The calling of W. C. Coffey, Dean of Minnesota Agricultural College, to Washington for conference with President Coolidge has caused the Westerner to be mentioned as a likely successor to the late Secretary Wallace as head of the Department of Agriculture.

BLUE MOUND NEWS

Primary Room:

The little folks in the primary room have been making turkeys and Pilgrims. The following made perfect attendance and will be rewarded with a quarter day holiday: Vivian Ferguson, Ruth and Lois Jenkins, Levi Stragner, Lula, Alice and Oscar Murray, Mildred Shuler, Pauline and Wilson Trooper. We have reduced the number of tardy marks in the primary room. Last month we had eight to make perfect attendance. We believe we have made a better record than any other room again this month.

The primer class wove their first mats last week. They enjoyed this work and we hope to weave more soon.

More of the seventh and eighth grade books have come. We are now ready for some real work. The past week was spent in taking examinations. Some splendid grades were made. One more eighth grade student has been added to our class.

We have finished our second six weeks examination and today we started on the third six week period. The entire high school gets a quarter day holiday this week on account of our attendance record. The entire school gets Thursday and Friday of this week off for Thanksgiving holiday.

We also got two weeks Christmas vacation.

The Blue Mound boys and girls played basketball at Bethany last Friday. The boys came out on the long end of a 34-10 score. The girls won over the Bethany girls 15 to 8. These were both good games. The Bethany players took defeat very sportsmanlike.

A surprise party was given in honor of Marie Partridge last Wednesday night. Marie left Friday of Eureka, Kansas, where she intends to study music under the direction of Mrs. Lee Neet.

Dida Anderton spent Friday night with Anna Cramer.

J. L. Gregory and Miss Opal Booderish were married November 16th, 1924. They were charivariated at the Booderish home Friday night.

Wayne Montgomery has moved his family to the Arthur Gantz place.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Schuster and son, Bobbie, spent Sunday at the Shuler home.

J. W. Sherrill and family took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dilane Sunday.

Ralph Cramer and Jackson Holden spent Saturday night at the Ferguson home.

M. E. CHOIR ENTERTAINMENT

Mrs. Frank Rogers, choir leader of the M. E. Choir, assisted by the other officers, Mrs. John Bollin, Gladys Glasgow and Anna Holland, entertained the choir at the Rogers' home Tuesday evening. Singing took the most important part of the early hour after which business was transacted and refreshments served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Bollin, Ed Morgan, Joe Carlson, Rev. Huckabee and wife, Messrs. Roy Beever, George Holland, Misses Nina Glasgow, Anna Holland, Gladys Glasgow, Alma Cumbie and Mrs. Chas. Whippo.

REVIVAL MEETING AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. S. Huckabee, the new pastor of the Perryton Methodist Church, will start a revival campaign at the church in this city, on next Sunday morning. Rev. Huckabee will do the preaching. Perryton is fortunate in having a man of such caliber for a pastor. For a number of years, Rev. Huckabee was Conference Evangelist for the Central Texas Conference. That he is no novice at the revival work is clearly shown by the following testimonials:

Fort Worth, Texas, April 26th, 1913 To Whom it May Concern:

Rev. John S. Huckabee came to Mulkey Memorial Church last year and conducted the revival services for our Pastor, Rev. Sam J. Rucker. I have never heard a man through a series of services with whose methods I was so well pleased as I was with his. He is a deeply spiritual man and preaches the gospel in its purity. He does not undertake to whip the church into activity, but by presentation of the gospel of love no one can hear him without wanting to serve.

His work with the children of the church was by far the most satisfactory of any such service that I have ever heard or seen. This was followed by a service for the fathers and mothers, which was a Pentecost indeed.

I have heard most of the noted evangelists but would rather hear Brother Huckabee for two weeks than any one of them.

W. ERSKINE WILLIAMS, Lay Leader of Central Tex. Conference Rogers, Tex. April 25th, 1913 To Whom it May Concern:

I have had the rare pleasure to know the Rev. John S. Huckabee for many years, as an evangelist and also as my pastor and intimate friend and spiritual counsellor and adviser. I deem it one of the real blessings of my life to have known and communed with this devoted, earnest man of God, whose life has been an inspiration to me to the higher things of life.

