A tub and a stick and a string makes an unusual and acceptable sound for a program of country music, such as that given by this group from Westview Boys Home. Mrs. Jack Sikes, wife of the superintendent,

Charley Hill, Farmer-Rancher, Dies Wednesday

Charley Hill, 71, prominent farmer and rancher, died of a heart attack shortly after noon Wednesday, April 23, at his farm in the Needwood community, 20 miles northeast of Wellington. The family home is 1904 East Avenue.

He and a brother, Bill Hill, were working cattle, and he had returned from a trip into Wellington shortly before he was stricken.

That part of the county was his home for 58 years, and for more than 40 years he lived on the farm where he was working when he passed away.

He was a man to whom his neighbors always turned for leadership, whether it was for help, or whether it was to share pleasure and enjoyment. His capacity for neighborliness with those who made their homes in that section was traditional, along with his enduring loyalty to his friends.

A special concern of his was the school in which his wife taught for many years, first in their own community and later in Samnorwood. Mr. Hill had no children, but he was a great favorite, not only to a large family of nieces and nephews, but to many other young people of the area.

Born in DeKalb County, Mo., March 5, 1898, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hill. The family moved to Collingsworth County 58 years ago and established a ranch on Elm Creek.

He and Miss Myrtle Keese were married on June 15, 1924.

Funeral services for Mr. Hill were conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Church of Christ, with Minister Gaylord Cook officiating. Burial was in Memorial Gardens under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home. Pallbearers were nephews and included Ted Brock of Portales, N.M., Jim Brock of Am.

Gun Club Shoot Planned Sunday

The Wellington Gun Club will hold a practice shoot Sunday, May 4, beginning at 1 p.m. on the Jerry Nix farm a mile and a half north of Wellington.

Pat McAllister, a club officer, pointed out that this is open to the general public and anyone interested is urged to attend.

The gun club has added its 25th member, Fred Hawley, who operates Dixie Maid.

Wellington Gun Club also received national recognition recently, through a mention in the March issue of Trap and Field Magazine.

A former Wellington man, John Boverie of Amarillo, was responsible, McAllister said. A trap shooter of note, he was attending the Sahara Open Trap Shoot in Las Vegas, Nev., and told a staff member of the magazine about the newly formed Wellington Club.

Boverie frequently shoots with the club when he comes here to visit his mother, Mrs. A. C. Boverie.

Sam Thomas Dies Friday of Long Illness

Sam E. Thomas, 63, died in Thomas Nursing Home at 12:20 a.m. Friday, April 25, after being in ill health for about four years.

He had lived here 21 years, and for just a few months less than 20 years, he was employed by Henard Brothers. Failing health had forced him to retire. He had suffered a heart attack four years ago.

Mr. Thomas was born March 9, 1906 in Denton County, the son of Robert H. and Mattie Alice Thomas. While he was still a small boy, the family moved to Oklahoma, settling in the County Line area. A few years later they moved to Dodson, where he attended school and grew up.

He was married there to Miss Juanita Spain on Oct. 14, 1931.

For almost the entire time they had lived here, Mr. Thomas and his family lived a few

Seven high school athletes, six boys and a girl, received special awards at the 1969 annual All-Sports banquet Tuesday evening, April 29, and recognition was given team members in three sports—football, basketball and track.

The banquet was hosted by the Skyrocket Boosters Club, and presentations were made by members of the coaching staff. The awards program highlighted the evening.

Only one athlete received more than one special award. Andy Lowe was chosen Best All Around Football Player—the boy who is a leader and who sets an example, as well as having a love for the game. A few minutes later he returned to receive the plaque as the Most Valuable Trackman, the athlete who scored most points in track meets.

Two other football awards were given. The Fighting Heart plaque to the boy who has shown the most courage and desire and who is most competitive went to Nicky Watts.

Chuck Wilbur was named the Best All Around Lineman, the man who on offense and on defense gives his best effort to the game.

One girl is recognized each year, as Miss Basketball, and this year she was Sharon Cummings.

Glen Barber was Mr. Basketball. These selections were based on attitude both on and off the court, spirit, leadership, and a desire to excel.

The Best Student Athlete—the athlete with the highest scholastic average who is also a good citizen—was Jerry Woodridge.

Hail Lashes Diagonally Across County on Friday Evening

Collingsworth County had its first severe hail Friday evening, April 25, in two storms that came a short time apart. Between them, the hail started in the southwest corner of the county, traveled northeast, became heavy in the Salt Fork community and continued to gather intensity in the Lutie and Aberdeen areas, then tapered off in the ranchland along Elm Creek.

The hail around Wellington and to the southwest began about 6:30 p.m. and continued intermittently about 45 minutes. Most of the stones were small, and only a few instances of damage were reported.

But a heavier storm started at 7:45 p.m. around the Elmer Feemster farm at Salt Fork and hail fell continuously until 8:40.

State Highway Department snow plows were called out at 10:30 p.m. to clear Highway 83 south of Lutie, where hail had drifted and washed to depths of up to three feet in one place and left an icy glaze on the road. Numerous complaints came in from motorists, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

The roads were also cleared in an area about two miles east of Lutie, where some of the heaviest hail fell.

Stones as large as golf balls were reported the length of the storm.

Heavy rain accompanied the hail, measuring several inches in many areas, but rain gauges were shattered and an accurate measure could not be had.

