RUTH NICHOLS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 21.—Miss Ruth Nichols was planning today a solo flight to Paris—in an airplane three times as powerful as the historic "Spirit of St. Louis" and between 50 and 75 miles an hour faster.

Miss Nichols could not be reached. Friends said she had been hoping for some time to make the attempt, but no definite announcement could be made until her plans finally were completed.

Plane Overhauled

Meanwhile the red monoplane in which she has set four world records was being given an overhauling at the Jersey City aircraft factory of Col. Clarence D. Chamberlain who, it was said, had tried to dissuade her but would fly with her as far as Harbor Grace, N. F., the taking-off point, if she goes.

The ship will have a cruising

Health Campaign To Be Waged Within Near Future

CARE of Lubbock county's most urgent health needs is the object of a campaign which will start immediately and a public health nurse assigned to this district will arrive here to assume duties May 1, according to County Judge E. L. Pitts.

Forty representatives of Lubbock clubs and departments of the county government met Tuesday morning at the courthouse, heard Dr. J. N. Barnett of the state department of health, and elected a central committee to supervise work in the county.

Includes Four Counties

This health district will be composed of Lubbock, Hockley, Lamb, and Parmer counties, Judge Pitts said. The program is financed and sponsored by the United States Public Health service through the state department of health and county health officer. Plans are to bolster preventive measures against diseases which commonly follow drouth.

Judge Pitts was chosen as chairman of the Lubbock county central committee. Other members named were:

Members Named

Dr. W. L. Baugh, county health officer; D. F. Eaton, county farm agent; Miss Ruth Stockton, county home demonstration agent, and Miss Mae Murfee, county school superintendent. Others possibly will be added to the committee later, the chairman said.

Lubbock county's "most urgent rural health needs" were listed as:

(1) Sanitary control of water supply to schools.

(2) Fly control.

(3) Contagious diseases and vaccination.

(4) Nutrition.

Representatives of the City Federation of Women's clubs, the City Parent-Teacher council, and other organizations attended Tuesday's meeting. Those and similar groups will be asked to assist in executing plans of the central committee, Judge Pitts said.

A meeting of the central committee will be held the last part of this week or first of next week, he said.

Explosion Of Nitroglycerin Causes Oklahoma Quake Scare

SEMINOLE, Okla., April 21. (AP)—Five hundred quarts of nitroglycerin in a magazine three miles southwest of here exploded tonight and caused an earthquake scare in the surrounding country for miles.

S. A. Capps, manager here for the American Glycerin company, owner of the nitroglycerin, said the first information he obtained concerning the explosion led him to believe thieves might have been attempting to steal the nitro-glycerin when it exploded. Earlier, residents of cities and towns in a radius of forty miles had reported feeling a tremor which they believed an earthquake.

Hub Johnson Released From Jail Tuesday On Two Bonds

Awaiting trial as a result of a grand jury indictment charging liquor law violations and awaiting grand jury action on similar charges, Hub Johnson was released from city jail Tuesday afternoon on bonds of $1,000 in each case.

The case in which Johnson has been indicted is scheduled for trial in ninety-ninth district court before Judge Clark M. Mullican next week. Some of the cases on the docket possibly will be transferred to seventy-second district court, according to Durwood Bradley, district attorney. Johnson was indicted by the seventy-second grand jury in March.

Byrd's Pal Dead

Efforts Of Doctors Prove Hopeless

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, April 21.—The peculiarly satisfying comradeship between man and a dog was ended today for Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, by the death of Igloo, the famous explorer's pet fox terrier. Three doctors strove vainly to save the little animal's life and Admiral Byrd was preparing to fly to Boston when he learned Igloo had died. Death was due to indigestion.

Igloo had served as mascot on Byrd's expeditions to the north and south poles. As a puppy Igloo went to Spitzbergen when Byrd and Floyd Bennett flew over the north pole. He had attained canine maturity before he accompanied his master to Little America, from which point the explorer flew over the south pole.

An admirer presented Igloo to Admiral Byrd six years ago, in Washington, and the little animal became the explorer's almost constant companion. White and wire haired of coat, a brown ear, gave Igloo an amused roguish appearance.

Thousands saw his reflection on motion picture screens throughout the land as cameramen presented their records of receptions tendered the explorer. Other thousands saw him riding with his master as they lined the streets to cheer the aerial conqueror of both poles. The little animal was given an important place in Admiral Byrd's writings on his adventures.

Girl's Marriage Is Being Probed

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 21. (AP)—The "boy friends" of Louise Teuber, San Diego girl whose nearly nude body was found hanging from a limb of a tree in a secluded glen near here last Sunday, were being grilled by sheriff's deputies today in an effort to establish whether she was married to any of them or not.

A report the girl was married was received by authorities and denied at once by the dead girl's sister, Mrs. Isabel Prouty, who stated her sister not only was not married but had no "steady boy friend." There were several, however, with whom Miss Teuber attended dances, Mrs. Prouty said.

R. H. Newby, photographer arrested on charges of having made an obscene photograph of the 17-year-old girl, pleaded not guilty and was granted a jury trial. His bail was fixed at $500.

Illness Of Attorney Wins Delay In Trial Of Julian

LAREDO, April 21. (AP)—Illness of one of his attorneys today won for C. C. Julian, dapper Oklahoma and California oil operator, postponement in the trial of kidnaping and assault to rob charges against him which prosecuting attorneys had indicated otherwise would be stubbornly resisted. His trial was delayed until June 1.

Julian, charged here in four indictments in connection with the alleged abduction of Lamar S. Boling of San Antonio, Julian's former business asociate, and the attempted extortion of $50,000 from him in a hotel here at the point of a pistol, yesterday pleaded guilty to carrying a pistol and was fined $500 and costs.

Bullet Lodged In Center Of Brain And Physicians Announce That Rees Probably Will Not Survive

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, April 21. — City detectives Tuesday night were attempting to explain the mysterious shooting of F. A. "Nona" Rees, formerly a star athlete at Brackenridge senior school and the University of Texas. He was found shortly after noon shot behind the left ear with a .22 caliber bullet and was leaning against the wall of the C. and S. sporting goods store, of which he was proprietor.

He was found by Garrett Jackson, negro employee of the Plaza hotel garage, who called passersby who rushed Rees to the Santa Rosa hospital. Hospital physicians announced Tuesday night that Rees was not expected to live. The bullet was lodged in the center of his brain.

Probe Is Underway

Detectives W. T. Carver and W. W. Thompson were investigating the case Tuesday night. No powder burns were found on the back of Rees' head, according to physicians at the hospital. A .22 caliber rifle was found leaning in a chair not far from Rees, according to detectives, it had been fired once.

Rees was released from the hospital last week after recovering from a fall at the Broadway sporting goods store where he had been working.

Former High Star

Rees was well known in San Antonio for his work on the Brackenridge high school football team in 1925 when he was quarterback and captain. At the University of Texas he was a three-letter man, and was one of the most popular students. He was quarterback on the Longhorn football team, captain and guard in basketball and catcher on the baseball nine. He wound up his

Baylor University Head Is Nominated By 41st District Rotary Convention For Office Of President

(By The Associated Press)

PLAINVIEW, April 21.—Dr. T. D. Brooks, head of the school of education at Baylor university, Waco, today was nominated by the 41st district Rotary convention for president, at the concluding conventiion session.

The election will be held at the district assembly in July, San Angelo and Midland were seeking the next convention.

Favor Joint Meeting

The convention voted in favor of holding a joint meeting of three Texas Rotary districts in 1933, changing a resolution which originally proposed such a meeting for 1932.

Attending the convention here were representatives from sixty of the 61 clubs in the district. Registration reached the record figure for the district of 963 delegates.

LITTLE CHANGE NOTED

Although he appeared to be resting well last night, little change was noted in the condition of L. H. Simpson, former fire chief and fire marshal, who is critically ill at his home, 1402 Avenue M, according to members of his family.

Critics Of New York Executive Take Up Task Anew Of Sending Walker Packing

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 21.—Critics of Mayor James J. Walker applied themselves anew today to the task of sending him packing.

But the mayor, who gave his foes a 15,000-word piece of his mind yesterday, sat calmly in the city hall, confident of complete vindication by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Reply Is Sought

The city affairs committee, which asked Governor Roosevelt to remove Mayor Walker for alleged neglect of the city's welfare, requested from the governor an opportunity to reply to Walker's defense.

The governor may decide on the removal charges before he leaves for Warm Springs, Ga., on May 1, persons close to him said.

Denies Affiliation

The mayor's statement that the charges were falsely made to advance the prestige of the Socialist party brought an answer from Dr. John Haynes Holmes, chairman of the city affairs committee. He denied that he or Dr. Stephen S. Wise, vice chairman, were enrolled Socialists. The latter had no comment to make on the mayor's statement, which called him a "man of brilliant mental incapacity and of vast and varied misinformation."

Norman Thomas, Socialist leader, declared the bulk of the Walker defense "consists in taking credit for

Mississippi Governor Refuses To Call Special Session Unless Legislators Agree Not To Impeach Him

(By The Associated Press)

JACKSON, Miss., April 21.—With an agreement that only financial relief measures would be considered, legislators meeting informally here late today suggested an unoffical session of the legislature to convene Monday to provide, $7,000,000 to offset an impending deficit in the state treasury.

The call for the unoffical session was expected to go out to the 189 members following a conference here tomorrow of Lieutenant Governor Bidwell Adam and Speaker Thomas L. Bailey, presiding officers of the two branches.

Relief Is Sought

Financial relief measures would be agreed on at the session and them submitted to Governor T. G. Bilbo, with a request to call a pre-dated extra session which would adjourn as soon as the finance bills are signed by the chief executive.

As the legislators conferred, bankers today pledged $1,900,000, thus staving off threatened bankruptcy which faced the state.

Deplorable Condition

Despite the pledge of the bankers to underwrite the state "faith and credit" bonds falling due this year, officials said the state finances still were left in a deplor-

Man And Three Sons Freed By Jury In Kerrville Trial

KERRVILLE, April 21. (AP)—B. H. Hunter and his three sons, Bert, Keet, and Jamie, were acquitted tonight on a charge of murder resulting from the death of John Conner, former Uvalde police chief. The jury had deliberated three hours.

Trial of the case, brought here on a change of venue, had required nine days. It was called here Monday, April 13. The Hunters contended in their defense that Conner was shot accidentally with his own gun while scuffling with them in an alley outside their theater at Uvalde. They said they had ejected him because he had no ticket. The quarrel occurred last December.

Trinity River Measure Given House Passage

Proposes Creation Of Trinity River Conservation And Reclamation District In Dallas And Tarrant Areas

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 21.—Another step in the long hard fight to canalize the Trinity river was taken today when the house passed a bill proposing creation of the Trinity river conservation and reclamation district in Dallas and Tarrant counties. The vote was 78 to 44.

The bill did not receive the necessary two thirds majority to send it into immediate effect, even though the senate should pass it and the governor approve it. As passed the bill would not become effective until 90 days after adjournment of the legislature.

Levy Two Cent Tax

The bill would authorize voters of the district to levy a two cent tax per $100 valuation on property in metropolitan Dallas and Fort Worth, and on a small strip of land along the Trinity river between the two cities, to raise funds to pay for preliminary surveys.

If surveys made proved the canalization project practical, efforts would be made to procure approximately $40,000,000 in appriprations from the federal government with which to complete the project.

Graves Opposed

Representative Graves of Georgetown characterized the project as "monstrous" and said it should "have its head cut off and thrown out the window."

Representative Lockhart of Lubbock charged railroad companies, fearful of the competition the canal would promote, were furnishing most of the opposition.

Representative Keller of Dallas claimed completion of the canal would materially increase taxable values in Fort Worth and Dallas and along the river. He stated the canal would bring enormous savings of freight rates.

Representative Holder quoted from a letter from Congressman Marvin Jones of Amarillo in which Jones pledged his support to the project, claiming it would reduce wheat rates as much as three cents per bushel from West Texas areas.

Feasibility Of Nicaraguan Canal Will Be Considered

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Army engineers have completed survey across the Nicaraguan isthmus to determine the feasibility of constructing a canal to supplement the one in Panama.

