American Troops Open War's Biggest Offensive

SAIGON, (AP) — American troops deployed in the jungled War Zone C today in biggest offensive of the Vietnam war.

Spearheaded by paratroopers making the first U.S. combat jump of the conflict, some 45,000 fighting men struck near the Cambodian border Wednesday to encircle the Viet Cong's long-time main operating base and reputed national headquarters.

The drive covered a Tay Ninh Province area ranging from 50 to 75 miles northwest of Saigon.

Reports from the battle area said initial resistance was light, with U.S. forces encountering only enemy sniper fire and booby traps.

The new drive was announced by Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters. It was described as of multidivision size and given the code name of Operation Junction City.

The operation was preceded by four softening up raids by B52 bombers on Wednesday, just before some 750 paratroopers jumped into blocking positions behind enemy lines and barely three miles from Cambodia.

The big Stratofortresses returned today for a fifth raid when the operation was 24 hours old.

Following the paratroop jump, swarms of helicopters ferried infantrymen into positions flanking the battle area and several armored columns pushed north from above Tay Ninh City.

The new operation, in the upper part of War Zone C, followed immediately after the termination at midnight Tuesday of Operation Gadsen, a relatively uneventful campaign in the lower part of the zone.

With major portions of three U.S. infantry divisions and several separate brigades thrown into the new drive, the troop strength well exceeds the 30,000 men deployed in Operation Cedar Falls, a clearing operation last January in the Iron Triangle 30 miles north of Saigon that had been the largest operation of the war.

U.S. headquarters said five helicopters were downed by enemy ground fire Wednesday and three crewmen were injured. Hearquarters said all five hellcopters were recovered. Nearly 250 helicopters were used to ferry troops in the assault.

"Initial enemy opposition was scattered and U.S. casualties were very light," it said.

Two battalions of Vietnamese marines were flown in to support the operation.

Brig. Gen. John R. Deane Jr., of San Francisco, commander of the 173rd Airborne Brigade, was the first man to jump in the war's first American combat jump.

Over-all field commander of operation Junction City is Lt. Gen. Jonathan O. Seaman, 2nd Field Force commander.

The high-flying B52s struck today at a Viet Cong base camp 25 miles north of Tay Ninh City and close to Cambodia.

Ground action was reported light throughout South Vietnam Wednesday by both the U.S. and South Vietnamese high commands.

South Vietnamese troops uncovered two large Viet Cong arms caches in the Mekong Delta which included six tons of enemy ammunition and eight 75mm artillery pieces. A Vietnamese spokesman said the Viet Cong intended to use the cannon to form their first artillery battalion.

The Viet Cong have not used artillery to any extent so far in the war. A Vietnamese spokesman said the eight cannon seized were believed to be American made and had been mounted on wheels by the Viet Cong.

They were found, along with the haul of ammunition and 322 individual weapons, in a Viet Cong base in muddy coastal delta land 42 miles south of Saigon.

In uncovering the base, the spokesman said, government troops killed 42 Viet Cong and captured 19 others.

CONFESSED SLAYER FREED — New York State Supreme Court Justice Michael Kern, left, dismissed indictment in New York City against Jose Suarez, right, 22, a factory worker who had admitted slaying his wife and five small children. The dismissal came about because Suarez was not informed of his rights as outlined in an historic U.S. Supreme Court decision last year. Suarez' confession was the only available evidence against him. (AP Wirephoto)

Heavy Snow Hits Areas Of Northeast

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy snow hit sections of the East today closing some schools and stalling hundreds of cars while a near blizzard spread bitter cold over the Great Plains.

A mixture of rain and snow fell in New York City as a storm off the coast gathered strength. Four to six inches of snow were expected in New York City suburbs and across inland sections of the middle Atlantic states.

Northern New England braced for six inches of new snow.

Only an inch of snow fell at Ashville, in western North Carolina, but it caused the winter's most severe icing of roads in that area.

About 400 cars were stalled along a four-mile stretch of one of the main roads leading to the city.

Whipping northerly winds blew snow into blinding white clouds producing local blizzard conditions in portions of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and the Dakotas. South Dakota clocked wind gusts up to 69 miles an hour.

A blast of arctic cold moved in behind the snow in the Plains, and parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota bracked for overnight temperatures down to 30 below zero.

House Passes Park Bill

AUSTIN (AP)—The legislature knocked down today the last remaining legal hurdle to creation of the Guadalupe Mountains National Park in far West Texas.

The House sent to the governor, 132-10, the Senate-passed bill conveying Texas mineral rights in the park to the federal government.

Rep. Gene Hendryx of Alpine assured the House the bill contains ample safeguards that Texas may regain the mineral rights if the area ever ceases to be a park.

Probe Figure Found Dead

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison hinted today that free-lance pilot Davis W. Ferrie carried to his grave some secrets about President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Ferrie, 48, who described himself as a psychologist and private detective as well as a flyer, was found dead in his bed Wednesday.

Garrison, the 6-foot-6 gun-toting prosecutor, called the death "apparent suicide."

The coroner, Dr. Nicholas Chetta, said tests were not complete but death seemed due to a massive brain hemorrhage, with no sign of suicide except a curious, unsigned, undated note saying death was a "sweet prospect."

Ferrie was on the brink of producing information that could have been important, said Garrison, whose assassination probe — started long after the Warren Commission finished its work — has created an international sensation.

"We felt that he was really now ready to talk candidly, to contribute to this important investigation," said Garrison. "now he's gone and it will be much harder to make the connections between certain people. But I'm sure we'll make them anyway.

"I'm just as optimistic today as I was two days ago."

Two days ago, Garrison was insisting that his effort to prove a conspiracy in the assassination of President Kennedy will result in arrests and convictions.

The President was shot in Dallas, Tex., Nov. 22, 1963. Garrison insists that a conspiracy to murder him was conceived in New Orleans.

No "credible evidence" of a conspiracy was found by the Warren Commission, which said Kennedy was killed by Lee Harvey Oswald—a former New Orleans resident—acting alone.

Garrison said his office had planned to take Ferrie into custody early next week. Because Ferrie had expressed fears for his life, Garrison said he provided him a temporary hideout at a motor hotel here.

Area PD Chiefs In Session Here

Don't be surprised if a lot of yeggs and other lawbreakers are arrested soon.

Police Chiefs of Area 2 which comprises a 42-county area of West Texas met in Snyder today to discuss mutual problems of law enforcement. The meeting was held at the Americana Motel on the East Highway.

They exchanged information concerning offenses of a criminal nature in their various cities and discussed methods of concerted effort in the apprehension of offenders. Close cooperation between the police forces of the cities in the area often has beneficial results, it was pointed out. This week, for instance, Odessa officers, acting on information received from another town, arrested some thieves.

Mayor M. L. Broman of Snyder gave the welcoming address. Included among those present for the meeting were Chief Jay Banks of Big Spring, second vice president of the Texas Police Chiefs Association; Chief Jess L. Cariker of Odessa, secretary-treasurer of the Association; and host Chief Chester Simons of Snyder, who is a director of the Association.

Arlington's GMC To Reopen Next Week

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Company officials said today that the Arlington General Motors assembly plant will open again sometime during the middle of next week.

The announcement came after workers in Mansfield, Ohio, Fisher Body plant decided to end their wildcat strike there.

GM officials said it would take several days to produce the necessary body parts and ship them to assembly plants.

Fireman Is In Mishap

A volunteer fireman, Garlan Dale Williams, 2301 Avenue O, was involved in an accident en route to a fire. His 1960 Model Ford pickup was in collision with a 1962 Model Mercury operated by William Harris King, Route 3.

The mishap occurred at 8:13 a.m. on the East Highway at Avenue E. Damage to the fireman's car was placed at $350, and damage to the other vehicle was estimated at $600. Neither driver was injured.

Williams was en route to a fire at the Rip Griffin Truck Center on the Roby Highway where fire from a barbecue pit caused minor damage.