Some wheat left for harvest was destroyed or heavily damaged north of Salt Fork, but much of the acreage around Lutie and to the east was so badly eaten by greenbugs earlier in the spring that it was being grazed.

Highway Patrolman Doug

Wright said the strip of hail in the Lutie area was about a mile and a half wide, and in addition to the three-foot drift of hail, many others a foot to 18 inches could be seen.

Sheriff Rainey added that stones were four to five inches deep for considerable distances along Highway 83, making it difficult for motorists to stay on the pavement.

Young fruit in this area was stripped off the trees, along with leaves and small branches.

J. L. Alexander, who lives west of Lutie, reported the hail fell for 40 minutes without let-up. He also reported loss of wheat and damage to his house.

Billy Waters, east of Lutie, said he picked up stones as large as oranges.

Gary Tarver, who lives at the head of Wolf Creek at Aberdeen reported extensive damage, with golf ball size hail. The storm lasted about 45 minutes, he said, but there was no high wind. Hail lay approximately three inches deep over the ground, and the temperature was at a point that caused this to steam for a considerable length of time.

He said he had the best prospects for a fruit crop in a long time with the trees loaded and most of this was destroyed. Mr. Tarver also reported damage to the roof of his house, but he got all vehicles and machinery under shed just before the hail struck.

Sam Carter, who lives northwest of Tarver, reported little or no damage.

The storm followed approximately the same route as a damaging hail last year, except it extended farther to the northeast, Mr. Tarver noted.

Austin Deger, who lives three miles east of Lutie, was irrigating hay and water from a flooding creek pulled the irrigation motor off the stand and broke the gas connection. Don Conger of Shamrock, who services wells using Rimrock gas, was called out to cut off the gas.

Bill Hankins, who is northeast of Aberdeen, reported a considerable amount of hail, while Sheriff Rainey, whose farm is about three miles south said hail was not too bad but still damaging. He, too, was grazing his wheat.

Horace Small, who lives three miles southwest of Samnorwood, said hail covered the ground to a depth of about three inches. He also reported damage to buildings.

Elmer Feemster, who lives in the area where the hail started, reported three inches of rain and five inches of hail.

It was an unbelievable sight, Mrs. Feemster said, looking like heavy snow had fallen. Lister furrows were covered, and trees were stripped bare. Some stones as large as golf balls were found. An old model pickup was damaged and its bed was filled with stones.

A short distance away, however, Woodrow Wilson reported no damage.

West of Wellington, J. W. Maxwell reported damage to the roof of his house and to a Volkswagen.

Damage was reported to a pickup at the P. J. White farm.

Hail was also reported in the southwest part of the county about the time Wellington received its hail. Mrs. John Alf Thomas and Mrs. Charley Darter returning from Memphis, reported a broken windshield on the Thomas station wagon and damage to the body.

Hail also was reported around the Memphis Country Club and Paul Montgomery Ranch.

About two inches of rain but no hail was reported at Quail. Rudie Tate, who lives in the

NYC Work Program Goes in Operation

A youth work program under the auspices of the Neighborhood Youth Corps, will be in operation again this summer, and applications for work are now being accepted, County Judge Zook Thomas has announced.

Boys and girls qualified to participate in this program must be in high school and between 16 and 21 years of age, he continued. The work will be through the summer months, beginning June 2, and each enrollee will be allowed 10 weeks of work with an average of 26 hours per week.

"There are certain rules and regulations to be followed in determining who will qualify under this work program. These will be explained when the application is made," Judge Thomas said.

Norwood Nine Wins Over Mobeetie, Hedley

Samnorwood Eagles opened their baseball season with a non-conference victory over Mobeetie 32 to 4 Tuesday, April 22.

They followed this with their second victory, 6 to 4, over Hedley, in a conference game Monday, April 28.

Glen Bruton was the winning pitcher for both games, which were played away from home.

Six home runs sparked the game with Mobeetie, three of them by Ronald Carter, while George Ed Bruton, Larry Waters and Johnny Breeding got one each, Coach Kenneth Martindale said.

Almost everyone got at least one base hit and most of the players two or three. Norwood scored in every inning.

Mobeetie scored in the bottom of the first, then on a bad hop they scored two in the bottom of the third and again in the fourth on a Norwood error. Bruton faced 25 men and struck out 10.

In the Hedley game, the Eagles scored one run in the top of the first, another in the second, then three in the third. The last Norwood run came in the fifth.

Hedley did not score until the fourth inning when the made three runs, then came in with another in the fifth.

In the bottom of the seventh inning, Hedley had the bases loaded with one out when Carter, catching for the Eagles, threw a man out at third. The next man up was walked, again loading the bases with two out. The third out ended the game.

High school games go seven innings unless one team is ahead by 10 or more points at the end of the fifth, when it stops there.

Glen Bruton has a 2-0 record as pitcher, and the district record for the Eagles is 1-1. Three teams are playing in District 4-B this spring—Quail, Norwood and Hedley.

FROM JOHNSONGRASS

COLLEGE STATION. — "If you can't fight it—join it." This is a good rule to follow if Johnsongrass invades your hay pasture, according to one Extension agronomist with Texas A&M University. Costs of herbicides to control the "weed" are much more than fertilizer costs, Dr. J. Neal Pratt points out.

"Nutrient value of Johnsongrass is comparable to many of the cultivated grasses grown for forage or hay and livestock can utilize it as well," he continued.

