Viet Forces Stage Coup To Unseat Gen. Khanh

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Military forces headed by a Roman Catholic officer revolted today against Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh's leadership and, without firing a shot, seized strategic centers of Saigon.

But an attempt seemed under way to nullify the coup, the eighth major upheaval in South Viet Nam's politico-military affairs in the last 16 months. The situation was tense. U.S. diplomats launched consultations, evidently aimed at avoiding bloodshed.

Warplanes circled above the rebel-held Saigon radio station and tanks were drawn up outside it. Loudspeakers warned civilians to clear the area.

The rebel chieftain, Col. Pham Ngoc Thao, 42, said the commander of South Viet Nam's U.S. - backed armed forces was under house arrest, along with Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, head of the air force. Ky put down a similar uprising against Khanh last Sept. 13.

Conflicting reports, however, said Ky was safe and still in control of many of his fighters at the Bien Hoa base outside Saigon and that Khanh was at one of two provincial cities, Bang Tau or Nha Trang.

Thao 42, and most of the other coup leaders are Catholics, a minority in this largely Buddhist nation.

A violent Buddhist reaction was predicted to their bid for power, which came 72 hours after the installation of a new government in which that sect was well represented.

Thao is a former aide of Khanh who, in the late 1940s, served as both a line officer and information chief for Ho Chi Minh in the Communist fight that eventually drove the French from Indochina. He explained "I was never a Communist, but I believed deeply in the liberation of the country."

Thao accused Khanh of running a dictatorship. He said the strong man who has dominated South Vietnamese affairs for 13 months was interested only in money and power.

"No government can work under Khanh pressure," he said.

Thao in a broadcast accused Khanh of swindling the military and the people. He said his action was directed against one man — Khanh — and no one else.

It was the eighth government upheaval in South Viet Nam since President Ngo Dinh Diem was overthrown and slain Nov. 1, 1963. Khanh, commander of the armed forces, has been the country's strongman since Jan. 30, 1964.

There was great possibility of an attack by military units loyal to Khanh.

Khanh had been expecting trouble. Nearly the entire armed forces strategic reserve, normally held in Saigon to reinforce any field units in trouble, had been deployed to the provinces where forces loyal to Khanh presumably were still in charge.

These include two battalions of Marines in central Bin Dinh Province and the large force Khanh led to Nha Trang for an attack on a suspected Viet Cong supply port.

Thao claimed he had the support of the 25th, 9th, 7th and 5th Army Divisions, which are stationed in areas adjoining Saigon, plus part of the marine corps and part of the air force.

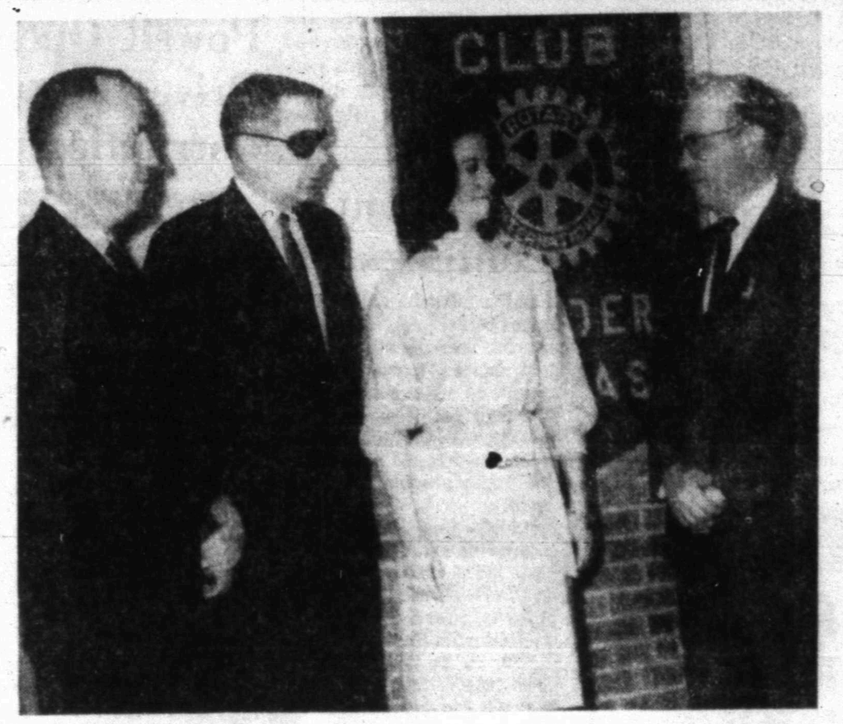

The first signs of the coup came at the waterfront near Knanh's armed forces headquarters. Several M24 tanks smashed through the barbed-wire barricades outside the navy headquarters and Khanh's house, which are on the same street.

Riding in one of the tanks was Col. Thao.

This happened about 1 p.m. Saigon time (midnight Thursday Eastern Standard Time).

Area Fears More Slides

STEWART, B.C. (AP) — The threat of more slides grew today as 120 men — some hurt seriously — huddled in the ruins of a remote glacial valley mining camp waiting for help.

The fate of at least 20 companions remained hidden under the rubble of a giant avalanche that thundered down Thursday on the Granduc Mining Co., almost wiping out the northern British Columbia copper mining camp on the edge of a glacier.

Sketchy reports from the scene indicate the miners were continuing to hunt for the missing men, but were hampered by darkness.

Vicious weather—high winds, snow and rain—prevented rescuers from getting to the mountain - ringed campsite. Recent warm weather and continued heavy rainfall brought fears of more slides before a way could be found to evacuate the camp.

Radio reports from the camp said 17 injured men were lying on a floor of an office building, some needing additional medical aid.

Some of the injured were pulled from a mass of mud, snow and ice that struck in midmorning. Others were among 40 men rescued late Thursday from a tunnel being dug into copper reserves under Le Duc glacier, officials reported.

Canadian Lt. Col. Walter H. V. Mathews confirmed today in nearby Prince Rupert, B.C., that 40 were rescued from the tunnel. He said at least 20 men were missing, maybe still trapped in the tunnel or somewhere under tons of debris.

Band, Choir Pupils Sell Magazines

The annual magazine subscription campaign by members of the Snyder High School Music Department will be in progress for the next 10 days.

Purpose of the campaign is to raise funds to pay expenses for the high school band and choir to participate in the Buccaneer Music Festival at Corpus Christi.

Residents have been asked to require students to show identification cards before purchasing magazine subscriptions. Students from the music department have identification cards from the Snyder Schools signed by the high school principal. Reports have been made to the schools that outside groups representing themselves as being from the local high school have been selling magazines.

The high school music department has urged local residents to save their subscriptions for members of the school organizations rather than giving them to outside salesmen.

