Stevenson Denounces McCarthy

Tags Senator A Champion Of Slander

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Saturday denounced Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy as a "champion of trial by ordeal and slander" and called the Wisconsin Republican a member of a GOP "murderer's row" in Congress.

And Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's endorsement of McCarthy for re-election "can leave no doubt in anyone's mind that the general is hopelessly the captive of the Old Guard" of the Republican party.

In an address prepared for delivery at a Democratic rally, the Illinois governor said Eisenhower, his GOP rival for the presidency, has "cheapened the time-honored custom of endorsements."

Then, in an obvious allusion to McCarthy's appearance with Eisenhower on the general's campaign train in Wisconsin Friday, Stevenson declared:

"He (Eisenhower) has disappointed even myself, though none of us was prepared for yesterday's melancholy spectacle."

In his address, Stevenson named McCarthy, after saying a "murderer's row" of Republicans will take over as chairmen of some Senate committees if the party wins control of the Senate from the Democrats in the November elections.

McCarthy, Stevenson noted, would become chairman of the Senate committee on government operations, which conducts the investigations of government agencies. Stevenson, after mentioning McCarthy by name, went on to describe him as "defamer of Gen. Marshall, champion of the inquisition, champion of trial by ordeal and slander."

Attractive Wife Suspected . . .

Texas Officer Dies From Knife Wounds

TOKYO (AP) — Col. Aubrey D. Smith, a handsome, 45-year old Texan, died Saturday of a knife wound which Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters said was allegedly inflicted by his attractive wife, Dorothy.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Gen. Walter Krueger, retired World War II commander of the U. S. Sixth Army in the Pacific campaign.

She was held for observation in the isolation ward of an Army hospital in Tokyo while the Far East Command conducted an official investigation.

Smith, decorated repeatedly for valor in World War II and the Korean War, was chief of the big plans and operations division of the Far East Command's logistics section.

He was considered an officer with brilliant prospects for advancement and his sensational death shocked high Army circles in Tokyo.

The personable, blue-eyed colonel from San Antonio was fatally stabbed about midnight at his home in Washington Heights, a residential area for U.N. officers. He died six hours later at the Tokyo Army Hospital.

The Army clammed up tightly on details, but it was reliably reported that Smith was knifed on the right side while he was in bed.

A maid was at the Smith home at the time. She said she was asleep and knew nothing about it.

A daughter, 14, and son, 16, were at a neighbor's house. Plans were being made today to return them to the United States.

Demos To Open Unique Drive For Finances

WASHINGTON (AP) — An army of Democratic volunteer solicitors will set out next week to try to get $5 contributions for the 1952 campaign from several hundred thousand contributors.

Beardsley Ruml, the New York idea man who thought up the scheme, says there's never been anything exactly like it before. He is confident it's going to be successful enough to revolutionize financing of political campaigns in the future.

The drive starts Wednesday and runs for eight days through Oct. 15.

The Democratic National Finance Committee, which Ruml heads, is distributing 800,000 red-white-and-blue booklets to the solicitors.

Each booklet contains five certificates and each solicitor is being asked to get five contributions. The contributor gets the certificate with a thank-you message from Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson printed on it.

Ruml, economist, consultant and corporation director, is an author of the plan to convert federal income taxes to the pay-as-you-earn basis adopted several years ago. Democrats are hailing his campaign financing scheme as the second Ruml Plan.

Ruml held a news conference this week to tell details of the new plan.

He said he would have liked to set a goal of a million contributions but did not think it feasible this year because his

Ward System Backers Win 1,220-1,000

Pampa will continue to elect its city commissioners from separate wards for the next two years as 2,252 voters turned out to defeat the proposed charter amendments 1,220 to 1,000.

The issue to abolish the ward system was defeated by an almost unanimous vote by Wards 3 and 4 along with fair support from Wards 1 and 2.

Biggest drubbing of the amendment to place the city commission on an at-large basis came from Ward 4 where it was defeated 353-37. Ward 3 pounded the issue 347-46.

Although Ward 1 cast more votes than Wards 3 and 4 together, the small margin given the issue in Ward 2 gave it a sharp setback. Ward 1's 852 votes went 552-286 for the proposed amendments. Ward 2 turned in a vote of 386-234 in favor of the proposal, a margin of only 151.

The overwhelming "no" vote of the two dissenting wards was enough to more than catch up and pass the "yes" vote margin of Wards 1 and 2 and defeat the measure.

The total vote cast represented approximately 30 per cent of the city's voting potential, estimated at 7,500 by city officials.

Voting was slow throughout the day with the biggest rush coming, as usual, about one hour before the 7:00 p.m. poll closing time.

Returns from the boxes were just as slow in getting back to the city secretary's office for unofficial tabulation. Ward 2 reported at 8:15; Ward 1 followed at 9:25. Ward 3 came in at 10:15 while Ward 4 reported at 12:25 a.m. today.

For many of the election judges this was their first election and the complicated job of counting the seven proposed amendments and tallying their results, delayed reports.

Ward 4 where 404 votes were cast called City Secretary Ed Vezey at 8:15 p.m. asking help and advice on how to proceed to make the count.

The last city charter amendment election called to set the city up on the present ward system brought out only 1,441 voters and carried 737 to 704 on Dec. 3, 1949.

Another city charter amendment election may not be called for another two years. There were apparently 32 mutilated ballots.

Ex-Con Sought In Robbery

FORT WORTH (AP) — A tall scar-faced Oklahoma ex-convict was named Saturday as the gunman who robbed two exiled Cubans of $248,000 reportedly intended to finance a Cuban counter-revolution.

Authorities indicated the Cubans may have been victims of a confidence game. Lured to Texas on the pretext they would be able to purchase here the guns needed for the revolt.

A two-state alarm was sounded for Oscar Chambless, 35, identified by the Cubans as the masked gunman who at the point of a pistol took $248,000 from them in their trailer hotel cottage early Friday. Robbery charges were filed against Chambless.

Sought along with Chambless was an accomplice known only as "Johnny." Already in custody was Sam Cesap 40, a Fort Worth used car salesman held on federal charges of unlawfully transferring the stolen money from Fort Worth to Oklahoma.

The exiles are Manuel Madarenga 38 and his partner, Candido de la Torre, 45. The latter is a former Havana city councilman. Both admit they became voluntary exiles in Mexico after Fulgencio Batista regained the Cuban presidency in a bloodless army-backed revolution last March.

Man Trapped In Car Is Burned To Death

ELGIN (AP) — Texas Game and Fish Commission photographer was trapped and burned to death Saturday when his car ran off the road and turned over.

He was Edwin Eugene Plummer, 22, of Austin.

Capt. E. K. Browning of the State Highway Patrol said Plummer's car left Highway 290 between here and McDade, overturned and hit an embankment. Investigating officers did not think another vehicle was involved.

Mrs. Blanche C. Box, 72, was driving her buggy west on Highway 66 and attempted to turn off on the road leading to her home when a car with a California license struck the buggy. Mrs. Box died of head injuries in Shamrock General Hospital where she was taken by ambulance.

No charges were filed against the driver and investigating officers said Mrs. Box was driving her buggy without lights.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Clay Funeral Home.

Mrs. Box is survived by two sons, Eugene and Jules, both of California, who are on their way to Shamrock.

Fire Prevention Due Emphasis In Pampa For Coming Week

This week has been proclaimed Fire Prevention Week in Pampa by Major C. A. Huff.

In his proclamation Mayor Huff noted that preventable fires last year resulted in the loss of life for some 10,000 Americans and permanent disability for countless others.

Needless fires also destroy an untold amount of irreplaceable natural resources and private and public property, including forests, farms, schools, churches, hospitals, homes and factories, the major portion of.

It is imperative, he said that in this critical period, the country keep itself strong in manpower, productive facilities and material resources.

Observance of the week in Pampa has previously been planned by a committee headed by Lewis Chamberlain. Contests have been announced for students in all area schools and cash awards have been offered for poster and theme contests.

B. R. Nuckols, chairman of the school activity committee for the observance, announced the following breakdown on $167 to be paid by local insurance companies:

Alanreed School will be granted $12; Lefors, $20; Hopkins, $7; Grandview, $4; Holy Souls, $6; Pampa High School, $18; Junior High, $20; Carver, $8; and the four elementary schools in Pampa, $18 each.

The money for each school will be turned over to the principal for disposition. In most cases, however, Nuckols said, the individual students winning top honors will be given the cash awards, rather than the class as a whole.

Elementary students are to make posters and high school students will write themes on fire prevention.

Rita And Prince Split Up Again

PARIS, Oct. 4 (AP) — Rita Hayworth and Aly Khan have split up again. The feuding that started 18 months ago appears resumed.

The glamorous Hollywood actress a couple of days ago quietly left her husband's plush suburban home, where she and the Moslem prince had lived together for more than a week.

The move went unnoticed until Saturday. It came as a surprise to a lot of persons including Aly himself, who had assumed her Reno divorce proceedings would be forgotten.

For a while, it even appeared that the reconciliation was going to last. Since her arrival, she and Aly, besides living in the same house, were seen frequently together, gaily visiting Paris night spots and dining in restaurants.

Russ Launch War Of Politics, Economics

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Moscow officially launches today a program which apparently aims at dovetailing the activities of all the world's Communists for a long hit-and-run economic and political war against the United States.

The Kremlin's gauleiters from Soviet satellite countries and from other foreign Communist parties are on hand to get their orders as the first all-union Communist party Congress in 13 years is convened.

From the 16 republics of the U.S.S.R. more than 2,000 Communist delegates, big shots and small fry, are ready to rubber stamp decisions already reached in the Kremlin. But it is the fact the Congress is called in the first place not the actions of many Communist delegates — which is important.

Stalin, as the symbol of Communist power, has laid down the pattern in a newly published 75-point program on economics. It tells six million Communists how to rule the U.S.S.R.'s more than 200 million people. It lays down the program for world communism to be coordinated under Kremlin high command.

Stalin's personal edible has become more of a puzzle than ever. His economic message gives an impression of a Stalin resigning himself, arguing with himself, resisting and battling the party line to fit new concepts perhaps examples of a regime already in effect ruling Soviet Russia.

Handicap No Bar For Pampan Succeeding Despite Disability

By ED NASH

"Nobody is really physically handicapped.

"If you've got a mind, you can always figure out something to do."

That is the opinion of a 24-year-old Army veteran who ought to know—for one of his legs was blasted off in a training camp accident. A flying shell had plowed into a tank in which he was riding at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Wilburn L. Stevens, 1018 S. Barnes, suffered the loss of his leg late in 1950 and so far, he says, he has "not found anything he can't do."

By presidential proclamation and act of Congress, this week, Oct. 5-11 has been designated as National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week. It is the eighth annual observance.

This is a deadly serious program. Statistics will affirm the fact that it is a large-scale operation. According to official records, a total of 190,145 disabled persons have found jobs through federal and state employment commissions.

Of these a total of 97,849 were disabled veterans. And an estimated 500,000 more vets and non-vets — have found jobs by other means.

It should be emphasized, however, that the vast majority of those employed through this program are not in the market for "hand-out" jobs. They do not want maginal work.

They want jobs in which they can fulfill their rightful role in society — normal average work. And that is what most of them do have.

Even more important is the spirit in which a person tackles his task — after suffering his disability.

HANDICAPPED? — Not in the real sense, Wilburn L. Stevens (r.) lost his leg in an Army training accident in 1950 but is now busy on the job he has held since May—selling farm equipment throughout the Panhandle. He and his family live at 1018 S. Barnes. A nation-wide Employ The Physically Handicapped Week — Oct. 5-11 — has been scheduled both by presidential proclamation and by act of Congress. (News Photo)

Stevens is a case in point. He had lived all his life in Pampa and was in the middle of junior year at high school when he was called into the service in 1946 — the first time. After three years in Italy he was discharged. But he remained in the reserve. Shortly after his discharge, he was married to a Pampa girl, Betty Jo Kyle.

In the summer of 1950 the Korean conflict broke out. And four months later Stevens found himself back in the Army — at Ft. Hood. Soon afterward the injury

Allied Troops Gain Big Nori Foothold

SEOUL (AP) — Allied ground troops fought back to the crest of battle-scarred "Big Nori" hill on the Korean Western Front Saturday, regaining a coveted position Greek troops yielded under Chinese counterattacks and accidental bombing by U.S. jets last Sunday.

The U.S. Eighth Army announced the height, eight miles northwest of Yonchon, was occupied by an Allied patrol temporarily Friday but abandoned. It was reoccupied for a third time Saturday after a bitter fight with small but die-hard Red defenders.

An Army spokesman said the United Nations infantrymen still were on the hill late Saturday.

Schools Give $215 To Red Cross Drive

Local schools contributed $215.46 to the Junior Red Cross Drive this past week, it was announced by Homer Craig, drive chairman.

The Parochial school in Pampa and the Lefors school have not reported, according to Mrs. F. W. Bothwell, local executive secretary.

The three-day campaign included radio programs given by Mrs. Rute Jordan, publicity chairman, and member of the Junior Red Cross.

Air Force Develops New Space Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force today revealed the development of a space suit that has already enabled airmen to fly above altitudes where human blood boils and pure oxygen alone is insufficient to keep a man alive.

Officers said such a suit had to be perfected before progress could be made in developing the jet and rocket aircraft of the future.

At altitudes above 50,000 feet the normal breathing of pure oxygen alone will not sustain life and the lungs must be directly supercharged to function in the thin atmosphere. Above 63,000 feet human blood at body temperatures will boil, resulting in the body expanding to twice its normal size and death in a matter of seconds.

The F-1 resembles the popular conception of a space suit. It combines altitude protection with that now given by slip-on garments which protect an airman against sudden changes in gravity pull and also includes a crash helmet, oxygen mask, earphones, microphone, goggles, defroster and oxygen bailout bottle.

The suit is worn uninflated and inflates automatically whenever the pressure in the airplane cabin is lost. The inflated suit and helmet supercharge the airman's lungs with high-pressure breathing oxygen. The suit also automatically applies counter-pressure to the body surface, thus protecting the wearer from collapse.

It proved its effectiveness during high altitude flights at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., when worn by Lt. Col. Frank K. Everest. His rocket-powered research plane lost its cabin pressure due to a cracked canopy, but the automatic inflation of he suit enabled the crack test pilot to complete his flight.

The suit was also worn by William Bridgeman, Douglas Aircraft Corp. test pilot when he flew a Douglas plane to an altitude of 79,000 feet.

Stadium At McLean Destroyed By Fire

McLEAN (Special) — Just four hours after the end of the McLean - Memphis game had ended, the entire west stands of Duncan field were in ashes. Fire of undetermined origin razed the section of the grand stand in which the reserved seat section and the press box were located.

Apparently, the fire started at the extreme north end of the stands and burned for sometime before it was discovered and the alarm sounded. The McLean Fire Department arrived at the fire at 2:20 a.m. (Saturday) and by this time, the entire stands were in flames and parts at the north end had fallen. No athletic equipment was in the underhousing and only the stands and the supply of concession pilows were lost. Insurance on both stands is about $2500 and the estimated replacement cost will run from four to six thousands dollars. Plans are immediately in action to make a replacement. No game is scheduled for next week and it thought that replacement can be ready for the Oct. 17 game with Lefors. In order to get water on the a thousand feet of hose. The fire, the firemen had to lay over nearest fire plug was about four blocks south of the stands.

Michigan State tackle Warren Spragg is co-holder of the college intramural doubles tumbling championship.

McLEAN STADIUM RAZED BY FIRE — Above is shown the remains of what had been Duncan Field in McLean which was razed by fire early Saturday morning. The fire is believed to have started at the north end of the stadium and burned for some time before being discovered. New stands are expected to be complete in time for the McLean-Lefors football game Oct. 12.

Suggestions From Soldiers Saves Army Millions Of Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP) — For years Wendell H. Davis watched the Army producing expensive and partly illegible copies of construction drawings for its thousands of field operations.

