Johnson Forces Carry Ballot Battle Before Higher Court

AS FAIR BOOSTERS VISITED HOBBS—Lubbock business men, traveling in two chartered buses to publicize the Panhandle-South Plains fair, found Hobbs, N. M., to be a rapidly-changing city after their visit there Thursday. On the main street were many new buildings built since the group was there last year. On hand to greet the visitors were two Hobbs civic leaders, pictured above: Carl Rodolph, left, president of the Hobbs Chamber of Commerce and the Hobbs Lions club, shaking hands with Arkley Bell, chairman of the Lubbock delegation; and Glen L. Scanlan, manager of the Hobbs Chamber of Commerce, shaking hands with Raymond Burford, Lubbock baker and Lions leader, right. Other pictures on Page 10, Sec. 1. (Staff Photos).

Final Booster Trip Is Made

LUBBOCK business men, 58 strong, wound up the 1948 fair trips Thursday by visiting seven towns to the west and southwest of Lubbock, carrying with them information about the Panhandle-South Plains fair, opening Monday.

Traveling in two chartered Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma coaches, the boosters left Lubbock at 7:30 a. m. Thursday and returned last night about 7:30 o'clock after having visited one of the most rapidly-growing sections of the South Plains and eastern New Mexico.

Stop At Levelland

First stop was at Levelland at 8 a. m., where literature on the fair was distributed along with window displays and tickets for the "Queen for a Day" broadcast shows to be staged Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the fairgrounds.

Traveling with the boosters were ten members of the Lubbock Lions club, which is sponsoring the "Queen for a Day" programs. The group was headed by A. H. Maas and Groves Denman.

Whiteface, Morton and Plains were visited in order with stops being made at the schools at the latter two places. From the time the buses left Levelland until they got back into Wolfforth last night the boosters saw evidence of this week's heavy rains which was of great benefit to the area visited.

Leaving Texas, the boosters traveled to Tatum and went through the recently-developed irrigation areas of Lea county, extending from near Tatum to Hobbs.

Lunch was eaten at Lovington and the final stop on the trip was made at Hobbs at 3:30 o'clock.

At Hobbs the visitors were greeted by Carl Rodolph, president of the Hobbs Chamber of Commerce, and Glen L. Scanlan, manager of the chamber of commerce. Rodolph extended a brief welcome to the visitors and Arkley L. Bell, chairman of the Lubbock party, responded.

Traveling with the boosters, as has been the case on the three other trips, was a sound truck furnished by Baldridge Bakery of Lubbock.

Florida Storm May Sideswipe Bermuda

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 23. (AP)—The two-fisted hurricane that mauled Cuba and Florida continued on its way up the Atlantic tonight, threatening to sideswipe Bermuda with gale force winds.

In a 4:15 p. m. (CST) advisory, the weather bureau said the storm was about 360 miles southeast of Wilmington, N. C., moving northeast to east northeast at 19 miles an hour.

Strongest winds are still near 100 miles an hour and gales extend outward 250 miles from the center, with hurricane winds over a 50-mile radius.

The center is expected to pass northwest of Bermuda near noon tomorrow, with heavy gales near hurricane force likely to sweep the island resort.

Packing winds that reached 160 miles an hour, the storm cost six lives in Cuba and three in Florida. Damage was estimated at $25,000,000 in Florida from wind and water. Nowhere did local damage add up to a disaster.

Alien Accused Of Favoring Overthrow Of U.S. Arrested

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—George Pirinsky, 48, was arrested today on a warrant charging him, as an alien, with belonging to an organization advocating forceful overthrow of the United States government.

Pirinsky is from New York and is head of the All-Slav Congress.

Truman Scores Wallace's Third Party

HST Urges Liberals Not To Waste Votes

(By The Associated Press)

AMERICAN liberals were urged Thursday night by President Truman not to toss their votes away on a "powerless third party" which he said "the Communists are guiding and using."

He made this plea in a speech prepared for a Los Angeles audience as Henry A. Wallace, the third-party leader, accused the administration of concealing a wartime "fraud" by the nation's railroads.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate, who follows Mr. Truman into Los Angeles tonight, said at Phoenix that atomic weapons must be developed "with every means" as an aid to peace.

Trying to undermine Wallace's support, President Truman made this plea to liberals who might be eyeing Wallace:

"Think again. This is the hour for the liberal forces of America to unite. We have hopes to fulfill and goals to attain. Together we can rout the forces of reaction once again."

"A vote for the third party," Mr. Truman said, "plays into the hands of the Republican forces of reaction, whose aims are directly opposed to the aims of American liberalism."

Wallace Opens Drive

Politicians were inclined to the belief that the Democrats would be damaged more by a heavy vote for Wallace than would the Republicans.

In Augusta, Ga., Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights presidential candidate, denied that his party is helping the Republicans. Instead, he added in a radio speech, Governor Dewey "would have carried every southern state" if the States Righters had not entered a ticket.

Members of the States' Rights party now feel that Dewey will not win a single southern state, Thurmond said.

Wallace was in Toledo, opening his last coast-to-coast campaign tour.

Accusing the railroads of "defrauding" the country out of $2,000,000,000 in war-time freight rates, Wallace said the postponement of a federal hearing on the situation was "an almost unknown, but striking example of the Truman administration to vested interest."

California's 25 votes in the electoral college were the prize for which Mr. Truman, Governor Dewey and Wallace all were angling.

Mr. Truman meanwhile continued his attacks on "that awful, donothing Congress."

Testimony Ends In Dillard Case

By A. B. SLAGLE
Avalanche Staff Writer

Brewster E. Dillard took the witness stand in his own defense as the last witness in his trial for the murder of Garlon D. Weaver last Nov. 1, and at conclusion of his testimony, both sides rested in Judge G. V. Pardue's 99th criminal district court here Thursday at 4:40 p. m.

Judge Pardue announced he would prepare his charge to the jury for reading at 9 a. m. today, and counsel's arguments in the case are to follow immediately. Time allotted for arguments was not announced, but it was probable that the case would be in the hands of the jury around noon.

Home In Dallas

After agreement by counsel for both sides, Judge Pardue announced to the jurors that they would be permitted, if they desider, to attend the Black Hubber-Midland Black Indians baseball game last night at Rosenthal field, or could go to the park under sheriff's supervision. He said, however, higher courts have ruled against juries attending picture shows, and they would not be permitted to go there.

The state had rested its case at 1:40 p. m. after brief testimony by one witness recalled to the stand, and Dillard followed six other defense witnesses on the stand, most of them seeking to brand Weaver as a man of bad reputation.

Dillard, 37 years old, said his home was in Dallas, where his wife worked, at the time of the shooting, and that he had driven here from Dallas early in the morning of Oct. 31, the night Weaver was shot shortly past midnight.

Knew Victim 20 Years

Reared at Lockney, Dillard testified he had known Weaver more or less casually 20-some-odd years and that he was afraid of him. He said he went to the station—Panhandle Service station operated by Weaver and Ernest D. (Buddy) Tice—at 2707 Texas Ave. about 10 or 10:30 o'clock that night, and that Tice, Weaver and a fellow named Hawkins were there.

He recounted under questioning by J. E. Vickers, of Vickers and Vickers, who with Burton S. Burks, of Burks and McNeill, are defense counsel, the same story substantially as told at the morning session by Tice, a state witness.

He told of a game of matching with coins, in which he lost $220 to $230, then borrowed from Weaver successively on his ring, diamond stickpin, and wrist watch.

Amarillo Woman Killed In North Carolina Car Wreck

CANTON, N. C., Sept. 23 (AP)—A headon auto collision today killed a Texas woman and injured her husband and daughter.

Mrs. Maudie Lee Windham, 54, Amarillo, died in the crash. Her husband, Alfred W. Windham, Sr., and a daughter, Eula Windham, suffered minor injuries.

John W. Colyer, Spartanburg, S. C., a salesman, also suffered minor injuries.

Additional Milk Price Hikes Announced By Lubbock Firms

REPORTS of milk shortages in Lubbock groceries and on routes Thursday were, if not entirely refuted, minimized by leading distributors in the city last night. Several distributors reported price increases, however, both to producers and consumers, to meet increases announced earlier this week by McIlhaney Dairy Products Co.

Bell Milk company spokesmen indicated that they had had no shortages in delivery Thursday either on milk route in the city or in grocery stores here.

The company has been supplementing its local milk supply with shipments of fluid milk from Wisconsin. Thus far, spokesmen reported, the importations, about 300,000 pounds per week, have been enough to fulfill demands. Bell Wednesday raised its prices to producers to $6.65, as compared to the previously-paid $6.45, and raised its prices to consumers Thursday. This price now is 23 cents a quart.

Another of the leading distributors in the city, Borden's, also denied any milk shortage Thursday. Like the first distributor, however, the company is shipping milk here for consumption from out-

New Freight Boost Sought

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The nation's railroads announced today they would seek another eight per cent increase in freight rates.

An increase somewhat less than that amount will be sought on certain excepted commodities.

The decision was announced by traffic executives of the railroads after a series of conferences here this week.

W. H. Dana, Chicago, chairman of the Western Traffic Executives committee, said current freight rate levels were not producing sufficient revenue to meet the carrier's requirements.

Revenue Claimed Insufficient

The increase which will be asked of the Interstate Commerce commission, he said, does not anticipate the outcome of wage negotiations or disputes involving 1,350,000 railroad workers.

"Any further increase in railroad operating costs which might result from pending demands of the unions is a bridge that will have to be crossed when we come to it," Dana said.

Dana said the present freight rates had "failed after a trial period to produce adequate revenue despite the heavy volume of traffic that is being handled."

Exceptions Listed

Exceptions to the proposed eight per cent rate increase will be as follows, Dana said:

The carriers' petition filed with the commission Aug. 26 to raise the rates on coal and coke in all territories will be amended to ask an additional five cents a net ton and six cents a gross ton.

Similarly, the proposed increase on iron ore in eastern and southern territories will be raised five cents a ton, net or gross, under the plan

Other rates and charges, including charges for accessorial services but not including charges for wharfage, handling and tipping at southern ports which are absorbed by the carriers would be increased eight per cent.

On fruits and vegetables, the maximum increase would be eight cents per 100 pounds.

On sugar and lumber, the maximum increase should be five cents a 100 pounds.

The railroads have been granted two freight rate increases since the war, each averaging about 10 per cent.

U. S. Steps Into Railway Dispute

(By The Associated Press)

The government began attempts Thursday to mediate a wage dispute of 1,000,000 railroad workers who are taking a strike vote.

In other labor developments, a picket was shot in the leg in the strike of California CIO refinery workers and a threatened strike of 300 Pan American World Airways employes was averted.

Union leaders authorized a strike vote for the non-operating railroad employes—members of 16 unions — after negotiations collapsed last week.

The National (railway) Mediation board intervened Thursday when two of its members came to Chicago from Washington and conferred with union representatives.

Under the Railway Labor act, if the mediation board fails to bring a settlement, the President will appoint a fact-finding board to investigate the dispute and make recommendations. Unless a settlement is reached, the unions are legally free to strike after that, barring court action.

The workers are demanding a wage boost of 25 cents an hour; reduction of the 48-hour work week to 40 hours without a cut in pay; time and half for Saturdays and double time for Sundays and holidays.

Seminole Is Picked For Next Meeting Of El Paso Presbytery

BIG SPRING, Sept. 23 (AP)—The El Paso presbytery, adjourning its autumn meeting here today, named Seminole as the site of its meeting next year.

Fifty delegates were selected as commissioners to the general assembly. They were named by the Rev. J. Burton Riddle, Levelland; the Rev. John Justus, El Paso; Scott Doss, Seminole, and Wyatt Hester.

Dr. William H. Foster of Lubbock was named moderator of a commission appointed to organize a new church at Ruidosa, N. M.

Dr. J. M. Lewis of Lubbock, who retired as chairman of missions after 25 years, was honored at the concluding ceremony by Dr. James Hardee of the Broadway Presbyterian church of Fort Worth.

Secretary Sounds Grim Warning In UN Meeting

Marshall Denounces Soviets, Warns U.S. Will Stand Firm

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Sept. 23—Secretary of State Marshall denounced Communist "starvation and disorder" tactics today and warned Russia not to commit the "tragic error" of mistaking American patience for weakness.

The secretary told the 58-nation UN General Assembly in Paris that secret police "terror" forced labor, and the "systematic and deliberate denials of basic human rights lie at the root of most of our troubles."

U. S. Policies Outlined

Marshall added firmly:

"Under no circumstances will we barter away the rights and freedoms of other peoples."

Marshall outlined American policy amid the grave situation caused by the Soviet blockade of Berlin and the Russian attempt to drive the western Allies from that city.

The secretary did not mention Russia and the Soviet satellite states except to refer to them as "the small minority" obstructing peace goals.

Nor did he directly mention Berlin. But he hinted that an unsatisfactory Soviet reply to the tripartitie western note of last night will result in tossing the Berlin situation to the United Nations.

U. S. Seeks Settlement

Marshall declared the United States is ready "to seek, in every possible way, in any appropriate forum, a constructive and peaceful settlement of the political controversies which contribute to the present tension and uncertainty."

The secretary added:

"It would be a tragic error if, because of misunderstanding, the patience of others should be mistaken for weakness."

The only Soviet satellite member to speak in today's opening debate was Zygmunt Modzelewski, Polish foreign minister, who did not hesitate to name the United States and Britain as enemies.

Red Line Repeated

Modzelewski repeated the usual Russian policy line. He said the German question was a big four one and did not belong under UN jurisdiction.

The Pole attacked the western Allies air supply service to Berlin as "economic nonsense" and part of an alleged western effort to split Germany and use it as a base "for a plan to conquer the world."

Marshall's conciliatory but firm speech contrasted with the bitter attack of the Polish Communist delegate.

A British spokesman said the American leader's speech was a "dignified and timely bid for a peaceful get-together and I hope it does some good in the proper quarters.

Marshall acknowledged that world tension has risen and said the United States did not want to add to it "but we will not compromise essential principles."

Red Isolationism Scored

The secretary said that "no plot" exists among UN members to keep nations in a minority. He said eastern "minority position is self-imposed," and added:

"Any government which by deliberate action cuts itself and its people off from the rest of the world becomes incapable of understanding the problems and policies of other governments and other peoples.

"Governments which systematically disregard the rights of their own people are unlikely to respect the rights of other nations and people and are likely to seek objectives by coercion and force in the international field."

The secretary also warned against people being "misled by those who in the name of revolutionary slogans would prevent reconstruction and recovery, or hold out the illusions of future well-being at the price of starvation and disorder today."

Marshall said the United States wants to complete German, Japanese and Austrian peace treaties and listed these other seven American wishes:

A Palestine free of strife and with opposing Israel and Trans-Jordan admitted to the UN; an independent, unified Korea; a secure Greece; a negotiated Indonesian settlement; continued mediation in the Indian state of Kashmir; early adoption of atomic energy controls; and progressive arms reduction under a guarantee against violation.

Gen. Carlo P. Romulo, the Philippines' delegate who opened the debate, appealed for the small powers to act as a peaceful anchor amid the big power tension.

Romulo said the danger of war is growing, and "it is a time-bomb ticking away at our feet."

MEDICAL SOCIETY OFFERS PLAN

Drastic Revisions In City's Health Setup Is Urged

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

DRASTIC operational revisions in the city health department recommended by the Lubbock County Medical society were taken under advisement by the city commission at its semi-monthly meeting at the city hall Thursday afternoon.

The commission also set a public hearing for 2 p. m. on Thursday, Oct. 14, on a fire prevention ordinance proposed by Lubbock Insurance exchange. The commission asked City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr., to notify as many businesses as possible—which run into the several hundreds which would be affected by the ordinance of the hearing date.

Revision Believed Needed

It was the concensus of the three members of the commission present—Mayor W. H. Rodgers and Commissioners W. B. Price and Clarence Whiteside—that the proposed fire prevention measure contains excellent features. But they also seemed in agreement that the ordinance, as now proposed, probably will require considerable revisions.

Main features of the recommendations of the medical society, as presented by Drs. Ewell L. Hunt and R. C. Douglas, were these:

Appoint a medical doctor as director of health; employ a social service worker with two public health nurses as assistants; appoint a school physician and several additional nurses; appoint a doctor to be paid by the city and/or county for out-patient care of indigents; require an x-ray chest examination, stooling tests, skin tests and examinations for syphylis before the issuance of health certificates—the syphylis blood test is the only present requirement; provide a separate building for laboratories, health, welfare and related activities; divorce health duties from the City-County Welfare association, and retain Gerald Jarvis, present city laboratorian, as executive assistant to the health director.

The committee and members of the commission warmly praised

Plot To Kill Peron And Wife Claimed Smashed By Arrests

(By The Associated Press)

BUENOS, AIRES, Friday, Sept. 24.—It was announced here last night that the government had smashed a plot against the life of President Juan D. Peron and his wife, Eva Durate Peron.

An official statement said several arrests had been made.

Police said a United States citizen, whom they identified as John Griffit, now in Uruguay, headed the plot under which the Perons were to be killed next Oct. 12.

Area Rotarians Hold Meet Here

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college and a Rotarian for 22 years, was principal speaker at the 25th annual inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs, held Thursday night in the college gymnasium.

Approximately 600 Rotary club members from 28 towns in this area attended the meeting and the barbecue which preceded it. The barbecue was spread on the lawn east of the gym.

Irving L. Jones, president of the Lubbock Rotary club which was host at the gathering, was master of ceremonies at the meeting. He introduced Lloyd Moyer, minister of the Slaton Church of Christ, who gave the invocation.

Visitors Are Presented

After a brief welcome address, Jones introduced Rex Webster, Lubbock Rotarian, who was in charge of a program of songs. Roy Bass was pianist. Webster introduced the Plainsmen quartet, composed of Robert Dennis, Bob Hufstedler, Jack Hall, and "Robbie" Robertson, who sang three selections and gave one encore.

Chas. A. Guy, editor of The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, introduced special guests at the meeting, including Floyd D. Golden,

U. S. Envoy Smith To Fly To Washington

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (INS)—State department sources said today the U.S. ambassador to Russia will fly to Washington tonight for conferences on the tinder-box East-West split.

The envoy, W. Bedell Smith, represented the U. S. in the critical Kremlin conferences which at one point were happily believed to have solved the Soviet-western power crisis in Berlin.

State department officials would not evaluate significance of Smith's flying trip but well-placed observers would not deny its importance in view of Secretary of State Marshall's warning to the United Nations today that U. S. patience should not be mistaken for weakness.

New Hearing Is Set Today

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Sept. 23.—Attorneys for Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson move here tomorrow to continue their court battle over the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate.

Johnson's attorneys are to appear before Federal Circuit Judge J. C. Hutcheson, Jr., at 9 a. m. tomorrow to ask a stay of execution of an injunction signed in Dallas today and preventing Johnson's name from going on the November general election ballot.

Hutcheson tonight said it may be possible for him, as presiding judge of the New Orleans Circuit Court of Appeals, to grant "temporary relief" but added the entire court would have to hear the appeal from the injunction.

Injunction Is Signed

The court next meets at Atlanta, October 4, one day after the deadline for a name to be placed on the November ballot.

Hutcheson said any "temporary relief" he may be able to grant "would depend on what kind of relief Johnson's attorneys ask."

James V. Allred, attorney for Johnson, announced in Dallas today that Johnson's legal staff would file an appeal with the New Orleans circuit court. He said they would go to Judge Hutcheson, asking him to grant a stay of execution of the injunction.

In Dallas, Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of the North Texas District Federal court signed at noon today the temporary injunction blocking the use of Johnson's name as the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senate on the Nov. 2 election ballot.

He signed the injunction which he had granted Stevenson last night at the conclusion of a dramatic, two-day federal court session in Fort Worth.

The State Democratic convention has certified Johnson as winner of the Senate nomination race by 87 votes. Stevenson had alleged that voting fraud in Jim Wells, Zapata and Duval counties in the second primary had deprived him of the Senate nomination.

Davidson prepared today to send federal investigators into South Texas to check second primary returns in the three counties.

Judge Davidson said he was

Baptist Church Contract Is Let

The million-dollar new home of First Baptist church moved near reality Thursday with the announcement that a contract for general construction of the building has been awarded to Robert E. Maxey, Lubbock contractor.

The contract was awarded, said Dr. F. B. Malone, chairman of the church building committee, after that committee had interviewed several general contractors. Although the contract has not yet been actually signed, the decision was reached at a committee meeting Wednesday night.

Actual work is expected to begin about Nov. 1 when the architects, Butler-Brasher company of Lubbock and the consulting architects, Eggers and Higgins of New York City, ecclesiastical architects, will have plans completed.

Site On Avenue V

The imposing structure is to be built on a site occupying about half a block at Avenue V between Broadway and Thirteenth street. The church bought most of the property several years ago. Early this year a strip of property at the west end of the site was purchased for the purpose of providing a paved street from Broadway to Thirteenth street.

First unit to be started will be the educational building, consisting of two wings. One wing will be three stories and a basement, 88 by 106 feet. The second wing will be two stories and a basement 86 by 106 feet. The construction will be brick and tile with stone trim, and tile roofing. It will have facilities for 3,200 Sunday school students.

Plans are still on the boards for

Engineer Killed In Florida Train Crash

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 23. (AP)—Engineer L. E. Hicks of Tampa, was killed tonight when his engine turned over on him in a collision between the Atlantic coast line railroad's Havana Special, Tampa to New York, and a southbound freight train at Mango, ten miles east of here.

Chief dispatcher R. M. Beach of the railroad said five cars of the passenger train were derailed but there had been no casualties among passengers.

He said he did not know how the accident occurred.

Parsons To Attend Textile Meeting In North Carolina

Prof. L. E. Parsons, chairman of the textile engineering department at Texas Technological college, announced Thursday that he would attend the regular fall meeting of the National Council of Textile schools Oct. 1, 2, and 3, at the Grove Park Inn, Ashville, N. C.

The deans, or department heads from the ten textile schools in the U. S. will attend the meeting, which is sponsored by the Textile foundation. Round-table discussions of textile schools' problems will be held daily, Professor Parsons stated.

Parsons will fly from here to Dallas, to Atlanta, Ga., and from there to Ashville. On the return trip, he will spend one day, Oct. 4, in Greenville, S. C., where he will attend a textile exposition which will take place Oct. 4-9. Parsons said that during the exposition, only light textile machinery will be shown this year.

Professor Parsons was president of the National Council of Textile schools last year.

Dutch Blamed For Communist Activity

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. (INS)—A high Indonesian official today charged the Dutch with creating a "breeding ground for Communism" in that Far Eastern country.