Heart Fund Drive Set This Weekend

Starting this afternoon, and continuing through the weekend, Heart Sunday volunteers will be on the march to give every resident of Scurry County an opportunity to contribute to the fight against this nation's number one health enemy—the heart and blood vessel diseases.

Over 200 local residents will visit homes in every section of Snyder and the county to accept contributions to the 1965 Heart Fund, and, as educational ambassadors, to distribute pamphlets about heart disease and the work of the heart association.

Where the volunteer finds no one at home, he, or she, will leave a pre-addressed envelope in which a contribution may be conveniently sent to Heart Fund headquarters during the next few days.

Heart Sunday marks the high point in the Scurry County Heart Association's fourth annual Heart Fund drive which makes possible national, state, and local programs of research, education, and community service. The local heart unit noted that all Heart Sunday volunteers have been supplied with "Official Volunteer" badges and only those persons so identified have been authorized by the Scurry County Heart Association to make Heart Sunday collections.

Division chairmen and team captains are asked to turn in their collections at a report meeting from 2 - 5 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 21, at the community room of the West Texas State Bank (next door to the Chamber of Commerce office on Twenty - sixth Street.)

Chairmen and captains unable to make the report meeting on Sunday should turn in their receipts to Doug Flynn, Scurry County Heart Fund treasurer, at the administration building, Snyder Public Schools.

He also is under 8-year state sentence for swindling.

Both cases involve sale of mortgages which listed fake collateral.

The charges in Dallas federal court claim he swore to statements concerning his financial condition which were false.

CHALLENGE WITHHELD

UN Recesses Stormiest Meet

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The General Assembly ended one of the stormiest sessions in U.N. history Thursday night and recessed until Sept. 1 after the United States checkmated an Albanian move to force an East-West showdown.

Applause rang out as Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson announced that the United States would agree to a procedural ballot demanded by Albania and would not challenge the Soviet Union's right to vote.

Red China's U.N. spokesman, Halim Budo of Albania, boasted that he had strong support. But a 97-2 vote swamped his demand that the assembly organize for normal business. There were 13 abstentions, of which France was the only major power. Mauritania voted with Albania.

The assembly approved by acclamation an interim budget and the appointment of a multination committee to study the problem of U.N. peace-keeping.

The assembly adjourned at 7:51 p.m. following a sharp exchange in the closing moments between Stevenson and Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko.

Criticizing Stevenson for announcing that he was withholding the U.S. challenge on voting rights, Fedorenko declared, "The United States cannot set itself up as an arbiter on whether this forum can vote or not."

Stevenson retorted that he had thought the Soviet Union wanted to avoid a showdown at this stage and demanded to know why Fedorenko did not voice his objections before the ballot.

Since Dec. 1 the assembly had been restricted to general policy debate by the refusal of the Soviet Union, France and other nations to pay peacekeeping assessments and the determination of the United States to demand that their votes in the assembly be taken away under Article 19 of the U.N. Charter.

Dutch Freighter Sinks Off Azores

ROTTERDAM, Netherlands (AP) — The Dutch freighter Sophocles caught fire and sank today in the Atlantic 480 miles northeast of the Azores.

Three of the 44-man crew were missing. A ship and a British plane were searching for them. The other 41 were taken aboard the Dutch ship Ulysses.

The 5,711-ton freighter sailed Feb. 10 from Arcadera in the Netherlands Antilles, bound for Oslo, Norway, with a cargo of fertilizer.

The agency said fire broke out in the No. 3 hold early this morning. A few hours later there was an explosion and the ship capsized.

Malaysia Captures Indonesian Soldiers

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysian troops rescued and captured eight Indonesian military men, including four officers, after their boat capsized off the eastern coast of Malaysian North Borneo, reports reaching here today said.

IN BROOKLYN

Negroes Stage More Marches

NEW YORK (AP) — Negro youngsters marched again today in the Brooklyn section where a brick-throwing, window-smashing mob ran wild on two successive days.

Some 50 to 75 school age children showed up outside the Board of Education building, focal point of demonstrations growing out of a school boycott protesting alleged segregation.

A large police detachment was on hand when the group started marching along a sidewalk across the street, chanting "Bluecoats must go! Ole! Ole!"

Two mounted patrolmen rode their horses onto the sidewalk and split the marchers into two groups — acting, police said, on the presumption that the students weren't pickets but a mob.

A young man leading one group began arguing and was hauled into a patrol car. A girl, with him reacted by screaming and yelling and she, too, was thrust into the car, which left the scene.

Today the area around the building resembled an armed camp, with scores of policemen and police vehicles patrolling the vicinity. Wooden barricades were placed around the building.

A group of some 50 ministers picketed the entrance.

Italian Bus Crash Kills 16 Persons

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — A bus went off a viaduct on the Naples-Pompeii highway Thursday night and crashed 50 feet down into a ravine, killing 16 persons and injuring 29.

All aboard the bus were Italian except one British resident of the Naples area, Arthur Harris, 45. He was reported in serious condition.

A HIGH-SPEED CHASE which started at Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue T ended abruptly at the dead end of the Rodeo Road at 8:40 p.m. when this 1958 Cadillac, driven by Edward A. Lewis, 31, 412 Twenty-ninth Street, missed the turn and plowed its way into a field. The driver received a broken nose and ribs, and was taken to Cogdell Hospital by Bell-Seale ambulance where his condition this morning was said to be good. A city police car was in pursuit of the car, but since the mishap occurred outside the city limits, the Texas Highway Patrol investigated.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 years old and I have never been kissed. To tell you the truth, I have never even been on a real date. I am not bad - looking, but I wear glasses. I am beginning to wonder if maybe that isn't my trouble. I am not too shy, although I don't throw myself at boys, either. I can also carry on a pretty good conversation. At the rate I'm going, I'll be an old maid. Can you help me?

DATELESS

DEAR DATELESS: Eyeglasses rarely, if ever, cost a girl popularity. But they provide a handy excuse, which is easily seen through. For a girl to be popular, she must develop the kind of personality other people enjoy. The first step is to quit thinking about yourself and concentrate on making the other person comfortable.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A man who would make a perfect husband has asked me to marry him. My problem is his mother. She dominates him. When he was a child, she divorced his father and devoted her whole life to raising Hal. I have to hand it to her. She did a fine job. He is beautifully educated, has a wonderful personality and is well - respected in the community. He's 41 and lives with his mother. He says when we marry, SHE will live with us. His friends tell me they wouldn't wish a mother-in-law like her on their worst enemy. She is not the affectionate, gushy type, but she seems to like me. (Hal says I am the first girl to pass her inspection.) She is 60 and in good health. Hal told me that he owes his mother "everything" and she will always come first. I love this man, but wonder about the chances of a good marriage.

