Reported Defeat of the Revolutionists.

Special to the EXPRESS.

EAGLE PASS, Sept. 15, 1876.

A revolutionary deserter now here reports the defeat of the combined revolutionist column. The revolutionists attempted to attack the federal troops at La Malta, but as soon as they started in, Quiroga, with the government forces, drove them back. It is reported that three hundred men were killed and wounded. C.

Exciting times on the Rio Grande Border.

Fun—Fighting to Follow.

BROWNSVILLE, September 15, 1876.

Considerable excitement was occasioned by the announcement that Cortina and Canales were concentrating to attack Matamoros to-night or to-morrow. The guns at Ft. Brown are moved to the river bank, and every one is anxious to see the sport.

To-day is the birthday of General Diaz, the head of the present revolution.

General Garcia de La Cadena, with six hundred men, captured Zacatecas, where the mint is located, and completely plundered it, leaving the city on the 4th

The revolutionist Generals, Hernandes Mier and Teron, who were in Tultutoco prison in the city of Mexico, have escaped, accompanied by the guards and many other prisoners.

Quiroga and Palacios are reported to have united their forces, and are marching on Camargo, which is now held by the revolutionists, with four hundred men under Col. Fuentas. S.

INDIAN NEWS.

St. Louis, Sept 15—Advices from Red Cloud Agency say there is no doubt but that several thousands of young men have gone to the hostiles, as a recent count at this agency shows, and that but 490 women and children were present, when there should be 13,000. It is quite probable that an investigation at the Spotted Tail Agency will also show a corresponding deficiency.

ENGLAND VS. TURKISH BRUTALITY.

London, Sept 15—The British officers at Turkish headquarters in Servia have reported great devastations by the Turks, but no outrages of women or mutilation of wounded are known. On receiving this intelligence the British Minister at Constantinople remonstrated against such devastation, whereupon the Turkish government issued stringent orders to stop it immediately.

SPANISH NEWS.

London, Sept 15—A Reuter dispatch from Berlin says the intolerant measures of the Spanish Government against the Protestants are stated to have given rise to a frequent exchange of notes between the British and German Governments, and it is understood that they will address remonstrations to Spain on this subject and call upon her to act in conformity with her engagements.

INDIAN WAR.

Chicago, Sept 15—A Times' special correspondent with Terry telegraphs from Fort Buford, mouth of Yellowstone, via Bismarck, that on the 14th the final breaking up of Gen Terry's command occurred, and all troops are now en route home, with the exception of two regiments of infantry, which will winter at the mouth of Tongue river. Troops numbering 250 infantry, and 120 horse, and the 2nd Cavalry, under Gen. Gibbon, left for Fort Ellis with a wagon train and supplies for eighty days. They will follow Stanley trail. Their route is teeming with hostiles, and is four hundred and twenty miles long. They may encounter a large war party in the Big Horn country; they have been in the field ever since March last, and are poorly clad for the cold weather and fierce storms which sweep over the prairies at this season. The second Infantry have been left at the mouth of Glendine Creek, and have commenced the construction of a stockade. They will remain there until November first, or later. The seventh Cavalry have left for Fort Buford, and will move along the north bank of the Yellowstone, and after arriving there they will go to Fort Lincoln to winter quarters. The sixteenth Infantry will remain here.

Gen Terry and staff arrived here this morning and after remaining a few days, will go to St Paul, Minnesota, via Bismarck.

By the 15th all troops will have been withdrawn from the northern country, except the 22nd Infantry and 5th Cavalry containing four hundred men.

A dispatch just received from Gen Sheridan countermands the order to winter a regiment of Cavalry on the Yellowstone, which renders a winter campaign impossible, and indefinitely postpones the subjection of the Sioux.

CHURCH SOLD

Boston, Sept 14—The sale of the old South church for $400,000 was perfected to-day, the conditions on both sides having been accepted. The building is to be used strictly as a historical museum.

Bauman, the machinery gave way and the elevator and men were precipitated from the third story to the ground floor. Kopp was killed and the others dangerously wounded internally. The elevator was loaded with goods and descended with great velocity.

DEL RIO CORRESPONDENCE.

DEL RIO, Kinney Co., Sept. 10, 1876.

Editor San Antonio Express:

Presuming a short letter from this part of God's green earth would be acceptable, I break the silence which I have kept since my retreat in this part. The pleasure of once more addressing the EXPRESS brings to my memory sweet recollections of "days long since vanished" when your correspondent labored in the interest of your now prosperous newspaper.

This place measures thirty miles from Brackett, the county east of Kinney county. So much has already been said about Kinney county and its adjacent country, that I shall not encroach on your time and space to give a "re-hash," I shall confine my remarks to Del Rio exclusively.

Here, at San Felipe Del Rio, we have the garden-spot of the county, it is owned by a chartered company, they having left nothing undone to promote its prosperity; ditches have been cut out, which put an immense number of acres under irrigation, and farming has been carried on with average success.

