Lubbock Gets .91 Inch And More Sighted

Highways, Fields Covered By Water After Downpour

Rainfall ranging upward to several inches fell on the South Plains Thursday afternoon and this morning, benefitting crops over a large portion of the area.

At the U. S. Weather bureau station north of Lubbock, 18 inch rainfall was gauged from 4:10 a. m. to 8:25 a. m. today, increasing the total since rainfall began Thursday afternoon to .91 inch.

"If we ever had a million dollar rain, this is it," D. W. Sherrill, Lubbock county agent said of rainfall in the county. Feed is in the stage of growth in which the rain is especially beneficial and cotton, both dry land and irrigated, also will be benefitted, he said. The rain will save irrigation farmers much money, he said.

Fields Are Covered

Northeast and northwest of Lubbock in Lubbock county, sufficient rainfall was received in some vicinities to cover fields with water.

At Becton, Ottis King, farmer, reported late Thursday that at least three inches of rain fell on his place, starting at 2 p. m., and that rain quickly overflowed fields and left cotton with only tops showing. Considerable hail fell in scattered areas over Becton community, but King said he did not believe there was any general damage from hail or high winds. An estimated four inches of rain was received in some sections of Becton community.

Water Over Highway

Northwest of Lubbock, fields and many rural roads were covered with water. Water covered the highway near the Dean gin several hours and the state highway department placed markers so along edge of the pavement so motorists could drive through the water without inadvertently leaving the pavement. W. W. Nelson, farmer, said that two miles northwest of Lubbock on Littlefield highway he measured four and a half inches of water in the bottom of a straight sided barrel.

Rainfall estimates of one inch or more reported to the Santa Fe for the period from 6 a. m. Thursday to 6 a. m. today were: Amherst, Abernathy, Lovelland and O'Donnell, one inch; Shallowater, Idalou one and one-half inches; Lorenzo, two and one-half inches; Ralls, two inches; Lehman, two

Living Costs At New Peak

WASHINGTON, July 23. (AP)—The cost-of-living index struck an all-time high on June 15, with food prices reaching record-shattering levels, the Bureau of Labor statistics reported today.

The index representing retail prices of goods and services bought by moderate income families in large cities, hit 171.7 percent of the 1935-1939 average.

As the record-smashing living cost figures were disclosed, President Truman drove ahead with recommendations he will make to Congress Tuesday for dealing with inflation and rising prices.

The White House announced Mr. Truman's appointment of Paul A. Porter as a special assistant to the President to help with preparation of anti-inflation legislation.

Porter, the last chief of the wartime office of price administration, will serve on a temporary, non-salaried basis.

Big Vote Forecast Saturday

Candidates Of State Making Final Appeals

Major Aspirants Predict Victory On Election Eve

(By The Associated Press)

Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson both renewed predictions they would win the Texas Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator without a runoff as candidates drove today through final hours of first primary campaigns.

George Peddy claimed he would lead the ticket for the same job—now held by W. Lee O'Daniel, who isn't a candidate.

Predictions came also from the race for governor. Beauford Jester, citing his record, said he saw re-election in the first primary. Roger Q. Evans said he would be in the runoff if he wasn't elected without a runoff. Like candidate Caso March, Evans has repeatedly criticized Jester's record.

Make Decisions Tomorrow

Voters make their decisions tomorrow and a heavy turnout is expected.

Roscoe Collier of Dallas, who calls himself a coalition-caucus candidate for the U. S. Senate, addressed a rally last night at Dallas, planned a radio broadcast tonight.

Johnson headed his campaign for Dallas; Stevenson worked toward Austin; Peddy campaigned today near his home city of Houston.

Jester made his statement about the governor's race while in Fort Worth yesterday for two speeches. Evans spoke at a county campaign rally last night in his home city of Denison. He planned to be in Dallas today and to climax his campaign in Fort Worth tonight. March campaigned in Central Texas yesterday.

Broadcasts Scheduled

Stevenson broadcasts from Austin late today and has scheduled an early morning broadcast there tomorrow before going to Junction to vote: Johnson and his wife will go to Johnson City tomorrow to vote, then receive election returns at Austin. Peddy said he would broadcast from Houston early tomorrow; vote, then "go to bed and get some sleep."

Bascom Giles, seeking re-election as commissioner of the general land office, reviewed his record in a radio speech from San Antonio last night. Railroad Commission candidate William J. Murray's schedule showed him in Houston today. He visited Sulphur Springs, Greenville and Royce City yesterday.

Johnson said at Houston last night he was confident he would get an overwhelming vote tomorrow, but that regardless of whether there is a runoff he will attend the special session of Congress opening in Washington Monday.

He plans to wind up today's appearances at Dallas with a radio

Congress Expected To Close Up Early

Legislation On Major Issues Unlikely, Republican Leader In House Declares

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 23—A prediction that the special session of Congress will last no longer than a month and produce few—if any—new laws came today from a ranking Republican leader in the House.

Outlining what he called his party's "don't get-excited" strategy, this GOP spokesman said the lawmakers may call it quits within three weeks of their reconvening next Monday.

If any bills do get through, he told a reporter privately, they may include some sort of federal aid for education — "about a 50-50 chance"—and one or more civil rights proposals.

This leader said it is very unlikely that housing or anti-inflation measures will be brought out for formal debate, although there may be some further committee discussions. In the same category, he said, is a pending bill to lend the United Nations $65,000,000 to begin construction of a permanent U. N. headquarters in New York.

"Nothing much will be passed," he said. "There will be no minor legislation of any kind put through, and I am not sure anything else will be, either. We will be out of here in three weeks, or a month at the very outside."

He agreed with Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) and Herbert Brownell, presidential campaign manager for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, that the present Congress is not obliged to make good on the 1948 Republican platform.

"That is for the next Congress," he said. "This one has made its record. We will let the President have his say, spend a little time on speeches and so forth, then clear out."

Lubbock May Set All-Time Voting Total

County Polls To Open At 8 A.M., Close At 7 P.M.

Final arrangements will be made at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Saturday's Democratic primary election in Lubock county.

Precinct chairmen will meet at that time on the second floor of the courthouse to receive election supplies and instructions on conduct of the primary, it was announced by L. C. Ellis, chairman, county Democratic committee.

Polls at the 26 election precincts will open at 8 a. m. and be closed at 7 p. m.

Ellis also reminded Democrats that precinct conventions will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday to elect delegates to the July 31 county convention. Ellis said that precinct conventions will be held, at call of precinct chairmen, in each precinct.

Early Vote Is Urged

The Democratic chairman also urged that:

1. All vote Saturday as early as possible, so as to facilitate an early count of ballots that may reach an all-time total of from 15,000 to 16,000. Lubbock county has a potential voting strength of approximately 22,000, Ellis said.

2. Poll taxes be presented whenever possible. That too will facilitate making of returns.

3. That no one bring to the polls a copy of the sample ballot found on Page 8, or any other list of candidates. It is prohibited by law to use any guide by which to mark an official ballot. Election judges are charged with guarding against such practices.

Election judges were requested late Thursday by Ellis to make returns of the election as quickly as possible to him. Ellis said he would, as usual, "accept the returns in first floor offices of The Avalanche-Journal."

The Avalanche-Journal also will play host over radio station KFYO, 1340 on your dial, at an election news party. Commencing at 7:30 p. m., news from local, state, district and congressional races will be announced.

The Avalanche-Journal will present the state and district and congressional news through co-operation with other newspapers of the area, the Texas Election bureau and through efforts of its own staff.

Ellis said election judges would be urged to employ "plenty of help so as to hasten the count of ballots."

He explained that the sample ballot on this page is a "composite ballot." for instance, it shows candidates for each precinct commission place, but voters will find on their official ballot only the candidates for the commissioners precinct in which they live. For instance, Lubbock voters in the southwest quadrant would vote only for those seeking to be commissioner of county precinct 1. In the southeast quadrant they would vote only for those in county precinct 2, in northeast Lubbock for those in county precinct 3, and in northwest Lubbock for those in county precinct 4. As said, their ballots will not be confusing, because there will be only one set of precinct commissioner

One Captured, Another Slain In Gun Battle

Officers Wounded; Survivor Accuses Pal Of Slayings

(By The Associated Press)

VAN WERT, Ohio., July 23. — Two youthful ex-convicts reached the end of a 14-day seven-slaying crime career today in a gun battle with police at a road block.

One of the pair, whose bloody trail had terrorized Ohio for two weeks, was dead — shot between the eyes—and the other captured.

Two police officers were wounded in the wild flurry of rifle, pistol and sub-machinegun shots which ended the greatest manhunt Ohio has ever witnessed.

Shot To Death

John C. West, 24-year-old bespectacled parolee of the Mansfield reformatory, formerly of parkersburg, W. V., and described as the "gun happy" member of the duo, was shot to death.

His companion, 22-year-old Robert M. Daniels of Columbus, another ex-convict, put up his hands and surrendered without firing a shot, although police said he had a rifle and three revolvers beside him.

Earlier police reports said Daniels had confessed the seven murders which had kept the midwest in a two-week turmoil, but Daniels later was quoted as saying he had "heard the shots, but West did the shooting."

The highway patrol, local police, FBI and other officials had set up road blocks all over the northern half of the state after two more killings early today, and the road blocks paid off.

Van Wert county and city officials were stationed at a road block six miles northeast of here, where routes 224 and 627 meet.

A driveaway truck, with four automobiles aboard, approached. The officers stopped it for a routine check.

The driver of the truck came out of the car, an army rifle blazing. Sgt. L. D. Conn, 42, Van Wert policeman, went down with a bullet in his chest. Frank A. Friemoth, 55, county game protector, also fell with a bullet in his breast, the slug lodging in his arm.

Both officers, with Sheriff Roy Shaffer, blazed away with their guns despite the wounds, and Sergeant Conn finally hit the driver between the eyes with a machine gun bullet. The driver was identified as West.

As the firing ceased a man

General Clay Says U. S. To Boost Air Traffic For Berlin

MISS TEXAS—Bonnie Bland, a green-eyed blond who competed as Miss Orange County, was named Miss Texas of 1948 at the recent state contest in Port Arthur. Miss Bland, 18, will compete in the Miss America contest to be held in Atlantic City.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 23—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today the United States soon will double the tonnage of supplies being delivered by air to Berlin through enforcement of its fleet of cargo planes.

Clay, U. S. military governor in Germany, told a news conference that "a substantial force" of huge C-54 transports will be added to the cargo planes carrying supplies.

Will Meet Needs

He said the air lift increase will make it possible to deliver to the blockaded western sectors of Berlin enough food and a minimum of coal sufficient to meet needs of the people there through next winter.

As for chances of a peaceful settlement of the Berlin crisis, Clay said he doesn't believe the Russians want war and he doesn't think their blockade of the German capital is a move for a military showdown.

Clay said that he, like President Truman, believes there is "an excellent chance" of working out a peaceful settlement of the Berlin crisis with the Russians.

He said he does not believe that anybody in the world now wants war. He added:

"I don't think the Russians want war. I don't believe this (Berlin) crisis is a move for a military showdown. Obviously in a tight situation you get conditions in which hotheads could cause war, but I don't think it will happen."

Earlier the general had reviewed the German situation at separate conferences with House and Senate groups and had paid a farewell call on Mr. Truman. He plans to leave for Berlin by air tonight.

As for his optimism about a

Ex-Army Pilot Is Sought In Bombing

(By The Associated Press)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., July 23 An ex-army flier, worried about a new war, was sought today as the pilot who dived at United Nations headquarters and dropped a missile which exploded harmlessly nearby.

The U. N. Trusteeship council was in session when the missile, believed by police to be a home-made bomb, went off yesterday near the ground about 400 feet from the entrance of the central U N. building.

Heard Mile Away

The blast was heard a mile away.

Delegates and staff members were thrown into a state of excitement. Scores of them rushed to the windows of U. N. chambers. Others poured outside as a small yellow-and-orange plane banked and flew away.

Police said one panicky U. N. staff member telephoned and cried: "We're being bombed. We're being bombed."

Plane Lands Later

A plane answering the description of the one from which the missile was dropped landed a short time later at La Guardia field.

Its pilot, who identified himself as Stephen J. Supina, 36, a former B-17 turret gunner of Willington, Conn., left the field.

Police sent out a 13-state alarm for Supina on a felony charge of malicious mischief.

At Ashford, Conn., Supina's brother, former Connecticut State representative Thomas Supina, jr., said "Steve has been pretty upset, seeing the world on the edge of another war."

Has Been Disturbed

He said his brother may have used a "signal flare" in an attempt to "wake up the United Nations."

The elder Supina said his brother thought that the "U. N. has not been forceful enough in trying to maintain peace," that "they're a bunch of appeasers," and that "somebody ought to blast the U. N. into action."

Ever since Stephen came back from the war, Thomas said, he had been very disturbed about the state of world affairs.

Global B-29s Africa Bound

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Three B-29s making a circuit of the globe landed today at Lagens air base in the Azores, Strategic Air Command headquarters announced.

It was the second stop since the big superfortresses took off from Davis-Mountain airbase at Tucson, Ariz., on a two-week test of flying facilities around the world.

SAC, the unit which operates all long-range bombers of the United States Air Force, is maintaining radio contact with the three planes. The B-29s are scheduled to leave Lagens tonight for Wheelus field, Tripoli.

