Fallout Shelters Planned For One-Fourth Population By 1962

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department hopes to provide radiation fallout shelters stocked with food and water for one fourth of the civilian population by the end of next year. But not much can be done to improve the situation in 1961.

This was the conclusion of Pentagon officials Saturday as Stewart L. Pittman, a Washington lawyer, prepared to take office as the nation's first assistant secretary of defense for civil defense.

Except in a few localities where authorities have provided them, fallout shelters for protection in case of nuclear attack are almost non-existent.

The Pentagon has drawn up a "minimum" program for identifying 50 million shelter spaces, and stocking them with rations and water that could be stretched over two weeks if necessary to protect civilians until the radioactivity died down.

President Kennedy named Pittman to the new post Wednesday but he has not yet been confirmed by the Senate.

With the Berlin crisis scheduled to come to head before Jan. 1, his prospective aides said results cannot be expected until next year.

"We hope to have 20 million to 30 million shelter spaces identified and marked by next June, and to increase the total to 50 million by the end of 1962," an official said. "They will be stocked with food, water, and medical supplies as rapidly as possible."

The "minimum" program does not contemplate protection against the blast, heat, direct radiation or the immediate effects of a nuclear bomb.

But Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara believes the shelters might save 10 to 15 million lives in a large-scale nuclear attack by protecting them from the residual radioactive fallout which sifts to the ground in the first hours after an explosion.

With an initial appropriation of $58 million available for the purpose, the cost of stocking the shelters is expected to be only $2 per space.

"Austere" rations for five days, and two weeks of water at a rate of one quart per person per day, are planned. The water is considered much the most important for survival. Officials believe the food rations could be stretched over two weeks without impairing health.

In most cases, the shelters will be located where workers could reach them within a few minutes from their jobs.

Although basements in public and private buildings afford the most likely location, subways, tunnels, and abandoned mines may be used if they meet the requirements for availability and ventilation.

Death Pace Is Fast One For Holiday

By United Press International

Americans were dying at a rate of almost four an hour on the nation's highways Saturday on the first day of the 78-hour Labor Day weekend.

The death pace was running nearly a score ahead of that for the same period of the 1960 holiday. It approached that of the recent July 4 weekend traffic slaughter, the worst of any summer holiday on record.

A United Press International count at 8:30 p.m. CST showed 113 persons dead in traffic accidents since the start of the weekend at 6 p. m. Friday.

The holiday death breakdown:

Traffic	113
Drownings	16
Boating	2
Planes	1
Miscellaneous	11
Total	143

Virginia continued to lead the nation with nine traffic deaths. West Virginia, California, Michigan and Pennsylvania each had seven. Illinois and Ohio reported six.

A spokesman for the National Safety Council said the traffic death list got off to a "very fast start" and the weekend "could be bad," especially in view of bad weather conditions.

Highways crowded with late vacationists were slick and snow-packed in the Rocky Mountains. In the eastern half of the nation roads were jammed with families seeking relief from the heat and humidity.

The National Safety Council estimated 420 persons would die in the highways during the current weekend. The worst Labor Day weekend was that of 1951 when 453 persons were killed in traffic accidents.

SET FOR HOLIDAY FUN — Shown here is the Dale Haynes family, 620 N. Dwight, who are among the many thousands who took a last fling at summer recreation over the three-day Labor Day weekend. Holiday Weather Due To Be Mild

By United Press International

A sprinkling of showers fell in parts of North Central Texas and near the Gulf Coast Saturday, and the weatherman held promise that a cool front would carry pleasant temperatures into the state over the Labor Day weekend.

Summertime temperatures and gusty winds covered the state, and a line of light showers fell about 50 miles southwest of Fort Worth during the morning.

Skies were clear to partly cloudy in most sections.

Pampa Stores Closed Monday

Most stores and business houses in Pampa will close Monday for observance of the Labor Day holiday.

Dollar Day, usually observed on the first Monday of each month, will be put over until Tuesday. Dollar Day advertising will appear in Monday's Daily News.

City, county and state offices also will be closed Monday. The postoffice will be open for box renters but postal windows will be closed and there will be no regular mail deliveries.

U.S. Dispatches Four Squadrons Of Jet Fighters To Europe Zone

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department announced Saturday that four squadrons of U. S. jet fighters—72 planes—were being dispatched to Europe for Allied war games. With the Berlin crisis nearing the boiling point, there was a possibility they may be kept there.

The NATO maneuvers, known as "Exercise Checkmate," will take place Sept. 12-14. They have been described as an exercise to "perfect the defensive capabilities of NATO."

The announcement came less than 24 hours after the Russians announced that they will conduct air, navy and missile maneuvers in the Barents and Kara seas areas.

A spokesman identified them as follows:

The 614th Squadron from the 401st Tactical Fighter Wing at England Air Force Base, La.

The 429th and 523rd Squadrons from the 832nd Air Division at Cannon Air Force Base, N. M.

The Sabrejets which fly faster than sound can carry either conventional or nuclear bombs. They are armed with 20 millimeter cannon and Sidewinder guided missiles.

Their air speed is listed at more than 800 miles an hour. They have a range of more than 1,000 miles and can fly well above 50,000 feet.

The Defense Department spokesman declined to comment on speculation that the squadrons might be stationed in Europe after the NATO exercises. The announcement said they will be deployed to European bases selected by Gen. Lauris E. Norstad, NATO commander and U. S. commander in chief for Europe.

Altogether, NATO forces have about 2,000 fighter planes at 220 bases for Allied defense.

Ad-Rime Award Goes To Woman

Mrs. Everett Butler, White Deer, a housewife, is this week's winner of the $10 Ad-Rime prize. The hidden slogan was, "Improve your own lot by patronizing directory merchants." Her completed jingle was, "Here your dollar buys a lot, check local ads for when, where and what!"

Congratulations. Our check for $10 is being mailed to you Tuesday.

Each entry must be on a separate post card or sheet of paper showing (1) Hidden Slogan (2) Your rhyming Ad-Rimé (3 Your name and address (4) Your occupation. Study the rules on page 13 and be sure to visit the directory business firms that make this game possible.

Berlin Garrison Gets New Rifles

BERLIN (UPI) — The U. S. Army issued new, fast-firing rifles to its Berlin garrison Saturday while Soviet spaceman Gherman Titov was telling a rally five miles away Russia would destroy the West "for all time" if it tried to block a German peace treaty.

The United States rejected an East German protest against the dispatch of 1,500 Army reinforcements to Berlin two weeks ago Sunday. (It also shrugged off new East German threats to the Allied air corridors to West Berlin.)

The U. S. Army's Berlin command announced it had received the first shipments of the new M14 rifle, which can fire 750 rounds a minute.

Russia Can Wipe Us Out, Say Reds

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China dared the West Saturday night to enter into a nuclear war with Russia and said if it did "the whole imperialist system will certainly be wiped from the face of the earth."

The dare and the warning were made in a statement issued by the Chinese Communist party in support of Russia's resumption of nuclear tests.

Skindivers Safe After Bobbing 13 Hours In Ocean

HONOLULU (UPI) — Three parachuting skindivers who retrieved the gold-plated capsule of Discoverer XXIX and spent 13 hours bobbing in a raft on the choppy Pacific were taken aboard a destroyer Saturday along with their precious cargo.

The specially-trained Air Force men—two of whom had performed the same feat before—were reported in good condition as they were picked up in early morning darkness by the destroyer USS Epperson.

Union Asks GM To Share Profits

DETROIT (UPI)— The United Auto Workers asked giant General Motors Saturday to share its profits with union members and accept generally the same contract proposals agreed to by American Motors last week.

GM had no official immediate reaction.

Reds Firing Propaganda War-Heads

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union Saturday still had not announced its nuclear explosion officially, but it was preparing the public for it—and possibly for a series of such test blasts—with a propaganda campaign.

The press and radio were filled with editorials and commentaries justifying the Soviet decision to resume testing. The tenor was the same—that the West was preparing aggression against the Soviet Union and Russia must show its ability to destroy the West.

However only the armed forces newspaper Red Star carried the announcement of plans for naval, air and ground maneuvers in the Barents Sea and the warning to world shipping to avoid the Barents and Kara seas during the maneuvers period.

Observers said the maneuvers, which possibly will include the use of nuclear weapons, were timed to beat two antagonists — winter weather and the United States. Otherwise the Russian maneuvers could not be held before spring.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson was reported cutting short his vacation to return to his post to be on hand for Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's return from Yalta early next week. Khrushchev is to receive Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru on Sept. 6.

It was believed Khrushchev would deliver a major address on the international situation Friday at a Soviet - Indian "friendship rally" in honor of Nehru's visit.

Thompson had planned to stay in the Austrian Alps until Sept. 12. Returning to Moscow would make him available for possible preliminary soundings of Soviet views before the Western foreign ministers meet in New York during the United Nations General Assembly.

Advanced Gifts Fund Drive Set To Open Tuesday

George Newberry, chairman of Pampa's United Fund campaign, announced Saturday the appointment of E. E. Shelhamer as chairman of the Advanced Gifts Division.

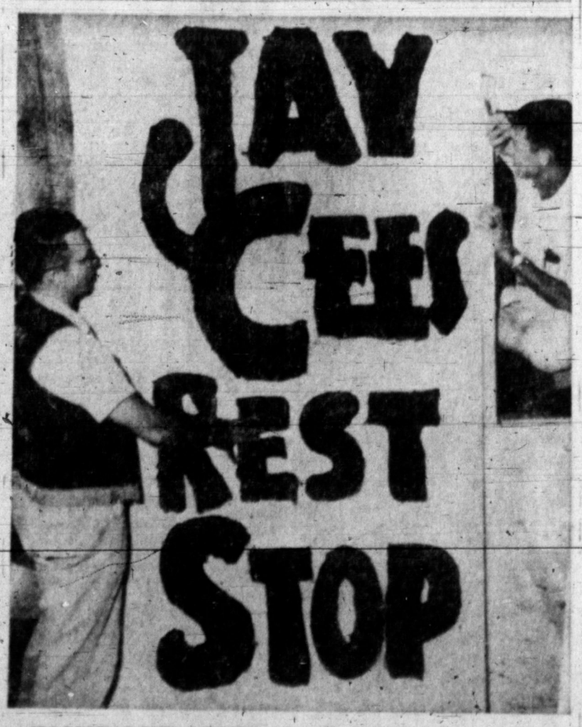

Shelhamer is a past president of The Pampa United Fund board of directors and now is a member of the board. He is presently serving as president of The Adobe Walls Council of The Boy Scouts of America. He is past Worshipful Master of The Pampa Masonic Lodge and has been active in civic affairs here for many years.

The advanced gifts drive is scheduled to start Tuesday.

U.N.-Congolese Clash Reported

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Unconfirmed reports from the leftist stronghold of Stanleyville Saturday said that clashes had broken out there between United Nations troops and Congolese forces.

The reports said Ethiopian U.N. troops had disarmed some of the Congolese soldiers after shots were fired at the Canadian signal unit mess in Stanleyville.

Crisis Mounts, Many Nations Demand Action

LONDON (UPI) — A stunned and gloomy Europe expressed shock Saturday at Russia's nuclear test explosion and observed that the Soviets must have been planning it for at least eight months while attending the test ban talks at Geneva.

Japan formally protested to Russia for the test it said may lead mankind "into the path of destruction." Neutral and uncommitted nations at the Belgrade conference joined prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in condemning the test. Indian newspapers spoke of "dismay and revulsion."

From government circles in Western capitals, from the Belgrade meeting and from the Vatican City in Rome came demands for a speedy solution to the Berlin crisis. There were calls for East-West summit talks and United Nations action to prevent war.

The news hit hardest in Belgrade, where Marshal Tito, Nehru, Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah and United Arab Re-

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy expects soon to lay a new world disarmament plan before the United Nations and meanwhile won't "leap nervously" into resuming U. S. nuclear weapons tests, competent officials said Saturday.

This became known amid new developments in the fast-mounting crisis with Russia in which West Berlin and nuclear testing have merged into a grave confrontation of the world's greatest powers.

Russia's Atomic Shot May Stymie Plans To Disarm

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Russia's renewed nuclear belligerence cast new shadows Saturday over prospects for congressional action this year on President Kennedy's proposed permanent disarmament agency.

There was growing sentiment in both houses that Moscow's resumption of nuclear testing calls for U.S. moves in the same direction, not the opposite. Demands were louder and more frequent for an immediate resumption of U. S. testing.

Also, some lawmakers feel, any world propaganda gain that might be reaped by setting up the agency would now be offset by a possible administration announcement that the United States also will resume some form of testing.

Senate Democratic whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., chief sponsor of the disarmament agency, remained optimistic, however. He predicted Congress will approve the measure this year. Humphrey is chairman of the Senate disarmament subcommittee.