Dr. Alexander A. Maramis, minister of finance of the newly-born nationalist Indonesian government, made a special trip to Washington to issue this charge.

Maramis said his nationalist government could handle the Communists without outside aid if the Dutch would lift their blockade of Indonesia. He added:

"It should be pointed out that while the Dutch blockade of Indonesia is creating fertile soil for Communism, it is also costing the United States 365 million dollars per year. This sum must be diverted by the Dutch from Marshall Plan funds if they are to continue the blockade. Only by financial sleight of hand can the Dutch conceal this fact."

The Indonesian situation has been the subject of concern in both Washington and London in recent days. The Nationalist government is resisting both the Dutch and a Communist onslaught.

Dutch Foreign Minister Dirk Udo Stikker made a flying trip to Washington last week to confer with Secretary of State Marshall on the situation. Both the State department and the British foreign office issued statements condemning a Soviet-directed drive to place all of Southeast Asia under Communist control.

U. S. Farmers Want To Strengthen UN

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—More than 50 per cent of American farmers are dissatisfied with the progress the United Nations has made to date, according to a survey by Successful Farming Magazine.

Only one per cent of all farmers showed the isolationist attitude with disapproval of the basic idea of U. N.

The change the greatest number of farmers wanted to see made is to give the United Nations more strength and political force. One Kansas man would like to see "Any change that conferred more authority than merely advisory." A woman from Virginia commented, "I would like to see it rearranged so that one power couldn't interfere with wishes of the whole."

The 18 per cent who are satisfied with the progress the U. N. has made take a more optimistic view of the situation. A man from Kentucky spoke for most of the 18 per cent when he said, "You have to crawl before you walk—it takes time to work out the present problems."

Pittsburgh U. Scientists Anxious For Lightning Bolt

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Scientists at the University of Pittsburgh are waiting eagerly for lightning to strike Pitt's 41-story building.

For the more times that happens the more information they can gather for their "lightning library" for research use. Their instruments atop the building make "carbon copies" of each bolt so it can be reproduced in the laboratory and tested for its effects.

Last year their calculations were somewhat upset when a 345,000-ampere bolt, equal to the current flowing into 300,000 homes, almost wrecked their equipment.

EX-SPY QUEEN FACES LIBEL SUIT

Solon Says 'Top Soviet Spy' Linked To Three Men In U. S.

By ROSE McKEE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The acting chairman of the House spy probe committee said "the top Soviet spy" is linked to the three men he contends should be prosecuted for atomic espionage.

Rep. McDowell (D-Pa), named Arthur Adams, often mentioned in the committee's sensational investigation, as "the top Soviet spy." The congressman said two of the trio he urges be indicted are U. S. scientists. The third he described as a "Communist functionary who is a spy by profession."

Adams Fled U. S.

The spy probers previously called Adams, who has fled the country, a most important Soviet agent assigned to steal America's atomic and radar secrets." McDowell said today he saw no chance of catching him.

McDowell said that even if the Justice department brings the case of the three persons he wants indicted before a federal grand jury, he believes the committee should issue a report on its atomic espionage probe. He explained:

"The American people are entitled to know how dangerous the situation was. The report should name names."

A full committee meeting was called for Friday to decide whether the unit should end its atomic espionage probe without holding open hearings.

Open Hearings Opposed

McDowell said it was doubtful that a quorum would be present. He favors abandonment of open hearings to safeguard against accidental disclosure of atomic information that would help a foreign power.

McDowell's statement was made shortly after ex-Commerce department official William Remington declared he will sue spy-queen Elizabeth Bentley for libel unless she retracts a radio statement that he is a Communist.

Remington, accused before a Senate committee by Miss Bentley of giving secret information to a Soviet wartime spy ring, said he would also sue National Broadcasting Co. NBC carried the program on which Miss Bentley made the charge.

Refers To TV Broadcast

The ex-government official explained he referred to a televised NBC "Meet the Press" program on Sept. 12, during which Miss Bentley reiterated charges made before the Senate Ferguson committee.

Remington told Miss Bentley in a letter addressed to NBC that unless a "satisfactory public retraction is made by you before 12 o'clock noon Sept. 30," he will "commence a libel action against you."

Meanwhile, a House spy prober launched a move to determine whether Gov. Dewey will turn over federal loyalty files to Congress if elected president.

Rep. Hebert (D-La.), a member of the House un-American Activities committee, made public a letter to the GOP nominee asking whether he was prepared to rescind President Truman's embargo on files.

A similar letter was sent Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, S. C., presidential candidate on the States Rights Democratic ticket. Other developments:

1. Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.), of a Senate investigating committee, renewed his spy probe feud with Attorney General Clark over the loyalty program. Ferguson demanded that FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover be allowed to tell Congress what he knows about Communists in the government.

Clark promptly replied with a statement that he had never refused to allow the FBI chief to testify "and Sen. Ferguson knows it."

2. Hebert, in a radio broadcast, charged Clark with being "derelict in his duty" for not prosecuting Communist espionage agents in the United States.

Motorist Hard To Convince Speeding Isn't Profitable

FORT WORTH, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—A Fort Worth motorist knew today that speeding can prove expensive, but whether he was convinced was another thing.

At least he had better be, for corporation court Judge W. H. Gilmartin has warned that he might get rough with the man next time.

The man has paid $131 in speeding fines since last March 2. His first fine was $20 for going 50 MPH in a 30-mile zone Next was a $12 fine for going 47 in a 35-mile zone, plus $5 for second offense; third was $60 for going 80 in a 30-mile zone, plus $10 for third offense.

This week, it cost him $15 for going 50 in a 35-mile zone, plus $15 for fourth offense. Added to these were $3 for issuance of warrants in a couple of cases where he failed to see the judge within the required five days.

No Solution Found To Mystery Of Old New England Mill

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—Even scientists have been unable to discover the secret of New England's mysterious old stone mill. It has been the subject of layman controversy for several hundred years.

An archaeologist, Dr. William S. Godfrey, Jr., now reports that he has turned up nothing in painstaking excavation of the ancient structure to substantiate either of the two most popular theories about the tower. One is that it was built by Gov. Benedict Arnold and the other that the Vikings constructed it

Two early English coins, dated 1698 and 1700 discovered in sifting foundation dirt, reveal nothing new. A third coin, dated 1695 bearing the image of King William 3rd, was found earlier. The discoveries are not startling, since Newport was established in 1639, Godfrey said.

Conclusions from other objects found in the evacuation will not be available until a scientific committee has studied them for several weeks. Godfrey doubts that either of the popular theories will get much support from the findings.

Theories Refuted

"The first theory, that the mill was built by Gov. Arnold, is not backed by fact," Godfrey said, "since Governor Arnold never did state he built the mill. He only referred to it in his 1677 will as 'my stone built wind mill.' In other words, it was his property."

The Viking theory also is lacking basis he said, because there is no recorded evidence to prove the Vikings ever landed in or near the Newport area.

Especially mysterious, are the tower's medieval features, Godfrey said. The arched support beams above the fireplace instead of flues in the fireplace instead of the conventional one large opening, and double splayed windows are characteristics of 12th century European castles.

Until now at least, Godfrey said, the mysterious landmark has given no hint it will give up its secret to science.

Man Drives To Police Station With Body Of Pretty Nurse

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 23. (U.P.)—A youthful automobile mechanic drove up to Little Rock police headquarters today with the body of a pretty, blonde 24-year-old nurse in the car seat beside him and told officers a bizarre story of a midnight tryst that ended in her death.

The Pulaski county prosecuting attorney's office announced that the man, Tommy E. Black, 28, admitted beating the girl about the face and head with his fists in a quarrel that climaxed the couple's first date.

The victim was identified as Betty J. McCall, an instructor at the U. S. Veterans hospital here.

Prosecutor Edin E. Dunaway said murder charges would be filed immediately against Black, who was being held in Pulaski county jail on an open charge following his voluntary surrender.

Coroner Howard Dishong said a preliminary medical examination indicated Miss McCall died of facial and head injuries.

Assistant Prosecutor Tom Downey said Black admitted beating and choking Miss McCall on a lonely highway southeast of Little Rock shortly after leaving a night club early today.

He denied criminally attacking her, but the coroner said his examination showed she had been criminally assaulted. The prosecutor's office said rape probably would be made part of the charge filed against Black.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

A HOUSEWIFE who summoned an electrician to repair her electric icebox because it wouldn't freeze the ice cubes said to the repairman, "Maybe it's because the light bulb in there is throwing out too much heat." Women are funny that way!

FAIR EJHIBITS

REMEMBER the deadline for taking entries to the women's department at the Panhandle-South Plains fair is 1 o'clock this afternoon. (That is except for bread, cakes, cookies and flowers, which will be accepted Monday morning.)

A visit to the women's building Thursday afternoon found Mrs. O. R. Copeland, director, her assistant, Mrs. Jess Davidson, and the superintendents and their helpers as busy as proverbial bees. Early indications are that the exhibits will be outstanding, although the women are hard put to make the building look attractive.

With hundreds of items still expected, the department of curios, antiques and relics was showing up to best advantage.

Yesterday afternoon carpenters were busy at work on concession stands and the grounds had been cleared for the carnival midway. It would be difficult for a stranger to realize that in three days the place will be a colorful sight, thronged with people and ablaze with lights and action.

EULOGIZE PASTOR

THE MANY Lubbock friends of J. Paul Quillian, pastor of the Houston First Methodist church for twelve years, will be delighted to learn that eulogy was paid to him Monday night when 1,000 persons jammed the Crystal ballroom of the Rice hotel to pay him tribute as a religious, civic and educational leader.

Speakers, all prominent and in many fields, sang the praises of Dr. Quillian whose influence in religious fields has grown to international circles.

Because of his human approach to religion, scores of thousands of people in the Southwest have been drawn closer to God and to realize that the Christian church is the answer to the hungers of the human heart, it was declared by first one and then another.

And in reply to the two hours of praise, the modest minister asked for a chance to serve more adequately.

Such eulogies too often are given when the recipient is no longer present to hear them. In the stress and strain of today's living, we often overlook how much a testimonial means to a man who has given his life to God and his people.

FOURTEEN COUNT

BEFORE you put that bracelet on—count to fourteen! Before you choose that multi-colored scarf—make sure the decoration won't mean inflation of the "fourteen count." The rule is simplicity itself. Never wear a costume that comprises more than 14 eye-arresting elements. Here's how it works:

You want to look pretty tonight, but not extreme. You count one point for each and every accessory. A clip counts one point, and so do earrings or a pair of bracelets. You count one point for each basic article of wear: Your dress, for example, your shoes, your hat or your wrap. But if the shoes have a buckle, a bow or a platform with nailheads, you add another point to the total.

If your hat has more than one color, each color rates a point. And if your dress has buttons, bows, belts, or trim, you add points for them. Gloves count one point, but stitching or buttons on them add another. Sequinned fabrics, metallic cloth and highly-beaded materials count five in themselves.

After you get dressed, take off the accessories that total above fourteen points and you will be fashion right. The world's best-dressed women keep to the count.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN NOW HAVE EASIER WASHDAYS!

FAB WITH SUPER-WETTING ACTION

NEW INGREDIENT GETS WHITE WASH WHITER ...COLORS BRIGHTER!
FAB contains a fabulous new ingredient that gets white wash whiter, colors brighter. Besides, there is no soap scum to "gray" white wash or to dull colors when you wash with FAB.

FAB WASHES CLOTHES CLEANER THAN ANY SOAP!
FAB with Super-Wetting Action instantly penetrates materials; pushes out dirt. Washes grimiest overalls cleaner faster than soap! No "graying" soap scum. Wash is whiter, cleaner!

FAB WASHES CHEAPER ...IN HARDEST WATER!
Laboratory tests prove that cup for cup, in hard water, FAB washes up to twice as much family wash as soap. You'll notice that all of FAB washes ... Nothing is wasted in soap scum!

FAB WASHES DISHES TWICE AS FAST!
No need to wipe dishes. Just wash with FAB, and rinse. NO soap scum to polish away. Even glassware sparkles! FAB slashes through grease as no soap can do! Pots and pans get clean easier.
washes everything
FASTER, CLEANER, WHITER, BRIGHTER than any soap...in hardest water!
FABulous new washday discovery from Colgate-Palmolive-Peet laboratories gives rich suds with no soap scum in hardest water! Cleans even grimiest overalls cleaner faster!
Super-Wetting Action is a new scientific washing principle. When you wash, FAB and water penetrate materials faster and more thoroughly than soap... push dirt out. FAB with Super-Wetting Action saves time and work as no soap can do.
New Ingredient...another fabulous miracle! Your white wash gets whiter and colors brighter due to a fabulous new ingredient in FAB.
No Soap Scum...even in hardest water! Even grimiest overalls, play clothes and towels... everything that's extra-dirty... get cleaner faster with FAB. There's no soap scum, even in hardest water. Clothes get whiter, cleaner!
What is Super-Wetting Action?

See for yourself. Roll cotton sewing thread into a ball. Drop it into a glass of water. It floats. Drop another ball of thread into a glass of water and FAB. It sinks at once. This shows how FAB with Super-Wetting Action penetrates materials faster and more thoroughly.

Tech President Speaks For Federation On Education And Hope Of Civilization

The idea of a completely educated man is gone forever because today's world is so sub-divided no individual can take on all the intelligent attitudes involved, Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Technological college, told members of City Federation at a luncheon served Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the ballroom of the Hilton hotel.

The hope of civilization is not in more understanding, but in acquisition of motives that control understanding, the college president pointed out in a thirty-minute talk. Two basal attitudes, understanding and appreciation, control the behavior of every individual, the speaker suggested. These great forces that guide ones relation to his fellow man are not inherited and not accidental but gained through experiences, through education, through love and sympathy.

Wives Are Guests

Mrs. Russell Denison, first vice president, introduced Dr. Wiggins. Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. E. N. Jones, wife of Tech's vice president, also were special guests.

Preceding the meal, Mrs. Asher Thompson sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg) and "Italian Street Song" (Herbert), accompanied at the piano by Mrs. T. W. Womack.

Mrs. L. D. Marshall presided for a short business meeting and introduced Mrs. Elliott W. Adams as a new member and Amiga club as the newest organization to affiliate itself with the Federation.

A luncheon meeting has been planned for the City Federation for Oct. 28 with Mrs. Ross Ayers in charge of a program on "Promoting Democracy and Understanding Throughout the World."

One hundred eight women attended the program luncheon. Hostess clubs were Allegro Music, Clement-Sorosis and the Woman's Forum with Mrs. Guy Brown in charge of arrangements.

Town Talk

Mrs. C. D. Eaves, who introduced Rep. George Mahon as speaker at the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club dinner Wednesday night, was the object of a great deal of attention in her unusual Oriental dinner gown.

Dr. C. D. Eaves brought her the material from Japan when he returned from a year of occupational teaching service there, and the brunette Mrs. Eaves designed and made the dress herself. Fashioned in modified princess lines with a slight drape at the hips and a high neckline, the brilliant Japanese brocade has a background of true Oriental red with tracings of golden threads and colorful patterns of silken embroidery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell, 2218 Sixteenth, returned Wednesday from Spartanburg S. C., where they attended the wedding of their son, Frank Mitchell, jr., who is a 1943 graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in electrical engineering. The bride was Miss Emily Stone of Spartanburg, and the couple are working in Arlington, Va., for the U. S. War department.

After a suprise gift to Truth chapter, U. D., of the Order of the Eastern Star Guy Casey, a member of the group, sent a giant arrangement of peach gladioli for the Tuesday night meeting in Seaman hall.

Wednesday the flowers were arranged in smaller bouquets and taken to "sick list" members by Mesdames R. W. Scott and Carl O. Stewart. Persons receiving flowers were Mrs. Elliott A. Murray, 2806 Second, and Mesdames France Baker and Wilbur McQueary, both in Lubbock Memorial hospital.

The luncheon for DFD patronesses which was scheduled for Tuesday has been postponed until Oct. 5, with the time and place to be announced later.

Entertainment plans for the active college club have been made and include a patroness sponsored fall dance. A pledge tea will be given on Oct. 10, in the home of Mrs. F. W. Groce, 1210 Ave. R, where a Christmas tea will also be held. In the spring, DFD members will be honored at a picnic.

Out of town guests here to attend the Lawson-Holman wedding tonight at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church, are Mesdames, R. L. Dilliard of Marlin; and W. F. Boling of Wichita Falls, mother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weeman of Fort Worth.

Male members of the wedding party who have arrived from Austin, where they attend the University of Texas, are Joe Bander, Cliff Davidson, H. P. Hodge and John Gould.

Mrs. Charles Murphy of Houston, the former Miss Etoile McLeod, flew to Lubbock Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. McLeod, and to attend the Junior Welfare League style show.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson of Corpus Christi is the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. G. H. Williams, and of her sister, Mrs. Jack M. Randal, and family.

Girls, Boys Will Model Fall Clothes

Sixteen girls and twelve boys will be models in an All Child's Fall Fashion Review this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Plaza theater. Clothes will be described by Mrs. J. C. Martin and a musical background is to be furnished by Gerre Hancock, organist.

The event is being sponsored by St. Elizabeth's, Altar society.

TO BE HOSTESS

Mrs. Tom Galloway, 2907 Thirty-fourth, will be hostess to the 1942 Needle club at 3 p. m. today.

East Broadway P-TA Entertains Faculty

Sixty-three members attended the tea given Thursday afternoon by East Broadway Parent-Teacher association honoring the school faculty. Mrs. Marshall Howard, president, introduced the teachers.

During a business session, a Hallowe'en carnival to be held Friday, Oct. 29, was discussed and plans for a P-TA yearbook were made.

Missionary Society Conducts Election

Officers elected by the night group of Daughters of the King Missionary society of the Lutheran church recently in the home of Mrs. Vincent Sells, 2409 Tenth, are as follows:

Mrs. H. L. Spitzer, president; Mrs. August Becker, jr., vice president; Mrs. John Peterson, secretary; and Miss June Hanson, a new member, treasurer.

Rev. David Sieberg presented a Bible study and Mrs. Sells read verses from Proverbs II.

Refreshments were served to Rev. and Mrs. David Sieberg, and Mesdames Otto Coldewey, Burnell Mueller, Becker, I. E. Scott, William Hildebrand, Lenro Keeton, Spitzer, and Misses Hanson and Ida Nieman.

The women will meet Oct. 19 with Mrs. Hildebrand, 2406 Thirty-first.

Needlers Attend Afternoon Meeting

Members of 1941 Needle club who met with Mrs. A. J. Holtkort, 2201 Eighth, Thursday afternoon were as follows:

Mesdames J. O. Pope, Wesley Smith, C. F. Henry, E. R. Trego, A. E. Dietering, Oliver Cates and Meritt Clark.

The club's next meeting will be with Mrs. W. A. Petty.

Idalou Junior Club Discusses New Books

Recent books were discussed at a meeting of Idalou Junior Civic and Culture club at the club house Sept. 22 with Mrs. J. E. Carpenter as hostess.

Five minute book reviews were given by several members. The club is to sponsor a pie and cake sale at Whitney's grocery store Saturday.

Are You Using the Purest, Whitest GRITS?

TREAT YOUR FAMILY TO "Spoil-Proof" QUAKER GRITS...

See and Taste the Difference!

If you haven't yet discovered how different grits can be, then you just haven't tasted Quaker Grits! Serve them just once . . . and then ask yourself if you ever dreamed there could be such a difference. It's important for you to know why Quaker Grits are so special . . . so fresh, pure and white!

"WHITE PAPER" TEST PROVES PURITY AND WHITENESS!

Just sprinkle a little Quaker Grits on white paper. Notice how pure, clean and sparkling white they look. Now, compare them with any other grits. The final proof, of course, is the smooth, wonderful flavor. Just taste them and decide for yourself!

Only plump, white kernels of corn are selected — then washed again and again in clean clear water. After this washing, they undergo "spoil-proof" milling and are packed in stay-fresh packages for extra protection.

QUAKER Enriched GRITS

EVERY KERNEL WATER-WASHED FOR PURITY!

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*

CAN FADE YOUR COLOR, SAP YOUR STRENGTH!

People with sallow, colorless faces—people who often feel "stale" and "spent"—may find their red blood cells are too puny and faded. They may have a Borderline Anemia due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency.

Medical studies show that up to 68% of women—many men and children—are victims of this tiring Borderline Anemia.

If you have this Borderline Anemia, you need Ironized Yeast Tablets! They are specially formulated to help build up faded, puny red blood cells to healthy redness and size, and thus permit your color and energy to come surging back. Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other causes—see your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. Take them to reclaim your vitality, your healthy color, your enjoyment of life!

*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

Former Czech UN Delegate Flatly Denies Charges Of Embezzlement

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Jan Papanek, former Czech delegate to the UN, is expected to touch off new East-West fireworks when he brings up the issue of the Communist coup in Prague again at the current session of the General Assembly in Paris.

(The Czech government has asked France to extradite Dr. Papanek to stand trial on charges that he failed to return $115,000 to the Czech Red Cross and swindled $10,000 from the Czech treasury.

(In the following article, Dr. Papanek vigorously denies what he calls "trumped up charges" and says he has some "unpleasant surprises" in store for his Communist accusers when his case comes up on the Assembly agenda.)

By DR. JAN PAPANEK
(As Told To International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 23—The Czech Communists can not lay their hands on the funds I am accused of embezzling.

Not one penny was, can or will be spent until the matter is settled. Therefore they have decided to undermine my integrity by a completely baseless attack.

Promises Unpleasant Surprises

Diplomatic courtesy would require refraining from publicity until the French foreign office replies to Prague (on the extradition request.)

But the case has been opened in the press instead of in the General Assembly, showing that the Communist position is without foundation.

I am not prepared to reveal the full background of the case at present.

When and if the charges are brought to the administrative committee, the Czech Communists can expect some unpleasant surprises.

The trumped up charges stem from my stand before the Security Council where I maintained that the Czech coup was accomplished with Soviet support.

I also stated that the Czech and Soviet Communists worked hand in hand during the subsequent violence.

Case Is On Agenda

The Communists betrayed the Czech people's interests and they now are trying to find traitors elsewhere.

My charges still have not been disproved.

The charges against me are the outcome of the same falsehoods which have been used to support the present Communist regime.

I am attending the Assembly as a member of the consultative committee and I intend to inform the Assembly again on the Prague affair.

My case is on the agenda. I will defend myself and the democratic people of Czechoslovakia when the case comes up.

I have heard nothing from the French authorities. They realize it is a political affair.

After the Assembly session, I intend to return to the United States and keep my UN posts.

