BY SUE CANNON

An extra special thank you goes to Marilyn Miller for her efforts in making this year's homecoming a REAL coming home!

She has been busy planning activities for a special assembly prior to the pep rally which I think is going to be a real treat.

So don't miss any of the special deals prior to the game. Or you're gonna be sorry!

And..... don't miss the Powder Puff Football game this coming Monday at 6:30. I think it's going to be hilarious! (Look at the pictures in this issue and I think you'll agree)

While I am on the subject of things going on over at the school, I must mention how beautiful our band is this year! Fred Stockdale has a real band to be proud of, I think! The twirlers are absolutely lovely, the flags add much, much, much!!! and the marching band is just great! Congratulations, kids,.....and Mr. Stockdale!

Remember, if you haven't registered to vote, you only have until Oct. 6, if you want to vote in the national elections!

We've started the ball rolling! I went over to the Chamber of Commerce office Tuesday morning and asked Frances Redinger if she could find out if the merchants were interested in a fall showing of their merchandise to be shown at a style show. Admission to the show would be charged and the proceeds would go toward a doctor-hospital fund.

Now, for a little griping. I sure hope the "square" gets cleaned up before time for our historical marker to be erected. Our city streets are an absolute disgrace and the "square" is no better!

It looks like each individual in this town is going to have to make up his mind that helping keep Olton clean is his responsibility, not everyone else's.

And another gripe! I tried to work in my yard last night and brother! the mosquitoes liked to have carried me off. (And I'm a pretty good load, even for these Texas sized mosquitoes.) What ever happened to our spraying?

Possibilities for increased vegetable production in the High Plains area were reviewed Thursday by leading vegetable industry producers, processors and researchers at Hale County Agriculture Center.

It was agreed by speakers on the program that vegetable production could increase the area income when produced with management skills necessary. Pointing to the amount of vegetable production on the High Plains and Panhandle area of West Texas, Trevino said this past year 42,000 acres of vegetables grossed a total $30 million dollars. That's roughly $750 per acre, Trevino said.

STAPLES, MINN., WORLD: "With the political pot coming ever closer to a boil, the following comment may have some truth in it: A politician is one who can get money from the rich and votes from the poor, and make each think he is protecting them from the other."

IN ALABAMA: "One-way tickets home are being given to willing welfare recipients from out of state by Connecticut. Although costly, State authorities report it's cheaper than paying out welfare. For example, in three months last year 572 individuals were sent home at a cost of $28,000. If these same people had stayed in Connecticut it would have cost the state $532,000 a year to support them."

To Include Ex-Queens

Homecoming Plans Begin To Take Shape

Homecoming -- Oct. 6 -- 1972 style is going to be better than ever!

That's the word that is being spread around Olton this week as preparations have begun for a bigger and better homecoming.

Theme of the Homecoming Parade is "American History" and numerous floats are being prepared for the gala affair. Thursday night, Oct. 5 marks the beginning of the special activities, with a giant bonfire on the football practice field. The lighting of the fire will follow the B Team game.

Friday afternoon, a special assembly will be held at 2 p.m. in the high school gymnasium, just prior to the pep rally.

During the assembly, all ex-cheerleaders and ex-football queens will be recognized and those who have sons that are now on the Mustang football squad will be introduced with their sons as will those who have daughters who are now cheerleaders.

Cheers will be given and possibly led by the ex-cheerleaders for the years during the 30's, 40's, 50's and 60's.

All ex-students are asked to register as they come into the assembly and those who are unable to come and register at the assembly are asked to register as they come into the football game that night.

Also, all businessmen are asked to come to the gym at 2 p.m. to form a victory line for the Mustangs as they come out of the dressing rooms.

A display of the "Blue and White" is also requested during the week of homecoming in the places of business in the town.

Highlight of the assembly will be the crowning of the homecoming queen. Three candidates have been chosen by the Mustang squad and each will be escorted by a member of the team as she is introduced to the audience at the assembly.

Candidates for the honor this year are Cheryl Latimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Latimer; J. Carol Criswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Criswell; and Sylvia Saldivar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Saldivar.

Following the crowning of the queen the OHS Choir will sing a song in honor of the new queen and will dedicate it to the ex-queens.

A spirited pep rally will get under way led by cheerleaders; Robin Criswell, Brenda Lawson, Kathy Ahrens, Cindy Neinst and J. Carol Criswell.

The OHS Band will accompany the twirlers in a routine during the pep rally. Twirlers are Carla Moses, Denise Myers, Susan Rape and Alana Hamill.

From the pep rally, the band, twirlers, cheerleaders and all fans will go downtown to perform in the parade which will get under way soon after the rally.

Beginning at 5 p.m., the Olton Parent-Teachers Association will begin serving hamburgers at the school cafeteria. The hamburger supper is an annual affair, sponsored by the PTA.

The homecoming football game begins at 7:30 p.m., with the Mustangs meeting the Abernathy Antelopes.