A civilian construction engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, he began to study the problem in 1947 and finally hit on a photographic method of making legible copies at only a fraction of the cost.

Davis' idea saved the government nearly a million dollars the first year it was in operation.

It made him the top money winner this year among Army civilian employes receiving cash awards for efficiency suggestions.

Uncle Sam gave Davis $1,606 —and then took $400 of it back for income taxes.

Davis, 52, now statoned at engineer headquarters here, is a native of Rusdon, La. He spent much of life in Chicago, Ill., where he studied engineering at the Lewis Institute. He plans to buy a farm in Illinois and settle down there when he retires. The award money will help to buy the farm.
ling it.

A number of Army employes have made more money out of their suggestions than Davis.

All-time top suggester is Richard Norian. While in charge of packing ammunition for the Chicago Ordnance District in 1944, he gave his superiors an idea which saved the Army five million dollars the first year and won him a $2,750 award.

He found that the inner packing containers for ordnance items shipped from the factories were sold as scrap for $23 a ton after they had been used. They cost $500 a ton.

Norian suggested simply that they ship the stuff back to the factories for re-use, instead of selling it.

The ways to economize devised by unknowns in the government sometimes seem so obvious that the system previously in vogue might have been called "operation Bonehead."

Take the case of Paul A. Salvo, a young fellow in the Atlanta, Ga., office of the Army, who won $941. In his purchasing work for the Army he saw how much serious trouble the service had at that time in finding the lumber it needed.

At the same time the Army was getting its reservations cleared of forests by having private logging firms remove the timer.

Salvo simply said to the Army, Why not use your own timber and just hire someone to cut it and process it?

The employe suggestion system was first used in the Army by the Ordnance Corps in 1912. The Navy put it in operation in 1917 at the suggestion of Undersecretary of Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt. It was adopted through out the armed forces in 1943.

Tired Of Taxes? Just Wait Awhile

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Hope for relief springs eternal in the taxpayer's breast.

The best bet today seems to be that some corporations will get a cut in taxes by the middle of next year. The long-suffering individual may have to wait until 1954.

Secretary of Treasury Snyder is on record today as believing that the excess profits tax some corporations pay will expire next June. He sees no major relief likely for individuals.

What to do about taxes is one of the first decisions the new president will have to make in January. A number of the present federal tax increases are due to expire in the next year or two unless Congress extends them.

Spending May Drop

The taxpayers best hope for relief would lie in a cut in government spending. With defense expenditures scheduled at a high level next year, hope for much relief seems put off until 1954.

The corporate excess profits tax is due to expire June 30. If Congress lets the tax die, as Snyder thinks it may, it will mean relief for coporations whose present earnings are 85 per cent or more of their average earnings in their three best years between 1946 and 1949. Such earnings are now considered excess and a 30 per cent additional tax levied on them.

Businessmen hold this tax penalizes well-managed companies and the growth industries just getting under way in the base period years.

The xeces profits tax has been bringing in better than three billion dollars a year.

Individuals would get a break at the end of 1953 if Congress doesn't extend a 10 per cent increase in the individual income tax written into the revenue act of 1951. The increase would lapse at that time.

April 30, 1954, corporations are due for another break — unless Congress changes its mind. At that time the 50 per cent normal tax on corporate earnings goes back to 25 per cent. At the same time special excise taxes totaling about one billion dollars expire.

The Guaranty Trust Company of New York, in its October survey out today, says that since defense spending is thought likely to reach a peak sometime next year, the hope is growing that the new administration will be able to effect some tax reduction.

Stalin, of course, would stick a pin into this wishful thinking any time he chose to stir up more trouble and alarm the United States into stepping up defense expenditures.

The U. S. taxpayer's bills, meanwhile, mount steadily. This year it is estimated that the total of federal, state and local tax collections will be around 80 billion dollars, and possibly more.

The bank notes that the federal government is now taking about 70 per cent of this total with the state and local authorities splitting the remainder about evenly.

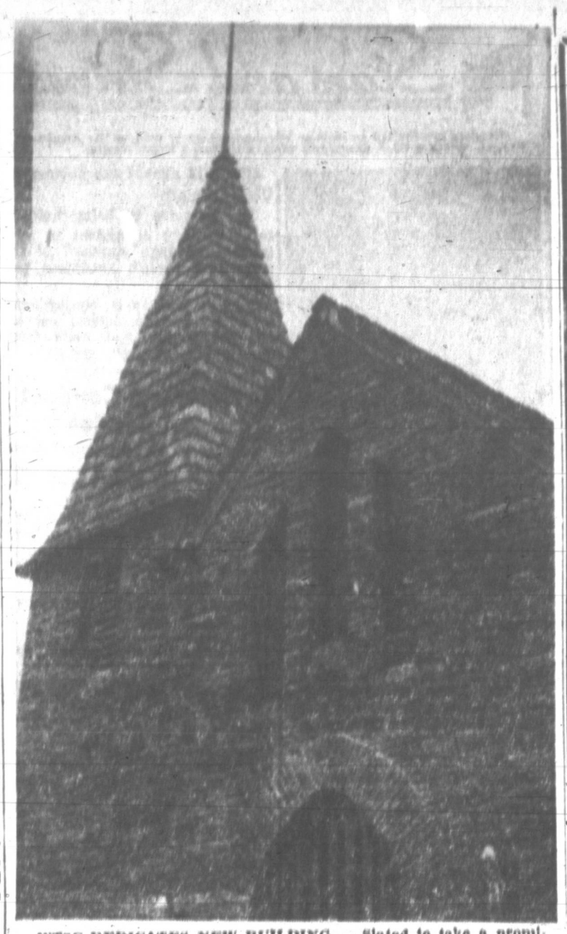

Before World War I the federal tax take was only about 30 per cent of the total. And as late as 1941 Washington was still taking less than half.

Taxes collected by all agencies last year, the bank adds, came to $412 for each person in the country. In 1927 the per capita tax was $80. In 1942, with World War II under way, it was $184.

Relief in sight? Yes, if you can hold on that long.

Texas Newspapers Preparing College Students For Real Job

Editor's note: Who will write the news and edit the newspapers of tomorrow? National Newspaper Week is an appropriate occasion to give the Texas answer — the story of how Texas newspapers and colleges are working together to train tomorrow's newspapermen and women.

By BRUCE HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff

Like hospitals, Texas newspapers now have their interns, too.

They wield pencils instead of scalpels but these aspiring journalists take their on-the-job training as seriously as the budding physicians.

Twenty - six students from eight Texas colleges recently completed summer - long stints on 20 newspapers over the state. Now they're back in classroom, applying to academic study what they learned in police stations, cuspidor - dotted courtrooms and busy newspaper offices.

The Texas Daily Newspaper Assn. and the heads of the schools of journalism are cooperating in the program.

The original idea was to give youngsters practical experience and insure a supply of newspapermen and women better qualified to tell Mr. and Mrs. Texas newspaper reader what's going on in their town and state, says Ward C. Mayborn, Mayborn, publisher of the Sherman Daily Democrat and chairman of the TDNA Committee on Schools of Journalism, is affectionately known as the "father" of Texas' internship program because of his ceaseless efforts in its behalf.

Ad Students Included

Each year since the first internships in 1948 when 10 students forsook summer vacations for a taste of real - life newspaper work, the program has grown. Advertising students, who work in newspaper advertising departments, have been added. There were six advertising interns this year.

Only top students who have completed their third college year are elibible. That's so during the senior year they can spread their experiences among underclassmen and help professors - improve teaching. Interns are paid enough for living expenses away from home.

To administer the program, Mayborn works closely to Paul Thompson, University of Texas journalism dean who heads the professors.

The interns are put right to work.

Says Jack Kreuger, city editor of the Dallas Morning News: "We don't want to be cold - blooded about it but we know these kids aren't going to learn anything unless they get in there and help put out the paper."

Simple Jobs First

Editorial students often start by handling such stories as obituaries and club meeting reports. Later they're given tougher assignments —perhaps interviewing a visiting celebrity or covering regular "beats."

Kenneth Smart, 19, Carrollton, interned this summer on the Fort Worth Star - Teleram. He wrote Professor C. E. Shuford of North Texas State College:

"One thing which I have had impressed on me many times is that no story is trivial to the people it affects. The reporter who realizes this will give the tiniest personal the same painstaking care, relatively, as the lead story on page one."

The Sherman Democrat's 1952 intern was Miss Marie Jackson, Waxahachie, a Texas State College for Women advertising student. Mayborn said "She did an excellent job."

Mayborn said the program stemmed from the feeling by newspaper executives they were not getting the men and women they should from the schools — that too many students were entering such fields as radio, advertising agencies and public relations.

"Our objective has been and is to sell the newspaper as an opportunity to the students who are looking for a future," he explains.

But an important by-product of the program has been to dispel the tendency of many old-school editors to "look down their noses" at college journalism graduates. Many editors used to feel that real newspapermen came only from the "school of hard knocks" — starting out as a copy boy and working their way up.

But the world is becoming more complicated all the time and editors are realizing it is essential that newsmen have a broad background in many other fields, such as history, economics and science which can be attained in college.

Mayborn found it significant that this summer every participating editor and advertising manager said he would give his intern a job unpon graduation if one were available.

We believe that one truth is always consistent with another truth. We endeavor to be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Should we, at any time, be inconsistent with these truths, we would appreciate anyone pointing out to us how we are inconsistent with these moral guides.

Private Schools Would Cost Less

Some people have told us they think we have a point on the issue of public schools; they're not sure, they say, and they don't know if they could convince anybody else, but SOME of the things we've said sounded logical.

Today's bullets are aimed at those few who listen to logic, at those who call themselves "practical men," at those who in a general way stand for private ownership, but who haven't quite convinced themselves that doctrine of private ownership should apply to schools.

1. If you're an average person you pay for public schools in a half dozen ways: federal taxes, state taxes, city taxes, hidden taxes, private contributions in response to campaigns and so on. You would pay for private schools only once. You would know exactly how much you were getting, and that you paid only for your children. Now you not only pay for others, you pay for a much better education than you're getting. If your school taxes were repealed, part of which goes to schools, part of which goes to bureaucrats and hangers-on, you could spend ALL that money on schools.

2. When you pay for anything, you appreciate what you get. Your kid learns as a child that either he or you, not society, has got to pay his way through life. As an adult he will rate his school by what he retained and by whether or not it taught him to learn, according to his subsequent experience of solving problems.

3. Some Socialism would be taught in some private schools — BUT not as much as is now taught in public schools. Private schools which taught Socialism would cater only to parents who wanted Socialism.

4. High schools, if private, would have to turn out finished products to face the life most of the students are going to enter. Prep schools would teach college prep. courses. Parents wanting a child taught only mechanics would not have to pay for stained glass windows in libraries reserved for Elizabethan literature.

5. The quality of teachers would go up. They would have no seniority or "security of tenure" which means that a bum teacher can't be fired. They would make individual contracts which fit individual cases and the best teachers would be grabbed up by the best schools at the best pay.

6. Textbooks would be better. Now some public schools require pupils to buy books written by their own teachers. Book companies bribe some school boards to take their books. The books which agree with the teachers' socialistic philosophy and politics are the only books stocked in 65 per cent of our schools. In private schools there would be many different brands of politics to choose from.

7. Schools would not be bounded by districts. You could send your child to the best school in the city or nation, depending on what you wanted to afford. You could shop for the best school for your money as you shop for the best buy in food for your money.

8. Schools would pay taxes just like everybody else. Cost of running the government would be shared equally. When schools are taxed they tend to be against high taxes; now taxes don't touch them, so they think taxes should be raised to provide better schools. All taxes would be lowered when split equally among all people. There wouldn't be thousands of acres of tax-free school lands.

9. All students could be trained at their level. Johnny might be in the 4th grade in English and in the 6th grade in Math. That's how he would be rated in most private schools, instead of being flunked until he made up his English.

10. Those who want religious instruction wouldn't be forced to pay for schools that refuse to teach religion. Those who DON'T want religion taught would be free to seek a school that doesn't teach it.

11. The public schools can't teach the Ten Commandments. Public schools are forced to teach a violation of the commandment against having other gods, the commandment against coveting, and the commandment against stealing. They teach both coveting and stealing by seizing the children of one man against his will and the money of another man against his will to pay for somebody else's children. They can't do this and at the same time teach that it's wrong to steal.

12. Public schools can't teach the Golden Rule. They teach a state religion. If another group, Mormons or Mohammedans seized the children of our public school teachers and taught them their religion by force the teachers would revolt. But any revolt against these same teachers is labeled reactionary or fascist.

13. Public schools teach a double standard of morality. They say that it's wrong for an individual to steal, but that it's all right for a group to do it, provided there are enough people in the group. This is also known as Might makes Right.

14. Dissenters, individualists, Republicans, rebels who don't believe in the religion of Statism wouldn't be forced to send their children to schools where such doctrines are taught. They could send their children to schools which taught this doctrine: "The more services which are privately owned, whether the service is building dams, giving medical care, schools and libraries, the more progress there is in that field, for progress is caused by two things, the profit motive and free competition."

15. Over a long period the private schools coming closest to truth would prosper. Those which taught nonsense would eventually fail. Nonsense would not be perpetuated by law, as it now is.

"A Partisan History of Judaism"

One of the most interesting books I have come across lately is "A Partisan History of Judaism" by Rabbi Elmer Berger, with an introduction by Paul Hutchinson, editor of The Christian Century. Another title of the book is "The Jewish Case Against Zionism."

Berger summarizes the meaning of Judaism in this manner:

"Judaism is to do justice and to have mercy and to walk humbly with God; all the rest is commentary."

The book is made up of a series of lectures the Rabbi delivered to a group of members of the American Council for Judaism in New York. He explains that there never has been unity in Judaism and that divisiveness results in progress. He says:

"There are also those who see Judaism as 'the religion of the Jewish people.' This book will not please them, either. For it indicates, unmistakably, that the origins of Judaism were not in 'the Jewish people' and that the best and finest of Judaism today transcends 'the Jewish people.'"

Rabbi Berger believes that much could come from a revival of religions polemics or controversial discussions on religious subjects. He writes:

"I have often thought that a revival of religious polemics might be a good thing for our spiritually weary and confused age. We might, perhaps, be able to engage in it with something less than the fanaticism and ulterior purposes which frequently motivated the great polemics of the Middle Ages. While as any reader of this book will see I am a firm believer in those truths which I think are common to all of the great faiths of mankind, I have sometimes been inclined to believe also that in simply saying that all of these faiths possess these common truths, we have achieved a kind of indifference. We are inclined to take the symbol of brotherhood and the obvious increase in religious understanding as a substitute for the faiths themselves.

"This, if it is so, is no test of religious fraternalism. This is simply diminishing interest in religion. There is nothing wrong in religious partisanship; in believing quite passionately that one religion or one interpretation of a great religion is the best possible faith for you, recognizing, at the same time, that someone else may have a different preference.

"I am such a partisan in Judaism. I have no patience with 'unity' in Judaism or among Jews. I do not believe there is any such thing as a 'Jewish people' — not even in the State of Israel, as yet, at this writing; though someday such an entity may exist there.

"I like the heterodox, the rebels, the challengers of authority who, time and again, put the clerics in their place and who, for me, made Judaism something in which I can believe rather than something to which I was born."

In explaining his belief that there never was unity in the Jewish religion he says:

"The facts in the history of Jews and Judaism clearly demonstrate that any generalizations are as inadequate as they are about any other people — perhaps even more so.

* * *

"Judaism evolved from a primitive tribalism to as noble a spiritual and universal vision as man has ever attained. This fact attests, even without detailed proof, to the truth that 'unity' and segregation may have had their partisans but that there must also have been undiscouragable partisans of another kind throughout the long history of Jews and Judaism.