Meanwhile, I am lecturing on Central Europe in American universities. I have no plans to return to Czechoslovakia.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

418,524 Texas Men Register For Draft

AUSTIN, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Reports from all but three of Texas' 137 local boards show that a total of 418,524 men registered with selective service prior to Sept. 20, Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry, state selective service director, said today.

Berry said that when reports from the three remaining boards are in, the total "will be increased somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000."

It was originally estimated that the state's initial registration would be around 560,000.

Selective service officials said they knew no reason why registration was not up to original expectations.

The reports also revealed that 99,219 of the registrants are "single, non-father, non-veteran" registrants between the ages of 19 and 25, inclusive.

These are the men, Berry said, who will be considered first.

Eighteen-year-olds are not considered, he said, until they reach the age of 19.

Of the 99,219 men in this group, selective service headquarters listed the following age groups in the order in which they will be considered for service: 1,358 born in 1922; 5,114 born in 1923; 6,509 born in 1924; 7,423 born in 1925; 8,666 born in 1926; 13,295 born in 1927; 26,779 born in 1928, and 30,075 born in 1929.

U. S. Industry Ready To Go Into War Production On Short Notice

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—National defense officers estimated today that American industry could whip into production of most vital arms in the event of war within 18 months.

They said new plans for stepping up war production have vastly improved the methods of World War II. They said this improvement has made a sharp cut in the time lag between the need for military items and actual production.

The defense officials cautioned that the 18 month estimate was based on present resources, plant capacity and availability. It relies on a new program of "set-aside" plants. There are 156 of these ready for immediate production and 245 others on a "stand-by" basis under lease to private operators.

The defense officials' estimate of time needed to get into production:

Jet fighters, 18 months; B-50 (improved superfort) bomber engines, 15 months; destroyer escorts, 18 months.

Automatic pilots for bombers and long range fighters, 18 months; aircraft instruments, 17 months; propellers, 10 months.

Medium tanks, 18 months; Garand rifles, 6 to 9 months; and 155 millimeter howitzers, 18 months.

Selznick Comes Up With Another Star In Importation; Stewart May Play Cowboy Role

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23.—The luckiest producer in Hollywood with foreign stars is David Selznick. He brings them to Hollywood and without fail gets them into important pictures. But let's say for David that he always had something to offer in these importations, and he does as much for other studios as they do for him.

Today, Hildegarde Neff, his latsest importation, was on the MGM lot testing for the lead in "Vespers In Vienna." Every important star in town has been named for the part, but I'll bet you a cookie that Hildegarde gets it! That's the Selznick luck!

Peter Lawford, who has been concentrating mainly on musical movies, draws the lead opposite Miss Neff if she gets it. If not, he'll get the lead opposite someone else.

Jimmy Stewart is sure of one thing: His next picture will be something different from "Rope."

"Rope" was strictly an experiment, and while to the artistic minds it was interesting (and has been doing a great business in the East) I've had many letters, and I'm sure Jimmy has, regretting that he was in this macabre tale.

That Alfred Hitchcock and Warners will make money with this unique murder story there is very little doubt, but Jimmy has always been the romantic type, and in this role of the professor whose sophistication causes two boys to commit murder, he is out of character.

Jimmy has made a commitment to do a western for Producer Robert Riskin at RKO before the end of the year. Riskin has not found the story yet, but the agreement is that it will be a real western.

Joyce Redman, who is known to New Yorkers who saw her with Laurence Olivier in the Old Vic company, but not to fans outside, has been put on contract by Leland Hayward.

Leland will co-star her with Rex Harrison in "Anne Of A Thousand Days," on the stage. Then if she clicks, knowing Leland, I would say he'll offer her for a big price to movie producers. He is never modest in his asking price.

I have never thought that Marie Wilson had the right chance on the screen. She is so funny in Ken Murray's "Blackouts," and in "My Friend Irma" on the radio she has scored a great success. But in the movies she has never come into her own.

Now she may get that chance. Although Hal Wallis doesn't start "My Friend Irma" until January, there is a big possibility that Betty Hutton won't be finished with "Broadway Story" on time, so he is testing Marie for the role she plays on the air. It would be great if she could get the "Irma" part with those two clowns, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis.

Westerners Meet North Side Steers In Fort Worth Tonight

Steers Favored By One Touchdown Over Lubbock Schoolboy Gridders

FORT WORTH, Sept. 23 (Special)—North Side's powerful Steers and the Lubbock Westerners of District 1-AA will clash at 8 o'clock tonight at Farrington field in a feature tilt of the state non-conference grid slate.

The Steers, one of the top elevens in District 2 of the City conference, will enter the tussle as a one-touchdown favorite over the South Plains eleven on the basis of a spectacular passing attack and the "home field" advantage.

The Steers, with giant Darrow Hooper tossing from the quarterback slot on the North Side "T" formation, have connected with 79 aerials in 34 attempts for a net gain of more than 250 yards in two games. That, and the terrific punting average of 37.4 yards by Hooper and Left Half Kenneth Wilson, is expected to give the Fort Worth gridders a marked offensive edge over the Westerners.

Stress Ground Attack

Lubbock's Black and Gold representatives will depend on a speedy ground attack for most of their scoring punch. The Westerner backs—Bobby Brown, Malcolm Young and Donald Decker—romped for long yardage against Odessa's Broncos and San Angelo's Bobcats, although the Hub city boys have had difficulty in launching sustained drives. Brown turned in a creditable passing exhibition last week against the Bobcats, completing eight of fourteen aerials attempted for 86 yards, but the slender junior has not had the experience of the veteran Hooper.

The burly Steers will hold a 20-pounds per man weight advantage over the Westerners in the backfield, and two of the North Side backs—Quarterback Hooper and Fullback Charles Davis—top 190 pounds. The Westerners will hold a slight weight advantage in the line, but injuries to several of the "big boys" make the weight edge doubtful.

Lost To Odessa

North Side opened the '48 season with a 12-0 victory over highly-rated Tyler, but Coach Paul Snow's gridders found the going rough last week, losing a 20-6 decision to Odessa's rebounding Broncos at Odessa. The Westerners are still shooting for their first win of the year, after chalking up a 7-7 tie with Odessa and losing a 21-13 tilt with San Angelo's Bobcats.

The two teams met at Lubbock last year in a non-title go, with the Steers handing the Westerners a 46-7 drubbing.

(The game will be broadcast over radio station KCBD in Lubbock, it was announced.)

Plains Gridders Beat Littlefield

PLAINS, Sept. 23. (Special)—A 20-yard forward pass by Robert McCargo, which went into the waiting arms of Leland Ellison standing in the end zone on the final play of the game, gave the Plains High school a 25-20 victory over the Littlefield B squad here tonight.

The winning touchdown was set up by Teeter Wauson, who broke through the Littlefield line to block a punt and recover it himself on the 30-yard line. Plains picked up a first down on the 20 and, with the clock running out, clicked for the winning score.

Plains got a lead in the first period when McCargo broke around end and dashed 65 yards through a broken field. The conversion failed.

Littlefield Comes Back

Littlefield stormed back in the second period, staging a steady march that ended in a touchdown on an eight-yard run through the line. The conversion was added and Littlefield led. But Plains came back to score on a 23-yard pass from Ellison to Rufus Brian to go off the field with a 12-7 halftime margin.

The clubs exchanged touchdowns in the third period, Littlefield scoring first on a 15-yard plunge through the line and Plains taking the kickoff back down the field, with Jess Worsham scoring on a six-yard dash. He carried over for the conversion.

Littlefield scored early in the fourth period on a 12-yard run and converted to take a 20-19 lead, checking the issue squarely up to the home team. And they responded.

ROYALS WIN PLAYOFFS

MONTREAL, Sept. 23 (INS)—The Montreal Royals, runaway winners in the International league pennant fight, won the class A series of the post-season playoffs tonight by edging the Rochester Red Wings, 3 to 0.

Raiders Head For Aggies

A grim, confident squad of Texas Tech football players were scheduled to leave this morning at 7 by bus for San Antonio, where tomorrow night in Alamo Stadium they will collide with a 13-point Texas Aggie favorite.

Coach Dell Morgan, fearful that Aggie weight would cause him to need many substitutes, last night named a travelling squad of 36 players. Seven guards headline the group, while four right halfbacks pace the backfield.

Two of the Red Raiders' most promising starters, Quarterback Milton Rathbone and Tackle Bobby Broyles, will not be making the trip. Both are from Junior colleges, but neither graduated; and under Southwest Conference rules, which are being used, Tech is not eligible to use them. The loss of Rathbone particularly will hurt the Raiders.

Otherwise the squad is in top physical and mental condition for the game. They know they are rated as underdogs, but it isn't the first time a Tech team has gone into a game on the short end of the odds.

The Aggies are favored over the Raiders by 13 points by the betting fraternity and most of the grid experts, although Dr. E. E. Litkenhous selects the Aggies by only 1.5 points. If his comparative system is accurate, Tech is barely the second choice.

A light drill marked the conclusion of final preparations for Saturday night's contest, with special emphasis on pass offense and defense and the timing of running plays. Speed, which is being emphasized this year, might be the deciding factor in Saturday's game and this was being brought out in yesterday's workout. Both the line and backfield will be outweighed by the Aggies, but Tech takes greater speed into the clash.

The complete travelling squad, with probable starters first, includes ends, Bill Kelley, Luke Thompson, J. L. Gulley, Frank Ottmers, Elbert Johnson, Walter Edrington; tackles, John Andrews, Marshall Gettys, Don Williams, Doug McSwane, John Tom Baker, Wayne Guynn; guards, Dan Pursel, Milburn Haydon, Don Orr, Bobby Garner, Ted Cummings, Dorrell McCurry, Bob Hix; centers, Bobby Williams, Bud Henderson, J. B. Mahler; quarterbacks, Ernest Hawkins, Bill Lyman, Shaff DeGaish; left halfbacks, Cal Steveson, Zac Henderson, Walter Maloney; right halfbacks, Glenn Lewis, Charley Reynolds, Bill White, Tim Hatch; and fullbacks, Bud Conley, J. W. Thompson, Earl Jackson, Keith Butler.

Co-captains for the game will be Pursel and Reynolds, as appointed last night by Coach Morgan.

Meadow High Downs Pioneer Eleven, 20-7

MEADOW, Sept. 23 (Special)—Meadow's speedy Bronchos of District 4-B scored twice in the first quarter, then added another touchdown in the final period, to defeat Lubbock's Pioneers, 20-7, here tonight.

Wingback Robert White put the Bronchos into the lead in the first stanza, when he raced around end 15 yards to paydirt. Back Weldon Mason faked a kick from placement, then passed to Back Lawrence Joplin for the extra point.

The Bronchos tallied again a few minutes later, with Joplin carrying 40 yards to the double stripe. The pass attempt for extra point was knocked down.

The scrappy Pioneers surged back in the second period to narrow the count to 13-7 when elusive Halfback Dan Boone romped 60 yards for the lone touchdown for the Lubbock eleven.

Meadow added a final six-pointer in the fourth quarter, with Dean Curtis carrying over on an end-around play. Mason converted.

VICTORIA ELEVEN WINS

VICTORIA, Sept. 23. (AP)—Victoria junior college defeated Schreiner Institute 18-6 here tonight in the opening football game of the season.

Seminole Juniors Shade Lamesa

Plainview Juniors Defeat Hutchinson

Plainview's smooth-working junior gridders chalked up their second consecutive triumph in South Plains Junior High football league play by nosing out the J. T. Hutchinson eleven of Lubbock, 6-0, Thursday night at Chapman field.

The Plainview youngsters went ahead in the first quarter, when Right Half Wilbur Wilson climaxed a 40-yard drive by slamming over right tackle for two yards and the touchdown. A pass play for the extra point was broken up, but the six points was the margin of victory for the visitors.

Lubbock's scrappy juniors launched two long drives in the last half, including a fourth quarter offensive that carried to the one-foot line, but the Plainview eleven held for downs to end both threats.

Hutchinson Fullback Billy Presley was probably the outstanding performer in the setto, as he rammed through the line for consistent gains and did all the passing and punting for the Lubbock eleven. But he was pressed for top honors by Plainview's Wilson, who turned in several brilliant gallops and Plainview Quarterback Brian Bell.

SEMINOLE JUNIORS BEAT LAMESA ELEVEN, 6 TO 0

SEMINOLE, Sept. 23 (Special)—Halfback Richard Lindley's 12-yard touchdown jaunt in the second quarter gave the Seminole juniors a narrow 6-0 triumph over Lamesa in a South Plains Junior High grid loop tussle here tonight.

The Lamesans didn't make a serious scoring threat until the final two minutes of play, when they moved all the way to the Seminole 20.

Lindley was probably the outstanding player in the setto, but he received excellent support from Guard Alvin Booe and End Happy Bingham.

CARROLL THOMPSON BEATS LEVELLAND JUNIORS, 6-0

LEVELLAND, Sept. 23. (Special)—After being held scoreless by an inspired Levelland junior grid eleven for nearly four quarters, Lubbock's powerful Carroll Thompson juniors pushed across a touchdown to notch a 6-0 win in a South Plains loop tilt here tonight.

The teams were locked in a scoreless tie with less than three minutes remaining in the final period, but Lubbock Fullback Don Jones tossed a 30-yard pass to End Paul Hanson to set up the winning touchdown. Hanson was pulled down on the Levelland three-yard marker, then Jones cracked over the double stripe in two plunges.

Both teams were tough on defense and most of the tussle was unreeled near mid-field. The favored Lubbock gridders chalked up more yardage off their "T" formation attack, but until the fading minutes were unable to move into paydirt.

O. L. SLATON TRAMPLES BROWNFIELD ELEVEN, 19-0

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 23 (Special)—Short touchdown plunges by Fullback Johnny Tatum and Right Half Bruce Willis gave the highly-rated O. L. Slaton juniors of Lubbock a 19-0 triumph over the Brownfield representatives in a South Plains league encounter here tonight.

Tatum bucked across for two touchdowns in the hard-fought tussle, with Willis tallying once.

In the "B" game O. L. Slaton Fullback J. C. Walker scored twice to pace the Hub city gridders to a 13-0 triumph over the Brownfield B eleven.

BOWLING SCORES

The Hub Laundry and Mission Orange bowling teams won clean sweeps in their matches in the City Bowling league last night, while the State Drug and Mission Orange teams won two against a single defeat.

Hub Laundry turned back McGuire's Belles and Hemphill-Wells easily took KCBD. State Drug nosed out Lubbock National Bank and Mission edged Lubbock Packing company.

For the winning Hub team, Norma Crossland was high with 183-521, while Lovie Beavers paced the McQuire's Belles with 136-390. O. Tysash and B. Behrens led the Hemphill-Wells five, Tysash with 190-475 and Behrens with 167-475. Bonnie Presley was high woman for KCBD with 154-434.

Ann Owen led the Mission Orange five with 189-466, with P. McDowell rolling a 153-426 for the Lubbock Packing company. And Paula Patton's 155-448 was high for the Lubbock National Bank while Janie Parchman had a 153-412 for the State Drug.

Ladies Handicap Golf Tourney Now Underway At Country Club

Play has begun in the Ladies Handicap Golf tournament at the Lubbock County club and will continue through Monday, with golfers shooting qualifying rounds.

There is an 18-hole group and a nine hole group for all women interested in playing and those who are, and who haven't qualified yet, are requested to tour the course before Monday afternoon. Tournament play, by flights, will get underway Wednesday.

Flores Licked By Williams

YANKEE STADIUM, N. Y., Sept. 23. (AP)—Lightweight champion Ike Williams scored a tenth round knockout over Jesse Flores, the Stockton, Cal., challenger tonight, for his third successful title-defense in recent months.

A right to the chin ended it in 2:04 of the round with Flores just reaching his feet as referee Mark Conn reached 10.

A 5-1 underdog in the betting odds, the obscure Flores proved these figures were justified from the very first. When he wasn't running, he was holding. And when doing neither, he was sitting on the ring floor under a heavy-handed attack which Williams launched whenever opportunity presented.

ROBINSON BEATS GAVILAN IN WELTER NON-TITLE BOUT

YANKEE STADIUM, N. Y., Sept 23. (INS)—Welterweight champion Ray Robinson came off an uneasy first two rounds tonight to take a ten round decision over Kid Gavilan of Cuba in a non-title fight before an estimated 10,000 fans.

Put on as a semi-final to the Ike Williams-Jesse Flores, lightweight title match, Gavilan and Robinson generated a lot of commotion—first and last. But, the 1-5 Robinson took the three-way unanimous decision.

Robinson weighed 150 1/2 pounds for the first, as against an agreed 150, and was in line to blow his $5,000 forfeit.

Gavilan weighed in over the welterweight limit as required, registering 148 1/4 pounds.

Black Hubbers Score Easy 4 To 2 Victory

The Lubbock Black Hubbers slammed out a 4-2 victory over the Midland Black Indians last night at Rosenthal Field in the final home game of the year for the local nine.

The Black Hubbers took an early 1-0 lead when Manager James Roy Lewis scored on Alexander Johns' double and the Black Hubbers went ahead again in the fifth after Midland tied the score.

In the sixth, two Lubbock runs won the game. Eddie Bullock led off with a single and went to third on the hit and run when Lewis scratched a single off the pitcher's glove. Johns then lashed a triple to rightfield to drive in the winning runs.

Harry Tucker hit an eighth inning home run for the visitors.

Sunday the Black Hubbers conclude their season with a 3 p. m. game at Seagraves against the Hobbs Tigers.

The line score:

MIDLAND	000 010 010	2	7 3
LUBBOCK	100 012 00x	4	9 1

Crowd Of 3,000 Is Expected

Lamesa, Brownfield Will Clash Tonight

LAMESA, Sept. 23. (Special)—The Brownfield Cubs and Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes renew an ancient grid rivalry here at McCollum Field Friday night at 8 in the final non-conference tilt of the season for the Lamesans.

A crowd of at least 3,000 fans is expected to turn out for the tilt between the 1-AA and 3-AA rivals.

Lamesa rules a slight favorite in the pre-game calculations, although Coach Bob Harrell's crew has dropped two of its first three starts. The Tornadoes, beaten by Plainview 14-0 last week and decisioned by Seminole 6-0 in the season's opener, have only a 7-0 victory over Levelland in the win column.

Brownfield has played only one game, losing to Class A Pecos 18-13, but the Cubs had an open date last Friday and have had two weeks to get ready for this melee.

Chances for a Lamesa victory have been lessened by the loss of Fullback Johnny Tankersley, who suffered a leg injury in the Plainview battle, and is not expected to play Friday.

Quarterback Arthur Bizzell has moved to fullback and Sophomore Randall Reeves has been promoted from the B squad to the tailback slot.

Halfback Larry Lattimore, who suffered a broken bone in his left hand in the Levelland game, will still see action only on defense. The rest of the squad is in good shape, except for minor bumps and bruises, Coach Harrell reported.

Dodgers Defeat New York, 7 To 1

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers pulled into a virtual second place tie with the idle St. Louis Cardinals today by breaking out with five runs in the last two frames in defeating the New York Giants, 7-1. Both Dodgers and Cards now are seven games behind the National league's pace-setting Boston Braves, also idle.

Montana State 7, North Dakota State 6—A toss-up.

Arizona 20, San Diego State 13—The Wildcats have high hopes.

Chisox Upset Yanks, 4 To 2

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—The New York Yankees sank a full game behind the league leading Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians today by dropping a 4 to 2 contest to the Chicago White Sox.

The Yankees left immediately after the contest for New York where they open a crucial three-game series with the Red Sox tomorrow afternoon. The Red Sox and Cleveland both were idle today.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

Although we will be watching the Texas University Longhorns with more than average interest this season, as Blair Cherry's gridders bid for a Southwest and national championship, we can't overlook the opportunity to point out that the Austin crew should be loaded again next year. Many of the Steer stalwarts are playing their final season with the Orange and White, but Cherry has probably the greatest squad of freshmen ever to grace a Southwest conference campus.

* * *

Just as an example, here's how the frosh team at Texas shapes up. In the backfield will probably be Byron (Santone) Townsend of Odessa and sprint champion Carl (Red) Mayes of Pampa at halfbacks, all-stater Reed Quinn of Austin at fullback, and Jerry Robertson of Highland Park at the quarterback slot on the "T" formation. Up front in the forward wall will be the 1947 all-state center, Don Menasco of Longview, and Borger's Howard Hurt at a guard position. Tackle prospects include Wichita Falls' big Barlow Hill, and another Coyote stalwart, Freddie Simmons, is an outstanding end candidate. With those boys to plug the gaps left by graduation, any tears shed for the Longhorns will be wasted.

The Texas Aggies also grabbed off a good share of the schoolboy crop of stars. The Aggies best backfield prospects are swivel hipped Glenn Lippmann, stellar halfback from El Campo, and Jim Dobbyn, brilliant backfield ace from Abilene. Texas Christian cooped two fine backs, Keith Flowers of Perryton and Gilbert Bartosh of Granger, and Southern Methodist picked up a "few" good boys. There's no indication that the Southwest conference will be any weaker next season.

Coach Clarence Tillery's Slaton Tigers may be in for a rough game tonight when they tangle with the Muleshoe Yellowjackets at 8 o'clock at the Tiger field. Slaton has been pressed hard to win their two games this season, over Floydada and New Deal, while the Yellowjackets have been picking up steam every week. The Muleshoe boys started slowly, beating Springlake in the opener, 14-7, but last week the Jackets swamped a good Olton eleven, 27-6.

The Muleshoe team is paced by two big hard-running backs, Fullback Bobby Goss and Tailback Weldon McCarty, who are rapidly attracting attention in South Plains schoolboy ranks. The Tiger secondary, hampered by lack of weight and experience, is sparked by Fullback Tom Smith.

The Yellowjackets use the Hardin-Simmons' T-formation attack, with plenty of flanker variations, while the Tigers use the Cawthorn box and the straight "T".

All SWC Elevens Picked To Win

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Sports Editor

Southwest Conference teams move into one of the biggest intersectional weekends of the season Saturday Four of the seven members play teams from other regions with all favored to win, but each facing a very tough foe.

Texas goes to Chapel Hill, N. C., to meet the North Carolina Tar Heels in the major battle on the slate It also is one of the nation's top games.

Other Games Listed

Southern Methodist, undefeated since 1946, opens the season against Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh.

Texas Christian plays its nemesis, Oklahoma A. and M., at Stillwater.

Baylor's ambitious Bears, who chewed off one of their toughest schedules, start the campaign against Tulsa at Waco.