The detachment of engineers, who began their work in the fall of 1929, today were ordered home by Secretary Hurley. Their report will be made to the inter-oceanic canal board, which after a study will submit its recommendations.

Newly Created National Guard Takes Field In Nicaragua To Clean Up Sandino And All Fellow Bandits

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Confidence that Augustino Sandino would be brought to justice for the "cold blooded murder" of eight or nine American citizens and a number of Nicaraguans was expressed today by President Hoover.

In a formal statement the president said he had been advised the Nicaraguan government had placed in the field more than 1,300 men of the newly created national guard in a drive to "clean up Sandino and his fellow bandits."

Fully Cognizant

The president said the insurgent chieftain had "placed himself outside the civilized pale" and added the Nicaraguan government "has shown itself fully cognizant of its responsibilities."

At the same time the navy department was advised by Rear Admiral Arthur St. Clair Smith, commander of the special service squadron now stationed in Nicaraguan waters, that 16 foreigners, including eight American civilians and one marine officer, had lost their lives in Nicaragua.

Warship Retained

Meanwhile, reports from the Honduran rebellion gave no indication American citizens were in danger. The American government, however, kept warships at both Honduras and Nicaragua as a precautionary measure.

Reinforcing the drive against Sandino the navy ordered to Managua three big transport planes, capable of carrying troops across Nicaragua's almost impassable mountainous jungle-clad isthmus.

Lubbock Named For 1932 Meet

South Plains Bankers' Association Selects City At Meeting Tuesday; Hardwick Named As Officer

Lubbock will entetrain the 1932 convention of the South Plains Bankers' association, members of the organization decided yesterday at their annual meeting held in Big Spring. Lubbock's bid for the conference presented by eight representatives of the city's three banks, was unopposed.

The meeting will be held here next San Jacinto day, according to members of the local delegation, who returned last night.

Copeland President

Morgan Copeland, cashier of the First National bank, of Brownfield, was named president of the association for the ensuing year. B. Regan, president of the West Texas National bank, Big Spring, was elected vice president, and Paul Hardwick, cashier of the Citizens National bank, of Lubbock, was chosen secretary-treasurer of the association.

Members of the Lubbock group were W. O. Stevens, France Baker, Lennis Baker and Paul Hardwick, of the Citizens National bank; Roy Riddle and John Denman, of the First National bank, and Lorenzo Ellis and Clayton Cammill, jr., of the Lubbock National.

Mr. Stevens addressed the meeting, using the subject, "Bank Expense."

Bill Collins Honored For Texas Tech Commencement

Bill Collins, of Brownfield, has been appointed marshal of the day for the commencement exercises at Texas Technological college, Dr. P. W. Horn, president, announced yesterday.

The honor of marshal of the day is conferred upon a member of the junior class each year. The position carries with it a great deal of responsibility in the forming of the academic procession and in looking after all details of the commencement occasion, according to college officials.

Mayor At 73

At the age of 73 Dr. Julia Platt, Harvard graduate and noted biologist, has taken office as mayor of Pacific Grove, Cal. In defense of her conception of civic duty Dr. Platt has swung an ax and spaded a highway during her 30 years at Pacific Grove. She has never previously held office.

National Boy Scout Leader Speaks Today

Gunnar H. Berg, Of New York, To Address Gathering Here At 3 P. M.; Meeting To Be At Hotel Lubbock

Gunnar H. Berg, of New York, director of volunteer training of the National Boy Scout council, will be the chief speaker of the quarterly meeting executive board of the South Plains Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The meeting is to be held at Hotel Lubbock, starting at 3 p. m. today.

D. T. Jennings, scout executive of the South Plains area, yesterday issued an invitation to all scout leaders, committeemen and other persons interested in scout work, to attend the meeting and hear Mr. Berg. Plans for the area, including summer camps and geenral policies, will be discussed by the board, it was indicated.

Colorful Career

The main speaker, Mr. Berg, has a colorful career in boy's work to his credit.

Born in Norway in 1897, he came to the United States with his parents when he was nine years of age, settling on the Pacific coast. For a period of over ten years he lived in a southwestern Washington logging camp. During this period he completed his elementary education and worked four years in the camp in various capacies; principally as a logging camp machinist.

Worked As Teacher

He completed his high school work in three years and entered the University of Washington, graduating in June 1922. During the summer months' vacations he worked in Alaska and various other places. After graduation he served three years as a high school principal in

Economic Conference Urged In Address By Labor Head

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 21. (AP)—Calling of a national economic conference by President Hoover to tackle the employment problem was advocated tonight by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Addressing the Harvard business school club of Harvard university, Green said "If we are to avoid a future repetition of the distressing experiences through which the nation is passing some remedy must be found and something constructive must be done."

Abandoned Car Found Tuesday By Detectives

Dr. I. D. Kelley, St. Louis Specialist, Called From His Home Late Thursday To Aid "Patient"

Feared Kidnaped

Widespread Search Instituted By Officers When Man Fails To Appear; Footprints Are Found In Car

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—Dr. I. D. Kelley, 45, wealthy nose and throat specialist and club man, was missing tonight under circumstances which led police to believe he was kidnaped after being lured from his home last night by a telephone call asking for his professional assistance.

A mysterious telephone call was received late today by Chief of Detectives Robert Kaiser, giving the laconic and unauthenticated information "Dr. Kelley is unharmed and is in Chicago."

When Kaiser began to question the speaker, the party on the other end slammed the receiver. A report of the call was made immediately to Chief of Police Joseph Gerk and an unsuccessful attempt made to trace it.

Others Are Received

Calls of similar nature have been made frequently in the past while police were investigating kidnapings, and neither Chief Gerk nor Chief Kaiser would say whether today's message held any substantial hope for solution of the disappearance of Dr. Kelley.

The physician's automobile was found this morning several miles from the place where he was summoned by the telephone call. From foot prints on the floor of the car, it appears two men rode in the automobile with him to the point where it was abandoned. Police believe he was transferred to another car.

Is Called Twice

Dr. Kelley was called twice on the telephone last night, his wife, the daughter of the late William Cullen McBride, wealthy oil magnate, told the police.

The telephone caller gave the name of Holmes, Mrs. Kelley said. The caller said he was from Chicago and was visiting here with his nephew who had been operated on

Clemency Asked For Albert Fall

ROSWELL, N. M., April 21. (AP)—The United States Spanish War veterans, New Mexico department, meeting here today passed a resolution asking President Hoover and Attorney General William D. Mitchell not to enforce the sentence against Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior.

The resolution in part said:

"Whereas, comrade Albert B. Fall is a veteran of the Spanish War and was honorably discharged, and whereas imprisonment would be nothing more than a gesture of supererogation inasmuch, as it would not accomplish the objects of imprisonment, punishment not being one of them, nor even vengeance, we respectfully ask that your pardoning power be used in this case."

El Paso's Four-Man Parade Quickly Turned Into One Attracting City-Wide Attention And A Band

(By The Associated Press)

EL PASO, April 21.—El Paso had a parade today in memory of the battle of San Jacinto, a four-man parade to begin with, but a larger one before it ended.

Some months ago the public school board voted not to give school children a holiday on San Jacinto day, but to give one on Good Friday.

Protests came fast and thick from loyal Texans with the result the holiday was granted and superintendent of schools J. H. Hughey challenged Robert Holliday, University of Texas regent, Rabbi Martin Zielonka and S. J. Isaacks, critics of the board's action, to join him in a parade on the day.

Meeting on a down town corner and flaunting high three lone star flags—Rabbi Zielonka had been unable to find one—the quartet started down the street. Unexpectedly, a ten piece band appeared and fell into line, as did a delegation from the American Legion post. Catching the spirit, men, women and children, laughing and cheering, flocked to join the demonstration, while automobiles, horns shrieking, brought up the rear.

"I never enjoyed anything so much," said Hughey.

"It was a great event," said Isaaks.

And officials of the American Legion post announced that every year hereafter they would sponsor a celebration on San Jacinto day which would show upthose in any other Texas city.

Legionnaires To Come Here

Other Posts Over The South Plains Will Send Delegations To Lubbock To Hear Ralph T. O'Neil

A hundred and fifty legionnaires from other posts are expected here Friday when Ralph Thomas O'Neil, national commander of the American Legion, is guest of Allen Brothers post, No. 148.

The estimate was made Tuesday by Glen Hess, commander of the Lubbock post, who reported that six South Plains posts already had notified the local post that they would be represented by a total of 95 legionnaires.

Others Accompany

Commander O'Neil, a Topeka attorney and former athletic coach, will be accompanied by Hal Brennan and R. O. ("Bob") Whiteaker, commander and adjutant respectively of the Texas department of the Legion. They are scheduled to leave Plainview at 10 o'clock Friday morning and arrive here at 11:15 a. m.

A chowline will be served at the American Legion home here at noon and immediately after it is completed, the guest of honor — Commander O'Neil, will be introduced and will address the assembly, the Lubbock commander said.

Plainview Coming

Four members of the Ray Blakemore post, No. 260, of the American Legion, at Plainview will accompany Commander O'Neil and the adjutant here.

The Plainview representatives will be E. C. Kuykendall and E. F. Hurlbut, commander and adjutant respectively of the Plainview post, and Herbert Hillburn editor of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce.

Posts which have reported they will be represented and respective delegations promised included:

Levelland 6, Brownfield 25, O'Donnell 10, Muleshoe 10, Plainview 4, and Tahoka 40.

Commander O'Neil will leave here at 2:15 p. m. for Amarillo.

Expect Decision In McKee Appeal

Decision in the appeal of Ira McKee, sentenced to death in the electric chair by a jury in district court at Lamar last June, is expected this week by the state court of criminal appeals at Austin according to Thomas L. Price, of Post, district attorney for the 106th district and prosecutor in the case.

McKee has had three attorneys according to Mr. Price and the appeal, first filed at the close of the trial at Lamesa, was not heard by the court until several months ago. First attorney was Harvey B. Shead of Hobbs, N. M. and he was followed by Tom Ragdell of Breckenridge, who perfected the case up to court. Now a firm of lawyers from Austin represent McKee.

McKee was the first man to be sentenced to death by a jury in Dawson county. He also was the first man that the presiding judge, Gordon B. McGuire, sentenced to the chair and the first man that the prosecutor ever asked the death penalty for.

Tom Connally To Speak At Lamesa

LAMESA, April 21. (AP)—Hon. Tom Connally, United States congressman from Texas will deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the local high school May 15, which has been recently announced by Supt. V. Z. Rogers. The class this year is an exceptionally large one for Lamesa, there being about seventy-five students to graduate. The class in extending an invitation did so in keeping with the precedence of bringing out of town speakers and with the idea of securing a distinguished statesman for the annual affair according to members of the class.

DON'T DISSOLVE YOUR DOLLARS

YOU might as well throw money away as wash your lingerie and delicate colored print goods in the hot water that common soaps require. Perhaps you wonder how to get them clean any other way. Here's the answer:

White King Granulated Soap, made from the same sort of fine vegetable and nut oils used in salad dressing and other food products, will yield quick, rich suds, thorough cleansing, and swift rinsing in the lukewarm water that delicate fabrics demand. And White King's purity protects anything that lukewarm water won't harm.

White King solves every household washing problem—and it's economical. A teaspoonful for the wash basin, a cupful for the washing machine—plenty, even in hard water. Put it on your list for today. Sold by your grocer.

Heavy Decrease In Poll Tax Receipts In Dawson County

LAMESA, April 21.—There is a considerable decrease in poll tax receipts recently released by the tax collector, Miss Willie Belle Cleveland. This year 1854 polls were paid, last year 3,295 were paid, a difference of 1,441. This is due, it is reported, partly to the new law extending tax paying time to October 1, partly it being an off year for elections and partly because of the depression.

Band Concerts Will Be Given

Two Appearances Each Week, Sponsored By Lions Club, Will Be Made By Lubbock High Westerners

Two concerts a week by the Lubbock High school band on the courthouse square will be sponsored by the Lions club, it was decided at a luncheon meeting of Lions at the Hilton hotel Tuesday noon.