If the Johnsongrass is to be baled it should be cut in the "boot" stage, or right before seed heads form. An application of fertilizer according to soil tests will help it grow rapidly and maintain nutrients.

Chemicals can be used to control other undesirable plants in the hay field. Although other herbicides have been registered for use in pastures, 2, 4-D is still Texas' favorite for control of broadleaf weeds. About a pound of the chemical in 15 to 20 gallons of water per acre will give effective weed control and not harm the Johnsongrass.

A reapplication of fertilizer following each cutting, or about every six weeks when grazing, will make for high quality feed.

It is important to keep in mind, the agronomist said, to keep Johnsongrass under control and not allow it to enter cultivated row crops.

Signal Every Lane Change in Advance

Motorists usually signal their intention to turn. But many forget they should also signal their intentions to change lanes. Every turn should be advertised in advance, says the National Safety Council. And when changing lanes, first make sure no car is cruising along in your blind spot.

Department of Justice defends the Government in all suits brought against it.

Wildlife Trophy

WICHITA FALLS. — Game Management Officer Charles Boynton of Vernon, a 28-year veteran with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, was awarded a wildlife conservation trophy here recently.

The trophy was presented at the Northwest Texas Field and Stream Association's Annual Wild Game Feed and Banquet in Clark Student Center at Midwestern University here. Boynton was chosen by the awards committee "because he has done the most in the field of conservation."

Specifically, the committee cited Boynton's aid to many youngsters in his firearm safety instructions, helping students find scholarships to further their education, and assistance in quail stocking and conservation, as well as soil conservation projects.

Boynton joined the department in 1941 as a game warden. He has served in a law enforcement capacity since, except for a hitch in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Prior to Vernon, he had served as game warden in Quanah.

Wrought Iron Dining Furniture Moves Inside

COLLEGE STATION.—Dining furniture of wrought iron has moved into the house. Bonny Lay, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist, suggests it be used in the dinette and in the semi-formal dining room.

Designs in expanded metal are most popular currently for outdoor use, says the Texas A&M specialist. Open work table tops, chair seats and backs let the breezes fan through.

Wrought iron is easy to care for, notes Miss Lay. An occasional washing with warm water and a mild detergent and a rinsing with clear water will keep it clean. An annual coat of automotive wax helps preserve the color of the finish.

Touch-up paint should be used on chipped, scraped spots to close breaks against rust.

Patricia Thomas, a freshman in Texas Woman's University, Denton, danced one of the leading roles in the three-day presentation of "The Trojan Woman: Tragic Aftermath of War."

This dance-drama, created and choreographed by Donna Rizzo, was given by the College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation on April 17 through 19.

Miss Thomas was presented as Andromache, a Trojan princess, and appeared by invitation of Mrs. Rizzo. She was the only member of the cast not enrolled as a dance student.

The story is based on Euripides' "The Trojan Woman," which tells the story of the Trojan War, which leaves all the men of Troy dead, and their women's eternal sorrow.

This was one of three plays which made up the "Evening of Contemporary Theatre." The other two were presented by the Department of Speech.

Mrs. Rizzo selected this powerful anti-war drama as a basis for her work, "The Trojan Women: Tragic Aftermath of War" which was presented in partial fulfillment of her Master's Degree.

Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trusten Thomas, and was graduated from Wellington High School in 1968. She is a student in the School of Nursing of Texas Woman's University and at the end of this year she will continue her training at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, returning to the TWU campus in her senior year to complete the requirements for her degree.

Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Ed White attended the presentation of "The Trojan Women."

Retirement is having a hobby, for one thing, says Minnie Bell, Extension specialist for aging.

Choose one that you like, avoid one that will "play out" soon. Select something which requires some knowledge or skill. Reading and writing are almost inexhaustible hobbies.

Texas Tourists Record-Breaker

AUSTIN.—The Texas Highway Department's authoritative survey of the record-breaking Texas visitor industry for 1968 was released recently.

The report showed out-of-state visitors arriving by automobile outnumbered Texans by half during the year. The 16.6 million automobile visitors poured $1 billion into the state's economy.

The survey is prepared annually by the Highway Department, based on information gathered from questionnaires completed by visitors who were assisted by the Department's Tourist Information Centers.

In addition, regularly scheduled visual traffic counts are conducted by Highway Department personnel.

A highlight of the survey is the 9.1% increase in out-of-state visitors by automobile and a 25.8% increase in spending while in Texas.

The survey also includes estimates gathered by the Texas Tourist Council, representing the private sector of the travel industry in Texas. The Council estimated that another 5.9 million visitors arrived by commercial carriers — planes, buses or trains — spending an additional $467.5 million in the state.

State Library Network Brings Free Service to Citizens

The Texas State Library offers a service to all Texas citizens not only its own resources, but those of all others participating in the Texas State Library Network.

This allows each public library serving a community of 25,000 or less to telephone a designated, larger public library when this service is needed. If the larger library cannot supply the material, it will telephone the Major Resource Center Library serving the area, and if need be, the latter will in turn refer the request by teletype to the Texas State Library.

The collection of the State Library will be searched; when necessary the request will then be submitted in turn to each of the other nine Major Resource Center Libraries. If the material is not located in any of these libraries, the Reference Division of the Texas State Library will make every attempt to get the material elsewhere.

The ten Major Research Center Libraries connected by the Texas State Library are: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, and San Antonio.