Other conference teams do their slugging at home. Rice plays its first game with Sam Houston State at Houston and should win with ease. Arkansas engages East Texas State at Fayetteville and the Razorbacks should have a fair workout only.

Aggies Are Picked

Texas A. and M. will meet Texas Tech at San Antonio and the Cadets will find the Red Raiders hard to handle as usual.

Texas anticipates trouble with North Carolina, which has been smoldering over a 34-0 licking the Longhorns handed the Tar Heels in Austin last year. Loaded with talent and featuring the great Charley Justice, North Carolina could easily wreck Texas' air castles.

Tulsa and Baylor both will be opening the season, thus there is little on which to base a comparison of the teams. However, the Bears beat Tulsa 7-6 last year and definitely are stronger. It is doubtful that Tulsa is better.

Miners Meet Houston Team

EL PASO, Sept. 23 (Special)—The Texas Miners will show off their newly-found offensive power before the home folks Saturday night in the season's inaugural battle on Kidd Field against the University of Houston Cougars. Last meeting between the two teams was in 1946 when the Miners took a 21-7 decision.

It will bring together two "T" elevens — both winners in their opening games last week. Powered by speedy Fred Wendt and a host of fleet backs the Miners romped over the McMurry Indians 33-14, while shifty Max Clark tallied twice to lead Houston to a 14-0 victory over Texas A. & I.

Curtis Is Pleased

Coach Jack Curtice was well-pleased with the opening showing of the Miners. It was an impressive victory over last years co-champs of the Texas Conference.

Highlights of the game were the 56 and 58 yard touchdown sprints of Wendt. Downfield blocking by Raymond (Sugar) Evans, Wayne Hanson and other Miners was good. In addition to Wendt, several other Orediggers playing in the backfield left their mark and sounded a warning to future opponents. Shining were Harvey (Pug) Gabrel, the Odessa power-boy; Fred Rosas, Danny Fraser and Sanderson's Lee Cargile, a fleet understudy to Wendt.

Still free of any serious injuries, Curtice said that he would probably open with the same first team which took the field against McMurry. It included: Ends—George Grounds, Crane; Jimmy DeGroat, El Paso; tackles — Raymond Evans, Odessa; Jake Rhoads, Odessa; guards — Ernest Keily, El Paso; Joe Valenvia, El Paso; center — Wayne Hanson, Mohahans; backs — Jimmy Bowden, Odessa; Harvey (Pug) Gabrel, Odessa; Danny Fraser, El Paso; and Fred Wendt, El Paso.

Pennant-Hungry Braves Fans Rush To Buy Series Tickets

BOSTON, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—The Boston Braves, on the verge of clinching their first pennant in 34 years, touched off a postoffice mob scene today as they began accepting World Series ticket applications.

Hundreds of pennant-parched Boston National league fans thronged the main postoffice through the night after the Braves announced they would accept applications by mail immediately to be filled on a first come, first served basis.

Braves rooters, many of whom were lukewarm two years ago when Red Sox fans crowded postoffices, began to queue up at money order windows shortly after Wednesday night's 11 p. m. announcement that tickets were on sale though the pennant was yet to be clinched.

All women except one priestess were forbidden to enter the enclosure at the ancient Greek Olympic games.

MRS. LA FORE WINS SHOOT

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Sept. 23. (U.P.)—Mrs. John A. La Fore, Haverford, Pa., today held the women's 20-gauge championship of the National Skeet Shooting Tournament following her perfect score in the class-A shooting. Ben Di Iorio, Utica, N. Y., took a shoot-off in the class AA 20-gauge event yesterday after six persons tied with perfect 100s. Tied with Di Iorio and Mrs. La Fore were Dr. I. N. Alkalay, San Francisco, George F. Heaney, Indianapolis; Jack Lovett, Montgomery, Ala., and Tom San Filippo, San Francisco.

Eleven players from ten different states were chosen on the 1948 Junior Davis Cup Squad. Michigan was the only state with two representatives.

Sain, Musial Unanimous Choices

Sports Writers Pick N. L. All-Star Team

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—Outfielder Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and pitcher Johnny Sain of the Boston Braves were the only unanimous choices today in the National league All-Star team selected for the United Press by veteran baseball writers.

A board of three seasoned scribes in each major league city selected the team. And even though the Boston Braves are landing the big prize, the National league pennant, they placed only two men on the club, while the third place St. Louis Cardinals and the fifth place New York Giants rated three berths apiece. The other two spots on the team went to Brooklyn and Pittsburgh, the other two first division clubs.

The roster of the first and second teams with the number of first place votes received by each player and with batting or pitching figures in parentheses:

FIRST TEAM	Pos.	SECOND TEAM
Slaughter, Cardinals, 15 (.326)	RF	Holmes, Braves, 2	(.322)
Musial, Cardinals, 24 (.373)	CF	Lockman, Giants, 4	(.290)
Kiner, Pirates, 19 (.266)	LF	Ashburn, Phillies, 9	(.333)
Mize, Giants, 17 (.293)	1B	Waitkus, Cubs, 3	(.298)
Robinson, Dodgers, 11 (.302)	2B	Murtaugh, Pirates, 10	(.288)
Dark, Braves, 16 (.327)	SS	Reese, Dodgers, 7	(.278)
Gordon, Giants, 17 (.301)	3B	Elliott, Braves	(.287)
Cooper, Giants, 10 (.267)	C	Scheffing, Cubs, 5	(.298)
Sain, Braves, 24 (22-14)	P	Schmitz, Cubs, 5	(18-13)
Brecheen, Cardinals, 15 (18-7)	P	Jansen, Giants, 2	(18-11)

That the Braves placed only right handed ace Sain and their rookie shortstop Alvin Dark on the "dream team" did not reflect any general weakness in the club. Rather it emphasized the position by position solidity and stress of team play in manager Billy Southworth's system.

Hearing Set In Vote Case Today

signing an order tonight naming two masters suggested by Dan Moody, attorney for Stevenson.

The judge said they were W. R. Smith, Jr., and J. M. Burnett, both of San Antonio.

Smith will examine the vote in Jim Wells county and Burnett the vote in Zapata and Duval counties, Judge Davidson said.

Earlier Johnson attorneys had made it clear they meant to have no part in helping choose the investigators.

To Study Case

Judge Davidson said he had had submitted to him a suggested finding of facts and conclusions at law in the case. He said he wanted to study it tonight and would file his findings of fact and conclusions at law with the clerk tomorrow.

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals is a higher court than the Texas federal court. If Johnson's appeal—in reality an application for a stay of the injunction against him—is denied by the circuit court, the candidate's next and last recourse would be the Supreme Court of the United States.

Should the Circuit Court grant the stay, the restraints now prohibiting the use of Johnson's name on the ballot would be removed. Allred said that in addition to the stay, Johnson's attorneys also probably would ask a writ of prohibition and mandamus to prevent Stevenson from taking further court action.

Would Not Halt Probe

But even though the circuit court should grant the stay of injunction, the action would not deter Judge Davidson's plan to have the South Texas vote returns investigated by commissioners of the federal court.

Allred left Dallas for Houston this afternoon to participate in the hearing as did three of Stevenson's attorneys, Dan Moody of Austin, John Groce of San Antonio and Henry Brooks of Austin.

In appealing to the circuit court, Johnson's lawyers raced to free the name of the Senate candidate from legal bondage in time to get it on the general election ballot. To find a place on the ballot, Johnson's name must be legally free by Oct. 3.

In his chambers at Dallas today, Davidson signed the formal order locking an injunction around Johnson's name.

At the same time the little, grey-haired jurist said he meant to see that the South Texas votes were investigated.

Allred and another Johnson attorney, John Cofer of Austin, protested emphatically against such an investigation. Cofer made it clear that the Johnson legal staff means to have no part in helping to choose the investigators.

In an interview following the hearing in his chambers, Judge Davidson was asked whether the federal investigators would have the power to open ballot boxes in South Texas.

"Yes," the judge replied. "The court has the power to grant to the masters any power that the court itself holds."

He said the order he was signing tonight gave the examiners power to go into the ballot boxes; to obtain poll lists, and to make a thorough investigation.

Changes Are Urged

Jarvis' work since he was employed by the city more than six years ago.

Plan Would Hike Expenses

The recommendations followed the death recently of Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer for more than 20 years. The vacancy caused by his death has not yet been filled.

While the recommendations would involve heavy additional expenses, both in building and for operational costs, members of the commission indicated they were in sympathy with most of them—though possibly not to the full extent recommended by the medical society.

The idea of a separate building in which health, sanitation, welfare and related activities might be centralized seemed to be of especial appeal. But the indications were that finances may block the realization of that project for an indefinite period.

"I think it should be done, but where are we going to get the money?" Mayor Rodgers commented. "I don't see how we could finance such a building right away."

But he mentioned that the city has about five acres in Northeast Lubbock which might be an ideal site for such a structure, if and when built. It could be landscaped into one of the city's beauty spots, he pointed out.

X-Ray Unit Purchased

In connection with the health department, the commission authorized the purchase of an x-ray unit from the General Electric company for $9,286. It probably won't be installed until after the New Year.

When it is in operation the plan is to make x-ray chest examinations of applications for health certificates. That probably will mean a fee of $1 or $2 for the certificates, which now are issued without charge.

Other business transacted was routine.

City Manager Smith was authorized to employ a city purchasing agent at a salary of $300 a month plus the city's cost-of-living bonus, which now approximates $87 monthly.

The Lions club was granted permission to set up a booth at Broadway and Texas avenue to sell tickets to the "Queen For A Day" broadcasts which will originate at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds grandstand Monday through Wednesday next week.

A 10-foot widening of Twenty-eighth street between Monroe and Jackson avenues by taking a strip from Wagner park was approved.

Action was deferred on a request from the Fort Worth & Denver City railway to build a switch track in the alley between Avenues E and F from Nineteenth and Twenty-third street. The railway was instructed to renew the request after making satisfactory agreements with affected property owners.

Apetitioned request for a traffic light at Eighth street and College avenue was rejected on recommendation of the police department.

City Manager Smith was designated to represent the city at the annual convention of the League of Texas Municipalities in El Paso Oct. 4-6. He is to take with him such city employes as, in his opinion, will benefit from the discussions.

The city manager also was authorized to buy a new heating boiler for the Central Fire Station. Cost estimates ranged from $600 to $700.

Church Contract Let

the auditorium portion of the building, which is to have a seating capacity of 2,300 without moving in chairs. A tower more than 100 feet high will surmount the auditorium.

Of modified Romanesque architecture, the building will have all facilities of a large church, including kitchens, nursery and meeting rooms.

Cost of the buildings, according to members of the building committee, "will be at least a million dollars, probably more."

In a year that has already seen the issuance of more than $10,600,000 in building permits, issuance of permits for work on the church structure will materially boost the city's total to record proportions.

PERMITS ISSUED FOR SIX NEW RESIDENCES

Permits for six new residences accounted for $79,500 of the $103,600 in new construction authorized Thursday by City Building Inspector Lloyd Ross.

Those issued were to: Vernon Thompson, brick veneer, 3202 Twenty-seventh, $19,000; J. E. Maisen Building corp., frame, 3014 Twenty-sixth and 3316 Twenty-fifth, $14,500; E. J. Pribble, frame, 3319 Twenty-seventh, $11,000; Dr. R. Z. Abell, brick veneer, 1702 Thirty-second, $10,500, and H. C. Webb, Jr., 3314 Twenty-seventh, $10,000.

Another permit for $15,000 was issued to Tom McAbee, contractor, and Texas Floral co., for an addition to greenhouses at 2101 Twenty-first.

The building permit total for the month was increased to $1,139,000 and for the year to $10,670,468.

CONDITION IS IMPROVED

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23 (INS)—Physicians said today that the condition of Rita Johnson is "encouraging" but "we dare not yet prognosticate as to her eventual recovery." The film star, who on Labor Day collapsed from an unexplained skull injury and remained unconscious ever since, opened her eyes for the first time today.

Area Rotarians Meet

president of Eastern New Mexico college at Portales, and governor of Rotary district No. 115; Dr. Ira Woods of Littlefield, governor of the 127th Rotary district; past district governors Charlie Paxton of Sweetwater and Jim McCullough of Stamford; Cong. George Mahon; Mayor W. H. Rodgers of Lubbock; and the following Lubbock civic club presidents: Horace Gearhart, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Wayne Henly, Lions club; Charles Cobb, Optimist club; A B. Watkins, American Business club; and Dr. Jim Reynolds, Exchange club.

James G. Allen, dean of men at Texas Tech, introduced Dr. Wiggins.

At the outset, Dr. Wiggins said that he spoke at the meeting not as president of Texas Tech but as a fellow Rotarian, and added that he was grateful for the opportunity to work with Rotary members in the area.

In speaking of the American educational system, he said that the evolution of American schools from the earliest times exemplifies a fundamental concept of education.

Dr. Wiggins stated that he does not believe that the business of the American school is to build a new society, but rather to build new underpinnings to the present society. Schools, he added, constitute a pattern from which society must evolve

Education Is Broadened

He reminded his audience that the colonial settlers came to these shores not so much for security as for freedom, freedom of worship, of speech, of action. These settlers soon saw the need of teaching their children to read, primarily so that they could read the Bible. Schools thus were established, and pupils were "graduated" as soon as they were able to read the Bible.

But as time passed, he continued, the society added a second phase to education, that phase being number concept, so that simple business transactions might be carried on. And still later, a third educational phase, writing, was instituted.

"Thus was developed the American approach to education, reading, writing, and arithmetic," Dr. Wiggins said.

He emphasized that this approach was intended to aid and dignify the individual.

As time went on and the people pushed further west of the Atlantic, there developed the "great western movement" toward the shores of the Pacific, which got much of its impetus from the individuality of man.

In the ensuing era of industrialization, the American people more and more taught their children the American concept "that any man is able to do if he wants to do strongly enough."

American schools have been a sounding board for American society, Dr. Wiggins said, but society—and schools—have failed to realize the importance of teaching people to live together harmoniously.

In conclusion, Dr. Wiggins said that "while everyone wants to be free, the main issue lies in the question of how much they want this freedom." In America people are faced with the constant threat of giving up this struggle for freedom for ease and "security."

"But the American concept prohibits searching for a soft spot of willingness to sell our heritage," he said. "The business of education in this country is not to teach men not to work, but rather to teach them how, and in what directions, to work," he added.

"Thus," he added, "it is high time to talk about the greatness of America instead of pointing out her weaknesses, and to believe in her rather than selling her short."

Prior to Dr. Wiggins' speech, Mr. Guy, after having introduced special guests, called the roll of Rotary clubs in the area, and attending members from each rose for recognition. Clubs represented were from the following cities and towns: Amarillo, Big Spring, Brownfield, Canadian, Canyon, Floydada, Hereford, Lamesa, Levelland, Littlefield, Lockney, Midland, Odessa, O'Donnell, Plainview, Post, Ralls, Seagraves, Seminole, Slaton, Sudan, Sweetwater, Tahoka, Clovis, N. M., Portales, N. M., and Lovington, N. M.

Irrigation Well Batteries Stolen

Reports to the sheriff's department Thursday indicated that another wave of irrigation well thefts may be in store for South Plains farmers.

Sheriff L. E. Haynes of Crosby county called on the sheriff's department here yesterday for assistance in connection with a series of thefts from wells near the Lubbock-Crosby county line. Eight or ten of the batteries were stolen in Lubbock county, the report said.

Claude Martin of 1909 Ninth street said that a battery and a case of oil had been stolen from his irrigation well at Idalou.

Preston McGensey, a negro, was arrested last night in the negro residential section of town, and was turned over to Sheriff Lloyd H. Merritt of Scurry county, where he was wanted on a misdemeanor warrant charging swindling.

A fine of $100 was assessed Thursday against a young white man in corporation court on a charge of disturbance by displaying a deadly weapon. He was arrested in a downtown bowling alley.

A black 1936 Chevrolet sedan, license number AN 9952, was reported stolen from Pete Lopez of 205 Ave. L. The theft, Lopez said, occurred north of Mackenzie State park.

of-state, with an estimated 45 per cent of the total distribution here being from Ohio.

The company, which does not definitely know whether such milk importations will forestall possible future milk shortages here, raises its prices to both consumers and producers today.

McIlhaney Dairy Products company reported some shortage Thursday but said it was caused mainly by the inability of some few of the carriers to complete their rounds.

The company reported that there would be somewhere around a 35 per cent shortage today, since larger quantities are left with customers for the weekend. Like the others, McIlhaney's is shipping in milk from city-approved sources in other areas to supplement that brought in by local producers.

A fourth local distributor, Arch Lamb, who does not import milk from other sources but relies solely on local production, said last night that he has been able thus far to fulfill requirements. He said that he had already raised his prices to producers, that he had not made an increase to consumers, but that it would likely be necessary to do so soon.

New Housing Legislation Is Discussed At Meeting Here

Approximately 120 builders, lenders and material supply men were guests of Lubbock Home Builders association last night at Hilton hotel for a dinner meeting a discussion of the operation of the 1948 housing bill.

E. T. Stearns, district director of the Federal Housing administration, and E. M. Lavell, district chief underwriter for the FHA, both from Fort Worth, were the principal speakers of the evening.

Attending the meeting were men in the building trades from Lubbock, Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, Lamesa and Ralls. Vernon E. Thompson, president of the sponsoring company, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers.

News Briefs

Mrs. W. H. Madden of Littlefield was treated at West Texas hospital about 11:30 a. m. Thursday for a fracture of the right wrist suffered in a fall in 1100-block Broadway. She was taken to the hospital by a Plains ambulance, and was released following treatment.

Condition of Winston Reeves, of Levelland highway, who entered West Texas hospital Wednesday after a sudden illness, was not considered serious yesterday. He was suffering from a stomach ailment.

Gordon P. Tompkins, jr., of No. 18 Westwood Village, who underwent emergency surgery late Tuesday in West Texas hospital, was reported somewhat improved in condition late last night, but was not yet out of danger, the hospital reported. He had suffered a ruptured ulcer and peritonitis had developed.

Football personnel and activities at Texas Technological college were reviewed by Dell Morgan, head coach at the college, at a meeting of Kiwanis club in Hotel Lubbock Thursday noon. Other members of the coaching staff, Tipp Mooney, Polk Robison, and G. B. Morris were present. L. E. (Jack) Davis Kiwanis club president, was in the chair. Invocation was asked by Dr. M. Norvel Young.

Following a police raid on five small downtown hotels and a tourist court, fines of $25 each were assessed against 21 women who entered pleas of guilty to charges of vagrancy by prostitution.

During fasting or starvation, non-essential tissues break down much more quickly than essential ones.

Testimony Completed In Dillard Trial; Case May Go To Jury After Final Arguments This Morning

$100 on each item. The articles had been introduced in testimony by the state.

Returned To Station

Dillard said he continued to lose, then offered a check for $81 he had in his pocket, but Weaver and Tice both declined to cash it. He testified there was no argument over it, and that he told them he would go get some more money. The time was fixed then at 11:30 or 12 o'clock.

He said he telephoned his wife at Dallas, "had another drink around," then went to the home of his mother at 1211 Sixteenth, 10 or 12 blocks away, and got two $20 bills from his bag there. He was gone, he said 15 or 20 minutes, and on his return to the station, found only Weaver there.

Asking for Tice, Dillard said Weaver told him Tice had gone home, then he recounted how he gained possession of his watch, around which the state had sought to build its motive for the killing.

State testimony at the morning session had brought out that the watch was taken from Dillard when he was booked at the county jail, after previous witnesses had told of the watch being "hocked" in the loan deal along with the ring and pin. The two latter articles were removed from Weaver's body at the hospital and turned over to sheriff's deputies, according to testimony.

Says Watch Won Back

Concerning the watch, Dillard testified that he put up the $81 check and a $20 bill, and Weaver put up the watch in a matching game. Dillard said he won the watch back, and replaced it on his arm. Trying to regain the other pawned articles, Dillard testified that a little later he saw, or thought he saw Weaver change his coin on a toss and told him "that don't go."

He said Weaver flared up, started cursing him, arose from the chair in which he had been sitting and came around the desk fast. Dillard said he ran for his car, parked only a few feet away in the station driveway, got inside but couldn't close the door because Weaver had hold of him and was trying to pull him from the car.

He testified he reached for a gun in the glove compartment of the car, managed to get hold of the gun, then was pulled from the car by Weaver. He heard a shot, he said, and Weaver's hold on him relaxed, and the wounded man started for his desk inside the station.

Called For Officers

On direct examination, he said he could see Weaver was "in bad shape" and he called the sheriff's department, and testifying as to mental confusion, said he didn't know what he told them. He said he then called a hospital for an ambulance, was told they had no such service, then trying to call an ambulance service "must have dialed the operator." He finally got the call through, he said.

Hawkins arrived just ahead of the sheriff's deputies, he said, and the ambulance arrived shortly. Weaver was taken to the hospital, where, previous testimony showed, he was dead on arrival. Dillard was taken to jail by George Eubank and Carl W. Francis, deputies sheriffs.

Dillard testified he had had no previous trouble with Weaver, but had heard of his reputation, and knew he "was overbearing when he was drinking." He "didn't want to tangle with Weaver," a much larger man, he said.

Left Gun In Car

On cross examination, Dillard testified under questioning by L. A. Howard, who with Victor H. Lindsey, is assisting District Attorney Lloyd Croslin in the prosecution, that he wasn't sure just what he said to anyone on any of the phone calls.

His testimony, however, remained unshaken under Howard's implications as to what he (Dillard) thought when Weaver started toward his desk after being shot. Howard brought out that Dillard had left his gun on the front seat of his car, then turned and walked empty-handed into the station, where Weaver by then was sitting at the desk.

Seeking to establish Weaver's reputation as bad, the defense introduced several other witnesses, some of whom told of "difficulty at the J. B. Fowler residence." when Jake Weaver, brother of Garlon, was killed and Garlon Weaver was wounded, and the severe beating of W. E. Walls by two men the witnesses identified as Garlon Weaver and Bob Vaught.

The witnesses were V. A. Johnston, former sheriff of Crosby county, who knew Weaver's reputation as bad; P. H. Jester of Lubbock, Mrs. Nora Watson and her husband, J. F. Watson, of Odessa, who were present "when Garlon Weaver drew a knife on Mr. Fowler," (J. B. Fowler) in a fracas that resulted in the shooting at the Fowler residence; and J. P. Posey, former chief deputy sheriff and jailer here, who investigated the Walls episode.

