

Mrs. Elizabeth Douglas Observes Hundredth Birthday, Recalls Robert E. Lee, Indian Raids

Collingsworth County's oldest resident, Mrs. Elizabeth Douglas of Dodson, celebrated her one hundredth birthday Thursday, March 24, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rollings of Dodson.

Born when America was expanding into an unknown west, but when the country's most disastrous war was shaping up, and when the California Gold Rush was big news, Mrs. Douglas has lived through four major wars, depressions, and changes so radical they could have only been dreamed of when she was young.

Her hundredth birthday was a quiet one, for Mrs. Douglas' health is failing, and for nearly a year she has been confined to her bed. But some 35 children, grandchildren and friends came the preceding Sunday to honor her.

Another honor came too, a salute from the "Breakfast in Hollywood" radio program, and an orchid from the sponsors.

Altogether, Mrs. Douglas has 133 living descendants, including 4 children, 26 grandchildren, 69 great grandchildren, and 34 great great grandchildren.

Mrs. Douglas was born Elizabeth Morris on a farm near Winchester, Tennessee, March 24, 1849. Her family was among the early settlers of that state, for her parents were born there, too. Her grandmother, however, was from Ireland, and while Mrs. Rollings is not sure, she supposes that her mother's grandfather was from England.

She grew up in Tennessee and was just a girl when the Civil War came. She recalls many incidents concerning that war, among them, Robert E. Lee's soldiers marching along the road, and General Lee himself stopping to talk to her when he was passing her home. She still remembers the big white horse he was riding — "Traveler, on whom he is often shown in his later pictures."

"You tell your mother that you have been talking to General Lee," he observed as he rode off after his men.

Elizabeth Morris was married to John S. Douglas, a Confederate veteran, in 1869, and that same year they came to Texas and settled in Hood County, near Grandbury.

Mrs. Douglas recalls the many Indian raids while living in the sparsely settled region in those early days. She has often told of one incident at a time when her husband was away from home and she got word that Indians were in the vicinity. She called in a Negro woman to stay with her, and they sat up all night with loaded guns and their children, black and white, slept together on a pallet near by.

Mr. Douglas died in 1885, leaving her with seven children to rear, the youngest, Mrs. Rollins, only three years old. She moved to a farm in Parker County and remained there until 1904.

She maintained her own home for many years, but after Mr. and Mrs. Rollins moved to Dodson in 1911, she has considered that her home and has been there most of the time since, although she has made extended visits with her other children.

She quite often made long trips and as late as 1941 — when she was well past 90 years old, she visited in California and also visited relatives in Tennessee.

"In all, she has had a very active, useful and beautiful life," her daughter sums up.

Four of Mrs. Douglas' seven children are still living, A. A. Douglas at Riesel; S. A. Douglas of Malvern, Ark.; J. S. Douglas of Tulare, Calif., and Mrs. Rollings. In addition to her daughter, two granddaughters live at Dodson, Mrs. J. C. McClure and Mrs. Ruby Batts. The others are widely scattered.

Those who called to see her on Sunday and registered in the guest book were her son, J. S. Douglas of Tulare, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson of Godbey; Dr. and Mrs. K. M. Watkins and Bob and Ped of Albuquerque, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Malone and Snazzy of Vernon;

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Gouley, Jack Gouley Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Long and Carol of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coffee and Cathy of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyer of Wichita Falls; Eugene Wood of Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bird and Mrs. Rosa Barnes of Wichita Falls;

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClure and Maralie, Mrs. Ruby Batts, Mrs. R. L. Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Martin of Dodson, Mrs. B. T. Webb of Hollis, and Claude Savage of Wellington.

Community Sing Thursday Night

A community singing will be held at the Church of the Nazarene Thursday night, March 31, beginning at 7:30 p.m., W. S. Brewer, who is helping with the arrangements, has announced.

Choir directors and song leaders are given a special invitation to attend, and the general public is invited to be present also.

"It will be an evening of good, old-fashioned singing," Mr. Brewer declared.

County Gins 28,552 Bales

The census report released Monday, March 28, shows that Collingsworth County ginned 28,552 bales of cotton during the 1948 season.

This is a little more than 3,000 bales less than was ginned during the 1947 season, when the total reached 31,729 bales.

On the other hand, the crop for the season just closed, was considerably above what was expected, and even when cotton pulling began here, it was not thought that the total crop would run so high.

Reader Finds Buck Creek Philosopher Restful Reading

Wellington Leader

"When I read anything a delightfully witty as your Buck Creek Philosopher letters, I want to compliment them. You pique our curiosity by not letting us know who writes them — but the lighter vein of the writings is really restful when we are so accustomed to much disturbing news and writings."

War nerves have not become soothed on the steady diet the daily papers give us of wars, threats of more wars, evictions, murders, atomic destruction, government graft, political and individual scheming, as well as other disturbing news, so we feel that J. A. performs a service similar to the late Will Rogers, and — is just about as humorous.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. A. L. Nowlin

Red Cross Needs $250 If County Drive Quota Met

The Red Cross quota is still $250 short of the goal set for the county, but this can be reached if every community is worked and every person contacted — but only if this work is done, Miss Katherine Boverie, home service chairman declared Wednesday morning.

Contributions at that time totaled $1,595. The quota is $1,842.

"We need the money badly for the local work," Miss Boverie continued. "The local chapter is getting more and more calls for help, and we can give this assistance only if the local people support the drive."

"Not only that, but the National Red Cross needs your help. For instance, we have had a number of disastrous storms in the southwestern area during the last week. In all cases, the Red Cross is helping. It is on things like that that the money you contribute to Red Cross is spent."

No report has been received from the three largest communities outside of Wellington, Quail, Samnorwood and Dodson. Several smaller communities have not yet turned in their contributions, and several sections of Wellington remain to be worked.

Voters to Elect Mayor, Aldermen Here Tuesday

Wellington voters will re-elect a mayor and name two city aldermen in the annual municipal election to be held Tuesday, April 5. The election will be held in the city hall section of the community building.

Little interest has developed in this election. Mayor Ernest Lewis is without an opponent for that office, and there are only three candidates for the two places of alderman. These are Paul Brown, Frank Hatch and Lawrence Warrick. The latter two are the present office holders.

