Poor Senator McCarthy! As Senator Symington calls attention to a few of McCarthy's own indiscretions in security matters, McCarthy's voice rises in anger and he screams, "Smear. Smear." One of the main communist tactics, of course, is to infilturate government, and so we wonder whether McCarthy has been investigated thoroughly. Is he really loyal? Does he have any fourteenth cousins, twice removed, who wear red underwear in winter? Does his wife use pink lipstick? We think these questions perfectly in order in view of some Senator McCarthy asks.

And another thing- Wouldn't some of you parents of teen age boys be a bit apprehensive if you knew your sons were leaving some front line tonight on a combat patrol led by Lieutenant G. David Schine?

We say "Smear on, Senator Symington! Rub it in good, and let's see just how clean Joe is."

Carl Baker, government trapper who has been hunting a pair of wolves on the Moore and Neill place near Eldorado, got half the job done this week, when he trapped the old "he" near a hole in a fence. This spring Baker caught several of the wolves' pups. Baker classified the animal as a timer wolf, and feels that he will catch the female before too long.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Haines have as their guests this week her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Gay of Lebanon, Missouri. Gay will hold a revival here for two weeks.

TRUCK RUNS INTO WTU SUBSTATION

Several hundred dollars damage was done to the West Texas Utilities Company transformer highline substation Monday night about 9:30 o'clock when a truck loaded with casing knocked down the fence around the station and struck a pile of crossarms in the transformer area.

Evidently the truck, which was under contract of the Taylor Oil Company, went out of control near the Sonora Food Locker. Momentum of the truck was stopped by the crossarms. No one was injured.

The Sonora substation carries three 66,000-volt highlines. Sheriff Wesley C. Young investigated the accident.

People Today Live Longer Because of City Health Programs

Public Health Is America's First Line of Defense

A child born in 1950 enjoys an erage life expectancy of 68 ars—as compared with only 47 ars in 1900. From 17.2 deaths r thousand population in 1900, U. S. death rate dropped to per thousand in 1950, and the e continues to decrease, The nitary Engineering Committ- reports.

This remarkable record, says Department of Health, "can traced in large part to steady uctions in the death rate for ections and communicable dis- es."

Many factors have contributed our improved public health, but none has been more signifi cant than our municipal sanita tion programs. Thousands o miles of underground clay pip mains carry wastes to disposa plants. Vitrified clay pipe i recognized as the one materia that provides all the qualitie necessary to satisfy the exactin demands of sanitary structures Clay pipe resists all the effect of acids and other caustic sub stances that are found in sewe systems.

Modern sanitary systems con structed of clay pipe play an everyday role as guardian of the health of the people. They are one of the city's lifelines, carrying away deadly wastes.

Bank Opens New Money Order Service

Sonora residents now have available a new remittance service whereby persons who do not maintain checking accounts, or who do not wish to use a personal check, can write a registered check.

Known as the Register Check Personal Money Order, the plan was made available last week by the First National Bank here.

The service represents a streamlined modification of a plan which has been successfully used for several years by banks in other parts of the country.

Here is the way it works:

1. The Register Check purchased by the public is a triplicate form. The original, which becomes the purchaser's "personal check," is printed on specially watermarked, protected paper.

2. The customer asks for a check in the amount he desires, for example, $34.15. He pays $34.30 (the 15c charge is standard for any amount up to $100.00). The clerk then imprints the three copies of the check for $34.15 in a singles operation on a Protectograph checkwriter. The clerk retains the duplicate copy for bank records, and gives the original and triplicate copies to the customer.

3. The customer completes the check by filling in the date, payee's name and his own name and address. He mails the original and keeps the triplicate copy as his registered receipt.

Average time for the transaction is 15 seconds, according to bank of officials.