"For change and evolution rarely, if ever, are born from uniformity. Uniformity is imposed, as our modern world knows, in order to suffocate rather than encourage growth. That the history of Judaism reveals such growth is proof of disunity, of individualism, of liberalism, and of respect for these things in whatever degree necessary; to have accepted their achievements and grafted them into the organism of Judaism itself

* * *

"But the important fact remains that always, among both Jews and those of other faiths, there were those who respected the individual integrity of people of Jewish faith and the transcending, universal values of Judaism.

"But the important fact remains that always, among both Jews and those of other faiths, there were those who respected the individual integrity of people of Jewish faith and the transcending, universal values of Judaism.

"This knowledge may be increasingly important in a world facing new tensions and crises. For the way of life which we Americans are struggling to preserve for ourselves and extend to others, holds as an important part that it is the individual that is important; that each is endowed with certain inalienable rights, regardless of race or creed. People of Jewish faith are no exception to this American principle. They enjoy their rights as Americans, not as Jews. They are free to be Jews here, because they are Americans. And their American status is rooted in individual rights.

"Because this is so and because Judaism, like any religion, is deeply personal and individual, there is no separatism involved between Americanism and Judaism. One may be a part of the American people and worship in Judaism without any conflict of loyalties or attachments."

HST Dared To Release Loyalty Report On White House Staff

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
(Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Alfred Kohlberg, the New York dealer in Chinese textiles who has been a fighting anti-Communist, particularly in the Far Eastern phase of our diplomacy, has dared Harry Truman to make public loyalty reports affecting "your White House staff." His telegram is of a general piece with the admission of Lt. Gen. Walter Smith, of the Central Intelligence Agency, that Communists had filtered into all phases of the Truman "security" administration, including Smith's own office.

In common with many other protectors of Communists, Truman lately has been pretending to be an old red-baiter. Kohlberg hits him a bust in the teeth with none of the deference which has deprived other attacks on Truman, Roosevelt and La Boca Grande of legitimate force.

Kohlberg's telegram flows into a speech that Sen. Joe McCarthy made on the floor of the Senate last Jan. 10, in which Joe flatly charged that the FBI had told Truman's White House Loyalty Board that his confidential man, Philleo Nash, attended Communist meetings and officially joined the Communist Party in 1941, which Nash denied. That charge by McCarthy plainly implied a further charge that Truman, himself, was not merely stupid or indifferent as some of his partisans have argued in excusing his "red-herring" cliche but was actually guilty. Truman never answers charges but resorts to the smear technique which he and his accomplices have always imputed to McCarthy.

Kohlberg's telegram said: Times and Herald-Tribune both report you as saying quote The special privilege groups from the oil lobby to the China lobby have all joined together behind the Republican Party unquote. When you refer to the China lobby that's my baby, I'm supposed to be it. Under oath before the Senate MacArthur Committee (the Russell Committee, which heard General MacArthur's testimony.—ed.) Last year Acheson swore he instructed other executive agencies to investigate the China lobby, I am not registered as a lobbyist or as foreign agent. It is therefore apparent that investigation by executive department either proved there was no China lobby and your speech writers involved you in false charges making you guilty of what you call McCarthyism or else executive departments found evidence making me guilty of failing to register legally yet have failed to act."

In fewer words, he calls Truman a liar because Truman of course was no victim of any "speech writer" but has been trying to delouse himself of his own guilt by conjuring a nonexistent force called the China lobby.

Continuing, Kohlberg wrote: "Suggest you either apologize to me or fire attorney general for neglect of duty. Why did you take FBI reports on your own White House staff away from your Loyalty Review Board. Are you willing to make these reports public now and let your fellow countrymen judge for themselves? Pleas Mr. President, no music critic letter in reply. Just do something.

McCarthy's speech was a positive charge that Nash, the carefully chosen successor to the late David K. Niles, himself a suspicious figure for years under Harry Hopkins, F. D. Roosevelt and Truman and close associate of Felix Frankfurter, was a Communist plant in the White House.

In his speech McCarthy did not disclose the source of his documents but he said "I intend to read into the record proceedings before the Loyalty Board of the White House and the Loyalty Review Board."

"There is on the President's staff at a salary of $17,500 a year, Philleo Nash, listed as adviser to the President," McCarthy continued. "The White House Loyalty Board cleared Nash some time ago. Thereafter the FBI conducted a complete and thorough investigation. Ten separate reports were made by the FBI. All those reports were sent to the White House Loyalty Board and to the Loyalty Review Board.

"The White House Loyalty Board cleared Nash. Subsequently the Loyalty Review Board picked up the case and the complete files were sent to the White House. They never have been returned to the Loyalty Review Board."

McCarthy then said the FBI developed the following "principal points":

That Nash, the President's adviser, had been in close contact with the Communist underground in Washington.

That Nash had been a close friend and close associate of one of the convicted Canadian Communists.

That Nash had financially contributed to the support of the Canadian Tribune, the official organ of the Communist Party in Canada.

That Nash, in the early forties, parts of the Communist spy ring in Canada were using Nash's home in Toronto as a rendezvous and some of them were living there.

That Nash, in the early forties, was attending Communist meetings and had officially joined the Communist Party.

"That, in essence," McCarthy said, "is the picture of the president's adviser, one of his administrative assistants, who is receiving $17,500 a year."

Success Secrets

By ELMER WHEELER

Back in 1907 J. M. Travis won his M. D. from Southwestern Medical School in Dallas. Since then his life has been devoted to the service of his fellow men in East Texas.

Those early days of "doctoring" were no picnic, Dr. Travis will tell you. By horse back or buggy in foul or fair weather he traveled great distances to reach his many far flung patients. Ten, 20, and sometimes 24 hours a day were demanded of him, for the rigorous life of a family doctor was seldom, if ever, regulated by the clock.

Recently at the opening session of the TMA meeting in Dallas the spry 75-year old physician was voted "Texas' General Practitioner of the Year", an honor which his associates agreed he richly deserved.

Dr. Travis accepted the tribute with the humility you might expect of one so devoted to his profession. In words spoken with forthright honesty he divulged the key to his success, not only as a physician, but as one beloved by all who know him and have received his care.

"Every human being who consults a doctor is in need of help", said Dr. Travis, "and every person who seeks our help has the right to kindness, consideration and professional courtesy."

In those few words Dr. Travis expressed a philosophy many businesses would do well to employ more lavishly. Whether your customers come to you for help and advice, or whether you seek them out, they are entitled to more than they pay for! They deserve every bit of friendliness, consideration, and professional courtesy you can extend them . . . in return for their faithful patronage.

International Whirligig...

Russia's Forced Labor Called Extreme Violation Of Rights

By JOHN FISHER

The new Soviet Ambassador, Georgi Zarubin, in an artful sound-off message on his arrival in Washington, has pleaded for a better understanding of his enigmatic country.

It would not be to his advantage if Americans followed his advice. The more the free world learns about Russia and its satellite regimes, the more civilized people everywhere draw back in horror and rage at the diabolical system.

The other day President Truman called attention to a State Department document on forced labor in the Soviet Union which declared that the situation of workers under the hammer and sickle represents "the most extreme violation of human rights on the face of the earth."

Fresh evidence on the depraved system is being collected by the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, the International Labor Organization and from other sources, including eyewitness accounts of victims who have fled to the West. Each daub of pigment paints the picture blacker than before.

Cause For Alarm

As the panorama of misery and savagery is unfolded and the outside world understands the implications of Stalin's slave empire, we have due cause for alarm. Red armed forces could not be so formidable were they not supplied by the fruits of the toil of millions in bondage, who create the food reserves, munitions, military installations and raw materials essential to war.

The demands of Simon Legree in every Red State today is for record output, faster production and more workers, ranging from so-called free labor to the hopeless captives in Siberian forests and mines. Our danger is more from today's sweat than blood. The Communist war economy to a large extent is based on one form or another of forced labor, steadily preparing the way for Communist world conquest.

All sorts of methods are used to get the last drop of effort. Before the war, Czechoslavakia, Hungary and Poland had laws forbidding the employment of women in hazardous jobs and at tasks beyond their physical capacities.

Women Recruited

A most charasteristic labor factor today is the recruitment of women in foundries and mines at back-breaking toil. Approximately 400,000 women between the ages of 15 and 55 are in Polish industry and a million more are required for the new Six-Year Plan.

Bulgaria has established "re-education camps" to which those suspected of Western sympathies are sent to study Marxism and to toil 12 hours daily on irrigation projects railroad and highway construction and mining. Professional men and white-collar types thus are compelled to do heavy work.

Food is served twice a day, usually cabbage or bean soup and bread.

A novel way to get extra forced laborers is employed in Romania. Strikes have broken out in the Ploesti oil fields and refineries and in the Dumitru Vojna explosive factories. If anyone gossips about these disruptions in production and his words are reported to the police, the tale bearer is charged with "verbal economic sabotage" and is shipped off to a slave colony.

A somewhat ludicrous situation exists in Hungary. Before the Red regime took over industry, Communist agitators taught workers to shirk and commit sabotage as a means of reducing the capitalists' profits. The habit continues. Now commissars must version is such slow process that teach workers the old tactics of obstruction are wrong. But conloafers usually are weeded out and deported to prison camps.

Tardy Worker Fired

In Lithuania a worker five minutes late for any reason is discharged and a black mark recorded in his labor card. As employers are reluctant to hire a man with a bad record, the dismissed cannot get a job. His enforced idleness makes him a suspect. Soon he is picked up by the MGB as a suspicious character and sentenced to Northern Siberia.

In Iron Curtain countries every trick in the book is used to legitimatize forced labor. During purges or an unusual demand for extra manpower even these hair-splitting excuses are dispensed with and great groups are rounded up and deported to where their muscles are needed.

The plight of so-called free workers in the Soviet Union itself was revealed at the recent American Federation of Labor convention in New York by Vasily Ershov, a former Ukrainian factory worker, collective farm manager and later a colonel in the Russian Army. He had escaped to America.

"In the Soviet Union," declared Ershov, "the trade unions are playing a major role in transforming millions of adolescents of both sexes into slaves of the Stalin regime. With the active cooperation of trade unions, children between the ages of 12 and 14 are torn by force from their parents and their homes and recruited for apprenticeship and vocational schools.

Cripple Millions

"Through their speed-up methods, resulting in an exploitation unequalled in history, trade unions are constantly making cripples of millions of working men and women. The Russian unions are engaging in spying upon and informing against their own members, thus supplying manpower for concentration camps where workers are subject to 100 per cent slavery."

The sheer horror of concentration camps has been revealed frequently in this column and elsewhere. Such wretched holes are characterized by overwork, poor housing, hunger diet, insufficient clothing, lack of medical care, brutal punishment and the hopeless longing for faces of loved ones that never again will be seen on earth.

At the completion of a long term, captives are released. But they are not allowed to return to their native homes for five years. They are required to settle in designated areas to work out their probation. Then they may go home.

But home-comers are barred from big cities, like Moscow, and again drift to several authorized "heartbreak villages" especially of exiles where each move requires a permit from the police.

Unwanted everywhere, some eventually go back to the familiar environment of prison colonies, where they once were imprisoned, and live as "free laborers" under surveillance almost as drastic as that of convicts. Some take jobs as guards and browbeat the wretched class to which they formerly belonged. Thus are humans beings turned into predatory and depraved beasts by the fiendish system.

"The entire Soviet Union," says Ershov, "one of the lucky ones who fled," is one big prison and all its people are slaves."

The Doctor Says

By EDWIN J. JORDAN, M.D.

Nephritis, or Bright's disease, is a result partly of inflammation and partly of degeneration of the kidneys. It interferes with some of the functions of the kidneys.

Richard Bright, for whom the disease is named, was born in Bristol England, in 1789, and was graduated from the University of Edinburgh in 1813. He was one of the famous men attached to Guy's Hospital in London, which is one of the famous voluntary teaching hospitals situated in that city.

His classic report on nephritis appeared in 1827. In it he pointed out the connection between dropsy (or edema), the presence of albumin (a kind of protein) in the urine, and hardened or shrunken kidneys.

He even found that there was an excessive accumulation of a substance called urea in the blood of patients with the particular condition which he was studying.

Nephritis, unlike a great many other disorders of the body, is not really a single disease. It can come on without any apparent cause or it can follow acute infections such as scarlet fever, tonsilitis or pneumonia.

Just how these infections produce Bright's disease—and they do not always cause this difficulty—is not quite clear.

There is often quite a long time between the acute infection and the appearance of the first signs of nephritis. It remains for future research to discover the way in which nephritis is brought about and to improve the means of preventing this complication.

The trouble in the kidneys is not always the same. Sometimes one part of the kidney is damaged more than another. Sometimes the damage seems to be so slight that it halts before symptoms begin to show up.

At other times the condition may progress gradually over a period of months or years, destroying more and more of the functions of the kidneys. When this happens there is a constant worsening of the symptoms.

BURDEN ON KIDNEYS

A reader asks if the drinking of beer has anything to do with nephritis. Beer alone probably can not cause a true nephritis, but if taken in considerable quantity, it throws an added burden on the kidneys, and would therfore be considered inadvisable, as a rule, for a person with Bright's disease.

It looks as though there will be fewer cases of nephritis in the future because several of the diseases commonly causing it, like pneumonia and scarlet fever, yield quite well to the sulfa drugs or penicillin. This hoped-for result should show up as time passes.

Bid For A Smile

A man being subpoenaed as a witness on a trial for an assault, one of the counsel, who was notorious for brow-beating witnesses, asked him what distance he was from the parties when the assault happened; he answered:

Witness—Just thirteen feet eleven inches and a half.

Lawyer—How come you to be so exact?

Witness—Because I expected some fool or other would ask me, and I just measured it.

A famous professor states that there are three important items in achieving emotional balance: first, a man must have one or more goals toward which he's striving; second, he must feel that he is making progress, or that his marking time is temporary; and third, he must feel that he is doing something worth while for someone in whose eyes he wishes to stand well. (Mightn't this go for women, too?)

Customer—What are these things?

Shop Girl—Pencil erasers.

Customer—I don't want anything that will erase a pencil. I want a pencil mark eraser. But might take a lead pencil. Have you any?

Shop Girl—No, but we have wooden cylinders with graphite inside them. Will they do?

A kind word is never lost, but it keeps on going around, doing good, and eventually comes back to you.

Wheeler County Gins Process 1,217 Bales Of Cotton

SHAMROCK (Special) — Wheeler County gins handled 1,217 bales of cotton through Sept. 30, according to Richard Robinson, control supervisor, Department of Agriculture. The four gins in Shamrock and Twitty processed 876 bales. The other five gins in the county had only 295 bales because of the slightly later season in the north part of the county.

Wheeler County is still short of laborers. Many farmers have several bales open with no pullers to get them out of the fields. The shortage of pullers is attributed to two causes, the below-normal crop which reduces income of the workers and the fact that the local crop is earlier than usual. The transient workers who usually come to the county after harvesting in other areas have been dismissed so that students in those places.

The Samnorwood school and Shamrock Dunbar colored school have been dismissed so that students can help with the harvest.

Wheeler Families To Receive Honors

SHAMROCK (Special) — Three Wheeler County families will be among those receiving special recognition at ceremonies at the State Fair grounds, Dallas, on Oct. 9. The ceremonies to be held in the new livestock area will recognize the achievements of some 300 FHA farm families who have repaid their loans this year. Certificates of achievements will be presented to each family.

Black Market In Babies Exposed

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Baby black marketeers in San Antonio seemed eager to be rid of their "merchandise" as several babies were turned over to licensed adoption agencies with the complaint, "Here, You take 'em."

The surrendering of babies came after an expose by the San Antonio Express and Evening News. Reporters Mary Rice Brogan and Howard Hunt posed as a man and wife eager to adopt a baby and made arrangements to "buy" one for $425, $85 of which was to go to a "special" attorney for fixing up papers.

Calvin Dodds, executive secretary of the Children's Service Bureau, said his office had received a flood of calls.