Morning Witnesses

State witnesses at the morning session, in order of their appearance, were Dr. Ivan G. Mayfield, physician at West Texas hospital; Ernest D. (Buddy) Tice, partner in operation of the service station where the killing was alleged to have occurred; George Eubank, deputy sheriff; Carl W. Francis, deputy sheriff; Jack Cooper, ambulance driver; and Mrs. Barney Robinson, nurse at Lubbock Memorial hospital, where Weaver was taken.

Dr. Mayfield told of having examined Weaver's body, finding two wounds, believed caused by a gunshot. One was the point of entry of the bullet near the left nipple, and the other, exit of the bullet, was lower and toward the right side of the back. He said the bullet traveled at about a 35 degree angle downward through the body.

Slumped On Desk

Eubank and Wallace, who answered the call together to the shooting scene, testified as to position of Weaver and condition of the inside of the station. They said Weaver was in a chair behind a desk, slumped forward on the dark.

Eubank said Dillard was in the station, and when asked what had happened answered that Weaver had fainted. Both men testified they had no definite knowledge Weaver had been shot until after arrival of an ambulance, but Eubank testified that in the meantime Dillard was very nervous and at one time had a noticeable nervous rigor, saying among other things that "the man can't die."

Eubank identified a ring and stickpin he said a nurse had removed from Weaver's body and turned over to him at the hospital. These were later identified also by Mrs. Barney Robinson, nurse who attended Weaver, who said she removed the articles from Weaver's body.

Weaver's body. He said a wrist watch was taken from Dillard when he was booked at the jail.

Haste Was Urged

Francis testified that some time after their arrival at the station, Dillard told them Weaver had been shot, and he (Dillard) urged haste in getting the man to the hospital. Francis said he found the death weapon in the front seat of Dillard's car, parked in the station driveway.

Cooper, ambulance driver for Rix Funeral Home, testified he answered a call to the station, found Weaver sitting in a chair and slumped over the desk, that Dillard helped him place the man on a stretcher and put him in the ambulance, amid appeals to "hurry and get him to a hospital."

Several members of Dillard's family, including his mother, Mrs. Alma Dillard, were in the courtroom. His wife, who had been by his side throughout preliminaries, was excluded under the witness rule, but was not called to the stand.

Truman Found Gaining On Dewey In Latest Nationwide Survey

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—The latest nationwide political poll finds President Truman in the best position since the nominating conventions in June.

While Governor Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate, still holds a substantial lead in popularity, Mr. Truman has gained in recent weeks. The poll, completed just before his western campaign swing, shows the following trend:

GALLUP

"If the presidential election were being held TODAY how would you vote — for Truman, Dewey, Wallace or some other candidate?"

The vote:

	June	Aug. 22	Today
Dewey	49%	48%	46½%
Truman	38	37	39
Wallace	6	4	3½
Thurmond	—	2	2
Others	*	*	*
No opinion	7	9	9

*Less than 1 per cent.

Norman Thomas, Socialist Party candidate, runs ahead of the other minor party candidates, although all minor parties combined poll a total of less than one per cent. Minor parties with candidates entered include the Socialist Workers Party, the Socialist Labor Party, the Prohibition Party, the Greenback Party, the Vegetarian. Party and several others.

The Truman gain found in today's poll is also reflected in the Institute's most recent survey of one of the key states in the election—California. As reported yesterday, the poll found a 6 per cent gain for Mr. Truman in California as compared to early September.

However, the percentage that President Truman polls in the November election will still depend to a considerable extent on how successful the Democrats are in arousing interest in the election and stimulating a big turnout.

If voter apathy continues and turnout falls considerably under the 58,000,000 votes, which would be a normal turnout for 1948, that would be a factor unfavorable to Mr. Truman and favorable to Governor Dewey.

One of the best indices of probable turnout in November is voter registration in New York City, which begins next Monday, Sept. 27. The percentage increase in the total number of registrations, as compared to 1944, will give a fairly reliable indication of how much the national turnout will increase in November as compared to 1944 when 47,974,868 votes were cast. Generally speaking, a small turnout hurts the Democrats because the stay-at-homes are predominately democratic in sentiment; or to put it another way, there is usually more voter apathy among Democratic ranks than among Republican ranks.

The importance to the Democrats of getting out a big vote is shown in a special analysis in todays poll based on the question, "How certain are you that you will vote?

This shows that people who are not certain that they will vote or who don't plan to vote at all tend to favor Mr. Truman more than Governor Dewey.

In short, if the Democrats could overcome apathy and stay-at-home-ism, their candidate would poll a higher percentage on election day.

"How cerfain are you that you will vote in the election?"

	Absolutely Certain	Uncertain	Don't plan to vote
Favor Dewey	52½	41%	27%
Favor Truman	37	46	37
Favor Wallace	4	2	5
Favor Thurmond	2	2	1
No choice at present	5	9	30

Admiral Declares Infantry Will Win Any Future War

HOUSTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—Atom bomb or not, the infantry will win any future wars, Rear Admiral William E. (Bull) Wright, retired, said here today.

In a tribute to the Army's battle-hardened soldiers, the wartime chief of staff of the Navy's Pacific submarine command warned that this country should avoid slipping into "a Maginot line of imagination regarding air power and the atomic bomb."

Should a shooting war with any country develop next week, Wright said, "the infantryman, slogging along in the mud, would finish it up."

Wright, a native Texan who now lives at Aransas Pass, also took a jab at what he called "false economy in preparedness."

"Until the war," he said, "neither I nor any other submarine skipper had heard a torpedo explode . . . mostly because they cost $10,000 each."

Navy To Reopen Training Station At Corpus Christi

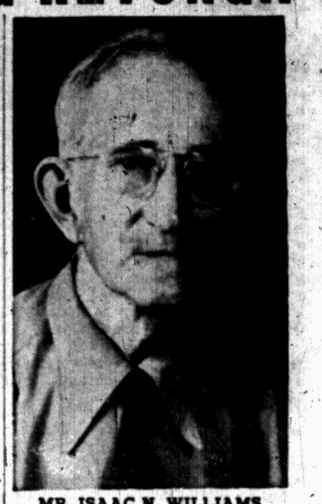

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Navy said today it will reopen a Texas airfield this winter to help accommodate the expanded training program.

Cabaniss field near the Naval Air station at Corpus Christi, will be reopened Nov. 14 for naval air advanced training. It was an auxiliary field closed Jan. 1, 1948.

The field is expected to have about 150 officers and 1,230 enlisted men and 150 civilian employes for station and training personnel and 190 students.

MR. ISAAC N. WILLIAMS

"Within four days after I started taking Retonga I began to feel better," dcelares Mr. Isaac N. Williams, widely-known property owner and Charlotte business man of 1020 Seigle Ave. A native of Kingsport, Tenn., and resident of Kentucky for 16 years, Mr. Williams has lived in Charlotte for 25 years.

"My appetite was so poor," continues Mr. Williams. "I had to force down my food. Acid indigestion and gas on my stomach bothered me so much that I was just plain miserable most of the time. I felt on edge and couldn't get but a few hours sleep at night. Constipation plagued me and caused throbbing headaches that were almost beyond endurance, so I relied on harsh laxatives. I felt so weakened and run-down that I could hardly get started before I seemed to just give out

"Retonga certainly brought me splendid relief in a short time. I have a fine appetite, eat anything I want to now without discomfort afterwards, sleep soundly, and am no longer restless. My constipation and throbbing headaches have also been relieved, and I have regained much of my strength and energy. Retonga deserves my highest praise."

The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal combined with Vitamin B-1, Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to bring you relief, your money will be cheerfully refunded. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores.

U. S. Military Air Transport Now Running On Small Budget

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The military Air Transport service is running the world's biggest air freight system on a shoestring.

It is doing so with a fleet of obsolescent transport planes which major domestic airlines gradually are discarding. And its personnel force has dwindled from a wartime peak of 500,000 officers and men to 62,000.

The C-54 four-engined transports and the war-weary C-47 twin-engined transports which fly the world's air routes daily and supply Berlin are, for the most part, veterans of World War II.

Haul Huge Loads

As of now, the Military Air Transport Service (MATS) has about 455 major transports. There aren't many military transports to back them up—probably not a sufficient reserve to meet a national emergency.

The whole Air Force stock of C-54s totals only 400, of which about 215 are in MATS. They carry up to 10 tons each. There are about 1,550 C-47s, of which some 230 are in MATS. They carry three tons. MATS also has one C-97 stratofreighter and nine C-47 globemasters.

The stratofreighter carries a 15 to 20 ton load. The globemaster can carry 25 tons.

The rest of the Air Force Transport fleet consists of a few C-82 packets which are primarily troop carriers; some 300 obsolete C-46 commandos; 12 C-47 globemasters and about a dozen C-97 stratofreighters.

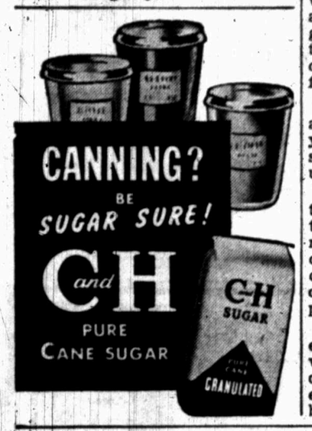

New Planes Ordered

On order are 10 constellations, 25 C-97s and 28 C-124s, the largest aircraft ever placed in production (its maximum payload is 50,000 pounds or five times that of a C-54). Presumably all of these will go to MATS. The Air Force also has ordered, and has started getting delivery on, 357 other transports. But these are troop carriers and supposedly would not fit into the MATS picture.

Air Force appropriations—direct and indirect—for the present fiscal year total $4,981,911,000. Nobody seems to know how much of that ultimately will go to MATS.

A behind-the-scenes budget battle now is in progress on the question of new transport procurement. MATS must compete for the defense dollar with the bomber commands. And right now the accept is preponderantly on combat plane procurement.

The Berlin air life is striking evidence of what MATS can do with present resources. And it is confident that, if a graver emergency should come, it can do even better.

Court Rules Employers Must Bargain On Pensions, Upholds Non-Red Pledge Ruling

CHICAGO, Sept. 23. (AP)—The U. S. circuit court of appeals held today that qualified unions can require employers to bargain with them about pensions.

The court also upheld the constitutionality of a provision of the Taft-Hartley law requiring union officials so sign affidavits that they are not Communists.

NLRB Ruling Upheld

The ruling sustained a National Labor Relations board order that the Inland Steel Co. must discuss pensions with the CIO United Steelworkers—if union officers sign non-Communist affidavits.

If upheld by the U. S. Supreme court, lawyers said, the ruling will:

1—Bring the entire subject of pension or retirement plans within the realm of collective bargaining. The order will apply to all unionized companies in interstate commerce—whether or not a pension plan now exists. Employers will have to consult the recognized bargaining agent before changing the existing pension program.

2—Deprive unions of the services of the National Labor Relations board in collective bargaining elections and other matters unless union officials comply with the non-Communist provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

Officials of several big unions, including the CIO United Steel workers, the United Mine workers and the CIO Longshoremen, have refused to sign non-Communist affidavits.

The court agreed unanimously on the pension issue but split 2-1 on the legality of the non-Communist oath requirement.

The company said it would appeal.

U. S. Seeks Uranium In Northern Alaska

NOME, Alaska, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—With the major nations of the world searching for radio-active minerals, the United States has turned its eyes toward Alaska.

U. S. geologists are studying especially Seward Peninsula, which protrudes like a nose from the face of the territory toward Siberia, less than 100 miles away.

Experts say the peninsula is fabulously rich in certain minerals, and they concede that it contains some uranium. The U. S. Geological Survey expects some important discoveries in the area this summer.

Walter S. West, U. S. geologist, reports that he tested an inconsequential piece of ore picked up by a prospector 43 years ago near Nome. West's Geiger counter reacted, and that means the search is on.

The Alaskans aren't hunting uranium to the exclusion of other minerals, however. Gold dredges, idle during the war years, are beginning again to dip their buckets into the earth.

Two British Newsmen Killed When Fighter Attacks Arab Plane

LONDON, Sept. 23 (INS) — The London radio said tonight three persons, including two British newsmen, were killed in the crash of an Arab passenger plane attacked by a Jewish fighter craft.

BBC quoted Arab authorities in Amman as saying the plane crashed after an 18-mile running attack by the Jewish fighter.

The British correspondents killed were identified as Robert Nixon and David Woodward. The other passenger killed was an Arab.

A Reuters dispatch from Amman said the crash occurred near the Palestine-Trans-Jordan frontier this afternoon.

Evidence Of 'Fixed' Races In New Mexico Disclosed

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 23. (INS)—Evidence that horse races at the New Mexico Fair state fair were "fixed" was disclosed at Albuquerque today.

Jerry Knott, racing commission secretary, said purses from Sunday's racing program at the fair have been re-distributed because one horse was "under the influence of a stimulant."

The race was won by "Miss Bank" owned by Delamr Land, of El Paso, and trained by H. Yates. Knott said a saliva test showed the horse was drugged when she won the fifth race.

STERN LITTLE JURIST HANDLES FIERY ATTORNEYS

Johnson-Stevenson Senatorial Race, Federal Court Proceeding Expected To Become Legend

By ROY CALVIN
United Press Staff Writer

FORT WORTH, Sept. 23.—Texas politicians will be talking forever after about the Johnson-Stevenson senatorial race of 1948 and this week's injunction proceeding in federal district court here certainly will be fodder for lawyers in election contests of the future.

Technically, according to ex-Gov. Coke R. Stevenson's attorneys, the proceedings before federal district Judge T. Whitfield Davidson was not an election contest.

Top Legal Talent Present

If it had been anything more than a suit to protect Stevenson's civil rights, they said, the court would have had no jurisdiction.

Judge Davidson agreed with them in their appraisal of the situation.

Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson's attorneys took the view that Stevenson's attempt to keep their man's name off the November election ballot constituted an election contest — nothing more and nothing less—based on "flimsy suspicion of fraud."

At the counsel tables was an impressive collection of the state's blue ribbon legal talent. The two ex-governors on the counsel list—Dan Moody for Stevenson and Jimmy Allred for Johnson—commanded most of the attention.

Davidson Rules Court

Judge Davidson, a stern jurist in his courtroom, handled the personalities in stride. When he decided that he had jurisdiction, the testimony of Jim Wells county witnesses began and Allred was on his feet practically all the time to object.

Most of his objections were overruled, and Allred's debonair courtroom manner began to give way to one of bulldog tenacity. When the witnesses were heard, Judge Davidson gave his opinion—that a master or masters should be appointed to look into allegations of fraud in Jim Wells, Duval and Zapata counties.

The judge did not make clear to the counsel whether he was merely taking under advisement the Stevenson plea for an injunction or whether he was granting it.

Allred came to his feet, to insist respectfully but firmly for a flat yes or no ruling. The point was important, for without a ruling, Allred could not appeal and the case would have remained in the district court.

Allred, Moody Swap Jibes

At one point in the arguments, both Allred and Moody were on their feet. The judge paused to ponder what each had said and, Allred, still pressing for the ruling, turned to his old legal and political adversary, Moody, during a lull and remarked, for all the courtroom to hear, "After all, we've got some rights here, too. Some civil rights, that is."

At an earlier juncture, Moody lapsed into a comparison of the Duval county vote—4,600 to 40, against Stevenson—with the vote in Russia.

Allred came up fast to ask the court to stop such "unfair" remarks.

Judge Davidson could barely restrain a smile as he reminded the opposing counsel that there was no jury present and, by inference, that he would not be swayed by dramatics.

"We refer to neither side, especially, but it should be remembered that there is no jury, that this court is hearing this as a court—not as a jury," said the judge. "Now, gentlemen, proceed."

Standersby heard this exchange:

Moody—"You're not mad about this thing are you, Jimmy?"

Allred—"Well, I'm not mad enough to fight. But I'm plenty mad."

One of the spectators in the court yesterday was armed. Special Ranger Frank Hamer, an employe now of the Texas company but in the past a colorful and dead-eye Texas Ranger, approached U. S. Marshal Red Wright and asked if he'd have to check his gun before going into the courtroom.

Wright, whose initials are J. R. and whose nickname derives from his flaming hair, didn't give it a second thought. Talking to newsmen later, the droll Wright said:

"I told him to go ahead. Why, to take that man's gun off him would be like taking off anybody else's trousers."

Wright hesitated a minute, and concluded with this:

"You know, the difference between that man and me is this—he relies on his gun to get him out of jams, and I rely on my tennis shoes."

Texas A&I Students Get Answer To Ringing In Ears

KINGSVILLE, Sept. 23. (AP)—Students at Texas A. & I. College complained for weeks about ringing noises in their ears.

Finally came the explanation. A graduate physics student, James Rickard, was making acoustical testing sounds in the college's auditorium.

439 Cases Of Confiscated Beer Sold To Store In Big Spring

After sale to Harold Letcher's Liquor store at Big Spring for $1,207.25, the Lubbock office of the Liquor Control board Thursday loaded out 439 cases of confiscated beer here, it was announced by Charles Fuller, district supervisor.

Fuller announced also that during August the Lubbock office of the board collected a total of $8,972.50 in fines for liquor law violations, compared with $3,081.15 collected at the Dallas office, next highest in the state.

Sale Of Crime Comic Books To Children Banned In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23. (AP)—Los Angeles county's new law forbidding sale to children of crime comic books will stand up in court, its author predicted today.

The board of supervisors passed the ordinance Tuesday making it a misdemeanor to sell such comics to any one under 18 years of age. The law carries a penalty of $500 fine or six months imprisonment or both.

Lions Club Members To Hold Ticket Sales Meeting Today

A general meeting of Lions club members in Hilton hotel at 8:15 a. m. today will be followed by a whirlwind campaign to sell tickets for the "Queen For A Day" show the club is sponsoring at the fair next week.

The members voted almost unanimously at Tuesday's luncheon to meet over coffee and doughnuts, outline a sales plan, then swarm out over the city between 9 and 10 o'clock in sale of tickets.

The show, a nationally broadcast radio feature, is to originate from in front of the grandstand at the fair here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and the Lions club has underwritten a guarantee of $8,000 for the feature, Henly said. He urged all club members to be present on time today.

"Try my nice 'n' spicy Prune Whip Cake" SAYS AUNT JENNY

2 cups sifted cake flour
1½ cups sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder (tartrate powder, 3½ teaspoons)
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon each cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice
½ cup Spry
½ cup unsweetened prune juice
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs, unbeaten

SIFT flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, salt and spices into mixing bowl. Drop in Spry. Add ¾ cup combined prune juice and milk, then vanilla; beat 200 strokes (2 min. by hand or on mixer at low speed). Scrape bowl and spoon or beater. Add remaining liquid and eggs; beat 200 strokes. Bake in two 9-inch or deep 8-inch Sprycoated layer pans in moderately hot oven (375° F.) 25-35 minutes. Cool. Frost.

Prune Whip Frosting

Mix well in double boiler: 2 egg whites, unbeaten; 1 cup brown sugar; ½ cup white sugar; ⅛ teaspoon salt; 5 tablespoons prune juice. Place over rapidly boiling water, beat with egg beater until mixture will hold peak (7 min.). Remove from hot water, beat until thick enough to spread. Add 2 teaspoons lemon juice; 6 cooked cut-up prunes, and 2 tablespoons chopped, toasted almonds. Sprinkle top of cake with more almonds.

Sausages at their Best

A FOOD TIP BY FOOD EDITORS OF McCALL'S MAGAZINE

Here at McCall's Kitchen we're fussy about the way our sausages are cooked. We steam them first in a little water; drain and brown them tenderly, jiggle the skillet as they need turning and they turn over all by themselves. The big sausage manufacturers like this way too as the piercing of a fork before they're done permits the juices to escape.

French Government Grants Wage Increase In Move To Avert Another Political Crisis; Strike Set

By JOHN E. LEE
INS Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The French government today agreed to grant workers a 15 per cent wage increase in a move designated to head off another political crisis.

The government's decision came on the eve of a scheduled two-hour general work stoppage by seven million workers ordered by Communist and non-Communist unions to protest the high cost of living.

The wage increase falls short of the demands of Socialists who have been spearheading a drive for pay boosts.

Federal Workers Not Involved

It was understood the cabinet's decision to boost wages does not apply immediately to government employes.

The action was announced after Labor Minister Daniel Mayer conferred with Communist and non-Communist labor leaders.

It also was decided to increase the bread ration from 300 to 350 grams daily and raise subway fares from five to ten francs (about 3 1/3 cents.) First class fares will be 15 francs.

Suburban railway fares also will be raised 60 per cent to permit payment of a special 500 franc monthly bonus to employees (about $1.66) and cover increased transportation costs.

U. S. Aid Indicated

The wage increase may mean only an 11 per cent pay boost for some categories of workers, since part of the increase may go into accident insurance, social insurance and family allowances. Bachelors, for example, are expected to benefit less than heads of families.

It was reported that the United States is preparing to help the government bolster the national economy by releasing up to 400 million dollars of a special franc fund which the French set up as a counterpart to the aid received from the U. S. under the Marshall Plan.

It was announced that the economic cooperation administration mission has been examining the question of utilizing the French fund and that formal French request for its release was prepared for presentation coincident with announcement of a new economic and financial program.

Scientists Make Bearings For Baby Buggies Out Of Nylon

ARLINGTON, N. J., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—The same nylon which adorns women's legs is now being used for the underpinnings of baby carriages.

Plastics experts of E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co. disclosed that nylon is being used successfully for wheel bearings of baby buggies.

They forecast the day when nylon will be in widespread use in the working parts of light machinery and equipment, such as food mixers, shavers and textile machines.

The plastic material is valuable, they said, because in some cases the nylon outwears metal and requires no lubrication.

Soviet Fighters Buzz U. S. Plane

By OMER ANDERSON
INS Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Sept. 23—Two Soviet fighter planes buzzed a U. S. C-54 enroute to Berlin today but otherwise failed to interfere with the sky armada pouring supplies into the blockaded city.

Eight U. S. soldiers, including six constabulary troops, were arrested by the Russians along the Soviet - American occupation border in central Germany last night but were released today.

Two of the unidentified soldiers told their superiors they were "royally treated" compared to the usual Russian custody procedure.

Berlin Struggle Continues

They said they slept in beds with sheets and were offered drinks.

The East-West struggle inside Berlin continued however.

The Russians tightened their effort to gain economic control of the entire city by ordering that all commercial dealings between western sector firms and those in the Soviet sector must be cleared through the Russian - controlled "Great Berlin Trading company."

News dealers in the western sector agreed to halt the sale of Soviet-licensed newspapers to retaliate for seizure of western-licensed publications in the Soviet sector.

The Soviet press began attacking U. S. Secretary of State Marshall personally today, saying that he "lacks what diplomats need, patience and a sense of responsibility."