Commenting on the traffic mishap, Fire Chief Alfred Kohl urged local motorists to be more cautious when they hear warning devices indicating the fire-fighting equipment and firemen are on the move.

"We probably have been lucky, but we should not press our luck," Kohl said. He reminded that volunteer firemen are devoted to community service. "More caution and cooperation on the part of motorists when fires occur will be a big help."

Firemen also answered a call to a fire on the Roby Highway about nine miles east of town at 3:19 p.m. Wednesday when flames engulfed a tractor owned by Eldon Perry. Damage was confined to the upper radiator hose, air cleaner and paint on the hood. The blaze is believed to have been caused from trash collecting in the muffler.

Troops In Open Defiance Of Mao

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Wall posters in Peking said today that Chinese army units have turned on Mao Tse-tung's supporters in Honan, the rich agricultural province known as the breadbasket of China.

Japanese correspondents said the wall posters reported the army was openly defying Mao in Honan and had arrested nearly 1,000 of his followers in Chengchow City.

Similar reports have come from Inner Mongolia, Sinkiang and Tibet.

There was also a strong hint from Peking that Mao is willing to call off his battle against President Liu Shao-chi and Communist party general secretary Teng Hsiao-ping if they submit to self criticism. A leading party publication suggested that they might be permitted to hold on to their jobs although it did not name them specifically.

The Peking posters said supporters of Liu in Honan were making a "cats paw" of security forces there and practicing "white terror" — assassination and torture — on Maoists.

The Liu men and the army have ignored a directive issued by Premier Chou En-lai Feb. 17, the posters said. Chou had called on the army to separate the belligerent groups, ordered the Honan Daily placed under army control and told representatives of both sides to go to Peking for talks.

The day after Chou's edict appeared, 14 Maoist headquarters were raided in Honan and their officials detained, and violence has gripped the province ever since, the posters said.

Honan leads all the mainland provinces in wheat production and is 90 per cent rural. The army's defiance there may reflect peasant opposition to Mao's efforts to overthrow the established political and administrative order.

There has been no recent evidence that Mao is making any real headway in the hinterland regions.

A Japanese report from Peking today said Gen. Chang Kuohua, army commander and first political secretary of Tibet, is carrying out "white terror," that 14 Maoists in Lhasa have been attacked and that the anti-Maoists are seizing weapons from the civilian militia.

Sukarno's Future Still Unsettled

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesia's official news agency referred to strongman Gen. Suharto today as "acting president," raising new speculation about President Sukarno's future.

The Antara agency said "newly appointed acting president" Suharto would make a nationwide broadcast tonight explaining Sukarno's transfer to him Wednesday of all presidential powers. Sukarno at that time had retained the presidential title.

The Indonesian Congress had been expected to dismiss Sukarno, 65, and name Suharto acting president when it meets in two weeks had not Sukarno surrendered the last vestiges of his authority by then.

Political and military sources said that Sukarno gave in after Suharto agreed that he would not be brought to trial on charges of complicity in the Communist coup attempt on Oct. 1, 1965. But a new coup trial opened today with a prosecution statement outlining more charges of collusion against the man who had led Indonesia since he declared its independence in 1945.

The prosecutor, Lt. Col. Subari, charged that the defendant, Brig. Gen. Mustafa Supardjo, informed Sukarno on the day of the coup of the slaying of six top anti-Communist generals and the president expressed surprise that the defense minister, Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, had escaped. Nasution is now chairman of the Congress.

Subari said Sukarno questioned Supardjo closely about the progress of the coup attempt, then hugged him and told him: "These things happen in a revolution."

Sukarno remained in seclusion in the presidential palace, and Jakarta was quiet after the announcement that he had relinquished his powers. The announcement had been expected for several days after weeks of maneuvering betwen Sukarno and military leaders.

RUSSIA WOULD LIKE TO BUY IT — The Soviet Union would like to purchase this American-made submarine, according to a spokesman for General Dynamics, the firm which manufactures the small, two-man affair designed for ocean floor research. The spokesman said Soviet scientists saw the model on display in Frankfurt, Germany, last year. He indicated the submarine would be sold if the firm received State Department approval. Napalm Protest Disrupts Campus

By JOHN KEEFE

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The University of Wisconsin has vowed to "go through a Berkeley" to keep its campus open to everyone despite 17 arrests in a protest against job interviews by a firm making napalm for Vietnam.

Robben W. Fleming, chancellor of the Madison campus who was barricaded in an office for three hours by the protesters, wrote a personal check for $1,260 that bailed the demonstrators out of jail. But he refused to yield Wednesday night to demands that representatives of the Dow Chemical Corp., target of the protest, be evicted from the university.

The demonstrators threatened to continue the protests.

"We stand at the brink of a Berkeley," Fleming said, but he added the university would not sway from its policy that no one would be denied access to campus facilities because of a clash over beliefs.

"There's no prospect of backing away from this historic principle. We're willing to go through a Berkeley for that principle. We'll go through that tragedy," he said.

He referred to mass protests in the past that disrupted the University of California at Berkeley.

Arraignments were scheduled today for 16 students and a Madison mother arrested on charges of disorderly conduct in the demonstrations against Dow.

Fleming said he was furnishing bail because he believed the university should settle its disputes without police action.

He said he would recommend the charges be dropped, but said the final decision belonged to the director of the engineering school placement service, James Marks, who had summoned police.

Eleven demonstrators were carried out by police when they staged a sit-in in the office where Dow planned to conduct interviews. Six others were arrested when they threw themselves under police cars and paddy wagons trying to cart the first group away.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of this situation? Elsie is 34. Her mother is 52. Herman is 37. Herman has been dating Elsie for 10 years. Elsie lives at home with her mother and Herman has a room somewhere, but he practically lives at Elsie's.

These three have gone on long trips together, and have been seen at movies and all over town together, but get this: Herman has been seen with Elsie's mother ALONE (marketing and driving around) nearly as much as he has been seen with Elsie. There is something peculiar going on here.

At present Herman is unemployed and is mooching off these two women. The mother is a widow and should be looking out for herself. As a friend of the family, I would like to see this relationship terminated. But how?

INTERESTED PARTY

DEAR INTERESTED: If Elsie, her mother and Herman are happy, I can't see why the relationship should concern anyone else. As I see it, what should be "terminated" is your preoccupation with somebody else's business.

DEAR ABBY: What would make a 36-year-old man suddenly start wearing elevated shoes?

FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: He probably wants to be on "she" level.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: When a boy is visiting a girl at her house and the girl walks him out to his car, should he walk her back to the door? My boyfriend thinks he should, but I don't.

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: If you want to be absolutely proper, say your final goodnight at the door, and let the boy walk himself to his car.

DEAR ABBY: My wife has been overweight ever since we have been married, which has been 10 years. She has kept her weight a secret—even from me.

Last week a college friend of mine was visiting us and the subject of weight came up. He asked my wife how much she weighed, and she said she'd tell him "later"—but not in front of me. Then she called him into the kitchen later and told him.

After he left I asked her how much she weighed and she refused to tell me.

What do you think of a wife who would keep her weight a secret from her husband, but would humiliate him by revealing it to a stranger?

MAD

DEAR MAD: Your wife conscious of her overweight, may not want to humiliate HERSELF in front of you—and perhaps invite your critical comment. She needs your help, not your censure.

Damage to Bevers' vehicle, a 1965 Model Ford pickup, was estimated at $200, and damage to the other car, a 1957 Model GMC, was set at $100.

The 1954 Model Plymouth of Garfield F. Hembree, Ira, and the 1966 Model Chevrolet of John W. Pickering, Jr., Snyder, were in collision in the 2600 block of Avenue S at 7:08 p.m.

Damage to Hembree's car was set at $50, and damage to the other car was negligible.

Oppose Removal Of Access Ramps

BEAUMONT (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce has announced plans to oppose the removal of five access ramps along Interstate 10 in Beaumont.

