President And Barkley Head Ticket In '48

Action On Housing, Anti-Inflation In 15 Days Demanded

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, July 15 President Truman countered a Democratic civil rights split today with a dramatic call for a July 26 special session of Congress and a smashing attack on what he termed the "poppycock" of Republican promises.

Mr. Truman asked for action within 15 days after the lawmakers meet, on anti-inflation and housing legislation.

An hour before he took the stage of Philadelphia's convention hall early this morning to fling a challenge at the Republicans to make good on their Dewey-Warren platform pledges, Mr. Truman had been nominated by his party on the first ballot.

Vote Is Announced

The vote, indicating the wide breach opened in party ranks by the bitter, last-ditch fight over civil rights was:

President Truman, 947½.

Paul V. McNutt, ½ vote.

The convention, after a 38-minute ovation for the President, gave Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, 70-year old minority leader of the Senate, a unanimous vote for vice president.

Unanimous, that is, except for a group of Mississippi and Alabama delegates. They had walked out earlier over the racial issue—turning their steps to Birmingham, Ala., and a Saturday call for a states' rights conventon of ther own.

Fighting Speech Made

But Mr. Truman took the bit in his teeth in a fighting acceptance speech.

He said he will recommend that the GOP-controlled special session, among other things, act on civil rights legislation.

While embattled southern delegations sat silent, the arm-waving chief executive told the delegates:

"Everybody knows that I recommended the Congress a civil rights program. I did so because I believe it to be my duty under

Price Of Meat To Rise Again

(By The United Press)

There was more bad news for the housewife at the neighborhood butcher shop today.

With food prices at an all-time high, retail meat dealers feared that the worst is yet to come.

A majority of butchers checked in a nationwide survey said they would have to raise prices again, anywhere from five to 15 cents a pound, to keep pace with the runaway wholesale and livestock prices of the last few days.

Highest In History

George Dressler, executive secretary of the National Association of Retail Meat Dealers, said that retail meat prices now are the highest in history, surpassing even the price rise that followed the demise of OPA.

Dressler said he feared more price increases are in the offing during the next few days. Retailers have been absorbing wholesale price boosts for the last several months in the belief the market would slide back down, he said.

But now, he said, most retailers have given up hope that prices will level off. They hate to push prices into the stratosphere, he said, because of evidence that consumer resistance again is developing.

But they will have to make "drastic price revisions," Dressler said, to take care of the steady climb of wholesale prices topped off by this week's spectacular ascent.

Truman Defeat Is Forecast

Violent Storm Lashes Kansas; 1 Dead, Damage In Millions

(By The United Press)

A violent wind, hail and rain storm struck central Kansas last night, killing one person, injuring scores of others and causing damages estimated in the millions of dollars.

The storm struck in the Great Bend-Wichita-Hutchinson area, with winds ranging up to 100 miles per hour. It lasted more than an hour.

Lives Torn Down

Telephone and electric power lines were torn down, leaving many communities isolated in darkness.

At the Hutchinson naval air station alone, damages were estimated at two million dollars, according to Jack Van Buren, holder of the lease on the now-inactive station. Planes were whipped about by the winds crashing into other parked planes. More than four inches of rain fell at Hutchinson.

Bruce M. Waterfield of South Hutchinson, an invalid, was reported killed in the storm. It was not determined early today whether he died of injuries suffered in the storm or by drowning. His home was flooded.

At Wichita, 20 to 40 privately owned airplanes were reported damaged to the extent of $50,000. At the Boeing plant in Wichita, 13 B-29s were torn loose, whipped around by the terrific winds and damaged. None turned over.

Ten cars of a Santa Fe railroad work train were blown off the tracks at Whiteside, Kan., five miles southwest of Hutchinson, injring 30 persons, six of them seriously.

At Nickerson, Kan., 13 miles northwest of Hutchinson, damage was reportedly heavy. Hillis Deineke, editor of the Nickerson Argosy Weekly, said 65 per cent of the business places were without roofs.

Stations Off The Air

All three radio stations in Hutchinson were knocked off the air during the storm, but all three were back in operation today.

Every light in Wichita was blacked out for hours, and many of the lines still were not repaired early today.

At Lake Afton, a fellowship church camp of some 180 persons, mostly children, the Rev. C. R. Studebacker of Olysses, Kan., was standing on a table, leading singing with a flashlight when the roof was torn loose by the storm. Twenty persons were injured by falling debris, none dangerously.

Sheriff's deputies and Red Cross workers evacuated the children to the First Methodist church in Wichita, where they spent the night.

Barkley Will Keep Position In Senate

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. (AP)—Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky said today he will retain his senate place while campaigning for vice president on the Democratic ticket.

"The answer is no," the 70-year-old Kentuckian said when asked if he would resign his Senate seat because of his nomination for the No. 2 place on the ticket headed by President Truman.

CHALLENGE IS HURLED

SHERMAN, July 15. (AP)—Judge David H. Brown, who is opposing Rep. Sam Rayburn for Congress in the fourth district, challenged Rayburn today to debate his stand on President Truman's civil rights program.

Sergeant Has One More Order To Fill

FORT WORTH, July 15. (AP)—Staff Sgt. Charley Wycoff, Negro bugler at Carswell air force base, has one more order from General Pershing to fill.

"I want no one but Charley Wycoff to sound taps for me," General Pershing once said. "Have him alerted."

Col. Alan D. Clark, commanding officer at the field, was waiting today for notification from Washington to send Sgt. Wycoff to Arlington National Military cemetery.

"I'm sure that the men in authority will respect the general's wishes in this matter," Col. Clark said.

Child Innocent Victim Of Family Dispute

Five-Year-Old Texas Lad Arrives In City As Unwanted Person And No Place To Go

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. (U.P.)—Five-year-old Craig Karr, who came here alone from Texas, was in the city children's shelter today. No one wanted him.

The blond, blue-eyed boy was the innocent victim of a family dispute.

Craig said his father and mother separated in Texas, but he couldn't remember the name of the town. His father put him on a train with his suitcase and a single one-dollar bill and told him he was "going to see grandma," he said.

A kindly traveler took care of him enroute and paid for his meals. But when the boy arrived here yesterday there was no one to meet him.

The Traveler's Aid Society found his grandmother's address in the suitcase, but when notified, Mrs. Mae Miller refused to take the boy.

An uncle, William Miller, Jr., explained the last time the boy's mother left her husband and returned home, Mrs. Miller decided to force the couple to work out their differences themselves.

"The boy's father has to learn responsibility some time," Miller explained. "It's breaking my mother's heart not to take Craig in; she loves him. But she does not want him this way. It's the only way to teach the father a lesson."

"FINAL" FORD OFFER REFUSED

Strike By 116,000 Ford Workers Due

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, July 15—Representatives of the Ford Motor company's 116,000 auto workers were expected to demand strike action today in reply to a "final" Ford offer of a 13-cent hourly pay raise.

The national Ford council of the CIO-United Auto Workers, made up of union delegates from 46 plants, was scheduled to go into session this morning to debate the offer. The rejection and strike call were considered mere formalities.

Ford Offer Made

Ford made its move late last night at the end of a night bargaining session, the first in the month-old talks.

It offered a flat 13-cent raise and a number of so-called fringe benefits. These included an improved group insurance plan, higher afternoon and night shift pay differentials and more liberal vacation provisions. Ford also proposed to extend the present contract for a year beyond its scheduled expiration on July 15, 1949, with one wage reopening by either party during that time.

Little more than an hour later the union gave its reply in a lengthy statement. It amounted to a flat rejection.

Forced To Strike

A spokesman said:

"A continuation by the company of its present stubborn and unreasonable position means inevitably that it is forcing its employes to strike."

The UAW also charged Ford with "breaking off" the wage talks by refusing to consider a counter-proposal on social security benefits.

Still On The Table

"The meeting just came to an end," he said. "Our proposal is still on the table."

Asked if Ford would make still another offer if one were needed to avert a strike, he replied, "we deem this our final offer."

Bugas added that Ford would be "happy" to resume negotiations at any time, but said negotiations were not expected to be held today due to the council meeting.

27 Indicted In Housing Probe

DALLAS, July 15 (U.P.)—Federal indictments charging false swearing to the Veterans administration regarding the sales of veterans housing faced 27 Dallasites today, most of them contractors and real estate agents.

The 27 persons were named in 17 indictments returned by a federal grand jury recalled yesterday to investigate veterans' housing complaints.

Bonds To Be Set

Federal Judge William H. Atwell said he would set $500 personal recognizance bonds for the suspects at 11 a. m. today.

Each of the indictments charged the sworn statements of fraudulent sale prices were made to the Veterans administration to obtain GI loans.

Maximum penalty for such violations is 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Judge Atwell said both the veteran and the government are protected by law against false statements in obtaining loans on property.

Democratic National Committee Gathers

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. (AP)—Chairman J. Howard McGrath called a meeting of the Democratic national committee today to wind up the convention's business.

McGrath, generally credited with having smoothed out many of the party's troubles, was widely expected to be re-elected national chairman. His big job will be to try to heal the deep breaches which remain.

The committee plans to open a headquarters in New York for the presidential campaign. Up to now the shots have been called from Washington, where McGrath could be close to his other job—senator from Rhode Island.

Dewey Victory Is Possible In "Solid South"

Angry Southerners To Meet Saturday To Pick Candidate

(By The United Press)

PHILADELPHIA, July 15—Rebel southern Democrats, angered over the triumph of President Truman and his civil rights program, predicted today that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would break the Solid South in November.

The chairman of the Florida delegation, Frank D. Upchurch, Jr., even went so far as to say that Mr. Truman might not carry a single state in the entire country.

Party Said Wrecked

And a Louisiana delegate, Hugh Wilkinson, said the Democratic party was wrecked, and headed for crushing defeat. In the reorganization to follow, he said, the South would get a proper voice in party affairs.

Other southern leaders predicted the party was in for the worst licking since 1928.

Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas, said "the only thing to keep the Republicans from carrying Texas is they do not have a strong candidate" in Dewey. But he acknowledged that Dewey might get more votes than any GOP candidate since Herbert Hoover carried the state 20 years ago.

To Pick Candidate

Representatives of at least five Dixie delegations were headed for a state rights conference in Birmingham. There they will pick a states rights candidate for President for which southern electors can vote in the electoral college.

Under this arrangement, Democratic electors in Alabama and South Carolina plan to bolt the President, sending Mr. Truman into the campaign for reelection with the knowledge that he won't get 19 electoral votes which have gone to the Democrats since the Civil war.

Others Represented

Besides these two, other states which will be represented at the rebel meeting include Arkansas, Florida and Mississippi. Upchurch said the Florida group, however, would only be observers. "We want to see what their program is before tying up with it," he said.

For the rest of the South, the revolt appeared to be over. It died yesterday in a tumultous conven-

Women's Club Head Resigns To Marry

FORT WORTH, July 15. (AP)—Miss Ruth Townsen of Fort Worth, president of the Texas State Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, has submitted her resignation effective Aug. 1 to the state executive board.

Miss Townsen, who took office on July 1, plans to remarry.

"I do not feel I could do justice to the job as president of the federation and to my new duties as a housewife," Miss Townsen said.

The executive board will meet here July 31, and Aug. 1. Mrs. Charley Ward of El Campo, first vice-president, will be elevated to the presidency. Mrs. Blackwell of Welasco, past corresponding secretary, probably will fill the first vice-president's unexpired term.

Yugoslav Leaders Are Blasted Again

Marshal Tito Charged With Conducting "Terror Regime"

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, July 15. — The Cominform in a second blast at Yugoslav Communist leaders accused Premier Marshall Tito today of conducting a "regime of terror" in Yugoslavia.

The new criticism was published in the Cominform bulletin, now printed in Bucharest.

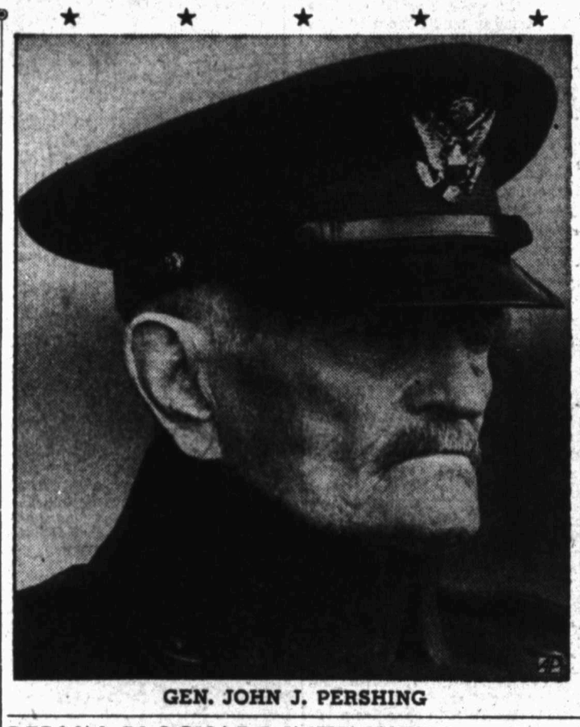

The bulletin said the Yugoslav Communist party's forthcoming fifth congress will be packed with Tito's "intimidated" henchmen unable to speak for the "real will of the masses of party members."

The congress is scheduled to start in Belgrade next Wednesday. The Russian and five other Communist parties have turned down invitations to attend.

The new Cominform bulletin rejected the Yugoslav Communists' denial of its original charges, stating that the denial "is imbued with political fraud."

BERLIN BLOCKADE INTENSIFIED

Russia Threatens Cut Of Air Route

(By The United Press)

Russian quarters threatened openly for the first time today to impose some form of regulation on the air corridors over the Soviet zone by which western air fleets are supplying Berlin.

The official Soviet army organ Taegliche Rundschau said Soviet aviation experts "have come to the conclusion that obviously the time has arrived to regulate the problem of the air corridors."

Claimed Flying Blind

The threat against the last channel of western communication with Berlin was coupled with a charge that Allied planes on the Berlin supply run were flying blind through areas in which the Soviet air force was engaged in practice maneuvers.

Such flying, the army organ said in publishing the charges, might produce "serious consequences."

It was the most forthright pronouncement yet against the aerial ferry service by which the western powers were staving off the Berlin squeeze out by the Russians.

Protest Is Rejected

Perhaps significantly, it came a few hours after Moscow had rejected a protest by the western powers against the Berlin blockade, together with a demand that it be lifted at once.

Their position strengthened by the get-tough tenor of the Russian reply, Soviet authorities here were better prepared to hold their line and even to try to advance it.

It was the Taegliche Rundschau which had "forecast" the negative response from Moscow. A few hours before Moscow broadcast the Soviet notes to the west, one of the newspaper's writers had scoffed at the western demand for blockade relief and warned to look out for more of the same.

Jumps Are Made

Soviet parachutists were reported carrying out "routine training jumps" in the vicinity of Elstal, Soviet air field on the edge of the western corridors to Berlin, seven miles from the British-operated Gaton airdrome.

Russian officers at the four-power air safety control center posted notice of the training maneuvers yesterday. An American pilot reported later that he had seen a parachute as he approached Berlin.

American authorities said they attached no importance to the maneuvers, regarded as a routine training operation.

The airmen set a new record for the air supply operation yesterday. In the 24 hours ending at 4 p. m. the Americans made 251 flights with 1,304 tons and the

Cooler Weather Is Forecast In Area

(By The United Press)

Skies over Texas were generally fair today except for considerable cloudiness in the Panhandle and the San Antonio area.

Showers fell in the Panhandle and the Texarkana area during the night, but no rain of consequence was reported.

Partly cloudy skies were forecast for the state, with scattered thunder showers in the Panhandle and the north portion of East Texas.

Cooler temperatures were scheduled to move into the Panhandle area this afternoon and tonight.

Italian Strike Nears An End

ROME, July -5. (AP)—The government said today a "back to work movement" is cracking the general strike clamped on Italy by Communist labor after the attempted assassination of Palmiro Togliatti.

Togliatti, Italy's No. 1 Communist who also stands ace high with the Soviet union, was reported improving. A Sicilian law student shot him three times outside the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

In addition to the paralyzing strike the shooting touched off violence which claimed the lives of six persons and injured hundreds more. Disturbances continued today but on a lesser scale than yesterday.

Workers Return To Jobs

The Interior ministry headed by Mario Scelba said Italian workers were beginning to return to their jobs at several places.

This was regarded as certain to stiffen resistance by Premier Alcide De Gasperi to reported demands from the Communist-led General Labor Confederation (CGIL) for Scelba's resignation as the price for ending the strike.

The small Liberal party, aligned with De Gasperi's Christian Democrats in the government, assailed the strike as "openly revolutionary in character."

The Interior ministry communique described the situation in Italy as "everywhere normal." It said Sicilian railways were operating again, volunteers were manning expresses out of Naples, government offices operating regularly and that there was "partial restoration" of activity in many cities.

Johnson Helicopter Barred From City

FORT WORTH, July 15. (AP)—Lyndon Johnson, candidate for U. S. senator, will visit Fort Worth July 19, but he cannot land his helicopter within the city limits.

The city council yesterday unanimously rejected a request for permission to land the flying egg-beater, pointing out it was a violation of a city ordinance prohibiting low-flying.

PAPER BOLTS PARTY

Aged Military Chief Claimed This Morning

World War I AEF Leader Succumbs At The Age Of 87

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 15—General of the Armies John J. "Black Jack" Pershing, commander of World war I's victorious doughboys, died today. He was 87.

Death of the aged general, who held the highest military honors that a grateful nation could confer, was announced by President Truman through White House aides.

End Comes Quietly

The end came quietly early this morning at Walter Reed Army hospital where Pershing had lived in recent years. Death was caused by a blood clot which reached his lung. Major General George Beach—the hospital commandant — said the underlying cause was "arteriosclerosis" and "auricular fibrillation."

President Truman, asserting that the nation "will ever hold him in grateful remembrance," said he will call for a nation-wide memorial observance of Pershing's death.

Ill Since 1938

The aged former chief of staff had been ill since February, 1938 when he was stricken at Tucson, Ariz., by a form of rheumatism which affected his heart muscles. He came close to dying at that time, but rallied with a display of fighting spirit which amazed his physicians.

Since then, he had lived at Walter Reed hospital here, in recent years staying in a wing built especially for him.

Death was caused by a blood clot which reached his lung.

Maj. Gen. George Beach—the hospital commandant, who met Mr. Truman at the train on his arrival from Philadelphia — reported that the underlying cause was "arteriosclerosis" and "auricular fibrillation."

Son, Sister At Bedside

At Pershing's bedside were his son, Warren, his sister, Miss May Pershing, and his long-time physician, Maj. Gen. Shelley Marietta.

As general of the armies, Pershing was the nation's highest-ranking military man. Only one other American, George Washington, has held that title. Several other military leaders of the Civil war and World war 2 have held the title of General of the Army.

All during the second World war, Pershing received a full report twice a month from General George C. Marshall, his aide of

Home Looted By Burglars

A $25,000 residence being constructed just north of the northwest corner of Lubbock Country club's golf links by C. R. Nix of 2406 Twenty-fifth was burglarized in the night and property valued at approximately $140 removed, a report of Dep. Sheriff Frank Mitchell showed.

Mitchell said both the garage and the residence were broken and entered, and that a vacuum sweeper, 100 feet of electric cord, a $72 hot water heater and two boxes of connections for bathroom fixtures were taken.

Custody Accepted

Sheriff W. H. Collins of Clovis, N. M., accepted custody early this afternoon of L. L. Moore, 35, of 3710 Ave. K, and left with him for Clovis, where the sheriff said Moore is charged in a felony offense.

Sheriff Grady Harrist certified three bonds involving felony charges in two West Texas counties, it was learned.

Bonds Are Certified

Two bonds of $1,000 each were certified to Wichita county, in connection with check cases allegedly naming James Richard Thomas, 36, of 1806 Ave L.

Another of $2,500 was certified to Terry county in connection with an alleged murder charge naming Ida Mae Montgomery, a negro woman, it was announced.

Moore surrendered voluntarily Wednesday after Clovis officials had advised they had a warrant charging that he obtained $700 from a bank there under false pretenses. He allegedly obtained the money by representing falsely that he had property for collateral.

Arrested Wednesday

Deps. Sheriff Raymond Land and Tom Cannon arested Thomas Wednesday noon.

The Montgomery woman is alleged to have slain a Mexican several days ago in Terry county, the sheriff's department said it had been informed.

The Associated Press announced this afternoon from San Angelo that a ground crew chief at Good-

FORT WORTH, July 15. (U.P.)—A suit asking $23,337.58 in alleged overdue commissions and expenses was on file here today by Crawford L. Gilligan of Lubbock.

Named as defendant in the action was the Noma Electric Corp., and the Refrigerator Corp., of America, both of Maryland. James C. Gant, San Antonio, was named as an agent of the defendant.

The petition said Gilligan and the Noma Corp., had a contract naming him as regional sales manager.

Capital Of Mexico Said To Be Sinking

MEXICO, July 15. (AP)—Mexico City, once largely marshes and canals, is estimated to have sunk 15 feet (4.5 meters) in 48 years.

Rosendo Campos, an engineer, who opposes the continued policy of artesian wells, reported this to President Miguel Aleman in a memorandum whose main points are published today.

