Progress Made on History of County

"A tremendous amount of work has been completed for a history of Aransas County from 1871 to 1971, but research is still going on."

In making the announcement this week, Emory M. Spencer, who initiated the project and made the first contribution to commission a historian, reported on the current status.

Dr. A. Ray Stephens, professor of history at North Texas State University, who was commissioned to write the history, has returned to Denton to resume his teaching after working here all summer.

He took with him more than 10,000 copy machine sheets of facts about Aransas County, including such material as minutes from city council and commissioners court meetings along with other valuable data pertaining to the past 100 years.

Stephens will return to Rockport in September and October to spend long weekends here doing additional historical research. He also will pursue facts relating to activities in Aransas County which have state and national aspects, thus prolonging the research.

Stephens expressed appreciation to the numerous individuals and organizations for assisting in the gathering of material for the history.

"Many still are assembling data, such as the history of various churches and social customs during earlier decades," Stephens pointed out.

He asked all such helpers to mail or give the completed material to Mrs. Thelma Barber in County Judge John D. Wendell's office in the courthouse so that it will be turned over to the historian. Spencer reported that since the last listing of contributors to the fund to cover expenses of the historical project, additional contributions have been made by Dennis O'Connor, Tom O'Connor and Aransas County Woman's Club.

Spencer predicted that due to the expanded scope of the history brought about by the extensive research and the fine help from local people and organizations, the finished history probably will not go to press before 1973.

Theft of Tire and Wheel Cleared

Quick assistance by the Port Lavaca sheriff's office and police department enabled the theft of a tire and wheel from a pickup truck parked at the Ranning Bear Drive Inn to be cleared last week.

U. D. Ince called the local sheriff's office that three persons had just stolen a tire and wheel from his pickup truck and were headed towards Port Lavaca.

Deputy Sheriff Vernon Duke and Deputy Jerry Lindsey investigated the incident. Later that evening information was obtained that Port Lavaca had the subjects in custody.

The next morning Chief Deputy E. A. Stautzenberger went to Port Lavaca and picked up Juan Trevino, Raul Ybarra and Aurelio Aguilar, all of Robstown. All three persons were charged before Judge L. Miller with misdemeanor theft and fined $107. All have paid their fines and have been released.

HUNTING NEWS

The 1971-1972 hunting and fishing licenses and white wing dove stamps are now available for purchase in this area.

Mother Goose Land Kindergarten will begin classes September 7, with the hours scheduled from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Dick Picton Dies Of Heart Attack

The Rosary was recited for Thomas David Picton, 51, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in his residence. The body was at the residence until funeral services at 9 a.m. Thursday in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Burial was in Rockport Cemetery under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home.

Picton, a well known Rockport lumber dealer and former city councilman, died Tuesday at his home after apparently suffering a heart attack.

A native and lifelong resident here, he was a member of the Catholic Church and of the Rockport Lions Club. He was president of the Charles T. Picton Lumber Co., vice president of Coastal Materials, on the board of directors of the First National Bank of Rockport, and a former commissioner of the Aransas County Navigation District.

Picton had served on the Rockport City Council and was a World War II veteran with service in the Army Air Corps.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia; two sons, David Hansen Picton, and the Rev. Thomas David Picton, C.S.S.P.; two daughters, Misses Susan and Mary Kevin Picton, of Rockport; two brothers, Gerald Picton of Port Arthur and Harold Picton of Rockport; and two sisters, Mrs. Claire Jeffries of Houston and Mrs. Mary Caspary of Rockport.

Describing the operation of full-time local health units in other cities, a B&PW spokesman said:

"The health unit staff investigates cases of communicable diseases to discover and control sources of infection. They check water, milk, and food supplies of sick persons and recommend corrective measures in co-operation with private physicians. Those living in the same house with a patient are taught techniques of isolation, disinfection, proper disposal of wastes, and other safety practices that help prevent spread of disease to other members of the family or community."

"Through group meetings, individual contacts, and other educational methods, members of the community are taught how polio, diphtheria, dysentery and other preventable diseases are spread and how immunization, sanitation and personal hygiene can prevent this spread. Using the resources of modern research and epidemiological techniques, preventable illness can be definitely reduced."

"The local health unit must be prepared to offer its people a comprehensive program of venereal disease control, in keeping with modern concepts. Also, home visits are made by public health nurses to expectant mothers who have been referred by physicians. Instructions and advice are given concerning diet, rest, exercise and baby care. The nurse carries out orders of the physician."

"Well child conferences and immunization programs are conducted in co-operation with local physicians. Programs are organized to promote the highest possible health level among school-age children. By working with school officials, school children are provided safe drinking water, sanitary toilets, clean buildings and good learning environments. Emphasis is also placed on teacher observation and other screening techniques to discover vision and hearing defects."

Sheriff's Dept. to Escort School Buses

Sheriff Bob Hewes announced that his department again this year, as it has done the past two years, will escort the band and pep squad buses on all out-of-town football trips.

Hewes said the sheriff's department car will follow the last bus so that in the event of any trouble on the road, radio contact will be available for assistance. Anybody driving to out-of-town games who has car trouble can signal the patrol car and they will stop and give assistance, Hewes said.

Loitering on School Property Unlawful

Sheriff Bob Hewes asked the Pilot to print the following information since the school year is about to begin.

The last session of the Texas legislature passed a law that makes it unlawful for persons not in school to loiter on or about any public school grounds. The penalty for the offense is a fine from $25 to $200.

Sheriff Hewes stated that his department is going to assist the school wholeheartedly in the compliance of this law and that all persons in violation will be arrested and taken before a magistrate for trial.

Hewes added that his department is going to assist the Rockport police department in the enforcement of the speeding and reckless driving laws in and around the schools.

Cattle Brands to Be Rerecorded

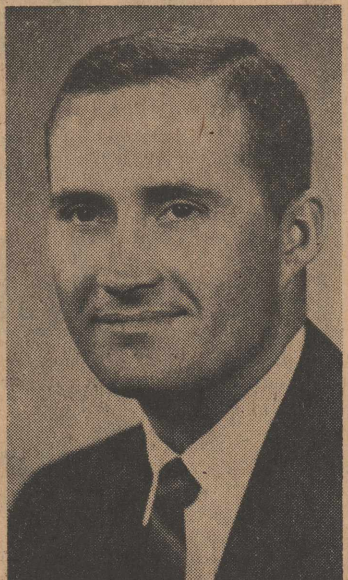

In 1896 the late Zeph Rquette registered the ZR brand for his cattle. His sons, Otis, Monte and Floyd still use the same brand.