A committee was appointed to formulate plans for sponsoring the concerts, one to be given Sunday afternoon and the other on a weekday night. Chairman is W. D. Girand, credited with starting a similar movement which succeeded at Abilene. Other committeemen are A. M. Hill, W. H. Evans, Rev. J. O. Haymes, and Fred Litton.

The committee plans to present the matter before the Board of City Development for support.

Needs Stressed

Director of the high school band, R. A. Anderson, spoke on needs of the Westerner band, and explained that his salary and expenses were the only ones paid, and that students had to furnish their own instruments. Expenses of the band on athletic trips were paid by merchants and other interested persons or by members of the band, he indicated.

Mr. Girand and Rev. Mr. Haymes spoke in connection with the proposed band concerts. Value of a band as an advertising medium was emphasized.

The luncheon program included a playlet by members of the Akipsia group of the Campfire Girls in connection with the cleanup and paint-up campaign, and vocal numbers by John Cohen, who was accompanied the the piano by Alexander Bain. Mr. Bain also played several solos.

Policies Of Farm Board Are Rapped

BIG SPRING, April 21. (AP)—John O. McAdams of Winters, president of the Texas States Bankers' association, declared in addressing the South Plains Bankers association convention here today that policies of the federal farm board were sapping the life blood from American agriculture and are purely socialistic."

He asserted the board should turn its energies to creating broader foreign markets and more uses for crops rather than dealing with them at home.

McAdams declared installment buying in the last decade had created present-day problems of bankers.

Edwin A. Kelly, Big Spring utility manager, welcomed the bankers, with a response by O. P. Thrane of Snyder and O. B. Norman of Lamesa, president of the association.

El Paso And Hamlin Announce Directors For WTCC Meeting

El Paso and Hamlin have chosen men to represent them and to be installed as directors in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at its annual convention here May 14, 15 and 16

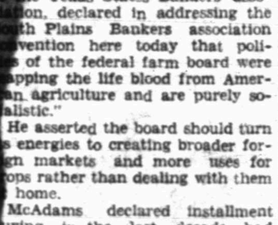

The two cities were the twenty-first and twenty-second to announce their directors. E. W. Kayser, L. E. Saunders and W. H. Peterson will be El Paso's directors.

H. O. Cassle will represent Hamlin on the regional chamber's board.

PREDICTS GOOD CROPS

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP) — M. H. Cahill, president of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas line, said today weather conditions in the greater part of the road's territory have been almost ideal for the last several months, with the result that prospects are much brighter than usual at this time of year for a large wheat and cotton crop.

Helen Keller, Deaf Radio Fan, Will Entertain In Broadcast Early Today

When Helen Keller tunes in her radio set she gets music through vibrations communicated through the tips of her fingers, placed near the center of a cone speaker.

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP)—Helen Keller is a radio fan and gets the full enjoyment out of microphonic concerts.

Despite the fact that she is unable to hear a sound she literally "feels" the music coming from the loudspeaker of her radio set.

She "listens" by placing the finger tips of one hand near the center of a cone speaker, the sound waves being passed on in the form of virbations. She is able to distinguish between classical and jazz numbers, and can keep perfect time with the music. Violin music is her favorite.

Apparently due to the fact that the vibrations of speech do not cover the wide range of music, she is unable to distinguish voices by radio, although she says she is aware of them through a blurred sensation.

Miss Keller, who also is handicapped by a lack of sight, soon is to have the experience of being a radio entertainer as well as a "listener." Although she has never heard her own voice, she is to address the audience of WABC and stations at 11:30 a. m. (EST), April 22, in the Radio Homemakers club.

She did not learn to talk until after she was seven years old, her first words being "It is warm." Her life-long instructor and friend has been Mrs. Anne Sullivan Macy. She enunciates slowly and distinctly, and is easy to understand.

The Scud, weighing 105 pounds and said to be the smallest glider in the world, made its first flight recently at Dunstable, England.

Plenty To Hunt

Spring Meeting Is Being Planned

(Special to the Avalanche)

CLAIREMONT, April 21.—An abundance of wolves and coyotes is assured for those who come to Kent county May 4 to 7 for the annual spring meet of the Fox and Wolf Hunter's association of Texas, W. W. Davis, county judge, announced here.

The program will be varied for the occasion. A bench show is to be a feature and there will be hound races and several night "free for all" races also.

Horses will be provided for those who do not have their own mounts but each rider is asked to provide his own saddle.

Ranchmen of Kent and Clairemont business men are arranging a barbecue for one day. A restaurant will be provided for the camp ground where those who care to camp may do so.

Jess Carter, Fort Worth, is president of the association and J. W. Elliot, Mexia, secretary-treasurer. Frank W. Austin, Fort Worth, is master of the hounds.

Women have assumed control of the local native retail business at several Gold Coast cities in Africa.

Attendance Group Named By Cities

In order to stimulate attendance at the annual convention of the Retail Merchants association, and affiliated groups, to be held here May 25, 26 and 27, a special attendance committee of 15 members of the Retail Credit Men of Texas, representing seven cities, has been named, according to advices received here.

R. E. "Joni" Jones, San Antonio, is chairman of the committee. Other members are:

Dallas—Chairman J. P. Oliver, Z. M. Hawk and E. G. Watkins; Fort Worth—J. R. Clark, W. H. Bailey, J. E. Phillips and Chairman E. G. Parker; Galveston—Chairman P. M. Gengler; Houston—Chairman Marley Styner; Port Arthur—Fred L. Davis and Mayer Blankfield; San Antonio — Chairman Jones, R. E. Seng, and William Holman; Wichita Falls—O. A. Buchanan.

Border Treaties Of Canada And U. S. Cuts Down Thefts

DALLAS, April 21. (AP) — J. Ross Moore of New York, manager of the National Automobile Underwriters' association, told the American association of General Agents here today that international border treaties between the United States and Canada had assisted in the downward trend of automobile theft rates. He said the treaties had made the theft of large, fast automobiles less profitable by depriving theives of a market.

He stressed the great need for standardization of automobile theft laws and vigorous enforcement.

Mayor Of Juarez Is Ousted Tuesday By Arturo Flores

EL PASO, April 21. (AP)—Arturo N. Flores was ousted as mayor of Juarez, Mexico, today by the counsel of that city. For several weeks reports had been current that Governor Andres Ortiz of Chihuahua was investigating political activities of Flores and might remove him. The governor previously had replaced several adherents of Luis Leon, northern Mexico political power and former members of the cabinet of President Ortiz Rubio. Flores, elected last spring by the Leon machine in Juarez, said in a telephone conversation from Chihuahua City he would return to Juarez immediately and would "clean up the situation."

Dallas County Grand Jury May Investigate Charges

AUSTIN, April 21. (AP)—Charges that he had received numerous forged telegrams urging him to support or not support certain bills, were made today by Representative Keller of Dallas, who said he was considering asking the Dallas county grand jury to investigate.

Keller said he had received hundreds of telegrams on the cigarette tax bill and the Trinity river conservancy district bill.

"I'm sick and tried of getting these forged telegrams. I am going to ask for an offical investigation and see if I can get some one indicted for it," Keller said.

And Proud Of It

Born with a fully developed lower tooth, three-weeks-old Virginia MacDonald, of Boston, proudly smiles so that the world may see.

Edgar Rites Are Read On Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. J. T. Edgar, 70, who died at her home 10 miles south of Lubbock Monday night, were held yesterday afternoon at the First Methodist Episcopal church, with Rev. J. O. Haymes officiating. Rev. Solon Johnson assisted in the ceremonies.

LONDON, April 21. (AP) — Great Britain today extended recognition to the new Spanish republic.

Alleged Owner Of Liquor In Canada

OTTAWA, Can., April 21. (AP) — Marvin J. "Big Jim" Clark, alleged owner of a $120,000 liquor cargo seized at Beeville, Texas, by United States customs officers, is being held the dominion government immigration authorities who said he may be deported as an undesirable alien.

Clark was arrested over the weekend and held for investigation because he was unable to give a satisfactory account of his business in the dominion, or to establish if his entry into Canada was regular and legal.

Unless Clark makes satisfactory explanation, the immigration authorities said, he will be deported to the United States.

Rice Woman Dies Of Burns Received In Oil Explosion

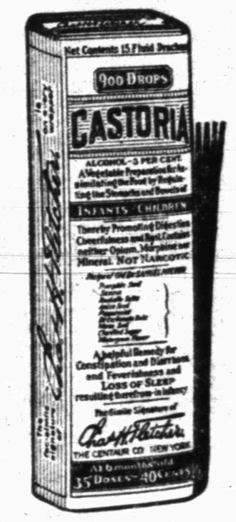

CORSICANA, April 21. (AP)—Miss Edith Ellis, 25, of Rice, died in a hospital here last night from burns received when Kerosene, poured into a stove to kindle a fire, exploded. Her brother, J. C. Ellis, was in a hospital in serious condtion from burns.

Funeral rites for Miss Ellis will be held tomorrow at Rice. Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ellis, six brothers and four sisters.

13 BILLS ENGROSSED

AUSTIN, April 21. (AP)—Before recessing until tomorrow, the senate today engrossed 13 local and noncontroversial bills. Too few members were present to allow suspension of the rules and carry bills along to final passage.

Can't PLAY
Can't REST
—child needs Castoria

WHEN a child is fretful and irritable, seems distressed and uncomfortable, can't play, can't sleep, it is a pretty sure sign that something is wrong. Right here is where Castoria fits into a child's scheme—the very purpose for which it was formulated years ago! A few drops and the condition which caused the trouble is righted; comfort quickly brings restful sleep.

Nothing can take the place of Castoria for children; it's perfectly harmless, yet always effective. For the protection of your wee one—for your own peace of mind—keep this old reliable preparation always on hand. But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an every-day aid. Its gentle action will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. In more liberal doses it will effectively help to regulate sluggish bowels in an older child.

All druggists have Castoria; it's genuine if you see Chas. H. Fletcher's signature and this name-plate:

"When I sell anybody on Germ-Processed Oil once . . . they stay sold!"

THE use of Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil becomes a decided preference once you have had it in your crankcase. Its value to your motor, and to you, is quickly demonstrated. You may never have need to call on it for the extra safety factor it provides. You may never drive fast enough to test its ability to stand up day after day at 60 miles per hour. But when your speedometer says it is your usual oil changing time and you find your oil in perfect condition for longer use . . . when your gas-gauge tells you that your mileage has definitely increased . . . when the space of time between added quarts of oil and between repair bills has appreciably lengthened . . . then you know that you were right in changing to Germ-Processed oil.

¶So many motorists have changed to Germ-Processed and "stayed sold" that it has caused a real stir in oil circles. Join these motorists in their satisfaction. Stop today at the sign of the Conoco Red Triangle and ask for Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil. All grades 35¢ per quart.

Texas Day Program Precedes Regular Session At Daleth Delphian Club

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

EUROPEANS seem to have a way of doing these things, but I'd like to know how people really feel who are betrothed in babyhood so that they have no choice about marriage.

There may be something in this American attitude of ours that would be different if we were accustomed to such things and perhaps things are just as happy and successful all around when papa and mama get out early in the infant's life and look after the little matter of assuring a marriage.

It is still happening. The other day over in Italy papers carried announcement of the engagement of Maria Trabalza to Enrico Solaro. The little girl is 15 months old and Enrico is seven months younger and, even in Italy, the incurable romantics shook their heads and said it was a shame to play such a trick on two innocent babes. While there were others who thought that it was a perfectly splendid idea because both are prize-winning babies and everything seems to assure comparative wealth, health and, if these things are contributing factors, happiness.

Yet, probably because most Americans are romantics, we are wont to query "And love, What of it?"

THE FLOWER EXCHANGE

MRS. HARRY MORRIS, 2307 9th street, would like to have some pretty chrysanthemums. She has some larkspur and flags to give away.

HEARD TODAY

SOMEBODY, I think it was McIntyre, said he didn't pay any attention to anonymous notes because the signed ones were bad enough.

