Keeping tab on our neighbors:

Lates freezes this spring took a heavy toll on wheat farms around Vernon, according to the Vernon Record.

"Some local farmers have reported severe freeze damage to wheat, indicating that combines likely won't go into some ungrazed fields," reported the Record.

Estimates of the overall local crop have ranged from 10 to 20 per cent. But it could be even higher."

The late freezes have caused a lot of misery all over, not the least of which may be found on lawns and in gardens. Lawn grasses were nipped and set back, giving weeds a chance to get the upper hand.

The Nashville Tennesseean reveals a new wrinkle in the campaign to save food for starving people in other lands:

"While Americans are being urged to eat less grain-fed meats in order to free grain for the world's hungry millions, a companion grain-saving measure has been suggested that hits at another American institution—alcohol. The idea is that a cutback in the billions of gallons of grain-based alocholic beverages—beer and most hard liquors—that Americans drink each year theoretically could provide food for millions of people.

"The leading proponent of this view, Dr. Jean Mayer of Harvard, one of the country's most prominent nutritionists, even had coined a slogan to raise the consciousness of imbibing Americans—'Have a Drink and Starve a Child'. . . . . .The total of 4.1 million tons of grain used in 1973 to produce alcoholic beverages is enough food for one year for more than 20 million people living on a minimum adequate diet."

Tommy Hart of the Big Spring Herald says that many of the people to whom you might tell secrets only seem muted. In reality, they're memorizing the story for use at a later time. Too many people, regrettably, listen with their mouths rather than their ears, Hart laments.

Texas Senate Okays Oil Spill Cleanup Fund

By LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN AP — Senators voted 23-2 today to set up a $5 million fund to clean up oil spills in Texas' coastal waters.

The sponsor, Sen. A.R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, said any expenditures from the fund would be reimbursed by the federal government or the person responsible for the spill.

A fine of up to $1,000 a day is provided for anyone failing to report a spill.

The Senate also passed and sent to the House a bill establishing procedures for applying for an offshore terminal license to handle oil-carrying supertankers. The vote was 25-0.

House members were expected to vote on a bill that would empower county commissioners, with local voter approval, to enact ordinances in unincorporated areas.

The measure was tentatively approved Thursday, 77-57, after amendments were added to guarantee that county ordinances would not apply within city limits. Another amendment required consent of the affected voters before a zoning ordinance could take effect.

City voters would take part, however, in a countywide election on whether to give the commissioners either general or restricted authority to pass ordinances.

"It's time the legislature brought the counties into the 20th Century," said a co-sponsor, Rep. Ray Hutchison, R-Dallas, who spoke of suburban "blight" outside of city-controlled areas.

Ordinances could not be passed regulating the use of agricultural or ranch land.

Rep. DeWitt Hale, D-Corpus Christi, spoke against the bill Thursday, saying it gave county governments "carte blanche" and was premature because a similar county ordinance provision is in the new constitution on which the voters will decide in November.

Rep. Lyndon Olson, D-Waco, said no county commissioners court would have lawmaking power unless the local voters granted it to them.

"You are not placing much faith in the folks that elect these commissioners ... If it is put to a vote of the folks, they can take care of their own problems," Olson said.

"I wish I could believe that .... They are not aware what they are voting for on many of these things," Hale said.

In other action Thursday, Senators passed and sent to the governor a bill prohibiting purchases of imported beef by state or local institutions—a step designed to help domestic ranchers.

They amended, then approved, 26-3, a bill cutting off state funds to pay county school superintendents in 39 counties. House members, who wanted the bill applied to 104 counties at a two-year saving of $6.8 million, refused to accept the change and called for a conference committee to negotiate a compromise.

Senators passed to the House, 23-6, a bill authorizing the Texas Secretary of State to send in inspectors to monitor elections and prohibiting intimidation of voters and poll watchers.

Wallace Will Seek Presidency

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace confirmed today that he plans to run for president in 1976.

He declined to say when the formal announcement will be made, although other sources said it probably will be early in June.

"As of now I intend to run," Wallace told The Associated Press.

His national campaign director, Charles Snider, said the governor has told friends he will seek the Democratic nomination.

Wallace was a candidate in 1972 before he was wounded in an assassination attempt at Laurel, Md., and left paralyzed in both legs.

At a news conference Thursday, the 55-year-old governor refused to confirm that he would definitely run again.

When he was asked today if he hadn't already made his decision, he replied "you can say that. As of now I intend to run."

Outstanding Senior Texan Due Honors

The Outstanding Senior Texan of 1975 will be recognized at the second annual Senior Citizens Day sponsored by the Sunrisers Kiwanis Club Saturday afternoon in the Scurry County coliseum.

Clubs and civic organizations were asked to make nominations for the Outstanding Texan award, and the man or woman chosen for the award will receive a certificate signed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe. Prizes will also be given for the oldest person present, the person having the greatest number of descendants and the person married the longest time. Everyone attending is asked to register upon arrival in order to be eligible for door prizes and the other prizes.

Registration will begin at 12:30 p.m. and entertainment and games will continue throughout the afternoon. A display of crafts is planned as well and everyone is invited to bring handmade items to be placed in the display.

South Vietnam Contacts Hanoi In Peace Bid

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — A South Vietnamese Cabinet minister has made direct contact with North Vietnamese officials for a negotiated peace settlement, and is trying to follow up the initiative with a trip to Hanoi, a high-ranking government official said tonight.

In Washington, Rep. William S. Broomfield of Michigan, the senior Republican on the House International Relations Committee, said he had learned from Ford administration officials that there is a "tacit understanding" that Communist-led forces will not attack Saigon until at least Monday to permit evacuation of "nonessential" Americans.

Broomfield said the arrangement was made through negotiations involving unspecified third countries.

The high-ranking official in Saigon said President Tran Van Huong initiated the move toward North Vietnam and was trying to send an envoy to Hanoi to get the Communist side's views following the talks already held with North Vietnamese on a lower level. He said the United States also was trying to promote the talks and had approved the envoy's flight on a U.S. Air Force plane to Hanoi.

He said the Cabinet minister tried to fly to Hanoi today but was not given immediate permission, apparently because authorities there had not received the required 24-hour notice.

Opposition political leaders said earlier that Huong might turn over the presidency to neutralist Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh as early as Saturday to allow Minh to form a government acceptable to the Communist side for a negotiated end to the war. Their rehorts came as North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces made probing attacks 25 miles west of Saigon.

In Aranyaprathet, Thailand, Associated Press correspondent Chhay Born Lah said Thai border police and Cambodian refugees told him that Khmer Rouge authorities tave ordered mass evacuations from Cambodian towns near the Thai border and shot dozens of Cambodians trying to flee into Thailand.

There was no confirmation from any other source. The refugees gave no indication why the Communist-backed new leaders of Cambodia wanted the towns empty, but reports from the capital of Phnom Penh told of the same maneuver there last week. Analysts believe that the Khmer Rouge have organizational problems and fear resistance from the population.

Meanwhile, Hanoi said that any U.S. attempt to send ships and Marines to evacuate Americans from South Vietnam "is a serious military move which ... is obviously not designed for evacuation at all, but to serve its evil schemes of intervention."

The North Vietnamese commentary added that by "attempting to remove more than 10,000 Vietnamese from their homeland, the Ford administration is hatching a long-term scheme against Vietnam. This is a heinous crime which blatantly violates international conventions on human rights of which the U.S. is a signatory."

In neighboring Cambodia, Phnom Penh authorities have provided food for the 610 persons who have taken refuge in the French Embassy, French officials said. A French military plane is standing by with supplies in Vientiane, Laos, awaiting Khmer Rouge permission to land in Phnom Penh.