Number Planes Cut

The bombers stopped at Macdill, Florida, yesterday afternoon for fuel, then headed eastward out across the Atlantic.

The flight is the third projected globe-girdling trip for superfortresses but drastically scaled down from the original.

The State department definitely did not approve an earlier plan. The department at that time was using the velvet-glove approach to Russia and took a dim view of the plan to send up to 30 long-range planes—of the type that can carry atomb bombs—on a world-ranging trip.

But the new flight of three planes has "the concurrence of the State department," the Air Force took pains to say yesterday. Three bombers do not constitute a really alarming display of air power.

Chances Are Fine, Wallace Declares

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, July 23 — Henry A. Wallace said today he will not repudiate any support that comes to him "on the basis of peace" in his third-party presidential race.

Wallace told a news conference that if the Communists want to support him he will not denounce them. At the same time, he said no one is going to be able to prove that he is a Communist.

Sails Into Issue

The third-party presidential candidate, arriving for the opening tonight of a convention which will nominate him for president and Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho for vice-president, sailed into the Communist issue at his first meeting with reporters.

He said the Communists were supporting him because they want peace so that they can carry out in Russia their social experiment there.

He wants peace, Wallace said, so that "progressive capitalism" will have a chance to operate in this country.

On his arrival, Wallace told cheering backers that they are making world history.

Mark Turning Point

"This convention will mark a great turning point in the history of this party, the United States and the world," he said to several hundred party leaders, delegates and party workers who greeted him at the railroad station with shouts and party campaign songs.

Wallace declared chances of his party in the coming election "are fine."

"The new party will make things roll after this convention. Mark my word on that."

The crowd carried banners and placards hailing Wallace and Senator Glen H. Taylor of Idaho.

Ice-Box Drain Traps Spinster's Finger

Kansas City Woman Is Ready To Trade For Refrigerator

(By The United Press)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 23—Miss Alma Murphy, 70-year-old spinster, was ready to trade her ice-box for a new-fangled refrigerator today.

She decided to go modern after spending seven hours with the middle finger of her right hand stuck in the ice-box drain yesterday.

"I'm going to get rid of it," she said when she was finally freed.

She put her finger in the drain while cleaning the ice-box at about nine yesterday morning, she said, and couldn't get it out.

"The more I moved my finger, the tighter it stuck," the spinster said.

The melting ice sent water running down the drain around her imprisoned finger. The finger got "very cold," Miss Murphy said, and after a while the situation began to worry her.

The telephone rang in the living room.

"I knew it was my sister," the spinster said, "but I couldn't answer it. So I hol-

Russians Free U. S. Citizens

BERLIN, July 23. (U.P) — An American military government engineer and two military policemen seized in the Soviet zone west of Berlin were released today by the Russians.

The engineer, R. F. Goff, Altoona, Pa., was taken prisoner Wednesday near the Soviet-British zonal frontier when he attempted to pass through the Soviet corridor.

The Russians charged he attempted to evade their Marienborn checkjoint.

Boys' 'Advice' Taken

Goff told reporters he wandered off the international highway between Berlin and west Germany on the advice of a 10-year-old German hitch hiker he picked up. The boy told him all American cars were taking a detour instead of going through on the highway.

He said the Russians suspected he was spying on their rail line because he told them he once worked as a machinist for the Pennsylvania railroad.

The other two Americans were military police who inadvertantly crossed into the Soviet zone on the outskirts of the American sector of Berlin at noon yesterday.

U. S. army authorities identified the military police as Pfc. George G. Hunt, Camp, O., and Pfc. Elwood E. Dwinnel, Mabton, Wash.

The American provost marshal's office said all three were released early this morning.

Two Fliers Die In Crash Near Clovis

CLOVIS, N. M., July 23. (AP) — Two fliers were killed yesterday when their light plane crashed in the course of what a relative described as an amateur air show.

The crash was witnessed by Redmond's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs J. D. Redmond of Clovis, who said they drove out a country road north of here to watch the two perform acrobatics in a small biplane.

J. D. Redmond said the plane recovered from one spin and dive, pulled out of a second spin and then failed to finish levelling off from another dive. The ship landed on its belly.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Woman Cannot Cope With Mother's Endless Criticism Of All Aspects Of Her Marriage

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Jim and I have been married five years and have three children, which is exactly what we want. The problem is my mother; or could it be me?

Mother criticizes me daily for having so many children, so close; for "not keeping them clean enough;" for not having enough help, or enough furniture, in the house; for not dressing as well as I should.

She says I should get out in society more; that my husband should demand a higher salary, etc.; and the worst part of her fault-finding is the effect it has on me.

WIFE IS TEARFUL, HUSBAND GALLANT

I DEFEND myself in her presence, but when I am alone I either cry or become exceedingly depressed and feel that her criticism are valid, that I am an utter failure, and that I should follow her advice, both from a practical standpoint and as a filial duty.

Nevertheless, it seems that some native inertia or stubbornness prevents me from acting. Or could it be that Jim's expression of unlimited confidence in the way I run our home and family gives me strength to do exactly as I please?

After these sessions with my mother, I will tearfully report the proceedings to Jim, who thereupon assures me that everything I do seems perfect to him; and he advises me to be polite to my mother, but not to take her seriously. What do you advise?

MOTHER IS JEALOUS, CLINGS TO DAUGHTER

DEAR A. G.: Your mother's criticisms are her way of saying that you never should have married Jim in the first place; that you would be much better off if you had stayed single, under her sheltering wing.

She simply can't reconcile herself to the fact that you are a woman grown, with a husband and a home of your own; and this is because she has no alternative interests to occupy her mind, now that her child-bearing and child-rearing years are past history.

Moreover, she is jealously disturbed by evidence that you and Jim have a deeply congenial love-life, a development she resents because it seems, to her, to abrogate her claim to first-place in your affections; hence she craps about the framework and fruits of the relationship in an indirect attempt to disparage Jim and all his works.

In brief, her fault-finding doesn't make sense if examined for validity. It merely proclaims her a destructive mom-mother, who mistakenly presumes that cruel trampling of another's feeling is a vested privilege of intimacy.

REPRESSED RAGE DEPRESSES MIND

YOUR training decrees that "mother knows best;" that the "right" filial response is to bow to her utterances, however cranky or unjust; but your essential self says bah to that, hence psychologically you are "a house divided" in dealing with her.

Your defensive, tearful, melancholy reaction to her onslaughts point to smouldering rage, guiltily repressed. When the unconscious holds powerful hostile emotions in check, great nervous fatigue (or inertia) and mental depression usually result.

Thus your problem is you, and perhaps a careful reading of Dr. Edward A. Strecker's book "Their Mothers' Sons" (J. B. Lippincott Co., publishers) would help integrate your feeling to a point where you could blandly override her busybodyism, without fearing or hating her. This book has a salvationary message for daughters as well as sons of mom-mothers.

Marriage Okay Is Sought By Girl, 14

WESTBROOK, Me., July 23. (AP)—Only a probate court judge's blessing was needed today to allow Glenna G. Rawding to follow in the footsteps of her mother and sister—and become a bride at the age of 14 just as they did.

If Judge Carroll S. Chaplin approves, Glenna, a grammer school pupil, and Almon W. Scribner, a 20-year-old woodsman of Cornish, will be married July 31 at a Gorham apartment waiting for them.

The young couple has been "going together" for a year and a half. They have filed marriage intentions with the city clerk.

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Rawding, observed their 31st wedding anniversary yesterday. They knew each other two weeks when they married.

Glenna's older sister who married at 14 has been Mrs. Alfred Legere of South Windham for 13 years.

Pioneer Movie Maker Claimed

HOLLYWOOD, July 23. (AP) — David Wark Griffith, 73, pioneer movie and star-maker, died today.

He was stricken ill Wednesday night in his hotel suite and taken to the hospital yesterday, suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage. He lost consciousness, and succumbed at 9:24 a. m. (CST) in an oxygen tent.

Made Great Movie

In the early days of motion pictures, Griffith pioneered in lavish productions, innovations in photography and tailored scenarios to fit idealistic themes. His "Birth of a Nation" is still generally regarded as one of the greatest movies.

During the quarter century when he was most active in films, Griffith was credited with discovering or developing many top stars such as Mary Pickford, Dorothy and Lillian Gish, Mae Marsh, Lionel Barrymore, Douglas Fairbanks, Mabel Normand and Mack Sennett.

Wrong Job For Six Years Is Too Much

Maine Village Shares Single Telephone When Genial Lady Rips Up Switchboard

RIPLEY, Me., July 23. (AP) — Mrs. Winifred Hatch bustled merrily about her cottage here today —not at all sorry she ripped up the village switchboard and left this town of 390 persons sharing a single emergency pay station.

"I got sick and tired of asking, 'number please?'" she said. "I guess I just wasn't cut out to be an operator. I'm glad I did it because it's great to be free. Great."

It was too bad the New England Telephone & Telegraph co. wouldn't be able to furnish service for four or five months, she said, but that wasn't her worry.

Widow Makes Statement

"After all," said the 45-year-old widow, "people got along without telephones for a long time before the things were invented. Ripley will have to do the same. I owned the telephone exchange and I was within my rights in closing it."

Meanwhile, disgruntled townsfolk trekked to Mrs. Mary Litchfield's general store and post office station where the N. E. T. & T. installed an emergency line last Saturday after Mrs. Hatch quit in spectacular fashoin.

"We've petitioned the N. E. T. & T. for service," said Mrs. Litchfield, "but they have to get approval of the state public utilities commission. And they say new poles and wire will take maybe five months to install. Looks like a long wait."

Most of the villagers were caustic in their criticism of Mrs. Hatch.

The women said they'd miss their regular afternon chats on the old fashioned hand cranked wall phone. The men said Mrs. Hatch had acted a bit impetuously.

But the most discussed woman in Ripley, the genial bespectacled Mrs. Hatch, was serenely unperturbed. Six years with the wrong job was more than any woman could stand, she said.

Actress Asks Kidnap Charge On Husband

HOLLYWOOD, July 23 (INS)— Actress Leslie Brooks today sought kidnaping and grand theft complaints against her estranged husband, actor Donald Shay.

She told the district attorney's office that Shay had taken $4,200 from their community bank account and that he had failed to comply with a court order to deliver their two-year-old daughter, Victoria, to her custody.

Her request for the complaints was taken under advisement.

Organized Reserve Unit Set For Tech

Texas Technological college is among the latest list of organizations signing agreements with the Army for establishment of Reserve Units under the Organized Reserve Affiliation program, Col. Oscar B. Abbott, senior instructor for the Organized Reserves, announced from Austin today.

Highway transporation, public safety and the university groups are conspicuous in the 142 new units comprising the list, covering the period from June 3 to July 1, and bringing the total assigned affiliations to 1,434, Col. Abbott said.

An Order of Battle Team will be sponsored by Tech.

Benedum Field Strike Fails

MIDLAND, July 23. (U.P.)—The oil industry's hopes of a possible major oil field on a par with the great East Texas field received a severe setback today with salt water appearing in an offset test to the highly-publicized Benedum field discovery well in Upton county.

The Slick-Urschel and Plymouth Oil co. No. 1 Standefer, southwest offset to the same group's Alford discovery, recovered only 300 feet of slightly gas cut mud and 6,130 feet of salt water on a drillstem test in the Ellenberger from 11,561-676 feet. The test ran for three hours and 15 minutes.

Drilling Proceeds

More than 500 feet of the Ellenberger section, which produced the heavy pay in the discovery well was logged in the Standefer offset. The expected pay horizon was topped at 11,064 feet.

Operators were drilling ahead today, but observers were pessimistic over chances of making a producer.

Only a few days ago, a three-mile west outpost found salt water in the Ellenberger and producers there have been testing other formations higher in the hole.

Eight other rigs still were operating in the field, but none was at the expected pay depth.

Nebraska's automobile census has increased 17.3 per cent since 1944.

Devalued Peso May Sell At Six For $1

MEXICO CITY, July 23 (AP) — Private banks said today they expected to begin trading in the devalued peso at about six for one dollar.

The peso no longer is guaranteed by the Bank of Mexico at the old rate of 4.85 pesos to the dollar. Yesterday was practically a banking holiday as banks waited to hear the government's plans for its currency.

Treasury Secretary Ramon Beteta, in a radio talk to the nation, said in effect that the peso will be allowed freely to seek its own exchange level before the Bank of Mexico resumes buying and selling to stabilize it.

He said an unusual flight of dollars from Mexico in the last week — amounting to about $6,000,000 and endangering Bank of Mexico reserves—finally decided the government to give up the battle to keep the peso pegged at 4.85

Hubs Take Slugfest From Lamesa, 16-12

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Wasn't it a shame that it had to rain last night, not during the fights, but in the afternoon prior to them? That rain, which usually is as welcome as the sun in winter, did considerable damage to the planned crowd for the Jaycee fights. If it could have held off one night, or have gotten it out of its system the night before, it would have made it a peach of an evening.

As it was, the skies didn't clear and remained precariously threatening all night, but only once did any moisture fall and that was only for a few drops. The rest of the time it was pleasantly cool and blissful sitting out of doors. The spectators who stayed away missed a good show. The fighters gave all the way and, while some of them were not the best, the percentage of good fights overshadowed the bad. We thought, personally, that the fighters were pretty well matched and that taken all in all, it was a good card.