The cost of this service will be paid for by funds made available under Title III of the Federal Library Services and Construction Act (P.L. 90-132), administered by the Texas State Library, Field Services Division.

Men in Service

Pfc. Epifanco Castillo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Epifanco Castillo of Dodson, is serving with a weapons platoon of the second battalion, 1st Marines in Vietnam.

This is a combat unit and he was in Operation Oklahoma Hill north of Da Nang.

Friends here have always called the young soldier Junior and he was employed by Cudd Brothers Trucking for two and a half years before he enlisted in the Marines last fall. He recently wrote Mrs. Wayne Cudd asking for a picture of the trucks and The Wellington Leader.

Narrow rows can boost your sorghum yields significantly while adding very little to your production costs. According to tests conducted by DeKalb AgResearch, Inc., 20 inch rows have increased yields by as much as 30% over 40 inch rows. As seen in this picture, the narrow rows, on the left, tend to shade out weeds and retain moisture. These are two factors which encourage the higher yields. A switch to narrow rows can usually be done with a very modest investment in equipment.

Large Supplies of Major Farm Products Due in 1969

COLLEGE STATION—Larger supplies for some major farm products, a strong but somewhat slower domestic demand expansion with the volume of exports expected to continue large, and little change expected in average farm product prices from 1968 levels is how John G. McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University sums up the economic outlook for agriculture in 1969.

Realized gross farm income may reach a record high in 1969, said McHaney. This is due to the prospect of an increased volume of marketings and a small gain in direct government payments.

Little change is expected in the average of prices received by farmers. However, another large advance in production expenses appears likely in the year ahead. The increase may exceed the gain expected in realized gross farm income. As a result, realized net farm income may fall a little short of the $14.9 billion of 1968.

McHaney noted the long-term downturn in the number of farms is continuing. With fewer farms, income per farm in 1969 may change little from 1968 when average net income realized per farm amounted to about $4,863.

The per capita disposable income of the farm population from all sources in 1969 may be up slightly from the $2,168 estimated for 1968. Another gain is likely in the income of farm people from non-farm sources.

McHaney also pointed out the average value of farmland in the United States rose about 6% in the year ending in Nov. 1968. Land values are expected to advance further in 1969, but the rise is expected to be slower than last year.

Other Editors Say . . .

Food Price Paradox

Recurrent news of food price increases would naturally lead one to think that the cost of supplying the family table is a lot higher than it used to be. In absolute terms this is true. But proportionately Americans spend less on food than they did years ago—and far less than in many other nations.

This emerges from figures compiled for the United Nations. As of 1965, the latest year for which comparable statistics are available, U. S. families spent 19.5 per cent of their income for food. The nearest to that figure was Canada, with 20.7 per cent. Others ranged up to a high of 60.7 per cent in Ghana.

Australia also does pretty well. Its families spent 22.4 per cent of their income on food. The ratio is fairly good throughout Western Europe, though it does range from a low of 21.9 per cent in Denmark to 40.1 per cent in Greece. The proportion of income spent on food is higher than for most of Western Europe in Eastern Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