Contract Let For Library Improvements

Scurry County Commissioners awarded a contract Thursday afternoon to Bundock Construction Co. of Lubbock for expansion and improvements to the Scurry County Library Building.

The Lubbock firm submitted the lowest proposal received on the project, with a base bid of $86,940.

The bids were opened Thursday afternoon.

In another bid opening, Wadleigh Construction Co. of Snyder had the lowest figure for construction of an office building to be used by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce. Wadleigh's base bid was $75,887. This was some 20 per cent above earlier estimates and Chamber officials were studying the bids this morning. If awarded, the building will be constructed at Twenty-third and Avenue R on property contributed by Roger Mize for that purpose.

Terrorists Die In Escape Try

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Terrorists who held a dozen persons hostage in the West German embassy for 12 hours dynamited the building in a futile attempt to escape after the Bonn government refused their demand for the release of 26 anarchists.

Police said there were three dead: the embassy's commercial and military attaches and one of the terrorists who shot himself and died in a hospital.

Two policemen and a hostage were hospitalized in serious condition. Several others received minor injuries, including West German Ambassador Dietrich Stoecker, who was slightly burned.

The other five terrorists known to have been in the building were captured, police said. They included a woman. Earlier reports said there were seven in the gang, but the police revised the figure.

The explosions which the gang set off on the top floor of the embassy just before midnight Thursday burned out the four-story building.

The West German government's refusal to meet the terrorists' demands was a complete about-face in policy after nearly three years of surrender to Arab guerrillas and more recently to West German anarchists. Chancellor Helmut Schmidt was to explain the change to the Bonn parliament today.

The gang invaded the embassy shortly before noon Thursday and shot and killed Baron Andreas von Mirbach, the military attache. Identifying themselves as the Holger Meins Commando, they threatened to kill the ambassador and the others in the embassy at the time unless 26 members of the Baader-Meinhof gang of anarchists were freed from West German jails, given $520,000 and flown to another country.

The terrorists also warned they had placed nearly 35 pounds of TNT about the building and would set it off if the police attacked them.

The West German government set up a crisis staff in Bonn, and Schmidt was in frequent telephone communication with Swedish Premier Olof Palme. Swedish Justice Minister Lennart Geijer entered the embassy to act as go-between.

Geijer said the gang rejected an offer of safe conduct out of the country in exchange for the hostages.

Some 500 heavily armed police ringed the building and occupied the ground floor while the terrorists and their hostages were on the upper floors.

FDA Okays Use Of Throw-Away Bottles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration is granting the nation's corporate giants permission to produce billions of throw-away plastic pop and beer bottles that it concedes will foul the landscape, consume precious energy and possibly boost consumer prices.

In an unusual move, however, the agency is openly inviting a lawsuit to block the approval and clarify a gray area in the law.

The legal question is whether the 1969 National Environmental Policy Act amends the 1938 Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

The industry has not responded yet to the FDA's draft environomental impact statement, in which the issues of environmental harm, energy use and cost were raised. Previously the industry stressed the safety of the plastic containers, the only issue raised by the food and drug law.

FDA general counsel Peter B. Hutt urged that plastic bottles be prohibited, but FDA Commissioner Alexander M. Schmidt concluded he could withdraw earlier approval only if the bottles were unsafe or unhealthy, which they aren't. His decision had the effect of ruling that the 1969 environmental act did not amend the 1906 law.

The 1969 law ordered agencies to consider environmental impact in making decisions. The 1906 law gave the FDA authority only in situations involving safety and health.

The FDA initially approved plastic bottles but in September 1973 decided the decision required an environmental impact statement, raising the possibility that approval might be revoked. This month it published a draft impact statement and said it would go ahead with approval.

In a Federal Register notice April 14, FDA said, "Although adverse environmental impacts relating to destruction of scenic beauty, depletion of energy resources, increase in litter and trash, and similar matters are not condoned by the commissioner, he has no legal authority to prevent them." But it also invited any citizen to "obtain judicial review" by filing a suit.

"This has to be settled either by additional legislation or the court," Schmidt said in an interview Thursday. Although the Supreme Court has ruled that Congress did not intend the environmental law to repeal by implication any other federal statute, no court has ruled on whether it amends other laws.

By 1980, according to the FDA's draft environmental impact statement, the soft drink industry alone will need about 100 billion bottles and cans annually, roughly 400 for every American.

Coca-Cola and Pepsi-Cola have test-marketed the plastic throw-aways, which are lighter and cheaper to transport, and reduce the need for large inventories of bottles, sorting, cleaning, inspection, and handling and storage of returnables.

The FDA said plastic bottles can be expected to speed the trend away from returnable bottles, which it said are superior to other containers. Refillable bottles cost one-fourth as much to produce as one-way bottles and conserve raw materials, but plastic bottles are not likely to be refillable in the foreseeable future, the FDA said.

Oil Imports Down In March

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oil imports dropped last month to an even lower level than during the Arab oil embargo, giving the United States a record surplus in its balance of foreign trade, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department said the surplus amounted to $1.4 billion in March, the second monthly surplus in a row. February's surplus was $91 million. The figures left the nation with a $2 billion surplus so far this year.

Commerce said the major factor in the improvement was a $571 million drop in the value of oil imported into the country. The oil imports amounted to 118.7 million barrels. That compared to 161.3 million barrels a year ago when the Arab oil embargo had its most severe impact.

Commerce said the value of the nation's exports slipped in March by eight-tenths of 1 per cent. But imports dropped even more sharply, by 6.8 per cent.

Exports of motor vehicles were up by $65 million. Chemical, tobacco, fertilizer and computer exports also increased.

But exports of civilian and military aircraft dropped by $123.8 million. Exports of wheat, corn, animal feeds, cotton and metal working machinery also dropped.

The export slippage was more than offset by lower imports of petroleum, non-ferrous metals, sugar, newsprint and other items. Imports of motor vehicles, iron ore and non-electrical machinery climbed.

The government began keeping track of its trade accounts on a different basis this year, using the actual prices which company subsidiaries charge their parent firms rather than the actual value of goods.

Thus, the current figures are not comparable with past years. But Commerce said that, computed on the old basis, the trade surplus would have been $1.3 billion, surpassing February's $879 million record.

Kindergarten Roundup Set Next Week

The annual spring roundup of children who will be entering kindergarten next fall in Snyder Public Schools has been set for April 28 through May 2.

Attendance in kindergarten is voluntary, but school officials feel that all children will benefit from attendance. These children must be five years old on or before Sept. 1, 1975.

Six-year-old children who will be in first grade and did not attend public school kindergarten also should come in and register during the roundup. Pre-registration will be between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Parents are requested to go to the school in their attendance area for the purpose of pre-enrolling children and discussing health records with the school nurse. All children should have or should be in the process of completing their immunizations. The state law requires that each student must have been immunized for DPT, polio, rubella and measles before entering school in the fall of 1975. Mumps vaccine and tuberculin tests are highly recommended.

A birth certificate for each child also will be required for office records.

The schedule for the roundup is as follows: North Elementary, Monday; Northeast Elementary, Tuesday; Stanfield Elementary, Wednesday; Central Elementary, Thursday and Friday; West Elementary, Monday and Tuesday; East Elementary, Wednesday and Thursday.

DIED ON BUNKER HILL

J. Warren Was A Man To Be Reckoned With

EDITOR'S NOTE — Joseph Warren, who died on Bunker Hill, was a Founding Father of the United States; a leader of that corps of secret revolutionaries in Boston who led the nation to rebellion.

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer

During the ferment that molded the dissatisfied people of the American colonies into revolutionaries, Joseph Warren was a man to be reckoned with.

It was the spy system Warren set up that first became aware of the British plan to march on Concord and Lexington, and it was Warren who sent Paul Revere to warn rebel leaders.

