LITTLE TOWN, BIG HEART

Total of $762 In Barbie Fund

Barbie Vardy Fund had on deposit at City-National Bank a total of $762.07 at noon Wednesday.

Colorado City, the little town with a big heart, has donated the major share of the new total. All Mitchell County is contributing, too.

Citizens here have been giving dollars to the fund since the day it was announced in the Colorado City Record Sunday, Jan. 24.

George Womack, vice president of City National Bank and keeper of the Barbie Vardy Fund, reported Wednesday that some donations from some local citizens have been for as much as $20, $25 and $30.

Numerous gifts of $1 to the fund have added up to swell the total. From towns in New Mexico came gifts totaling $78 Wednesday morning. Donors living in Albuquerque, Roswell, Truth or Consequences, Raton and Socorro have made donations to the fund.

Other checks to the fund have come in from Annahiem, Calif., and from Dallas.

Barbie, seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Vardy and grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Vardy, has lost some ground and strength this week. Her doctor in Colorado City has stated that she needs to enter the hospital in Minneapolis, Minn. as soon as possible.

The local physician is at this time trying to reach the University of Minnesota surgeon to get consent for an earlier hospital admission date for Barbie. Tentative date for her admission for the transplant surgery was set by the surgeon for March 1.

March of Dimes chairman here, Bill Erwin, told the Record that a plane ticket for Mrs. Vardy and the baby will be financed by the local share of the March of Dimes.

With several benefits planned for this month to add to Barbie's fund, the well-nigh impossible goal seems to draw closer. The Colorado City Record hopes to hand Barbie a certified check for at least $1,000 very soon. The Record hopes that much cash will assure her admission to the Minnesota hospital for immediate observation and care.

If at all possible, and if agreeable to the University of Minnesota teaching hospital, backers of the fund hope to send Barbie and her mother to Minneapolis as soon as she can be admitted. She is a sick baby. She needs help.

If she gets that expert help it will be mostly because she has lived, the last four months, in Colorado City, Texas—little town with a great big heart.

Klaus Limbacher
... To Speak Here

German Student To Speak

Lions Club members here will hear a guest speaker, Klaus G. Limbacher, foreign exchange student, at their Friday program.

Limbacher, 17 years of age, is a student in Big Spring High School where he is student under American Field Service. He is a high school senior and arrived in Big Spring August 17 to complete his high school studies.

In Big Spring he lives in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ream and their sons Ricky, 18, and Jimmy, 14.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Heinz Limbacher of Wesal, a small town in the Northwest part of West Germany, on the Rhine.

Joe Earnest is program chairman. The student will be accompanied here by the Big Spring High School principal, Mr. Bentley.

Driver's Exams In City Hall

Driver's license examinations will be given for the time being in City Hall, second floor.

Texas Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger, resident officer, announced this week that the driver's test will be conducted as usual between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. each Wednesday in City Hall.