Hyatt will receive $5 first prize money, Mathis will get $3 and Mrs. Chitwood will be recipient of $2.

In season standings there is a three way tie as of this week. Tied with 44 points each are Joanna Carlisle, Jim Curtsinger and James Ray Hyatt. Charles Didway of Post, Lynn Gullett and Marilyn Miller each have 43 points for the season and Ronnie Parsons has 42.

Those contestants with 36 or more points are listed on page 2 of this issue of the Enterprise.

There is still time to get in on the competition for the Cotton Bowl tickets. Simply pick up a copy of last week's Enterprise and enter the contest. You may be the winner for the week and pick up the $5 first prize and continue to enter each week and become the winner of the bowl tickets.

Olton To Battle The 'Mean Green'

Olton is on the road again this week as they journey to the land of the "Mean Green" Floydada. Game time is 8 p.m.

Floydada is unbeaten in play this year and Olton is still looking for their first win of the season. Last Friday night the Whirlwinds dumped Post 20 to 15. That game was marred with several Post fumbles but Floydada is not known to turn down gifts so they just traded these favors for touchdowns.

Coach Shackelford gave the report on the Floydada team at Monday's Booster Club meeting. He described the Whirlwinds as a good sound team.

"They just don't make any mistakes and when their opponents do they punish them for it. They don't do anything fancy or tricky. They just line up and play basic football and physically whip their opponents," Shackelford said.

"They are aggressive and very physical. They have good speed in the backfield and you have to hit them to bring them down. Their offensive line is strong and are good blockers," he continued. "They are quick off of the line and they attack instead of waiting for the opponent."

"Floydada doesn't have fancy backs or speed merchants this year but their backs are good."

Defensively they are a good sound ball club also. Their line backers are good, quick and tough. The front wall is led by big Terry Bunch. He tips the scales at 215 and he is double tough to deal with. Their inside line play is double tough also. They play about the same way on defense as they do on offense. They take the play to you in a rough and rowdy fashion and play hard. They hit hard and play hard.

Floydada is probably not any more dangerous than any other team that Olton has faced this year. But they play a tough brand of just plain old football and they play it well.

Coach Kinnison presented the players of the week to the small gathering of people at the meeting. Max Moss was the defensive player of the week. This was Max's first game for the year as he had been sick the first part of the season. Keith Workman won the offensive player spot for the second week in a row.

Israel Zamora was presented the special privilege of being the "Mustang of the Week". Kinnison said that Zamora played on all of the special squads and just where ever we need some one, we put him there. "He is one of those special people that can play any position at any time that you need him and do you a good job at it," Kinnison commented.

Speaking of the team Kinnison added that they "block and run well most of the time but just don't score." He also added that Olton had been lacking aggressiveness.

Texas Historical Marker To Be Placed On 'Square'

An official Texas Historical Marker is to be erected in Olton and will be dedicated in ceremonies at 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11. The marker will commemorate the site of the first Lamb County Courthouse.

Announcement of the marker dedication has been announced by V. M. Peterman of Amherst, chairman of the Lamb County Historical Survey Committee.

Erected on the old courthouse square, the marker will be inscribed:

"Site of the First Lamb County Courthouse. Created in 1876, Lamb County was unrecognized until it could muster 21 qualified voters, 1908. Citizens donated labor for first 9-room frame courthouse, which served until it burned in 1922.

First County officials were: Judge, H. R. Miller; Commissioners, J. A. Hooper (Precinct No. 1), Claude E. Hallsell (No. 2), G. M. Arnett (No. 3), Walter Sullivan (No. 4); Sheriff, Herb Dickenson; Clerk, George Gallaway; Treasurer, Fred Schreier; Assessor, Luther Williams.

A new courthouse of brick and concrete was built here, 1922-23. After a 1946 election, the County Seat was removed to Littlefield. (1972)"

Made of cast aluminum with Swedish steel effect, the marker measures 18" by 28" and is sponsored by Lamb County Historical Survey Committee.

Marking of local historic sites and landmarks is part of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee's program of preservation activities. These include archeological investigations, small museum consultations, and administering the National Historic Preservation Act in Texas. As of 1970 the Survey Committee had erected more than 5,000 official markers.

The name and location of the new marker will appear in the next edition of "Guideto Official Texas Historical Markers" in order to stimulate tourist travel in this area, to arouse interest in historical tours, and to acquaint the people of this locale with their unique heritage.

Broadcast Time Change

A change of time will be noted for the radio broadcast by Station KFLP of Olton-Floydada football game.

The re-broadcast has been scheduled for 7:45 a.m. Saturday Sept. 30. Play-by-play coverage will be given by Leo Reynolds.

Grass Roots America

BY JERRY MARTIN

The smut merchants may lose their legal right to mass market the hard-core pornography they've been peddling in California: --If the voters approve a statewide ballot proposition that would tighten and clarify California's anti-pornography laws, and --If the courts do not nullify a favorable vote on the grounds that any state action is unconstitutional.