Campos says the rate of of sinking is increasing due to the wholesale sinking of artesian wells to relieve water shortages.

Session Called By President Is 26th In Nation's History

WASHINGTON, July 15. (AP)—The 80th Congress has been yanked back to Washington twice in less than a year to deal with matters President Truman considered urgent. But the meeting which starts July 26 will be its first special session.

The "special session" of last November 17—called by the President for action on foreign aid and inflation—wasn't a special session at all.

It was just a continuation of the regular session which had recessed, without formally adjourning, the previous July 27.

The extra meeting which Mr. Truman called for in Philadelphia today will be the 26th in the history of Congress. Special sessions have varied in length from 10 days in 1856 to 269 in 1841.

First Session Called

The first was called by President Adams in 1797 to suspend diplomatic relations with France. The others:

1803—By Jefferson, on Spain's cession of Louisiana to France.

1856—By Pierce, to pass an army appropriation bill.

1877—By Hayes, to pass an army appropriation bill.

1893—By Cleveland, to repeal the Silver Purchase act.

1897—By McKinley, to pass the Dingley Tariff act.

1903—By Theodore Roosevelt, to consider a commercial treaty with Cuba.

Taft Calls Session

1909—By Taft, to revise the Dingley Tariff act.

1911—By Taft, to consider a reciprocal trade agreement with Canada.

1913—By Wilson, to change tariffs.

1917—By Wilson, to declare war on Germany.

1919—By Wilson, to appropriate funds for government operation.

1922—By Harding, to consider a bigger merchant marine.

1933—By Franklin D. Roosevelt, to take steps to relieve the depression.

Greek Reds In Squeeze Play

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP) — American officials wondered today whose side the Greek Communists are on in the feud between the Russian-dominated Cominform and Yugoslavia's Marshall Tito.

A new peace feeler sent out yesterday by the Greek guerrillas stirred official doubt that rebel Gen. Markos Vafiades is lining up with Russia in the quarrel with Tito.

The proposal by Markos' clandestine radio station to "end the senseless bloodshed" in Greece was turned down promptly by the Athens government—which gave similar treatment to an earlier overture six weeks ago.

Supplies From Yugoslavia

But American diplomatic authorities noted with interest that the station apparently still operates from within Yugoslavia — even though only recently it broadcast the Cominform's denunciations of Tito.

What's more, it is believed here that Yugoslavia is keeping up a flow of supplies to the rebels across the Greek border.

Because of the strong Yugoslav support he seems to be getting, American officials doubt that Markos actually is prepared to sue for peace—despite the two-fold threat to him of (A) the American-backed military drive by the Greek government and (B) his possibly delicate position in the Tito-Cominform quarrel.

The Athens drive against the querrillas has run into difficulties in the rugged Grammas mountains near the Yugoslav border, and officials said Greece appealed this week for increased American aid

Opening of Shaw's Shanty, featuring lunches and refreshments, at 2419 Broadway today was announced Thursday by Harry Shaw, jr., owner.

In addition to the lunch service, Shaw will also rent bicycles.

A 1938 graduate of Lubbock High school and of Texas Tech in 1942, Shaw traveled three years and taught school the past two years at Grand Junction, Colo. He is married and has one daughter. Shaw said he would feature phone orders in his service.

Potatoes Being Bought By U.S.

The Production and Marketing administration (PMA) division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is purchasing a large amount of irish potatoes in this and other production areas under the price support program, according to Walter Y. Wells, Lubbock county administrative officer.

It was explained that the supply is greater than the demand, and that the price in this area has gone below the support price of $1.17 per 100 pounds for No. 2 potatoes. Support price on No. 1 potatoes is $2.35, but very few of this grade are reaching the glutted market here.

The No. 2 potatoes are being sold by the department to livestock feeders and producers at 10 cents per 100 pounds, at the point of purchase, which will be Plainview or Hereford, Wells said. Many fed fresh potatoes last year, and others put them in silos. They reported good results with both beef and dairy stock.

Information is available at Wells' office in the county agriculture building at 1320 Ave. Q.

Not all of PMA's potato purchases, however, go to that purpose. A summary of operations by the agency shows that on a national basis purchases from the 1947 crop through June 2 of this year totaled 19,480,827 cwt. (hundredweight).

Of the amount, 2,127,696 cwt. went to direct distribution; 1,347,255 cwt. to livestock feed; 4,291,553 cwt. to alcohol manufacture; 611,552 to dehydration; 2,575,237 to export; 2,186,368 to flour; 1,472,625 to starch; 10,700 to commercial storage; 4,532,280 to interim aid; 281,075 cwt. were lost; 12,000 to pancake and soup mix; and 32,486 cwt. to other distribution.

From the 1948 crop the agency had purchased June 28 a total of 4,147,067 cwt. Of this 129,943 went to direct distribution; 458,648 to livestock feed; 1,843,207 to alcohol; 85,600 to flour; 30,626 to dehydration; 597,993 to cirstrip drying; 2,880 to meal; 65,958 to starch; 473,010 to storage; and 468,202 cwt. on which disposition is to be reported later.

Polio Victim Will Be Taken To Dallas

Sharon Ruth Oldham, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Oldham of 3001 First street, who entered West Texas hospital June 27 with an illness diagnosed as poliomyelitis, will leave Sunday by automobile with her parents for Dallas to enter Scottish Rite hospital there for treatment, her mother reported.

The child's illness has resulted in almost complete relaxation of the muscles of the back and left arm, Mrs. Oldham said.

Spirits, Not Spirit Wanted By Students

LEXINGTON, Va., July 15 (U.P.)—The highly cosmopolitan student body of Washington and Lee University descended upon a state liquor store on Jefferson Davis' birthday, to their annoyance, the store was closed.

On the door was a tiny Confederate flag and a sign:

"We've got the spirit."

Not to be outdone, the students drove to West Virginia. When they returned, they altered the sign to read:

"We've got the spirits."

PITCHER COLLECTOR—Mrs. C. W. Bishop, wife of the congressman from Illinois, holds one of her collection of pitchers at Washington. This one is more than 70 years old.

Dewey To Establish Office In Capital

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will establish presidential campaign headquarters in Washington, D. C.—probably next week.

The Republican standard bearer announced this last night after discussing campaign organization plans with Herbert Brownell, jr., his campaign manager.

Dewey was understood to have warned against any overconfidence in Republican ranks.

House Overlapping Street Is Problen

NORTH YORK, Pa., July 15 (U.P.)—The base of the house measures more than the lot it stands on and the borough council is stumped.

The problem arose when the Veterans Administration, considering a loan to the tenant of the house, Earl N. Frey, decided that a quit-claim deed would be necessary to clear up the encroachment.

That's where the borough council got into the picture.

The house overlaps on a public street. The council is not sure whether it has the power to quit-claim public lands.

U.S. Steel Pay Hike Hinted

PITTSBURGH, July 15. (AP)—Amid reports that a wage increase by the U. S. Steel corp. is imminent the CIO United steelworkers called a meeting of its top officials today.

The groups scheduled to confer were the executive board and the negotiating committee. They act first on wage offers and agreements.

Their recommendations are passed along to the union's 171-man wage policy committee—and a meeting of that group has been called for tomorrow.

Wage Agreement Denied

U. S. Steel officials deny an agreement has been reached on a wage boost. However, it was reported an accord has been reached which would provide wage hikes from eight to 13 percent—working out to the equivalent of about 12½ cents an hour for steelworkers who now average $1.55 hourly.

Under terms of a two-year contract the steelworkers asked for a substantial raise last April. It was refused, U. S. Steel saying it was seeking to stabilize wages and thus prevent another spiral in the inflationary trend.

Since April other major firms in the automotive and electrical industries have granted raises. U. S. Steel, itself, gave its 'captive' coal miners a $1-a-day boost this week—the same as granted to approximately 350,000 other coal miners. The 'captive' miners work in mines owned by the steel companies.

Doomed Terrier Spirited Away By Youthful Master Who Refuses Decision Of Parents

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 15 (INS)—A heart-tugging tale of a boy and his dog was unfolded today in Columbus.

Mrs. Lilian Gaddis, head of a Columbus children's home, related how an 11-year-old boy appeared at the home, recently. The youth turned his tear-streaked face up to Mrs. Gaddis and asked plaintively:

Could you let me and my dog come in and stay a few days?"

Questioning established that the boy's fox terrier puppy had been banished for killing a chicken. To the youth, it was plainly a matter of—"if my dog goes, so do I."

That's what he did. He packed his suitcase, and left home with his dog.

Mrs. Gaddis said she convinced the boy in a heart-to-heart talk that he should return home and negotiate the dog's fate with his parents.

She did not identify the boy, and has not yet heard the result of the "love me, love my dog" negotiation.

FLORIDA GETS BRITISH RELIC

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (U.P.)—A stone from the bomb-battered House of Commons in England has come to rest in Florida arcives. It was presented to Gov. Millard F. Caldwell by Rear Admiral Gilchrist B. Stockton of the U. S. naval reserve in Jacksonville, representing the American and British commonwealths.

The pedestal on which the Statue of Liberty stands is 10 stories high.

BOSTON FAMILIES SHRINKING

BOSTON. (U.P.)—Boston families are shrinking. The average family now includes only one and a half children, compared with two children 10 years ago. City Registrar Michael J. Maning says divorces and the housing shortage are responsible.

ADVICE TO HUSBANDS

CHICAGO. (U.P.)—Advice to filling station operators from the gasoline retailers association of metropolitan Chicago: Bring your wife into the business. She can do the simple bookkeeping necessary to prevent many small operators from going broke.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Blessed With Nine Handsome Healthy Children, Man Praises His Wife As One In A Million

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: In reading newspaper accounts, almost daily, of Hollywood luminaries getting divorced, I sometimes wonder at the disregard for the real meaning behind the words of the marriage ceremony.

We read of Such and So suing for divorce, after so many weeks or months, because their marriage "won't work out." How can anything work out if it isn't given a fair trial? And marriage above all needs time—more than just weeks or months—to develop into something worthwhile.

I know! My wife and I have been married 16 years, and believe me I know that marriage is proven—that it becomes tried-and-true only after years of love and companionship, of working together and learning how to meet the problem of life together.

WIFE IS BLITHE, DESPITE BURDENS

OF COURSE I realize that one must have the right mate to insure a happy marriage, and not every man is lucky enough to get a woman who is a sweetheart and wife and fine mother all-in-one, such as I have.

We are blessed with nine healthy, handsome children; the youngest are twins, a boy and a girl, three months old, and their care alone keeps my wife on the jump from morning until night, so that many a night she falls into bed just plainly "done in."

But despite all this, on top of planning meals, trying to meet expenses, keeping the house in order, washing and ironing almost every day and generally "mothering" the whole household, she still finds time to laugh and sing and play with the children. And she always greets me with a smile when I get home from work.

BUILD, HE SAYS, ON ROCK OF PERMANENCY

IN SHORT, she is a mate in a million, and I wouldn't exchange her little finger for all the riches in the world. I only hope that I may always be able to give her happiness such as she has given me, and that she so richly deserves. Yes, there are times when we disagree, the same as any couple; but we always kiss and make up and life seems just a little sweeter.

I grant there are marriages that never should have been made, and that many couples try valiantly to make the best of a bad bargain before admitting their mistake; and I am offering no criticism of these. Rather I condemn those couples who claim their marriage "won't work" when they haven't invested any staying-power in it.

If only they could realize the crucial value of those words, "For better, for worse, 'til death do us part," they would have a solid foundation on which to build a happy marriage, such as ours. The same people who cast off marriage so casually would think twice before tossing aside a business venture, I wonder why?

Signed: L. N.

MAN'S ADVISED TO CHERISH TREASURE

DEAR L. N.,: Your letter seems to fall for an "Amen" rejoinder; and it is indeed a pleasant relief from grievance-cases to hear from a happy husband joyously content with his 16 years' profilic marriage to a woman whose "price is far above rubies" and who "looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness." (See Proverbs 31: 10, 27).

However, to be perfectly frank, my chief reaction is sympathetic concern for your good wife, who gives so lavishly of herself; for I wonder how long vital energies—the basis of her gay, inspiriting, competent performance—can meet the tremendous demands now being levied on them.

In carrying the load you describe, with a song in her heart and a sweetheart's smile for you, verily she is a wife in a million; and in order to perpetuate this fine companionship into the sunset years of life, it's mighty important to express your devotion in terms of safeguarding her health and strength, and giving her rest, in all sorts of unselfish, foresighted ways. If you see what I mean.

M. H.

Movie Shown Before WSCS

The second of a series of programs on missions in China which was sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of St. John's Methodist church Wednesday night, featured a movie entitled, "My Name Is Han."

Mrs. J. O. Haymes offered a devotion and Mrs. A. N. Gamble, accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Kelly, sang "Walk In the Light." The dismissal prayer was by Mrs. Hubert Bratcher.

Fifty persons attended the program and social hour which was hosted by Mary Louella Dunn circle of the WSCS following the movie.

Annual 4-H Clubs' Rally Is Conducted At State Park

The annual Lubbock county Girls and Boys 4-H club rally held Wednesday at Mackenzie State park was attended by 200 members, parents and guests. Miss Eloise Woodruff, who was presented an eight-year pin at the rally, was chairman of the program.

In a recognition service conducted by Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent, the following were honored: Jonelle Judd who will represent Lubbock county in a dress revue at the State fair in October; Mary Lou Crump who is district 4-H chairman; Novella Crump who is district 4-H secretary; and 53 4-H members who have completed requirements from club pins.

Boys Are Recognized

Boys 4-H members who were recognized by D. W. Sherrill, Lubbock county agent, were Glenn Brown Blackman, Tommy Joe Stanton, C. W. Perser, Glenn Powers, Jerry Holt, Walt Rogers, David Lee Stewart, Charles Miller, Lee Smith, jr., Billy Mitchell and Bruce Gentry, jr.

Judge Walter Davies spoke briefly on the responsibilities of growing boys and girls.

Following the recognition services, boys played baseball and girls studied a craft under direction of Miss Woodruff and Shirley Watkins, Alice Russell, Kathyleen Guthrie, Dorothy Rainey, Doris Marie Prater, Judy Colleps and LaHonda Keeler.

The rally opened with swimming and closed with folk games. Sack lunches were served at noon.

Park Avenue Doctor, Convicted Of Performing Abortion On Heiress, Found Dead In Jail Cell

NEW YORK, July 15. (U.P.)—A Park avenue plastic surgeon was found dead in his jail cell today a few hours after he was convicted of performing an abortion on a pretty heiress to a bakery fortune.

Commissioner of Corrections Albert O. Williams said that Dr. Oswald Glasberg, 49, apparently had taken poison. Physicians said, however, there was a chance he died of a heart attack.

Was Found Guilty

A general session jury of 11 men and a woman last night found Glasberg guilty of manslaughter in the first degree and abortion in connection with the death of blonde, 22-year-old Jane Ward, daughter of the president of the Ward Baking Co.

It was the third time Glasberg and another Park Ave. physician, Dr. Paul Singer, were tried on the charges. The first time they appeared, the trial was called off when a juror fainted. The second trial resulted in a deadlock.

After the verdict was announced at 12:30 a. m., it was learned that Singer had threatened suicide if found guilty.

Asked Bail Continuance

This revelation came when defense attorneys asked that bail be continued pending sentencing.

The district attorney then said Singer had "threatened to kill himself" and asked that both men be remanded as a "security measure."

Ironically, Hyman Barshay, attorney for Glasberg, argued that his client should not be included in the district attorney's request as he made no mention of committing suicide. The judge, however, granted the request and remanded the defendants.

Testimony at the trial, revealed that handsome, Latin-American Eduardo Schneidewind had brought Miss Ward to Singer's office last Oct. 17. Later he brought her to Glasberg's office where the abortion took place, according to the trial testimony.

Denied The Charges

Glasberg, however, denied the charges and said he first learned of the abortion when he took her to the Park East hospital for an emergency operation.

The girl died last Oct. 27.

The two doctors faced a maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment on the manslaughter charge and four years on the abortion count.

The tale of how Schneidewind, dark-eyed, and dapper, wooed the heiress was told and retold through the three trials.

Scheidewind, who preferred to be called "Schneider," admitted he had a wife in Argentina. But in America he moved in high social circles where he met Miss Ward.

She Fell In Love

According to the trial testimony, the heiress fell in love with the six-foot Latin, but she did not know he was married until later.

The couple met at the swank Atlantic Beach club in the summer of 1946.

In April of 1947, Schneidewind, testified, they "started to go out together."

The girl, it was revealed, admitted she was in love and that she wanted to marry Schneidewind.

"My only problem is that Eduardo doesn't want to marry me," she was quoted as saying.

"Not Too Clever"

Schneidewind testified that he thought the girl to be "only attractive" and "not too clever."

This relationship became intimate about a month after they began "going together," according to the testimony.

The couple spent a lot of time in night clubs, but Schneidewind testified that he earned but $350 a month.

GOP In Texas Slates Drive

FORT WORTH, July 15 (AP)—Texas Republicans will organize the state "down to the last precinct," Henry Zweifel, state campaign manager for the Dewey-Warren ticket, announced today.

Plans for an all-out drive similar to the one that put the state in the Republican column in 1928 were announced after the heated North-South split in the Democratic convention Wednesday.

Sweifel said "prominent Democrats" will stump the state and make radio addresses for Dewey.

Warren will make one to three speeches in Texas, former governor John Bricker, vice-presidential nominee in 1944, will speak, and Dewey may make a Texas stop, Zweifel said.

Civil Rights Plank Cited

Campaign headquarters will be established in Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, San Angelo, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Waco, El Paso, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Galveston and Austin.

"The Republicans have a much stronger states rights plank in their platform than the Democrats," Zweifel said, and invited Democrats "who want to vote for Dewey and against Truman" to "join in whatever activity they care to take through their organization or ours."

Zweifel estimated Texas had 200,000 "natural Republicans" before the states rights fight. He predicted an equal number of Democrats will vote for Dewey this year, and that the Democraic vote would be further split by a substantial vote for Wallace.

"The Republicans will only have to poll half of the remaining ballots to capture the Texas electoral votes," he said.

VISITS LUBBOCK — W. E. (Billy) Myres, first assistant to the criminal district attorney at Fort Worth, is a candidate for a place on the Texas Court of Criminal appeals. He has been a resident there for 30 years, and has specialized in criminal law for nearly 42 years. The position which he seeks is for a six-year term, Myres visited Lubbock today and planned to visit Plainview and Tulia en route to Amarillo.

Corruthers Funeral Will Be Held Today

Funeral services are to be held in Rochester at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon for Mrs. A. B. Corruthers, 84-year-old pioneer resident of that town and who had lived in Haskell for a number of years, who died Wednesday. A daughter, Mrs. Dan Christopher, 2323 Ninth, had been at her bedside since complications developed following a fall when Mrs. Corruthers visited a son, Lex Corruthers, on his ranch near Raton, N. M.

Mrs. Corruthers and her late husband helped in the early development of Rochester. Survivors are: five sons, G. C. Stamford; Sscar, Haskell; Lex; Gib and Bill, Rochester; five daughters, Mrs. Christopher; Mrs. Guy Speck and Mrs. Maude Davidson, Carlsbad, N. M.; Mrs. Alice McWhorter, Fort Worth and Mrs. Gloyd Gant, Rule.

Threatened Strike Averted In Canada

OTTAWA, July 15 (AP) — A threatened dominion-wide rail strike has been averted in Canada.

Less than 15 hours before 150,000 workers were to have walked out, Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell announced yesterday that the rail unions had agreed to accept a wage increase of 17 cents an hour retroactive to March 1.

The Leaning Tower of Pisa began to sink when it had risen only 40 of its 179 feet.

Clubs Attend Breakfasts

Breakfasts are popular forms of entertainment for clubs which have not disbanded during the summer.

Pollyanna club members were served an al fresco meal at the home of Mrs. L. G. Pearce, 1901-A Twenty-fourth this morning. Mrs. E. L. Turner of Brownfield and Mrs. S. A. Stapleton were guests and members present were Stanley Sigman, Belle Stapleton, Louie Lee Holder, Louis Jarrell.

Mrs. Sigman, 2308 Thirty-third, will be club hostess at 9 a. m. July 29 at her home.

Mrs. John McKenzie was hostess at a breakfast for Pollyanna club at her home. Members and guests were Mesdames Elmer Harris and daughter, Shirley, Boyd Millsap, Carl Owens, O. D. Peden, E. E. Rodgers, C. W. Tripp, George Sawyer and daughter, Linda, and Mickey Millsap.

Mrs. Owens will be club hostess July 29.

Young Adult Class Has Organizational Meet

A formal organization of Young Adult class of Westminister Presbyterian church was held at the home of Misses Peggy and Billie Weiss, 3412 Twenty-first, Tuesday night.

Attending were C. C. Galbraith, superintendent of the Sunday school; Mrs. Galbraith, teacher of the class; Merrill Proudfoot, summer pastor of the church; and Dorothy Bayley and Jo Ann Golding, members.

Needle Club Bee Plans For Ice Cream Supper

An ice cream supper is planned for Needle Club Bee members and families Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chambers, 2118 Twenty-seventh.