Del Rio, besides being prosperous, bears a romantic and picturesque appearance from any direction that it may be approached. As the traveler comes from Brackett, and in sight of Del Rio, a mountain looms up in view which rises up to a peak about 150 feet, on which is a large cross put there by superstitious Mexicans as the guardian angel of the village. Behind and at the foot of this mountain peak can be seen the banks of the Rio Grande meandering a southwesterly direction.

There stores are necessary to supply the demands of the population, besides that we have a comfortable school house, and a large school taught by an able teacher.

The future of Del Rio is brighter than ever, soldiers having been ordered here, and it is thought and hoped with a permanent end. They are encamped a mile and a half from the gates of this place on a beautiful spring. Provender for corn, hay oats and wood to furnish the troops to be stationed here, have been received, and the citizens of this place will compete for the contracts, being confident they are as able to fill them as those who do not reside here, and who will, no doubt, put to ride.

This and surrounding country is a success as a stock range, to certify which is plainly proven by Slaughter and other lower-country stock-men moving their herds up here with a view to build ranches and keep them here all the time.

All places have their disadvantages and drawbacks and so has Del Rio, is being too near the "Land of God and Liberty" to make horse-flesh safe property. Only the space of two miles dividing it from Mexico, consequently, but a short time is necessary in reaching the safe border. What the citizens of this place have suffered from these thieving wretches, would make it detrimental to their future happiness were one to be caught in the act of stealing a horse.

The recent raids made on the other side by Col. Shafter have put a quietus on the stealing mania, and since troops are to be stationed so near it will, of course, have a great "moral effect."

The troops that were stationed on the Pecos have broken up camp and gone away, a portion of them being those ordered here. WANDERER.

Missionaries and others sojourning in foreign lands should not fail to take with them a good supply of JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. It is the most reliable medicine for all purposes there is in the world.

SATURDAY MORNING Sept. 16th, 1876.

CENTENNIAL LETTER.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6th, 1876.

Editor San Antonio Express:

Although the Centennial in all its glory surrounds me on every side, I do not propose to write of it, but of something that will prove to your readers of more local interest. This great show has attracted to its gates the people of the entire world and several States with a prudence and bullness tact, which Texas does not manifest, are availing themselves of its facilities to distribute information relative to themselves and exhibit their resources. The Commissioners from Iowa, Kansas, Arkansas and Colorado tell me that they will reap more benefit from the few thousands expended here than from the whole of the many they have disbursed in other quarters. Although Texas has no local habitation on the ground, I saw that there was much enquiry about her, and determined in an humble way to do the most I could. A few weeks since I wrote to Col. Peirce that if he would send me a few copies of the book which I wrote last fall describing Western Texas, I could place them where they would do good. I thought that I could use a dozen copies or so. To my horror he sent me a whole case, amounting to nearly five hundred copies. I felt as did the venturesome man who won the elephant, not knowing what to do with them. I had a local paragraph placed in the papers that I would distribute guides and information to Western Texas. This was enough, the gallery of the newspaper pavillion in which my desk is located, soon presented an appearance analagous to the back yard of the man that advertised for a dog—a dozen would congregate around my desk while I talked Texas. These would go away and others come. In three days my books were all gone—and I began to accumulate orders for the second invoice which is already more than half gone. The foreign correspondents asked permission to translate extracts. A half-dozen foreign Commissioners asked for copies. It seems that most of the Commissioners are privately charged to ascertain all the facts regarding the places that are competing for immigration. Nor is this all—I get a number of letters by every mail asking for information about Texas. For a week my own private correspondence has been neglected, so numerous have been the calls made upon me. I know of four colonies being formed for Texas; one in Ohio, one in Eastern Pennsylvania, one in Deleware, and one in this city. The last already numbers thirthy families—nearly every man was a soldier in the Federal army. I think there will be not less than fifty men from the "Department of Admission, to the Centennial," who will leave for Texas as soon as the Exposition closes. The fact is that times are so hard in the North that every man who can go elsewhere desires to do so. While I am writing a note arrives asking price of lands and rates of fare for a company of ten families. These facts will give the people of Texas some conception of the interest that there is about Western Texas. My object in writing is more particularly to direct attention to the numerous inquiries made of me relative to San Antonio as a winter resort, for families of wealth who do not like to encounter the rigors of a Northern winter. Many are tired of Florida and would go to San Antonio if its advantages were properly made known to them. They ask about the hotels and are pleased with my replies but they ought to have more definite information. The Menger Hotel ought to let its comforts be known if it would attract a most desirable class of travelers. There are no places of amusement in Florida. The churches are not elegant and their services are not attractive as are those of the San Antonio churches. Your city has every advantage if you will avail yourselves of it.

It is probable that I shall remain until the close of the Exposition, and will do all that I can to aid any portion of Texas. But if the people of San Antonio desire to hold the advantages within their grasp, they must do something for themselves.

W.

—The Central Hotel and Stable on Main Plaza near the old Cathedral in the centre of the city of San Antonio, will be under the same control from this date.

The wagon-yard will be free to all patrons of the hotel, with corn, hay and oats for sale and stalls to rent. Satisfaction guaranteed.

A WRONG VIEW.

