Talks Held Behind Doors

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson in outlining his foreign policy philosophy says the United States must be strong, just, temperate and patient.

Johnson made the statement twice Thursday at separate closed meetings with government officials. White House sources later gave newsmen the gist of his remarks.

The President, who has been having as many as 10 announced appointments a day, slackened his public pace today and announced only three.

Scheduled to see the President were Director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency and Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze.

The third appointment was ceremonial presentation of the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor for peacetime service, to 28 men and women distinguished in public and cultural affairs. Two other medal winners said they during the presentation of the ceremony in the state dining room.

Another, former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman of New York, died Thursday.

President John F. Kennedy conceived of the idea of making $710 or 20 per cent of their annual income for the medical to distinguished Americans.

Johnson outlined his view of the appropriate American posture in foreign affairs at a one-hour meeting of the National Security Council—the first in his administration—and later expanded on the subject in a talk before 800 top officials at the State Department.

He told the State Department officials that an increased sense of hope had been developing during the final months of Kennedy's life—partly because of what Johnson called a balance of power shift in favor of the United States.

"I have not become President to give away this advantage," he said.

Johnson had another basis for developing hope reflected what he termed advances in working with the Soviet Union.

Money and pledges being collected by the volunteer workers will be distributed to the six charitable organizations belonging to the United Fund.

United Fund agencies this year are the American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Boy's Club, Girl Scouts, USO, and the Saldern's life-partly because of the drop in membership has been due to declining employment caused by structural shifts in the economy and lagging demand for the products of industry, rather than worker disaffection with the labor movement," the bureau said.

But, it added, "There is as yet no evidence of a resurgence of organizing spirit comparable to that in the late 1930s and the early 1940s."

The membership loss figures are based on the bureau's own survey and reported in monthly labor review.

Many unions are reluctant to talk about membership losses.

"Government figures on union membership over the years have been somewhat out of kilter," an AFL-CTO spokesman commented.

The federation said the own figures show a two-year loss of 74,000 for a more recent two-year period ending last August and that the trend since then continued roughly the same.

Report May Be Complete

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—There were strong indications today that the FBI has completed its bulky report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy without closing its wide-ranging investigation.

It was learned—although official spokesmen steadfastly refused comment—that the report has been turned over to the Justice Department and Deputy Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach.

The department will forward it to President Johnson shortly.

The President in turn is expected to transmit the report to the review commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

The Warren commission meets this afternoon. Whether it was to receive the report then was not known in advance.

The FBI is understood to have concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, ex-Marine and Marxist, planned and executed alone the Nov. 22 slaying in Dallas.

Warren has assured that the bipartisan body will reach beyond the official findings if any questions that the FBI and six cooperating agencies have not answered to the commission's satisfaction.

Warren announced Thursday, after a 2½-hour commission meeting that Congress will be asked to arm the group with subpoena power. Congress is sure to respond quickly; legislation already is being drafted.

Machinery was in motion also to equip the commission with staff aides, offices and operating procedures.

Although she may have been a girl experienced in matters of sex she was, and remains, if I may say so, extraordinarily immature in what happens in the real world outside."

Hutchinson said Christine became pregnant when only 15 and gave birth to a baby, which lived only a few days.

The Goodfellows will open their staging headquarters at 2616 Avenue S Saturday morning.

Persons who wish to contribute toys, articles of clothing, etc., to the Goodfellows drive are asked to begin bringing them to that location beginning tomorrow.

The staging building will be open on a regular schedule of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., daily until Christmas.

Appeal For Quick Action Unfruitful

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has been nine days since President Johnson appeared before Congress to urge the quickest possible action on civil rights and tax cut bills as a tribute to the late President Kennedy.

He followed that appeal with a wide-ranging series of conferences, statements and telephone calls, all part of the technique he made famous in six years as Senate majority leader.

Has the result been to improve prospects for the two bills or to advance the time when final passage may be expected?

The answer appears to be that there is not much change, certainly not the dramatic improvement looked for by some avid supporters of the measures.

The timetable for Senate Finance Committee action on the $11 billion tax cut has been speeded up slightly. But the House Rules Committee still plans no sessions on civil rights until next month.

Before Kennedy's assassination, Democratic congressional leaders were strongly confident both bills eventually would become law, the tax bill without too much trouble but civil rights only after a bitter fight. They say the outlook is about the same.

Senate leaders had given up hope for passage of the tax bill in their branch this year. This has proved realistic.

House leaders had been pushing for floor debate on civil rights in December. They resented their efforts under Johnson's prodding but the chances for any action before January now appear very slim.

Johnson has succeeded, however, in getting some more specific pledges of action from those in a position to hold up the bills. This may help prevent further delays.