Soviet Nuclear Test Keeps JFK 'Close By'

HYANNIS PORT, Mass (UPI)— President Kennedy cut short his usual recreation time Saturday and talked by telephone from his weekend home to White House aides and cabinet officers about the new Soviet nuclear tests and other matters.

"He's sticking a little closer to shore, acting press Secretary Andrew T. Hatcher told newsmen in reporting that the chief executive planned to go boating for "an hour or an hour and a half" this afternoon. Uusually he is out with his family on their 52-foot yacht Marlin, for three or four hours, sometimes more than five.

Hatcher said the President was "on the phone a good part of the morning" in a "series of conversations with his Washington office and with cabinet members." He would not identify any of them, nor specify topics of discussion.

However, when asked whether Kennedy had conferred with some of the officials about the Soviet resumption of nuclear tests, Hatcher said, "that would be a fair assumption."

World Catastrophe Near, Nehru Tells 24 Neutrals

BELGRADE (UPI) — Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said Saturday Russia's nuclear test explosion had brought the world closer to catastrophe. He called for direct U. S.-Soviet negotiations "in this crisis of human destiny" and said the only alternative was war.

Nehru addressed a meeting of 24 uncommitted nations here shortly after Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah described the Russian test as a "shock" which brought home the supreme danger facing mankind. Nkrumah came here from Russia and long talks with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The kings, emperors and presidents attending the meeting met in an atmosphere of gloom and quiet desperation. They were somber when the meeting opened Friday and the Russian explosion heightened both the crisis mood and their resentment of Khrushchev's contemptuous disregard of their neutralist sentiments.

ARE YOU HAPPY?

WHOSO TRUSTETH IN THE LORD, HAPPY IS HE (PROVERBS 16:20)

Some people cause hapiness wherever they go, others whenever they go.

Here's a quotation that sounds like a joke except that, when you think about it, it's often quite true. Happy people make others happy unhappy people make others unhappy.

It's the unhappy, gloomy people whom we would rather not have around. Did you ever hear about the three classes of worriers – those who worry about yesterday, today, and tomorrow? Some wise old advice explains that yesterday is past – why worry about it. Tomorrow isn't here; get ready for it, but don't worry about it. Today is here, and it's not half so bad as you expected. Was it worth worrying about?

A lot depends on your viewpoint of life. As Jesus told those who worried greatly about worldly things; "The morrow shall take thought for the things of itself." If we follow His teaching and trust in the Lord, we will be happy.

Pampan Directs Large Area For Foundation

John R. Wills of Pampa, director of development of the Texas Rehabilitation Center of Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, has been charged with the development of a complete program of public relations and fund raising in a huge 80-county area that includes the Panhandle, it was announced Saturday.

Walter H. Richter, executive director of the Center at Gonzales made the announcement and said that Wills will be traveling extensively throughout the area, which reaches as far south as Big Spring and as far east as Dallas.

"Because the services of the Texas Rehabilitation Center at Gonzales are available to and are used by the physically disabled people of the Panhandle area," Richter said, "we want a representative here who is familiar with the Center's program and who can explain the program to others. We're counting on Wills to do this for us."

Wills' duties will include enlisting support of the TRC program from the people of the area, Richter explained. In order to do this, Wills will make himself available for talks to civic organizations and other groups whose members are interested in learning what THC means to the thousands of handicapped Texans who need physical rehabilitation.

Richter added that Wills will be working with people in the medical profession, members of the volunteer representatives of the Center, former patients, and many others.

A native of Pampa, wills attended the University of Texas in Austin, then was co - owner of the Baldwin Printing Company in that city. He moved from Austin to Gonzales in February, 1960, to take over the foundation's direct mail and fund raising activities.

He and his wife and daughter now live in Pampa at 1005 Terry Road.

Wills said, "It's wonderful to be living in Pampa again. I'm thoroughly enjoying renewing friendships with people I haven't seen in the past few years. Pampa will be our home and the 'base' where I will have my office."

He is a member of the Lions Club and a new member of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

Texas Business Activity Shows Full Recovery

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas business activity took liberal doses of industrial production and durable goods sales for a full recovery from the recession fever of a year ago, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research said Saturday.

Dr. John R. Stockton, director, says in an article in the current Texas Business Review, "it seems safe at this point to state that the 1960 recession in Texas business was the mildest in the postwar period and that in addition the recovery has been the most rapid of any recovery period since the war."

The Texas business index in July was actually 6 per cent below June, Stockton said, after adjustment for seasonal variations, and was 9 per cent above July of 1960. The first seven months of 1961 were 4 per cent above the same 1960 period.

"When consideration is given to the fact that the decline in this index did not begin last year until August, it is shown rather dramatically how strong the recovery has been," Stockton said.

Texas industrial development increased 2 per cent in July, pushing the index to 2 per cent above a year ago. Manufacturing and minerals production also increased 2 per cent in July.

"Further gains appear to be likely," Stockton said.

Retail sales declined 2 per cent in July from June totals, no change from a year ago. But durable goods sales were 1 per cent above July, 1960.

Goulart Invited To Take Over As Symbol President

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Brazil amended its constitution Saturday to allow Vice President Joa Goulart to become a purely symbolic president. It was an attempt to end the week-long political crisis which has brought the country to the brink of a civil war.

The Congress invited Goulart to Brasilia to be sworn in Monday as president after the Chamber of Deputies voted 234-59 to change the country's presidential form of government to the cabinet system used in Great Britain.

The constitutional change, subject to ratification by the Senate but assured of passage, would permit Goulart to become president but would strip him of most executive power. This power would be vested in a prime minister responsible to the Congress.

The change in the constitution meets the objections of Brazil's military chiefs and other political enemies of Goulart who have expressed fears of vesting too much power in a man they regard as overly friendly with the Communists.

There was no immedate direct word from Goulart, in Porto Alegre, capital city of Rio Grande do Sul state, whether he would accept being stripped of executive powers. But Chamber of Deputies President Sergio Magalhaes called a joint session of Congress to meet Monday for the swearing inof Goulart and said the date was set at Goulart's request.

Weather Planes Hunts For Storm

MIAMI (UPI)—An unconfirmed ship report Saturday prompted the weather bureau to order a plane far out over the tropical Atlantic to see if a storm is brewing.

The plane was expected to leave Puerto Rico late Saturday night and be over the area Sunday.

Sarah Bernhardt, famous actress, made her last stage appearance on Nov. 30, 1922, at Turin, Italy.

Baby's Life Saved By Edge Of Diaper

HOUSTON (UPI) — Seventeen-month-old Clarence Carmack fell into a sewer in search of a toy Friday night and escaped death by the edge of his diaper.

The boy's father, Clarence Carmack, was working on his car when he heard the child "crying in a panicky sort of way."

Carmack, 33, said the boy's cries were coming from a storm drain underneath the road.

He reached a hand underneath the street and felt around in the water. He found his son and caught him by the diaper.

"I held on to him and told my little girl, Sherry, to call her mother," Carmack said. Mrs. Carmack called the Spring Branch emergency squad and fire department.

Firemen and neighbors worked for 20 minutes with a sledgehammer and crowbars to loosen a nearby manhole cover. Finally they succeeded and Clarence was lifted to safety with only a cut on his temple.

First recorded sale of an automobile was made in 1898.

300 Attend Sales Tax Clinic Held Here Saturday

More than 300 persons attended the Sales Tax Clinic held Saturday forenoon in Pampa Junior High School by the Pampa Retail Merchants Ass'n. and the Chamber of Commerce.

Charles Cook, president of the merchant's group, presided at the session. Speakers, who came to Pampa to explain the state's new sales tax law which went into effect Friday, were Carl E. Copeland regional manager of the state comptroller's department at Lubbock, and Hugo Lowenstern, member of the governor's tax board.

A two - hour session was devoted to questions from merchant's and sales persons.

"It was a highly informative meeting," said W. L. Veale, manager of the Retail Mechants' Ass'n.

Sabu, Tarzan Trying To Get Back In Films

By RICK U BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Two of the movies' greatest jungle heroes —Sabu and Johnny (Tarzan) Weissmuller — have become modern-day salesmen. But they're both trying to get back into films.

Sabu, 37-year-old onetime "Elephant Boy," runs a maple furniture shop in Van Nuys, a city in the San Fernando Valley near here. The ex-actor took over the shop after his brother, Sheik Dastagir, was shot to death by a teenage would-be robber last year.

Weissmuller, now 54, has his own swimming pool business. But, he said:

"It only brings in $10,000 or $12,000 a year. That's why I'm going back to work if I can. It's not a lot of money because those alimonies hurt you. If I was well-heeled, do you think I'd go back to work?"

Weissmuller, who was born in Winbar, Pa., reared in Chicago and became the most famous of all the movie Tarzans, said:

'Maybe it's hard for people to realize, but I'm no kid any more. Heck, I've got a 20-year-old son, John Jr., who's bigger than I am. He's 6-foot-6, weighs 215 — and he wants to be an actor too."

Sabu, who was born the son of an elephant trainer in India, said:

"I've had a number of offers, but since my brother's death I haven't felt like doing anything. I can't explain it. I just feel alone."

Like Weissmuller, Sabu is married and is a father.

"I'm here in the store almost all the time now," said Sabu, "but of course I would like to return to acting. I'll probably do some pictures in Europe.

"There were thoughts of my doing a television series here based on Rudyard Kipling's 'Jungle Book.' But the sponsor felt the expense was too great. The reason is this: To shoot animal episodes in this country — and shoot any of them — is a terrific expense. You can't do it with stock shots and make it realistic. We made a pilot (test) film, but that's as far as we got."

Sabu, who learned his father's art, was discovered when movie-maker Alexander Korda went to India in 1936 to film "Elephant Boy." Director Robert Flaherty saw Sabu riding an elephant in Mysore — and had him signed.

Overnight, Sabu became a star. He and Sheik were taken to England and educated there. Other films such as "Drums," "The Thief of Bagdad" and "Jungle Book" established him as a major star.

Coming to the United States during World War II, Sabu became Americanized — about as typical as a teen-ager could be. To show his appreciation to this country, he served heroically as a belly-gunner during the war on a B-24. He rolled up 42 missions, and among his many decorations was the Distinguished Flying Cross. He became a citizen.

"In these days," he said, "they're not making my kind of picture. I still can work in Europe because they remember me there. The trouble with Hollywood today is the producers don't believe themselves their pictures can make money. They don't have faith. Before they begin a movie, they want to know how many millions it will make."

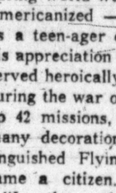

Weissmuller, who never was defeated in his spectacular competitive career as a national and Olympic swimmer, said he's trying to get a new "Jungle Jim"-type TV series assembled.

"Like 'Adventures In Paradise,' it involves a boat," he said. "I would have a schooner and there would be a boy of about 10—the way I did it in the Tarzan pictures — and it would be sort of a jungle thing on water. I'm looking over the script now.

"I'm still in shape. I swim every day, some times twice a day.

Tom Tyron and his best friend (the Walkie-talkie) prepare to upset the operations of Geisha Girls, Military Police and Marine Inteligence in the CinemaScope-Color comedy-drama, "Marine, Let's Go," which opens Thursday at the Capri and will play three days. Co-starred are Linda Hutchins, Barbara Stuart and Tom Reese.

Broadway

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI, — The title of the Richard Rodgers - Samuel Taylor musical planned for the new season is "No Strings."

Richard Kiley and the Negro singer, Diahann Carroll, will have the leading roles in a love story set in Paris. An American author and an American model are involved.

This will be the first musical for which Rodgers will supply both the music and lyrics since he broke into the show scene 40 years ago. One of the unusual features of this show is that the orchestra will not be in the pit, as customary, but on the stage. Rehearsals start in December.

The leading role in "Daughters of Silence," the new play by Australian writer Morris L. West which will go into rehearsal later this month, will be played by that eminent British actor, Emlyn Williams.

West wrote the novel on which Dore Schary based last season's Broadway drama, "The Devil's Advocate," which had a critical success and a financial failure.

Richard Halliday, husband of Mary Martin, will produce "Daughters of Silence," a courtroom drama set in Italy. Williams' recent appearances in this country have consisted of oneman shows in which he "read" from the works of Charles Dickens and Dylan Thomas.

It is a pleasure to note that Hugh Wheeler, who had one of the better plays of last season in "Big Fish, Little Fish," even though it didn't have a financial success, will be trying again in the new season with "Look, We've Come Through."

Too often a promising playwright gets discouraged after the first effort doesn't quite make it, but then Wheeler has been a professional novelist for many years and is accustomed to the idea that nothing succeeds if you don't keep trying.

"Look, We've Come Through" is the story of a girl in the beatnik Greenwich Village of today. Collin Wilcox will play the girl and Clinton Kimbrough will be the leading man. The opening date is Oct. 25 and the Hudson Theater is the pace. There will be no out-of-town tryout.