The Baltimore Gazette, an ably edited Democratic journal, takes a most erroneous view of Tafts circular of instruction to United States Marshals. We have observed with special watchfulness the attitude of the country's press on this question of enjoined military interference the coming Presidential election, and have been pleased to witness moderation and forbearance of spirit in the common tone of the newspapers both North and South. But the reader would probably know what the Gazette says. Hear it, therefore:

"The time has come when we must meet force with force. To the bayonet we must oppose the bayonet. That is the only way to save republican institutions and democracy in the United States. The party in power is resolved upon the adoption of desperate methods to retain their supremacy, and it is only by desperate methods the party of constitutional government can successfully oppose and defeat them. Louis Napoleon never dared to do in France what the Republican party has resolved to do within the next sixty days. . . . If we allow this policy to be successfully inaugurated and carried out, republican government in the United States is dead. All that we have contended for during a hundred years will have perished. The defeat of the bad, bold men who have resolved upon this desperate course can only be secured by the adoption of their own methods. The party of constitutional government everywhere, and especially in the State of Maryland and the city of Baltimore, must teach them that force will be met by force. The time has come for all good men who love their country and love the Union to organize and show the men who would overturn the Union that they can only do it by a sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of lives. Let us begin the work in Baltimore at once and organize immediately. Let us have the Minute Men of '76. No law must be broken. Their aim should be to defend the law; to protect the imperiled constitution of our common country. It is fitting that Baltimore and Maryland, which may be called the cradle of civil and religious liberty in America, should take the lead in this most patriotic work. If Baltimore shall send out the voice, the echo of the voice that Paul Revere sent out from the Old South Church of Boston a hundred years ago, we shall have the continent in a whirlwind of patriotism within thirty days, and the desperate men who are seeking the overthrow of American liberties will have been defeated. Let us have the "Minute Men of '76" organized, drilled, equipped and led by the best men who can be found to lead them. This is the great duty of the hour. To your tents! O, Israel!"

What, in the name of common sense, was the condition of the writer's mind who penned these sentiments,—shall we venture to conjecture? If so, we remark that the article manifests an irritable temper. The writer hastily perused Taft's circular, and as his mind grasped the meaning of the words it embraced, an impulsive temperament got the best of reason, and before taking time to "cool off," the editor had written the foolish paragraph above given, the printers had "snatched it up," and it was in a few hours before the eyes of an impassionate and reasoning world.

What is the true position for the South, brave, free and independent, under the circumstances surrounding her to-day? Let her acquiesce in the flat which has gone forth, that if disorders trouble her during the Presidential election, the military, or whoever will, has a right to suppress such disorders. We fear that the majority of men, native Southerners governed by Southern instincts, do not properly conceive the true meaning of this order of the Attorney General's to U. S. Marshals. The spirit which actuated the writer of this editorial of the Baltimore Gazette, is, alas! too general. In portions of South Carolina, in Louisiana, in Mississippi, instances have occurred demonstrating that State and county authorities could not, or, at least, did not, properly and promptly suppress popular uprisings. There is a spirit of retaliation so natural to the white man as the pulsations of his heart, and any imposition upon his privileges by the negro drives him to revenge. Thus, in many instances, our brethren of the South have acted with immoderation and indiscretion, and have won for their conduct the obnoxious title of the "bloody shirt." For this spirit of self-protection from negro abuse, as the Southern people call it, the Republicans have hurled upon them in torrents the meanest and most damaging anathemas. We make this digression, to show wherein the editor of the Baltimore Gazette stoops to a position equally erroneous to that of Boutwell, in his "fire and brimstone" Massachusetts speech. Boutwell said that if Tilden was declared our next President, it would be by an usurpation as bloody as that by which Napoleon III assumed the role and title of Emperor of France; the editor of the Gazette calls, as opposing Boutwell, for the bayonet, and says "to your tents, O, Israel,' virtually meaning that the people he teaches should arm for another civil contest.

Taking the word in an indirect sense, both these individuals, the Gazette man and Boutwell, have unogogically arrived at their conclusions. The former has imagined that the South was to be overrun by soldiers, and her suffragans intimidated by them, and the latter has imagined that if the South should go entirely for Tilden, it would be by intimidating the negroes to vote the Democratic ticket. The minds of both these individuals were in an exethistic condition when their sentiments as given were uttered, and we have no doubt but that both of the parties have repented of their errors long before this. If they are Christians, they have probably prayed for forgiveness.

Tilden's chances for election rest on the hope of a peaceful campaign, and no intelligent Democratic editor, who has the good of his party before him, should abet or encourage strife. If, as some of the Democratic papers have wildly stated, Taft's circular is to promote factions uprising in the South for Republican political capital, why is not the danger headed by quietly submitting to the injunctions of that circular, and a general effort directed towards depriving United States Marshals of any pretense to avail themselves of the Attorney General's instructions.

Had the Gazette said, "let every true Southern man, desiring Tilden's election, (for the editor speaks to Southern Democrats) be ready, upon the call of United States Marshals, to suppress any disorder which may occur during the Presidential election," he would have shown far greater discretion, both as a politician, a Southern man, and a man devoted to the Union. But, no, he diverts from a course of rectitude and wisdom, and sacrifices himself, his party's interests, and adds fuel to the flame of damnable vituperation, the essence of Northern Republican sentiment, forced upon the South.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

VEGETINE.

Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE.

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature

VEGETINE.

Does not destroy life (as the latter falsely charge) by purging and creating a factitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE.

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit, are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

VEGETINE.

Instead of being a pulled-up medicine has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by actual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

VEGETINE.

Says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results.

VEGETINE.

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier and cleanser of the blood yet discovered, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

Proof—What is Needed.

Boston, Feb. 12, 1871.

MR. H R STEVENS:

Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore perfect health.

Respectfully yours,
U. L. PETTINGILL.

MR. H R STEVENS:

Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit.

For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness, these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.

She was also troubled with Dyspepsia and General Debility; and has been greatly benefited.

MR H R STEVENS:

Dear Sir—Through the advice and earnest persuasion of Rev E S Best, of this place, I have been taking VEGETINE for Dyspepsia, of which I have suffered for years.

I have only used two bottles and already feel myself a new man.

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have sold at retail 1543 dozen (1852 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumor being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

TERMS OFFERED BY UNITED STATES TO THE INDIANS FOR THEIR FUTURE BENEFIT.

OPENING OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMISSION AT RED CLOUD AGENCY.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, NEB., September 8, via FORT LARAMIE, W. T., September 9.—The Indian Commission which arrived here last Wednesday held their first council here yesterday afternoon. About 150 Indians, including Red Cloud, Red Dog, Old Man-Afraid of-His-Horses, his son Sitting Bull, an Ogallalla Sioux, being present. In conversation with the members of the Commission before the Council, the Indians expressed joy at their arrival, some of them saying to Dr. Daniels, of the Commission, their old agent, 'I shall die, my father, if you don't take pity on me.' The Indians are in excellent mood for a treaty. At the Council Bill Garnett, Bill Rowland, Leon Palloreby and Todd Randall acted as assistant interpreters to Red Henman. Bishop Whipple offered prayer, and then were read by Col. Manypenny, Chairman, and interpreter to the Indians:

1. They shall relinquish all claims to that part of their reservation lying west of the 103d meridian, and that the western boundry of said reservation shall commence at the intersection of the 103d meridian and the northern boundary of Nebraska; thence northerly along said meridian to its intersection with the south fork of the Cheyenne River; thence down said stream to its intersection with the north fork of the Cheyenne River to said 103d meridian; thence north alongside the meridian to the south branch of Canyon Ball River, or Cedar Creek; thence down said stream to the Missouri River. They shall also relinquish all claim to all the country outside of the present limits of their reservation, and that article sixteen of the treaty of 1868 is hereby abrogated.

2. They shall grant the right of way over said reservation for wagon and other roads from convenient and accessible points on the Missouri River to that portion of the reservation which is to be ceded, not more than three in number, to be designated hereafter by the President of the United States; and they shall permit the construction and free and unobstructed use of said roads, and free navigation of the Missouri River.

3. They shall receive all annuities provided by treaty, and all subsistence supplies which may be provided for them, at such points and places on such reservation, and in the vicinity of the Missouri River, as the President may designate.

4. And, as whereas, Congress has provided by law that no appropriation shall be made hereafter for said Indians until some plans have been devised which shall look to their becoming self-supporting; and, whereas, there is no country within the limits of the present reservation suited for such purposes; and whereas, it is designed by the President of the United States to aid in the fullest manner possible their progress in civilization; therefore, said Indians shall agree to submit themselves to such beneficient plans as the Government shall provide for them in the selection of a country suitable for a permanent home, where they may live like white men. The President believes the only country where they can hope for permanent improvement is in the Indian Territory, inasmuch as the removal of Indians to the Missouri River will necessarily be temporary. If they shall agree to go directly to the Indian Territory next season, they shall be permitted to remain at the Agency until that time. But before any such removal from their reservation, they may select a delegation of five or more from each band to visit the country proposed for their future home, and thus satisfy themselves of its desirability.

5. In consideration of their compliance with the foregoing proposition, submitted by the authority of the President and Congress. It is proposed that the Government of the United States shall provide all necessary aid to assist in the work of civilization; and shall furnish to them schools and teach them mechanical and agricultural arts, as provided for by treaty, and also shall provide assistance, consisting of a ration for each individual of a pound and a half of beef, half a pound of flour, half a pound of corn, and for every 100 rations four pounds of coffee, eight pounds of sugar, ten pound of pork, or their equivalent, or as much of such ration as may be necessary until said Indians are self-supporting, such ration, in all cases, to be given to the head of each separate family. And whenever the Government shall have provided schools on their permanent reservation, no children between the ages of six and fourteen shall draw rations unless they regularly attend school, sick and infirm children excepted. And whenever said Indians are located on lands suitable for cultivation, rations shall be issued only to the families of those who labor, the aged, sick and infirm excepted. And, as an incentive to industrious habits, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs may provide that they shall be furnished, in payment for their labor, such articles as are necessary for civilized life. The Government will aid them as far as possible in finding a market for their surplus productions, and in finding employment, and shall purchase such surplus as may be required for supplying food to those Indians who are unable to sustain themselves. They shall also employ Indians as far as practicable in the performance of Government Work on their reservation.