There aren't any statues of Warren. But he gave his life during a hopeless battle when he could have sought safety in the Boston taverns that sheltered other rebel leaders.

He was the American Revolution's first great martyr.

Joseph Warren came from the economic and intellectual class that produced the New England dissenters in the decade before 1776. Born of well-to-do parents in what in 1741 was the pastoral village of Roxbury, Mass., Warren was quickly caught up in the liberal thought of the day.

He enrolled at Harvard College, became a doctor and moved to nearby Boston to practice medicine.

Besides treating patients, he became a member of the Committee of Correspondence, a group of colonialists who ran a network of information and propanganda against the British.

His name first became known in September 1774 when he drafted the Suffolk Resolves attacking the British Coercive Laws under which the Port of Boston was closed and local taxes were confiscated.

Charging the British with warring on freedom, Warren wrote that Massachusetts should collect and keep its own taxes and, if necessary, use force to defend the freedom of the colony.

Warren's document, adopted at a Suffolk County convention by representatives from the Boston area, was one of the first open challenges to British sovereignty in the American colonies.

Warren turned to a local silversmith to spread the word of the Suffolk Resolves, and Paul Revere headed for Philadelphia and the First Continental Congress. No shots yet, but the American revolution was beginning.

From then on, Warren moved into the first rank of colonial leaders.

He was elected president of a provincial Congress in April 1775 and obtained a commission as major general in the Massachusetts militia. His fateful role in history was approaching its climax.

On April 18, 1775, Gen. Thomas Gage, British governor of Massachusetts, sent troops to arrest Warren, Samuel Adams and John Hancock.

But Warren's spies became aware of the troop movements and he sent Revere on the ride that was to become American folklore. Revere was arrested, but other riders made it through and the rebel leaders escaped.

Warren helped organize the Indian-style fighting that helped to defeat the British at Lexington and Concord. He continued his staff work, training colonial troops and organizing the fortifications for the Battle of Bunker Hill. But when the fateful fight began on June 17, 1775, Warren refused to go with other leaders to safety out of sight of the battle. He told Col. William Prescott: "I shall take no command here. I came as a volunteer with my musket to serve under you."

When the Americans finally ran out of ammunition and Prescott ordered his men to pull back, Warren stayed behind to direct the retreat, still fighting with his rifle butt and bayonet.

At the age of 34, Joseph Warren, doctor, writer and leader, died of a bullet wound. Legend says he fell at the very spot where the Bunker Hill monument now stands.

Children between the ages of 5 and 8 are those most often involved in motor-vehicle accidents.

New Pipelines Will Supply Cushing Area

CUSHING, Okla. (AP)—Two new pilelines, one built and the other scheduled, will bring a half-million barrels of additional oil into this area by the middle of 1976.

The Texoma Pipeline from Beaumont, Tex., to Cushing is due to be finished about Aug. 1 of th's year and will carry in an estimated 250,000 barrels of oil per day. Its southern end is at Nederland, Tex.

The Seaway Pipeline, not due to be completed until Aug. 1, 1976, will extend from Freeport, Tex., to Cushing. It will have an initial capacity of 225,000 barrles per day, increasing later.

The Texoma line has been completed and tested from Cushing to Winnsboro, Tex., about half of its 472-mile length.

The line is being built by Sun Pipe Line Co., a subsidiary of Sun Oil Co., at a cost of $122 million. Its initial capacity will be 300,000 barrels per day and, like the other, will be increased later.

Ten companies are taking part in the line and will use the crude for their refineries or to move through their tansmission system.

They include Kerr-McGee Oil Corp., Lion Oil Co., Skelly Oil Co., Sun Oil Co. of Pennsylvania, United Refining Co., Western Crude Oil, Inc., Mobil Oil Corp., Rock Island Refining Corp., Texas Eastern Transmission Corp., and Vickers Petroleum Co.

Construction in recent months has been slowed because part of its route goes through swamp and marshland and wet weather has made work difficult. Five river crossings are involved, three on the Neches River.

Oil to move through the line will be unloaded at a Sun terminal at Nederland. A second dock has been built there to handle vessels up to 130,000 tons.

Capability will be increased by 50 per cent with an additional six 250,000-barrel storage tanks and two of 150,000 barrels each.

At Cushing, a 16-inch lateral line will tie in to the Kerr-McGee refinery at Wynnewood.

Two tie-ins are planned at Longview, Tex. One will be with Mid-Valley Pipe Line to move crude to Arkansas and the other will be with West Texas Gulf Pipe line to carry approximately 40,000 barrels of West Texas crude daily.

For the other pipeline—the Seaway—pipe is on order and steel mills in Houston have begun to roll the pipe.

"We have all the major items on order," said Dean Taylor, president of Phillips Pipeline Co. "It should be operational by Aug. 1, 1976."

The company has an 80-acre tract near Cushing for the terminal facility and is negotiating for facilities near Freeport. The Freeport facilities will be for storing oil unloaded from supertankers in the Gulf of Mexico.

Cost of the pipeline is estimated at about $200 million.

Companies participating in the Seaway line are Continental Pipe Line Co., Phillips Petroleum Co., Phillips Investment Co., Apco Oil Corp., CRA, Inc., Diamond Shamrock Corp., Midland Cooperatives, Inc., and National Cooperative Refinery Association.

INTERVIEW—Brownie Troop 248 of Stanfield Elementary, held an interview with Mrs. Nellie Smith at one of their recent meetings. It was held as a part of the scouts recognition of International Women's Year. The girls asked Mrs. Smith questions concerning her early childhood and about her work with handicapped children. Mrs. Smith provided some interesting facts about her past experiences with the Humble Smith School. Leaders are Mrs. Bill Overhulser and Mrs. Clinton Sellars.

Cadettes Camp Out

Five members of Cadette Troop 226 along with their leaders, Mrs. Scottie Scott and Mrs. Alvin Wimmer, attended a four day camp out at Camp Boothe Oaks March 31 through April 3. Those attending were Anne Beuerlein, Penny Rameriz, Lynn Wimmer, Darlene Chastain and Martha Blake. The group had lunch in Sweetwater on Monday on their way to camp as one of the last good meals before having four days of their own cooking. They arrived at camp about 1 p.m. and had everything set up in one hour. Then the girls went on a long hike before preparing supper. Before bedtime the girls had popcorn and hot chocolate while singing songs around the campfire.

Tuesday was April Fool's Day and many pranks were pulled by everyone. Wednesday and Thursday were spent working on challenges and badges. The Challenge of the Out of Doors that was started in November was completed. The Challenge of Emergency Preparedness was also completed. Now the girls are working on the Challenge of Knowing Myself, which should be very interesting. The Out of Door Safety Badge was also completed. The girls are working on different badges at home and will make First Class by May. All the girls particpated in "accidents" to earn the Emergency Preparedness Challenge. It took lots of practice and studying before but it was enjoyed by all.

These same girls were tour guides for Brownie Day held on April 12 at Camp Boothe Oaks. About 105 Brownies attended this event. Everyone enjoyed this trip in spite of the rain.

What's new on the market?

THE PRODUCT — Combined workbench, sawhorse and vise.

Manufacturer's claim — That the portable work center can be set up at almost any work site and is particularly convenient for projects away from the workshop, garage, basement or utility room ... that it is designed to hold projects at comfortable heights so that the do-it-yourselfer's hands are free to maneuver tools ... and that adjustable legs provide two convenient heights — 23¼ inches and 32¼ inches.

THE PRODUCT — Fiberglass steps in a one-piece unit for swimming pools.

