Silent Crowds Greet Red Boss In New York

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

NEW YORK (AP) —Nikita S. Khrushchev hit the big town today in brisk, sunny weather, expressing hope a bright sun always would shine on Soviet - American relations.

The Soviet Premier's deluxe special train from Washington pulled into this city of teeming millions at 11:54 a.m. on the second leg of his epochal tour of the United States.

Pennsylvania station, where the train arrived, swarmed with police and security agents. So did every other strategic spot on the fast-paced itinerary laid out for the boss of world communism.

A crowd of more than 2,000 was on hand outside the terminal on Seventh avenue, waiting for a glimpse of the bouncy visitor from Moscow.

The Soviet boss was greeted by Richard C. Patterson, commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Public Events, who is the city's official greeter. The welcome took place in the terminal's baggage room.

As a motorcade with the Khrushchev party and city officials sped off uptown for the Waldorf - Astoria Hotel, big crowds, silent and unexcited, gathered behind barricades for a glimpse.

As it had been in Washington, the crowd reaction in New York was largely one of silent curiosity. There was little in the way either of applause or demonstrations, at least at the start.

Most were disappointed. There was little to see. The motorcade did not stop at the Waldorf, but turned around at that point and headed back downtown toward the Commodore Hotel, scene of Mayor Robert Wagner's luncheon for the visitor.

The Waldorf will be Khrushchev's headquarters for his stay in the city.

Khrushchev expressed his hope for sunny Soviet-American weather just before his special train left Washington at 8:21 a.m.

In his luggage, Khrushchev may have a surprise for the United Nations here. He had announced in Washington the Soviet Union was about to propose something new on disarmament. And at the United Nations, U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter laid down on behalf of the United States a broad program designed to end East-West tension through peaceful exchange in the political, military and economic fields.

In Washington President Eisenhower told his news conference he had found Khrushchev's manner and deportment an indication the Soviet premier really was trying to reach agreement regarding international problems.

At his first meeting with newsmen since Khrushchev arrived, the President was asked if he noted any real evidence that the Soviet Union might have changed its position on international issues.

The President said it was a bit too early to go into detail or reach conclusions, but Khrushchev's attitude generally had been extremely friendly. Eisenhower and Khrushchev meet again Sept. 24 to 27 for more talks at the President's Camp David retreat in Maryland.

Bright and early, the energetic Soviet chieftain left the President's guest house and was driven to Union Station to board his special 15-car train. It pulled out at 8:21 a.m. and was due in New York at 12:05 p.m.

The visiting Communist leader stated his hope in a brief informal departure speech at the station.

The world Communist leader announced in his major Washington speech that the Soviet Union intends to make new disarmament proposals before the United Nations, where he speaks Friday.

He may have something spectacular to submit. But whether his address is a surprise or not, the consensus here is that his performance on the first leg of his historic visit to the United States already has added up to significant propaganda for Moscow.

He himself has conceed that thus far he has offered no new proposals. He has suggested that the main antagonists in the cold war, if they want to avoid turning this earth into "ashes and graves," must find ways of composing their differences on the future use of nuclear power and rocket science.

At the same time he has promised he will present something in the way of disarmament proposals at the United Nations.

In Washington, Khrushchev asked for more "give" on both sides to avoid the grim prospect of a new world war. There was nothing new in this statement. But there was something for Americans to ponder in the way he handled himself in Washington, and in his deft handling of the sharpest interrogation Washington had to offer.

His performance was regarded by many observers as a valuable service to world Communist propaganda.

Moscow's 65-year-old iron man subjected himself to a grueling schedule and showed himself no worse for wear. He submitted himself to open, public interrogation. He responded to questions with the dexterity of a practiced politician.

Many who attended the luncheon session Wednesday at which Khrushchev addressed the National Press Club, the Women's National Press Club and the Overseas Writers obviously were hostile to Khrushchev's views. But the soviet leader melted the ice to the extent that he had his audience laughing and applauding.

Ike Draws No Conclusions

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today his talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev have been extremely friendly, but it is too early to tell whether the Kremlin leader has changed his mind on any world issues.

The President told a news conference that Khrushchev's manner and deportment indicate he really is trying to reach agreement regarding international problems.

This was Eisenhower's first meeting with newsmen since his one hour and 45 minute formal conference with the Soviet chief Tuesday, and his talks with Khrushchev at social events.

The first question put to the President was whether he sees any concrete evidence, on the basis of the talks, that Khrushchev may have changed his position on international issues.

Eisenhower replied that it is still a little bit early to go into detail or come to any conclusions on that matter. He went on to say, however, that Khrushchev's general attitude has been extremely friendly.

Eisenhower and Khrushchev will meet again Sept. 24-27 for another round of talks at the President's mountain retreat, Camp David, near Thurmont, Md.

In the meantime, Khrushchev will have made a cross country trip and seen something more of the United States and its people.

Eisenhower said his first conference with Khrushchev dealt with the matter of agenda for the Camp David conferences, and also brought a mutual restatement of general positions regarding the issues.

Rocket Fails To Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The United States failed today to put into orbit a satellite designed for experimenting with a global navigation system.

More than an hour after a three-stage launching vehicle lifted the satellite from Cape Canaveral the Defense Department in Washington announced that the third stage apparently had failed to work.

A brief announcement said:

"Since confirming data has not been received it must be assumed that the satellite did not go into orbit."

The satellite, riding on a combination Thor-Able launcher, lifted cleanly off the pad at Canaveral at 9:34 a.m. The second stage rocket engine fired on schedule.

The Advanced Research and Projects Administration had said that the new navigation system if it worked would be more accurate than any systems now available.

The satellite was aimed at a nearly circular orbit 400 miles above the earth. If successful, it will be the first U.S. satellite visible to the naked eye.

Another Thor-Able rocket placed Explorer VI—the paddlewheel satellite—into orbit last month.

ARPA emphasized that Transit I itself would not be used as a navigational aid. It is merely a test of equipment and theories that may be put to use in future satellites. Some ships and planes will be used to evaluate Transit I, however.

The satellite was to be tracked by four ground stations in the United States, one in Canada and one in England.

Two radio transmitters in the satellite each send on two frequencies at one-minute intervals.

The signals change frequency as they approach and pass over a ground station because of a phenomenon known as the Doppler Shift. This shift is the key to the navigational system and is the main thing to be studied by Transit I.

By measuring the extent of the Doppler Shift, a ground station may be able to predict the orbital position of a satellite for several days ahead. With the location of the satellite known, a navigator could receive a signal from it at any time and accurately mark the position of a ship or plane in any weather.

A simple example of the Doppler Shift is the changing tone of a train whistle as it approaches a listener. More vibrations reach the ear per second as the locomotive comes closer. Radio emissions work much the same way.

If Transit I proves the feasibility of the system, ARPA plans to orbit five operational navigational satellites in the next three years.

If all goes right, Transit I is expected to remain in its near circular orbit for several years. Solar batteries will keep the radio transmitters alive throughout the life of the satellite.

TIME FOR A CHANGE—Devane Jones, Snyder High School Tiger guard, is being told above by Jackie McNabb, a twirler, that it's time for a hat change, but for him its the football helmet rather than the "Continental Monte Carlo," she is holding. However Snyder merchants remind all men that tomorrow is official Felt Hat Day, and that tomorrow night's Snyder-Andrews grid clash would be an ideal time to break in a new felt hat. Herter Offers Plan For Easing Tension

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary of State Christian A. Herter today laid down a broad program to end East-West tension through peaceful change in the political, military and economic fields.

Herter addressed the 82-nation General Assembly in a major policy speech obviously aimed at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who will speak from the same rostrum Friday afternoon.

While denouncing the use of force by the Communists in Asia and other places, such as Hungary, Herter appealed for serious negotiation of disarmament, outer space cooperation, and on such outstanding political problems as Berlin and the reunification of divided Germany.

He blamed the noncooperation of the Soviet Union for the arms race of the past 10 years, but declared that the United States regards the forthcoming disarmament talks next year as "a major opportunity."

In an appeal which seemed to be directed straight to Khrushchev, he said: "There could be no more dramatic illustration of a spirit of cooperation in the world today as we stand on the threshold of the space age than for this assembly to act unanimously in this field. This would be a major step forward in the process of peaceful change."

This was Herter's first appearance before the Assembly since he succeeded John Foster Dulles as secretary of state earlier this year. He was mostly conciliatory in dealing with the Soviet Union, but he pulled no punches on the Chinese Communists and their activities in the Far East.