The Texas Highway Department said it will seek removal of the on and off ramps to make IH 10 conform with other freeways in the state. The chamber claims removal of the ramps would hinder traffic movement in the city and would be detrimental to businesses located along service roads near the ramps.

Great MGM Proxy Fight Over Today

By DAVE SMITH

NEW YORK (AP) — When better movies are made, maybe Metro- Goldwyn-Mayer will make them. But for what the ads call elemental passion, raw lust for power, intrigue and tingling suspense, they'll never draw MGM stockholders so close to the edges of their seats as the great MGM proxy fight of '67.

The last reel of this gripping human drama unwinds today at a stockholders' meeting where shareholders will vote for a 12-man board of directors, including a president, to run MGM.

But the socko ending won't be revealed for days or perhaps weeks, after election judges have declared a winner in the contest for control of one of the entertainment industry's biggest giants.

The battle figures are big ones. Valued at a gross of $184,918,000, the 43-year-old film studio has 5,042,859 shares of common stock outstanding among some 12,000 shareholders.

This cast of thousands is divided — yet-unknown proportions — between two warring generals, each backed by 12-man slates of board candidates, while in the wings waits "the cavalry," six mutual funds which control about 20 per cent of the stock. Their preferences were still unknown on the eve of the showdown; they could ride to the aid of either side at the last minute.

The generals are Robert H. O'Brien, 62, MGM president since 1963, and New Jersey land developer Philip J. Levin, 57, who bought into MGM in 1964 and is now on the board of directors.

Both men are running on O'Brien's management record, which O'Brien sums up this way: "Since he took over in January, 1963, MGM stock has turned from a $17.4-million, or $3.39-per-share, loss that year to a $10.2-million, or $2.03-per-share, profit in 1966. MGM has declared one 5 per cent stock dividend and two dividend increases, and the market value of MGM stock has increased by about 2½ times.

And, he adds, MGM has turned out some pretty good movies, including "Dr. Zhivago," which O'Brien predicts will gross $40 million, to become the fourth largest money-maker in film history.

Levin's view of the record is less kindly.

He contends: O'Brien's 12-man board gives rubber-stamp approval to anything O'Brien decides. O'Brien leases too many recent films to television too soon and for too little money. MGM should return to the policy of developing big-name stars and keeping them under exclusive contract, rather than letting them free-lance. MGM should knock off the so-called package deals for production of films with independent producers, in which MGM pays the cost but the producer may own half the film.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

Mexico City — A fellow with problems would do well to take 'em down to Santo Domingo Plaza, where public scribes act as impromptu business advisers, psychiatrists and patch busted hearts by mail.

This dying industry dates back to the days of the Spanish conquest when hungry men of letters peddled their letter writing services to the unscholarly. Trouble is, business has gone to pot, now that folks are getting educated.

The writers are making a last stand beneath the arcade on the plaza's western rim. There they operate ancient typewriters, some of which look as if they had been left by the conquistadores. And as they scribe, they listen to the public's woes.

A country lad, for instance, may want to write home to let the family know he's all right—and P. S., please send some money.

So he trots over to Santa Domingo, picks himself a scribe, and they get to work. It's the typist's job to get ideas on paper. This he does by taking notes, gazing intently at the sky and then attacking the typewriter with determined skill.

Or some caballero chokes up when he thinks of proposing to a widow lady. In this, the typewriter maestro becomes a combination of Dorothy Dix and Tennyson. He bangs out a soul-throbber that may get a fat tip.

Job-hunting domestics may need a fancy letter of recommendation. The former employer has no telephone and the address is too obscure for anyone to want to make a personal check. Out comes the letter.

Besides performing on his writing contraption, the scribe has to be a shrewd judge of economic conditions so he can set a fee. It may range from 8 cents U. S. per letter for peons to 40 cents a page for citizens of obvious means.

The ones they hate are people who take half an hour to hash over what's to be said, then changed their minds and walk off with free ideas.

Senor Benito Mendoza figures that in 20 years of scribing, he's hit about every situation in all fields. Explanations to government tax collectors, a complaint by a lady to a department store because her new girdle popped and a rap to the weather bureau for a peasant farmer who thought it hadn't rained enough out his way.

Maestro Mendoza says it'll be a long time, too, before he forgets the classic feud by mail between the popcorn vendor and his fiancee who sold vegetables in the market.

That exchange of sugar pills paid the rent for a couple of months and the maestro might have stretched it into a career if they hadn't caught him. He was writing letters for both sides.

The public ought to patronize this worthwhile enterprise and saves it from extinction. Education or not, it's a boon to all who are long on ideas but lack time or talent to put 'em on paper.

For a few cents, the public scribes turn out the job and such talent shoudn't be allowed to die on the vine.

There's one drawback, though. Editors are always asking how come I write better from the city than when I'm on the raod.

The Art Guild Study Club met Tuesday evening in the Texas Electric center with Inez Lowery hosting the event.

Dell Smith arranged the program which consisted of a demonstration on "Foods For A Successful Party," given by Mrs. Joyce Williamson, home service representative for Texas Electric Service Co.

The service table was decorated with an arrangement of colorful gladiolas, while African violets enhanced the individual dining tables arranged to make the fellowship hour more enjoyable.

Mrs. Williamson discussed the road to a successful party by stating, "The road need not be rough and rocky if one proceeds step by step, and takes time to sit down and plan the itinerary. If one fails to do this he will run into a few detours enroute.

"Pre-party plans are a must for a successful party. Women do not plan to be failures, they just fail to plan. Some people seem to be born with a knack for entertaining. However, one must be sure that none of this just happened. The secret of success is planning. The trick is timing, so minutes must be taken to organize. Do not trust one's memory. Writing down a work schedule will help to prevent last minute confusion and above all the last hour must be set aside for relaxation."

Electrical appliances came in for quite a discussion during the demonstration, with Mrs Williamson showing not only labor saving devices, but also time consuming devices as well.

Louise Melton, president, presided for the business meeting. Plans were made to help in the Heart Fund drive Sunday. Delegates to the State Convention to be held in Abilene March 13 and 14 were discussed.

Officers for the ensuing biennium were elected. These included Mrs. Travis Rhoades, president; Mrs. Bill Teaff, vice president: Mrs. Hugh Lowery, recording secretary; Mrs. M. W. Pilcher, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Carrie Line, treasurer.

At the close of the program members vied for the beautiful centerpiece, with Mrs. Louise Melton the winner.

It was the concensus of the 16 members attending that the evening had been entertaining, informative, and interesting.

Miss Collins Receives Honor

Miss Wanda Collins, director of counseling at Colorado Women's College, has been chosen as one of the "Outstanding Young Women of America" in the 1966 edition by the leaders of women's associations.

Miss Collins is the daughter of Mrs. Pearl Edmondson Collins, formerly of Snyder, now of Carlsbad, N. M. and a niece of Mrs. Fred Grayum of Snyder and the late Mrs. Joe Stinson.

Outstanding Young Women of America is an annual publication of biographical sketches honoring women between the ages of 21 and 36. Miss Collins' reaction to the award was, "I considered it a great honor but also quite a shock. I didn't even know I was under consideration until I received the award."

Miss Collins is presently president of the Colorado Association of Women Deans and Counselors (CAWDC) and is one of two candidates for the vice-presidency of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors. Miss Collins describes NAWDC as a professional organization with 3,000 members with the aim to advance the career of the woman in counseling.

Besides teaching and counseling in high school, Miss Collins served as counselor and Assistant Dean of Women at Colorado University for five years in Boulder, Colo., until she went to Colorado Women's College.

Sales Lagging For 'Keep The Faith'

NEW YORK (AP)—The sales of Adam Clayton Powell's long-playing record, "Keep the Faith, Baby," aren't living up to their advance billing.

A spokesman for Jubilee Records said today the company had delivered 125,000 by last weekend, and added: "If we were selling the way everybody said we would, we would have sold a half million albums by this time."