We were particularly pleased with the showing of the two South Plains fighters, J. D. Kirkpatrick and Bill Henderson. They were in top condition, better than any of the other boxers, and they showed more class. They were heavy favorites, of course, although some obnoxious character midway back in ringside, kept yelling to Kirkpatrick something about being afraid of Brownfield's Tom Adams. With all due respects to Tom, he's safer fighting Golden Gloves and college boys than in meeting Kirkpatrick.

Kirkpatrick showed considerable polish and much advancement over his amateur days around here. His right was as smashing as ever and he's developed a left hook that moves fast as greased lightning. Moreover, he's a cooler, better boxer than he was before and he picked off rights and lefts without their reaching their mark. Several times he beat Baltimore Hernondez to the punch after the Mexican had started his blow, blocking the thrust and jabbing or hooking in return. He fought a smart fight. He eased along, feeling his opponent out and never went after him in a bull rush. He fought a good man, but not one who could absorb the sting in Kirkpatrick's gloves.

Henderson wasn't quite the sensation we had hoped for only one reason; he was trying too hard before his home folks. He made errors on at least three occasions and he took blows he should never have taken in return for an opening. But as early as the first round, when Bill staggered Ignacio Godinas with a sharp right, there was little question about the superior man. It was Bill's fight and, while he tried to rush it, he showed that his training has not been in vain. He looks more polished, more sure of himself and he can use either hand nicely. He never was in trouble and he handed out a lot of punishment before Jack Dempsey stopped the fight, wisely.

Dempsey, incidentally, got some rhubarb, for stopping the Henderson-Godinas bout. Godinas, after a sharp, straight right, pitched forward and lay on his face in the center of the ring. Dempsey stepped in immediately and lifted him up, taking him to his corner. The crowd, eager for more blood, wanted the bout to go on. But as M. C. Jim Black explained, Dempsey stopped such fights in order to protect the loser and to enable him to fight again, rather than be the victim of a crowd's lust for the kill.

The Tony Olivas-Jose Andres featherweight bout, stopped on a technicality after five rounds, was a good one, even though Olivas may have been robbed. He was the victim of a low blow by Andres and had gone into the ring without proper protection. They might have called a doctor, had Olivas examined and then, if he could go on, give him a three-minute rest. It might have been done that way, but they decided against the accepted procedure. At the time the fight was stopped, we had given Olivas two rounds clearly, called two even and given the nod to Olivas in both of them. It would be a natural for another match between these two, who put up a good show.

Abner Bettingfield and Enrique Villa, a pair of middleweights, staged a good fight, with Bettingfield gaining the decision easily. He never had the Mexican, who fought much in the style of Joe Walcott, in trouble, but he never lost the upper hand. Both are good clubfighters and shed enough blood to keep everyone happy. We have some on our shirt to prove it!

Two fights only went one canto, Skeets Gilbert clearly outclassing Johnny Brown in one, while Joe Music had an eye cut that Bert Kahn wasn't able to stop between rounds. That ended that fight.

The final fight was a barroom classic, with only the stools and the brass rail left out of it. Howell Steen and Billy Louderman mixed like a pair of alley cats and, while the action may have appeared dull to those out of range of the ring, it was a brawl. Both fighters knew they had been in a tough go, with the in-fighting doing considerable damage. It was, however, too bad that the fight card ended up with this particular bout, which would have been a good opener. All in all, it was a good show and worthy of the Jaycees, to whom we give a nod of the hat and our congratulations. Let's have more.

Ground was gained in the West Texas-New Mexico League race by the Lubbock Hubbers last night, when they beat the Lamesa Loboes 16-12 in a battle royal.

All the fighting was supposed to be done at Rosenthal Field, home of the Hubbers, but the slugging in Lamesa was a rival attraction. Altogether, 34 hits bounced off Lamesa walls, with many of them good for extra bases. Charley Scarborough hit two homers and was joined by Manager Jackie Sullivan, Virgil Richardson, Don Moore, Dan Pinto of Lamesa, and Chick Fowler of Lubbock, who got his 18th of the campaign.

Amarillo Loses To Dukes

The ground - gaining came as Albuquerque laid it on Amarillo's torrid Gold Sox, the home club losing a tight one to the Dukes, 5-4. The victory lengthened the Dukes lead to two and a half games, with a doubleheader possibly on schedule for tonight That could see the lead cut to half a game, remain at two and a half, or lengthen to four and a half tilts.

Meanwhile the Pampa Oilers weren't over - charitable to the Hubbers, beating the Abilene Blue Sox 8-4 to remain half a contest ahead of Lubbock. Still, Lubbock cut a full game from Amarillo's margin and made it only four games, instead of five, with the two leaders battling it out.

The Hubbers took two innings last night in which to even the count with Lamesa, which had scored two tallies in the first frame. With Bobby Layne setting the Loboes down for the next three—and Lubbock scoring six times in the third, once in the fourth—it looked like a good night.

Hubbers Roar Back

Then Lamesa counted three times to cut the margin, only to have the Hubbers roar back with a trio in the sixth and add another in the seventh.

Lamesa decided to get into the act and countered this single marker with four, bringing the score down to a fairly respectable 13-9. Each club scored once in the eighth and each scored twice in the ninth, the Lobo rally bringing Royce Mills on in relief to end the danger.

Tonight Sullivan sends Red Ramsey to the mound for the Hubbers in an effort to take three straight, while Lamesa will hurl Lefty Leon Hayes at the invaders.

Four Tie For Reading Lead

READING, Pa., July 23. (AP)—The four record equalling professional golfers tied for the lead in the $15,000 Reading golf tournament are agreed that the winner will be the man with the most potent driver.

The unanimous opinion of E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Rod Munday, Fred Haas Jr., and Johnny Palmer —all tied with 65's after the first 18 holes—was that the rolling, well trapped 6,438 yard Berkshire course was a "driver's paradise."

The One To Watch

Munday, York, Pa., pro, summed it up for the quartet when he said, "the golfer who hits that long ball consistently is the one to watch in this tournament."

All four were hitting them long and straight yesterday when they equalled a course record made only once in the 26-year history of the club. Fashion plate Jimmy Demaret—uncommonly conservative here with only a two tone shirt—set the record last year. Demaret, of Ojai, Calif., shot a 36-34-70 over the first 18.

All but Palmer played every hole in par or less. Harrison, Little Rock, Ark.; Haas, New Orleans, La., and Munday, each birdied seven and played par on 11. Palmer birdied eight holes and played par on nine, coming up with a bogey five on the 10th hole.

Miss New Record

Harrison, defending champion, Munday, the San Francisco native and Haas, each missed establishing a new course record on the 18th green.

Bobby Locke, South Africa, made the audience titter as he blew a four footer that would have tied him with the leaders. As it was the South African had to be satisfied with a 66.

The money battle between Lloyd Mangrum, the pro circuit's leading greenback man, and bantam Ben Hogan, runnerup in the dollar and cents columns, was close. Mangrum, Niles, Ill., played in 69 while Hogan produced a 67.

Dallas Drops Far Behind Ft. Worth

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

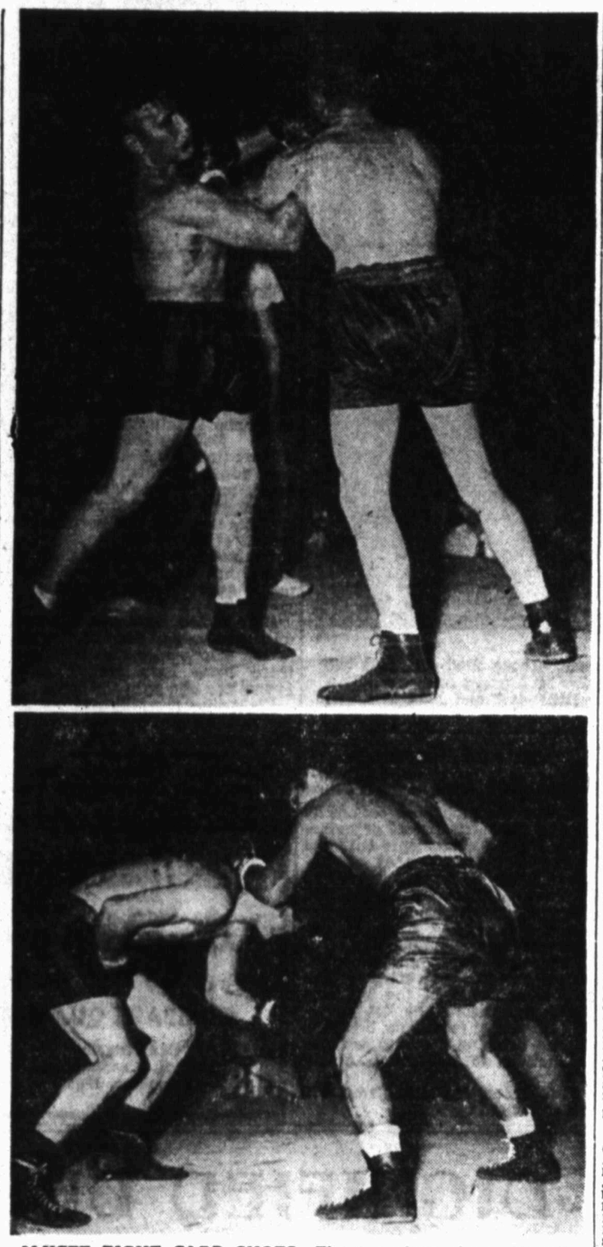

Northern teams in the Texas league are just about to wind up a long southern road trip and for two—Oklahoma City and Dallas —it was another first battle of Bull Run.

Last night Dallas dropped 17 games behind pace-setting Fort Worth when San Antonio took a 6-1 decision. It left the Rebels mired in sixth pace.

Oklahoma City, which managed a 6-3 victory over the Shreveport Sports, is deep in the cellar.

Beaumont, a southern team, saw its chances for a playoff spot fade in the invasion from the north. The Exporters lost to Tulsa, 17-5, last night and sunk deeper into seventh.

Houston lost a rough and tumble affair to Fort Worth, 3-1.

Five TKO's Are Registered In Jaycee Fights Here Last Night

Leaden gray skies and a light sprinkle of rain last night failed to dampen the enthusiasm of approximately 3,000 fight fans, who wended their way out to Rosenthal Field for the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce fight card.

And they were rewarded by seven boxing matches good for 30 rounds of leather-slinging, with only two of the fights ending in decisions. Five bouts were stopped by the referee, who awarded technical knockouts, and two went the full distance.

Abner Bettingfield of Dallas and Enrique Villa of El Paso went the complete six, with the former gaining the decision. Howell Steen of Lubbock and Billy Louderman of Dallas went the full eight and had to be satisfied with the decision, which went to Steen. Both matches involved middleweights.

If there wasn't one other redeeming factor, the fights staged by Featherweight Bill Henderson of Levelland and Light Heavyweight J. D. Kirkpatrick of Petersburg were worth the price of the show. Both South Plains boxers won by TKOs, Henderson stopping Ignacio Godinas of El Paso in 1:28 of the fifth round and Kirkpatrick ending his fight with Baltimore Hernondez of El Paso in 2:38 of the fourth canto.

Body Attack Counts

Henderson fought a tricky little Mexican boy who refused to go down, although Henderson pumped stinging lefts and solid rights to his head. A good body attack weakened Godinas in the third, after Henderson had bloodied his nose in the second and staggered him in all three rounds. In fact, Godinas went down for no count in the first and Henderson had him from that point on.

Kirkpatrick had trouble with Hernondez, not a particularly outstanding fighter, but one who refused to go down under the hard left hooks and crushing right jabs of Kirkpatrick. The Petersburg boy absorbed three or four blows himself, but picked off his opponent's lefts and rights easily, crossing with his own in return. Kirkpatrick showed a left hook that travelled like lightning and his right was as strong as ever.

Ends In Fifth

Henderson's fight ended in the fifth round, when he smashed a straight right to Godinas' nose, the game Mexican boy falling flat on his face in the center of the ring. Referee Jack Dempsey picked him up and, aided by Henderson, helped him to his corner, where Dempsey raised Henderson's hand.

Kirkpatrick's fight ended in the fourth after the protege of Gus Lesnevich landed a solid left to the heart and mid section, with a right following to Hernondez' left side as he was falling. The El Paso fighter grimaced as he fell, obviously in pain and with no desire to continue. Dempsey raised Kirkpatrick's arm and that was that.

Two fights only lasted one round, Skeets Gilbert of El Paso drooping Johnny Brown of Dallas in the first round on a TKO at 1:23. Lefts and rights dropped Brown, after he had become groggy.

The second fight to go only one heat involved Heavyweights Joe Music of Lubbock and Tommy LeNoir of El Paso. Music won the first round, but Le Noir butted during a clinch and opened a bad cut over Music's left eye. The referee stopped the fight.

Bettingfield won a unanimous decision over Villa, "The Congo Kid," in the second fight, both boys standing toe to toe and slugging madly throughout most of the fight. Bettingfield had the better of the slugging, as well as the in-fighting.

