Lawsuit forces field closure

Hertenberger Field has been temporarily closed as the result of a lawsuit which has been filed in small claims court.

Joe R. Johnson filed the suit with Justice of the Peace Keith Ruddick, seeking $5000 and court costs due to "the loss of personal liberty due to the close proximity of Hertenberger Softball Field to his residence which has caused trespassing, noise and privacy problems for 19 years."

City Manager Buddy Foster said that in light of the pending litigation, the field has been closed until the city council reaches a decision on the action to take.

A Park Board meeting has been set for 10 a.m. on Tuesday, August 18 to make a recommendation about the field to city councilmen at a meeting tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, August 25.

The season of co-ed softball games which have been in progress at Hertenberger Field will be completed at the Little League field, located at Ruddick Park.

Long-time community leader passes away

William 'Duff' Chesney, a city councilman and active leader of the community, passed away Friday morning after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Monday, August 17 at the First United Methodist Church of Colorado City with the Reverend Howard Quiett officiating.

Duff Chesney

Interment will be held at the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Duff was serving his second term as a councilman for City of Colorado City at the time of his death.

He was actively involved in the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce and had taken an active part in the formation of the Lone Wolf Beautification Committee which recently began working to improve the appearance of the wandering banks of Lone Wolf Creek.

He was born April 14, 1921 in Colorado City, one of six children that were born to Mitchell County settlers who came to the city in the late 1800's.

Duff was a long time member and supporter of the activities of the First United Methodist Church.

CHS Wolves finish two-a-day workouts

"The Wolves are farther a long than we had anticipated them being at this time," Coach Mark Howeth said on Friday as the Colorado High School squad was nearing the completion of two-a-day workouts.

On Saturday, an inter-squad scrimmage was set which pitted the first string offense against the next best defense and the next best offense against the first string defense.

"I have been impressed with the work habits that the football players have shown throughout the two-a-days," Coach Howeth said.

Thirty-something varsity players put on pads for the first time this year for Friday's practice sessions.

This year's offense will feature plays run from 'Multiple Wing T' formations, said Coach Howeth. Practice sessions have involved players in getting familiar with sweeps run out of both the I and wing formations and three-step pass plays run from the option offense.

Coaches are going to be looking at the films of Saturday morning's scrimmage as they finalize position assignments for the team.

BACK ON DUTY: Colorado City Police officer Charles Rice is back on duty with the local department after completing a temporary assignment with the Ennis Police Department. Rice received commendations for the work which he provided to the department as part of a 4-month undercover investigation.

Police officer aids in undercover operation

Colorado City Police officer Charles Rice has completed temporary duty with the Ennis Police Department -- where he worked as an undercover agent with an operation which went by the code named 'Cowboy.'

Operation 'Cowboy' resulted in 25 felony drug warrants being served to 15 of Ennis' drug dealers on Tuesday, August 11. The suspects were charged with first degree felonies of delivery of cocaine.

The arrests culminated a four-month undercover operation by the Ennis Police Department, with the purpose of seriously impairing the sale of street level drugs.

"During the time that Officer Rice was working with the operation," Colorado City Police Chief David Montgomery said, "he was missed by the department and we are glad to have him back."

Chief Montgomery said that the local department was contacted about participating in a undercover operation this past April by former County Attorney Clay Strange -- who had recently taken over as the head of the felony division investigations in Ellis County.

Clay Strange made a request to the local police department on behalf of the Ennis department, requesting a police officer who was not known in the area to work as an undercover officer.

A meeting was held with Ennis Police Department's Sergeant Dave Smith, Chief Montgomery and Officer Rice to outline the plans for the operation.

After Officer Rice accepted the assignment he attended courses at the University of Texas A&M which specialized in undercover work and narcotics recognition.

On May 1, he began the temporary assignment with the Ennis Police Department.

As part of the operation, Officer Rice was employed at a manufacturing company in Ennis and was paid his salary through the company.

Through this connection he began to infiltrate the drug community. He became known and became effective enough to start making purchases of illegal drugs.

Chief Dale Holt and Sgt. Smith of the Ennis department have complimented the work of Officer Rice and of the local department for their assistance with operation 'Cowboy.'