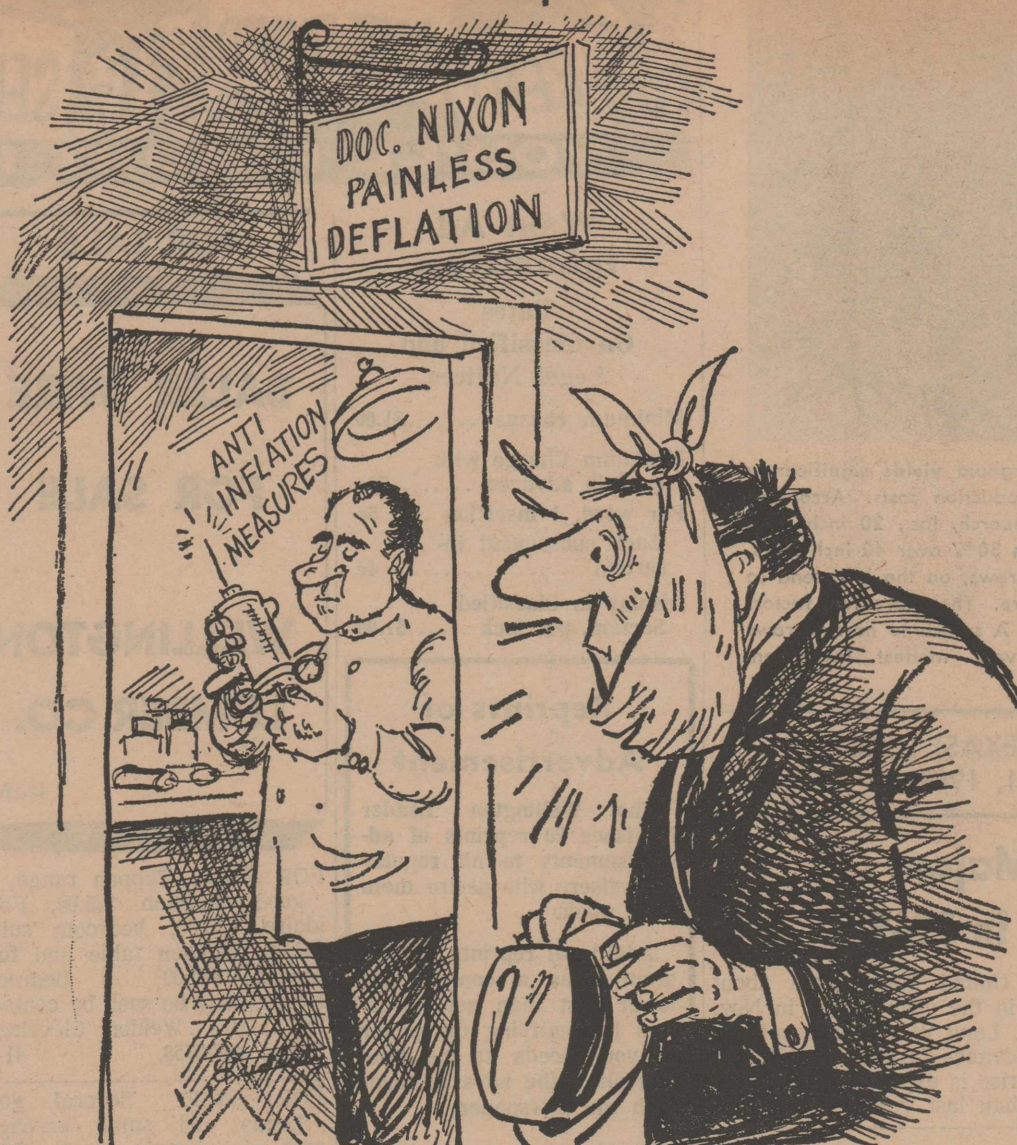

Out preeminence in this regard seems to reflect the greater efficiency of our economic system. The point is underscored by the fact that, whereas families in the United States spent 22.6 per cent of their income for food in 1955, by now the figure has dropped sharply to an estimated 18.5 per cent.

It's a pleasant paradox. Though food prices keep going up, we spend proportionately less and less on food. —Warrensburg (Mo.) Daily Star-Journal

Gulp!

AUSTIN.—After a slow Monday-Wednesday, the legislators wound up last week in a blaze of speed, turning out more than 100 bills on climactic Thursday.

Senate passage of a much-amended $1.25 an hour minimum wage bill, with a push from Lt. Gov. Barnes, highlighted the action. Bill survives Senate filibusters. Now it goes to the House where Speaker Gus Mutscher reports its fate will be decided in a floor battle.

Also triumphant over filibusters was the bill to set up Texas State Technical Institute under a separate governing board with authority to operate facilities in Waco, Harlingen and Amarillo areas. It now is known as James Connally Technical Institute and is under the Texas A&M University System. Only those courses which area junior colleges can't or won't offer could be taught in this job preparation field. Bill goes to Gov. Preston Smith for signature.

House earlier voted to split the Parks and Wildlife Department into separate agencies regulating parks and game and fish. Senate apparently is cool to the "divorce" plan.

House also voted to create University of Texas of Permian Basin near the present Odessa College campus and agreed the name of the Liquor Control Board should be changed to the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

Both houses agreed on bills to provide for misdemeanor action against corporations charged with air and water pollution.

A Senate-passed bill would permit admission of oral confessions as evidence in criminal trials.

Water Plan Adopted

Nine billion dollar Texas Water Plan has been formally adopted by Texas Water Development Board, and implementing legislation is moving fast.

Water Development Board accepted the plan, which includes a proposal to import some 12 to 13 million acre feet of surface water annually from the lower Mississippi River to meet state requirements to the year 2020.

Water Rights Commission set the stage by entering an official finding that the plan "gives adequate consideration to protection of existing water rights and takes into account modes and procedures for equitable adjustment of water rights to be affected."

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where there is some fear expressed by highly prominent commentators that Sen. Edward Kennedy is beginning his race for President in 1972 too early and audaciously.

Right now Eddie is acknowledged by all to be a top contender for the presidential job, but the question is raised as to whether he may find, like less charismatic mortals usually do, that public adulation slumps with over-exposure to its subject.

But the liberal pundits hadn't thought much about the disenchanting effects of over-exposure until Edw.'s lady, Joan, showed up at a formal White House party in a miniskirt.

has set May 9 for a public hearing on a new proposal for private-club rules and regulations, drawn up after a previous hearing.

New draft includes major changes to allow the use of computers in record-keeping; more detailed regulations on record-keeping for tax collection purposes; definitions of "guest", "member" and "member's family"; a definition of food service required at clubs and more detailed rules on the locker system.

LCB also agreed to ask the Legislature for an additional $334,523 in appropriations—over what the Senate-passed money bill would give the LCB.

That extra money is needed, Board says, because of passage of a bill revising the Liquor Control Act, recent increases in licenses and permits and "the further fact that there are now three ports of entry on the Mexico border which are presently not manned with . . . tax collectors."

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court has held that Orange-Bridge City retired machinists cannot collect unemployment compensation unless they actively seek work.

High Court also found an Amarillo couple entitled to damages from Ford Motor Company as a result of an accident caused when a truck with faulty brakes hit their car.

Court of Criminal Appeals sustained a new law directing motorcycle riders and passengers to wear prescribed helmets.

Same court upheld death sentence for a Houston man charged with beating a baby to death.

Screwworm Cases Few

Texas had only eight cases of screwworms confirmed in March, which—with the nine cases found in February—marks the end of the serious screwworm outbreaks last summer and fall.