There were predictions from Powell, among others, of sales well over a million when the recording of extemporaneous speeches about the Negro Harlem congressman's philosophy and current troubles went on sale early this month.

Strawberries Top Creamy Farina Pudding

What do you expect of a family dessert? Probably, that it be easy to make, appealing in flavor, and good for everyone from baby to grandma!

Farina, molded with gelatin and vanilla pudding mix, plus egg and whipped cream is a sophisticated creamy custard. Its gentle flavor is set off with sliced strawberries, but it could just as well be topped with hot fudge or thick caramel sauce. If you have farina for breakfast, by all means, prepare an extra batch for this nourishing dessert. Breakfast cereals, like farina, are nutritional bargains and excellent for recipe ingredient use.

Strawberry Farina Mold

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1 package (3¼ ounce) vanilla pudding and pie filling mix (not instant)
2 cups milk
1-3 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup uncooked farina, cooked as directed on package
1 tablespoon vanilla
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 envelope (2 ounces) whipped dessert topping mix
3 cups sweetened, sliced fresh starwberries or 2 packages (10 ounces) frozen strawberries, defrosted

Soften gelatin in water. Combine pudding mix and 1½ cups milk; cook as directed on package label. Add softened gelatin, sugar, and salt; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in cooked farina, vanilla, and orange rind. Cool until very thick, stirring frequently. Combine topping mix and remaining ½ cup cold milk; whip as directed on package label. Fold whipped topping into cereal mixture. Pour into 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold; serve with fresh or defrosted frozen strawberries. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Films Shown At Kiwanis

James M. Allen, employe of Continental-Emsco Co., presented two films at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Snyder Kiwanis Club Wednesday at Sathe's Cafeteria.

The first film, entitled "Nothing But Corn," was a collection of early day Mack Sennett comedy sequences. The other film showed early, humorous and sometimes disastrous attempts at flight during the time of and prior to the Wright Brothers.

The meeting was presided over by Don Adams, club president.

Claims She Was Not Just Mistress

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The attorney for attractive Beate Leber says his client's relationship with a wealthy Arizona rancher was more than "man and mistress" and he has 100 letters to prove it.

The letters are the central point of a trial involving a $2.5-million breach of promise suit by Mrs. Leber against William Brown, 65, heir to a Pittsburgh, Pa., coal fortune.

Mrs. Leber said that Brown jilted her after promising to marry her after she obtained a Mexican divorce from her husband in Heidelberg, Germany.

Brown, a sports car racing enthusiast, part-time rancher and yachtsman whose hobbies include photographing nude women, claims he only leased the dark-haired German woman.

Brown's attorney, Norman Hull, said the agreement was for Brown to pay Leber $40,000 for leasing his wife for one year.

Raymond F. Hayes, attorney for Mrs. Leber, said he would introduce the letters in U.S. District Court today, the second day of the trial.

"They will say that he promised to marry her," said Hayes.

Brown, called to testify Tuesday as an adverse witness by Hayes, recounted how he met the Lebers as they were strolling nude on a beach at a German nudist resort.

"We were all nude," he testified.

Brown said he asked to take nude photographs of Mrs. Leber and the posing was done in the couple's Heidelberg apartment a few months after their 1963 meeting.

Following the visit to the Heidelberg apartment, Brown testified that he and the Lebers traveled to Switzerland, the Bahamas, New York and his Sasabe, Ariz., ranch.

Brown, who estimates his fortune at $5.6 million, is heir to an estate left by his father, the late W. Harry Brown, a Pittsburgh coal magnate who died in 1919.

Two marriages ended in divorce. His second wife, Sheila, was awarded a reported $400,000 settlement in 1949.

It's Everybody's 'Thriftway' Now

One of Snyder's best-known business firms has a new name and will provide an improved service in food merchandising here.

Everybody's has changed its name to "Everybody's Thriftway," simultaneously with announcement of the new service.

Everybody's Thriftway Super Market is a member of the Associated Grocer's, which for this area has headquarters in Lubbock.

The local firm thus is one of approximately 200 independent grocery establishments to be served out of the Associated Grocers extensive warehouse facilities at Lubbock. The territory extends for a 185-mile radius of Lubbock.

Everybody's Thriftway is able, through its association, to sell merchandise at lower prices and to maintain a complete line of merchandise. The association distributes Shurfine and Shurfresh products.

Everybody's was founded here in 1950 and Everybody's Thriftway is still operated by Rex Miller, one of the founders. The firm moved into the modern quarters it now occupies at Thirty-fifth Street and Avenue S in July of 1960.

The history of the firm has been one of continuous progress of which the latest inovation as a "Thriftway" store is another of many examples.

Coast Guard Eyes Soviet Trawlers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Coast Guard is watching a flotilla of Soviet fishing trawlers transferring their catch to a mother ship off Drakes Bay, 25 miles northwest of San Francisco.

The Coast Guard said the skipper of the Dekastri, mother ship for the trawler group, requested permission to make the two-day cargo transfer in calm water just outside the three mile limit.

A cutter was assigned to keep the Soviet vessels under surveillance until the trawlers complete unloading.

The Dekastri anchored Wednesday.

Opposes Change In Oil Control

AUSTIN (AP) — It would be "absolute folly" to change the system of state control of oil production on the Outer Continental Shelf, Gov. John Connally has written Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall.

Connally released Wednesday a letter he wrote Udall Feb. 14. His office explained the delay by saying Connally wanted to be sure Udall got it first.

The governor replied to a letter Udall wrote Dec. 30. A similar letter went to Louisiana.

The federal domain begins about 10.5 miles from shore. Two companies now produce on the federal part of the Outer Continental Shelf off Texas.

Udall asked Connally's comments on a proposal for federal assumption of conservation jurisdiction in the shelf. He said an order would be issued about March 1. Railroad Commissioners Jim Langdon and Byron Tunnell discussed the matter with Udall Jan. 23.

Udall said his department hoped "to seek with state officials the establishment of a system of formal cooperation in the proration of all production in those Outer Continental Shelf areas adjacent to Texas."

Crash Kills 9 Of Family

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A freight train hurtled into a station wagon at a crossing Wednesday and killed nine members of a family.

With the train horn blowing and signals working at the South Sacramento area crossing, a Southern Pacific train going 60 m.p.h. rammed broadside into the vehicle, scattering bodies and debris as far as 200 feet.

Killed instantly were all nine occupants of the station wagon. They were retired Air Force Sgt. Herbert Hill, 42, of nearby Broderick; his wife, Annie Laurie, 38, and children Deborah, 3; Michael, 4; Timothy, 6; Edward, 7; Caroline, 8; Herbert Jr., and Douglas, both 10.

Train engineer Calvin C. Searley, 56, of Tracy, said he did not see the station wagon before the crash.

The five other members of the Hill family, all daughters, were elsewhere.

Tiger Thinclads Ready For Comanche Relays

The Snyder High School track and field team is whipping into shape for the annual Comanche Relays to be held Saturday in Ft. Stockton.

Over 70 teams from across the state are entered in the Relays. Competition will be in three divisions: Division 1, class AAAA schools; Division 2, Class AAA schools; and Division 3, Class AA, A and B schools.

Division 2 in which Snyder will compete has attracted some of the top teams in West Texas, including defending AAA state champion Monahans. Virtually all of the teams in District 3-AAA are entered along with Kermit, Seminole, Kerrville, Eagle Pass, Odessa Ector, Andrews, Pecos and Ft. Stockton.

Prelims begin at 9 a.m. Saturday with the finish to get underway at 1 p.m.

Eight lettermen return to the Tiger camp this season. They include field men Jerry Simons and Joe Breeden, sprinters M. C. Powell, Curtis Clay, Teddy Brown, Kent Noble and Leon Riggins, and distance ace Freddie Benitez.

Simons already has topped his best distance of last year in the shot put. He hit 55-6 in practice. Powell and Clay ran on the 440 relay team last year that was clocked under 43 flat. The two also combined forces with Brown and Riggins in the mile relay for a respectable 3:21.7. Needless to say, these boys will form the backbone of the relays teams this season.

