Junction Drops League Opener To Mason Here

Loose Playing in Eighth Inning Responsible For Loss

Revealing a sad lack of practice and team work, Manager Ches Goodwin's baseball club lost the opening game of the Hill Country Baseball League with Mason here Sunday afternoon by the one-sided score of 22 to 9.

Until the eighth inning, Junction played fair ball with the exception of errors made by the first and second sackers. At the opening of the eighth frame, Junction was leading by the score of 9 to 7 and it looked like Babb, pitcher, had the game well in hand, but costly errors by his teammates coupled with two timely hits by the Mason bats, sent him to the showers, and West was called to the mound. Failing to stop the Mason batsmen, he was pulled, and Dunbar went in as pitcher. He also failed to baffle the Mason sluggers, and Buster was sent in and finished up the game.

Blackburn, on short was the stellar performer for Junction, fielding accurately and driving out three hits, one of them good for three bases. L. E. Dunbar, in right field, played a good game and Camp on third, looked good, getting two hits and two walks out of six times at bat. Motley, catching, turned in a good game, pounding out a two beggar when it counted.

Mason got 21 hits during the game and Junction got nine. Both teams made numerous errors, which are easily accounted for this early in the season.

While the Junction team did not look exactly like a ball club Sunday, it showed that a team is in the making and with some stiff practice, should end up a few notches above the cellar in the current pennant race.

The team will journey to Fredericksburg Sunday, and will meet Pontotoc on the local field Sunday, April 19.

A good crowd witnessed the game Sunday. With the exception of the eighth inning, it was a good ball game, and fans got their money's worth.

Manager Goodwin is getting his team settled down to serious workouts this week, and may show a few surprises Sunday and beat Fredericksburg.

Barbecue Pit Blazes Early Friday Morning

Fire-proof Buildings Prove Valuable as Wind Blows Flames High

About 8:30 o'clock Friday morning, the barbecue pit of the City Market burst into flames when some grease caught on fire. A Mexican woman noticed the blaze and turned in the fire alarm.

A brisk north wind fanned the flames which leaped higher than the buildings. Had it not been for the fire-proof buildings a similar disaster which occurred in 1927 might have resulted.

Plans are for a two weeks camp for Boy Scouts, starting May 24, and following up by a three weeks' camp of Girls' Scouts of the district.

Negotiations are now in progress by the Kimble County Chamber of Commerce trying to secure a suitable location for the camp. Ranchers, who have suitable places on the Llano River and desiring to see this proposition put over, should get in touch with the Chamber of Commerce immediately.

Automobile Transfer Law Change Effective

A new automobile transfer law, which is effective now, states that applications for transfer must be made on the same day that the trade is made, according to Sheriff Frank Patterson, tax collector for Kimble county.

New rates include that if the transfer is made within 10 days after the trade costs 10 cents; if made between 10 and 20 days, costs are $2.50; and if made after 20 days costs are $5.00.

No cars may be transferred now unless the current year's license is paid. The license receipt must accompany application for transfer, Mr. Patterson concluded.

Application blanks for Bills of sale must be made out in triplicate form under the new law.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Cunningham and Mr. Henry McCallum of Austin, are guests at Kimble Courts while making zoological tests in Kimble county. It is of interest to note that Mr. McCallum is the son of Secretary of State, Mrs. A. N. McCallum.

A Successful Man

(By Mabel Hodges)
Mr. J. A. Heyman was born in Monroeville, Ohio. He attended school in an old country school house where the only equipment was a blackboard and some seats. Mr. Heyman does not remember the number of teachers. Boys then played baseball, marbles, and most everything boys play now except football.
Mr. Heyman earned his first money working for W. H. and H. J. Wilson in Junction. He started training for his present position in Junction, and later continued his training at Baylor School of Pharmacy at Dallas. The lessons of life Mr. Heyman has learned are to be diligent, honest, and upright. He says an education is necessary for the present generation because they will be better qualified for the walks of life.
Mr. Heyman says, "To be successful, get down to hard work, and give it constant attention. There is no such thing as luck even if people think there is." According to this formula, to be successful, hard work is necessary.
Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles concerning Junction business men. Watch for them each week.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always a reason. Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.
That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is a need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A cooled tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

Fletcher's CASTORIA

Dr. L. E. Standifer Addresses Rotarians Thursday On Snakes

At the regular luncheon of the Rotary Club last Thursday Dr. L. E. Standifer addressed the club on a technical study of snakes, classes and the effect and cure of their bites. Excerpts of the address are given below:

"Many of our harmless snakes such as the garter snake and black snake belong to the Colubrine family.