Herter flatly rejected the recent Soviet proposal for a new international conference on troubled Laos. This problem, he said, is being handled by the U.N. Security Council and its special fact-finding committee now in the little Southeast Asian kingdom.

Herter called Red China's intervention in Tibet a "revolting spectacle" and charged "brutal Chinese Communist repression of the fundamental human rights of the Tibetans."

Since the 1958 Assembly session, Communist China has suppressed an uprising in Tibet, got into a border dispute with India and been blamed along with the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam for a rebellion in Laos.

The Steering Committee voted Wednesday to shelve for a year the question of seating Red China in the United Nations.

Herter addresses the Assembly as the second speaker in a general policy debate.

Delegates looked to the general debate for hints whether the United States and the Soviet Union were rigid or conciliatory as they entered upon an exchange of visits between Khrushchev and President Eisenhower. In this spirit, they awaited Herter's and Khrushchev's speeches.

The Assembly's sole business Friday will be to hear an address by Khrushchev. He said in Washington he would present a new proposal on disarmament.

His deputy foreign minister, Vasily V. Kuznetsov, was on the losing end of an effort to have the Assembly's Steering Committee recommend four separate debates on disarmament, instead of one.

The 21-nation committee adopted a Nrazilian proposal to group four separate subjects for one debate under the general heading of disarmament. The vote was 11-6 with 2 abstentions.

Big Shake-Up In Red China

TOKYO (AP)—Red China shook up the high command of its armed forces today. Marshal Lin Piao, a deputy premier, replaced Marshal Peng Teh-huai as defense minister.

Radio Peiping announced this and other changes without explanation.

Peng has been prominent for years in consultations between Peiping and Moscow on military affairs. Last May he flew to Albania for talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and his defense minister, Marshal Rodion Malinovski.

Peng and Lin both figured in the Korean War. Lin, 52, commanded Communist Chinese detachments at the outbreak of that war. Peng replaced him as commander in October 1950. Lin is considered the leading military strategist of Red China.

Another change brought Deputy Premier Gen. Lo Jui-ching from his post of public security minister to become chief of the army's general staff. He succeeds Gen. Huang Ko-cheng.

Hsieh Fu-chih, a member of the Communist party's Central Committee, took over as public security minister.

Demos Organizing For '60 Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee has settled 1960 convention delegate strength and qualifications in unexpected harmony. Today it begins organizing for next year's presidential campaign.

Many of its members remained to attend three days of closed strategy sessions by the party's state chairman and vice chairmen. Two conference dinners, however, were to be open affairs.

Three potential contenders for the 1960 presidential nomination will address the state leaders—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) tonight, and Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan Saturday night.

The committee approved two proposals by Chairman Paul M. Butler Wednesday with hardly any of the Southern opposition they were expected to draw. Not one roll call vote was required and veteran members said it was one of the most harmonious sessions of the committee in years.

The proposals adopted would:

1. Increase the number of votes in the 1960 convention to 1,511, or 139 more than in 1956. Every state would be guaranteed a gain of at least one vote, but the combined vote of the 11 Southern states would be trimmed by about 1 per cent compared with their relative strength in the 1956 convention.

2. Call on the 1960 convention to adopt the same rule it approved in 1956 regarding the good faith of delegates. Aimed at a possible Dixie revolt, it could be used to challenge delegations from states which failed to get the convention nominees on their ballots or picked electors not pledged to vote for those nominees in the Electoral College.

Butler's delegate apportionment plan was revised at the last minute before it was presented for discussion. Originally he proposed a total convention vote of 1,475 under which 15 states would have lost strength compared with 1956. His new plan, approved after a subcommittee sifted all alternatives, guaranteed no states would lose any votes.

Here's the way the approved plan would work: "Basically, each state will get 2½ votes for each of its senators and representatives. Where a fractional vote resulted in a state, an additional half vote would be given to round it out.

There will be eight votes for the District of Columbia, six for Puerto Rico and three each for the Virgin Islands and Canal Zone.

In event this basic plan resulted in any loss from 1956 strength the difference would be made up so that no state would lose.

X15 Makes First Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The rocket ship X15, which later this year may blast a man to the edge of space, made its first powered flight today.

It skimmed in for a 200 m.p.h. plus landing on a dry lake bed after 10 minutes in the air.

With veteran North American Aviation test pilot Scott Crossfield at the controls, it was cut loose from its B52 mother ship 38,000 feet over this desert test center at 8:09 a.m.

Much of the flight could be seen from the ground. Crossfield zoomed to 50,000 feet, made some maneuvers while flying a 100-mile circle, then landed after his fuel was exhausted.

The stubby-winged, 50-foot black X15, using more powerful engines, is expected to rocket more than 100 miles high at faster than 4,000 m.p.h. later this year.

Scurry Concert Assn. Books Navy Band For Program Here

The Scurry Concert Assn. today announced that the U. S. Navy Band had been booked for a performance here, and a reciprocal agreement had been reached with the Big Spring Concert Assn.

Booking of the Navy Band adds another top-notch attraction to the series here, while the agreement with the Big Spring group means that memberships in the Scurry Concert Assn. will be honored at five attractions in Big Spring. Snyder, in turn, will honor Big Spring membership at performances here.

However, since the Scurry Assn. probably will be near a sell-out, local members will be seated first at the Snyder programs.

The Scurry Concert Assn. already has booked Joan Blondell in "The Dark At the Top of the Stairs," for Dec. 10, as well as the Navy band. The Navy Band will appear here on April 2.

Of the five concerts which Snyder members will be able to see at Big Spring, the first is the Master Players of Lugano, a 25-piece string ensemble consisting of Switzerland's finest musicians, which will be presented on Oct. 6.

On Nov. 28, they will present Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, known as the world's greatest musical organization; on Jan. 29, a top duo-piano team, Webb and Hornibrook, who have soared to the top of the professional pianist ranks this year; on Feb.15, Rosalind Nadell, who has been acclaimed as possessing one of the most beautiful mezzo-soprano voices on the concert stage. The final Big Spring concert will be on March 7, featuring Jose Greco and his colorful company of singers and dancers who are noted for their many sparkling motion picture, TV and concert appearances.

Final bookings for the Snyder season will be completed Saturday. Other possibilities for Snyder may be Red Camp and his Jazz Symposium; In Operatta Time, starring Bernard Izzo, and the Remarc Trio.

Persons interested in membership in the Scurry Concert Assn. should go by the headquarters in the Fuller Bldg. on the northwest corner of the square, or call HI 3-9311 and memberships will be delivered. Memberships are $7 for adults and $3 for students.

The drive will be closed at noon Saturday. No one may see a concert without membership, since there will be no tickets sold at the door.

University Students Protest Hike In Fees

AUSTIN (AP) — A group of about 50 students officially protested Wednesday the $9 increase in student services fees at the University of Texas.

The Rev. W. E. Hines, leader of the protest movement, said the students wrote "paid in protest" on the signed auditor's receipts for the fees. Hines said a suit will be filed against the university for refund of the $9 increase if enough students protest.

Union Session Is Marked By Unity

By NORMAN WALKER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders, normally split a dozen different ways on as many subjects, said today a resurgence of business opposition to union aims is helping to unify organized labor.

This was a theme repeatedly mentioned among the nearly 1,000 delegates gathered for the opening session of the federation's biennial convention.

They said that while they have troubles with each other, the AFL-CIO unions are uniting to support the 65-day steel strike and similar instances of employer opposition to wage increases and union legislative proposals in Congress and state legislatures.

Passage of the new labor control law by Congress, for one thing, has obviously shaken AFL-CIO confidence in the Democratic party and convinced most federation chiefs they should pick and choose more carefully among candidates before bestowing political endorsements and support.

This led to a policy declaration by AFL-CIO leaders Wednesday night that party labels are meaningless and that they will administer a planned increase in 1960 campaign activities accordingly.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, was expected to stress in his convention keynote speech that the lickings organized labor is taking in labor contract negotiations and in federal and state legislatures are helping force unions into a solid labor front.

There seemed to be some tendency in this direction. But federation unions also were still torn by the traditional feuds between former AFL and CIO unions and by deep conflicts over union policies.

Negro Population In Dallas Grows Rapidly

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas' Negro population is growing faster than available housing, a study by a Southern Methodist University professor says.

The study was presented before the City Planning Commission to bolster a request for permission to build a 2-block complex of apartments for Negroes in East Dallas.