Tony Olivas of El Paso lost a tough decision to Jose Andres of Dallas, the referee stopping the fight at 2:34 of the fifth round and awarding it to Andres on a TKO. Andres fouled Olivas, who was not equipped properly and fell writhing to the mat. A slight delay ensued, during which Referee Ray Simmons decided to award the bout to Andres.

The slugfest, or grand waltz to most spectators, between Billy Louderman of Dallas and Howell Steen of Lubbock, ended in a clear decision for Steen.

Legion "A" In Easy Victory

MEMPHIS, July 23 (Special)—Lubbock's American Legion "A" nine combined tight fielding and steady hurling to pound out an easy 8-2 victory over Clarendon here last night in the first game of a two of three tilts bi-district series.

Clarendon's Bobby Everett gave up only six safeties in the nine-inning encounter, but the Hub city squad capitalized on five Clarendon errors and eight bases on balls to chalk up the triumph.

Big Jim Wilson started on the mound for Lubbock, giving up two hits in the three innings he worked. Lefty Jackie Martyn took over in the fourth, then Jack McCabe and Hulen Fowler completed the tussle. Clarendon touched the four hurlers for a total of five hits—four singles and a double.

Dorrance Guy, veteran left fielder, paced the Lubbock nine at the plate with two hits in two times at bat. Other safeties were knocked out by Bob Brown, Fowler, Jack Cook, and Jimmy Richards. Jim Jenkins topped the Clarendon crew with two bingles in three trips.

The Hub city boys went ahead in the third stanza as hurler Jim Wilson tallied an unearned run. Wilson, second batter up in the third, drew a free pass from Everett and went all the way around on a passed ball and a wild throw. Lubbock clinched victory in the fourth frame when Richards singled home Garnett Reeves and Cook.

The two nines will meet in the second game of the playoff series Saturday afternoon at Lubbock Rosenthal field.

Red Gober To Meet Holmes In Finals

AMARILLO, July 23. (AP)—Red Gober of Austin, three times winner of the Tri-State Senior golf tournament, tangles with B. F. Holmes of Shamrock in the finals of the 1948 meet today.

Holmes, who won the title in 1935 and 1937, yesterday ousted medalist Roy Allen of Oklahoma City, 1 up in 19 holes. Gober defeated Frank Day of Plainview, 1 up.

DiMaggio's Homer Means Loss To Feller

Indians And Yanks Head For All-Time Attendance Record

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Four clubs are battling for the American league pennant but two teams—Cleveland and New York —are making all the money.

The Indians and Yankees are headed for a new all-time attendance mark of 850,000 and over $1,000,000 for their 22-game inter-club series. Baseball never has seen anything like it because it never had two parks like the Yankee stadium and Cleveland's municipal stadium involved in a season-long flag battle.

Last night's turnout of 68,258 New Yorkers who watched Joe DiMaggio's grand slam homer give the Yanks a 6-5 edge over the Indians, was the third largest to watch the teams struggle.

Feller Loses Again

The teams play each other eight more games and conservative estimates are that they will draw 275,000 in there for an over-all total of over 850,000.

DiMaggio's home run, backed up by a splendid relief performance on the part of Tommy Byrne, sent Bobby Feller down to his 12th loss.

Feller gave up all the Yankee runs. Tommy Henrich touched him for a two-run homer in the third and DiMaggio belted his with the bases jammed in the fifth. It was Di Mage's 21st of the year.

The Philadelphia A's took advantage of Cleveland's misfortune to advance to within a half game of the lead by nosing out St. Louis in 12 innings, 8-7. Hank Majeski's single with the bases loaded and two out turned the trick against Al Widmar long after midnight. Lou Brissie hurled hitless ball for 5 2/3 innings to earn credit for his 10th victory.

Bosox Win Pair

The big noise of the American league again was provided by the onrushing Boston Red Sox who won another doubleheader, stretching their string to eight straight.

Vern Stephens hammered homers in each game to humble the Chicago White Sox. Denny Galehouse shut out Chicago with five hits, 3-0, in the first game, his second complete game of the year. Stephen's two-run clout iced it.

Ellis Kinder gave the Chisox eight hits in taking the second, 5-3, with Stephens knocking in three runs. The double win boosted the Red Sox past the Yankees into third place, their highest position of the year and only two games out of the lead.

Detroit fell below .500 again, bowing to Washington, 9-8 in 12 innings after scoring six runs in the first frame.

Couldn't Hold Lead

Hal Newhouser couldn't hold that generous early lead as the Senators rallied and finally won for Forrest Thompson over reliever Hal White.

Boston's National league lead was boosted to 6 1/2 games when the Braves were rained out at Cincinnati and Brooklyn lost to Chicago.

Johnny Schmitz did his usual job on the Dodgers, beating them for the fourth time this year, 6-3, although nicked for 10 hits.

St Louis and New York split a pair that didn't help either club. Sheldon Jones outpitched Murry Dickson for a Giant 6-3 edge in the opener but the Cards came from behind to take the finale in 11 innings, 7-6.

Homers by Johnny Mize and Whitey Lockman helped lock up the opener for New York. They held a 5-0 lead going into the seventh inning of the second game but the Cards scored six in the seventh after Mize's 22 homer tied the score in the eighth they went to the 11th before Nippy Jones singled home Whitey Kurowski to break up the game. Ted Wilks was the Card victor and Ken Trinkle the loser.

Pittsburgh trimmed the Phillies, 5-3 in the opener but wound up in a 1-1 tie in a second game that was stopped by rain after five innings. Ralph Kiner's 27th homer was the only Pirate run in the tie game.

Telford Hits .345 In Race

Idleness on the part of Bert Hester, Ragsdale of San Angelo pitcher, enabled Lindsey Telford of Lubbock's Baldridge Bakery to move into second place in the Texas Softball League batting race.

Telford, an all-state third baseman in 1947, boosted his average to .345 this past week to challenge the idle Hester and the departed Ralph Earhart of the Sunbeamers, also of Lubbock. Earhart reported to the Green Bay Packers and has completed his season with an average of .342, good enough for third place.

Jackie Neel's one-hitter against Monahans and his 10 strikeouts left him at the top of the pitchers. Neel now has 203 strikeouts in 14 games. Red Denham of Crane is next with 155 and Warren Pope of Odessa third with 148.

This week's games could make or break the first division and Shaughnessy playoff hopes of several entrants. Every team but last place Cosden of Big Spring now has a shot at the playoff. Second-place Monahans catches a red hot Stamford squad at Stamford. Ragsdale of San Angelo could move into the select foursome with a twin win over the Odessa Elks at San Angelo.

Bluebonnet, which clinched the No. 1 spot in the playoff with a double win over Monahans last week, goes to Cosden, Nathan's travels to Crane and Baldridge gets a bye in other games.

Three new pitchers got under the player deadline last week. Wayne Ward won for Baldridge over Crane with a two-hitter. Don Ashby joined Nathan's and allowed Big Spring only one hit and Lloyd Waisman hurled a two-hitter as Nathan's swept the Cosden series.

Waco Edges Back Into Top Division

(By The Associated Press)

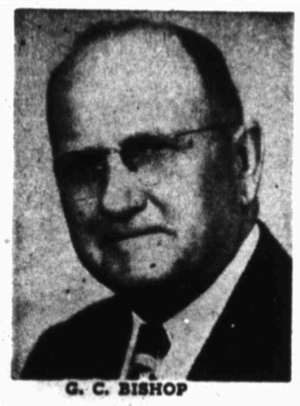

Waco edged back in the first division of the Big State league last night and Sherman-Denison revenged Wednesday's walloping by Paris.

The league-leading Sherman-Denison nine blasted Paris into fifth place, 13-1, as Waco knocked off Gainseville, 11-6.

Austin took a firmer grip on second place with a 11-2 decision over Wichita Falls and Texarkana climbed out of the celler by beating Greenville, 11-10.

Two Tilts In Softball Set

The A.S.A. softball tournament resumes play tonight, with two games on tap at Jumbo Field, the Bennett Motor company nine of Seminole opposing Cloverlake Dairy of Lubbock in one game and Hardy's Bottling Works of Tahoka meeting Culligan's Soft Water team in the second.

Both games will be in the consolation bracket of the double elimination tourney, with the winners meeting Saturday night for the right to play Golden Light Coffee. This winner will advance to the semi-final round and will play Baldridge Bakery, eliminated from the top bracket Wednesday night by bowing to the Thomas-Sunbeamer nine.

With the games getting better every night and competition improving, the largest crowd of the tournament is expected to be on hand. Culligan's is rated a slight favorite over Tahoka, while Cloverlake has an edge over Bennett.

The first game will begin at 8:30 p. m., with the second tilt following about 9:45. The winners advance to the quarter-final round, with the semi-finals being played Saturday. Finalists will clash Monday night, as the successful tourney closes.

Bears Win 8 To 5 In Thursday Game

Billy Lingle's hurling coupled with Kenneth Dalrymle's homer served to give the Bears a slim 8 to 5 win over the Apaches in a hard fought tussle at Jumbo Webster field Thursday afternoon.

The two teams were tied 5-5 in the fifth inning, when Dalrymple smashed out his homer and the Apaches couldn't catch up after that. Lingle struck out seven Apache hitters, while losing pitcher Donald Ray Smith struck out nine.

Berry Allen and manager Billy Clark paced the hitting for the Apaches, each getting two for four. Thursday's game was the third in a series of ten tilts between the Bears and the Apaches.

Kilgore Goes After 15th Straight Win

(By The Associated Press)

Kilgore goes after its 15th straight victory tonight and second-place Longview provides the opposition.

The Drillers polished off Marshall, 5-3, for win No. 14 last night as Longview stayed six and one-half games behind in the Lone Star league race with a 4-3 decision over Henderson.

Bryan edged Gladewater, 4-2, and Lufkin beat Tyler, 7-2, in other games.

Special Events Set By Recreation Dept.

Special events scheduled today by the city recreation department for the park playgrounds and community centers include a doll show at the Community center, Sixth and Ave. B, at 4 p.m.; a pet show at Pioneer park, Seventh and Ave. T, at 5 p.m.; and a parade for "anything on wheels" at Wagner park, Twenty-seventh and Monroe, at 7 p.m.

The Polly Pigtails club at the Community Center will sponsor the doll show as a special feature of its regular meeting. Ribbon awards are to be presented to the best dressed "mother," best dressed doll, most unusual doll, and largest family of dolls, according to Mrs. W. Jarratt Martin, director at the center. Invitations were sent to 26 club members.

In the pet show at Pioneer park, first, second, and third place winners in various divisions will receive ribbon awards. Contest divisions are pet with longest tail, pet with shortest tail, largest pet, smallest pet, prettiest pet, most unusual pet, best dressed pet, and pet with longest ears.

A street parade, featuring bicycles, tricycles, wagon, skates, and anything else "on wheels," will be held at Wagner park, with first, second, and third prizes to be awarded for the best decorated in each division, and a grand prize for the one judged best of the four first place winners. Mrs. Ola Faye Hendrickson is director.

In charge of registering and judging will be Mrs. Polly Cavender, director at the park. She will be assisted by Miss Alice Phillips, Miss Mary Jarrott, and Mrs. Dutch Wiginton.

Similar events are to be held at all park playgrounds within the next two weeks, with dates to be announced later.

Tail-Enders Lick Leading Big Spring

(By The Associated Press)

Lowly Del Rio handed league-leading Big Spring a 6-3 licking last night for its 25th victory of the year against 66 losses.

Big Spring's defeat didn't hurt it in the Longhorn league standings, since second-place Midland lost to San Angelo, 4-1.

Ballinger, which has taken over third place, thumped Sweetwater, 13-6, and Vernon handed Odessa a 6-2 licking.

Bar Of Justice Set Up In Brooklyn Bar

NEW YORK, July 23. (AP)—The bar of justice looked like just any old bar in Brooklyn early today. A torrential rainstorm flooded most of the Williamsburg section, and police found their telephone service disrupted.

Soon they established an emergency stationhouse at a place where the wires were still up.

It was in the neighborhood saloon, just down the street.

Lone Star State Youngsters Put On Show

"Eyes Of Texas" Captures Fancy Of Big Crowd As Band Struts In Yank Stadium

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—The The New York Yankees added a touch of terpsichore last night as the preliminary feature to an important game with the Cleveland Indians.

A capacity crowd of 70,000 watched the maneuvers of the nationally famous White Oak, Tex., high school band for half an hour before the game.

Colorful New Uniforms

The 91-piece band—from a school of only 167 students—consisted of boys and girls ranging from 11-year old clarinet player Barbara Bradford to 17-year-old Hugh Elwood Hart, a cornet specialist.

Dressed in new, colorful grey and maroon unifirms, the youngsters captured the crowd's fancy with flawless marches and music.

The crowd especially liked a series of rhythmic dances with Misses Barbara Barrat, Leatrice Wood, Peggy Singleton, Betty Hobb, Mary Ann Jackson, Dorothy Caywood and Lois Hall as principals.

The band marched onto the playing field, formed an outline of the State of Texas and swung into the "Eyes of Texas."

Forms Gigantic Star

Then it cut loose with "Boogie March", "Tuxedo Junction", "When The Works All Done this Fall" and finally "Stardust." Of this latter song, the band formed a gigantic star.