The low cost and speedy procedure of the system, developed by The Todd Company of Rochester, New York, make it a convenient way for persons with or without checking accounts to remit by mail for real estate or income taxes, pay bills, or transmit gift funds, officials of the National Bank of Commerce pointed out.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

AS DAY IS FROM NIGHT—

A LARGE PART OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY HAS SEEN TOTALITARIAN SYSTEMS TRIED IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE WORLD. DARKNESS HAS DESCENDED UPON THOSE PEOPLES, AND CLOSED OFF THE BORDERS OF SEVERAL FORMERLY FREE AND INDEPENDENT NATIONS.

IN OUR DEMOCRACY, WE STRIVE EVER TO BROADEN THE SPIRITUAL, POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC BASE ON WHICH WE STAND, AND TO BRIGHTEN THE RAYS OF ENLIGHTENMENT INSTEAD OF DARKENING THE MINDS OF MEN.
AS DE WITT CLINTON SAID IN 1826: "A GENERAL DIFFUSION OF KNOWLEDGE IS THE PRECURSOR AND PROTECTOR OF REPUBLICAN INSTITUTIONS; AND IN IT WE MUST CONFIDE AS THE CONSERVATIVE POWER THAT WILL WATCH OVER OUR LIBERTIES."

THURSDAY WILL MARK CLOSING OF BIBLE SCHOOL

The closing program of the Community Bible School will be held Thursday on the Public School lawn. It will start promptly at 6:45 p. m.

There will be a three day Bible School from June 22 through June 24 for those children who will be five years old before November 1. Mrs. J. E. Eldridge will be the leader for this group. She will be assisted by Mesdames Sam Logan, and L. E. Holland. Misses Armelda Odom, Annie Lou Bruice, and Jan Keng will also assist Mrs. Eldridge. The school will start at 9:30 and end at 11 o'clock each morning.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FROM VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

Q - - My husband, a World War II veteran, died recently. Would I be eligible for VA death pension if my yearly income falls below the $2,700 limit? I have a young child.

A - - You would be eligible only if your husband had a service-connected disability at the time of his death. His disability, however, need not have been the cause of his death.

Q - - I am a disabled Korean veteran, and I'm planning to take on-the-job training under Public Law 16. Will VA furnish me with supplies I need to pursue my training?

A - - Yes, within limits. The kind, quality and amount of supplies will be limited to those commonly required to be owned personally by non-veterans taking the same training. If your disability warrants it, you may be issued special equipment to help you do your job.

Q - - I am a Korean veteran who was totally disabled in service. I intend to apply for the special GI permanent-plan insurance available to disabled Korean veterans. Would it be possible to have my premiums waived because of my total disability?

A - - Yes. You should apply for a waiver of premiums at the same time you apply for your insurance. But be sure to pay the required premium with your application, and be sure to continue to pay premiums until VA tells your waiver has been granted. If it is granted, you will get a refund of premiums paid under waiver.

Q - - If I get a GI business loan, will I have to operate the business myself? Or could I turn it over to someone else to run?

A - - You will be required to devote your personal labor or supervision to the business, either on a full-time or part-time basis.