Quoting from the report of Prof. Richard B. Johnson of SMU's department of economics, attorney Sandy M. Sandoloski said the Negro population in metropolitan Dallas has increased by 24,000 since 1950.

"The housing available has increased by 9,395 units of which 5,322 were new and about 4,000 transferred from white to Negro," he said.

TOKYO (AP)—Typhoon Sarah, after belting a savage blow to tiny Miyako Island, sideswiped southern Japan and grazed South Korea on its northeasterly rampage into the Japan Sea today.

Japanese reports said that on Miyako, an island of 75,000 inhabitants 200 miles southwest of Okinawa, six persons were killed, up to 33 injured and 1,450 homes destroyed.

Reports from southern Japan said fringe winds and heavy rains caused injuries to three persons and damaged 100 homes.

6th Grade Band Parents Meet Tonight

A meeting has been scheduled for tonight for all parents of sixth grade students interested in starting their children in the elementary band program.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium, according to Melvin Montgomery, director of instrumental music for the school system.

Members of the instrumental music faculty will be on hand for the meeting. Working in the elementary program this year will be Dan Prewitt, Bill Green and Tim Dennis.

A film on the elementary band program will be shown during tonight's meeting, and faculty members will explain the program. The parents have been asked to bring their sixth graders if possible so they can be advised on instruments best suited for them. Children furnish their own instruments in the program.

The elementary band program will get underway next Thursday. Classes will be held in all six elementary schools on alternate days for 45-minute periods.

The elementary program has been underway here six years and usually has about 150 students participating.

Pipeline Firm To Challenge Gas Tax

AUSTIN (AP) — Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America and others will file suit next month against the new natural gas tax, a company attorney says.

B. M. Britain of Amarillo said Wednesday almost all companies will attack the legality of the tax on first purchasers of natural gas or the severance beneficiary. It is aimed primarily at pipelines. Opponents claim it is unconstitutional.

The 1½ per cent of value tax is expected to bring $7,800,000 a year in revenue to the state.

Tranquilizers Help Calm Down Poultry

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP) — Poultrymen figure they have a remedy now for what bugs the biddies.

Feed them tranquilizers, the Dixie Poultry Exposition was told Tuesday.

Dr. O. E. Goff of the University of Tennessee said experiments showed tranquilizers fed to hens gave them resistance to high temperatures, increased egg quality and production, and contributed to a longer and happier life for the fowl.

Eighth Child Is Named For Krush

BELZONI, Miss. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fleming had trouble thinking of a name for their eighth child, born an hour before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived Tuesday in Washington.

"Everybody's talking about Khrushchev," a neighbor said.

Wednesday night the Flemings decided on a name: Nikita. But they will call the boy Nikie for short.

Handel, composer of "The Messiah," wrote this best-known oratorio in only 24 days. Reason: he was bankrupt and needed money in a hurry.

Pair Admit Slaying Of Rich Playboy

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A bachelor playboy, heir to a sizable fortune, was shot to death and buried under rocks in a lonely canyon.

The body of William Scott Wright, 37, was found Wednesday night. Police today said a couple whom Wright had befriended admitted the slaying.

Harold Wooley, 36, an ex-convict, said he shot Wright in the head at Wright's mountain cabin.

Then, Wooley told officers, he and his common-law wife Mary, 32, dragged the body to Wright's expensive new sports car and drove it to a place where they had gone for picnics west of Denver. Several boulders were rolled on top of the body and covered with broken bushes.

This happend June 15, Wooley last reported seen in Denver.

His disappearance came to light early last week when Wooley and his wife were arrested and charged with forging a $500 check made out to Wright.

The missing man was heir to an estate believed valued in the "hundreds of thousands of dollars," police said. It had been left to him by his mother.

A tip led officers to the remote canyon 30 miles west of Denver where the body was buried.

A Denver waitress, Eva Paul, told police she had picnicked there July 4 with the Wooleys. She said the couple had shown unusual interest in the area to which she led police.

Stock Sale Hearing Set

AUSTIN (AP) — Dist. Judge Charles O. Betts scheduled a hearing Sept. 28 on a proposed stock sale to add $615,000 to the amount which will be distributed among claimholders against the defunct ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas.

Betts put his tentative approval Wednesday on the sale, part of a proposed settlement in a suit brought against the state receiver by Unitex Industries Inc. of Dallas. The firm formerly was part of the ICT business empire founded by Ben Jack Cage, now in South America.

The suit sought to rescind a September 1955 deal in which the ICT Insurance Co., a casualty company, obtained more than half a million shares of the capital stock of ICT Life Insurance Co. The latter is now doing business as Southwest Union Life Insurance Co.

When the casualty company went into receivership in 1957, the life insurance company stock was part of assets taken over by the state receiver.

The suit claimed the stock transfer was invalid because the two companies were controlled at the time by a group of interlocking directors.

Grass Acreage Burns

AUSTIN (AP) — A grass fire burned over 1,300 acres about 10 miles south of Llano Wednesday.

The Department of Public Safety said fire departments from Fredericksburg, Llano and San Saba helped keep down the damage. No livestock or houses were burned.

Acacia's Fashion Shows Set Today

Final arrangements were made yesterday for the fall style show to be presented this afternoon and tonight by the Acacia Study Club at Martha Ann Women's Club.

The show will have two presentations, the first at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon, and the final at 8 o'clock tonight.

Tickets to the show are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students.

A wide variety of both men's and women's latest fall fashions will be modeled in the show.

In yesterday's regular meeting of the club, Mrs. Bill Lee Jr., president, conducted a short business meeting in which the show details were given the final touches.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Billy Bob McMullan, to 26 members present.

Today's style show profits will be used by the club in its annual Scurry County Boy's Club project.

Several members of the club will model styles, as will some Snyder High School students. Several male models have been engaged to lend accent to the women's fashions and to display new men's styles.

Federation Subject Of Art Guild

"The Federation and what it it means to the club woman," was the subject of the program of the Art Guild Club in its meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Mrs. Harry Lee was hostess. A business meeting was presided over by Mrs. H. M. Roe, president.

Mrs. Dorothy Miller was welcomed to the club as a new member.

In her program, Mrs. Grace King gave an account of the origin of the Federation of Women's Clubs and the history of the state club house in Austin.

She also gave the commentary while Mrs. Forest Sears showed slides of the beautiful buildings and interiors of the club headquarters.

Eighteen members and the guest, Mrs. Sears, were present.

GO PARIS—Serve celery hearts, simmered in broth and then marinated, as a Parisian appetizer, or as a salad.

Elegant Meal Is Easy On Budget

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

YOU CAN BE as thrifty or as elegant as you please when you serve French cold hors d'oeuvre as part of a lunchtime meal.

Ever meet up with these appetizers? They are often served in small rectangular glass dishes that are the compartments of a tray.

On the thrifty side, mackerel becomes positively glamorous when it is filleted and simmered in white chilling.

Herring looks cool and attractive when banded with pickled onion and canned pimiento rings.

Eggs are often part of the cold hors d'oeuvre. After being hard-cooked their yolks are mashed with mayonnaise and seasonings, beaten to a creamy fluff, then swirled back into the cavities of the whites and garnished as fancy dictates. Or whole hard-cooked eggs, as is are bedded down in jellied consomme with a decoration of fresh tarragon leaves.

Small dried white beans, cooked until tender and drenched with oil, vinegar and seasonings, then sprinkled with minced parsley are sometimes included.

Red ripe tomatoes may be sliced and dressed in a savory fashion.

Then there are the everyday fresh cooked vegetables—perhaps strips of carrot or whole green beans in sauce vinaigrette. Or on the elegant side, marinated artichoke or celery hearts.

In this country we are particularly fond of serving raw celery as an appetizer, with olives or stuffed with a cheese mixture. But celery is also delectable cooked in broth and chilled in a marinade.

CELERY IN MARINADE

INGREDIENTS: 3 hearts of celery, 2 cups consomme or bouillon, 1 clove garlic, 2-3 cup olive oil, 1-3 cup white wine vinegar, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon white pepper, anchovies or hard cooked eggs or tomato wedges (if desired).

METHODS: Wash hearts of celery without separating stalks. Cut lengthwise into 2 or 4 pieces, depending on size; trim off most of the leafy top. Cook, covered, in a deep 10-inch skillet in consomme until tender. Lift out celery carefully, drain well, and place in a shallow dish to cool. Meanwhile smash garlic lightly and allow to stand in oil. With a fork beat oil, vinegar, salt and pepper together; pour over the celery. Cover and chill, turning celery occasionally. Before serving, remove garlic and lift celery from marinade. If desired, garnish with anchovies, hardcooked egg, or tomato wedges. Makes 6 servings as a first course or a salad.