Christine Draws 9 Month Term

LONDON (AP)—Christine Keeler, the 21-year-old prostitute who almost brought down a British government, threw herself upon the mercy of the court today and got it—a nine-month term in prison.

With her housekeeper and a girl friend, she pleaded guilty to charges of perjury and conspiracy to frame a discarded Negro lover. She could have gone to prison for seven years or more.

The stony composure of the redheaded girl friend of ex-War Minister John D. Profumo and other men in high places broke momentarily as she heard Judge Sir Anthony Hawke pronounce sentence in Old Bailey. Tears welled in her eyes and her lips quivered.

Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23, the girl friend who shares an apartment with Christine, was given a six-month sentence. Her housekeeper, Mrs. Olive Brooker, 56, was placed on probation.

Both Paula and Christine are approximately $150 and $2 per hundredweight.

Application blanks have not been received yet at the County ASCS office, but they are expected soon and when they arrive eligible producers may apply for emergency feed.

Grazing and haying of Conservation Reserve acreage also has been approved in Secury County. A charge of not less than $1.25 per acre per month must be agreed upon and paid prior to grazing any soil bank acreage. Also, prior approval of the ASCS County Committee must be secured and a charge of not less than approximately $5 per acre must be paid for haying of soil bank acreage.

Every farm operator was cautioned that before grazing or haying any Conservation Reserve acreage he must get approval from the County Committee at the ASCS office. These application forms also are expected to be available within the next few days.

Oilmen Urged To Count Blessings

ODESSA, — Governor Jack M. Campbell of New Mexico urged the petroleum industry to spend more time counting its blessings and less time cursing the government.

The industry needs to re-establish its lines of communication with those in public office, Campbell said in a speech Thursday night at the annual meeting of the Permian Basin Petroleum Association.

The 47-year-old lawyer from Roswell, formerly served as executive secretary for the New Mexico Oil and Gas Association and general counsel for the Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association of New Mexico. He received the TIPO award two years ago for his contributions to the petroleum industry.

"The Governor cited four 'blessings' of the industry: 1. 'Our industry is a vital part of a politico-economic system which has survived longer and provided a greater measure of material wealth for more people than any other system in the history of mankind.'

2. In the 62 years since the Spindletop field discovery in Texas, the petroleum industry has helped change the world's way of life. '...the oil industry has provided the fuel and the lubrication for the new industrial age and has seen our country victorious in two major wars. According to the pessimists this country should have run out of oil in 1920, 1933, 1940 and 1955.'

3. Despite increasing costs of finding oil, almost all American oil companies this past year have experienced their greatest earnings in history.

4. The 33 oil-producing states are solving the problems of conserving oil and gas reserves and preventing waste and protecting correlative rights.

All of this has been accomplished where governments have played a vital role at the state and national level, Campbell said.

Laws and regulations to prevent wasteful practices, stabilize marketing conditions, recognize risk, protect against unlimited importation of oil and protect against the "law of capture" are not the product of "some fenshish bureaucratic mind," he said. "They came as the result of industry initiative, and, by and large, they have worked well and in the best interest of all the people of our country.

"Government and public officials are not necessarily our enemies," the Governor added. "The painful truth is that we are to be certain that imports supplement, rather than supplant, domestic production; if we are to preserve present tax treatment; if we are to get out of the FPC noose, we will have to do it with the help of some or all of these politicians."

He urged the association members to be honest with those in government with whom they must do business.

"No responsible person in government resents honest disagreement or criticism, but they want to be talked to honestly and frankly about problems of and need communications on a basis of mutual respect," Campbell said.

J. Mark McLaughlin, vice president, and Herbert Feather, member of the executive board of the PBPA, attended the meeting in Odessa.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has just approved Secury County for purchase of grain sorghums under the emergency livestock feed program.

Rep. Omar Burleson announced this morning in Washington.

Eligible producers may purchase such grain for eligible livestock at reduced rates based on the type of livestock owned. In general, eligible livestock means beef and dairy cattle, sheep, goats and swine owned by an applicant at least 315 months and located in the emergency area of the date of designation.

Grain will be available in two different amounts, depending on classification of livestock. This includes 10 pounds per day animal unit for certain livestock on full grain rations, and five pounds per day on others. Two different sales prices will apply, again depending on classification of livestock. Based on No. 2 or better sorghum, they will

Embassy Is Bombed In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—A terrorist bomb blasted the doorway of the Trinidad-Tobago embassy Thursday night, apparently in retaliation for the island government's return of six Venezuelan airplane hijackers last week.

Elphinstone Mitchell, an embassy aide, and a woman secretary were unhurt. They were the only one in the embassy. The embassy was strafed by machine gun fire last weekend.