The crowd gave the youngsters thunderous applause when they marched off.

The band will make a concert appearance in Washington tomorrow and return here Sunday as guests of the Yankees. They will be in New York for the Lions' convention for the remainder of the week, then travel to Montreal, Canada, for another concert before returning to Texas.

Radio Theft Investigated

Theft of a $37 radio from Plains Investment company, at 1105 Ave. L, was under investigation of police today.

The sheriff's department said that Jack Baughtman, 27, was taken in custody of Wichita Falls authorities from county jail, to face a Wichita county district court charge of wife and child desertion.

Baughton, described as a taxi-cab driver, was arrested Thursday night by F. H. Bolen and John Barnett, deputies sheriff.

Fine Is Assessed

Nettie Boles, 38, was fined $200 and county court costs upon a plea of guilty of liquor law violation, after, the sheriff's department said, 240 pints of liquor and four cases of beer had been seized by Deps. Sheriff Raymond Land and Frank Mitchell.

A bond in a drunk driving charge will be posted by M. M. Franklin, 27, Lubbock man charged in the same court, officials said.

A commissioners temporary commitment was issued Thursday by Mrs. Olive Fluke, U. S. commissioner of the Lubbock division of the Northen Federal Judicial district, for Farrell Turbeville, 18, of, Citra, Fla., and Reuben Jacob Fair, 18, of Sudan.

It was issued upon a complaint charging that they, on July 17, drove a stolen 1948 light automobile from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Morton, knowing it was stolen.

Bail of $1,000 each was set for subsequent appearance before the commissioner. The defendants were held in Lubbock county jail.

Wiley F. McCowan, 21, of 905 Ave. R, was released into the custody of his father last night after paying $34.80 in fine, costs and reimbursements for two bad checks. He was arrested on authority of Borger officials, where he allegedly passed two worthless checks, each in the amount of $5, records showed.

Killers Caught

crawled from one of the four trucks on the driveaway, his hands in the air. He said he was Daniels, and the highway patrol said he admitted he and West had committed the seven killings for which they had been sought over 20 states the last two weeks.

The pair of gunmen hit the end of their trail only a few hours after they had killed the last two of their seven victims, farmer James Smith, 25, of Tiffin, who was slain as he sat in a car with his wife, and another man tentatively identified as Glenn Beard Gschwind, a 24-year-old navy veteran of Fremont, whose body was found early today in a roadside park.

Later an official of the Bolin Driveaway Co. of South Bend, Ind., owner of the truck in which the bandits met their finish, said he believed the seventh victim of the gunmen was one of their employes.

The official said Orville Taylor, 28, of Niles, Mich., had left South Bend Thursday for Welch, W. Va., with four Studebakers on a driveaway truck. The driveaway in which the two bandits were captured carried four Studebakers. A company official was en route to Tiffin to view the body.

The gray Pontiac car in which the killers launched their career 14 days ago by slaying Earl Ambrose, Columbus tavern operator, was found beside Gschwind's body.

After the Ambrose killing, the two youthful gunmen blazed a bloody trail, which had law enforcement officers baffled and had all of Ohio in a state of "jitters."

Next on the list of victims was Frank Kerech, middle-aged tourist camp operator at Flat Rock, Mich.

Back To Reformatory

Then the killers, after being seen momentarily in southeastern Ohio, swept into the northern section and back to the Mansfield reformatory where both had served time for previous crimes.

There, before dawn, they ousted a reformatory official, his wife and 21-year-old daughter from their beds in their nightclothes, ransacked the residence to obtain a shotgun, rifle and revolver, and then shot the three to death in a rain-swept cornfield. The nude bodies of reformatory farm superintendent John Niebel, 50, his wife, Nolanda, 52, and 21-year-old Phyllis, her red hair done up in pin curlers, were found hours later.

Third Party

his vice presidential running mate.

The third party nominee waved aside questions from reporters about Communism and party principles. He said such questions would be answered at a news conference later in the day.

He did say that chances of his party are "very much better than any of the pollsters indicate."

Wallace's arrival marks the formal launching of the first serious attempt since 1924 to cut across Democratic and Republican lines with a third candidate for the presidency.

In that long ago era, the ticket of Robert M. Lafollette sr., and Burton K. Wheeler got about 4,500,000 votes.

Voting Is Estimated

Estimates now range between that and 9,000,000 for the vote total likely to be amassed by Wallace and his running mate, Senator Glen Taylor, erstwhile Idaho Democrat.

But if the new party convention opening officially here tonight itself gives Wallace almost no chance of election, there was none in the Republican or Democratic camps to say that his race will not affect vitally the November outcome.

The Republicans hope that Wallace and Taylor, to be formally nominated tomorrow afternoon, will take from the Democrats enough votes in the big republican states to cinch the election of their nominee, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The Democrats whistle valiantly that Wallace, a former New Dealer, will lure as many votes away from the GOP as he does from their party.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 23. (AP)—Trading in July contracts ended on the board of trade today with some wide last minute price swings.

Featuring last minute dealing was a spectacular run-up in July wheat, which jumped nearly as much as 10 cents on a few sales. Buying came from previous short-sellers who did not want delivery of the actual grain.

Action on the July deliveries, particularly in wheat, was a purely technical situation and not representative of the entire market. However, deferred wheat contracts maintained a steady tone through to the close.

The steady tone of wheat was based on a belief that large quantities of the grain were going into the government loan. This may make grain somewhat scarce later in the season, some traders reasoned. In addition, the government raised its buying price for cash wheat.

Price fluctuations in July corn were hard to follow. This contract opened higher, sank to around the previous close, spurted as much as 2 cents in a short-covering movement and then sank below the previous close again.

In July oats the trend was downward most of the session.

July wheat ended 4½-9½ higher at $2.31¼-$2.36½, July corn was ½ lower to 3¼ higher at $2.08-$2.12 and July oats were 3½-4¼ lower at 73¾-72¾.

Deferred wheat contracts were ¼ lower to 1¾ higher, deferred corn ¼ lower to ⅝ higher, deferred oats ⅜-¾ higher.

Youth On Trial For Burglary

Billy Joe Short, 19, was on trial today, for the second time, on an indictment charging that he burglarized Lubbock Packing company March 21.

A mistrial had been declared May 18, at a former trial, after a 99th district jury had reported itself hopelessly deadlocked in efforts to reach a verdict.

Testimony Offered

The state introduced testimony of Ray F. Johnson, plant owner and manager, and Marshall Cain, plant foreman, at the morning session, and Cain was under cross-examination this afternoon of Ben Kugera, defense counsel.

A jury was selected in the case at the morning session. It is composed of Charles H. Whalen, W. R. Adams, Harold Wilson, W. M. Underwood, W. E. Pohl, I. W. White, Buel Hall, Smith Shaw, C. C. Files, W. A. Patterson, Exie Blackmon, and W. L. Harris.

Negro Is Fined

Earlier in the day, Fonzie Johnson, jr., about 24, a negro, pleaded guilty of aggravated assault and was fined $100 and court costs. By agreement, the charge was reduced from assault with intent to murder Eugene Hankins, another negro, on May 16, court officials said.

Judge G. V. Pardue, presiding, dismissed the remainder of the jury panel, since the remainder of the day likely will be required for the Short trial and Saturday will be Democratic primary election day.

The sheriff's department said it had arrested Danny Floyd, 30, after his bondsmen on a charge of theft by bailee had requested permission to withdraw as sureties.

Floyd's trial had been slated for this week.

Next criminal week in the 99th district will be the week of Sept. 20, district attorney Lloyd Croslin and E. G. Pharr, his assistant, said.

Gen. Clay

settlement short of war. Clay stressed to reporters that the air lift provides a long time in which to negotiate with the Soviet for removal of the blockade.

To Remain In Berlin

Clay first told a House group, including some members of the foreign affairs committee, that American forces in Germany can and will carry out this government's intention to remain in Berlin despite the crisis over the Soviet blockade.

Later, he talked privately with a group of senators, headed by Senator Wherry (R-Neb), acting majority leader. Wherry told reporters—

"Gen. Clay told us the situation is not any worse than it has been. He said they will continue to work it out. He said nothing has happened yet to involve us in war and we can expect that nothing will."

Is Very Optimistic

Another senator represented Clay as being "very optimistic" over finding a satisfactory solution to the Berlin problem.

Earlier Clay had been closeted with the House group for 35 minutes in a review of the German situation. He had no comment after his appearance there or before the senators.

Committee Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) and Army Secretary Kenneth Royall issued the following joint statement concerning Clay's appearance before the House group:

"Gen. Clay presented to the committee the general conditions in Berlin and the action of the American troops and personnel in Berlin.

To Carry Out Policy

"Gen. Clay reiterated the determination and the ability of American forces to carry out our stated governmental policy in remaining in Berlin, and supplying those in the American sector.

"Chairman Eaton joined the Secretary of the Army in complimenting Gen. Clay upon the splendid manner in which he and his troops and civilian personnel are carrying out their mission in Berlin and in Germany as a whole."

After seeing the President, Clay told reporters—

"It was just a brief call to pay my respects before returning to Germany."

broadcast at 7:30 p. m. (KRLD).

Stevenson, who had predicted victory in an early morning broadcast campaigned through seven Central Texas towns yesterday: spent last night at Temple, and heads today through Bartlett, Taylor, Elgin, and Granger, to Austin.

He said there would be no last minute charges from him against opponents. "I'll stay in character. I can get to more people on the street than I can at meetings," Stevenson said.

Peddy wound up campaigning outside his home district with a speech at the peach and melon festival at De Leon, in which he declared that the "next six critical years in our nation's history is no place for a pussyfooter and fence-rider."

Collier told his rally the other senatorial candidates "can take the high road, I'll take the low road, and I'll be in Washington before them. Cyclone Davis of Dallas and Terrell Sledge of Kyle, two candidates who withdrew in support of Collier, spoke in his behalf.

Sledge said Collier had a radio broadcast scheduled at 7 p. m. today from Dallas (WFAA).

Certain Of Victory

Johnson, returning to Houston after campaigning at Baytown and Pasadena, told a rally last night:

"We came close to getting the job done in 1941 but I'm certain we'll win Saturday."

He was recalling his 1941 special senatorial election race with W. Lee O'Daniel.

Johnson declared that the nation "must repudiate appeasement."

"We must not make, for the third time, foolish foreign policy mistake that will find us at war," he said.

New Non-Fold Diaper Developed By Texan May Revolutionize Baby Pants Business

By DOUGLAS GRAHAM
United Press Staff Writer

DETROIT, July 23—A new non-fold diaper was hailed today as an invention likely to revolutionize the baby pants business.

The new diaper was introduced at opening sessions of the national institute of diaper services convention.

Shaped like an hour-glass, with extra padding at the center, it gives a streamlined "new look" and eliminates old-style bulkiness. In addition, diaper men said the new technique is more comfortable and the padding increases absorbency.

Folding Not Necessary

Bert Nevins, institute spokesman, hailed the new diaper as the first one in history to eliminate folding.

Its inventor is Fred Dexter, a Houston, Tex., pecan grower whose unexplained interest in diapers led to perfection of the new technique.

While diaper men watched anxiously, the new-styled diaper was tried publicly for the first time by Mrs. Hope Lewis, Detroit, on 14-month-old Paul Ashley, son of Detroit Health Commissioner W. J. Ashley. Paul giggled and the demonstration was acclaimed a success.

Kite Style Advocated

Nevin said diapers have been problems to mothers and babies alike since biblical times. For generations, the triangular "three-cornered pants" were standard baby equipment, but they went out of vogue 15 years ago.

The square and oblong folded styles then became widely used and during the war, some child-care specialists advocated the kite style. Someone in Boston even came up with a "pretzel" twist.

Nevin said the new non-fold diapers will be first available through diaper washing services but later will be sold generally throughout the nation.

Trapped Finger

lered and hollered for my neighbors. Then my voice got hoarse, so I shut up."

Finally the ice man came.

"Boy! was I glad to see him," Miss Murphy exclaimed.

For more than an hour he tried to free Miss Murphy's finger, with no success. At 3 p. m., he gave up and called police.

"So many men came I didn't know what was happening or what it was all about," Miss Murphy said.

At 4:15, seven hours after the drain had trapped the finger, a police mechanic freed it by cutting around the drain with a hacksaw. Miss Murphy's fingernail came off with the drain, but she considered it a small loss.

Her voice weak and hoarse and her finger bruised and swollen, Miss Murphy made known her intention today to get rid of that ice-box.

Littlefield Men Are Charged In Thefts

LITTLEFIELD, July 23—(Special)—Three Littlefield men have been charged with burglary in connection with the break-in of the Kline-Hufstedler Implement company here last week, Sheriff Hugh Rice of Lamb county announced Thursday night.

The three men, charged in the justice court of Sam Farquhar, are Bobby Holder, 24, Billy Dosher, 19, and R. L. Boykin, about 24. Holder and Dosher have made signed statements in connection with the theft, Sheriff Rice said.

The men are accused of taking a heavy safe, tools, a radio and four auto tires. The loot was recovered from behind a vacant building about 15 miles north of Littlefield. The men were traced through "odd" tracks of their borrowed car at the scene of the break-in, Sheriff Rice said. Their case will come up at the August term of the grand jury in Littlefield.

