e age of 14 are either divorced or separated from their spouses.

The comparable national average is 53 per 1,000. In the West South Central States the rate is 55 and, in the State of Texas, 56.

During 1974, the figures show, there were approximately 970,000 divorces in the United States. That was 57,000 more than in 1973.

On the other hand, the number of marriages that took place in the year, 2,235,000, was unexpectedly small. It was the first time since 1958, in fact, that a drop was recorded.

The decline, at a time when the population of marriageable age was larger than normal, is attributed to prevailing economic conditions. Many young people have postponed their marital plans.

Because of the decrease in marriages and the increase in divorces, there was 1 divorce in the year for every 2.3 marriages.

In Floyd County, according to the most recent figures, there are some 210 men and women who are divorced or separated.

Many others, who were once in the divorced column, have since remarried.

In general, it has been found, there are about 2.5 such persons for every one who is currently divorced.

On that basis, it is estimated that there are about 530 local residents in that category.

Craig And Vickers To Play In Greenbelt Bowl

Mike Vickers and Mark Craig have been selected to play in the 26th Annual Greenbelt Bowl Game Friday night, August 8th, 8 p.m. in Childress, Texas.

Players are selected generally from an area from Wichita Falls on the east to Abilene to Lubbock and north to the Texas Panhandle. Game officials attempt to divide the players evenly between the east and the west.

The East won last year's game 33-24 and leads in The Series 14-9 with two ties.

The Whirlwinds will be on different teams for this game with Mike Vickers playing Q.B. for the East team, coached by Dean Slayton of Howard Payne, and Mark Craig on the West squad at tackle, coached by Buddy Fornes of Tarleton State.

Let's have a goodly number of Whirlwind fans in Childress on August 8th supporting these two boys as well as their Queen candidates — Sharon Decker and Karen Alldredge.

Lees Attend White's Merchandise Show

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee, owners of the White's Auto Store in Lockney, recently attended the semi-annual merchandise show held at the Statler Hilton in Dallas July 21-23.

The Lees were part of a group of dealers who attended the meetings and presentations of the merchandise lines for Christmas 1975 and the fall season. This year's show emphasized the new and exciting lines of giftware and housewares and all the latest ideas from the toy world. White's has recently expanded the giftware and houseware lines, and the toy lines are more complete than ever.

During the show, the Lees also received product sales training from company representatives, and were counseled concerning credit, service and advertising.

White's is a chain of stores with over six hundred franchise and one hundred and fifty company-owned outlets located in eighteen states spanning the Southwest and the southern seaboard.

Training Benefits For Vets

Many veterans of the Vietnam Era are eligible for additional GI Bill training benefits from the Veterans Administration, even though they may have previously used all of their entitlement.

Public Law 93-508 was enacted by the Congress on December 3, 1974, and provided for a maximum of 45 months training time for veterans. Under previous laws, a veteran was entitled to a maximum of 36 months training time if he was in military service for 18 months or longer. The recent legislation was rather restrictive, however, and is not applicable to all veterans. Public Law 93-508 authorized an additional nine months for those who were originally eligible for 36 months, and whose entitlement was exhausted while enrolled in a bachelor or other first degree program. In such instances, the veteran may use the additional nine months to pursue his degree program. This additional nine months cannot be used to pursue a graduate degree. If a veteran already holds a college degree, he is not eligible for any extension beyond the regular maximum or 36 months.

A veteran may use his VA educational benefits any time within ten years following his discharge or release from military service, if he was released since June 1, 1966. Those discharged prior to that date have ten years from June 1, 1966, to use their eligibility, which means that such entitlement will expire on May 31, 1976.

Greenbug Chemical Resistance Continues To Build, Spre

LUBBOCK, TEX. — Greenbug resistance to some commonly used insecticides apparently will be a problem in some areas in 1975, according to Dr. George Teetes, entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock.