The pro-Communist Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN) had warned newspapers it was retaliating against Trinidad. Five men and a woman of the FALN seized the airplane last Thursday in a propaganda spectacular and forced the pilot to fly to Trinidad.

Terrorists during the night attacked a police patrol car with rifles, pistols and home-made grenades in the capital's slums, killing a policeman.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Ten months ago I started taking piano lessons. I am 41. A few days ago my teacher handed me a copy of THE BLUE DANUBE WALTZ and said that was to be my recital piece. I protested, but she refused to take me seriously. I told her I'd let her know. What I want to know is, am I obligated to play in her recital? Just what is the purpose of a recital? For whose benefit is it? The pupils or the teacher? I never expect to play publicly, so why should I play in a recital to "gain confidence"? I am her only adult pupil, and can't see myself in a recital with a lot of children. I've attended some of her recitals. She stands in the wings and counts. What would you tell her, Abby?

DEAR GOOD: If a friend doesn't tell her, a stranger certainly can't. Perhaps her daughters will, eventually. But if "popularity" depends on how one's mother wears her hair, who needs it? DEAR ABBY: Would you call a party properly chaperoned if the parents are in one part of the house and the kids are in another, and they don't see each other all evening? These young folks are from 16 to 18 years of age, and their idea of a good chaperone is one who stays completely out of sight. I always thought a chaperone should make a few appearances during the evening, but I am told no other parents to this. I hate to embarrass my daughter by being different, but I think it is dishonest to assure other parents that their child's party is being chaperoned and then stay out of sight all evening. If I am wrong, please tell me. MRS. D. DEAR MRS. D.: No, you are right. A good chaperone needs to pop in only once to let the kids know that she may pop in at any time. What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped, envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for a booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders are not saying if they agree with Sen. Barry Goldwater's assessment that he holds the lead in the race for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination. But there are reports of a move to put former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the New Hampshire primary, and Goldwater says "The whole country is in a position of flux." Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York have been holding their fire since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22. For the Arizona senator, who has not declared himself a candidate, and for Rockefeller, who has this meant a halt to political campaigning. The curtain of silence that descended in the Goldwater camp appeared to be lifting a bit Thursday. In his first interview since Kennedy's death, the Arizona conservative said he thinks he remains in the lead, but "I feel that you can't say for sure."

"I'm in a position now of major reassessment," Goldwater said. "My people are out all over the country asking questions. I don't think my support has changed from what it was." Next March's New Hampshire presidential primary is the nation's first. The Granite State race traditionally has been a testing ground for presidential hopefuls. A report that Nixon's name may be entered was printed in the Washington Star. Goldwater said he is not commenting on anything right now. Nixon has said he will not be a candidate in 1964. A spokesman for Rockefeller said the governor "has suspended operations in New Hampshire," and he decided that during this period there will be no political comment or observations. New Hampshire's Sen. Norris Cotton, who heads a committee to put Goldwater in the primary, has said he is delaying campaign plans until Goldwater indicates whether he is willing to run.

The exhibits and demonstrations are designed to display scouting activities and skills in some 25 different fields. The booths will be judged during the exposition and each unit has a chance to earn either a blue, red or yellow ribbon for its booth. Each pack, troop and post will receive 40 per cent of its gross ticket sales if the ticket money is turned in to the ticket booth on the night of the show. By EUGENE LEVIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI will leave for his historic visit to the Holy Land Jan. 4 and return Jan. 8, the Vatican said today. Despite the tight schedule, the spiritual head of the Orthodox Church in Istanbul proposed that leaders of all major religions meet in Jerusalem during the papal visit. A spokesman for the Latin patriarchate of Jerusalem said details of the pontiff's visit will be worked out when Patriarch Alberto Gori returns from Rome. Pope Paul has announced he wants to visit the holy places in Israel and in Jerusalem Jordan. A three-day trip, with two mornings, including a Sunday, away from the Vatican, he said, the Pope will celebrate at least two Masses in the Holy Land, both likely major religious services. All this would seem to preclude much other activity. But Athenagoras I, patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church, suggested a summit meeting of Christian leaders in Jerusalem.

Banking Board Sets Date For Midland Banks Ruling

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Banking Board agreed Thursday to set Jan. 9 on applications for two new banks in downtown Midland. The board granted one charter, for the Howe State Bank in Grayson County, and denied three others—for the City Bank & Trust Co. and Pan American Bank & Trust Co., both of San Antonio, and the Security Bank & Trust Co. of Canyon. Frank Dennis, an Austin lawyer, presented arguments for the proposed Texas Bank & Trust Co. of Midland. No new Bank site is closer to downtown than the existing buildings. Erwin Mattingly, a market research consultant, said his study for the First State Bank showed eight per cent of the Midland residents are not banking in Midland. Frank Erwin, Austin lawyer for Commercial Bank & Trust Co., which is located in a Midland shopping center, said his client is "frightened to death at the prospect of two new state banks."