Today "an interested reader" telephoned in with a strange voice to say she didn't like what I said about the Little Theatre play; she thought I was unfair to the audience and the players and "surely you forgot that it was for charity when you wrote what you did."

And I'm wondering what the significance of the charity clause was. My initials went at the end to indicate that personal opinion was being aired. Someone else, a man—name on request—thought I was generous.

Why look for perfection in amateurs? We enjoyed the fact that a leading character should burst onto the stage fully dressed, with the exception of his tie, as much as the Tarkington wit.

Had this been a note instead of a call, it would have gone into the bundle with my other three fan letters and the whole tied with a pink ribbon. I'm not McIntyrish.

MORE FEDERATION

THE OTHER day I washed my hands of the City Federation—my old promotion scheme — and here we are back to it again. The temptation is too great because Friday afternoon a meeting is scheduled.

We'd like to see you all out.

MAKING MY BOW

AND NOW, because I've just been flattered considerably, I'll do some glowing.

A. B. Mason brought in a "To the Ladies" by Alexandra Kropotkin, who is described as linguist, traveler, lecturer and authority on fashion, to say that it reminded him of this column. If I'm bareheaded the next time we meet, you'll know the reason why.

COMBATTING THE H. C. L.

HERE'S a meal that will cost you approximately $1.89 and will serve eight people—less than 24 cents per person: Split pea soup, melba toast, rice and meat loaf, brown sauce, carrot and cabbage salad, graham muffins, lemon bread pudding and tea.

The meal was cooked and served the other day in Washington to President and Mrs. Hoover, Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde; Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreth, chairman of the woman's division of the President's emergency committee for employment; Dr. James Ford, executive director of better homes in America; Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady, chairman, board of directors of Girl Scouts; Mrs. William Brown Meloney, editor of Sunday magazine, New York Herald Tribune; and Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the bureau of home economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Girl Scouts cooked and served the meal in opening the celebration of Better Homes Week in America and it was used as an example of how one might live on a minimum in an emergency.

George Boles' Ranch Scene For Gala Affair On Monday

Couple Celebrates Fortieth Wedding Anniversary And Friends Call As Surprise Courtesy

In celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary, about fifty couples called on Mr. and Mrs. George Boles at their ranch home Monday evening for a picnic supper and several hours of dancing.

The supper was served in the saddle house and hot coffee was drunk from tin cups. Lanterns were hung on the walls for lighting the room.

Later the group went to the main house. The cover design on the guest book, in which all registered, was the picture of a man and woman riding horseback across the prairies. Inside the fly leaf was a tinted portrait of Mr. and Mrs. Boles.

Durwood Bradley made the presentation speech when he gave the honored couple a linen table cloth and napkins, the gift of the group. Mr. and Mrs. Boles responded. F. E. Wheelock mad a talk telling of the early life of the couple in this section of the country.

Other special gifts included a set of glassware, the gift of J. T. Davis, of Sterling; a piece of silver from Mr. and Mrs. Edd McLaughlin and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dean, of Ralls and a bridle from O. L. Slaton.

Among the out-of-town guests in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Coke Fullingim.

The occasion also marked the brithday of Mr. Boles.

Three Young Girls Will Be Hostesses With Party Here

The A. H. Leidigh home at 2101 17th street will be the scene of a party Saturday afternoon when Misses Mary Virginia Ballinger, Kathyrn Barr and Katherine Leidigh entertain several of their friends from 3 until 5 o'clock. Games of bridge and forty-two are to be a diversion.

HARD WATER, PLUS MEL'O MAKES SOFT WATER

reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Such greasy hands!

Hard water won't clean them

HARD water can't do much with greasy hands. Of course, you use lots of soap. You try to get a thick lather. But the water is too hard; it combines with the soap and forms a scum. How can you expect to clean greasy hands in that water?

There is a way. Use Mel'o. Sprinkle a little in the basin. Water softened with Mel'o makes a wonderful cleaner, with or without soap. Soft water and soap and lots of lather; grease won't stay long on your hands. Get a can of Mel'o at your grocer's today.

Wrigley Wheat Buying Plan Scheduled To Be Extended

CHICAGO, April 21. (AP) — The gum-for-wheat plan of the William Wrigley, Jr., company's Canadian branch has been extended, it was announced yesterday, from May 1 to December 1.

Under this plan Wrigley organization agrees to devote the proceeds of the gum sales in Canada to the purchase of Canadian wheat at prices ranging up to 65 cents a bushel. Instead of limiting its purchases to 1,000 bushels as at first announced, the company is now ready to buy 2,000,100 bushels.

Wreckage Being Cleared Of Train Crash Near Escandon

MEXICO CITY, April 21. (AP)—Wreckage was being cleared away today from the railway line near Escandon, Queretaro, 80 miles north of Mexico City, where train No. 1 bound for Laredo was derailed yesterday.

Nine passengers, one trainman, and a soldier of the military escort were injured in the accident, which was due to a broken rail. All the casualties were Mexicans.

Representatives To Gather Here

Goodyear tire representatives from fifteen South Plains counties are to gather here Thursday in a sales conference and luncheon at the Lindsey Theater and Lubbock Hotel, L. E. Grimes, local representative of the company, announced yesterday. About 40 men are expected for the meetings.

P. D. Wimming, of Oklahoma City, branch manager, will be in charge.

The conference is to get under way at 10 o'clock with the showing of a sound motion picture, "Every Third Wheel," based on the tire industry, at the Lindsey. The picture will include interesting views of the Goodyear airship dock at Akron, Ohio, where the great navy dirigible is nearing completion. It will also show the latest developments in tire manufacture, accompanied by detailed explanations telling the why of every step. Professional stage talent is utilized in the picture.

After the conference, the visitors will go to the hotel for a luncheon at 1 o'clock. A short program is scheduled for the meal.

Anniversary Of Occupation By U. S. Troops Celebrated

MEXICO CITY, April 21.(AP) — Civic organizations and the military and naval garrisons at Vera Cruz participated today in ceremonies commenorating the anniversary of the occupation of that city in 1914 by American Naval forces.

There was no ceremony in Mexico City but the press carried items and editorials lauding Mexican civiliaris and armed forces who unsuccessfully defended the port against United States troops.

No notice was taken here of San Jacinto Day, anniversary of the battle by which Texas won its independence from Mexico. Although celebrated today in Texas most Mexican history books say that it occurred on April 22, not April 21.

Industry Day Being Planned

Lubbock Boys Will Visit At Least Four Industrial Institutions As A Part Of Boys' Week Program

Lubbock boys will visit at least four industrial plants next Monday, as a part of the observance of national Boys' Week here, J. T. Trigg, in charge of arrangements for the day, announced yesterday. Monday has been designated as "industry day" in the national program.

Tentative plans call for the visiting of the Swift & Company packing plant, Texas Utilities plant, Stanton elevator and the city light plant. Other institutions may be added, according to Mr. Trigg.

One group of boys, who attend school in the afternoon, will be conducted through the industrial establishments in the morning, and another group will make the tour in the afternoon.

Both groups will assemble in front of the city hall. The first tour will begin at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The second division will leave the city hall at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Several small groups will be formed to facilitate the inspection trip, Mr. Trigg said.

D. T. Jennings, scout executive, yesterday issued an appeal to every boy in the city to participate in the observance of "industry day" and the other programs of Boys' Week.

"We want every schoolboy in the city to see the industrial plants next Monday," the scout executive said. "Boys' Week is not exclusively a Boy Scout celebration. It has been set aside for all boys, regardless of whether or not they are members of Boy Scout troops."

Members of the committee aiding Mr. Trigg in arrangements for "industry day" are G. A. Simmons, J. A. Humphries, H. L. Allen, W. H. Rodgers and Dick White

He Shows you how to save Time and Money

He preaches a gospel of efficiency based upon facts.

JACK MARSHALL is, in his way, a wizard. Not that you'd guess it, of course, when he walks into your office in neat business suit and soft hat, and settles down to talk. His business card reads simply, "Commercial Representative."

But give him a chance to "wave his wand" . . . an opportunity to do things for you.

Then, as you watch sales go up and sales costs down . . . as you see shipping department and sales manager begin to purr happily together . . . you'll probably find yourself wondering what magic he uses!

TO MARSHALL himself there's nothing magical in his work . . . nothing of wizardry. He preaches simply a gospel of efficiency based upon facts . . . facts that are analyzed, weighed and sifted in a search for effective ways of saving money by saving time.

Follow him for a week. Go with him into stores, offices and factories, talking to executives, studying their problems.

Here is an industrial plant. He visits department heads, learns the type of work they do, studies their telephone equipment and the way they use it. Painstakingly he organizes the facts he obtains, pores over them intently. And always, in his mind, he carries this question:

"How can more work be done . . . in less time . . . with less effort?

HE IS EXPERT at getting the answer, for the basis of his "magic" is keen, sound judgment. He works with the knowledge gained from scores of similar studies, in many different businesses.

Here is a wholesaler whose salesmen today are covering more territory, quicker, at lower cost. Jack Marshall showed him how it could be done by using the telephone to "call on" dealers in the "in between" cities and communities.

Here is a factory where lost time, friction, misunderstanding between departments have been reduced to a minimum. Jack Marshall planned the intercommunicating system that makes it possible.

Here is an office, where a secretary is doing more work, and doing it more efficiently with a telephone "wiring plan" that enables her to handle all telephone calls without leaving her desk—a result of Jack Marshall's visit.

Here is a coal distributor* whose telephone brings a constant stream of orders from out-of-town dealers. Jack Marshall's analysis showed him how he could give faster service, handle a larger territory, by urging customers to order by long distance.

WHEN MARSHALL comes into your office, shakes hands with a smile, and settles himself to talk business, his mission is not to sell . . . but to serve.

Call him, if you like, a "service engineer."

His job is to find how the widespread network of the telephone system . . . a network linking your telephone with millions of others in mansions and cottages, stores and factories, throughout the city, the nation, the world . . . can best be used to meet your individual problems.

Day by day, in towns and cities throughout the land, he and his comrades go about their work. They plan telephone systems for factories, offices and stores. They show how these systems can be used to do things quicker and better, at lower cost . . . locally or by long distance. Alertly, efficiently, they bend their efforts toward the goal for which the Bell System is striving:

"The best possible telephone service at the least cost to the public consistent with financial safety"

*Our files contain letters from scores of men in different lines of business who have profited thus. We'll gladly show them to you.

Pennock Gives Up Seven Hits But Runs Held

Senators Smash Red Sox For 12-3 Victory As Marberry Pitches His First; Tribe Of Cleveland Wins

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 21. — The combined wildness of three Philadelphia pitchers enabled the Yankees to pile up ten runs in the first two innings today and then coast to a 12 to 1 victory over the Athletics. Herb Pennock, pitched a fine game for New York, allowing only seven hits.

Mahaffey started for the A's but gave way to Carter in the second. The second youngster gave four walks and a single before retiring in favor of Ed Rommel, who finished the game.

SENATORS MAKE TWO

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Walter Johnson's Senators made it two out of three in the series with the Boston Red Sox by romping away with the final game today by a 12-3 count.

Batting hard behind the seven-hit pitching of Fred Marberry, who was making his first start of the year, the Senators staged a form reversal to avenge yesterday's drubbing.

The home team clouted 16 hits, including homers by Bluege and Myer.

Two errors by Joe Cronin, Washington shortstop, proved costly.

EXPORTERS' HITS COUNT

BEAUMONT, April 21.—The Exporters again made their hits count against the Indians today and Beaumont swept the short series by taking this afternoon's game 4-2. Ray Fritz was the big noise in Beaumont's attack, getting a single, double and home run and driving in three runs. Sackett, Beaumont's only southpaw, started but was removed in the fifth when he developed wildness. A walk and two scratch hits gave the locals two runs in the first and they were ever headed after that. The day was raw and windy.

Army Tracksters Beat Aggies In Intramural Meet

In the first intramural track meet of the season, the Army thinly clads, coached by Rip Vinzant, defeated the Aggies, directed by Leon Fisher, by a score of 54 1-2 to 46 1-2 yesterday afternoon over the Texas Tech track and field.

