Coleman Fair Boosters Get Good Crowd Here

About twelve automobiles bearing boosters for the Coleman County Fair were in Ballinger for a short while about noon Saturday. The boosters were accompanied by the Coleman Band, representatives of the Coleman Chamber of Commerce and the fair association.

Speeches were made on the court house lawn, both by Ballinger and Coleman representatives. Music was furnished by bands of the two cities and entertainment of comic character was furnished by two "rubes" with the Coleman group.

An address of welcome was extended by Mayor W. C. McCarver, and among other things he said it was a pleasure to welcome the party and assured the Colemanites that there would be a large delegation of Ballinger citizens to attend the Coleman fair. A special day has been set as Ballinger Day at the neighboring fair.

J. D. Motley assured the visitors that they would be welcome to the Runnels County Fair here next week, and mentioned the friendship of the two towns and of the friendly rivalry of the adjoining county sites in everything.

Mayor E. P. Scarborough spoke a few words to the gathering, giving data on the work and money that had been expended in inaugurating the Coleman county show.

Sim O'Neal, secretary of the Coleman Chamber of Commerce, in a short talk said he was glad to be able to talk to Ballinger people and that it was a pleasure to speak of the friendship of the two towns. He also detailed some of the fair program, and of the outlay that had been made to make it a first class exposition.

After the speeches lunch was served the visitors by the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce on the band pavilion at the court house park. Following the lunch the boosters visited the merchants in their stores, and then left for other points on their itinerary.

Hames Shows Open Here Monday Night

The Bill H. H. Hames Shows will arrive in Ballinger Sunday on their "Crimson Special," and will remain here through the week. Monday morning will be spent in getting everything in preparation for the fair, and the show will open Monday night. Bill H. Hames has one of the largest carnivals in the state, and one of the best. His midway attractions compare with those of the large shows in the north, the side shows bringing some of the best performers on the carnival stage.

More and better rides are promised with the 1929 Hames shows than for any carnival in Texas. In addition to the merry-go-round and ferris wheels, a number of special riding devices are to be erected here.

Mr. Hames has two divisions of his shows, and they regularly appear in different towns at the same time, but at the Runnels County Fair these divisions will be combined in one mammoth aggregation.

The Hames shows have been coming to the Runnels County Fair for several years, and are considered the cleanest and most attractive carnival ever to be booked for an engagement in this city.

Mrs. W. C. McCarver, Mrs. L. E. Rudd, and Miss Verda Nell Trull went to Brownwood Friday to see the Howard Payne-San Marcos football game. They were accompanied home Friday night by Clarence McCarver and Miss Berna Dean Rudd, who are attending Howard Payne and who will visit here over the week-end.

Dallas Man Kills Wife; Shoots Self

(By International News Service)
DALLAS, Oct. 5.—Following a quarrel in their modest apartment, Robert Williams, 40, a blacksmith, today turned a single barreled shotgun on his wife, killing her instantly. Williams then placed the point of the gun in his mouth, fatally wounding himself.

Neighbors who broke down the locked door to the apartment after hearing the shots found Williams dying with his arms about his dead wife's neck.

Sadness Follows in Steps of Penal Riot

(By International News Service)
CANON CITY, Colo., Oct. 5.—A pall of sadness, even traces of terror still hung over this city today with passing of the excitement and terror over the brutal slaying of guards and convicts during the orgy of bloodshed unprecedented in the history of western penal institutions.

The death toll in the bloody state penitentiary riot yesterday morning stood at twelve—seven guards and five convicts. A score more were suffering from wounds and injuries sustained during the seventeen hour riot.

The mutiny was precipitated by Danny Daniels, arch slayer, in a desperate attempt to escape along with four other convict companions. It was definitely established today that Daniels caused eleven of the twelve deaths.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The convicts in the Colorado penitentiary would not have rioted if conditions had been humanly bearable, E. F. Dudding, president of the Prisoners Relief Society, declared today.

Dudding declared that Thomas J. Tynan had been warden of the penitentiary for eighteen years and never had a serious riot. "The 'pink tea' people got tired of Tynan and put in a man who didn't know how to handle convicts, and the riot was the result," said the relief worker.