"There has been no evidence offered that there is any need for additional lending facilities in Midland," Erwin said. "The more likelihood that some people can get into the banking business and make money is not enough to show a need for a new bank. "The record does not show that the public will be any better off if these banks are chartered." Erwin challenged the applicants' contention that the Midland economy is booming. He said population and construction there have tapered off in the last four years. Dennis has insisted that the Amish, who spurn the use of electricity, must wire their barn and daily facilities to comply with local health regulations.

Robert Strauss of Dallas, a board member, asked another proposed director, John Hosteler of Midland, if Midland could support both Texas Bank & Trust and the proposed First State Bank. "Two new banks would be damaging to the community. It would provide a considerable shock to the economy," Hosteler replied. Hosteler urged the board not to refuse both if it is unable to decide between the two. He said: "You would be depriving the free enterprise system of an opportunity to grow, you would be putting an artificial ceiling on

Scholarships In AAUW

The Snyder Branch of the American Association of University Women has received information from International Headquarters in Washington, D. C. that 236 colleges and universities have been added to the list of AAUW qualified institutions by vote of the Association's board of Directors late in November.

Women graduates of these institutions will now be eligible for membership in AAUW. Colleges from this area on the list will be released soon, according to Mrs. Glen Holladay, membership chairman.

"The organization offers college women an opportunity to grow intellectually, to help further the advancement of women, and to discharge their social responsibilities," Mrs. Holladay explains. The program centers on four areas of interest: community problems, cultural interests, education, and world problems.

The Snyder branch is developing these interests this year by focusing on "The American Family in a Changing World". The branch also supports the AAUW fellowship program, which awards about 100 fellowships each year, with stipends exceeding $282,000.00 to women scholars from the United States and abroad for advanced study. In addition the local branch awards a scholarship each year to a graduating senior girl.

New Party Dresses For Young Misses

Christmas is for celebrating, and with the bright new party dresses now available your very young lady can be the "belle of the season."

All of the little frocks for the four-to-sets have been designed with great care and are characterized with special touches that give them individuality. They come in fine quality batiste, waffle-weave cotton and provincial sateen flowered fabrics.

There is the popular "A-shape" model so much in demand. It is made of crisp waffle-weave cotton for the young miss who insists on the tailored "new look." Among the various beguiling shades to choose from are blue, red and green.

The jumper styles include dainty white blouses with puffed sleeves and Peter Pan collars or jewel necklines. They come in a variety of hues, soft green and yellow and among them are petticoat edgings of white peeping out below the hemlines. Many of the dresses are touched with embroidery.

The cotton pinafore with full skirt and traditional apron of batiste has a fragile look fit for a little princess. The colors are new and delicate, come in lovely shades of yellow, blue and green. The apron has a wide ribbon caught in the back with a large bow.

Another style reminiscent of old-fashioned gardens and femininity is the provincial sateen party dress. It has a blocked floral pattern in a soft green hue and is full-skirted with a simple top finished with a baby collar.

For toddlers up to three years there is a precious little red velvet model, rich in color and texture. The flounced skirt and fitted bodice ensemble, splashed with embroidery, inches a dainty white cotton ruffled petticoat.

Despite the fragile appearance of several of the frocks in the group, all are meant for sturdy wear long after the Christmas decorations are stored. The price of these little dreams is unbelievably low, thereby eliminating any concern about the investment made in a party dress for the little miss "growing like a weed."

They should transport your young lady to a Christmas wonderland of fun and excitement.

WHAT HE CAN EXPECT AMONG THE BOUQUETS!

LBJ Assumes New Office With Earnestness And Zeal

By JAMES MARLOW
 Associated Press News Analyst
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Two questions persist about President Johnson after only two weeks in office: How is he doing? How will he do?

He became president in a time of national shock over the assassination of President John F. Kennedy's biggest bottleneck. Johnson, in Congress, has taken over the nation's affairs without deviation, Kennedy's programs. He talks to Congress and the nation made an excellent impression. But Congress always was Kennedy's biggest bottleneck.

Handbags Are Among Big Ordeals

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP) — Among the little ordeals to men are those portable, moving, van-like women carry today and call handbags.

You know what I'm talking about, don't you?