NOTE: Celery cooking liquid is delicious used as a soup base. Strained leftover marinade may be used on salads.

GEORGIA PECAN PIE

INGREDIENTS: ½ cup sugar, 1 cup dark corn syrup, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 cup pecan halves, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, unbaked 9-inch pastry shell.

METHOD: In a 1-quart saucepan, over moderate heat, bring the ½ cup sugar and corn syrup to a boil, stirring occasionally; stir in butter. Meanwhile in a medium-sized mixing bowl, beat eggs lightly. Stirring vigorously, slowly pour hot mixture over eggs. Stir in vanilla, salt and pecans. Mix flour and 1 tablespoon sugar; sprinkle over unbaked shell; pour in filling. Bake in moderate (350 degrees for a glass pie plate and 375 degrees for a metal pie pan) until cake tester inserted halfway between outside and center comes out clean-about 45 minutes. Cool on rack.

When you are stewing fresh berries, add just enough water to the saucepan to keep the fruit from sticking. Sugar should be added after the fruit is cooked but still hot.

OUR VIEW

Communes Resisted

At the beginning of 1959, nearly 500,000,000 from the rural households of Communist China—more than 75 per cent of the population—had been forcibly enrolled in 24,000 militarized units known as communes. The fundamental plan was to develop a community of individuals living in barracks with no family life, no personal possessions, under the discipline of the state which fed, clothed and sheltered them in return for their labor. The effort went beyond any program of collectivization ever attempted within the Soviet Union. As a fascinated world looked on this bold move it was subsequently shocked by reports that the aged and infirm were to be killed off as useless to the state.

From various leaks, however, it has been learned that the commune system has met with stiff opposition in Red China and that this opposition has extended into high levels within the Communist ruling caste.

Now the Communist party central committee admits that the economic gains boasted earlier for 1958, last year in its initial "five-year plan," were based on erroneous statistics. In every branch of economic endeavor, industrial and agricultural, goals were not attained and the disparity between aim and achievement was so great that drastic reductions were set forth for the years ahead.

For last year, the central committee claimed industrial output of $66,000,000,000 value at the revised estimates. But even this figure is false for it is based on the claim the yuan is worth 40 cents at United States dollar ratio. Actually the yuan is worth less than 2 cents, which means the total value of nidustrial output is probably less than $3,000,000,000, a miserable showing for a nation of 650,000,000 fabulously rich in raw materials.

The Red officials attempted to attribute to upheavals of nature such as drouths, storms and floods as well as to "inexperience and wrong guesses by state statistical agencies," the failure of its domestic planning. Probably the real reason is the commune system. The Chinese are traditionally a natiog of strong family ties. They have probably discovered a means of defeating the detested commune by methodical slow-down.

Real 'Ice Cream' Found Out West

By TRACY ANN BOYLE
(For Her Father, Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Daddy is always asking me, "Well, when are you going to start bringing some fresh money into the family?"

I tell him that after all, I am just a little girl only 6 years old getting ready to start first grade.

"That's no excuse. Idleness never pays. When I was your age I was sweeping out my father's grocery store—for a dime a year," he says.

Daddy says somewhere's he still has that first dime he earned—mama says he probably has the second one too—but he never seems to have it when I want an ice cream cone.

"Well, if you worked for your daddy, I'll work for you," I told him the other night. "But I want 20 cents a year."

He finally agreed to pay 15.

My first assignment was to interview Chuck Connors, who plays on television and is one of my favorite actors. Daddy came along too, so I guess the lunch must have been free.

Well, guess what? Chuck Connors is nearly 6½ feet tall and weighs 217 pounds, and is strong enough to crush a kindergarten teacher in each hand.

I was so surprised I laid down on the restaurant seat and hid my face in my hands.

"I can see your freckles," said Chuck, and I said I hated them, and he said, "I've got freckles on my back, but you can't see them. And I've got four boys of my own, but I sure wish I had a couple of little girls, too."

Well, he was so nice. I sat up and ate a hamburger and some strawberry ice cream. Chuck ate a martini and some tomato juice, some chopped chicken liver, 12 cherry stone clams, and a great big hamburger and some coffee, and where it all went I don't know. Actors sure must get hungry.

Well, Chuck said he used to play baseball for the Chicago Cubs, and he showed me the little finger he broke once playing professional basketball in Boston. It is still bent—just like a measuring worm.

One day, a movie company paid Chuck $500 for one day's work on a picture, and he decided right then baseball was just a boy's game. I asked him how long it would take a little girl to make $500 if she only got 15 cents a year, and Chuck looked surprised and said, "Oh, about 3,333 years." Daddy harrumphed and turned red.

Well, Chuck said being a Western star wasn't all hay and oats. He was born in Brooklyn and had trouble staying in a subway saddle until four years ago when he bought a horse for $50 and learned how to ride. He said he paid an old movie cowboy to teach him how to be a cowboy, too.

He also had to learn to shoot a rifle, and now he says he can shoot a rifle six times in two seconds with either hand. I asked him if he could shoot faster than Marshal Dillon, and he asked, "Who?"

Chuck said he didn't like violence and that of his last 40 films, nobody was shot in 20 of them, and that he really wouldn't actually shoot anybody, not even for money—not even a producer. It's all an act with him.

Well, I guess I won't be doing any more interviews. I'm not going to work for Daddy anymore. I'm not going to grow up and be a nurse either. I'm going to buy a horse and a rifle and go out West with Chuck Connors where the real ice cream money is.

Many Are Curious About Khrushchev

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — How curious Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev really is about how capitalism actually works may be in doubt. But how curious capitalists are about what makes him tick isn't.

The crush of those who want to dine with him and listen to his interpreter is setting records.

The nation's top industrialists and financiers who are anxious to see and talk with, or at least listen to him are well aware that many of their fellow citizens think poorly of capitalists breaking bread with Communists.

But American businessmen long have been geared to the idea that you can do business better if you know your competitor and what he's up to.

That's why there are long waiting lists for the social and political functions — perhaps they should be called propaganda functions—all across the nation.

In New York today the list of big names being turned away from the luncheon and dinner for Khrushchev is longer than the list of those attending.

Why the rush? A lot of it is just common curiosity.

But just as some farmers think it might do Khrushchev good to see how American farmers live and function, so Wall Street and Pittsburgh and Los Angeles and San Francisco think it might do him good to see how various segments of American industry operate.

Above all, though, is the desire to see what the Soviet chief is like, what kind of a competitor the U.S.S.R. might be, what it might offer as a market.

On previous visits of two Communist sub - bosses, American business and banking leaders dined with and talked to them. There was much criticism of this. There is much honest objection now to the same thing with the top man in the role of guest.

But the rush to see him is real. More than 2,000 of the nation's top capitalists will dine with him tonight in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. His dinner host, the Economic Club of New York reports it has had to turn down requests from its members to admit 1,000 others as guests.

It sounds just like the scramble for tickets to a hit Broadway musical comedy.

Cigarette Stamp Probe Is Launched

AUSTIN (AP)—Cigarette stamp tax violations are under investigation by the Travis County Grand Jury, the district attorney says.

Charles Watson, director of the state comptroller's tobacco tax division which checks collection of taxes, said Wednesday the investigation is routine.

Eight Houston men have been questioned by the grand jury, whose proceedings are secret until it reports. The witnesses were identified as employes of two Houston tobacco companies.

Cigarette taxes were increased from 5 to 8 cents on Sept. 1. Taxes of 25 per cent were levied on all other tobacco except snuff.

Krush 'Scoreless' After First Day

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The box-score on Premier Nikita Khrushchev—after his two-day whirl-around in the capital — comes down to this: no hits, no runs, no errors. But, he's a big leaguer, just the same.

He was no hit with the thousands who stood mute as he whizzed by. There have been no apparent gains from his visit so far, since he has promised nothing and conceded nothing. But he didn't commit any bobbles either.

He had plenty of chance to make a fool of himself or anger Americans in his public appearances and statements. He did neither. He just sounded like a carbon copy of letters he had written President Eisenhower in the past. He repeated himself.