Benitez was timed in 4:42 in the mile run in practice. This betters the old school record of 4:49.

Several newcomers offer hope in other events, such as John Schiebel in the high jump and Tommy Bullard in the 880.

Powell also holds the school record in the broad jump with a leap of 23-3½ at the Border Olympics in Laredo last season. And many observers feel Leon Riggins, running the intermediate hurdles for the first time, will set a school record that could stand for several seasons.

Coach Bob Carter and assistants Roy Carter and Jerry Bristo will accompany the athletes to Ft. Stockton.

Snyder entries in the various events were listed, as follows:

440 relay — Leon Riggins, M. C. Powell or Kent Noble, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay.

880 dash — Tommy Bullard, Lynn Fuller or Gary Foster and Roy Lee.

120 high hurdles — Dwaine Boydstun and John Schiebel.

100 dash — M. C. Powell and Larry Lofton.

440 dash — Teddy Brown and Morris Smith or Kent Noble.

330 intermediate hurdles — Leon Riggins, Larry Lofton or Bill Schiebel.

220 dash — Curtis Clay and Kent Noble.

mile run — Freddie Benitez and Thomas McDorman or Harvey Browning.

mile relay — Leon Riggins, Larry Lofton or M. C. Powell, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay.

pole vault — Jerry Luttrell.

broad jump — M. C. Powell and Leon Riggins.

high jump — John Schiebel and Dewey Grinslade.

Howard Payne Is No. 10 In Poll

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Explosive Southern Illinois and once-beaten Kentucky Wesleyan continue to stand 1-2 among the nation's small college basketball powers.

Kentucky Wesleyan, beaten only by Southern Illinois, boosted its record to 18-1 with victories over Kentucky State, Northern Michigan and Chattanooga.

Lincoln, Mo., trampled Pittsburg, Kan., 122-83 and St. Ambrose, Iowa, 146-76 and climbed into third position, replacing Cheyney State, which slipped to fourth.

Indiana State remained in fifth place but San Diego State toppled from sixth to ninth after a 76-62 loss to Fresno State. Akron moved up a notch from seventh, Grambling went from eighth to seventh and Southwest Missouri climbed from 10th to eighth.

Howard Payne gained the No. 10 spot as Tennessee State bowed out of the Top Ten after losing to Pan American 80-72.

Texarkana To Laud Willie Davis

TEXARKANA (AP) — Texarkansas, which is divided by a state line, will combine Sunday and Monday to honor one of its favorite athletes—Willie Davis, defensive star of the Green Bay Packers.

Davis is from Texarkana, Ark., where he played high school football. From there he went to Grambling and was so good the pros snapped him up. He has been with Cleveland and Green Bay for eight years of pro football, seven with the latter.

Davis will come home Sunday and will be met at the airport by civic leaders and city officials, including the mayors of Texarkana, Tex., and Texarkana, Ark.

Monday he will be honor guest at a Lions Club Luncheon and that night the honoree and principal speaker at a Texarkana College dinner. He will receive a plaque and also some gifts.

Canyon Clinic Set

CANYON (AP) — Coaches Frank Broyles of Arkansas and Emory Bellard of San Angelo High School, quarterback Frank Ryan of the Cleveland Browns and defensive star Jim Colvin of the Dallas Cowboys will make up the faculty of the West Texas State coaching clinic March 10-11.

Bellard went to Texas as assistant coach after sending San Angelo to the Class AAAA state championship last fall.

High school and junior college coaches from Texas, New Mexico, Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma will attend the clinic.

Coleman Gets Graves

COLEMAN (AP) — Grady Graves has been hired as head football coach of Coleman High School. He was at Burleson the past two seasons, posting 7-3 and 5-5 records.

In 1964 he coached Archer City to the state Class A championship.

All Astros Ink Baseball Pacts

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — All Houston Astros have agreed to terms for the 1967 season.

Second baseman Joe Morgan agreed via telephone from his home in Oakland, Calif., Wednesday and catcher John Bateman arrived in the Astro spring training camp here and signed his contract. All the rest had signed earlier.

Spec Richardson, Astro business manager, said Morgan got "a substantial raise."

Although the amount was not revealed it was believed the flashy second baseman jumped into the 20,000 class.

Morgan will be starting his third season with the Astros.

He hit .271 his rookie year in 1965 and last year was hitting .319 before being out 40 days with a fractured kneecap. He finished the season with a .285 mark.

Bateman drove in from Oklahoma and signed his contract late Wednesday.

Bateman, who had a weight problem last season, had agreed to be fined for every pound over 215 when he reported.

"It was right at 220 but I gained a couple of pounds driving down here," Bateman said. "I can lose them as soon as I get out on the field."

Astro manager Grady Hatton seemed to be happy.

"As long as he stays at 220 or under," Hatton said. "I'll be satisfied."

Pony Swimmers Splash Rebels

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — All-around star Doug Russell didn't get to compete because of a disciplinary matter but it wouldn't have helped anyway because Southern Methodist won 11 of 12 first places to sweep a swimming meet from Arlington State 78-26 Wednesday night.

Arlington State coach Don Easterling said the problem was minor "but it was something I felt I had to do."

He added that he thought it would be straightened out today and Russell, who is considered a candiate for the Olympics team, would remain with the Rebels.

Ricky Nesbit won the 200-yard breaststroke but was disqualified for making an illegal kickoff the turn and that was another blow for Arlington State.

Dan Conners, linebacker with the Oakland Raiders, played fullback in high school yet never scored a touchdown. In his third year of pro ball he intercepted a pass and ran 23 yards for a touchdown against the New York Jets.

Clay To Accept Nipponese Bout?

TOKYO (AP) — Cassius Clay's manager and a Japanese boxing promoter today scheduled a news conference for Friday, raising speculation they may have reached agreement for a fight in Japan featuring the heavyweight champion.

Art-Life Association, a Japanese sports promotion organization, declined to shed any light on the purpose of the conference.

Herbert Muhammad, Clay's manager, who arrived in Tokyo Wednesday night, could not be reached for comment.

Art-Life announced earlier it hoped to stage a title fight in Japan. Joe Frazier of Philadelphia has been mentioned as a possible challenger.

San Jacinto Is No. 2

DODGE CITY, Kan. (AP)—Moberly, Mo., a club with a 21-2 season record, is the No. 1 team in the final season poll of basketball coaches in the National Junior College Athletic Association.

San Jacinto, Tex., 34-3, placed second. Cameron of Lawton, Oklahoma, 18-3, was third.

Other teams in the final top 20, in order:

Ranger, Tex., 20-2; Port Huron, Mich., 23-0; Mineral Area of Flat River, Mo., 23-5; Eastern Utah of Price 23-0; Northwest of Powell, Wyo., 24-2; Brevard of Cocoa, Fla., 25-0; Broome Tech of Binghamton, Ny., 22-2; St. Gregory's of Shawnee, Okla., 21-3; Wilson Branch of Chicago, 15-1; Rochester, Minn., 21-0; Coffeyville, Kan., 19-3; Tyler, Tex., 24-3; Ellsworth of Iowa Falls, Iowa, 20-3; Wesley of Dover, Del., 13-2; Gardner-Ebb of Boiling Springs, N.C., 22-4; Illinois Valley of Lasalle, Ill., 15-3; Northeastern of Sterling, Colo., 17-5.

The individual scoring leader is Dick Corsette of Harford at Bel Air, Md., with a 38.2 average. Utica, Miss., is the top scoring team at 111.4 a game

Illini Coaches May Be Whipping Boys?

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The University of Illinois coaching jobs of Pete Elliott, Harry Combes and Howard Braun apparently were in the balance Thursday pending a statement from University President Dr. David D. Henry.