"Preliminary data indicates Ethyl Parathion, Thimet and Diazinon have been effective in controlling greenbugs in the resistant area," Dr. Teetes said.

Dr. Teetes pointed out that in selecting an insecticide producers must consider several factors.

"First, the farmer should ascertain the need to control greenbugs. Only populations that have reached the economic threshold should be treated. Premature applications can seriously compound the resistance problem in the field," Dr. Teetes warned.

"Second, the selection of an insecticide should be based on results obtained in other fields in the area. In some areas almost all compounds remain effective while in other areas control may be difficult with any material," Dr. Teetes said.

Cost, availability and effects on beneficial insects and other pests should be considered in selecting an insecticide.

"The rate of ethyl parathion can be reduced in many areas to control greenbugs while sparing some beneficial insects but it has shown to stimulate increases in spider mite numbers," Dr. Teetes said.

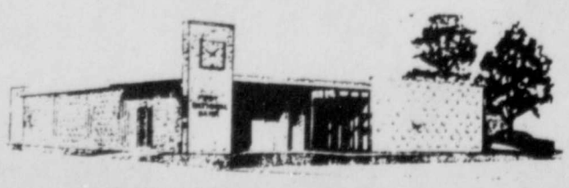

"Thimet can only be used one time per season and it has been a constant chemical for spider mite control," Dr. Teetes explained. "If it is used for greenbug control it cannot be used later for spider mites."

Dr. Teetes stressed that control from all registered chemicals may vary from area to area and from field to field. He added that test areas of small acreages may be treated

Judy Kay Dunlap 'Outstanding Young Woman'

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America Awards Program announced today that the woman named below has been selected for inclusion in the 1975 edition of Oustanding Young Women of America.

The Outstanding Young Women of America Program was concieved, and is today guided, by leaders of the nation's major women's clubs and organizations. The Board is chaired by Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

In every community there are young women working diligently to make their cities and country a better place in which to live. The national winners will be presented at an awards ceremony to be held this fall in Washington, D.C.

Our Board of Advisors and Editors salute all chosen as Outstanding Young Women of America. We take great pride in bringing their accomplishments to the attention of the American public.

Sheri Roberts, Jerry Miller Married July 5 In Farwell

MR. AND MRS. JERRY MILLER

Miss Sheri Lynn Roberts and Jerry Bralley Miller were united in marriage July 5 in the Farwell Church of Christ. After a wedding trip to Corpus Christi, they are at home at Second and Poplar in Lockney.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roberts of Farwell and the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Clayton, New Mexico.

The former Miss Roberts is a graduate of Farwell High School. She attended Lubbock Christian College and West Texas State University and is employed as a third-grade teacher in Lockney. Miller attended Clayton High School and Lubbock Christian College.

Bill Thompson, associate minister of Broken Arrow Church of Christ, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, directed the exchange of wedding vows, repeated before an altar decorated with a heart-shaped candelabra with white candles, flanked by tree candelabras and white wicker baskets filled with palms trimmed with large pink bows.

Music was provided by a group from LCC. Soloist was James Hobbs of Farwell.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Beverly Roberts of Farwell. Bridesmaids were Melody Sheets of Abilene, sister of the bride, and Kathy Hunter of Lockney, sister of the groom. They wore identical formal-length pink dotted Swiss dresses with deep ruffled flounces overlayed with wide white eyelet ruffle. They carried white straw baskets filled with miniature pink carnations, baby roses, straw flowers and baby's breath.

Best man was Chet Holden of Boulder, Colorado. Groomsmen were Randy Rowden of Childress and Bill Hunter of Lockney. Ushers were the bride's brother, Robin Roberts of Farwell, and Gene Sheets of Abilene, brother-in-law of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal dress of organza and cotton lace, featuring a high lace-trimmed neckline, empire waist, and a softly gathered skirt, with a chapel-length train trimmed in lace. The tucked bodice was accented with lace and self-covered buttons down the center front. The sleeves were short and made of lace.