A VIRGO

DEAR VIRGO: You're luckier than most women who are engaged to a Mamma's boy. He has told you in advance exactly where you will stand — behind his mother, which is a poor second for any wife. Don't marry him unless you enjoy feeling sorry for yourself.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I have been having nightmares every night for the past few weeks. First, let me tell you that I am a 38-year-old wife and mother. My husband is reasonably good to me, and while my life isn't always moonlight and roses, I am by nature a happy, friendly, but rather quiet person. I keep dreaming the same terrible dream over again. I dream that I am in a big lake and I am an expert swimmer (which I am not) and I am with people who can't swim. They are drowning and I could save them if I wanted to, but I just let them drown and it doesn't seem to bother me a bit. What do you make of that, Abby? Please don't send me to a psychiatrist. He would think I am crazy.

HAVING NIGHTMARES

DEAR HAVING: It would appear that your dreams are the result of deep guilt feelings. Are you in a position to help someone, but have chosen to look out the window? If the nightmares persist, see a psychiatrist. I assure you he won't think you are "crazy."

• • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO PHIL: There is, indeed, hope—for a problem honestly stated is half-solved.

Old Glory Still Flies On Iwo Jima

By ROBERT EUNSON

IWO JIMA (AP) — The wind whipped Old Glory until she popped today as though it was the muffled crack of distant guns. More than 30 veterans gazed down over the parapet built two decades ago on Mt. Suribachi.

Only the sands of Iwo Jima were reminiscent of the bloody Pacific campaign that began here 20 years ago today and ended a month later after 6,821 Americans and 19,000 Japanese were dead.

"In the latter stages of World War II," Brig. Gen. John Coursey of the U.S. Marines said in a ceremony commemorating the anniversary, "Iwo Jima attained a stature of great strategic significance. It became equally as important to Japan that the island be held at all costs as it was for the United States to seize the island at any price.

"Thus on this fateful day, 20 years ago, the forces of these nations closed in mortal combat. They remained thus engaged for 36 fierce days, neither side gaining or giving a foot of ground, but through fire, flood or death."

Only 1,000 surrendered of the Japanese force of 20,000. The rest fought to the death.

During the battle for Iwo Jima, the 3rd, 4th and 5th Divisions of the U.S. Marines took 22,056 casualties. Of these 4,564 died with their combat boots on. Another 1,331 died of wounds. This total of 5,895 amounted to almost one-third of all the Marines killed during World War II.

Ranger Scientists Eye Big Decision

By RALPH DIGHTON

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists guiding the Ranger 8 spacecraft to the moon face a critical decision — whether a final maneuver will be necessary to insure good pictures in the final plunge to the lunar surface Saturday morning.

Radio contact with the 800-pound spacecraft has been far from perfect since its launching from Cape Kennedy Wednesday. There was a time early Thursday when they did not know whether it had obeyed commands pointing it at the moon's Sea of Tranquillity prior to the firing of a steering rocket.

Apparently it did obey properly. After long hours of tracking, scientists determined Thursday afternoon that Ranger 8 probably would impact within 18 miles of its target.

But there was a chance its six television cameras might not be pointed at the best angle to take some 4,000 pictures as it crashes into the lunar surface at 5,800 miles an hour.

Ranger 8 still has enough fuel to twist itself around in space if necessary so this is the dilemma faced by scientists today:

1. They first must determine whether the cameras are pointed at the best angle.

2. If not, they must decide whether to risk — in view of earlier communications difficulties — commanding the spacecraft to twist around to a different position.

On the basis of what they knew at the time, however, scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory said Thursday that Ranger 8 should land at 4:57 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Saturday and take better pictures than Ranger 7 last July 31.

A decision on whether to attempt the critical but possibly hazardous maneuver just before impact was expected to be made sometime this afternoon.

GOPs Oppose Viet Bargaining

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican congressional leaders have stepped up their opposition to a negotiated settlement of the war with Viet Nam.

GOP Senate Leader Everett M. Dirksen charged in a floor speech Thursday that advocates of a settlement propose to "run up the white flag before the world and start running away from communism."

Earlier in the day, House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford declared in a statement some Democrats want the United States to pull out of Viet Nam and "retreat to Pearl Harbor."

With Democrats divided on the issue, debate over Southeast Asian policy forced the Senate into another late session.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield stepped into the debate to argue against equating negotiations with surrender and appeasement.

Mansfield said of Dirksen: It is "a profound reassurance to know that the great senator from Illinois can be counted on to put the best interests of the nation first in any critical situation."

But, Mansfield told the Senate, it was "entirely proper" for Sens. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and George S. McGovern, D-S.D., to suggest consideration of negotiation "which might lead to a prompt end to the bloodshed."

Close associates said Mansfield was concerned that speeches by Dirksen and other critics of Church and McGovern might be designed to foreclose any thought of negotiations, at least in the foreseeable future.

Dirksen, in a reply to the Senate speeches Church and McGovern made Wednesday, said: "If we don't man the ramparts of freedom on our outer defense line from Korea to South Viet Nam, we'll inevitably be facing the enemy on the inner line from Alaska to Hawaii."

To negotiate in South Viet Nam while Communist aggression is spreading throughout the entire Southeast Asia peninsula," Dirksen declared, "is like a man trying to paint his front porch while his house is on fire."

Pop Bottle Fraternizing Is Approved

By PATRICK McNULTY
Associated Press Writer

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — The National Football League has decided NFL and rival American Football League players can mingle — but only under soft drink bottle caps.

Approval at the NFL annual meeting Thursday to continue a program mixing NFL and AFL player pop bottle pictures was rare evidence that the NFL is aware a rival league exists. Since the meetings began Monday, NFL owners have ignored the AFL like a distant relative.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced that the league is enthusiastic about backing for a second year a soft drink company's (Coca Cola) program that puts pictures of NFL and AFL players under bottle caps.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today expelled Adam Clymer, Moscow correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, accusing him of slapping a policeman's face during demonstrations outside the U.S. Embassy Feb. 9.

Clymer denied the charges and the U.S. Embassy told the Russians it felt the expulsion unjustified. Clymer, who has been assigned in Moscow since last spring, agreed to leave with his wife by Feb. 26. Soviet officials said a visa would be granted to another Sun correspondent.

Ex-Patient Confesses

He was arrested an hour after the triple shooting Wednesday night.

Bullets from a .30 caliber Army rifle killed Cornelio de la Cruz, 54, a civil service painter at Randolph Air Force Base; his wife, Frances, 48, and their son, Cornelio Jr., 21.