As an evangelist, especially, is he eloquent and effective in his labor of love in leading the lost to their Lord and Savior.

It affords me pleasure to give my hearty and unqualified endorsement to Brother Huckabee both as a man and as a minister of the gospel.

Sincerely and faithfully yours, CHAS. W. TAYLOR State Senator Ferris, Tex., April 30th, 1913 To Whom it May Concern:

This is to certify that I know Rev. Jno. S. Huckabee, both as a man and as an evangelist, and it gives me pleasure to say that I have never met a man more devoted to his work. He held a series of meetings in our town and through his influence scores of our pupils were led to accept Christ.

His work is not of the sensational kind, but is that of the "Old Time Religion," that makes the world better.

I can cheerfully recommend him to any town desiring the services of a Christian gentleman.

D. B. ROARK, Superintendent High School.

He will be assisted in the work by Rev. Ira Huckabee and his wife of Miami, Texas. Mr. Huckabee received his education at the Southwestern University and Mrs. Huckabee is a graduate of Baylor. These young people have had exceptionally fine training for this kind of work, having spent about five years in evangelistic singing and work with the young people. This time was spent with the noted evangelists of the state. They both know and love the work and they will be a great inspiration and help to the people of Perryton.

Last But not least is Mrs. J. S. Huckabee, who will have charge of the children. She loves them as few others can.

We earnestly and sincerely request the presence help and co-operation of all who desire a better Perryton, a stronger church and a nobler citizenship.

Captain and Mrs. Joseph Maginn came in on Wednesday of last week from El Paso, Texas where they were married on November 10th by Col. Turner of San Francisco. These good people will have charge of the local post of the Salvation Army.

HOMER TEPE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Homer Tepe of the Tepe Hardware store, his son, Homer Tepe, Jr., and E. W. Geiger of Leavenworth narrowly escaped death early this morning when the Buick touring car of Mr. Tepe in which they were riding overturned down a 50-foot embankment about nine miles south of Mansfield.

Mr. Tepe is in the St. Anthony's Hospital South with a broken hip bone, the pelvic bone cracked and abdominal injuries the extent of which has not been determined.

The accident occurred while the party was enroute to lakes in Clark County to hunt ducks. The road at the point where the accident occurred makes a sharp turn which can be seen only a short distance, it is said. Mr. Tepe was driving about 30 miles an hour when the car came to the turn, and he applied the brakes in an attempt to stop the car. The machine bounded around the turn, struck a telephone pole which was snapped off where it was rotted at the ground and with the occupants the car rolled down the high embankment. The three were thrown from the car, but as it turned over Mr. Tepe was snatched out as quickly as Mr. Geiger and Homer, Jr., because of the steering wheel.

The car is a total wreck.

The Campbell-strain ambulance brought Mr. Tepe to the hospital, and Mr. Geiger and Homer, Jr., were brought to town in a car.—Dodge City Kansan.

HOME ECONOMICS

MINSTREL A SUCCESS

The minstrel show put on by the Home Economics Club under the able direction of Miss Simmons, head of the Home Economics department of the Perryton schools was a success in every way. The girls were greeted by a capacity audience and that their entertainment pleased was shown by the hearty applause which was given every number. It would be impossible to single out a single one for special credit for each and every one got across like professionals.

A TENDER T-BONE STEAK

There is beauty in an apple, and a yellow orange, too—
It's bit of captured sunshine that's imprisoned there for you,
But when Hunger's claws are pullin' like a good old-fashioned rake
There is nothin' so invitin' as a tender T-bone steak.

I have eaten fancy salads that I'm sure an artist made,
I have tasted dainty portion of fine orange marmalade,
But I've never yet encountered any dish a chef could make,
When I'm hungry, looked so temptin' as a tender T-bone steak.

Yes, I know there're fancy dishes that a fellow likes to eat,
When it's Christmas or Thanksgivin' that are surely quite a treat,
But when Appetite's a-knockin' at my sides until they ache,
Nothin' soothes my ruffled feelin's like a tender T-bone steak.

Oh, there is no sight that's finer—nothin' looks so good to me,
And no king or queen could ever have a greater luxury
Than an appetizin' supper—no you don't need pie or cake—
With some homemade bread and butter and a tender T-bone steak.

faculty of getting a lot of free advertising in his local newspapers. Upon his visit to the New York markets twice yearly he writes letters to the two newspapers of his town, telling about New York. He explains about the various improvements there that have taken place since his last visit he tells about the merchandise market; he even goes so far as to give a brief history of the extravagant, as well as the economic, side of New York life.