Teenage British Star Gains Wide Acclaim

LONDON (NEA) — Hayley Mills is only 15 and she still wears her hair in pigtails but this British-born actress is known to moviegoers from Hong Kong to Hollywood.

Haley Mills has become a world star on the strength of just four films, including an Oscar - winning performance in "Pollyanna." Walt Disney already calls her the greatest film find in 25 years.

Hayley Mills also is a very lonely, little girl.

I found her nervously twisting a rag doll in her fingers at Pinewood studios. This rag doll of a Siamese cat with bracelets around its neck is a good luck charm. Hayley takes it with her wherever she goes.

Hayley is lonely, because she has to stay inside a studio filming, while her classmates enjoy vacations by the sea. Her parents are thousands of miles away in Tahiti, where Hayley's father John Mills, is making a film.

So Hayley now has a studio "mother," one of those companions hired by the film companies to keep child actors happy.

The talented girl has yet to have a boy friend or go out on her first date. Instead, she stays home nights and reads or watches television.

All of this was confided while she wrung the neck of that Simese cat.

The studios may step up her social life professionally in her next film, by introducing a boy friend and a romantic note, according to Disney's present plan to have Hayley grow up in front of the moviegoers' eyes, blossoming into young womanhood on the screen. He has her under contract for another three films with an option for more.

But, at the moment, she is starring opposite 72-year-old, veteran scene-stealer Maurice Chevalier in the film version of Jules Verne's "The Castaways."

In her most recently released film, "The Parent Trap," Hayley plays identical twin sisters brought up separately by divorced parents. One is a demure Boston miss living with her club-trotting mother in a Back Bay mansion while the other is a tomboy staying with her dad on a California ranch.

Did she have trouble separating the two girls in her mind? "No, the situation was explained to me thoroughly before we ever started filming. I studied the two girls and felt I knew them both inside out before I ever stepped in front of the cameras."

Does she see her films after they are finished? She does. What does she think of her performance? "Well, there's always room for improvement. I'm always seeing how I could have done things better or, at least, differently."

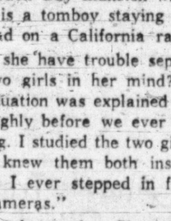

And so the questions go on and on. And for many of them, shy little Hayley has no answer. "I guess I'm just a moron," she says apologetically.

How smart is she really, compared to other children? Hayley Mills wouldn't know. She has never even been to a party given for youngsters her own age.

"Of course, I've been to cocktail parties for adults. But they're terribly boring," she says, wrinkling her nose. "Everyone just stands around eating peanuts."

Surprise!

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — During one Ventura, Calif., location sequence for "Homicidal," director William Castle was shooting in the Hotel Ventura lobby.

In the middle of the lobby, the elevator suddenly opened during a "take" and a woman got off and stopped short at the maze of light and people. Castle rushed over to the bewildered woman, wrapped his arms around her and said, "Welcome to 'This is Your Life.'"

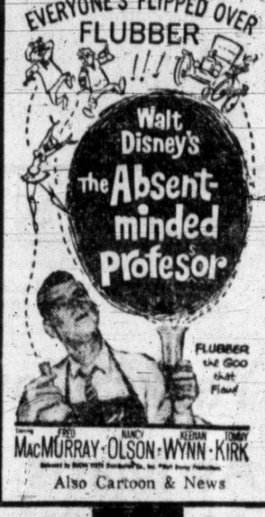

Producer Sinatra

HOLLYWOO (UPI) — Frank Sinatra has signed television actress Mary Tyler Moore as the first contract player for his Essex Productions motion picture company.

Miss Moore, who plays Dick Van Dyke's wife on his new TV show which starts in October, makes her film debut as the feminine romantic lead in "X15"—the story of America's first manned rocket ship.

Coach Curfman Pleads For Pampans To Get Behind Football

"Somebody needs to get behind football in Pampa," Head Coach Babe Curfman of the Pampa High School grid team, told a Pampa Kiwanis Club luncheon audience Friday.

Coach Curfman referred to the trials and tribulations attendant to last year's winless Pampa Harvesters and to the question mark he indicated may be hanging over his own head.

Then he made a plea to Pampans to support their team and to give encouragement to the players.

"I realize we are on the spot again this year," Curfman said. "I am disappointed in the small number of boys who turned out for football this fall.

"I do want to say in behalf of last year's team that I never saw a better fighting bunch of boys. They were just too small. We always were outweighed by heavy odds, but they never gave up even though they didn't win.

"This year's team will outweigh last year's team by 25 pounds per man. That's one thing in our favor. And we have some good key material.

"But these boys need the backing of the community. They need to have loyal fans in the stands rooting for them and urging them on. We didn't have that last year.

"It's pretty discouraging to a boy out on the playing field trying to do his best — and then look up in the stands and see nobody there."

Curfman said that a coach "can't do it alone." A good football team has to have the town behind it even in defeat.

"Somebody needs to organize the town and get behind football in Pampa," he said. "Nobody here has paid much attention to football since the 1930s and 40s.

"Pampans need to get together on football. The boys on the teams need their help. They need all the encouragement you can give them."

Last year's Pampa High football team, Curfman said, was made up of boys who kept on fighting in defeat and learned how to take it. It helped make good young men out of them.

"You just can't imagine how much a few words of encouragement mean to a boy playing his heart out on a football field and trying to do his best," Curfman continued.

And then he added:

"I've been in Pampa for three years and my back sure is not sore from being slapped with words of encouragement.

"We have a good bunch of boys on the team this year, some of the best students in the school," Curfman said, "and I promise you that they will play as hard as they can.

"But, the ball club needs somebody behind it. It needs the fans behind it.

"And, another thing — Pampa is the doggondest town for fans showing up after the kickoff. I hope this year they will get out there early and start pulling for the team from the very start."

During the course of his talk Curfman mentioned that he knew he was "on the spot" in Pampa.

"I get a lot of telephone calls in the night — most of them around 1 a.m.," he said. "There is just one thing I would like to ask of these midnight phone callers — don't hang up when I answer — talk to me."

As for his own efforts this year, Curfman said:

"I've been hired for another year and I'm going to give it everything I've got.

White Deer, McLean Posts Wins

Quanah, Childress Impressive In 5AA

Quanah — once a famous Indian chief — now a district 5-AA member pulled a stunning upset in Texas schoolboy football Friday night by upsetting the Stamford Bulldogs 22-0.

The victory by the Indians, a co-favorite in district 5-AA, enabled the district to post a 2-1 record in the opening games as Childress pounded Paducah 46-8 and Shamrock lost to McLean 28-22.

Quanah used a good ground attack and a fine pass defense to rip the Bulldogs, four time AA state champions. The Tribe went ahead 7-0 late in the opening quarter on a three yard dash by halfback Bobby Mansel to complete a 73-yard drive. Everett Kelley kicked the PAT.

In the third period, Quanah recovered a Stamford fumble on the Bulldogs' 25. On the next play, quarterback Danny Scarbrough raced to the three yard line on a 22 yard jaunt up the middle where he lateralled to halfback James Wade who scored. Kelley again converted and it was 14-0.

Wade scored the final tally when he intercepted a stray Stamford pass deep in the Indians territory and returned it 95 yards for the touchdown. Scarbrough ran the points.

Quarterback Johnny Wilson and halfback Charles Mitchell scored two six pointers each to lead the Childress Bobcats to their easy conquest of Paducah.

Childress was never in serious trouble after posting a 22-0 halftime lead. Wilson scored on runs of 15 and 19 yards in the first and third period respectively. Mitchell got both his tallies in the explosive third on dashes of 19 and 37 yards.

Booker Triumphs Over Fritch 27-6

Sanford - Fritch played its first football game in history Friday night but the Booker Kiowas spoiled the Eagles debut by handing the newcomers a 27-6 loss.

Speedy halfback Leslie Lee scored on two long kickoff returns to break up - what could have been a close game.

A large crowd of 1400 watched Lee take the opening kickoff and sprint 88 yards for a touchdown against the jittery Fritch youngsters. He raced 85 yards in the second quarter also on a kickoff return following the Eagles' lone score.

Eagle quarterback Curtis Whaley almost duplicated Lee's run when he scampered 54 yards with the ensuing kickoff after the first tally only to have a fumble to stop the threat on Booker's 31.

Booker proceeded to march 69 yards to stretch its lead to 12-0 with Marvin Trosper blasting over the goal from the one. The Kio- was added a safety a shortwhile later when a host of tacklers nabbed Whaley in the end zone.

But Fritch roared back to narrow the margin to 12-6 with a sustained march of 76 yards just before the half. Don Scott ripped off a 52-yard run to spark the pay dirt drive. Halfbacks David Marcumand Mike Roberts added key yardage in the drive.

The Eagles limited Booker to only 33 yards in the second half although the Kiowas scored on the last play via a three yard pass to end Lonnie Echols.

Houston Signs Paul Richards

HOUSTON (UPI)—Paul Rapier Richards, a gentleman farmer said to be one of the finest managers in baseball, Saturday formally agreed to take the helm of Houston's National League Colts and build his native state's first major league team.

Tht 52 - year old Waxahachie Tex., resident verbally agreed by long distance telephone from Baltimore to a three-year contract as general manager of the Colts.

Richards' agreement climaxed four months of negotiations between the Baltimore Oriole manager and officials of the Houston club.

He is the only man the Colt owners talked to since Gabe Paul resigned as general manager of Houston on April 27. It had been generally known that the Colts wanted Richards, and that Richards wanted the distinction of leading Texas' first major league baseball club.

After Paul resigned the Houston owners decided Richards "best fit the requirements for Houston" and permission was obtained from the Baltimore club to talk with him. The commissioner's office was advised of this arrangement.

"We now have the finest mind in baseball to direct the affairs of the Colts," executive vice president George Kirksey said of Richards. "His ability to develop youngsters will mean much to us in creating a colorful, hustling ball club."

It had been a foregone conclusion since Richards announced in Los Angeles Tuesday he was resigning as manager of the Baltimore Orioles that he would take over the new Houston club, which starts play next spring.

He said at that time that he would continue as manager at Baltimore if the Orioles so wanted until the end of this season. But Friday Oriole president Lee MacPhail and board chairman Joseph Iglehard told Richards he was free to leave immediately.

Terms of his contract with Houston was not revealed but it was understood that Richards will get an annual salary of $60,000.

Baylor Gets Stiff Football Workout

WACO, Tex. (UPI — Baylor coach John Bridgers ran his squad through two stiff workouts Saturday and said afterwards that several position switches are working out well.

Kenneth Hays of Linden, a senior letterman center, has been working at both defensive end and linebacker. Bridgers said sophomore Lewis Sessums of Sundown has made good progress in a switch from tackle to guard.

John Matysek, a transfer from Del Mar Junior College, has been moved from center - linebacker to tackle. Bridgers said the 210-pounder from Taylor could help solve the pressing tackle depth problem.

Ken Willingham Paces 28-22 Win

Quarterback Kenny Willingham cranked up his passing arm for three touchdowns to pull the McLean Tigers from a 16-0 first quarter deficit to a thrilling last minute 28 - 22 victory over the Shamrock Irsh in the opening gam of the season Friday night at McLean.

The lanky senior connected eight times on 16 aerials for 187 yards before a crowd of 1800 that seemed doom to disappointment before Willingham fired a tie-breaking touchdown pass to halfback Jimmy Watson with 1:06 remaining in the game.

McLean, district 2-A favorite, had its hands full with the AA Irsh. Shamrock used two long drives — 65 and 46 yards — to rack up an early 16-0 lead. Quarterback Larry Reeves sparked the first march, which took just six plays, as he passed 20 yards to halfback Jerry Campbell and bootlegged 27 yards to set the ball on the Tigers' 16. Halfback Jim Wortham lugged the ball over from the nine for the score and Reeves plunged over for the two points.

Shamrock tacked on its second score six minutes later with 205 pound fullback Bill McBryde churning over from the one. He personally accounted for 30 yards on the 46 yard march. Reeves pitched out to Campbell for the extra points.

After that Willingham brought the Tigers roaring back to jump into a 22-16 advantage at the end of the third period passing to Watson — his favorite target — for two tallies.

Willingham also set up the final tally by intercepting a stray Shamrock pass on the Tigers' 20 and returning it to the 40. From there the winners pushed 6o yards for the winning count.

Shamrock racked up 16 first downs to 15 for the Tigers and the Irish led in rushing with 161 to 144 yards, but it was the tell tale passing of Willingham that ruled the roost.

Lefors Beat Panhandle

LEFORS (Spl) — The Lefors Pirates upset the favored Panhandle Panthers 14-0 Friday night before a near capacity crowd in Lefors.