In connection with brands, all brands and marks on Texas livestock must be re-recorded with County Clerk Ruby Hart after Aug. 30. More detail on this subject is contained in a legal notice published elsewhere in this issue of the Pilot.

Assumed Names

All businesses operating under an assumed name must have the name re-recorded in the County Clerk's office. The forms are now available in the County Clerk's office and the fee is $2.00. This is effective September 1st, and cannot be recorded before this date, but may be recorded any time thereafter.

State Sen. Grover Addresses Rotary

"When the public has the facts, it can be depended on to reach the right decision," declared State Senator Henry C. Grover of Houston at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club Wednesday at Corky's Restaurant.

As a case in point he cited the proposed change in the state constitution titled Ethics Pay Raise amendment which was defeated by a vote of the people in May even though the legislature had endorsed it. Grover praised the press of the state for its efforts in putting the proposal in its true perspective.

He expressed opposition to increasing terms of state officers from two to four years, asserting that shorter terms make officers more responsive to the will of the public.

Grover said legislators are getting more mail from constituents on automobile insurance than on any other subject. He feels the State Insurance Commission should be enlarged to include one member representing the public.

He also spoke favorably of the so-called "no fault" type of automobile insurance with which Massachusetts has had a favorable experience in its first year of operation.

Later in the day Grover spoke at a public meeting sponsored by the Republican Women of Aransas County at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen in Key Allegro.

SCHOOL POLICY ON FREE LUNCHES

Aransas County Independent School District recognizes the need for helping meet the nutritional needs of its students. All schools in this district serve a well-balanced and nutritious lunch each school day. The charge to students is 40c in the elementary schools and 45c for junior high and high schools.

However, since some families find it difficult to pay the full price, a free and reduced price lunch policy for Rockport-Fulton school children has been established. Local school officials have adopted a family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility for these lunches. A letter to parents together with a copy of this scale and an application form for free or reduced price lunches will be sent home by students the first day of school.

Families who feel that they qualify for these lunches should complete an application form and return it to the School Dietitian, P. O. Box 907, Rockport, Texas. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic needs based on the income and number of persons in the family.

Any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches are also requested. This information provided on the application will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the school dietitian will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the dietitian, he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. This request should be made to J. D. Gray, Superintendent of Schools, whose address is Box 907, Rockport, Texas.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy will be on file in each school, in the office of the superintendent of schools, and in the office of the school dietitian. This policy may be reviewed by any interested person.

C of C Happenings

The Chamber of Commerce recently sent the following news bulletin to its entire membership:

Coming Event: The Twenty-third Annual All Texas Air Tour will be held from Oct. 2 to Oct. 9. The Air Tour was created to promote interest in aviation and airports on a state and local level. The Air Tour is composed of 60% out-of-state people who are businessmen, bankers, lawyers, farmers and ranchers who are interested in seeing Texas. The other 40% are Texans who are proud to show off their state.

The men and women who participate in the Air Tour own their own planes. They are the kind of people we like to interest in coming to the Rockport area for vacations and as a place for future residence.

For the past several years, your Chamber of Commerce has worked hard at making these folks feel welcome when they land at Aransas County Airport for either a brief stop or an overnight stop. We know we have done some good already because some of these aviation enthusiasts have indeed returned to our area for vacations.

This year the group will stop here on Friday, Oct. 8, for a "Howdy Stop" at 9:30 a.m. They will be here only about 45 minutes, but your Chamber of Commerce will have representatives on hand to greet them with hospitality and refreshments.

Jury Wheel Selects Panel

A panel of 200 names was picked from the Aransas County jury wheel last week for the jury week of Sept. 7, District Clerk Ruby Hart has announced.

The names are the first drawn from the wheel that was constituted last week for the first time in local history, with only the names of registered voters.

Junior High Begins August 30

Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students will begin classes at Rockport-Fulton Junior High School on August 30 at 8:10 a.m. Students will attend classes until 3:30 p.m. School buses will run both morning and afternoon.

On Thursday, August 26 at 3:30 lists will be posted indicating which room each student should report to on the opening day of school. Only students who attended the Aransas County Schools last year or have pre-registered since August 3 will appear on a list.

Sixth grade students will find the sixth grade lists posted at the east end of the new building. Seventh grade students will find the seventh grade lists at the west end of the new building. Eighth grade students will find the eighth grade lists at the north end of the covered walkway.

Students who did not attend the Aransas County schools last year and have not pre-registered are asked to come to the Junior High School principal's office no later than August 27. This will allow a schedule to be made by the opening of school.

Escaped Prisoner Apprehended Here

Raymond Chambers, 23, of Rockport, who was wanted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the charge of escaping federal custody, was apprehended here last week by Sheriff Bob Hewes and Chief Deputy Sheriff E. A. Stautzenberger at the home of Chambers' mother. Chambers was turned over to a deputy United States marshal from Corpus Christi for transportation back to federal control.

Bullet Goes Through Motel Window

What could have been a serious incident if anybody had been standing in front of a window at the Sea Gun Motel turned out to be not so serious.

Lee Cosby of the Sea Gun Motel staff called the sheriff's office and reported that a .45 caliber shell had just gone through the screen and window of a motel room and torn the drape.

Upon investigation by Chief Deputy E. A. Stautzenberger and Deputy Vernon Duke, it was found that U. D. Ince had been target practicing near the Sea Gun when a stray bullet hit the motel room. Ince advised he would make restitution for the damages and no charges were filed.

Live Oak Country Club will hold its first annual two-day member-guest golf tournament August 28-29.

It will be dubbed the Celia Plus One Invitational. It was scheduled for last year but was rubbed out by the hurricane last year. It will be a two-man team low ball affair.

NEWS DEADLINE TUESDAY NOON

For the first time in its history the Rockport Pilot soon will change its method of printing from letterpress to offset.

This will mean that in order to have the paper ready for distribution on Thursday morning, we will have to receive news items and ad copy — both classified and display — earlier than in the past.

The ABSOLUTE DEADLINE for news items and ads will be TUESDAY NOON.

One way people can help us and make sure that their news items appear in the paper is this: if your club or organization holds a meeting on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, write up an article or bring the facts to the Pilot the FOLLOWING DAY, not several days later.

We think you will like the appearance of the offset Pilot better than the old letterpress issues. For one thing, it will take less time to get pictures published.