"The Cobra belongs to the sub-family Elapinae and is best known by a neck-like expansion or hood. The only poisonous Colubrine snakes in the United States are the headsnake, often called the Florida Coral snake, and the sonoran coral.

"The headsnake is black with about 17 broad crimson bands which bands are bordered with yellow.

"Although small, they are very venomous. The upper jaw has anteriorly grooved fangs, which appendages are not present in the non-poisonous coral snakes, these latter having teeth in the lower jaw so that the wound shows four rows of punctures instead of two rows and one larger puncture on each side to mark the entrance of the fangs.

"In Asia there are many important poisonous snakes; the cobra, the King Cobra and the Kraits.

"The Viperidae which are characterized by a triangular head and tubular poison fangs are the most important poisonous snakes in America. The rattlesnake, the copperhead, and the water moccasin are widely distributed in the United States.

"There are many harmless snakes which more or less resemble these "Bit Vipers" as the rattlers, moccasins and copperheads are called. This term refers to the deep hole or pit found on the side of the head between the nostril and eye. It is a blind sac.

"The poison fangs are grooved or perforated and connected with the poison glands which resemble salivary glands and may be almost an inch in length in large snakes. The tongue is slender and forked and is a tactile organ.

"The jaws are remarkable for their great extensibility, not only vertically, but laterally.

"As the fangs are directed backward it is necessary for the snake when striking to open widely the jaws and bend back the neck. The fangs are then brought forward and erected by the spheno-ptyergoid muscles. The snake bite is a combination of bite and blow. The functional fangs of colubrine snakes, however, are not mobile.

"In addition to the possession of the pit, these vipers have a more or less triangular head and in particular a single row of large scales on the undersurface posterior to the vent, while the harmless snakes show an elongated oval head and two rows of large ventral scales posterior to the vent.

"In examining the wound of a snake the two punctures of the fangs indicate the bite of a poisonous snake. If these fang puncture points are far apart, it shows that a large snake, and probably one capable of injection of a greater amount of venom has given the bite.

"When a snake strikes the fangs move from the horizontal to the erect position, the mouth being widely open. When the fangs enter, the jaws close and pressure is exerted on the poison glands so that the venom pours out.

"Cobra and krait bites produce more or less similar symptoms such as paralysis of articulation with nausea and vomiting and later paralysis of the respiratory apparatus. There is only an insignificant reaction at the point of the bite.

"In rattlesnake bites, there is marked pain at the site of the wound with much swelling and hemorrhagic infiltration. The swelling and petechial mottling spread up and down the limb from the point of entrance of the venom. Cold sweats, nausea, weak heart, and syncope are common."

LONDON LOCALS

(By G. Lewis)

The body of John W. Adams, a former citizen of London, who died at Corona, California, arrived at London March 31. The funeral services were held at the community hall, and were conducted by Rev. Lewis Cooper. A large crowd attended the services. After the funeral rites were completed, the body was taken in charge by the Masonic Order and was removed to the Saline Cemetery where it was laid to rest by the Masons, near the last resting place of his father, the late F. M. Adams. Thus it is, one by one, we are called to go to the clime from whence no traveler returns. And as the tree falls, thus it must lie, we should with all diligence look forward to going in order that it may be with us.

Our delegates to Austin in attendance on the Highway No. 10 hearing, could not make a very favorable report on their return. It appears that there had been a meeting on March 3, on which date the commission had agreed to redesignate this very important highway and route it by Menard. This had been done without any notice to those interested in the former designation, therefore we consider it very unfair and we feel that this matter should not be considered closed yet. And we feel that it is not closed as the old designation is favored by all towns from Ft. Worth to Junction.