Manufacturer's claim — That the steps are 8 feet high and are set into the pool wall by cutting into it and excavating behind it ... that A frames on either side support the unit ... and that home owners then apply double-faced gasketing for waterproof jointure to the pool walls, securing everything with a face plate that comes with predrilled holes.

THE PRODUCT — A new line of fluorescent lamps designed for the needs of indoor gardners.

Manufacturer's claim — That the lamps promote healthy growth rather than fast growth, producing normal, compact plants ... that they provide the natural illumination of a bright overcast day, eliminating harsh glare ... that all the colors between red and blue are present so that the plants receive correct color balance over the full spectrum ... and that the lamps are guaranteed to lose not more than one per cent of their color rendition for their lifetime.

THE PRODUCT — A do-it-yourself pocket knife with a stainless steel blade.

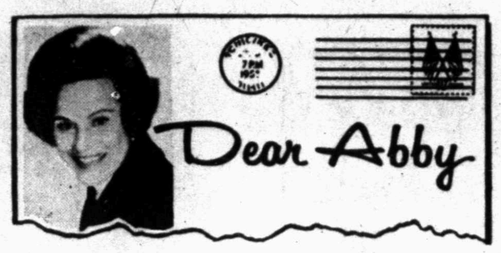

Manufacturer's claim — That it is sharper because it is made of the finest cutlery stainless steel, and is safer because of a lock that holds the fold-out blade firmly while in use ... that it is a cross between an ordinary pocket knife and a utility knife ... that a zinc casting case and plastic lock keep it dry and sharp ... and that the blade can be changed in seconds.

THE PRODUCT — A one-time-use kit for repairing gypsum wallboard or similar wallboard.

Manufacturer's claim — That the kit contains patch-holding clips, a 4-inch by 4-inch patch, a disposable saw, spackling compound, disposable spatula and sandpaper ... that the damaged section of the wallboard is first cut out, using the patch as a pattern ... that the patch is held in place with clips, the compound applied and smoothed out ready for painting.

Mom's Pill Problem Puzzles Daughter

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I know I have a problem, but I need to know how far my rights go in doing something about it.

My father had a vasectomy recently, so naturally I am curious as to why my mother is still taking birth control pills.

I am only 15 and can't handle the fact that my mother is having an affair with another man. Knowing this has completely destroyed my faith in her.

I think it's my duty to tell my father. I love him very much and hate to see him used this way.

Should I tell my mother that I know she is taking The Pill even though my father is sterile now? And if she doesn't tell Dad, I will?

IN-BETWEEN DAUGHTER

DEAR IN: If your mother is taking birth control pills, it doesn't necessarily mean that she is having an affair. Before jumping to conclusions, why don't you ask her if she's on The Pill, and why?

DEAR ABBY: What is the correct name for a divorced man?

A woman who has been married and divorced is called a "divorcee."

A guy in our office calls himself a "bachelor," but actually, he is a divorced man. A girl feels lied to and cheated when she dates him and finds out later that he has misrepresented himself.

DECEIVED

DEAR DECEIVED: The dictionary defines a bachelor as "an unmarried man." Therefore, any man who is unmarried (regardless of how he attained his single status) is properly called a bachelor.

DEAR ABBY: I work weekends as a sacker and carry-out boy in a big grocery store that has signs up all over the place saying, "NO TIPPING, PLEASE."

My problem is that nice little old lady (and some young ones) who stuffs a quarter down my shirt pocket and says, "Take it—nobody's looking."

Abby, when I return the tip some customers get insulted, but I return it anyway because it's against the rules to accept a tip, and a kid could get fired if he's caught taking one.

I've seen some guys accept tips, but I don't, and I never will because in the first place, it's cheating and in the second place, I don't want to get fired.

Abby, please ask customers not to try to slip a tip to someone where tipping isn't allowed. It just puts temptation in his way and weakens his character.

CARRYOUT BOY

DEAR BOY: Here's your letter. It's beautiful. And so are you. The world could use more young people like you who respect the rules, and fewer like those who wink at them.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

NEA Says Schools Fail Minority

HOUSTON (AP) — The president of the National Education Association says the nation's public schools continue to fail minority children.

James A. Harris said Wednesday one black male in five high school graduates is a functional illiterate who cannot read or write beyond the fourth grade level.

In an speech to the Houston Business and Professional Men's Club, Harris cited current economic conditions as making things worse for minority children in some school districts.

He said some school systems are closing schools, curbing programs and returning to the basics as an economy measure.

Food Inspector Is Menudo Chef

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — On week days Rex Sherry is food and drug inspector of the State Department of Health.

But on weekends he throws all caution to the winds and is a menudo chef.

Menudo is a strictly South-of-the-border stew in which the principal ingredient is beef tripe, selected portions of a cow's innards.

However, Sherry has announced a new secret recipe, "Toddy for the Body Menudo", he will use in the Cinco de Mayo celebration at San Marcos on May 3 where a menudo cookoff is a main attraction.

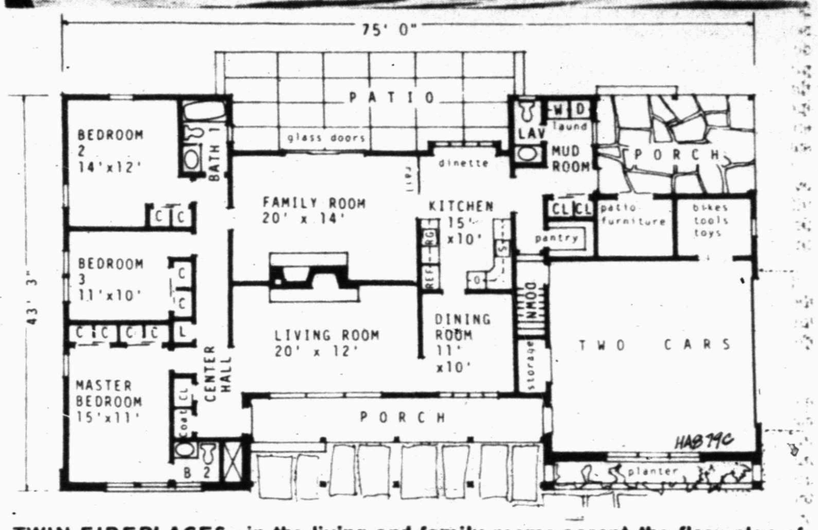

"It's got five secret ingredients," Sherry said," of which I will reveal two as semi-secret. They are tequila and Gatorade."

Femme Fan Hits Barry

By JOHN NELSON
AP Sports Writer

Rick Barry had just scored 31 points, led the Golden State Warriors to a 105-96 victory over Seattle in the deciding game of their semifinal series, and was walking off the court when it happened.

He was bushwacked by a female fan — kicking and scratching.

"I was leaving the floor and someone was kicking me and hitting me from behind. I turned around and it was a woman. I couldn't believe it. I mean, I really couldn't believe it," Barry said.

Barry was also doused with beer after the game, prompting Golden State Coach Al Attles to lament: "Seattle gave a great effort to get this far in the playoffs. It's a shame their season had to be climaxed by this."

Both Barry and Boston's Jo Jo White had to break out of playoff doldrums to send their teams on to the conference finals.

Barry's 31 points lifted the Warriors to a 4-2 triumph in their Western Conference semifinal set. Golden State now faces Chicago for the West title.

White scored 29 points, 17 in a crucial third-period outburst that powered Boston past the Houston Rockets 128-115. The Celtics claimed that Eastern Conference best-of-seven semifinal series 4-1.

The Celtics will face the winner of the Buffalo-Washington series for the Eastern Conference title. The Braves and Bullets series, knotted at three games apiece, continues tonight at Landover, Md.

Barry, who was held to 19 points in a 124-100 victory over Seattle Tuesday night in Oakland and could score only 11 in a 100-94 loss in Seattle last Saturday, also had some key assists, and Warrior forward Keith Wilkes, the NBA's rookie of the year, added 20 points.