Ferociousness in the line and heads-up pass defense by Lefors told the tale. Panhandle passed eight times and connected only once for a 20 yard gain. Lefors safety, Tommy Smith, broke up six of the Panhandle pass attempts while the Pirates line held Panhandle to 104 yards on the ground. Lefors rolled up an impressive ground gain of 266 yards and completed all of three pass attempts for 40 yards.

The winners were penalized for a total of 115 yards. Panhandle lost 35 yards due to penalties.

Fumbles and intercepted passes caused the ball to exchange hands most of the evening. Panhandle punted twice fo. an average of 35 yards and Lefors punted only twice for an average of 40 yards. Panhandle fumbled five times and lost the ball once. Lefors fumbled three times and lost the ball twice. Lefors intercepted two Panhandle passes. Lefors had nine first-downs to Panhandle's seven.

Lefors scored early in the first quarter when halfback, Rodney Airington scampered 65 yards for a touchdown. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful.

In the second quarter Panhandle marched 55 yards in 11 plays to the Pirates' five yard line but a fumble recovered by Smith halted the drive.

Late in the second quarter Smith ran forty yards for a touchdown but the play was called back because of a penalty.

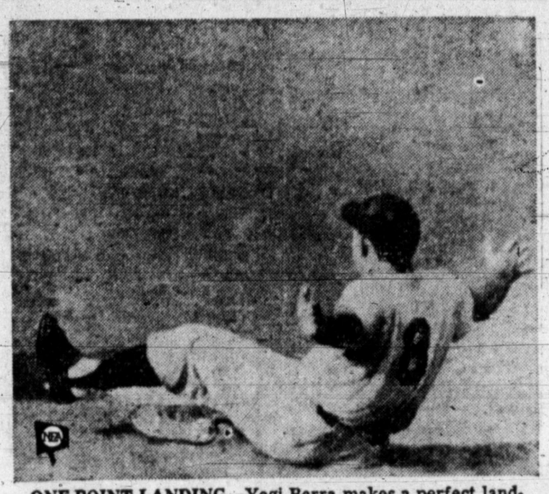

Airington intercepted a pass on the Panhandle 20 yard line and three plays later Scott Dunnam, the Lefor's fullback, plunged three yards for the TD. Quarterback, Mickey Archer passed to Airington for the two extra points.

Wildcats Nip Mustangs 8-6

Wheeler battled favored Canadian to a standstill Friday night only to lose to the district 2-A outfit 8-6 at Wheeler.

Most of the action took place in the middle of the field except for the two tallies. Wheeler drew first blood in the opening quarter when halfback G. C. Baker bulled over the double strip from the six.

Canadian didn't get on the scoreboard until the third period when quarterback Rush Snyder, Jr. scored from the Wheeler 15-yard stripe. Snyder also converted the points that was the margin of victory.

ONE-POINT LANDING—Yogi Berra makes a perfect landing as he slides into second on a wild pitch at Kansas City.

Yanks Down Tigers As Maris Hits Two

NEW YORK (UPI) — Roger Maris crushed the Detroit Tigers with his 52nd and 53rd homers Saturday spurting eight games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace while powering the New York Yankees to a 7-2 victory that increased their lead to 3½ games in the American League.

Maris' first homer of the game came off loser Frank Lary in the sixth inning and broke a 2-2 tie. His second wallop was at the expense of reliever Hank Aguirre with one on in the eighth and capped a four-run rally.

All told Maris collected three of the Yankees' eight hits and drove in three runs with a double in addition to his two homers.

Even with Maris' lusty slugging relief ace Luis Arroyo still had to put down an eighth inning threat that earned him his 26th "save" of the year and preserved Ralph Terry's 12th victory.

Orioles Nip Indians 3-2

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Jackie Brandt's sacrifice fly in the eighth inning scored pitcher Milt Pappas with the run that gave the Baltimore Orioles a 3-2 victory Saturday over the Cleveland Indians in the first portion of a day-night program.

Pappas, who gained his 11th victory against seven losses, opened the decisive frame with a single off loser. Bobby Locke, who succeeded starter Dick Stigman after seven innings. Brooks Robinson sacrificed Pappas to second and the hurler moved to third on pinch-hitter Whitey Herzog's single to short left.

Pappas, exhausted from 93 degree heat and his base - running activities, gave way to Hoyt Wilhelm, who retired the Indians in order in the final frame.

The Indians, although touching Pappas for nine hits, couldn't score until the eighth when pinch hitter Don Dillars homered after Valmy Thomas' single to tie the score.

White Sox Stop Washington Sens

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Chicago White Sox, after an easy five runs in the first inning, rolling to an early 9-0 lead hung on to beat the Washington Senators Saturday, 12-7, for their seventh victory in the last nine games.

The Sox hammered out 15 hits, including three apiece by Danny O'Connell and winning pitcher Don Larsen. They also had the benefit of 11 walks and two wild pitches, but still managed to leave 16 baserunners stranded.

67 Aggies Report To Grid Practice

COLLEGE STATION, (UPI) — Texas A&M football Coach Jim Myers sent 67 varsity hopefuls through calesthenics and a lot of running today in the first session of two-a-day workouts.

A newcomer to the Aggie ranks is Ed Williams of Jena, La., a sprinter on the Aggie track team. Williams, a halfback candidate weighs only 149 pounds.

Missing was end Richard Love, a two-year letterman from Lampasas, who decided to give up football after being plagued with injuries most of last season.

Myers said there will be little or no contact work until after press day next Tuesday. That is the day writers and photographers pay a visit to the Cadets for interviews and pictures.

AFL ATTENDANCE RISES

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Attendance at American Football League exhibition games have increased 38 per cent this year.

The first 14 pre-season games drew 236,203 fans compared to 170,487 for the same number of games last year. This represented an average of 16,872 per game compared to 12,177 in 1960.

TIGERS RECALL 11

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Tigers announced Saturday they have recalled 11 players in the minor leagues to rejoin the team in spring training next year.

McAdams Leads Bucks By Groom

By JOE LEE SMITH
News Sports Editor

Galloping Carl McAdams romped 203 yards and tallied three touchdowns Friday night as the Class 1-A White Deer Bucks opened the 1961 campaign with a rollicking 31-0 triumph over the outmanned Groom Tigers.

McAdams raced 58, 6 and 72 yards for hs tallies and the 195 pound fullback tacked on an extra point for good measure. The Bucks other td's came on a 34-yard pass from quarterback Jimmie Thurmond to end Larry Short and a 24-yard dash by halfback Johnny Spence.

Coach Colie Huffman's power laden crew garnared 311 yards rushing and 111 via the air route for a 422 total. The Bucks rugged defense led by guards Jimmy Lopez and Homer Lester limited the Tigers to just 27 yards on the ground and 35 passing.

Thurmond picked the Groom defense to pieces with his pinpoint passing — he completed six of eight aerials —and by sending McAdams around the ends.

White Deer scored its first six pointer with 7:20 left in the opening quarter on an 80-yard march topped by McAdams' 58 yard dash around left end where he broke free of would-be tacklers and cut back to outdistance his pursuers. His kick was good and the Bucks led 7-0.

Groom made its biggest threat early in the second period after tackle Tom Waggoner recovered a McAdams' fumble on the host team's 36 yard stripe. Quarterback Wesley Cornett, a star in defeat, hit end Jimmy Conrad on a 10-yard pass and halfback James Eldred for 12 and eight more before the Tigers ran out of gas on the four.

From that point the Bucks cranked up its offense to cover 96 yards in 10 plays. The pay - off came on a 4th and 15 situation when Thurmond hit Short in the left flat with a 34-yard pass and run play. Thurmond picked up 79 yards on the drive with his passing and halfback Ricky Lowe ripped off 21. Even three penalities didn't halt the Bucks venture to pay dirt.

A short punt by Groom's Larry Littlefield that went out of bound on the Bengals' 36 enabled White Deer to make the scoreboard read 19-0 at halftime as McAdams skirted left end for six yards and the tally with only 10 seconds left in the half.

McAdams got into the act again in the third quarter rambling around left end — his favorite spot —for 72 yards to make the score 25-0. Huffman then benched his star at the end of the third stanza.

Spence darted 24 yards around right end for the final tally in the last period to cap a 40-yard drive.

Bucks' halfback Mickey Hefner was the second leading ground gainer with 58 yards although he didn't see action until the last period. Spence gained 56 for the winners.

Huffman wasn't sure whether McAdams would get to play until the doctor okayed it for the big hoss five minutes before game time. McAdams had injured his neck during the week.

Groom probably wishes he hadn't played.

Broncs Fall To Stinnett

It was supposed to be close—but apparently the Stinnett Rattlers didn't get the word and Coach Don Light's eleven romped to a season opening 35-8 victory over the Clarendon Broncs.

Halfback Mainess Gibson tallied twice and kicked five conversions to lead the Rattlers attack that chewed up 254 yards rushing and netted 22 first downs to only eight for the Bronchos.

But fullback Jerry Lasater provided the game's sparkling play when he returned a kickoff 80 yards in the third period following Clarendon's lone tally.

Stinnett chalked up its first marker in the opening period with right halfback Floyd Watson scooting 14 yards for the score. Gibson converted and the defending 1-A champs led 7-0.

Gibson tallied his two scores in the second stanza on a five yard dash through the middle and a 35-yard pass from quarterback Bobby Bain. His conversions left the mighty Rattlers in front 21-0 at the midway point.

Clarendon came out with a bang in the third period and scored on a 40-yard pass play from Dwight McAnear to Bill Hermesmeyer. Fullback Jerry Elmore got the two points conversion.

But Lasater made his sparkling run and the Rattlers were in command 28-8. Watson tacked on a second touchdown of his own in the final quarter when he skirted right end from five yards out.

Elks, Greyhounds Score Victories

In other district 1-A contests, Stratford whacked Vega 34-0, Gruver pasted Claude 38-14 and Panhandle was blanked 14-0 by Lefors. Sunray Bobcats were idle.

Stratford fullback Scotty Whorton struck paydirt three times in the Elks rousing win over the host Longhorns. He tallied on runs of 10 and 12 yards and again on a 10 yard pass from quarterback Gary Garoutte. Halfbacks Doug McBride and Bill Seaman counted for the winners othe two markers.

Gruver used a 20 pound weight advantage to post its win over district 1-B Claude. The Greyhounds rolled up a 38-0 margin before the host Mustanges punched over two touchdowns in the final stanza. Quarterback Roger Vernon and halfback Doyle Sturman paced the Gruver victory.

LA Angels Trip Kansas City 6-3

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Rookies Tom Satriano and Ken Hunt supplied the power Saturday as the Los Angeles Angels downed the Kansas City Athletics, 6-3, behind Ken McBride's six-hit pitching.

Canadian Man Appointed To Wildlife Post

CANADIAN (Spl) — Norrel Wallace, Wildlife Field Biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, recenty has been appointed Regional Information and Education Officer for the western half of Texas.

For the past four years, Wallace has been stationed at Canadian carrying out an extensive research program on whitetailed deer. This job is not completed, but many questions about deer habits and activity have been answered.

Wallace's new job as Information and Education Officer will be to keep the sporting public informed of the best hunting and fishing areas, special hunts, prices of leases, and other pertinent information prior to the Hunting seasons. Educational wildlife programs for schools and civic organizations will be easily obtainable from the San Angelo Regional Office of the Game and Fish Commission which will be Wallace's new headquarters.

Boston Red Sox Tops Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)— Righthander Bill Monboquette, with ninth inning help from lefty Arnold Earley, scattered nine hits effectively Saturday to pitch the Boston Red Sox to a 7-1 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

The stocky 25-year-old Monboquette had perfect control, walking none and striking out six to gain his 11th win against 1 defeat.

Mobeetie Edges By Darrouzette

The Mobeetie Hornets opened their 1961 grid campaign Friday night with a narrow 36-32 triumph over Darrouzette in a wild scoring bout at Mobeetie.

WRECK KILLS RACER

GARDENA, Calif. (UPI) — Thomas Campbell, 24, died Saturday of injuries suffered in a crash during a motorcycle race at Ascot Park Speedway.

Babe Satisfied With Scrimmage

Coach Babe Curfman was pleased with the Pampa Harvesters after their scrimmage against the Perryton Rangers Saturday afternoon.

Scoring was pretty even between the two teams but like Curfman said, "You can't tell much about scores during a scrimmage game because there are so many boys in at different times." "I'm well pleased with the boys," he added "they looked better than we expected them to in their first game."

Perryton has been practicing 12 days longer than the Harvesters and have one scrimmage game under their belts with Stinnett.

The scrimmage was played with a team getting the ball with three chances to make a first down and if they didn't then the ball was returned to their own 35 yard line. Each team got to keep the ball 10 minutes unless there was a touchdown. Punting and kicking off wasn't used in the skirmish.