McDonald Here to Seek World Peace

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—An understanding, not an alliance, friendly co-operation, not distrustful rivalry; and a mutual undertaking to compel peace in the war weary world. These in his own words, are the motives that impelled Ramsay McDonald, prime minister of Great Britain, to shatter the traditions of a century and a half by crossing 3,000 miles of ocean in order to sit down friendly like with the president of the United States and talk over problems that contain the germs of international irritation.

Peace first between Great Britain and the United States but lastly peace throughout the world is the objective of McDonald's visit.

Before leaving with President Hoover for the week-end in the Blue Ridge Mountains, Premier McDonald paid his respects to Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, Vice-President Charles Curtis and Chief Justice William Howard Taft and appeared to enjoy doing it.

A club swung by a caddie on a Chicago golf course struck the eye of a player, J. H. Miller, and destroyed it.

R. Q. Lee Visits Ballinger Friday

R. Q. Lee, congressman for the 17th district, was a visitor in Ballinger Friday, greeting friends and acquaintances. He stated that plans for the federal census which will be commenced after the first of the year were almost complete for this district.

William L. Turner, of Brownwood, will be supervisor for this district, and will open offices at that city on January 1st. Mr. Turner, one of twenty-nine supervisors, will have charge of counting.

Enumerations will begin April 1st, 1930. Enumerators will be appointed by Mr. Turner, and the method used is one enumerator for each certain number of persons. Mr. Lee said he was not exactly sure of the division, but that it was his impression that an enumerator would be named for each 2,000 population.

Two weeks will be allowed to complete the count in towns, while rural districts will require thirty days to complete enumerations.

Mr. Lee is leaving for Washington immediately to resume his duties at the national capital.

Miss Jeanette Degrué, of Marquette, was committed to an asylum after stealing $500 and burning it to heat a teakettle.

Mrs. Pantages Has Collapse in Court

(By International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5.—After Mrs. Alexander Pantages had collapsed twice within a few minutes, Superior Judge Carlos Hardy today halted arguments for a new trial on her manslaughter conviction. Judge Hardy said he would not proceed with the case until it was definitely determined that Mrs. Pantages was at all times conscious in court.

Physicians said the woman had suffered two heart attacks and confinement in prison might endanger her life.

Ernest Nance and Earl Schumann, who are attending Howard Payne College at Brownwood, came in Saturday to spend the week-end in Ballinger visiting relatives and friends.

Several Ballingerites motored to Breckenridge Saturday to see the Simmons-T. C. U. football game.

Survivors of French Vessel are Rescued

Reports Say French Fliers Land Safely

(By International News Service)
PARIS, Oct. 5.—Capt. Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, French airmen, given up for lost in a sensational attempt to beat the distance flight record, landed at Kowchinza, a tiny village near Tsitsasar, Manchuria, a dispatch from Harbin revealed today. If the dispatch is true and the fliers are safe it means they broke the existing distance record by more than 400 miles.

In addition to this dispatch the French air ministry received a communication in which the fliers are quoted as saying they landed yesterday.

No check on the loss of life in the disaster or details of the sinking have been received from the survivors.

BRONZE STATUE HONORS SQUARE OREGON SHERIFF

(By International News Service)
PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 5.—Dedicated to "Square-shooter" T. D. Taylor, former Umatilla county sheriff, a bronze equestrian statue was unveiled at the opening of the annual Pendleton "Round-up."

The monument perpetuates the memory of a sheriff who never killed a man in 20 years of law enforcement, although his domain was one of the frontier's wildest spots.

Peace officers from the entire Pacific coast assembled to give tribute to the man who never broke his word. Indian chiefs arose to testify of his fairness and bravery while thousands of gaudily clad braves and cowboys paid silent reverence to one who "typified the western tradition."

Taylor was shot down by a desperado during a jail break here nine years ago.

ADVERTISING AIDS ALL

Newspaper advertising and the automobile have combined to bring stores in town to the very door of the farm house and the suburban home. Each day the newspapers bring a complete quotation of what can be bought, where it can be purchased and the prices at which it can be purchased. The sale is actually made through the advertising columns of the newspaper. A visit to the store next day by automobile completes the exchange of money for merchandise.