Miss Victoria Brewer was missed from school Friday being absent on that day having been called to Junction to assist in giving examinations for the Teachers certificates. Those taking the examination from London school were Mr. William Dick, Mr. Frank Wootan, Denman Ake, and we are also informed that Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Puckett applied for teachers certificates.

Mr. Frank Thurber is now a sheep man having purchased a nice flock of young ewes last week. Frank has been in the goat business for several years.

Mr. E. I. Cummins wants it known that he is a fisherman. He was in early Monday morning telling of catching two nice fish the night before. He insisted on the writer going to take dinner with him, but he knew we could not go. The fine fish he caught may have measured 10 or 12 inches or more. He was describing how wide and flat they were across the back which suggested it might have been turtles he caught instead of catfish.

Our school election was held Saturday and resulted in the reelection of Rex Lavelle and Bill Amon. The new members elected were H. C. Pearl and Howard Horn. Two better men could not have been chosen. Each are conservative and progressive, and when it comes to finance they are economists. The board of trustees when these new ones qualify are as follows: Joe Hardesty, C. E. Lambert, south of town; Bill Amon and Howard Horn, in town; Rex Lavelle and H. C. Pearl and C. F. Bannowsky east of town. A good selection as to location and character of men. With this board of trustees and our present board of teachers re-elected for another term, we can look forward for continued success. No member of London community need feel any timidity in soliciting pupils out of this community to attend our school, who want to take advantage of better school and higher grades.

It should be the constant purpose of every teacher in our school to see that each pupil is thorough in all his work. Thoroughness should be the watchword of the school, because upon this depends the reputation of London School and every teacher in it. If this school sends out boys and girls who cannot stand the test, the reputation of the school and its teachers fall together and they should. If each teacher demands thoroughness in class work, they can expect it on examination day, then when your boys and girls go out before an unsympathetic world they do so with confidence knowing they can stand on their own merits. This is the kind that gives a school its reputation. Let all adopt the word "thoroughness" as the slogan of our school and not accept any thing less than it in any department or anything relative to school or matters pertaining to school. Let's demand it of patrons, of our trustees, of our teachers, and they in turn of each pupil. If we will do this, we can in a few years build up a reputation we may all be proud of. The "get-by" system does not get any one anywhere except into trouble later when we have to face the real thing with thoroughness.

N.Y. Woman Lost 14 Pounds of Fat

One 85 Cent Bottle of Kruschen Salts Did It

"I am starting on my second bottle of Kruschen Salts and am real pleased with results. I take it for reducing and so far have lost 14 pounds and I think it is doing wonders for me. I do not feel so tired evenings when I get home from work."

A generous bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks costs but 85 cents at Heyman Drug Store or any drugstore in America—take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—cup out pastry and fatty meats—light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—that will help Kruschen take off your fat.

Before the bottle is empty surplus fat is leaving you—indigestion changes to activity—you'll feel younger—eyes will brighten—step grows spry. Millions know this—you ought to know it! Kruschen Salts is the ideal treatment for constipation, indigestion, headaches, nervousness and acidity.

Take Kruschen every morning—it's the little daily dose that does it—if not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back!

CHURCH OF CHRIST HAS GOOD MEETING SUNDAY

Last Sunday was an unusually interesting day with the church in Junction. As had been announced, the Abilene Christian College Quartette, in company with President Batsel Baxter, was present and rendered a good program at 3 p. m. A large audience was present, and the quiet attention given indicated its interest and pleasure in the program. Some congregational singing interspersed the quartette numbers. President Baxter spoke on Christian education work at the college. In the evening Mr. Baxter delivered a timely sermon on the value of proper tanning of children. The quartette also sang two selections, appropriate for the occasion. A good audience was present.

The morning services were well attended. A number of people came from Llano, London, Roosevelt and Rocksprings for the services.

Ranchman's Barn Burned Thursday

Loss of $4,000 Is Sustained By A. S. Parker, Harper Rancher

A loss in excess of $4,000 was sustained by A. S. Parker, prominent rancher of the Devil's river region, when a big barn on his ranch was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday evening. The origin of the fire was not known but it is supposed that it was started by a mouse. Included in the loss was 200 pounds of wool, 1,000 pounds of mohair, and considerable feedstuff.