Mrs. de la Cruz operated a beer lounge. She, her husband and son had just alighted from a taxicab at their home when shots were fired from a parked car.

Lutzenberger told officers and newsmen he had known Mrs. de la Cruz a little more than four years and they argued last week.

He was sentenced to three years in prison in 1952 for theft. He was charged with burglary in 1954 but was adjuged insane and committed to Rusk State Hospital. He was released in 1956 after being pronounced sane.

Powell Opens Drive On Corruption

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., whose last drive against what he calls police corruption in Harlem led to $262,000 in damages against him, is launching another one.

"I'm going to start again," he told the House Thursday, "and name the places of the numbers racket drops and dope drops in Harlem." The payoff to police is $3,000 per month per drop, he said.

He tossed into his speech the names of three men he said killed a Harlem gambler, Arthur Power, last Oct. 20 in a case the police still list as unsolved.

"They have been sheltered by the police," the Negro congressman said, "and I have gotten their names from the files of the police department. They are Terry Lindsay, Charles (Skippy) Martin, and Vincent (Hank) Hawkins."

New York police said Thursday night that Perry Lindsay, 38, of the Bronx, was arrested on Oct. 23, 1964, and charged with homicide in the shooting three days earlier of Arthur Powers, 36, described as a small-time hoodlum. Police said Lindsay was indicted on a charge of first-degree murder and is in jail awaiting trial.

There was a difference in spelling by Powell and police.

Wanted notices have been issued for the arrest of Martin and Hawkins, police said.

Powell's speech hit at "political and underworld-controlled judges," and called the police in Harlem "the dregs of the force."

"What I am bucking here is the entire underworld," he said.

ALL PRETTIED UP—Members of the Snyder Beauticians Affiliate No. 77 visited patients at the Snyder Nursing Home Monday and gave free beauty care to ladies. Members of the organization give their time each year as a community project and to boost the morale of the ladies who otherwise are unable to receive such services. Many such patients and underpriveleged persons will receive these thoughtful expressions as beauticians observe National Beauty Salon Week. Chuckwagon Feed For Iota Psi

Ranch hands of the Iota Psi of Epsilon Sigma Alpha spread were fed royally from the Johnston chuckwagon on Monday Feb. 15th. From a red and white check covered table with a center piece of cowboys and Indians, the chief cook, Virginia served barbecued steaks, pinto beans, potato salad, a relish dish, tea, cake and coffee to Beverly Ainsworth Faydean Hart, Sue Mahood, Ann Matthews, Anita Payne, Anna Stephens, Etta Wilson, Betty Hunter, Helen Breeden, Virginia McMillan and Opal Coffee.

After dinner a short business meeting was conducted. During this meeting Beverly Ainsworth was nominated as candidate for treasurer of District VIII. It was also decided Iota Psi will assist with the Heart Fund canvass on Sunday.

Donations Made By A Daughters

Mrs. Ross Carroll was hostess to the Altrurian Daughters Club Wednesday at Martha Ann Woman's Club.

During the business meeting a $100.00 contribution was voted to the Martha Ann Woman's Club, and a free will offering was taken up for the benefit of the Barbie Fund.

Plans were made for the next meeting which will be a covered dish luncheon at the ranch home of Mrs. Ophelia Blackard.

Mrs. N. R. Clements gave a delightful review of Jack Douglass book "Huckleberry Hashimoto." It is a hilarious account of a trip via Hawaii and Tahiti to Japan to visit the Japanese parents of Mrs. Douglas and to let them meet their little grandson, "Huckleberry Hasimoto," — Bobby Douglas.

Girl Scouts Present Program To 20th Century

Mrs. J. N. Dunn was hostess for the Twentieth Century Club Tuesday afternoon.

After a brief business session six members of Girl Scout Troop No. 168 presented the program. The girls taking part were Dana Weaver, Marion Watts, Jan Rains, Jane Barnett, Linda Sowell and Mary Jane Turner. They told of the history of scouting, the requirements necessary to be a Girl Scout and explained the Investiture Service. The girls displayed their badges and told of the work they had done to receive them, as well as the Sign of the Arrow and Sign of the Bear.

Mrs. B. J. Bartels, leader for the troop, closed the program by interpreting the Scout Promise and by emphasizing the contribution that scouting has made and will continue to make in the new nations of the world.

Mrs. Dunn served refreshments to 14 members, one guest, Mrs. R. L. Scarbrough and the six girl scouts.

Sorority Program On Music

Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday evening in the community room of Snyder Savings and Loan. Plans were made to sponsor a bowling tournament with all proceeds to be given to the Barbie Vardy fund.

Mary Lou Scott gave an interesting program on "Absolute Music." She explained that absolute music differs from tone poems, in that absolute music did not tell a story but was written simply for the joy of listening to beautiful music. Tone poems, on the other hand, do tell a story of something such as the sound of a river or the joy of a quiet meadow. She played excerpts from a number of recordings and explained the circumstances under which each was written and told the story of each author.

Members present were: Pat Allen, Judi Hardin, Bettie Huddleston, Pat Pate, Mary Lou Scott, Francis Shamburger, Patty Slator, Eileene Snyder, Juanita Tucker, Betty Winkles, Linda Salley, Pat Shaw, Jeannine Rigsby and the hostesses, Pam Mengwasser and Helen Gilbert.

Locating Civil War Monuments

A TOUR GUIDE TO THE CIVIL WAR. By Alice Hamilton Cromie.

This guide comes too late for all but the stragglers among the war centennial tourists. But it still is a valuable and worthwhile work.

Here are listed not only battlefields (including obscure ones like Scary Creek, W. Va., and Lone Jack, Mo.) but monuments, museums, forts, historic homes, cemeteries. Each is described and located clearly.

One of the most charming characteristics of Mrs. Cromie's book is its informality. This is not a stiff, colorless, compendium; it is lively, interesting reading even if you have no intention of going near the places described. The author has researched some odd angles of history, too. For example, the fact that Abraham Lincoln's substitute in the Union Army is buried in Stroudsburg, Pa.

Even in so vast a compilation, omissions are inevitable. One which occurred to this reviewer was the nommention of Altoona, Pa., as the site of the northern War Governors Conference in 1862. Mrs. Cromie has anticipated such transgressions when she refers in her foreword to the "speck - picking tournament." But don't let such quibbling mislead you. The Tour Guide is such a good book that we wish it had come along long ago.

Hudson Digs Pure Gold In His Mine

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Rock Hudson sees a similarity between making movies and laboring in a mine.

"I like not working," said the big film star.

Next week he starts his 50th picture since 1948.

"I dread it — having to go down into the mines for 10 weeks," he remarked.

"A sound stage is really quite a bit like a mine. It's dark and it has no windows. I never see daylight — and turn the nicest greenish-white."