"All the backs looked good," stated Curfman "they ran hard. The line looked real good offensively opening holes for the backs but mistakes on defense on stunts hurt us. There were some fumbles but not as many as is expected in the first time out."

The Pampa mentor singled out senior quarterback Butch Crossland and sophomore, fullback Kenny Hebert as looking "real good." He said, "Crossland's passing was real good but the receivers couldn't catch the ball." Hebert scored three or four times, twice on long runs, one of them on a 75-yard intercepted pass return.

Hebert stepped into the fullback spot when senior Jerry Glover received a shoulder injury in practice. Glover will be out of action for about three weeks.

Dressen Out As Manager Of Braves

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Milwaukee Braves manager Charlie Dressen was fired Saturday in a surprise move and executive vice president Birdie Tebbetts was named to replace him.

Tebbetts, who said three years ago he'd never manage again, resigned voluntarily from his front office job to "go back to the sweat and action" of the playing field.

He added, however, that by taking the job he was not eliminating himself from further executive positions in baseball. General Manager John McHale, who made the announcement at a press conference following the Braves' 4-0 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers, said Tebbetts will "finish out this season as field manager." He has signed a two-year contract for 1962 and 1963.

Dressen, who was in the second year of a two-year contract, said "he didn't know about the firing until this afternoon." He said it would take him a couple of days to clean out his desk, "and then I'm going back to the West Coast." He said he had called Los Angeles Dodgers general manager Buzzy Bavasi as soon as he learned of the firing, but didn't say what they talked about.

McHale said Tebbetts was hired and Dressen fired at this time "because Tebbetts might not be available next year." He said that Braves owner Lou Perini has been trying to hire Tebbetts as manager since 1946.

Dressen's firing was a genuine shock to most baseball writers at this time, with the Braves playing some of the best baseball in the league since the second all-star game. The sports editor of one Milwaukee paper and the baseball writer of the other had given Dressen votes of confidence by saying he "can't be held accountable for what has happened to the Braves."

McHale said the Braves are not displeased with the way Dressen ran the club, but "there were a lot of disciplinary problems and friction among the players."

Dressen said, "I wanted to stay on and I wanted a new contract. I thought Tebbetts was going to be president.

Redlegs Win; Dodgers Lose

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Vada Pinson, Jerry Lynch and Gene Freese hit homers Saturday to power the league-leading Cincinnati Reds to a 7-4 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

The win coupled with los Angeles' 4-0 defeat by Milwaukee, stretched the Reds' edge over the second place Dodgers to 3 1-2 games.

Pinson's 16th homer and Lynch's 11th were spaced by a walk to Frank Robinson to provide three runs in the fourth. Freese's blast, his 24th, came with John Edwards aboard by way of a single in the sixth.

All three round trippers came off Johnny Buzhardt (5-15), the starter and loser. Joey Jay won his 19th against eight losses but needed fireman Bill Henry to quell a one run rally with two out in the ninth.

The Reds got two more runs off Jack Baldschun in the eighth. Elio Chacon singled and Pinson doubled. Robinson was walked intentionally and pinch hitter Gus Bell hit a sacrifice fly which Wes Covington dropped, allowing Chacon and Pinson to score.

Don Demeter homered for the Phillies in the fourth, his 16th.

Palmer Fires 69 To Lead Tourney

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Golden boy Arnold Palmer conquered an errant putter, tricky winds and par Saturday in fashioning a one-under-par 33-36—69 that gave him a halfway mark total of 136 and a three-stroke lead over the $30,000 Dallas Open golf tournament field.

The muscular Pennsylvanian made his move toward the $4,300 first prize money by pulling out of a first-round three-way tie for first place despite what he termed some "awful putting."

Host pro Earl Stewart Jr., and defending champion Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La., who started the day's activities bracketed with Palmer at three-under-par 67s, couldn't master Oak Cliff Country Club's wind-blown treachery and wound up with two-over-par 35-37—72s and 36-hole totals of 139.

Warren Spahn Blanks Bums For 17th Win

MILWAUKEE (UPI)— Warren Spahn, headed down the stretch for his 12th season as a 20-game winner, pitched the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-0 shutout over the Los Angeles Dodgers Saturday for his eighth consecutive victory and 17th of the year.

For the tireless 40-year-old Spahn, it was his second shutout of the season and 53rd of his sparkling career, topping his own record for National League left-handers. It also was the 305th victory in the majors for Spahn, who ranks 12th among all-time winners.

Cubs Whitewash San Francisco

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs backed up Don Cardwell's five hit shutout with four home runs Saturday for 7-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

Ron Santo, George Altman, Ernie Banks and Billy Williams each hit "first pitch" homers off loser Jack Sanford. The four circuit clouts tied a game club record.

Pittsburg Snaps Cardinals Streak

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Dick Stuart connected for two homers and drove in all five runs to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday.

The loss was the first suffered by the Cardinals at home in 14 ball games. Pittsburgh was the last club to win in St. Louis when they slaughtered the Cardinals 19-0 during their last visit.

Gold Sox Put 5 On Loop Stars

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — The Amarillo Gold Sox, who have clinched the 1961 regular season championship of the Texas League placed five men on the all-league team announced Friday.

The team, chosen by managers of the six teams in the circuit, included Amarillo shortstop Phil Linz, named Thursday as the league's player of the year, and Austin's no-hit ace Larry Maxie, pitcher of the year for the AA league.

Other team members are:

First baseman Tom Aaron of Austin, second baseman Jack Damaska of Tulsa, third baseman Mike Mathieson of Amarillo, utility infielder Charlie Strange of Ardmore, left fielder Dick Berardino of Amarillo, center fielder Jose Tartabull of Victoria, right fielder John Lewis of Tulsa, utility outfielder Joe Pepitone of Amarillo, catcher Tim Talton of Victoria, and left-handed pitcher Hal Stowe of Amarillo.

Third-place San Antonio was the only team failing to place a player on the mythical squad.

Phil Linz Chosen Player Of Year In Texas League

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Phil Linz, Amarillo shortstop and Texas League Player of the Year, also has been named as the league's player of the month for August.

Linz led the circuit in hitting with an average of .351. He was a unanimous choice for the league's all-star team.

American Golfers Rip England 11-1

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — America's hell for leather amateur golfers roughed up the British, 11-1, Sunday to win the Walker Cup for the 17th time in 18 tries in one of the greatest slaughters in international golf competition.

Only Martin Christmas, handsome 21 year old student from Washington, England, saved the British from a complete shutout when he defeated America's Charlie Smith, 3 and 2.

Just once before in the history of the matches has there been such a great margin of victory. In 1928, the United States won 11-1 and in 1936 the Yanks won, 9-0.

"Our team is unbeatable," said exuberant U. S. captain Jack Westland after the matches were completed. "We can take on the Ryder Cup pro teams."

The Americans vaulted to a 4-0 lead when they made a clean sweep on the foursome matches Friday.

Charles Coe, Oklahoma City, Okla., defeated Mike Lunt, 5 and 4; Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, N. C. 3 and 2; Don Cherry, Martin Christmas, Great Britain, defeated Charlie Smith, Gastonia, N. C.; 3 and 2; Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex., defeated Maj. David Blair, 5 and 4; Bob Gardner, New York, defeated Ronnie Shade, 1 up.

Dr. Bud Taylor, Pomona, Calif., defeated Jimmy Walker, 3 and 2; Bill Hyndman, Philadelphia defeated David Frame, 7 and 6 and Deane Beman, Arlington, Va., defeated Mike Bonallack, 3 and 2.

Texas Dove Hunting Looks Disappointing

By United Press International

Outlooks for the whitewing dove season, in Texas, merely lukewarm a couple of weeks ago, have slumped to dismal, a state Game and Fish Commission official says.

"Remember that I said not long ago that the outlook from reports of biologists was mediocre unless something happened?" commission wildlife restoration official Pierce Uzzell said. "Well, something has happened—the birds are leaving the Valley."

Uzzell said the present prospect "is very poor for the hunt for any substantial number of birds to be in the valley, unless something causes them to come back."

The bird supply could dip as low as the disappointing 40,000 population estimate last year in a poor hunting year.

It is not clear what happened to the birds.

"The food supply is good, so that couldn't be the cause," Uzzell said. The birds just started leaving the Valley around mid-August. It is possibly that continuous heavy rainfall coupled with some other causes scattered the birds and drove them out of the state.

"The mourning dove seem to have moved out some, also," Uzzell said, "but there are still good numbers of mourning dove nesting in the Valley. Last year also, the mourning dove shoot was good although whitewings were scarce."

On the Texas fishing scene, there is news about bringing new species of fish to the Lone Star State.

Marion Toole, inland fisheries director for the commission, says he attended an Atlanta, Ga., fisheries meeting at which several biologists gathered who had experience in their states with transplanting striped bass.

Toole said the main outcome of the informative session was an idea that Lake Whitney "looks about the best place to try with stripers."

The tackle-busting fish can grow to 20 or 25 pounds, Toole said, and often get to around eight or 12 pounds after they have reached four years of age.

"Whitney has several advantages for stocking the stripers (or rockfish, as they are also called," Toole said. "It is a big impoundment, has water temperature about right, and provides in the Brazos River above the lake an excellent river for getting spawns later on."

Cake Provides Tipoff On Titan Launch Plan

By STANLEY HALL

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A cake told me a military secret. That's right, a cake — a white, three-layer one that's better than an "in" at the Pentagon.

It had seven small missiles on the sides and was topped by a four-inch high icing missile that bent a little in the middle.

Inscribed in shocking red icing was the tipoff: "Good Luck Titan."

Assuming that even the best of cakes go stale within a week, I figured it must have been ordered for a celebration within the next seven days.

What would they celebrate unless it would be a launch of the long-range Titan missile?

You see, most missile writers have known for some time that a Titan was scheduled to be launched from a new kind of 140-foot deep silo at Vandenberg Air Force Base in late summer.

But all the Air Force would say was: "We're following the regular policy of no advance publicity." Officers hinted all sorts of dark things might happen if the date of the launch got out.

Despite their precautions—and there are many — they missed classifying this cake I saw Thursday while on an errand at the farmers' market. It was made at a bakery which specializes in fancy, decorated cakes.

I called the bakery to see who ordered the cake.

"Who did you say you're from?" said the lady there. "Oh. Well I don't know if I can tell you."

She later decided she couldn't, so I called the Air Force.

An officer muttered under his breath when I told him of my find.

"I wonder why they sent all the way down here—it's almost 200 miles—for that cake?"

"I don't know," I told him.

Are Older Drivers A Traffic Menace?

By BOB HALE
Daily news staff writer

What should be done about the older driver? Or should anything be done?

These questions were put to the heads of three major law enforcement agencies in the county, the Pampa Police Dept., the Gray County Sheriff's Dept. and the Highway Patrol.

Each agrees on the basic premise: The older driver can and often does contribute to traffic accidents because of slower reflexes, failing eyesight and other factors associated with aging.

But whatever the approach, few disagree that the senior citizens are increasing the traffic toll at a disproportionately high rate.

This is due partly, to the fact there are more persons in the United States over 65. It also is due to the greater number of persons of this age group that own and operate a car.

It should be pointed out here that many motorists 65, 75, and even 80 are quite capable of operating a car with skill and alertness. And others, realizing their ability is not what it once was, have quit driving by their own decision.

There are still others, however, law enforcement officials say, who refuse to relinquish the wheel even though they endanger the lives of themselves and others when they drive.

Oldsters sometimes hope to make up for their slower reflexes by slower driving, a factor which has caused scores of accidents. A driver who barely creeps down the road is not a safe driver, a statement supported by accident statistics.

In California for instance, if an examiner finds that a senior driver can't handle his auto under certin conditions, yet needs a license for a certain amount of driving, he may recommend a license be renewed with certain restrictions.

He may prohibit the driver from using freeways or expressways or from driving at night.

In Illionis a senior citizen may be referred to a driver improvement staff, where he will be helped to overcome certain difficulties he is encountering - either in his own limitations or in certain traffic conditions.

Until some adequate program is inaugurated, older persons, would do well to re - examine themselves. If they do so with objectivity they will know whether or not they should drive. That seems to be the opinion of Gray County traffic enforcement officials.

Church To Present Dramatic Programs

The Episcopal Church in cooperation with Radio Station KHHH will present a 13-week series of dramatic programs entitled "One More Step."

According to the Rev. William E. West, rector, the fifteen - minute programs of dramatic action present either priest or layman who rise to the occasion with a decisive effort based on Christian conviction. Subject matter covers, illness, delinquency, adoption, cheating, old - age, alcoholism, gambling, divorce.

Raymond Masses is the host and others familiar on stage and screen include Walter Able, Peggy Wood, Fay Emerson and Dennis King. All are members of the Episcopal Actors Guild.

The program will be broadcast at 1:30 p.m. each Sunday beginning today.