Mr. Parker was out in the pasture when the fire started and Mrs. Parker discovered the blaze in an early stage. She kept it under control nearly 30 minutes, but without assistance she couldn't keep it down and it finally spread to other parts of the barn. No insurance was carried on the property—Harper Herald.

Doped Cigarette Aids in Robbery

Samaritan Complains Cigarette Tasted of Violets, Then Overcome

UVALDE.—Being doped by a hitch hiker and his wife whom he had given a "lift," and who later stole his automobile and all his money, was the experience of B. P. Haynie of this city near Midland this week. Haynie had offered the pair a ride and after getting in the car, the man insisted that Haynie smoke a cigarette.

Haynie remarked that the cigarette "tasted like violets" and was told that it had been in the woman's purse near some perfume. When Haynie recovered, he was in a Midland hospital. Everything had been removed from his pockets, his car had been stolen and he was thrown out on the roadside where he was later found and taken to the hospital.

HEREFORD NAMED 'WINTER SUNSHINE'

Many times you have marvelled at the sheer beauty of the names the breeders give to their pure-bred Jerseys and Herefords and such like. They give those animals names as pretty, even prettier, than the names the Pullman company tacks onto its cars.

Beau Gallant, Janice's Pride Prairie Dell's Beauty, on and on scores and thousands of scores, those picturesque names run. But it remained for Hon. S. E. McKnight of Carrizo Springs and Sonora to slap a name on a Hereford that stands out in this region like a windmill in the flat brush country.

Down at Carrizo Springs recently when he pulled off that great auction, old Sam put up one young Hereford which bore the salubrious name of "Winter Sunshine." Old Sam, or somebody in his outfit, sure had a happy thought when he tied that name onto that young Hereford.

Write that name down on the barn wall where you can see it often.

HOW TO REMOVE SCORCH STAINS FROM CLOTH

A simple scorch stain can often be removed by moistening the spot with water and placing in the sun. For more serious cases on white cotton or linen hydrogen peroxide may be used in this way: moisten a white cotton cloth with it, place over the stain, cover with a dry cloth and iron with a medium hot iron. Do not allow the iron to come in contact with the fabric after it is moistened with peroxide or with the moist cloth used to cover over it. The iron may leave rust stains on the garment if care is not exercised.

THE BLUEBONNET

Years ago when the Indians roamed the plains of Texas, hunted in the mountains of Texas, and fished in the rivers of Texas, the Great Spirit was filled with wrath against his people. The Great Spirit sent a famine which swept the vast State, which was not yet a state. The Indians prayed to the Great Spirit for relief. Their animals were dying; and they, themselves were dying, even the strongest of them.

At last, the Great Spirit, in his compassion said he would terminate the famine if the most sinless of the Indians would sacrifice his life. Now, one of the maidens, who was fair to see, and the purest of them all, asked that she be sacrificed. Thus it was the bluebonnet came to Texas. The day she climbed the hill to the altar, her blue bonnet fell from her shoulders. In the morning the hills were covered with vivid blue flowers in the shape of small bonnets sploshed with a drop of blood red. Negro preacher: "Bretheren, when yo' hears Garbiel sound his horn, yo' wants to be ready to jump." Listener: "Mah goodness! Am he comin' in a motor car?"

PIONEERS---THEN AND NOW

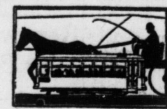

Not so many years ago, hardy pioneers, attracted by the richness, beauty and character of West Texas, halted their ox-drawn "covered wagons" in this section of the nation's last frontier, and sensing, perhaps, its future greatness, made it their home. Wrestling their livelihood from the virgin soil, these sturdy Empire-builders laid the foundations for our present high standard of living, our progressive cities, substantial industries, beautiful homes and alert citizenry.

In a comparable manner, the West Texas Utilities Company—pioneering the widespread distribution of electric energy—has made possible, through the equalizing influence of dependable and inexpensive electric power, the intensive development of West Texas.