The bride carried a nosegay of pink baby roses, straw flowers, miniature carnations and baby's breath.

The bride's table at the reception was covered with a white linen cloth. Punch was served from a milk glass punch bowl. The cake was iced in white and decorated with fresh flowers.

Shower For Miss Janice Roberts

Miss Janice Roberts, bride-elect of Johnny Wisdom, was honored Saturday afternoon, July 26, with a shower in the home of Mrs. Wayne Bramlet. Guets were greeted by Mrs. Bramlet and presented to Miss Roberts, her mother, Mrs. Roy Roberts, and Mrs. Bill Wisdom, mother of the prospective groom. They wore corsages of white mums tied with blue and lavender ribbon. Valerie Isom, a cousin of the prospective groom, registered guests.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dale Baker and Desiree Isom, a cousin of the groom. Lavender punch was served from a milk glass punch bowl. Angel food cake squares rolled in coconut, and blue mints, were served.

The serving table was covered with a white knit tablecloth and centered with an arrangement of blue and lavender flowers from the garden of Mrs. Frank Roberson. Blue napkins were used.

Miss Carol Bramlet assisted in displaying gifts. The hostess gift was Revere cookware.

Hostesses were Mmes. Donald Reecer, Johns Cox, Marjorie Martin, Tommy Montandon, Wilbur Mize, Bill Evans, Herman King, Ted Carthel, Glen Lewis, David Jackson, Ray Aston, Mac Howard, Earl Kellison, Wayne Bramlet, Keith Stansell, Ham Gammage, Tommy Joe Ward and Red Archer, and Miss Carol Bramlet.

HEAT, AGE AFFECT EGG QUALITY — Egg producers must keep a close check on their operations to protect egg quality during hot Texas summers. This means gathering the eggs more frequently and storing them at temperatures from 50 to 55 degrees F. Eggs should be marketed two to three times a week. If eggs must be held longer than normal before moving them into retail channels, they should be stored at temperatures in the 30's or 40's, says a poultry marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Food Preservation Demonstrations To Be Offered

This need has brought a renewed interest in home canning, freezing, and dehydration of foods. In fact, the past year or two were the first time there were shortages in freezers or home canning jars, lids and rings.

Also, there's been renewed interest on how to preserve foods for maximum flavor, nutrition and safety. Wish fresh vegetables in abundance and in Floyd County, Kathy, Connie and Sharon will be sharing the latest food preservation information to help consumers. The food demonstrations will be offered on Thursday, July 31, in the Lighthouse Electric Willie Room. Registration will be from 1:30 - 2:00 p.m. with a charge of $.50 per person to be made. Food demonstrations will be from 2 to 4:30 p.m. and will cover the following topics: Recommended techniques in canning high and low acid foods using the pressure canner and water bath methods; use, care and testing techniques of a pressure canner; problems in canning and common causes and prevention of harmful food organisms; food dehydration equipment and recommended techniques; recommended techniques in freezing foods, management, energy and selection.

Kathy, Connie, and Sharon invite you to attend an afternoon of learning and fun with food preservation! Come join us!

Sad to say, the word sad comes from the Anglo-Saxon word saed, meaning full or sated.

MICROWAVE OVENS SAVE ENERGY — 'IF'

COLLEGE STATION — Microwave ovens can add energy conservation to their "plus" lists — but only if they cook for five people or fewer, one authority says.

"The microwave oven cooks most foods in about one-fourth the time of conventional ovens — and that means a significant cut in total energy consumption," Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist reported this week.

Translating that into numbers, this makes an average energy savings of 60 - 65 per cent for a family of four, the specialist added.

Mrs. Chenoweth, a Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, specialist, also said that microwave cooking most food quantities for a four-member family actually saves from 50-70 per cent energy.