CLASS HAS PICNIC

A Mity class, made up of intermediates and seniors of Westminister Presbyterian church, attended a picnic at Wagner park Tuesday night. Merrill Proudfoot, summer pastor, supervised the games.

Twelve members and Mrs. Leo S. Hay, group superintendent, attended.

ACTRESS GETS DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES, July 15 (AP)—Declaring amid tears that his war experiences had changed her husband radically, actress Marguerite Churchill obtained a divorce today from George O'Brien, movie cowboy hero.

Candidate Wallace Claims Third Party Is Not Pro-Russian Or Pro-Communist

NEW YORK, July 15. (U.P.) — Henry A. Wallace, resigning as contributing editor of the New Republic, said today and in his final article that the third party supporting him for President was not pro-Communist.

"The new party is not pro-Russian or pro-Communist, but it will not lend itself in any way to the red-baiting or Russia-baiting of the propaganda - manufacturing pseudo-liberal," the third party presidential candidate wrote.

Wallace wrote he "never had anything personally" against President Truman, but that he was "troubled about the forces which put him over as vice-presidential nominee in 1944." Wallace said that nevertheless he campaigned for the Democratic ticket in 1944 and won the appreciation of the late President Roosevelt.

Truman Was Grateful

"Truman was also grateful for assistance in the '44 campaign," Wallace said. "Every conference I had with him was completely harmonious. He agreed with everything I said. He really believed in my Madison Square Garden speech of September, 1946, but unfortunately, and almost unwittingly, he had already fallen under the control of the big brass and the big gold, as well as the forces represented by Churchill of England, Byrnes of South Carolina and Vandenberg of Michigan.

"If he had followed his heart, the Democratic party could have placed the U. S. at the head of the peace forces of the world. He could have done this without appeasement of Russia."

Wallace became editor of the New Republic 18 months ago, shortly after he resigned his cabinet post in the Truman administration. Later he resigned but continued as a contributing editor.

Ernest Stewarts To Visit In Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stewart, of 2020 Broadway, and sons, John, 4, and Kit, two months, will leave Saturday to visit relatives in Hallock, Minnesota, and Winnipeg, Canada.

Stewart says that he will be particularly glad to see his father-in-law, Paul Blide, of Hallock, because he hasn't seen him for a long time. And, incidentally of course, Blide is also game warden of several counties adjoining the Canadian border.

The forests there are "full of bear on up and down," Stewart said, when asked what kind of animals he plans to hunt.

The fishing in Lake of the Woods, Blide has written, is the best in five years as far as "catching" is concerned.

Stewart swears that he will get his fill of northern pike and spotted trout, and return in about two weeks with two worn-out arms.

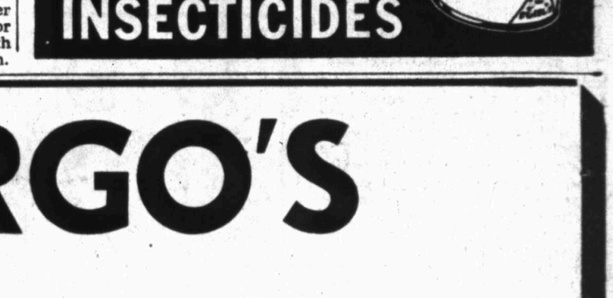

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Powers of Austin are visiting in Lubbock this week. Mr. Powers, former dean of men at Lubbock Senior High school, is associated with the Texas Railroad commission.

Missing Man's Body Is Found In Arroyo

TRINIDAD, Colo., July 15 (AP) The body of Gregorio Martinez, 80, of Raton, N. M., missing since June 12, was found late yesterday in an arroyo in the Grey creek district southeast of here.

Seven-year-old Sam Cordova saw the man's head protruding from the mud and told his parents Martinez came to Trinidad from his home June 11. He started home the following day, apparently wandered in the wrong direction, and toppled in the arroyo.

Western Allies Ponder Next Move In Blockade Of Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 15—The United States, Britain and France today charted their next move in the campaign to smash the Soviet blockade of Berlin.

That step may be an appeal to the United Nations to move into the dispute, following Russia's rejection of the three-power demand for an immediate break in the Soviet wall around the German capital.

U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie suggested taking the issue before the Security council several weeks ago. At that time the western occupying nations said they wanted to try a direct approach to Moscow first.

Conferences Underway

But yesterday's Russian note to the State department, officials said, appears to have closed off that avenue. However, they flatly declined to speculate what will be done next, pending talks with the British and French.

Diplomatic activity both here and in London indicated that these talks already are under way.

British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks conferred with Undersecretary of State Lovett late yesterday. Meanwhile, American Ambassador Lewis Douglas and French Ambassador Rene Massigli conferred with top foreign office officials in London.

Secretary of State Marshall, Lovett and counselor Charles E. Bohlen also spent considerable time yesterday afternoon going over the Russian reply to the United States note of July 6.

It was emphasized by Washington authorities that while the Soviet did not reject the principle of negotiation to settle the Berlin dispute they did not actually suggest holding such talks.

Berlin Issue Secondary

In their note to the American government the Russians asserted that talks on the Berlin issues alone would not be effective and that the only talks which would be useful would be those concerned with the future of all Germany.

As interpreted here these points mean simply that the Russians intend to continue the blockade indefinitely unless the Western powers are willing to reverse their basic policies on Germany, suspend their plans for the unification of western Germany and reopen German peace treaty negotiations in the Big Four foreign ministers council.

There was no evidence here that the Western powers would be willing to engage in such a dramatic policy reversal. The evidence is rather that they intend to expand the aerial supply lines to the western sectors of Berlin and at the same time take steps, within the United Nations charter, to try to force the Russians to back down.

One of the most interesting points in the Russian note was the Kremlin's explanation for the restrictions placed on surface transportation between western Berlin and the western zones of Germany.

Until yesterday the explanation of the Soviet high command in Berlin had been that "technical difficulties" such as railway track repairs made traffic impossible.

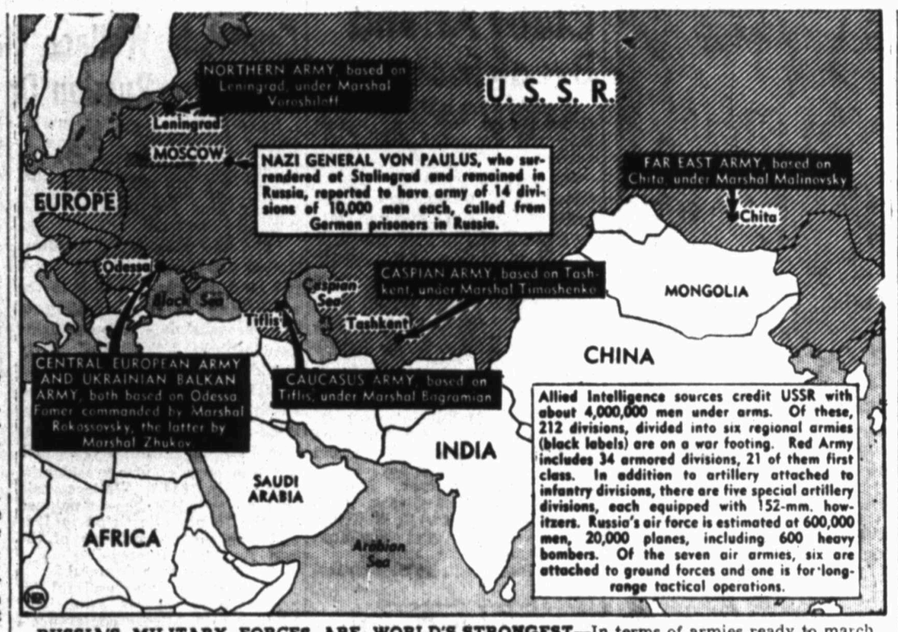

The Soviet note, however, blamed the situation on introduction of a new currency into western Berlin and said measures had to be taken to protect the economy of the Soviet zone.

This suggestion that in the Soviet view the restrictive measures can not be relaxed until the Western powers either modify or withdraw their currency — although the Russians made no demand for such a move.

The Soviet note did not question the original right of the western Allies to share in the occupation of the German capital. But it argued that they had substantially forfeited that right by failing to live up to the Potsdam and Yalta agreements for joint Four-Power control of Berlin.

On this point, as on practically all other German issues, East and West are exactly opposed. Washington, London, and Paris insist that it is the Russians who first violated the war-end agreements.

Officials here said the total effect of the note is to confirm their belief that the Russians are determined either to force the Western powers out of Berlin or to compel a reopening of all German questions—and the Western powers appear just as determined to resist on both counts.

RUSSIA'S MILITARY FORCES ARE WORLD'S STRONGEST—In terms of armies ready to march into action, Russia is the world's strongest power today—while the U.S. is weaker than at any time since the war. Map shows disposition of Red armies according to basic Soviet defense policy. In armored units alone, Russia now has in being three more divisions than the 18 armored and infantry divisions Army Secretary Royall says the U.S. may have by the end of 1949.

Mrs. J. W. Forgason Dies After Surgery

Mrs. J. W. Forgason, 37, of Plainview cut off, died at 6:15 o'clock this morning in West Texas hospital from complications following major surgery. She had been in the hospital since Monday. Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m., Friday in the Plains Funeral home chapel, with Rev. Jeff D. Welch, pastor of the Central Baptist church, named to officiate. Interment will be in a Lubbock cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, John Wilbur Forgason; two daughters, Mrs. Gwyna Lou Horrelson and Miss Norma Jean Forgason, both of Lubbock, and one son, Bernice Loyd Forgason of Lubbock.

Louisiana Shrimpers Arrested In Texas

GALVESTON, July 15. (U.P.)—Four Louisiana shrimp fishermen were held under $500 county court bond today on charges of fishing Texas waters without the required $2,500 out-of-state permit.

State game wardens arrested the shrimpers late yesterday six miles from Galveston in gulf waters. Assistant county attorney Jack Beckhusen said that two shrimp boats were being held as evidence.

Insurance Man Dies At Home In Houston

HOUSTON, July 15 (U.P.)—John B. Lubbock, 76, insurance man and nephew of former governor Frank R. Lubbock, died last night at his home here.

Lubbock came to Houston from Austin in his youth and worked as a clerk for the Southern Pacific railroad, and later as an insurance solicitor before establishing his own firm in 1908.

AMAZING RESULTS WITH MERTOX TONIC

Mrs. Ben Grossman of Houston writes us as follows:

"For a long time I have had occasional billious spells. My head would hurt and I would vomit my food. My last spell was very severe and I just thought I would die. My appetite was poor and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so troubled with my limbs stiffening just before I would have a spell of gas and bloat. I would be dizzy and I would have a severe headache. My food soured and it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me. To anyone suffering like I was, I recommend Mertox highly."

This splendid medicine, containing 26 ingredients, works fast to eliminate poisonous matter from your system. Helps to build rich, red blood. Relieves constipation within a few hours and helps to create a more rhythmic bowel action. Get Mertox Compound today from any Texas druggist at the new REDUCED price.

President Truman Pulls Convention Out Of Tail Spin With Angry Challenge To GOP

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—The Democrats are airborne now, and they can thank the President for the near-miracle.

He pulled them off the ground at the very last moment of their convention, after it had been bouncing and floundering along the runways, and seemed certain to come to an ignominous, nose-in-the-mud end. It probably was the most inept, dreary, shapeless and badly-handled convention in the history of the party—until Harry Truman came along.

That was at 2 o'clock this morning.

The delegates were tired, sweat-soaked and bored by that time. So was the coatless audience, listlessly fanning and gasping in the galleries. The temperature at convention hall was 95 at midnight.

Southerners Have Fun

An endless series of speeches, studded with the tired old standbys of political oratory—"that great American," "a man who," "I am proud and privileged to be able etc."—had been yammered into the microphones, hour after plodding hour.

There had been one minor and one major demonstration. The first one came when the South nominated Senator Richard Russell of Georgia. On direct orders from the platform, the band played "Dixie" for it.

And although the majority of the delegates were opposed to the southern fight, the platform strategists ordered the music that kept the parade going.

"They want something to holler about," an official said. "Might as well let them have a little fun."

The major demonstration came after the President's name was placed in nomination. It was a duplicate of those subway-crushes that are standard equipment for conventions. Despite the heat, people poured into the aisles, snake-dancing and bouncing, perspiring bodies pressed so tightly together that some of the demonstrators were lifted off their feet.

Two women collapsed, directly in front of the rostrum. The hall was a roaring furnace of heat and sound.

Doves Are Released

But after that, it sank into the old lethargy. The speakers droned on. Roll calls moved ahead with the ponderous weight of a steam roller.

Just before the President appeared, along with his nominee for the vice-presidency, portly, dignified Senator Alben W. Barkley, some doves were released. What they were intended to symbolize is hard to say.

But anyway, the doves had been brought to the hall several hours before in a cage, concealed beneath a floral liberty bell.

They reacted, to the surroundings pretty much like the delegates. That is, when they were released, they simply stood, blinded by the lights, crushed by the noise, largely incapable of any action at all.

Chairman Sam Rayburn had to pick up one of the birds and throw it into the air. Five or six others managed to get off the floor, flitting around and perching on the electric fans, in imminent danger.

President Hits Congress

If they were meant to symbolize the Democratic fortunes, next November, superstitious Democrats must have been slightly dismayed.

Then the President appeared.

Despite the hour (he usually rises at 5 a. m.) he looked alert. He walked to the rostrum with a quick, spring step. His white linen suit was immaculate. He was grinning. Then he started to speak.

With a few lesser exceptions, his speech was the only notable and really vital part of the convention. He quickly fell into a fighting mood. His anger and indignation had all the appearance of sincerity.

His theme was an old one—the sins of the Republican-controlled 80th Congress. Democratic orators had been grinding at that ever since the convention began. You would have thought it had been too thoroughly chewed over to leave anything for still another speech.

But the President hit hard and his aim was good. Moreover, his manner was such that the audience could hardly fail to react. He was, by turns, angry, amusing and poisonously sarcastic. It was a good speech.

It got the Democratic aircraft off the ground.

TANGLE WITH PAMPA TONIGHT

Hubbers Lose Third To Dukes, 9 To 4

If Pampa is no more hospitable to the Hubbers than was Albuquerque, it may be a disgusted, disillusioned baseball team that returns to Rosenthal Field Sunday afternoon.

The Hubbers open a three-game series with the Oilers in Pampa tonight, after blowing three games in a row to the first-place Albuquerque Dukes. The three defeats, winding up on a 9-4 licking last night, dropped the Hub City crew three and a half games behind Amarillo and six games behind Albuquerque.

Borger Is Dangerous

The defeat also left the Hubbers with only a three and a half game margin over the Borger Gassers, who could be dangerous, and sent the Hubbers spinning two full games behind the Pampa nine they meet tonight.

Amarillo and Lamesa played what nearly amounted to an early season football game, with the Gold Sox scoring four touchdowns and kicking three points, while the Loboes got no closer than a field goal. Final score in the melee was 27-3 for Amarillo, which thus kept on the heels of the Dukes.

Pampa didn't have much trouble with Clovis, taking the Pioneers 9-3 to sweep the three - game series, while Borger rose up to smite Abilene's Blue Sox 15-7, salvaging one of the three-game set.

The Hubbers blew a lead again last night, as they have done so often this season. There was some reason for it, though, with Don Cantrell pitching effective ball for the Dukes. Cantrell wasn't in the same form he displayed here recently, but it was good enough to limit the Hubbers to eight hits and keep them scoreless from the third to the ninth inning.

And during this space, the Dukes hopped on Red Ramsey and Royce Mills for the runs that won the game. Mills, coming on in relief in the fifth, shut the door in that inning, but gave up the winning runs in the sixth and seventh.

With two out in the second frame, Chick Fowler walked, Charley Scarborough singled and Frank McAlexander doubled for two runs. The Hubbers scored another in the third when Ramsey singled, Gene Hixson singled, Manager Jackie Sullivan walked and Virgil Richardson grounded out.

That was the ball game, virtually, for the Hubbers. The Dukes put together consecutive hits by four men to score three runs in the fifth. Len Attyd tripled, Frank Okrie singled, Frank Dixon tripled and Ron Bowen singled.

A single, two sacrifices, on one of which an error was made, and an outfield fly scored Albuquerque's fourth run. And five runs counted in the seventh on three walks, a sacrifice, two singles and a triple.

Cotton Russell probably will attempt to stop the Oilers tonight and set the Hubbers back on the winning path, before they drop lower in the race.

Televising Fights Out Unless Insured

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. (AP)—Fight promoter Herman Taylor says he will permit no televising of fights under his direction unless he is insured against financial loss.

Taylor, promoter of the lightweight title fight Monday night in which Ike Williams defeated challenger Beau Jack, said yesterday he sustained a loss of $10,000.

Between . . . The Lines

—— By JOE KELLY ——

Residents of Lubbock and the South Plains will be interested to read the information contained in Jack Alderson's daily writings from Van Buren, Ark. Jack is an outstanding boy, well-equipped to keep the home folks interested and entertained. He also is as good a representative from Texas as any we know, versatile and able, affable, yet quiet, intelligent, but no prude, a good example of clean-cut American youth.

• • •

Jack's little piece, although on the short side, has a good deal of meat on the bone. He showed initiative in talking with the director of the baseball tournament; he showed intelligence in talking up Lubbock as the possible site of next year's All-Star game. West Texas would benefit by staging the baseball series here, Lubbock would gain directly. The local Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and civic clubs could do much worse than follow up the line of reasoning Jak uses in his column.

• • •

We think that Lubbock is ideally located for such a tournament and that the city could make a grand show of it, if everyone was willing to cooperate. By the time next July rolls around, there may be several changes made in the sports world that will improve present facilities. We have a first-class baseball park now; we have a first-class football field; we need a first-class arena, or auditorium, and there are signs that we may have one soon. This is a picturesque part of Texas, with plenty of sights to see for the visiting boys from all over the nation.

• • •

For instance, a great majority of the boys probably never saw a ranch, outside of the movies. They have never seen the beauties of a Texas sunset. The Palo Duro canyon near Canyon would be an eye-opener to many. McKenzie Park would astound a lot of the boys. We have the natural beauty here to offer sightseeing visitors. In addition, we have the hospitality and friendliness that makes Texas unique in that respect. It wouldn't do any harm to entertain these carefully-chosen, clean-cut youths in our homes.

• • •

As for the ball orchard, where the games would be played and on which practice would be held, you'll go a long way before you find a neater, cleaner, better diamond than the one at Rosenthal Field. You'll also have to search diligently for a better physical plant in a city several times larger than this. Certainly the setting for the ball games would be near-perfect and Lubbock would meet every need in that respect.

• • •

Socially, we believe that the boys could be entertained royally and, after setting eyes on some of the female population, might not want to leave. After all, most of the boys are just barely out of high school and there wouldn't have to be anything elaborate along that line, but a good dance or two, possibly a real barbecue and other ingenious forms of entertainment, could make the week's stay mighty attractive.

• • •

And then there is the cold matter of national publicity for Lubbock, the presence of baseball scouts and incoming money which the boys would spend. From a business standpoint—particularly the C. of C. vantage—the proposition sounds like a good one. Since every state in the union sends one boy to the tournament, with publicity both in the boy's home town and throughout the state, there couldn't be a faster way to spread the name of Lubbock As in the case with Jack, where his date line is "Van Buren, Ark.," so every boy visiting this city would use Lubbock, Tex.

• • •

The New York Giants and Cleveland Indians spread the name of Lubbock all the way to the East Coast, so that baseball scouts would be on the lookout for something good here. They'd find it. In addition, it would be another boast—and boost—to say that some kid really got his start in Lubbock. This city already is known for its baseball-love; here's an opportunity to make it even more indelible. We can think of no better way to improve Lubbock's name in baseball circles, unless the Hubbers repeated as pennant winners. But there's also this to remember: if Lubbock should land the tournament, it would be up to the public to make it so worthwhile that the city would make a favorable impression on the rest of the nation.

Major Leaders On Road Trips

BY TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians and the Boston Braves, each striving to win its first major league pennant in years, open long road trips today, but the prospect of playing before hostile crowds doesn't faze them.

As the majors resumed activity after a three-day lull for the all star game, a survey showed both the American and National league leaders have won more games on the road than at home.

Better On Road

Invading Philadelphia for a twilight-night doubleheader with Connie Mack's amazing Athletics Cleveland boasted a remarkable .758 percentage on foreign fields. The Indians have lost only eight games on the road while winning 25. At home they have split, winning 20 and losing 20.

The Braves, starting their western trip with a doubleheader at Chicago, have won 24 and lost 13 on the road. This is a .649 clip compared to the Braves' home mark 22-18 for .550.

The runnerup Athletics, only .016 points behind Cleveland, likewise are "terrors" on the road. They have won 28 and lost 14 for .667, compared to a home percentage of .526.

The following table lists how each team has fared at home and away for the season to date. (Figures in parenthesis give the team's overall pct. mark.)

Lubbock, Morton Will Tangle For Title In Legion Tourney

Championship of District 2, Area 1 of the American Legion state junior baseball organization will be determined at 6 o'clock tonight at Rosenthal field when the powerful Lubbock "A" nine clashes with the surprising Morton team.

The two diamond squads gained places in the final tilt by pounding out easy triumphs over loop foes in the second round of the district tournament Wednesday night, with Morton also gaining a forfeit over Spur and a free pass through the semifinal round.