Grady Graham will be the election judge, and Mrs. Tom Stall and Mrs. J. A. Dukeminier will be the clerks.

All eligible voters who reside within the city limits and who have paid their poll taxes may vote in this election.

FHA Members to Area Meeting

Other Wellington girls attending were Cliffla Jean Langford, Galilea Needham, Patsy Harper, Josephine Kutch, Jackie Moore, Nelda Nipper, LuDean Perkins, Jerry Reeves, Georgia Nell Galyean, Sidney Guley, Charlene Wilson, Norma Harron, Barbara Whitworth, Saradell Liljedahl, Ann Phillips and Joyce Watson. Also attending were Mrs. Jim Cook and Miss Ernestine Short.

Trade Development Program, Free Mail Delivery Under Study Here

A trade development program and the possibility of free mail delivery in Wellington were put before a group of business men at a membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening, March 28. Approximately 50 business men attended.

The trade development program designed to draw trade to Wellington and was proposed in the form of a Trades Day, Dollar Day, or Bargain Day event, Virgil Johnson, Chamber of Commerce manager, said.

A committee, composed of J. B. Stevenson, Billy Hatch, Ben Hurst, Velman Warrick and O. V. Koerner, is at work contacting all business firms in town to determine if the needed co-operation on such a program can be secured.

They will report to the Chamber of Commerce within a few days.

It was pointed out that the co-operation of the entire town is necessary if such a program is put over.

"It will bring lots of people to Wellington, and it will widen the scope of our trade territory," Mr. Johnson declared.

Such programs, it was pointed out, have been most successful in other places and it is felt it can be just as successful here with the cooperation of local merchants.

R. F. Curry, Wellington postmaster, discussed the advantages and disadvantages of free mail delivery within the city. This is a project that has been taken up from time to time for a number of years.

Advantages pointed out by Mr. Curry were that mail delivery ev-

Church Leader Will Speak at Dodson

Dr. G. B. Williamson of Kansas City, one of five general superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene throughout the world, will speak at the church at Dodson Monday, April 4, when representatives of the churches throughout the lower Panhandle and Southwestern Oklahoma gather.

Other outstanding church speakers will be the Rev. W. B. Walker, of Abilene, district superintendent of this district, and the Rev. W. T. Johnson of Bethany, Okla., district superintendent of the Southwestern Oklahoma district, the Rev. C. C. Montandon, pastor of the Dodson church has announced.

There will be an afternoon session beginning at 2:30 p.m. and a night session beginning at 7:30 p.m. A special feature planned to give those attending a chance to visit with friends will be supper on the ground in the evening, Rev. Montandon said.

Dr. Williamson will discuss "World Missions" and will speak at the evening hour. At this same session, a massed teen-age choir will sing.

Rev. Johnson will be the speaker at the afternoon meeting.

"We are indeed honored to have Dr. Williamson come to the Dodson church," Rev. Montandon said. "He is not only one of the five men in charge of the program of the Church of the Nazarene throughout the world, but he is a great preacher and an authority on mission work."

"His visit here will be of interest, not only to members of the Church of the Nazarene, but to every Christian in this area who has the welfare of the church and of missions at heart. We extend each of you a most cordial invitation to attend either the afternoon or evening sessions."

Hurst Attends Pharmacy Clinic

Jack Hurst, owner of the Palace Drug Store and Prescription Laboratory, is in Norman, Oklahoma, this week attending a prescription clinic sponsored by the University of Oklahoma School of Pharmacy.

During his absence, Jack Atkinson, a senior student pharmacy division of Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma, is in charge of the prescription department at the Palace. Mr. Atkinson, who has a temporary license to practice pharmacy, will graduate at Southwestern State in July. He is the son of Mrs. Virgie Atkinson of Wellington.

The three candidates at Samnorwood, however, have no opposition, and in several of the small common school districts, no candidates were filed. As in the past in cases of this type, the county school board will name trustees to fill the vacancies following the election.

Reserved Seat Tickets Still Available for Cavallaro Dance

Those throughout the lower Panhandle who will hear Carmen Cavallaro and his Orchestra when they play in Wellington Thursday night, March 31, may still get their tickets ahead of time and eliminate waiting at the door, Russell Yates, entertainment chairman of the VFW, reported Wednesday.

Tickets are on sale by Mr. Yates and J. M. Moore.

One of the top name bands of the nation, Carmen Cavallaro and his musicians are making only three stops in the Panhandle, and Wellington is one of these. The others are at Amarillo and Lubbock.

The dance will be held at the community building.

Project Show Plans Shaping Up Nicely

Plans are shaping nicely for the Youth Project Show in Wellington Saturday, April 9, the committee in charge announced this week.

While it is not yet definite how many head of livestock will be entered, it is believed this will be the largest in that division in the history of project shows here.

Likewise, the exhibits in the girls divisions, 4-H Clubs and Future Homemakers, are working up a full display of exhibits to be seen in the windows of business houses around the square.

Tollett Grocery Reopens Friday

Earl Tollett, whose IGA Grocery was damaged by smoke in a blaze which originated in the back of the store recently, announced that the building has been repaired, and he will be open for business Friday, April 1.

The entire interior has been repainted and put in top condition, Mr. Tollett said.

There was no fire damage to the front of the store, the owner reported, and no water damage. The entire loss suffered to that section of the store was due to smoke.

School officials and board members of all schools are urging every eligible voter to come to the polls, regardless of how he votes.

S. O. S. . . . I want a personal secretary to help keep up with the activities of this Kiwanis Club.

Can you imagine a CITY the size of Wellington, leading the field in percentage attendance in the Texas-Oklahoma District, which consists of more than 200 clubs?

I make a motion that the Kiwanis Club buy that wild mule for James (Do I hear a second?) He wants to starve the animal to the extent that he can ride him.

Did you notice that both new members, Richard Morton and Herschel Tyler, were permitted to eat at the head table? As for the guests, pardon please, I was hungry last Friday and I was so engrossed in eating that I just could not find my little blue book in time to get their names.

Awards were given to the "Riders" who participated in the Donkey Basket Ball Game. Bobo evidently had some donkey trouble, he was absent but his award is still available.