"Smaller portion sizes (cooking for one or two persons) makes the microwave oven an even greater energy saver.

"By contrast, for larger portions, the savings are less.

"In fact, for portions of six or more, the microwave oven offers little energy consumption advantage," she admitted.

Nitrogen Deficiency In Sorghum

LUBBOCK — Following the use of lower than customary rates of fertilizer under this year's sorghum crop, nitrogen deficiency symptoms are showing up more frequently in the area, according to James Valentine, soil chemist who heads the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's soil testing laboratory here.

"The best way to evaluate nitrogen needs this late in the season is the appearance of sorghum," says Valentine. "If it's turning yellow, it probably means nitrogen shortage.

"Lower leaves yellow first and when these leaves burn at the tips with a yellow or dead v-shaped area pointing up the center of the leaf toward the stalk, extreme nitrogen deficiency exists."

Valentine says nitrogen applied to nitrogen-deficient, irrigated sorghum can be expected to increase yields significantly.

"Rates of 40 to 60 pounds of actual nitrogen can take up a lot of slack," he adds.

If a ground rig is used the nitrogen, regardless of source, should be placed in the soil, preferably in the middles to avoid root pruning, the soil chemist explains.

Ammonia and nitrogen solutions can be applied through furrow irrigation systems, but the operator should be aware of the possible hazard of pipe scale formation when using anhydrous ammonia. Nitrogen solutions containing urea and ammonium nitrate have not been reported to cause scale problems and are ideal for use through sprinkler systems. Broadcast applications of solid nitrogen carriers can cause burning in the whorl and on leaves.

"Time is now a critical factor," Valentine emphasizes. "While profitable response from nitrogen applied as late as the bloom stage has been observed, the sooner it is applied after it is six weeks old the better."

Pack Rattlesnake Bite In Ice

SAN ANTONIO — When a rattlesnake strikes, pack the bite with ice.

Contradicting presently recommended methods, this snakebite first aid advice for laymen comes from a San Antonio physician and surgeon, who has studied the causes and effects of venomous viper bites for the past 15 years.

Based on his own experiences in treating more than 200 snakebite victims, Dr. Thomas G. Glass, Jr., contends cold ice packs and construction bands are far safer and more practical first aid measures than the more drastic "cut and suck" method, which has been widely used in Texas Since early frontier times.

A clinical professor of surgery at San Antonio's University of Texas Medical School, Dr. Glass claims the presently advocated one-quarter inch long and one-eighth inch deep cross cuts are ineffective when the venom has been deeply injected into the muscle, and unnecessary when the victime receives no venom at all, which occurs in three cases out of ten, according to his studies.

Dr. Glass doubts cutting is beneficial in any case, except with professional guidance, and argues that the laymen's chances of cutting a nerve, artery or tendon are too risky to be undertaken at all, and can cause greater harm than the snakebite itself.

Instead, he suggests that for any venomous bite, whether from a rattlesnake, cottonmouth, copperhead or coral snake, the layman should (1) apply constriction bands lightly both above and below the bite, where possible; (2) place crushed ice in plastic bags over the bite area to cool the venom and slow down its movement to other parts of the body, and (3) remove the victim to a medical facility in a rapid and safe manner.

San Antonio's Emergency Medical Services was among the first to adopt Dr. Glass' first aid techniques with EMS technicians now carrying constriction bands and chemical ice packs in their ambulances as standard equipment.

Based on his recommendations, San Antonio's Amerex Laboratories had developed a first aid kit, appropriately named, "Snakebite Freeze", which can be stored and used where ice is not always readily available.

The kit contains two plastic bags of non-toxic, non-caustic chemicals, that are activated by squeezing an inner bag, producing "instant" cold down to an estimated 18 degrees. The kit comes with two constriction bands and a neoprene insulated wrapper for holding the ice pack in place.