But we will need your co-operation and we know we can count on getting it.

All Horses Must Be Vaccinated

Mrs. Reagan Lee, who was appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to collect statistics in Aransas County pertaining to the number of horses that died during the VEE epidemic, gave the Pilot the following information Tuesday:

"Governor Preston Smith has stated that it is compulsory that all horses in Texas be vaccinated against VEE (Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis)."

"If anyone in Aransas County has a horse or other type of equine that has not been vaccinated, if he will call me at 729-5986, I will give him the necessary information regarding having his animal vaccinated."

Mrs. Lee also said that Dr. S. E. Cox, U.S.D.A. animal health director, has announced that results of blood tests taken in this county by federal veterinarians are being sent to Dan Pawlik, Aransas County agricultural agent.

Pawlik said he has received some of the results and he is sending letters to horse owners regarding the results as fast as he receives the information.

Mrs. Lee also said that if a local veterinarian took the blood sample, he will receive the results of the tests from the USDA.

Mrs. Lee said she would be glad to answer any questions pertaining to the entire subject.

14-Year-Old-Girl Dies of Injuries

Lynda Lee Ovenden, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ovenden, died at 11:30 a.m. Monday in a Corpus Christi hospital from injuries suffered in a horse riding accident several days ago near her home here. The horse apparently fell on her.

She was a native of San Antonio and had lived in Rockport seven years. She was a member of the Rockport Girl Scouts Cadets and Rockport-Fulton High School pep squad.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in the First United Methodist Church. Burial was in Rockport Cemetery under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home.

Survivors, besides her parents, include a sister, Valerie Ovenden; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Ovenden of San Antonio; and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson of San Antonio.

The three-acre, triangular-shaped tract of land at the intersection of Highway 35 North and Fulton Beach Road has been leased to some Dallas businessmen for 50 years, at $10,000 a year, for a shopping center.

Col. Harry G. Kautz, one of the owners of the land, made the announcement this week. He said one of the Dallas businessmen is Bob Lilly, a star lineman with the Dallas Cowboys professional football team.

Ed Harper of Harper Real Estate, which handled the deal, said leases already have been signed for a grocery store that will occupy 13,000 square feet and a variety store to occupy 15,000 square feet.

Present businesses on the land, which will locate elsewhere, are Bryan Trailer Sales, Jimmie Woods' fruit and vegetable stand, and Jack Smith's Hanky Panky Lounge.

Owners of the land, in addition to Col. Kautz, are Mrs. Harry G. Kautz and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Kautz.

In addition to Bob Lilly, other Dallas men having a financial interest in the shopping center are Jake Loehr and James M. Satterfield. The center will be called the Seaire Shopping Center.

School Starts August 30

The 1971-72 school term will begin for students of the Rockport-Fulton High School on Monday morning, August 30, at 8:10 a.m.

All students should be registered for their classes at this time for a full day of school.

Schedules may be picked up at the high school office at any time during office hours this week or on Monday morning on the east side breezeway of the high school building.

Students driving automobiles are reminded to park in the football parking lot facing the water tower. The front row of cars should be even with the road into the football field.

Library Has Copy Machine

Thanks to the efforts of the Aransas County Public Library Board and the co-operation of the County Commissioners Court, there is now a fine new Olivetti Copy Machine in the library. This will be a real benefit to library patrons as well as the general public.

Copies may be made either legal or letter size. Subjects are endless, such as poems, checks, recipes, menus, programs, receipts, pages from a book, etc. This coin machine is easy to operate and each person may make his or her own copies for the nominal cost of 15c.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capital

Texas Press Association

"SCANDAL" HEARINGS HELD — House General Investigating Committee held the opening round in its hearings on stock-loan scandals involving high state officials.

Frank W. Sharp, one-time head of Sharpstown State Bank and National Bankers Life Insurance Company, was the star witness. He told committee members he and House Speaker Gus Mutscher had a "tacit understanding" that there was a link between stock purchases in NBL by the speaker and passage of banking bills favored by Sharp in 1969.

Speaker Mutscher borrowed money from the Sharpstown Bank to buy the stock, as did a few other state officials including Governor Smith.

Sharp denied, however, he ever gave anything of value to a state official in exchange for a political favor.

Former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, appearing before the committee, called the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission investigation of stock-loan transactions a Republican-inspired political "hatchet job."

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT — For the fifth month running, Texas Railroad Commission ordered a reduction in state-wide oil allowable, fixing it at 65.1 per cent of potential for September.

Figure is the lowest since August, 1970, when it dropped to 62.9 per cent.

September allowable, down slightly from 66.2 per cent for August, will permit a 3,350,493 barrel-per-day production maximum flow, 45,264 less than the present top.

Nominations by crude oil buyers for next month totaled 3,218,430 barrels daily. That is 24,032 less than August figures.

Only one major producer, Shell, asked more oil in September. Ten asked the same allowable, and three wanted less.

AG OPINIONS — Counties adopting workmen's compensation for their employees must carry appropriate insurance or lose common law defense of contributory negligence and assumed risk, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In a flood of other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

* A local option election legalizing the sale of mixed alcoholic beverages may be held in any city of Precinct 7, Jefferson County within a year after May 18, 1971.

* Regional planning commissions may be created by two or more counties and/or cities and membership extended to other subdivisions, with the governing bodies determined by agreement among members.

* Bexar County commissioners have no authority to expend money for the purpose of making a grant to a non-profit corporation to promote industrial development in the county.

* Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations has authority to try eminent domain cases transferred to it by district courts.

* Hidalgo County Housing Authority has no statutory authority to dispose of any property by transferring it without consideration to a non-profit organization.

* Orange and Jefferson County district attorneys may commission a regional juvenile legal services officer as an assistant district attorney.

* Bill to abolish county school superintendent in Matagorda County is void, so the office continues to exist.

* New law eliminates requirements for certification on invoices to state agencies by contractors or sellers of contracts and purchases.

* State Comptroller cannot issue a new or duplicate warrant to pay on original unemployment compensation benefits warrant presented more than a year after issuance.

* Bill allowing county commissioners in Denton and Comanche counties to set their travel expenses and depreciation at a different rate from that set for the county judge is unconstitutional.

* "Net appropriations" of general revenue for University of Texas medical schools at Dallas and Galveston means grand total of appropriations less income from educational sources.

APPOINTMENTS — Bill Ed McLaughlin of Lubbock was appointed by Governor Smith to Finance Commission of Texas.