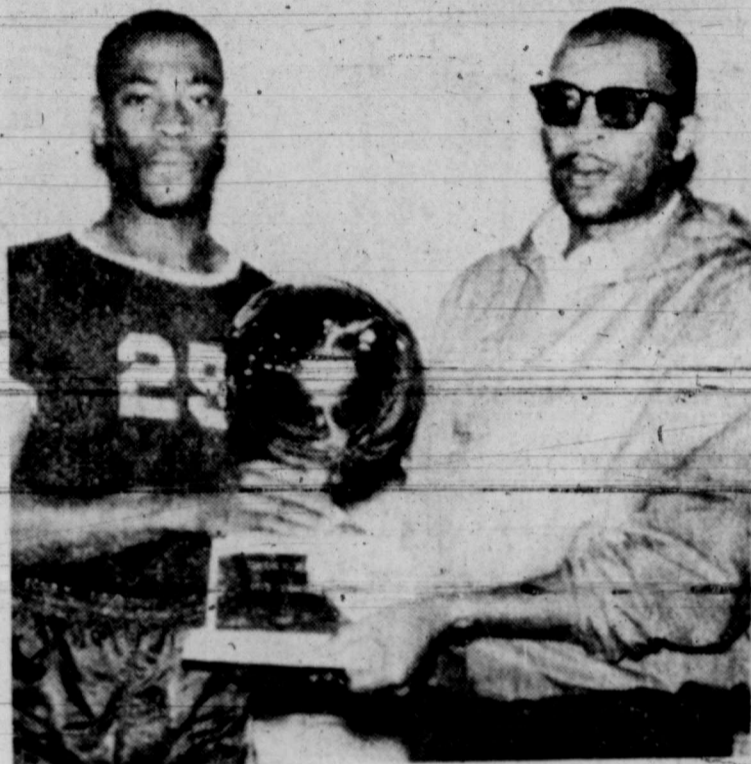

Gene Posey, Sweetwater, is Texas Highway Patrol driver's license examiner.

Extensive remodeling of the Mitchell County Courthouse first and second floors has made the moving for driver's applications and examination necessary, Hertenberger said.

Driver's license tests have been given in the conference room for Mitchell County Commissioners Court for a number of years. Moving of partition, closing of some windows, lowering of ceilings and installation of new vinyl floor coverings is now in progress.

Resulting confusion resulted in the decision to move driver's examination for the time being.

Wallace Wildcats Win District Basketball Title

Captain of Team and Coach

Emerson Henderson, at left, captains the Wallace Wildcats basketball team which grabbed the District title and trophy. Pictured with Henderson and the trophy is Billy Smith, Wallace coach. The trophy is the ninth District crown won by Wildcats since 1956. Wallace also holds three State Championship titles — 1959 and 1960 in Class B and 1962 in Class A competition.

Local High School Has Chance at State Crown

D. W. Wallace Wildcats of Colorado City have done it again and are headed for another try at the State title in basketball.

Although James Wade of Plainview fired in 28 points for the game honors, Emerson Henderson and Wayne Russell bagged 18 and 15 in the order to pace the Wildcats to victory. Dan Irvin and Curtis Taylor followed with 9 each for Wallace.

The victorious Wildcats will now participate in the State Tournament to be held at Prairie View A.M. College, February 18-20. Wildcats are coached by Billy Smith.

Since they won four district championships during their last five years in Class B, the Wildcats have an overall record of seven successive district championships and a total of nine in their last ten seasons.

Wallace has won three state championships, including two in Class B in 1959 and 1960, and one in Class A in 1962. The 1964 aggregation was eliminated in the semi-finals of the State Tournament by Commerce, 64-56. Commerce won the 1964 state championship by defeating Larue in the finals.

During the first three periods of the boys varsity game, the contest was so close that the score was tied 17 times and the lead changed hands 22 times before Willie Brown's layup sent the Wildcats out front to stay ten seconds before the end of the third quarter.

Wildcats led 13-12 after the first quarter only to trail, 29-31 at halftime. End of the third period found Wallace leading by a score of 43-41.

During fourth period, Wallace increased its margin to nine points, 50-41, on buckets by Brown, Irvin, and Henderson and a free throw by Taylor. Plainview, however, came roaring back to cut the Wildcat margin to one point at 56-55 with 2:15 remaining. Henderson's free throw and Taylor's jump shot gave Wallace a 59-55 lead, after which Ray's basket shaved the margin to 59-57. A field goal by Irvin with 25 seconds remaining sewed it up for Wallace, although James Wade retaliated with a belated bucket that ended the scoring with five seconds left.

Wallace made a clean sweep of the evening's schedule as the Wallace B team ousted the Plainview B team, 40-39, and the Wallace girls scored a decisive 58-34 victory over the Plainview girls.

Ken Johnson's 11 point paced the Wallace B team, while James White hit 13 for Plainview. Joyce Lewey of Wallace sank 28 points to take scoring honors in the girls game. Teammates Betty Mayes and Lonnie Williams collected 19 and 11 points, to complete the Wallace scoring. Alice Pruitt's 15 points topped the Plainview scorers.