The Lubbock representatives, combining brilliant three - hit pitching with a savage 13 hit-20 run attack at the plate, turned in the most one-sided victory over the tournament in drubbing Spur, 20-0, in the second setto Wednesday night.

The Hub city crew slugged Spur hurler Joe Simpson for six runs in the second inning, added seven more in the wild third and another four tallies in the fourth. Three runs crossed the plate in the sixth to complete the rout.

Jack Whitehead led off the second stanza with a single, then Catcher Jack Cook banged out a ringing double. Jimmy Richards and Jim Wilson reached first on errors by Spur Shortstop Bill Smith, then Bob Brown was aided by a miscue in the Spur infield. Jesse Fullerton drove in two runs with a single and Dorrance Guy pushed another tally across with a second bingle.

Third Clinches Win

Eleven Lubbock batters went to the plate in the third frame onslaught that clinched the victory. Cook opened with a single, Richards drew a base on balls and Wilson reached first on an error. Brown knocked out a single, Fullerton dropped in a bingle and, after Guy's long fly was nabbed in center field, Galey blasted another safety good for one base.

Bill Tatum, chunky third-sacker, then turned in the top batting feat of the night by slamming out a home run over the top of the Avalanche-Journal scoreboard, 360 feet from home plate.

The battling Spur youngsters were completely baffled by the three Lubbock twirlers who worked during the setto. Big Jim Wilson, lanky right-hander, gave up just two safeties in five full innings, then Jack McCabe shut out Spur with a single in the sixth stanza. Lefty Jackie Martyn completed the tilt in spectacular fashion, striking out the first three men to face him. The first ball thrown by Martyn was inside for a ball, but the next nine throws cut the plate and set the Spur batters down swinging.

Morton Wins, 9-5

Morton copped the initial tilt of the twin bill from Brownfield, 9-5, in a well-played contest.

Morton took a three-run lead in the first stanza, as little Lanar Burns singled through the box with the bases loaded, then added another run in the third. A four-run offensive in the fifth and a single run in the sixth closed the scoring for the winners.

Brownfield kept in the game by tallying once in the first and three times in the fifth, but the late rally fell short. In the big fifth for Brownfield, Glenn Hahn banged out a double, Bill Lewis singled and Willis McNiell and Charles Roe reached first on errors.

Bill McDaniel was credited with the mound win, giving up eight safeties, while Glenn Herring was charged with the loss.

Legion officials also announced that the Legion "A" nine will tangle with the strong Altus, Okla., team here Friday night at Rosenthal field, and that the Lubbock "B" team will go to Plainview for a tussle at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Double Bill In Softball Tournament

Hardy's Bottling Works And Amherst To Appear Tonight

The Amherst and Hardy's Bottling Works of Tahoka softball teams will make their initial appearance in the A.S.A. softball tournament at Jumbo Webster Field tonight, meeting a pair of first-round winners.

The first game, scheduled to begin at 8:30 p. m., will pair the Golden Light Coffee nine from Lubbock with Amherst, while the nightcap will bring together Baldridge Bakery from Lubbock and the Tahoka nine.

Upset Last Night

Two games last night resulted in one upset, with Culligan's Soft Water team from Plainview beating the Cloverlake Dairy of Lubbock on a seventh inning rally good for four runs and a 4-2 victory. In the other game, Thomas-Sunbeamers won as expected from Chapman Motors of Abernathy, 11 0, in a game cut to five innings by a tourney ruling.

Jackie Bond's inside the park homer in the ninth broke up a game in which the Plainview team appeared to be beaten going into the seventh. The visitors had gotten only one hit off Cecil "Smoky" Hale, when the explosion took place.

Ralph Gunter was hit and went to third on Lupey Meador's bounce that the first baseman missed for a single, Meador immediately stealing second. Jack Atkins tapped to the infield, but Catcher Ray dropped the throw to allow Gunter to score, Meador moving to third. Atkins stole second and Bond, hitless in two trips, came to the plate.

His drive offset A. J. Collier's home run in the second and Ira Layman's run in the sixth, eliminating one of the favored Lubbock nines and causing the first upset of the tourney.

In the second game, the Abernathy nine simply wasn't in the same class with the Sunbeamers, who used a brilliant G. W. Warden on the mound. Warden fanned 12 batters in the abbreviated contest and allowed no hits. He set the losers down in order in every inning except the fourth, when he hit the second batter.

Crack Matches Seen In Open

Pacing Wednesday's first round championship flight shooting in Lubbock's annual City Open golf tournament were, Oran Wilson and Charlie Moore, both of whom shot par golf to defeat their opponents. Play continues this afternoon at the Meadowbrook Publinx course with Manse Allen pitted against Babe Christian and Kay Bradshaw paired against Pete Felton.

Two other matches were played in the first round, Championship flight, with Charlie Moore defeating Fred Hinson, 5-4, and Kenneth Holton downing A. L. Allbridge, 7-5. No Wednesday scores were available.

Other victories included: First Flight—C. R. Bradshaw over Val Norman; 3-2; J. R. Callihan defeated John Edminson by a default. Second flight—Chick Trout, Jr., edged Bill Mathis one up and C. C. Galbraith defeated B. F. Stevens, 6-5.

In the third flight, C. A. Rogers defeated J. C. Crawford 2 to 1, W. L. Hale downed Sloan Fortenberry, 6 to 5, Troy Peoples defeated Ewell Hindman, 6-5, and Tom Clark won over Don Hatchett 2 up.

The fourth flight saw P. B. Taylor defeat Claude Lemley one up, and Jimmy Williams edged by N. L. Ball, 5 to 4.

Barney Stagner outplayed Ed Strout one up in the first of two matches in the Fifth flight. In the other, Jack Casimer downed Marvin Thomas, 4 to 3.

In the Sixth, Floyd Honey drew a bye and Joe Bowles also drew a bye over his opponent.

The championship flight will consist of three matches which will be played not later than July 18. Officials announced that there will be no consolation offered in the sixth flight as there are only seven players entered in this one.

Cats Tee Off For 11-0 Win

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Fort Worth may not be able to beat the pick of the Texas league, but it certainly can tee off on just one team.

The Cats rebounded from a 4-2 loss to the Texas league all-stars last night to hand the Shreveport Sports a 11-0 licking behind the eight-hit pitching of Chris Van Cuyk.

The victory stretched the Cats' lead over Tulsa to three and one-half games. The Oilers dropped a 11-1 decision to San Antonio.

Race 14-Hit Attack

Dee Fondy and Manager Bobby Bragan paced a 14-hit Fort Worth attack off two Sport pitchers. Fondy hit four for four and Bragan three for three.

Ray Murray hit two home runs and Preacher Dorsett scattered seven Houston hits as Oklahoma City won easily. There were seven double plays in this game, just one shy of the league record.

Clarence Iott, making his first start for Dallas since being purchased from Hollywood of the Pacific coast league, cut loose with a wild pitch in the ninth inning and Chuck Sweeney raced home with the winning Beaumont run.

Iott gave up three hits and Bob Revels and Gale Pringle held Dallas to two blows.

Odessa Moves Into Big Spring Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

Odessa moves into Big Spring tonight to open a three-game series and the Oilers have a chance to really slice the Broncs' Longhorn League lead.

Odessa downed Ballinger, 7-2, last night as Big Spring divided two with San Angelo and moved within three games of the top spot. San Angelo won the first game, 5-3, lost the second, 5-4.

In other games, Midland defeated Del Rio, 6-1 and Sweetwater blasted Vernon, 15-1.

Junior Golfers Hit Semi-Final Rounds

SAN ANTONIO, July 15. (AP)—The state junior golf tournament reached semi-final play today.

L. M. Crannell, jr., of Dallas, 1943 champion, tangles with Gervis McGraw of Abilene and Gene Towry of Dallas, 1946 titlist, meets Charley Tims of Arlington.

Tomorrow's championship match will be over the same distance as today's semi-final grind—36 holes.

Tims Has Trouble

Tims was the only one of the semi-finalists to have trouble winning yesterday. Morris Williams, jr., Austin pushed him to a 2 up decision.

McGraw beat medalist Don Addington, 6 and 5, while Crannell defeated Don January, 6 and 4, and Towry downed Sammy Reynolds, Wichita Falls, 5 and 4.

In second round matches in the morning, McGraw whipped Bob Semaan, Houston, 4 and 3; Crannell topped Richard Patton, Ft. Worth, 5 and 4, Howry bested Joe Conrad, San Antonio, in a re-play of the 1946 title match that went three extra holes before the Dallas 125-pounder dribbled in an 8-foot putt for a birdie 4, and Tims upset Joe Ruby, the 1944 champion from San Antonio, 5 and 3.

Before bowing to McGraw, Addington won in the second round from James A. Smith, Vernon, 5 and 4.

Also in the second round, January beat Sid Frink, Freeport, one up; Williams won from Bill Smith, Hillsboro, 3 and 2, and Reynolds dumped Dilmus James, Abilene, one up in 21 holes.

Leaders Discuss Scout Swim Meet

Members of Plainsman District Scout Leader's Round Table met Wednesday night at the Watermelon Patch on Nineteenth street and discussed the district scout swimming meet to be held at 7 p. m. July 27 in McKenzie State park, and the South Plains Council meet which is scheduled for August 12 at the same place.

The group also discussed Boy Scout exhibits for the South Plains fair.

Scout leaders attending the meeting were Bill Postma, Scout executive; Melvin Hoelcher, Troops 91 and 97; B. M. Pember, Troop 29; W. L. Sasser, Troop 2; Bill Dennis, Troop 9; William W. Dennis, Troop 9; L. B. Skinner, Troop ; W. A. Hood, Troop 5; Sam Henry, jr., Troop 3; Tom Kilpatrick, Troop 9; Jack R. Alexander, Troop 6; Vernon Bell, Troop 6; A. E. Dietering, Troop 10; L. G. Kammerdiener, Troop 9; and Frank Runkels.

Doctor Buys Lamesa Club

LAMESA, July 15. (Special)—Dr. O. L. McIlroy and his son Dale are the new owners of the Lamesa Loboes of the West Texas-New Mexico League, the sale being completed yesterday.

The purchase price was not announced by the selling Dan Y. Davis, principal stockholder, who bought the club with two associates before the start of the current season. Selling out at that time were Dr. Sam Frazier and Dr. Urban Zee.

The sale of the Loboes yesterday marks the fourth time since the WT-NM League resumed play in 1946 that the club has changed hands.

Dale McIlroy will be president of the organization and his father will serve as vice-president. The new owners expect to hire a business manager shortly.

Tony Fiarito, who succeeded George Sturdivant recently as manager, probably will remain as manager.

Only the ball players and the equipment were involved in the sale, the franchise remaining in the city. This is the same condition under which the club was sold in the past, the original contract stating that the franchise could not be moved to another city.

American Athletes Head For Olympics

ABOARD THE S. S. AMERICA En Route To England, July 15 (U.P.)—America's best amateur athletes carried high hopes over the high seas today as this luxury liner, the largest U. S. passenger ship, hastened them toward London and the Olympic games.

Only one day "out" from New York and still six days away from Southampton, most of the 260 olympians aboard were just getting acquainted and they were just about getting their "sea legs."

In the best physical condition and filled with confidence in their ability to dominate the games which begin on July 29, members of nearly all of the 14 teams represented here were content to spend their time loafing as the spacious liner sped over the Atlantic.

Omar (Bud) Browning, coach of the basketball squad, said his boys were "in fine shape" and deserved a rest on the ship.

"It's easy to get in condition in this hot weather," said the dapper young coach. "And, too, a rest will give some of the boys who lost weight because of the heat—Bob Kurland, Bob Carpenter, Wallace (Wah Wah) Jones, and Don Barksdale—a chance to gain it back."

California's lean and tall young men who will represent the U. S. in eight-oared rowing were more concerned about their favorite shell than anything else. The fragile craft received a nine-inch gash during loading, but the tear was not considered serious.

Bill Weidner Cops Match Over Carter

It took Boston Bill Weidner a fall to get started last night at Sled Allen's arena, but that was all, the Massachusetts strong boy returning to pin Jack Carter of New Zealand in the remaining brace of back-breakers.

Carter started the lively bout off by winning the first fall in 19 minutes with a step-over toe hold, but Boston Bill showing plenty of comeback and speed then applied a body pin and took the second fall in 11 minutes. One half minute later Weidner fought off the powerful grappling of the New Zealander and applying a series of uppercuts, kept Carter going. In another minute, Weidner applied a full nelson and threw Carter to the canvas, thus winning the action packed main event.

In the preliminary, George Curtis of Vicksburg, Miss., defeated Art Brady with a flying body scissor in 13 minutes of action.

White Sox Smother Red Sox By 27-14

The Cardinals battle the Tigers and the ABC's play the Methodist Men this afternoon at the Lubbock Boys club, as the PeeWee and American Legion Junior League teams resume diamond activities.

Yesterday the Red Sox were the victims of a White Sox attack that sank them under a 27-14 score in a Pee Wee League struggle. Harris and Shipp held the Red Sox pretty well under control, while their mates pounded the ball hard.

In the second game of the night, the Rotary Club trounced a favored Jaycee nine 13-8 in an American Legion Junior League contest.

George Harris had a single and a double in two times at bat, while his shipmate, Jerry Shipp banged out two doubles and a single in six times up at the plate For the hard fighting Red Sox nine, Kenneth Rhorer, Glen Higginbotham and Hugh Carlin each got two hits in five times up, but they just couldn't make it after the White Sox surged forward with what seemed to the losers, numberless runs.

In the second tilt, the Rotary's James Solley had a homer, a triple and two singles in five times up, and was followed by his teammate, Bill Lingle, who scored a triple and two singles in four times up. The Jaycees were paced by Ross Craig, who batted out two singles in four

Two games are on tap for this afternoon, with the Cardinals battling the Tigers in the Pee Wee League and the ABC's meeting Methodist Men in the Junior League tilt.

Jaycee Fight Card Complete; Louderman, Steen In Top Go

Middleweights and feather-weights will feature the principal bouts on the Junior Chamber of Commerce fight card, that will be unreeled Thursday night of next week at Rosenthal Field.

Billy Louderman and Howell Steen, a pair of middleweights, will be in the featured eight-round fight, while Jose Andres and Tony Olivas, featherweights, will be in the second eight-rounder.

The remainder of the card will contain three six-round fights and two four-round fights, a total of 42 rounds of boxing. This is two rounds less than originally scheduled, but another pair of good six-round fighters were not available.

Bert Kahn, promoter of the fights for the Jaycees, completed the card yesterday, signing contracts with Mickey Riley of Dallas and Dick Griffin of El Paso, promoters in those cities.

Kirkpatrick To Fight

J. D. Kirkpatrick of Petersburg, a light heavyweight, will meet Baltimore Hernandez, a better than fair light heavy, who has had considerable experience and who has a good record. Kirkpatrick, making his first start before South Plains fans as a pro, will have his hands full.

Bill Henderson of Levelland will meet Pancho Guzman, an able little featherweight with a good record. Dick Griffin, El Paso promoter, guarantees that Henderson will be given a rough fight by the popular little boxer.

The final six-rounder brings together Abner Bettingfield of Dallas and Kid Obregon of El Paso, two middleweights in what promises to be one of the best fights on the card. Both are experienced men and have fought throughout the Southwest extensively.

The second of two four-round fights brings together Johnny Brown of San Antonio and Skeets Gilbert of Dallas in the only welterweight fight on the card.

Music In Opener

The card opener pairs Joe Music, former Marine and Lubbock resident, against Tommy LeNoir, a Dallas boy, in the only heavyweight fight on the card. Music has had a good record in pro fights and has been an eight and ten-round fighter, while LeNoir is listed among the Texas heavyweights as a boy with a future.

Tickets for the fight are going rapidly, with only a few ringside seats and box seats left. Ticket booths were opened yesterday in Littlefield, Brownfield, Levelland and Petersburg, with special reserved and general admission tickets on sale.

A special stand for negroes has been reserved and they may purchase tickets at Goldstein's Drug store. Tickets went on sale there yesterday also.

Kilgore Continues Its Winning Streak

(By The Associated Press)

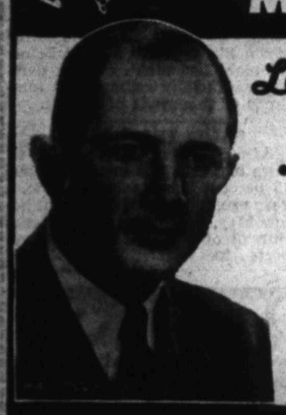

A 6-4 victory over Bryan last night ran the Kilgore Drillers' winning streak to six straight games in the Lone Star league and they retained a three-game advantage over second place Longview.

Longview cut loose against Gladewater, 14-5, and Marshall broke loose for a 13-0 decision over Tyler. Henderson defeated Lufkin twice, 8-5, 10-1.

Jap Teachers Play Hookey

TOKYO, July 15 (U.P.)—Japanese school children who play hookey have to be careful or they will run into their teachers at the swimming holes and pool halls.

The situation is deplorable, according to ministry of education officials, who made a private check on schools and found 40 per cent of the teachers absent.

In one prefecture, 60 per cent of the principals were playing hookey the day the officials dropped in unexpectedly.

It's probably embarrassing for all concerned when the teachers and pupils meet on the street during school hours. Of course, there always is the possibility that they got together in advance and decided to go to a ball game.

Parties Protested

High education officials give the teachers an "out" by suggesting that some of the instructors might have to skip school a few days each month and work at other jobs to make a living.

However, it is admitted that even school teachers probably don't like being indoors when the grass is green and the water in the village pond is warm.

The thing that really upsets the ministry of education officials is a report that teachers in one school have been throwing sake parties during school hours. Japanese sake is a potent rice wine that gets quick results when served hot.

Ministry of education officials said these sake parties have got to stop because it is undemocratic for women teachers to wait on male colleagues by serving drinks to them and "obeying their orders as though men were superior to women.

Home Looted

fellow Army Air base who took off in a training plane Wednesday and landed it 11 miles west of Plainview on the farm of his father had been charged with "unauthorized use of government property."

The charge was made by Goodfellow authorities against S/Sgt. Loyd C. Terrell, 25.

Terrell, it was announced, was being held under observation in the Goodfellow field hospital. He told officers that he was "despondent" when he took off in an AT-6.

After his arrest south of Abernathy by FBI Special Agent Curtis L. Perryman and State Highway Patrolman E. B. McKnight, both of Lubbock, he was delivered by state rangers to Capt. Lewis Blanchard, Goodfellow field provost marshal, who landed at South Plains Army Air field to accept custody.

Thefts From Cars Increase

A wave of thefts from parked vehicles was reported to city police Wednesday, police records showed.

Mrs. Robert Leftwich said that a flashlight, a camera and a lady's purse were taken from her car while it was parked in the 1200-block Texas Ave. A man picked up on suspicion of implication in the theft had in his possession a camera answering the description of the one stolen. He, 35, was fined $100 for drunkenness, police said.

J. F. Eartnman of 1105 Ave. L reported that a suit, five pairs of trousers and two jackets had been taken from his car in the 1100-block Ave. L.

Tools and other items valued at $20 were taken from a truck parked at 509 Broadway, Carl Goode of 1312 Thirty-third told police.

A bicycle belonging to Curtis Cannon, 1616 Twenty-fourth, was reported stolen at the City Swimming pool.

Claude J. Simpson, manager of Simpson's Nursery at 803 East Thirty-fourth (Slaton highway), reported to the sheriff's office last night that he had surprised a prowler in his home and scared him out. Nothing had been reported missing.

Mrs. C. L. Boyd, 2910 Twenty-first street, told city police that a yellow gold lady's wrist watch had been stolen from her home.

Billie L. Gibson, 22-year-old North Carolina man, posted bond of $1,500 Wednesday. He had been detained on a fugitive warrant sued out in the justice court of C. E. Lynn upon affidavit of Deputy Sheriff Earl Horton. Gibson is charged in Shelby, N. C., according to Horton's affidavit, with abandonment, non-support and assault. Complaining witness against him there was his wife.

Suspect Is Jailed In Roscoe Robbery

MIDLAND, June 15 (AP)—A 21-year-old man was arrested here today for questioning in connection with the robbery and shooting of R. P. Adams, sr., of Abilene by a hitchhiker near Roscoe Tuesday night.

Chief of Police Jack Ellington and Deputy Sheriffs Ed Edwards and Bill Felts arrested the man on Main street after being notified by Fort Worth officers to watch for a man of his description. Sheriff Nick Narrell of Colorado City said yesterday the man also was suspected of robbing a Fort Worth couple at Lake Worth Monday night.

The suspect spent last night here in the home of a half-brother. He was carrying a canvas bag containing a blood-stained white shirt and a copy of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram which carried a story of the robbery of Adams. Adams was shot through the arm with a .22 rifle.

Add diced frankfurter or crumbled bacon and slices of hard-cooked egg to potato salad when it is to be the main luncheon or supper dish; mix the frankfurter or bacon right into the salad with the dressing and celery, but use the hard-cooked egg sliced as a garnish.

Daily Markets

Stock Market

MARKET REELS TODAY

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Heavy selling sent the stock market reeling downward in the last few minutes of trading today.