(In a speech to the Paris UN assembly Marshall warned Russians not to mistake American patience for weakness).

Husband-Hunting Girls Find Bankroll Beats Good Looks

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—When the girls go husband-hunting in these days of high prices, good looks take a back seat to a bank account.

So say Jack Jaffe and S. Samuels, partners in a local marriage bureau. They estimated the odds are 20 to one a woman will favor the man who can give them a "home, security and companionship."

"Providing he's not actually repulsive, looks are strictly secondary," the matchmakers say.

As for the men, when they look for a wife they've divided about 50-50 on the issue of bankroll vs. beauty, said the marriage arrangers. Jaffe and Samuels have been in the business for many years.

NBA Says Joe Louis Is Still Champion

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23 (AP)—Joe Louis is still recognized as heavyweight champion of the world and the National Boxing Association said today there is no "logical contender" for his title.

The Brown Bomber told the NBA he is going to wait until Dec. 25 before making up his mind whether to hang up his gloves for keeps or fight again.

Several Texans showed up in the long ratings list released today by NBA. Buddy Garcia of Texas was given honorable mention in the lightweight division. Harold Dade of Texas was listed as an outstanding featherweight while Jose Baby Gonzales of Mexico and Manny Ortega of Texas were given an honorable mention. Logical contenders for the flyweight title included Monito Flores of Mexico.

Thief Trusts Luck Too Far, Is Nabbed In Police Station

ST. LOUIS, Mo. Sept. 23. (U.P.)—A thief who stole two cartons of cigarettes, fountain pens and other trinkets from a police squad car trusted his luck a little too far.

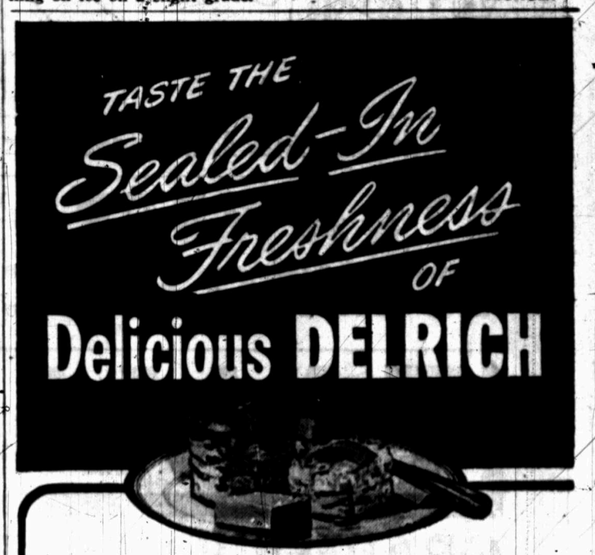

Col. Paul London, the victim of the theft, arrested Thomas Keysor as he carried the cigarettes under his arm.

Negro Given $1,000 Fine, Year In Jail For Selling Liquor

CORSICANA, Sept. 23. (AP)—The most severe penalty ever imposed in recorded history of Navarro county in a bootlegging case was inflicted upon a negro bellhop today by a county court jury, County Attorney Charles Banister reported.

The negro, Clinton Moye, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to one year in jail when he was convicted of selling one pint of whisky to an undercover agent of the Texas Liquor Control board.

Moye pleaded innocent and attorneys said they would appeal the case.

Cowboys, Cowgirls To Greet Truman At Sierra Blanca

SIERRA BLANCA, Sept. 23. (AP)—Real cowboys and cowgirls, just from a rodeo, will greet President Truman when his train stops here for 10 minutes Saturday.

He'll get a cowboy hat, too. Sidney Cowan, vice president of the Sierra Blanca Chamber of Commerce, will present the hat given by Marcus Rosen, owner of the large Rosen farms in this county.

Sierra Blanca is the junction of two main line railroads. The presidential train will be here from 3:35 p. m. to 3:45 p. m.

The rodeo will be in progress at that time.

Enforcement Teeth Added To Houston Meat Inspection Law

HOUSTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Houston's new meat inspection ordinance grew a couple of teeth yesterday.

One amendment makes it illegal to possess or transport more than five pounds of meat on Houston streets between 8 p. m. and 5 a. m.

The other provides that meat delivery trucks must be marked with the name of the company in letters at least five inches high and the words "meat delivery" in letters at least three inches high. If the trucks carry horse meat they must be marked "horse meat delivery."

Dr. W. J. Williamson, chief city veterinarian, admitted that under the first amendment it would be illegal for a housewife to take home a 10-pound ham after dark. He added, however, "we don't mean, of course, to enforce anything that rigid because we just want a weapon to block hauling of horse meat in the night hours."

COLLEGE MOVIES SMASH HIT

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., (U.P.)—A record 750,000 West Virginians went to the movies last year but not in regular theaters or for recreation. Budd Gambee, director of West Virginia University's audio-visual aids department, said the number witnessed the 3,000 shipments of educational films made by the college in the last fiscal year.

LENS TARGET—There'll be 49 more like Wrayanne Teeple for California amateur photographers to shoot at. Wrayanne and the other 49 will parade before the shutterbugs at Long Beach on the sixth annual Beach-Girl Amateur Photographer Contest.

Organ Presentation Program Is Held At Senior High

Presentation of a new Hammond electric organ to Senior High school was made Thursday afternoon when the Senior High school student body gathered in the school auditorium.

Charles Galey, student body president, introduced Jack Alderson, former student president and now a student in Texas Technological college, who served as master of cemermonies.

Representatives from the five classes that helped raise funds took part in the program. They were Mrs. Wade Eller, class 1942, Mrs. C. B. Martin, class 1943, Milton Butler, class 1945, George Morris, class 1946, and Margaret Wilson, class 1948.

Four organists presented melodies on the organ during the presentation program. They were Gerre Hancock, Bill Rogan, Kara Sam Dunn and Rossi Stiles.

Additional funds to complete the purchase and installation of the organ were voted by the school board.

OVERHEAD LIQUIDATED

FORT WORTH. (U.P.)—Burglars of the Chuck Wagon near here took their loot off the ceiling. It was $81 in one dollar bills, autographed by patrons and tacked to the ceiling.

Workers Leaving For Some States

MONTERREY, Mexico, Sept. 23. (AP)—Cotton pickers for Arkansas, Missouri and Mississippi are going out of here at the rate of 1,000 a day.

That many braceros (workers) were placed under contract yesterday by the Mexican recruiting office and United States employers who came here to get men.

Walter Herby, U. S. Employment Service representative, said there are plenty of braceros in sight and he hopes shortly to get recruiting increased to 1,500 daily. The three states asked for 20,000 to 25,000. Mexican authorities said they doubted if quite that many will be available.

Earl Littleton, Newport, Ark., ran into difficulties because he lacked necessary documents. He represents twelve employers who asked for 350 men. The men were lined up Tuesday, Herby said, but Mexican authorities would allow only 80 to go because Littleton had immigration papers for only that number. The procedure is that the U. S. Employment Service in the United States should certify to the need for men. The employer then must put up a bond and get authority from the Department of Justice and papers from the immigration service to take the men into the United States. Without those papers the Mexican authorities will not permit the men to go. Littleton now is trying to get the required papers.

Recruiting started slowly because few braceros appeared but gradually word spread through the surrounding country that men were needed and now there is a line-up of them.

TEST FLUNKED

MILWAUKEE. (U.P.)—William Young pleaded not guilty to larceny in court. He offered a proposition. "You can give me a lie detector test," he told the judge. "If I don't pass, you can give me a year." He funked the test and got six months in jail.

THRIFTY DINNER PIE
(Makes 4 to 6 servings)

For Sure Success Make it the Crisco Way!

This thrifty dish fits man-sized appetites—makes meat money s-t-r-e-t-c-h!

Just follow the sure-fire pastry method given below and your pie crust is bound to be perfect! For, with pure, all-vegetable Crisco and Crisco's "can't-fail" pastry recipe even a beginner can be sure of flaky, tender, digestible pie crust every single time!

FILLING:
(All Measurements Level)

¼ cup Crisco
2 tablespoons chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
3 to 4 frankfurters, sliced
½ pound ground beef
2 cups cooked tomatoes
2 cups cooked vegetables
½ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon flour

Lightly pan-fry onion, green pepper and meat in melted Crisco. Add remaining ingredients, simmer about 15 minutes, and thicken with flour. Pour into 1½ quart casserole. Top with Crisco pastry.

CISCO PASTRY:

1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup Crisco
3 tablespoons water

Sift flour with salt into bowl. Remove ¼ cup flour and mix with water to form a paste. Cut Crisco into remaining flour until pieces are size of small peas. Add flour paste to Crisco-flour mixture. Mix and shape into ball. On floured board, lightly roll out circle of dough 12" in diam. and ⅛" thick. Cut pastry into strips; arrange lattice fashion, over filled casserole, and trim to edge of dish. Cut an extra strip of dough 1" wide; lay around rim of casserole and flute with fingers. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) about 30 mins. or until pastry is browned.

A Good Idea -- Maybe

MOST TEXANS will agree readily with James C. Cantrell, of McKinney, president of the Texas Rural Roads association, that a great deal of farm-to-market road construction is desirable as soon as possible so as to take many rural areas "out of the mud."

But the proposal of Gov. Beauford Jester to allocate $20,000,000 at once from the state surplus for this type of improvement should be studied carefully—especially by West Texas legislators.

They should insist upon knowing just where that money is to be spent before giving their approval to such a project. Unless they take advance precautions, they may discover too late that West Texas has been given the small end of the deal. West Texas wouldn't get much of the money if Governor Jester should be given the final say-so in the allocation of funds.

However, with a fair and equitable distribution of the money to all portions of the state, farm-to-market roads would seem to be about as good an investment as could be made with some of the state's top-heavy surplus.

Louder Than Words

WHILE conjectural, the implications are encouraging of the omission of Russian representatives from all key posts in the United Nations Assembly session in Paris, including the chairmanships of the six most important committees.

The Assembly naturally offered no reasons for its choices and its highly significant omissions. The appointments simply were announced, the Russians being glaringly conspicious because of their absence.

The omissions could not be attributed logically to oversight. Obviously they were a deliberate action which clearly met with the approval of the great majority of the 58 nations represented in the Assembly. Resentment because of Communistic disturbances in the internal affairs of nations and the consistently obstructionist tactics pursued by Russians in all deliberative assemblies where they have representation are among the obvious explanations for the course the UN Assembly adopted. It is most encouraging that the small nations which are overwhelmingly dominant in the Assembly felt sufficiently secure to stand up to Russia in this way. It hints of a feeling of assurance, based probably upon information not of common knowledge, that Russia may not be the big, bad wolf Russians pretend.

The Assembly action has the appearance of an answer to Russia's consistent attitude of "rule or ruin" in everything in which it participates. The UN organization has served unmistakable notice that it does not intend to submit supinely either to rule or ruin by the Soviet.

TALENT got up . . . paced silently. Bindle's eyes followed him sullenly. There was scarcely a sound of breathing in the room. The tension became almost intolerable before Talent halted in front of Bindle.

"You haven't anything to say to that, have you?" Talent said. "All out of answers George?"

Bindle's head snapped back.

"Surprised?" Talent went on quietly. "Yes, this is just about the end for George Bandello. I've known that quite a while, Harry . . . about George Bandello. Chicago lost track of you, George, but now Joe Steppo and Mrs. Sterling are charged up against you."

The tormented man's fingers clutched the arms of the chair and his chin dropped low. His eyes stole a side glance from under the brim of his hat toward the tall open window, the sill barely two feet above the floor. No one barred the way.

In that instant of breathlessness after Talent stopped speaking, the man who had slipped from the police to 18 years of freedom by swimming underwater in Chicago's harbor again sneered at their effort to take him. Springing from his chair in a crouched position, he leapt for the open window. But he did not know that, before Miriam Sterling had been buried a week, because Lucy Gowder had demanded it if she was to remain in the house as cook, a grille of heavy iron bars, obscured from within because of the drapes, had been firmly anchored in the masonry outside the window.

Bandello hit the barrier with crunching force and rebounded into the room. Miraculously he retained his balance, still on his feet, when he pivoted to face his astonished audience, he held a menacing automatic he had slipped from under his left armpit.

From across the room, Detective Ripley's heavy service revolver spoke twice. The first bullet shattered the elbow and Bandello's gun dropped to the floor. Because he lunged at the wrong moment, the second bullet bored into his chest over the right lung, and he tumbled heavily.

LIEUTENANT Talent's reaction was spontaneous, displaying a burst of energy he rarely revealed. His clipped directions to Ripley arrested the momentary atmosphere of panic.

"Call the ambulance, Gus." Talent said. "We want to pull him through. He has a lot to answer for."

As Ripley sped to the telephone, Talent's long legs strode quickly across the room. Talent beckoned Trapgood to follow him.

Talent bent low over the prostrate form of George Bandello, Trapgood on one knee beside him. The wounded man's breathing was fortured. His eyes swam to a focus, fixed piteously on the long face above him.

"You're at the end of the long trail, George," Talent said. "Don't you want to square yourself. . . get it all off your mind?"

Bandello's lips worked to form words . . . his eyelids fought against their own weight . . . his eyes melted into a mist. "I know when I'm licked," he said weakly. After a gasping pause, he added, "You had it right Lieut. . . she went for her rod . . . it was me or . . . me or her . . . I didn't want to . . ." The voice was engulfed by a thick, incoherent gurgle.

As Talent and Trapgood got up, Isabel Wilson pushed impetuously between them. She had towels over one arm. She knelt beside the sticken man. Her fingers went to work on his tie . . . his collar. Bandello's breathing had become fitful rasping.

ALBERT Brant came into the room from the hall. His eyes searched until they rested on Talent. His calmly unemotional announcement registered distinctly above the hushed mumuring in the room.

"I beg pardon," the butler said. "The unfortunate gentleman when he came in, put this behind a chair in the hall."

Brant held out the Bindle briefcase. The two Headquarters detectives exchanged sheepish glances. Ripley, back from telephoning, took the case to Talent. "He wanted to leave this behind when we picked him up," Ripley said, "but I told him he might as well bring it along."

Talent emptied the case on the coffee-table. Eyes bulged at the bundles of money. Talent picked up the sealed envelope, tested it with his sensitive fingertips. He let Ripley glance at the penned notation . . . Marcus Sterling's flourished signature.

"The necklace!" Ripley exclaimed. "The bird was ready to fly."

"Seems so, Gus. You trapped him just in time."

"Why did Sterling put up the necklace when he had the money, Lieut?"

"We have to guess at the answer to that. Sterling may not have known what he took from the safe, besides the necklace, until later."

"He could have saved himself a lot of trouble, couldn't he?"

"A lot of trouble," Talent agreed thoughtfully. "Too bad Marcus Sterling couldn't have lived long enough to learn who murdered his wife. He deserved at least a final hour free of torture."

That reached Janet, standing beside Trapgood. Pain ravaged her eyes. Would she ever be able to forget that Sterling had died believeing . . .? She buried her head in the curve of Trapgood's shoulder.

"Dick, there must never be anything between us," she whispered. "Nothing ever to spoil our happiness . . ."

Richard Trapgood had been too recently rescued from abysmal torment to disagree.

"There won't be," he said.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

PROBABLY you have never heard of Keuka college or of the town of Penn Yan, N. Y., where it is located.

But at Keuka college they are starting an experiment which I hope will be completely successful and, because of its success, will become the standard practice in all colleges and high schools of the United States.

BRANDEIS

Keuka is a girls' college, with only a little more than 400 students and about forty teachers. Its president is Katherine Gillette Blyley.

It is a small school compared to Columbia or the University of California but, as you know, good things don't necessarily have to come in large packages.

And President Blyley is certainly starting a good thing at that college of hers.

The freshman class at Keuka has just begun a program of social responsibility — a program, which according to the faculty, is unique in world education.

The aim of Keuka is to prepare its students for "responsible citizenship in a dynamic world society."

In other words, they are trying to educate their students not in a lot of abstract subjects, not in snobbery and class consciousness, but in the art of living usefully in a democratic society.

At Keuka college they differentiate between the two meanings of the word "society."

One is usually spelled with a capital letter and has a special department in most newspapers, called the Society Page.

But there is another kind of society. It is the society that makes a country. It is the society to which all of us belong—the society of which night clubs and summer resorts, theatres, homes, hospitals, jails and poorhouses are part.

KEUKA IS going to teach its students to become leaders in that society of living. It is going to make them understand what Democracy means and it is going to teach them to interpret it to their fellow citizens.

Keuka is going to send its students into the "field"—meaning into hospitals and slums, into welfare agencies, into political meetings and community enterprises.

Students will be asked to participate in campus activities, which will be shaped as much as possible like outside communal activities. They will be encouraged to develop foreign contacts by attendance at international conferences and by exchange scholarships.

To graduate from Keuka the

IN POLITICAL REVOLT

South Gains Ground

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The Southern revolt against President Truman, which may mean the loss of a majority of the historic confederate states to the Democrats, has an industrial as well as a racial inspiration and background.

This industrial aspect is hardly recognized by the general public or by White House aides, who are not noted for their understanding of economic questions.

TUCKER

The Dixie of the 1948 presidential election is a new national phenomenon; it is an independent, self-conscious and ambitious area. It does not intend to remain as a political or economic orphan or underdog, even if it has to assert itself by breaking away from the Democratic Party.

In certain respects its postwar, industrialized economy has a closer relationship with Governor Earl Warren's up-and-coming West than with Harry S. Truman's Missouri.

DIFFERENTIALS: Numerous corporations from the North and Middle West have migrated southward on the promise that they will not be troubled by labor disputes. Chamber of Commerce boosters have advertised that the majority of workers consist of "native stock," not given to union organization and bossism. During World War II corporation executives suffered a minimum of disturbances, and they want no White House-A. F. of L.-C.I.O. interference with their system.

They intend, if possible, to maintain the slight differentials in industrial wages, taxes and accessibility to natural resources which tend to offset the greater political control that other sections have exercised in the Halls of Congress, and, too often, at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

In view of the milder climate and a slightly lower cost of living in many respects, they resent efforts of union organizers to raise wages to the same levels as those prevailing elsewhere.

Thus it is no accident that a majority of Southern Democrats voted for the Taft-Hartley Act over President Truman's veto. Nor is it without significance that authors of the law permitting the government to seize strike-bound plants in war time or other emergency were Senators Tom Connally of Texas and Representative J. Howard Smith of Virginia. And two of the stoutest champions of government economy and decentralization are Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia and Walter F. George of Georgia.

REFORMS: The South accepted, or acceded to, economic and racial reforms sponsored by Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt largely because they were advanced in the depth of depression or during a global war. Moreover, they cordially liked and admired F.D.R., and Southern leaders always suspected that he would never press his demands for change to the limit. He knew when and where it was wise to stop.

Had Mr. Truman been a strong heroic and appealing figure, even the present revolution, although inevitable, might have been deferred. But the combination of a fairly colorless and unimpressive Missourian and his insistence on such a social earthquake as non-segregation in all walks of human activity, provided an opportunity that was too good to be missed. It was a political Fort Sumter.

REBUKE: Dixie aims to regain the partisan and legislative power which it lost under Mr. Roosevelt. It abdicated its veto authority over nominations when it succumbed to Roosevelt-Farley appeals for repeal of the two-thirds procedure at national conventions. Its hundred and twenty-seven members of Congress, divided between House and Senate, cannot dominate Congressional or executive actions regarding unions, employment and wages.

But if it can administer a sweeping rebuke to the northern Democratic wing by making Mr. Truman the second-worst defeated presidential candidate in history, second only to Alf Landon in 1936, the Lees, Jacksons and Longstreets of today figure that they will have won as strategic and significant a battle as that at Bull Run, which shocked and paralyzed an overconfident North.

DEFECTION: A sensational desertion of the Democratic ticket by southern states in November will immediately provoke Republican talk and stratagems for breaking the Solid South permanently, as happened after the Hoover-Smith 1928 contest.

The defection will be regarded as "sensational" if, for instance, four or five commonwealths cast their popular ballots for the Dewey-Warren slate in the four-cornered race, and if four or five others deprive Mr. Truman of their electoral college support even though he obtains a majority within their borders. In the second category are listed such possible states as Alabama, Arkansas, South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, posibly a few electoral members in Tennessee and Florida.

MEANING: Although the South may never vote a straight "Republican" ticket, the Thurmond-Wright movement may fabricate the political machinery for giving this section of the country far greater legislative and partisan influence than it has possessed in recent years. Dixie can serve as a balance wheel inside and outside Congress, as did G.O.P. Progressives of the Norris-Johnson-La Follette-Borah brand.

By siding with the Democrats in House and Senate, they obtained favors and privileges for their area during the twenties and thirties. When many supported F.D.R. in 1932, they became the dominant figures in his Administration. Now their like-minded successors have shifted back to the G.O.P., and they came up with Governor Warren as that party's vice-presidential nominee. In short, the West has been smarter and less inflexible than the South.

The ancient issues which bound the South to the Cleveland-Wilson Democratic Party—states rights, the tariff, prohibition etc.—have virtually disappeared or have been modified. It is now the Democrats who seek to repudiate the states rights philosophy.

In their demands for power, industrial expansion, lower railroad rates, new markets for their products, possession of oil tidelands, the South may find that it has a closer bond with the West than with the old, established and industrialized sections of the North and Middle West.

That is the real meaning of the Dixie rebellion!

The cave man had the first prefabricated job. Nature fixed him a place in which to live.

Another fault with human nature is that some men don't care if it is the last of the meat just so long as they get some of the gravy.

HST Renews Warnings On Trip

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN—Herbert Hoover once spoke, in the midst of his troubles as President, of the hair shirt that he wore.

His hair shirt was what has come to be known as the great depression. His self-pity was for the terrific burden he bore and the mounting dissatisfaction among the people. It seemed to be a recognition of the political difficulties that encompassed him and, for those who observed from outside, a forecast of the rising tide that did, indeed, eventually engulf him in the 1932 Roosevelt landslide.

Harry Truman wears a heavy hair shirt, too, though not of the same sort at all. His troubles are other kinds; he never has complained about his publicity before. It is perhaps significant, consequently, that he indulged for the first time in a bit of self-confession approaching self-pity. For the moment it cracked that cheerful, confident and almost cocky front that he has presented in the face of the apparent political trend against him that is manifest in many ways. It illuminated the ordeal of the human being beneath the President and the candidate.