Victory over Plainview enabled the Wallace girls to join Sweetwater and Hamlin in a three-way tie for the district championship as each team racked up a 4-2 record in district play.

Varsity Game
 WALLACE (61) — Russell 4 7 15; M. Williams 1 2 4; Irvin 4 1 9; Taylor 3 3 9; Henderson 7 4 18; Brown 3 0 6. Totals 22 37 61.
 PLAINVIEW (59) — J. Wade 11 6 28; Robinson 3 1 7; Ray 4 0 8; Cook 0 2 2; McCutcheon 0 2; Smoot 3 2 8; E. Wade 1 2 4. Totals 23 13 59.

Record of the Wildcats in the last nine seasons has proved a sports credit to school and town alike.

In 1956 when they took District Championship title, they went down to Borger by 51-49 in the first game of State Tournament.

In 1957 they lost to Norman by one point, 60 to 59 in State contests.

Placing second in District in 1958, Wildcats lost to District Champion Crane. Crane went on to win the State crown.

State Championship was won by Wallace in both 1959 and 1960 for Class B competition.

In Class A contests begun in 1961, Wildcats were eliminated in the quarter-finals at State after taking the District trophy.

Season of 1962 saw Wallace garner the District honors and go all the way for the State championship by a 64-60.

Next season, 1963, Wildcats

CHAIRMAN REPORTS

March of Dimes Collection $1,500

March of Dimes in Mitchell County now totals "about $1,500," said Bill Erwin, chairman of the drive this year.

Mothers' March, staged for the benefit of March of Dimes program to aid children with birth defects, came in with almost $1,000 when final totals were added, Erwin said.

Money in the envelopes mailed to citizens throughout the county is still coming in, the chairman reported.

One-third of the total collected each year in the March of Dimes is kept in the fund left here for local use, Erwin explained.

March of Dimes District Chairman, Tim Wood of Lubbock, in a telephone conversation with Erwin has suggested that some share of the Mitchell County March of Dimes fund for 1965 be used for the Barbie Vardy trip to Minneapolis, Minn.

Erwin, local chairman, said Tuesday that a plane ticket for Mrs. Bobby J. Vardy and her seven-month-old daughter Barbie will be purchased from the March of Dimes fund here—in the event she gets to make the trip.

Mothers' March, staged here Tuesday evening, Jan. 18 and for the weeks following as envelopes with contributions began to come in, was led by Mrs. John Morgan Jr.

Area captains who directed volunteer Marchers were Miss Irene Pargues, Mrs. J. A. Sad-cooked in a chafing dish takes on party airs. The same is ideal for Sunday night supper just for the family. Pork and Green Peppers on Rice is a dish that falls equally into the chafing dish or pretty skillet category. It's a savory of the meat and vegetable spiced with garlic and soy sauce, well sauced mixture ideal for spooning over hot tender rice. A tray of well-chilled relishes and a fruit dessert complement the dish and complete the menu, suitable for der-cooked rice is easily accomplished by even a beginning One cup of the regular milled white rice, 2 cups of water, spoon salt, and little more than 15 minutes of cooking produce three cups of tender, fluffy rice. Because U. S. rice is so finely grown and milled, there's no need to wash it before cooking. It can go directly from the box into the measuring cup, and directly from the cooking pot serving dish and table. Could any food be easier to cook?

MRS HALBERT, HOSTESS

Through Science Topic For Hesperian Study Club

"Through Science was theme for the meeting Friday of the Hesperian Study Club in the home of Mrs. Lynn Halbert.

Speakers for the afternoon were Miss Clydine Stickney and Mrs. O. L. Simpson.

Topics for the afternoon were Dr. Lillian Gilbert and Werner Von Braun.