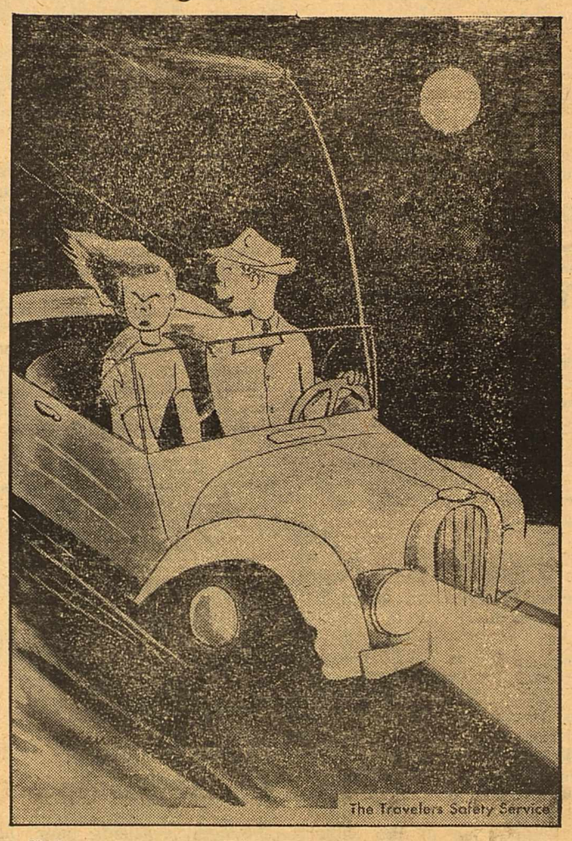

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Taylor spent last weekend in Alpine with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Luckie and son, Larry of Oil Center, New Mexico are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Luckie this week.

Mrs. Thelma Briscoe had as her guests this week her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Briscoe of Jourdanton.

The Passing Scene

"What's the matter, Chick? Don't you know you're with a very experienced one-arm driver?"!

A LOOK AT THE BOOK

By DR. BOB JONES, JR.

PRESIDENT OF BOB JONES UNIVERSITY — GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

It is always wise to ask oneself "To what results will this course of action lead me?" A consideration of the consequences rarely precedes the deed which ultimately produces a tragedy. One who considers the inevitable results of sin will pause before rushing headlong to his destruction.

Playing with fire, the boy does not behold in advance the charred and smoking ruins which will result from his carelessness. Taking his first drink, the youth does not see in the glass the reflection of the red-eyed drunkard he will become. Juggling his expense account or misappropriating a few dollars, the young businessman fails to consider the humiliation and tragedy looming ahead on the road of dishonesty as it leads him toward grey prison walls.

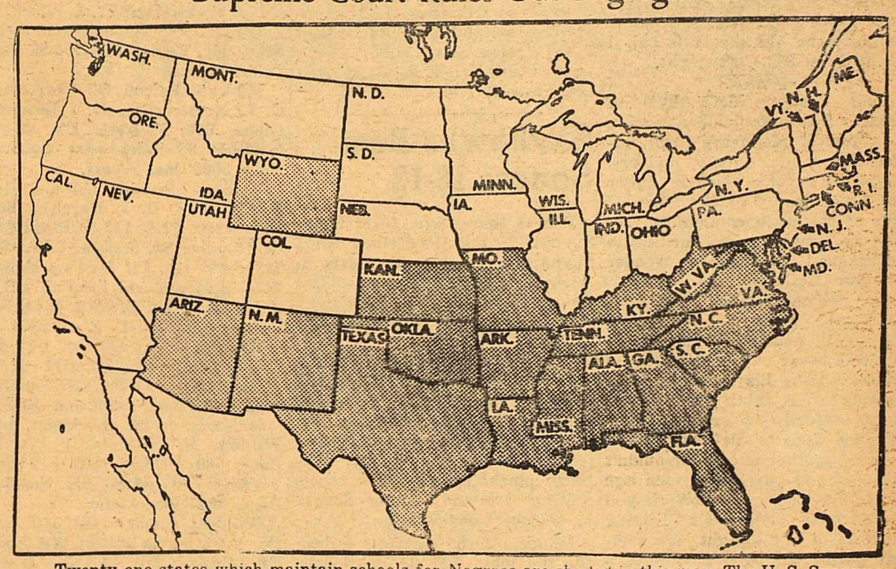

This is an important question, "What effect will this act have on me today?" but definitely more important is the question. "What will be the final result of this act?"

In the time of the prophet Jeremiah the nation of Judah had almost completely forgotten God. Enamored of the idolatry of neighboring countries, nobility and common people had alike become corrupt and wicked. Moral conditions were growing worse all the time. But, in those days, as always, God had a faithful few who did not follow the popular trend. Jeremiah was one of these. Alarmed by the blindness of the people to the impending national destruction, crying out against the popular sins of his day, he sought to ward them of the results of their course of life. Watching the people listen gladly to false prophets who promised eace and prosperity and blessing, Jeremiah asked them this question, "What will ye do in the end?" He lived to see the answer to his own question. In the end their city was destroyed. In the end they were slain or taken captive.