This opportunity to crackdown on obscenity is a fight led by State Senator John L. Harmer of Glendale, a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) and a one-time aide to U. S. Sen. Wallace Bennett of Utah. The drive is supported strongly by Mormons and many other church and civic groups.

A showdown on obscenity has been developing for many years. The tide of pornography in all forms has sharply increased throughout the United States since the U. S. Supreme Court decided that material can be declared obscene only if it is "utterly without socially redeeming importance."

That means an essay on bean sprouts presumably could be included in a magazine otherwise totally devoted to erotic and nudes and the whole work would be construed as having met the Supreme Court test. Other sweeping decisions in pornography cases have made it virtually impossible to establish minimal anti-obscenity standards.

If pornographic exhibitions such as topless and bottomless bars fall within what a court defines as the accepted "contemporary community standards" of San Francisco, for example, it becomes impossible to prohibit topless and bottomless bars elsewhere. This is because the courts have interpreted "contemporary community standards" as meaning statewide standards.

Thus, a suburban community consisting largely of family homes, churches and schools, is helpless to control pornography within its own borders.

The ballot proposal Senator Harmer is supporting in California is designed to correct this legal absurdity. It is carefully drafted to conform to recent U. S. Supreme Court rulings on obscenity and yet avoid censoring legitimate works of art and literature. It is aimed at the hard-core pornography and at giving local communities a right to establish their own moral standards. Since the Supreme Court and other court cases on pornography, California's efforts to curb smut have been largely ineffective. For almost a decade, a liberal-dominated Legislature blocked every attempt to tighten the anti-pornography laws.

Then, in 1969, Governor Ronald Reagan's administration managed to pass the State's first anti-smut laws in eight years. Yet court rulings have clouded the enforcement of virtually all anti-obscenity laws.

To clarify this situation, Senator Harmer introduced essentially the same laws that will be on the November ballot. But the Legislature, again controlled by lawmakers with a permissive view of the "New Morality," blocked his legislative package.

So church and civic groups throughout California launched a massive grass roots campaign to allow the people to vote on these anti-obscenity laws. In a matter of days, they obtained more than 350,000 signatures to put the measure on the ballot.

At last, the public will have an opportunity to have their say on the issue of obscenity and pornography. What happens in California Nov. 7 could establish a pattern for the entire country on this matter of legal smut.

GRASS ROOTS GEORGE SAYS:

Liberals are funny. They call for a lettuce boycott, but they want everyone to be allowed to smoke grass (marijuana) legally.

Their idea of reducing crime is to legalize a lot of things that have always been against the law.