"Dr. Lillian Gilbert, an internationally known consulting engineer, has been a pioneer in management and principles of motion study. She has discovered and formulated ways of saving waste motion in the office, factory, and home. Mrs. Gilbert has also written recognized textbooks in her field as well as serving on the faculty of Purdue and Rutgers Universities and the Newark College of Engineering," said Miss Stickney.

"In 1949," said Miss Stickney, "Dr. Gilbert became known to the general public as 'Mother' in the book 'Cheaper by the Dozen', which was written by two of her twelve children. The best-selling nonfiction of that Spring, it was adopted for the motion picture of the same title.

"Lillian Moller Gilbert was born in Oakland, Calif., on May 24, 1876, the oldest of nine children of William and Annie Moller. The Mollers were of German extraction and according to 'Cheaper by the Dozen', were genteel and well-to-do. The Mollers managed, somehow, in spite of their worldly goods, to live fairly simply. They were quiet, introverted and conservative.

"Dr. Gilbert graduated from the University of California in 1900, the first woman to be a commencement speaker. She received her Master of Literature in 1902 and was working toward a doctorate in psychology, when she met and married a prominent contractor and builder. Frank Bunker Gilbert was thirty-six years of age at the time of their marriage, and had many accomplishments to his credit," said Miss Stickney.

"Mrs. Gilbert was author of four books, one of which was 'Living With Our Children,' New York Times said, 'Among all the tidal way of books about children and parents now flooding forth from publishing houses, it would be hard to find one of deeper significance that Mrs. Gilbert's new novel. It is quite the best and most important thing she has yet written,'" continued the speaker.

"In 1936," said the speaker "Dr. Gilbert was chosen by American Women as one of the ten outstanding women of the year. In 1951 she was selected to serve a two-year term on a twelve-member Civil Defense Advisory Council. Honorary degrees have come in numbers and she was honored by Phi Beta Kappa.

"The real character of this intelligent mother, who combined a career and homemaking successfully, is probably best told by her children in their book after the sudden death of their father in 1924. 'Werner Von Braun,' began Mrs. O. L. Simpson, 'was born Mar. 23, 1912 in Wurstz, Germany. He studied engineering at technical institutes in Berlin and in Zurich, Switzerland, taking his Ph. D. at the University of Berlin in 1934. As early as 1930 he had experimented with small rocket motors and by 1932 was a rocket expert with the German Army's ordnance department.

"Coming to the United States in September, 1945, Von Braun became a technical advisor at the White Sands, N. M. proving grounds. From 1950 to 1956 he was chief of the army's guided missile development division at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala. Since his youth Von Braun has been interested in interplanetary travel, he calls it his 'scientific hobby.'

"Von Braun's first assignment as technical director at Ft. Bliss was to help teach army personnel to handle captured V-2's at the White Sands proving ground near El Paso. This required eight months, and was very dangerous business. His work in the United States, as it was in Germany, is highly secret," said Mrs. Simpson.

"Since 1950 he has been stationed at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala. In 1948 by crossing and re-crossing the short bridge into Mexico, Von Braun and other German scientists received visas and became eligible to apply for U. S. Citizenship, as all of them did. In 1948, too, he began attending scientific conventions and preparing papers

 This year members of the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative will spend $700,000 for appliances. And every penny will be spent to the electricity the member-owners provided for themselves. The dependable, efficient electric system offered by the rural electric cooperatives is helping Texas and the nation grow through rural electrification.

COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Farm Youths Face Strong Competition

Rural youths must prepare themselves educationally for stronger job competition in the future regardless of whether they plan a career on the farm or in town, says County Agent Buddy C. Logsdon.

Both on-farm and off-farm opportunities will be available for youths with the necessary background and training, but for those poorly prepared, the going will be rough, he predicts.

The County agent says that rural youth often face a double problem in securing a job, since they frequently must leave the farm and make a social adjustment to city life.

Nationally, an estimated 65 to 85 percent of rural boys and girls must leave the farm. The off farm movement will be necessary for two reasons. First, there are many more boys than are needed to replace their fathers.