To clear up what he terms the "public's unwarranted and needless fears and lack of understanding of snakebites", Dr. Glass has published a 26-page booklet, "First Aid for Snakebite," in which he explains the first aid measures laymen can safely undertake.

The booklet distinguishes between the first aid, which Dr. Glass describes as the care given the victim at the scene of the bite, and the treatment, which he explains, is the attention and care the victim receives after arriving at a hospital or other medical facility.

Information on obtaining a copy of Dr. Glass' booklet or the Snakebite aid kit is writing Amerex Laboratories, 307 E. Antonio, Tex.

The Floyd Philosopher Defies People Who Say America Has Lost It's Influence Abroad

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes to the defense of the United States this week, more or less.

Dear editor:

A lot of talk has been going on lately over the United States' standing in the world. Some people are saying that we've lost our influence, that other nations no longer respect us, that the world's regard for our vaunted power has dropped, that our voice in the councils of the world has no more authority than a Justice of the Peace trying to over-rule a decision by the Supreme Court, even if he might be right.

I don't know how much authority we have left, but I want to challenge the notion that we've lost our influence. Lots of foreign countries are still learning from us.

For example, lately it has been revealed that government and political parties in other countries have been getting huge donations running into the millions and millions of dollars from American companies doing business over there.

Where do you think those c idea? You know they looked here, if the Republican and D ties in the U.S. can extract vas from big corporations, let's ge

And the big companies, w trouble buying bananas etc., or wanting to sell hardware or chewing gum grain or whatnot overseas, donate a little something to both parties, or all three or however many you have, just stays on our side.

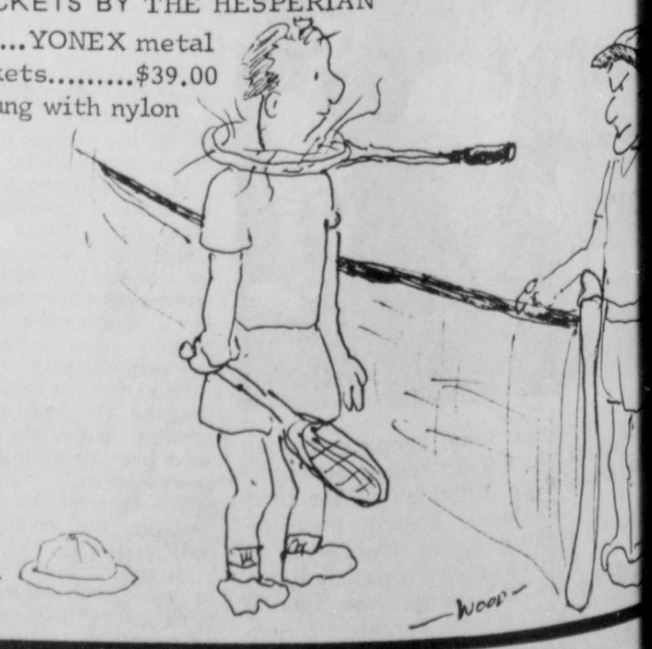

Who says other countries by what we do in the U.S.?

Of course, I have a corporations wish those fo would follow us a little closer to just two parties. Donating can run into big money.

enjoyed spending the rest of the day, going through all the park, and taking the rides. Much rain has fallen down there the past week.

Mrs. Rogene Bethel of South Plains was honored with a layette shower in the home of Mrs. Hansel Sanders, north of town, on Saturday afternoon, July 19, at 2:30 p.m.

Hostesses for the party were Mmes. Mark Sanders, Raymond Upton, Elmo Reves, Dean Stewart, Ursel Taylor, I.H. Parks, Ira Clower, Harry Hartman, Larry Collis, and Mrs. Hansel Sanders. Their gift was a car seat in leather.

The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth, using blue and yellow ribbons, and was centered with a bootee planter, holding ivy and yellow daisies. Punch, white cake, decorated with blue rattles, and mints and nuts in white baskets in blue and yellow was served, using crystal appointments. Mrs. Hansel Sanders and Mrs. Mark Sanders presided at the serving area. Guests registered in a guest book given Mrs. Bethel by Mrs. Hansel Sanders.