Sin always brings destruction in its wake. You may seem to get by with the violation of God's law today, but the "wages of sin is death." You may hide your sin from the eyes of others now, but what will you do in the end when you come to stand in the presence of God, from Whom nothing is hid?

Mrs. Jane Hamilton returned Thursday from a three weeks visit with relatives in New Mexico. She spent time in Red Cloud and Ruidosa, and stayed with relatives in Corona.

HARLINGEN (Spec.) — The io Grande Valley Distributors ! the Pearl Brewing Company, ie Largest Brewery in the Great outhwest, paid $6.25 per pound ie largest price ever paid for ie Nation's first bale of Cotton.

A world price record of $6.25 as paid for the first 1954 bale cotton by Pearl Beer Distri-itors Pete McNamee, Harlingen; L. Woodman, Corpus Christi; orace Etchison, McAllen; Frank rez, Mission; and Luis Ysa-irre, Rio Grande City. Ray rnick, grower of the 454 Lb. le, realized $2,837.50 from the arl Beer Rio Grande Valley istributors, plus a $1,500.00 nus from the Harlingen Cham-r of Commerce, to bring his tal to $4,337.50.

Colonel F. E. Snowden, veteran Rio Grande Valley auctioneer, said this $6.25 was more than twice the price paid for the first 1953 bale of cotton. The lowest price on record for a first bale was in the Depression year of 1932, when the cotton sold for .05c per pound, and no bonus.

The Pearl Beer Distributors gave this first bale of 1954 cotton to the Valley Boys Ranch, of Harlingen, and they, in turn, are going to have it auctioned to the highest bidder on the Cotton Exchange Floor, Houston, Texas. Funds to be used by the Valley Boys Ranch in its expansion program.

In acknowledging the checks, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnick expressed deep appreciation to the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce for its $1,500.00 bonus, and to the five Pearl Beer Rio Grande Valley Distributors for their bid of $6.25 per pound, which netted them $2,837.50.

The Auction was preceded by a Style Show, under the auspices of the Junior Service League, featuring twenty-eight models, Maid of Cotton wardrobe.

The bale of cotton auction was followed by a reception held at the Harlingen Country Club for the Pearl Beer Distributors, the Junior Service League, and the special Cotton Committee. Stanley Crockett, President of the Harlingen Chamber of Commerce, was Master of Ceremonies, and presented Miss Joan Chaudoin, Cotton Queen, with her Crown of Cotton.

Your Health

AUSTIN, June 16-One of the most improtant factors contributing to the well-being of summer vacationists is a safe and healthful water supply. Contaminated water is the annual cause of much sickness and many fatalities. Water from sources not known to be safe should be used to supply vacation needs.

Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, stated this week that most municipal water supplies in Texas are periodically inspected and samples submitted to the State or local public health laboratories for examination. He advised that it is always best, when in doubt, to endeavor to secure water from a municipal supply.

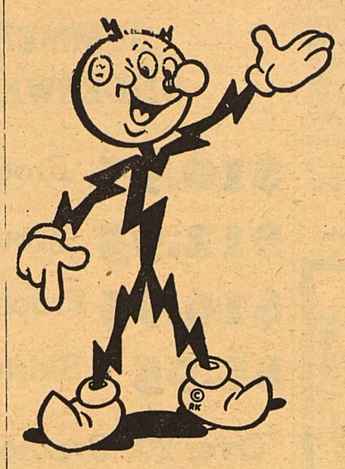

"Families away from home on picnics, excursions, or vacation trips," Dr. Holle said, "should either ascertain that their water supply is safe or they should make it safe for human consumption. Water can be rendered safe by boiling for 15 minutes or by the addition of chlorine. A few drops of ordinary chlorine laundry bleach can be added to a gallon of clear water and if the water is allowed to stand for 15 minutes it may be used for drinking."