Secondly, output per farm worker, which has been climbing about six percent annually, is expected to continue increasing. If this occurs, farms will become fewer, larger, and more mechanized.

Coupled with this competition on the farm, will be competition for jobs in urban centers. Economists estimate that 26 million people will join the U. S. Labor force in the decade ending in 1970.

Acute employment problems already have developed in the creation of new jobs in the face of automation, as well as in providing training necessary for new workers to fill new jobs.

Along with unemployment there is often a shortage of adequately trained workers. Therefore, it is the preparation that rural youths receive now that will determine whether they end up among the unemployed or find satisfactory jobs in the future, says the county agent.

Ruth Coffey's CONVERSATION CORNER

There are times (And that's the truth) when we write a column called just "Dear Ruth."

HAD we been clever enough to settle for a "Dear Ruth" column in the first place, it would have been easier in the second place. And last place.

All a columnist needs to write a readable "Dear Ruth" column is a way with words and a handy habit of being able to solve everybody's problems except your own in short order and shorter phrases.

And there's not a problem this side of Heaven we can't solve—provided it's not our own problem.

THINK what an easy way to make a living—just opening envelopes addressed "Dear Ruth!" Opening them, scanning them and answering them.

Knowing how well Dear Abby has done and seeing the fine response to Hints from Heloise hasn't done much for this one paper columnist's morale.

Looks like, from where we sit, that advice to the bleeding hearts or to the dishpan hands is the journalistic goldmine of the sixties.

SO? So, herewith, we submit a sample of the kind of advice we have right here at the fingertips. Seems a shame to confine talents to politics, philosophy, poetry and town-talk when there are tears on pillows and pink tissues all over everywhere.

"Dear Ruth," our first effort goes, "My husband is a good man. He does not gamble, drink, smoke nor chase. I know I should appreciate my good fortune, more. But somehow, Dear Ruth, my husband bores me. What can I do about it?" signed, Agonized.

"Dear Agonized," we hasten to write right back. "Try a little sauce for the goose. Bore him back."

SEE how easy it is? Seems like a snap. Just Anybody—Lord could do a "Dear Ruth" daily dozen. All you need is a starting place.

Dear Ruth you might read, "My problem may sound small but it isn't. My neighbor sends her three kids over to play with my five kids every day. How can I stop her?" Signed Plain Pooped.

"Dear Plain Pooped, take heart!" goes the proper answer. "Send her three kids home by your five kids. Then latch all the screens."

SEE how easy? Let's take another look. "Dear Ruth" Ever since my wife became a blond she bugs me. She is nicer to just any man—even the gas-meter man—than she is to me. How can I compete?" Signed Jealous Heart.

"Dear Jealous—Use your initiative, Son. Go get a job as the light-meter man."

NO PROBLEM too big, no problem too small. For instance—"Dear Ruth—My husband is a big shot. Makes big money. But he is very, very short and downright stingy when it comes to giving me money for necessities like new clothes, furs and perfume. Please tell me how to break him." Signed, Status Seeker.

"Dear Status—Open Four

Fund have come from Albuquerque, Baton Rouge, Dallas, Los Angeles, Roswell, and Truth of Consequences all of New Mexico.

check came from Mrs. Otto Berlin, who compared her with Mrs. Eva Landa Schwartz.

"DEAR RUTH," goes the final plea. "My wife has me puzzled. She makes her own clothes, takes wonderful care of our kids, saves our money and always has dinner ready but she flat refuses to cook my breakfast before I leave for work every day at 6 a. m. or keep my shoes shined. She says breakfast for six kids at 7:30 is all she can say grace over. Do you think our marriage can last?" Signed Disappointed.

"Dear Disappointed—It probably won't. Tell your wife to write Dear Ruth for the names of six smart lawyers in her vicinity."

TOAST TO THE TEENAGERS

Like Man . . . you never know what these teenagers will do or say — or even think, next!