Dodds said that a black market in babies was operating on a large scale and might be working on a state-wide basis.

Progress Rapid On Highway 66 Work; Lane To McLean

McLEAN (Special)—Progress on the paving of Hwy. 66 is going along at a rapid pace — when materials arrive on schedule. The concrete pouring started just west of Alanreed in August and now, the north lane is poured to the city limits of McLean. Work is going ahead on the south lane beginning at the west city limits of McLean. Practically no interference with traffic has yet occurred since the most of the north lane is new route and so far, has only crossed the old route once. This same situation will prevail when the east city limits is reacheo. The entire project is due to be completed late in the summer of 1953.

Dr. L. N. D. Wells To Conduct Revival

Shamrock Farmer Bitten By Snake

SHAMROCK (Special) — W. R. Bradstreet, 61-year-old farmer, was hospitalized Wednesday, after being bitten by a rattlesnake while pulling bolls on his farm south of Dozier.

The 14-inch snake, hidden under a weed, struck Bradstreet on the middle finger of his left hand, the fangs piercing a heavy cotton glove worn by the victim.

Mr. Bradstreet was rushed to a doctor and placed in Shamrock General Hospital where is reported as doing fine. The rattler was killed by grandsons of the victim, Roy and Raymond Harvey. One about the same size was killed in the cotton field last Saturday.

Weather Delays Kid-Billy Bout

HAVANA (AP) — The welterweight championship fight between Kid Gavilan and Billy Graham, scheduled for Saturday night, was postponed because of a tropical rainstorm. It will be held Sunday night, weather permitting.

The rain began in the afternoon and still was falling three hours before the 10 p.m. (EST) starting time. At first the officials said they would wait a while to see if it still was raining when the bettle was due to start.

But they decided that even if it stopped the outdoor arena in Grand stadium would be too wet.

The fight will be held at the same time today.

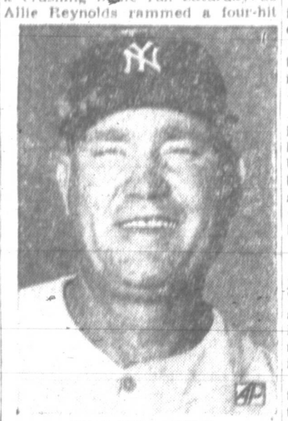

Workers still were trying to complete the physical plant in the afternoon, so it may have been just as well from a standpoint of comfort that it was put back a day.

Both champion Gavilan and challenger Graham weighed in at 146 1-2 pounds for the 10-round test.

Yankees Knot Series On Reynolds' 2-0 Shutout

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Once again big John Mize came back to haunt the National League with a crushing home run Saturday as Allie Reynolds rammed a four-hit shut-out down Brooklyn throats to square the World Series with a 2-0 New York Yankee victory in the fourth game.

JOHNNY MIZE
. . . Saturday's hero.

Mize, nearing his 40th birthday in the gloaming of a glamorous career, jerked the 71,787 Yankee Stadium mob to its feet with a towering blast into the lower right field seats in the fourth inning.

Bouncing back from his opening day loss to rookie Joe Black, Reynolds fired his singing fast ball and dancing curve past the bewildered Dodgers to claim 10 strikeout victims, only three short of Howard Ehmake's great record in 1919.

Fifth Series Win

With this tremendous pitching job, Reynolds earned his fifth World Series triumph, more than any active major leaguer. All Dodger hits were singled and never did more than one come in the same inning.

Cutting through the heart of the Brooklyn batting order with the skill and cunning of a proven ace, the 34-year-old Reynolds fanned Jackie Robinson three times and Roy Campanella and Andy Pafko twice each.

Reynolds added Billy Cox, pinchhitter Rocky Nelson and Black, his pitching rival, to the strikeout list.

From the very first inning when he pulled himself out of trouble by blazing a called third strike past Robinson and whiffing Campanella, Reynolds was superb. In fact he started the game by whiffing Cox but Peewee Reese's single and Billy Martin's wild throw put him in a jam. He didn't need any help to get out.

Great as was Reynolds' stronghearted pitching job, that man Mize captured the hearts of the crowd this crisp, sunshiny afternoon.

Big Cat Swings

Manager Casey Stengel dragged Mize off the bench to deliver a pinch homer yesterday in a lost cause. So Saturday he benched Joe Collins, who had gone hitless in 11 attempts and started the hulking tobacco - chawin' vet.

With Reynolds and Black knotted in another terrific struggle, Mize came up to bat as lead-off man in the fourth. With the count one ball and two strikes, he stroked one some 10 or 15 rows back in the lower right stands.

Mize, the leading active major leaguer in home runs with 355 in regular play, bounced a double into the right field seats for his 1,999th hit. That includes his series, All - Star game and regular season base hits since he first hit the majors in 1936.

When the big fellow from Demorest, Ga., finally retired for a pinch runner in the eighth, a mighty cheer rattled windows in passing elevated trains.

It mattered little that the Yanks blasted home an "extra" run in the eighth on Mickey Mantle's 450-foot triple off relief man Johnny Rutherford and Reese's wild peg on a relay throw.

Blackwell Surprise Starter

Mize did it and Reynolds locked the door. That was the story of this fourth game. With the series even at 2-2, the clubs now will return to Ebbets Field Monday for a sixth game following today's, Yankee Stadium finale. If they need a seventh, it also will be played in Brooklyn. Today's game will start at 2:05 p.m. EST.

After Reynolds' fine victory with only two days of rest, Stengel named Ewell Blackwell the ex-Cincinnati whip, to do the honors Sunday. Blackwell was 1-0 with the Yanks, working only 16 innings after he was waived out of the National League Aug. 28. Still he allowed only three hits — a homer and two doubles — in his seven inning stay. He walked five and had men on base in every inning except the seventh.

A sensational one - handed stab of Yogi Berra's long drive by Duke Snider near the auxiliary scoreboard in right field saved Black from further trouble in the fourth. Berra, still smarting from Friday's two - run passed ball "boner," was the next batter after Mize hit his homer. He actually hit the ball farther than big Jawn but the 400-foot poke was caught by the agile Snider.

NOTRE DAME TRIPS STEERS

Second Half Rally Brings 14-3 Win

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN (AP) — Notre Dame shrugged off the Texas heat Saturday and turned on its own steam to scorch favored Texas, 14-3.

Johnny Lattner brought the Irish to life in the third quarter with a pass reception from Joe Heap good for 30 yards and the first close view Notre Dame had of the Texas goal line. The ball was on the one.

Lattner plunged over right guard to shoot Notre Dame ahead, 6-3. The high hopes of Texas — ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll—were shattered.

The clincher, a 3-yard plunge by Heap following a Texas fumble of a punt, was almost anticlimatic. Texas looked and was beaten throughout almost the entire last half.

Field Goal

The Longhorns got their three points in the second quarter on a field goal after moving down to the Irish 3. The Notre Dame defense was so tough that Texas seemed happy to get a field goal instead of trying for the goalline.

Notre Dame, great on the defensive from start to finish, showed no offense until the second half.

Coach Frank Leahy, who had promised not to use the 90-degree heat as an alibi if he lost, must have warmed his boys up with his halftime advice.

The Irish came charging into the field, took the kickoff to open the third quarter, and wheeled 84 yards to the winning touchdown.

Ralph Guglielmi, starting quarterback for the Irish for the first time, mixed the running of Heap, Lattner, and Fullback Neil Worden to get to the Texas 31. Then he pitched out to Heap, who dropped back and fired to Lattner.

Lattner Scores

Lattner was knocked off the field as he hit the red flag at the corner so it seemed only natural for Guglielmi to let him carry the ball over the goal on the next play.

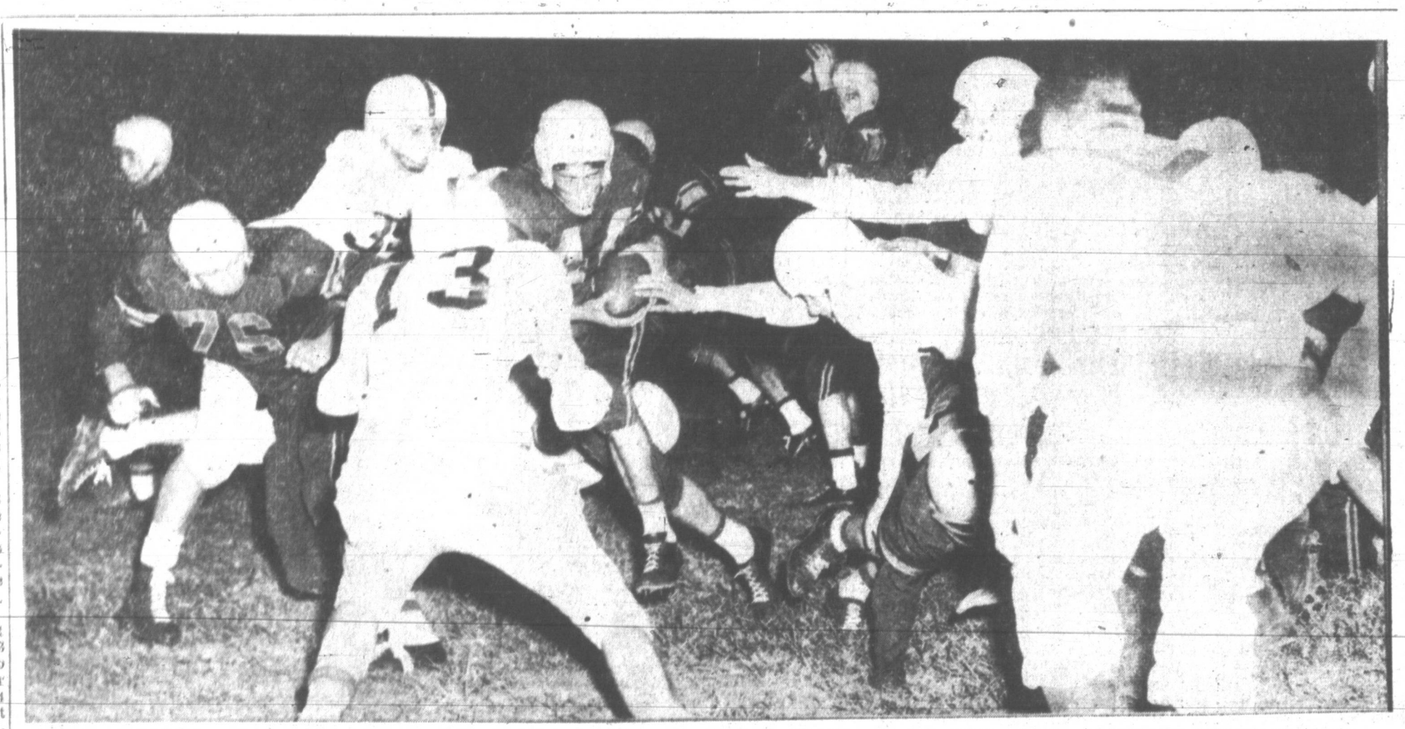

Notre Dame continued to maul the Texas offense the rest of the way, and the Texas edge in first downs, 14 to 12, was only a reflection of a lot of wasted effort by the Longhorns in the first two quarters.

The Irish barged from their 16 to the Texas 27 in the final period, were thrown back to the 31 and punted. Texas Safety Bob Raley caught it, dropped it, and Notre Dame's Dan Shannon flopped on the ball at the Texas 3.

Heap drove over on the next play. From then on lots of the 65 600 fans started flocking out of the stadium.

Notre Dame	0	0	7	7—14
Texas	0	3	0	0— 3

Notre Dame scoring: Touchdowns, Lattner, Heap. Conversion, Mavraides, 2.

COMING THROUGH — Harold Lewis, Harvester halfback, twists through small hole in Duncan Demon line during Friday night's game at Harvester Park. Helping to make the hole are Tackle Buddy Cockrell (76) and Guard Alton Flynn (on hand in foreground). Lewis clings to ball with both hands to avoid ball-tackling hands of Demon defenders. Other backfielders faking the play are Fullback David Enloe (left), Ed Dudley (22), and Quarterback J. N. Wright (hands over head). (News photo)

Baylor Smashes Cougars

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

WACO (AP) — L. G. Dupre, a driving, crashing sophomore, and two of the Jones boys — Allen and Glenn — pooled their talents Saturday to bring Baylor a smashing 34-7 victory over Washington State.

Allen Jones scored the first Baylor touchdown. Glenn intercepted a pass to set up the second and Dupre rammed across the Cougar goal line three times as the Bears won their second straight game.

Washington State fought back heatily for a half and the score was 12-7 at intermission. A combination of Baylor aggressiveness and a blistering Texas sun sapped the Cougars and they were only hanging on at the finish.

First Threat

The Cougars made the first threat rambling to the Baylor 13 early in the first period only to lose the ball on a fumble. Baylor got to the Washington State 14 before bogging down. The next time Baylor got the ball it rolled to a touchdown.

It was a 76-yard surge with Allen Jones the keyman, but with a 23 - yard dash by Dupre setting the ball deep in Cougar territory.

Baylor scored again with alarming suddenness. Glenn Jones intercepted a pass from Bob Burkhart and scattered to the Washington State 45. Dupree picked up four and Allen Jones sped to the Washington State two. Don Carpenter plowed across.

A fumble set up the Washington State touchdown late in the second period. Baylor had been set back to its five yard line by a holding penalty. Allen Jones crashed into the line but dropped the ball and Gregg Ribary, Cougar wingman, fell on it. Big Jim Head laced left tackle for the touchdown.

Durpre Shines

But the second half belonged to the irrepressible Dupre. Midway of the third period Duke Washington, Washington State's Negro fullback who was the hardest runner for the Cougars today, fumbled on the Baylor 24 and Johnny Davis recovered. Jerry Goody ran to the Washington State 36. Cotton Davidson screenpassed to Dupre on the Baylor 35 and he ran to the Washington State 14. Allen Jones ground out three yards then Dupre drove over for the score.

The next Baylor touchdown came on a 48 yard drive, with Dupre going across from the 11.

The final Bear touchdown was set up by a pass interception. Wayne Calvahouse gathered in a Burkhart throw and ran to the Cougar 24. A clipping penalty set Baylor back but interference was called on a pass on the Washington State five. Dupre swept over left guard for the score.

A crowd of 17,000 saw the game.

Washington State	0	7	0	0— 7
Baylor	0	12	7	12—31

Washington State scoring: Touchdown, Head; conversion: Barker. Baylor scoring: Touchdowns, Allen Jones, Carpenter, Dupre 2; conversions: Brocato.

Oklahoma Regains Composure, 49-20

NORMAN, Okla (AP) — Oklahoma, plagued by fumbles in its opener a week ago, regained composure and a measure of its reputation Saturday by walloping Pittsburgh, 49-20.

Tied by Colorado 21-21 last week when they found it hard to hold on to the ball, the Big Seven Conference champs struck with authority in every period and completely overwhelmed a hard-running Pitt eleven.

Buddy Leake led the Oklahoma scoring by smashing for two touchdowns, passing for a third and kicking six extra points. But it was battering Buck McPhail who kept the Sooners on the move by ripping the Panther defense to shreds.

McPhail, senior fullback whose rushing average led the nation last year, covered 158 yards in 20 carries Saturday for an average of 7.0 He outdistanced the entire Pittsburgh team, which gained a net of only 128 yards on the ground, and accounted for nearly half of his team's ground gaining total of 328 yards.

After spotting Oklahoma 21 points in the first 20 - minutes, Pitt battled back to close the gap to 21-13 at halftime. But the visitors couldn't put together another scoring drive until the dying moments when Bill Reynolds crashed the last yard of a 52-yard march.

Horned Frogs Start SWC Race With 13-7 Win

By ARNO ADAMS

FORT WORTH (AP) — TCU started up that rough and always unpredictable road toward another Southwest Conference football championship Saturday night by shoving aside a stubborn Arkansas crew, 13-7.