Lefors Firemen Finish Training

LEFORS (Spl) — Fred Cullon and Frank Kirk, Lefors volunteer firemen, have returned from the fire school at Texas A and M college where they took courses in advanced firefighting.

The fire department is putting forth an effort to recruit one or two members from each club in town to participate in Fire prevention week in October in a program to be worked out by P. F. Blankenburg, fire marshall.

The buckeye grows all over eastern United States, but Ohio is the "Buckeye-State" by tradition.

PEO To Entertain Foreign Students At Picnic Today

Members of the Pampa chapter of PEO will be hostess today to six girls, four from froeign lands and two Americans, who will stay here overnight while on a Harry Morgan "Ambassadors for Friendship" tour, a program of educational travel for foreign students.

Members of PEO will honor the girls with a picnic at 7 p.m. today in the home of Mrs. Talmadge Wright, 1334 Williston. Hosts for their overnight stay will be Messrs and Mmes. J. Howard Warner, Don Cain, Lou Ballinger, Floyd Imel and M. L. Jacobs and Mrs. Gladys Harvey.

The foreign students are Yvonne Chang of China, Mahin Golestani of Iran, Iselda Regai of Israel and Wipa Wichaidist of Thailand. The American students are Beverly Templin and Jean Carlson. All are students at Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn., except Miss Egai who is studying at Hamline University, St. Paul.

Purpose of the "Ambassadors for Friendship" program is to give foreign students an opportunity to see for themselves what this country is all about in an effort to build a foundation of understanding and a firm basis for friendship and peace.

The program seeks to supplement and stimulate local hospitality and other travel programs for foreign students. The nation-wide program is at present affiliated with Macalester College. Harry Morgan, originator of the program, intends to devote the next several years to developing it to a point where other colleges and universities may adopt it with a minimum of supervision.

The tour left St. Paul Aug. 4, and has covered many points on the way to the West Coast, from which it is now returning. It will conclude Sept. 11, in St. Paul.

Garden Club Tours Aspen Street Park

Mrs. Thelma Bray, parks projects chairman, conducted a tour through the Aspen Street park at the meeting of the Pampa Garden Club.

Mrs. Bray, assisted by Mrs. Joe Gates and Mrs. Dorothy Francis, identified and discussed briefly the trees that have been planted there by the club. Mrs. Bray pointed out that the trees growing in the park are the American elm, Moline elm, mimosa honey locust, weeping willow, sugar maple, southern maple, cottonwood, bald cypress pussy willow, purple plum, crabapple, redbud, gold raintree, Asiatic elm, Arizona ash, box elder, smoke tree, Russian olive, weeping flowering crab, green ash and northern hackberry.

During the business session, led by Mrs. Coy Palmer, president, it was announced the next meeting, Sept. 18, will be club's annual guest day tea in the Lovett Memorial library.

New yearbooks were distributed by Mrs. Francis, and Mrs. Loyce Caldwell outlined the programs for the year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Milo Carlson and Mrs. T. M Brooks.

Members present were Mmes. Roy McKee, Carlos Grissom, Ira Carlton, Thelma Bray, Loyce Caldwell, Dorothy Francis, Joe Gates, Lee Harrah, James McCune, W. E. Melton, A. J. Mitchell, Waldon Moore, V. N. Osborn, Coy Palmer, Hubert Phillips, Bert Robinson, Myron Dorman and W. E. Hinton. R. L. Studebaker was a guest.

The bride was graduated from Tascosa High School and attended Texas Technological College, Lubbock. She is a junior student at West Texas State College, Canyon, where she is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and the Buffalo Gals. She is employed by the biology department of the college as a laboratory instructor.

The bridegroom was graduated from White Deer High School and is a junior student at WTSC, Canyon, where he is a member of the Agriculture Club. He is employed by the college post office. He recently returned from three years' service with the United States Army where he was with the third Division, attended NCO Academy and was an expert marksman with the Third Division Rifle Team.

The wedding was the first to take place at the chapel of the Holy Ghost.

Horace Mann PTA Board Has Meeting

The Horace Mann Parent-Teacher Association executive board met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Edwin Southard, with Mrs. James Reeves, president, in charge.

Each officer and chairman was given material from the state office in Austin pertinent to her job. Mrs. Howard Holt, vice-president, reported on the year's programs, stating that McHenry Lane will be speaker for the September meeting.

In reporting of the city council meeting, Mrs. Southard announced a workshop will be held Oct. 17, in Panhandle, and the state convention will be Nov. 30-Dec. 2. It was decided by the council that installation of officers will be done by local units, rather than in joint session.

Mrs. Southard reported that there will be a leadership procedure course at 9 a.m. Sept. 18, in the First Methodist Church. A joint study course will begin Oct. 17.

A discussion was held on Fun, Food and Frolic Night. It was decided a door prize will be given at each PTA meeting, and a nursery will be provided for the school children.

It was announced the executive board meetings will be the second Tuesday of each month.

Attending were Mmes. Ronald Foster, Wylie Clark, E. P. Turner, John Holt Jr., Vastaler Hicks, James Futch, Edwin Southard, James Lewis, Archie Maness, H. L. Meers, Harry Gordon, Canara G. Carruth, Howard Holt, Paul Turner, James Reeves, Walter Davis, Billy White and Audie S. Dick.

ENGAGED - - Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brown of Groom announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Linda Louise, to W. Leo Luttrell of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leeroy S. Luttrell of Clarendon. Vows will be exchanged Sept. 16, in the First Baptist Church of Groom.

If you want a baking sheet that's easily cleaned, try greasing only the spots to be used instead of the whole sheet.

Dear Abby...

There Is Always A First Time!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What does a girl do when she finds out that a boy for whom she cares a great deal has betrayed her confidence by broadcasting to all his friends things that should have been kept secret

BETRAYED

DEAR BETRAYED: There is nothing you can do about it now. But you can profit by our own sad experience and never again give a boy anything to "broadcast" about.

DEAR ABBY: While I am writing this, my 22-year-old daughter is stretched out on the lawn chair in her bikini bathing suit with her sun glasses and movie magazines, and she will be there all day. She spends every Saturday and Sunday that way. She is the laziest, most self - centered, inconsiderate person I have ever known. She has a job which pays well, but she never offers to pay one cent toward her room and board. She is up to her neck in debt because she bought herself a car and dresses like a millionaire's daughter. She has never lifted a finger to make her own bed or rinse out a pair of stockings. She talks to her father and me like we were dogs. I never know who she runs around with because she never brings her friends home. What does a mother do with a monster like this

HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Who raised this monster?

DEAR ABBY: I read about the grandmother who was so upset because she had to be bothered by her grandchildren over the weekend. I wish she could know how my heart would sing to see my dear little grandchildren trooping into my kitchen, leaving fingermarks on my refrigerator, dropping jam and chewing gum on my clean floor and making joyful noises because they are glad to be alive.

My son and his wife have left with their six children to live in a foreign country. I wil l probabl never see them again. Here I am, left alone to enjoy my clean floor, spotless curtains and quiet home, but with that endless longing for a "the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still."

GRANDMOTHER

CONFIDENTIAL TO DOUBLE DILEMMA: He obviously doesn't know what time it is. Give him a watch!

Bridal Shower In Lefors Baptist Church Fellowship Hall Fetes Mrs. Larry Blair

LEFORS (Spl) — Mrs. Larry Blair was honored with a bridal shower in the fellowship hall of the Baptist Church recently.

Approximately 75 persons sent gifts.

Silver Anniversary Party Fetes Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Izah Phillips were honored with a reception Aug. 22, in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary, in their home at 819 Scott. The affair was given by their children, Mrs. Waymon McPherson, Mrs. Bill Basham, Joe Arnold Phillips and Miss Carolyn Phillips.

Guests were greeted by Miss Phillips, and Mrs. McPherson presided at the register.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with a miniature bride and bridegroom and an arrangement of white mums presented to the honored couple by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Davidson. White candles flanked the centerpiece.

Refreshments of cake, punch and coffee were served. Mrs. O. H. Ernest presided at the punch bowl and coffee service, and Mrs. Basham served the cake. Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Robert Lee.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Minnie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee and Timmie Parks, all of Fort Worth. Attending from Pampa were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Edwards, O. H. Ernest, G. R. Davidson; Messrs. Dale Goodner and Ben Money; and Miss Norene Ernest.

4-H Club Learns About Nail Care

The Bluebonnet 4-H Club met in the home of Miss Harriet Henderson for a program on the care of fingernails.

Miss Henderson, Miss Dale Cain and Miss Barbara Veale presented a play in which they demonstrated how to give a manicure. A drawing was held and a manicure set was awarded to Miss Joyce Wilson.

During the social period, refreshments were served by Miss Henderson.

Adult leaders present were Mrs. Ted Atwood and Mrs. M. C. Dorman.

To get uniform results in your baking, have your ingredients at room temperature when you mix them. You'll find they blend more easily, too.

MR. AND MRS. RAY RODGERS JR.

Ray Rodgers Jr. Takes Miss Allen As Bride

Nuptial vows were exchanged at 2 p.m. Aug. 12, in the Calvary Baptist Church of Borger by Miss Charlotte Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen of Borger, and Ray Rodgers Jr. of Pampa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rodgers, of Borger. Rev. Jeff Moore officiated for the single-ring service.

THE BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk brocade, styled with a scoop neckline, cap sleeves and a street-length, bell - shaped skirt. Her shoulder - length veil of illusion fell from a rhinestone headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Sharon Allen, maid of honor, wore an aqua dress of silk organza and carried a bouquet of aqua and white carnations.

Joe Janeway of Borger served as best man.

Decorations for the ceremony included baskets of white gladioli and foliage. Mrs. Karen Jones, organist, played the traditional processional and recessional.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Allen wore an antique - gold silk sheath with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white and yellow carnations. Mrs. Rodgers, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a light blue lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

RECEPTION

A reception was held following the ceremony in the recreation room of the church. The wedding cake was decorated in aqua and white. Miss Linda Allen served the punch and cake, and guests were registered by Miss Barbara Buckner.

For the short wedding trip, the bride wore a white pique dress with matching accessories.

The couple is at home at 416½

Tissues Are Aid To Amateur Decorators

If your teenage son or daughter's involved in decorating for a high school homecoming float or after-the-game dance, you might suggest a simple way to add a lot of color for little cost.

Facial tissues, long a favorite material for floats and dance decorations, now are available in a striking flare-red color. The new shade is especially dramatic when used with white or pastel colored tissues.

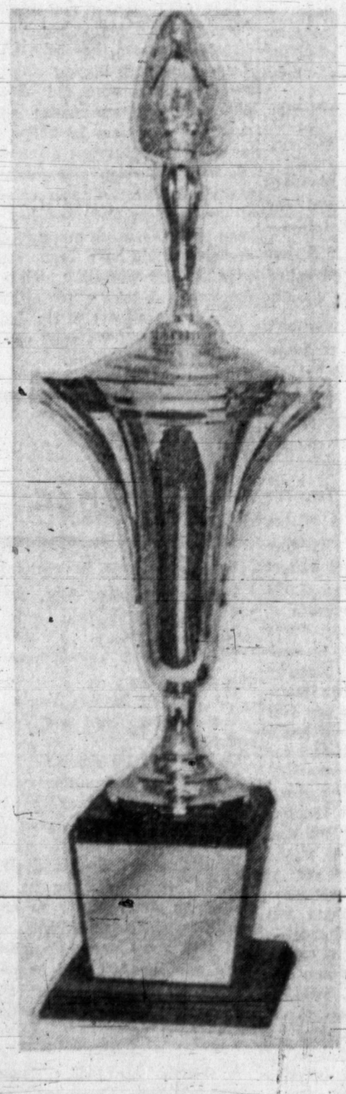

One idea is to spell out the name of the school in red tissues against a white tissue background for a real eye-catcher on the float or in the gym.

N. Frost, Pampa.

AFFILIATIONS

The bride was graduated from Borger High School. The bridegroom was graduated from Borger High School and is serving as news director for radio station KPDN, Pampa.

AN INDEPENDENT FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and that it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self-control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandmants, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands Freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilites in harmony with the above moral principles.

Govt. Control Dangerous

The City Commission's recent action of canceling the contract providing for federal funds to subsidize a Master Plan for Pampa was certainly a position which can be commended by those who are concerned with increasing federal intervention and control. It does little good to complain about federal regimentation from Washington one day and solicit it the next in the form of a federal monetary grant.

We do, however, take exception to the position of those who were against a federal subsidy, a laudable stand, but believe that Pampa should still have a Master Plan for here it appears that a flight into the arms of inconsistency does take place. It is difficult to understand how it can be admitted that an evil principle is involved with the acceptance of federal control over our lives while there is virtue if arbitrary control is locally exercised.