School year begins

School bells will begin ringing this next week at the three Mitchell County school districts.

Class for Westbrook students will begin on Monday, August 17 and students attending schools in Colorado City and Loraine will begin the fall semester on Tuesday, August 18.

The first school holiday that will be recognized in the upcoming school year will be Labor Day, with all three school systems letting class out on Monday, September 7.

Voting begins Wednesday in option election

Absentee voting in the local option election will begin next Wednesday, August 19 and run through Friday, September 14 in the county clerk's office at the Mitchell County Courthouse.

The election -- to allow for the sale and off premises consumption of beer, wine and liquor -- in the original boundaries of the old Justice of the Peace precinct 2 will be held on September 8.

The area involved in the proposed election consists of land on the East side of Lake Colorado City and the Westbrook area -- people who originally were part of the old voting box 7.

Polling places on election day will be at the Oak Street Baptist Church in Colorado City and the Westbrook School Tax Office in Westbrook.

A total of 866 people are listed as registered voters in the area which will be affected by the election.

Westbrook gears up for '92-'93

"We're excited about the additions in our curriculum," Superintendent Sonny Hollis said. "We're geared up for a great year."

Changes that are taking place at the Westbrook Independent School District include the implementation of a recently board approved technology program.

Principal Robert Criswell said that the school board is committed to a plan of providing computer skills training to each of the district's students.

Phase I of the 10-year plan provides for a 16-station IBM computer lab for the elementary students and a 15-station IBM computer lab for the secondary students of the district.

The Apple computers which are owned by the district will be placed in the classrooms to be used by teachers for classroom enrichment exercises and remedial instruction.

"It is our goal to provide computer access to every student -- kindergarten through 12th grade -- every day," said Principal Criswell.

The district's technology plan has as its aim placing four to five computers in each classroom, on top of the two computer labs and those available in the library.

Software used by the computer systems is tied into the instructional programs being taught

He graduated from Colorado High School in 1939 and attended Tarleton State University for two years before entering the armed forces.

He was also a veteran of World War II, serving as a navigator in the Army Air Corp.

Duff earned his wings after training at Hondo and was then stationed at Greenville, South Carolina. He was later stationed at Guam where he saw action in the South Pacific during the days of war.

Duff Chesney served for forty-years as an accountant for Shell Pipeline. He worked in Shell offices located in Colorado City, McCombs, Midland and Houston.

After his retirement from Shell in 1986, the Chesneys returned to Colorado City.

Duff married the former Martha Jane Watson on December 15, 1942 in Palacios, Texas. She preceded him in death on January 8 of this year.

Survivors include two sons, John Chesney of Ridgecrest, California and Joe Chesney of Austin; a daughter, Suzanne Lee of Poquoson, Virginia; a brother, Dud Chesney of Grand Prairie; a sister, Josephine Eastin of Colorado City; two sister-in-laws, Frances Chesney of Colorado City and Freddie Guitart of San Antonio; his mother-in-law, Arline Watson of Colorado City; and numerous nieces and nephews.

"An Ennis Police undercover officer, over a three-to-four month period, infiltrated the drug community and made buys from 15 different individuals," Ennis Police Chief Holt said in describing the operation.

"Based on his covert connections, this operation confirmed our suspicions that 95-percent of our drug problem is crack cocaine. While this does not surprise us, we are very concerned about this high percentage," said Chief Holt.

Officers began serving the warrants -- charging the suspects with the first degree felonies -- in the early hours of Tuesday morning.

Other changes in the district include reading, math and Spanish programs that will involve students in an encapsulated process of education -- with teaching aimed at building on skills from one year to the next.

Wildcat football is back

The Westbrook Junior High and High School have regrouped and will return to the gridiron for action this coming season.

Wildcat football is back! Practice for the teams will begin on Monday, August 17.

Coach Jim Hill and assistant coach Keith Stone will lead the Wildcats into a season of six-man football competition.

Two games have been scheduled for the Westbrook teams thus far, with Coach Hill attempting to play a four or five game schedule this first year.