Winless and scoreless in two previous games, the TCU machine sputtered to life for this one. For a while especially in the first half during the magic passing of Ray McKown the Frogs moved jet engine style.

In the first half alone, McKown had 171 yards on nine of his 15 passes plus a net 56 yards running. A second half feature was his beautiful 43-yard hurl to Bob Blair, although it didn't lead to pay dirt.

All scoring came in the first two quarters, with the Frogs driving 84 yards on six plays after getting the opening kickoff.

The Fayetteville quarterback, Lamar McHan, engaged in a passing duel with McKown but his short, successful tosses weren't so spectacular.

Arkansas had a passing gain of 92 yards to 266 for TCU.

The 22,000 fans were on their feet most of the time during the first half as the teams knocked each other about.

It was McKown they cheered, and the way he chalked 266 yards in 14 out of 24 passes and 70 net yards on 37 running plays.

Arkansas had the edge rushing —but a slight edge, 111 to 147.

Arkansas exhibited power in its only touchdown. Following TCU's opening march into the pay zone, Arkansas rammed back 64 yards on eight plays, featuring a 22-yard run by Back Buddy Sutton, Jack Trexwell scored.

TCU's second touchdown was made by McKown in the second period.

Conversion, Crouch.

Georgia Tech Downs Ponies

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP) — These twin ruing terrors of the South — Leon Hardeman and Bill Teas — shattered SMU's ramparts for a 20-7 Georgia Tech victory Saturday night.

They slashed and tore the Methodist line for more than 160 yards each in carrying the Yellow Jackets — unbeaten now in 17 straight games — to a decisive triumph as 41,000 watched.

The Jackets leaped to a 20-0 lead in the first half and slowed down in the second half as the SMU sophomores, spearheaded by Roy Pace, a lean 170-pounder with rubber in his legs, swept 86 yards to a touchdown and threatened again. But the Jackets still had sting left —they twice pushed into Methodist territory in the final period, being stalled once by a pass interception and the other time by a fumble.

Pace made the lone Methodist touchdown with two mighty smashes from the Tech seven-yard line.

Tech rolled 71 yards for its first touchdown late in the opening period with Hardeman, Teas and Larry Ruffin alternating at pow dering the SMU line. Interference was called on Bill Brigman's pass on the SMU 19 and Hardeman swept right end twice to get the touchdown.

An intercepted pass set up the second Tech touchdown. Charlie Brannon gathered in a throw by SMU's Jerry Norton on the Tech 48. Ruffin, Hardeman and Teas pushed down to the Methodist 28 as the first period ended. Teas took a pitchout and ran around right end for the touchdown.

Midway of the second period Glenn Turner tried a field goal from the SMU 23 but it was wide. SMU took over and drove down to the Tech 15 before losing the ball. From there the Yellow Jackets smashed and snorted to another touchdown. From the Methodist 7 Teas whipped wide around left end and cut back for the score.

Rice Owls Slowed By Upset At Hands Of Fighting Louisiana State Tigers, 27 - 7

By WILBUR MARTIN

HOUSTON (AP) — Downtrodden LSU stole Rice's rock 'em sock 'em thunder Saturday night and added its own special brand of lightning to rack up a one-sided, 27-7 victory.

Some 45,000 sat almost in awe as the Tigers won their first game this season with a defense that was almost as good as its defense in setting up touchdowns.

Not until LSU had scored once in each of the four periods did Rice really threaten, rolling 70 yards in the waning minutes to notch its only tally.

The pin-point passing of Norman Stevens moved LSU into scoring position for its first touchdown and Willard Rachel cracked over from the one. That was the only true offense LSU mounted until Sal Nicele twisted and squirmed 94 yards for a touchdown in the third period, but in between the Tigers bolstered their lead. A blocked punt set up this second period tally, just like another blocked kick did their final one.

Al Dogget bulled three yards for the second score and Jerry Marchand went five for the final one.

Larry Grantham passed to Dick Meegle on a play that covered 67 yards to set up Rice's lone touchdown and Bob Garbrecht went the final yard to put it on the scoreboard after Dickie Bob Haddox ground out two yards.

It was a sorry conclusion Rice found out early; LSU was too tough to run against. So the Owls took to the air, with Dan Drake doing most of the passing. Even here a jackrabbit of a back named Charley Oakley made this line attack almost useless, time and again breaking up some of these 53 passes that Rice tossed. The Owls did complete 19 for 268 yards.

Kentucky Wildcats Sneak Past Texas Aggies, 10-7

By CLAYTON HICKERSON

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — A last minute Texas A & M rally fell six yards short Saturday night after Kentucky's Wildcats had used a third quarter scoring splurge to win, 10-7.

Kentucky used its backfield twins, Harry and Larry Jones, and a 26-yard field goal from Bob Bassitt to win. The Wildcats were scoreless in all but that 10 - point third quarter, but that was enough to win. The Kentucky forwards turned back several Aggie scoring chances.

The Cadets rolled to the Kentucky 17-yard line as the first quarter ended on a 12-yard pass from Ray Graves to Jerry Crossman. That drive bogged down on the 1-yard line.

After a Kentucky drive failed to make headway, Joe Bering took Steve Meilinger's punt on the Aggie 25 and scooted to the Aggie 35.

Then, riding on stellar Ray Graves' strong passing arm, the Aggies reared 65 yards in 12 plays for the tally.

The Aggies couldn't go as the third period started and Frank Fuller took Roy Dellar's punt on the Aggie 24. Three ground plays failed to gain but a yard there for the Wildcats and Bob Bassitt dropped back to kick the field goal to make it Kentucky 3 Texas A & M 7.

Kentucky scored again late in the period, driving 72 yards in nine plays. After an 18-yard pass, H. Jones to Meilenger, Gruner and Bell passed for 11 and 18 yards. Charlie Bell carried 18 to the Aggie 14. Felsh made four and then H. Jones went for the final touchdown of the night.

Southern Cal Tips Army Cadets, 22-0

LOS ANGELEC (AP) — A spirited but outmanned Army team held Southern California to a two-point halftime margin Saturday but surrendered before a crushing ground attack and miscues in the final stages to give the Trojans a 22-0 victory.

A blocked kick that bounded out of the end zone gave USC an automatic safety, and an Army fumble on its own seven donated the Trogans a touchdown — more than enough for due the stubborn mule from West Point.

Marching to their third win of the new season and No. 2 in a row over Army, the havily-gunned Trojans managed to travel 45 yards in 11 plays for their second touchdown. The final score came through the air. The last two tallies came in the fourth quarter.

Scoring hero was tailback Jimmy sears. He passed for two touchdowns. A 11-yard throw to left end Ron Miller, a seven-yarder to Aramis Dandoy and sliced two yards on a rushing play for the other counter.

A crowd of 48,433 saw the Army team in its first appearance here.

HOW TO PREPARE A TASTY DISH WITH MUD HENS!

MUD HENS ARE NOT DUCKS ALTHOUGH THEY ARE OFTEN SEEN WITH THEM. CONTRARY TO GENERAL OPINION, THEY CAN BE GOOD EATING. SPLIT THE SKIN, PULL IT ASIDE AND SLICE OFF BOTH SIDES OF A BREAST. PUT BREASTS IN A BOWL, SQUEEZE LEMON AND LIME JUICE OVER THEM, AND LEAVE IN A REFRIGERATOR OVER NIGHT. TO COOK: SLICE EACH PIECE INTO TWO THIN CUTLETS AND FRY IN A HOT SALTED PAN FOR 1 MINUTE.

AFTER REMOVING THE BITTER FAT, SEVERAL DIFFERENT TASTY RECIPES MAY BE USED WHICH WE WILL DESCRIBE LATER.

Wisconsin Badgers Rip Illinois, 20-6

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin's Rose Bowl-minded Badgers struck with terrific power, generated by an atomic backfield, to crush 20-6, favored Illinois, defending Big Ten champion and No. 2 team in the nation.

Rookie Quarterback Jim Haluska passed to one touchdown and directed slashing Fullback Alan (The Horse) Ameche and fleet Halfback Harland Carl to two others in a complete humiliation of the Illini before a record 52,071 crowd.

Ranked eighth in the Associated Press national poll, Wisconsin unleashed one of the greatest demonstrations of slam-bang football seen at Camp Randall Stadium in years.

The opening conference triumph probably will stamp the badgers not only as the league's favorite to land the Rose Bowl bid, but also to nail the Big Ten title.

Illinois, last New Year's Rose Bowl champion, proudly encountered the Badgers with a record of 11 games without defeat.

The Illini left the field, outrushed by a whopping 336 yards to go. The Badgers tried only 14 passes in timely spots for six completions and 100 yards against Illinois's 22 aerials which hit eight times for 67 yards.

After the opening kickoff the Badgers moved 73 yards for a touchdown on 14 plays. Carl shot over Illinois' right tackle for the touchdown from the two.

That was the tempo for the entire game, although Wisconsin was delayed until the third quarter for its second touchdown. This came on a 36-yard pass from Haluska to Halfback Jerry Witt. The Badgers wound up busoiness with a fourth quarter touchdown on a 60-yard drive with Ameche battering over from the one.

The sole Illinois touchdown came on a 63-yard return by End John (Rocky) Ryan of Wisconsin's kickoff after its third touchdown.

Carl, 20-year-old 176 - pound speedster, was the flashiest performer with 113 yards in 16 tries to a sparking 7.2 average.

But Ameche was the real block-buster in the vicious Badger attack. The 205-pound sophmore carried the ball 32 times, to bruse the Illini for 116 yards.

Tommy O'Connell, veteran Illinois quarterback, who was supposed to give Haluska a lesson in strategy and passing, completed only seven of 21 passes and was harassed every inch of the way by the charged-up Badgers.

Reapers Upset In Opener By Mann

AMARILLO — Pampa's Reapers, 1951 Panhandle junior high football conference champions, were upset by Horace Mann, 12-0, here Friday to feature play in the Panhandle Junior High School Conference.

In other games, Borger edged by Houston, 7-6, at Borger, and Elizabeth Nixon defeated Stephen F. Austin, 12-0, at the Austin field.

Horace Mann scored in the second and fourth quarters to surprise the defending champion Pampans. Jimmy Cook took a handoff and dashed five yards for the first tally and Frank Brown circled end for 26 yards and a score early in the fourth period.

The standout defensive man for the game was Ed Fox. Mann tackled, and blocked two Pampa punts to set up the two markers. Pampa was not able to generate a serious atack, getting no closer than the Mann 85.

Next Friday afternoon the Reapers entertain Dumas junior high at Harvester Park.

Wheeler Mustangs Upset Canadian Wildcats, 20-19

CANADIAN — The Wheeler Mustangs upset the defending District 1A champion Canadian Wildcats here Friday night, 20-19. Clarence Whittenburg, Mustang quarterback, sneaked over with the extra point in the third period that won the game for the Mustangs.

Whittenburg played a big role in the upset, scoring the first and third touchdowns for the winners. In the first period he crashed over from the one and in the third he went over from the four. Harold Lee travelled 58 yards with the other Mustang touchdown and Whittenburg ran the extra point across.

The Wildcats scored in the first period when Dean Hoover raced 10 yards to score. In the second period Raymond Ramirez passed to Hoover for 33 yards and another touchdown and Ramirez converted.

In the fourth quarter the Mustangs had their chance to tie the score as Ramirez passed to Clyde Cain for nine yards and the TD, but they missed the extra point.

Purdue Upends Ohio Buckeyes

COLUMBUS O. (AP) — Purdue's bristling Boilermakers converted a fumble, a blocked punt and an intercepted pass into touchdowns Saturday to defeat Ohio State's Bucks, 21-14, in a loosely played Western Conference grid game.

Ohio scored in the closing seconds of the second and last periods by cashing in on a pair of Purdue fumbles deep in Boilermaker territory.

A crowd of 75,417 saw big John Hlay, Ohio fullback, fumble on his own 26 on the third play of the game and from that spot the Boilermakers moved to a touchdown on five plays. Max Schmaling, Purdue's 205 - pound fullback made the touchdown from four yards out.

Jayhawkers Slip By Colorado

LAWRENCE, Kas. (AP) — The Kansas Jayhawks, sparked by Charlie Hoag's three touchdowns and two great goal-line stands, moved into a commanding position in the Big Seven Conference football race by outscoring the Colorado Buffaloes 21-12, Saturday.

The alert Jayhawks won their third successive victory in a hard game before an estimated 32,500 fans.

As in their non-conference victories over TCU and Santa Clara, the Jayhawks built up an early lead by turning enemy fumbles into touchdowns and then making a couple of successful defensive stands in the shadow of their goal.

Hoag, senior left halfback, scored the first touchdown mid-way in the opening quarter on a six yard slash off tackle.

He nabbed a 20-yard pass from Jerry Robertson for a touchdown in the second, and in the final period he dashed 66 yards to paydirt.

Colorado scored twice in the second quarter. The first one came in a sensational 87 yard pass play from Zack Jordan to Frank Bernardi. Carroll Hardy whipped 20 yards around end for the second one.

Ray, Lubbock Show State Title Power

By BRUCE HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

They can talk about the turbulent Southwest conference all they wish but when it comes to plain competitive head-knocking this Texas schoolboy football can hold its own with any league.

Take Ray of Corpus Christi and Fort Arthur for instance.

Both unbeaten and untied AAAA giants, they squared away Friday night in what was billed as the top powerhouse game in the state. And they gave the spectator a show. Fort Arthur got off to an early lead but Ray bounced back to a 19-6 victory and loomed even larger as a possible championship contender.

Meanwhile, defending AAAA champion Lubbock was showing it still hed plenty of strength. Lubbock whipped North Side of Fort Worth 27-13.

The competition was just as tough in the AAA race.

Defending champion Breckenridge, fighting hard to retain its crown, rose up and knocked big AAAA Abilene from the unbeaten-untied ranks in what could be termed the upset of the night.

Temple Triumphs

But at the same time Temple, a favorite in AAA that's been stomping the daylights out of AAAA squad, continued that habit by rolling over San Jacinto of Houston 41-7. And another AAA contender, Brownwood, beat AAAA Austin 13-7.

In a top game AAAA Midland, itself undefeated, pushed Yselta of the same class out of the undefeated ranks with a 53-0 trouncing.

Tyler fell from the undefeated-untied ranks at the hands of Texarkana 20-14 in another spotlighted contest.

In Class AA feature tilts matching unbeaten-untied teams Stamford drubbed Ballinger 42-13 and Huntsville overpowered Silbee, 32-7, Silsbee previously had been unscored on.

Another contest involving an AA team saw Kermit topple El Paso High from the unbeaten-untied ranks with a lopsided 33-0 victory.

Defending AA champion Arlington just made it by Hillsboro 19-12.

In Class A previously undefeated-untied Hull Daisetta battled undefeated but tied Dayton to a 7-7 tie. Giddings, defending A champion who hasn't been beaten this season, downed AA Tyler, 13-0. Wink, another A powerhouse, beat Crane 27-6 ina conference game.

In other outstanding games, AAAA Amarillo whipped AAA Plainview 44-6, Odessa beat Paschal of Fort Worth 42-7 in a game matching AAAA teams and undefeated North Dallas of Class AAAA kept its record intact by polishing off Greenville of AAA 28-6. Big undefeated Wichita Falls of AAAA turned away AAA Sherman 31-0 while AA Lufkin beat Orange of AAAA 19-7.

Down in the valley full-running AAA McAllen, undefeated and unscored on, blasted Pharr-San Juan Alamo 41-0 in a conference game.

Duke's Blue Devils Outclass Tennessee's Powerhouse, 7-0

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Duke, holding Tennessee to two first downs and 25 yards gained rushing, uncorked a vicious ground game Saturday to defeat the Vols, 7-0, before a crowd of 35,000.

The Blue Devils' ground game was powered by Fullback Jack Kistler and Halfbacks Lloyd Caudle and Red Smith. For about 3-fourths of the game the Blue Devils, tenth ranked in the nation in the Associated Press poll, controlled the ball.