Smith named Robert H. Green of Houston to Texas State Board of Landscape Architects.

Governor also announced these reappointments:

William D. Starcher of Lubbock and Dee Estes Wheeler of Fort Worth to Polygraph Examiners Board.

Joe A. Myers of Stockdale and L. B. Davis Jr. of Longview to State Board of Morticians.

Dr. J. B. Morgan of Austin is new assistant state commissioner for urban education.

Harry Burleigh, executive director of Texas Water Development Board, will head the committee to co-ordinate a two-year study of Colorado River Basin.

Jerome D. Chapman, assistant commissioner for State Welfare Department, will serve on a panel established by National Academy of Sciences to evaluate community child care programs.

WELFARE POLICY CHANGED — State Board of Public Welfare has changed its policy to permit Old Age Assistance recipients to earn up to $50 a month without loss of assistance payments, effective November 1.

Under current eligibility rules, only $7.50 of any income source is exempted in calculating an OAA recipient's budgeted needs for an assistance check.

New policy will exempt the first $20 of earned income and one-half remainder up to $80 a month.

Governor said OAA recipients will be permitted a better standard of living and not penalized for working. OAA average monthly grant is about $62.28.

SHORT SNORTS — Roy R. Evans of Austin is the new president of Texas AFL-CIO and Harry Hubbard is the new secretary-treasurer. They won elections at labor's convention August 14.

Governor has been urged to permit the Legislature in special session next year to consider a competitive rate system for auto insurance.

New "Texas Hunting Guide" for 1971-72 is available from Parks and Wildlife Department showing seasons, bag limits and game law summaries.

More than $1 million has been allocated for restoration and development projects at San Jacinto Battleground and Mission Tejas state parks.

Col. Wilson E. Speir, Texas Department of Public Safety director, was named lawman of the year by Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Attorney General Martin filed suit against City of Galveston for environmental law violation in refuse disposal and city dump burning.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall said he will announce for lieutenant governor in September.

Joe Cavitt has returned from a student tour of Europe sponsored by the University of Vienna. He left this week for Austin to resume study at the University of Texas Law School.

TIPS ON QUITTING CIGARETTES

1. Pick a Q (Quit) Day.
2. Switch to a low tar-nicotine brand, and begin to cut down BEFORE Q Day.
3. Keep a supply of substitutes handy: mints, gum, celery, carrot sticks.
4. Quit on Q Day; use substitutes when the urge to smoke is strong; keep busy; pamper yourself with special meals; drink plenty of water; exercise.
5. Renew your resolve daily. Think over the health hazards of cigarettes.
6. Plan a treat for yourself with the money you used to spend on cigarettes.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Stanley F. Yoles, M.D.
Director
National Institute of Mental Health

What Is Mental Illness?

What the nature of the mental illnesses is, their extent, are questions that concern everyone at some point or other in his lifetime.

Most know that mental disorders are widely prevalent, but may not realize their real extent, which make them one of the major, if not the major, public and individual health problems of the nation.

It has been estimated that about 1 in every 10 persons in the United States suffers from a mental or emotional disturbance.

But we do not have precise figures, partly because the boundaries between mental health and illness are as yet dimly defined—and partly because many people with emotional disorders do not seek treatment.

When it comes to the number of people actually treated each year for mental illnesses, we are on firmer ground; and the number of these is figured at around 3 million persons. Far from all of these, of course, are hospitalized, but are treated in a mental health center, clinic, or the office of a private practitioner.

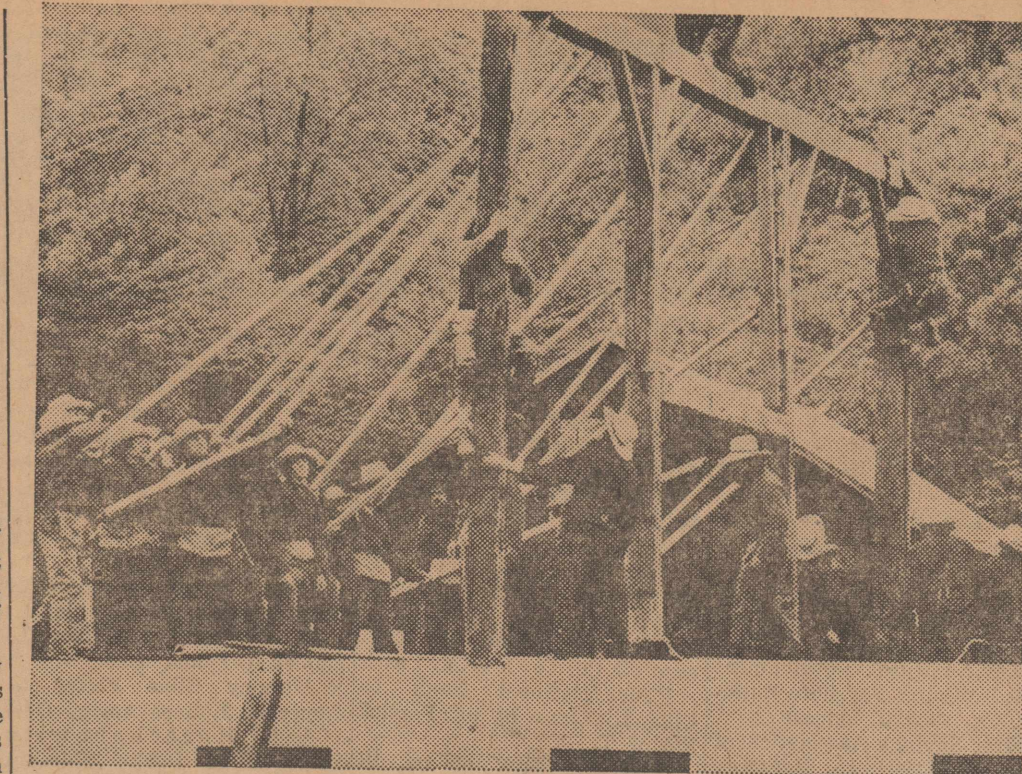

For the individual or family concerned with mental illness directly, however, the nature and kinds of mental illnesses are far more important than the grave statistics of the extent.

Mental disorders can be classified under four major headings: psychoses, neuroses, personality or character disorders, and psychosomatic diseases.

Psychoses, which are usually what are referred to when the old term "insanity" is used, are generally characterized by strange feelings and behavior and a distortion of reality. This may be minor or so extreme that it becomes schizophrenia, the most common of the severe forms of psychoses.