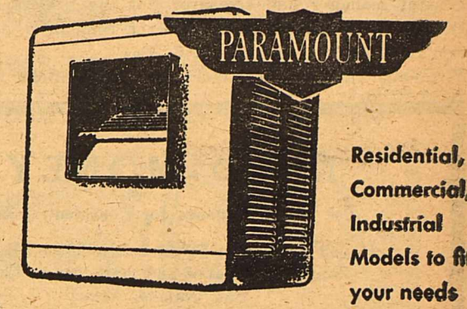

If drinking water is obtained from a private well, Dr. Holle advised vacationists to look for these protective features: a well-site protected from flooding with good drainage, and a concrete platform surrounding the pump. The pump itself should be securely mounted on the platform, should have a rod that enters the top through packing, and should have a turned-down spout. Contaminated water is uslally found in wells with open wood platforms, pits underneath the pump, openings where the pump rod enters the pump, and in pumps that require priming to operate.

Officers of the new company are Owen Gray, president, Toots Mansfield, vice-president, Royal Hart, secretary, O. R. Harvey, general manager and treasurer. The company, which manufactures a complete line of fancy, serviceable, horse and stock trailers, will use the proceeds to expand its production of trailers. While the company now sells trailers in every state in the nation, demand for the trailers has far out-run the company's production facilities.

"KEYS" TO RECOVERY OF RANGE TOLD BY WALKER

Supplemental pastures and continued feeding are major "keys" to the recovery of low producing, drouth ravaged grasslands.

Livestock raisers in areas of recent rains can put their moisture to work two ways, says A. H. Walker, extension range specialist. Under favorable moisture conditions, supplemental pastures of rapid growing grasses like Sudan will furnish abundant grazing. And, while livestock are on the supplemental grazing, permanent ranges are idle, allowing them to recover at the fastest possible rate. Range plants must have top growth before they can put down roots, Walker says. When it rains plants may grow quickly, but unless livestock are held off and grasses given a chance to reestablish their root systems, they are worse off then before.

Just which pasture should be rested first? The one in best condition, Walker replys, since these make more progress toward recovery in less time. Poorest grasslands, which will take two to five years to recover, should be rested later.

Many producers may be tempted to jump back and "grab a quick buck", but the specialist advices these raisers to "breed back rather than buy back into the livestock business."

County agents have a handy bullletin on the subject, C-320, Range Management Versus Drouth, which contains helpful information on range care during and after drouth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Newton have as their guests this week, her mother and niece, Mrs. J. F. Riley and Miss Lila Ruth Burns of Hamilton.

VENEZUELA — South America's biggest customer for U.S. goods — annually buys more than $500 million worth of products from United States factories and farms. Another $350 million of services (such as banking, insurance, etc.) are also provided to Venezuela by U.S. firms. A new independent study shows that exports to Venezuela come from hundreds of cities and towns throughout the U.S. The above map indicates the shares which different regions have in this expanding export market. Figures are estimated on the basis of the study, directed by Econometrics Specialists, Inc., which took in a 34 per cent sample of total export to Venezuela. American ships play a vital part in this trade, said the American Merchant Marine Institute.

A Few Suggestions About Wedding Pictures

IF someone in your family is going to be married in June, now's the time for you to start thinking about taking pictures of the wedding.

Taking wedding pictures is one the most exciting and most rewarding events. The bride and groom are always so happy to receive the photos that you get an extra thrill out of making the pictures.

But, there are one or two suggestions about wedding pictures that you should keep in mind.

First, never offer to take one picture. There's so much that happens at a wedding that you invariably must do a series. How many is up to you, but some professional wedding photographers take as many as 100 pictures at one wedding!

Second, plan the pictures you want beforehand; you'll be able to organize your shooting better.

And third, make sure your flash camera is in good operating condition. Check it carefully and test it thoroughly before you get to the wedding. For if you miss any shot because of faulty camera operation, you'll never again be able to get it again. Have fresh batteries in your flash attachment. If you think the wedding may be so crowded that you'll get jostled, use SF type flashbulbs, which give you a quick action-stopping light.—Dick Martenson, Sylvania Photo Editor.