The Wildcats will face the junior varsity of the Lorraine Bulldogs on October 15 and a mixture of the varsity and junior varsity teams of the Paint Creek Panthers on November 6.

Coach Hill noted that Westbrook will play what is considered a 'renegade' schedule for the first two years -- against mainly junior varsity teams.

"We're excited about the return of football to the Westbrook school system," Superintendent Sonny Hollis said.

He noted that plans will be made in the near future in order to begin dirt work and irrigation requirements for the construction of a football field -- to be located on school property immediately to the East of the school building, where the track is now located.

District football action will begin again in 1994, when the next University Interscholastic League realignment takes place.

After the completion of the 1943 season football competition at the Westbrook Independent School System was halted.

'Please Don't Hurt Our Kids'

Dear Drivers,

TODAY, OUR DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started to school for the first time. Her brother was with her, but he's only nine himself, and he still looks pretty little to us. Their cocker spaniel, whose name is 'Scot', sat on the front porch as they waved "goodbye" and started off to the halls of learning.

LAST NIGHT WE TALKED ABOUT SCHOOL -- we and our daughter. She wondered what the teacher would be like...she hoped she would sit by Mary (the little girl next door). She said her "letters" for the two of us to be sure she knew them. Oh, we talked about a lot of things - tremendously vital, unimportant things. Then she tried on her plaid pinafore to show us...and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS -- sound asleep with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You see, we're her mommy and daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut, or her hands get banged, we can fix it - but when she and her brother start to school, when they walk across the street, they're in your hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to ride horses and swim and hike with us on Sunday afternoon. But we can't be with them all the time. We have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help us look out for them. Please drive carefully past the schools and intersections - and please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE DON'T HURT OUR KIDS!

Home ec teachers attend conference

Judy Merrell, Glenna Fambro of Colorado High School and Susan Bolen from Hobbs Alternative School, all vocational home economics teachers, joined some 2800 teachers attending a professional development conference coordinated by the Home Economics Division of the Texas Education Agency, August 2-6, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Dallas-Ft. Worth Airport Complex.

The official conference opened Monday evening with nationally known speakers, Emory Austin, offering the timely presentation "Close Encounters of the Crucial Kind" on how to build self esteem, productivity and survival in the midst of change. On Tuesday and Wednesday, home economics educators attended workshop sessions which covered topics ranging from marketing strategies, campus-based management, strategic planning, to other home economics specialty areas.

Karl Davidson, with twenty-two years experience in helping to reach the hard to teach spoke on "Using Your Brain ... For a Change" giving practical information and skills to enable teachers to make a difference. According to Mr. Davidson, "It's time to make learning fun again and to put what has been learned into action."

Dr. Blandina Cardenas Rameriz, Vice-President of Institutional Advancement at Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio, closed the conference by addressing societal issues teachers must deal with today such as the multicultural classroom, global society, stress on the family unit, the high demands of the world of work and ways teachers can make significant differences in the lives of their students.

"Vocational home economics education is changing significantly as we prepare young men and women to meet the challenges of the twenty-first century," said Mary Mathieson, Abilene, president of VNETAT.

1992 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN THE CITY OF COLORADO CITY

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for the City of Colorado City. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's EFFECTIVE tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's ROLLBACK tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$213,156.07
Last year's debt taxes	$162,780.57
Last year's total taxes	$375,936.64
Last year's tax base	$63,804,590.00
Last year's total tax rate	$0.5892/$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$375,936.64
+ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$61,343,350.00
= This year's effective tax rate	$0.6128/$100
x 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing
	$0.6312/$100
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$213,171.14
+ This year's adjusted tax base	$61,343,350.00
= This year's effective operating rate	$0.3475/$100
x 1.08 (or add $.08 for schools) = this year's maximum operating rate	$0.3753/$100
+ This year's debt rate	$0.00/$100

Howell attends camp

Michael Peter Howell, 11, the child of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Howell, of Colorado City, recently attended the Texas Lions Camp in Kerrville. Sponsored by the Sundown-Colorado City Lions Club, this camper had the opportunity to ride horses, study nature and participate in sporting events between classes designed to teach insulin dependent children to manage and understand diabetes.