Neuroses are less severe emotional disturbances, although in some cases thinking and judgment may be impaired. Neurotics may be continually bothered by feelings of anxiety or depression.

Character or personality dis-

OLD-FASHIONED BARN RAISINGS are still a part of the American scene in some parts of the country. At Pulaski, Pa., Amish farmers demonstrate the advantages of teamwork by completing a barn in one day. Among the Amish, barn raising is both an art and a community enterprise.

orders are difficulties in adjustment that show themselves in the kind of disturbed behavior that is seen in the drug addict, the chronic alcoholic, or the delinquent.

Psychosomatic diseases are ailments whose symptoms are primarily physical, but which may have a large emotional component. Included among these are asthma, peptic ulcer, colitis, hypertension, and certain kinds of arthritis.

More information on the kinds of mental illness, facilities for treatment, research, chances for recovery, and what the average citizen can do about mental illness is brought out in a recently revised booklet for the public. "What Is Mental Illness," Public Health Service Publication No. 505, available for 10c from the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

GLITTERING CITY of the next century attracts a rapt audience of one at New York's Whitney Museum. Model is of "Arcosanti," a self-contained experimental habitat for 3,000 people designed by architect Paolo Soleri and being constructed on a site 65 miles north of Phoenix, Ariz.

Congratulations for Highway Maintenance

Bienvenidos is a nice Spanish word for "welcome," and that's what Texans say to the travelers along our state's 67,000 miles of highways.

One of the ways we say it is through the work of highway maintenance construction supervisors who protect our colorful wildflowers and shrubbery, the trees and the grasses which help tourists see the magnificent natural beauty of Texas.

Our state's perennial First Lady, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who persistently insists that America Be Beautiful, is honoring those maintenance construction supervisors again this year with the second annual Lady Bird Johnson Award of $1,500 and a plaque for the man who's doing the best job.

The choice should indeed be hard. We'd vote for our own local maintenance construction supervisor, but we commend whoever wins the award for 1971 for his real service to all of us.

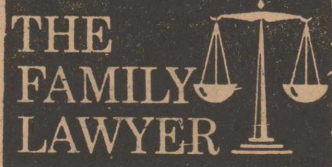

Texas highways are a beautiful sight for travel-tired eyes, and we salute you, Lady Bird, for calling our attention to the hard work and thoughtful effort put forth to keep ours the Beautiful Lone Star State.

Rx For Debtors in Distress

Each year, millions of people skate uncomfortably close to the brink of bankruptcy. Unwise spending, serious illness, loss of a job, setbacks in business—all these may bring on a fiscal crisis.

But in increasing numbers, debtors in distress are rescuing themselves by a technique known as the Wage Earner Plan. Although administered by the bankruptcy court, it is distinctly different from bankruptcy.

Under the Wage Earner Plan, the debtor agrees to pay off his debts out of future earnings instead of having them cancelled by bankruptcy. Under court supervision, he works out a payment schedule that may extend for three years or longer.

In return, he gets immediate relief from his financial pressures. By court order, creditors are forbidden to garnish his wages, repossess his belongings, or harass him with threatening letters and telephone calls.

True, not every debtor can qualify for the Wage Earner Plan. The court will approve a debtor's application only if he is earning enough to make the payment plan feasible—and if enough of his creditors agree. Furthermore, he must have the moral commitment to stay within a frugal budget during the payoff period.

But the benefits of the Plan are notable. It offers the distressed debtor a chance to "get out from under" with comparatively little damage to his credit record. Also, it may play a major role in preserving his self-respect.

Creditors benefit too. The Plan offers them a reasonable prospect of collecting their debts, whereas in the bankruptcy situation they usually collect nothing at all.

Not long ago a man living on Social Security, overwhelmed by debts, turned to the Wage Earner Plan for relief. Two disgruntled creditors objected that he could not qualify because he was not a "wage earner."

But the court, pointing out that Social Security income is based on past wages, decided to accept the man's application. The court said that in dealing with the problems of debt, any solution that is so good for all concerned ought to be encouraged.

Homemaking Ideas

If you have trouble getting cobwebs out of a high stair well, tie an old towel on one end of a clothespole and it will require little effort to clean the whole well.

To save time and avoid confusion while washing windows, use colored sponges to match two different-colored plastic buckets. By keeping the colors matched, you can be sure to avoid getting the soaped sponge into the rinse water and vice versa.

When washing shirt collars, put shampoo on the grease stains. Shampoo is made to dissolve body oils and works wonders on collars.

To prevent squashing your hats when traveling, put a hat inside a plastic bag, blow full of air and secure with a rubber band. The hat does not get a dent.

Try coating candles (except wicks) with thick soap suds. Let dry in the holder before lighting and they will last longer and burn without smoking.

Church of Christ

Is Hell a myth as some are saying? It may be interesting to know that Jesus taught more about Hell than He did about Heaven. Matt. 10:28

But some think Hell to be a myth as Mercury's winged feet or as Midas and his golden touch. Those who believe the teachings of Christ know otherwise; see Mark 9:43-44.

Still Hell was not prepared for man (Matt. 25:41) and a man that goes there does so in spite of Calvary. Men that will not believe God, and obey His gospel send themselves to that place of waste, night, and eternal loss. (2 Thess. 1:7-9)

Hell is an unpleasant truth to believe but it is better than preaching pleasant error.

What does the Bible say about hell? (See Matt. 25:30; Matt. 13:40-42; Matt. 25:41; Rev. 20:15; Rev. 14:10)

JOHN B. VEST DIES

John Barnard Vest, 52, died Monday morning after apparently suffering a heart attack at his place of business.

He was a native of Arkansas and had lived in Rockport four years. He was owner of Vest Grocery Store. He previously had lived in Monahans where he was employed by Shell Oil Co. for 16 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Colorado City, Texas, with burial there. Local arrangements were under the direction of Marshall Funeral Home of Rockport.

Survivors include his wife, Vivian; a daughter, Mrs. Edith Dickson of Kermit; two sisters, Mrs. Merl Wormer and Miss Jan Vest, both of Colorado City; one brother, Fasco Vest of Colorado City, and three grandchildren.

When the Chicago Stockyard was at its peak more than 100,000 hogs a day were handled.

help. Loyce Landrum, Louise Brisbin and John Kinsey will be on hand.

If you possibly can, please be there to make these folks aware of the hospitality we extend to visitors.