Four campus organizations compose the intramural track and field lists at the local college, all track being limited to intramural games this season. The Liberal Arts team meets the Engineer tracksters next Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the second dual meet.

Coach Vinzant himself took high point honors yesterday when he won first place in the 100-yard dash, first in the 220-yard dash, first in the broad jump and placed in the winning relay team for a total of 16 1-4 points. Kuhn of the Army aggregation took second honors with 12 1-4 points and Matt Hitchcok was third high point man with 11 points.

Winners and runners u pin the various events were as follows: 120-yard high hurdles: Owen, Army; Hitchcoke, Aggie; 100-yard dash: Vinzant, Army; Hitchcock, Aggie; 880-yard run; Hitchcock, Aggie; McArthur, Aggie; low hurdles: Williams, Aggie; Sollis, Army; 440-yard dash: Moore, Aggie; Butts, Army; 220-yard dash: Vinzant, Army; Collins, Army; mile run; Dickinson, Aggie; Porter, Aggie; half-mile relay; Army, Aggie; pole vault: Kuhn, Army; Fingley, Army; and Campbell, Army; broad jump: Vinzant, Army; Kuhn, Army; discus: L. Starr, Aggie; Fisher, Aggie; high jump: Benn, Army Kuhn, Army; javelin: Fisher, Aggie; McWilliams, Army.

Southpaw Ed Brandt Allows 5 Hits As Braves Win; Jumbo Jim Elliot Pitches Winner For Phillies

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, April 21.—Behind the fine five-hit pitching of Southpaw Ed Brandt, the Braves defeated the New York Giants 5-1 and gained an even break in the four game series.

Lindstrom drove in the only Giant run in the first inning when Richbourg lost sight of the ball in a cloud of smoke from the nearby railroad and it fell safe for a trip.

Walter Stays Home And Bobby Is Retired

By CHESTER L. SMITH,
NEA Service Special Writer

This is to be a quiet spring along the British golfing front, with no Bobby Jones to confound Briton and fellow countrymen alike nor a Hagen to blow hot and cold shivers up and down the backs of breathless galleries with his capricious weapons.

Unless Jones has a complete change of heart, he is out of it entirely; Sir Walter is very positive in his decision to remain on this side. The two have accounted for six British Open championships out of the eight played since 1922, and without them the American invaders cannot hope to put on as colorful a show as before.

In addition, the Ryder Cup matches are to be played over here this year, so the greater part of the annual trans-Atlantic traffic in professionals will be east to west for a change. The American Open, at Inverness, Toledo, the first week of July will be the outstanding international battleground this season, instead of ancient Carnoustie, site of the British Open.

Six Ready to Go

At present, six Americans have indicated they intend to compete for the trophy Jones is vacating. Horton Smith, whose visits to old country links have been none too memorable, is to try again. Joe Kirkwood will accompany Smith, while Tommy Armour, Tony Manero and Al Espinosa are also planning the voyage. Mac Smith is already at Carnoustie.

Whiffy Cox, the seasoned Brooklyn, N. Y., campaigner, who has been coming along nicely in recent seasons, declares he too may try his hand.

Should the seven all be present at Carnoustie when the fight begins on June 1, the United States would have a formidable enough entry—although far below the power of recent years when Jones and Hagen were bulwarked by Johnny Farrell, Gene Sarazen and one or two others. The chances of keeping the cup in our possession would be no better than seven against the field, nor are

The NUT and CRACKER

By COL. JOE O'GOOFTY
One-time Big League Pitcher

NEW YORK, April 21. — Tris Speaker is going to broadcast ball games in Chicago, I understand. That seems to me to be quite an innovation—I mean having ball games announced by somebody who actually knows something about the game.

Maybe Speaker, with his wide baseball knowledge, will not try to tell the unseen radio audience that Lou Gehrig is the first baseman for the New York Giants.

With old Tris' judgment of fly balls, there's just a chance that he'll be able to tell the people a foul fly is a foul fly and not something that "looks like a homer, sure!"

There is also possibility unless Speaker learns the ways of the other radio announcers, that half the baseball broadcast period won't be taken up with such phoneys as: "My mistake, Ha, Ha, Babe Ruth was the man who caught that ball and really wasn't the batter at all, Ha Ha!"

The age of miracles actually may be near. If a baserunner is trying to steal second, maybe Speaker will wait until the umpire gives his decision and not announce that the runner is "out—no, no, Ha Ha, he's safe, He, He, He—well, well, no sir, by George, Ha, Ha, he is out, after all, I guess!"

There is just a chance also that Tris may be able to inform himself before the bases are filled that Rogers Hornsby isn't the runner on second after all, but that he's the next man up, and "let's see who are those runners? Oh, yes, Ha Ha, this is the Cubs, isn't it, and not the Notre Dame-Army game at that, Ha Ha!"

Champions And Runners Up Of South Plains Counties To Be Here For Annual Tournaments

Director Del Morgan Predicts Presence Of Nearly 1,000 Here Friday And Saturday In Track, Field And Net Play

The annual District No. 2 interscholastic league track and field meet to be held here Friday and Saturday looms as one of the greatest drawing cards for high school athletes of the year. Since all first and second place winners in county meets will be eligible to compete here, something like 1,000 individual track and field stars of the South Plains are expected.

J. O. (Del) Morgan, Tech assistant coach, is director of the district meet and will be in direct charge of the two-day gathering. All events, unless specified later this week, will be held over the Texas Tech track and field.

Unlike basketball district meets, in which only the county winners are eligible to compete, several athletes from more than one or two schools in each county will be included in the entries here. Ten counties will send their championship teams and in addition will be represented by individual winners and runners up from various schools.

Slaton, County Champs

Lubbock county will be represented by Slaton High school as the winning team in the county meet recently held here, though many athletes from other schools who placed in final events will be present. All of the Lubbock High school track and field men will be eligible to compete, though few of them placed in the county finals. Counties which contain cities of Class A high schools may be represented by two teams in track and basketball district tournaments.

Coach Morgan has announced the series of events for the two-day meeting to begin with preliminaries in boys' and girls' doubles and singles tennis at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Finals in tennis will be held Saturday.

Preliminaries Friday

Preliminaries and the rural pentathlon in track events will be held Friday afternoon, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock, Morgan states. They will include 120-yard high hurdles, 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, 440-yard dash and 220-yard dash. The rural pentathlon will be held at 2 o'clock.

Semi-finals and finals in all track and field events will begin Saturday afternoon at 1:30, running through 3:30 at which time the meet is scheduled to end. Track events scheduled for Saturday include finals in the above listed events and with the 880-yard run, mile run and mile relay included. Field events include pole vault, shot put, high jump, discus, javelin and broad jump.

Morgan states that coaches or athletes desiring further information may write him, addressing the Tech athletic department.

Fish Teams Win Intramural Games

Freshman Aggies, Freshman Engineers and Senior Engineers won the opening game of the week in the Texas Tech intramural basketball tournament yesterday evening.

In the first game, the Fish defeated the Juniors of the Engineer League, 33 to 9, with Stores, Owens, Cowan and McGehee furnishing the offensive lights of the day. None of the Juniors were able to score more than a single field goal. Stores and Owens scored four field goals each.

The Senior Engineers deefated the Sophs, 15 to 14, in one of the best matched games of the season. It was nip and tuck all the way through, a defensive game in its entirety, with Terrell for the Sophs and Worley for the Seniors breaking away for four field goals each to lead the scoring.

After trailing, 8 to 6, at the half, the Freshmen Aggies waged a successful comeback in the latter periods to defeat the Juniors, 29 to 20, in the most interesting game of the day. The offensive work of Aldridge and Copeland, each with five field goals, and of Harrison for the losers with five field goals, was outstanding.

Today sees four games in the Tech court. The Sophs and Juniors of the Arts league meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon, followed at 6 by the Sophs and Seniors of the Aggie League. The Y. M. C. A. and Band teams play at 7 for the Independent League and the Army and Bookstore of that league play at 8

Landis Wins Legal Fight With Player

Court Upholds Right Of Landis' Rule Over Bennett

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 21.—The first legal battle to break Kenesaw Mountain Landis' dictatorship over organized baseball has failed.

In the same federal court where the commissioner of bsaeball rose to fame as a "hard boiled" judge, he won a victory today when Federal Judge Walter Lindley of Danville, Ill., ruled he had acted within his rights in ruling Outfielder Fred Bennett a free agent and dismissed for want of equity a suit for injunction filed by the Milwaukee club of the American Association to restrain his power in the case.

"The court is of the opinion that the commissioner acted clearly within his authority; that Bennett should be freed from his obligation of any contract with either plaintiff; that the plea for injunction should be denied and the bill dismissed for want of equity," Judge Lindley ruled.

Arose Last Year

The legal fight, the first attack on Commissioner Landis' authority over baseball, arose last year when Landis demanded that the St. Louis club of the American League, part owner of the Milwaukee club to which it had sent Bennett on option, either waive Bennett to the other 15 clubs of the major leagues or release or sell him outright to any club not connected with the St. Louis club, Milwaukee included.

Phil Ball, owner of the St. Louis club and principal stockholder in the St. Louis baseball farm system, refused, stuck by the club's optional release of Bennett to Milwaukee and Landis then declared Bennett a free agent to contract with any team he saw fit. The Milwaukee club then pleaded for an injunction to restrain Landis' powers in the case and the court hearing was held in the Chicago federal court for several days last February.

Preakness And Kentucky Derby Favorite In Wins

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP) — The silks of Walter J. Salmon ruled the turf today as leader, candidate for the preakness and Kentucky Derby, and Dr. Freeland, winner of the 1929 preakness, came through with smashing triumphs in the feature races at Havre De Grace and Jamacal.

Ladder was asked to meet a small but select field of three-year olds in the Pagebrook purse and just managed to gain a head decision over George D. Widener's Panetian and A. C. Bostwick's Mate. Mate, third choice to win the preakness and the derby, got away to a poor start but at the end was full of run, indicating he would be a powerful factor in the $50,000 stakes. C. V. Whitney's highly regarded Magnifico, finished fourth and last.

Cleanup Work Satisfactory

Flower Bed Day Will Be Observed By Citizens Today And Attention Also To Be Given Gardens

Flower beds will receive the attention of Lubbock residents today if they are following the program mapped out by the general steering committee for the city's second annual cleanup and paintup campaign, which began Monday and lasts through April 30.

Today has been designated as flower bed day. The committee issued an appeal to home lovers to tidy up their flower beds, lay out spring gardens and do the other things necessary to assure attractive yards during the late spring and summer, during the course of the day.

Make Inspections

Yesterday, the second day of the drive, was front yard day, and members of the committee who made casual inspections in different parts of the city reported that the program was being carried out in earnest in most parts of Lubbock.

Although compilation of reports of inspections made over the eight districts Monday had not been completed yesterday, W. B. Atkins, general chairman of the campaign, announced yesterday that the preliminary work done around the homes was very gratifying.

Reports Filed

"In reports filed yesterday from two districts, only three yards were reported as unsatisfactory," he said. "Thus far in the campaign, Lubbock home owners have improved all parts of their premises, including the back yards."

Report sheets, to be filled by parents were distributed to school children Monday and yesterday. When grade and junior high school students return the completed reports, in which the parents record work done at home in connection with the cleanup program, buttons will be issued to the pupils. High school students also received the blanks.

Where Will The Money Go?

FROM all indications various and sundry revenue-bearing laws will be added to the Texas statutes by the time the present legislative session has ended—including acts estimated to bring from 10 to 20 millions of dollars into the state's coffers during the coming biennium.

If and when these bills are signed by Governor Sterling—as they appear certain of being—what will be done with the money?

Will the legislature, with added funds to work with, be more generous with state projects and institutions of the essential calibre—or will the present policy of "getting by with as little as possible" be continued?

To call a spade a spade. The Morning Avalanche is thinking particularly of West Texas and of Texas Tech. We are wondering if added tax funds, secured from West Texas, will be spent in West Texas and if appropriations sufficient to safe-guard Tech's natural, unhampered growth will be granted.