A team of doctors, nurses, and dietitians from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston taught campers about exchange diets, blood sugar level testing, the effects of exercise on blood sugar levels, and how to give their own insulin injections. The team helps campers to understand the importance and reasons for medical testing.

A well-trained staff supervises each camp activity with a ratio of one counselor to three campers. Located on 500 acres of Texas hill country, the camp serves diabetic children ages 7 to 17. The Texas Lions Camp is a non-profit organization funded by generous individuals interested in providing challenging programs for handicapped and diabetic youth. This service is provided free of charge for eligible children.

For more information, or if you know of someone who could benefit from these programs, contact your local Lions Club or contact: Texas Lions Camp, P.O. Box 247, Kerrville, Texas 78029-0247 (512) 896-8500.

Each additional family member:
	+ $ 3,094	+ $ 4,403	+ $ 258	+ $ 367	+ $ 60	+ $ 85

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown on the above scale are eligible for either free or reduced price meals. The reduced price for lunch is 30¢ and for breakfast is 20¢.

Every household will be furnished with an application which must be completed to apply for free or reduced price meals. To complete, please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain the following information is not complete and cannot be processed by the school:

1) Names of all household members; 2) Amount of income received by each household member such as wages, welfare, alimony, etc., or your Food Stamp or AFDC number if you receive these benefits; 3) Signature of an adult household member; 4) Social Security number of the adult who signs the form or the word "none" if that person has none.

Within 10 days of the receipt of the application, the school will notify you whether or not your child is eligible. The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must notify the school when your income increases by $50 per month or when your household size decreases. In certain cases, foster children are eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and wish to apply for free or reduced price benefits, please tell the school and they will help you complete the application.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for their meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child is discriminated against because of race, sex, color, age, handicap, national origin, political belief, or religion. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing to Mr. Raymond Hollis, Superintendent of Schools, P.O. Box 99, Westbrook, Texas 79565, or call 644-2971.

Books will open at 10:00 a.m. with riding starting at 11:00 a.m. There will be a gate fee of $1.00 per person. - 13-15 Boys -- Tie Down, Ribbon, Break Away -- $15.00; Goat Roping -- $13.00
- 16-19 Girls -- same as 13-15 Girls
- 16-19 Boys -- same as 13-15 Boys
- 20-Over Women -- same as above
- 20-Over Men -- Team Roping -- $30.00; Goat Roping -- $13.00; Tie Down, Ribbon -- $15.00

There will be a $5.00 officer charge per family.

After the events at the Playday are over, there will be a dance held at the Ag Barn from 8:00 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. with "Diamondback" out of San Angelo playing. It will be open to everyone at a charge of $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for 12 and under. No alcoholic beverages are allowed.

Everyone is invited to attend and participate in the full days activities. For further information, you may call 728-2984.

Can Your Child See Well Enough To Learn??

When your children enter school this fall, about 80% of what they learn will come through sight. Yet 4 out of 10 children have vision problems that can inhibit school achievement. Most vision problems cannot be detected by the familiar eye chart test for 20/20 vision. Help make your child's future crystal clear.

Does Your Child.....

- Avoid close work?
- Hold reading material too close?
- Show excessive head movement while reading?
- Lose his place while reading?
- Rub eyes frequently?
- Make reversals while reading?
- Often have headaches?
- Uses a finger to maintain his place while reading?

If so, we recommend having your child's vision tested.

B&PW Club holds annual club picnic

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club met for its annual picnic at the home of Shirley DeLaney on Aug. 11, 1992 at 7 p.m.

A covered dish dinner was enjoyed by four visitors and twelve members.

Guest speakers for the evening were Diane Kirchner and daughter, Shanna. They gave a very interesting report on their recent trip to Houston where they participated in Vacation Bible School at Hibbard Memorial Church, Gano Mission and Fletcher Mission located in the ghetto section of Houston.

Four girls from First Baptist Church of Colorado City were in the group. They had to take 55 hours of training at Hardin-Simmons University and then be appointed by the Mission Board in order to take part in this project.