How much more convenient is this contrivance of modern commercial and the industrial genius to the inefficient method of our rural forerunners who knew only their personal needs. With them there was no alternative for the slow, tedious and disappointing expedient of going to town by wagon or cart and trusting to diligence and a stout pair of shoes to seek out the shop which sold that which they were in need of and which sold it at an acceptable price, if not at the lowest obtainable price.

The merchants in the cities and towns need not have debated over the inroads of the mail order houses before the day of the automobile and of persistent newspaper advertising. The mail order houses provided the rural and suburban buyer with a store—if only on paper—in which to plan his buying. Newspaper advertising is now offering the service formerly offered by the catalogs of the mail order houses but in addition is furnishing this service daily instead of twice yearly, is giving the buyer the choice of prices and goods of all merchants, not those of one, and is rendering a valuable 24 hour service in assisting the public to determine its wants.

Bearcats Trample Over Menard Boys 51 to 0

Coach Felton Wright started his entire second string team against the Menard High School team here Friday afternoon and the youngsters succeeded in taking care of themselves for more than half the game. They played the entire first half and a few minutes of the third quarter, and had the Menard team bested 7 to 0 and made 7 first downs to Menards 0.

Partridge and Wright in the backfield, hammered away at the Menard line for good consistent gains with Reneau and Dickson assisting them in carrying the ball. Twice they carried the ball to within easy scoring distance, only to be held for downs and Menard kicked back out of danger.

Ballinger's first counter came early in the second quarter after the ball was pushed to the one yard line and Wright carried it over on the next play. Partridge carried it around the end for the extra point. Ballinger 7 Menard 0.

The second team started the second half with the ball in midfield, in possession of Menard the entire first team was rushed into the game at one time. On the first play Menard lost 8 yards and kicked on the next play. Coker took the ball on the first play for the Bearcats, off tackle for 35 yards and Dankworth went around end for 35 more and a touchdown. Smith kicked goal. Ballinger 14, Menard 0.

Ballinger kicked off to Menard on their three yard line. Menard fumbled on the first play and Ballinger recovered. On the next play Coker went 17 yards for a touchdown. Smith failed at goal. Ballinger 20, Menard 0.

Ballinger kicked off to Menard and the first play was an attempted pass and failed. They kicked 30 yards to Chastain who received the ball and raced across the goal line but the play was called back and a five yard penalty given Ballinger for being offside. Menard kicked to Underwood who made a 20 yard return. Coker threw a long pass to Lusk who received it and stepped across the goal line for another counter. Smith failed at the goal. Ballinger 26, Menard 0.

The fourth quarter opened with Ballinger kicking to Menard again. A pass failed and Menard kicked to Underwood who was downed in his tracks. Coker gained 8 yards and Underwood went around right end for 15. A pass, Coker to Underwood was incomplete and Dankworth went twelve yards and a first down. A substitution was made for Menard and a 15 yard penalty for talking. On the next play Chastain went over center for nine yards and a touchdown. Smith failed at goal. Ballinger 32, Menard 0.

Ballinger kicked to Menard and the receiver was downed on his own five yard line. Menard attempted to kick out but the punt was blocked and Coker recovered behind the goal line for another counter. Smith again failed to kick goal. Ballinger 38, Menard 0.

Ballinger got off a poor kick and Menard had the ball almost in mid-field. They lost three yards and fumbled on the next play with Ballinger recovering. A lateral pass Chastain to Coker was good for 40 yards and a touchdown. Coker carried the ball through the line for the extra point. Ballinger 45, Menard 0.

Ballinger kicked off to Menard and on the first play Lusk intercepted a pass. Ballinger drew a penalty for two incomplete passes but the next one was good for 35 yards. Coker to Robinson and Bobbie stepped over for the last counter of the game. Coker failed to kick goal. Ballinger 51, Menard 0.