Hundreds of families in his territory look forward to reading his letters. You must capitalize upon everything pertaining to your business in order to get the public excited about your store.

Department stores in the large cities today never neglect to have their buyers, who go to foreign countries, send thousands of letters to their customers and prospective customers, telling about the huge purchases they have made of foreign goods. I have received many letters from representatives of large Minneapolis stores mailed from Paris, London and other European points. They tell what times their goods will arrive in this country, they explain about the new unique styles, fabrics and values.

I am a great believer in taking my newspaper as a partner in my business. Every newspaper has hundreds of ideas that are workable and profitable that they are only too glad to pass on to retail merchants—a newspaper is a clearing house of ideas especially pertaining to retail business and I wonder some time if we try to get as close to our newspaper as we ought to, as they would like to be with us. If you are interested in your newspaper they will be interested in you, and if you follow up your advertising with attractive window displays, able to advertise. Perhaps he foresaw the present slump, which has appeared to hit the motor concerns with special velocity. Perhaps he judged the time ripe solely because of the present restless attitude of the people and the fact that our Federal Government has declared an open season for awaiting big business.

At any rate, for some six months now the Ford Motor Company has been displaying itself in the publications of the country, in newspapers large and small, in class periodicals, in farm papers, in general magazines, in street cars, in outdoor positions and in many other forms of advertising.

With my brokerage business, we appropriated a million dollars for advertising this year, and we are like the National Cash Register Company, who claim that they had the biggest business career during May of this year, and you know how difficult it is to sell cash registers. In an article I read the other day I noticed also that 400,000 Ford cars were sold during the months of May and June of this year and only a short time ago he started on his second ten million cars.

What is the Standard Oil Company doing? Their advertising appears religiously in about every newspaper in the United States. They bring home right to our very door the fact that it does not necessarily take money to do business—using your brains and thinking is what counts.

TALKS TO RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

Two weeks before my fortieth birthday, which was several years ago, my wife handed me a good-sized envelope of letters one morning, the letters being addressed and stamped, and that I drop them in the mail as my way to the office. I wore my raincoat that morning, as it happened to be raining, so I slipped the envelope in the pocket of the coat, and, arriving at the office, I placed it in my locker, and forgot all about the letters. I did not wear that coat again for several weeks, and that's where my trouble started. The letters happened to be invitations to my fortieth birthday party, and the dinner was supposed to be at 6:00 P. M., but nobody showed up. I waited until seven, but my friends did not arrive, then lo and behold, my wife said to me, "Do you recall a party some few weeks ago when I gave you those letters to mail? They were the invitations to your party."

Immediately the thought struck me, "By golly, those letters are in the pocket of my raincoat at the office!" That incident reminds me of an old friend of mine who was in to see me the other day. He told me about a motor trip he had taken, driving from Minneapolis up North for a few hundred miles. It happened to be on a Saturday. He visited several towns on his trip, calling in at many stores, and he remarked to me, "Do you know there was about two chain stores in each one of the towns I went through, and they were the only stores that were busy—the other stores didn't appear to be doing much of anything." That caused him to investigate, just as a matter of curiosity, so I asked him the names of the towns he visited. I then wrote to the newspapers in each of the towns and requested that they send me their papers of Thursday and Friday, two days before the Saturday when my friend called at these stores. Upon receipt of these newspapers, I found that in four out of five papers, all the store advertising that had been done was by the chain stores. That solved the problem.

The retail merchants in the towns where my friend visited had failed to advertise in the newspapers, inviting the public to their store that Saturday, and the public not receiving an invitation, did not come, but the chain stores had invited them with a neat, effective ad, attractive in style and chuck full of common sense, and, naturally, that is where they went.

So the stores that failed to receive their friends were like my birthday party—the crowd didn't come.

I venture to say in all the failures of retail merchants the last three years not twenty per cent of those same merchants advertised religiously in newspapers, whereas, if they had, their investment in newspaper advertising would have brought sufficient trade to prevent a great amount of their losses.