I mean those huge handbags that look like two fat alligators sewn together lengthways. They mean those huge handbags that take up half the sidewalk as a woman strolls along and which, if they hit a man's kneecap, will snap it like a matchstick.

I mean those huge handbags in which the modern woman packs more belongings than the average pioneer mother brought along in a covered wagon to settle the Old West.

It's a funny thing about women. When they dress up fancy to get out in the evening, they tote along in their paws sequined-covered bags tiny enough to have been made from the hide of a stunted mouse.

Everything else they stuff into the pockets of their male escort—until he looks from behind like a pair of ambulances. And by day they limp around town by themselves, getting more bent over by these vast handbags into which they seem to have thrust everything except what they need most—a sofa to lie down and rest on.

"I need it to carry the things I simply have to have with me," a wife usually whines. But if you try to peek inside, she'll snap it shut—at the peril of snipping off your nose.

Actually, there isn't much mystery about the contents. They are a cross between a hope chest, a drugstore counter, and a despair kit. They are a kind of Pandora's junk box.

They hold minis, chewing gum, unpatented pills, and aspirin tablets, matchbooks, a 712-page romantic novel, lipstick, tweezers, bandages, compact, unanswered letters, photographs of loved ones, pieces of wadded facial tissue.

They hold car keys, house keys, safe deposit keys.

They also hold one thing at the very bottom of this jangle of debris. That's a small billfold or change purse containing their ready cash.

And that's where the trouble comes in. It usually takes a woman up to 10 minutes of frantic fumbling to find this purse and pay a restaurant bill.

She's holding up the march of progress. These big handbags must be costing the nation at least 10 million manhours of lost work a month.

Central Texas People See Johnson As Just Another Hill Country Boy

STONEWALL, Tex. (AP)—"new President," said Kermit Lyndon James Johnson is more than a president to the people of Stonewall. He's a neighbor, a friend, maybe a relative or the kid who rode a donkey to school.

President Johnson was born in his father's ranch house on what is now the Jordan ranch, about one-half mile west of Stonewall, a hill country town populated by about 500 ranchers and farmers of German descent.

Stonewall is on U.S. 290, about 15 miles west of Johnson City and about 60 miles north of San Antonio. The President graduated from high school at Johnson City and spent part of his later childhood there.

Stonewall residents, and Johnson, feel he has his roots in this peach-growing center. His ranch house, likely to become the Stonewall one of the most unassuming White House, is 400 usual little towns in the country.

His neighbors have met guests "It's hard to believe he's our ranging from kings to camel drivers.

Harvey Jordan owns 230 acres just east of the LBJ Ranch. To him Johnson's birthplace adds value to his property. The spot where Johnson was born is owned by Jordan.

"You sure can't say it decreases the land value," Jordan said. "I think it's quite a distinction having the birthplace of the President on your property."

Jordan, who paid $1,500 for the land in 1944, says he would not sell for less than $100,000. Hugh Weinheimer remembers Johnson as a bright boy who was full of mischief.

"He couldn't resist pulling a good joke," Weinheimer said. "He's a person who deals with the rich and poor alike," Hahnke said. "That makes me feel real good about him."

Earnest Hodges has lived less than one-half mile from the LBJ Ranch since 1933. He recalls a remark Johnson made to him one day.

"Do you think a fellow from Stonewall could get to be President of the United States?" Johnson asked him.

"I remember him as a boy when he rode his donkey to school," said Mrs. L. H. Bailey. Mrs. Bailey, in her 70s, is the President's cousin.

"He was a boy full of mischief and very brilliant," she said. Anna Iitz, a first grade teacher, recalls vividly a prophecy Johnson made when they were in the ninth grade at Albert School near Stonewall.

"It was just after a ball game during recess and we were resting under a tree," she said. "He was sitting with his legs folded up and looking down. He looked up and said, 'Someday, I'm going to be President of the United States.'"

Junior Editors Quiz on PARKS

JACKSON LAKE NATIONAL PARK

QUESTION: Why were national parks established?

ANSWER: The first national park, Yellowstone, was established in 1872. This was a very important event for up to that time the most beautiful and finest land of a country had been reserved for rulers and nobility. Here the country's most magnificent scenery was to be preserved forever for the benefit of all the people of the country instead of just a few.

In a letter to the President, a 7-year-old boy recently asked if places could be set aside where he and his friends could play. Replying to this letter, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, speaking for the President, said that they both had a great awareness of such need—the need, wrote the secretary, "to be able to hunt lizards and follow ants and maybe just lie on your back in the sun and watch the changing shape of the clouds." This motive, to preserve American wilderness for the benefit of all Americans who love nature, is behind the creation of our national parks. We should be very proud to have so many in different parts of the country where Americans can go, camp, fish, study nature and have a wonderful time.