Center News

By Mrs. J.E. Green

We had to skip the Center News last week because I was out of town early Monday. While we were gone I see we had some nice showers or rain.

Miss Francis Ashton of New York City spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ashton. The son, Bobby Ashton, and children of League City, came a week earlier.

Miss Vera Meredith spent Friday night with Bro. and Mrs. Clay Muncy of Lockney Saturday Mrs. Maudell Meredith and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers and baby all of Plainview arrived to spend the day.

Mrs. Ava Jackson and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wright of Rotan, were in Amarillo for the weekend. They attended the wedding of her grandson, Larry Carroll to Kathy Hogan Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Leo Frizzell had dinner Sunday with Mrs. Ethel Frizzell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Spence were with the group of senior citizens who went to Lubbock, Wednesday, July 23, for a treck through the museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spence have returned from a two weeks' vacation in Colorado.

At the Green home: Saturday, July 19th (our Margaret) Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Ryman Jr. and family arrived from Hubbard. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Victor Green, Plainview, came for a short visit. And early Monday Ma Green joined the group as they proceeded on their way on their vacation in the mountains. First stop was at the Clyde Greens at Peralta, N. Mexico, where all spent the night.

The next day the Rymans went north to some Colorado mountains, returning Friday morning where the rest made up the caravan for the camping trip to Bear Trap Canyon in southwest New Mexico — beautiful country — wide green plains and national forest, tall, rugged mountain country (where we plains people held our breath as we traversed the precipitous mountain roads and "hair pin turns"). A late dinner found us around a campfire — 160 miles from Peralta. (When you are camping out in the mountains be sure to take plenty of cover.)

There were a variety of expereiences. By Saturday afternoon all the conveyances were on their way home — all in different directions. Part of the Rymans went by Big Springs for a short visit. The big girls and baby Beth came by Floydada to drop me off Sunday afternoon, then on to Hubbard.

Thursday we enjoyed a visit from J.B. and Maurine Jordan of Albuquerque. We hope to see them at the Center Homecoming Labor Day weekend. Maurine looked fine after having two stays in the hospital.

Mrs. Paul Stout and children of Quitaque were here one day visiting her home folks, the Thomas Warrens, and other relatives. The Thomas Warrens spent the weekend visiting their son, Edwin, in Hico.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch of Lubbock spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas, and helped the mother celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. W.. C. Plumlee had visiting over the weekend their son, Charles, and wife, and Charles' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, and baby, all from California; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Robertson and son and daughter of Flint Michigan; and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hinds, Plainview.

The revival at Calvary Baptist Church is in progress. The evangelist is Bro. Jim Ritter of Anton. Everyone is invited to hear the good preaching and music and be part of the fellowship. Noon services begin 11:30 a.m., evening services at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Vinson is still visiting in the great northwest.

We all so regret the passing of one of our former member of Calvary Church, Mrs. Audrey Nelson of Dimmitt.

Those visiting in Plainview at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nelson July 19 were Mrs. B. M. (Opal) Higgins of San Diego, California; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pillow, Greg and Bryan of Hale Center; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lee Honston, Allen, JoAnna and Beverly of Springtown; Mr. and Mrs. Alden Carthel and Nelson of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Baker, Lois and Audry Jo of Ft. Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson of Borger; Mrs. Wayne Brown and Debbie and Sandy of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Nelson of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Klyce Ooley of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ooley and Tonya of Providence; Miss Alma Ruth Nelson of Floydada; and Carl Nelson of Dimmitt, husband of Mrs. Audrey Nelson. All were here for the funeral of Mrs. Audry Nelson of Dimmitt.