The total newspaper advertising of 122 daily newspapers in 28 principal cities of the United States in the year 1923 was 1,333,954,971 square lines—a gain of 92,651,690 lines over the previous year.

We are not handicapped today in unfolding our business the same as our forefathers were who were compelled to depend chiefly upon personal exploitation of the individual, for the circulation in those days was very small.

First of all the newspaper has circulation. A single newspaper will often cover from 60 to 80 per cent of the homes in its territory. Advertising space in that paper will give a much greater return per dollar spent than will any other form of advertising on which postage is spent.

Second, people are accustomed to reading the newspaper. It is not difficult to get their attention, as in the case of the circular letter, the booklet forms of direct by mail advertising.

Third, and best of all, it is timely. The advertiser is able to appeal to his audience by frequent advertisements.

So we are led to believe that even criticisms about us in the columns of newspapers is good advertising, and so with the retail merchant, the minute he starts figuring on selling merchandise, he has got to start figuring on the advertising that is going to do it.

Advertising certainly has many sides. It can scream, talk, or whisper, it can attract the eye or befuddle it. It can be an interesting story, or uninteresting piffle, there are just as many kinds of advertising as there are things to advertise. There is the sincere kind that breathes honesty and truthfulness, and which carries the reader right through to the end, and then again—there is the kind of advertising that says, "Beware, I am just trying to attract attention; I don't mean what I say, and I don't intend to make good on the extravagant claims I am talking about."

Newspapers, however, are not in the habit of publishing misleading advertising, and for that reason public has unlimited confidence in newspaper advertising.

The retail merchant who will figure on spending two per cent of his gross receipts for newspaper advertising and one-half of one per cent for direct mail advertising, such as letters, post cards, etc. and prepare this advertising the same as if he were talking to his customers when they come in his store, there would be no need to complain about quiet trade.

You may say, "How can I educate my self to write advertising?" I know many successful merchants who have gained their advertising education through reading and studying good trade publications which publish splendid articles in every issue. No one can prepare advertising for the goods you own and offer for sale as good as yourself. The merchant who is open-minded and visualizes his opportunity, getting his subconscious mind in working order, is not going to experience dull trade.

Like the bathing suit manufacturer a short time ago who originated a picture of a beautiful young lady wearing a bathing suit. He had an actual photograph done in colors and it was so unique and attractive that I have noticed thousands of these ads pasted on automobile windshields. One of the most successful small town merchants who has been in business for forty years has the happy

New Way to Stop Night Coughing

Those who have suffered the torments of sleeplessness due to continual coughing at night, and who as a result often feel utterly worn out and useless during the day, need no longer permit their systems to be weakened and their vitality sapped by this distressing ailment. Through a very simple treatment the trouble can be stopped almost at once, and people often get their full night's rest undisturbed after the very first trial.

The method: Simply get a bottle of the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery from any good drug store. Then tonight before retiring take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. This prescription has a soothing action. It not only soothes and quiets the soreness and irritation, but it actually loosens and removes the phlegm and mucus which is the real cause of the cough. So your throat is left peacefully soothed and cleared of irritating particles, you can sleep soundly and restfully, and the cough is usually gone in a very short time.

Dr. King's New Discovery is a remarkable remedy for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic croup, measles, laryngitis and bronchial asthma. At all good druggists. Ask for

CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE

Washington, D. C., November 15, 1924.—The Department of Commerce is about to take a census of agriculture covering the crop year 1924 and relating to conditions on or near January 1, 1925. This is the first Census of Agriculture to be taken midway between the decennial census; the Act of Congress authorizing it is based on the belief that, with rapidly changing conditions in agriculture, there should be a stock taking as often as every five years. The work of taking the census will begin on December 1, and is to be completed on or before January 31. As rapidly as possible after the receipt of returns statements will be released for the press, by Census Bureau at Washington, relative to production of the principal farm crops and the values of farm properties, including land, buildings, machinery, and live stock.

The enumeration will require the services of 15,000 to 20,000 enumerators acting under the direction of 212 supervisors, who have for the most part been selected from the employees of the Bureau of the Census and the Department of Agriculture. Employees of the Forest Service will secure the Census returns for most of the farms within the National forest reserves in Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Sample questionnaires are being widely distributed to the farmers, to familiarize them with the information to be called for by the enumerators. In addition to the usual inquiries relative to production, values, and farm expenses, the schedule calls for the amount of taxes paid by the farm operator on farm property, including real estate tax, personal property tax, and special assessments. It is important to ascertain just what the burden of taxation resting upon the farm really is and how it compares with the amount of taxes paid by other interests. This may point the way to a more equitable adjustment of the tax burden.