Staff Activities: Loyce Landrum and Louise Brisbin concentrate on operating the office efficiently and providing worthwhile services for the C of C membership, the community and visitors.

Recently, two things were done to increase efficiency: (1) a new desk was purchased (from Celia insurance payment) and an additional work area was set up which will greatly facilitate many office procedures. (2) Linny Landrum, a student at Del Mar Tech, used computers to prepare a year's supply of name labels for mailings to the C of C membership. These labels, with names and addresses on them, are on gummed, perforated sheets ready to be affixed to envelopes or cards. This represents a tremendous savings in time and money.

John Kinsey's main job is to plan advertising and get good publicity about the Rockport area in newspapers, magazines and on TV and radio. Three large poster boards have been filled with newspaper clippings and an additional stack of clippings are ready to be mounted.

Outside Recognition: Paisano is a publication of news of and for Chamber of Commerce managers and secretaries of South Texas. The July issue reports: "The Rockport Chamber of Commerce is understandably proud of the success of the ski race from Rockport to Riverside (Houston). The C of C also recently sent out a guideline for local merchants on holidays to be observed."

Projects to Be Resumed: The directors of the Chamber of Commerce have voted to have the fishing tournament again this year. Final plans have not been made but keep it in mind as we will be calling on you to furnish gift certificates for prizes. This is one of our most successful projects and the winter tourists look forward to it every year.

The refreshment fund is running low. We would like to continue with this project but do need some hosts to furnish the $5.00 a week. We have hosts set up for the month of September. If you would like to participate, please call 729-6445.

Crime Wave Stopped
By Sheriff's Dept.

Sheriff Bob Hewes reported that with the arrest last Sunday of two 17-year-old subjects for the burglary of the Charles DeForest residence, nearly 50 burglaries, thefts and cases of shoplifting have been cleared.

Hewes stated that many of these were in the Rockport-Fulton area, the Port Aransas area and in the state of Missouri.

In the Rockport-Fulton area the burglary of the Charles DeForest home was cleared and approximately $1,800 worth of merchandise recovered. The burglary of the Faye Gaskin home was cleared as was one auto burglary at the high school parking lot, three residences on Copano Cove and Copano Ridge and one home on Lady Claire street in Rockport.

Taken in these burglaries were stereo tapes, blankets, and a .22 rifle.

Thefts in the Rockport area cleared were: Jo Ann Courts, one TV set; Marineland, a chain; Fulton Beach road, a radio; the pool hall, a radio; Harper's Mobil station, a watch; three different thefts of money from the Beacon bait stand on Fulton Beach road; theft of cash from the office at the Aransas Wildlife Refuge; theft of money from the Texaco station on N. Commercial St. in Aransas Pass.

Also numerous shoplifting incidents were admitted by the two youths in questioning by Chief Deputy Sheriff E. A. Stautzenberger and Deputy Vernon Duke.

In Port Aransas the two youths admitted burglarizing the Sea Horse Inn Motel of two TV sets and fishing gear. They burglarized the Hogan's bait stand between Aransas Pass and Port Aransas, getting approximately $115 in cash, and burglarized three different autos, getting two stereo tape units with tapes and one battery, Hewes said.

In Missouri, they admitted to five burglaries, one felony theft and numerous shoplifting cases. In the burglaries there were stereo tape decks and one citizens band radio taken and in the theft there was a gun taken.

Sheriff Hewes stated that almost all of the property taken has been recovered and on most of the items that were not recovered, his department has knowledge of its whereabouts. Hewes said that several other cases are still under investigation concerning the two subjects.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsey became grandparents Wednesday for the third time. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Herbert of Kerrville became the parents of their second son, a six pound, 10 ounce baby named Jay Herbert.

Bank Advertising
Praises Volunteers

What is believed to be an innovation in bank newspaper advertising has been undertaken by First National Bank of Rockport in a series of messages paying tribute to the hundreds of volunteer workers who make it possible for community organizations to function.

The first advertisement in the series calls them "unsung heroes" who devote their talents and time to projects that "help make their community a better place in which to live and raise their families."

James H. Sorenson, Jr., president of First National, explained: "We have felt for a long time that these people deserve some sort of public recognition for their unselfish efforts to help others. In this series of ads in the Rockport Pilot we are trying to stress the vital importance of volunteer workers in the welfare of the community they serve."

Among the organizations named in the advertisements is the Chamber of Commerce, whose unpaid workers provide "an important unifying factor in the business community." Boy Scout and Girl Scout volunteer leaders are praised for their contributions to "the character of the growing generation, and to the future of America." United Fund solicitors are recognized for their efforts on behalf of the less fortunate of the community.

Other organizations and their volunteers to be recognized include Little League, county school board and the hundreds of volunteer workers who helped make last year's Aransas County-Rockport Centennial celebration a success, Sorenson said.

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

The beginning of school is just around the corner. When the month of August rolls around, thousands of Texas mothers suddenly realize that only a few more weeks remain until school begins.

Nowadays going back to school is a major enterprise for those families with school age children. It usually means new shoes and school clothes, the acquisition of pencils and notebooks, or simply getting back into the old routine and habits.

There are certain other requirements that parents need to think about, and they need to think about them early enough to avoid the delays of last-minute requests. Children entering the first grade must be able to show proof of age. That usually means a certified copy of the child's birth certificate must be obtained from the city registrar, county clerk, or the Texas Health Department in Austin.

As usual, many Texas families will wait until the last moment to think about securing a certified copy of their first-grader's birth certificate. That means a heavy last-minute demand on officials who keep those records, and a probable delay in receiving the document from registration officials.

Across the state of Texas some two and a half million children will be heading to the public schools this fall. Nearly a quarter million will be first graders, and their birth certificates will have to be searched out of the files of the Texas Health Department's Bureau of Vital Statistics or other agencies at the city or county level which may have copies on hand.

Parents are urged by state health officials to take time now and write for a certified copy of the child's birth certificate, or contact either the city registrar where the child was born, or the county clerk in the county of birth.

If you prefer to write to health officials in Austin, address the request to the Texas State Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, 410 East Fifth Street, Austin, Texas 78701. The fee is $1.50.

And don't forget. When you're thinking about getting your child ready for the beginning of school, a new state law now requires compulsory immunization for all school children. The immunization program must be begun before the end of this year, so it's a good idea to see your physician or public health clinic early to begin your child's immunization program.