You can always read about how these teenagers behave . . . or don't behave. . . dance or don't dance . . . do or don't cut their hair . . . and what they wear.

Don't see much about the young tenderness in the average teenage heart . . . teenage sensibilities . . . natural get-up-and-go.

Up at Colorado High last week, C. City teenagers dug down into their jeans led by two girls, Jill Richards and Linda Welch, gave a total of $130 to the fund for a sick little baby they never saw . . . or heard of before. They gave the money to Barbie Vardy.

Like Man . . . that teenage idea turned out to be most! How's about making this teenage appreciation week?

Changing Philosophy On Mental Illness

There was a time when people thought the mentally ill were possessed of demons and should be "put away" so they could not do any harm to themselves or to others.

That was long ago, but the idea still lingers on that mentally ill persons should be sent far away from home for treatment and often for long years of confinement. This idea is perpetuated in Texas by present laws, systems and facilities for treatment for the mentally ill.

The 59th Legislature is being asked to change these laws and systems under a bold new approach to the growing task of combatting mental illness; a changing philosophy of treatment of the mentally ill.

Under the new philosophy, a state-wide citizens committee is asking the Legislature to:

— Replace laws and Constitutional provisions dating back to 1876 with new ones to fit the needs of 1965.

— Put the emphasis on prevention of mental illness in its early stages, instead of devoting the whole effort to treating it in advanced forms.

— Substitute rehabilitation for custodial care.

— Shift from institutional care in state hospitals to "community care" in or near the patient's home city.

"The way we treat mental illness is often subtraction process," says Dr. Moody C. Bettis, psychiatrist coordinator for the State Office of Mental Health Planning. "Society often subtracts from the person regarded as mentally ill his home, community, and — through the process of law — his citizenship. Worst of all, it often subtracts his self-respect."

"These new proposals in the Texas Plan of Mental Health Service are based on a changing philosophy on treating mental illness whereby we would try to keep the mentally ill person at home and treat him in community mental health centers. We thus would try to add to his self-respect, instead of subtracting from it, because we feel that self-respect is the cornerstone of self-sufficiency and human dignity."

The mental health planners have asked the Legislature to consolidate the presently wide-ranging system of mental care into a unified Texas Department of Mental Health, which would face the complex problem of organizing and launching a simultaneous attack on two fronts.

"On one front," Dr. Bettis says, "it would continue to activate those already in mental hospitals, returning more and more of them to their home communities, to positions of self-maintenance wherever possible."

"On the other front, it would intensify a program of early detection aimed at meeting mental illness in the early stages and preventing hospitalization. On one front we would try to keep people from needing hospitalization."

Dr. Bettis points out that early detection of mental illness means it will be less severe, with less time lost from work and faster results of treatment and rehabilitation. He cites an existing program as an illustration:

In 1963, the state hospital program cost per patient day $4.09. The average hospital stay was 372 days for a total cost per patient stay of $1,522. Under contract arrangements between private psychiatrists in Beaumont and the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools, all committed patients from that city were treated locally in the same manner as private patients. In the first six months of his program 307 patients were treated at a total per-patient cost to the state of $201. After collections from insurance and the county, the net state cost was $161 per patient.

The planners suggest that community treatment centers might be located in the state's 21 metropolitan centers — where they would be within two hours' driving time or any point in Texas. The state now ranks 46th among states in per capita spending for community mental health programs.

Governor, Legislature Get Proposals

A new "Texas Plan for Mental Health Services," which — if it becomes law — could revolutionize the state's system of caring for the mentally ill during the next 10 years, will be up for consideration by the 59th Legislature during the current session.

The plan, prepared during the past year by statewide citizens committee, has been endorsed in principle by Gov. John Connally.

"This represents by far the most comprehensive study yet made of mental health needs in Texas," Gov. Connally said. "We would be remiss if we did not attempt to implement the report."