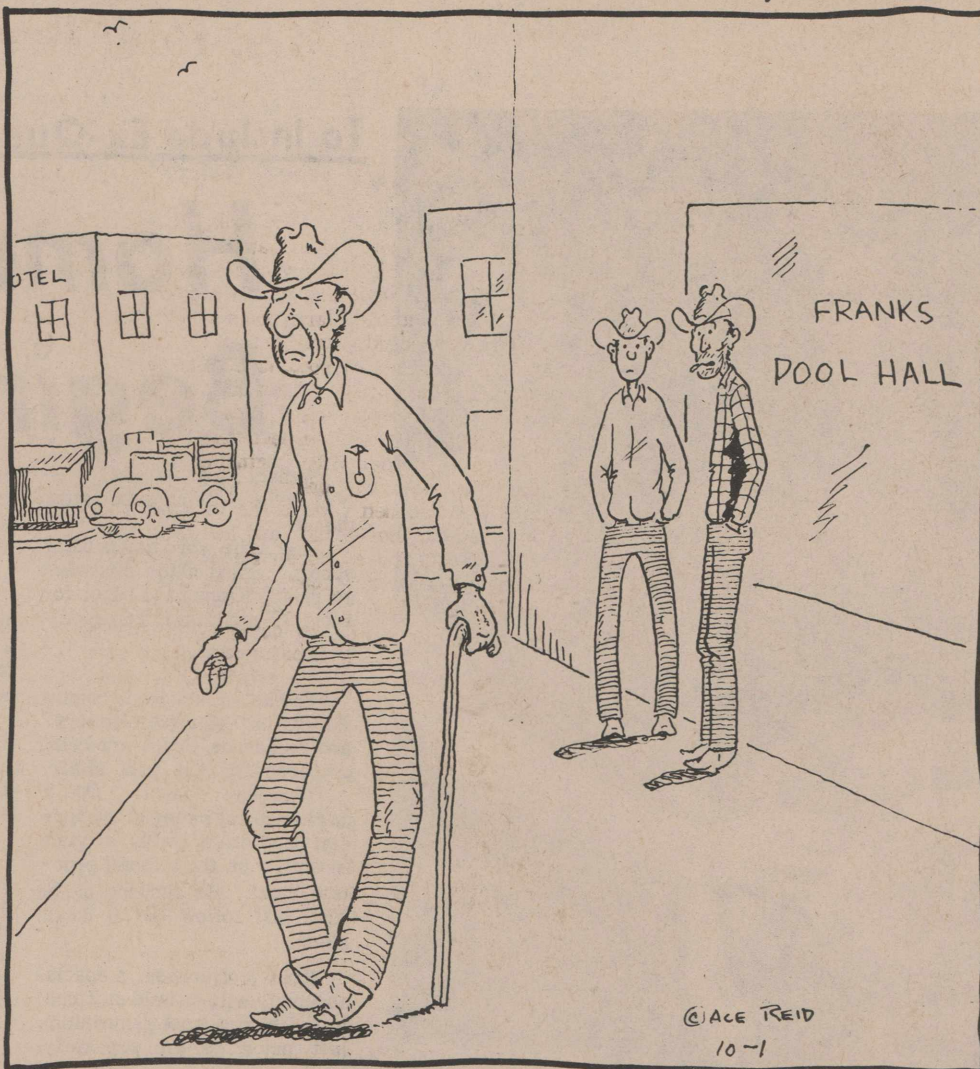

If you don't agree, you're called a reactionary. If you say the courts should protect the public instead of the criminals, they say you have a hard-hat mentality.

If you favor jobs instead of more welfare, they'll say you want to make the work ethic official public policy.

And if you come out foresquare for the Ten Commandments, someone is bound to accuse you of trying to impose a repressive "lifestyle" on the new masses.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

Andy is dead.
You remember Amos and Andy? I can hear your answer, "You're a whole lot older than I." Well, okay, I am—but you've heard ABOUT Amos and Andy. "Today people" don't really appreciate the contribution that Amos and Andy made to the world.

When money was almost non-existent, radio brought a carefree, heart-lightening entertainment to people and two of the top contributors were Amos and Andy.

Black people and white people and perhaps some in other hues enjoyed the entertainment they brought once a week.

Lum and Abner did their share, too. And Fannie Brice as "Baby Snooks." That was the highlight of my week. Amazing how much fun it was listening to that mischievous little scamp. (Who could believe she was really a grown woman?) "As the World Turns" addicts have nothing on Ma Perkins' friends. Of course, Ma would have really turned gray headed over happenings that occur in ATWT.

Was any one else a member of the "Dr. Pepper Cadets"? You NEVER HEARD OF THEM! Did you ever thrill to Jack Armstrong, the All A Armstrong, the ALL AMERICAN BOY?

Then if you were allowed to stay up till 9, you could thrill, weep or laugh with the offerings of Cecil B. deMille and Lux Theatre.

No one could forget "Inner Sanctum" and the screaming door. Spine-chilling still!

I'm glad I heard them all, even if it does reveal I'm 39!

Oh, yes, Do you know when middle age is? It is that difficult stage in life between juvenile delinquency and senior citizenship.

The worst thing about the younger generation is that we don't belong to it anymore.

Cotton Industry Sets Contest

A total of 30 prizes will be awarded at the district level, including first, second and third places in each of the 10 classes. The ten first place winners will receive a Singer "Golden Touch and Sew" cabinet model sewing machine, second prize is Singer "Fashion Plate" portable sewing machines, and girls placing third will get $50 gift certificates from Singer.

Participating counties are Bailey, Cochran, Cotton, Crosby, Dawson, Hockley, King, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum.

Further information concerning the county and district contests can be obtained from the women's cotton promotion club in each of these counties or from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., 1720 Avenue M, Lubbock,

FRIGHTENING

It is difficult for persons with normal hearing ability to understand the frightening experience of not being able to hear clearly, according to officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. They point out that because we depend upon our ears for so much communication, deafness can cut a person off from his family, friends and business associates.

ST. ALBANS, VT., MESSENGER: "The ingenuity of tax-hungry politicians with pet projects is indeed amazing. In the small town of Pinneberg, just outside Hamburg, Germany, the residents are stuck with a 'rain tax'. For every 100 square meters of land owned they are charged 90 Marks. Every 50 square meters above this will cost another 50 Marks. The logic behind the assessment: Rain water is drained away by town-owned pipes and therefore citizens must pay for the upkeep of these facilities. With this sort of precedent, our own voracious politicians will be advocating a 'breath tax' to finance the government's air pollution cleanup program."

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,

I'm glad that you are a keeper oner. I speak with the voice of experience in regard for our need of a hospital, Drs. and rest home. If we build let's build for the future as well as for now.

In my opinion, we should build at least a 3 Dr. hospital with the best equipment. Something worth while would entice Drs. to come here, YES, M, D.s.

No Dr. would want to set up shop in a ratty building with inadequate equipment.

I had rather pay more tax than spend the money in going to Plainview or Lubbock to Drs.