6. Whenever the head of a family shall, in good faith, select an allotment of land and engage in the cultivation thereof, the Government shall, with his aid, erect a comfortable house thereon, and if said Indians shall remove to such place as may be designated by Government as their future home within three years, the Government officers will provide the principal chief with a good dwelling house.

7. Parties to this treaty shall be lawfully married, and living with their respective families on said reservation, and no person other than Indians of full blood, or whose fitness, morally or otherwise, is not conducive to the welfare of said Indians, shall receive any benefit from this or former treaties, and they may be expelled from the reservation.

8. The provisions of the treaty, except as herein modified, shall continue in full force and apply to any country which may hereafter, be occupied by said Indians as a home, and Congress shall secure to them an orderly government. They shall be subject to the laws of the United States, and each individual shall be protected in his rights, property, person and life.

9 The Indians shall solemnly pledge themselves, individually and collectively, to observe each and all the stipulations aforesaid, to select, allotments of land as soon as possible after removal to their permanent reservation, and use their best efforts to learn to cultivate the same, and they do solemnly pledge themselves they will at all times maintain peace with the Government and citizens of the United States, and loyally endeavor to fulfill all obligations assumed by them under the treaty and present agreement, and to this end will, at the request of the President, select so many suitable men from each tribe to co-operate with him in maintaining order and peace on the reservations as he may deem necessary, who shall receive such compensation as Congress may provide.

10. In order that the Government may faithfully fulfill the stipulations contained in this agreement for the benefit of said Indians, it is mutually agreed that a census shall be taken in December of each year, and the names of each head of family and adult person registered. No agreement concurred in by the contracting parties will be binding upon either party until approved by Congress and the President.

CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

[Letter from a Minister.]

Wm. H. Hickox, Rector of St. John's P. E. Church, Wakefield, Clay Co., Kansas, writes: "Many years I have been suffering from a weak back, caused from a sprain more than 40 years ago. I have not found any thing to relieve me until I commenced the use of Centaur Liniment. I feel it my christian duty to inform you that by its wonderful effects I am entirely relieved of pain."

"Jan. 22d, 1876.

This is a sample of many thousand testimonials received, of wonderful cures effected by the Centaur Liniment. The ingredients of this article are published around each bottle. It contains Witch Hazel, Mentha, Arnica, Rock Oil, Carbolic, and ingredients hitherto little known. It is an indisputable fact that the Centaur Liniment is performing more cures of Swellings, Stiff Joints, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Lock-jaw, &c., than all other Liniments, Embrocations Extracts, Salves Ointments, and Plasters now in use.

For Toothache, Earache, Weak Back, Itch, and Cutaneous Eruptions, it is admirable. It cures burns and scalds without a scar. Extracts poison from bites and stings, and heals frost-bites and chilblains, in a short time. No family can afford to be without the Centaur Liniment, white wrapper.

THE CENTAUR LINIMENT, Yellow Wrapper, is adapted to the tough skin, muscles and flesh of the animal creation. Its effects upon severe cases of Spavin, Sweeny, Wind Gall, Big-Head, and Poll-Evil, are little less than marvellous.

Messrs. J. McClure & Co., Druggists, cor. Elm and Front Sts., Cincinnati, O., say:

"In our neighborhood a number of teamsters are using the Centaur Liniment. They pronounce it superior to anything they have ever used. We sell as high as four to five dozen bottles per month to these teamsters."

We have thousands of similar testimonials.

For Wounds, Galls, Scratches, Ringbone, &c., and for Screw Worm in Sheep, it has no rival. Farmers, Livery-men and Stock-raisers, have in this Liniment a remedy which is worth a hundred times its cost.

It is entirely a vegetable preparation, and contains neither mineral, morphine, nor alcohol. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and neither gags nor gripes.

Dr. E. Dimock, of Dupont, O., says: "I am using Castoria in my practice with the most signal benefits and happy results, and find it a perfect substitute for Castor Oil."

This is what everyone says. Most nurses in New York use the Castoria. It is prepared by Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., New York, successors to Samuel Pitcher, M. D. July18d&w3m

ACCIDENT.

A YOUNG SON OF W. J. LOCKE BREAKS HIS LEG AND HAS IT AMPUTATED.

Yesterday as two sons of W. J. Locke were taking a ride in a buggy one of them, a boy about thirteen years old, accidentally fell from the vehicle in such a manner as to have his leg caught between the spokes of one of the wheels. Upon being picked up it was discovered that one of legs was broken and shattered in such a manner as to render amputation necessary, and the attending surgeons cut the leg off above the knee.

The presence of mind of the brother who was driving undoubtedly saved the life of the unfortunate boy, for a slight backing of the buggy enabled the little fellow to release his leg, immediately after which the horse became frightened and ran some distance before he could be stopped.

—An old Mexican grandmother was yesterday deprived of the care of three young children by decree of the County Court. They were returned to their father. The latter wanted to take immediate charge of the little ones upon the promulgation of the edict of the Court, which was much against the wishes of the children, who clung to their granny, and in tears plead to be allowed to remain with the old woman. The unhappy family were instructed to return home, where efforts will have to be made to gradually win back a love for their father to obtain their condescension to live entirely with him.