Ballinger gained 463 yards from scrimmage and Menard 23. Ballinger completed 8 out of 13 forward passes for a gain of 135 yards. Menard tried five passes, four were incomplete and one intercepted. Ballinger kicked 4 times for an average of 32 yards. Menard kicked 9 times for an average of 29 yards. The first team never kicked while they were in the game. Ballinger made 23 first downs and Menard 1. Officials: Clyde Pratt, referee. R. W. Earnshaw, umpire. J. B. Arthur, headlinesman. Ballinger used 27 men in the game and a large number for Menard makes substitutions impossible.

The entire second team played good ball while they were in the game and could have turned in an easy victory without the aid of a single first team man. The starting lineup was as follows:

Ballinger	Menard
E. Smith	Tomlinson
J. B. Jones	Mathews
	right end
	Right tackle

This World Series to Tell Tale About Our All-Star Ball Players

By Davis J. Walsh

(International News Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Is Simmons a better outfielder than Wilson? Does Foxx really outrank the National League field as the leading first baseman? How good is Cochrane in comparison with catchers in the rival league?

It isn't often that you get the all-star ball players of the country under scrutiny at one and the same time. Usually these moot points have to be settled in privacy with the customary punch on the nose but this time the eye itself will make the settlement and the nose can have a rest. The world series between the Cubs and Athletics will feature as many as seven of the ten or eleven men who figure to break into any all-star team selected.

Hornsby at second base can't miss. He hasn't Critz's speed and hocus-poocus stuff in the field but neither has Critz a half dozen other things that go to make Hornsby the great man that he is, even when beyond the flush of youth. Grove is just as certain to get a 100 per cent vote as one of the pitchers and I presume that Bush, of the Cubs, is entitled to the other place.

Perhaps both Simmons and Wilson aren't due to make the team but, in any case, the one left over would get the outfield utility job. Which one would that be? You can write your own prescription on that, although general opinion will be inclined to regard Simmons as the better man. The real tip off, however, will come in the series where they can be compared man to man and move for move.

Nobody, for example, would

Malone	right guard	Maines
Middleton	center	Mirike
Flynt	left tackle	Kitchens
Partridge	quarterback	Chapman
Wright	half back	H. Mathews
Dickson	half back	Stingle
Reneau	full back	Wilson

have named Jimmy Wilson for an all-star team after the 1928 games. He was the leading catcher of the league before the series and barely the leading catcher of the Cardinals after it was over. The big series is as good a place as any to decide whether a man really belongs or not.

For this reason, everybody will be watching Cochrane. Here is a catcher who is supposed to have everything—speed, arm, brains, punch, enthusiasm. They not only compare him to Kling, Bresnahan, Ewing and other immortals, some of them claim that he is the greatest of all ages. Will he fool them and fumble his great chance? It doesn't seem possible. Cochrane has yet to fall down in any pinch and it isn't likely that he will do it when the biggest of them all comes along. If Hartnett is ready, which isn't probable, a comparison between the two stand-out catchers will be more than interesting. It will be a little world's series of its own.

Foxx got Mister Ruth's disapproval at the All-American first baseman but many disagreed and some of them rather violently. James can smite that baseball but he isn't the most modish of first basemen, so the deep students have decided that Billy Terry, of the Giants, was and is a more plausible candidate. Be that as it might, Foxx is no worse than very good at anything he does and remains, per se, as one of front row names in the group portrait of 1929 celebrities.

The rear row will have a few representatives—Cuyler, Stephenson, Haas, Dykes, etc.—in this series, too. In fact, the affair has everything in the way of talent; all it needs is a few dramatic values. If it gets these, it ought to be a wow.

Contrary to precedent, a London jury refused to hold John B. Walker liable for the debts of his wife.

NERVOUS SUFFERING

Lady Says She Took Cardui, Felt Better In a Few Weeks, and Steadily Gained Health.

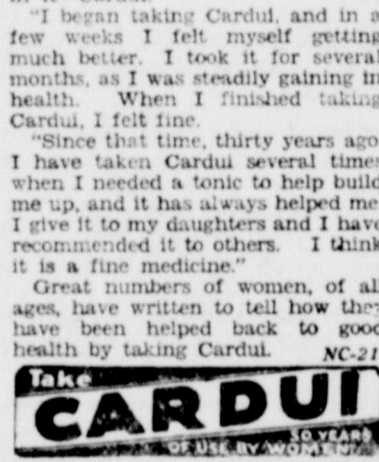

Moscow, Ohio.—"I had been in awful, bad health for months and months," says Mrs. Cynthia Staton, of this place. "My nerves were all to pieces, and I was all run-down. My back hurt all the time, and I had to drag myself around the house. My legs ached and I worried all the time. I could not stand the least noise. The least little thing upset me.