Spring is about here, however, and the Texas Animal Health Commission foresees "more problems." Rain and warm weather hurt the control program.

A joint report of the Commission and the Animal Health Division of the US Department of Agriculture says that 200-272,000 sterile flies were dropped in Texas during March to fight the expected increase.

Report also shows that 184 Texas counties now are modified certified brucellosis counties, 30 other counties are being tested and 32 others are under modified certified testing.

Vista Program Signed

Gov. Smith announced signing of a VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) project to benefit aged in a 16-county Central Texas area.

Counties which have highest percentage over-65 population in the state include Coleman, Callahan, Concho, McCulloch, Runnels, Brown, Blanco, San Saba, Mason, Mills, Llano, Hamilton, Eastland, Erath, Comanche and Bosque. Community Council of Blanco and Comal counties and Central Texas Opportunities, Inc., will serve as delegate sponsors, and Hill County Action Association as prime sponsor or grantee. Twenty VISTA volunteers will assist in the area.

Teacher-Shortage Grants

US Office of Education has awarded the Texas Education Agency six grants totaling more than $600,000 to attract and qualify teachers to meet the critical teacher shortage.

A TEA spokesman said the projects represent a cooperative effort among six regional education service centers—at Amarillo, Austin, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Houston and Richardson—with local education agencies and colleges and universities.

Short Snorts

State Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney said that the plight of Texas' dependent children will worsen steadily unless a Constitutional Amendment on welfare programs is approved in a special election Aug. 5.

U.S. Supreme Court knocked out state residency requirements for welfare assistance, but decision will not have a "tremendous effect" on Texas finances, welfare authorities report.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler banned mini-skirts and long sideburns for General Land Office employees.

Gov. Smith has signed into law the bill to set up a procedure for handling development of the state's sulphur royalty interests in the West Texas sulphur rush, much as the state's oil interests are handled.

Vernon M. Arrell is new director of Program on Alcoholism for Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Jack Revell, chief of Department of Public Safety Criminal Law Enforcement Division, will serve on National Organized Crime Advisory Committee of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Love B. Johnson of Dallas is director of Negro Voter Division of Republican Party of Texas and Harry D. Pittman of College Station is director of Office of Field Operations and Candidate Support.

John E. Chapoton, a Houston GOP, will serve as staff attorney in Office of Tax Legislative Council, U. S. Department of the Treasury.

Lack of Experience May Cause Accidents

Teen drivers need not be poor drivers, says the National Safety Council. It is youth's lack of experience that leads to errors in judgment. Driver education courses aid in developing judgment and a sense of responsibility necessary to safe driving. Studies indicate that teens who have had formal driver education have fewer traffic accidents and violations than others.

NEW SAFETY FEATURES

Cutaway cars from the U. S. Department of Transportation's National Safety Bureau feature 1969 motor vehicle safety standards areas. This exhibit is one of many

Baseball Game is Rescheduled

The first home baseball game this season has been re-scheduled for Sunday, May 4, Earl Shamblee, coach, announced.

The game between Shamblee's team and Childress Jaycees was planned for Sunday, April 27.

The new game time will be 3:30 p.m. and the game will be played at Marian Airpark Diamond.

Open House Brings 157 Library Visitors

In observance of National Library Week, an open house was held in the Collingsworth County Library Wednesday, April 23. One hundred and fifty-seven library friends and two groups of children registered during the day.

Co-sponsoring the tea were the Library, with Mrs. R. H. Isbell, librarian, in charge, and the City Federation of Women's Clubs, headed by Mrs. Sam Adams. Members served coffee and punch during the day.

The children's groups included the Wellington second grade and first and second grades from Quail.

During this time, Mrs. Isbell explained that many area residents and former residents are now giving books as memorials to family members or friends who have died. A number have come in only recently.

These include "Ranch on the Ruidoso" by Wilbur Coe, given by Mrs. Clement Hendricks of Flying H, N.M., in memory of her sister, Miss Katherine Boverie, the Collingsworth County librarian for many years. The Coe and Hendricks ranches adjoin, and many of the incidents of the book are familiar to Mrs. Hendricks.

The Excelsior Club has given the unabridged Readers Guide in memory of Miss Sara Jones, who was the club president.

"Shadow of My Brother" by Davis Grubbs, and "Indian Summer" by John Knowles were given in memory of Mrs. Hattie Scott by Mrs. B. B. Martin.

In memory of Karen Jane

Henegar, the Odaka Camp Fire Girls have given "These Happy Golden Years" and "Little House in the Big Woods" by Laura Ingalls Wilder, and Mr. Rhone, formerly of Wellington, Rome, formerly of Wellington, have given "The Swiss Family Robinson" by Johann Wyss, "Gulliver's Travels" by Jonathan Swift, "The Little Prince" and "Adventures of a Brownie" by Dinah Maria Mulock Craik.

Seven new books have been purchased for the library, said Mrs. Isbell, and include "Black Gold" by Marguerite Henry, "All of a Kind Family" by Sidney Taylor, "Johnny Texas" by Carol Hoff, "Henry and Ribsey" by Beverly Cleary, "Thorpe" by Mary Dutton and "Testimony of Two Men" by Taylor Caldwell.

Diabetes Lay Group to Meet

The Amarillo Area Diabetes Lay Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 4, in the Social Hall of the Polk Street Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m.

