to hear that film star Jimmie Stewart was married. Bachelor Paddock said: "Hmmm, we're both the same age."

Paddock refused to make further comment on conditions in Dairen until a press conference later in the day in Seoul.

Mrs. Schumann said that about 70 Germans remain in Dairen as well as a few hundred Japanese technicians.

Hotel Bought By Father Divine To Stay Open Under New Rules

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 23 (INS)—The Newark hotel purchased by Father Divine will remain open to transients but there will be a new set of house rules.

John Germain, a spokesman for the cult leader, said all cigaret and cigar machines have been taken out of the hotel and no smoking will be permitted.

The bar was ordered closed and no liquor may be carried into the hotel by the guests.

Followers of the cult leader paid $550,000 in cash for the hotel yesterday.

Nightgowns Blamed For Death Of 265 Children During Year

LONDON, Oct. 23. (INS)—Nightgowns have been blamed for the deaths of 265 children during the past year.

The fire protection survey announced that the nightgowns caught fire when the children were too close to a grate or heater and the children burned to death.

It recommended pajamas instead of the more voluminous nightgowns and said wool is a safer material than cotton.