The statement, The Associated Press learned, is expected to include either notification of an appeal before the conference's faculty representatives in Chicago next week or announcement of dismissal of Elliott, football coach since 1960; Combes, basketball coach 20 years, and his assistant, Braun, who has been with him all that time.

Conference athletic directors threw the book at Illinois Wednesday. They voted unanimously to invoke the harshest penalty listed against the university for its self-acknowledged financial recruiting irregularities from an outside $21,000 slush fund.

The rule reads:

"Any member university which employes or retains on its athletic staff anyone who has violated, or who has been a party to a violation of the provisions of this (recruiting) rule, or who encourages others to violate this rule, shall be required to show cause why its membership in the conference should not be suspended or terminated."

The directors lowered the boom, ignoring a much less severe choice of penalty. They could have acted under another rule that provides only for reprimand or warning, or loss of personal contact with a prospective athlete for a period of time by a staff member found in violation.

The directors' action reportedly stunned Elliott, Combes and Braun as well as other university officials. None had comment.

When the slush fund scandal burst at Illinois in December, the university voluntarily disclosed facts of the matter to Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed imposed one year probations on Elliott and Combes and declared seven football and five basketball players indefinitely ineligible for accepting illegal financial assistance.

Such payments from the fund over a period of five years ranged from $15 a month to one of $50.

In 1957, foootbal coach Phil Dickens of Indiana was suspended for one year for recruiting infractions. Demand of his dismissal was sidestepped.

Since this could be considered a precedent, Illinois may decide to appeal for suspension instead of dismissal of its coaches.

Faculty representatives rule with finality. It is within their power to ease the penalty if Illinois convincingly shows cause why it should be done. But the athletic directors apparently have paved the way for harshness.

The players' eligibility can be studied and ruled on by the faculty representatives.

Names of the football players involved never have been divulged. Basketball players include stars Rich Jones and Ron Dunlap, promising sophomore Steve Kuberski, another sophomore Steve Spanich, and freshman Randy Crews. All remained in school except Spanich, who transferred to St. Ambrose.

Before the Illinois case is close action also must come from the NCAA. This probably will be in April.

21-Gun Salute Falls A Little Short

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Sand Point Naval Air Station fired a three-gun salute Wednesday in honor of George Washington's birthday anniversary.

It started out to be a traditional 21-gun salute but as a spokesman explained, "We had a little gun trouble. After the first three volleys, the breech jammed on one and we had a hung fire on the other.

"By the time we got everything fixed and put back together, it was too late to fire any more."

Three sophomores playing basketball at Alabama are 6-8 Burt Caldwell of St. Louis, 6-7 Rich Deppe of Louisville and 6-3 Jerry Elliott of Savannah.

Albert E. Davis of Los Angeles, national collegiate foils champion, captains the NYU fencing team.

Medder's Plight Upsets City

JELLICO, Tenn. (AP)—Jellico residents were "tremendously upset" today at the financial plight of a "rags-to-riches" couple who had pledged to rejuvenate this small upper Cumberland town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders, former Tennesseans who amassed a financial empire in Texas, left Jellico, which straddles the Tennessee-Kentucky line, under a cover of mystery Wednesday.

A relative said the Medders were returning to Texas, where lawyers and newsmen have unearthed a mass of debts which might exceed $1 million.

"The people of this town are sure let down by all the news," said one Jellico resident. "We sure had our hopes up."

He referred to the Medders' promises to build a new hospital and help bring in new industry which would provide jobs for hard-pressed mountain folk.

"Some people said Mrs. Medders promised they would match any federal funds toward building a new hospital here," he said. "We sure do need one, but it doesn't look like we'll get it now."

The Medders became the chief topic for this town of 2,000 after newspapers printed stories about their financial troubles in Texas.

Mayor A. B. Foreman said he didn't know "what the general feeling of the town is about this situation—but everybody is talking about it. You know about things like that in a small town. It spreads like wildfire."

The Medders checked out of a Jellico Motel Tuesday night but were seen in town early Wednesday. The motel manager said he understood they were going to their Texas ranch and would return here next Monday or Tuesday. He said no reservations had been made.

Before they left, the Medders bought what was described as an "expensive looking, two-story brick home that sits on a knoll right off Main Street."

The Medders once lived in a public housing project at Memphis. They moved from Memphis in 1961 and became widely known because of the lavish parties they gave at Colonial Acres, their showcase estate at Muenster, Tex.

A native of Jellico, Mrs. Medders left here when she was 16. After her recent return, she and her husband, a former mechanic, were seen riding around town in a car driven by a chauffeur.

"I don't know what the real story is," Mayor Foreman said, "but I hope everything turns out all right for them.

"As far as I'm concerned they were, and are, fine people. We didn't know where they got their money. It didn't make any difference. They seemed to have it. But then, if they're broke, they're broke — it's that simple."

Johnson To See Amendment Certified

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson officiates today at the formal certification of the 25th Amendment to the Constitution — a change that takes two burdens from the President's mind.

The amendment establishes means for dealing with presidential disability and for filling a vacancy in the office of vice president.

It actually became part of the Constitution Feb. 10, when the 38th state ratified the amendment.

Today's White House activities mostly are ceremonial.

Johnson, who twice has undergone major surgery while President, no longer need make a private agreement with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey about who should do what in case of presidential disability.

Briefly, the amendment provides for the vice president to discharge powers and duties of the presidency if the president, or the vice president and a majority of the Cabinet or other body set by law, write Congress that the president is disabled.

The president gets the powers and duties back again when he says he's no longer disabled. If the vice president and the previously named executives disagree, Congress decides who's right.

The amendment provides that any vacancy in the vice presidency be filled by presidential nomination and confirmation by a majority vote of both houses of Congress.

The country has been without a vice president 16 times covering 37 years. But the president never died when the No. 2 job was vacant.

Existing presidential succession law which places the speaker of the House and Senate president pro-tem in line after the vice president still is available in case a president and vice president ever die so close together in time that a new vice president can't be picked under the new amendment.

Sherpas believed their ancestors migrated from Tibet to eastern Nepal about six centuries ago.

Bill Would Tighten Up Districts

AUSTIN (AP) — A bill that would tighten up congressional districts around Dallas and San Antonio has been introduced by Reps. R. L. Vale and Jake Johnson of San Antonio.

"This is a just bill—nonpolitical," Johnson said.

"This corrects the gerrymandering last year by Mutscher (Rep. G. F. Mutscher of Brenham, chairman of the Committee on Congressional and Legislative Districts)," Johnson said.

The bill does not affect Houston or other major metropolitan areas, he said. It would pit several congressmen against one another by placing them in the same district.

A Rio Grande Valley district would include the homes of U.S. Reps. Eligio de la Garza and Abraham Kazen.

The bill also would put Congressmen Graham Purcell, Wichita Falls, and Omar Burleson, Anson, in the same district. U.S. Reps. John Dowdy, Athens, and Olin Teague, College Station, also would be in one district.

"I'm sure it won't stand a chance in (Mutscher's) committee," Johnson said, "but we're still in court and he knows it."

Johnson and others have challenged both congressional and legislative redistricting in federal courts.

The U.S. Supreme Court Tuesday sent back to a special three-member federal court in Houston the Texas legislative redistricting plan.

Brazoria County, now split between two districts, would be united in a new district without an incumbent congressman.

The Fourth District would take in a "I-Beam" shaped piece of territory including Denton, Collin, Ellis and Johnson Counties, the western half of Dallas County and the eastern half of Tarrant County.

The court said Texas must justify the deviations, ranging from 14 per cent over-representation to 11 per cent under-representation, from the one-man-one-vote- ideal.

Officials Investigate Oklahoma Shooting

CARTWRIGHT, Okla. (AP)—Frank Beckwith, 29, of Pottsboro, Tex., was shot and killed here Wednesday night.

Sheriff Ben Risner said Beckwith was fatally wounded with a shotgun at the home of Clint Holder, 63.

The body was taken to Ada for an autopsy. Risner said an investigation was continuing.