Just previous to the organization of the West Texas Utilities Company, the average residential cost per kilowatt-hour in this territory was 13 3/4 cents. Now, under the modern rate schedules of this company, it has been REDUCED TO 6 1/2 cents—A REDUCTION OF MORE THAN FIFTY PER CENT! During the year 1930, monthly residential consumption averaged fifty kilowatt-hours per customer. Under the present rate schedule of this company, the customer can increase his use of service to three times that amount and only increase his total bill by 10 cents a day. Before the organization of the West Texas Utilities Company, a similar increase above the normal average would have cost more than four times that amount, or more than 40 cents a day for the additional comfort or service now available for 10 cents! In other words, you can now use an abundance of service, knowing that the added comforts and conveniences possible in this manner will make only a small increase in your total cost.

The building of a transmission line system, which links scattered communities and widely separated rural homes into one unit served from strategically located main generating plants, was a revolutionary theory when the West Texas Utilities Company first pioneered in this territory. This system—in a territory as sparsely settled and undeveloped as the West Texas area of a few short years ago—has increased the quantity and quality of service, and at the same time reduced rates. Only a sincere faith in the future development of the territory has warranted this investment of many millions of dollars.

TAJ MAHAL GOES UP IN PARIS

Last the western world behold the most beautiful building ever erected by man—the Taj Mahal—which the millionaire maharajahs of India have arranged to reproduce in complete detail for the International Colonial and Overseas Exposition at Paris this summer. Here the Taj—a miracle in white marble—will take its place along with our Mount Venon, Cambodia's Angkor-Vi, and Madagascar's Hovanpae in the most picturesque architectural exhibition in history.

The fortune required to reproduce the Taj Mahal in Paris has been advanced by the Aga Khan, the maharajah of Kapurthala, and other Indian princes who have agreed that the famous mausoleum at Agra is the best example of the ancient art of Hindustan. The Taj Mahal has a history so poetic and charming as its graceful minarets. It was built between 1629 and 1650 A. D. at a cost of many millions of dollars at the order of the Shah Jehan, to commemorate his love for his favorite wife, Mumtaz-i-Mahal. The name of the mausoleum means, literally, "crown of Mahal."

Rotary Meeting Will Be Held in San Antonio

A unique feature in connection with the 47th District Rotary Conference in San Antonio April 27-28, will be the "House of Friendship," which will be maintained as social headquarters of the meeting. This place will be located near the convention hall.

With an attendance of more than 1,000 Rotarians in prospect from the 51 clubs embraced by the 47th district, the House of Friendship will serve as an informal meeting place where visitors and members of the host club can become better acquainted.

The House of Friendship will be the scene of an elaborate entertainment Sunday night when a version of the annual Grid-iron show, which has brought national fame to the Rotary Club of San Antonio, will be staged. Other diversions are planned for succeeding days.

An inspection of Randolph Field will be another feature of entertainment. Of particular interest to women accompanying their husbands to the conference is a tea to be given Monday afternoon, April 27, in the recently restored Spanish Governor's Palace on Main Plaza. Impressive ceremonies were held in San Antonio a few weeks ago at which time this historic old structure was dedicated by Patrick Cardinal Hayes of New York.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF FORD VALUE

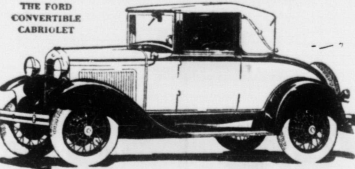

Bright, enduring RUSTLESS STEEL is used for many exposed bright metal parts of the Ford

WHEN YOU BUY a Ford you buy enduring beauty. The body finish is made to last for the life of the car and practically all exposed bright metal parts except the bumpers are made of enduring Rustless Steel.

This Rustless Steel has great tensile strength. It is the same bright metal all the way through. A salt test equivalent to forty years' service under the severest weather conditions failed to have any effect on its brilliance. It never requires polishing. All you do is wipe it with a damp cloth, as you do your windshield.

This is just one of many features that show the substantial worth of the Ford. In speed, comfort, safety, economy and long life—in the richness of its finish and upholstery—it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Call or phone for demonstration.