But Hudson doesn't dig coal in his mine. He brings up pure gold.

A big, shy, near-sighted kid from Winnetka, Ill., he sang in a high school glee club and church choir before going to Hollywood. He served in the Navy. He worked as a truck driver, piano mover, and mail carrier.

His first screen test in 1947 was so poor that one studio for a time showed it to other beginners as an example of poor acting.

But his rhinestone youth has long since turned into a diamond brilliance.

He touches the industry where its heart is — the boxoffice cashbox. Now, feeling a bit camera weary, he'd like to try Broadway.

'I'm looking for a good musical role," he said. "I've been taking singing lessons for a year."

At 39, this 200-pound, 6-foot-4 inch actor probably is the man most U.S. women would rather be cast up on a desert isle with. What kind of a person is he?

'Well," he said, enjoying the question, 'I like coffee, nice people, old clothes, old cars, new cars, leftover foods, skin diving, sailing skiing, water skiing, hockey, wood paneling, hand-rubbed wooden antiques, old silver, paintings, sculpture, the feel of marble, candlelight, Technicolor films, harmony in song, heat waves, electric fans, desserts, mashed potatoes and gravy, scotch.

"And I like clean sheets, good service, moonlight, fireplaces, traveling, yodeling, reading fantasy tales, biographies, reference books, do-it-yourself books, making tape recordings of good music, playing the piano — but just for myself — remodelling houses, opera, limericks, the month of July, excitement in my life, kitchens, and Julie Andrews."

Raids Based On Assumption Reds Will Avoid Big War

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration's willingness to bomb bases in Communist North Viet Nam, risking war with Russia and Red China, seems based on the assumption neither of the two Red giants wants to go to war.

The reason is human enough. The Russians, better than the Chinese, know the danger once a nuclear war starts: The Communist empire built up over the past 48 years might be lost.

And the Chinese, still many years behind the United States and Russia in industrial and nuclear development, know the fatal disadvantage in an all-out war with a country like this, which has nuclear bombs.

Besides, like the Russians, the Chinese have a lifetime effort at stake. They've come a long way since their bedraggled days in the 1920s. One wild mistake now could wipe out all their gains.

Stalin was the prime example of this kind of caution. From the time he took power in the 1920s until World War II he concentrated on building up Russia internally without the risk of foreign adventures or pushing his neighbors.

After the war, when he thought it was safe, he grabbed the European satellites but, when he tried his luck in Iran and the United States challenged him, he backed off.

Meanwhile, after the war he pushed Russian industrial and nuclear expansion until the Soviets became one of the two great post-war powers. In short, he figured time was on Russia's side, and he took his time.

It can be taken for granted the Chinese and his successors in the Kremlin, with all they have at stake, feel the same way.

If time is on their side then sooner or later, through subversion or weakness among their neighbors or guerrilla warfare that avoids the nuclear kind, they can hope to take over the nations around them.

That is is at the root of the Johnson administration's thinking comes through pretty well in statements by President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara this week.

Johnson, who this month ordered three bomber strikes on North Viet Nam while Russia and Red China howled, said: "We must all understand that we will persist in the defense of freedom and our continuing actions will be those which are justified and those that are made necessary by the continuing aggression of others.

"These actions will be measured and fitting and accurate."

And Thursday, McNamara reported to the House Armed Services Committee that the Red Chinese 'have shown great caution when confronted with a determined display of military power."

He said Russia and Red China can be expected to stir up as much trouble as they can whenever and wherever they can do so safely, without a 'head-on' collision with U.S. military power."

And he described the American determination to stay in South Viet Nam as the key to stopping Red expansion not only in Asia but in other developing nations.

He balanced his optimism about the present mood of the Red Chinese against the thought that in time they may have a nuclear missile system. "This is a most distrubing long-range prospect," he said.

But even at this moment, in any continued bombing of North Vietnamese bases, the Johnson administration will be dabbling in a risk of its own. It may be wrong in assuming Russia and Red China won't chance war if for some reasons of their own, even though now unimagined, they ignore caution and try their luck.

That's why any extension of the war to North Viet Nam is still hair-raising.

Sen. Tower Presents New Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)— A bill to amend the Federal Housing Act to allow tenants of low-rent public housing to buy their own homes was introduced Thursday by Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

The purchases would be made by accumulation of monthly rentals.

The Texan also offered a bill to amend housing statutes to provide for partial payment to the government of urban renewal project costs.

This measure calls for a payment of 10 per cent of the increased tax revenue which a local government subdivision receives as the result of an urban renewal project.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRDS

QUESTION: How fast do a hummingbird's wings beat?

ANSWER: The hummingbird is a truly tiny creature, no bigger when born than a bumble bee. Yet in spite of this, it is an outstanding flyer. As we look at one darting from blossom to blossom, his wings make only a blur. This is because the hummer's wings can move as fast as 60 to 70 times a second. It is this speed which gives a humming sound and provides the bird's name. Modern speed photography has enabled us to see what the hummer's wings in flight really look like (lower pictures.) These birds can hover motionless in the air, and actually fly backward.

In winter, hummingbirds perform perhaps a most remarkable flying feat. Working south to Florida, these mighty mites strike out boldly across the Gulf of Mexico. Without rest or food they fly 500 miles to the Yucatan peninsula. Then they keep on migrating toward their winter homes in various parts of Mexico, Central and South America.

• • •

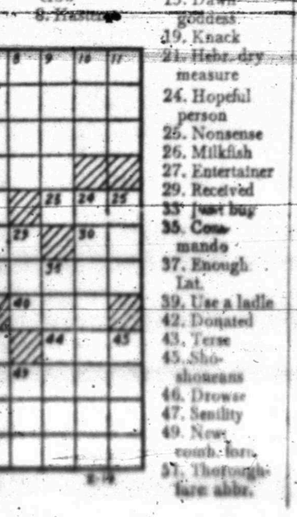

FOR YOU TO DO: The migrations of birds are high among nature's wonders and much remains to be learned about them. Make a list of the birds you see this spring in your area. 2/19

Hobbs Edges Westbrook For Title

What are unsurmountable odds?

If you don't know, don't ask the Hobbs High School basketball team. They don't know either. Or if they do, the fact was completely ignored last night in Tiger Gym when the Panthers roared to an amazing 54-53 overtime victory over Westbrook to take the District 86-B championship.

Even more amazing, the Hobbs team members had turned in their uniforms last week, having finished in third place in the district standings. Then, late Wednesday, they suddenly learned that they were back in the picture because first -place Fluvanna was forfeiting all of its games because it had discovered one of its players was ineligible.