Officers for 1969-70 will be installed as follows: president, Rev. Jack Riley; first vice president, Mrs. John Heetland; second vice president, Mrs. Marjorie Johnson; secretary, Mrs. J. W. Gowens; treasurer, B. H. Rigler. Installing officers will be Roy Pendergraft, formerly of Hollis, and Marvin Fritts, formerly of Samnwood.

The program will consist of a panel, "Diabetes: A Family Affair", moderated by the president, Rev. Riley. Members of the panel will be adult and juvenile diabetics, and parents of juvenile diabetics, and will cover various ways in which family life is affected and how families may work together in controlling diabetes.

Young people interested in Camp Sweeney, a camp for diabetic children between the ages of 6 and 18 are urged to write for a brochure and information. Address Jim Campbell, Camp Sweeney, Gainesville, Texas. Sessions begin early in June—three sessions of three weeks each.

The May meeting will make the end of regular programs until September. A family picnic is planned for a summer activity. A new supply of instructions on "Canning and Freezing without Sugar" has been obtained from the Potter County Home Demonstration office and are available at the meeting or by writing to "Amarillo Area Diabetes Lay Society," 3400 Jackson St., Amarillo, Texas 79109.

Open House Set at New Boy Scout Camp

The Adobe Walls Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold open house for the general public at its new Boy Scout Camp on Saturday, May 3. Boy Scout troops from the Comanche District of the Council will provide displays of Scoutcraft and camping skills, for those who visit the open house. The camp will also be open Sunday afternoon, May 4, but there will be no displays on Sunday.

Four Collingsworth County troops will participate in this. They are Troop 31, Wellington, knot tying and lashing; Troop 32, Wellington, first aid and safety precautions; Troop 39, Samnorwood, compass lore; and Troop 30, Dodson, basic tenderfoot requirements.

Other troops participating will be Troop 33, Clarendon; Troop 35, Memphis; Troop 36, Hedley; Troop 72, Wheeler; and Troop 76, Shamrock.

Ribbons will be awarded to the boys on the basis of participation as well as quality of performance.

In its second year of operation, the 480-acre camp has undergone an intensive building program since the beginning of development in January, 1968, with many individuals, firms, and service clubs from the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles contributing material, labor and money to build what has been recognized as an outstanding Boy Scout Camp.

The Adobe Walls Council includes a 15-county area in the eastern half of the Texas panhandle and all of the Oklahoma panhandle, with headquarters at Pampa.

The camp is located between Mobeetie and Wheeler, three and one-half miles north of State 152. A state highway sign indicates the turn-off from Highway 152.

The Open House is only part of a full week end at the new Camp M. K. Brown of the Adobe Walls Reservation, which begins Friday, May 2, and will continue through Sunday, May 4.

In charge of the arrangements are Robert Dwight of Samnorwood, Comanche District Commissioner, and Dave Agnew of Shamrock, Comanche District Scout Executive.

Fire Extinguisher For Car Safety

The wise motorist carries a fully-charged fire extinguisher in his car at all times. While your auto may never catch fire, there is always the possibility of needing one to aid another motorist.

The preferred extinguisher is the stored pressure dry chemical type, says the National Safety Council. This type can be used on any kind of fire and does not create toxic gases as do vaporizing liquid types. It should have at least 2½ lbs. capacity.

Two kinds of such extinguishers are available. One uses a throw-away refill cylinder. The other must be taken to an extinguisher service shop for recharging. Either is suitable.

The extinguisher should be reserved for emergency use only. If you intend to use an extinguisher for other purposes, such as putting out a camp fire, carry spares.

Referendum Set to Determine Cotton Transfers

A referendum will be conducted to determine whether transfers of cotton allotment to other counties or lease on the 1970 crop will be permitted. Voting by mail will be during the period of May 5 through May 9, 1969. Ballots will be mailed to all known eligible cotton producers on Friday, May 2, and the voted ballots must be returned to the ASCS office not later than May 9. Millard Brown, ASCS manager, announced.

The County ASCS Committee will canvass the ballots on Wednesday, May 14, beginning at 8 a.m. and will be open to the public.

This referendum, as for the past few years, is for the purpose of determining whether Collingsworth County farmers want to permit cotton allotments to be transferred out of the county by sale or lease.

Wives of eligible producers may also vote. Since these referendums are held by mail and no postage is required to return the ballots, there should be no reason why every eligible person should not cast his or her vote.

CHECK-WRITING TIPS

On writing a check, place the numeral amount close to the dollar sign. In other words, do not leave a space between the dollar sign and the numerals.

Let's say that you are issuing a check for $15.27. In writing out the fifteen, start it far to the left. There should be no space between the left edge of the check and the FIFTEEN.

When you write the "and", put it on a slant. Print it in capitals. Keep the written figures close together.

Maintain your savings account book in a safe place. Print the account number on the outside of the holder for easy reference.

Record your savings account number, checking account number and credit card numbers in a special notebook.

Wheat, Barley Reporting

Grazing Extended on ASC Diverted Acres

The Collingsworth County ASC Committee has announced that the date for grazing diverted acres has been extended to Wednesday, May 14.

This is one of two deadline dates set in mid-May, according to Millard Brown, ASC office manager. The other concerns the wheat and barley reporting date.

Farmers may not begin grazing diverted acres in the fall until Oct. 15, since the present law requires a 5-months non-grazing period.

Earlier producers were informed the non-grazing period would be April 30 to Oct. 1.