Khrushchev has a bit of a ham in him—mugging in front of the camera, stealing scenes from Eisenhower, pumping hands, slapping backs, being a jolly good fellow—but anyone watching could well have wondered: Was this round little man with the bald head and the peasant's face, bouncing around town tirelessly, the last chance this country might have for a long, long time to melt the cold war?

He's 65. He may not last much longer. He's a Communist, and a tough one, but, compared with Stalin, he's been a breath of fresh air in the Soviet Union, a liberalizing force.

If this country cannot work out some settlements with him, then with whom? His successor may be more of a Stalinist and try not only to turn the clock back in the Soviet Union but to make the cold war more frigid than it is now.

In his public statements—those repetitions of what he had long said before coming here—Khrushchev didn't bend an inch on the Berlin dilemma he himself created or on anything else.

The most he has done so far—toward frying to reach some agreements—is to indicate that he may make some new proposals on disarmament before the U. N. Friday. Maybe there will be some changes when he talks with Eisenhower next week.

This, like practically everything else that has been said about his visit, is plain guessing since no one so far has attempted to state as a fact the reason for his coming here in the first place.

But Khrushchev in his televised appearance before the National Press Club showed he is not only mentally fast but has such good self-control that he can flame into anger one instant and turn cool the next.

Local Band Rated Second In State

The Snyder High School band has been rated second in Texas among Class AAA bands.

Melvin Montgomery, band director here, said a selection committee of the Texas Music Educators Association, headed by Gene Braught of Del Mar College, worked during the summer on the selections.

Finalists had been bands chosen as outstanding in each of the 16 districts in the state, chosen by directors of the districts.

The No. 1 band chosen by the committee was that of Weslaco. Third best band is at Paris. There are about 125 Class AAA bands in the state.

This year the committee chose the top bands in Class AAA and Class A. Next year the top Class AAAA and AA bands will be chosen. Top bands in Class A this years were at Three Rivers, Vanderbilt and Hale Center.

The 16 finalists each sent in tape recordings of live performances before audiences for the committee's study. The No. 1 band will give a performance before the state convention of the TMEA in Austin next February.

For the second year the Snyder band has been chosen one of America's 100 best bands, to be presented in the publication, First Chair of America.

Telephone Makes Cave 'Endurable'

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Three Indiana University students—two teen-agers and one 20-year-old—today credited a telephone with making endurable a 12-day stay in a cold, damp cave.

Bearded and smeared with clay, they crawled out of the sewer-like entrance of Wayne Cave Wednesday night and claimed a record for a voluntary stay in a cavern.

Dick Martin of Terre Haute, Haute, Ind., oldest of the trio and president of the I. U. Memorial Union Spelunking Club, said cave enthusiasts had spent up to eight days in Kentucky and Pennsylvania caves.

"One of the main reasons we didn't get cabin fever was the telephone at the base camp about a quarter-mile inside the cave," Martin said. "We kept pretty busy mapping and exploring, and then we'd call our girls and our families on the phone."

They slept in tents equipped with gasoline stoves.

Jim Neawedde, whose father owns the ground over part of the cave, had some bad minutes on the way out. He got a leg cramp while dragging left-over supplies the last 10,0 0efet ,hwhciecafib negotiated only by crawling.

Martin fell over a stone in one of the bigger passages and bruished a hip but Dave Mercer, third of the trio, escaped any mishaps.

Martin said the spelunkers failed to find another entrance to the cave, one of their main objectives, but they found four places where holes can be enlarged into entrances.

"It didn't seem like a good idea to do it from the bottom," he added.

New Jewish Community Nearly Ready

BERLIN (AP)—A new Jewish community center is nearing completion in West Berlin to replace the synagogue burned by Hitler's storm troopers.

Mayor Willy Brandt will turn over the new center to the city's Jewish community Sept. 27. The consecration of the synagogue is scheduled for Oct. 1.

The two-story, modernistic structure has been built on the site of the old Fasenenstrasse synagogue, Germany's most famous and largest until "Crystal Night" Nov. 9, 1938.

"Crystal Night," so named because of the smashed Jewish shop windows that littered the streets of German cities, marked the start of the Nazis' all-out assault on the Jews.

Hitler's brown-shirted storm troopers burned 177 synagogues, killed 30 Jews, jailed 20,000 others and wrecked 7,500 Jewish firms.

On narrow Fasanen Street, jeering storm troopers held back firefighters as the massive synagogue burned to a shell.

West and East Berlin have a Jewish population of about 7,500 compared with a pre-Hitler figure of 175,000.

To make good for "Crystal Night," West Berlin put up two million marks ($476,000) to finance construction of the new community center.

A permanent exhibit including photos and documents of the Nazi persecution of the Jews will be opened on the 21st anniversary of "Crystal Night."

Gen. Smart Takes Over New Command

WACO (AP)—Maj. Gen. Jacob chief of staff of the U. S. Air Force in Washington, took over command today of the 12th Air Force.

He succeeded Maj. Gen. Chester E. McCarty, who was assigned to headquarters of the 14th Air Force at Robbins AFB near Macon, Ga.

Texas Jurist Dead At 70

AMARILLO (AP)— Chief Justice E. L. Pitts of the 7th Texas Court of Civil Appeals died Wednesday night in O'Connors Hospital in San Jose, Calif. He was 70.

He had suffered a slight stroke Aug. 8 and went to the hospital on Aug. 15.

Judge Pitts, whose home was at Amarillo, had been chief justice since Jan. 1, 1943. He had been 99th District judge in Lubbock County. He was a former county judge in both Lubbock and Palo Pinto counties.

Pitts was born in Fannin County June 25, 1889.

He was in California visiting two daughters when he was stricken. They are Mrs. A. C. Stevens Jr., of Cupertino and Mrs. Patrick Newman of Danville. Other survivors include his widow in Amarillo and a sister in Gordon, Tex.

Funeral arrangements were not complete.

Ava Gardner And Co. Back In America

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Movie actress Ava Gardner made a brief stopover at Miami International Airport Wednesday night en route from Havana to New York.

It required 45 minutes for customs agents to process the 36-year-old former wife of Frank Sinatra, a maid, secretary, two small caged dogs, 19 pieces of luggage, a hi-fi set and a hand-carved bongo drum.

Miss Gardner told newsmen she was going to New York for talks about a new motion picture "A Fair Bride."

Ticklish Arrest

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — The sleeping man in the railroad car didn't even wake up when police lifted him out, ever so gently. Before taking him to the jail's drunk cell, they padlocked the doors to the railroad car loaded with high explosives.

Tennessee, which was included in the English grant to Sir Walter Raleigh in 1584, also was once claimed by North Carolina.

Between You And Me

By JERRY JACKSON

SEVERAL SPLIT allegiances will be very much in evidence this Saturday as Texas Tech and Texas A & M meet headon in the Cotton Bowl. No less than seven cities will be represented as having players on both squads concerned with Snyder being one of those seven.

Running second string tackle for Tech is Larry Mullins, while former teammate Powell Berry will be available for quarterbacking chores for the Aggies.

It is also of interest to note that both starting quarterbacks the Aggies' Charlie Milstead and Raider Ken Talkington—hail from the same home town of Tyler.

Players Must Listen To Case

RAMBUNCTIOUS, redoubtable Casey Stengel embarked on a man-sized blast a while back, not only at his newly dethroned world champion players but also at some of his coaches whom he intimated were not following his proclamations to the letter.

His eccentric mannerisms and vociferous jargon have long been a novelty in the sporting world. However, they have been consistently taken with a grain of salt by practically everyone with the exception of his small circle of players and coaches, who have found themselves in the role of "captive audience" to this King of Modern Day Managerial Madness.

But it should matter not how controversial an individual he is — or who disagrees with him or for what reason. The simple fact is that he's still the manager and should be regarded as such. He's been at the helm of the Yankee team throughout the fat, fat fifties, and a lean year such as the past one should not give rise to such mutinous doings as seem to be occurring daily in the Yankee organization.

Mantle Catches It Often

FOR EXAMPLE, his prime target is none other than Champion-of-the-People Mickey Mantle, fabled bread and butter slugger, bowling alley impresario, motel man, and indorser of various and sundry products which range from cigarettes to little pills to take in order to stop smoking.

Concerning Mickey, he had the following heretic comments to make: "Didja ever see Mantle bunt to third when he's batting left-handed? If a second baseman can't throw him out on a slow grounder, how could a third baseman do it on a bunt down the line? I been asking him to do that all year and he won't listen. I don't want him to look at recent pictures of himself because he'll only see how lousy he is."