That would make the odds rather heavy against the Panthers, since Fluvanna and Westbrook, the second place regular season team, had already played two games in a playoff set, breaking even with a victory apiece. With Fluvanna forfeiting, Hobbs automatically became the second place team and holder of rights to a playoff with Westbrook.

Since time was running out, it was decided that a one-game sudden - death playoff would be held in the neutral Snyder Gym.

The Hobbs team battled the odds valiantly in the first period, reaching the first break in an 11-11 tie with Westbrook. Then, Westbrook began pulling away and had gained a 24-17 advantage by half-time.

The odds skyrocketed in the third quarter, a miserable period for the Panthers as Westbrook leaped to a 40-26 lead. At one time in that stanza, Hobbs trailed by 15 points at 39-24.

But the complexion of the game changed radically in the fourth quarter. With such operatives as Tommy Lay, Freddie Martinez, Donald Hull and George Marintez finding the range on the basket, and Westbrook suddenly experiencing a cold spell, the Panthers tied it up at 46-46 with two seconds of play remaining.

The Hobbs momentum was sufficient in the over - time period to offset a furious Westbrook bid, and the buzzer found the Panthers on top, 54-53.

Elmer McMahan dealt Hobbs plenty of misery, especially in the third period. He wound up with 23 points and scoring honors for the evening.

However, the four Hobbs players who accounted for all of Panthers' scoring, were all in double figures. Lay and Freddie Martinez, roped 15 points each, while Hull and George Martinez had 12 each.

HOBBS — Tommy Lay 6-3-15; Freddie Martinez 7-1-15; Donald Hull 5-2-12; George Martinez 2-8-12; Totals 20-14-54.

WESTBROOK — Larry Bell 6-1-13; Elmer McMahan 9-5-23; Howard Williamson 5-1-11; Darrell Forbes 1-1-3; Jug Rees 1-1-3; Totals 22-9-53.

Bi-District Game Here

The bi-district Class B basketball game between Hobbs and McCaulley has been scheduled tentatively for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Snyder High School Gymnasium.

Officials of the two schools contacted Snyder officials last night after the Hobbs-Westbrook game and made arrangements to play their bi-dis ict tilt here, naming Tuesday as the tentative date.

McCaulley is the champion of District 85-B, while Hobbs won the District 86-B crown last night by defeating Westbrook, 54-53, in overtime in a sudden -death playoff.

Shockers Dealt First Loop Loss

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe Wichita won't win the Missouri Valley Conference basketball championship after all.

The Wheatshockers, who lost All-America Dave Stallworth by graduation at midterm, lost their first MVC game of the season Thursday night. The Shockers, 10th-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, tumbled before the Tulsa Hurricanes 75-64 to open a two-game road trip.

Now the Shockers are in danger of being overhauled by the St. Louis Billikens, who are 7-3 in MVC play to Wichita's 8-1.

Wichita has five league games to play starting with North Texas at Denton, Tex. Saturday.

The North Texas Eagles indicated they may prove difficult for Wichita with their first MVC win ever over Cincinnati 54-53. Willie Davis' 18 points led the Eagles from an 11-point deficit in the game at Denton and broke their 10-game losi g streak.

At Tulsa, Rick Park paced the Hurricane with 21 points. Jamie Thompson, Stallworth's replacement, scored 20 points for Wichita.

Utah State, playing its first gai e since the tragic death of All-America Wayne Estes on Feb. 8, edged Denver 67-66 on LeRoy Walker's two free throws in the closing seconds. The two conversions gave him 33 points for the game in Denver.

Denver also was the opposition for Utah State when Estes scored 48 points before he was electrocuted accidentally two hours later. Utah State won that game at Logan, 91-62.

In other games, Russ Gumina's free throw in the last 10 seconds gave San Francisco a 53-52 road victory over San Jose, Drake downed Bradley 72-57 at Des Moines, Virginia Military surprised George Washington 87-70 at Lexington, Va., and Texas Western whipped West Texas 71-45 at El Paso.

Charles Has One-Stroke Tucson Lead

By BOB EGER
Associated Press Sports Writer

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Bob Charles took a one-stroke lead into today's second round of the $46,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament, but a host of other par-busters were in hot pursuit.

Charles, a 28-year-old left-hander from New Zealand, shot a seven-under-par 65 Thursday over the gigantic Tucson National Golf Club course. The par-72, desert layout stretches 7,200 yards and has some of the nation's biggest greens.

"They're the biggest I've seen outside of St. Andrew's in Scotland," said Charles, who almost passed up the tournament.

CHARGED IN BASKETBALL BRIBERY—Two Seattle University basketball players, Captain Charlie Williams, left, and Peller Phillips, right, were arrested at Seattle, Wash., on federal bribery conspiracy charges. The FBI said charges involve a Jan. 22 game with the University of Idaho, which Seattle won, 89-72. The FBI said a Chicago man, Leo Casale, 24, was arrested there. (AP Wirephoto)

Valdez To Open Defense Of Title

By MIKE COCHRAN

FORT WORTH (AP) — Jesse Valdez of Houston opens defense of his state welterweight crown tonight in the feature fight of the Texas Golden Gloves Tournament.

The 17-year-old high school student, who captured the national AAU championship last year, goes against J. D. Sims, a 144-pounder from Brownwood.

A top middleweight contest matches Burton Gilliam of Dallas, the welter champ here in 1961, against Rusty Musser of Tyler.

The 29th amateur show got underway in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum Thursday night before a crowd of 5,271.

Ronnie Wright of Brownwood contributed the lone upset of the first round, punching his way to a decision over defending middleweight champion Gene Meeks of Corpus Christi.

Fred Garcia of Plainview, a second national champ, fought an uphill but victorious flyweight battle with Skip Odem of Dallas.

Garcia, representing New Mexico when he won the national Golden Gloves crown in 1963, took a split decision that touched off a round of boos from the disapproving fans.

But the most cheer-provoking bout of the night came near the conclusion of the card in a sizzling power struggle between David Zyglewicz of Houston and Emit Banks of Austin. The 182-pound Houston belter battered Banks sufficiently to take the decision but absorbed a tremendous thrashing himself in the process.

Defending co-champion Houston and Austin jumped into an early lead in the team standings, picking up three triumphs each.

The individual champions of this four-night skirmish will move to Kansas City next month to defend Texas' national Golden Gloves title.

Only Two Defending Cage Champions Remain In Race

By The Associated Press

Only two defending state champions remain in the field, one of those uncertainly, as the massive Texas schoolboy basketball campaign determines its 173 district champions in five divisions.

The schools have until Feb. 20 to decide district titles but the bulk of them already are known. A number of bi-district games are scheduled next week.

Houston Austin, which won Class AAAA last year, was eliminated in the district race and was succeeded by Houston Jones.