One-Man Picket Idles 600 Texans

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — One man walking a picket line has idled 600 workers at a big chemical plant.

Roy Farrell picketed the plant Wednesday protesting his dismissal for allegedly running — instead of walking — in the parking lot of the plant in violation of safety regulations.

A sign lettered in 10-inch-high figures near the Beaumont DuPont works parking lot says: "Walk — don't run."

Farrell's former employer, the Armstrong Construction Co. which was doing some work at the DuPont plant, said he ran in the parking lot. Farrell said he walked.

He was fired a month ago by the construction company, but says his grievance is personal, not union.

"I have been accused of running in the parking lot. I was not running," he said. W.S. Briggs, parking manager for DuPont, said no legal action was currently planned to stop Farrell's action.

"We are proud of our safety program and promote safety on and off the job," Briggs said.

Farrell said he declined to go inside the plant Wednesday to talk over his problem because that would have brought down the picket line.

"Had I gone inside, the picket line would have gone down, and everyone would go on to work because they wouldn't be crossing any picket line," Farrell said.

He said he still wanted to negotiate his problem, however.

Daylight Saving Time Bill Is Sent To Subcommittee

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP)—Time is money, an old adage says, and you had better believe it when opponents in the daylight saving time fight start quoting how many millions it will cost if they lose.

There also is the emotional side.

School children will have to stand in pre-dawn darkness, some predict, waiting for their buses under daylight saving time.

Others say television is one of the most important things in our lives, and you don't want to stay on regular time because everybody else will be getting that big pro football game while the church service is still on your tube.

But mainly it is the money.

And time is no object where enough cash is involved, as a House State Affairs Committee hearing proved. It started Wednesday night and lasted into the early hours this morning.

The hearing was on a bill by Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont that would exempt Texas from the 1966 Federal Uniform Time Act, which puts all states that do not exempt themselves on daylight saving time starting April 30.

After 5½ hours of testimony, the committee sent the bill to a subcommittee.

Smith produced several witnesses, including:

—Martin Miles, representing El Paso, who said the West Texas city would lose $75 to $100 million in business from New Mexico under daylight saving time.

—Charles W. Horan Jr., operator of five Fort Worth cafeterias, who said, "People eat breakfast and lunch by the clock, but they eat supper when the sun goes down." Daylight saving time would make food establishments stay open an extra hour, he said.

—John Gray of Texas City, president of the Texas State Bowling Proprietors Association, who said people who are engaged in more outdoor activities because of daylight saving would not go bowling. He estimated a $1 million annual loss.

Smith also cited support for his bill by the Texas Farm Bureau, which reportedly represents 100,000 families. Farmers don't want to milk their cows in the middle of the afternoon, Smith said.

The opposition included:

—Walter Gaven, Austin lawyer for the railroad industry, who said there was more chance of accident in the confusion of different times in states in the same time zone.

—William P. Hobby Jr., president and editor of the Houston Post, who said Houston might lose the 1968 Republican national convention if it cannot offer the central time the GOP selection committee prefers, other things between competing cities being equal.

—Ray Herndon, representing a Midland television station, who said network news programs would start at 4:30 p.m. instead of 5:30 p.m. Taping equipment needed to delay network shows one hour would cost individual stations $75,000 and operation of the equipment would run $2,000 a month, he said.

Rep. Ralph Wayne of Plainview, coauthor of the Smith bill, asked Herndon if more than 35 Texas stations didn't already have taping equipment.

Herndon said yes, but, "How good is news that is already an hour old?"

Little Suzy Loses Battle With Disease

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Suzy was losing a big battle, but she didn't cry.

"In the two weeks she has been dying she never cried once," said Mrs. George Dewey, mother of 6-year-old Suzy Dewey.

Those two weeks ended Wednesday as Suzy lost an 18-month fight against leukemia, a fight that brought her into the hearts of thousands of strangers across the nation.

Cards, letters and gifts, including one from entertainer Frank Sinatra, poured into Suzy's home.

A cruel prankster nearly brought heartache to the child with so little time to live.

A man posing as an agent of comedian Jerry Lewis called her parents and offered an expense-paid trip to California and Disneyland at Christmastime.

But a Los Angeles woman who still remains anonymous opened her heart and purse to finance the four-day dream trip for Suzy and her parents.

The little girl romped happily through Disneyland, meeting cartoon characters and riding Dumbo the elephant.

Besides her father, a car salesman, and mother, Suzy leaves seven brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the Zaagman Memorial Chapel in Grand Rapids. Burial will be in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens.

Charges Of Conspiracy Are Thus Far Nothing But Talk

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Talk without evidence is all so far from the efforts of New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison to prove a plot in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

But there are some bizarre twists.

The Warren Commission concluded Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in the killing in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963. There have been doubts about this ever since. Up until now Garrison has simply added to them.

He says he has no reason to believe Oswald killed anybody in Dallas that day. Last Saturday, giving no details, he promised five arrests and convictions, though the arrests were "most certainly months away."

Then Wednesday, after David Ferrie, a plane pilot of about 45, had been found dead in his bed in New Orleans, Garrison said he had planned to arrest Ferrie next week.

"Apparently we waited too long," Garrison said, although he called Ferrie "one of history's most important individuals." Ferrie's death was one of the bizarre twists. The other, in Florida, was the start of an investigation into the 2-year-old death of another man.

Garrison referred to Ferrie's death as an "apparent suicide." Coroner Nicholas Chetta said Ferrie died of a ruptured blood vessel in the brain but added that further tests were being made.

A note, found in Ferrie's dining room, said: "To leave this life is, for me, a sweet prospect. I find nothing in it that is desirable and on the other hand everything that is loathsome."

But — and this is written after consultation here in Washington with a physician who is an internist — it would have seemed impossible for Ferrie to write the note at all and then walk back to his bedroom after the blood vessel burst.

Yet, if Ferrie wrote the note, intending it as a farewell, how could he have possibly known that as soon as he got back to bed the blood vessel in his brain would burst? Blood vessels are not that obliging.

Ferrie, no stranger to the Kennedy case, was questioned in 1963 shortly after the President's death by both the FBI and Garrison's office and was questioned again in Garrison's office last November.

Each time he was released. He said the FBI first became interested in him when a New Orleans man reported he had served with Oswald in a Civil Air Patrol unit under Ferrie. Oswald lived in New Orleans in the summer of 1963. Ferrie had lived there 15 years.

He repeatedly denied he ever knew Oswald and complained that Garrison had him "pegged as the get-away pilot in an elaborate plot to kill Kennedy." He called this a "big joke."

Pensacola authorities Wednesday began investigating the 1964 death of Thomas Henry Killam, a sometime house painter, who died beside a broken store window with a slashed throat. The police at the time called it a suicide; the coroner called it an accidental death.

But now his brother, Earl Killam, asking that the body be exhumed for further examination, says the dead man feared he was being pursued by "agents" connected with the Kennedy assassination and fled Dallas in December, 1963, saying he knew he would be killed by "agents" he didn't name.

The dead man's wife, Wanda Killam, had been employed several years in a nightclub run by Jack Ruby who killed Oswald and died last Jan. 3. She said her husband had been employed as a painter by a man who once roomed in a Dallas boarding house with Oswald.

Unless Garrison has a lot more that he hasn't revealed, none of this so far shows any conspiracy.

A Junior Editors Quiz About INK

QUESTION: Where does ink come from?

ANSWER: As far back as 4,500 years ago, Chinese people took the soot we call lamp black and mixed this with gum or glue. This was dried into sticks. Later, when the sticks were rubbed over a stone with water, a rich black ink was produced which was used in writing and painting. This same type of ink is employed nowadays by artists to make sharp clear drawings which can be inexpensively reproduced in newspapers and magazines. It is called India ink and is sold in bottles. The writing ink you use with your pen is another type. A kind of acid is used which is often taken from oak galls, the round swellings found on tree branches. Other chemicals are added, including a blue dye. When this combination is exposed to air, it forms a blue black which enters the fibers of paper and becomes permanent. For fountain pens, a special dye, nigrosine, is added to make the ink flow. Ink used in printing is different again. It is made from lamp black, but this is ground with linseed oil, soap and resin (lower left) and spread on rollers or plates where it is transferred to paper under pressure.