On infielders Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson. "Those two think they can hit the ball out of the park every time they come to bat and they swing for the fences. I tell 'em to push the ball. Hit to the opposite field. They better do what I say or they won't be around."

And they just might better heed that foreboding warning as emphatically handed down by Casey, as his job is probably on firmer footing than the majority would think, in that the turnstiles have been clicking a regular staccato of paying customers fascinated by the novelty of a Yankee team failing to win a pennant.

Enos Slaughter, the tireless veteran of many a baseball war, said it soon after the Yanks peddled him off to Milwaukee: "Some Yankee players think Casey Stengel is in second childhood. A lot of them would be better off if they would listen more carefully to Stengel."

'Tis food for thought.

Coe Hopeful

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Charlie Coe commented, "I'm playing real well." Tom Draper said, "All I'm trying to do is qualify for the Masters."

That summed up the feeling of 16 players showing up for today's fifth round in the U.S. Amateur Golf Tournament being played on the 7,010-yard, par-71 Broadmoor course.

Coe, the tall, skinny defending champion from Oklahoma City, was paired against Ted Gleichmann of Saticoy, Calif., who has played two previous National meets without going anywhere.

Draper, a 45-year old sales manager for a Royal Oak, Mich., firm, plays 20-year-old Dudley Wysong Jr. of Dallas, one of Texas' better young amateurs.

Dave Smith of Gastonia, N.C., was paired against Jack Nicklaus, Ohio State University junior, in a match of long ball hitters.

The fifth, or morning round, also carried a bonus of a Masters tournament berth for the eight winners.

Coe, who won the National crown the first time in 1949, won Wednesday's rounds 3 and 1 over Bob Batdorff II, Hershey, Pa., and then beat Jim Vickers of Wichita, Kan., 4 and 3.

Draper continued his sensational shooting against Congressman Jack Westland, Everett, Wash., 1-up, and Billy Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C., 4 and 3.

Keglers To Meet This Evening

All ABC bowlers are again reminded of the planning session which will be held in the Village Restaurant tonight at 6 o'clock.

Refreshments of pie and coffee will be served, and maximum attendance is urged in order to lay the groundwork for the coming year's activities, reports John Pickering, president of the Snyder Bowling Association.

Frogs Test Bears In Pee Wee Clash Today

In the season's curtain raisers for both teams, the Pee Wee Frogs will go against the Bears at the Central Elementary field today. Kickoff is slated for 4:45.

Croaker coaches are Guy Sullivan and Norman Fauks, while Walton Hales and Gene Sadler mentor the Bruins.

Lackey Likely Steer Starter

By The Associated Press

There's nothing surprising about it but Bobby Lackey is going to be the regular Texas quarterback when the Longhorns open the season Saturday against Nebraska.

A couple of sophomores, Mike Cotten and Jim Saxton, made passes at the job but Coach Darrell Royal said Wednesday Lackey has beaten off the challenge.

Lackey led Texas to its great upset of Oklahoma last season but he didn't finish the campaign with much of a flourish.

The only other news along the Southwest Conference front had to do with injuries and in the case of Southern Methodist, a poor performance.

Coach Bill Meek expressed disgust at the showing of his SMU squad in practice, saying "our passing drill was the worst I guess we ever had. And we aren't getting anything done by our kickers."

Meek wasn't cheered any by news that tackle J. T. Davis will be out for several days because of torn ligaments. And halfback Norman Marshall twisted a knee.

Rice, which faces mighty Louisiana State at Baton Rouge Saturday, shunned contact work. The Owls have guard Gerald Gusler on the injury list. He will miss the LSU game. However, tackle Don Rather, who suffered a cut eye last week, will be ready to play.

Texas Christian, priming for its game with Kansas at Fort Worth Saturday, had its first night practice of the season. Coach Abe Martin worked mostly on passing and had his regulars dealing with Kansas plays. Roy Lee Rambo, regular left guard, may not be in shape to play. He was on the sidelines for the second straight day with a cold.

Texas A&M, which meets Texas Tech at Dallas, held its last long practice of the week. Coach Jim Myers stressed pass defense. Left halfback Eddie Van Duke missed the workout but will be ready to play Saturday.

Baylor, which like SMU has no game this week, sharpened its passing and running for a game condition scrimmage Thursday night. There will be no more two-a-day workouts at Baylor.

Royal got word that his center, Jerry Muennink, who has been out with a twisted knee, may see limited service against Nebraska.

Lew Floors Giants

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If San Francisco loses the National League pennant, they can blame it on Lew Burdette, the greatest giant killer of them all.

Burdette did it again Wednesday, beating the Giants with a five-hitter 2-0 that slashed their lead to one game. It was his fifth victory over San Francisco this season, bringing his career record against the club to 24-9.

As a result of Burdette's victory, at the expense of 20-game winner Sam Jones, the Braves have a chance to go into a first place tie Thursday. Warren Spahn faces Jack Sanford in the final meeting of the two clubs.

If Spahn wins the Braves will be in excellent position. They will have five games with Philadelphia and three with Pittsburgh.

If the Giants again can win "the big one" and retain their lead, they will be in a strong position. They have three important games at home against the Los Angeles Dodgers before hitting the road next week for the last five at Chicago and St. Louis.

The Dodgers blew a chance to close in on the Giants when they lost to Cincinnati 7-4. The defeat dropped Los Angeles into third place, two games back with nine to go.

Orlando Pena was the winner as Cincinnati whipped the Dodgers for the 13th time in 21 games. The Reds battered Sandy Koufax and three relief pitchers for 13 hits including homers by Frank Thomas and Willie Jones.

Charlie Neal hit two homers and Wally Moon had his sixth in six games for a losing cause.

Del Crandall and the veteran Enos Slaughter drove in Milwaukee's two runs against the Giants. Joe Adcock's single and Slaughter's walk preceded Crandall's two-out single off Jones in the fourth. The Braves scored again in the eighth.

Vern Law won his 17th game for Pittsburgh, 3-2, in the opener of a double-header at Chicago, but the Cubs bounced back to pin an 18th defeat on Bob Friend in the second game 4-2. Sammy Taylor's 11th homer in the ninth beat Friend. Philadelphia and St. Louis were idle.

In the American League, New York downed Chicago 3-1 but Boston knocked off Cleveland 6-5, leaving the White Sox 5½ games in front with seven to play. Detroit defeated Baltimore 3-1.

Casey Says White Sox Have It

NEW YORK (AP) — "I believe in them. I am an American League man. They are well managed, well coached. There is nothing wrong with their spirit. You give them enough and they'll take the game from you."

Casey Stengel was talking about the Chicago White Sox after his New York Yankees had finished their season's business with the apparent pennant winners.

"The longer the season went they confused more clubs with their base running. Maybe it wouldn't bother a club with a real good pitcher, who wouldn't let them get on base. But when they get men on base they never stop.

"Last year they lost the pennant. This year they had the pitching. That was the difference. That fellow (Bob) Shaw came through for them to help (Early) Wynn and (Billy) Pierce.

"Most of all their relief men were remarkable. That fellow (Turk) Lown did a good job. (Stengel pronounces it loan). I had the other man (Gerry Staley). With me he didn't get many clubs out but he didn't have the stuff he has now. He added another pitch, a sinker, and that made him. You could count on him any time you needed him for one or two innings. The big thing is they don't let you get those runs in the seventh, eighth and ninth like they did last year."

Switching to the Sox' possible World Series opposition, Stengel said he figured San Francisco would win the National League pennant.

SAC Opens Season This Weekend

By The Associated Press

The Negro Southwestern Athletic Conference opens the football season this week with Texas Southern meeting tough Langston University.

Texas Southern, rated second in the conference, battles Langston at Galveston Saturday night.

Four other league members move into the campaign but Prairie View, the conference champion and national Negro intercollegiate champion, will be idle.

Prairie opens Sept. 26 when the Panthers take on Jackson College at Prairie View.

Texas College plays Paul Quinn at Tyler and Arkansas AM&N travels to Holly Spring, Miss., to meet Mississippi Industrial.

Grambling plays Bishop at Dallas in a nonconference game.

Southern University and Wiley College open their season Sept. 26.

Woe Is Me--Dietzel

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana State's national champions open the football season against Rice Saturday without a blocking back and a top-flight punter.

But Coach Paul Dietzel's headaches would be welcome worries to LSU's 10 rivals this year. All point to the 31 lettermen the Tigers have returning, including All America halfback Billy Cannon.