Assisting Sheriff Rice in the investigation were Texas Rangers Raymond Waters and Razz Renfrow and Littlefield police.

Sheriff Rice said early today that investigation continued into an oral statement of one of the men charged that he had taken part in burglary of Marrow Lumber company, Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company and Fashion Tailor shop recently in Littlefield.

Officials said a fountain pen had been taken after the knob of a safe had been knocked in the Galbraith office. At Marrow Lumber company, four fishing reels and rods, a .22 rifle, a radio and other property were taken. Clothing was removed from the tailor shop.

Dixiecrat Bandwagon To Roll Into Texas

HOUSTON, July 22. (U.P.)—Plans for an active campaign for the presidency by Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina were revealed today with an announcement that the "Dixiecrat" bandwagon would roll into Texas "within the next two weeks."

Thurmond will officially open his campaign with a speech here, according to Houston attorney Palmer Bradley, chairman of the Harris county Democratic convention.

Bradley attended the "states' rights" conclave July 17 in Birmingham, when the Southern Democrats nominated an anti-Truman ticket with Thurmond and Mississippi Governor Fielding L. Wright as running mates.

Bradley urged Texans to give the presidential candidate an all-out welcome, and reminded reporters that Thurmond can offer the South "an opportunity to vote for a real Democrat."

He added that the 46-year-old governor would stump the South on a platform composed of principles laid down by Thomas Jefferson.

Egyptian Guns Fire On Jews

CAIRO, July 23 (AP)—The Israeli high command in Tel Aviv announced today that a Jewish convoy on the way to the Negeb desert in southern Palestine had been shelled by Egyptian artillery.

No details were given about the reported breach of the United Nations-imposed truce after two days of complete observance.

Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion said yesterday the Jews prefer to negotiate directly with the Arabs without interference from Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. mediator.

Mediator Sets Talks

Ben-Gurion told the Israeli state council in Tel Aviv:

"The United Nations assembly elected the mediator, but now, after our victories, our negative attitude to his suggestions remains unchanged. Now that our power is strengthened we must utilize each opportunity without the mediator's interference and in direct contact to find a common language with the Arab peoples—not on the strength of our victories, but on the basis of a Semitic cooperation, as free and independent people."

At his Rhodes headquarters Bernadotte said he hopes to discuss the demilitarization of Jerusalem with Arab leaders tomorrow. He said he would confer then with Arab representatives in Beirut, capital of Lebanon.

Refinery Working Again

After the Beirut conference the mediator said he might visit Haifa, headquarters of his truce observers. He expects to return to Rhodes Monday.

Haifa dispatches said the oil refinery located there has resumed operations after a three-month shut-down The dispatches said 200 employes had turned out the first shipments of kerosene and benzine, on orders from the Israeli government and that the refinery would operate henceforth on a 24-hour-a-day basis, using crude oil stocks stored in Haifa.

The pipe line from the Iraq oil fields has been shut off by the Arabs since April when the Jews seized the northern Palestine port city before expiration of the British mandate

$20,000 Sought From Railroad In Damages

John A. Mulliens of Lubbock filed a suit Thursday afternoon in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair asking judgment for $20,000 in damages.

He named as defendant Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Co.

The petition was filed by the law firm of Berry and Ball. It alleged total and permanent injuries suffered March 25 when, the plaintiff said, he was employed as a section hand and was loading creosote crossties on a handcar.

Goldwyn Seeking Actress To Replace One Of Great Lovers

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, July 23—Samuel Goldwyn is seeking a young stage actress to replace Cathy O'Donnell as Farley Granger's teammate.

Only a few weeks ago, Goldwyn was hailing the O'Donnell-Granger duo as his greatest love team since Vilma Banky and Rod Laroque. Then the executive and Miss O'Donnel encountered some differences of opinion and her contract was ended "by mutual agreement."

Plans are still going ahead for a Sept. 1 start of "Roseanna McCoy," a backwoods story which was to star the romantic pair Goldwyn's casting director flew East this week to hunt for a new girl.

Marx Brothers Mum

Harpo Marx tells me he and his brothers are making no statements about their retirement as a team after their current "My Blonde Heaven." That's somesomething new for the boys, who are often forecasting their breakup. They will do a picture based on their lives after this one, and let's hope there'll be many more. Harpo says their changed attitude has something to do with a letter from their uncle, veteran actor Al Shean. He signed it, "82—and still looking forward to next week."

John Garfield was so happy about bringing his "The Numbers Racket" in at a $100,000 saving that he gifted the crew with $50 savings bonds. He goes to New York for location shots in Trinity church, Wall street and elsewhere, then returns here for "Rough Sketch" with Jennifer Jones.

McCrea Plans Trip

Barbara Bel Geddes gets the glamor treatment in "The Luckiest Girl In The World," after playing adolescents. I saw her in a low-cut gown and a $35,000 mink and she looks mighty trim . . . June Allyson and Dick Powell are eager to do a summer stock engagement together, but she probably won't finish "Little Women" in time.

Joel McCrea and Frances Dee head for Europe next spring. He'll visit his relatives in Scotland and scout picture possibilities. It's Joel's first trip abroad "I was under contract for 15 years," he said on the "South of St. Louis" set, "and before that, I couldn't afford it."

French Request Received

Mickey Rooney says he'll establish talent offices in San Francisco, Chicago, New York and Kansas City to help find new artists for his radio show . . . MGM reports that President Auriol of France has asked for "The Three Musketeers" premiere to take place in Paris.

Vic Mature was happy to learn he won't have to grow a mane for his Samson role. He'll have a falsie . . . Ayn Rand is preparing a book about the railroad industry. She treated the architect profession in "The Fountainhead" . . . Howard Dasilva is making a series of shorts on how to act. They're aimed for showing to drama schools . . . Gary Cooper was asked if he planned to go to Europe. His reply: "Nope. I hear they're short of groceries over there. And I'm a guy who likes groceries."

U. S. Colonel Quits Scandinavian Post

OSLO, Norway, July 23 (AP) — U. S. Col. Bernt Balchen has resigned as managing director of the Norwegian branch of Scandinavian airlines system to return to service in the American Air force.

Balchen headed a secret airline operated by the U. S. air transport command during the war to free interned American fliers and to supply the undergrounds in occupied countries.

Maj. Gen. Hjalmar Riiser-Larsen succeeds Balchen with Scandinavian airlines.

Negro Youths Play William Tell Game

DALLAS, July 23. (U.P.) — Shades of William Tell.

An argument between two negro youths, one 14 years old and the other 13, over who was the best shot landed one boy in the hospital today and the other in the hands of the police.

The object was to see which one could come the closest to the other with a bullet. The 14-year-old pulled down on his compatriot with a .22-calibre rifle. He missed, but it was a close one.

The 13-year-old sighted, pulled the trigger and his friend caught a lead pellet in the mouth, lodging in the left side of his neck.

The 13-year-old caught a stiff reprimand from the police. He then was sent home to his mother for action.

Water Deluge Sweeps Children Into Sewer

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 23. — Two children were swept 150 feet through a 30-inch surface sewer during a heavy rainstorm today.

They saved themselves by grasping a tree when they emerged at the bank of the Ohio river.

Joann Snyder, 4, and her brother Benjamin, 11, were trapped by onrushing water while playing in the street, police said. Rainfall of 1.19 inches was recorded during the storm, which washed out streets here.

Reds In Malaya And Singapore Outlawed

SINGAPORE, July 23 (AP) — British officials today outlawed the Communist party in the Federation of Malaya and the neighboring Crown Colony of Singapore.

An official statement said the Communist party "for some time past has been secretly responsible for planning, superintending and carrying out a campaign of violence for purposes of upsetting the existing authority of lawful governments in the Federation of Malaya and Singapore."

Malayan Communists have directed not only the current armed revolt but also have carried out "subversive propaganda" and forwarded cash and goods to guerrilla bands, the statement said.

Inspector's Nose Leads Him To Estate Where Russian UN Personnel Are Living

GLEN COVE, N. Y., July 23 (AP) —The Glen Cove building inspector, who says his nose led him to an estate occupied by Russian United Nations personnel, plans to go back there today.

The inspector, Joseph Stanco, discovered yesterday that an overflowing cesspool on the 20-acre estate was the source of an odor that has caused complaints among residents here for the last 10 days.

The pool was pumped out and the odor subsided. But Stanco said that when he proposed a fire inspection of the 45-room house, a Soviet attache, J. Krasivoco, refused, saynig:

No Smoking In Bed

"We Russians are very careful. We do not smoke in bed."

The Russians pay a reported $2,000 monthly rental on the house, but it has fallen into disrepair. Since a Glen Cove building code requires that a home occupied by more than 15 persons must be fireproof, Stanco said he asked Krasivoco how many persons occupied the house, but was refused an answer.

He quoted Krasivoco as saying: "Your country is so funny Just leave us alone. That is all we want. There are laws for American people and laws for Russian people, and yours do not concern us here. Don't worry about us."

However, Glen Cove Mayor Luke A. Mercadante said Stanco later had obtained permission to return to the house today for an inspection.

Judy Holcombe Rites Will Be Held Sunday

Last rites will be read Sunday in Winslow, Ark., for Judy Holcombe, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Holcombe of 214 N. Adams. The body was sent Thursday night to Fort Smith, Ark., by Rix Funeral home.

The parents were driving overland to Arkansas, and planned to arrive at about the same time as the body.

No list of survivors was available, but Mrs. Holcombe's family are residents of the Fort Smith region. Holcombe's family lives in Oklahoma.

The youngster died about 10:45 o'clock Wednesday night in West Texas hospital, where she had been in critical condition since last Saturday morning when she ran her new bicycle into the back of a city garbage truck.

The commission was instructed to appear at 10 a. m. today and make its selection.

The men are J. H. Brewer of Slaton, Walter Posey of Lubbock, Douglas Pounds of Acuff, F. L. (Dick) Norman of Hurlwood, and Henry Mahoney of Shallowater.

Suit Is Planned In Astor Estate Deal

MIDDLETON, R. I., July 23. (AP) —A retired chain drugstore operator, who said his $70,000 auction bid for the Newport estate of John Jacob Astor, 3rd, has been rejected, planned today to sue for possession of the 14-room villa.

James O'Donnell said he will sue Astor "for specific performance of contract." He made the statement last night after he received a telegram from H Howard Babcock of Astor's New York law firm saying that Astor had decided to cancel the sale.

Under the terms of the auction announced at the sale last Saturday, Astor reserved the right to cancal any accepted bid within five days.

O'Donnell said Astor's attorneys told him by telephone that Sunday was not counted in the five-day clause period, but that his own counsel had advised him Sunday did count and that Wednesday was the deadline for cancellation of the bid.

O'Donnell added that his $7,000 deposit had not yet been returned, but that the telegram from Babcock said a letter would follow.

Astor could not be reached for comment at Chetwode, his estate, immediately.

City Budget Is Approved Over Objections Of Mayor Rodgers

Possible Solution To Long-Range Water Problem Seen In Blanco Canyon Study

First steps toward investigating Blanco canyon, near Crosbyton, as a possible solution of Lubbock's long-range water problem were taken at the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission Thursday afternoon. The action represented the first serious consideration ever given to that as a source of permanent supply.

Another surprise provided by the meeting was Mayor W. H. Rodgers' action in voting against the city budget proposed for the fiscal year which started last April 1. He argued that the budget provides "too many salaries that are entirely too high," and objected particularly to the creation of the new position of director of public works at $630 a month.

Budget Is Approved

The budget, however, was approved when Commissioners Clarence Whiteside and E. K. Hufstedler, jr., voted for its adoption. Only three of the five members of the commission attended the meeting, Commissioners W. B. Price and John Spikes being out of the city.

Also of high importance in the business transacted was the approval of resolutions which marked the start toward the paving of 65 blocks—approximately five and one-half miles—of city streets, the largest project of its kind ever to be given a green light. Curbs, gutters, and caliche bases are to be laid this summer and fall, with paving to be completed next spring.

Overshadowing all otner matters in its potential importance was the business pertaining to Blanco canyon, through which the Salt fork of the Brazos river flows. It is one of the headwaters streams of the Brazos. Members of the commission credited Col. E. V. Spence, chairman of the state board of water engineers and former city manager of Big Spring, with having suggested the investigation.

Everyone acknowledged at the outset that the possibility, at this stage, is an unknown quantity. Factors were cited which both encourage and discourage optimism.

Large Lake Foreseen

On the optimistic side were estimates, described as tentative but with some basis of fact, that approximately 75,000 acre feet of water could be impounded there. That would amount to around 25 billion gallons—more than 15 times as much water as Lubbock ever has used in a year. The watershed of the Salt fork unquestionably is large. The contour of the canyon was described as a natural for a big reservoir impounded behind a large dam at one of several possible sites.

The most optimistic picture visualizes a lake some 40 miles east of Lubbock which would be six to 10 square miles in area with depths of 90 to 100 feet. If a dam for such a reservoir should be undertaken, efforts would be made to secure federal and state help for a project which also would have an important flood control function.

Cited as being on the pessimistic side were these considerations:

The expense which, although as yet unestimated, unquestionably would be huge.