FOR YOU TO DO: Have you figured out which national parks and seashores are in the lower right pictures? Check with this list: 1) Yellowstone, in Wyoming, Idaho, and Montana. 2) Everglades, in Florida. 3) Sequoia, in California. 4) Cape Cod National Seashores, Massachusetts.

(Kathy R. Birth of State College, Pa., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win a set too.)

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home will confer with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada during a visit to Ottawa Feb. 10-12.

The trip is immediately prior to the prime minister's visit to Washington for talks with President Johnson Feb. 12 and 13.

Foreign Press Favors President Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Information Agency made public Thursday a survey showing highly favorable foreign press reaction to President Johnson in his first days in the White House.

The survey, based on material available as of Dec. 2, said a general feeling of confidence in Johnson is expressed by the world press.

A survey reveals there are some 4,000 photographic clubs within the West German school system.

Merkel, Petersburg In Playoff Clash Tonight

Two little giants of the grid-iron, each boasting a rock-ribbed defense and an explosive offense, will battle each other tonight in Tiger Stadium for the right to advance to the Class A semi-finals in the Texas High School football race.

Merkel and Petersburg, who have swept into the quarterfinals with relative ease, will square off at 7:30 p.m.

Merkel's Badgers, champions of District 6-A, advanced last week by trouncing Big Lake, 19-8, while the Petersburg Bufaloes kept pace by walloping Stratford, 33-8.

The defensive prowess of the two golems of the Class A ranks is evidenced by no less than seven shut-out victories by the Badgers and six while walloping administered by the Bufaloes. In addition, the Badgers played a scoreless tie in their first game of the season, which means that a total of eight foes have been unable to cross the Merkel goal line.

The Badgers, featuring fancy running C. B. Brown, scored on its first two possessions last week to settle its decision over Big Lake early. Brown had 144 yards in 18 carries. He had able assistance from Weldon Title with 67 yards on 16 carries and Jackie Reynolds with 65 yards on eight carries.

The young Army coach shrugged off the 11-point odds, favoring the sensational Roger Staubach and his Annapolis cohorts. No. 2 ranked nationally and probably headed for the Cotton Bowl in Dallas if they can pull off their ninth victory in 10 games this year.

"I never went into a game I expected to lose," Dietzel said, throwing down the gauntlet to Navy's Coach Wayne Hardin.

Hardin didn't flinch. "We have a lot of respect for Army—it is a fine defensive team," he said. "But we think we are the No. 1 team in the country. We want to prove it."

The Midshipmen may get their chance Saturday. Army and Navy clash at 1:30 p.m. EST in the vast Municipal Stadium, scene of many an exciting and star-spangled thriller in the past, with 100,000 watching from the stands, millions of others from TV screens and Cotton Bowl representatives looking on from the wings.

Both local aggregations will be seeing the second action of the campaign, with both having dropped decisions to Big Spring in the season-openers Tuesday night.

Abilene High and Seminole will play in the second game of the Seminole Tournament tonight.

The local B Team Tournament is to get underway at 1:30 p.m. today in Tiger Gym, with Seminole B playing Stamford B. Lubbock High and Brownfield teams were to clash at 3 p.m.

Big Spring and Hamlin B teams are at 4:30 p.m. and Snyder-Monterey at 6 p.m.

Parks, Appleton On A-A

By BOB ROOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Three quarterbacks including miraculously Midshipman Roger Staubach, a gritty little man, and a part-time teacher job returner Damon Bane on the 1963 Associated Press All-America football team.

Staubach won the Heisman Trophy as the College Player of the Year. With Saturday's game against Army remaining, he has accounted for 1,738 yards passing and running.

This was the year of the quarterback.

Jimmy Sidle, who guided once-beaten Auburn to an Orange Bowl trip, and Billy Lott, Georgia Tech's "Do It Yourself" exponent, were the other field generals picked on the recommendations of eight regional boards. The sportswriters and broadcasters took into account all games through Nov. 30.

Sherman Lewis, a 154-pound Michigan State Springer, completes the backfield.

A line averaging 255 pounds features Dame, rated a better guard than a year ago when he spurred Southern California's national champions.

End Dave Parks of Texas Tech, first man picked in the National Football League draft, is paired with Bob Lacey of North Carolina.

Scott Appleton, a 235-pounder who has been practicing teaching at an Austin elementary school, blocked and tackled Texas to its first perfect season in 25 years. At the other tackle is Minnesota's Carl Eller, who stood out for an unspectacular team.

Guard Bob Brown, "the Big Daddy" of Nebraska's first conference champions in 23 years, and fiery center-linebacker Dick Butkus of Rose Bowl-bound Illinois complete the squad.