On the surface, the talented Tigers appear too much of a match for Jess Neely's Owls, who lost 5 of their 10 games last year. LSU is given a two-touchdown edge.

But although Dietzel has an optimistic outlook, he doesn't share the opinion that his Tigers are two touchdowns better than Rice.

"We're starting the season without a kicker of Tommy Davis' stature," Dietzel moaned, speaking of his ace punter and field goal artist who skipped another year at LSU to play professional football.

"And if that isn't enough, we've got to find a replacement for Red Brodnax, who probably was the best blocking back in the Southeastern Conference," said the 35-year-old Tiger mentor who was named football's Coach of the Year last season.

The punting chores—at least for the few games or two—will fall to Cannon, who did some kicking as a sophomore. Cannon has been bothered by a leg injury, but Dietzel said his 210-pound ace is fully recovered.

Donnie Daye, a 20-year-old junior from Ferriday, La., has taken over the fullback post vacated by the graduated Brodnax. Daye has his work cut out for him since the fullback is the blocker in LSU's winged-T attack and the guy who clears the path for ball carriers.

Quarterback Warren Rabb returns to direct the powerful Tiger offense.

Area Elevens In Friday Contests

Three games of special interest are on the area agenda for Friday night, as Hobbs travels to Blackwell, Ira plays host to McCaulley, and Gail takes on Pettit at Gail. Hermleigh has an open date this week in which to prepare for Roscoe.

Hobbs will be seeking to crawl over the .500 mark in the Blackwell contest, having beaten Ira and falling to Divide in previous games. The Ira Bulldogs will be in the same boat as Hobbs, in that they have thus far dropped a close one to Hobbs and slipped by Blackwell. And high-flying Gail is hoping to attain its 27th victory in a row after defeating Union and Smyer in opening breezers.

Locals To Meet Lamesa

Snyder football fans will be treated to a full evening of action tonight, as the Snyder "B" Team and Snyder Freshman Team stage a double bill against Lamesa in Tiger Stadium.

These games will be the first home games of the year for the locals, although the "B" Teamers traveled to Midland this past Saturday for a tussle with the young Bulldogs. The local crew come in second best in that go-round, being defeated by 20-0.

Leading their "B" Team into the game will be coaches Jim Stehley and V. V. Shearburn, whereas the Fish mentors are J. P. Ward and Speedy Moffett.

Kickoff time, for the Freshman fracas is 6:30, to be followed by their big brother "B" Teamers game at 8 o'clock.

Engineers To Start Study

AUSTIN (AP)—Professional engineers will start a study Oct. 31 to see whether the State Board of Water Engineers needs reorganizing.

The Texas Society of Professional Engineers said Wednesday a committee will be named to take action on the request by its executive committee.

The executive committee did not specify what changes it wants in the 3-member board. However, it agreed with the Texas Section, American Society of Civil Engineers, that at least two members should be engineers.

R. M. Dixon is the only engineer on the board. Otha Dent is a former county judge and chairman. Durwood Manford is a rancher, farmer and attorney.

1. Pick up your Safeway "Cross-Out" Card today at your Safeway Store — and each time you stop thereafter for the next 8 weeks.
2. Match the numbers on your card against the master numbers. Pencil an X over those numbers on your card that match these numbers.
3. If you can "X-OUT" on your card, five numbers in a row, either down, across or diagonally, you have WON A PRIZE! Just turn over your card and you'll know what you have won.
4. IF YOU HAVE A WINNER — Fill out the required information on the back of the card and mail it to: Cross-Out, Box 551, St. Louis, Missouri. You'll receive your prize in about 15 days.
5. IF YOU HAVEN'T A WINNER THIS WEEK — Erase the X's from your card and save it to play against Safeway's ads next week-end in this paper, and each succeeding ad of the contest.
6. Save this "Cross-Out" ad and every "Cross-Out" ad for the next 7 weeks — a previous "Cross-Out" may have winning numbers for a new card.
7. Any one card and any one ad can be matched to claim a winner but numbers from more than one ad cannot be combined to form a winning card.
8. Cards will be given to adults only.
9. Complete rules and instructions on every "Cross-Out' card.

HERE'S YOUR FIRST "CROSS-OUT" GAME!

MATCH THESE NUMBERS AGAINST YOUR CROSS-OUT CARD NOW AVAILABLE AT SAFEWAY

If you have 5 numbers in a row — down, across, or diagonally on your card you have a winning card. Turn card over to see what you have won and mail card as directed. You will receive your prize in a few days.

New Guided Missile Ship Back In Fleet

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—The USS Providence returns to the fleet today after conversion from a light cruiser to guided missiles.

Commissioned in 1945, the Providence was inactivated in 1949. In 1957 work was begun to adapt her to Terrier missiles, supersonic antiaircraft weapons capable of intercepting enemy aircraft under all-weather conditions at long range.

Junior Editors Quiz on CASTLES

QUESTION: How are castles heated?

* * *

ANSWER: The old castles were cold places in which to live. Most of the rooms had open fireplaces, some of them of great size, and people gathered around the hearth to keep warm. But it was impossible for the fireplace to heat the whole room, because even the floors were of stone. While the nobles gathered around the fireplace, the servants clustered around open fires built in shallow pits in the center of the floor. Since there wasn't much furniture, these open fires were reasonably safe. Today, many of the old castles of Europe have been modernized and heating systems installed. But even with modern conveniences, the castles are difficult to heat.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: There are many different ways of heating homes today. Have your father or mother help you make a list of modern heating systems. Then have them explain the one used in your home.

Bids Taken By State On Road Work

AUSTIN (AP) — Low bids for work on Texas highways total $18,045,080 for October, the Highway Department says. It's one of the smallest monthly contract amounts in several years.

Low bids received Wednesday included:

Cooke: 5.3 miles, Farm 2383, from Farm 371 south of Walnut Bend to Sturgeon, John T. Leslie, Bailey, $146,803.

San Patricio: 0.5 miles, Interstate 37, widen and repair Nueces River bridge north of Calallen, R. S. Black, Corpus Christi, $297,905.

Montgomery: 4 miles, Farm 1488, from Farm 1774 in Magnolia to Farm 149, O. W. Howard, Madisonville, $177,758.

Denton: 6.1 miles, Farm 423, reconstruction from Farm 720 to State 12, Austin Road Co., Dallas, $170,961.

Nolan: 3.6 miles, Interstate 20, from State 70 to three miles east of Sweetwater, Strain Bros., San Angelo, and E. M. Bailey, Abilene, $1,166,651.

Nacogdoches: 11 miles, Farm 226, reconstruction from Woden south to State 103, T. R. Vardeman and Son, Nacogdoches, $816,401.

Real and Uvalde: 19.5 miles, State 55, from Campwood to 16.7 miles south of Real County line, Strain Bros., San Angelo, $455,924.

Robertson: 14 miles, Farm 979 and State 6, recondition and resurface from Walnut Creek to Calvert and from State 6 in Calvert to Farm 46, R. W. McKinney, Nacogdoches, $77,679.

Hill: 9 miles, U.S. 77, base and surface treatment from U.S. 81 north of Hillsboro to Ellis County line, R. W. McKinney, Nacogdoches, $132,494.

Horse Thief Basin, now a park about 90 miles outside Phoenix, Ariz., got its name from the fact that once it was a hideout for horse theives and other shady characters.

Soviets Told Skies Clearing

By GUSTAV SVENSSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow newspapers told the Soviet people today that Premier Nikita Khrushchev's talks with President Eisenhower made a good beginning and the skies are clearing between the two mightiest world powers.

The Communist party organ Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia devoted 2½ of their four pages to what Izvestia called Khrushchev's "peace mission" to the United States.

Pravda exclaimed in front-page headlines: "First Meeting Between Khrushchev and Eisenhower Ended in Friendly Atmosphere" and "Barometer of Soviet-American Relations Reads 'Clear.'"

Pravda topped a page of Soviet reports of the Washington meeting with a four-column headline saying "Good Beginning Been Made" and headlined a report from a special writer "These Conversations Will Go Down in History."

The two leading Soviet newspapers carried on their front pages Soviet news agency photographs of Eisenhower and Khrushchev, with the President holding a copy of the ball-shaped Soviet moon pennant he had just received from the Communist leader.

Izvestia said the Soviet Premier is "attracting the sympathies of the citizens of a transocean country."

The newspaper, edited by Khrushchev's son-in-law Alexei Adzhubei who is in the United States, said: "Already the first two days of Khrushchev's stay in the United States have given much evidence of the particular importance and usefulness of personal contacts between the leaders of the two most powerful countries on our planet."