New Traffic Laws Explained

Major Kent Odom, commander of the South Texas Region of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that the legislature passed many new traffic laws in the last session which will affect Texas drivers.

As of August 27, 1971, it is unlawful and punishable for any person who is an habitual user of or under the influence of any narcotic drug or who is under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders him incapable of safely driving a vehicle, to drive a vehicle within this state.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this law is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violation of this law.

The penalty for first conviction shall be imprisonment of not less than ten days or more than two years, or by fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars or both such fine and imprisonment.

On second or subsequent conviction under this law he shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ninety days or more than two years, and, in the discretion of the court, a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

As of August 27, 1971, any person who unlawfully or intentionally (with a conscious disregard for the rights of others) causes the death of another person while engaged in the violation of any state law or municipal ordinance applying to the operation or use of a vehicle or to the regulation of traffic shall be guilty of homicide when such violation is the proximate cause of death.

The penalty for homicide by vehicle is a fine of not less than five hundred dollars or not more than two thousand dollars or imprisonment in county jail not less than three months or more than one year or both fine and imprisonment, provided, however, that such person may be tried only after indictment by a grand jury and may be tried only in the county where the violation occurred.

A Fine Kettle of Fish

AUSTIN—You don't have to say "fish" and "fry" all in the same breath. There are many other ways to cook fish besides frying.

Because of the subtle flavor and tender texture, it is possible to cook fish by any of the methods you cook other foods. Fish can be broiled like steak either in the broiler or over coals. You can poach it like an egg or bake it and baste it with your favorite sauce.

Fish and shellfish spark appetites when served as hors d'oeuvres. They season soups and chowders deliciously and perk up spirits in refreshing salads. As a main course, they are a delight. And fish is good morning, noon and night.

One example of an entree that is easy to put together with ingredients common to most pantries is Redfish au Gratin.

REDFISH AU GRATIN

2 pounds redfish steaks or other fresh fish steaks or fillets

1½ teaspoons salt

1 cup flour

2 tablespoons grated onion

1 can (10½-oz.) condensed cream of celery soup

1 cup grated cheese

2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Sprinkle paprika

Remove skin and bones as necessary and cut fish into serving-size portions. Add seasonings to flour. Roll fish in flour and place in a well-greased, shallow, 1½-quart casserole. Add onion to soup and spread over fish. Top with cheese and parsley. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate oven at 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Serves six.

Regional Sewage System Proposed

AUSTIN — A proposal by the Coastal Bend Regional Planning Commission for a regional sewage system to serve the needs of Nueces County and 11 other South Texas counties through 1990 was accepted by the Texas Water Quality Board Aug. 19.

The plan will be referred to Gov. Preston Smith with a TWQB recommendation that it be certified as the official interim water quality management plan for the planning region.

The study was financed by a grant from TWQB and amounts to a survey of the 12-county area and a proposal for establishment of regional sewage systems in appropriate areas.

The planning effort covered, in addition to Nueces County, Aransas, Bee, Brooks, Duval, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kleberg, Live Oak, McMullen, Refugio and San Patricio counties.

The study revealed that it is not feasible to serve all 12 counties with a single treatment facility or with a regional sewer system.

The county-by-county proposals include:

Aransas—Extend the city of Lamar system to serve the resort area of Holiday Beach and expanded city of Rockport plant to serve adjacent areas of Copano Bay, Fulton, Key Allegro and Palm Harbor.

BOATING SAFETY QUESTIONS POSED

AUSTIN — You own and operate a motorboat, and you think you do a good job. But how much do you really know about your boat and the laws under which you operate?

Take the following test from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and find out how much you know. Circle what you think is the correct answer at the end of each question, and then check your answers with those at the end of the test.

Each question counts five points. A score of 70 percent is passing. If you make less than 70 percent, you'd better brush up on boating safety. It could save your life or the life of someone you love.

1. A person may ride on the gunwale or seat back when a vessel is underway. (True, False)
2. It is required that the Certificate of Number be aboard the motorboat when it is in operation. (True, False)
3. The three basic situations in which the nautical rules of the road apply are crossing, overtaking, and meeting head-on. (True, False)
4. Motorboats must yield the right-of-way to rowboats and sailboats. (True, False)
5. Every boat must have a Coast Guard approved life saving device for each person on board. (True, False)
6. You are responsible for damage caused by the wake of your boat. (True, False)
7. When fueling, it is important to keep the filler spout in contact with the tank to prevent sparks caused by static electricity. (True, False)
8. If your boat capsizes, you should immediately head for shore. (True, False)
9. It is not necessary to report boating accidents unless someone is killed or injured. (True, False)
10. Motorboats of closed or semi-closed construction are required to have aboard one or more Coast Guard approved fire extinguishers. (True, False)
11. Water should be used

The Kinsey Report

Way back in 1909 a group of local ladies took action to bring about civic improvement in the Rockport area.

On Sept. 2, 1909, to be exact, Mrs. J. M. Hoopes invited ladies of this city to meet at her home for the purpose of holding a preliminary meeting to discuss formation of a regular organization to accomplish the objective mentioned above.

Mrs. Hoopes was elected president; Miss Mamie McMullen, first vice president; Mrs. L. M. Bracht, second vice president; Mrs. G. B. Grewe, recording secretary; Mrs. A. Bailey, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. H. Traylor, treasurer.

The ladies voted to call their organization the "Rockport Civic Improvement League."

They agreed, further, that whenever possible the League would work in connection with the Businessmen's Club and be guided by their experience and judgment, and to submit to the Club any important plans that might at any time meet the approval of the League.

This action, taken 62 years ago, is typical of the interesting bits of history that will be typed in the History of Aransas County, 1871-1971, which will be written by Dr. A. Ray Stephens, historian and college professor who was commissioned to do the job.

File Early for GI Bill Benefits

This fall is expected to bring thousands of veterans to Texas colleges and universities under the GI Bill, according to P. J. Mims, Director, Houston VA Regional Office.

Veterans planning to attend college for the first time should have applied for their GI Bill certificate of entitlement by this time, but if they haven't they are urged to do so immediately.

Some delayed or late payments to veterans will be caused by failure to secure the certificate before their school starts classes.

P. J. Mims said in cases of veterans who have their certificates at the time of enrollment their school can certify the enrollment promptly and activate their veterans GI Bill payment file at the Houston Regional Office. This permits the VA to start payment with a minimum time lapse, normally two to three weeks after the end of the first month of school.

"We want the veteran to receive his check on time," P. J. Mims said, adding, "Each delay works a financial hardship on the veteran which we want to avoid."