NOW THEY ASK-ARE YANKEES FALLING ARPART?

There is a noticeable feeling of an impending change in the American League, says The Sporting News. Rival managers and players come to Yankee Stadium, take a good look at the Yankees and announce with conviction, "There will be no sixth straight pennant! These guys are washed up." In past years, predictions by opposition sorces of New York grief were guarded and a case of the wish being father to the thought.

Now, there is a far different situation: The other clubs are convinced that a new deal is in process of development, and there is great rejoicing.

There has been more than the normal cheering in the Stadium for visiting clubs. It is conceivable that the customers, like the opposition, are tired of seeing the Yankees win, season after season, and are ready for a change.

One thing is sure, says The Sporting News, this Yankee club is not geared for anything like the winning streak of 18 straight with which the Bombers of 1953 ruined the race as early as June.

Without Mickey Mantle in center every day, Stengel's outfield is not too formidable. Nor is the infield up to the old Bomber standard. Short and second have been harassing Casey and has been talking of taking chances.

The Yankees had a lacklustre training season, and since the pennant race got under way the weather has been rather unhelpful.

They are confronted with the absolute necessity of playing better ball, or moving out of the picture after having dominated baseball for five straight years, says The Sporting News.

"Break up the Yankees" was at one time the battle cry in the American League. After five flags in a row, can it be that the Yankees are falling apart?

* * *

Manager Walter (Smokey) Alston, first-year Doger manager, made a move at Cincinnati recently that may have been the first of its kind.

With two out, the score tied at 6 to 6 and big Ted Kluszeski the next hitter, Alston ordered Ted purposely passed, thus putting the potential winning run on base, says The Sporting News. The move paid off, incidently, in another unique way. Johnny Temple, the next hitter, with a two-and-one count against him tried to bunt the third strike. He fouled and the third out was an automatic one. (P. S. Temple came up in the eleventh with two out and Big Klu on base by another intentional pass, and lined a low single to right center to win the game.)

* * *

The Sporting News notes an oddity in the National League schedule: The Giants make their farewell appearance of the season at Pittsburgh on July 4!

* * *

When a Yankee writer asked Enos Slaughter to recall some of the great plays he had made, he got a startling answer from the old pro, who said, "I didn't make any plays I shouldn't have made", reports The Sporting News.

Did you know that Al Lopez, manager of the Cleveland Indians, caught more games than any other major league backstop. . . . and that he once ate lamb chops for 11 consecutive days while his club was on a winning streak?

Well, that's a sample from the breezy biographies of all 16 major league managers carried as a new feature of The Sporting News Dope Book, which has just come off the press.

These biographies contain many interesting anecdotes and little-known facts about all the big league managers. But that's only a part of the many interesting features, as well as facts and figures, contained in this handy, pocket-size publication of nearly 200 pages packed with baseball information. It's brand new and filled with features you wan't find in any other baseball books.

The Sporting News Dope Book also contains the latest diagrams of the 15 major leaguue parks. The distances down the foul lines and to each corner of the playing field are shown, together with the heights of the outfield walls.

Another feature is "Famous Firsts in Major History"- a compilation of historic games prepared by Ernest J. Lanigan, historian of the game's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. In addition you'll find the complete 1953 major league averages, the official playing and scoring rules this year, directories of the 16 major league clubs, Diamond Definitions and many, many other items.

You can obtain a copy of The Sporting News Dope Book at all leading newsstands or by remitting 50 cents to The Sporting News, 2018 Washington Ave., St. Louis 3, Mo.

* * *

Bill McGowan, veteran American League umpire, is another who'll bet you a hat the Baltimore Orioles beat Milwaukee's 1953 attendance record this season. The Braves set a new National League mark of 1,826,387 in their first year in their new home, says The Sporting News.