SATURDAY MORNING Sept. 16th, 1876.

CITY NEWS.

—About $240 were cleared by the young ladies' concert Thursday.

—Furnished room for rent. Apply at this office. aug 30 1tf.

—Mr. Herman Wagenfehr was yesterday made a happy father. It was an eleven pound boy.

—We are thankfully indebted to the committe for a complimentary invitation to a grand ball to be given at Woltram's Central Garden this evening, by our Mexican citizens, in honor of Mexican Independence.

—Our market is very poorly supplied, both as regards vegetables and country produce, just now. No chickens, no eggs, no butter—nothing in the vegetable line scarcely. Until gardening and poultry raising are better systematized, and well-conducted dairies are instituted about us, there will be a periodical dearth of these home products.

THE TURF.—An amusing trot will come off on the Fair grounds this evening at four o'clock, mile heat, best two in three for the horse or team that trots the distance nearest four minutes. Ten entries have been made. All horses start at once, and the horse or team that makes the first two heats nearest four minutes wins six cups.

—Mr. Louis Dreyfuss of the Metropolitan saloon tells us that he will shortly add important attractive improvements to his saloon. He is determined to make it par excellence in all respects. We can't imagine, from appearances, how much improvement to his elegant place could well be made, but Louis says there is room for it, and we suppose he is a better judge than we.

THANKS.—We are requested by the young ladies of the Episcopal Church to thank Messrs. Dorman, Holmes & Co for the loan of the piano used at the concert Thursday night. Also Mr. S. C. Butler, the confectioner near the Postoffice, for liberal additions to the dainties of the refreshment tables set on the evening of the concert.

NOTICE.—The Stockholders of the Agricultural, Stockraising and Industrial Association of Western Texas will please take notice that the third installment on their stock is due, and that payment is requested at once as the Association require funds to put the Fair Grounds in order. By order of the Board of Directors,

GEO. W. CALDWELL, Treas.

San Antonio, Sept. 15, 1876. 3t

POLITICAL.—A number of gentlemen met in the District Court room last evening, and organized a Young Men's Democratic Club. The following officers were chosen: For President, A. W. Houston; Vice-Presidents, Leslie Thompson, F. G. Smith and John Cardenas; Secretaries, Robert Symington and Charles Seabaugh; Treasurer, P. H. Ward. Much interest was manifested in the proceedings by those present.

MILITARY ITEM.—A General Court Martial will convene at the Post of San Antonio, on Monday, the 18th day of Sept., at 10 o'clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of such persons as may be properly brought before it. The following is the detail for the Court: Capt E E Sellers, 10th Infantry, Capt S B M Young, 8th Cavalry, First Lieutenant A M Raphall, 11th Infantry, Second Lt T W Jones, 10th Cavalry, Second Lt J C Ord 25th Infn. First Lt W T Duggan, 10th Infantry, is appointed Judge Advocate of the Court.

"CHUCK FULL."—We visited the dry goods establishment of Halff & Bro. yesterday, and found it in the above predicament. On entering, that clever young gentleman, Mr. Hart, volunteered to pilot us about among the bales of blankets, bunting, bags and piles of boxes, for the small apartment visible from the street is but the opening to store-rooms filled with all manner of articles appertaining to the line of the dry goods merchant. Messrs. Halff & Bro. carry an immense stock of goods, the magnitude of which we fear to talk about, preferring that our readers visit the house personally and get their own ideas regarding the stock on hand. These goods, are of course, to be disposed of, and any man, woman or child can find whatever is wanted, and as cheap as the cheapest, at this large establishment. A suggestion—Halff does business on such whole-souled principles that his name doesn't do him justice—he should petition the Legislature to have it changed to Wholeman, Grossmann or something of the kind, and we guarantee that a majority of our citizens would endorse such a petition. However, if a man over-shoots what he professes to be in point of excellence, the more honor is due him. Reader, remember Messrs. Halff & Brother.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.—If the truth was ever told, (and we presume it has, even since the death of George Washington,) what Messrs. Mayer & Wolff have to say is true in every sense of the word. These gentlemen, whose place of business is the Zork building, Main street, are now offering as fine a lot of dry-goods as anyone should wish to inspect or select from. They are energetic in displaying and willing in showing their goods, and are justly entitled to a large deal of the public patronage. Their stock embraces any quantity of staple and fancy dry-goods, and these they offer at the very lowest prices. The senior partner of the firm, Mr. Mayer, has been for the past three months in the Northern market, where he has had, and taken advantage of, through the depression of trade, rare chances offered to make purchases at the lowest niche. Thus the firm is enabled to offer goods at a very small advance. Messrs. Mayer & Wolff do business on the one-price system, so that your baby, (if you are so fortunate as to have one) can buy as cheaply as you can yourself. Honorable dealing characterizes all their transactions.

THE FIRE FIEND!

In Seething Fury it Visits One of Our Proudest Buildings and Reduces it to Ashes.