Admits Facing Tough Job

The revealing episode was at Denver where, in an off-the-cuff luncheon speech to the Truman-Barkley club, he spoke publicly for the first time of the attempt within him to defeat himself for renomination, and then went on to tell what a tremendous task was thrust upon him when he suddenly was catapulted into the presidency. He then said that because of dissension in his own party and the Republican party and of what happened in Congress and the 1936 elections "it is hard to understand how we could continue to make the government run."

That conclusion, a patent exaggeration of the situation in Washington, overemphasized the difficulty of the problem and, coupled with his boast immediately afterward that "it did run" nevertheless, exemplifies the self-pity for the treatment he is getting now.

"You know," he said at Denver, "back in April of this year, they had your President out in the Atlantic ocean, so far as politics were concerned. And, in May, we heard people deciding that it would be best for the country if certain other persons, many of whom you have in mind, could be named to head the Democratic ticket.

"And then, along in July, after the Republicans had had a convention and written a platform—which, in my opinion, is the most hypocritical document that has been put into writing—people began to understand that for three long years the President of the United States had succeeded to an almost impossible situation."

He went on to tell about the difficulties of reconversion to peacetime, especially with both the war in Europe and that of the Pacific ending ahead of the estimated time, and said that people generally did not understand how difficult this job was.

This bit of self-revelation at Denver may serve as a clue to answer the question as to whether President Truman really believes he can be re-elected, which is being discussed and argued, among others, by newspaper correspondents on this train. That question always is followed by another, which is if he knows he can't, then why such a strenuous campaign and why his strong leftward stand and his violent attacks on big business in lurid and shop-worn phrases that smack of the demogogic?

Has Learned Lesson

It seems to be more than mere politics. That is, more than merely to arouse for this particular, desperate election drive those who in the last 16 years have supported the Democratic party and given it election triumphs.

Harry Truman, who started his administration with a compromising, middle-of-the road, era-of-good-feeling attitude, has learned some facts of life in his dealings with the 80th Congress, and has found out where the body is buried and who does what to whom, in brief, about the powerful economic interests that have used that Congress. In his own tenure in Congress they were under the bridle of Franklin D. Roosevelt. They since had come out in full force and cry, and he is the victim.

He seems to have undergone a conversion as a result of his experience, and the new convert is always more fervent. This may explain why he hits so hard now and in his own language, which is not, and cannot, be that of the polished statesman with the delicate stiletto touch which he certainly is not. He has to say it in his own crude way.

He seems now to believe sincerely that the forces with which he has had to contend are making ready to move in and take over the government, and he has become a Jeremiah. He is making what he calls "a crusade to keep the government in the hands of the people."

So he is pointing out the dangers, alerting the people, telling them who their enemies are and how they operate in Congress, and in a frantic way, beyond the immediate campaign and election, he also is seeking to outline the philosophy that the Democratic party must follow if it is to rebuild itself into an effective political instrument for the future.

Key Members Of Congress Ask Hoover Group To Urge Tighter Unification Of U. S. Armed Services

By FREDERIC TUTTLE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Key members of Congress asked former President Hoover's governmental streamlining commission today to recommend tighter unification of the armed services.

The plea for closer integration of the Army, Navy and Air Force was made in an off-the-record conference among a group of senators and representatives and Ferdinand Eberstadt, head of the military section of the Hoover group.

Sen. Lodge (R-Mass) was learned to have outlined a proposal to replace Army, Navy and Air secretaries with assistant secretaries of defense. Under the Lodge plan there would be a single chief of staff over all three branches.

Indications arose that some lawmakers are dissatisfied with progress made thus far under the unification act of 1947, regarded by many as a compromise version of the all-out merger sought by the Army.

Informed sources said that Sen. Byrd (R-Va) told Eberstadt that "real unification" must be achieved to hold down the defense budget—now standing at more than $15 billion a year. Byrd is chairman of the joint congressional economy committee.

Hope For Funds Saving

Byrd reportedly was joined by Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations committee. Taber told newsmen:

"We hope for better organizations and better results and perhaps a little saving."

Legislators and Eberstadt were silent on details of the conference on the Hoover report, which is due to be made to the White House in January.

Participants in the conference pointed out that there had been an agreement that the meeting, called by Eberstadt, was "off-the-record and confidential."

Revision Is Indicated

Lawmakers stated only that Eberstadt sought their views on reorganization.

Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House Armed Services committee, said that unification was discussed, including "what further we can do."

Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass) hinted that Eberstadt may agree with advocates of a tighter centralization of the armed forces. Saltonstall said:

"We had a very interesting conversation and I don't think our views were very far apart."

Lodge's recommendation would bring about a virtual merger such as many legislators and the Navy fought vigorously when the compromise measure lumping the services together was passed more than a year ago.

It would strengthen the hand of the Defense secretary over the three branches, handing him all the powers which merger advocates originally recommended.

Three Charged In Horse Meat Sales

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23. (AP)—Charges that thousands of pounds of horse meat have been sold as hamburger and chili meat in the Los Angeles area during the last 18 months resulted in three men being arraigned in superior court today on conspiracy charges.

Elmer C. Hanson, former state meat inspector of the Department of Agriculture, and two operators of a meat and provision company, Knute M. Kelvin and Charles Morgan, were arraigned on charges of conspiring to violate state health codes by selling horse meat for human consumption.

The three were indicted by the county grand jury. They are to enter pleas Oct. 7.

SMALL FRY HELP OUT

Stranger Still Free After Third Visit To Mystery House

FORT WORTH, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—A mysterious stranger, with a penchant for digging into stone fences, was still at liberty today.

He paid his third visit in a week last night to the former home of O. D. Stevens, north of Handley.

The Stevens home 15 years ago was the scene of the notorious Handley triple slayings. It was within the walls of the palatial rock house that $60,000 worth of dope was found hidden.

It was at the site of the home where a night-time meeting was held to divide the spoils of the $71,000 mail truck robbery. That was the night of the slayings.

Meanwhile, Fort Worth detectives have two theories. One is that the man is an ex-convict who was told in prison that some of the mail robbery money was still encased in the rock fense. (About $40,000 of the holdup money was never found.) Another is that the man is a dope fiend who thinks narcotics have been sealed in the rock fence for 15 years.

Earlier this week, the 12-year-old son of R. O. Harris, present owner of the big house, came across the mysterious stranger, who threw rocks at the boy. Last night, Harris saw the man and fired at him with a rifle. The man returned the fire and then fled.

Strike Calls Issued Against Mexico's Wool Textile Mills

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 23. (INS)—Strike calls have been issued against all the wool textile mills in Mexico and a serious problem has been created with the setting of a new precedent.

Workers in the woolen mills base their demand for a 60 percent increase in salaries on the allegation that the devaluation of the peso has reduced the aquisitive power of their salaries in this degree.

And although the woolen mill workers are bound by a contract law providing no strike call can be issued without the approval of two-thirds of all workers affected in a convention attended by both workers and management, several industrial syndicates have announced determination to support the demand.

Traffic Control Lights Are Installed On Tech Campus

The installation of traffic control lights on Texas Technological college campus will begin to show effect today as lights at two intersections, both on Fourteenth street, in front of the Bookstore and the Extension building, C. Lights at five other intersections are expected to be in operation by Sept. 29, including one in front of the Administration building, Library, Museum, and at the intersection of Broadway with Memorial circle, and one at the intersection of the circle with the street running East and West in front of the Home Economics building, Anderson said.

LUBBOCK MORNING AVALANCHE

Lubbock, Texas, Friday, September 24, 1948

TO BE HOST TO TRUMANS—Former Vice President John N. Garner reads a telegram from President Harry S. Truman, Mrs. Truman and Margaret Truman accepting his invitation to breakfast at his home in Uvalde, Tex., Sept. 26. The breakfast will be served on the back porch where he is shown reading the telegram. (AP Photo).

Numerous Stops Are On Schedule

(By The Associated Press)

So far President Truman has been promised one good breakfast, one cowboy hat and one angora goat on his swing through Texas.

Beginning Saturday he'll also gaze into the faces of thousands of Texas schoolchildren and shake the hands of hundreds of Texas Democratic leaders.

Plans for the presidential tour, still shaping up, include:

El Paso — Enter the state at 11 a. m Saturday and stay in El Paso for an hour. Plans are to rope off a special section at the railroad station for school children.

Brief Stops Planned

Sierra Blanca — Cowboys and cowgirls from a rodeo underway at the time will greet the train at 3:35 p. m., and a cowboy hat will be presented the President during his 10-minute stay.

Valentine — A ten-minute stopover at 5:20-5:30.

Marfa — A 20-minute stopover on the plains, 6:25-6:45.

Sanderson — A 40-minute stopover.

Del Rio — A darkened train. The President will get in at 1:30 a. m. and remain until 4 a. m. when the entourage leaves for Uvalde.

To Visit With Garner

Uvalde — Breakfast at 7 a. m. Sunday with John Nance Garner and a reception later in the Garner home. Departure at 8:30 a. m. Mr. Truman will be given his choice of 3,000 angora goats at the station.

San Antonio — Arrives at 10:45 a. m. and stays for a daylong visit. A speech in front of the Alamo or on the steps of the municipal auditorium is in the offing. Luncheon plans are incomplete, but a separate women's party will be held for Mrs. Truman and her daughter. "We also would like to take the President on a tour of our city," said Mayor Alfred Callaghan. The presidential train will leave San Antonio at 4:35 a. m.

New Braunfels — Platform appearance, time not announced.

Major Talk At Bonham

Temple — The Temple High school band will welcome the President at 9:55 a. m. Schools will be dismissed during his 15-minute stop.

Waco — A half-hour visit from 11:05 to 11:25 a. m.

Hillsboro — A brief platform appearance about 12:15 p. m.

Fort Worth — The President will arrive at 2 p. m. and make a radio broadcast from here. His visit will be televised, the first telecast in the Southwest. The presidential party will leave the special train and move over to Dallas by automobile.

Dallas — Arrival at 3:30 p. m. and a speech in Dallas' ballpark, Rebel stadium. Departure on the special train again at 4:30.

Bonham — Arrival at 8 p. m. and an address in the football stadium. After that, a reception at the home of Rep. Sam Rayburn, minority leader of the House.

The presidential train will lay over in Bonham for the night, leave at 6:30 a. m.

Denison — 7:25-8-15 a. m.

Gainesville — Arrival at 10:05 and then farewell to the state at 10:35. Marietta, Okla., the next stop.

TO FACE TRIAL AT SANTA FE

Chicago Army Vet Arrested On Charge Of Taking Atom Data

CHICAGO, Sept. 23. (INS)—A 26-year-old Chicago Army veteran was arrested today by FBI agents in the Chicago home of his wealthy parents on charges of taking valuable documents from the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic bomb project.

The FBI identified the veteran as John Lepman, former technician fourth grade who served as an engineer's aid in electronics at Los Alamos from March, 1944, until his discharge Feb. 1, 1946.

Lepman surrendered the allegedly stolen documents to the agents when they roused him from his bed at the fashionable Belden Stratford hotel. The charges against him were returned in an indictment yesterday at Santa Fe, N. M.

The veteran was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Edwin K. Walker on a warrant for his removal to Santa Fe for trial. The hearing was continued until Oct. 5 and bond was fixed at $3,500.

Asst. U. S. Attorney Jack A. Welfeld described the documents as relating to electronics and said they consisted partly of diagrams.

The attorney quoted Lepman as saying he planned to go into the radio business and thought the information in the documents would be helpful.

Didn't Know Documents Valuable

Welfeld said the material consisted of 51 blueprints of electronic circuits and was taken by Lepman when he was discharged from the service.

The veteran told officials he had no idea the material was important. The attorney said there has been no evidence that Lepman used the documents or showed them to anyone.

The indictment charges destruction as well as theft. Conviction carries a possible penalty of seven years imprisonment and an $8,000 fine.

The accused vet is the son of Henry M. Lepman, owner of a [illegible]

Awards to be made, in Troop 6, St. Johns Methodist Church, Jack R. Alexander, scoutmaster, are: second class, Joe Welch; merit badges to Bill Moren, swimming; Bill English, home repairs and swimming; and John Terry, home repairs.

Awards to be made in Troop 10, Knights of Pythias, Jerral Davis, scoutmaster, are: second class, Norman Kammerdiener; merit badges to John Wesley Chism, life saving and swimming; and Dayle Clark, swimming. In ex. post 10, Charles McBroom will be given the merit badge for horsemanship and bee keeping.

The Life award will be awarded to Billy Pool, Troop 5, and the star award will be given to Robert Brown, Troop 6. The Eagle award will be given to James Norcross, Clyde Walter, Billy Hamilton, Lowell F. Caddell, John Norcross and Frank Ford, all of Troop 6, and to Ross Craig, of Troop 10.

Ticket Sale For Fair Feature Set Today

Reserved Seats For 'Follies' Go On Sale

The advance sale of reserved tickets to the "Water Follies of 1948" at the Panhandle-South Plains fair next week will begin today at the Continental Air Lines offices in the Hilton hotel, fair association manager A. B. Davis announced late Thursday.

He announced also that the advance interest in this attraction has been so great that nine performances have been scheduled.

It will be presented each night at 8 o'clock except Wednesday and each afternoon at 2:30 o'clock except Monday and Wednesday.

Advance Notices Impressive

Only the center sections of the grandstand have been reserved for the performances. They are $1.80, including tax. Over two-thirds of the grandstand will be general admissions at $1.25. There's not a bad seat in the grandstand, since there are no pillars or beams to obstruct the views of spectators.

Advance sales will continue at the Continental offices through Saturday. Tickets will be available at the fairgrounds next week.

The Follies are playing a four-day engagement at the San Angelo fair this week, and reports from there are that the performances have more than measured up to advance expectation.

San Angelo and Lubbock are two of the smallest cities in which the Follies have played during the several years on tour. The show's itinerary this year extends from New England to California and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico.

Several Features Included

In addition to swimming and diving exhibitions by several world champions, the performances include exhibitions by a water ballet of 16 girls and several acts of big time vaudeville.

The "props" carried by the company include one pool 75 feet long for the ballet and a diving plunge 45 feet deep. All will be set into a stage nearly 300 feet long which will be below the level of the lowest seats in the grandstand. The spectators will be in ideal position to see everything that goes on.

Manager Davis emphasized that the supply of reserved seats is relatively small, since only a small part of the grandstand has been set aside for this purpose.

He suggested, therefore, that it will be a wise precaution to get reserved seats early.

Frederick the Great is said to have made his coffee with champagne—and then added mustard to the drink.

Jester To Meet HST In El Paso Saturday

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP) — Gov. Beauford H. Jester said today he will meet President Truman's train at El Paso at noon Saturday and will accompany the President to Austin.

Jester will accompany the President on the entire tour through the state if possible, executive secretary William L. McGill reported.

The governor is still suffering from a heavy cold. He came to his office briefly today to sign some papers and then returned to the mansion to rest.

Jester has received word from Gov. Roy Turner of Oklahoma that he and former Gov. Robert Kerr will come to Bonham, in North Texas to meet the President. Turner invited Jester to continue with the President's party into Oklahoma.

The governor today joined Mayor Tom Miller of Austin, local reception committee Chairman E. H. Perry and other reception officials in the capitol city in inviting all former governors and present state officials and higher court judges to meet President Truman's train when it arrives in Austin Monday at 7:25 a. m.

Truman's Talk At Bonham To Be Major Address Of Texas Visit

BONHAM Sept. 23 (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn said today that President Truman's speech here would be the major Democratic campaign speech in Texas.

Rayburn plans to leave tomorrow to meet the Truman special train when it enters Texas at El Paso.

IRRIGATION SETUP AIDED

Land Levelling Demonstration Is Given At Farm Near City

Approximately 250 farmers and other interested men attended a demonstration of land levelling at the J. E. Hancock farm Thursday afternoon according to David W. Sherrill, county agent.

The Hancock farm, located one mile east of the south end of the over pass on the Plainview highway, was leveled in 40-foot strips which ran in a contour with the rows, having three tenths of an inch fall per 100 feet. On each side of the strip was placed a border capable of holding about six inches of water for irrigating flat land.

Interest Shown In Work

"Those present expressed great interest in the process, and many indicated that they would like to have the work done on their land, some of whom were dry-land farmers who believe that it would conserve rainfall," Sherrill said. He added that the work that has been done would be open to anyone who wishes to visit it in the future.

The primary purpose of the levelling-bordering work is to eliminate the loss of irrigation water through its failure to soak in if the slope of the land is too great. The land on the Hancock farm originally had a drop of about one foot per 100 feet, which made it almost impossible to irrigate to the greatest advantage without an excessive amount of water being applied. Estimate of the cost of the work, if done commercially, was about $30 per acre.

A dirt carry-all was used to transport dirt from extremely high spots to where the land was low, and then a Hancock plane terrace was used to put up the borders at 40-foot intervals. After the borders were prepared, a common chisel was used to loosen the land between borders for levelling with an Eversman land leveller. Twelve 40-inch rows can be placed between the borders, and Hancock indicated that he would plant small-grain crops such as wheat, barley or clover on the borders, which are of the bench type and about four feet wide.

The demonstration was arranged by Marshall W. Howard, district conservationist, Hal C. Normand, soil conservation service agricultural engineer, and Sherrill.

Hunter Denies Gold, Currency Found In Wreckage Of Plane

EDMONTON, Alberta, Sept. 23. (INS)—C. L. Fallert a member of the Oregon hunting party which found wreckage of the long missing U. S. air "bullion" transport near Fort Nelson, B. C., denied today that any gold or currency had been found.

Fallert made his report in a dispatch filed from Fort Nelson.

Both Fallert and John Bahne, Indian guide who was with Fallert when the wreckage was discovered, stated they knew nothing about the transport carrying money until they returned to Fort Nelson with news of their discovery.

Priest Continues 40 Year Task Of Civilizing Mexican Indians

By A. CARL KUPFER
INS Staff Correspondent

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 23.—A Jesuit priest and a small band of missionaries are engaged in the almost-thankless task of trying to civilize one of the largest savage regions of Mexico.

Their only aides are zeal, unflagging humor and an army jeep.

Father Manuel Ocampo this week recalled his 40 years in the state of Chihuahua, south of Arizona, among the Tarahumara Indians, still some of the most savage in Mexico.

Great Nation Decayed

From a once great nation with a high, though barbarous, level of culture, the Tarahumara has decayed to a group of some 10,000 dirty and miserable savages living in the mountainous fastnesses of northwest Mexico.

Missionaries have worked with the Tarahumara for more than four centuries without appreciably raising the standards of civilization. Father Josef Neumann was one of the first to interest himself in the Tarahumara and came from Belgium in the 17th Century to work with them.

At that time they were a powerful nation, making war on their neighbors and building great cities. The invasion of their territories by the whites and the Spanish rule completed their destruction as it did all the great civilizations of Mexico.

Inherited Many Problems

Father Ocampo is the inheritor of the problems left by Father Neumann and of the Indians to whom a long line of Jesuit fathers have devoted their lives.

In 1908 Father Ocampo went to Chihuahua to work in the mission along with some brothers of the Sacred Heart. Those were the days when Mexico was truly Catholic in government as well as among the people. Porfirio Diaz was president of the country and the Jesuits were in high favor.

Three years later the revolution swept in a succession of anti-catholic and anti-religious governments. Under Obregon, Calles and Gardenas the priests were persecuted, the convents and monastaries burned or taken over for the use of lay teachers, the religious workers were forbidden to carry on their centuries-old task.

Underground it was carried on and many a priest was shot or imprisoned for attempting to do the work established so long ago.

With the passing of the revolution from a central idea and inspiration of government to a catch-phrase designed for propaganda, the anti-religious laws were relaxed and enforcement weakened.

Father Ocampo sees his task as one almost insoluble. The poverty, ignorance and shiftlessness of the Tarahumara prevents him from taking advantage of the benefits brought him. Dirt and drunkenness and sloth are the besetting vices of this people, Father Ocampo says.

"Children from babyhood through five or six years old must be taught the rudiments of cleanliness, temperance and good habits or they will never learn," Father Ocampo explains. "Their home environment will supersede anything we can do for them after that age."

The Jeep? According to Father Ocampo the jeep makes it possible to cover their "parish" despite snow, heat and primitive roads. But even after 40 years he still has hope for his flock.

Hurricanes Claimed More Destructive Than Atomic Bomb

CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—The power of a hurricane is many times that of an atomic bomb, University of Chicago meteorologists say. They estimate the whirling wind strikes with the impact of 2,000,000 tons a square mile.

"It is thousands of times as powerful as an atomic bomb," the scientists said.

The hurricane goes at speeds of from 150 to 200 miles an hour. It is born in the dead calm of the "doldrums," a lifeless area of sea in the Atlantic between the Cape Verde Islands and the West Indies.

Most of the time that sleepy sea is peaceful, hot and humid. But in the autumn things begin to happen.

The hot air rises slowly from the sea and the cool air of the trade winds move in to take its place. As the hot air climbs skyward, it picks up speed and begins turning and twisting. Eventually, it becomes a full-fledged hurricane, about 300 miles in diameter.

The huge hulk of twisting, racing wind then is shoved slowly over the sea by the trade winds. Although it moves only 12 miles an hour, it is turning at tremendous speeds.

In the center of the vortex, there is an almost perfect calm. The centrifugal force set up by the circling wind keeps the air from entering into the center.

The hurricane only lives for about 10 days but in that time it can do more damage than almost any other force in nature.

Many Never Suspect Cause of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

OPEN SPACES SWING TO GOP

Truman Must Carry Far West, Midwest To Keep White House

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Both major presidential candidates now are campaigning the grass roots, cactus and mountain slope areas where the late FDR almost put the Republicans on the floor for keeps.

Those Far West and Midwest states proved to be as fickle as a blonde. They let the GOP down with a thump during the early Roosevelt years. They switched around to help revive the Republican party in 1940 and 1944. A county by county score of recent elections shows what hit the Republicans in 1932-36 and what is likely to hit the Democrats this year if the trend continues.

HST Must Turn Tide

President Truman now is appealing to the men and women of the great open spaces. They are the same ones who had a big hand in putting the Republican 80th Congress on the White House doorstep.

If Mr. Truman is unable to turn the political tide in those great areas, he is licked.

The American Institute of Public Opinion has analyzed county returns for the four elections in which Mr. Roosevelt was chosen president. The depths of Republican political repression and the extent of Republican recovery are demonstrated by these figures.

There are 3,071 counties in the United States. The Republicans carried only 372 in the election of 1932 when FDR defeated Herbert C. Hoover. The GOP carried 457 counties in 1936, 1,141 in 1940 and 1,338 in 1944.