During the present biennium, Tech is operating on approximately $40,000 per year less than it operated on during the two years just preceding. From the looks of things at Austin, the biennium just around the corner may see a further slash in funds for the school——despite the fact that its growth is unparalleled. To give a more vivid picture of conditions, 17 appropriation requests made by Tech to the House appropriations committee have been cut to seven and at this writing it appears that the college must put up a stiff fight to secure its much needed library building.

Several of the revenue-bearing bills are obnoxious to The Morning Avalanche. "Squeezing blood from a turnip" has never been our idea of a laudable practice, even when done by law. But if the bills are passed and the squeezing process is begun, we want to see West Texas in general, and Tech in particular, get their just deserts when the pie is cut.

West Texans, we believe, want to know where this extra money is going, if and when it is made available. West Texans, we further believe, want no more than is coming to them—but will not be satisfied with a single penny less than they should have for public works and projects.

The situation challenges West Texas—and every man and woman within its far-flung borders. If extra money is to be made available, West Texas wants and deserves its full share—not only for Tech but for every other state institution and project in the section. The Christmas tree is trimmed and we want to be in the first row when Santa Claus hands out the presents.

Practical Health Problems

PARENTAL CARE

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

WITH THE advance in medical science and the gradual understanding of the importance of beginning care of the prospective mother well in advance of the time when the child is to be born, routines have been established so that it is possible for any intelligent woman to undergo childbirth with less difficulty and with less danger to her health than ever before.

Just as soon as a woman knows she is going to have a child, she should consult her family doctor and arrange for her care until after the child is born. A careful physical examination made early will permit the proper care of the teeth, the control of infections, the establishment of knowledge as to what is a normal blood pressure and a study of the heart and lungs which is absolutely necessary for safety.

NO DOUBT a doctor will advise the prospective mother as to the frequency with which she should visit him and as to the necessity of careful examinations of the secretions and the excretions. He will also advise her of the necessity of visiting a dentist at least once every month in order to protect her teeth from decay.

It is important to watch particularly the action of the kidneys because the first signs of danger from poisons, sometimes associated with childbirth, reveal themselves in the excretion of the kidneys.

The mother should determine very early whether or not she expects to have the child in the hospital or at home.

If the child is to be born at home, it will be necessary to provide certain equipment which is of the greatest importance in the prevention of infection and in the proper care of the mother during the childbearing process.

If she is to have the child in a hospital—more and more babies are being born in hospitals—it will be necessary to arrange for suitable accomodations well in advance and to determine whether one is going to have a private nurse or to make use of the regular nursing service of the institution.

FAR TOO often misunderstandings arise as to the cost of child birth because people do not arrange far enough in advance for the facilities that have been mentioned. It is quite possible for the prospective mother to have an estimation well in advance as to the cost of the room, the nursing service and even the physician's fee. If, however, these arrangements are left to the last moment and a clear understanding is not had, the expenses may be beyond what the people expect to pay.

The physician who is familiar with the patient's circumstances will be able to give good advice as to the kind of accommodations the hospital will make available.

Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Democrats who oppose the plan of their national chairman, John J. Raskob, to commit the Jeffersonian party to a "home rule" policy on the liquor question are not necessarily drys.

Some of them are, to be sure. Yet, even of these, by no means all are in favor of so dry a declaration at their next convention as to drive the wet element to secede. Equally there are Democratic wets who are far from willing to have wetness made an article of party faith to the extent of leaving the drys no choice but to bolt.

It does not follow that such individuals (drys or wets) are cowardly politicians," either. They make out a pretty good case.

THE TRUTH is that Chairman Raskob, while an excellent wet, has not been a consistent Democrat.

It is, according to his own account that he left the party because of his sound money principles, in 1896 (when he was 17 years old) and stayed out of it until Al Smith conscripted him in 1928 to run the Smith campaign.

Temporary as this absence was, it was rather long—maybe sufficiently so to justify Democratic old-timers in wondering today whether Raskob ever was much of a Democrat at all. Moreover, he admits having preferred Democracy's defeat in 1896 to the triumph of 16-to-1, which naturally gives rise to the query now if he is not prepared deliberately to hazard its 1932 chances on the prospect of prohibition modification.

* * *

IF IT BE a fact that Mr. Raskob considers any risk worth taking which offers the least promise of throwing an effective crimp into prohibition next year, then his staking of Democratic hopes upon that issue naturally must appear to him to be the proper course to pursue.

However, many Democrats of high standing feel otherwise.

To name a wet, I listened to Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts just before congress adjourned, in an eloquent plea to his fellow Jeffersonians not to allow a difference of opinion over the eighteenth amendment to divert them from the vital economic problems of the day.

Still more recently Senator Cordell Hull, from arid Tennessee, has warned against a Democratic split upon the wet-and-dry rock. "I am not discussing," he said, "the merits or demerits of prohibition. I simply point out that, good or bad, it was voted by Republicans and Democrats alike. Why should the Democrats alone insist on burdening themselves with the responsibility of dealing with it until they actually are in power, and thus in a position to do so?"

* * *

THERE IS no denying what the Tennessee senator says; supposing (purely for the sake of argument) prohibition to have been a mistake, it was a mistake equally by Republicans and Democrats.

In the south, truly enough, it has been a Democratic principle.

In the north, on the opposite hand, Republicanism traditionally has backed it, with the Democrats fighting it, as sumptuary oppression. In my own experience, in overwhelmingly Republican Iowa, I saw a Democratic governor (Horace Boies) serve two terms as a wet because the state was tired of the dry Republican regime.

AS DEMOCRATIC critics of John J. Raskob regard him, their chairman is wet all through, with possibly just a trace of Democracy.

They essentially are Democrats—wets and drys and various degrees and qualities of Democracy, but the main things that all of them want is their party's victory a year from next November. They do not believe that that is the main thing Chairman Raskob wants. They are pretty sure that the main thing he wants is to modify the eighteenth amendment. If he tries and fails and smashes the party irrevocably in the process, they suspect that he will not care very much about that part of it.

Does this explain the widespread dissatisfaction, in his own party ranks, with Chairman Raskob?

A "MYSTIC" CONFESSES

Unfortunately for the reputation of spiritism and for the faith of those who find comfort in it, the case of Nino Pecararo is not an isolated example of a faker turned honest at last and admitting his exploitation of the credulous.

The case is touched a little with tragedy, for this reputed medium was the one whom the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle trusted so implicitly and on whose pretenses the great novelist founded much of his faith in direct communication with a spirit world. The creator of fiction's most famous detective was apparently unable to find a flaw in the fabric of pretenses and trickery by which Pecararo kept the confidence and encouraged the hopes of his followers for 11 years.

The fake mystic repeated an old opinion when he said that "people want to be fooled." It is more serious and a little sad that such credulity is so often inspired by uncertainty, unhappiness and a profound need for some assurance in facing the trials and problems of life. The same sense of need leads many just now to consult with the cheapest sort of tricksters, professed readers of stars and palms and srystals, and others who claim to know by mystic means the incalculable events that are to come.

Nino Pecararo is no better than the shabbiest fortune-teller and is made no better by a belated confession of his epioitation of human weakness. But his admissions are a warning, though such warning should not be needed. If any one were granted spiritual vision or second sight it would be nearyl incredible that he should choose to make profit by such an endowment, either on the grand scale of the mystic and medium or in the cheaper fashion of the back-street fortune-teller or vaudeville performer.

And the public might be fortified against such exploitation by remembering the sound advice of Horace: "Cease to inquire hat the future has in store and take as a gift whatever the day brings forth."

Today's One-Minute Sermon

Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's free-man: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.—I Corinthians, vii, 20-22.

A THRILLING MYSTERY STORY by MILES BURTON

READ THIS FIRST:

Dick Penhampton, young friend of Sir Edric Conway, police commissioner, after the theft of the famous Hardway diamonds and the murder of Inspector Brooks is put on the trail of the gang headed by a person known as the Funny Toff, who no one has seen, but who is identified by his maniacal laughter. Dick, who is in love with pretty Alison Weatherleigh, has never told her of his dangerous mission. Dr. Weatherleigh, Alison's father, a collector of antiques, arrives in London, and Dick has been invited to meet him. Dick and Alison become engaged. The murder of a rival gangster, Herridge, whose body was discovered by Dick with one of the Hardway diamonds placed on the man's breast has been investigated by Inspector Pollard, who has been working on the case independently of Dick.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 22

"On Saturday Herridge stayed at home until about four o'clock, and then he went out and walked down to Jetty. Of course, sir, the place wasn't open, not officially, that is. But the house has a side door, opening upon a narrow passage that leads down to some steps. The landlord isn't above letting chaps in at the side door during closing hours, if he knows them and there's nobody about. The men in K Division wink at it, sir. It often comes in useful to know where a man is."

"Exactly," remarked Sir Edric with a smile. "Another piece of information I'm not supposed to know officially. Go on. Herridge, I gather, was let in by this side door soon after four o'clock."

"Well, sir, that's just it," replied Pollard. "My man, seeing him go down the passage, took it for granted that he was going into the Jetty. Naturally, he couldn't very well follow him, without giving away the fact that he was watching him. So he contented himself with waiting for him to come out again. He guessed that Herridge, once he had got in, would not come out again till the place closed at ten. But when ten o'clock came there was no Herridge, and when he made inquiries of the landlord, he found that he hadn't been inside the place that evening. Instead of reporting to me that he had lost touch with his man, he spent the rest of the night scouring round Wapping, trying to pick up the trail again."

"By ten o'clock, it would have been too late in any case," commented Sir Edric. "The medical evidence showed that Herridge was drowned between four and six. The natural inference was that Herridge did not intend to enter the public house when he went down the passage. Where else does it lead to?"

"Only the steps, sir," replied Pollard. "There isn't even another door leading on to it. The passage is about fifty yards long, and runs between the walls of a couple of warehouses. Sixty feet high, they are, I dare say."

"The steps lead into the river, I suppose," remarked Sir Edric. "Now, it was high water, we know, at about five on Saturday. There would therefore be a considerable depth of water at the steps at four."

"About seven feet, sir, I inquired on Sunday."

"Enough to drown a man in. We mustn't lose sight of the possibility that Herridge may have fallen in. Are the steps much used?"

"Very rarely, sir. A lot of barges and other small craft lie off them, but it isn't often that anybody lands at the steps themselves. It's easier to get ashore on one of the wharves on either side."

"Still it is possible that if Herridge had a rendezvous, he could have been picked up at the steps," persisted Sir Edric. "It seems to me, Pollard, that, as you suspected, Herridge knew he was being watched, and determined to escape from this supervision. He may have arranged with a barge or somebody—while he was in the bar of the Margate Jetty, probably—to pick him up at the steps and hide him for a bit. What's your idea, Pollard?"

diamond on his body, to serve as an

"I think it was the other way round, sir," replied Pollard respectfully. "This is how I look at it. The men who took the diamonds from him after the burglary in Woodbridge Square probably had their eyes on him, and discovered that we were watching him. There was always the risk, from their point of view, that he might recognize them and that we should overhear their conversation. They decided that it would be safest to shut his mouth for good, in the same way that they shut Brooks' mouth, sir."

"It would be easy enough to get one of their accomplices to offer to provide him with the means of escape. Herridge agreed to this and was picked up by a boat at the steps. He was then taken to the place where his body was found and drowned there. They wouldn't risk drowning him off Wapping, sir. There are too many people about."

"That seems very probable," agreed Sir Eric. "They then left the

By MARSHALL FORMBY, TECH CORRESPONDENT

GOES TO ANN ARBOR

Miss Hazel Gruver, newly elected president of the Tech Association of Women Students, left Monday for Ann Arbor, Michigan to attend a convention of the Interscholastic Association of Women Students, being held at the University of Michigan.

Women from all over the United States will attend this gathering. Her expenses are being paid by the Tech organization. She will return to the campus next week.

PRE-LAW TO HEAR TRIAL

A prominent member of the Tech Pre-Law organization will be tried in a mock trial tonight in room 302, administration building, at 8 o'clock. The jury will be selected from pre-law students.