Good news for the kiddies: watch the paper and other means of advertising. "Adventure of Huckleberry Finn" is coming to the Ritz Theatre.

The San Jacinto Kiwanis Club in Amarillo is having a big banquet and would like to have as many members as possible to visit with them and enjoy the fellowship and get acquainted with Governor Mac of Denton.

It will be lots of fun to watch the Key Club Boys play baseball against the Colored Boys in the later part of April. Watch this space and other spaces and places for further details.

I have heard a lot about Scotchmen and most all of the pictures that I have seen display a person with a small supply of hair. Rev. Archie William Wallace Gray apparently is a typical Scotchman (according to the autobiography he gave us) even though he was born in Canada. It is evident that his worst error was in joining the "Old Men's Club" (Rotary).

If you fellows will practice what Reverend Gray preaches you certainly will not go wrong.

All sinners are urged to attend the church of his choice, especially the week of Easter. Those who are Saints probably do not think it necessary for themselves to attend. I haven't met any Saints, neither am I one. I'll see you at Church.

Ritz Gets "Chicken Every Sunday"

Capitalizing on the entertainment trend it set with "Miracle on 34th Street," "Sitting Pretty" and "Apartment for Peggy," Twentieth Century-Fox has produced another delightful and heart-warming comedy in "Chicken Every Sunday" which previewers are claiming will be the best of them all. Starring Dan Dailey and Celeste Holm, the film opens at the Ritz Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, April 6 and 7.

Based on Rosemary Taylor's best-seller, which told the hilarious story of life in a boarding house in Tucson at the turn of the century, the film depicts Dan and Celeste as the rulers of the roost. It represents a definite change of pace for the lanky song and dance man who climbed aboard the star bandwagon upon his release from service. As the lovable father, Dailey is always on the lookout for easy street, but he never quite finds it.

Celeste Holm, who was honored with an Academy Award for her work in "Gentleman's Agreement," enacts the role of the patient wife who puts up with her husband's many schemes — but turns breadwinner by taking in roomers. Celeste visited with Miss Taylor before filming commenced on the picture, and the authoress wrote on her return to Hollywood, "I can think of no one I'd rather have play my mother on the screen."

Heading the cast of "Chicken Every Sunday" are Colleen Townsend and Alan Young. Also featured in the imposing cast are Natalie Wood, William Frawley, Connie Gilchrist, William Callahan, Veda Ann Borg, Porter Hall, Whit Bissell, Katherine Emery, Roy Roberts and Hal K. Dawson.

Miss Adell Jerman spent the week end in Lawton, Oklahoma, as guest of Miss Nelda Williams who is a student in Cameron College.

fifty thousand dollars are at stake?
You see . . . Bill is a Doctor of We'd like to demonstrate this tractor on your farm for the Ford Tractor. We'll put this Ford Tractor through its paces, then let you take the wheel.

You'll find out how easily Ford Hydraulic Touch Control lifts and lowers implements and controls their depth.
You can hold your watch while we demonstrate Triple-Quick Attaching of implements. You can get the feel of the easy Ford steering and positive brakes.

Then you'll know why Ford production . . . over 400 tractors a day . . . still can't keep up with demand. See this great Ford! Whatever tractor you own, you owe yourself this

District Dual Meet Winners

John Lee's Skyrockets Take Closing Match

An 8-3 victory over the boxers of Lefors there Friday night, March 25, successfully ended the dual meets for the Skyrocket boxers for the season. This gives the Skyrockets an undefeated record for two years in the dual boxing meets in the district.

However, the district championship is determined by the district tournament, Coach John Lee explained. The Rockets lost the tournament by one point last year. The tournament will be held in Shamrock this year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 31, April 1, and 2.

In the meet Friday night, the Skyrocket boxers won their eight fights by five decisions, two technical knockouts, and one knockout, while Lefors won their three fights by decisions.

Smokey Savage, Wellington, defeated Charles Lane, Lefors, in the 65-pound class; J. D. Redus, Lefors, defeated Olan Murdock, Wellington, in the 65-pound class;

LUTIE

By MRS. JACK LOWRY

The showers that fell the latter part of the week were enough to be benefit the trees, shrubs and gardens. Also it seems to have softened the hard crusted ground that had formed following the hard freeze.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dodson who live near Wellington are moving to our community, to their place which is known as the D. B. Dodson farm. They have been remodeling and redecorating the house in preparation of this move. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dodson grew up in this community. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jolley and he is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Dodson. For several years they made their home in California returning to this county about four years ago. We are very glad to have them back home again.

Several farmers are building terraces on their farms. O. A. Terry and Jim Whitfield are among those who have done this. Also the J. L. Jolley place is being terraced. Orville Schoonover lived on the Jolley farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roark have been setting trees and shrubs and doing some other landscaping in beautifying their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Seale visited relatives and attended church at Lillie Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claudie McCulloch and children, Claudine and Beveda of Dallas visited with Mrs. McCulloch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Price over the week end.

Breg Rountree of Littlefield visited with his brother, Joe Rountree, and family for a short time this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hurst and grandson Ronnie spent awhile Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Whitson.

H. L. Lowry and Minnie Williams took Mrs. H. L. Lowry to Arlington on Sunday to stay a few days with her parents, Mrs. J. H. Young is slightly improved at this time. J. W. Young is being treated for cancer.

Leonard Karnes Sells Farm Near Wellington To Paducah Couple

By MRS. R. L. KARNES

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Karnes sold their farm two miles south of town Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Worsham of Paducah.

The Karnes family has rooms in town for a few weeks until they can make other arrangements, however, their plans are to make Wellington their permanent home.

Mr. Karnes said he would buy a house and move it to town or build. He will continue to farm part of his mother's place east of town.

This family has been active in affairs of the Houselog community during the time they have lived on this farm.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn during the week end were Elzie Sherwood of Oklahoma City and his sister, Mrs. Seth Horn of Iran.

J. N. Glasgow visited relatives in Elk City during the week end.

FORT BENNING, Ga. — 2nd Lt. Will J. Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummings, of Wellington, and 2nd Lt. Raymond S. Montague Jr., son of Mrs. R. S. Montague of Wellington, have been commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry in the Officers Reserve Corps. They are now at The Infantry School at Fort Benning attending the third class of the course set up for these new infantry officers before they go on active duty.