* * *

The Sporting News reports that Branch Rickey's orders to Fred Haney are to "Play only the men you think will be with us three years from now." Does that mean at least three more years for Haney?

Nelson King, the six-seven rookie who is trying for a job as pitcher with the Pirates, uses a swift, side-winding delivery that makes him look like Ewell Blackwell, reports The Sporting News. "Until," grunted an unimpressed Dodger hitter, "he lets go of the ball."

Why GMC's make other trucks out of date

Be careful—drive safely

The GMC light-duty truck does more because it has, as standard equipment, a full 125-horsepower engine—the most powerful 6 in its class.

The GMC light-duty truck saves more because its Truck Hydra-Matic Drive* ends repairs caused by shock-loading strains—ends all clutch costs—uses less gas—spares the tires.

The Hydra-Matic GMC light-duty truck performs better because it always is in the correct gear for the need—regardless.

The Hydra-Matic GMC light-duty truck handles easier because you never have to shove a clutch or shift a gear.

The GMC light-duty commands respect with its dashing smartness—its look of quality—its spacious luxury cab, that make you and your wife proud to take it anywhere.

The GMC light-duty truck costs less to own—less to run—than old-style trucks. Come in and we'll demonstrate it!

Be SAFE This Summer—ASWIM and AFLOAT

Don't swim away from your upset boat as this foolish man is doing. Your boat is your best life-preserver—always remember that fact! A tired person can be put on it while others swim boat slowly to shore and safety.

Roll capsized boat right side up to handle more easily for self-rescue. Wooden boat or metal one with good buoyancy tanks will stay afloat even when filled with water. Get aboard carefully and hand-paddle to shore.

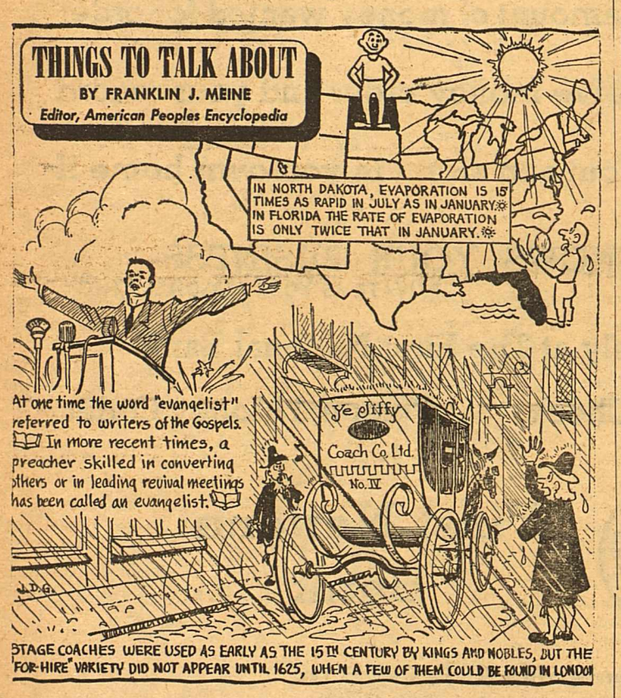

Re-enter boat over stern or make a foot-loop with rope at the bow to help you get aboard. Don't try to climb over the side if you fall overboard.

BOATING, canoeing and sailing account for almost half of each summer's needless drownings. The American Red Cross recommends: Don't ever go out in small craft unless you know how to swim.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

USE OF PREVENTIVE LAW HELPFUL

Most people seem to be in agreement regarding the value of preventive medicine-the taking of precautions to insure against bad health. However, very few stop to think that preventive law fulfills the same function with regard to the legal difficulties arising as we go through life. Competent, responsible legal advice can head off many problems, and is within the reach of everyone.

A lawyer bases his fees upon the benefit you receive from his services and upon the time and effort he has expended in your behalf. But beyond this, if you can't afford to pay the customary fee, this fact is taken into consideration by the lawyers in fixing his fee. He assumes as his first responsibility the duty of seeing that every member of the community is able to secure a lawyer's service when in need of them.