Closing prices were of fractions to as much as 4 points. Rails, steels and oils took the worst licking.

Selling orders came in so fast that for minutes on end the high-speed ticker tape ran behind floor transactions by as much as 2 minutes.

In the minus column were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, General Motors, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Texas Gulf Sulphur, and Atlantic Coast Line.

Aircraft issues headed upward for a while but later fell back. Curtiss-Wright, though, retained a fractional lead.

Grain Market

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, July 15 (AP)—Wheat No. 1 hard, according to protein and filing 2.34 ½-38 ½.

Barley No. 2 1.58-62, nominal.

Oats No. 2 white 1.59 ½-11 ½.

Corn No. 2 yellow 2.44-46.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs 2.88-90.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—Grains mostly inched ahead on the board of trade today. The July corn contract spurted nearly 3 cents at one time, but then lost part of its gain. Otherwise, price changes were not of much important in wheat, corn or oats.

Buying by northwestern milling interests supported wheat. Nearby corn deliveries were aided by strength in the cash market. Oats were steady in view of small offerings of new crop cash grain on a to-arrive basis. Rye staged a technical come-back after recent weakness.

Wheat closed ½ lower to ⅝ higher, July $2.27 ⅝, corn was ½ lower to 1½ higher, July $2.12-$2.11 ¼, oats were ½-1 ½ Higher, July 90-90 ⅜, rye was 1 cent to 1¼ higher, December $1.88 ¾, and soybeans were 5 ¾-7 ½ lower, July $3.80.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 15 (AP)—Cotton futures declined here today under long liquidation and hedge selling. Closing prices were barely steady $1.30 to $1.45 a bale lower.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Cotton futures drifted lower in slow featureless dealings today. Scattered hedging and local selling met only scale-down mill demand and little New Orleans buying. Traders were hesitant, pending the development of new business in exports, or some change in the present favorable outlook for the new cotton crop.

Sales of new crop cotton remained small and not in sufficient volume to have much influence on the futures market.

Congress To Meet On "Turnip Day"

WASHINGTON, July 15 (U.P.) President Truman puzzled a lot of his listeners last night at the Democratic convention when he referred to July 26 as "turnip day."

Mr. Truman will call the 80th Congress into special session on July 26. He told the convention delegates that was "turnip day."

It was not until the President returned home at dawn that he explained the phrase.

He said that in his part of Missouri, all the farmers plant turnips on July 26. Hence, his statement, "turnip day."

Pershing Dies

1917. Pershing had warned that the United States might become embroiled in a second European war as early as April 1937.

Should Be Prepared

At that time, he said:

"In view of world conditions today, the United States should be prepared to mobilize half a million men at once, completely equipped with the most modern arms and fully supplied in every particular. With this army of 500,000 the nation could deal with its enemy while the great civilian army was being trained."

After this country went to war with Germany and Japan in 1941, the general, old and feeble, followed day-to-day developments closely from his hospital room, paying particular attention to "my boys"—who included, beside Marshall, Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower and George S. Patton, jr.

Born Sept. 13, 1860, Pershing graduated from West Point when he was 26. He became a second lieutenant in the Sixth U. S. Cavalry in July of that year.

His appointment as general of the armies was confirmed by the Senate 23 years later. Between those two dates, Pershing served in such military engagements as the Apache campaign in New Mexico and Arizona in 1886, the Sioux campaign four years later, the Spanish American war of 1898 and the Filipino insurrection in 1913.

His appointment to the command of the American Expeditionary Force in 1917 was preceded the year before by command of the U. S. forces sent into Mexico after the bandit Chief Pancho Villa.

In Hot Dispute

Pershing took personal command of the American troops sent to France in World war I, and immediately became involved in a hot dispute with other Allied commanders, who wanted to break up the American army and use it to reinforce the French and British armies wherever necessary.

The American general flatly refused to let his troops lose their identity—a position for which he still was under attack 20 years later from such men as Lloyd George, wartime British prime minister.

Pershing became chief of staff after the first World war in 1921. Three years later, at the age of 64, he retired.

Flag At Half-Staff

The American flag was dropped to half-staff throughout the capital as a grateful nation prepared to accord highest honors to one of its greatest military heroes.

In response to Pershing's longtime wish, he will be buried Monday in Arlington national military cemetery where lie so many of his comrades-in-arms.

But before the body is borne across the Potomac to the rolling Arlington hills, it will be taken to the capitol to lie in state on a catafalque originally built for the remains of George Washington.

Pershing's body will lie in state in the capitol rotunda on Sunday and on Monday morning until 11 a. m. CST.

At that hour a formal procession will escort the body through the capital to the Arlington amphitheatre—resting place of the unknown soldier. There services will be held at 2 p. m.

Berlin Crisis

British made 249 flights with 1,196 tons.

"We Will Remain"

A foreign office spokesman said flatly:

"It is our firm and unshakeable intention to remain in Berlin."

Answering a United Press reporter's question after his regular noon press conference, the spokesman said it could be stated that there would bo no backing down from Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's recent promise to the House of Commons that the British will remain in Berlin.

The United States and France will take the same stand in reply to the "unsatisfactory" Russian answer to western demands that the surface blockade be lifted immediately.

Appeal To Stalin

Informed sources meanwhile foresaw the possibility of another note or notes from the western powers to the Kremlin, this time perhaps an appeal direct to Stalin.

"Stalin made the deal with us in 1945 for the western withdrawal of troops around Berlin," an informant said. "Now Mr. Molotov (Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov) is repudiating it.

"It would certainly be logical to carry the case to the Russian 'court of last resort' before turning to other action."

Truman Defeat

tion session which saw half the Alabama delegation and all the Mississippi group pick up their standards and march out of the convention.

The dramatic walkout climaxed three days of noisy, but futile, protest by the disgruntled southerners. They had been beaten at every turn. Their states rights proposal was shouted down. Their plea for a mild civil rights plank was shoved aside and their demand for a two-thirds rule was rejected. Their effort to stop Mr. Truman's nomination was buried under a landslide.

Start Of Roll Call

The walkout by 13 Alabama and 22 Mississippians came right at the start of the roll call of the states for the nomination of candidates.

Handy Ellis, chairman of the Alabama delegation, rose when his state was reached in the roll call.

Fourteen Alabama delegates, he said, were pledged to walk out in event the civil rights program was approved. One delegate was not present. The other 13, he said, were under the "painful necessity" of leaving.

Young Lubbock Woman Wins Vacation Trip To Bermuda

A talented young Lubbock woman, Mrs. Elisabeth Stanton, 2324 Broadway, will visit Bermuda in September on an all-expense paid vacation made possible because she was one of two winners of a song contest sponsored by Hollywood Association of Screen Writers. Initial notice of the honor was received this morning and details are to follow.

The contest was limited to members of the association which placed Mrs. Stanton's name on permanent membership because of her song, "O, Mister Owl." She is author of four other published compositions, "Aloha Gave Me You," "If I Had a Million Hearts," "My Man Don't Care' and "Lost Beguine.'

Two California publishing houses have invited Mrs. Stanton to be their guest during August. In Hollywood she will meet Bob Carleton, who has set her lyrics to music.

A book of poems, "The Singing Heart" is to be published by Exposition Press in November and editors have written Mrs. Stanton they are planning an autographing party for her.

White House Ladies Accompany President

Mrs. Truman Appeared Calm While Husband Made Speech

By BETTY HEINEMAN

United Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. — Maybe Bess Truman didn't cry but you could see her eyes glisten all the way across the platform when Chairman Sam Rayburn said he took great pride in introducing the Democratic nominee for president.

The woman who was the only girl Harry Truman ever had isn't emotional. But the mistiness was there, even though she seemed unruffled in what must have been the proudest moment of her life. Margaret Truman looked proud and happy.

Both of the White House ladies appeared calm and cool despite a wilting five-hour wait before they went on stage at Convention hall in the early hours of today.

They did everything they were evpected to do, a little shyly, but graciously. Only once was the first lady at a loss. As she followed her husband out onto the speaker's platform, she paused uncertainly at the half-way point and asked "What do I do now?"

Told to follow the President, she stepped forward and smiled an acknowledgment to the cheers as her husband took her arm.

Once over the first excitement both Mrs. Truman and Margaret looked curiously at the balcony and crowded auditorium floor.

Margaret Enjoyed Show

Margaret obviously was enjoying the whole show. She smiled and chatted, betraying nervousness only when a sharp bang of the gavel startled her.

Back in their seats, Mrs. Truman and Margaret fanned themselves and tried to keep cool while they listened to the President accept the nomination.

Mrs. Truman kept her eyes on her husband most of the time. Margaret listened to her father's talk but found time to chat behind her fan with young Mrs. Max Truitt, daughter of the vice-presidential nominee, Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky.

For the women it had been a long evening. They did their pretty-ing up on the train enroute to Philadelphia.

Time Dragged In Office

Time dragged when they got to the small, sweltering office where they awaited the call of the convention.

So Mrs. Truman and Margaret joined the Democratic presidential and vice-presidential nominees outside the hall. They sat in a women's group, chatting with Washington social hostess, Mrs. Perle Mesta. The talk was mostly about clothes.

By the time they finally got to the platform, Margaret's sand-colored linen jacket was a bit mussed but her green print dress showed no mark of the wait and the weather. Mrs. Truman was clad in a black faille suit with black accessories.

Gifts Continue For Blind Boy In City

Evidences of interest in the 13-year-old blind boy, Charles Ray Isbell, who considers blindness a "minor physical difficulty" continued today, with the total raised in a fund for Braille editions of books and other needed items reaching $178.60 and the boy reporting two additional offers of records.

Contributions have been:

|---|---|
| Anonymous | $ 2.00 |
| Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kratzer | 10.00 |
| Previously reported | 166.60 |
| Total | $178.60 |

The boy has received two offers of records in addition to five gifts of several records each he had received earlier this week. One of the latest offers was from a woman who said she would send a new selection of records to him each week, replacing those left the previous week each time.

The boy expressed happiness today over amount of the fund, which will pay for the books he has chosen, with money left over. He will buy clothes and may use some of it to buy a cabinet for his records. The fund received in the Avalanche-Journal editorial department will be closed when payment is made for books and shipping charges. The remainder will be given to the boy. W. C. Cole has ordered the books.

Texas Floral Meet Will Close Tonight

SAN ANTONIO, July 15. (AP)—The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Texas Floral association, the largest ever to be held by the organization, will come to a close tonight.

Three candidates were still in the race Thursday afternoon for election to president. They were Harold Kayton, San Antonio; E. H. Bradshaw, Galveston and Mrs. Sally Sampson, Fort Worth.

Although the final choice of the 1949 convention was not decided early Thursday, indications show that Fort Worth will win over Galveston.

Blood Bank Needs Stressed At Meet

The need for continuing cooperation, and for additional donors to the Red Cross blood bank here was stressed by speakers and through a short film at the luncheon of the Kiwanis club today at Hotel Lubbock.

The program, introduced by John Halsey, chairman, was in charge of Ruel Martin, who said that in the last six days 66 donors, including six emergencies, had cleared the blood bank, and that 35 pints of blood had been delivered to hospitals for use there.

Mrs. W. P. Agee discussed details of the blood bank operations, citing it as a continuing program that must have public cooperation. She said the program here is the only one she knows of in the nation that is set up strictly on a volunteer basis. All workers are volunteers.

W. C. O'Mara, chairman of the county Red Cross chapter, said the blood bank program means much to the community, and he urged continuing cooperation.

Congress Call

the constitution.

"Some of the members of my own party disagree violently on this matter but they stand up and do it openly. People can tell where we stand. The Republicans all profess to be for these matters, but the 80th Congress failed to act.

"They had enough men and they had cloture (a rule under which Senate debate can be gagged to shut off a filibuster.) There were enough people that would vote for cloture."

Confident Of Victory

Declaring at the start that "Senator Barkley and I will win this election and make these Republicans like it," Mr. Truman said the special session will show whether the Republicans "can fool the people with such poppycock" as he said was in their platform.

As his party members thundered their approval, the President told the delegates:

"Now, what that worst 80th Congress does in this special session will be the test. The American people will not decide by listening to mere words or by reading a mere platform.

"They will decide on the record, the record as it has been written, and in the record is the stark truth that the battle lines of 1948 are the same as they were back in 1932 when the nation lay helpless and prostrate as a result of the Republican inaction."

Renounces Last Doubt

This removed the last doubt that the President intends to make the record of Congress the full keynote of his campaign against Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

His call for the special session, the President moved the opening scene of the campaign to familiar grounds in Washington where he speaks not only as a candidate but as President.

At the same time, however, Mr. Truman laid himself and his administration open to daily onslaughts from Republican lawmakers.

Whatever the outcome, Mr. Truman was credited by many of his admirers with having dealt a strong and double-fisted political stroke. Its apparent aim: to blot out the record of the last-ditch Dixie fight against his nomination and to put the Republicans on the defensive.

Republicans Taunted

Mr. Truman got his best reaction from the steamy, crowded convention hall when he sailed into the Republicans in his speech.

There were cries of "pour it on" as he declared that the Republicans had said that prices would adjust themselves if OPA were killed and added:

"They have adjusted themselves all right. They have gone all the way off the start in adjusting themselves at the expense of the consumer and for the benefit of the people that hold the goods."

Taunting the Republicans about their promises, the President said the opposition party in Congress had "torn up" the Labor department.

The southerners were grim as he gave full fledged approval to the platform's call for repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor act.

He said he would ask Congress for action on aid to education, a national health program, civil rights legislation and extension of social security coverage "which they say they are for."

He also will ask, Mr. Truman said, for an increase in the 40-cent-an-hour minimum wage "which I doubt very much they are for."

Mr. Truman lost little time in getting back to the capital after his speech. His special train pulled into Washington at 4:10 a. m. (CST).

Despite the hour, aides said the President would meet with his staff at the usual 10 a. m. They added that the formal call for the special session will be ready within 36 hours.

Anti-Polio Cleanup Conducted By Town

DUBLIN, July 15 (U.P.) — The town of Dublin closed shop today for a general anti-polio cleanup.

Four cases of polio, one fatal, have occurred in recent weeks. nearly all the residents of this town of some 4,000 persons were engaged in the voluntary campaign to clean up and spray DDT.

By noon, Mayor D. R. Franks estimated that some 80 truckloads of debris and junk had been dumped.

A cleanup was started in the town about two weeks ago after a father and his infant son became ill with polio, but Mayor Franks said "it looked like we weren't getting along so well with these two latest cases being reported, so we just decided upon a general cleanup."

Negro Leader Hails Stand Of Democrats

NEW YORK, July 15. (AP)—A negro leader said today that adoption of the civil rights plank by the Democratic convention yesterday "marks the greatest turning point for the South and for America, which has occurred since the Civil war."

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association For the Advancement of Colored people, said in a statement: "Real Americanism won at Philadelphia yesterday."

White said "in sheer self-defense the South is going to find new political leadership to replace that which disgraced the South in fighting civil rights."

PLAN NO EXPANSION

WASHINGTON, July 15. (AP)—No expansion is planned at Fort Sill, Okla., as a result of the new selective service training program, the army said today.

Brown-Eyed Little Girl In Hospital Bed Doesn't Know What Happened To Parents

WACO, July 15. (U.P.) — The brown-eyed little girl awoke in a hospital bed, her legs supported by ropes.

Then five-year-old Ann McCowan asked to see her mommy.

Hospital attendants told Ann her mother was in another room. She too was unable to walk, they said.

Little Ann wasn't worried about her daddy. She reasoned that "this hospital is just for ladies, so daddy must be in a man's hospital."

In about a month, Ann won't have to have her legs supported by the ropes anymore. She will start wearing a cast.

But that doesn't worry her either. People have been so nice to her. They have sent all sorts of presents—candy, ice cream, cookies, and even a doll buggy and a tricycle.

When the month is over, she and her two sisters and brothers will go to live with their grand parents. But Ann doesn't know about that yet.

For she hasn't been told that her mommy and daddy were killed in an automobile accident July 4.

Fingers Were Burned To Teach Him Lesson

Child Spared Ordeal Of Telling How He Was Tortured As Mother Goes To Jail

LAWTON, Okla., July 15 (U.P.)— A four-year-old boy today was spared the ordeal of telling in court how his mother burned his fingers in order to teach him not to play with matches.

The youngster, along with two younger brothers, was placed in custody of county court while the mother, 23-year-old Mary Ann Yates, headed for jail after pleading guilty to other charges —prostitution.

Charge Is Lodged

The prostitution count was lodged against the mother yesterday after she had been arrested on the complaint of neighbors who saw the boy's little fingers deliberately scorched with fire.

A 15-year-old aunt of the boy was held today for juvenile proceedings. She was arrested with his mother but denied having helped hold the youngster while the inhuman punishment was inflicted.

County Attorney G. K. Rhoads agreed to a one-year prostitution sentence for the Yates woman after deciding that the youngster should not have to testify against his mother.

The boy had told officers that both his mother and aunt, who served as a sitter while the mother absented herself from home, had a part in the finger burning.

"She tell me no, no, not to light matches, then she burned my fingers," the tot related after sympathetic officers had bought him ice cream and had bandaged his fingers.

Jury Finds For Two Of Four Plaintiffs

A 99th district court jury that reported at 7:25 p. m. Wednesday to Judge G. V. Pardue its answers to 30 special issues in the Rice against Rice partition and accounting action apparently found for two of the four plaintiffs and against the other two, court officials said.

The case was brought by Olen E. Rice and others against Mrs. Eva M. Rice, individually and as executrix under the will of the late C. E. Rice, and her eight sons and daughters.

The jury, of which J. C. Coe was foreman, found for plaintiffs Olan Edward Rice and Willie Mae Rice Muller, and against claims of plaintiffs Jewel Rice Smith and Daisey Rice Thomas, it was interpreted.

It found that Charles L. Rice, a son of Mrs. Eva Rice, made false representations to the four plaintiffs while negotiating with them for their signatures on deeds, and found that he knew his representations were false. But, the jury found, two of the plaintiffs did not believe such statements and did not execute the deeds because of such statements.

The jury also found that Mrs. Rice, as trustee under the will, while acting through Charles L. Rice, failed to disclose to the plaintiffs, sons and daughters of the late Mr. Rice by a former marriage, the extent and interest they had in the estate of their father at or prior to execution and delivery of deeds from plaintiffs to the property. But, the jury found, such failure did not induce two of the plaintiffs to sign, but did induce the other two.

The jury found that a house occupied by Mrs. Rice, together with 80 acres of land in evidence, is not a rural homestead, but is urban property.

Bond Of $2,500 Set In Murder Complaint

Bond of $2,500 for 23-year-old Sandra Bitela, charged Sunday with murder with malice in the Nov. 9 slaying of Ignacio Lopez, a South Texas Mexican, at 1008 Sanders, has been set "by agreement," C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, announced this afternoon.

At an examination hearing Monday, Justice Lynn had ordered the cafe operator held in denial of bail.

Her attorney, George McCarty of Amarillo, conferred here Wednesday with E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, and arrangements to allow bail followed to avoid habeas corpus proceedings, it was learned. Lynn said he understood bond would be certified by the Potter county sheriff's department.

The case will be investigated by an Aug. 9 grand jury to report to 72nd District Judge Dan Blair.

Complete Inquiry In Houston's Recent Meat Scandal Ordered

HOUSTON, July 15 @—Houston's recent horse meat scandal, which has thus far resulted in indictments against 17 city meatpackers, boomeranged into the city health department today with an official order for a complete investigation.

Mayor Oscar Holcombe late yesterday named a committee to leal the investigation, which he ordered to scrutinize the department "from top to bottom."

Will Report Back

Its members are Councilmen W. A. Kirkland and Clyde Fitzgerald and City Attorney Walter E. Boyd. They will report back to the mayor within a 30-day period.

Concluding a regular council session yesterday, Holcombe surprised his aides by demanding "a complete and thorough investigation." He urged the committee to decide "if further dismissals are needed and if a reorganization of the health department is necessary."

Councilman Fitzgerald, an announced candidate for mayor, said after the grand jury handed out its first indictments in the meat situation he would "demand" an investigation of the city health department.

Inspector Ousted

The inquiry was brought about by the horse meat scandal, Holcombe explained, which, in turn, resulted in the firing of Dr. E. L. Lepon, city veterinarian and chief meat inspector.

Lepon was dismissed Monday after such action was recommended in a report by J. F. Lakey, food and drug director of the state health department.

Dr. Lepon promptly announced he would demand a public hearing on the charges that led to his dismissal, and that he would also demand that Lakey be present at the hearing.

Today, however, attorneys for Lepon announced he was dropping his plans to fight the dismissal. In a formal statement, Lepon said his wife's health had forced abandonment of his plans to contest the city's action.

Dakota Women Rise Up In Arms To Gain Rights In Politics

BISMARK, N. D., July 15 (U.P.) North Dakota women admit it's their own fault that more members of their sex are not represented in state administrative offices.

When Hettie Blythe, past president of the state Business and Professional Women's clubs, can take time off from her classes at Valley City State Teachers college, she is going to present Gov. Fred Aandahl with a "Who's Who Among Women in North Dakota."

List Compiled

The list, composed of names submitted by the state's business and professional women, has been compiled. It contains the names of more than 50 of the state's most outstanding women deemed eligible to administrative posts in state government.