Their commissions were granted under a new plan recently announced by the Department of the Army whereby men between the ages of 19 and 32 who have had two years of college, one year's service in the armed forces between Pearl Harbor day and June 30, 1947, are physically qualified are eligible to receive their gold bars immediately upon application to recruiting offices.

During their 12 week course at Benning the new officer will be thoroughly trained in the fundamentals and techniques of an infantry unit, preparatory to going on duty as a company officer. Upon successfully completing their course of study they will go on at least two years active duty.

While at Benning, considered America's most complete military post, they will study the latest weapons, tactics, staff functions and varied general subjects. They will also be given instructions in amphibious, airborne and arctic operations, with tactical studies of jungle, mountain and desert warfare.

New Calves Bought

Rodeo Association to Coming Season

Wellington Rodeo Association bought 25 head of roping and the roping season will begin in the near future, it was announced this week.

Ed Smith was head of the calf committee.

The Association is inviting all ropers and others interested in the roping club to attend a meeting at the Cicero Smith Lumber Company Monday night, April 4, at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a discussion of plans for the roping season ahead. It appears that there is more interest in the roping club this year than ever before, those connected with the organization report, and a good year is anticipated.

Cameron Beam is president of the Club and Fleet Pruden is secretary.

Parcel post mail would be delivered directly to the house of the patron to whom it was addressed. Disadvantages outlined by Mr. Curry included the increase in postage on drop letters, that is those letters addressed to persons in the city which now go first class for 1 cent. The new cost would be 2c per letter.

Unless a box at the post office was maintained, the patron would not get his mail on Sunday.

Some patrons would not get their mail until after noon, since it would be impossible for carriers to cover the city and get mail delivered by the time that patrons can now get their mail out of post office boxes in the morning.

Some of the requirements which Wellington would have to meet would be more sidewalks and more paved cross streets, Mr. Curry said. This was one of the main reasons, he pointed out, why free delivery was refused by the Post Office Department some two years ago when it was sought. Another reason was the feeling on the part of the postal inspectors who visited here that there was insufficient interest and co-operation on the part of the patrons of the office.

Another requirement is that there must be at least 2,500 people living in the area designated for free delivery.

"The Post Office itself has been able to meet the technical requirements for free delivery service for a long time," Mr. Curry said.

In the business session, L. B. Bratton was named vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce. He takes the place of Warland Brummett, who was elevated to the presidency early this year when Ralph Stowell, the elected president, moved to Fort Worth.

Cameron Beam was named a director to round out the C of C board.

Hail Stones -

It was reported that the top of Fred Cox car, which was standing out in the storm, was dented in several places, and it is believed other vehicles in the Loco section were also damaged.

The hail apparently began in the vicinity of the Campbell Ranch and extended northeast to a point east of Wellington.

Rain was reported in most other communities. Tom Crabtree at Quail said that the fall amounted to only about .21 of an inch there, and reports from other communities varied.

While I intend to make no active campaign I do want the people to know that I will do my best to work for the progress and betterment of Wellington. Your consideration will be appreciated.

The election is Tuesday, April 5

"I spent the first year sightseeing," Mrs. Britt said, admitting that it took fully that long to see all of the points of interest in the Nation's Capital.

"I'm particularly looking forward to living in Honduras," she said. "The capital is near the mountains, and they tell us pleasant. Our oldest boy will start to school there, to an American school maintained for the children of the Army personnel."

This is the first visit in Wellington for the Britts in three years, when they went to Washington. Prior to that time, they were stationed in California. They will be here until next week end, when they will go, first to Memphis, Tenn., then New Orleans. There they will receive their passports and other necessary papers — and visit points of interest in their spare time — before sailing for Honduras on April 23.

The County Agent Speaks

Farmers Make Most of Spring Opportunities

By J. W. THOMAS
County Agent

Many farmers in Collingsworth County are making the most of the opportunities offered them this spring, both by nature and by their own initiative. Those reviewed here are examples.

Floyd McIntush reported he is now building a Grade A dairy barn and a good one. With lots of good home-grown roughage, a good herd sire, and close culling of the milking herd, Mr. McIntush is certainly on the right road to building a productive and stable farm unit in the Quail community.

Walter D. Breeding, a 4-H Clubber and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Breeding of Abilene, bought some of the compress type registered Hereford heifers, T. O. blood lines. These will be exhibited at the Youth Project Show April 9, and it will be well worth anyone's time to see them.

Ben Farmer's farm's worth is being developed nicely. Mr. Farmer is crossing him on Duroc sows and gets good, quick-growing pigs that produce quality pork, and they are not too lardy. They are good rustlers, too. Incidentally, Mr. Farmer is getting good results from his winter peas in his soil building program.

The Samnorwood Club boys are studying for the district judging contest to be held at Texas Tech June 4.

John Brim is due congratulations for a good job in progressive farming. He is not only helping the farm and himself, but his neighbors also. Good things just don't end. All you need to do is start them.

It is in the wind that the Alfalfa Growers are going to throw a big blowout, barbecue and trimmings.

It will be interesting to watch the results of the different depths of this deep breaking that is taking place on the sands. They report this light orange colored or yellow subsoil is not productive.

Paul Starr is in the process of "making" a farm on the old Fuller farm. He started with a diversion terrace to handle water from the old Bailey place above, and finding this not sufficient, he ended by building a levee. He is working with legumes and phosphate in building the fertility and tying the sand together. Something will come from this good work.

Legumes and phosphate are the foundation on which stable farms are built — and live.

The Lord has certainly blessed this country and its people with bountiful moisture. Let's be good husbandmen of these gifts and use them with wisdom.

Turnout Urged in School Election

All qualified voters are urged to vote in the school trustee election on Saturday from 8 o'clock until 6 o'clock, E. L. Pritchett, superintendent, reminded today. Voting for this election will be held in the county court room.

Although there are sixteen names on the ballot, voters should remember that there are seven places to be filled and their vote should include seven choices, Mr. Pritchett stated.

In order to be qualified to vote in this election, citizens must have lived in the precinct for six months and must have a poll tax receipt or be over age and therefore exempt from the tax.