The change was made after the State ASC Committee consulted with county ASC committees in areas where grazing small grain crops is common.

The wheat and barley reporting date for Collingsworth County has also been changed to May 15. Therefore, May 15 will be the final date to report wheat and barley acreages to the ASCS county office.

Wheat acreage in excess of the permitted acreage, but which will not be used as diverted must be destroyed by May 15. However, if this wheat is grazed down to the extent that it cannot possibly produce a crop, pasturing of the remaining residue may be continued after the disposition date.

There are no program restrictions concerning grazing of wheat within your permitted acreage that you have chosen to graze out instead of harvesting. This acreage may be grazed as long as you wish.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (HJR9)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section 49-d to read as follows:

"Section 49-d-1. Guard Goes to Summer Camp June 21-July 6

Wellington National Guard platoons will be in summer camp from June 21 to July 6, Sgt. Robert Valliant announced this week.

Two week end drill periods remain before that time, he reminded.

The unit will fire the M14 rifle for qualification at the Amarillo National Guard Rifle Range Saturday and Sunday, May 3 and 4. The platoons were armed with these rifles for the first time only recently.

In order to prepare clothing and equipment for the summer camp, the June drill has been rescheduled for Saturday and Sunday, June 14 and 15, Platoon Sergeant Valliant said.

8 Youths Take History Test

Eight Wellington High School youths participated in the annual history tests sponsored recently by the West Texas State Alumni through the history department of the college.

Approximately 350 boys and girls from throughout the Panhandle competed, with schools of all sizes competing in one group.

Going from here were Gary Mike Gulley, Billy McAlister, James Wolf, Truett Holton, Charles Mauldin, Mike Davis, Kenneth Henry and Chuck Wilbur. Their sponsors were Mrs. Billy R. Long, their history instructor, and Mrs. Cicero Gulley.

Mrs. Pete Scott Home from Georgia

Mrs. Pete Scott has returned from Decatur, Ga., where she visited since Easter with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Aaron, Debra, Kim and Scotty.

The family moved to Decatur from Dallas Dec. 28. Mr. Aaron is in charge of the claims service for Gulf Insurance Co., in its Atlanta office. He joined the company about two years ago in Dallas.

His mother, Mrs. Ruth Aaron, who now lives in Canyon, visited them the week before Easter.

They toured many points of interest, Mrs. Scott said, and she also kept the children while Mr. and Mrs. Aaron attended the Masters Golf Tournament at Augusta.

With clean-up week only a few days ahead, the campaign of the Youth Council to sell posts and chains to hold the trash cans in the alleys deserves more support than it has received up to this time. If these are installed on each trash can our town will have taken a step forward that will do much to make it more attractive. If you are interested in securing one phone 447-2183 or 447-2363.

There is another item that deserves attention. Some people are careless in putting the lids on their trash barrels. A properly fitting lid on the trash barrels should be compulsory.

John Brown, the auto man, agrees with this column on daylight saving time. He says that June 1 to Labor Day would not be too irksome with the clock an hour earlier than the sun; but he has been having a hard time getting his shop open by eight o'clock. If enough John Browns and Jim Smiths would make their opinions known to their congressmen and state representatives they might get something done to change this measure. The TV people crammed down our throats. A bill was introduced in the Texas legislature this session; but it had little organized support.

Coincidence: Our son drives an old car in Austin with the Collingsworth number BMH-212 on the license plate. He was home last week and I went to have the car filled while he was getting his food and clothes arranged. When I drove up Carol Walden of Rolla was having his car serviced and the number was BMH-214 and before he left Charles Floyd stopped at a pump and his number was BMH-213 so lined up together were three BMH's and their numbers were 212, 213 and 214. It will be some time before that happens again.

The long range weather map from now until mid-May shows our entire area including all of eastern New Mexico, all of Oklahoma, Missouri and most Southern states in an area of above normal moisture. Our temperature will be near normal; but the forecast is for all of the northern part of the United States to be above normal in temperature.

Frank Anderson was one of those who went to Amarillo to see the performance of the famous Lipizzan horses. He says it was the most interesting horse show he has ever attended and goodness knows he has been to enough different kinds in his lifetime, from the ranch corral to the circus tent. The superb white horses that came from Austria were made known to the American public by the Walt Disney picture which showed them secreted away in the middle of the night and saved from the Nazi occupation immediately prior to World War II. These large animals are born black and all turn white by the time they are four years old. They were an all purpose horse, something like the red Morgan horse of the U.S. and were used in war, as carriage horses, riding horses, and show horses.

Moonlight: This is one of those rare years when there will be two full moons in May—the 1st and 31st. Some people consider the "light of the moon" to be the time of the new moon to the full moon and the "dark of the moon" is the waning moon from the full moon on down to the crescent. Actually, the moonlit nights are their brightest the week before and the week after the full moon. Anyway, get out tonight and take a look—it will do your spirit good.

Murray Dodson wants to know if they have been changing the methods and particularly the names of the equipment at the rodeo. He says that in the days when he was a participant the rider came out of the chute on a bronc; but that last week The Leader had a picture of Danny Gray on a bucking steer coming out of the "shoot".

Sardines Just Aren't Sardines

Sardines aren't really sardines at all, according to Extension home economists at Texas A&M University. The fish is an Atlantic herring, one of the most abundant and important food fish in the North Atlantic. Sardines will be plentiful during May.

County TSTA Names Officers Monday Night