The girls sacked food for distribution to the needy and did Bible teaching working with children. Gangs are in the area they were in and each had their own territory. Many experiences were related by the speakers.

President Pauline Light lead the business session. Reports were read and approved. Phyllis Lane, good cheer chairman, presented a birthday gift to Christine Cooley. Shirley DeLaney pinned Shirley Bradley with a new membership pin.

Fund raiser plans for the year were discussed and the meeting was then adjourned.

Those present were: guests, Diane and Shanna Kirchner, Cindy Watts and Nancy Crow; members, Pauline Light, Virginia Dearen, Shirley DeLaney, Faye Spivey, Urdine Morgan, Phyllis Lane, Shirley Bradley, Christine Cooley, Eddie Barclay, Donna Laurens, Mildred Free and Louise Logsdon.

Fiesta Texas to hold "Festival Hispano"

SAN ANTONIO -- The Hispanic-themed area of the country's newest theme park, Fiesta Texas, will celebrate August 14 through 30 with a special "Festival Hispano."

The park's Los Festivales area was mythically founded as a place of many festivals, and Festival Hispano will go all out in offering guests special presentations of traditional Mexican and Tex-Mex music, dancing, crafts, food and fun. Kodak is the official sponsor of the festival.

Entertainment line-up for the festival includes a Coca-Cola sponsored performance by rising Tejano star Selena Quintanilla (Sat., Aug. 15). Other showcased entertainment on tap for the festival includes Ram Herrera and Jean Le Grand (Sun., Aug. 23) and Little Joe y La Familia (Sun., Aug. 30). Throughout the festival, additional performances by Tejano/Conjunto entertainers Patsy Torres and Joe Posada y El Quinto Sol will be scheduled. Both play several times in the park every day, as part of the eleven musical shows featured at Fiesta Texas.

Also planned are performances by strolling mariachis and children's mariachi and ballet folklorico groups. An Antonio's annual "Mariachi Music Summer Camp" for high school students will be held at Fiesta Texas as a part of Festival Hispano. Clinics are set for Aug. 14 and 16, with a finale performance on Sun., Aug. 16, in the park's indoor, air-conditioned Zaragoza Theater which seats 2,000.

Guests will be able to see "Texas' Largest Pinata" -- a more than 16 foot tall horse that will be on display throughout Festival Hispano, and "Opened" on Saturday, Aug. 22. Ongoing pinata smashes also are planned for the festival as an additional fun activity for young guests.

Besides crafts, an assortment of foods and cool drinks, there will be a special display of Mexican folk art -- masks, lacquerware and jewelry -- that has been displayed in museums and cultural centers throughout the Southwest. This collection, as well as a display of Mexican regional costumes, is on loan from San Antonio artist Frank Harris who is on staff at Fiesta Texas as an assistant costume designer.

For more information on the festival, or a schedule of all prices and events, contact Fiesta Texas at 512/697-5050.

Methadone abuses found

The only approved drug program for helping drug abusers to break or manage their addictions to heroin is medically supervised treatment with the drug, methadone.

A powerful narcotic in its own right, legitimately used oral methadone doses reduce the heroin addict's withdrawal symptoms, without the physical damage resulting from intravenous drugs.

In Texas, as in other states, methadone treatment is available to eligible addicts through state-licensed private clinics and physicians. Regulated by the Texas Department of Health's Division of Food and Drugs, the methadone program has been a life-saving service for thousands who have survived heroin addiction to regain healthy lives.

However, TDH investigators report that as beneficial as methadone treatment has been, some abuses and mismanagement of methadone doses by both patients and the medical personnel have occurred. Despite rigid state and federal regulations for distribution and possession of methadone, some deaths in Texas have been traced to misuse of illegally obtained methadone.

Therefore, the Texas Board of Health, at its meeting in Austin, July 25, approved numerous proposed rule changes in regulations for the state's private methadone industry.

According to Cynthia Culmo, chief of the drug branch of the Division of Food and Drugs, "In essence, the Board has approved revisions which better clarify the laws governing methadone."

Culmo said that one of the most important changes was elimination of the so-called "30-day compliance rule." The rule formerly dictated that when TDH found a licensed methadone provider to be in violation of regulations, the agency was required to allow the provider 30 days to correct the violation.