Judge Alvis Ellis will preside, with Bob Taylor acting as prosecuting attorney. Garland Smith has been appointed chief defense attorney by the defendent.

Visits On Campus

J. D. Waller, who completed work on his degree at the end of last term, is visiting on the campus. Waller will receive his degree in business administration with other members of the senior class at the regular commencement exercise next June.

MID-TERM BEING HELD

Regular Mid-term exams are being held this week by all professors in the different schools of the college. The exams are one hour in length, and cover all work gone over since the beginning of the term. Reports are due in the registrar's office not later than Friday.

A record of the work being done by each student will be sent to parents. No grades will be mailed, but the report will indicate whether or not the student is passing in his work.

ATTENDANCE GOOD

"The attendance at the Wednesday night membership meetings have been extra good so far, and continue to increase," Jack Boyd, Tech YMCA secretary said yesterday when commenting on the recently inaugurated gatherings.

The subject for tonight will be "What can a modern man believe about Jesus." Dr. J. C. Granbery, head of the history department, will lead the discussion which will be held in room 312, administration building, at 7:30.

All students and faculty members are invited to attend, according to Boyd.

RECEIVES INJURY

Professor H. C. Pender, of the government department, received a painful, but not serious knee injury Monday night while playing volley ball. He is able to attend classes, however.

WRITES ABOUT TECH

Miss Mary DeBardeleben, Tech Bible instructor, has written an article about Texas Tech and its advantages in this month's edition of Epworth Era, Methodist young peoples publication.

The story contains many interesting items about Texas Tech which will be of interest to prospective students. Special emphasis is placed on the advantages offered by the Tech Bible department.

TO OBTAIN DEGREES

Twenty-five students will receive degrees from the school of home economics this year, according to recent announcement of officals of that school. Sixteen of these are to receive vocational home economics certificates.

Many of the past graduates are now teaching school in various parts of the country. Several of th graduates will teach next y few already have obtained

Cotton Quieter Tone Is Prevailing — Livestock Cattle Trade Rather Spotted — Grain Recovery Made Late By Grains

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, April 21. (AP). — A quieter tone prevailed in cotton here and prices worked lower due to unfavorable cables and to an easier stock market. Following an opening drop of 10 to 13 points, prices eased off a point or two more and then rallied 3 to 4 points on prospects for unfavorable weather including a cold wave. The market soon turned easier with stocks and before the offerings had been absorbed prices showed losses compared with the previous close of 17 points.

The market rallied a few points in the early afternoon and trading was quiet until near the end when prices eased off again making net lows 18 points down from the previous close and closed at the bottom with the general market showing net losses for the day of 17 to 18 points.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP)—Cotton was generally lower today under liquidation combined with some commission house and local selling which appeared to be inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, weakness in the stock market and the early break in wheat. There may have been a little buying on reports of cold rains in the western belt and prices were steadied momentarily by afternoon rallies in wheat, but the demand was limited and supplied on moderate bulges. July contracts sold off to 10.45 and closed at that figure with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 13 to 15 points.

The opening was steady 9 to 12 points lower in response to the weakness in Liverpool and the active months sold about 13 to 15 points lower under the early pressure. Offerings were absorbed by some trade buying or covering on the less favorable weather reports and the firmer tone in the wheat market brought in a little spurt of covering early in the afternoon when prices went May up to 10.22 and October to 10.34 or about 4 points above the low level of the morning.

Foul Play

for an ear disease by a Chicago physician, Mrs. Kelley said the name of the Chicago physician sounded "Ballinger." Three Chicago physicians named "Ballinger," "Ballenger," and "Hollinger," said today they had treated no patient named Holmes.

Directions Given

The man told Dr. Kelley the patient had a severe ear ache and directed the physician to drive to Davis' place, in a western residential suburb.

Mrs. Kelley said she demurred at his leaving the house on a stormy night but Dr. Kelley said: "I must make the call," and left his home in his automobile.

Mrs. Kelley gave the alarm at 1 o'clock this morning and a widespread search began.

The place selected for the abandonment of the physician's car gives foundation to the theory that the missing specialist may be in the hands of a group that has kidnaped several bankers and wealthy business men in Illinois in recent weeks. The Hennings district, where the car was found, is within easy reach of two bridges leading into Illinois.

Arrests in England for begging have dropped from 25,000 in 1914 to 5,000 in the last 12 months.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP)—Stocks weak; investment rails liquidated freely.
Bonds steady; rails improve.
Curb heavy; many oils at new lows.
Foreign exchanges irregular; Spanish peseta improves.
Cotton easy; lower cables and southern selling.
Sugar lower; increased spot offerings.
Coffee higher; European buying.
CHICAGO:—Wheat firm; freezing temperatures Kansas.
Corn firm; unfavorable weather southwest.
Cattle steady.
Hogs, lower.

Market Drapes Itself In Pessimism And Takes Largest Drop Since March

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 21. (AP)—The stock market draped itself in pessimism and took the largest drop since early in March — 3.3 points as measured by the Standard Statistics company's average for 90 issues.

At the lose, the market, according to that composite, was only a fraction above its year's low, although still well over the 1930 minimum. The rail group disappointed by breaking a shade under the previous bear market bottom, established last December. Weakness of the rails and of United States steel, which closed at 127 1-2, off 3 points net, had a market effect on the general list and prices labored through the dull session without benefit of an important rally. There was a slight upturn just before the close, but it did not hold. Sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

Absence of favorable news rather than the pressure of unfavorable news strengthened the negative attitude hld by the speculative fraternity. Rails reflected uneasiness over dividend safety.

MIDDLEWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, April 21. (AP)—Cattle trade around the eleven market circuit was rather spotted due to the uneven distribution of the supply. Packers at points having normal receipts were bearish toward any price upturns on fed steers and yearlings but several points had meagre supplies and reported unevenly higher values. Demand continued to center upon light weight fed steers and yearlings. Choice quality steers and yearlings at Chicago and Omaha sold up to 9.25 while at Kansas City 9.00 was realized on choice 1,058 lb. and 1,365 lb. steers. Three loads of good 1,196 lb. Colorado steers at Kansas City brought 8.25. Stocker and feeder classes held fully steady with choice light weight stockers selling up to 8.50. Aggregate receipts estimated at 33,700 were around 3,000 short of a week ago.

Hogs found a slow outlet at prices unevenly steady to 15 lower, some points showing heavier losses on strong weight butchers. The day's extreme top of 7.75 was paid both at Chicago and St. Louis. Total offerings were around 71,500 as compared with 69,991 last Tuesday.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, April 21. (AP)—1,100; rail hogs 10 higher; truck hogs steady; top 7.50; medium weight rail butchers 7.50; bulk 160-260 lb. truck hogs 7.30@7.50; packing sows 6.00@6.50, or steady.

In connection with the report of the city affairs committee of the national Republican club, which referred to what it called the vagaries of the mayor's private life, the Evening Post said a movement was about to block adoption of the report by the club. The document, which was signed by Alan Fox, stirred the mayor to call it "a shower of sulphuriated hydrogen gas" and "slanderous."

Newspapers quoted W. Kingsland Macy, state Republican chairman, as censuring the report.

The only way out of the difficulty, they said, would be through the call of a special session of the legislature to pass emergency acts. But Governor Bilbo was reported firm in his refusal to issue the call unless a majority of the legislators signed a pledge agreeing not to impeach him. So far a majority has refused to sign it.

Goaded by the situation, a group of anti-Bilbo leaders, headed by Representative Lawrence T. Kennedy, of Natchez, proposed a coup to defy Governor Bilbo by calling the legislature into unoffical session next Friday for quick action on financial measures.

the city of Spokane, Washington, spending the vacations in the university completing most of the requirements for a master's degree.

After the three years of high school principalship, he taught eight quarters in the Bellingham, Washington, state normal school in the science department. He also handled scoutcraft in this school.

Became President

Mr. Berg first became interested in scouting when he took his first principalship. At that time he was an assistant scoutmaster of a troop in the community. Later he was a scoutmaster and served in that capacity for three years. He was put in charge of training for the local council when moved to Bellingham and then was made commissioner and finally president of the council.

Mr. Berg's duties as director of volunteer training consists of handling correspondence and the development of training course for volunteers throughout the United States.

The scout leader has been interested in outdoor work during most of his life. In addition to hunting, fishing and general outdoor activities in which he indulged for his own pleasure, Mr. Berg at one time acted as guide in the western mountains. He has traveled in every state in the union except one, and in England, France, Germany, the Scandinavian countries, Porto Rico and several countries in South America.

Mr. Berg's visit to Lubbock today will be his first to the South Plains area as a scout official, according to Executive Jennings.

T. A. White, chairman of the executive board and president of the council, will preside at the meeting.

SEEKING REPEAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 21. (AP) A bill that would repeal all liquor enforcement provisions from the statutes if approved by a referendum in November 1932 was introduced in the house of representatives today by Rep. Robert M. Woodward, Republican, Chicago. A repeal bill was recently vetoed by Gov. Louis L. Emmerson who gave among his reasons that it did not include a referendum. Illinois voters last fall gave a 2 to 1 advisory vote in favor of repeal.

The uncovering of his undercover activities as an agent of the Federal Government resulted in Lawrence L. Baldesareli being put on the spot by gangsters at Denver, Col. Posing as a Chicago gunman, he wormed his way into the confidence of the most dangerous mob in town, and the work he did in this precarious position for six months helped to break up the gang. Baldesareli is shown in his hospital cot recovering from the effects of his "ride," and marveling at the havoc the leaden "moths" have wrought in his coat.

Grain

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 21. (AP)—Grains recovered late today from worldwide bearish effects of a lull given by rumors of a radical change in United States farm board export plans.

Helping to bring about rallies in prices was an explicit statement from James C. Stone, chairman of the farm board, that no decisions had been made in regard to wheat stabilization operations except those previously announced. He also denied outright that the farm board at this time contemplated any other action. Freezing temperatures southwest causing anxiety as to possible crop damage counted also as a late stimulating factor.

Wheat closed irregular 3-4 cents lower to 5-8 advance, corn 1-4 to 5-8 up, oats at 1-2 decline to 1-8 gain, and provisions unchanged to 12 cents down.

Precautionary measures for protection of Americans in Honduras were completed today as the revolt against the liberal government of President Mejia Coli Dres apparently subsided in all but one district.

The cruisers Trenton and Puerto Cortez, respectively, made speedy runs from Guantanamo, Cuba, reinforcing the cruiser Memphis, already at La Ceiba keeping a watchful eye on the nearby port of Tela.

Official Washington still was without any information to indicate that any of the 1,250 Americans resident in the ports of northern Honduras had been harmed.

Nevertheless American women and children were concentrated in the four forts, where American naval and merchant ships were ready to evacuate them if necessary. At these ports American protection also was offered other foreign nationals.

Three-Letter Man At The University

AUSTIN, April 21. (AP) — "Nona" Rees, who was found with a bullet wound in his head today, was a 3-letter man at the University of Texas where he was one of the most popular students.

Rees was quarterback on the Longhorn football team, and guard in basketball and catcher on the baseball nine. He wound up his athletic career last spring.

Rees was a member of the Sigma Nu social fraternity.

While a student at the University of Texas Rees was a member of the Friars, an honorary organization. In 1930 students picked him as the best liked athlete on the University of Texas campus.

It was in 1929 that Rees grabbed the opening kick-off of the Texas-S. M. U. game, and breaking into the clear, ran to the Mustangs' 20-yard line where he was dragged down from behind by Weldon "Speedy" Mason. In making the tackle Mason received a head injury which kept him out of school for several weeks.

speed of about 200 miles an hour—cut down to between 150 and 175 on a flight as long as across the Atlantic. The motor, with a supercharger, will develop 650 horse power. "The Spirit of St. Louis" had a 200-horse power motor and a cruising speed of about 100 miles an hour.

Sets Speed Mark

The ship, a cabin monoplane with stream-lined body, belongs to the Crosley Radio corporation, Cincinnati. Miss Nichols flew it a little faster than 210 miles an hour at Detroit a week ago—the highest speed ever officially recorded for any woman pilot.