Class AAA champion Graham leads its district race but must beat Brownwood Friday to clinch the title. If Brownwood wins they'll tie, necessitating a flip of a coin to see which enters the state playoffs.

Canyon, champion of Class AA last year and now in Class AAA, was knocked out in the district race.

Talco, defending king of Class A, failed inside the district. James Bowie replaced Talco in the playoffs.

McAdoo, Class B champion, won its district title and will enter the playoffs next week.

All except four districts have determined champions in Class AAAA — the El Paso district, Dist. 13 between Austin McCallum and Corsicana, Dist. 14 between Kingsville and Edinburg and Dist. 15 between San Antonio Highlands and San Antonio Lee.

Already decided are Midland Lee, Pampa, Fort Worth Haltom, Fort Worth Arlington Heights, Dallas Jefferson, Highland Park, Marshall, Houston Jones, Houston Memorial, Beaumont French, Texas City and San Antonio Brackenridge.

Class AAA district champions decided are Seminole, Levelland, Mineral Wells, Sulphur Springs, Kilgore, Waxahachie, West Orange, Houston Furr, Clear Creek, San Marcos and San Antonio Marshall.

Class AA has Phillips, Childress, Friona, Denver City, Crane, Comanchie, Lake Worth, Hooks, Gladewater, Mt. Vernon, Van, Rockdale, Luling, Katy, Rusk, Sour Lake Hardin-Jefferson, Yoakum, San Antonio Randolph Devine, Premint and Edcouch-Elsa.

In Class A they are Clarendon, Farwell, Petersburg, Seagraves, Aspermont, Eastland, Millsap, Midlothian, Wylie, Whitesboro, James Bowie, Wills Point, West Sabine, Huntington, Fairfield, Lorena, Lexington, Schulenburg, East Chambers, Barbers Hill, Bloomington and Woodsboro.

Class B district champions reported are Darrouzett, Channing, Nazareth, Anton, Bledsoe, Shallowater, Meadow, Quitaque, Goree, McAdoo, Rochester, Eula, Carbon, Graford, Priddy, May, Blum, Jonesboro, Forreston, Covington, Megargel, Goldburg, Valley View, Krum, Rio Vista, Sadler, Community, Roxton, Annona, Gober, Avinger, Waskom, Tenaha, Carlisle, Spring Hill, Centerville, Apple Springs, Deweyville, Spurger, Wells, Milano, Hutto, Bertram, Kyle, Snook, Friendswood, Rocksprings, Miles, Brackettville, Gail, Austwell-Tivoli, United (Laredo), Talpa-Centennial, Robert Lee, McCauley, Pyote.

Raiders Lead In Statistics

By The Associated Press

Texas Tech has averaged 89 points while giving up 76.7 in nine games and that means a two-game leadership in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

Statistics to date show the Tech's leading in field goal percentage with 50.7 and a chose second in free throws with 76.6.

John Beasley of Texas A&M leads the individual scorers with 221 points in nine games — an average of 24.6. Dub Malaise of Texas Tech is second with 199 points for a 22.1 norm.

Doug McKendrick of Rice may be piaying on a last-place team but he still leads the conference in field goal percentage with 61.8 and is third in scoring with 190 points.

Gary Turner of Texas Christian is the rebound leader with 103 for an 11.4 average. Ricky Sugg of Arkansas tops the free throwers with a 92.9 average.

"REGRESSION"

Whose Dominion We Are Under!

Only one city on this earth was built by destiny. The rest was built by men.

A city becomes either prosperous or destitute by the thoughts, decisions and actions of its people. When progress stops, action must be taken. If action isn't taken, regression, the most vicious and deadliest economic enemy known to man moves in. When regression moves in people move out, houses and buildings become empty, merchants are forced to leave, youth with their talents, ambitions, hopes and dreams move on. The city becomes old and confusion reigns.

When the voices of progression seek to use Legal Sales as a weapon to fight back at this deadly cobra of regression, the Silver Tongue Orators, like the Ephesian Silver Smiths of old drown the voices with the cry of prohibition.

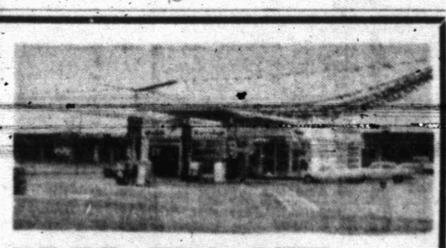

Prohibition never worked and it never will! It never made dollars and it never made sense! It destroys revenue and it pays no taxes. Legal Sales have paid 263 million dollars in the state school fund, 18 million dollars into farm and ranch roads, 2 million dollars to help the blind, 101 million dollars to old age pensions, 35 million dollars to the teachers retirement fund, 165 million dollars to needy children and state hospitals. Prohibition never paid one dime to anyone but the bootlegger. Legal Sales is a legal weapon. We will use this weapon to fight regression, the greatest thief and the greatest robber that ever walked the earth. It has robbed us of people, of jobs, of youth and their talents, of tourist, and merchants. It has emptied our houses and buildings and we have fed this monster of regression 3,000 people and 62 businesses in the past 4 years.

This theif and this robber stands in front of us now with his unquenchable appetite, demanding this many more in the next 4 years. This will be our price we pay in appeasement.

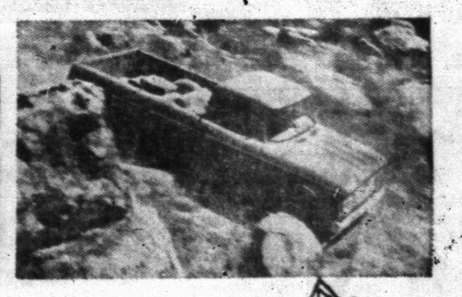

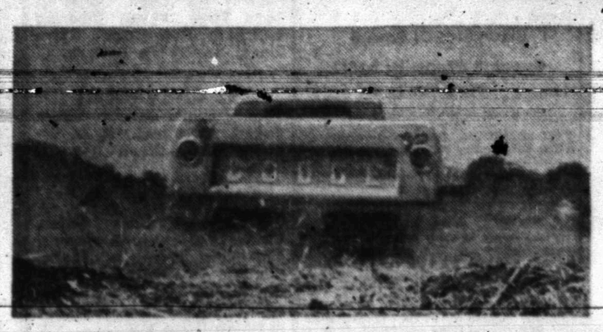

Tell your friends and neighbors to sign the petitions and give us a weapon to use against this destroyer of cities. We are going to break out of the fog of regression, fear, and despair and walk in the light of hope, prosperity and happiness.

Poll Says Farmers Want Fewer Government Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)— American farmers want less government control and major changes in most subsidy programs, a private poll says.