"We have lacked the authority to immediately suspend or revoke a provider's license," Culmo said.

"Some unscrupulous or careless providers have taken advantage of that fact in the past. These revisions, when adopted, will enable TDH to more effectively enforce not only the letter of law, but the spirit of the laws governing methadone."

Among other important methadone rule changes, according to Culmo, is a requirement that clinics provide at least one counselor for every 50 patients. Exceptions to the 1-to-50 ratio will be allowed while clinics hire additional counselors.

Also, current drug addicts, or anyone known to have used opiates or methadone in the previous year will be barred from working in or owning a methadone facility.

Culmo said that TDH is drafting more proposed changes for the Board of Health's consideration "before the end of the year." Those changes will focus on qualifications and continuing education of physicians associated with methadone clinics.

Turkeys, produce on special in August

COLLEGE STATION - It's too hot for Thanksgiving, but turkeys still will be bargains in supermarkets during August, with prices perhaps dipping to 79 cents per pound.

"This may seem odd, but stockpiling by the major supermarket chains has been a tradition for many years," said Dr. Dick Edwards, a food marketing expert with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Stores have to buy now to ensure supplies for November."

Most of the turkeys sold in November are bought in August, and since retailers don't want to store them all, they will sell some at 10 to 15 cents less per pound, he said. Turkeys will sell for even less in November and December, usually below cost, Edwards said, as grocers compete for shoppers buying for the big holiday meals.

Consumers who would like to "stockpile" their own supply of turkey in the freezer can do so, said Susan Conley, manager of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Meat and Poultry Hotline.

"For optimum quality, you can store turkey in the home freezer for only one year. After that, the texture and flavor begin to diminish," Conley said.

Turkey left in the freezer for one to two years is still safe to eat, but best used in a soup, stew or casserole, she said.

Back-to-school promotions will begin early in August with supermarket specials on school supplies, lunch boxes, and backpacks, Edwards said.

"Competition for this market increases yearly, so watch for specials and shop early."

When classes start, school lunch specials will begin on cold cuts and individual packages of chips, puddings, cookies and drinks.

School days begin breakfast routines again, and cold cereal consumption increases. Manufacturers have timed a price increase of 3 to 4 percent to begin in early fall, but will mask them with special promotions and coupons.

"These prices go up each year, but this increase comes only nine months after another rise of 3 to 4 percent," he said. "Alternatives are store brands, which are generally lower."

Refrigerated orange juice, on the other hand, is going down. "It seems that over the summer months, the major manufacturers have taken turns having weekly specials. This trend will continue in August," he said.

Brazil is behind the price drop. "Much of our juice comes from orange concentrate, which is imported from Brazil and then reconstituted in this country. Brazilian production capacity has been growing, and they have been cutting prices to sell their product," he said.

Nationally branded orange juice at $1.75 to $2 per half gallon will be plentiful during the month, he said.

Carbonated and non-carbonated drinks also will be on special. "By this time of the summer, many people are ready to switch from the traditional carbonated soft drinks, and plenty of ready substitutes will be available, ranging from flavored carbonated waters to powdered drinks," he said. Most of these products have been around all summer, but look for a special pricing blitz, since August is the leading month for the consumption of soft drinks.

Fresh fruits and vegetables coming to market include cantaloupes at 29 to 39 cents each, and honey dew melons and watermelons. Also in season are seedless watermelons and ones with yellow flesh.

Sweet corn will be at its peak with the Midwestern production picking up steam.

The super sweet varieties usually sell for about $1 for one-half dozen, while the regular ears are about $1 per dozen," Edwards said.

Grapes at 49 cents to 59 cents a pound will be a good buy. Tomatoes, cucumbers, green beans and bell peppers, which are still in peak harvest, also will be on special, he said.

Pears and apples will come into season during August, with smaller sizes bringing 49 cents to 59 cents per pound. Pears will go on sale in mid-August, and the early apple varieties will be featured later in the month.