Several other women's clubs in the state, including the University Women and P. E. O. Sisters, have prepared similar lists for distribution among state department heads.

The idea developed when the governor was asked why he didn't appoint a woman to fill a vacancy on the state board of administration.

Aandahl was quoted as admitting that he "wasn't too familiar with the talents of North Dakota women."

Women Scout Talent

That's when women club leaders went into a huddle and decided to turn talent scouts.

Miss Helen Iorns of the state department of instruction, who is state chairman of the "Business and Professional Women's Policy Making Posts for Women Committee," immediately ordered a survey within the ranks of her organization.

"It was amazing to see how many illustrious names were submitted," she said. She added:

"I only hope the men don't make fun of us. We are serious. We feel we have many women in the state who would do better in some administrative posts than men."

Infant That Almost Died Quits Hospital

FORT WORTH, July 15 (U.P.) — Jonna Lynn Dalton, 2-year-old girl who lay lifeless June 25 for 10 minutes on the operating table, was going home today to Graham.

A surgeon massaged the child's heart and started it beating again during an operation on an infected lung, caused when the child swallowed a blade of grass.

She has not recovered fully but hospital attendants said she was well enough to stand the trip.

Victim Of Japanese Booby Trap Says That He's Pretty Lucky After All

By JACK GATES
United Press Staff Writer

NEW ORLEANS, July 15. — A Japanese booby trap that blew off four fingers and almost blinded him put Joe Hattier, a former plumber's helper, in a "strange and beautiful world I might have never known." It is the world of music.

Joe is a piano player and the people who have heard him in concert say he is good, although he is minus a fourth finger on his left hand, half of his thumb, index and third fingers.

Before the war, Joe was a plumber's helper at a dollar an hour. He had 20-20 vision and 10 fingers.

Now he's going to be a music teacher.

Joe, who at 21 is a philosopher, believes he's better off in many ways for having picked up that Japanese booby trap while serving with a demolition detail in the Philippines.

Concert Is Success

"If things hadn't happened the way they did I'd probably still be a plumber's helper at a dollar an hour," he says. "I might never have had a chance to find out I could play the piano, and how much I'd enjoy it."

Recently the New Orleans Opera Guild, which has sponsored many talented young artists, presented Joe in concert. He was a hit.

His success story is that of a guy who forgets the bad breaks and plays up the good ones. The good breaks he talks about are a WAC sergeant who got him interested in music, a training officer who had faith in him, and the law that made it possible for him to go ahead in the field he liked best.

When Joe was wounded they put him in a hospital in Japan, then sent him to California. There he was told he'd never see again. But before he left he regained a little vision in one eye, enough to lead the other blinded veterans to chow, and he discovered the hobby that would become his vocation.

Memorizes Scores

Alvina Valles, Joe's teacher, says he has a photographic mind. "I made up special scores for him, white notes on black paper, so he can see them," Valles said. But he can't see so well, so he just looks a couple of times and then memorizes them.

"Only one time Joe gave me any trouble. For a few months before he got married, he couldn't get things straight. Soon as he got married he was okay."

Joe says his marriage has made his happiness complete, but he admits his wife has one complaint.

"When we go to the movies," he grinned. "I have to sit in the first row. She says she comes out crosseyed. But I'm lucky . . . I can't see well enough to be bothered by it."

Christian Formula Urged As Guide By Business Executive

CINCINNATI, O., July 15 (U.P.)—Young men interested in becoming "contented millionaires" are advised by Donald MacDonald to share their profits with their employes, don't cheat business partners or competitors, and behave "like a Christian instead of a pagan."

MacDonald, who is executive secretary of the Christian Business Men's Committee, likes to point to half a dozen or more widely-known millionaires in the CBMC as proof of the success of the formula.

The CBMC was organized 11 years ago in Chicago by a group of industrialists who were worried about the methods of modern business men.

Many of the members have daily prayer services in their offices and factories at which employers and employes gather to "ask God to show us the right way to do business." Such practices, MacDonald said, have made it possible for CBMC members to avoid strikes and labor troubles that in the past seemed "unavoidable."

Has 10,000 Members

"You can't go wrong when you make God your business partner," he added.

The CBMC has 10,000 members in such widely scattered areas as the Philippines, England, Canada, China, New Zealand and the United States. They recruit new members by inviting fellow-business men to lunch because "a lot of men will refuse to go to church with you, but not many turn down a free lunch."

Robert G. Le Fournea, president of an internationally known firm which builds land-leveling and scraping machines, is international president of the group. Officers and committee members include a diamond merchant, an attorney, a bank president, a doctor and the president of a lumber firm.

The officers and their committees visit prisons, support camps for boys and girls, teach and help support Sunday schools, and even preach on street corners to encourage people to "learn to give to God so you in turn will receive."

Long before construction was finished, the Leaning Tower of Pisa developed its list.

Open House To Be Held Tonight By Park Place Firms

Operators of 15 businesses located in Park Place, Avenue M and Nineteenth street, have banded together for a formal opening, set between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock tonight.

The street will be roped off in the vicinity of the modernistic community center. Refreshments will be served, an orchestra will furnish popular music and visitors will be conducted through the various offices and business places in the center.

From time to time, radio broadcasts will be made from the party on all three local stations.

Oklahoma Delegates Head Back For Home

PHILADELPHIA, July 15. (AP)—Oklahoma's Democratic convention delegates tucked their 24 nominating votes in President Truman's pocket and headed home today.

Many were travelling by a special train scheduled to leave here at 4 p. m. (CST). Gov. Roy Turner said he expects to fly to Oklahoma City either Friday or Saturday.

While the delegation sat quietly through most of the convention, it let off some steam in the Truman demonstration, with Gov. Turner carrying the state standard and other delegates whooping it up in the parade.

"Moderate" Quake Is Recorded Today

There was an earthquake of moderate proportion somewhere within 7,000 kilometers (roughly 4,000 miles) of Lubbock on a general north-south line shortly before breakfast-time this morning.

At least that's what the seismometers at the new Texas Tech seismological observatory indicate. The seismometers began recording earthquake waves on the north-south component at seven minutes after 5 o'clock Lubbock time today, and continued to do so for 26 minutes.

Leroy T. Patton, professor of geology who is in charge of the new observatory, explained that since the waves came in on the north-south component, the quake would have to lie in one of those two directions, and indicated that south would be the most likely of the two, but that preliminary figures on the recordings gave no certainty whatsoever of the location of the disturbance.

QUAKE IS RECORDED AT JOHN CARROLL U.

CLEVELAND, July 15 (U.P.) — A "moderate" earthquake, probably off the west coast of Mexico, was recorded today at the John Carroll university seismograph.

Officials said the quake, which was some 2,500 miles distant from Cleveland, was first recorded at 7:09 a. m. It was believed the tremor was not strong enough to cause a tidal wave and that it would do little, if any damage.

JEWS HAMMER HOLY CITY AREA

Arabs In Nazareth Almost Surrounded

(By The Associated Press)

CAIRO, July 15. — The Jews said today Israeli troops have encircled Nazareth from three sides and struck heavy blows at Arab armies in the Jerusalem area.

Both the Jews and Arabs seemed cool to the idea of a new United Nations truce in their Palestine war.

Jewish sources in Haifa said Israeli units now were within striking distance of Nazareth, main northern Palestine base of Fawzi Pasha Al Kaukji's irregular Arab volunteer army.

Arab Forces Threatened

A dispatch from Jewish-held modern Jerusalem said Israeli forces struck triple hammer blows at Arab armies around the Holy City in the 12 hours ended at noon yesterday.

A later report from the Arab-controlled old city said the Arab legion and tribal riflemen of Trans-Jordan had started a fight for Mount Zion south of the walls. Jewish positions on the mount threaten the Arab left flank.

A high Israeli army officer in Jerusalem asked: "What do we want with a truce?" An unofficial Jewish spokesman said: "We will accept any truce, of course, but we are disheartened at the prospects of a United Nations truce coming to the aid of Arabs just when we are beginning to get results from our offensives."

Truce Talk Ignored

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary-general of the Arab League, said here the Arab countries were not giving in to pressure put on them by the Western powers to renew the four-week truce that expired last Friday. He said the pressure had been "particularly exerted on Trans-Jordan."

The Jewish informants in Haifa said the Israeli encirclement of Nazareth was brought about by the capture Tuesday night and yesterday of Shafa 'Amr, 11 miles northwest of there; El Mujeidil, four miles southwest, and Ein Mahil, three miles east.

Day-long shelling and Israeli air action preceded final occupation of the three villages, they said, and Arab soldiers fled before the advance.

The informants added that the Jews were closing in speedily on Nazareth.

Siam Preparing For Cremation Ceremonies Of Slain Monarch

BANGKOK, July 15 (U.P.)—Announcement that King Phumiphon Aduldej has been invited to preside over the cremation rites for his late brother has set in motion preparations for a ceremony which has remained unchanged since the 13th Century. The royal cremation has tentatively been set for next November.

The remains of King Ananada Mahidol have lain in state at the palace since shortly after his mysterious shooting in June, 1946.

Buddhist authorities soon will begin selection of teak from virgin forests in the northern provinces of Siam to be used in the construction of the funeral pyre. The pyre, called a Phra Mehru, is symbolic of Mount Mehru, the traditional home of the deities, Vishnu and Indhra.

The pyre will be erected on the large ground facing the famed temple of the Emerald Buddha in Bangkok.

Limes Contain Treasure

After the pyre has been placed on the grounds, Buddhist leaders will supervise the erection of a throne for the present king and platforms for ranking nobles and religious dignitaries.

At the four corners of the grounds, platforms will be erected on which stand artificial trees from which hollow wooden replicas of limes will hang. The wooden fruit will contain coins and notes which will authorize possession of certain lands, boats and houses in the kingdom and will be distributed among those attending the royal cremation. Notes will be redeemed by the national treasury. One of the most important parts of the ceremony is the kindling of the Sacred Fire. According to ancient tradition, this fire should be started with lightning but in modern practice, a glass is used to magnify the heat of the sun's rays. In that manner, "a pure flame from the heavens" is obtained to set fire to the funeral pyre.

Final preparations for the cremation include the opening of the outer and inner urns in which the remains of the king have been placed. Silken robes and gold ornaments will be removed from the body on the morning of the cremation.

Coconut Water Used

The king and members of the royal family will sprinkle the remains of the late king with coconut water. The remains will then be wrapped in a white cloth and returned to the urn.

A grand procession will escort the royal urn to the cremation pyre, the king will take his place on the throne. The prince patriarch will preach to the asembled people and the 50 Buddhist lord abbots will chant prayers. At the conclusion of this portion of the rites, the king will mount the pyre carrying a wax taper, a stick of incense and a sandal flower, all lighted from the Sacred Fire. Members of the nobility will follow him in order of their rank.

At night, the king will light the pyre and it will smoulder until morning. Then the fire will be extinguished by consecrated water, symbolic of the rain which extinguished the pyre of the Lord Buddha.

The royal ashes then will be gathered and formed in the shape of a body. The head will be placed first toward the east, then to the west, and back again to the east, symbolic of the birth, death, and rebirth, similar to the rising, setting and rising again of the sun.

Finally, the ashes will be placed in a golden urn and returned to the palace, where they will remain.

ROPESVILLE, July 15 (Special)—The body of Miles Edd Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Evans of Ropesville, was scheduled to arrive in Lubbock this morning from the Fort Worth depot of the American Graves Registration service.

Young Evans, 23 at the time of his death, was killed while serving with the U. S. Army in France on Sept. 11, 1944. Funeral services will be held at the Ropesville First Baptist church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon with Rev. Vic Allen, pastor, scheduled to officiate. Interment will be here, and graveside military rites are pending.

Survivors include his mother and father, a son, Miles Edd., jr., five sisters, Miss Frances Evans of Lubbock, Mrs. Lolla Floy Yeager of Brownfield, and Gertrude, Nelda and Vaunie Evans, all of Ropesville, and two brothers, E. P. Evans of Houston and Kenneth Evans of Ropesville.

From Doorknobs To Canvas Is Logical Step For New Artist

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 15—Beatrice Lillie, the comedienne, has blossomed out as a painter of lilacs, geraniums and delphinium.

She discloses that she got her artistic start by decorating doorknobs in her country place in Surrey.

Miss Lillie, giving way to an urge to fill her country place with gaily painted knobs instead of the drab ones she was using, went to an ironmongers to place an order. There she discovered they had quit selling them during the reign of Queen Victoria.

So she took her brown knobs, dipped them in white paint, hung them out to dry and later covered them with sprays of forget-me-nots and other assorted flowers. The doorknobs presumably are lying where she left them. She decided at that point that she was an artist, went back to town and began painting on canvas.

Only Flowers So Far

Thus far she has painted only flowers, either in pots or spread out on a table. She prefers the pots because so far she hasn't learned how to paint a table. "Mine simply look as if they were hanging in space," she said. Some of the pots also look as if they were hanging in space.

Thus far she has about 20 paintings to her credit and hopes to give a one-woman exhibition for charity when she gets enough. That will be difficult because she rather absent-mindedly gives them away to almost anybody who admires them.

Sometimes she forgets to sign them and the recipient usually brings them back to be autographed.

Miss Lillie has been hung once, in Hollywood, where she exhibited a painting of blossoms off a tree—they were pink and white and she isn't sure what kind of a tree they came from. She signed that one "Blossoms by Daisy Peel" but no one knew who Daisy Peel was and she put her other name on it. (Miss Lillie in private is Lady Peel.)

Part Of U. N. Appeal

The blossoms were part of a United Nations appeal for a children's exhibition in Hollywood, where she learned to her horror, she says, that nearly everyone painted better than she did.

Miss Lillie thinks she will do better when she gets some more paint brushes. Now she has only one which she dips variously in different colors, achieving a rather blurred effect which is considered excellent modern art because it isn't at all photographic.

She usually does her painting at night after performing in the Broadway revue "Inside U. S. A." She has no easel and paints while sitting on the floor with the canvas in one hand and the lone brush in the other. Her latest achievement is a painting of some lilacs which she says would "look good in a dark corner."

WEST TEXAS ADDRESS SOUGHT

Dewey Is Invited To Visit Lubbock

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for president, has been asked to come to Lubbock for a major West Texas address in his campaign, W. C. Briggs of Paducah, member of the Texas State Republican Executive committee for the 30th district, said here Wednesday.

"I have asked Gov. Dewey to come to Lubbock for a major address," Briggs said, "and I have high hopes that his itinerary on one of his tran-continental tours can be arranged to include Lubbock on his route."

Warren May Make Visit

Briggs, who was the lone Texan to cast his vote for Dewey in the 1940 Republican National convention, returned to his home last Thursday after a conference of Republican leaders with Gov. Dewey in New York earlier in the week.

"If Gov. Dewey can't give us the date, I feel quite certain we can get Gov Warren here for an address," Briggs said. He said no definite commitment had been made on Texas appearances, but he (Briggs) had especially asked that Gov. Dewey speak at San Antonio and Lubbock.

"On account of my long friendship with Gov. Dewey, I believe he will make an effort to come out here," Briggs added. "He feels confident that he will be able to crack the 'Solid South' in this year's campaign and high hopes that both Texas and North Carolina will be over in the Republican column."

Vaughan, Brownell Friends

Briggs said John L. Vaughan, Lubbock county Republican chairman, was also another original Dewey man.

"I want you to say Mr Vaughan's organization has the blessing of Gov. Dewey. I believe Mr. Vaughan should be able to look after Lubbock's interest in government affairs. He is a friend of Herbert Brownell, jr., Mr. Dewey's campaign manager and has gone down the line for Dewey ever since he got into national politics."

Biggs, who has been visiting start his campaign soon after Labor Day and would make a complete swing of the country, traveling through the South to the West coast and back through the Midwest.

Briggs who has been visiting over the district since his return from New York, said he had found "enthusiastic support for the Dewey-Warren ticket.

"I expect a wonderful showing in the 30th district," he added. "I hope all sores can be healed as we want the supporters of the other candidates to join us in solid support of the Dewey-Warren combination, which we believe will be elected in a landslide over the Democratic forces."

Briggs has been in Republican

Stay Of Execution Given Texas Slayer

AUSTIN, July 15. (U.P.)—A 30-day stay of execution for Riley McCaine was announced today by Judge Abner Lewis, chairman of the state board of pardons and paroles.

Judge Lewis said the recommendations of the pardon board was approved by Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers, acting governor in the absence of Gov. Beaufort Jester.

McCaine, found guilty at Beaumont on May, 1947, for the murder of Elnora Collins of Houston, was sentenced to die July 21.

He had previously received the customary constitutional 30-day stay.

The latest stay of execution was recommended, Judge Lewis said, to allow time for an insanity hearing for McCaine.

McCaine, 43, signed a confession that he choked Miss Collins to death in his automobile on Montrose boulevard in Houston, and disposed of her body, he said, near Beaumont where it was found on Oct. 3, 1945.

Feuding Texas Demos Warned By Connally

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15—The frustrated Texas Democratic delegation left the national convention's last session today with a warning from Senator Tom Connally that the state can not isolate itself politically.

The closing hours of the convention found the squabbling delegation so embroiled in an argument over whom to support for vice president that it didn't get to join in the voice vote that made Senator Alben Barkley the party's vice-president nominee.

The delegation was so bitterly opposed to President Truman that it made no move to cast a courtesy vote for hi mafter laying its 50 ballots on the line for Senator Richard Russell of Georgia. There they sat until the convention adjourned.

Connally Warns Texans

Now the Texans go home faced with the difficult and embarassing job of supporting a presidential candidate they fought to the bitter end, and a vice presidential candidate they never got around to voting for.

The delegation's last wrangle came at a 1:30 a. m. caucus off the convention floor. It had been called after it became obvious the delegates could not agree without argument on Barkley.

Connally, urging a vote for Barkley, warned his fellow Texans in effect that they were in a bad political spot.

"Do you want to drive those who can help us away?" he asked. "We fight our battles in Washington."

French Robertson of Abilene led the anti-Barkley bloc, saying the South and Texas had been badly treated at the convention. He wanted a protest to the last ditch. Henry Warren of Corpus Christi urged Barkley's candidacy as a means of "helping our men in Congress."

The caucus had just started to vote when adjutant General K. L. Berry walked in and announced Barkley had been named by acclamation.

Jester Leadership Fails

This was the last of a series of intra-delegation wrangles bound to produce an explosive political outlook for the September state convention. Beset constantly by a right-wing faction, Gov. Beauford H. Jester's leadership failed to hold the delegation together through most of the convention.

It finally agreed on one point last night a few hours before the nominations for the presidency and vice-presidency began, settling on Senator Russell as the best available candidate for whom

OTHERS PLEDGE THEIR SUPPORT

Roscoe Collier To Oppose Big Three

(By The United Press)

A Dallas World war II veteran had the backing today of at least three other U. S. Senate candidates after a caucus in Dallas last night.

The voters present, slightly more than 30, decided to support Roscoe H. Collier who lost both feet in action at Bougainville in March, 1944.

Three other U. S. Senate candidates, Cyclone Davis, Terrell Sledge and F. B. Clark, attended the caucus and pledged themselves to work for Collier against Coke Stevenson, Lyndon Johnson and George Peddy.

Vote By Preference

Voters attending the caucus voted by preference on a one, two, three, four basis with the low man the winner. Collier received 58 votes. Davis, 61, Sledge 69 and Clark 102.

Collier is a native of near Garland, Tex. He is 41 years old and is in the building business although he worked for the government until last January. He formerly was affiliated with two AFL labor unions.

Each of the four candidates spoke 10 minutes and presented his views on government. Sledge assailed Stevenson, Johnson and Peddy and the Standard Oil Co.; Davis fired his barbs at the Dallas News; Clark hammered on campaign expenditures, and Collier discussed mostly his qualifications pointing out his background of having lived on a farm, worked as a laborer and been in business for himself.

Stevenson Broadcasts

Stevenson said in an early morning broadcast from Corsicana today that he had found he could learn "much more by listening to the people than by lecturing them or trying to make them listen to political speeches."

It was the first admission by a political candidate in the current torrid race for United States senator that possibly the public might be getting weary of the flood of oratory which goes with any campaign.

Stevenson repeated earlier statements that he opposed mud-slinging and that he would, if elected to the Senate, work toward lowering living costs. He goes to Cleburne and Grandbury after his early morning stop in Corsicana.

World Increase Incentive

Johnson had visits scheduled today at Grand Saline, Emory, Quitman, Winnsboro, Sulphur Springs and Greenville. In a talk at Lufkin, Johnson proposed that the U. S. government increase the incentive for new oil discoveries as a means of meeting the needs of American defense.

"Oil is every bit as important as uranium to the national defense," he said. "You can't fly jet planes on undiscovered oil." He blamed a lack of steel and insufficient incentive by oil operators in exploration for the fact that present output is some 2,500,000 barrels "short of the amount needed in the event of war."

Johnson suggested that the depletion allowance on new discoveries be increased from the present 27.5 per cent to 30 per cent.

Senate Candidate Peddy of Houston remained in Houston this morning after radio talk there last night. He also planned to visit Baytown.

Peddy claimed, in his talk last night, strong support in Texas labor ranks from men "who want only fair treatment." He said the bulk of his support in the laboring ranks would emanate from workers who "want to know that their senator isn't already tied to some other more powerful group."