The nationally circulated Farm Journal reached these conclusions after sampling 5,000 returns.

Four questions were general. To these, 96 per cent of the sampled replies favored negating the Supreme Court reapportionment decision with a constitutional amendment to let each state apportion one house of its legislature by areas.

Just under two-thirds favored long term payments to retire large areas of crop land nationally. Only 18 per cent wanted more direct payments for farm products, 13 per cent favored fewer direct payments and 43 per cent wanted none at all. The others would leave things as they are.

About two-thirds favored raising Commodity Credit Corporation resale levels to 115-125 per cent, 10 to 20 per cent above present levels for cotton, wheat and grain.

Seven out of 10 want a "fair practices" law to permit farmer groups to negotiate directly with processors, without fear of reprisals.

Eighty-five per cent asked tighter meat import regulations.

The poll sampling showed these responses to specific problem crops by farmers producing them.

Wheat: 25 per cent favored present programs with acreage allotments and cash marketing certificates, 40 per cent favored support prices at 90 per cent of world market prices, no allotments but with rental payments for land retired. The vote for no program at all was 35 per cent.

Food grain: 29 per cent favored present programs and three per cent wanted them made compulsory, 34 per cent wanted supports at 90 per cent of the average 3-year market price, no base acreages and land retirement by rental payments. A like percentage wanted no program.

Poultry: 7 per cent wanted no program. The rest suggested quotas on turkeys and broilers or on the number of eggs that could be set.

Dairy: 31 per cent would keep price support purchases as they are, 39 per cent would junk the program of bases and quotas and substitute supports at 90 per cent of a three-year average price. The remainder favored varying forms of base payments.

Cotton: 59 per cent favored the present system; 41 per cent would lower supports one per cent per year for the next two years, then set supports at 90 per cent of average market prices, with lower mill subsidies.

Fights Rights For Women

AUSTIN (AP)—The president of the State Bar of Texas urged its 15,800 members Thursday to oppose an equal rights for women amendment to the State Constitution.

"We love women, but unless we act positively and immediately, some of them will cause much confusion and endless litigation," said Joyce Cox of Houston.

The controversial amendment currently is stalled in the Senate.

Cox said proponents are acting in good faith but the amendment "will accomplish opposite, not the desired, results."

He said it would confuse the validity and application of parts of the criminal code.

Women supporting the proposal have argued that the legislature, composed overwhelmingly of men, has not corrected many discriminatory laws and passage of the amendment would force them to do so.

Confession Said Valid Evidence

BRYAN (AP)— The alleged confession of a Florida man accused of killing a Texas police chief has been declared admissible evidence in the man's murder trial.

Dist. Judge John Barron ruled on the matter Thursday in the case of Rudolph Coffey Jr. of Cocoa, Fla.

He is accused of killing Elgin Police Chief J. M. Mumford in the fall of 1963.

Ranger Jim Riddle and other officers testified that no force or coercion was used when the FBI took the 16-page statement from Coffey.

Solons In Texas End Sixth Week

AUSTIN (AP) — Lawmakers finished their sixth week with a flurry of activity that included the first parliamentary death sentence of the 59th Legislature.

Before signing off until Monday, the Senate sent one bill to the governor and six to the House Thursday.

The House sent one to the governor and six to the Senate, gave preliminary approval to three more, and set session precedent by killing one measure.

The bill biting the dust would have allowed counties to use electronic voting machines. It was defeated 94-42.

"This would reopen the doors to election fraud that we closed years ago," said Rep. W. H. Miller of Houston. 'It would mean moving the votes from the place where they were cast to a central spot for tabulation."

Senate bills sent to the House for consideration included one to increase credit union loan terms from 15 to 20 years. Another would raise from 18 to 21 years the age limit for state education of the wholly deaf and blind.

Among measures forwarded to the Senate was one that would allow non-stockholders to be directors of insurance companies.

Another would permit retired judges to be appointed to preside, without pay, over the nine administrative judicial districts.

Preliminary approval was given a bill raising the load limits on cotton trailers from 10,000 to 15,000 pounds. The present $5 state registration fee for cotton trailers up to 10,000 pounds would be retained. Present fees run as high as $99 a year for a 15,000-pound trailer.

"This is a special interest bill in which we are relieving these special interests of taxes the rest of us have to pay," said Rep. Jim Nugent of Kerrville.

Stricken British Actress Familiar With Misfortune

By GENE HANDSAKER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Arriving from England last week, Oscar winner Patricia Neal looked radiantly well and spoke enthusiastically of the movie she was here to start.

Today she lies in the intensive care unit at the UCLA Medical Center, in critical condition after two strokes and emergency brain surgery.

Nearby were her husband, British mystery short-story writer Roald Dahl, and their three children, Tessa, 8; Theo, 5, and Ophelia, 8 months.

The first stroke — another in a series of misfortunes that have dogged the 39-year-old star's career — occurred Wednesday night.

A few hours earlier the tall, willowy blonde with the large, sultry eyes and velvet voice had done her first big scene in "Seven Women." She plays a woman doctor in the film, which John Ford is directing at MGM.

Rushed to the University of California at Los Angeles Medical Center, she suffered a second stroke and was taken to surgery.

Late Thursday her surgeon, Dr. Charles Carton, issued a terse statement: "Mrs. Patricia Dahl was brought in last night with severe intracranial bleeding. Brain surgery was performed. Her condition remains critical."

Miss Neal won her academy award as best actress last April for her performance as Paul Newman's slatternly housekeeper in "Hud."

Friends said her ability to portray pathos and drama had been aided by real-life misfortunes — and the strength to withstand them.

One was an ill-fated romance with the late Gary Cooper, with whom she fell in love after they co-starred in "The Fountainhead." The romance ended unhappily. Cooper remained married to his wife.

Another tragedy was the death of Olivia, eldest of her four children, from measles at the age of 7 in 1962.

And 5-year-old Theo has been under doctors' care since he was 4 months old, when a taxi struck his baby buggy in New York. Much of the time since then he has been without sight.

After the accident Miss Neal, her husband and children moved to a large farmhouse at Great Missenden, 40 miles northwest of London.

A native of Packard, Ky., Miss Neal studied for two years at Northwestern University's School of Drama.

In 1945 she went to New York with $60 and much determination and ambition.

Critics hailed her first leading role — in "Another Part of the Forest," in 1946. It brought her the Antoinette Perry Award and the New York drama critics' best-actress award.

A Warner Bros. film contract followed.

He looks deep into your soul, does he find gratitude, loyalty, high hope? Is the American way the true way with you? He risked wealth and person to give us this Free and Noble land — Washington, the sturdy father of the greatest country on earth. Citizens, be proud, attend church and thank God.