The money we put into a good hospital now, will live on after we are gone. Let's build or take down he "land of prosperity" signs.

Can a land prosper for long that places more value on the lives of its cows and hogs than on human beings?

Dressing & Preparing Quail, Dove Tips Given By Nutrition Specialist

Hunting seasons for dove and quail are approaching for most parts of Texas. Although dove season has opened in the northern zone, elsewhere the seasons don't begin until later.

Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, pointed out that dove and quail make tasty wild game treats when properly dressed and prepared.

"Age quail and dove at a temperature just above freezing for 24 to 28 hours to remove some of the gamey flavor which may detract from eating pleasure," the Texas A&M University specialist directed. She recommended dry-plucking the birds, rather than skinning them, to conserve flavor and moisture. After they are plucked, singe them over a flame to remove the down.

Next, make a cut along or across the back to split the bird apart and remove the entrails. Then remove the head, claws and feet. Wipe the body cavity clean with a damp cloth.

Once dressed this way, they are ready for immediate use or for freezing.

"Frying is a popular way to prepare quail and dove," Miss Reasonover continued. First dredge the birds in flour, salt and pepper them and fry in deep fat. "Brown each bird on both sides. Then lower the temperature, cover the skillet and cook slowly for about 20 minutes, turning once to brown evenly."

To freeze dressed birds for later use, place in moisture-vapor proof containers. Label these containers with the name and date, and store at zero degrees F. "They may be stored at this temperature from six to twelve months," she said.

Besides serving as a taste treat, dove and quail are nutritious. They are excellent sources of protein needed for growth and repair of body tis-

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Coen were in Odessa during the weekend at a Lay Witness meeting.

MRS. HERMAN HOWARD

Recipes are shared with Enterprise cooks this week by a young housewife-mother-businesswoman who hails from Paris - "Texas, that is," she quickly adds.

Meleta Howard has been operating Howell's Flowers since July. It is work that she thoroughly enjoys and is not new since she worked for a time in a flower shop in Paris.

Moving here from Paris about four years ago all his life before deciding he'd try to find work in Paris. That decision led to his meeting Meleta and their marriage.

Meleta and Howard have a daughter, Rhonda, who is in the seventh grade. Rhonda is enthusiastic in her praise of her mother's cooking and vows she's "the best in the world." When Meleta sought help in selecting the recipes she'd share, she asked Rhonda, "What do I cook that's good?" and Rhonda quickly replied, "Everything!"

Sewing, when she can find time, and playing the piano are Meleta's other favorite past times.

The Howards attend the Church of God in Plainview.

Olton Study Club Meets, Mrs. Paul Burrus Speaker

Mrs. Barton Prestridge was hostess recently when Olton Study Club met to hear a book review presented by Mrs. Paul Burrus.

The book, "Last of the Saddle Tramps" was written as a diary of Mesamie Wilkins who set out on horseback from her farm home in Minot, Maine, and traveled nearly 7,000 miles enroute to California.

This unusual feat was made even more daring because of the fact that Miss Wilkins, at the beginning of the trip, was only five weeks shy of her 63rd year. She was alone and destitute and had been told by her doctor that she had from two to four years to live.

The adventures of the modern day pioneer proved to be often humorous and sometimes near tragic, according to Mrs. Burrus.

Mrs. Gene Trotter attended as a special guest. Members present were Mmes. Roye Aikman, J. C. Brown, H. B. Carson, J. L. Carson Jr., Frank Cornelius, J. E. Fuller, Bailey Hair, C. S. Silcott, Jack Straw, Bill Yates, Burrus and the hostess.

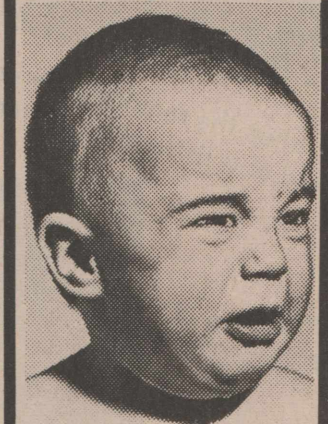

Next meeting will be held Oct. 2 in the home of Mrs. C. T. Lokey.

ATTEND GAME

Stephen Rose and his grandfather, Lee McLaury, attended the football game Saturday night between West Texas State University and Colorado State University.

"My Insurance Lapsed?"

Your insurance must be renewed promptly and the premium paid on time, otherwise you are without insurance protection. A loss at such a time is sheer tragedy. By combining your property insurance in one package policy (Homeowners, Tenants, Farmowners or Commercial) with one renewal date, there is less danger of lapsed insurance.

Glenda Phillips Installed Rainbow Worthy Advisor

Glenda Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Phillips, was installed as Worthy Advisor of Plainview Assembly No. 61, Order of Rainbow for Girls, in an open meeting Saturday evening at the Masonic Lodge in Plainview.

Serving the fall term, Miss Phillips' theme is "Humility" and her scripture, Micah 6:8b, is "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God".