THE CRYSTAL SALOON IN RUINS.

At the hour of 11:40 last night, while standing musingly in front of our office, startling shrieks of fire! fire! suddenly burst upon the air at the western end of Main street.

When these unusual notes to ring upon the air in San Antonio reached our ears, we put out at our best speed, and in a moment, as it seemed, were at the scene of the conflagration—then in its mere infancy, but of a very threatening character. The

was the object destined to destruction by the flames. Shortly after arriving at the burning building, some thoughtless man fell with his shoulder against one of the front doors, and as we stood near by, we took advantage of the opportunity, and entered the building. Although bulged from the windows of the second story, the flames within were not advanced. In the south-east corner of the large lower room, seemingly of origin in a small back room, the fire was playing havoc, but the flames were confined to so small a limit that, had the Hook and Ladder Company been present at the time, they could have been subdued without material damage to the main building. It was fully ten minutes after our presence at the fire, ere the first stroke of a fire-bell, and not a fireman made his appearance during all that time. The first effective aid was brought by the Turner Hook and Ladder company, but little could these brave and energetic boys do in their late arrival, for the entire lower room was now clasped in the arms of a burning destruction, and already had the flames found headway through cracks and crevices into the second story. About fifty minutes after the first cry of fire, an engine threw a stream of water. It seemed as if everything was in favor of the speading fury of the flames, which now burst out the windows and doors of the structure, rolling over and about the front of the building and upon its roof like the waves of an angry ocean over the deck of a wandering vessel.

Fire companies 1, 2, 3 and 4 and the Silsby engine with them, at last got fairly under way of operation, but the fire had assumed such a dreadful form that the entire block, the most valuable in the city, seemed doomed to destruction. The immediately to the rear of the Crystal, not more than ten feet distant, and connected by a small shed, was particularly threatened, and the assistance of all lookers-on was called into requisition to remove the household furniture. At the same time, hundreds of persons were actively at work on Main street removing pianos, organs, &c., from the late A. Scheidemantel's music store. Mr. Wood, who was just entering into the dry-goods business next to the Crystal, on the east, also moved the few dry goods he has lately received to a place of safety. The were now also rendering active and effectual service, and with all hands combined, the ravages of the flames at last were limited to the one building. The firemen and persons with buckets had mounted neighboring roofs, and water was at last thrown in upon the burning mass from front and rear with telling effect.

FORTUNE TURNED—

Braden's Hotel was now saved, Schoenerie millinery establishment, Wood's, Scheidemantel's, Halff & Brother's, were saved with it, and the feeling of satisfaction which seized these proprietors at this juncture, could not have been dissipated for a hundred thousand dollars. Mr Joseph, the proprietor of the Crystal was the only loser. He saved nothing. Three billiard tables, the most expensively fitted up saloon in the city, with all the liquors it contained, were lost. Mr. Joseph suffers to the extent of at least $5,000, upon which, we learn, there is a small insurance in some company represented by Messrs. Marshall & Herndon. The building was owned by Rafael Quintana, and is a perfect wreck. It was a $10,000 building, covered by $4,000 insurance in a company for which Miss Fannie Florian is agent, supposed to be the Hartford, and will probably incur a total loss to the company. Had the Braden Hotel caught fire, the destruction of at least a half million dollars worth of goods and property would have followed. The fire was under complete control at 1:10, although the engines played for hours afterwards on the smoking ruins. A $15,000, fire could have been controlled, with so many hundred dollars' loss, by the parties who were early on hand, were the city blessed with that great necessity, water works, and a convenient hydrant, or even if a company of firemen had arrived in due time.

THANKS.

Mr. A. L. Wood, who occupies the building adjoining the Crystal, desires to thank the citizens of San Antonio for kindly assisting him in removing his goods to a point of safety from the flames last night. He sustained no loss, and will open immediately.

We presume the representative of the late A. Scheidamantel entertains a similar feeling, as does also the agent for the Singer sewing machine, whose places of business were threatened.

A WARNING TO ALL WIFE-BEATERS.

In the County Court yesterday quite an interesting trial came off. The case was a charge of aggravated assault and battery, against Dr. T. Van der Hoeven. The party upon whom he had wreaked his vengeance was none other than the partner of his bosom. W. B. Leigh, Esq., conducted the defense, County Attorney Anderson and C. Upson, Esq., the prosecution.

After a full and fair trial, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, imposing upon the prisoner the highest penalty of the law in the case, $1000 fine.

Van der Hoeven is universally condemned for his brutality to his wife, and this punishment which has been meted out to him should teach him, and others like him, that frail woman was not made for man to abuse and beat, but to foster and protect.

The act was mean, cowardly, unmanly, disgraceful in the highest sense of the word. It is supposed a divorce will follow.

"OUR NEXT MAYOR."