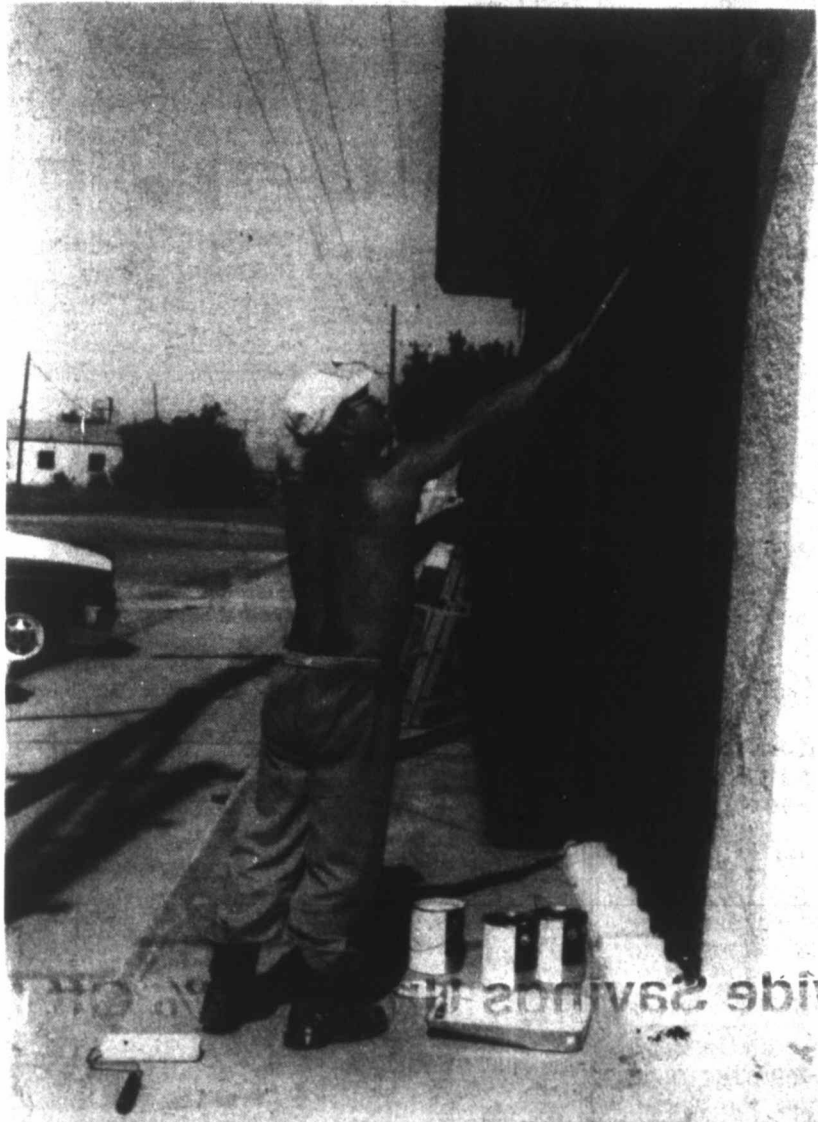

"Early indications are that both crops will be larger than last year's," Edwards said. "This will create some very good prices, but look for them during September and October, rather than August."

Non-refrigerated containers of apple, pear and pineapple juice also will be on sale as processors clear inventories for the new year's crop. For the same reasons, expect clearance sales on canned and frozen vegetables, with some of the lowest prices of the season.

Lots of supermarket advertising will focus on outdoor cooking. Pork and chicken once again will be the best buys. Supplies of pork are greater than normal, and packing houses are cutting prices to move products. Pork chops at about $1.25 per pound and ribs at $1 per pound will remain the hottest items.

Beef prices will continue at about the same level as seen over the past two months, with steaks and ground beef as the weekly featured items.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

DEAN WILLIAMSON

Politics is a popular conversation topic this summer. Ross Perot's defunct bid for the office of president made sure of that. But apathy has again set in at many of the coffee tables of conversation.

The changes they have hoped for don't seem to be with either of the remaining candidates.

And now, before the Republicans hold their convention the Democrats have a lead in the polls which they haven't had in a long time.