Slick Watts paced Seattle with 24 and rookie center Tommy Burleson had 15.

The Warriors let an 18-point advantage dwindle to seven with a little more than a minute left but held on for the clincher.

White, who hit only one of 13 field goal attempts at Houston Tuesday night, said: "I was due. In fact, I was overdue. I shot poorly down there the other night.

"Then things opened up for me tonight. When you get chances like I was getting, you don't even look. You just shoot."

Houston's Rudy Tomjanovich, who scored 27 points, seemed frustrated.

"When they get their game going, about all you can do is watch them," Tomjanovich said. "Basically, everyone knows what they are going to do, but they execute so well you can't do much about it."

Bob McAdoo, as always, will be the key for Buffalo. Bullets Coach K.C. Jones thus far has experimented with four different players to try to contain the Braves' center ... to little avail.

Washington enjoys the dubious advantage of playing the deciding set at home — dubious because the two teams split their four regular-season games, each winning on the other's court.

Indiana Takes 2-1 ABA Lead

By JERRY GARRETT
AP Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — "Now what do I tell a team that has worked very hard for 84 games and let one like this get away?" a remorseful Coach Larry Brown asked, rhetorically.

His Denver Nuggets had just lost a crucial 118-112 game to Indiana Thursday night, giving the Pacers a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven American Basketball Association playoff series.

Action continues tonight with Game 4.

Kentucky and St. Louis were idle in the East Division playoffs, with Kentucky holding a 2-0 edge in the series, which resumes tonight at St. Louis.

Brown was especially incensed over the officiating — or lack of it — and his terse postgame comments reflected his thoughts on the matter.

"I think the key to the game was when Claude Terry was hit in the face when he was driving to our basket (in the fourth quarter)," Brown said. "He was knocked down and nothing was called.

"The Pacers then came back and scored five straight points to cut a nine-point lead to five.

"If Terry would have hit that shot, we would have had an 11-point lead and I think we would have put them away."

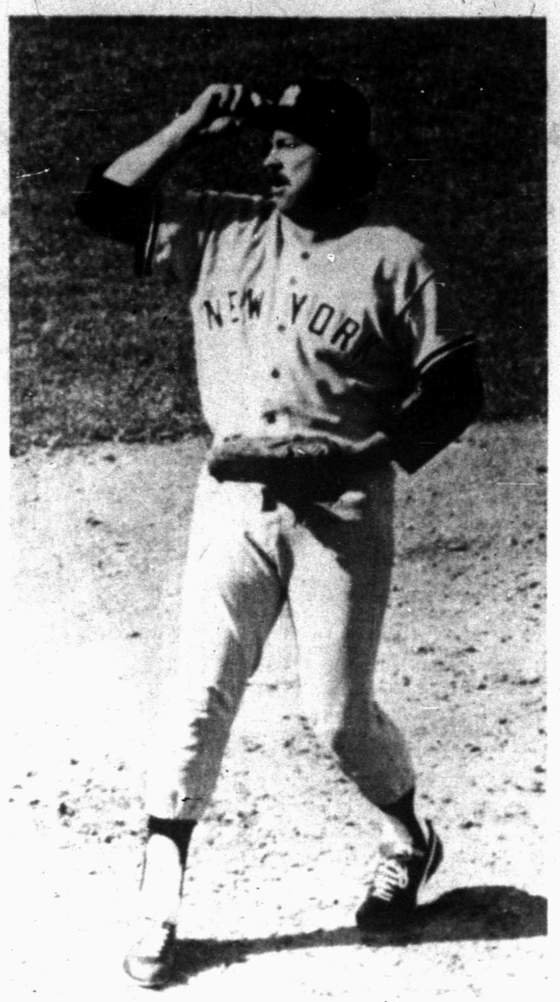

Indiana Coach Bobby Leonard complimented Denver for "a super basketball game."

He added, "I thought Denver played tougher this time than they did in the first game out in Denver. Boy, they almost had us out of it. A couple of three-pointers late in the game got us going."

Looking ahead to tonight's game, Leonard said, "We did a better job on the boards in the second half, but we didn't run enough. We'll have to do both of these if we're going to win Game 4."

George McGinnis, who sat out most of the third period in foul trouble himself, was the star of Game 3, with 33 points, 21 rebounds and 14 assists. He gave the Pacers their first lead since the first quarter at 104-102 and followed that with two more baskets.

McGinnis then rebounded a missed three-point shot by Ralph Simpson, who led Denver with 30 points. Billy Keller was then fouled and iced the game with two free throws.

STILL LOOKING FOR A WIN—Catfish Hunter adjusts visor of his cap in Boston's Fenway Park as he started another pitch in the 6th inning of Wednesday's game against the Red Sox. Jr. Varsity Rips Cooper JV, 10-7

The Snyder High School junior varsity baseball team handed Abilene Cooper's JV its first loss of the season here yesterday, outscoring the young Cougars 10-7. The victory boosted the local JV record to 5-3 while Cooper now is 6-1.

The same two teams tangle in Abilene at 4 p.m. Monday.

Snyder's Kelly Ragland, who normally plays an infield position, reigstered his fourth straight pitching triumph for the JV without a loss. He scattered 10 hits over seven innings while striking out eight. Cook, the loser, was touched for 11 safeties, and he struck out only five.

Snyder scored four times in the 1st, once in the 3rd, twice in the 5th and three times in the 6th. Cooper tallied one run each in the 2nd and 3rd frames and five times in the 6th.

With the score tied, 7-7 going into the bottom of the 6th, Calvin Reese reached first for Snyder on an error by the shortstop. Kyle Sikes sacrificed him to second, and Reese scored on an error at second that let Randy Gressett on base. Gressett raced home on a towering triple to left field by Kelly Ragland, who scored himself on a single by Phil Robinson.

Cooper had tied it up in the top of the 6th on a walk and two errors combined with singles by Whitley and Jones and a double by Grissom.

In the 1st, Sikes walked, stole second, and scored on a double by Randy Gressett. Gressett came in on a single by Ragland, who advanced on a passed ball, and scored on a single by Robinson. Robinson eventually scored in the same frame on a fielder's choice.

In the 2nd, Carson singled for Cooper, advanced on an error, and scored on another single by Grissom.

Luke tripled for Cooper in the 3rd and scored on a single by Taylor. In the bottom half of the inning, Ragland doubled for Snyder and scored on a single by Robinson.

Snyder's two 5th inning tallies resulted from a home run over the centerfield fence by Gressett and an error, a walk and a single by Dennis Buchanan that drove in Ragland.

Ragland and Robinson, with three hits apiece led the Tiger batters.

Tiger Varsity Tests Lamesa

Can the Snyder High School varsity baseball team take the lead in the District 3-AAA race?

That question will be answered at 5 o'clock this afternoon when the Tigers take on the Golden Tornadoes in Lamesa. If Snyder, 13-10 for the season and 4-3 in district play, wins, then the Tigers will be a half a game ahead of Brownfield. If they lose, then they will be half a game behind the Cubs.

Lamesa has a better team than its 2-5 record would indicate. Thier two victories were over Brownfield, a team the Tigers could beat only once so far.

Coach Speedy Moffett said he probably would start either Gary Greenlee (4-2) or Ricky Beard (5-5) against the Tors. Lamesa probably will go with Sam Jefferson, who beat Lamesa in his last outing.

Probable starters for the Tigers, according to batting order, include Randy Gressett rf, Kelly Ragland 2b, Robert Alderete ss, Ernie Simons c, Richard Tovar lf, Sid Perry 1b, Danny Brumley 3b, Barry Blalock cf, and either Beard of Greenlee at pitcher.