On Brink Of War

He charged that the United States has been placed on the brink of another war by election-conscious politicians. A defeat in the "war of nerves" in Berlin, Peddy warned, would result in our isolation, and would necessitate our "digging in for a last desperate fight for our lives after the Russian bear has digested all of Europe and Asia."

The governor's race was expected to warm up a bit shortly with Gov. Beauford H. Jester's return from the Philadelphia Democratic national convention.

Both Roger Q. Evans and Caso March have been hammering hard at the man who seeks re-election as governor. Evans was in Beaumont this morning. He will be a guest at a Port Arthur luncheon, then go to Orange for a mid-afternoon speech, returning to Beaumont in the evening. Friday, Evans

O'Daniel's Daughter Files For Divorce

WAXAHACHIE, July 15. (U.P.)—The second marriage venture of Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's only daughter, Molly, appeared to be on the rocks today.

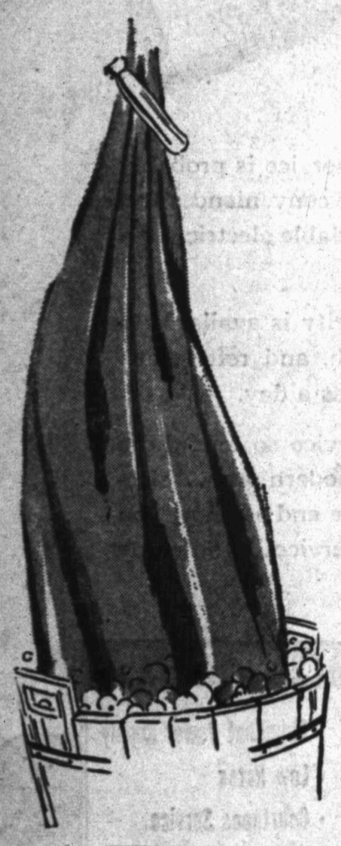

The retiring solon's daughter, Molly O'Daniel White, filed a divorce petition yesterday in Ellis county district court, charging her husband, Henry Ford White, with cruelty and asking for custody of their one-year-old child, Henry Ford White, jr.

The Whites were married soon after she obtained a divorce in 1946 from Jack Wrather, wealthy Texas oilman and movie producer. The Wrathers had two children.

In filing the suit, Mrs. White asked that her husband be restrained from coming on her premises and asked that he be required to support her and the young son.

District Judge A. R. Stout granted the restraining order.

Coal Mine Operations Nearing Normal Since Strike Settled

PITTSBURGH, July 15 (AP)—Wives of most soft coal miners packed full dinner pails today—their breadwinners were back in the pits.

Both coal and steel operations stepped up again toward normal following settlement of the "captive" coal strike. The strike had idled 55,000 of the so-called "captive" miners—they're employed by steel companies.

Sympathy Strikers Back

In addition, better than 25,000 diggers in commercial pits who laid down their tools in sympathy, returned to work. They were employed in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland and Virginia.

About 27,000 "captive" miners are employed in Pennsylvania and at least 22,000 of them are working today, a survey disclosed. Many went back to work on late shifts last night, others were to report today, officials of the United Mine workers said.

The UMW officials said the only thing holding back a complete return to work were routine meetings being held in locals. They're held after each strike—and after John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine workers union has passed along the word to go back to work.

Contract Termed Illegal

The "captive" mines went down on July 6, when most of the nation's 400,000 soft coal miners returned from their vacation under a new one-year contract which gave them a $1-a-day boost. The steel companies refused to grant the increase, saying the contract was illegal under the Taft-Hartley act because it called for a union shop.

Under a union shop miners must join the UMW within a specified period after they are hired.

However, the government withdrew its suit for an injunction against the UMW after federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough had intervened. A one-year contract was signed upon the UMW's promise to modify its union shop clause should later court rulings require it.

Lubbock Woman And Daughter In Wreck

Badly shaken but otherwise uninjured when their car turned over about 5 miles northwest of Lubbock on U. S. Highway 84 at 6.30 p. m. Wednesday were Mrs. Geraldine Brooks Skaggs, 21, of Shallowater route 1, and her infant daughter.

Mrs. Skaggs, driving a 1941 Plymouth coach, lost control of her car when she reached from the driver's seat in an attempt to close the right front door, which had blown open, swerved to the left side of the highway, and the car turned over on the highway shoulder. Neither party was hospitalized, according to the highway patrol here.

Confused Cop Would Most Likely Agree

"People Don't Make Sense," Tony Decides At Convention

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15 — "People!" Tony said. "I think people don't make sense."

He'd just seen the Democratic convention finish up after three days of heat and speeches and people rushing about.

The delegates were everywhere. In the lobbies, on the sidewalks, in the stores but it was in the convention hall that they really suffered.

Tony actually didn't get out to the convention hall. He was just working in an office and he looked at it from the office window mostly.

People Are In Hurry

"I never saw anything like it," he said. "Look. The people are all in a hurry. They keep going around and around like they were caught in the revolving doors in Wanamaker's on Christmas Eve."

He couldn't get used to it, any of it.

"People don't make sense," he said.

He ran into a cop who had charge of sending out limousines to big shot politicians who wanted to go some place but felt too important to ride in taxicabs.

"I'm getting confused," the cop said, shaking his head. "A big shot from Washington called me and said to send the machine around. I forgot his name. It sounded like Mr. Pistol.

"So the machine goes to his hotel and a man steps up and asks is this the machine for Mr. Pistol. The driver says yes it is. So the man gets in and says to drive him out to the convention hall. And he gets out there.

"But it turns out he ain't Mr. Pistol. Mr. Pistol is still standing out front of his hotel, waiting for the machine to pick him up and he calls me up and bawls me out for being slow."

Tony laughs, and looks out the window, and says he's been around a bit and he's seen a lot of things but he's never seen things as strange as people.

Texas Demos

Its major split came over the original choice of Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas as its presidential favorite. The Jester middle-of-the road faction felt the Arkansas governor leaned too much toward the Southern bolt movement and therefore support of him would have violated the May convention's instructions.

The Texans were thoroughly licked on two of their three platform demands. The convention spurned former governor Dan Moody's states' rights plank. It approved a resolution broadening the civil rights recommendations precisely along lines that were "poison" to the Texans.

Tidelands Issue Omitted

Texas won one major victory in this convention. This was the platform's omission of any reference to tidelands. The fear was that it might include a plank advocating federal ownership.

Although Texas was late in getting around to it, its support of Senator Russell was both loud and eloquent.

Gov. Jester himself, dripping with sweat and smiling broadly, carried the Texas standard twice around the hall in the Russell demonstration.

"He believes in the right and the ability of each citizen to look after his own affairs without the meddling of an over-powerful and over-ambitious government," Morrow said.

The Texans stuck grimly silent in their seats while Truman backers whooped it up. Four delegation huskies clung to the state standard to make sure it was not snatched away by the triumphant Trumanites.

A few minutes before, when Arizona yielded to Missouri for the speech nominating Mr. Truman, they let out a chorus of boos that were lost in the confusion and attracted little notice.

It was certain that some members of the Texas delegation would go along with other Southerners in plans to carry on the fight against Mr. Truman. J. Brown Cutbirth of Houston, a member of the right wing faction, stuck with the convention but said he would not vote for Mr. Truman.

Members of the tired and unhappy delegation were taking a dozen different routes home. Moody left immediately after the convention closed. Jester was planning to fly to Austin, probably today.

Morrow stayed in Philadelphia for a meeting of the national committee. So did Mrs. H. H. Weinert of Seguin, national committecwoman.

U.S. Stands Firm Against Russia On Palestine Issue

By MAX HARRELSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

LAKE SUCCESS, July 15. (AP)—The United States stood firm today against Russia's demand to end mediation efforts in Palestine.

This was a key issue as the United Nations Security council was called for a session to act on a U. S. proposal for a new Palestine cease-fire which could be enforced, if necessary.

Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko proposed yesterday that the council delete sections of the American resolution which provided for continuance of mediation efforts by Count Folke Bernadotte.

Gromyko took the position that the time for mediation had passed. It is up to the U. N. now, he said, to back up the partition decision of the general assembly adopted last Nov. 29.

U. S. Delegate Philip C. Jessup told newsmen the U. S. was willing to consider some changes in the wording of its resolution to meet objections, but this country would stand firm on the mediation proposal.

Jessup said Bernadotte's post as mediator was created by the assembly and it was not up to the council to decide whether he should continue his activities.

The surprise Russian attack on four key parts of the American resolution caused some concern among sponsors of the proposal, but the U. S. delegation continued to express confidence it would get the necessary seven votes for the two main points, at least.

These points are:

1. A finding that a threat to the peace exists in Palestine.
2. An order for both Jews and Arabs to stop fighting within three days, or face possible U. N. sanctions.

Austin Paper Hits Democrats' Actions

AUSTIN, July 15. (U.P.)—The Austin American today published on page one a two-column editorial entitled "Victory Chance Gone."

The editorial went on to say that "presidential and vice presidential nominees have been chosen at Philadelphia, for what real purpose remains a mystery. For the party now has no chance of victory in November."

"The cannibalistic characteristics of a party which feeds upon itself, which destroys an essential part of its time-honored traditions which first persecutes its nominee and finds itself then with the man in whom it has told the world it does not believe while committed to his support is a fantastic and bizarre anomaly."

"In destroying the man, the party has succeeded in destroying its own effectiveness, perhaps beyond recovery for years . . ."

PROLIFIC INVENTOR

Walter Hunt, inventor of the safety pin, invented more different things than any other man of his time, many basic principles of which in use today include the sewing machine needle and shuttle, street sweeping machine, metallic cartridge, paraffin candles, repeating rifle, and the velocipede.

19-Year-Old Mother Shot To De.. While Nursing Her Baby In Back Seat Of Auto

KANE, Pa., July 15 (AP)—A 19-year-old mother was shot to death while nursing her baby in the rear seat of their family automobile, State Policeman John Paxton reported.

Paxton said Mrs. Thelma Davis Smiley was shot last night on a highway two miles north of Kane. A bullet struck her in the right temple, the state policeman said.

Paxton said the young womans husband, Alvin, 26, was being held for questioning, but adde dno charge had been placed against him.

Smiley was quoted by Paxton as saying he drove his wife to the Kane community hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

HST Sweats Out Convention In Deck Chair On Sidewalk

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—The President of the United States makes $75,000 a year. He sure earned every cent of it last night.

It was hot and sweaty here in Philadelphia. Mr. Truman was due in to say a few words to the Democrats—thanks for nominating him for the presidency.

Where do you suppose the biggest man in the world wound up? Out on the sidewalk in a deck chair in front of convention hall. It's kind of a long story but also kind of interesting.

Time Schedule Off

Mr. Truman put the notes for his acceptance speech in his duffle bag, waved a pleasant goodbye from his balcony at the White House and left for Philadelphia. That was around 7 o'clock last night.

At that time schedule. The convention was late in getting started. So at 8:44 p. m. the sleek presidential special pulled up at Wilmington, Del., to await developments. It left at 8:55.

Developments didn't come too fast. The President, it is said, worked over his notes. He knew he was in. Nothing left in Philadelphia but the roll call.

Rebels Not Satisfied

It didn't come very fast. Not only that, but people who were in the anti-Truman camp were kicking up some dust on the convention floor. Somebody passed around the words and music for a song called "Let's Send Harry Back To The Farm."

Then the President arrived in Philadelphia—the city of brotherly love.

More trouble. It was raining. It was hot. The time was not yet ripe. Those Democrats, aware of the value of the free radio and television time, were filling the air with a lot of fancy oratory.

So the big little man had some more waiting to do. It was stuffy in the lobby. Mr. T. asked a small boy to please fetch him a chair. The boy did and Mr. Truman sat down out on the sidewalk—under an umbrella.

He sat there until they called him in to make his speech.

"AWFUL GAS PAINS" RELIEVED; RETONGA AGAIN PROVES WORTH

California Housewife Tells Of Tortures Suffered From Gas Pains, Constipation, Headaches; And Describes Relief Given By Famous Medicine

"I felt so awfully run-down I didn't want to move, and then Retonga came to my rescue," confides Mrs. Rachel H. Pointer, who lives with her husband in their attractive home at 1723 Delta St., Rosemead, Cal. Mrs. Pointer is a native of Tennessee, born and raised in Cookville Tenn.

"For over a year," continues Mrs. Pointer, "I suffered terribly from nervous indigestion and all the torments that go with it. I had scarcely any appetite and what little food I forced down seemed to lie undigested in my stomach and create gas. I'd bloat up terribly and had the most awful gas pains. And to add to my other miseries, I was badly constipated and suffered severe headaches; so I had to take strong laxatives most of the time. I lost weight and became so jumpy and on edge that I would often cry about nothing at all. I was in an awful plight, I can tell you.

"Then one happy day I got a letter from my sister back in Tennessee, telling me about Retonga and how much it had done for her. So I decided to try Retonga—and what a grand and glorious relief it brought me! Now I can eat and enjoy every meal with never a worry about nervous indigestion and gas pains. I dont have to take those strong laxatives any more and my headaches have been relieved. My lost weight is back and I feel simply grand. I also feel very grateful to my sister for telling me about Retonga. It's truly a splendid medicine."

The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. If the first bottle fails to bring you relief, your money will be cheerfully refunded. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores, including Walgreen Dry Store.

Two Shallowater Men In Truck Collision

Two Shallowater men escaped serious injury in a pickup-gasoline truck collision one and one-half miles south and one mile west of Shallowater about 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Henry Patrick Mahoney, 58, driver of a 1946 Ford pickup, and Denver Edward Young, driver of a 1937 Ford tank truck, collided on a section road as Young attempted to make a left turn on to another road. The highway patrol filed charges against Young for failure to yield right-of-way and for operating an unsafe motor vehicle.

Mahoney lost consciousness temporarily and received bruises of the left hand, but was not hospitalized. Young was not injured. A drum on the side of the truck absorbed most of the blow of the collision, but damage to the pickup was "extensive," according to the highway patrol.

Oil Firm Is Buying Shipyard Properties

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., July 15 (U.P.)—K. S. Adams, president of Phillips Petroleum co., said today that his firm had made an acceptable offer to the War Assets administration for Todd shipyard properties on the Houston ship channel.

"The company now is in the process of closing the purchase of this property which will be the nucleus of the Phillips chemical operations on the Gulf coast," Adams said. The Todd yard is now idle.

Phillips will start construction immediately of a fertilizer plant to produce about 266,000 tons a year of ammonium sulphate, a non-explosive type of fertilizer.

THAT'S STUDENT LIFE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U.P.)—Sidney Moore, student, gave the court two reasons why he dozed behind the wheel. He had been up late celebrating a friend's graduation, and then got up early to study for final examinations. The doze cost him $21 fine.

KILLER FISH

Armed with spikes which contain a deadly poison, a fish found in the Great Barrier Reef of Australia has the power of killing humans. It is known as the stone fish and is repulsive in appearance.

TALLEST

Sunday Island, in the Pacific Ocean, is really the tallest mountain in the world. It rises 2000 feet out of a five-mile depth of water, and is thus nearly 30,000 feet from base to summit.

Venezuela is one of the world's leading oil sources.

MASSIVE STAR

The star Metelgeuse, in the constellation Orion, is so huge that the whole orbit of the earth could be put inside it. Its density, however, is less than one-thousandth that of air.

FOR SAILORS

Ready-made clothing probably was invented to meet the needs of sailors returning from long voyages and requiring new wardrobes at short notice, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The South American country of Colombia was once known as New Granada.

TRIPLETS BRING ACTION

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U.P.)—Cleve W. Smith got a promise from the builder for faster action on his new home when his wife gave birth to triplets. Smith, a tire assembly worker, had been living with his wife and two-year-old son in one room.

EAGLES MATCHED IN AIR

DEL RIO, Tex. (U.P.)—The Eagle Club, a protective group of ranchmen along the border, bagged 98 golden eagles during 90 days of hunting. The ranchmen hired a small plane and pilot and shot the birds from the air with shotguns. The eagles raid lamb crops.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing. how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

President Takes Offensive By Calling Session Of Congress

By WILLIAM L. BEALE, Jr.
Associated Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA, July 15—Harry S. Truman grasped for the pace-making spot in the 1948 presidential contest today by calling a hostile, Republican-run Congress back into session.

His decision gives Thomas E. Dewey a pre-campaign chance to show in the capitol at Washington the organizational touch on which the New Yorker's managers built much of his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

Dewey has had men working with congressional committee staffs in Washington for days. But Republican policy in the special session must embrace a couple of defeated rivals for this year's G. O. P. banner—Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Speaker Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts.

Special Session Advised

On the Democratic side, the President's action gives him a chance to capture the political initiative that usually goes with the White House in times of high income and employment. In recent months, Mr. Truman's outlook has not been rated high by many of the Democratic rank-and-file. In the pre-convention excitement this feeling showed itself by draft calls upon Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who had said no to political nominations months ago.

It has been an open secret in Washington that Mr. Truman's advisers sought a means to lift his political prospects from the "we prefer Ike" slump. A special session was the advice of many, and was taken.

Congress will be back on July 26—the President called it "turnip day"—and Republican leadership, pegged to a brand new party platform, will guide its course.

Southern Views Handicap

Mr. Truman tossed the first ball in the big-party presidential game. Among next November's voters, the Republican fielding probably will be chalked up to Dewey—whether or not he gives any public advice in congressional quarrels.

Along with the Republican command, whom he has lambasted in veto after veto, and statement after statement, Mr. Truman gets back on Capitol hill the deep-South bitterness that turned the 30th national convention into the biggest Democratic split since pre-Civil war times. Mississippi's delegation wasn't even on hand when the roll was called on the President's nomination. Half of Alabama's delegates had trotted out too.

On top of this break, Mr. Truman flatly listed civil rights legislation—anti-lynching, anti-poll tax, anti-Jim Crow measures—for action at the July 26 session. The race issue, which splintered the Democratic South, was definitely on the summer-session program.

That Democratic family quarrel may give Dewey a needed ace or two in the weeks ahead.

Slum Clearance Is Nearing Standstill

CHICAGO, July 15 (U.P.)—Slum clearance in the United States is virtually at a standstill, a planning official reports.

Walter Blucher, director of the American Society of Planning Officials, blamed the shortage of housing.

"Let us not kid ourselves about urban re-development," Blucher said. "We have legislation providing for slum clearance in 24 states but almost nothing has been done."

Public housing, financed by cities, states and the federal government, must accompany any reconstruction done by private enterprise, Blucher said.

"The hard fact is," Blucher said, "that many of the laws contemplate rebuilding of blighted areas and that there are no housing facilities available for those who will be displaced from the slums and blighted areas."

At Celilo Falls on the Columbia River in Oregon, Indians still supply tribal larders by spearing and netting salmon in the same way their ancestors did.

Harvard Receives Gift From Senator

BOSTON, July 15 (U.P.)—An $89,000 gift by U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall was among the total of $6,371,800 donated to Harvard University during the past year.

Saltonstall's gift, setting up a fund in memory of his son, Peter Brooks Saltonstall, who was killed on Guam, will be used to provide Harvard scholarships for students from the far Pacific. It also will finance research designed to raise living standards in the Hawaiian Islands, Australia and New Zealand.

CHANGES HER MIND TWICE

AUBURN, Me. (U.P.)—Mrs. Geo. Worthy has asked for a second divorce from the same husband. She was first married in 1939, divorced him in 1947, re-married him the same year, and now has filed for another divorce.

Boy's Hard-Earned Bicycle Is Stolen

GREEN BAY, Wis., July 15 (U.P.)—Young Wilbur Kuske worked hard and saved his money to get the motor bicycle he wanted.

He took jobs in stores after school and on Saturdays. He did a slate of evening chores and ran errands by the dozens. At least he had saved up enough.

But today Wilbur's back doing the same daily stint, trying to earn reward money. While he was in school his new, hard won bicycle was stolen.

Driving Record Of Oklahoma Banker Saved By Rider's "Sleight Of Hand"

CLAREMORE, Okla., July 15. (U.P.) — Hitch-hikers sometimes pay their way, C. E. Parrott has decided.

Parrott, Claremore banker, told today how he picked up a young traveler-by-thumb late Monday as he returned home from Tulsa. Rushing a bit to make a Rotary club dinner, Parrott was stopped by a highway patrolman who took down his license number in a little black book and ordered him to appear in traffic court.

A few minutes later the banker was telling his rider how he hated to have a black mark on his driving record.

"He told me I didn't have anything to worry about," Parrott related. "Then he pulled the trooper's little black book out of his pocket."

Blind Man Driving Truck Can See Well

Europe Is Rocked By Attempt To Murder Italian Red Leader

★ ★ ★

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Analyst

All Italy—indeed the whole of Europe—is rocking from the impact of the attempted assassination of Palmiro Togliatti, fiery Italian Communist leader who is widely credited with being Moscow's ablest foreign operator.

Even as Togliatti was being operated on for removal of the bullets which gravely wounded him, wildcat strikes began to spread throughout the peninsula at Red instigation. The Communist press howled for the resignation of Catholic Premier De Gasperi. The premier himself condemned the assault and raced to Togliatti's side in the hospital. The harassed chief of state summed up the shooting thus:

"The worst thing that could happen!"