Veterans with questions about their school plans, anticipated change of schools or educational objectives would do well to contact the VA now rather than wait until school starts.

Chinchillas, once popular in Peru, Bolivia and Argentina, have been hunted so intensely for their fur, are now found only in the high mountains of northern Chile.

TMA President Sends Drug Abuse Appeal To All TMA Members

AUSTIN — Dr. James H. Sammons, president of the Texas Medical Association, is giving additional punch to his call for a limit on the prescribing of amphetamines. The Baytown physician has sent a letter to each of the 11,000 members of TMA making a direct appeal for their support.

"We must assume the leadership against drug abuse," Dr. Sammons stated in the letter to his colleagues. In appealing to all physicians for their personal support in the fight against drug abuse, Dr. Sammons specifically asked that Texas physicians limit the use of amphetamines and other stimulant drugs to specific, well-recognized medical indications.

"There is reason to be concerned about the widespread use of amphetamines. It has been estimated that 3.4 billion dosage units of amphetamines were produced in this country this past year. Since large quantities find their way into the black market, we also should focus attention on the illicit drug abuse," Dr. Sammons stated.

Amphetamines rank among the most widely abused non-narcotic drugs. When taken over a long period of time, the patient might develop dependence upon the drug, particularly if he violates his physician's precautions.

A request by the Harris County Medical Society for its members to quit prescribing amphetamines and methamphetamine except in unusual medical cases brought a 45 percent drop in sales of the various pep pills in less than a month in the Houston area. As part of the program to strengthen and expand present efforts to combat drug dependence, Dr. Sammons has also contacted every county medical society in Texas, urging them to establish a drug abuse committee to implement effective programs at the community level.

While focusing attention on the dextroamphetamine type drugs, Dr. Sammons also asked physicians to review their prescribing practices on all potentially habituating drugs, particularly barbiturates, sleeping pills, tranquilizers, and synthetic pain medications.

TMA's president expressed his appreciation for the co-operation and support he has received from the Governor's State Program on Drug Abuse, Texas Pharmaceutical Association, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, and the Texas State Board of Pharmacy.

A dinner party and family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hinton August 20. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Herring, Barbara and Gregory Herring of Austin, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baugh of Houston. Greg Herring has been the summer guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hinton.

WAGE-PRICE FREEZE NEWS

The Internal Revenue Service will operate local service and compliance centers, under the President's wage-price freeze, in nine offices in southern Texas. R. L. Phinney, IRS District Director, said today.

Under policy direction of the Office of Emergency Preparedness, Internal Revenue Service offices in the Austin district will answer public inquiries, accept complaints, and investigate alleged violations of the freeze. "We are adding telephones, mobilizing employees, and have already started accepting calls," Phinney said.

Phinney stated the IRS will make every effort to be helpful, but will need to refer questions about the new import duty surcharge to the Office of Customs in Houston, unless the question relates to the effect of the surcharge on wages, rents or the price freeze.

GETS DEGREE

Terry J. Cody received a bachelor's degree this summer from the University of South Florida at Tampa.

Letter to the Editor

Our office would appreciate it very much if you would run a small newspaper article advising farmers and ranchers in your area that own farm motor vehicles propelled by liquefied gas that the Legislature made several changes in the Texas law governing use of liquefied gas as motor fuel. This law permits farmers and ranchers who use the above mentioned motor vehicles primarily for farming and ranching to secure a Special Farm User Permit for each vehicle in lieu of securing a Bonded User Permit which necessitates filing monthly reports, remitting State taxes, and carrying fuel invoices in cabs of their vehicles.

The Comptroller is attempting to make it easier for these persons to secure permits by having a representative in your local area in the Court Room of the Aransas County Courthouse in Rockport. If they are unable to secure permits from this location, they will be available at our District Office, located at 4435 Goliard, Corpus Christi.

Yours very truly,
Dennis Hicks,
District Supervisor,
Comptroller of Public Accounts

FACTS CONCERNING RE-RECORDING OF BRANDS IN TEXAS

All brands and marks on Texas livestock must be re-recorded with County Clerks after August 30, 1971, according to a new law passed during the last session of the Texas Legislature. Producers will be given a six-month period (Aug. 30, 1971 through February 29, 1972) in which to register these brands and marks and the location on the animal which they are currently using, after which time any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first-come" basis.

The law further states that all such brands and marks must be re-recorded every 10 years. Each County Clerk records for his given county only, so many producers may need to record their brands in additional counties if their operations are extensive.

The owner shall have the right during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

It should be noted that it is illegal to brand livestock without first properly recording the brand with the County Clerk in the county in which the livestock are held.

When the brand or brands are recorded, the location on the animal on which the brand is to be applied must be designated. If the brand is to be applied to more than one location on the animal, it must be so recorded and each additional location for the brand on the animal shall constitute a separate recording of that brand.

There is no limit to the number of brands and/or marks which may be recorded in a county by a person as long as requirements of this law governing the recording and re-recording of livestock brands are met. Minors may have marks or brands separate from that of the father or guardian, which must be recorded or re-recorded as provided by the new law.

The County Clerk of each county shall have this act published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of 30 days. The act shall be published on the effective date August 30, 1971, and thereafter for 30 days.

It is the obligation of the County Clerk to assure that no more than one brand of a kind be recorded on the same location on the animal in each county. Therefore, no two people in a county may record the same brand in the same location. It is also the responsibility of the County Clerk to make certain that in recording any brand for a person, that the part of the animal on which the brand is to be placed be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fineable offense of not less than $10 or more than $50 (Article 1486 P.C.)

The law as outlined above applies to all counties in the state of Texas and shall take precedence over any special statutes heretofore applying to individual counties pertaining to recording and re-recording of brands.

Helping Hands---

Aransas County's United Fund represents the best in community effort to help the less fortunate and to provide funds for worthwhile civic enterprises.

A single fund-raising campaign for a dozen or more participating agencies obviously is the most efficient and most economical method of meeting a number of community obligations. It avoids duplication of administrative costs and overlapping efforts in collecting money and pledges.

All important to the success of the United Fund is, of course, the work of scores of volunteers who administer the program and seek contributions on a house-to-house basis. Without the work of these public spirited people the program would collapse. And without the programs made possible by the United Fund this would be a less desirable community in which to live.

Again, all of us in Aransas County are indebted to a relatively small band of men and women who volunteer their efforts for the common good.