The same two teams tangle at 5 p.m. next Tuesday in Moffett Field.

Track Team In Region

Coach Bill Hartsfield will take three members of the Snyder High School track team with him to the Region I Meet in Barrett Stadium in Odessa Saturday. The group will leave the high school at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Hartsfield said competition begins at 2 p.m. with three districts—1-AAA, 2-AAA, and 3-AAA represented. Monahans is favored to win the Meet but could receive strong competition from Lubbock Estacado.

Monahans won every running event in the District 2-AAA Meet.

The three Tigers who have qualified for regional are Alvin Neely in the quartermile, Chester Cobb in the long jump, and Mike Freeman in the shot put.

The top two boys in each event will qualify for the State Meet May 10 in Austin.

Teenage Signups Set Monday

Signups for teenage baseball will be held from 7 p.m. until 9p.m. Monday and Tuesday at the Texas Electric Service Company, 2515 College Ave.

All boys of ages 13, 14 and 15 who are interested in playing baseball should bring one or both of their parents when they sign up. The registration fee is $7.50 for insurance and umpire fees. Tryouts will be held at 7 p.m., Thursday, May 1, at Moffett Field.

For further information, contact D.W. Wolf at 573-8150.

Miss Softball Tryouts Continue

Tryouts for Major and Senior Leagues of the Miss Softball America program will be held from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. today at the Northeast Park.

More girls are needed between the ages of 8-18 to participate in the Miss Softball America program. Girls should bring their birth certificate and one parent with them when they register during the tryouts.

Giants Outscore Houston, 6 To 5

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Two years ago, Ken Forsch broke Von Joshua's hand with a pitch.

Thursday night, Joshua broke Forsch's heart with a hit.

Joshua, whose career was once interrupted by a Forsch delivery, got a chance to pay him back partially with a game-winning hit that led the San Francisco Giants over the Houston Astros 6-5.

"The game-winning hit was nice, but even bigger was the fact that I beat Ken Forsch," said Joshua after knocking in Derrell Thomas with a single to center. "Forsch broke my hand two years ago. I was with the Dodgers then, and I got hurt at Los Angeles.

"It was in April and I was hitting .340 at the time and platooning and finally getting to show what I can do. Then I got hit by Forsch on the wrist. Things were never the same after that.

"I never did get a chance to play when I came back off the injured list and I finally asked to be traded."

Joshua not only got his wish — he got his team.

"I'm glad it was to the Giants," he said. "I'm from Oakland, so it's just like going home."

The Giants were glad they had him Thursday night, at least. Not only did he drive in the winning run, but earlier produced a 5-4 lead for them with a bases-loaded walk in the seventh.

In the other National League games, the Los Angeles Dodgers ripped the San Diego Padres 11-6; the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Atlanta Braves 11-3 and the Chicago Cubs downed the Philadelphia Phillies 4-1.

The Giants started their winning rally off Forsch, 0-1, with Steve Ontiveros' double. Thomas ran for Ontiveros and two outs later, raced home with the go-ahead run on Joshua's base hit. The Astros tied the game 55 in the eighth inning when Cliff Johnson walked with the bases loaded on four pitches from reliever Gary Lavelle.

In the seventh, Joshua drew a bases-loaded walk off Wayne Granger to provide the Giants with a temporary one-run lead. Preceding the walk were a single by Chris Speier, a sacrifice bunt by Ontiveros which Granger fumbled for an error, and a hit batsman.

Dodgers 11, Padres 6

Ken McMullen climaxed a six-run comeback in the sixth inning with a grand slam homer as Los Angeles defeated San Diego. Losing 5-4, the Dodgers tied the game off Dave Freisleben, 1-2, on a run-scoring single by Dave Lopes. Reliever Danny Frisella later gave up a bases-loaded walk to Ron Cey for the Dodgers' second run of the inning before McMullen, batting for Willie Crawford, cracked a bases-loaded homer off Dave Tomlin.

Reds 11, Braves 3

Tony Perez doubled and scored the go-ahead run in the sixth inning and then rapped a two-run single in a four-run seventh as Cincinnati routed Atlanta. Perez and Johnny Bench each knocked in three runs for the winners.

"When me and Johnny are hitting," Perez said, "we score runs. It makes a lot of difference."

Cubs 4, Phillies 1

Bill Madlock smashed two of Chicago's five doubles and drove across two runs to back Steve Stone's eight-hitter, leading the Cubs over the Phillies in 40-degree weather.

Ponies Win Net Crown

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Southern Methodist Coach John Gardner says he expected his tennis team to win the Southwest Conference title but he would have preferred playing the University of Texas for it, "where both teams could have had equal pressure."

The Mustangs snagged the championship after downing Texas Christian 8-1 here Thursday.

That gave SMU a 51-12 record for the season, one match above the Texas Longhorns who finished at 50-13.

George Hardie dumped Randy Crawford 7-5, 6-4 in the top singles match. Hardie joined John Muller to beat Crawford and Jim Allin 6-4, 6-2 in the No. 1 doubles match.

The only TCU victory came when Jon Gurian and David Kelly defeated David Bohrnstedt and Clint Hufford 6-2, 7-5. The Horned Frogs ended the season with a 22-41 record.

Hogs Prep For Spring Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks' first and second football units will work separately in noncontract drills today as the Hogs prepare for Saturday's climax spring practice, the Red-White game at Little Rock.

Coaches took a thorough look at the passing game Wednesday during a light two-hour workout.

"We worked particularly hard on running pass patterns and trying to hold onto the ball," Coach Frank Broyles said.

Sophomore wide receiver Joe Jackson was credited with "two or three exceptional catches" Wednesday by Broyles.

Colbert Takes 2-Stroke Lead

CARLSBAD, Calif. (AP) — The first round of the $200,000 Tournament of Champions failed to produce any hint that another Jack Nicklaus-Johnny Miller-Tom Weiskopf shoot-out is in the works.

In fact, with chipper little Jim Colbert threatening to make a rout of it, it seems downright unlikely.

The three men who provided that dramatic finish to the Masters are afflicted with a variety of problems — Nicklaus has the blahs, Miller the putting miseries and Wieskopf an earache.

"I don't expect to win the tournament now," Miller mused after his 74, two-over-par, left him a distant nine shots back of Colbert's slump-breaking 65 that set the pace Thursday.

"Basically, a very dull round," Nicklaus ho-hummed after his 70 left him five shots back of Colbert.

Weiskopf managed a 71 despite some ear trouble that sent him in search of medical aid before his round over the windy, 6,855-yard La Costa Country Club course.

Veteran Al Geiberger, making his first start in eight years in this elite event that brings together only the winners of regular pro golf tour events from the past 12 months, had 67 and was alone in second.

Gene Littler, who once won this tournament three years in a row, and red-haired Tom Watson had 69s. Nicklaus, at 70, was tied with U.S. Open king Hale Irwin and veterans Bobby Nichols and Dave Hill.

Lee Trevino and Gary Player matched par 72.

While Nicklaus, who won the Masters by a single stroke over Miller and Weiskopf, may be suffering from a letdown, the personable Colbert's problems are of an entirely different nature. He's been suffering through one of the most severe slumps of his 10 year pro career.

"I didn't play for four months last fall," he said. "My wife got sick and had to have an operation and I had to stay home. When you're off that long you have to pay the price.

"I'm just trying to get back in the swing."

With his long absence, he'd made the cut in only half of the 12 tournaments he's played so far this season and has won only $11,000 — just a little more than expenses.

Return To 1-Platoon?

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "We are headed for one-platoon football," says Darrell Royal, coach at the University of Texas.

"And that's fine with me. With 30 new football scholarships a year, it's impossible to keep two platoons."