Eleventh ranked Tennessee was without the services of Fullback Andy Kozar for two and one-half periods. He and Duke tackle Ed Meadows were tossed out of the game in the second period for unnecessary rougness.

The victory was Duke's first over Tennessee since 1949's 21-7 decision. The Blue Devils are now undefeated in three starts.

After being repulsed on Tennesse's six in the first period, Duke scored Mid-way the second quarter. Tennessee tailback Pat Shires fumbled and Duke Linebacker Johnny Palmer recovered on the Vols' 27. Six plays went to the three from where Kistler plunged over on fourth down.

End Bill Keziah converted.

Tennessee had the ball for only three plays during the first half, punting twice and fumbling once.

Tennessee and Duke both muffed scoring chances in the opening period. Three plays after the opening kickoff, Duke fumbled on a pitchout from Quarterback Worth Lutz to Red Smith and Tennessee Tackle Bob Fisher recovered on the Duke 14.

On the next play, Kozar fumbled and Duke Tackle Tank Lawence recovered again on the 14. The Blue Devils then began an 86-yard drive highlighted by an 18-yard run by Caudle. The drive, however, was halted on the Vols' six. Tennessee held for downs.

Tennessee threatened in the third, Bobby Brengle made a brilliant 48 - yard punt return to Dukes's 12. However, Duke's stout defense took over on the four.

The Blue Devils, ever on the move, drove to the Tennessee 13 early in the final period. The drive had been featured by a 27-yard run by Red Smith.

White Deer Swamps Gruver Greyhounds

WHITE DEER — The White Deer Bucks swamped the Gruver Greyhounds here Friday night, 55-0, in a non - conference game. The powerful Bucks are favored to win the District 1-A championship this season.

Max Jordan scored the first two touchdowns for the Bucks, and then the Eller twins, Roy and Ray, took over to score five of the last six touchdowns. And Roy had a hand in the sixth one, flipping a pass to Donald Denham good for 35-yards and the score.

Jordan romped over from the three for the first TD and Ronald Mills converted. Jordan's second touchdown came on a 10-yard run with Roy Eller converting. Then Eller scampered 19 yards with the third touchdown of the first period.

In the second quarter Roy Eller again scored, bulling over from the one with Gerald Hunt converting. Roy Eller went 18 yards for the next touchdown and Hunt converted again, to make the halftime score 34-0.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Ray Eller went 18 yards in the fourth period to score, Roy converting. Then came the Denham touchdown pass following by another five - yard run by Roy Eller, who also converted to end the scoring.

UCLAns Blast Washington, 32-7

SEATTLE (AP) — UCLA turned a hive of blue hornets into the Washington football stadium Saturday and swarmed to a 32 to 7 triumph that stamped the big UCLAn as top contender for the Pacific Coast Conference title.

The blue-clad Californians turned Washington's vaunted passing attack into a boomerang, intercepting five tosses by Quarterback Don Heinrich who hadn't lost a toss by interception previously this season.

In spite of the great defensive show, Heinrich cracked the conference record by completing 21 passes out of the 42 he threw. The old mark of 20 completions was held jointly by Bob Burkhart of Washington State and Washington's Sam Mitchell.

FIGHTING HARVESTERS DOWN DUNCAN, 32-12

Pampans Prepare For Start Of District 4-A Play Friday

With cries of "Get a Sandie" ringing through the dressing room, the Pampa Harvesters set their sights on the opening game of the District 1-AAAA season this week and after defeating the Duncan, Okla., Demons Friday night, 32-12.

The victory concluded the Harvesters' three-game nonconference schedule and left them unbeaten. At the same time it handed the Sooner schoolboy eleven its first shellacking since 1950 as well as the first in 15 games.

Playing against a team that had them beaten in almost every respect except fight and ability, the Harvesters definitely proved themselves worthy of wearing the title of "Fighting Harvesters that Pampa clubs of the past three seasons have worn so gloriously. The Demons outweighed the Harvesters from end to end, had 16 returning lettermen, and had several boys 21 years of age compared to the 18- and 17-year old Harvesters.

Offense Grinds Again

But the Pampans were bitter about reports from Duncan that the Sooners, rated among the top three in Oklahoma, planned to score at least five times on Texas soil. A stalwart Pampa defense grudgingly gave up but 186 yards on the ground and nothing through the air as the Demons attempted 13 futile aerials, Pampa's offensive machine, meanwhile, was grinding out 325 net yards rushing and adding 149 more through the air for a total of 31 first downs.

The hard-fought, hard-played game was a good proving ground in the week prior to the big contest with the Sandstorm, which opens district play Friday. The game, a night affair, will be the first under the lights in the history of the long, bloody series. The Harvesters have downed the Sandies in the last three meetings, an almost unheard of thing to happen to Amarillo prestige. And, all things considered, the Pampans will be made solid favorites going into the game.

It was impossible to single out any particular Harvester as outstanding in Friday's tilt. The entire forward wall, and especially the hard-crashing line backers, had the Duncan split-T running out of gas. Several times the quarterback was hit hard before he could pitch out. There was only one lapse in the Pampa defense and that came early in the first quarter when the defenders misunderstood defensive signals and the Demons brilliant 172-pound fullback, Dick Wilkins, got away on a 90-yard jaunt for a touchdown the first time he carried the ball. But the Harvesters already had seven points at the time, garnered in the first three plays of the game.

Third Play Scores

Pampa took over on its own 20 when the opening kickoff cleared the end zone. On the first play John Darby picked up four yards around left end. After a five-yard backfield in motion penalty had moved them back to their 19, Ed Dudley took a handoff from quarterback J.N. Wright, who again played a brilliant game, and the junior left-halfback drove and snaked his way over the Demons right side for 80 yards before being brought down from behind on the Sooner 1 by halfback Larry Allen. On the next play Dudley cracked the middle for the score and David Enloe converted to give Pampa a 7-0 lead in the first minute of play.

After Wilkins' long TD run neither team struck again until the Harvesters scored two minutes deep in the second quarter. They started a drive on their own 33 after a 45-yard punt by Duncan. Wright shot a 19-yard pass to Jimmy Martindale, filling in at end for the injured James Pippen, for a first down on the Duncan 48. Enloe picked up 14 to the 34 and three plays later another Wright-to-Martindale aerial picked up 33 yards to the Duncan 3. Martindale made a beautiful, circus catch of the pass. Enloe hit the middle for one and then Harold Lewis crashed over for the second Pampa touchdown.

A short punt set up the Harvesters' next score. They took over on the Duncan 32 and Wright passed to Dudley on the first play for 17 yards. Four plays later Lewis again smashed across from the two to make the score 19-6 with 6:40 left in the half.

Fumbles And Scoring

The Demons fought back on the ground and found a break in a recovered Pampa fumble on the Harvesters 32. Wilkins ripped off 11 yards and two plays later scampered 17 yards on a statue of liberty play for the last Duncan touchdown.

The Harvesters scored touchdowns in each of the last two periods. In the third period Martindale recovered a Demon fumble on the Pampa 48, and with Wright, Dudley and Enloe doing the carrying Pampa marched to the two where Dudley cracked up the middle to score. Enloe converted and Pampa led 26-12 with 3:15 left in the third period.

Another recovered fumble, this time by the other end, Lee Fraser, set up the last touchdown. He flopped on the free-bounding ball on the Duncan 24. After Dudley and Darby had picked up eight, a 15-yard personal foul penalty moved the ball to the Demons' one where Dudley crashed over, to make the final score 32-12. The clock showed 7:50 still left in the game as the Demons desperately turned from their strong split-T game to a spread passing game, but to no avail.

The Harvesters, not wishing to further display their tremendous ground game to the eyes of visiting scouts from all the other 1-AAAA schools, also took to the air with routine passing plays the remainder of the game and they were on the Duncan 11 when the final whistle blew.

Golden Bears Blast Gophers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Left Halfback Don Johnson, who scored four touchdowns, headed a host of brilliant ball carriers as California outclassed Minnesota Saturday in their sectional football game, 49 to 13.

It was the Gopher's second straight loss of the season to a Pacimic Coast Team, and it came before a record opening game crowd, 56,708.

Johnson launched his great performance by taking the ball on the Bear's first offensive play and dashing 84 yards for a touchdown.

This play came just 43 seconds after Minnesota had opened the scoring on a 44-yard run by Paul Giel, the Big Ten all-offense record holder. Tom Keough kicked the first of his six straight conversions to give the Bears a 7-6 lead with only three minutes of the game gone.

Each team got another touchdown in the first period in which the Gophers showed their only real offensive punch. The Bears took full command after about five minutes of the second period, scoring five more touchdowns scoring the rest of the game while holding Minnesota scoreless.

The score might have been much higher except for a number of penalties and fumbles which stopped California drives, downs came on short plunges.

Johnson piled up 187 yards in 14 tries. The rest of his touchdowns came on short plungeds

Dallas Texans Entertain San Francisco 49ers Today

DALLAS (AP) — The San Francisco 49'ers baptize Dallas' Texans into the National Football ence of the National Football League here Sunday and the immersion is expected to be quite complete.

The Texans, making their start in their own division of the professional circuit, meet the very team that's favored to win

Dallas played its first game last Sunday, clashing with the New York Giants of the American Conference, also a favored team. The Giants won 24-6. This game counted in the championship race although it was against a team of another division.

The last time San Francisco failed to win a game was in New York last year and the New York Yanks, predecessors of the Texans, held the 49'ers to a 10-10 tie to knock them out of a tie for the conference title.

The 49'ers will present one of the finest one - two punches at quarterback in the league with the lefthanded magician, Frankie Albert, splitting time with Y. A. Tittle. Joe Perry, 210-pound speedster, is regarded as one of the best fullbacks in the league. He teams with J. R. Boone and Hugh McElhenny to present one of the finest sets of running backs on the pro circuit.

The Texans showed a top offense in their game with the Giants but couldn't take care of the passing of Charley Conerly and the running of Eddie Price. They'll be facing more such throwing in the game with the 49'ers.

Coach Jim Phelan of the Texans has ajuggled his lineups aimed at coping with the all-around offensive power of the 49'ers, picked up from Detroit, and Hamp Tanner, huge tackle acquired from the 49'ers due to be in the defensive array.

Dan Edwards, offensive wing man, is out of action with a knee injury and for the second straight week the Texans won't have the services of Don Cole, ace defensive tackle.

A crowd of 15,000 to 20,000 is expected.

Nebraska Speeds Past Ohio State

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A brilliant first quarter touchdown march engineered by Quarterback Johnny Bordogna and a third quarter 42-yard touchdown run by fullback George Cifra paved the way Saturday for Nebraska's 16 to 0 victory over Iowa State.

Combined with these two swift scoring punches was a rockribbed Nebraska defense that twice halted Iowa State when the visitors were giving the crowd of 36,000 fearful moments.

The third period touchdown came when Cifra shot through center, knocked over Bill Schittmoeller and moved 42 yards to his touchdown.

Lefors Pirates' Rally Tops Clarendon Bronchos, 38-20

CLARENDON — The Clarendon Broncos opened up fast, scored three touchdowns in the first quarter, faded and then fell before the onslaught of the Lefors Pirates here Friday night.

In the first conference game for both teams Lefors came out on top, 38-20.

It looked as though an upset was in the offing when, in the first two minutes of the opening quarter, Bobby Philly of underdog Clarendon went 14 yards for a touchdown. Lovell Myers converted.

Minutes later Cotton Hall took the ball on a 35-yard jaunt into scoring territory and Clarendon led 14-0 after Myers converted once more.

Lefors started a drive in the initial period and Eddie Martin plunged over 2 yards for the Pirates' first score.

Still in the first, Myers took off on a 20-yard run good for a touchdown.

When the quarter ended, so did Clarendon's scoring.

Lefors added another score before the half when Jimmy Doom plunged 10 yards. The Pirates trailed 20-12 at the half.

A combination passing and running attack in the third quarter added two touchdowns on Lefors' side of the scoreboard and they led 25-20 at the end of the period.

Greens Gossip

By HOGAN O'SNEAD

The world series and the chilly weather have combined to make this a slack week at the country club so I guess old Hogan will have to shut down operations for the year. I never did itchy long-handles on, anyway... play very good golf with these But here's a little about what happened this week.

Had a fine guest golfer around this week, C. C. Whitney, of Bryan. He is the father of Cliff Whitney, who works out at Celanese. Mr. Whitney found some good golfing companionship in DeLea Vicars, Dallas Bowsher, Pinky Boyd and B. M. Samples.

Some more boys who had some good golf last week were Joe Cree, Mark Heath, George Cree and George Casey. Joe turned in one of his best rounds with these fellows.

Don't know whether you football fans have noted it or not, but a couple of our former cad-Harvesters. They are James Pipdis are now starring with the pen and Harold Lewis. Both are good golfers, too.

And talking about the Harvesters, the PHS golf team has just about completed arrangements for a teammatch with the Sandies in Amarillo next Friday afternoon prior to the Amarillo-Pampa football meeting that night.

Got a couple of fine young lady golfers taking lessons. They are Vickie and Sharon Osborne, who, after two lessons look like fine future lady golfers.

And as a parting shot we'd like to congratulate the Kiwanians on sweeping to their third stright civic club championship last Sunday. The Kiwanis Club swamped the runner-up Lions by four-one thousandths of a stroke. Never a doubt, the Kiwanians claimed. They had a fine victory banquet last Tuesday night with popular George Aulback of Amarillo as guest speaker.

See you next season, fellows. Hogan.

Tag Match Slated On Wednesday Card

Another fast Australian tag team match is slated for Pampa wrestling fans this week at the Southern Club. And once again the two Oriental importees, Kinju Shibuya and Sesue Oyama, will team together with their knowledge of judo and jiu jitsu.

Their opponents will be rough Ivan Kalmikoff and rugged Art Nelson. It will be Nelson's first appearance in Pampa in several years, while Kalmikoff gained a decision over Shibuya last week in a main event.

The tag match is one half of a double main event scheduled for this week. The other half will be announced tomorrow, promoter Howard Vineyard said Saturday.

Tickets for the night's wrestling will be on sale at the Sportsman's Store all day Wednesday and at the Southern Club on Wednesday night at 7 p.m. Reservations may also be made by phoning 2050.

Both of the main events will be one hour time limit affairs or the best two - out - of - three falls.

Ex-Harvester On Midwestern Squad

WICHITA FALLS (Special) — Darrell Wilson, young 175-pound freshman from Pampa, has won a position on Midwestern University's first defensive platoon. He has taken over one of the starting defensive halfback positions.

Wilson has been a very valuable player on pass defense. His agility and quick reflexes make patterns. He always seems to be there with the important interception or pass deflection. His tackles are hard and clean. Teammates say that he is a very hard man to block in practice sessions.

His running ability has been used exclusively on punt returns. He teams up with Newman Young, a sophomore from Vernon, in the double safety position. Due to the abundance of many outstanding running backs, Wilson will not see extensive action this year on the offensive platoon.

A lacerated knee may keep him out of action for a few weeks. The injury occurred during the Austin College game which Midwestern won 21 to 7. The flying spikes of an Austin halfback caught his knee while he made a touchdown saving tackle.

Coach Dixie White likes Wilson's attitude about the game of football and grins when he thinks of the potentialities of this young Pampa gridster.

"Just think, he has three more years after this one," says Coach White happily.

Final Meeting Of PMGA Due Today

The fourth and final meeting of the year of the Panhandle Men's Golfing Association will be held this afternoon at the Huber Course in Borger. The outcome of today's four - cornered match will decide the winner of the permanent trophy.

Later this season, at a site yet to be selected, an association tournament will be held to determine the winner of the huge floating trophy. In the tournament, each club will be represented by about 16-20 golfers.