Heretofore the census of agriculture has always been taken in connection with a complete census of population. This time it will cover the farm population only, showing the number of persons living on the farm including the family to the operator and the farm laborers and their families. These persons will be classified as under or over ten years of age and as white or colored.

The extent to which farm operators used the purchasing and selling facilities of farmers' organizations will be brought out by two inquiries; one calling for the value of products of the farm sold through a farmers' marketing organization, and the other calling for the values of all farm supplies purchased from or through a farmer's organization. An additional index to the marketing conditions will be brought out by answers to inquiries as to the kind of road adjoining the farm, whether concrete, brick, macadam, gravel, improved dirt, or unimproved dirt, and the distance to the nearest market town. Through inquiries of this character the Census seeks to secure information relative to conditions upon which to a considerable degree the success of farm operation depends.

Texas is divided into fourteen districts. Ochiltree County is in district No 1, the enumeration of which will be under the supervision of Parker D. Hanna of Canyon, Texas. It is estimated that it will require 70 enumerators to take the census of this

THE BRAIN GROWS.
FLYING PULLMAN CARS.
MELLON WILL STAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Careful Citizen, go now and buy what you need without further delay. Prices are low, because merchants whose distribution of goods has been checked by abnormally warm weather in many big cities, have cut prices regardless of cost. But cold weather is coming. And, more important, the boom is here already. When prices go up on the stock exchange, you know that you will soon see prices going up in the stores also. Do your shopping early, and for the sake of your pocketbook this time, not merely for the sake of the over-worked Christmas-time salesmen.

The human brain is capable of unlimited development and there is no such thing as overwork for a brain properly developed. Thinking with intense concentration makes the brain actually grow at any age. The latest proof is the increase of one-quarter of an inch in the size of Lloyd George's head since 1903. A quarter of an inch makes a great difference when the space is filled with the right kind of brain matter.

Also, thinking changes and increases the size of the nose, develops the chin. We are what our thoughts make us.

Judge Soper in Baltimore decides that the "one-half of one per cent" clause in the Volstead Act doesn't apply to drinks made at home for home use. If that decision stands it will make a big hole in prohibition. Incidentally it will mean more prosperity for graveyards. Home-made beverages, as the doctor will testify, are the undertaker's best friends.

Fat men and men with hobbies that engross their thoughts are rarely thieves, says the head of a district. The 1920 census gave this district 16,505 farms. District No. 1 is composed of 26 counties in Texas and 8 counties in Oklahoma. They are as follows: Armstrong, Beaver (Okla.), Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Cimarron (Okla.), Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hennepin, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher, Texas (Okla.), Wheeler.

Mrs. Arthur Pearson of Farnsworth brought her little boy in Tuesday to have his adenoids removed, while Dr. Powell was here.

bonding company. And the married man is six times as safe, from the point of view of stealing, as the unmarried man. That says a good deal for the influence of wives and children.

Marriages, as compared with divorces, are falling off in the United States. The Census Bureau shows that in 1923 the number of divorces increased 12 per cent, the number of marriages only 8 per cent more than the previous year. That isn't good news.

Mr. Hungerford writes to this column, asking for a definition of the great "social problem" of the present day. The greatest problem is to make a real success of the average marriage.

The fault, of course, is with men. It will take several centuries, probably, to educate them up to the only kind of life worth while.

Big steamship companies think more rapidly than do our United States railroad companies. At least the big lines already are planning flying boats for carrying passengers across the Atlantic. If anything is to make their ships obsolete they want to own the thing that does it.

American railroads seem content to watch their stocks booming and boiling, without worrying about the fact that in twenty-five years passenger traffic will be cut down to short hauls. Fast trains across the continent or only half way across will be only a memory.

George F. Baker, boss of several roads, and young in spite of his eighty odd years, should set the young men an example. Mr. Carry, head of the Pullman Company, has long been at work on plans for light, but strong "flying Pullman cars."