Royal told the opening session of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's conference on economics Thursday he felt cuts could be made in the areas of recruiting, traveling teams and scouting to ease the financial crises facing many college athletic programs.

Among the measures suggested to cut costs is to reduce new football scholarships from the current 30 to 25 a year.

"There's no question that we are traveling too many players," said Royal, president of the American Football Coaches Association. "Taking 50 players on road trips is like keeping up with the Joneses. I don't think you need more than 44 or 46 to play a game.

Royal said he would like scouting trips reduced too. "All our scouts do is pick up game film anyway," the Texas coach said. "And getting the game films is all I really care about."

Robert Kamm, president of Oklahoma State University, however, warned athletic departments against looking to their universities or colleges for help.

"The same problems that beset athletic programs beset their institutions," Kamm told the opening session of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's select conference on economics Thursday. "Don't depend on the institutions to solve this problem."

Delegates from the NCAA's three divisions spent the opening day of these meetings studying a vast list of cost-cutting ideas that is as diversified as the panel itself.

Among the recommendations made to the delegates was a suggestion by longtime college coach Earle Edwards that they consider introduction of a playoff system to determine a major college football champion.

There was some concern among delegates that such a program would interfere with bowl games or final examinations. But there is sentiment for establishing a commitee to study Edwards' idea, which he said would generate $15 million in gross revenue.

In a lighter moment, a much repeated suggestion for cutting recruiting costs made the rounds.

"Give your coach $100,000 for recruiting costs and let him recruit any way he wants," one delegate said. "Whatever's left over is his salary."

Quintuplets Are Doing Fine

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — All of the Levy quintuplets are being bottle-fed in their incubators and are doing fine, officials say.

But their mother hasn't seen them yet and a spokesman for Cincinnati General Hospital said it has not been determined when she will get her first view of the quints.

Obstetrician Allen R. Shade said Pamela Levy, 28, is doing satisfactorily, but is slower than normal in her recovery from the caesarean section surgery used to deliver the babies.

Dr. Shade said her condition improved Thursday night and she no longer has a post-operative problem caused by the operation.

Dr. Irwin Light, staff premature baby specialist, said all of the babies weigh less than five pounds eight ounces. Light said only one of the youngsters, a boy, required a blood transfusion after birth, but he was the first to start bottle feeding on a formula Thursday. The others joined him later in the day.

"They are in better condition than they were Wednesday. They are active and being kept in incubators in the premature nursery," he said.

Mark Levy, 27, the father, has refused to allow pictures of the children, who remain in a closed security area of the maternity ward. He said he was concerned for the welfare of the family.

Levy, who is a management employe of Procter & Gamble Co., said he is waiting until his wife and children are all healthy. He said the names of the three girls and two boys will not selected until he is able to consult with her.

Iran Calls Off Energy Talks

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — The national Iranian oil company announced today that because of "uncertainties in United States energy policy" talks with a group of American oil companies led by Shell had been postponed indefinitely.

A brief statement added that no date was set for resumption of the talks.

Two Men To Buy AGCI Elevator

DALLAS (AP) — A member of the board of directors of the American Grain and Cattle Inc. (AGCI) and another man have been authorized by U.S. Bankruptcy Judge John C. Ford to purchase the grain cooperative's elevator at Dilley, Tex.

Ford authorized Carlton Massey, a member of the AGCI board, and Vince Chiodo to purchase the elevator for $250,000 at a bankruptcy hearing Wednesday, the first major move to liquidate the company's assets.

The giant grain cooperative was forced into bankruptcy proceedings in January, and AGCI attorneys indicated Wednesday that the co-op intends to sell its assets, most of them possibly to a single group.

The same decision was made in the case of wheeler-dealer Billie Sol Estes when the main portion of AGCI in 1962 was bought in a $7 million note by American Grains.

AGCI attorney Ed Creel of Dallas described the co-op's largest single asset — a 26 million bushel grain storage facility in Plainview — as a "white elephant" because buyers have shown no interest in it. The Plainview elevators were built to handle grain during government storage programs, lawyers said.

50,000 Expected At Teachers Rally

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A crowd of up to 50,000 persons has been predicted for a rally Saturday supporting Texas school teachers in their bid for higher salaries and other education changes.

A statement by the Texas State Teachers Association said teachers from across the state will be coming here for the demonstration to be held at Memorial Stadium on the University of Texas campus.

The rally is set to begin at 1:50 p.m. with numerous legislators and educators scheduled to speak.

The TSTA has asked for a minimum teacher's salary of $10,000. The current beginning wage is $6,600.

Currently subcommittees in both the Senate and the House are considering various bills with different salary scales and other changes in education financing.

One bill, backed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe, calls for a starting salary of $7,430. None of the proposals could be financed with the estimated $480million recently reported by the Legislative Budget Board to be available, the TSTA said.

Hussein To Confer With Ford

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jordan's King Hussein will confer with President Ford here April 29, a White House spokesman says.

Ron Nessen, Ford's press secretary, said Thursday the two leaders will discuss matters of common interest.

The king will be on a private visit to the United States.

Rockefellers To Move In Summer

WASHINGTON (AP) — It will be late summer before Vice President and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller move into their official residence in northwest Washington, a Senate committee has been told. Renovation of the Victorian mansion, long used by chiefs of naval operations, began last year.

TO AUSTIN—Mrs. O.B. Trulock, Jr. (right) admires the first place medal in shorthand won by Miss Debbie Clements, Ira student, at the regional UIL contest in Levelland. A junior, Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clements of Ira. Debbie and her teacher, Mrs. Trulock, will leave for Austin May 2 where she will compete for state honors. Ira students had another big year in UIL competition, winning the District 9B championship for the 11th time in the past 13 years.

David Poling, D.D.

Yankee optimism, not isolationism

By David Poling

The bad news out of Washington is U.S. failure in foreign affairs, soaring national debt, and disillusionment with political leadership. But the news coming out of mid-America is good. A visit to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois gives accurate indication of what are the central concerns of the United States. Here in the heartland of farms, towns and cities, one discovers helpful signals and encouraging vibrations for the future. Five days in Plymouth, Ind., revealed much about the mood of mid-America:

—Basketball is king. Indiana University is still Number One in the soul of this state. In fact, folks who would rather send a team to the state finals instead of troops to Southeast Asia can't be all bad. These citizens have a sense of history. Said one supermarket manager, "Young people should be crashing the backboards, not bombing villages in Vietnam."

—The church pancake supper was a smashing success on Saturday night. These same people have a global feel of pancakes -- they want to know why families around the world can't enjoy pancake suppers too. The concern for the hungry and starving is a household topic.

"Ye Pilgrim," the Plymouth High School newspaper, reported on the impressions of Barb Ramsbey and Susan Holderead who attended a citizenship seminar in the nation's capital. The young people were concerned about world hunder and angered at the runaround they received from officials. The meeting at the Pentagon was a disaster. Said the girls, "an official told us lies and gave contradictory statements. We want to spend more on food and less on defense," For the young people in this town, bread is in, bombs out.

—The visit of President Ford to Notre Dame was applauded throughout mid-America. The Nixon administration's putdown of Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of the Fighting Irish, irritated Protestants as much as Roman Catholics. Remarked Presbyterian pastor James Campbell of Plymouth, "Father Hesburgh is not only a distinguished educator and civil rights advocate, but a major Christian leader. In quiet, practical ways he has done much for the ecumenical movement. Ford's coming to South Bend made the whole Christian family feel that a wrong had been righted".

—Vitality and growth is appearing in the ranks of the Christian community of mid-America. New church buildings are going up. Pentecostal pastors and mainline churchmen are participating in new expressions of fellowship and cooperation. Ordained women are accepted and seen in high posts of parish leadership. Here and there the charismatic surge is felt – but not with a "take charge" attitude. Young people flock to work camps throughout the region.