The consensus of most of the limited engineering opinion available is that there would not be enough runoff on the watershed to fill a lake, if a dam should be built.

There is uncertainty as to whether the bottom of such a lake, if one could be filled, is watertight — whether it would hold water.

There is doubt whether any dam site is close enough to Lubbock to be practical for this city.

There is a question as to whether the water, if any, would be fit for human and animal consumption. The mineral content undoubtedly would be high.

Cost Would Be High

The cost of getting any water impounded to Lubbock would be large. Every gallon of it would have to be pumped up-grade, and pumping is the biggest expense in the operation of any water system.

But the commission members present were unanimous in agreeing that the possibilities demand investigation. The first step in doing that was the authorization of an application to the state board for rights to any water which might be impounded in the canyon. This filing will cost $250.

Th next step will be to investigate water runoff through the canyon, the feasibility of dam sites, whether the floor of the canyon is water-tight and other factors. In that program, assistance is expected from the state board, the U. S. Geological survey and probably others. But most of the expense which, according to tentative estimates, will not exceed a few thousands dollars, will fall on the city.

Rodgers Hits Budget

The permit requested is renewable for a maximum total period of three years. Members of the commission expressed confidence that Lubbock can ascertain definitely within that time whether the project is feasible. If so, then will come the problem of financing and building it.

Mayor Rodgers' vote against approving the new city budget was wholly unexpected. The budget had been set for a public hearing Thursday afternoon, as required by law, and the the expectation

The "Old Man" And The "Little Woman" Are Often At Odds

Lubbock Women Declare They Have A Mind OF Their Own When It Comes To Voting

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

Women arrive at their decisions on how to vote by reading, listening to comments and consulting their husbands, but they don't always vote the way their husbands do, a survey made among Lubbock women Thursday indicated.

Some of the women said they discuss with their husbands the candidates for various offices and unless they have formed definite opinions vote the same way their husbands do.

"On some candidates, I make up my own mind and on those I have no opinion about, I ask my husband just before we vote what he suggests," said one wife. "If we disagree on a candidate and he makes me see the one I believe in would hurt us professionally or some other way, I would sometimes change my mind, but I think I'm an independent voter." She said that a wife, by voting on the opposite side from her husband, doesn't cancel his vote any more than she cancels her next door neighbor's vote.

"I usually read what's in the papers, then ——— (husband) and I talk it over. I hear people discussing it and read advertisements. I don't go out much. I just go on what I hear and read."

Answers Are Given

Asked first whether they vote the way their husbands do and, second, how they make their decisions, other wives gave the following answers:

"No, not always (does she vote the way her husband does). We sometimes cancel one another's votes. I'm influenced a lot by the paper and by what I hear. I'm sometimes influenced by people who are backing a certain candidate. I'm not influenced too much by their speeches."

"No, not necessarily. It all depends. I try to find out what the man has done. I try to think about it before the election. I don't have it on my mind all the time."

Most Of The Time

"Most of the time we do vote the same ticket. There have been a few times we didn't." She added that she is guided by what she reads and, by "what someone I know and can trust says. If they know him better than I do, I take their recommendation."

"Well, yes, we usually do. I haven't a mind of my own."

"We try to vote alike, unless there is someone I particularly want and he doesn't. There is no point in voting if you don't." Both she and her husband find it distasteful for a candidate to give too much first person talk of his accomplishments. "The more they pump themselves up, the less I think of them," she said.

"We usually do. We usually

Home Builders Given Charter

Members of the Lubbock Home Builders' League met Thursday night at Hilton hotel for a dinner meeting, and officially became affiliated with the National Association of Home Builders when they were presented their charter by Dick Hughes of Pampa on behalf of the national organization.

The local league was recently organized, and is composed of Lubbock building contractors and members of affiliated trades and groups.

New Chapter Accepted

Vernon Thompson, local contractor and president of the local organization, introduced honor guests, including Hughes and Fred Seal of Amarillo. A third guest, Gus Anders of Fort Worth, also was present.

Thompson accepted the charter for the Lubbock group. Hughes, a representative of the National Home Builders association, spoke briefly. He pointed out that the national association was organized in 1942, with a comparative few members. It now has over 13,000 individual active members, and local affiliated groups throughout the country, as well as in territorial possessions, and in a period of six years, has grown into a strong and influential organization.

The Pampa contractor reminded members that National Home Week, sponsored by the National Home Builders association, begins Sept. 5, and that widespread publicity is to be given the event through such mediums as newspapers and national magazines.

Seal, an Amarillo contractor, spoke on some aspects of low cost

Report Warns Of Bollworms

Although there are no boll weevils and very light to medium infestations of fleahoppers in South Plains cotton, an indirect warning came yesterday with announcement by the Texas agricultural experiment station system that "the bollworm has become a serious menace in many cotton fields in south central, central, and north central Texas."

The information came in the weekly report on the cotton insect situation in Texas, in which the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine, the extension service, and the experiment station system cooperate.

The report gave no indication as to whether it was felt the pests might show a migratory tendency, but asserted that "a determined and continued fight is now essential" if a most promising crop of squares and bolls are saved from destruction.

Leafworms were found in not too menacing numbers in six Valley counties, but no rapid increase or spread was expected in the near future. In the northwestern portion of the state a general increase in fleahoppers was noted, but in central and southern areas this infestation remained about the same as last week. The state average this week was 10 fleahoppers per 100 terminals, compared with eight last week.

Boll weevil infestation in 617 fields in 38 counties over the state averaged 18 per cent punctured squares, three per cent higher than last week, and five per cent higher than two weeks ago.

Central Texas showed a rapid increase in boll weevil infestation,

Democrats To Face Decision

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff Writer

Which of the two Democratic parties should Texas Democratic electors support?

That question is to be subject for debate in neighborhood precinct conventions throughout the state tomorrow night.

Decisions there will form the groundwork for county conventions one week later and for the Sept. 14 state convention for which a "bitter fight" is brewing.

Now Two Parties

When the Texas Democratic convention resolved at Brownwood to support "the nominees of the Democratic party," there was only one Democratic party Now there are two—the Truman-Barkley Democrats and the Thurmond-Wright Democrats. Both claim to be "the" Democratic party.

The Thurmond - Wright "Dixiecrats" have proposed to let a popular vote settle the issue.

Merritt Gibson of Longview. Texas Regular leader of 1944 and an active Dixiecrat, said yesterday that "a bitter fight" could be eliminated in September if the Democratic executive committee will permit voters in the second primary in August to ballot on whether they want Texas electors to back Truman or Thurmond.

A People's Mandate

"This would be a people's mandate to the electors and a fair solution. Nobody could complain about the results," he said. Without such a mandate, the issue faces certain warfare at Fort Worth.

Anti - Truman Democrats and Truman - loyal Democrats warred at the Brownwood convention—but both bowed to the controlling middle-of-the-road Democrats led by Gov. Beauford H. Jester's forces.

Jester fought at the national convention to keep a bolt-minded Texas delegation in line with its instructions. To fight Truman policies but support party nominees—whoever they be. But there are Truman Democrats who disapprove of the entire delegation's behavior at Philadelphia.

Sabotage Is Charged

Caso March, candidate for governor, has charged Jester and his delegation with "sabotage and defeating" the Democratic party and has threatened to fight for the Truman-loyal factions to overthrow "Jestercrat" control of the party machinery.

SLAV SOLIDARITY IS INDICATED

Yugoslav Communists Backing Marshal Tito At Party Meet

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia July 23 (AP)—Yugoslav Communists appeared today to be lining up solidly behind the leadership of Premier Marshal Tito, who has been criticized as anti-Russian by the Moscow-directed Cominform.

Every event of the Yugoslav Communist party congress is underscoring this solidarity. Cheers erupted time and again yesterday for Tito, Russia's Prime Minister Stalin and the Yugoslav party as Interior Minister Alex Rankovic addressed the 2,000-odd delegates.

Intereference To Be Fought

Tito, Rankovic, Vice Premier Eduard Kardelj, Minister Without Portfolio Milijan Djilas and Franz Leshkovic of Slavenia were identified for the first time as members of the Yugoslav Communist politburo.

Borba, the Communist newspaper, carried a demand from Montenegro Communist leaders for the reelection of the "old heroic central committee of the party."

Ranovic indicated that Tito and his men intend to insist on the right to handle internal problems as the Yugoslav Communists see fit. This policy was believed to be one of the fundamental issues causing the split betwen Yugoslavia and the Cominform.

Education Program Planned

The interior minister said the party would conduct a program of education based on the works of Lenin, Stalin, Marx and Engels but added:

"There will be compulsory subjects (for our members) which will specify the proper application of Marxism and Leninism in our country."

It has been Tito's stand that the Communist party of each country has its own problems which must be solved without interference from the outside.

Djilas wound up the day's session by assailing American "imperialism." It was the first time this subject had been mentioned in the two-day-old congress.

Replying to Cominform charges that Yugoslavia was courting western nations and had departed from the Marxist line, Djilas said that in the past the Yugoslav press has carried out o forceful campaign

Real Spirit Of Old Southwest Is Still Found At Crosbyton

By BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

CROSBYTON, July 23—To one looking for the genuine spirit of the old Southwest, Crosbyton is a good starting place.

For it is here that one still finds the friendly, unhurried spirit that was so typical of the days when the South Plains area was a wide-open frontier. Today, this Crosby county seat preserves much of the colorful flavor that existed when Crosbyton was a great ranching center shortly after the turn of the century.

Although the town's population has increased to approximately 2,700 since the 1940 census which showed a population of 1,615, the visitor will find little evidence of change. New paving, fine new homes and business buildings mark the prosperity of the area, but they have changed the general perspective of the city but little.

History Is Colorful

Its history is a colorful one. Crosby county's district clerk, Bill Ezell, can tell you most of it from personal experience, for he has been a resident for 49 years, having first come with the opening of the area as ranch country when he was 20 years old.

Ezell will tell you that Crosby development started at the turn of the century when C. B. Livestock company of Chicago, acquired control of 500,000 acres of land comprising the eastern half of Crosby county, and portions of Dickens, Floyd and Kent counties.

Ezell worked for the ranch and later became the county's third county-district clerk at the old county seat at Emma, a position which he has held most of the time since 1906.

The ranch built a railroad from Lubbock through Crosbyton, and it was the railroad which spelled the end of "Old Emma", the old town south of Ralls, Ezell recalls.

County Seat Moved

In 1910, after a fierce series of disputes, the county seat was moved to Crosbyton and offices set up in the Citizens bank building here. The present courthouse was completed in 1914, and the late Sen. Pink L. Parrish was county judge at the time.

The town of Crosbyton was not incorporated until 1917, with a population of approximately 1,000 at the time.

Today farming has replaced ranching as the county's chief production.

James E. Winters, administrative officer of the Crosby County Agriculture association, estimates that 318,000 acres are under cultivation this year, with another 200,000 acres still used for grazing land and open range.

Of the farm land approximately 125,000 acres are planted in cotton, 110,000 marked for wheat and 65,000 acres for grain sorghums. Other crops include sudan pastures and truck gardens.

Irrigation has become increasingly important in the county, with 350 irrigation wells now in use.

Terracing is widely developed in the county, with 2,730,405 feet of terraces reported in 1947, Winters said.

Ranching Also Important

The county's present tax valuation is $6,524,830, according to Roy Karr, the county tax assessor-collector. Wealth of the county is also indicated by the passenger car registration of 2,250 and truck and pickup registration of 800.

Ranching is still carried on extensively in the county, one of the largest ranches being the L-7 ranch of 110 sections operated by W. W. Brunson south of Crosbyton. The J. S. Bridwell ranch three miles east of the city contains 17,000 acres.

Industry and commerce of Crosbyton is based on agriculture. The town has three elevators and three cotton gins.

The town has 37 blocks of paving, of which 21 blocks were completed last year. Work is underway on farm-to-market road paving extending north of the city, and a $132,000 bond issue for road improvements in the eastern part of the county carried recently.

Bank deposits at Crosbyton's National bank totaled $2,395,224.82 at close of business June 30, according to a statement released by Russell McCurdy, executive vice president.

The Crosbyton Clinic Hospital, Inc., is one of the projects of which Crosbyton is proudest. The $120,000 36-bed hospital was completed last year, said F. M. Dunn, its manager, and patients come from all over the county and adjoining counties for treatment. It is staffed by two doctors, Dr. M R. Snodgrass and Dr. Dale R. Rhoades. It was financed by individual stockholders. Dunn has recently succeeded Keltz Garrison, the former manager of the hospital.

Crosbyton is one of the few South Plains towns which owns and operates its own electric power plant and ice plant.

The town has the city manager form of government. Jack Arthur is mayor and Hugh Nation is city manager.

Perched near the edge of Blanco canyon and the White river, Crosbyton has numerous recreational opportunities nearby. Silver Falls park, on highway 82 a few miles east of the town, is maintained by the highway department and provides a cool and unusual picnic ground. Swimming, which a few years ago was permitted above a concrete dam near the highway, has been discontinued.

29 "Escaped" Baltic Natives Hope To Gain U. S. Entrance

BOSTON, July 23 (AP)—A hardy band of 29 Baltic natives who braved an Atlantic ocean crossing in a 64-foot ketch "to escape Russian oppression" anxiously awaited Immigration service hearings today with hopes of being allowed to "live in freedom" in the United States.