Golfers wishing to participate today are asked to notify pro Johnny Austin at the Pampa Country Club before 10:30 this morning. Pampa holds a 50-stroke lead in the standings at the present time. Other members are Huber, Phillips County Club and Ross Rogers of Amarillo.

McLean Tigers Fight Hard To Tie Memphis Cyclor

McLEAN (Special) — A fierce, determined, underdog McLean High team came within inches of upsetting highly touted Memphis High on Duncan Field Friday night. The McLean Tigers who have yet to hit the win column out-played a three time winner from class AA Memphis to a 6-all tie. The whole game was strictly defensive and either team could have been a winner.

In the statistics, McLean was clearly the better team, making consecutive and consistant ground gains one after the other and the entire game see-sawed from one end of the gridiron to the other. McLean received the opening kickoff and started their offense from their own 43. On successive ground plays worked to the Memphis 5 where Wayne Smith fumbled, the ball rolling across the double stripe for a recovery by Memphis. There after, both teams threatened to score but were held off until early in the fourth when Eddie Reeves went over for the first TD. The TD drive originated when the Tigers lost the ball on downs on the Cyclone 5, Memphis kicked to the 50 and Wayne Smith returned the punt to the 36. Here, Reeves passed to end Gale Plummer for 18 and Memphis drew a 15 - yard penalty, putting the ball on the 3. Reeves went over for the score. Rodney Gunn failed to convert.

With the kick off, the Cyclones went to the air throwing nine passes, four complete, for a 115-gain but one completed pass cost them 14 yards. The Cyclone TD came on a long pass from QB Luke Frisbie to end Rayford Hutcherson in the end zone from the 25. They failed to convert.

McLean outgained the Cyclones two to one on the ground and in first downs. For the first time this season, all of the injuries have recovered and Backs Eddie Reeves and Wayne Smith played almost the entire game and both played a bang up game. Both being consistant ground gainers and equally difficult to stop. During the past two weeks, Coaches Don Leach and Wayne Hill have knit together a fighting, heads up football team that is high in morale and determination. Should injuries not upset the present condition of the team, the McLean Tigers will certainly be hard to stop. The next game is with Lefors on October 17, here, which opens the class A conference schedule for McLean. Next week is an open date.

Follett Rallies To Whip Miami

MIAMI (Special) — The Follett Panthers downed the Miami Warriors here Friday afternoon, 33-27, in a District 2-B six-man football game.

The win put Follett into the district lead with two straight wins, the Panthers having defeated Darrouzett's defending Longhorns last weekend.

Miami jumped off a first period 20-0 lead, but couldn't hold. The first touchdown came on a pass from Bobby Poore to Bill Russell, who lateralled to Alonzo Mitchell who carried over. The play consumed 40 yards and then Poore passed to Carl Williamson for the extra point. Russell blocked a punt and ran it back 20 yards for the second touchdown and Mitchell passed to Russell for the extra point. The third first period touchdown for the Warriors came on a pass from Mitchell to Russell good for 40 yards.

In the second period Follett scored on a three - yard plunge by Frankie Hamilton, who converted also. Hamilton played a part in all the winner's scoring.

In the third he ran 18 yards to score and passed to Howell for another touchdown. He hit Wilson with an aerial for the extra point. In the fourth period Hamilton ran 15 yards for another touchdown and passed 30 yards to Howell for another score.

The last Warrior touchdown came when Mitchell skirted end for 26 yards and then he passed to Williamson for the extra point.

Friday night the Warriors host Kelton at Wheeler. Miami's season record now stands at two wins and three losses.

Sandstorm Garners Initial Victory

AMARILLO — The Amarillo Sandies won their first game of the season here Friday night as they trounced the Plainview Bulldogs, 44-6, at Amarillo Stadium. Game closed the non-conference season for the Sandies, who dropped games to Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City, 14-12, and Paschal of Fort Worth, 6-0.

The Sandies jumped off to a 12-0 first quarter lead and never had a bit of trouble with the Dogs.

Amarillo's ground offense picked up 311 net yards while they completed 6 of 15 aerial attempts for 186 yards. Next Friday night the Sandies battle the Pampa Harvesters in the first conference game. Kick - off time will be 8 o'clock at Sandie stadium.

Wheeler Juniors Defeat McLean

McLEAN (Special) — A big, fast charging Wheeler Junior High team led by quarterback George Mize ran rough shod over the McLean Junior Tigers in the first three quarters of the first junior conference game of the season Thursday night on Duncan Field.

After Wheeler had scored three TDs, Coach Colie Huffman replaced his regulars with subs, McLean got going with their air attack and scored two TDs in the fourth. Final score, Wheeler 26, McLean 14.

It would seem that all of the breaks went against Wheeler since they had two touchdowns nullified by penalties early in the first quarter but that did not stop Mize as he seemed to run at will carrying along all his tacklers. He weighs in at 130 pounds and is tall and rangy. McLean brilliance showed in its air game with Guthrie, Vinyard, Crocket Smith and Garvin alternating in this form of offense that brought the two tallies for the little Tigers. The passing game has improved greatly during the past week of workouts and looks to be the best McLean offense. Comparison on weights tells a definite story in the scoring column as Wheeler average weight is 116 to 105 for McLean.

This week McLean journeys to Canadian for another conference tilt.

Branson-Ward Rites Solemnized Here

Miss Jane Branson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford F. Branson, became the bride of Mr. Robert Frank Ward, son of Mrs. John W. Ward and the late Mr. Ward, in a double-ring ceremony read at four o'clock Sunday, September 28, in the First Methodist Church. Rev. Tom M. Johnston officiated.

Tall baskets of rose-beige chrysanthemums, clusters of palm fronds and candelabra holding rose beige tapers decorated the altar. Family pews were marked with matching tapers and satin bows.

The Sanctuary Singers of the First Methodist Church, directed by Mr. Roy Johnson, sang "O Perfect Love" from the Methodist hymnal.

Mr. Branson accompanied his daughter to the altar. She wore a ballerina-length gown of rose-beige Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The tucked bodice and circular over-skirt were of nylon tulle and the flared underskirt was of Chantilly lace lined with taffeta. The short, fitted Chantilly lace jacket featured a small, rounded collar, three-quarter length sleeves and tiny covered buttons down the front.

The birde wore a matching feather helmet encrusted with iridescent sequins, pearls and rhinestones, and a half veil sprinkled with rhinestones. She carried out the tradition of something old, an heirloom pin which belonged to her paternal grandmother something new, something borrowed, and something blue. In her shoe, who wore a six-pence which was a gift of her brother, the late Guilford F. Branson, Jr.

The empire waistline was accented with a toast velvet sash. Her matching velvet half-hat was tucked across the crown and finished with a cuff around the head. She carried a bouquet of rose-beige spider chrysanthemums tied with matching satin streamers.

Best man was G. H. Alfred of Pampa. Groomsmen were Bob Branson, of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, and Lee Moore, Jr., Don Morrison and Ray Thompson all of Pampa.

The bride's mother selected for the wedding a navy crepe dress with velvet cuffs and pocket revers. Her hat of mauve velour was designed with a rhinestone studded veil. She wore navy accessories, and a corsage of pink gardenias.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the church parlor. The bride's table was laid with a sheer, embroidered linen cloth and centered with rose-beige spider chrysanthemums in a silver bowl. Triple candelabra of silver were filled with rose base candles, beige tapers and reflectors of matching maline encircled the base of each candle.

A crystal punch bowl was placed at one end of the table and the three-tiered cake, decorated in rose-beige icing and sugar bells and hearts, stood at the other end of the table.

Assisting at the reception were Mmes. Bob Curry, W. L. Branson Joe Fortenberry, Miss Mary Kat Brotherton, Mrs. Teresa J. Getz, Miss Joyce Wanner, Miss Elsa Plants, and Miss Sara Parker.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Santa Fe, N. M., the bride wore a sand-colored suit with pecan and brown accessories and a gardenia corsage.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28). This comforting verse will be included in the selections to be read from the Bible next Sunday in Christian Science churches when the topic of the Lesson - Sermon is "Reality."

The Golden Text is from I Chronicles: "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all" (29:11).

From the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures' by Mary Baker Eddy, the following will be read: "God is natural good, and is represented only by the idea of goodness; while evil should be regarded as unnatural because it is opposed to the nature of Spirit, God" (page 110).

Sloan-Baxter Wedding Solemnized Here

Miss Betty Sloan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. G. Sloan of Pampa, recently became the bride of Floyd Baxter, son of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Baxter of Hooker, Okla.

The wedding was solemnized in the home of the bride's parents with her father officiating. Vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery, flanked by candles.

Miss Shirley Bollen played traditional wedding marches, and the bride's sister, Miss Mary Sloan, and a nephew of the bridegroom, Jerry Dean Baxter, lighted candles.

The bride wore a blue crepe dress, and carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and white satin streamers.

Miss Martha Sloan was her sister's only attendant. She wore a rose nylon dress with Navy accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Boyd Baxter, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy nylon dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore navy crepe. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

At a reception following the ceremony, the table was decorated with a tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Pete Marek and Miss Bollen assisted at the reception.

Mrs. Baxter is a Pampa High School graduate, and the bridegroom attended Lefors High School.

Wedding guests included Mmes. Carry Sloan, Larned, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sloan and family, Garden City Kan.; Rev. and Mrs. Carl Baker and daughters, McLean; Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Baxter, Hooker, Okla.; Mrs. J.E. McCathern, Hereford; Rev. and Mrs. Ruel Baxter, White Deer; Mrs. Wilton Lellard, Phillips; Miss Shirley Bollen, Borger; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stroup and family, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Baxter and family, Borger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter and family, J. P. Cleveland, and Mrs. Pete Marek, all of Pampa.

The second is your health. It is of utmost importance to you and therefore may seem like a fascinating subject. But it isn't really fascinating to anyone else.

If you want to be interesting to other people, don't talk too much about any of the following subjects. You don't have to avoid them, of course, but be content to touch them briefly and then move on to something of more general interest.

The first is your children. Everything they do is important to you and rightly so. But don't expect others to share your avid interest.

YOU KNOW the French always say "Cherchez la Femme" (Find the woman)—and bro-ther—Gray County's found them! Did you ever see so many pretty girls that have been pictured in The News lately? When Mr. Peg says he's going out and see what's in the paper, . .Peg knows he doesn't mean news! These local girls have been chosen as contestants for the Miss Gray County title in the queen contest during Gray County's 50th Birthday Celebration October 12-14. . .And would Peg hate to be one of the judges! Or for that matter any of them. What a job. Wh-at a jjjjob!!

Let's see. . .so far there's Hilda Duncan, Nancy Adams, Pat Ellis, Sue Johnson, Arvilla Patterson, Sue Kennedy, Joyce Moyer, Marilyn Hamilton, Sue Stewart, Verona Carruth, Janet Weatherred, Ann Jordan, Llwyn Young, Odeverne McConnell, Norma Hardin, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Ann Outhier, Shirley Olsen. . .Yes, and there's more. . .Mozelle McKnight, Patsy Wall, Doris Smith, Malverne Miller, Lynn Cornelius, Barbara Bird, and McLean is sending a representive, Bonita Bailey, sweetheart of the McLean Jaycees. Yes, sir, Gray County really is loaded with feminine pulchritude.

I SHOULD HAVE BEEN THERE cause Peg's been hearing more nice things about the Twentieth Century Clubs' annual Presidents' Coffee held at the Country Club last Tuesday. . .that the speaker, Miss Lois Stevens, was a charming and capable person. . .that the corsages and the flowers for the table were made by Mrs. Bill (Elaine) Waters, who, Peg understands, learned the hobby this summer while visiting her aunt in California. . .that Mrs. M. E. Cooper did a wonderful job of toastmistress. . .the music by Mrs. Charles (Charisie) Hickman, Jr. was out of this world. . .and the invocation by Mrs. R. E. McKernan was reverently given. . .that Mrs. Bill Davis (Nancy) president of the hostess club, Allegro, did a bang-up job as organizer and general chairman of the coffee. . .and that many, many others all worked together to make the coffee a success. Want to mention too what my favorite little sparrow told me about the serving table. . .that it was covered with a pink taffeta cloth. . .a silver streamer ran the length of the table, on which was topped the cutest parade of dolls dressed in costumes of the current fashion. . .From what Peg has heard, a lot of work went into the making of these dolls. . .Mrs. Joe Gordon (Ann Lee), Mrs. Don (Betty) Cain, and Mrs. Luke McClelland are the ones responsible for making them.

PAMPA PANORAMA SEEN: Mrs. Hupp Clark and Mrs. John Wheatley coming out of the Citizens for Eisenhowe headquarters. . . Mable and Jerry Torie at the Pampa-Vernon football game with Jerry wearing one of the derbies being sold for the county's birthday celebration. . .Mrs. Joe Mitchell—Peg bets she was getting her costumes for the Epsilon Sigma Alpha style show, which is going to be held a week from today. . .Mrs. J. G. Cargile—beaming because, Peg imagines, of the birth of Christopher Leroy who was born recently in Freeport to the Joe Cargile, juniors. . .Dr. and Mrs. Walter Purviance—back in Pampa after spending the summer months in Evergreen, Colo. . .Mrs. J. W. Garman back from a wonderful trip to Europe with "Pops" and son, David.

ONE-SECOND SERMONS: Honesty is the best policy—and your conscience pays the premiums. . .Faith remains our soul support. . . If you can't bring yourself to love your enemies, at least treat your friends a little better. . .We all have three temptations to avoid: The temptations to recline, shine, and whine. . .Bishop Clifford Northcott observes: "Nothing left loose ever does aything creative. No horse gets anywhere until he is harnessed. No steam or gas ever drives anything until it is tunneled. No life ever grows until it is focused, dedicated disciplined."

THERE WILL BE those of you who will remember Dr. Gaston Foote. If you ever heard him, you will remember. He used to be with the First Methodist Church here about eighteen years ago. He's coming back to Pampa but this time as the guest speaker for the Celebration's opening memorial program, dedicated to the pioneers of Gray County, It's being held next Sunday night at 8:15 in the Pampa Senior High Field House. Also on the program are Barbara Crissey, popular Houston soprano, Walter Jenkins, director of music of the First Methodist Church in Houston, and the High School A Cappella Choir. Let's all go out and hear them.

HEARD THAT the Knife and Fork Club had a very interesting program Thursday night when Rear Admiral Benton W. Decker spoke on the Japanese occupation. He was formerly the United States commander of the Japanese Naval Base at Yokosuka. Understand that his wife is from San Diego, Calif., and that their home is there. And speaking of San Diego, Mrs. Bill (Evelyn) Burton is also from there. Any others?

IN THIS DAY of the drooping dollar, there is at least one item that is cheaper than it was 25 years ago—player piano rolls. A San Francisco piano firm reports that the rolls used to sell for $1.25, and now they're just an even dollar. . .Approximately 1,000 player pianos are still churning out their ricky-ticky music in the San Francisco-Oakland area alone. . .Tastes among the player set never very. Although the modern hit tunes are available on rolls, the steady favorites remain "Merry Widow Waltz," "Nola," and "Alexander's Ragtime Band.". . .This is nice, but Peg still likes the music of Bill Haley, Mrs. May Forman Carr, Mrs. W. D. Waters (the former Elise Donaldson), Ernestine Holmes Scott, Helen Kay Wilson, Tracy Cary, and Sue Johnson.

SAY—the World Series has really made these past afternoons interesting. . .And wasn't that a cute cover on this week's Saturday Evening Post? Yes sir, Peg bets that wherever there was a radio it was tuned in on the Series broadcast. Didn't have a favorite this year . . .just let the best team win. . .did I hear somebody say something?

"ANTICIPATING" are the Cliff Bralys, the Chili Hills, the Joe Donaldsons, and the Carl Langs. Congratulations to the Bob Quicks on the birth of a little boy. Bob is recuperating from an emergency appendectomy. Peg heard that the first thing he said when he came out from under the ether was something like "What did I have?" Ah, the hard times the father goes through. With the fourth child coming up for both the Donaldsons and the Langs, Peg wonders how these fathers will take it. . .and both doctors too!