These communities of mid-America are not immune to the gloom and doom of current events. But they are looking over the hill and right now the center of the nation is talking about a bumper crop this year and that means hope for the whole world.

ADS Raps School Vending Machines

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Sales of sugar-rich foods and beverages which compete with school lunch programs should be regulated, the president of the American Dental Society said in a speech prepared for delivery today before the Texas Dental Association.

"The lunch programs in our nation's schools play a valuable role in helping a child maintain a diet high in nutritional value," said Dr. L.M. Kennedy, a Dallas dentist. "It is unfair to tempt the child to ignore the well-balanced school lunch in favor of foods and beverages from vending machines that would be far less valuable in terms of over-all growth and development."

He said a bill has been introduced in Congress which would eliminate the sales of snacks and similar foods that compete with lunch programs receiving federal reimbursement under the School Lunch Act.

"When a child's mouth is ravaged by decay at the age of 12 or 14, he has already lost the best functional use of his natural teeth for the rest of his life," Kennedy said.

He commended the Dallas School Board, and specifically school trustee Nancy Judy, for restricting the sale availability of non-nutritious foods in the district. Two ADA citations were to be presented to the board and Mrs. Judy for their contributions to public health.

Armstrong-Jones Is In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Anthony Armstrong-Jones, the Earl of Snowdon, describes his photography as devoid of tricks and gimmicks.

"The older you get, the simpler you try to get the photographs to be," Armstrong-Jones, 45, said Tuesday at an exhibit of his work at a midtown department store.

Armstrong-Jones will be in New York for four days and then leaves with the exhibit for Japan.

Dr. Lamb

Couple disagrees over nutrition

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—My fiance and I get into quite heated discussions concerning nutrition. Please help clear up some questions before we are married.

To me meat is an excellent complete protein food, but he feels meat more than once a day or every other day is bad for you. He gets a lot of longlasting canker sores and says these are caused by too much protein, not necessarily meat.

He also believes pepper is bad for anyone and that sugar is very detrimental and only honey should be used. I feel the difference between sugar and natural honey is negligible.

DEAR READER—I can see you are going to have an interesting marriage.

Meat, including beef, pork, lamb, fish and poultry, is a good source of protein. All the meats listed contain complete protein, meaning they have all the essential amino acids your body needs.

The only harmful effects that might occur if a healthy person eats lots of meat is the excess intake of fat, particularly saturated fats. The amount of increased cholesterol intake in the muscle tissue is not that important since these are not high cholesterol foods (except some organ meats). A high-calorie diet that contains too much fat, tends to cause an increase in fatty-cholesterol particles in the blood and increases the risk of heart and vascular disease.

Lean poultry and particularly lean fish, are not much of a problem in this regard. For that reason I recommend rotating the meat dishes between mammal meat, fish and poultry. Use lean meats in all three instances.

The healthy body merely converts excess amino acids from protein into sugars and fats. They are then used for energy or stored as fat. A high-protein diet has nothing to do with canker sores. I wish you would read my book, "Metabolics: Putting Your Food Energy To Work" (Harper and Row) for a detailed account of how your body uses food, vitamins and minerals. Ask your library for it.

Pepper can be irritating to the digestive tract, as can other spices, if used in excess. This may be a problem for some people who already have digestive complaints.

I've talked about honey and sugar before. Sugar is a dehydrated double sugar. When the double sugars are broken apart in the intestine by an enzyme most people have, it is converted to the same two simple sugars present in honey. So, when honey and sugar are finally absorbed into the body, they are no different.

Discussions in nutrition are often heated because the participants fail to apply scientific facts. Nutrition is based on chemestry and physics, the pure sciences. To ignore facts is a bit like claiming the sun comes up in the north. That is how you get these wild statements, such as calories don't count or a calorie of carbohydrate is more fattening than a calorie of fat.

28 New Oil And Gas Wildcats

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Sixteen wildcat oil wells and 12 wildcat gas wells were drilled in Texas in the first half of April, the Railraod Commission reported Wednesday.

The new wildcat oil wells include five each in the Houston and Corpus Christi districts, two in the Lubbock district and one each in the San Antonio No. 2, Kilgore No. 6, San Angelo and Midland districts.

The new wildcat gas wells include four in the San Antonio No. 2 district, three each in the Houston and Corpus Christi districts and one each in the Kilgore No. 6 and San Angelo districts.

A total of 104 wildcat oil wells have been drilled this year, an increase of 25 from the same period last year. A total of 160 wildcat gas wells have been drilled, an increase of 58 from the same period in 1974.

The commission said 359 oil wells were completed from April 1 through April 15 for a yearly total of 1,835, or an increase of 440 from the same period in 1974. A total of 116 gas wells were completed for a yearly total of 953, or an increase of 154 from a year ago.

The commission said 656 wells were plugged during the two-week period, including 198 dry holes.

Texas' average calendar day oil allowable as of April 15 was 3,959,548 barrels, an increase of 26,109 from April 1.

Trudeau Arrives In Spain

PORT-OF-SPAIN, Trinidad (AP) — Canada's prime minister, Pierre Elliott Trudeau, has arrived here for the start of a trip to Trinidad and Tobago, Barbados and Guyana in advance of the meeting of Commonwealth leaders scheduled for May 6 in Jamaica.

Cost Of Malpractice Insurance Up

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. John F. Farrington of the American Society for Insurance Management says patients, doctors and the legal profession are to blame for increased costs of medical malpractice insurance.

"Our scientific and technical tools have taken precedence over our humanistic qualities," Farrington told delegates Thursday at the annual convention of the Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc. He added that doctors sometimes forget "we are physicians, not technicians, and deal with people, not diseased organ systems."

Patients, he said, view medical care as a "right, not a privilege" and he chided the legal profession for failing to differentiate between negligence and "that certain percentage of unacceptable outcomes that depends on the patient's biological response to illness or injury."

What has resulted, Farrington said, is that one out of every three physicians can expect to have a malpractice suit filed against him in the next five years. That has forced doctors into "defensive medicine," a practice which means increased medical costs for patients.

He said physicians are ordering more tests in an attempt to document their clinical decisions so they will stand up in court. And of every malpractice insurance dollar, Farrington said, 18 cents will reach the patient involved in a successful suit.

He said as the number of malpractice suits increase, premiums go up and the availability of insurance decreases.

For Saturday, April 26, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You still have to be wary if you're doing business with persons you haven't dealt with before. Keep all records and receipts.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be sure to consider your partner's views in making decisions today. It would be extremely unwise to act on you own.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If working with tools or appliances today, use them properly. Serious problems could result from carelessness.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Continue to turn a deaf ear to speculations. In a "something for nothing" proposition, the other guy will get the something — you'll get the nothing.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're not a good "closer" today. You tend to do more talking than finalizing. Don't oversell yourself or your product.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be suspicious of any legal paper you're asked to sign today. Sign nothing without reading it thoroughly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Oversights are likely in your dealings today because of the hasty and careless manner in which you conduct business.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Guard against prematurely revealing your decisions. You may look foolish to others later when you change your mind.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Usually your hunches are dependable, but don't put too much stock in them today. Rely on sound, logical reasoning.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Don't become involved with some juicy scandal making the rounds about a friend. The link in the gossip chain can be broken by you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You remain in a good achievement cycle. Don't let small self-doubts inhibit you from forthright action.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Some valuable information will go over your head today if you do more talking than listening. You'll have more to contribute later if you're attentive now.

Your Birthday

April 26, 1975

You will make a major change this year that will bring greater order and harmony to your lifestyle. Also, you will become quite active in a group interest.