Staubach Sidle and Butkus are juniors, the rest seniors.

Staubach is just plain hard to believe. Against Michigan, for example, he completed 14 of 16 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns, then ran 70 more. He accounted for 235 yards in Navy's only loss, the wild 32-28 setback to Southern Methodist, and on the final play was passing for an apparent winning score when a defender batted in the end zone.

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—There was a grim "We will win" determination about the Army football team that moved into this City of Brotherly Love today for its 6th game with heavily-favored Navy.

"We are fighting for our lives," said tight-lipped Paul Dietzel, coach of the West Pointers. "I have never seen a bunch of boys so eager and so intent before a big game. They are really high."

The young Army coach shrugged off the 11-point odds, favoring the sensational Roger Staubach and his Annapolis cohorts. No. 2 ranked nationally and probably headed for the Cotton Bowl in Dallas if they can pull off their ninth victory in 10 games this year.

"I never went into a game I expected to lose," Dietzel said, throwing down the gauntlet to Navy's Coach Wayne Hardin.

Hardin didn't flinch. "We have a lot of respect for Army—it is a fine defensive team," he said. "But we think we are the No. 1 team in the country. We want to prove it."

The Midshipmen may get their chance Saturday. Army and Navy clash at 1:30 p.m. EST in the vast Municipal Stadium, scene of many an exciting and star-spangled thriller in the past, with 100,000 watching from the stands, millions of others from TV screens and Cotton Bowl representatives looking on from the wings.

Both local aggregations will be seeing the second action of the campaign, with both having dropped decisions to Big Spring in the season-openers Tuesday night.

Abilene High and Seminole will play in the second game of the Seminole Tournament tonight.

The local B Team Tournament is to get underway at 1:30 p.m. today in Tiger Gym, with Seminole B playing Stamford B. Lubbock High and Brownfield teams were to clash at 3 p.m.

Big Spring and Hamlin B teams are at 4:30 p.m. and Snyder-Monterey at 6 p.m.

Both of the tournaments will be concluded Saturday night.

Consumer May Pay New Duties

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Washington's tit-for-tat boosting of some duties on European goods could prove to be only another skirmish rather than the heralded end of the "chicken war."

The whole field of tariff maneuvering is involved and the broader contest is about to start.

It could be just the innocent bystander, the American consumer, who gets hit.

There is a chance that, if the higher duties finally are allowed to stick, it could mean more of a drain on the pocketbooks of some American consumers through higher prices than a blow at the makers of French goods.

That is because the French bread producers especially are convinced that the American who fancies their product will pay the higher price resulting from the increased tariff.

Whether the German truck makers and Dutch producers of potato starch will find as devoted customers, or will lower prices, or seek other markets is yet to be determined. But some sort of continued skirmishing, perhaps retaliation, seems likely.

The chicken war itself started a year ago when the European Common Market boosted its tariffs on frozen chicken so high as to cut off most of the fast-growing market for American poultrymen.

The United States claimed a loss of $46 million a year. An arbitration board recently decided the loss was $26 million. Now Washington is raising tariffs on the selected European items that have an import value of relatively that sum.

France, Germany and the Netherlands, where American poultry was particularly popular, were selected as prime targets. Smaller losses are supposed to be felt by the other three members of the Common Market, Italy, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The Common Market is now expected to renew its offer to cut poultry duties by 1.3 cents a pound, a sum Washington has rejected as trifling.

But more important perhaps is the squaring off of the opponents before the start in few months of a new round of tariff negotiations. The United States had hoped for a big tariff-cutting session, of the 53-nation General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Martha Raye Treated
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Police said comedienne Martha Raye was treated at a Santa Monica hospital Thursday for what officers called an accidental overdose of sleeping pills.

Police said Miss Raye, 47, told her physician she had taken eight sleeping tablets.

Current schedules for the church include: The Lottie Moon Foreign Mission week of Prayer, beginning Monday, Dec. 9, and continuing through Friday, Dec. 13. Mrs. Bill Emswiler, president of the local WMU said the goal of $7,000 for the mission offering is a reasonable one.

"A Song Unending," a Christmas cantata, will be presented by the All-church choir of First Baptist Church on Sunday, Dec. 15, at 6 p.m. The cantata presentation will be followed by a form of White Christmas.

The people are asked to bring food and clothing that will be given to needy families at Christmas time. Each item is to be wrapped in white paper.

Dec. 31, at 7 p.m. a covered dish supper will be served at the church. A continuous program is planned on that night until 12:01 p.m., 1964. Dr. Lightfoot will bring a message, "Farewell to the Old and Hello to the New."