When wealth is lost, nothing is lost;
When health is lost, something is lost;
When character is lost, all is lost!

Yours till I've lost my character,

Local PTA Members Attend Special Clinic

The annual Parent - Teacher Association school of instruction was held recently with Mrs. Ralph Randall of Panhandle as guest speaker. Mrs. F. E. Jernigan presided at the meeting.

Prior to listing duties of officers and committee chairmen, Mrs. Randall urged that PTA programs be made so attractive parents would want to attend meetings.

"We place emphasis on the fact that the home is the proving ground for democracy, spirituality and character development," she said. "We must believe that before our children become the kind of adults we expect them to be. We know character is caught —not taught.

"We believe that a child learns to respect the rights of others and to love his fellow man from the love and respect he receives in the home. Loving a child means loving a child for what he is toda66555555...,,,,,,,,, what he is today and not for what we hope he might become. The love and respect given a young child will repeat itself in his adult life, and he will grow up loving and respecting his fellow man.

"One of our most important committees is the committee of character building and spiritual education," Mrs. Randall said. "Neither potential might nor scientific advancement can make a nation great; stately souls, not stately buildings, constitute true greatness. If you take the word God out of the word good, you have zero, and when you rob a child of his spiritual development, you have taken from him all the greatness of his love," she concluded.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Clifford Jones who introduced the speaker, was elected chairman of blood - typing for schools, and Mrs. Coy Palmer, chairman for testing eyes, both projects of the city council.

Mrs. Jernigan announced that the joint procedure course Nov. 4 is to be held from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Pampa Junior High School auditorium. The radio program is to be heard at 11:30 a.m. each Saturday, she said.

Mrs. R. A. Mack registered guests in a guest book made in the shape of a pumpkin. Attending were Mmes. Sug Cobb, Myles Morgan, Jim Hopkins, Paul Brown, G. H. Newberry, Bob Andis, C. W. Thomas and Ed Barnes, Sam Houston school; Mmes. W. L. Boosa, Waldon Moore, O. R. Turlington, Vern Pendergrass, Junior High school; Mmes. Palmer, Myron Spencer, Roy Guthrie, and W. H. Winborn, John Zuerker, Mack, T. H. Wright, Winnie Kasco, Wallace Bingham, Clifton Kasco, J. D. Wright, Jr., D. L. Brown, Woodrow Wilson school; Mmes. Theodore Williams, Leonard Cash, A. R. Busser, and J. O. Woodey, Carver School; Mmes. B. R. Gray, W. A. Baten, A. D. Selman, Jernigan, D. D. McAnaly, Elmer Darnell and Jim Goff, Baker School; Mrs. Fred Vanderburg, Mrs. Howard Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Zevely, Hopkins school; and Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Cleo Hoyler, and Miss Josephine Thomas, Horace Mann school.

RUTH MILLETT

Should a wife vote the way her husband votes just to keep peace in the family?

That question is suggested by a letter from a husband who says his wife isn't going to vote the way he does in the November presidential election and claims she is going to vote Republican just because he's going to vote Democratic, or maybe it was vise-versa.

Anyway his idea is that she is just going against his superior judgment "out of spite."

Oh come, now. Your wife made up her own mind on important matters before she met you. And if something should happen to you tomorrow, she would still be capable of making her own decisions.

So why, just because she happens to be married, should she turn over that right to you?

And what ever gave you the idea that just because you happen to be a married man you should control two votes, your own and your wife's?

As a matter of fact you ought to be glad that your wife insists on doing her own thinking. That she isn't too lazy, mentally, to figure things out for herself. And that she isn't dishonest enough to pretend to agree with you when she doesn't, just to keep peace in the family.

You don't want your wife to be nothing more than your shadow and your echo, do you?

If you are still suffering from the old - fashioned notion that women don't know anything about politics, and apparently you are, you may even be surprised to learn your wife is as well or better informed than you are.

Yet even if she is, you wouldn't want her telling you how to vote, would you?

Then what possible excuse can you have for thinking she ought to vote the way you do?

Central Baptist Class Holds Social Meeting

The Central Baptist Church Reapers class met recently in the basement of the church for a covered - dish lunch.

Mrs. R. C. Brown gave the devotion. Scripture reading was taken from Psalms 145 and Romans 12: 4-8. Mrs. A. R. Newman told a story about a man who dreamed he lived in a town where there were no churches.

Secret pal gifts were exchanged. It was voted by the class that at the next social members of the class would bring an article of clothing for Buckners Orphans Home, instead of gifts for each other.

Members attending were Mmes. H. D. Wolfe, A. R. Newman, R.C. Brown, R. B. Leonard, V. W. White, R. L. Higginbotham, L. C. Hagemann, J. E. Hausen, W. E. Wright, W. B. McNaughton, J. H. Spoonemore, R. Gulf Will Drill Two Strat Tests In County; Field Activity Is Slow

Gulf Oil Corp. has moved in two rigs from Wheeler County to drill strat tests in Gray County. The company will drill the two tests five mile south of Laketon on the Franklin Ranch, about 18 miles east of Pampa. Gulf has just completed six tests in Wheeler County. Regular field activity showed little life last week, with only four new locations, four completions and five plugged wells. Three new oilers had a total initial potential of 224 barrels while one gasser was tested for 830 MCF. Of the plugged wells, two were wildcats. J. M. Huber Corp. plugged its No. 1 Christie - Tipps venture in Roberts County and Standard Oil Company plugged its No. 1-A Palm in Armstrong County.

Modern-Day Oil Scouting Profession College Trained

By FRANK CORTESE
Houston Chronicle Staff
Written for Associated Press

HOUSTON (AP) —The modern day oil scouting profession has gone to college.

Gone is the old-time oil scout who used to be "a fast dealer with a pint of whiskey on his hip, a map under his arm and a talking interest in three wells.

In his stead stands a combination diplomat, businessman and psychologist—the college graduate who has taken over in a game that has lost its glamorous flavor and settled down to more-or-less a routine.

It used to be that oil scouts had to ride horseback to that "tight" well, steal core samples, electric logs, or even resort to bribery to get needed information. "It used to be a pretty rugged life," says Bill Brown, a former oil scout for Shell Oil Company and now a landman for Shell.

Today, the scout's main source of information is the "scout check," where once a day, the scouts for the various oil companies get together and exchange information on various counties in their division.

They spend two days in the field digging for information, then go to scout check, and the final day of the week they spend in the office spotting new wells and writing up information on both wells and leases. That goes on week after week.

But while the oil scout's job has lost its glamor, the scout is still "the eyes and ears of the oil industry."

Like any good detective he tracks down all clues, rumors, new wells. He's the guy who has to know everything about the oil game outside of marketing and refining—quite a guy this supersnooper sleuth of oil leases, land developments and well information.

There aren't any soft touches in this league. The oil scout, on occasion, really scratches for information about wildcats, lease buying and buyers, finding out about core samples and 1001 items that his company wants to know about.

They have to keep track of where the opposition has geophysical crews, the name of the crew chief and how long they have been in the area being prospected.

On real "tight" wells they have to find out when the wells have started, where pipe is set, if and when cored, set the core record, reports of drillstem tests, electrical logs, sidewall cores and how they are running in relation with other wells.

The oil scout's job is one of 24-hour tenure—he's on call at all times.

Today's scout is a talented man. He either is a combination oil scout-geologist or oil scout-lawyer. Clyde Hamblinc, 28-year-old Houstonian is a scout-geologist for Union Producing Company and works at both jobs.

Of some 50 oil scouts working out of Houston, it's hard to find one who does not have a college degree.

Head man at the weekly oil scout check in Houston is "Bull Scout" Bob (Tex) Furse, a former Yale football luminary. Another scout, and now a landman for Sun Oil Company, is Bobby Wilson, all-American at Southern Methodist University.

College trained or otherwise, the oil scout still has to combat some pretty rugged Texas terrain in order to get to some well locations. Often they have to walk long distances to get to some wildcat well location. Knee-deep mud on temporary roads is their biggest headache.

Besides being "all eyes and ears," the most important attributes an oil scout can possess are persistency, patience, friendliness and above all the ability to get along with people—that's the secret weapon of the G-man of the oil industry.

Cosden Venturing Deeper Into Petro-Chemical Field

BIG SPRING (AP) — Cosden Petroleum Corporation has ventured deeper into the petro-chemical waters with the beginnnig of production of benzene, toluene and xylene here.

The company's $3 1-2 million dollar BTX plant, which also operates as an adjunct to its refinery east of Big Spring, went on stream this week. Delivery will be made on initial orders of the products in advance of the scheduled date, Oct. 15.

Cosden is producing the chemicals, much in demand as war chemicals and solvents, from aromatics which formerly remained in but added nothing to the fuel value of raw gasoline.

The plant, which is the first of its type in the nation to go into production, is in reality a three-in-one operation, R. L. Toliett, Cosden president, explained. The initial phase provides feed stock by splitting the raw gasoline and then putting the top end of the cut through a "platformer" to provide an aromatic concentrate.

When the feed preparation is blocked out, the low end of the cut goes to the platformer, which derives its name from a use of a platinum oxide catalyst which cost $9 a pound.

Instead of a low grade product impractical for fuel, the issue is a high octane (93 or better) gasoline which is returned to the refinery for blending in motor fuels.

The remaining part of the operation, and the one which gives the plant its BTX name, utilizes a solvent and exaction process. Diethylene glycol absorbs the aromatic concentrates in a "stripper" column.

The aromatics then are extracted from the solvent and, by fractionation, are split into benzene, toluene and xylene. These products are in great demand both as basic chemical building blocks or as solvents.

Tollett saw in the BTX plant, which combines the Udex and platforming processes, an opportunity to venture further into the chemical field. For a number of years Cosden has been selling some industrial acids and chemicals recovered in the process of deodorizing gasoline from West Texas crudes.

"We were interested in the chemical business in a mild way," he said. "Without actually going into the chemical business, this operation does provide us the prospect of expanded markets for our products. Not only will we be able to sell benzine, toulene and xylene, but we also will be adding value to our regular products through upgrading of fuels."

The BTX plans was described as a sort of hybrid operation in relation to refining and chemical production. Essentially, the processes are those of an oil refinery and thus the problem of personnel is reduced to a minimum.

Udex designed the plant so that all pumps, exchangers and other items subject to more than ordinary maintenance are on a driveway. Too, heaters and exchangers are so arranged as to reduce the amount of special alloy pipe to a bare minimum.

Daily put through is 3,200 barrels of raw gasoline. Some 850 barrels of the chemicals, or approximately a carload, will be produced. Another 1,250 barrels will be returned to the refinery as extra high octane gasoline and the remainder, except for normal loss and that lost in a dehydrogenation process, will go back to the refinery as gasoline without aromatis which didn't make it any better fuel in the first place.

October A Cider Press Of Joy And Makes Every Man A King

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) If the Lord whispered in your secret heart that you had but one month to live, and let you pick that month, which would you choose?

I'd say October.

The birds love it, the beasts love it, and man himself then stands upon the summit of the year.

October is all the other seasons wrapped into a 31-day grab-bag packages, tied with a rainbow ribbon. It is the period when Mother Nature, the great dramatist, brings her traveling road show to a climax.

This is the month that like a cider press squeezes out the best juices of all the other months — the promise of spring, the sultry joys of summer, the afterglow of autumn, the premonitory chill of winter.

Everything that walks the earth feels an amber thrill, a tremendous bubbling vitality that sings in the pulse.

Now is the glory of the universe manifest, and in the mighty pageant of the hills each patch of woods elects its own tree beauty queen. You like the dogwood? We won't quarrel. I'll take the maple, that yellow torch.

The birds looked on disdainfully while foolish man clogged every steaming road with his July vacations. They know the right time to travel. They have hung a "to-let" sign on their nests and cloud the serene skies with a billion wings beating southward. The worm they missed noses deeper into the turf, muttering, been given magic color glasses. "Safe at last."

It is if everyone suddenly had The stars bend nearer. And that big blob of moon. . .a child feels it is so close he could reach up with a knife and spread it on his bread like butter.

The stag stamps on the hilltop and lifts an amorous bugle to the night. Deep in the forest the doe hears his impartial summons and says, "What, again?" but she doesn't hestitate long.

The throb in every woodland heart has an echo in the city. October knows no boundaries. Listen. . .can't you hear and feel its music in your veins, the tremendous symphony of living?

The squirrel, bright-eyed and bushy - tailed, becomes an annual miser, furtively depositing acorns in a hidden safe deposit box that will be empty by March. The bear invests his excess profits in fats, planning to live off this stored capital until he emerges from his hibernation next spring, cross and bankrupt.

The wind at night now has become a violin, playing a love song for the young, a last tune of youth for the old. Do you stay awake to hear it? You'd better! He only stays a little while this wandering fiddler in the dark, then takes his ballads and beats it.

October wears a crown and makes every man a king. It bears the harvest superiority of the rounded apple over the petaled flower, the advantage fruition and achievement have over pale promises. April is the fledgling politician of the year, saying "stick with me and we'll go places." October is the mature statesman holding out the golden reward.

October pours the mellowest wine of life, and anyone who isn't drinking of it deeply right now is a salesman for sour grapes.

Civilization Changes Pace For Africans

FORT LAMY, French eEquatorial FAfrica (AP) — Until recently, cattle had a social rather than commercial value in the immense plains country which borders the Sahara Desert on the south. A man got his standing according to the number of cows, horses or camels he had.

But yardsticks are chaning, even in the desert. Soon the nomad's standing may be based on the number of cattle he can grow and sell.

The change of seasons always has brought on a great trek of animals-cattle, goats and sheep, camels, horsweans sonkwya-in rhia ew. In February and March the desert is dry and becoming hotter every day. Vast caravans of animals make their way south traveling 300 to 400 miles. The rains mimosa and grass, the whole mass of men and beasts plods north.

The yearly wanderings have given the nomads bare subsistence. Now airplanes and refrigeration are changing the picture. The cattle are routed to certain spots for slaughter, and the meat is flown down to the continent's meatless forest belt.

A typical development is at Abeche, where Maria Theresa Thalers (coins) are still used and camel caravans come from ben built to handl 1,650 had of catti a month. A ho farm has been added. Soon a cannery will be flown in, to start production for the French Army. Asoap factory and tannery also are to be added.

As the basis for the slaughter house, a firm sent three refrigerated five - ton trucs through the Sahara, disassembled the chassis and put them up as cold storage rooms. The plant was built around them. Meat is delivered to a nearby airstrip, and flown out to Bangui, Brazzaville and Leopoldville.

SWEEPS THE RECORD CLEAN—A huge broom rested beside Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, as the Republican presidential candidate told an audience of 15,000 in Cleveland's public auditorium that he felt his running mate, Sen. Richard B. Nixon, of California, had satisfactorily answered questions raised by his $18,000 expense fund. The speech was made immediately following Nixon's nationwide radio-television broadcast.

Card of Thanks

Where has she gone since yesterday—
And left us lonely here?
To-night she seems so far away
Who yester-eve was near.
No map of ours, on sea or land,
Her journeyings may trace;
We only know she's reached her home
And seen her Father's face.

And oh! She knows since yesterday,
And she'll be learning fast;
The mists of earth are cleared away,
The mysteries are past.
The sun of truth in radiance glows
All shadowless and bright,
Undimmed by any cloud of earth,
Undarkened by its night.
And she has grown since yesterday,
And she'll be growing still;
The bonds of time and sense and space
That irked her eager will
Were dropped like shackles from the soul
In that first upward flight,
The weary body frets no more
The spirit, freed and light.

O Dear, familiar yesterday!
O sad and strange today!
Yet who would call the glad soul back to rouse the resting clay?
Or who would wish that she might share
Our morrow's toil and strife,
Who, loosed from death and all its pains,
Has entered into Life?