News from Washington that Secretary Mellon will consent to remain in charge of the Treasury is good news. The management of United States finances, including the paying of billions of debt rolled up so swiftly, takes real financial and business ability.

Mr. Mellon has both. The people will be fortunate if he continues working for them for nothing, neglecting a profitable business of his own.

Youth and beauty go forward in Germany more rapidly than here. The German newspapers discuss this question: "Should modern bob-haired women tip their hats to each other?"

Another subject discussed is this: "Is smoking pines ladylike?"

Let's hope that chewing tobacco by ladies will be postponed for a while.

GUNNING FOR THE CIDER MILL

With perfect, if not impertinent, serenity we are told that "Home Brew is legal but the Government will ignore the Verdict." This relative to the acquittal of Representative John Philip Hill, of Maryland, charged with violating the Volstead law by making cider in his own home. Further we are advised that the prohibition director, Mr. Haynes, despite the court ruling, "will continue to enforce the law." In brief, the government states it will "enforce the law" by breaking t. Bolshevism in its glory never reached such heights of bold dictatorship when government officials announce that they will act in open defiance of the courts it is time to boot those gentlemen out of office without much ado.
Pressing this silly attack on the home manufacture of cider is a procedure little short of persecution. Taking from the farmer his home made cider while the great cities in both east and west are reeking with rotten whisky and foul bootleg alcohols, boldly sold in the open market, makes mockery of law and arouses indignation in the heart of every clean-thinking man. Hunting for technical terms under which petty persecution can be pressed is a pastime the taxpayers of America do not care to pay for. Everyone knows the objective of our prohibition law. Everyone knows it was and is intended to put an end to alcoholic consumption, to stop the poisoning of the nation and the undermining of our national welfare. Now it is proposed to have Congress so modify the law that the maker of cider may be thrown into jail like a common felon along with the bootlegger and the moonshiner. Any such effort on the part of Congress will result in a public protest that will shake the country and rattle more than one of our law-breaking law makers out of his comfortable job.

Poem by Uncle John

Uncle Billy Spriggs is an old-time wreck, but there ain't no kinks in his soul, by heck! He's everybody's friend in the whole blame town, with a ticklin' in his system that he can't keep down.
The moon shines brighter when the old man grins,—though his head's plumb bald—an' his ears ain't twins—he's a little hard o' hearin' an' his teeth don't fit, but he dotes on humor, and he thrives on wit!
His leg went bum when he had that stroke—an' his chest hurts some where his ribs got broke. He smashed his jaw when he fell down stairs—but, you oughta see the smile that old Bill wears!
Of course there's reasons for a good scout's mirth—his heart's in heaven, though his feet's on earth,—he takes this paper to his soul's delight.—O, it's no use talkin'—Uncle Bill's all right!

New Low Prices on Goodyear Balloon Tires

Why jolt over rough, uneven roads with 50 or 60 pounds pressure in your tires, when you can float along on 25 to 35 on these big, flexible-sidewall Goodyear Balloons?

We will furnish Goodyear Interchangeable Balloon Tires to fit your present wheels, and the cost is actually less than you have been paying for the tires now on your car.

If you prefer the small diameter Balloon Tires, we can take care of you. We have the wheels, rims and tires.

At our new low prices there is no reason why you should not enjoy Balloon Tires on your car.

Goodyear Balloon Tires make a Ford ride like a Packard. They make a Packard ride like a dream.

"PERRYTON PREFERRED"

You're a Stockholder---help yourself to Interest

THE FACT that you live in Perryton---makes you a holder in Perryton. This is true whether you own property or pay rent---whether you're in business for yourself or lend your efforts and energies to another business---whether you are active passive.

What would you think of a stockholder in any business that let his coupons go unclipped--that was vitally enough interested to be a stockholder, and not vitally enough interested to further the cause in every possible way he could.

Yet---that's just the situation---unless you do your best for Perryton---paradoxically you collect interest lending interest---and you cannot avoid being a stockholder.

Therefore it's obvious how much you benefit by giving Perryton your best--how directly your interests are in Perryton's---and vice versa.

That most citizens are serving is evidenced by the finite progress Perryton is making.

That Perryton will progress that much more rapidly if every citizen will lend his best--so that he in return---is evident. So this is our plea for your co-operation trade at home---boost for Perryton---help the other fellow so that he may better help you.