Izvestia said the news from the other side of the ocean "bears witness of how high the international prestige of our fatherland has risen.

"The fatherland is represented with dignity by the outstanding peace fighter Nikita Khrushchev," Izvestia continued, adding that the visit is "the biggest event of our days."

Soviet readers eager to get the latest news caused such a jam around newsstands at Moscow subway entrances that many were late for work. It appeared to be the biggest public outpouring of curiosity here in years.

Fire Destroys Big Bomber

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Two crewmen died and the pilot was injured Wednesday night when a seven-million-dollar, supersonic B58 bomber burned while trying to take off from Carswell Air Force Base.

The Air Force withheld the names of the dead.

The Hustler bomber, which flies at more than twice the speed of sound, was scheduled for a routine training mission.

An Air Force statement said, "Evidence from witnesses indicates there was a fire of some sort prior to its reaching the end of the runway,' where it burned for more than an hour.

Maj. Kenneth Lewis, the pilot, was hospitalized with second degree burns.

The Holland Tunnel under the Hudson River, opened to traffic in 1927, was the first long vehicular underwater tunnel. Its north tube is 8,557 feet long.

Interpreter Has Much Experience

WASHINGTON (AP) — The television audience for Nikita Khrushchev's luncheon address Wednesday saw one of the world's most experienced participants in international conferences — and it wasn't the Soviet Premier.

It was Oleg Troyanovsky, the handsome Soviet interpreter who relayed Khrushchev's remarks.

Only 38, Troyanovsky has been a familiar figure for years at meetings between Soviet leaders and the heads of other nations.

When he was coming to the United States earlier this year with Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, his impending arrival drew this warning from Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations: "This man is more dangerous than Mikoyan."

What Burke meant was that Troyanovsky, schooled in the United States and thoroughly familiar with its ways and customs, was much more likely than Mikoyan to perceive any weak spots in the United States that the Soviet Union could later exploit.

Troyanivsky's acquaintance with the United States began in 1933 when he came to Washington with his father Alexander Troyanovsky, the first Soviet ambassador to the United States. He attended the Sidwell Friends School in Washington, and after his graduation studied at Swarthmore College. His father's career took him back to the Soviet Union and Troyanovsky continued his education at Moscow University.

His sure knowledge of English, plus high high diplomatic connections, led to his early employment as an interpreter and translator for the Soviet leaders.

American diplomats who have seen him in action rate him as a brilliant performer in his field. American newsmen, who have learned to appreciate his quick idiomatic translations of Russian speeches, will agree.

Complaint Against Employe Is Dropped

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—A woman complained a city employe used abusive language after giving her car "a good whack" with a broom.

City Manager Henry Rofles said a street employe admitted "cussing" the woman.

He told Rofles he lost his temper only after the woman:

Drove around a "Do not enter" sign, drove over freshly painted parking area stripes and rammed him from behind, knocking him to the pavement. He said his broom flew into the air and landed on the car.

The matter has been dropped.

'Minuteman' Has Its First Flight Test

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The United States' newest intercontinental ballistic missile—the Minuteman—has undergone its first flight test.

Tethered by 2,000 feet of nylon cable, the Minuteman was fired Tuesday. It rose only a few hundred feet in the air. The second and third stages of the rocket were dummies.

The Minuteman, powered by solid fuel, is expected to have a range of more than 5,500 nautical miles. It will be launched from underground silos, rail cars, trucks and ships.

Finances Of CRMWD Hold Firm

The August financial statement of the Colorado River Municipal Water District held firm although it reflected revenues from lighter July water consumption. Most cities received successive showers early in the month, dulling the demand for water.

Deliveries totaled 877,553,000 gallons, making the total for the year 5,744,364,000 gallons, approximately 325,000,000 gallons more than for the same period in 1958. Of the 877,580,000 gallons produced during the month, 713,375,000, or about 84 per cent, came from Lake J. B. Thomas.

Revenues for the month amounted to $199,671, of which $194,481 was from sale of water. Recreational revenues accounted for the remaining $5,189.

Expenditures included $1,583 for operation of city production system $2,430 for royalties on water, $9,137 for maintenance, $44,065 for operating expense, $5,317 for administrative and general expense, and $2,296 for recreational expense.

The total of expenses of $64,786 left a margin of $134,884 for the month, which was transferred to the net revenue fund to be applied to the debt requirements and other special funds set up under terms of the trust indenture.

DeGaulle's Plan For Algeria Prompts Little Enthusiasm

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle's plan for ending nearly five years of rebellion in Algeria today left the million French settlers largely bitter and the nine million Moslems mostly apathetic.

The 68-year-old French President held out three choices for the people once peace is restored in the troubled region—independence, integration with France or autonomy. The choice, he said, would be made in an election within four years after the country has been pacified—that is when deaths from terrorist attacks do not exceed 200 a year.

But he warned those demanding independence that it would bring a "disastrous misery, terrible political chaos, general throat-cutting and soon the warlike dictatorship of the Communists."

France, he said, would support autonomy.

Algerian rebels waging war against French rule were suspicious of De Gaulle's offer of self-determination. Some leaders of the rebel government in Cairo called the move a trick to hoodwink world opinion on the eve of United Nations debate on Algeria.

De Gaulle made no mention of the prospective U. N. debate in outlining his master plan for Algeria in a radio-TV speech Wednesday night from Paris.

Reports of terrorist attacks and new skirmishes with the rebels reached newspaper offices even while the speech was being broadcast here. During the past 24 hours a total of 38 rebels were reported killed in clashes with French troops.

The French President called on the rebels to lay down their arms and issued an invitation "here and now" for observers the world over to watch the voting when it is held.

Most Europeans interviewed here claimed De Gaulle's decision to put Algeria's fate to a vote will have a disastrous effect on the country's economic life.

"Who will invest here risking expulsion after the vote:" was a general opinion expressed.

De Gaulle raised this issue in his speech and declared: "Everything would be arranged so that operation of oil wells, the handling of shipping of the Saharan oil, which is the result of French efforts and is of interest to the Western world as a whole, will be provided for in any event."

Several right-wing organizations of French settlers in Algeria adopted resolutions condemning De Gaulle's plan.

The French army blocked publication of their appeals by clamping a censorship on the press and threatening to seize any printing articles that would tend to undermine public safety.

There was bitterness, among many young French officers on leave in Algiers. Several complained they are being asked to shed blood to save Algeria and then abandon it as a result of an election.

A number of Algerians expressed doubt that De Gaulle's plan will have any effect on the nationalist rebellion.

But some moderate Europeans felt the promise of free elections is likely to damage support of the rebel cause abroad.

The welcomed De Gaulle's denunciation of the rebel government as "a group of ambitious leaders resolved to establish their total dictatorship by force and terror."

Austin Hotel Has False Bomb Scare

NEW YORK (AP) — Police searched the Hotel Commodore Wednesday night after an anonymous warning that three bombs had been planted there in anticipation of the arrival there today of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

No bombs were found.

A man telephoned about 10 p. m. and said: "Get yourself and all other Americans out of the hotel. We have planted three bombs already."

Doctors Warn Of Smoking Dangers

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts doctors report pronounced changes in their own smoking habits in the last five years. Now, almost all say teen-agers should be warned they risk lung cancer from cigarette smoking, a survey in the New England Journal of Medicine reported today.

More than 93 per cent of 4,576 physicians polled by representatives of the New England Deaconess Hospital Cancer Research Institute and the Harvard School of Public Health favored warning youth of the potential dangers from smoking cigarettes.

The five-year follow-up study of a survey made in 1954 was reported by Dr. Leonid S. Snegireff and Miss Olive M. Lombard of the hospital research institute and the Harvard school.

Among the 4 per cent who opposed an educational campaign, some expressed the opinion that teen-agers would not heed the advice. Others said such a campaign would be hopeless in view of heavy sums spent by cigarette advertisers.

In five years the percentage of doctors who do not smoke at all jumped from 34 per cent to 45 per cent, the survey said.

Those smoking only cigars and/or pipes now total 17 per cent.

The number smoking cigarettes fell from 52 per cent to 39 per cent.

There was a 40 per cent drop in the proportion smoking a package or more per day.

Half of the current smokers report they use less than a pack each day and some of these use only one or two cigarettes in a month.

The Tobacco Industry Research Committee contends that there has been no proof that smoking causes lung cancer.