Reburial for Pfc. Neal Tyler Held At Clarendon

Reburial services for Pfc. Neal W. Tyler, who went to the Army from Collingsworth County, were held Wednesday, March 23, at 2 o'clock at the Assembly of God in Clarendon. The Rev. James Gilbert and the Rev. W. D. Stafford were in charge.

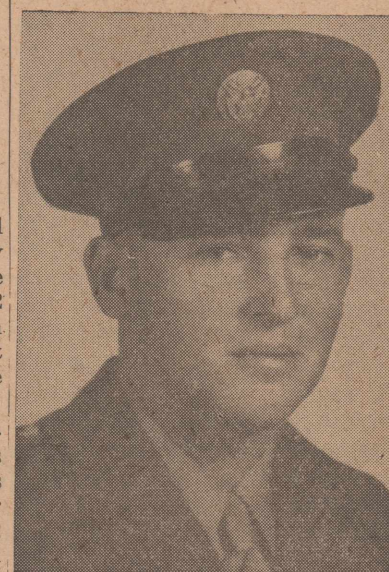

Military rites were under the direction of the Clarendon Veterans of Foreign Wars Post. Pall bearers were O. D. Stephens, Junior Skaggs, J. D. Skaggs, Elvis Pitts, Ray Mitchell, Junior Mitchell and B. E. Winegeart. Burial was in the Lakeview cemetery under the direction of the Murphy-Spicer Funeral home of Clarendon.

Pvt. Tyler was born at Lakeview April 12, 1925. He was farming near Wellington prior to entering service in October, 1944. He received his basic training at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas, and was stationed at Fort Ord, California, and Ft. Latton, Washington, before going overseas. He was wounded on Okinawa, May 22, 1945, and died May 25, 1945.

Survivors are a daughter, Barbara June, of Quail; his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tyler of Clarendon; his wife, who is now Mrs. Wilson Stephens; three sisters, Mrs. Marie Bewley and Mrs. Doris Smith of California, and Miss Adean Tyler of Hedley; a brother, Vernon Tyler of California; and his grandmother, Mrs. Susan Ella Tyler of Clarendon. of Raymond T. Bynum.

One of the unusual features of the band is its concert of sacred music which will be given in the First Methodist church, Ballinger, the municipal auditorium, San Angelo, sponsored by the First Methodist church, and Kellerville high school.

The tour will also include a noon performance in the plaza of Villa Acuna, Mexico, as guests of the mayor. High schools to be visited on the tour are San Angelo, Eldorado, Sonora, Rocksprings, Del Rio, Alamo Heights and Brackenridge of San Antonio, Fredericksburg and Mason.

The band left Abilene Sunday, March 27, and will return April 2.

Orval Couch, manager of the Greenbelt Rural Electric Co-operative, Inc., was notified late last week from Washington that REA on Friday, March 25, approved a loan of $80,000 to Greenbelt to be used for improvements and extension of service in Collingsworth, Armstrong, Gray and Wheeler counties.

Mr. Couch said that this is for short extensions of existing lines already in use in the four counties. These extensions are to be under 5,000 feet each.

"It is simply a continuation of the work we now have under way, and this particular loan does not provide for the extension of the lines into any new areas not now served by the Greenbelt Electric co-operative," he explained.

Mr. Couch pointed out that while construction and extension may seem slow to those who are waiting for electric service, the work is going forward as rapidly as funds and material are available.

Construction work is now under way of 350 miles of lines, all of which will be energized within the next two months. This, like the project just approved, is for short extensions to already existing lines.

At present, Greenbelt has 1160 miles of lines in service and when those now under way are completed will have a total of 1510 miles in the four counties it serves.

Operating with one of the largest payrolls in the lower Panhandle, Greenbelt has an average personnel of around 18.

In addition to Mr. Couch, manager, the employees at present are Miss Bessie Rainer, office manager; Floyd Cole, line foreman; J. M. Strong Jr., bookkeeper; Helen Langford, cashier; Rummel, bookkeeper; Woodruff, advance clerk; R. B. Bator, George H. Bill Land, helper; Brock, lineman; helper, Wellington; tree, construction; Waters, S. O. Childers and Ward, construction crew.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chambers were attending to business in Dallas last week.

EDITORIAL COMMENT — THE WELLINGTON LEADER

Thursday, March 31, 1949

Forward in Agriculture

page of The Wellington story of what some half an one farm youth, are doing that is most encouraging who look to agriculture as the Collingsworth County economy, and in the future.

It is a story of soil building and live-stock improvement, and it is found in a monthly report from County Agent J. W. Thomas. It is one part of the awakening interest in rural development which is not only local, but nationwide in scope. If ever there was real growth and development in farming and live-stock raising it is now, although this may be so apparent to the public mind as the current industrial expansion.

These men mentioned in the county agents report are making the most of materials on hand or available. They are doing a big job, and in some cases an expensive job, today that is going to pay for itself many times over in the years ahead, even though farm profits may not be so lush as they are now. It is a sound investment as sure and as certain to pay off as the safest securities on the market.

It is well their work is being brought to the public's attention, and there are others throughout the trade area who are less well known. Altogether, these men are making a valuable contribution to the agricultural economy of the section.

A closer study of this present trend in farming is in order. It reveals a further step in diversified farming so long preached for Texas. Naturally, a building and conserving of the soil is the first and most important step for anyone who makes his living from the land. Whether he intends to raise good cotton or good cattle, the effects of poor soil will show up in the finished product. That is the step that many farmers of the area are talking now.

Livestock in one form or another always has been and probably always be a most important factor in Collingsworth County. Ever time a registered beef cow or dairy cow or hog is unloaded on a county farm, it is doing just that much to make those farms better.

All of this reflects a new and more serious thinking and planning on the part of those who have their money invested in land and stock. It is a long range point of view, a building up that is opposed to the policy of mining the land and moving on that so long characterized the earlier years of this nation.

It is a long job and will be a hard one, but it is possible, with the common sense approach now being used that the land of Collingsworth will be as fertile for the next generation as it has ever been, if not more fertile and more productive.

Still a Castle in the Air

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note: The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek is about the last one we'd ask if we wanted to know what the farming situation is, but he claims people have been asking him, and here's his answer.