Preventive law-legal guidance to avoid errors and prevent lawsuits-is therefore reasonable in cost. It is far less expensive than the cost of trying to rectify mistakes after they have been made.

Here is an example: Mr. N. was transferred by his company and needed a house. He finally found one, an old one in poor repair. The owner told him he could have the house on a 2 year lease if he would "fix it up." Mr. N. took the owner at his word, had the house painted and repaired and moved in.

Less than 3 months later he received notice to vacate. The owner had sold the house over his head.

Mr. N. then sought legal advice-only to discover too late that he should have had a written lease describing the length and terms of his occupancy. Mr. N. now feels like kicking himself. He could so easily have saved himself the annoyance and expense of litigation now necessary to establish such rights as he may have.

Another example: Miss H., a business woman, lived happily in her own home. She wanted a friend to have her property upon her death. Miss H., believing she knew how to accomplish her wishes, prepared a deed to the friend, signed it and placed it in her safety deposit box. Having made the deed, she made no will.

But her friend did not get the property upon the death of Miss H. Title did not pass because the deed had not been delivered during Miss H's lifetime. A deed is never effective so long as the grantor may recall it at his option. This is one distinguishing feature between a deed and a will, which may be changed or revoked at any time before death of the maker. Today several of Miss H's distant relatives are suing each other over the property.

A will would have achieved the desired end. Legal advice in time would have insured the carrying out of Miss H's wishes.

These cases illustrate clearly the importance of consulting a lawyer in advance on matters involving a question of law.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform-not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Decker had as their guests last weekend Miss Lou Manning and Miss Marceline Lange of Ballinger.

Mrs. Cecil Elliott underwent surgery in the Shannon Hospital in San Angelo last week. Her condition is reported satisfactory, and she expects to return home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Babb have had as their guests for the past week her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Querrino Jenia and children, Ginny, Patty Ann, Johnnie, and Linda of Virginia, Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hodges and children of Kermit spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. John L. Martin.

---AND A GOOD TIP FOR YOU

WHEN it comes to sales, every car maker aspires to be up at the top of his price class.

Which is only natural. Popularity like that means success.

We know, because for years Buick has held such an envied position—the unquestioned sales leader in its class. And with good reasons in styling, room, power, value.

But today, folks like you have pushed Buick success even beyond such bounds.

Today, the top sales standings of a full generation have been changed.

Today, latest sales figures for the first four months of 1954 reveal this phenomenal fact:

In total national volume, regardless of price class, Buick is outselling all cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

That's a tip too good to pass up.

That's the tip-off that Buick must have the hottest styling of the times and the sweetest performance of the year.

More important, that's the tip-off that Buick prices are well within the reach of more and more people—and that such prices buy a lot more automobile per dollar.

So why not look into the tomorrow-styled Buick that puts you so far ahead today?

Come in, or phone us this week for a demonstration. Then you can judge for yourself that Buick really is the beautiful buy—by far.

A DROUGHT OR RAIN WHICH?

By W. H. Marshall

One of the finest and best things I have found in Sutton County people is their fine spirit. Even in the face of a long drought their spirit remains the same-most gracious.

But, and here is the point: As an individual, am I like a fine rain to the lives of my friends and my fellowmen, or am I like a bitter drought?

Do I by my attitudes, and the things I say and do, dry out the lives of those about me? Is my life dry and lacking in the milk of human kindness. Am I selfish? Do I have a good word and a BIG OLD SMILE for the fellow that needs me most? Am I human enough to know how to really live? How much of the rain of appreciation for people ever falls from the sky of my life? Am I anxious to plant a flower where flowers will do the most good? Or do I plant weeds where flowers should be planted?

There is only one way to measure the kind of a person I am, and that is by the way I try to help and encourage my friends and my fellowman to be at their best.

Some one has said, "Life is too short to be little." That I am sure is true for all of us. So, send along the rain friends. No one likes a drought.