COUNTRYSIDE BROADCASTINGS

By Rev. G. W. Crofoot
Pastor Junction Presbyterian Church

"THE NEW CALL." Dr. Harry W. McLaughlin, Director of Country Church Work, Presbyterian Church, says: "I used to be a city pastor, but for 16 years served a congregation in open country. While I was in the city, the first warm days brought into my soul an urge something like that which comes to the migratory birds, that in the springtime starts them on wing for their Northern nesting place. I love the country; I love its fields, bedecked with a robe of God's wild flowers; its forests fragrant with the rich aroma of the herbage; its musical with the chant of waterfalls; its mountains, force one to look upward, pointing heavenward like giant fingers; I love the wild life of its lone glades, and the domestic animals which animate the fields and transmute the grass into food and clothing for the people of the earth. I love the simple, sincere ways of country folks, where community of interest and unity of purpose transcend the solidarity of the home in which boys and girls grow to manhood and womanhood, apprentices of their parents. It is here they learn the lessons of economy, integrity, independence, industry, initiative; it is here their bodies grow strong on an abundance of ample exercise and wholesome food suited to the stages of their lives, and yet they learn the secrets of sacrificial living. It is not strange that from such environment and such homes, if the religion of Jesus has found its rightful place, there should be born and reared the leadership of the race. Statistics show that men of wealth, captains of industry, statesmen, educational leaders have been mostly country born and reared."

RURAL LIFE SUNDAY this year falls on May 10th, Mother's Day, and it is very appropriate that they should be celebrated together, as the church and nation owe so much to the mothers in country churches from whose hearthstones they have sent out so many leaders in church and state to bless the world. It is appropriate that this be made Home-Coming Day, when sons and daughters from far and near shall come to wear the white or colored flower in memory of mothers gone or still remaining.

The children of the Junction Presbyterian Sunday School met at the manse on Saturday afternoon for an Easter Egg hunt. After counting the brightly-dyed eggs, the children gathered to hunt them. It was discovered that Annie Hooten of the Junior group and Master H. Reynolds of the younger group had found the largest number. They were awarded candy rabbits. The teachers and members served sandwiches, cookies and circus lemonade. During the refreshment period Mrs. Sarah Alice Witt, Primary teacher, was surprised by being presented with a cake, aglow with candles; and a large candy egg, the day being her birthday. Little Miss Myrtle Jennings was presented with a beautiful Easter basket by her teacher, Miss Witt, for being present and on time for three months, and bringing the largest number of new pupils to Sunday School.

THE CHILDREN of the Segovia community enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt prior to Sunday school on Sunday afternoon. The Segovia Sunday School will hold a social on Friday evening, April 10, at eight o'clock. If you enjoy a good time you are invited to attend this social.

THE REV. GEORGE TRAUDT of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary preached for the Junction Presbyterian Church

last Sunday morning and in the Segovia schoolhouse in the afternoon in the absence of the pastor, who is attending the Rural Church School conducted by Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee.

Painful Condition

"When I was just a girl at home" writes Mrs. B. F. Riggan, of Baird, Texas, "I took Cardui for cramping and pains in my side and back, and it helped me at that time.

"After I was married, I found myself in a weak, run-down condition. I suffered a great deal with my back, which was so weak it hurt me to get up or when I would stand on my feet. I fell off in weight.

"A friend of mine, seeing how bad I felt, advised me to take Cardui, which I did. By the time I had taken two bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in a long time."

PLANTING TIME-----

It is now planting time and with the good season in the ground, preparations for a diversified program should be planned by Kimble County farmers and ranchmen. The plan of planting good seed will bring good results according to experiments of county agents in all sections of the country. A garden should be planted by ranchmen, farmers and town people. Some space should be given to pinto beans as they grow well here. It is easy to can the surplus from the gardens which reduces the grocery bills during the winter months.

A good cow, one or two sows, and fifty or more hens on the farms and ranches, supplemented by a garden will produce a living at home and relieve the depression that we hear so much about. No family in the drouth stricken territory that followed a diversified program has applied to the government for aid.

Good seed planted on terraced land by progressive farmers who diversify will make prosperous and contented homes.

We shall be glad to co-operate with farmers in a diversified program for Kimble County.