Every time I go into town about this time of the year, which is every chance I get, the same as any other time of the year, so long as any work is threatening, somebody asks me well how's the farm in situation? Gonna have a good year? Merchants rub their hands, expectin a good crop year, which means a good business year, and so forth. Seems like they want me to tell em now how much money farmers will have to spend with em next fall.

In fact, I been answerin this question so much lately I decided to give my answer in your paper, on the off chance a few people at lease would see it and stop asking.

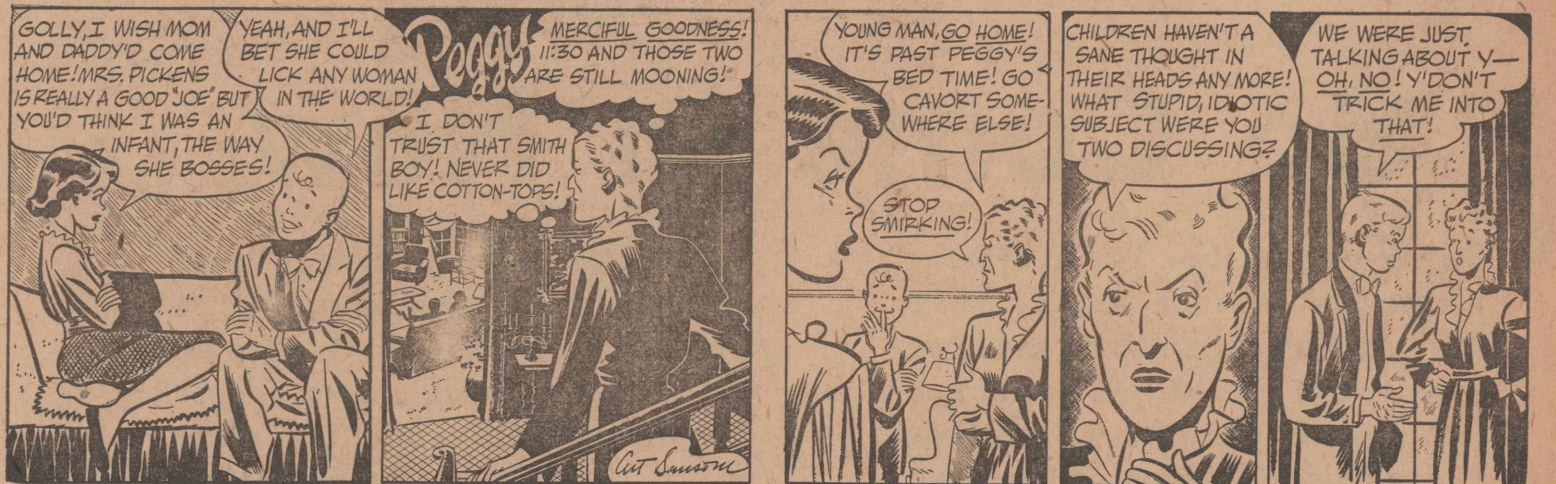

The farming situation is this: Ain't no man alive who can tell what it is. Just as soon try to tell you what Russia will do or what two women will say about a third one when she ain't there.

Anybody can put corn or cotton or wheat in the ground with a heart full of hope and confidence, but instead of forty bushels or a bale a acre he may be startin a program of goin up one row and down another all spring and summer for a wash tub full of nubbins or smutty wheat or a towsack full of trashy cotton, about enough to pay for the gas to get to town on Saturday afternoon.

The farming situation right now at this time of the year, as best I can tell after years of experience, is exactly like it is every year I been farmin so uncertain, so unstable, so likely to end up in a bust, no normal man would allow himself to be taken in by such a way of life. The way it looks this spring, which is the way it's looked every spring since some enemy of mankind invented the plow, is that there ain't but one chance to come out ahead this fall, but there is

Road Blocks Without Reason

Once again appears that ever-recurring question: "Should the government serve the people, or should the people be servants of the government?"

More specifically, we refer to the cord-on of road blocks which law enforcement officers of the Panhandle threw across public highways at sixteen points around Amarillo last Saturday night for apparently no good reason.

When directly questioned about the road blocks, city and county officers and State Highway patrolmen told The Brand "We hoped to find safe-crackers and yeggs going to and from Amarillo; cars," and said that no specific magnitude had been released the blockade. Such release, is parallel to hooking a truck to the water plug in Main Street and leaving a crew of fireman from 11 day night until 4 o'clock—just because the First National Bank might catch on fire.

In fact, the very blockade in question proves the fallacy of the operation. No criminals of the type cited as excuse for the road blocks were, to our knowledge, apprehended at any of the sixteen road block points. Besides, with six to ten men on duty at each point, there is an excellent possibility of informational leaks.

Another surprising factor in the road blocks was participation of the State Highway patrol of Texas. The "boys in grey" have for several years been establishing themselves as courtiers of the highways, apparently upon the basis of enforcing traffic regulations and of offering every possible assistance to distressed motorists. Several years ago they ceased hiding behind signs to catch speedsters through trickery—and emerged as "knights of the highway"—friendly, courteous, well trained men, who could rise to meet almost any emergency, yet who stood ready to offer a helping hand to the tax payer in distress.

We hope this organization never changes from the above policy. We hope

Eighteen Fighters to Letter

Quail Boxing Team Closes First Season

Brawn, schoolboy enthusiasm and the solid backing of their fans has made the first boxing season Quail school has had in a decade one of success, Supt. Noah Cunningham said this week as the team closed its activity.

Thirty-six boys were on the squad this year. The team fought 143 bouts and won 57, giving them an average of 40 per cent.

Coaching the team at the beginning of the season were Dalton Vaughan and Mr. Cunningham. At the end of the basketball season, W. C. Risinger began work with the boxers.

Eighteen boys are on the tentative list to receive jackets for boxing, including Jimmie Peggram, Jack Robertson, Johnny Patterson, Earl Patterson, Toby Lancaster, Howard McGill, Ronald Doherty, Jerry Robertson, Leslie Davis, Wallace Blasingame, Virgil Patterson, Billy Shields, Donald Johnson, Jackie Davis, Darryl Morris, Billy Blades, Dee Patchall and Marion Finley.