Her song, "Amazing Grace", was sung by Mrs. Yvonne Savage. Pink and burgundy are her chosen colors and her flower the carnation.

Mrs. Eldon McEachern, Mother Advisor of the Assembly, presented the new Worthy Advisor a gavel engraved with her name and term of office.

Miss Phillips was also presented a traveling advisor's pin.

Special introductions included Miss Phillips' parents; an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rousser of Tulsa; another aunt, Mrs. Martin Phillips of Canyon; and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips and Stacey of Baytown, Mr. and Mrs. Lester North and Rosemary of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams, Michael and Courtney of Kress.

The Rev. Herman Krauel, minister of Valley View Baptist Church, spoke the benediction. A drill routine followed and officers sang "My Rainbow" to conclude the installation.

Preceding the installation,

Courtney Williams carried in the Bible and Miss Rosemary North attended the guest register.

A reception was held following the installation. The serving table was laid with a pink satin cloth with large burgundy bows accenting each corner. An arrangement of pink and burgundy carnations entwined silver candelabras to form the centerpiece.

Miss Phillips is a senior at Olton High School. Worthy Advisor is the highest honor that can be conferred by the regular assembly.

Visitor From Spain Tells Of Customs In Her Land

Lyrics of the old classic, "Lady of Spain, I adore you, right from the time I first saw you," seem to come to mind when one meets pretty Alicia Sanchez Almarceguia, a visitor in Olton this week.

Houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. George Redinger, Alicia (pronounced A-lee-th-e-a) is from Caragoga in the northeast part of Spain and is visiting America for the first time.

Alicia became friend of Mrs. Redinger's daughter, Marie Bass, three years ago. The two met in France, the first day both began studying the French language.

home but not many are career women.

Parents are "very, very strict," she says of her homeland. Young people seldom rebel against the parental rule, she added.

There are no protests against colleges in Spain either, she explained. "A few tried but they were put in jail." Spain has no hippie element since those persons prefer to go to nearby islands.

"Really nice" is Alicia's description of Olton but she admits that she sees much similarity between Olton and the small Texas town of the movie "The Last Picture Show."

When asked if she expected to see cowboys when she arrived in Texas, Alicia said "no" but admitted she was disappointed on her first visit to Turkey to discover the women did not wear veil masks.

Working only in European countries, Alicia shrugged off fear of being hi-jacked. "I wouldn't mind it," she smiled. "Such an experience"

Bomb scares are also a part of life for the European stewardess from Spain. She said the airlines were "very careful" concerning flights to the middle East and explained that a flight to Tel Aviv was cancelled after the killing of Olympics' participants in Munich.

Alicia explained that while the planes she flies with are not as large as the US 747, they are "the fastest planes ever made." Generally they carry from 123 to 175 passengers.

One of the greatest differences in America and Spain, the visitor notes, is the automobile. "Cars are still luxury. We walk a lot"

Spanish-made cars are very tiny compared to those in America, she said.

Visiting in the States during the football season, Alicia notes there is considerable difference in the game in the two countries.

"Here the players are dressed up like monsters," she says. The American version she's watched on TV seems "very rough." Players wear no padding and uniforms are "just shirts and a pair of shorts."

Alicia confessed she could not describe differences in the action because she didn't care for football and had never noticed much about the way it is played.

"Bull fighting is the major sport, of course, in Spain," says Alicia, with the admission that she finds it boring.

"Some people think it is cruel. I don't think it is. The bulls do have a chance to fight. And sometimes it is the mator who is killed."

Bentsen Seeks Continuance Of 'Green Thumb' Program

Senator Lloyd Bentsen has urged the Labor Department to continue and expand the Green Thumb and Green Light programs, which provide work for elderly, poverty-stricken Americans.

"These elderly citizens have given a lifetime of productive work to our nation," Bentsen said, "and now, in all too many cases they have been tossed aside, disregarded, shown no compassion."

"Of the 1.8 million Texans who are over 55 years of age, more than 800,000 of them are under the Federal poverty level," the Senator noted in a letter to Labor Secretary James Hodgson.

"Green Thumb and Green Light offer them a chance to get a job. It isn't a handout of welfare, but an opportunity for these 800,000 forgotten Texans to work on meaningful projects in the areas of beautification, conservation and recreation."

The Senator noted that the Green Thumb program for men, is very popular in Texas. Project applications have been received from 122 counties, although the Labor Department has approved programs in only 17 counties.

No Green Light programs, which are for women, have been approved in the state by the Labor Department.

Both programs are operated for the Labor Department by Green Thumb, Inc., whose parent organization is the National Farmers Union. The programs generally operate in rural areas.

Longhorns Close Corral On Ponies, Mustangs Still Looking For Victory

"When you're hot, you're hot, and when you're not, you're not." So the song title goes - and so goes Olton's football team so far this season.