Bill Clinton was interviewed the other day and began saying that he wasn't overly confident of the polls - but then went on to discuss the transition team and the type of cabinet he was working on putting together.

Sometimes I wish that campaigning could be like it was in the old days.

As I wait for the fall festival to unfold, knowing that it keeps getting closer and closer to that magical time when the campaign mud begins to fly -- I fear that I am going to be let down.

Years ago the campaigns were rowdy.

Now they are civil, with rarely anything actually libelous being said between those running for the elected offices.

People who run for election have opened their lives for prying. Americans are known to have enquiring minds.

But, I'll continue to wait on the opening of the fall spectacle as always.

There is something about the political process of people dancing around with balloons and buttons and funny looking hats that I'm evidently addicted to.

The national convention of the Republican Party will hit the airwaves this next week, after which the Republican's have promised that they will start using the 'C' word in their conversations.

When the slinging of campaign rhetoric begins, it seems like it is worse than it ever was before -- and what will they think of next.

But it seems that the modern campaigns are tame compared to those of the 19th-century.

"The campaigns were a lot rowdier in the old days than they are today," said Dr. Paul Boller who is the author of Presidential Campaigns.

Democrat Martin Van Buren tried to assault Whig William Henry Harrison -- his opponent in 1840 -- by saying that the former general would be just as happy to retire to a log cabin with a barrel of hard cider.

The Whigs argued that living in a log cabin and drinking hard cider were the virtues of a common man.

But one of the more exciting elections took place forty-years earlier -- in 1800.

John Adams of the Federalist Party was seeking re-election against Thomas Jefferson in that year's election.

The Federalist Party spread the rumor around that Jefferson was a dangerous radical who cheated creditors and acted cowardly toward British troops as governor of Virginia during the American Revolution.

In retaliation to that rumor -- Jefferson's party began spreading a rumor that Adams planned to marry one of his sons to a daughter of England's King George III in order to form an Anglo-American dynasty with himself as king.

Then as the election loomed closer -- and it looked as though Jefferson was going to win the election, the Federalists made one last effort to prevent his election.

And I can't help but wonder if someone will ever try to pull the old trick out of the bag to use it in a modern campaign.

They spread a rumor that Jefferson had died!

State of Texas ends year on upswing

AUSTIN -- "The State of Texas will end its current operating year on August 31 with $529 million dollars in the bank -- not the $168 million deficit that was earlier projected," State Comptroller John Sharp reports.

"There are a number of reasons for this cash balance: $215 million from better franchise tax collections; $81 million in other tax collections, $177 in better-than-expected lottery sales, and $224 million in lower-than-anticipated spending by state agencies," Sharp said.

"That means we'll have $529 million in the bank at the end of the current fiscal year. It does not mean -- by any stretch of the imagination -- that we are out of the woods. The bad news for the Texas economy ranges from lower consumer confidence and higher unemployment compensation claims to lower oil, gas and motor vehicle tax collections.

"The Texas economy is not doing everything that we had hoped," Sharp said. "But Texas is not in a recession. We still have positive growth. The only thing keeping us from being the 'star' state is that the national recession is holding us back.

"Still, winding up the state's fiscal year with at least $529 million in the bank certainly contrasts with other states, especially California, which is having drastic budget problems," Sharp said.

"Based upon our current projections, the Texas Legislature will have in the neighborhood of $2 billion in additional revenue when it meets in January 1993 to write the 1994-95 state budget," Sharp said. "We'll have a more precise revenue estimate in the fall."

Sharp attributed the additional $215 million in franchise tax collections to a tougher review process by the state of refund requests. The $81 million in miscellaneous revenue gains, Sharp said, represents higher-than-projected collections of some licensing and taxes.

"The Texas Lottery has spewed out $177 millions in excess revenue," Sharp said. "We don't know what's going to happen when the new on-line Lotto games start this fall, but we feel pretty good about it.

"And finally, most state agencies are minding their P's and Q's," Sharp said. "A lot of them are adopting recommendations of the Texas Performance Review to reduce unnecessary expenses and eliminate duplication.

"Those agencies are heeding the advice of top state leadership that the state is headed for a financial storm and they need to cut back on their expenses now," Sharp said.