Editor San Antonio Express:

In a recent issue of the EXPRESS, I read a timely article, under the caption "Our next Mayor," and as a citizen, feeling the deepest interest in the future of our city, consider the moment opportune to discuss the matter to the end that the best man may be selected as our chief executive officer. Who is to be our next Mayor, is a question that bears more importance in the coming election in January than has probably characterized any previous election for a municipal office in the city of San Antonio. Not that the present city government, and more especially, the present Mayor, have been unfaithful in the discharge of their official duties, as they conceive them to be, but the near approach of the railroad, the change in the products of Western Texas, that has been going on for several years past, the increase in agricultural productions and the decrease of cattle; the rapidly developing sheep and wool interest; the large immigration to our city and section, demand that an administration of our city affairs, in conformity with the innovations already taking place, be adopted.

There can be no denying that in some respects San Antonio presents anything but attractive features to strangers. The universal impression made upon strangers by the condition of our streets and sidewalks, the absence of water-works, no street railroads, are constantly referred to with surprise.

If we feel a desire to attract strangers to settle among us, as far as may be in our power, local improvements should be pushed forward;—at least, let us give some evidence, that we see and feel what is needed, and intend to accomplish as the earliest practical moment.

If we remain in the same condition in the future that we were in ten years ago, and are in to-day, making only those changes which each individual finds necessary and convenient for his private ends, how can we expect to induce strangers, who, having seen many places with fewer natural advantages, so much ahead of us in public improvements, to believe that our predictions that the near future of San Antonio is to be in unison with that spirit of progress characteristic of American cities elsewhere. Consider the spirit, that must have prompted St. Louis, only a few years ago the same size of San Antonio, to build a bridge costing eleven million dollars, for the convenience of commerce; that pushing energy, which spanned the continent with railroads traveling hundreds of miles of trackless wastes and barren mountains; that tunnels under rivers and through mountains, and diving under the sea opens a highway from Sunny France to Bonny England.

Only a few years since, street cars, water-works, smooth drives and promenades were looked upon as matters of luxury. They may be so still, but if they are, we live in a luxurious age; people of this era will have such luxuries, and unless we arouse ourselves to act with the living present, we cannot hope to induce others to adopt our old fogyism and fossilize themselves with us. Because we think what was good enough for our grandsires is good enough now, will prove of no avail to thousands who would soon come among us, and by their taste and capital assist us in making San Antonio the most beautiful city of the South. It has every other advantage, and alone lacks enterprise in our local management.

Now, I do not blame the Mayor or City Council for our not having street railways nor entirely, that with the easiest facilities for water-works, that we have none at all, or for the fact that the only roads we have for driving on with any comfort are those for which a dollar of public money has never been expended; but that they are not to be blamed is not the question; it is simply this: We need a change in the conduct of municipal affairs and in casting about for a candidate for Mayoralty honors, it behooves us to nominate some man, who is not only known to be in sympathy with the requirements of our city, but who, also in the character of an upright, honored member of our community, can carry with him into his office that respect, regard, and confidence, that will more nearly unite all in support of a vigorous determination to no longer rest in utter apathy, but grasp the opportunity to make San Antonio what she ought to be.

An unequalled climate of "eternal summer," thousands of invalids would seek our locality if we only had the common conveniences of other places. Many of them would become permanent residents, while many others who now spend the winters among the sickly glades of Florida would gladly turn towards the historic city of the Alamo. Of course it cannot be expected that the city is to cause all improvement that is sure to take place with an increase of our population, but the cases are exceptional where individual enterprise has led the van in local improvement, and on the other hand it is invariably the case that a spirit of public improvement diffuses itself and extends the same spirit to almost every private enterprise.

That we have men among us who can command the confidence and support of our community, there can be no doubt, and being a faithful believer in Democracy, can see no reason for looking among quasi Democrats or neutral-tinted politicians for a standard-bearer in January next. Without knowing the wishes of either gentleman on the subject, I would suggest that Daniel Devine, Esq., Major J. F. Minter, or J. B. Lacoste, Esq., Democrats, sans peur et sans reproche, could either be induced to accept the nomination, would not only go far towards a beginning in the right direction, but would add to the strength of the party in the city, and but for the fact that the two latter now hold municipal offices so acceptably to the community, that a resignation from either, even to accept the Mayoralty, would be a serious loss, the writer would as cheerfully support one as the other.

Mr. Devine has large experience as to the wants of our city; a successful business man whose interests are identified with the best interests of the community, universally popular, of unblemished character and proverbially known as seeking no office. It is such a man we need. Let the old axiom be verified in the coming municipal election, "let the office seek the man, not the man the office."

ESCAPE OF TWO CONVICTS.

Special to the Galveston News.

SEGUIN, Sept. 13, 1876.

Two white convicts, W. H. O'Malley and Ike Cagle, who were in use on this road in the construction department, made their escape this afternoon. They loosened the engine from the construction train, jumped aboard and, while Cagle held down the company's engineer, Mr. R. Chumley, the convict O'Malley, who is an old locomotive engineer, ran the engine, at the rate of about thirty-five miles per hour, to 16 point-two miles west of here, where they stopped, bid Mr. Chumley a cordial farewell, and disappeared in the woods.

O'Malley was sent from San Antonio a few months ago for assault and battery and attempting to kill, and had two years to serve. Cagle was sent from Dallas for forgery, and had about the same term.

Construction trains will cross the Guadalupe river on the 18th inst.