Olton dropped their third game to Lockney Friday night by the score of 14 to 6.

Once more the locals dominated the game on first downs and most yards made in the game.

Tim Givens made the lone touchdown for the Mustangs on an eight yard run.

The story of the Friday night game was the same as the others played thus far. Olton hasn't been able to make the big third down play or the key plays when needed.

Lockney won the toss and selected to receive the kickoff. Olton kicked short with the Mustangs downing the ball carrier on his own 30 yard marker. After stopping Lockney the first two plays and having them faced with third down and four needed, Olton let them loose on third down with a pitch out around right end. Good for five yards, it was a first down at the Horn 41.

Next a penalty moved the ball to the Olton 39 and gave the Longhorns another first down.

Another pitch out to back Paul Moore moved the ball to the Olton 35. But a penalty on the next play moved it back to the Horn 46. Quarterback Larry Cunyus kept on the next play and ran it down to the Olton 47.

On third down Lockney went to the air with a receiver wide open, who dropped the ball after catching it. Olton recovered the fumble.

With the ball at their own 12 yard stripe Olton went to work.

Johnson got two yards. Givens one, and Allcorn gave it a try for five yards out to the 20. On fourth down Lockney helped again. As Olton lined up to punt, one of the Longhorns jumped off sides and this penalty gave the Mustangs a first down.

Allcorn got 7 yards to the 32. Johnson was met in the hole and stopped for no gain and third down found Givens getting the first down out to the 35.

Johnson got five yards on first down up the middle. Allcorn added four more and Johnson got the first down at the 45.

A pitch out to Givens around the left end moved the ball into Lockney territory for the first time of the night for the Mustangs. Givens got to the Horn 42 for another first down. Allcorn picked up three to the 39. On the next play Johnson got lucky and turned a busted play into a good gain as he circled left end to the Lockney 12 yard marker for another first down.

Another pitch out to Givens moved the ball inside the Horn 10. Allcorn got some more to move it to the 5, Johnson moved it to the 2.

At the two and on fourth down Olton's luck ran out. Lockney stopped the Mustangs on the poorly played play and took over on their own three yard marker.

Lockney managed to move it out to their own 38 before having to punt to Olton. Givens was dropped on the Olton 13 with the punt return.

Olton ran two plays before having Lockney intercept the third down pass and return it to the Olton 23.

On first down for the Horns the Lockney receiver was wide open but dropped the ball.

But the Ponies shaped up and stopped the Horns on fourth down at the Olton 16 with 6:28 remaining in the second quarter of play.

Allcorn carried twice and moved the ball out to the Olton 43. On second down from there Olton pitched the ball out. Lockney grabbed it on the Olton 39.

From there Lockney used 6 plays to cover the 39 yards. The TD came on a pass to Louie Bybee covering 16 yards.

Dart Carthel kicked the extra point making it 7-0 at the half.

Opening the third quarter of play Olton took the kick off and marched right on down the field.

Using 9 plays, they covered 77 yards to the Lockney goal line.

Olton's only pass completion to an Olton receiver came on the first play of the drive. Allcorn passed to end Randy McCoy for 12 yards and a first down.

Big Hoss of the Olton drive was Keith Workman who lugged the ball five times for 52 yards.

Givens carried the final 8 yards to pay dirt for the Ponies. Extra point try was blocked. Score now stood at 7-6, Lockney.

Lockney played swap out on the next TD as they received the Olton kick off and marched down the field 73 yards in 13 plays for a score.

Robert Delgado scored the final TD for the Horns as he jumped into the end zone from two feet out. Carthel kicked his second extra point of the night to make the 14th point for the Hustlin' Horns.

Ken Johnson

Plays For SOC

Ken Johnson, former Olton athlete, saw action for Southern Oregon College in their football opener Saturday. Johnson, a junior tailback who played at Snow College before transferring to SOU, carried six times for 25 yards and a 4.2 yards per carry average.

Southern Oregon, a member of the Evergreen Conference, gave new head coach Scott Johnson a great start on his collegiate coaching career as they upset heavily-favored University of California at Chico in a 14-7 ball game. SOC opened the scoring on a 37 yard pass interception return by senior cornerback Leroy Dedeaux in the first quarter. The Ashland eleven stretched their margin to 14-0 when senior wingback Bruce Workman carried for a 13 yard TD. Greg Enright added both extra-point kicks.

SOC has a bye this weekend and will use the extra practice field time to prepare for Oregon College, the Raider's first conference opponent. SOC meets OCE at Fuller Field in Ashland in a 7:30 p. m. game Sept. 30.

When a man has a brother

A man's got to look after his brother. That's what Timmy said the other day, as he stood beside our baby. And I told him he was right. "You are so much stronger than this tiny, little creature," I said. "From now on, you've got a real responsibility!"

A man does have to look after his brother . . . especially when that brother is weak. But there are moments, too, when even the strongest man may need a brother—especially on Worldwide Communion Sunday!