"To earn a jacket this season each boy will have to fight five fights. Some of the above mentioned boys have not qualified up to date to receive a jacket but we feel that each of the above boys will qualify before the season is over. The above is not an official list of the lettermen, but is an indication of who may at this time be qualified to letter," Mr. Cunningham said.

"A good jacket made in Quail school colors with boxing gloves as emblems on the back of the jackets will be given to each letterman. The coaches and fans are well pleased with the diligent effort, fine sportsmanship and fighting spirit that our team has shown this season."

"This season has been an especially difficult one for this is the first year that Quail has sponsored this boxing and it is the first year of Quail's membership of the 2-A

"Charge It, Please" More Popular Than In Recent Years

AUSTIN — "Charge it, please," is being repeated more often in Texas stores today than at any time since the war, a University of Texas retail credit specialist says.

Sterling S. Speake, Industrial and Business Training Bureau specialist, travels throughout the state conducting a 10-hour course in retail credit procedures for local merchants and managers.

He says interest in the course has increased because of mounting requests for charge accounts. Sixty-four per cent of all 1948 Texas retail sales were on credit, as compared with 40 per cent in 1945, Speake says, and another rise is indicated in 1949.

Hope for Lower Farmer Machinery Prices Slight

COLLEGE STATION — Farm machinery prices are still climbing. They have gone up continuously for the past eight years, and right now are at a record high.

That's the report from W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer of Texas A. & M. College. He says that in last September prices were 62 percent higher than in 1940, and 15 percent higher than in September of 1947.

As for this year, farm machinery and motor fuel prices are expected to remain high. And, as things look now, he says, farmers will have to continue to buy tractors and tractor equipment on a seller's market through this year, even though there was a record production last year. This production will probably continue in 1949.

Cement, nails and paint supplies look favorable. Reports are that the cold weather and seasonal building slump have made cement more available. This is an item short in supply. If any farmers have been looking for this material and are fixed so they can use it now, this should be a good time to check up on local stocks, suggests W. S. Allen, extension agricultural buildings engineer of Texas A. & M. College.

The nail supply is building up somewhat at this time, and paintable. Allen warns prospective buyers to beware of low quality, as of pre-war quality is now available types don't have the carrying agents and pigments that make for long-lasting coats of paint, he says.

Shopping Bag

Natural gas has an important place in the industrial prosperity of the Gulf South. One of its familiar uses is as fuel in the manufacture of paper and paper products—kraft paper for your shopping bag . . . cartons for your ice cream . . . newspaper for your local newspaper.

More than 2,000 industrial gas consumers obtain their fuel directly from United Gas, and many others buy their gas from distribution companies supplied by United. The delivery of industrial fuel is one of many functions of the United Gas organization . . . all of which mean more jobs for residents of the Gulf South, more payrolls and local expenditures for all to share.

Midway Helps Dutch Woman Through CARE

A CARE package, sent by the Home Demonstration Club Council to a family in Holland, whose name they received from CARE headquarters, is bringing members not only the knowledge that their gift was appreciated but a graphic knowledge of what some of the people of that little country endured during the War, and in the years since that have been almost as difficult.

After the package was sent, Mrs. W. L. White, a member of the Midway Home Demonstration Club, wrote the recipient, M. Browners, of Busel, Holland, and this week received the letter which follows.

"Now the Midway Club plans to send at least one additional CARE package to the family.

The letter follows:

Dear Mrs. White,

I was very astonished reading your letter in which you wrote you received a letter from me. I never should have dared to ask anything in this way as you wrote me. I think friends did it for me. I have been ill a long time and they know our difficulties momentarily.

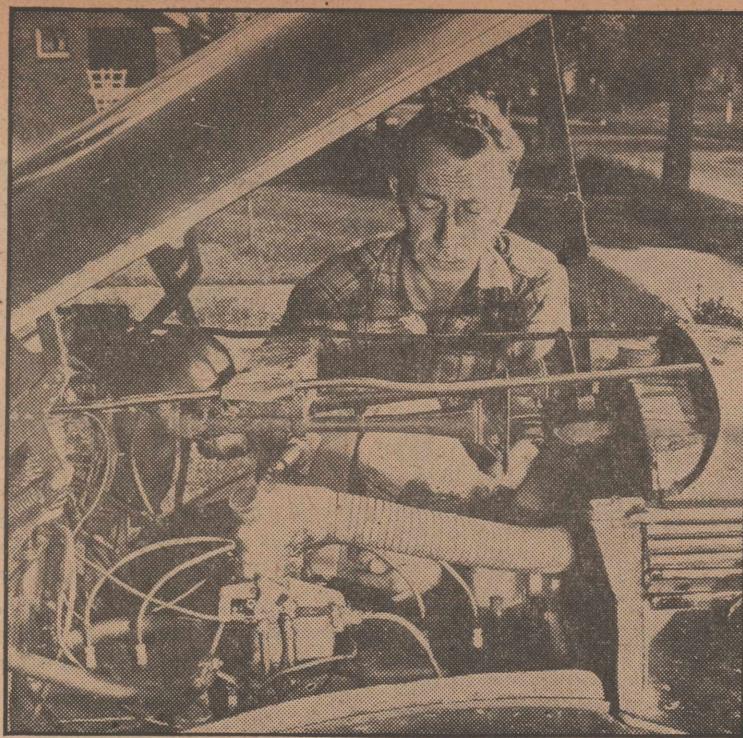

We are war victims indeed and we lost all our clothes and linens. I think you know perhaps by your magazines how difficult it is to retrieve a wardrobe and household outfit; because we are very limited in receiving marks to buy it.

Holland has suffered so much from war. Of course our friends helped us as much as they were able to do but they too had their own difficulties.

To give you an idea in which part of Holland we are living, I will tell you that we live in Lumburg, between the towns Rusemonde and Venlo. We lived three months in our cave at the front in the winter of 1944-45. During this time the bombardments took place day and night. It was the most horrible time we ever have known.