Termed a "bold new approach" to the treatment of mental illness in Texas, the plan calls for the Legislature to establish a new Texas Department of Mental Health, which would consolidate mental health functions now under the Board or Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools and the Texas State Department of Health. The plan also would help interested cities in Texas to develop their own comprehensive treatment facilities for the mentally ill.

A recommendation for community mental health centers to supplement and eventually to replace much of the care and treatment now given in state mental hospitals is the big step toward modernizing the Texas system.

Judge C. L. Abernethy of Hale County, chairman of the statewide planning committee, said these community mental health centers would need to have the interest and financial support of the people in the towns, cities and nearby areas they would serve.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

Education Still Rates Top Priority In Austin

BY VERN SANFORD

Education still rates top priority in the State capital. But it was viewed in a new light after Gov. John Connally revealed program to the State Legislature.

Connally took the suggestions of his Committee on Education Beyond the High School that a strong coordination board be created to administer state college and universities. He adopted its plan to put public junior colleges under that board and then told the Legislators the State should assume full financing of instructional costs of junior college academic programs.

"THREE-BOARD COLLEGE SYSTEM" Real surprise in Connally's approach to higher education came in his proposal that all existing college and university boards of regents be abolished and the higher education institutions be regrouped into three systems.

Even this idea held an added surprise, since Connally recommended establishment of an agricultural and technical university in San Antonio, to serve all of South Texas.

Under the three system approach, there would be a University of Texas System composed of the University of Texas in Austin, Texas Western College, Arlington State College, North Texas State University, Texas Woman's University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University and all medical and dental units.

Texas State University System would consist of A&M University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A&M College, Tarleton State College, Lamar State College of Technology, Texas A&I College, and the proposed San Antonio University. A State Senior College System would include Midwestern University, Pan American College, East Texas State College, Sam Houston State Teachers' College, Southwest Texas State College, West Texas State University, Stephen F. Austin State College, Sul Ross State College and Angelo State College.

ADULT ILLITERATE CLASSES — Going from higher education to the most basic sort of education, Connally told the Legislature that 14 per cent of the citizens in Texas over age 25 are functionally illiterate.

He recommended that this situation be met with a program administered by the Texas Education Agency under the Poverty Act. It would offer basic education courses in public schools to at least 10,000 functional illiterates each year.

Governor also asked that vocational and technical education programs in public schools and junior colleges be stepped up to meet coming employment requirements.

TEACHERS' PAY — Connally by-passed a bill by TSTA designed to raise minimum teachers' pay by $45 a month. Instead, he endorsed a plan already in the form of a bill by Sen. Jack Strong of Longview. It provides for stair-step raises, with sizable pay increases for experienced teachers, and ups maximum teachers pay some $650 a year.

His recommendation that teachers be allowed to take summer graduate work at State College and universities, free of tuition, received big applause.

WATER PLANNING — Connally adopted the Texas Research League's design for a master State water plan and expanded powers of the Water Development Board. Next day, he requested a $200,000 emergency appropriation to get the project underway.

He also asked the Legislature to pass bills enabling the Water Development Board to make loans for local development of underground water resources.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS — Governor Connally came out strong for driver education programs in all schools, to be directed by the Department of Public Safety.

He urged passage of an Industry Safety Act; a one-cent cigarette tax increase in 1966; abandonment of the state property tax in seven

BASIC NEEDS

Congress will decide which of the programs laid down in the President's State of the Union Message will be adopted, which will be rejected, which will be modified and changed. But one thing is obvious — the costs, at best, will be enormous. And it must be repeated over and over again that such costs can be borne without the risk of massive inflation only if two things are done.

First, waste and duplication of effort within the government must be curbed. Eficiency and economy are not, solely essential.

Second, a "climate" must be steadfastly maintained that will encourage business investment and expansion to the maximum degree. This is the way to create the millions of new jobs the nation will require. And it is the way to increase government's tax income and to minimize inflation breeding deficits.