The local arbitrary control under a Master Plan has to do with the designation of land uses: i.e., the power of local political authorities to say what use private property can be put by its owner rather than relying on normal market forces to make the determination. Government directed land use is justified on the concept that a supposedly disinterested group of politicos, operating the Master Plan, should be the arbiters of property utilization from the stand point of "desirability, need and the protection of values."

There is little argument that a city government must try to anticipate its arterial street and sewer needs looking down the road into time, but this is only a part of what is meant by the term "city planning" and one reason the phrase itself is so easily deceptive.

There is not a solitary argument for government dictated land use that cannot apply, say, to government dictated occupations. If it is decided it is "improper" to establish a barber shop at a specific location, it can as easily be decided by a government body, that it is "improper" for a specific man to be a barber. Once the admission is made of government interventionist propriety, there is no place to stop because principle is violated. History well illustrates that all philosophies of collectivism predicate their positions on the premise that the government should decide what is "desirable and needed" as the ultimate in proper interhuman relations.

What must be faced squarely is, primarily, whether or not one believes that man is endowed by his Creator with an inalienable right in the ownership (which is control) of land acquired voluntarily and utilized peacefully.

It is a remarkable fact of our day that many who have attained material success and positions of business leadership advocate policies that, in principle, deny their posterity the same opportunity for achievement they inherited because they want to use government as an instrument to satisfy their transient personal concepts of "good, need and desirability" when it comes to ordering the lives and property of others. This enigma would certainly apply to many of the advocates of government land use dictation.

It is the mark of a civilization in decline that it lives essentially for today, not realizing that actions have consequences which are many times extreme and far reaching. The average person advocating land use control by government would find the government control of occupations repugnant because it doesn't fit into his personal concept of "planning." The fact remains, however, that over one-third of the world's people live on land where use is decided by government as well as the citizens' occupation. Principle violated is easily expanded into a monster which, in its infancy, looks to the superficial observer harmless and sometimes beneficial, but ideas and acts have consequences in time. To ignore this fact is to live like the aborigine who cuts down the fruit tree to enable an easy harvest not thinking that in succeeding years there will be no fruit to harvest at all.

To plan by looking ahead is elementary to the human condition: to "plan" by placing under government fiat the use of land — pure, unadulterated state interventionism, no matter how well intended those who "plan" motivate their actions.

Red Govt. Like Ours

All government, in order to multiply its power and create patronage jobs, must continually seek to provide more "benefits" or services for the people who pay the bill.

These services could, of course, be provided by the people themselves for less money since the market place has never failed to respond to needs or desires, but politicians have convinced us that we cannot take care of ourselves and, therefore, that government must do the job.

Congress gives Kennedy everything he wants in the line of costly "defense" programs, including funds for a multi - million-dollar shelter program for civilians. And the President most certainly will have approved his blank - check type plan for "economic development" of "struggling" foreign nations. The struggling American taxpayer isn't given a second thought. You must be "needy" before our benevolent government blesses you with confiscated funds.

But now let us look at the latest official draft program of the Communist Party of Soviet Union. A summary of the program was sent along to us from the press department of the USSR embassy in Washington, D. C.

The Russian communist leaders, like ours, offer a wide array of "free" services, and their stated aims are high indeed. The Reds, in their draft program, state: "In the current decade the Soviet Union, in creating the material and technical basis of communism, will surpass the strongest and richest capitalist country, the United States, in production per head of population; the people's standard of living and their cultural and technical standards will improve substantially; everyone will live in easy circumstances; all collective and state farms will become highly productive and profitable enterprises; the demand of Soviet people for well-appointed housing will, in the main, be satisfied; hard physical work will disappear; the USSR will become the country with the shortest workday."

And everything will be free. The draft program says that at the end of 20 years public consumption funds will total about half of the aggregate real income of the population, making it possible to provide at public expense: "free maintenance of children at children's institutions and boarding schools (if parents wish); maintenance of disabled people; free education at all educational establishments; free medical services for all citizens, including the supply of medicines and the treatment of sick persons at sanatoriums; rent - free housing and also free public services; free public transport facilities; free use of some types of communal services; steady reduction of charges for, and partially free, use of resorts, boarding houses and tourist camps increasingly broad provision of the population with benefits, privileges and allotments (grants to unmarried mothers), scholarships for students; gradual introduction of free public catering (midday meals) at enterprises and institutions, and for collective farmers engaged in production."

The Nation's Press

OUR COSTLY WHEAT EXPORTS

((Chicago Tribune)

The United States foreign agricultural service reports that world trade in grains is fettered with more controls and restrictions than at any time in history. It says price no longer is a major factor influencing the sale and purchase of wheat, corn, and other grains in world markets. In a study of trade and farm production policies of various governments, the service makes these points:

"Today, either because of a desire to assure producer incomes at levels approaching those prevailing in other segments of the economy or for international balance of payments reasons, numerous and complex measures have been adopted by virtually all deficit countries to control grain imports and make themselves self-sufficient.

"For the same reasons, virtually all grain exporting countries have adopted measures to stimulate exports and protect the competive status of their grain in world markets."

Wheat offers a prime example of measures adopted by the United States to stimulate grain exports. This country now ships abroad more than half of its annual wheat production, compared with exports of only a little more than 7 per cent of annual output in the decade of the 1930s. Before World War II, however, our wheat was exported for dollars and without subsidies. Now not a nickel's worth of wheat moves abroad without some form of government aid.

For example, in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1960 (the last for which a breakdown is available), the United States exported 511 million bushels of wheat. Seventy four per cent of these exports were either sold at bargain prices for unconvertible foreign currencies, which is virtually the same as giving them away, or were donated or used in barter transactions. The remainder was shipped for dollars, with an average subsidy of 63 cents a bushel.

Present estimated cost to the government of the surplus wheat it owns is $2.49 a bushel. Assuming this to be the cost of the wheat exported for soft currencies donations, and barter, and adding 85 million dollars as the cost of subsidizing dollar sales, the total cost of the wheat export program in fiscal 1960 (not including transportation charges) amounted to more than 900 million dollars, less whatever value can be attributed to the soft currencies collected.

In these circumstances it is obvious that this country's big wheat export market is merely a costly bubble which can burst if an economy minded Congress should ever decide to terminate the agricultural trade development and assistance act. It is under this act, which Congress has just extended for three years, that nearly 11 billion dollars worth of surplus farm commodities have been exported in soft currency sales, donations, and barter since 1954.

It is rather ironical that this law, designed as a temporary surplus disposal program, has been an influence in perpetuating the unsound price support and acreage allotment program under which most of the present 3.3 billion dollar wheat surplus has accumulated. With a foreign giveaway program available to dispose of some of the surplus, Congress has not been under as much pressure as it probably would have been otherwise to lower artifically high price supports and take other effective steps to curtail overproduction of wheat, this country's most critical farm surplus problem.

Today is Sunday, Sept. 3, the 246th day of the year with 119 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1783, the Revolutionary War was officially ended as the U.S. and Great Britain signed the treaty of Paris.

In 1939, Great Britain declared war on Germany after its ultimatum to Adolf Hitler to cease hostilities in Poland expired.

In 1958, the Chinese Communist party announced it had begun a system of communes that eventually would become that nation's basic social unit.

A thought for today: Spanish writer Miguel Cervantes said: "where envy reigns, virtue cannot live."

Allen - Scott Report:

Red Invasion of South Viet Nam Pointed For October; Kennedy Watching Closely

ROBERT S. ALLEN — PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy is keeping a close personal watch on a new ominous build-up of Communist military forces and equipment in North Viet Nam and Red-held areas of Laos.

In between preparatory briefings for next month's negotiations with Premier Khrushchev on Berlin, the President is studying Central Intelligence Agency reports that flatly warn of a Soviet-backed effort by Communist North Viet Nam to seize all of South Viet Nam.

These secret CIA estimates of new Communist moves in Southeast Asia state that General Alexsei Antonov, chief of staff of the Soviet Army, is now in Hanoi personally directing the strategic planning for a full-scale military invasion of South Viet Nam in October.

General Antonov was spotted as late as August 20 entering the demilitarized truce zone between South Viet Nam and the Communist north to inspect possible invasion routes and to view the military defenses of South Vietnamese troops.

These intelligence reports also warn that the Viet Congs — the Communist guerrillas now operating in South Viet Nam — are creating a solid territorial base along the Laos-Vietnamese border in preparation for the full-scale offensive.

Congressional leaders, who were briefed on these developments this week at the White House, reveal that the President is now weighing the possibility of bringing the new Communist threat before the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization or the United Nations.

Final decision on which course the U.S. will take now rests on the outcome of discussions that Secretary of State Rusk is holding with Britain, France, Pakistan, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, and the Philippines, all members of SEATO.

CRISIS TIMETABLE—The Joint Chiefs of Staff are supporting the CIA's warnings.

They have sent a separate report to the President that forecasts that Khrushchev will make a major military move in Southeast Asia at the height of the Berlin crisis.

The JCS expects this danger period to come between September 17, the date of the national elections in West Germany, and October 21, when the Soviet Communist Party Congress opens in Moscow.

During this explosive 34-day period, Khrushchev is scheduled to carry out his long standing threat and sign a separate peace treaty with the East German Communist regime.

The JCS also told the President that the 150,000 - man South Viet Nam army will need U.S. air and naval support to stand off an all-out attack by North Viet Nam's 300,000-man army.

While the South Vietnamese counter-guerrilla tactics have improved since the U.S. started its crash program of military training, the JCS states, the army still lacks the necessary heavy equipment to withstand an all-out attack by Ho-Chi-Minh's forces, now equipped with heavy Soviet artillery and rocket firing guns.

The JCS discounts the possibility that food shortages in North Viet Nam are serious enough to bar a major military operation. Instead, the JCS points out that the recent food riots in North Viet Nam were caused by the Army's decision to requisition food for military stockpiling.

NOTE: In his private report to the President last week, Ambassador Averel Harriman offered no hope that the conference on Laos at Geneva would succeed. He told the President it would take a miracle to get the Communists to agree to an honorable settlement.

BEHIND THE SCENES — The U.S. is moving atomic warheads and shells closely guarded to U.S. Army storage areas in West Germany that are located within 160 miles of West Berlin. That's the secret move that prompted Army Secretary Elvis Stahr's statement that U.S. troops in Berlin would soon have a "nuclear capability" . . . East Germany's Communist boss Ulbricht is asking his superior, Soviet Premier Khrushchev, to make a flying trip to East Berlin to counteract Vice President Johnson's recent visit to West Berlin. . . Amnesty is being offered thousands of criminals in East Germany if they will agree to work on farms to solve the acute shortage of farm workers. . . The U.S. and Russia are planning to match space and missile shorts this week. The National Space Agency plans another Project Mercury launching from Cape Canaveral. Its scientists will attempt to orbit a "canned man" in a Mercury space capsule and recover the unit near Bermuda. The Soviets are planning a long-range missile shot into the Pacific, according to Navy intelligence. Red missile spotting ships took up their positions last week.

The Doctor Says:

By DR. HAROLD THOMAS HYMEN

What is it that happens to hypersensitive persons when the offending allergen exerts its effects on the particular shock tissue or organ?

Histamine - type allergies. In most acute allergies, the explanation for the unexpected disturbance is easily discovered. For when allergen and shock tissue meet, they produce a powerful substance called histamine.

What happens thereafter is actually a case of acute histamine poisoning. We know this because we can reproduce most allergic manifestations merely by applying or injecting a chemically pure solution of histamine.

On the happier side, we also know we can prevent, or at least ease, the distress caused by a histamine - type allergy when we apply, prescribe or administer an antihistamine or a product that acts like the secretion of a portion of the adrenal gland (adrenaline, epinephrin).

Tuberculin - type allergies. In the case of tuberculin - type allergies, the explanation still eludes us. In contrast to histamine-reactions these tuberculin type allergies take months or even years to develop.

Thus, by the time we become aware of their presence, it may be impossible to determine the identity of the offending allergen. Or to figure out the mechanism by which it produced its distressing effects.

Now, before we go further, let's get clear on the meaning of this label. The tuberculin-type allergy owes its name to the fact that the reaction resembles that produced when test tuberculin is placed on, or injected into, the skin of a person who either has active tuberculosis or who has had a tuberculous infection and made a successful recovery.

To return now to the differences between histamine - type and tuberculin - type allergic reactions. Unlike the former, the latter are rarely itchy or red; they cannot be reproduced by use of histamine; they cannot be prevented or relieved by antihistamines and they do not respond to products that possess the properties of adrenaline and epinephrin.

Partly because of these factors, we've been slow to get our teeth into the problems raised by tuberculin - type allergies. Recently, however, things have been looking brighter. We begin now to connect certain manifestations with certain specific allergies.