From San Antonio

Ann Campbell and Clay Hamilton have just returned from the 3rd Annual Texas State 4-H Congress, this year held in San Antonio, July 15-18.

Ann and Clay were the two 4-H delegates picked from Floyd County to attend this 4-H meeting together with some 600 other young 4-H leaders from all over the state of Texas. The theme of this year's 4-H Congress was "Our Texas Cultural Heritage."

Ann and Clay left for San Antonio early Tuesday, July 15th, at one o'clock from the Lubbock Bus Station. That evening started off with a General Assembly and a speaker. The speaker was Dr. Thomas S. Haggai, who gave a rousing speech on the meaning of cultures. The evening was concluded with a get acquainted party and dance.

Wednesday began with a speech from Dr. Haskell M. Monroe on Histories' Legacy and followed with personal heritage discussion groups.

Following the speech, the delegates took a walking tour to the Alamo and to the Texas Cultural Center.

Sunflower Crop Beginning To Mature

LUBBOCK — Sunflower crops across the High Plains are taking a final bow, marking the end of the bloom period. The worst seems to be over.

All that remains now is a period of grain filling and the harvesting operation, says Dr. James Supak, area agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. But farmers will have to be careful not to stop plant growth too quickly with harvest-aid chemcials because it could have a drastic effect on seed yields.

"These producers did an excellent — almost unbelievable — job of establishing and maintaining a crop that most had never even considered growing until about seven months ago," Supak says.

"Planting rates and plant populations worked out satisfactory for most producers. The crop made excellent growth and weed control in most instances was not a serious problem. Due to favorable rainfall, even the dryland plantings never really stressed for moisture in most areas."

Supak says the dreaded carrot beetle infestations which were expected never materialized, and although pressure from the sunflower moth was terrific, most producers managed to control the pest with minimal crop damage.

"There is still some concern regarding a possible outbreak of diseases such as rust, but the pathologists feel that the early planted crop has a good chance of escaping any serious damage," he adds.

One of the most important considerations now is the length of the grain filling and curing periods. The agronomist observes that with the cool, damp weather now prevailing on the High Plains it will take four to six weeks after completion of bloom for seed to reach full maturity.

By that time, he points out, the back of the head and stalk should be lemon yellow in color and most of the leaves will be dead or appear to be dying. The triangular shaped bracts on the outer edge of the head will be brown or turning brown and the seed in the center of the head will be black in color and quite firm.

When these characteristics are noted, the seed is mature but the fleshy head base (which when cut open with a knife looks somewhat like a sponge) will not be sufficiently dry for combining. To avoid adding high-moisture foreign matter to the seed during the combinging operation, the head base must be dry, Supak cautions.

Several weeks may be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is rush the final drying process through the use of a harvest-aid chemical.

"Unfortunately, at this time (July 25) none of the available harvest-aid chemicals are cleared for use on sunflowers, Supak reports. Efforts are underway by the agricultural chemical industry, producer groups and public institutions to obtain a label for at least one such chemical by the time it is needed in the field. The establishment of a federal residue tolerane level for this harvest-aid chemical has senatorial priority in Washington and industry spokesmen are hopeful this petition will be acted on shortly."

Once a harvest-aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in 7 to 10 days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available, because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss to shattering and bird feeding.

The harvest-aid chemical that will be used on sunflowers is a non-selective desiccant. That is, it will kill any plant tissue it contacts including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields. Chemical drift is a potentially serious problem, Supak says.

ment of $10,000 / $20,000 / $5,000, then the DPS must require the uninsured motorist believed at fault to satisfy the security provisions of the law. This may be done in one of the following ways:

—By submitting a written release signed by the other damaged parties.

—By filing an installment agreement made with the other damaged parties involved.

—By depositing security in a sufficient amount to take care of damages sustained by others and maintain proof of financial responsibility for a period of five years from the date of the accident.

—By filing copies of civil damage judgement obtained against other parties involved in the accident, or a judgement of non-liability.