Now and in the future these will be basic needs and will be constantly more inescapable.

THE GRAHAM LEADER

DEAR DORIS

advice from Doris Clark

Checking Up On Hubby

DEAR DORIS — I have reason to believe my husband is only working part time, or that he gets enough time off to drive long distances in his car. He is an office clerk and does not have to do any travel for the firm.

I want to ask how I can find out how many hours he does a week. Something's funny about all those miles he does driving, at the time he is supposed to be a work. Should I take the risk and write to his firm's head office?

Suspicious DEAR SUSPICIOUS — Not unless you want him to lose his job. Employers have a way of distrusting the wives who distrust their husbands. Nor are they likely to enlighten you.

If you suspect unfaithfulness, look to your home life. Do you share your children and other interests? Is it possible you shut him out first?

Try to get better mileage on the hours you share at home, and then see how the speedometer is registering.

DEAR DORIS — I am 39. I met a girl I like, but being a bit on the quiet side, I can't seem to talk to her about anything except my job. Also since I don't own a car, I don't feel that I can offer her as much as other guys.

She says that she doesn't care whether the fellow has a car or not, as long as she likes him. However, it is hardly right to expect a girl to stand at a bus stop when you have an important date. I'm terribly confused as to how I can get a date with this girl and how I can make more friends.

Lonely Boy DEAR LONELY BOY — Take her at her word. Haven't she said she'd rather walk with someone she likes than ride with someone she doesn't? Who wouldn't? Once I got a proposal when my date, and I were standing waiting for a bus. Any spot can be romantic with the right company!

If the date is a formal dance, call a taxi. And since you are stuck for conversational tidbits, write in again, enclosing ten cents and a stamped envelope for my letter. "Tips On Talking" was growing up my cousin told me my father was my father but my mother was not my mother. Later I asked my father if I was adopted and he hedged. I wrote and asked an aunt and she didn't answer that part of my letter at all.

When I was small there was a lady who worked with my Dad in the store. She always sends me a Christmas card and asks for pictures of my children. And there are other things that make me wonder.

My parents are gone now and I would like to know if this lady is my natural mother. She is a fine person. Do you think there is some way I could ask her?

Birth Pangs DEAR DORIS — I wonder too. But the lady could be merely a fond baby sitter who watched you grow up.

If you want to explore further, do it gently. Answer her card with snaps of the children and a letter of your doings. Ask about hers. Her reply might start a correspondence between you.

After this, a summer invitation to visit might provide the occasion for confidences. Be careful of her feelings and your own. If indeed you are right in your suspicion, your friendship could ripen into something very

HEALTH & SAFETY TIPS

Sports Fads Offer So Real Assistance

The athlete—including the weekend golfer or skier — who experiments with pep pills, whiffs of oxygen, odd dietary supplements and other such fads in the hope of improving performance is doomed to disappointment and may even be courting bodily harm.

Sports, with their premium in endurance and top performance are fertile soil for experimentation with a wide variety of what physicians call "ergogenic aids," and ergogenic being defined as increasing the capacity of bodily and mental effort, especially by eliminating fatigue symptoms.

The mystique of the readiness of the athlete for competition intrigues the sports enthusiast, says a joint comment of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Association and the Committee on Medical Aspects of Sports of the American Medical Association.

None of the fads, fallacies and quackery associated with ergogenic aids is of any more assistance to athletic success than the superstition of never changing underwear during a winning streak. The joint statement says. And some of the practices may even be hazardous if carried to extremes.

For safe and effective performance, there still is no alternative to the fullest utilization of one's natural resources through good personal health practices, top physical conditioning and confidence in one's ability based on careful coaching and good medical supervision.

Pep pills that lessen the feeling of fatigue obviously can be dangerous. In that they lead to exertion far beyond the body's capacity, and also impair judgment.

For top performance in sports, there's no artificial substitute for good coaching, thorough conditioning, many hours of practice and general good health. These cannot be obtained from a bottle or box.