A species of streptococci with rheumatic fever, a variety of kidney trouble (glomerulonephritis), certain skin afflictions (erythemas and purpuras) and perhaps rheumatoid arthritis; sulfa drugs with periarteritis nodosum; tobacco with thrombo angiitis obliterans; pine tree pollen with sarcoidosis; solar radiation (photosensitivity) in the "butterfly disease" (lupus erythematosus) and related disturbances, and gold and arsenic salts in dermatitis exfoliativa, in which the entire skin surface is shed.

The American Way

OUR BUNGLING LIBERALS

By GEORGE PECK

When the USA needs the unqualified support of its NATO allies to bolster President Kennedy's all-out stand over Berlin against Khrushchev, the Administration finds itself in a serious foreign policy bind. Bungling by the government's proponents of "liberalism at any cost," particularly by Ambassador to the UN, Adlai E. Stevenson; Under Secretary of State, Chester Bowles; and Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, G. Mennen Williams, has contributed in no small measure to this dilemma.

As never before, this nation now needs the undivided support of the NATO members — France, Portugal, The Netherlands, Belgium and Great Britain. How far the USA has decimated the "entente cordiale" which has existed since the end of World War II is now a moot question.

Belgium and Portugal, and now France, have felt the sting of this "liberalism at any cost" policy in our attitude toward their former or present African provinces.

Belgium resents the Administration's criticism of its attempt to end a tragic blood-letting of its nationals in the Belgian Congo after giving the Congolese their freedom.

France wonders just where the USA stands with its NATO partners, in view of its vote with the Communists and Afro-Asian bloc in the UN Security Council on the cease-fire order in Tunisia.

The action, causing the greatest stir among the NATO nations is the USA vote with the Russians, Africans and Asians over the Portuguese province of Angola. Stevenson first voted against the Portuguese in the Security Council in March, 1961, and followed this with a similar vote in the UN General Assembly a month later. In June, Francis Plimpton, in Stevenson's absence, cast the third USA vote against Portugal.

All of these votes were cast against our staunch friend and NATO ally before any investigation had been made by a committee created by the General Assembly. The June vote charged Portugal with using "repressive measures" in Angola, in spite of the fact that the natives look upon their Portuguese brothers as friends and good neighbors. This was reported to the Security Council by Vasco Vieira Garin, Portuguese Ambassador, who pointed out that the barbarism was carried out by terrorists from the Congo, acting under the direction of Communist-trained leaders.

A look at the kind of ally Portugal is will show how Stevenson and the Administration missed an opportunity to cement relations with all of our NATO friends.

The U.S. Air Force has had important installations in the Azores, another Portuguese territory since the beginning of World War II. In Lisbon, "Radio Free Europe's" most powerful shortwave transmitters have been broadcasting for the last ten years to subjugated peoples behind the Iron Curtain. Premier Salazar, an outspoken foe of communism, has provided these facilities rent-free to the USA.

Portugal refused Marshall Plan assistance after the war, stressing the ravaged European countries had more need. Portugal has accepted only $8 million from the USA in grants and credits for technical and economic assistance between 1945 and 1961. This is "peanuts" compared with the largesse handed out to Communist enemies: Yugoslavia, $1.33 billion; Czechoslovakia, $191 million; Poland, $710 million; and even Russia itself $419 million.

"Soapy" Williams is now in Africa on a tour to include visits to Angola and Mozambique, both Portuguese provinces. On a previous trip to the "Dark Continent," he announced a policy of "Africa for the Africans," which the Communists and Communist - trained leaders of various African nations immediately seized upon as a "green light" from the USA to go ahead with their terrorism and let the bodies — black or white—fall where they may. "Soapy" was warned by the Administration prior to his departure to make no press statements on his current trip.

The third member of the "liberalism at any cost" triumvirate is Chester Bowles, Under Secretary of State. His policy of favoring newly-emerging African nations over steadfast USA allies is increasing the strain on President Kennedy. This plays into the hands of Khrushchev, particularly in the West Berlin crisis.

The cost in dollars to the American taxpayer of this ineptness on the part of the liberal bunglers cannot be estimated. It will be expensive and the taxpayer can be forgiven for wondering why the Administration permits three wealthy Americans to dictate a "liberalism at any cost" policy for a nation already carrying too heavy a tax load.

The USA should adopt a hands off policy in Tunisia and reverse its ill-considered policy toward Portugal. Then Americans can paraphrase "Soapy" Williams' foot-in-mouth statement with:

"At last an Administration policy of AMERICA FOR THE AMERICANS."

UN Group Finds We Are Pretty Ignorant 'Bunch'

By HENRY McLEMORE

ROME, Italy — As if an answer to my wish for a set of statistics with which to fortify my belief that there is no such thing as a World Opinion, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) has come out with one.

According to this international body, nearly 70 per cent of the world's population lives without knowing what is going on at home or abroad. Millions upon millions never read a newspaper, hear a radio, or see a television set.

This is a shocking commentary on the way of life in the twentieth century, but it's true. It should be remembered by statesmen and politicians, especially our own, when they shy away from positive action for fear of arousing world opinion.

"World" and "opinion" are over worked words in the United States, along with "darling," "wonderful," "super," and "okay,".

The United States thinks twice before issuing a new stamp lest it offend world opinion. It weighs world opinion — even though there isn't any such thing — before fussing about hijacked planes, kidnapped citizens, and making a bank loan.

You would think, to hear some statesmen talk, that all the people in the world were hanging on to their words, and would make up their minds as a result of what they heard. Or sat around after a speech from Washington, Paris, or London comparing notes.

Those 70 per cent who don't even know where Washington, London, and Paris are, or whether they are rivers, cities, or mountains should not be pictured as listening with hands cupped behind their ears lest they miss a word.

It would be wonderful if they did, and were sufficiently educated to appreciate and think through what they heard, but they don't and aren't.

If world opinion existed, and counted for as much as the leaders of the West seem to think it does, then Russia would have few people on its side, for not a day passes that Russia does not commit and act which would outrage men and women who believe in peace and decency and dignity.

Russia cares little for world opinion. Either that or she chooses to ignore it.

If world opinion counts, then how does Russia get by with sealing off East Germany, turning people into animals to be kept in an incorporated zoo, and shooting those who try to escape.

How does Russia tell the world that it is perfectly willing to seal off the access routes to West Berlin and allow the inhabitants to starve for all it cares.

If Russia thought there was any world opinion, or cared a farthing for it if it did, it wouldn't dare stamp out the freedom for which people all over the world are seeking with all their might.

I can't help but wonder what would happen if the United States pulled a lawless act comparable to what the Russians have done in East Berlin. The very Americans who excuse it in Russia, who seek negotiations with Russia, who are willing to make concessions to Russia, would fall dead in horror, or just about.

Russia can threaten the earth with destruction and get by with it. Let the United States send in 1,500 armed men to a trouble spot and the world gasps. It doesn't make sense.

matter of fact

The trophy is an old Greek custom. When one army had another on the run, the victors hung up armor on a tree and heaped booty at its foot. The Romans were better psychologists. They built their reminders of triumph back home. They had to govern the defeated lands—so why stir up resentment with gloating trophies?

Ring Gets Around

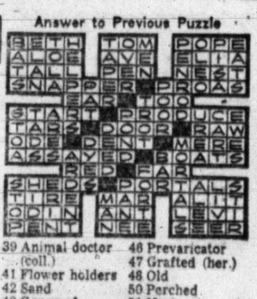

NEWPORT, Vt. (UPI) — Police here found a high school ring belonging to Margaret T. Donohue five years after it had been lost. She said, "I can't understand how the ring was ever found in Vermont as I have never been there."

WRITE AD-RIMES

Think up a line to rhyme with →

$310 Cash Given FREE

DO YOU SEEK A FAMOUS BRAND

HOW TO WIN AD-RIME PRIZES
The arrow points to the "Guide-line"
AD-RIME lines must tie in and rhyme with the Guideline. Your entry MUST carry the "Hidden Slogan." Find it among the ads — one word in each column starting at the left. You don't have to buy anything to win prizes but MUST find and write the Hidden Slogan. Preference is given to AD-RIME lines that tie in well and BOOST LOCAL TRADE. Get the setup, the two lines are a "jingle." One which can't win is: All are here close at hand But you must write origional ones. Good luck — and keep trying.

▲ ▲ ▲

Let us all understand how cooperation makes our market and land value expand.

▲ ▲ ▲

It's glorious and grand
— seems just like fairyland
When, in our own homeland
we can safely demand:

A fine watch — or wristband
— good frozen foods — or canned
— cement quick-mixed with sand,

And now, know beforehand
— by reputable brand,
that quality will stand.

Cities Service And Columbian Soon To Merge

NEW YORK — A proposed merger of Cities Service Company and Columbian Carbon Company through a pooling of interests has been approved today by the boards of directors of both companies.

Burl S. Watson, chairman of Cities Service, and Lyle L. Shepard, president of Columbian Carbon, in a joint statement, said that the merger plan will represent an important step forward in the diversification programs of each company. Each company will continue to carry on its principal activities with present management and personnel.

Subject to approvals of shareholders of both companies and the appropriate regulatory agencies, the merger proposal provides that shareholders of Columbian Carbon will receive, for each share of their stock, sixty-seven one - hundredths of one share of no par value, cumulative convertible preferred stock to be issued by Cities Service Company.

The Cities Service preferred stock will carry a dividend of $4.40 per share and will be non-callable for five years. It will be convertible into Cities Service common stock on the basis of one share of preferred stock for each one and sixty-three one-hundredths shares of Cities Service common stock.

The new Cities Service prefered stock will have voting rights and other conventional provisions. It may be redeemed after five years from its date of issue, at a price of $105 per share on a declining basis.

In the negotiations leading to the proposed merger, Blyth & Co., Inc. acted as financial consultants to Cities Service and Lehman Brothers served in the same capacity for Columbian Carbon.

1 Card of Thanks 1

A. V. Jack Craig

We wish to thank our neighbors, friends and to anyone who in any way acted in love and sympathy during the recent loss of our beloved Husband & Father.
To The Pastor for his consoling message, and for the many floral tributes.
You are gone but not forgotten,
The one we love so well.
The loneliness that has been ours
No tongue can ever tell.
Come winter time, come summer time,
Come sweet and cleansing rain,
Come springtime and the Autumn
Both sun and moon shall wane.
Come seed time and the flowering
And the harvesting of grain.
The earth will cease and time grow old.
But we shall meet again.
Now you will sleep a little while,
And dream in peace, please God,
Then one day we shall follow you
And sleep, too, beneath the sod.
To rise with you and walk again.
With a vague sense of remembering
That we had loved in other lives
Before this new ascending.

MARCH OF DIMES CHAIRMAN — Miss Betty McWilliams of Waco, Texas, presents the key to crippling diseases, signifying the appointment of Dr. W. R. White of Baylor University, as Texas State Chairman of the New March of Dimes for 1962. Dr. White's appointment was announced by Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation. Tommy McWilliams, Betty's father, and a member of the Executive Committee of the McLennan County Chapter of The National Foundation, looks on.

Yoga Adherents Believe Posture Is Vital Factor

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Ancient Hindu saints, it is believed here, lived as long as 2,000 years. They then went to heaven, traveled through hell, explored space and returned to earth to tell the people all about those regions.

Their secret was "Yoga" — the Indian way of controlling mind and body.

Rishis (saints) Bratahari, Markandeya, the Saptarishi brothers and Narad are some notable legendary figures who lived a worldly life for as much as 2,000 years and then left for a heavenly abode at their will.

"Yoga" is a comprehensive term which embodies a number of postures called "asans." These "asans" are dependent upon the physiology of the body and its muscular and nervous systems.

The "Yoga" system has three divisions. Karma Yoga, Hatha Yoga and Gyan Yoga.

Karma Yoga is practiced to achieve peace of mind while living in this world. Its best exposition is found in the Gita, the Hindus' holy bible.

Hatha Yoga has preventive as well as curative qualities for all ailments, Hindus believe. Perfection in this Yoga system would make a man capable of living in any climatic conditions without any difficulty.

Deep breathing and meditation are the essence of Yoga.

Prime Minister Nehru and his daughter Indira practice part of Hatha Yoga. Nehru now no longers stands on his head. But he does deep breathing almost every day.

Hatha Yoga is regarded as a primal Yoga effort which gradually comes to be the methodical approach to the attainment of the highest in the Yoga.

Hatha Yoga accepts Man for what he really is. It therefore does not neglect the physical aspect of a person's life.

Yoga experts recommend Hatha Yoga for space flights among other things.

Gyan Yoga is the highest form of Yoga. By achieving perfection in this branch, according to Hindus, a person can leave his body at will, travel as far as he likes and then re-enter his body.

Legend has it that King Jaya Chand has been living in the Himalayas for the past 1,000 years. He had perfected himself in Gyan Yoga.