In the eyes of the Church, all men are brothers, just as all men are equally beloved. As long as there is a church near you, you are not alone. You have only to open the door and walk in and you will be at one with your fellow man . . . and at home with your brothers.

Thick As A Brick

BY KEITH WORKMAN & MAX MOSS

For all you Women's Lib enthusiasts, there's going to be a Powder Puff football game Monday, Oct. 2 at 6:30 p. m., at Olton Memorial Stadium. The senior girls will take on the junior girls in a battle to the end (of the game that is). The line for the juniors averages 207 pounds, although the average height is only 5 feet 1 inch. If the junior backs can get through their own line the game ought to be very exciting. The senior girls were very mad because they finally had to shave their legs to get them taped, but Cheryl Latimer quarterback for the seniors, assured me that they would be hairy as usual in 5 or 6 weeks.

No, really in all sincerity we would like to urge all you people, who can swing the bread, to go to this game. The proceeds will go to the junior class for the seniors banquet. Max and Keith will be there if the girls haven't killed us for our nice compliments.

For all you guys who want to make an impression on your girlfriend, well now you have your chance. Mums are being sold by the annual staff again this year. Prices start at $3.50. The mums can be picked up in the cafeteria before the game on Oct. 6. So if you have done something very dumb lately, maybe you can cheer up your sweetheart with a beautiful mum.

A patient at a mental hospital asked an attendant to listen closely to a closet door. The hospital employee tried to humor the patient and put his ear to the door. He told the patient that he didn't hear a thing. "I know," the patient replied, "and it's been that way all day."

MOVILLE, IOWA, RECORD: "Giving help to the enemy used to be called treason. Today it goes under the name of foreign aid."

OBERLIN, KANS., HERALD:

"Whenever a judge suspends sentence on a lawbreaker if he promises to get out of town, it is easy to wonder how often this person could repeat the offense in a different town each time and never have to serve a stretch in jail. Serving time does not necessarily convince the lawbreaker he should go straight. But 'the get out of town by sundown' warning is a neat way for a judge to wash his hands of the duty of meting out justice to the guilty... If we want law and order we are going to have to see to it that our courts are doing their job. Sending trouble on to the next town isn't doing the job."

WINNING SORGHUM BOUQUETS in both the tinted and natural categories were shown by Mrs. John Lambright last week at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. The double win was the first in the contest's fourteen years. Pictured with Mrs. Lambright and the winning bouquets is Don Spain, local dealer for DeKalb, co-sponsors of the contest with KGNC Radio-TV. Pictured below are arrangements entered by Mrs. Lambright and others by Mmes. Pearl Schreier and Athol Light.

WELLINGTON, OHIO, ENTERPRISE: "When an individual spends more than he earns he ends up bankrupt. When a business spends more than it takes in, the result is 'bankruptcy.' When a government spends more than it takes in taxes, the result is depreciated currency followed by inflation. And the person who suffers most from inflation is the one who has no way of catching up, like the retiree on a fixed income. Our 20 million senior citizens are not apt to forget this on Election Day."

NORTH VERNON, IND., SUN: "Next year's income tax form is slated to be so simple that a 'fifth grade student' will be able to make it out, which means probably that a lot of us are going to find out that while we may have gone further in school, our education actually stopped at the fourth grade."

HART CAMP HAPPENINGS

PH. 262-4242 FIELDTON

Each day last week ladies of the Hart Camp Baptist Church met for a program in observance of the State Mission Week-of-Prayer. The program emphasized the people of Texas who are in need of spiritual and financial help. Ladies in charge of the program on different days were Mmes. L. W. Sullivan, Dewey Parkey, Blanton Martin and Edwin Oliver. Sunday morning the ladies presented a portion of the program to the church congregation during the opening service.

GLENDIVE, MONT., RANGER-REVIEW: "A story which originated in The New York Times says there is little doubt but that a federal income tax increase will go into effect next year. (We never get tax increases during election years, of course.) The tax boost is seen 'as a means of financing the spending on big new programs, such as day care and health insurance, that the public seems to be demanding.' I don't know about the day care program, but the main ones who seem to be DEMANDING federally financed health insurance are a few of the vote-hungry politicians, who probably are not nearly as interested in the health of their constituents as they are their votes."

HINCKLEY, ILL., REVIEW: "A little item from the tragic flood in Rapid City, S. D. caught our eye.... People in the higher portions of the city opened their homes to the homeless. To coordinate such efforts the radio stations broadcast emergency announcements. One family opened the doors of their home, along with their hearts with a rather unusual but pointed statement, 'the icebox is full'. Those four words are certainly not very poetic, and will surely not go down among the great quotations. Could you imagine, however, the chord they must have struck with somebody, whose entire worldly possessions had been destroyed. Maybe it is time for us to check and see if the 'icebox is full'. If it is, then it is time for us to stop complaining."