Previosuly she had set one altitude record with it—a record which has since apparently been broken by her chief rival in records, Miss Elinor Smith—and had broken the transcontinental speed record for women, both ways.

The ship is equipped only for descent on land and will not be altered in that respect for this flight, it was said. It has a radio.

Miss Nichols has been studying navigation, one of her friends said, for some time, applying her knowledge on cross-country flights. She got her ground work in a course in astronomy at college.

If she goes, Miss Nichols will take off from Harbor Grace within the next month—the first woman ever to attempt a solo flight across the Atlantic.

Dawson County Grand Jury Returns Total 23 Charges

LAMESA, April 21. — The Dawson county grand jury in session has returned 23 indictments so the record shows. The grand jury has recessed until April 27 at which time it will convene again to investigate lawlessness in this county. W. P. Averitt, is foreman of the grand jury.

Sailors Wear Gas Masks Now

British soldiers long ago made the not altogether enjoyable acquaintance of gas masks, and now the sailors are wearing them as protectors. Here you see a gun crew of H. M. S. Repulse, equipped with gas masks, loading a gun during maneuvers off Gibraltar. All gun crews aboard British battleships must now wear masks as protection against bursting gas shells and gas attacks.

Society Woman Lands Swordfish

Lady Richmond Brown, right, can laugh at the doctors who 10 years ago forbid her lawn tennis courts and swimming pools as too strenuous. Today she is a distinguished archaeologist and explorer and spends her time in jungles of Panama and the tropics, hunting and studying ruins or fishing for giant swordfish and sharks that infest the South Seas. The noted Englishwoman is shown at the left, above, with a 25-foot swordfish she hooked in Panama Bay.

AMERICANS MOVED

TEGUCIAGALPA, Honduras, April 21. They were taken to Tela, now considered safe from the rebels since it is under the protection of the United States navy.

Counterfeiting Ring Thought Broken With Arrests Tuesday

EL PASO, April 21. (AP)—Two men were arrested and a quantity of counterfeit money and materials for making it were seized by secret service agents and detectives here today.

The men were seated on a bed with about $270 in dollar, half dollars, nickels and dimes pled between them when the officers knocked on the door and were admitted by a woman. The men offered no resistance. In another rooming house the same officers found some molds and materials from which counterfeit coins could be made.

Jack "Legs" Diamond Finds No Peace Among Catskills

CATSKILL, N. Y., April 21. (AP)—Jack "Legs" Diamond seems to have picked trouble for his neighbor when he moved to the Catskill to find quiet. The bullet-scarred gang chieftain was clapped in jail here today on the first definite charge made against him in Green county—that of second degree assault. The grand jury charged him and his gang with beating and torturing Grover Parks, a truckman.

MONEY RECOVERED

BRISTOW, Okla., April 21. (AP)—Police Chief W. H. Herman said this afternoon a suspect in the robbery of the Community State bank here had been arrested and was being brought to the city for questioning. Cashier Joe Britain, of the bank, said the greater part of the $3,200 stolen from the bank at noon had been recovered with the arrest.

MEASURED IN MILES

SUPPOSE for a moment that advertising didn't exist—that there were no trade-marked goods—that everything you bought had to be judged solely by its look or feel or taste.

Imagine yourself setting out to do the morning's shopping under such conditions. You'd drive down the street, looking in windows for the articles you needed—the blouses for Johnny, the half-dozen bath towels, the toilet soap, the ginger ale for tomorrow's picnic. You'd stop, ask questions, examine the towels, smell the soap, wonder if here was your money's worth or if you might find something better farther on. And though you followed this procedure mile after weary mile, you could never be sure.

Computed simply in terms of gasoline and tires and shoe-leather, advertising saves you a startling sum every year. And it you add the value of your time, the amount is vastly increased.

When you buy a product that is advertised you know in advance what you will get, how much it costs and where you can obtain it. That is why, in millions of modern homes, the newspaper advertising columns are a daily guide to purchases.

Read the advertisements in the Avalanche and Journal, decide what you need, then buy with assurance.

Let advertising save you time and money

Refineries To Be Given Aid

Increased Allowable Flow Of Oklahoma City Fields Will Greatly Aid Smaller Refineries, Reports Say

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 21. (AP)—Aid for small refineries in the Oklahoma City area was seen today in the increased allowable flow from the Oklahoma City oil field.

The state corporation commission issued an order late yesterday increasing the allowable flow 40,000 barrels daily to 165,000 barrels for the rest of April, and to 175,000 barrels daily during May. The order became effective yesterday morning.

During the rest of this month, the flow will be 7 per cent on a potential of 2,240,640 barrels, with the remainder of the total allowable to be made up by under produced wells.

In May the percentage will be 6 per cent on a potential of 2,548,489 barrels.

The new order was issued following hearings last week on petition by Otto Bradford, field umpire, asking that the commission fix the allowable.

At the hearings, pipeline representatives and crude oil buyers asked for the increase, basing their petition on an increased demand for the next six weeks.

Daring Bandit Being Sought

Second Of Pair Who Cut Hole In Cashier's Cage And Made Escape With Checks And Currency Is Sought

DETROIT, April 21. (AP) — Police were searching today for the second of a pair of daring thieves who cut a hole in the wire network guarding a cashier's cage in the city treasurer's office, beneath the eyes of three policemen, and fled with $3,000 in cash and $25,000 in checks yesterday afternoon.

Police said they had elicited from Theodore Crowley, 28, of Chicago, arrested a few minutes after the theft, a confession that it was he who took a seat on a stool usually occupied by one of three patrolmen assigned to guard the treasurer's office, on the second floor of the city hall, shortly before closing time. Pretending to read a newspaper, he cut a hole in the cage. As George Wienow, the cashier, stepped out of the cage momentarily, Crowley's accomplice, whose name police are withholding pending his arrest, reached through, scooped up the checks and currency and the two men fled in opposite directions.

A clerk saw the theft and gave the alarm. Crowley was arrested in a store three blocks away. He had neither the money nor the checks.

Police said Crowley told them his accomplice planned the robbery and wrote to him, in Miami Beach, Fla. They met in Louisville, Ky., last Saturday night and planned final details, police quoted Crowley as saying.

Major Shepard Is Released As Patient In Sanitarium

DENVER, Colo., April 21. (AP) — Major Charles A. Shepard, who was convicted last December in a Kansas City court of the poison murder of his wife, was discharged today as a patient at Fitzsimmons hospital.

Major Shepard had been in the hospital four weeks, after a stomach ulcer had caused a hemorrhage while the officer was on duty as a physician at Fitzsimmons.

Major Shepard is at liberty under bond pending an appeal to the United States circuit court.

Pedigreed Cotton Seed Is Purchased By Terry County

BROWNFIELD, April 21. — The county commissioners have purchased a car of pedigreed cotton seed of a better staple variety than has been planted in this county for the last several years and arranging to sell farmers on fall terms at actual cost but with a six per cent interest charge. Numbers of farmers have also purchased seed from other sources and it is believed that about thirty per cent of the acreage planted will be of an improved variety.

Miss Anna Lusk Is Named Postmistress At Dickens

By Staff Correspondent

DICKENS, April 21.—Miss Anna Lusk, well known young business woman here, who has been assisting her father, was named postmistress of Dickens, county seat of Dickens county, to take office May 1.

Miss Lusk succeeds Mrs. R. L. Littlefield, postmistress the past six years. During her tenure of office the office was advanced from a fourth to a third class postoffice. A number of rural routes have been established also.

One of the worst and wickedest cities in the world is Irkutsk, in Siberia. With a population of 120,000, as many as 500 murders are committed there every year. Arrests average only one in 50 murders and only one-half of the arrests are followed by convictions.

Hospital Meet Is Terminated

H. R. Fuller Named President To Succeed C. E. Hunt, Of Lubbock; Fort Worth Gets 1932 Convention

SAN ANGELO, April 21. (AP) — The Northwest Texas Clinic and Hospital Managers association closed its annual convention here this afternoon after selecting Fort Worth as the next meeting place and electing H. R. Fuller of Wichita Falls as president to succeed C. E. Hunt of Lubbock. Other officers elected were H. L. Barner, Fort Worth, First vice-president; E. M. Collier, Abilene, second vice-president; and directors, Miss Ara Davis of Temple and W. A. Jarratt of San Angelo.

Five Lubbock hospital executives and staff members were expected to return last night from San Angelo where they attended the two-day convention of the West Texas Hospital and Clinic Managers' association.

Members of the Lubbock delegation were C. E. Hunt and J. H. Helton, of the Lubbock sanitarium, and R. S. Williams, Mrs. Ruby Gilbert and Mrs. Edna Engle, of the West Texas hospital.

Mr. Hunt, president of the association, presided over the session. Mr. Felton has been secretary-treasurer of the organization for the past year.

Residents Of Cape Living In Fear Of Second Attack

PUERTO CABEZAS, Nicaragua, April 21. (AP)—Residents of Cabo Gracias a Dios (Cape Thanks to God) captured and looted a week ago by Nicaraguan insurgents, live in fear of another attack within the next day or so, refugees from the colony brought here by the U S. S. Asheville said today.

Of five persons brought here by the Asheville only one, Edwin Fagot, merchant at Cabo Gracias a Dios, was an American. Two were women, one of the four remaining being Swedish, tow Dutch, and the fourth a British citizen. A sixth refugee, E. C. Lester, former operator of the Tropical Radio station at Cabo Gracias a Dios, arrived in his own boat.

Two Banks Close; Third Remaining

KINSTON, N. C., April 21. (AP) — False fire alarms and soap box oratory were resorted today in an effort to halt a run on Kinston's one remaining bank after two others had closed.

The false alarms, rung in hopes they would distract a crowd of depositors gathered at the Farmers and Merchants bank, failed to draw the crowd's interest. Neither did the distant playing of a brass band which was brought into action.

Chamber of commerce representatives pleaded from soap boxes for the depositors to leave their money with the bank.

The bank was meeting all demands this afternoon.

The run began when the National Bank of Kinston failed to open this morning and an hour later the First National bank closed.

● STANDARD RATING SCALE for Electric Refrigeration

A new method of buying electric refrigeration on a lasting basis

Here is the way to get those extra conveniences and extra refinements in electric refrigeration that gladden your heart more and more as the years go by.

Read the Standard Rating Scale, and you'll understand why it is an assurance of lasting satisfaction. Apply the Scale to Kelvinator, and in just five minutes you will appreciate the fact that here is refrigeration that gives enduring contentment as well as lasting dependability. Come in and prove it to yourself.

- Is the refrigerator manufactured by a reliable company with proper experience in the electric refrigeration field?
- Has it plenty of food and shelf space?
- Is the cabinet itself well designed, sturdily built and properly insulated?
- Is there provision for the freezing of an adequate supply of ice cubes? (Quantity of ice rather than number of cubes, which may be of large or small size, should be taken into consideration).
- Will the refrigerator constantly maintain a proper temperature for the preservation of foods?
- Can the freezing of ice cubes and deserts be speeded up when the need arises?
- Can this extra freezing speed for ice cubes be had without affecting the temperature on the food shelves? (Too low a temperature on the shelves will, of course, injure food).
- Is there a place to keep ice cream, meat, fish, game, "quick frosted" foods or extra ice cubes indefinitely at a below freezing temperature?
- Are these various temperatures (a. extra fast freezing; b. fast freezing; c. below freezing for storage; and d. normal food preservation temperature) automatically maintained without any attention from the owner?
- Does the refrigerating unit operate often or infrequently? (The fewer "stops" and "starts" the longer the unit will last and the less it costs to run).
- How long will the cooling unit continue to cool the refrigerator even though the current is shut off? (Refrigeration should continue for 10 or 12 hours).
- Can the back parts of all shelves, even the lowest, be reached without kneeling or sitting down?
- Has provision been made for keeping vegetables fresh and crisp?
- Can the refrigerator top be used to "set things down for a moment" while the contents of the cabinet are being rearranged?
- Will the refrigerator add to the attractiveness of the kitchen?
- Has the experience of users over a long period of years proved the refrigerator long-lived and dependable?