Sun Pipe Line VP Retires

BEAUMONT (Sp.) — S. E. (Chick) Ogle, vice president and director of Sun Pipe Line Co. retired this week after nearly 38 years of service with the Sun organization.

In 1948 Ogle was directly responsible for the installation of the firm's pipe line system in the Canyon Reef area of West Texas, and has been interested in the operation of the lines in that area since that time, and has been a frequent visitor there.

He was recently honored at a supper near Snyder at which company employees from the West Texas area were present.

Ogle began his career with Sun in 1928 as a civil engineer in Venezuela. Two years later he became a party chief and civil engineer in the Dallas office.

In 1932 he joined Sun Pipe Line Co., a Sun Oil subsidiary, and served in East Texas. He moved here in 1945 as chief engineer for the Crude Lines Department, and was named vice president for Sun Pipe Line Co. in 1948.

He was elected to the board of directors in 1951, and continued to hold the title of chief engineer until 1955.

Ogle attended Texas University and Texas A&M College.

Many place names on Australian maps, such as Poonda, Ethel Creek, Walgun and Balfour Downs, indicate not towns or villages but sheep and cattle stations and individual home steads.

World Council Of Churches Convening In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Negro missionaries from Jamaica convening white pagans in the industrial slums of England?

"This is one of the questions which may be brought up at the first full meeting of the commission on world missions and evangelism of the World Council of Churches opening Sunday in Mexico City."

About 200 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox delegates, as well as advisers, observers and youth delegates from all six continents will attend the first major meeting of the World Council of Churches ever to be held in a Spanish-speaking country.

It is also the first full meeting of the commission since it was organized in New Delhi in 1961.

Some compare its importance with that of the Vatican Ecumenical Council of the Roman Catholic Church.

The World Council of Churches claims more than 300 million Christians in 197 member denominations when the Russian Orthodox Church joined recently, it added 50 million members.

Among prominent figures scheduled to speak are Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft, general secretary of the World Council of Churches.

Object of the two-week meeting is to look at the missionary task "from a new angle."

Bishop Leslie Newbigin of Geneva, Switzerland, director of the division of world mission and evangelism, says the image of the world "missions" still evokes in the minds of many "that of a white man going to Asia, Africa or perhaps Latin America."

"It is still an image shaped by the experience of the colonial era," he said. "When we use the word 'missions' we do not normally see, for instance, some of those deeply committed Christians from Jamaica going to work in the pagan slums of industrial cities of England."

"We do not have a picture of the missionaries of the Asian churches, more than 200 of them now, going out from their own countries to work in other parts of Asia."

The Mexico meeting does not compare in size with the 1961 assembly in New Delhi.

But, with the Russian orthodox churches participating for the first time, it is considered one of the major religious gatherings of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Councilman, Lubbock, are the parents of an 8 lb. 12 oz. baby girl born at 2:45 p.m. Dec. 5 at Cogdell Hospital.

New Evidence On Oswald

CHICAGO (AP) — The Sun-Times said today that FBI agents were investigating the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, was the sniper who fired a rifle shot through a window of Walker's home on April 1. The bullet narrowly missed Walker and bored a one-inch hole in the wall of the room where he was sitting. Splinters from the casing of the slug struck Walker in the arm, the Sun-Times said.

Walker, 53, resigned from the Army in 1961 after he had been relieved of his command of troops in Germany.

The paper said it learned that evidence tending to link Oswald with the attempted shooting of Walker is included in an FBI report on the assassination of Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22.

It said Justice Department officials received the report in Washington Thursday from FBI headquarters and that it presumably will be sent today to President Johnson.

The report will be the foundation for an inquiry by a seven-member commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren. The commission was named by Johnson to investigate the murder of Kennedy and the subsequent slaying of Oswald by Jack Ruby, 32, operator of a Dallas night club.

The Sun-Times said it learned that federal authorities had no information linking Oswald, 24, with the sniper attack on Walker before Johnson ordered the FBI into the probe of Kennedy's assassination.

It said government officials in Washington and Dallas refused to disclose the nature of the evidence pointing to Oswald in the attempted shooting of Walker.

If Ye Would

talk with God—your line must be in good repair. His ear is not dull that He cannot hear, but your sins have grounded the line between you and God. There is too much static in your life. Heaven's switchboard is always open to those who are worthy of a call. You can't wait until you are sick, or in trouble and expect God to answer your call. Show Him the courtesy of being dependent upon Him. Go to church, keep your line free of trouble. Talk with Him regularly if you expect His blessing.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is born that every and old alike are showered with benediction and that forty and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the minister and the making religious character. Sustained today leaders that the church alone can furnish leadership in these with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. In a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.