When the security provisions of the law are not satisfied by the uninsured owners and operators, and the DPS determines there is "a reasonably probability of judgement" against such persons, the following provsions of the law become applicable:

—A written notice of future driver license and motor vehicle registration suspension must be forwarded to such persons by certified mail. Such a notice will advise that a hearing will be granted upon request.

—Upon receipt of a request for hearing, the DPS will notify the persons requesting same to appear before the traffic court judge in their precinct of residence, and it will become the responsibility of the traffic court judge to determine whether or not there is "a reasonable probability of judgement" and, if so, the amount of security to be deposited with DPS by the uninsured persons.

—Any suspension invoked by the DPS in motor vehicle accident cases of this type will be stayed by a request for hearing until such time as the matter is finally resolved through administrative hearing or the courts.

Speir said the new law was enacted to enable Texas to comply with a U.S. Supreme Court decision. The decision had invalidated portions of the previous Texas Safety Responsibility Law because of a lack of "due process" provisions in the old law.

Speir said the new law was signed by the Governor on June 20, and uninsured motorists involved in accidents since June 21 can be affected by its provisions.

Until I became interested in sailing, I thought boats simply drifted with the wind. It hadn't occurred to me that few sailors would ever reach port in this manner.

And before I became earnest about church, I thought people's lives—their joys and disappointments, their achievements and failures—were largely a result of fate or fortune. Luck would long ago have replaced religion if this were true.

Now I know the thrill of sailing into the wind. Sure, tacking to port or starboard requires a zigzag course, and when your craft heels over at that precarious angle, it takes skill to control her. But that's part of the adventure—making headway against a strong wind.

Now, too, I know the thrill of believing in God . . . of setting a goal, of relying on His power, of devoting myself to reaching the destination. Making headway against adverse winds heels us over—but it's part of the adventure of being a Christian today.

Fairview News

By Mrs. Clyde Bagwell

Parts of Fairview that had not had much rain this spring and summer received over 2 in. during the last week. The driest part of the community has been in the north portion and Mrs. Clinton reports over 3 inches of rain at their place. Mrs. Ray Cook reports 2½ inches there. Mrs. A. S. Mize said they had 1 9/10ths inches of rain.

Our heartfelt sympathy is with Mrs. C. H. Wise and her family, at the passing of her mother, Mrs. Ella Lawhon of Paducah, who passed away Tuesday, July 22, at Richards Memorial Hospital in Paducah. Mrs. Lawhon was 89 years of age. At one time Mrs. Lawhon made her home here with her daughter, Mrs. Wise. Several years ago she moved to Paducah and resided in the Golden Age Home there.

Mona Dell Wise of Amarillo came Wednesday afternoon to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wise. She and her mother went to Paducah where they spent Wednesday night. Thursday morning C. H. Wise and son, Charles Denton Wise, went to Paducah, all attended funeral services for Mrs. Wise's mother, Mrs. Ella Lawhon. Services were held at First Baptist Church in Paducah, Thursday. Burial was at Crowell Cemetery.

Wise home during the week were Benton Richey, Lubbock; Mrs. Clyde Bagwell; Mrs. H. E. Woodson; Mrs. Judy Forbes and children; Mrs. Mabel Hatley; and Mrs. Ray Odgen,; Mrs. Mabel Foster and Miss Delzie Bradford.

Sunday all of the above and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mike and Norman went to Lubbock where they attended the Austin family reunion held at Mackenzie Park Terrace. All of the Austin children were present except Vern Austin of Mena Arkansas, who was unable to attend.

There were around 60 family members present.

Mrs. T. L. Perry returned home Monday from Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, where she has been at the bedside of her husband, who underwent surgery Tuesday. Mrs. Perry reports her husband getting along fine.

Mrs. Walton Wilson visited Mrs. Clyde Bagwell Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Warren visited in Lockney Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clarkston.