"One day I read a Ladies Birthday Almanac that my husband brought home, and I thought I would try the medicine I read about in it—Cardui.

"I began taking Cardui, and in a few weeks I felt myself getting much better. I took it for several months, as I was steadily gaining in health. When I finished taking Cardui, I felt fine.

"Since that time, thirty years ago, I have taken Cardui several times when I needed a tonic to help build me up, and it has always helped me. I give it to my daughters and I have recommended it to others. I think it is a fine medicine."

Great numbers of women, of all ages, have written to tell how they have been helped back to good health by taking Cardui. NC-218

Chicago Court Decision Saves Big Dog Track

By Francis F. Healy
(Chicago Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—"Scarface Al" Capone's big "investment" brokerage establishment on the West Side, the Hawthorne Kennel Club, a dog track, is safe against being closed for another year.

Circuit Court Judge Harry M. Fisher, in dismissing a bill for a permanent injunction to prohibit the state's attorney's office from raising the track, issued a temporary injunction to be in effect until the Supreme Court can review the evidence.

The track has been raided upon several occasions as State's Attorney John A. Swanson contends betting takes place at the track fostered by the management.

The petition for the injunction indignantly denies there is any betting. One of Mr. Capone's representatives, who owns a share in the track with the gang leader, blandly explained that no betting is tolerated but that various "investments" take place at night.

"It's just like buying shares of stock in a corporation," explained one of the owners. "The dog is the corporation and one purchases shares of stock in the corporation. Whatever the dog 'earns' is paid back to the investors, less a small 'brokerage' charge by the track management. But there is absolutely no betting."

"What if the dog loses," he was asked.

"Ah, yes, if the dog loses. Why, that's very simple. The dog goes bankrupt, just like any other firm. When the dog races upon some other night, it is just like the company was reorganized."

Prominent signs are displayed at the track, informing one and all that no betting of any kind will be tolerated.

For more than a year and a half dog track owners and the state's attorney's office have been fighting about the question of betting. Judge Fisher heard the tale concerning the "investments" and the tale of Swanson that betting was taking place and decided to refer the question to a master in chancery, Max Korshak.

After months of tedious study Korshak sided with Capone and his men and ruled the parimutuel "investment" system was not betting. Judge Fisher then issued his injunction which was promptly ignored by the state's attorney who raided the track and arrested the operators and better—or rather, investors.

Immediately Capone and his men raised a fracas because the injunction had been violated.

Judge Fisher decided to refer the case to the Supreme Court for a ruling, contending that certain sections of the state law regarding betting are conflicting.

In the meantime the investing business goes on nightly.

SAVE MONEY

Not many of the hundreds of thousands who have purchased the Pontiac Big Six selected it simply because it is so inexpensive to own. Most of them bought it because they were attracted by its big car performance, its big car style, its big car safety and riding ease. But it is a fact, nevertheless, that with a Pontiac Big Six you actually save money. You save—

When you buy

The Pontiac Big Six costs less to buy—not because it is the lowest-priced car you can get—but because it is the lowest-priced car ever produced which offers so many advantages.

Try to find similar advantages in another car—and you will find that the car which offers them costs hundreds of dollars more to buy than Pontiac.

When you drive

You save in operation and maintenance with a Pontiac Big Six. During 1928, a large public utilities company operated 996 automobiles of 33 different makes.

According to its figures, its Pontiacs cost one cent less per mile to operate than any other low-priced six.

When you trade it in

You save with a Pontiac when you are ready for a new car. The demand for used Pontiacs has always exceeded the available supply. And that means that you save on your Pontiac Six even on the day you trade it in. A car which combines such amazing economy with all of Pontiac's additional desirable qualities must command your attention. Come in to see and drive the Pontiac Big Six.