A Fair Appraisal

That would seem to be a fair appraisal.

On the face of it any immediate repercussions must be to the advantage of Moscow. Even if Togliatti recovers, he has been martyrized and a mighty flame of anger has swept the Communist world and its sympathizers.

Whether Russia gains or loses in the long run depends heavily on whether she overplays her hand in her anxiety to take advantage of the situation.

We have seen that the Communist leadership's first move was to start a wave of strikes sweeping through Italy. There you have the makings of a possible revolution, should Red passions be allowed to run that far by Moscow.

Plot Is Charged

And in neighboring France, the French Communist party charged that the shooting was "a plot of imperialist war mongers and their agents."

The Bolshevists are extraordinarily good organizers, and they are opportunists, ever ready to take advantage of any development like the Togliatti affair. I think we are safe in assuming that they will exploit this shooting as far as they dare.

The danger is that the Muscovites might start something they couldn't stop. Suppose, for example, the Communist high command should debate whether this would be an opportune moment to try to start a revolution in Italy and establish a Soviet government. The first thing Moscow would have to ask itself would be: "Could we control such an upheaval or would it be likely to spread and cause another general conflagration"

The answer to that certainly must be that the gamble would be a terrific risk. On that delicate basis the Reds must decide

Ranchers Consider Hunt For Panther

ELGIN, July 15 (U.P.)—Ranchers along the Wilbarger creek area were considering a panther hunt today after a rancher's wife saw one of the marauding animals outdistance her dogs and bound away into a mesquite clump.

Mrs. Rudolph Prokschl reported seeing the animal after her rancher husband lost seven calves and about 50 turkeys in recent days.

Republicans Call Precinct Meetings

Call for precinct conventions of Lubbock county Republicans to be held at 2 p. m., July 24 subsequent to a county Republican convention on July 31 was issued Wednesday by John L. Vaughan, Lubbock county Republican chairman.

Each voting precinct shall be entitled to one delegate and one alternate for each 25 votes or major fraction thereof cast for the Republican candidate for governor in the general election of Nov. 5, 1946, Vaughan said.

No. 1, courthouse; No. 2 courthouse; No. 3, courthouse; No. 4, courthouse; No. 5, Dupre school; No. 5-A, Roscoe Wilson school; No. 5-B, 1320 Nineteenth; No 6, Junior High school; No. 8, City hall, Slaton; No. 9, City hall, Slaton; No. 10, City hall, Slaton; No. 12, Community house, Idalou; No. 15, Community house, Shallowater; and No. 16, Frenship school, Wolfforth.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

COPENHAGEN, July 15. (AP)—Queen Ingrid and Princesses Margrethe and Anne Marie were reported by state hospital authorities at Soenderborg today to be progressing "satisfactoritly," following their car accident yesterday.

That Girl on Broadway says money may not be the most important thing in the world, but the average person finds it difficult to name three things more important!

* * *

THE dismal Democratic convention has passed into history, leaving behind it the wreckage of a once proud political organization, to which millions of sound Americans were happy to give loyalty and support.

Disgruntled Southerners, still mumbling imprecations at Harry Truman, can blame only themselves for what has happened to their party and to themselves.

They refused to believe what they read in this, and many another, real Democratic newspaper: that the Southern bloc of the party could not indefinitely go along with the corrupt big city bosses, and with the labor czars of the North or with the tatterdemalion crew of leftists and downright Communists who were gathered under the same tent by a New Deal crowd drunk with power and seeking only to perpetuate themselves in office.

They know now that they were stubborn; that they were short sighted; that they permitted their good judgment to be drowned in the dulcet baritone purring from the radio.

They blame Harry Truman, when they know in their hearts that it wasn't Harry Truman who brought them and their party to the depths of woe. They know now, even if few will admit it, that Franklin Roosevelt wrecked the Democratic party when they permitted him to take it over like he owned it—to use it for his own interests and the interests of the weirdest collection of theorists ever collected together at any one time.

* * *

But even though the wreckage of the once proud and admirable Democratic party today is strewn from coast-to-coast, the debacle need not be in vain.

The greatest American political tragedy of our times may be forever used as a sermon; may forever impress men with the determination that what has happened never shall happen again.

The experience, too, can lead the South to one of its greatest needs, namely, a two-party political system; a political system freed from the shackles of tradition and prejudice, under which the people, and not the party, benefit most from politics.

And the experience also should hasten the long needed realignment of our major political parties—a system under which the sounder elements of citizenship throughout the nation will band together in one camp, there solidly to oppose the radical elements, finally shunted into an organization solely their own.

* * *

IT is a sad thing, indeed, to see the Democratic party, hopeless split within itself, going into a campaign at the end of which lies only a precipice.

It is a sad thing to see the party standards in the hands of a Presidential nominee who has been repudiated by large segments of his own party; and a Vice Presidential nominee in his 70's who, for more than a decade, hasn't been able to decide in his own mind whether he really is a Democrat, or an apostle of all the isms, whizzems and skizzems of Wallace, of Hillman, of Bridges, of Perkins, of Hopkins, of Pepper and of all the rest of the screwball element which dominates the voice in so-called Democratic affairs of recent years.

Yet from this wail of sadness can rise—should rise—a better, finer, safer day in American politics.

On the ashes of a betrayed Democratic party can rise a stronger, better party, in which men and women band themselves for the nation's good, rather than for the amount of political swag they can make away with during periods of power.

Let us hope the Democratic debacle of 1948 is only the forerunner of a merger of the best elements of the old Democratic and Republican parties—a merger which shall make sure that, in this land of ours, real democracy—as Abraham Lincoln would put it, "shall not perish from the earth."

* * *

WELL, we see by the papers where the old toupee is definitely "out," and in its place has come the "hairpiece" — a brainchild, of course, of Hollywood.

According to the glowing advertisements, the guy who wears a "hairpiece" can fool friends and impress people with his flowing locks, curly or straight. "Entirely different from the old-fashioned type of toupee," say the ads, the "hairpiece" is "so undetectable that it is now regarded as an absolute necessity" by guys who are thin, or entirely denuded, on top.

* * *

As one whose locks have been slipping for some time now—and give every promise of continuing the process—we find ourself cold to the "hairpiece," despite the Hollywood claims. A toupee's a toupee in our book whether it comes from New York, or the fabulous West Coast.

What's wrong with a bald head, anyway? A bald head, that is, on a middle-aged or old man?

* * *

IN OUR book, some guys look better with little or no hair than some others do with a lot. Some baldies look better without hair, too, than they would if they had enough to plait.

Take Tom Gaston, for instance. He wouldn't be Tom Gaston if he bought himself a "hairpiece." Same thing is true of Dr. Clifford Jones, Dr. J. T. Krueger, Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, Spencer Ashton Wells, John W. Broome, sr., and Pat Cunningham, to name only a few of our more celebrated baldies.

Personally, we cringe at the thought of meeting Bill Collins in a new "hairpiece," C. W. Ratliff would be perfectly horrible with curly locks parted in the middle DeWitt "Judge" Landis and Luther Godwin would lose a good part of their personalities if they suddenly blossomed out in "hairpieces."

And another thing that's always worried us in any contemplation of what to do to hide baldness. That is, when does a guy start wearing a toupee, or a "hairpiece?"

If he waits until he's lost a lot of hair, the false top doesn't fool those who know him. If he starts with ersatz locks as soon as he begins to lose his own, he has to have new wigs made all the time to cover the expanding rawness.

BY DREW PEARSON: FIRST DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN 16 YEARS WITHOUT FDR

Barkley, Miffed At HST, Lauded Him In Speech

PHILADELPHIA.—Thoughts on watching a Democratic convention—the exercycle girl in the store window on Chestnut street is still pedaling her exercise machine up and down. She's been doing it ever since the Republican convention and she doesn't get tired . . . Sam Rayburn, Senator Barkley, et al are still extolling the virtues of Franklin Roosevelt. The exercycle girl is mechanized, but Rayburn, Barkley, et al aren't. However, they don't get tired either . . . Roosevelt is gone now. It's the first convention without him in sixteen years, but they keep talking about him . . . Talking but not necessarily doing . . Truman talks about him, but fires most of the old Roosevelt team . . Oscar Ewing talks about him; Van Heflin talks about him, a Congressman Mike Kerwin talks about him. But the real fact is that, despite the talk, the Roosevelt family isn't in tune with Truman and never will be. Jimmy Roosevelt did his best for Eisenhower. So did Elliott, and, for a time, so did Franklin, jr. Mrs. Roosevelt is sour on Truman, but has been too polite to say so . . In brief, this is the end—the end of the Roosevelt era, the winning era for the Democrats. They still make speeches about him, and in their hearts they know they can't win without him.

PEARSON

Eisenhower's old mess sergeant, Monty Snyder, out in front of the Bellevue-Stratford yelling for his hero. His sound truck could be heard a block away. Sounded like the sound truck that kept parading the streets of Philadelphia for Bob Taft—right up to the last Republican ballot . . . Democratic conventions are usually more fun than Republican. They shout more, thump you on the back harder, sing louder. You notice it then they sing the Star-Spangled Banner. The Republicans move their lips. The Democrats fill up their chests and put some oomph in it . . . finally, the Dems fight more . . . in other words, they're individualists—hard-singing, hard-drinking, hard-fighting individualists. And it takes a big man, a tough man, to ride herd on them.

Famous Phrase Recalled

Contrasts between 1944 and 1948—Most famous phrase of the 1944 campaign was "clear it with Sidney," which made Jimmy Byrnes so boiling mad. The phrase came from Roosevelt's alleged remark when Jimmy wanted to be his vice-presidential running mate and FDR is supposed to have advised him to clear it with Sidney Hillman, then head of the CIO-PAC . . . Byrnes didn't clear it, and was not nominated, which was a tragedy because the country would have been immeasurably better off . . . Today Jimmy is down in South Carolina, where he has a new farm with a lot of trees to clear away. Sidney Hillman is dead; and labor, which once played such a role at Democratic conventions, doesn't seem to be around any more . . . Phil Murray is sitting it out at Pittsburgh, apparently waiting for divine guidance. Dan Tobin, who for years helped write Democratic platforms, this year refused to be a delegate . . . Long-range observers around the convention lobbies will tell you that labor has a lot to learn—when it comes to politics. No man ever went down the line harder for labor than Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida, yet the CIO sat on the sidelines listlessly watching his campaign . . . Other senators may remember that listlessness next time labor needs a friend on the Senate floor.

There's Chip Roberts of Georgia over there in the lobby of the Warwick hotel, just back from Singapore from where he air-expressed a snake to his wife Evie. Evie used to fancy herself a snake-charmer. Now she charms Democrats. By the time the snake arrived in Washington, however, and had a chance to be charmed by Evie it was almost dead. Air-sickness . . . says Chip. "If you have any dangerous snakes around give 'em an airplane ride. It's the best way to kill them" . . . Chip looks healthier now that he doesn't have to raise money for the Democrats. He used to be Democratic treasurer. So does George Killion, who succeeded him. George is now head of the American President Steamship lines and says there's nothing like a trip across the Pacific for a summer's vacation.

MONEY raising for the coming Truman campaign is going to be tough. Mrs. Perle Mesta, the Oklahoma oil heiress who throws those big parties for the Truman's, is counted on for a big slice of dough. So are Secretary of Defense Forrestal and Ambassador Averell Harriman. They're supposed to ante up half a million, and if they don't come through it'll be bad, for almost nobody else will.

Everybody loves Senator "Dear Alben" Barkley—except Harry Truman. And it's mutual. The White House let it be known it wasn't enthusiastic about a 70-year-old man as running mate and, naturally, when this got back to Alben, he was miffed . . . By this time, however, the press already had his keynote speech praising Truman so he had to go through with it . . . Most vigorous opponents of able Senator Joe O'Mahoney to be vice president were Ed Flynn and Howard McGrath, his co-religionists on the Democratic national committee. If a Catholic runs and gets defeated, they argue, it will be difficult to get another Catholic nominated for years . . . No one really wanted to run with Truman . . . Clark Clifford and Tommy Corcoran got the blame for tipping off Mr. T. that Justice Douglas would take the V-P spot, which was why Mr. T. called Douglas direct—all to no avail.

The headlines from Berlin are nearly shoved off the first page by convention news . . . That mess sergeant of Ike's out in the street talking about the importance of leadership. He's so right. And the big crowds around him daily, listening. He's just a mess sergeant—with brass lungs. But he makes sense . . . Eisenhower urged Congress to pass the draft act—first peacetime draft in history—partly because of the psychological effect on Russia. The Russians respect force . . . Equally important is the psychological effect on Russia of strong leadership. Eisenhower is a strong leader. So says Ike's ex-mess sergeant . . . The folks in the street listen. Once a Democratic bigwig tried to chase him off, but Sergeant Snyder was too smart. He flashed a police permit.

Daniels Was Right

The late beloved Josephus Daniels was so right. It takes a big leader, a great man, to weld together the heterogeneous, warring factions of the Democratic party. They're too individualist, in many respects so American. They're far too happy scrapping . . . Also, of course, some of them have got old and fat and complacent. No longer are they the young, vigorous, fighting party of Franklin Roosevelt . . . the days when new, fresh, invigorating youngsters would come to Washington and work almost for nothing just for the joy of helping their country are over . . . Yet that doesn't detract from the great job they once did. The Republicans can howl their heads off about the New Deal, but they'll never dare repeal the New Deal laws—the SEC, social security, REA, old-age pensions, soil erosion, support for farm prices . . . Those were days of never-ending battling for the underdog . . . The Democratic party today is still the champion of the underdog—only some of them are now so tired, so un-inspired, so old . . . And it takes brass-lunged youngsters like Monty Snyder, the ex-mess sergeant, to keep reminding them that what this country needs is leadership. And I hope he keeps on telling them.

Hung Up

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

NOT all couples who are incompatible wind up in the divorce courts. Plenty of them stick it out, even though their marriages offer them no real companionship.

Just what makes one couple incompatible while others find harmony and companionship in every-day living?

Often incompatibility is nothing more than a lack of good manners, if you define good manners as a willingness of one person to put himself out for another's comfort and happiness.

Take the Joneses for example. They'll probably never end up in a divorce court, but their marriage has brought them very little happiness and no real companionship.

* * *

LACK MARRIAGE MANNERS

AND all this is really wrong with their marriage is that neither of the Joneses has good marriage manners.

They have different ideas on almost every subject. That could be stimulating, if each respected the other's ideas. But they don't. They low rate each other's intelligence and every time they start a discussion it ends in an argument.

The Joneses show no consideration for each other's families. Instead of making an effort to get along with their in-laws, each runs down the other's family.

Today's Thought

My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother — Proverbs 6:20.

* * *

Obedience insures greatness, whilst disobedience leads to a repulse. Whosoever possesseth the qualities of righteousness placeth his head on the threshold of obedience.—Saadi.

"Try And Stop Me"

CARL LOEB, the molybdenum king, tells of two miners in Montana who missed their buddy, and after exploring all his town hangouts in vain, began walking along the Northern Pacific railroad tracks. Suddenly one of them picked up an arm. A little further down the track, he found a leg. In rapid succession, other parts of a man's body came into view. "I bet it's Eddie," said the two miners simultaneously.

Finally, one of them picked up a head. He held it at arm's length and said mournfully "It's Eddie, all right. For God's sake, Eddie, pull yourself together!"

THE president of the local temperance league told a reporter, "My lips have never touched liquor. I never smoked a cigaret. And I never kissed a man. Tomorrow, I will celebrate my sixtieth birthday."

Today's Journal Editorial

STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Announcement of a joint government-industry oil committee to try to prepare the nation for any emergency that might occur has the sound of urgent common sense. If the step is criticised, it likely will be on the grounds that something of the kind was not done long ago.

The problem of sufficient supplies of oil is one of increasing complexities. Government and industry, with all their combined resources of money and skill, can do little more than offer a reasonable degree of assurance of enough oil for most necessary needs in the event of a war. The possibility of providing abundances for all uses during such an emergency just doesn't exist any more.

The joint committee named to study and recommend in connection with the problem includes some of the ablest oil men in the nation. The fact that such men were chosen and have agreed to serve reflects the seriousness with which the task assigned them is regarded.

Their identities offer assurance that if the problem of enough oil for a war can be solved, the group chosen will solve it.

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Actions At Demo Convention Are Completely Out Of Focus

PHILADELPHIA—What is happening here is so completely out of focus that, judged by ordinary political standards, it makes no sense at all. Like mirror-writing, it needs to be seen in a glass that will correct the distortions.

CHILDS

The reason is obvious enough. No one, but no one at all, believes in the future of the party or the candidates to be chosen by the party. That is true particularly since so many eager beavers have worked to destroy the slim chance that may once have existed.

Take the Barkley boom for vice president as an example of the upside-down quality of the goings-on here. (You are hardly entitled to use that overworked word, boom, at this convention.)

Those behind the Barkley move have no illusions that the Senator from Kentucky would add much strength to the ticket nationally. His Senate colleagues want him to have the honor as a kind of capstone to his long and faithful service in the Senate.

But he will be 71 years old in November. That doesn't matter, his friends say, since in any event the ticket will not be elected. He will make a respectable campaign, so the argument goes. All this sounds a little as though he were being selected as chief pallbearer.

* * *

Reason Is Advanced

There is, however, a practical political reason advanced. Barkley would help the ticket in his native Kentucky, a border state that went Republican two years ago. This is not so much, you are soon made to understand, in order to deliver Kentucky's electoral vote to a Truman-Barkley combination as it is to knock out a Republican Senator up for re-election.

In other words, you would be nominating a vice presidential candidate in the wishful hope of strengthening the Democratic opposition in Congress. Strange as this may seem, it makes more sense than a great deal of the double talk that has been heard in the 10 days leading up to this meeting.

A few elemental political facts should have been plain long ago. Since President Truman could not be sidetracked as a candidate in the face of his determination to see it through, the only possible place where liberal-labor elements in the party might make their influence felt was in congressional contests in behalf of candidates considered progressive.

* * *

IN spite of the fiasco here, that opportunity still may be open. Some Democrats, who all along have tried to keep alive a sense of continuity and the importance of coming back to fight another day, are pointing to a chance to capture control of the Senate from the Republicans even though this is a Republican presidential year.

They may not be so far wrong. A shift of four seats from the Republican to the Democratic side would do it.

It could happen. In Oklahoma, former Gov. Robert Kerr, who seems certain to be the Democratic candidate for the Senate, is said to have a good chance against Representative Ross Rizley, Rizley, who tried to put over the federal power commission deal that would cost users of natural gas many millions in increased rates, is running instead of Senator Ed Moore, who is retiring.

In Wyoming, Gov. Lester C. Hunt, the Democratic candidate for the Senate has repeatedly demonstrated his vote-getting ability even in Republican years. He is given the edge over Senator Edward V. Robertson, Republican, a wealthy rancher who has worked chiefly to break grazing restrictions.

Minnesota Race Hot

The senate race in Minnesota is hot. There the Democrats have a dynamic vote-getter in Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis. The latest statewide poll taken by the Minneapolis Star-Journal showed Humphrey with 46 percent and the incumbent, Senator Joseph H. Ball, with 38. This was a distinct gain for Humphrey.

In some state, Democratic Senators are threatened. In Montana, Senator James E. Murray is in a tight race. In Colorado, Senator Edwin C.

Bells Are Collected From All Over World

NEWPORT, R. I., July 15 (U.P.) Collecting bells from all over the world is the hobby of the Rev. Edward A. Higney, 80, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Father Migney began his collection some 25 years ago with the 50-cent purchase of a small hand bell in Gibraltar. He added another in Paris and after he had bought a third one in Quebec, word circulated that he was a bell collector.

Since then he hasn't paid for a single chime and has received more than 300 bells as gifts from friends, relatives and strangers throughout the world.

Marquis Childs

Even with Barkley on the national ticket, the Democrats cannot be too hopeful over Kentucky. Senator John Sherman Cooper, who came in on the Republican sweep of two years ago for a short term, has a good record on both the domestic and the foreign side. But Barkley would add strength in his own state where his old-fashioned oratory and his long and distinguished career are greatly admired.

Should the Democrats capture the Senate despite a Republican victory for the national ticket, the new president in the White House would quickly know some of the pangs of frustration that Mr. Truman has suffered in the past two years. That is the great game of American politics under our system of divided powers.

Area Men To Attend Agricultural Meet

Three representatives from this area are to be present at a meeting of the state Production and Marketing administration officials and committee in College Station next Monday when details of the 1949 agricultural conservation program in Texas are to be completed.

V. L. Cade, Lubbock county farmer and member of the state PMA committee plans to attend, the announcement here said. Others from this area are Walter Y. Wells, administrative officer in this county; and John C. Pace, county committeeman from Hale county.

One administrative officer and one county committeeman from each of the 16 PMA districts in the state are to participate in the state meeting. They will recommend new practices for soil conservation and changes in specifications of practices already approved, it was said.

Child Unhurt When Run Over By Engine

NORWICH, N. Y., July 15 (U.P.) Mrs. Michael Quattrochi looked helplessly on as a railroad switch engine passed over he son.

Then, she and other witnesses stared in amazement.

Two-year-old Michael, Jr., got up from the tracks uninjured and toddled back to his mother.