Baden-Powell Has Become Scoutmaster

By EDDY GILMORE

RIPLEY, England (AP) — Lord Baden-Powell — whose grandfather founded the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides — has become a scoutmaster.

His illustrious grandparent, the first Lord Baden-Powell, was born in London exactly 110 years ago today.

"I never really became a Boy Scout," said the 30-year-old present Lord Baden-Powell in an interview at his new home in the heart of this Surrey village. 'I was a Wolf Cub (a beginning rank in Cub Scouts) and enrolled as a Boy Scout, then I left them almost before I was one."

"I suppose I'd just had too much of it around me all my life," he explained.

"It hapenned to all my cousins too. None of them have become scouts."

What made him finally decide to join the movement?

"Just after we got married in 1963 my wife said 'I think I'll take up guiding.' "

The Girl Guides in Britain correspond to the Girl Scouts in the United States.

"I finally said: 'Well, perhaps it'll be all right. I'll go down there with a troop, but if I don't like the scouts I'll be away like a shot'.

"I went down to the troop in Roehampton, south London, and the scoutmaster and I sort of clicked. We got on well, so now I'm running the senior scouts there." That was nearly two years ago.

"I'll go on with scouting, most definitely," he said. "I realize now what I didn't realize before — what scouting offers."

Does he remember Lt. Gen. Robert Stephenson Smyth Baden-Powell, first baronet and first baron, the scouts founder?

"Oh yes," he answered. "I was taken to see him when I was four. He was living in Kenya. He was a fascinating storyteller."

The first Lord Baden-Powell founded the Boy Scouts in 1908 and the Girl Guides in 1910. He became the chief scout of the world in 1920.

The world's chief scout, who died on Jan. 8, 1941 at the age of 83, is buried in Kenya.

Cherokee Composer Dies In Muskogee

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) — Composer Jack Frederick Kilpatrick, chairman of the Southern Methodist University music department, died Wednesday in a Muskogee hospital. He was 48.

A Cherokee Indian and a native of Stilwell, Okla., Kilpatrick had written seven symphonies, five concerts and the music for six historical dramas.

His works were performed both in the United States and in Europe.

Kilpatrick wrote two books, "Sons of Thunder" and "Walk in Love," and had been a music critic for the Dallas Times Herald. He also had been on the staff of the Musical Courier.

The Hudson's Bay Company — a firm that began exchanging beads for beaver skins almost 300 years ago — still trades for furs in remote Canadian outposts.

GOPs Eye Astrodome

HOUSTON (AP)—Three members of the National Republican site committee will inspect the Astrodome and other facilities Tuesday in connection with Houston's bid for the party's convention next year.

The representatives, who will arrive Monday, are Henry Moeller, national committeeman for South Dakota; Mrs. Frank McGillicuddy, committeewoman for Arkansas, and Mrs. Jack Stacy, committeewoman for Wyoming.

"They will come here from Los Angeles, where they will inspect facilities," said Albert Bel Fay, Houston, national committeeman for Texas. The other half of the committee will visit Miami and Philadelphia.

A formal Houston bid was placed before the GOP Site Selection Committee Monday in Washington. Houston's bid included a minimum guarantee of $650,000 in services.

"The six member committee will only make a recommendation to be acted on at the full National Republican Committee meeting in Washington," Fay said.

Panel Completing Powell Report

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the select House committee on Adam Clayton Powell meet today to dot "I's" and cross "T's" in their report recommending seating, censure and setbacks for the controversial Harlem congressman.

Although at least one member confided he would be a bit uneasy until all nine signatures are affixed to the committee's report, agreement was reached late Wednsday on the basic accord to be presented today to the House for action, probably next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Under the proposal, Powell, who was kept from membership Jan. 10 pending this investigation, would receive his seat along with a stiff censure, loss of seniority and a requirement he repay from his salary government funds he allegedly converted to his own use.

This amount has been estimated at about $35,000, including salary illegally ticketed for his estranged wife and personal plane trips charged to congressional credit cards. It would represent more than half of the $60,000 salary he is to draw over the two years of the 90th Congress.

Rep. Claude D. Pepper, D-Fla., the committee's chief exponent of expulsion rather than seating with punishment for Powell, said Wednesday he planned to sign the committee's report, and Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., confirmed the recommendation would be unanimous with no dissenting views.

"As the report will be written I am going to sign it but that depends on how it is written," Pepper told reporters as he left the session in mid-afternoon to fly to Florida to fulfill a speaking engagement.

Pepper said the report would contain a provision spelling out his differences with the rest of the committee.

Committee members plan to unveil their detailed recommendations at a news conference later today. The report must be filed with the House clerk today under terms of the resolution voted by the House 364 to 64 on Jan. 10.

If confirmed by the House, Powell would be left with his seat but little else that he had accumulated in more than 22 years as a congressman. Democrats on Jan. 9 ousted him as chairman of the Committee on Education and Labor, and he is expected to be placed last in seniority among the 19 Democrats serving on the committee.

Best evidence of a cultivated plant's origin is finding the place where ancestral forms still grow wild. The riddle of the watermelon's origin was solved when explorer David Livingstone discovered wild watermelons growning profusely in central Africa, the National Geographic says.

Snyderite Is Flying As 'Night Owl'

Airmen Second Class Bobby R. Armstrong, son of Mrs. Mary L. Armstrong of 3208 Avenue G, is flying "Night Owl" missions in Southeast Asia.

Airman Armstrong, a C - 130 Hercules aircraft loadmaster, flys arduous eight - hour flare drop missions to light the way for U. S. jet fighters. After they spot the Viet Cong (VC), their C - 130s become flying operations centers — they call in the fighters and drop magnesium flares to reveal the enemy activity or targets.

The Night Owl crews often come under enemy ground fire as they drop as many as 200 flares in a single night.

Since beginning operations in Southeast Asis, the airman's unit has flown more than 1,300 such missions.

Airman Armstrong attended Snyder High School.

His father is Julian W. Armstrong.

Air Of Confidence Replaces Panama's Recent Uneasiness

By PAUL FINCH

PANAMA (AP) — Paralyzed after the bloody anti-American riots of 1964, Panama's economy has now more than recuperated; it's breaking records.

An air of confidence has gradually replaced uneasiness among businessmen, public officials and foreign investors.

"An economic boom was inevitable," says one diplomat. "All Panama needed was some political peace and quiet for a while."

Tourists and foreign businessmen pump the slot machines in the major hotels, now reporting 80 per cent average occupancy and at least modest profits. The shops of Avenida Central report record sales of such low-duty items as yard goods, radios, cameras and perfumes, the staples of their trade.

Construction permits approved last year rose by 50 per cent to a high of 22 million, much of it financed by returning capital frightened away by the threat of further violence three years ago.

American, Spanish and Colombian banks are opening new branches. An oil refinery is expanding. Factories are planned for textile, iron and steel, and cement. Agriculture has improved although most food is still imported.

An international magazine company Time-Life, plans to publish Latin-American editions here. Panama will also be the site of an earth station in the communications satellite network.

In the past two years the gross national product increased by $100 million to a high of $670 million — divided unevenly among the population of 1.3 million.

President Marco A. Robles, a tough administrator elected in 1964, has announced a budget surplus for the second straight year because of income tax enforcement. Collections jumped 16 per cent last year to a high of 100 million.

Helped by $23 million in Alliance for Progress grants and loans in the past year, the Robles administration has launched programs against poverty and unemployment.

The Guardia Nacional, once known only for overthrowing governments and catching Communists has launched a civic action program of rural medical care and road and bridge building which has won admiration from sponsors in the U.S. military.