The breakdown shows that the Republican comeback was firmly based in the Middle and Far West. For purposes of this analysis the Middle West will be considered to consist of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

There are 1,056 counties in this group of states. Running against Mr. Roosevelt in 1932, Mr. Hoover carried only 121 of them. When Gov. Thomas E. Dewey opposed Mr. Roosevelt in 1944 the Republicans carried 818 of those midwestern counties.

The Far Western states are those of the mountain slopes and Pacific coastal area, as follows: Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Washington, Oregon and California.

All but 17 of the 410 counties in that group of states went Democratic in 1932. In 1944 the Republicans won 177 of those 410 counties. The furtherest the political pendulum swung, however, was in 1936, the year Alf. M. Landon of Kansas ran against Mr. Roosevelt. Landon got only eight counties among the eight Rocky mountain states and none from the three states of the Pacific coast.

Rites Set Today For Mrs. Lenora Houser

Funeral services for Mrs. Lenora Houser, who died in the home of her son, H. W. Houser, of 2207 Twenty-fourth street, Lubbock, at 2:30 p. m. Thursday, will be conducted at 3 p.m. today in the home of her son.

Mrs. Houser was a resident of Lubbock 28 years. In addition to the one son, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. L. C. Denton of 1416 Main street, and Mrs. Harriett Hardy of Ventura, Calif.; and four brothers, Pate Hardy of Shallowater, Jess Hardy of Lubbock, Jilton Hardy of Hereford, and L. W. Hardy of Lubbock.

Burial will be in County Line cemetery, County Line, under direction of Sanders Funeral home.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST

HAVERHILL, Mass. (U.P.)—Dawn was breaking as the safe door swung open and the thieves who had jimmied throughout the night in the office of the City Oil Transportation Co., reached inside. They fled empty-handed. The cash had been removed from the safe the previous afternoon.

MEXICO TO IMPORT EGGS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 23. (AP)—Eggs were ordered imported immediately by President Miguel Aleman today in his plan to cut the cost of living. Eggs were selling at three cents each before the peso was devalued on July 21. Now they are more than six cents each.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves: if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Reports Continue Top Soviet Leaders Holding Conferences

By KINGSBURY SMITH
General Manager, INS

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Persistent reports that Cominform leaders are talking with Premier Stalin in the Crimea coincided tonight with western pessimism about possible resumption of Big Four talks in Berlin.

The western ambassadors who recently sought to see Stalin were told that he was vacationing and "cannot be disturbed."

But the London foreign office said it had received "probably correct" reports that at least three Cominform leaders now are conferring with the Soviet leader in the Crimea, possibly at Stalin's usual resort at Sochi.

Top Officials On Hand

These reports said the Romanian foreign minister Ana Pauker, Czechoslovak President Klement Gottwald and Bulgarian Premier Georgi Dimitrov are there and possibly others.

At least those three leaders "certainly are absent from their countries."

The Cominform leaders are believed to be planning joint policy, including what line to take in the Berlin crisis and the possibility that it will be turned over to the UN unless Russia relaxes her present stand.

American informants in Paris disclosed that Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, U. S. Ambassador to Russia, is flying to Washington tonight to spend a week or ten days there.

This indicates that if negotiations with Russia are resumed they will be in Berlin among the four military governors and not in Moscow.

Well-informed sources are not optimistic about resumed talks soon, and far less optimistic about the prospect of an early lifting of the Soviet ground blackade of Berlin.

The magnificent western air lift still faces the hard task of trying to feed more than 2,000,000 Germans during the winter months.

Campaign For Natural Resources Tax Given Boost By State Demos

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (ISS) — As usual, a big push for a new tax on natural resources in Texas is to be expected throughout the coming 51st session of the State Legislature.

But this time, the idea will be backed up by the platform of the Texas Democratic Party.

Among other things, the State Democratic Convention in Fort Worth last week added to Gov Jester's platform a plank advocating a tax on natural gas to finance rural roads, otherwise known as farm-to-market roads.

Jester Silent On Issue

What effect this will ultimately have on the chances of such a measure passing the legislature is anybody's guess.

Gov. Jester's program for his second term in office was silent on the question of no-new-taxes. And his only comment on the subject in news conferences subsequent to the airing of the program has been that it is "too early" to decide whether new taxes are needed for the next biennium.

His initial platform was strong on the no-new-taxes theme, but for his second term program, he admitted that much money would be needed. He said he did not know at that time whether state revenues could cover it, as the figures were not before him.

Observers are inclined at this time to argue over the chances of a resource tax bill passing in 1949. But all agree that the newly-added plank in the party platform—urging a gas tax—will undoubtedly carry some weight.

Defeated In Last Session

Last session, such a measure was roundly defeated in the legislature.

Solidifying the fact that liberal democrats rode herd on the state convention was the inclusion of this plank, plus the addition of another urging a change in Texas' set of labor restricting laws, and still another flatly opposing a general sales tax "for any purpose."

Whether or not Governor Jester, in his address of recommendation to the 51st Legislature, will go down the line on these planks remains to be seen.

The Convention adopted his platform as the platform of the party, as is customary at the fall convention, but this time they added these notes of their own.

Although he might leave these planks out of his address to the Legislature, it would be unusual for the Governor to come out plainly against them.

One interesting angle to the situation is the fact that the Governor signed each of the nine Texas labor bills into law after they were passed by the last legislature.

Army guns put up in cans can be preserved in perfect working order for 50 years, ordinance experts estimate.

187 Traffic Deaths Counted In August

AUSTIN, Sept. 23. (U.P.)—During August 187 Texans met death on the state's highways, rural roads and city streets, the Department of Public Safety reported today.

The 14,307 traffic accidents brought injuries to 1,934 persons and caused an estimated economic loss of $7,098,975.

So far this year, 1,276 persons have been fatally injured in traffic accidents. During the same period last year, 1,277 persons died in similar accidents.

However, the State Department of Public Safety noted that the death figure for this year is not complete. Present estimates forecast that the final figure for the year will be five per cent above the total for 1947.

Hearing Set On Protests Against Tideland Drilling

GALVESTON, Sept. 23. (AP)—A public hearing will be held here Oct. 5 on protests against proposed drilling of oil wells in the Gulf of Mexico.

Col. B. L. Robinson, Galveston district army engineer announced the hearing yesterday. He said it was called because of protests from navigation interests.

Stanolind Oil and Gas Co. of Houston is planning to drill for oil wells in eight areas offshore from Galveston.

Robinson said the hearing was called specifically to consider a fairway in the Gulf of Mexico for vessels departing from or headed for the Galveston entrance channel, which connects the ports of Galveston, Houston and Texas City with open water.

Protests against Stanolind's application for a blanket drilling permit were filed by the American Merchant Marine institute and the Atlantic Refining Co. of Port Arthur, which operates tankers in this area.

HELP REQUIRED

PATTERSON, N. J. (U.P.)—Firemen of Truck Company 1 hung their heads. Standing in the firehouse, their truck caught fire and they had to call Engine Companies 1, 4 and 9 to put it out.

Beta Sigma Phi Will Have Fair Concession

Alpha Delta chapter of Beta Phi will operate a concession at the Panhandle-South Plains fair for the purpose of raising funds to apply to purchase of a mobile x-ray unit.

The state organization of Beta Sigma Phi has pledged funds to buy the unit for use by the State Health department. Equipment which will cost approximately $23,600 has been ordered. The four Lubbock chapters of Beta Sigma Phi are to give $1,000 toward purchase of the unit, which is to be presented to officials of the health department at the Beta Sigma Phi state convention in Houston Nov. 20-21.

The unit will be supported by taxation and may be used by large groups requesting it.

Miss Gladys Ruth Parnell, president of Alpha Delta chapter, announced the chapter would meet tonight to sack peanuts and make other preparations for operation of the booth. The meeting will open at 8 p. m. in the office of Dr. W. A. Petty, Nineteenth and Ave. M.

Miss Bert Hartzog, president of the city council of Beta Sigma Phi, has notified Lubbock County Tuberculosis association of willingness of the chapters to help type addresses on envelopes and do other work in the Christmas seals sale.

Expansion Of Television Network Over East, Midwest Is Foreseen

SUN VALLEY, Idaho, Sept. 23. (INS)—A national Broadcasting company official forecast tonight that N.B.C.'s television network may reach 33 stations by the end of 1949.

He is Charles R. Denny, executive vice president. He spoke to representatives of affiliated stations at the second yearly N.B.C. convention at Sun Valley.

He said at least 16 stations will be connected by the end of the year but more likely the number will be between 20 and 25. Under ideal conditions, the total may reach 33, he said.

More Programs Planned

Denny forecast that by the end of 1949 the country will have 2,500,000 television sets in homes and public places, a three-fold increase over the 870,000 expected at the end of 1948.

At the same time he said the novelty is wearing off and next year television will emerge as a "regular dependable service." The public will become more critical, and regular features will be more important, he said.

Denny also presented N.B.C.'s plan to provide at least 28 hours of network service a week.

He said that barring unforeseen delays by the end of next year stations in these cities will become part of the N.B.C. television network, joined by coaxial cable: Boston; Providence, R. I.; Hartford, Conn.; New York City; Schenectady, N. Y.; Wilkes Barre, Penn.; Allentown, Penn.; Trenton, N. J.; Philadelphia; Wilmington, Delaware; Baltimore, Md.; Washington, D. C.; Richmond, Va. Norfolk, Va.; Lancaster, Penn.; Johnstown, Penn.; Pittsburgh; Cleveland; Buffalo, N. Y.; Rochester, N. Y.; Syracuse, N. Many of these stations already are on the air and some are operating as part of N.B.C.'s eastern and midwestern networks, he said.

Under the plan Denny outlined, N.B.C. television network time will be from 5 to 6 each afternoon and from 7:30 to 10:30 each evening. New York time.

Of the 28 hours a week of network time, 11 hours and 55 minutes already have been sold to commercial sponsors, Denny reported. N.B.C. hopes to sell a total of 15 hours next year.

The other 13 hours would be given to sustaining television programs, the cost of which would be shared by the network and its affiliated television stations.

Funeral Rites Slated Today For Former Lubbock Resident

Last rites will be conducted in Broadway Church of Christ at 3 p. m. today for G. G. Seybold of Wilcox, Ariz., who died early this week following about two years' illness.

Liff Sanders will officiate. Sanders Funeral home will direct burial in Lubbock cemetery.

Mr. Seybold formerly lived in Lubbock. Survivors in addition to his wife and one son, George H., of Wilcox, are a half-brother, Claude Padgett of Fort Worth, a step-brother, Bill Padgett of Englewood, Calif., and two sisters.

Pallbearers will be J. H. Kimmel, Wade Walker, J. C. Sanders, Lloyd Nelson, J. C. Royalty and Douglas Lowery.

Dallas Man, Unable To Cry For Help, Burns To Death

DALLAS, Sept. 23 (AP)—A 67-year-old Dallas man, his voice paralyzed with excitement, ran through his house with his clothing a mass of flames to awaken his sleeping wife.

His daughter, Mrs. Ruth De Pre, told the story today:

Reagan was sitting on the front porch of his home. His wife had taken a nap in a bedroom.

He had suffered and recovered from several paralytic strokes, which left part of his skin insensitive to pain and which also left him subject to dumbness under emotional excitement.

Relatives think Reagan must have dropped a match which ignited his clothing and was unable to cry for help.

"Perhaps he didn't suffer so much," said his daughter. "He was partly insensitive to pain. But we'll never know. He couldn't speak."

Temperamental Horse Tosses Rider But Leaps Over Child

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Shades of the old west flickered again here as a temperamental horse tossed his rider and then interrupted a run-away dash to leap carefully over a child who fell in his path.

The rider, Melvin Gaston Brown, 30, suffered abrasions of the head and hand. He was given hospital treatment.

The child, Michael Don Davidson, about two years of age, was uninjured. Mrs. J. D. Richmond, who jerked one youngster from in front of the run-away animal, saw Michael tumble before his flying hooves. The horse checked momentarily and then rose over the child.

Brown said he had been trying out a new saddle, which apparently excited his mount.

State School Land Board Takes Bids On 14,563 Acres

AUSTIN, Sept. 23 (AP) — The state school land board has accepted high bids totalling $180,777 on 14,563 acres offered for mineral lease Sept. 7.

Bascom Giles, chairman of the board, said royalties varied from one-eighth to one-fourth.

Britain Steps Up Arms Output, Plans For Quick Mobilization

(By The International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 23 — Britain announced tonight that plans for emergency mobilization and redoubled armament production have been completed "as a matter of common prudence."

Key reservists will be registered for manning anti-aircraft guns in case of emergency.

Defense Minister A. V. Alexander outlined the plans to the House of Commons a day after British Foreign Secretary Bevin warned Russia that the West will stand firm in Berlin and not submit to "another Munich."

Eden Scores Outline

Conservative leader R. A. Butler in supporting Bevin last night declared his party wanted the nation to be ready in event of war with Russia.

Tonight Conservative deputy Anthony Eden criticized Alexander's outline as inadequate and said:

"We can only negotiate with the East from strength . . . These proposals are only a stop-gap . . . the figures will have to be raised."

Alexander said the government will have 820,000 men in the armed forces by New Year's day, despite the "great difficulties" of an impact on national economy.

The defense minister told a sober house:

"Mobilization machinery has been overhauled and will work satisfactorily if it has to be used.

"There will be new types of armament for a gradual re-equipment of forces . . . we shall be abreast, if not ahead, of development elsewhere."

Alexander reiterated a Sept. 14 announcement that small arms and aircraft production is being doubled, that tank production is increased, and that all existing war materiel stocks are being overhauled, reconditioned, and modernized.

Anti-aircraft ammunition output is being "greatly accelerated," naval production and recruiting stepped up.

The British admiralty announced it aimed to increase its naval emergency reserve from the present 14,000 men to 75,000, exclusive of 17,000 reservists already serving with the fleet.

The Navy and RAF both announced large-scale recruiting campaigns coincident with Alexander's appeal for 100,000 extra national guard volunteers, 60,000 auxiliary air force volunteers, and thousands of naval reservists.

$150,000 Bond Vote Slated At Wolfforth

Almost unanimous approval is anticipated in the voting on a $150,000 bond issue Saturday by patrons and friends of Frenship Rural High school district, in Wolfforth, which is in need of a new elementary school building.

In addition to providing ample classrooms the proposed building program will include an auditorium large enough to accommodate community gatherings as well as a cafeteria, which will not only be used for school lunches but will be made available to civic and church groups.

School officials are anxious to make the school plant a center of activity for the community. They recognize the fact that there is not a public place at Wolfforth large enough to take care of the people attending ordinary school functions or community sponsored programs.

Voting will be done at the high school building.

Sam Houston State Teachers Reports Enrollment Of 2,163

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 23. (AP)—A new enrollment record was set today at Sam Houston State Teachers college with registration of 2,163 students for the fall term, President Harmon Lowman said.

Dr. Lowman estimated an additional 200 would come in before the end of the week. The 1948 figures were approximately 300 higher than last year's.

The original Greek Olympic games were held over a period of nearly 1,200 years.

U. S. Depends On Air Force For Any Sudden Showdown In Europe

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN—The American military position in Europe depends heavily on the ability of the U. S. Air Force to penetrate Russia.

The size of our Army here, its deployment, and our military relations with our allies are obviously predicted on a belief in that ability.

That, coupled with what Western Europe can do for itself, will be the deciding factor if the day ever arrives when negotiation alone will not hold the line against Communist expansion.

America's military men in here are not predicting war with Russia. But it is their job to meet it if it comes.

There is, in a military way, no sign of it now. Russia's military dispositions, so far as can be determined here, are in definite contrast to her belligenerancy at the council table. If she ever decides that conquest must be added to infiltration, it will take her months to prepare the first blow.

Those are the months in which the United States will be required to throw in the weight which she is now building up at home with revival of her munitions industry and the rebuilding of her army.

France On Spot

Then, too, will come the test of Western European solidity.

If, for instance, France should be at the time of crisis by Communist demonstrations at home which threatened government control of such cities as Paris and Marseille, her decision would be a difficult one. Should she throw her army into the general defense, or use it to protect the government at home? If her police could not do the home job, the entire Allied picture would be affected.

But, by and large, authorities here are a little scornful if you suggest that Russia might quickly take over the Ruhr industrial area which is being revitalized for the benefit of all Europe. The talk that Russia could conquer all Europe in a few weeks is so much wind to them. They think they know how to prevent it, not only for a few weeks, but forever.

But to do it they will have to have an air force, backed by war rate production, which can go into Russia and do the job against any defense which may be thrown up. They believe that Russia's centralization of all control in a few spots and a few hands is her greatest vulnerability, and that air force will have to cut the head from the striking arms of her power.

Two Convicts Turn Down Clemency

AUSTIN, Sept. 23. (AP)—Two conditional pardons have been revoked because the convicts refused to accept clemency, Gov. Beauford H. Jester reported today.

No reason was given for the two men's refusals.

The pardons originally were granted by the governor to the following men:

Eugene Anderson — Sentenced to two years in 1947 from Denton and Wise counties for theft of cattle and theft over $50.

Lish Densby—Sentenced to four years in 1946 from Lubbock county for assault with intent to murder.

Conditional pardons granted included:

Hugo Shelton, sentenced to three years in 1947, from Armstrong county for assault to rob and driving while intoxicated. Initial clemency.

John Cooper, sentenced to five years in 1947 from Hill county for murder. Initial clemency.

Conditional pardons revoked:

De Lois Goodwin, sentenced to two years in 1947 from Lubbock county for murder without malice. Initial clemency granted July 21, 1948.

D. T. Turner, sentenced to 25 years in 1939 from Rusk county for burglary. Initial clemency granted in 1942.

Old Michigan Logging Railway To Be Ripped Up For Scrap

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—One of the last mementoes of Michigan logging days is going.

The Nahma and Northern Railway announced that it will rip up all but 4½ miles of its 60 miles of track for scrap metal. The route once was a main transport route for logs cut from Michigan's rich upper peninsula timberlands.

Railroads once were a standard part of logging equipment but now the few remaining timber cutters use trucks to haul their harvest to sawmills.

Meteorologists Discover New Method Of Predicting Rain

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—A method of predicting air mass thunderstorms by studying radiations from the sun has been devised by a Penn State meteorologist.

Since vapor in the air cuts down radiation, he found that by measuring the radiation on clear mornings he could determine the amount of vapor. When radiation was below 80 per cent, it meant rain.

The system has proved to be 70 per cent accurate and will supplement other conventional means of forecasting.

Conservation Officer Catches Rainbow Trout In Beaver Trap

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 23 (U.P.)—Jesse Baird, Michigan conservation officer and trapping expert, has made his most unusual catch in years of experience.

Baird set line traps in the Carp River near Cheboygan, Mich., to catch nuisance beavers flooding valuable timberland. He caught a 50-pound beaver in one trap but his second one netted a three-pound rainbow trout.

Baird said in years of trapping he has taken ducks, muskrats, turtles and pike, but never a trout.

Ancient Indian Village Is Excavated By Oklahoma Party

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 23 (U.P.)—The ruins of a small village believed to have flourished between 400 and 600 years ago have been unearthed in this state.

The ruins were excavated by a University of Oklahoma party. A cone-shaped mound, believed to be a tribal burial place, was found in the center of the village and ruins of at least five or six huts have been uncovered.

Since some of the houses were built above others, Bell believes the village was ancient. The houses were built by setting poles 12 to 15 inches apart in the ground, weaving brush and limbs through the poles and then plastering the structure with a sort of adobe mixture similar to that used by the Navajos of today. Roofs of the houses were thatched.

The cheetah of India is credited with being the swiftest four-footed animal.

BEAUTIFUL NEW SUBURBAN HOME
This home has been reduced $7,000 below actual selling price for quick sale.
If you are looking for a real home, this is one of the best buys in Lubbock. Don't miss this one. It is also an investors buy. You can make money on this place. Home has over 1600 sq. ft. of floor space. Large bedrooms and beautiful den room. Natural gas, electricity and finest water system. Beautifully decorated. Has entrance of two acres which is already surveyed and abstracted into 12 lots 100 x 310 ft. All south fronts. We're asking just the price of the home and lot for this complete deal or we will sell the home separate or in any part one would wish. These lots would pay for the complete home. If one is able to sit and sell. First road on right after passing Country Club gate entrance. Harry W. Hazlett.

Market Reports The Nation Over . . . .

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Cotton futures were easy in dull trading today as poor demand for cotton textiles and uncertainty over the loan situation retarded activity. Prices fluctuated in a narrow range, with mill buying and covering operations in nearby October offset by scattered hedging and liquidation.
The Bureau of Census reported ginnings of the 1948 cotton crop to September 16 at 2,800,868 bales against 1,745,967 a year ago. Traders have been looking for a higher ginnings report upward of 3,000,000 bales.
Late afternoon prices were unchanged to 25 cents a bale lower than the previous close. Oct. 31.35, Dec. 30.94 and March 30.73.
Futures closed 30 to 60 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, Sept. 23 (AP)—Rallies were not sustained in the grain pits at the board of trade today. Wheat advanced early on buying attributed to mills against sales of flour to the government.
At the close wheat was ¾ lower to 1¼ higher than yesterday's close, December $2.25 ¾. Corn was ¼ to 1 cent lower, December $1.40 ¾-⅞. Oats were unchanged to ⅜ higher, December 73⅛. Soybeans were ½ to 1½ lower, November $2.44 ½ and rye was unchanged to 1 cent higher, December $1.58.

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, Sept. 23 (AP)—Wheat—No. 1 hard 2.37 ¾-2.43 ¾.
OATS—No. 2 white 91 ¼-92 ¾.
CORN—No. 2 white 2.05-2.15.
SORGHUMS—No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.51-2.56.

Wall Street

MARKET RALLY SLOWED
NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Continuing in a narrow range for the third session the stock market today was slightly lower.
The volume of business was only 850,000 shares, the lowest in four weeks, and price changes were mostly minor fractions.
The tenor of trading was keyed to the foreign situation.
U. S. Steel and Bethlehem were off ¼. None of the leading rail issues were down more than ½. Mission Corp. in the oil section was off 1 at 52 and Ohio Oil was down 1¼ at 32.
Montgomery Ward went down 1¼ while other mail order and retail issues were unchanged to ½ lower. Most of the metals were unchanged to 1/8 higher or lower. Chemicals were unchanged to lower.

Looking At Life

students will have to prove that they have gained more than theoretical knowledge. They will have to prove that they are ready to deserve the degree which outranks any B.A. or Ph.D—the degree of "American Citizen."
A wonderful start, and congratulations and best wishes to Keuka college!
At last it has been recognized that being an American citizen is an important as barbering, plumbing, paperhanging — and writing.