During this period my husband and my son were deported as prisoners to Germany. My mother, my two daughters and I remained behind at the front during months. Just before we should be delivered, we were passed under menaces of revolvers by the German soldiers so left our cave and so evacuated through Germany to another part of Holland. Our train was bombarded and we had 70 deaths and 40 badly wounded persons. I hope you never will know what it means to live at the front. It is simply dreadful. After six months we returned home, deliv-

Lillie Community Asks Hard-Surface Road

A petition bearing the signatures of 316 men and women, most of them residents of the Lillie area, has been presented to the Commissioners Court asking for the designation of a farm-to-market and farm-to-school road through that area.

The following statement concerning the road was made to The Wellington Leader by Zook Thomas, prominent farmer and gin manager of the Lillie community, speaking as a representative of and in behalf of the people in that area:

"With more people per square mile, with the most isolated ginning center in Collingsworth County, the Lillie community is asking for a Farm to Market and Farm to School Road that is for school bus route, mail route, and main potential travel road for hauling products to market and obtaining supplies.

"Such a road will accommodate 96 families or 497 people who live in this area, and scores of other people, such as doctors, wholesale gas dealers, trucking business owners, land owners and others who have interests here.

"Our schools are modern. Our utilities are modern and up to date our roads are the same type our forefathers used with wagon and team. For modern transportation we need modern roads to transport our children to school; it is important that they get there on time; but it is not uncommon for our busses to get stuck and be two or three hours late.

"The soil of the Lillie community is of a sandy loam that is drouth resistant. With a small amount of soil conservation, Lillie community is one of the most productive centers in Collingsworth County. But without roads available for transportation, it is uphill business to market our many crops, cattle, hogs and produce.

"With the fellow citizens of Collingsworth County who are interested in the welfare of the Lillie community, we were able to present to the Commissioners Court a petition with 316 signatures reading as follows:

"We, the undersigned residents of Collingsworth County, Texas, respectfully petition our Commissioners Court, our District Highway Engineer and the State Highway Commission To establish a farm to market and farm to school pavement from highway 203, beginning at the section line just west of Cross Roads school, going north for 4 miles to the Lillie gin and Lillie community."

"With the fine co-operation of our Honorable Judge Templeton and our four outstanding commissioners of Collingsworth County who are interested in schools and the welfare of the county, who are trying every means possible to produce better roads for transportation to these communities that have a type of soil which is impossible to build a dirt road of serviceable type, the court has designated this 4 miles of road as a very important road, as urgent to the welfare of this community."

Mr. Thomas explained that this was not an effort to get the Lillie road ahead of any roads already designated, but to have it follow after them.

Measles, Chicken Pox Over State

AUSTIN — Measles and chickenpox have been widespread throughout the State during the past few weeks, and in the week ending March 5th measles reached a total number of cases, 3909, that was the second highest in history. Chickenpox was almost twice the seven year median, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer has stated that there is an unusual number of adults suffering from this so called "childhood disease."

"Both these diseases are extremely contagious," Dr. Cox said, "and the strictest isolation and sanitation precautions are necessary to halt their spread. Dishes, toys, towels, or anything that has been around the patient can carry the germs to other members of the household, and all such articles should be thoroughly disinfected before being handled by others susceptible to these diseases."

The State Health Officer recommended that a physician be called immediately when a child shows any beginning symptoms of chickenpox or measles, and that his advice be followed implicitly until complete recovery. Dangerous complications often accompany or follow measles, and a child may have his entire future health endangered unless he receives competent care during his illness.

Rockets Lose to Sandies in Tight Four-Three Game

A fourth inning rally boosted by a couple of Skyrocket errors gave the Golden Sandie baseball team its initial win of the brand new 1949 diamond season March 22.

The Sandie nine powered four runs across in the fourth on three hits to win 4-3 over a well-coached Wellington crew.

Wellington had banged one counter across in the second stanza, then added another in their half of the fourth.

Kenneth Rippetoe, fine Skyrocket hurler who allowed the Black and Gold only four hits, fired the third strike over on Warren Spalding, Sandie shortstop. But catcher Lindell Norman dropped the ball and Spalding dashed safely to first.

Rippetoe put the pressure on then and fired three quick ones by Fred Hansard, Sandie left fielder. But Burl Brim muffed James LeNeve's Texas Leaguer to right field and Spalding, who had stolen second, raced to third.

Clyde Israel, third sacker, fired a line drive to the hot corner to score Spalding and send LeNeve to third. Then the Sandies hustling first baseman, Darrel LaRue, rapped a sharp blow to right field sending both LeNeve and Israel home.

A powerful triple into deep right field by catcher Max Winberg sent LaRue home with the final Sandie tally. Bob Braden and Harris Kimbrough fanned to retire the side.

Wellington added another run in the sixth inning when Don Terry, Skyrocket centerfielder, laced a long home run. But that was all the Wellington nine could muster in the run ledger.

A rather unknown quantity before the game, Harris Kimbrough, proved quite successful in his first mound attempt for the Sandies. He hurled all seven innings and in spite of the very hard wind blowing cross-ways over the diamond, wiffed nine Wellington batters.

In addition, he issued only four free passes. Coach Rudy Gamblin was well pleased with his performance, hinting that he may be just what the doctor ordered for a winning season.

Kenneth Rippetoe, also went the route for the visitors. He fanned 12 Amarillo batters and allowed only one base on balls. Most everyone agreed that he is one of the finest high school hurlers who has appeared here.

Coach Rudy Gamblin's baseballers meet the West Texas State Aggie Club here Wednesday afternoon. The game will begin at 3:30 at the Butler practice field, just east of the old Butler football field. There will be no admission.

The Sandies return the Wellington visit next Tuesday afternoon. Coach Jim Batchelor's nine had won their only other start this season, trouncing Childress 25-9. From all indications they will be one of the top teams in district 2-A.

Doctor Boaz:

I decided to take your tablets as I had high blood pressure for several years. Had been operated on for fibroid tumor 15 years ago. Never felt well since my operation, as I had phlebitis in one leg and have had it treated all along but doctors said no cure for it but I'm better now with my leg, but had to take something all the time for high blood pressure. Being so discouraged because I had to take medicine every day with nothing but temporary relief I decided to try your tablets so I sent to the Palace Drug Store here and have taken 50 tablets and feel better and am sending back for 50 more. I want to take enough to do my blood pressure real good.