The refugees' small craft—the Gundel—dropped anchor in Boston harbor yesterday after sailing up from the colonial port of Provincetown, where the ketch arrived after 43 days at sea.

Capt. John Rosenberg, 63-year-old master of the Ketch and spokesman for the band of modern pilgrims—which includes 25 Latvians, two Swedes, a Lithuanian and a Russian—told newsmen:

"We are all praying that God, who sailed with us across the Atlantic, will help us to win admission to the United States."

Return Means Death

He said that if they can't land here "we will have to try Canada." To go back to the Baltic lands from which they came, he added, "would mean the concentration camp and death—even for the little ones."

The seven-family party of 15 men, seven women and seven children fled their Soviet-dominated homes to Sweden, where they lived for four years and pooled their resources to acquire the Ketch for $12,000. They then sailed to Dover, England, before crossing the Atlantic with only a wrist watch and sextant to guide them.

An immigration official said hearings for the 29 refugees—all of whom arrived without visas or entry permits — probably will last three days. He added that if the Boston office decides to exclude them from this country, they may appeal to the Immigration Commission in Washington and to the U. S. Attorney General's office.

The $20 bill is vying with the $10 bill as a most popular green back. There is now $8,750,000,000 in $20 bills in circulation, compared with $6,000,000,000 in $10 bills.

Firefly Market Is Steady At 25 Cents

BALTIMORE, July 24. (AP)—The firefly market remained steady but brisk today at 25 cents a hundred.

Dr. William D. McElroy, biology professor who needs the insects for his vitamin K research, has received more than 3,000 since he made a nation-wide offer two days ago to buy any number of them.

The price holds good for any state in the union, provided the bugs arrive in good condition, Dr. McElroy said. The services of Indiana youth have already been offered in a telegram from an Indianapolis newspaper.

Dr. McElroy decided a mashed collection from Cranford, N. J., was worth only the 15 cents to pay the donor's expenses, but he congratulated James Herman, of Windsor, Pa., on the safe arrival of 300 well-packed blinkers.

How To Control Prices And Cost Of Living Is Biggest Problem Facing Special Session

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 23—President Truman's No. 1 problem, when he faces the special session of Congress next week, is this:

How to control prices and living costs? He wants power to do that. But what kind of control can he ask of Congress?

Last November, when prices weren't as high as they are now, he asked Congress for stand-by price control power.

Which means power he could use if, and when, he thought prices finally had climbed too high. Congress didn't give him the power.

Now, it seems, he thinks the time has passed for stand-by power and that prices need to be controlled right now.

At least, that's what he said last month in a speech at Los Angeles.

Big Question Stated

But the question, the terrific question, is: How can prices be controlled now? He could ask for either of these things:

1. Price control on just about everything, as in wartime.

2. Or, price control on a selected list of key items in American living, like meat, dairy products, poultry, coal, steel.

But if the government attempts to control prices in all, or only certain, fields, then some agency will be needed to see that price controls work.

This might mean a special new agency—like the wartime OPA—or some agency set up specially within an existing government department, such as the Commerce or Agriculture departments.

That would be a problem all by itself and probably would take months.

Problem Gets Tougher

But right here the problem gets deeper and very tough for Mr. Truman:

Suppose, say, he asks for price control on meat. Would that mean trying to roll back the price of meat to some figure where it was months ago?

Probably not. It might mean trying to freeze the price of meat at the point it had reached when—and if—Congress passed such a price control law.

That's not all.

Could the government attempt to control the price of meat without going all the way back down the line to control the price of some of the things that help boost meat prices?

For example: How could the government control meat prices—and still be fair to meat growers and packers—unless it also controlled the price of the feed cattle eat?

Price Freeze Unfair

If feed prices went up but meat prices were frozen, the meat industry would be caught in an unfair squeeze. That would be one-sided price control.

Suppose Mr. Truman asked for price control only on such things as meat, poultry, dairy products, coal and steel.

He could hardly ask for price control on them unless he also asked for control over the wages of people working in those fields.

But if that happened, the leaders of labor unions in those fields would be sure to protest by saying:

"This is unfair. The government controls wages in just these few fields, but workers in all other fields can go ahead and get pay raises. They'll be free to make more money while we're stuck."

Wage Control Opposed

Labor leaders generally are opposed to any wage controls anyway.

Yet, how can the price of something like meat or steel or coal be controlled and kept in line by the government if the meat packers and steel workers and miners are free to fight for wage increases?"

Something would have to crack if, for instance, steel workers got a raise while steel prices were held under tight government control.

A raise for the workers would increase the cost of producing steel. Then, unless the government permitted steel prices to rise, the steel producers could complain they were getting an unfair deal.

And yet how can the government attempt to control prices and wages in a few industries without controlling prices and wages in the whole country?

Rationing May Be Answer

But there is something on top of all this: It's rationing.

Suppose meat prices were controlled but people still were able to go out and buy up meat to suit themselves. That kind of competition among consumers is a pressure that helps boost prices.

To take away such pressure, the logical thing for the government to do would be to ration meat and whatever else it sought to control in the way of prices.

Double Death Ends All-Night Argument

HOOLYWOOD, July 23 (INS)—Alvin Roberts, 48, business manager for the teamsters union, climaxed an all-night argument with his wife over their separation by killing her and then committing suicide today.

Roberts shot his pretty wife, Maxine, 31, three times. Then he turned the pistol on himself and fell dead over her body.

The tragedy occurred in the apartment of friends, the Joseph Perkins. Sitting nearby when the shooting started was Mrs. Perkins, holding a 20-month-old daughter on her lap.

Crippled Vets Face Charges

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 23. (AP) — Two semi-paralyzed Texas veterans were held in $5,000 bond each today on federal charges of intent to murder in connection with the shooting of a third paraplegic.

The two—28-year-old Wallace Rice of Amarillo and 20-year-old Dow Duckworth of Gainesville—were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Leslie Nicholson yesterday and their preliminary hearing set for Wednesday.

Dr. Clyde Beck, Kennedy veterans hospital manager, said Rice shot Richard Hicks, 31, of Canalou, Mo., in the left thigh July 15. The shooting occurred, he said, after the two men rolled their wheelchairs to the sunporch and fought until both fell to the floor. Rice obtained the pistol from Duckworth shortly after the fight, the doctor said. He said Rice tried to shoot Hicks as he lay sleeping, but the gun jammed. Later, he added, Duckworth cleared the pistol for Rice, who then shot Hicks in the leg.

At the arraignment, Duckworth said, "I had nothing to do with the shooting. I did unjam the gun, but it was through fear I did that."

with the average percentage of punctured squares in 322 fields in six counties being 19 per cent this week, compared with 12 last week.

In north-central Texas 121 fields inspected in nine counties boll weevil punctured squares, and 13 fleahoppers per 100 terminals.

In northwest Texas boll weevil showed an average of 16 per cent infestations were light or nil, but fleahoppers increased sharply. Counties were in the area of Wilbarger, Cottle, Haskell, and Dickens, where last week the average was four fleahoppers per 100 terminals, compared with 16 this week. Wilbarger, the highest, showed 76 per 100 terminals. Dickens had 12.

In the South Plains no boll weevils were found, and fleahopper infestations were "very light to medium." An average of seven fleahoppers per 100 terminals were found in 49 fields in four counties, but counties where inspections were made were not named.

City Budget

was that it would be approved almost as a matter of routine. The fact that no one appeared to protest its adoption strengthened that expectation.

Consideration of the matter was wholly without fireworks. There was neither debate nor discussion. When the budget came up for consideration, the mayor asked the routine question whether anyone wished to protest its adoption. No one did. Then, after a pause—

"I move adoption of the budget," said Hufstedler.

"Second the motion," said Whiteside.

"I vote 'no'," said the mayor, emphasizing the "no."

There was no further discussion of the budget in the meeting. Mayor Rodgers gave reasons for his opposition later.

He said he thought City Manager Marlin R. Smith's salary of $12,000 is "entirely too much, and more than the job is worth."

He added the opinion that the city has "too many high-powered men who are drawing $500 a month and more."

Paving Is Listed

"In fact," he continued, "you might say that the city is employing too many people, period. Back in 1940 and 1941, the city had fewer than 150 employes. The payroll totaled less than $300,000 a year. Now there are about 450 on the payroll, costing around $1,300,000 a year. That is too big an increase to be explained by growth, rising living costs, or anything else.

"The obvious explanation is too much dead timber—too many people drawing bigger salaries than they earn. I'm going to do my best to correct that condition before another budget is approved."

The streets for which paving was ordered were:

Adams, from College View addition to Thirty-fourth; Harrison, Nineteenth to Twenty-first; Jackson, Twenty-second to Twenty-third; K, Twenty-fifth to L; M, Second to Fourth; Sanders, Vernon to Uvalde; U, Fifth to Sixth; V, Second to North Second and Thirty-second to Thirty-fourth; Vernon, First to Fourth; W, Nineteenth to Twenty-seventh.

Eighth, N to O; Twentieth and Twenty-first, Tyler to Polk; Twenty-third, H to L and N to P; Twenty-fourth, P to Q and T to U; Twenty-fifth, Tyler to Polk; Twenty-sixth, Q to S; Twenty-seventh, Jackson to Van Buren; Twenty-eighth, Monroe to Van Buren; Twenty-ninth, H to Morningside Heights and Monroe to Jackson; Thirty-first, L to P and College to Adams; Thirty-second, Washington Monroe; and Thirty-third, L to P and College to Monroe.

Highlighting the routine business transacted was the purchase of a street sweeper from Berryhill Equipment Co. for 7,133, conditional upon delivery by Sept. 15.

The commission also bought radio equipment to be installed in seven service automobiles of the water and electric departments from Motorola Co. for $4,129.

J. E. Garrison was granted a loading zone at 818 Main street, and one-hour parking was ordered at the Homer Hill grocery at 1602-4 Nineteenth.

J. C. Davis' offer of $300 for part of a lot on Avenue Q near Second street was refused. Also declined was Earl Deubre's $225 offer for part of a lot near Wolfarth street and Avenue C.

The commission agreed that when it determines what property the city should sell, this fact will be publicized. Everyone will be given an equal chance to buy, members declared.

The proposal to change several blocks in Morningside Heights from a residence to an industrial zone was referred back to the city planning commission for further study. Several property owners had protested the change.

More than 1,000 cattle brands are registered in Nebraska.

know the same ones and usually vote the same. We don't always decide we will just because the other does, but we usually do."

"I guess the majority of the time I do. There has been a time or two when I haven't voted like he did. I ask his opinion. I go a lot by what I read in the paper on the candidates for state offices I don't know. Sometimes I vote for the one somebody I know and like asks me to. In our own home town, little personal things enter in—knowing the candidates or hearing what they are like."

Sometimes Vote Opposite

"We usually make up our minds and vote the way we want to," said another "We don't know until afterward the way the other voted." Sometimes, when checking up afterward, she and her husband find they have voted on opposite sides. She said she forms her decisions by listening to talk, by reading and listening to the radio. She said she bases her decisions on what the candidates have done for Texas, for the country as a whole or for the city or county.

"I always poll my husband and his friends to see what they think. When I don't know a candidate, I go to someone who does and ask what they think. I try to get a ballot ahead of time."

She said she and her husband had "only lost a family vote once or twice" by voting for different candidates. Her husband never tells her who to vote for, but they discuss candidates and she finds who he favors. She likes to base decisions on the candidate's past records. She also likes to see a picture of the candidate, although her husband says that doesn't amount to anything.

"I vote just like I want to. Lots of times he doesn't even know who I'm going to vote for when I go to the polls." She said she forms her decisions by reading the newspaper, listening to the radio, reading cards passed out by candidates and reading mail she receives from candidates or their friends, in addition to acquaintance with some candidates.

"If they are, I'm ready to do everything I can to help that cause," Miller said.

Gov. Jester wrote friends last week to urge them to attend precinct and county conventions.

"It is essential that the friends of my administration control the (state) convention," he told them.

Newfoundland Appears Evenly Divided On Union With Canada

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, July 23. (AP)—Newfoundland's voters appeared almost evenly divided today on the question of self rule or union with Canada.

Incomplete returns from yesterday's referendum gave 64,890 votes for self-rule and 64,160 for union. There were 176,297 eligible voters. Counting was to continue today.

Observers said the tabulation thus far would appear to foreshadow victory for Union with Canada. Self-rule has drawn on most of its sources of strength. But some largely pro-union areas in remote regions still had not sent in many results.

Union Acceptance Doubted

At Ottawa, Canadians studying the results said that Canada may not accept the rocky island colony into confederation because of the closeness of the vote.

Those informants recalled Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King's statement several months ago that Canada would welcome Newfoundland as a 10th province only if the islanders indicated "clearly and beyond all possibility of misunderstanding" that that was their choice.

In a June 3 referendum, voters were asked to choose among self-rule, union with Canada or continuation of the present form of government by a British crown commission. Neither self-rule nor union got the required 51 per cent majority. So a runoff was ordered with the third proposition dropped.

Economic union with the United States became one of the hottest issues in the campaign. It was injected by a new party organized by Chesley A. Crosbie, St. John's businessman, who campaigned for self-rule.

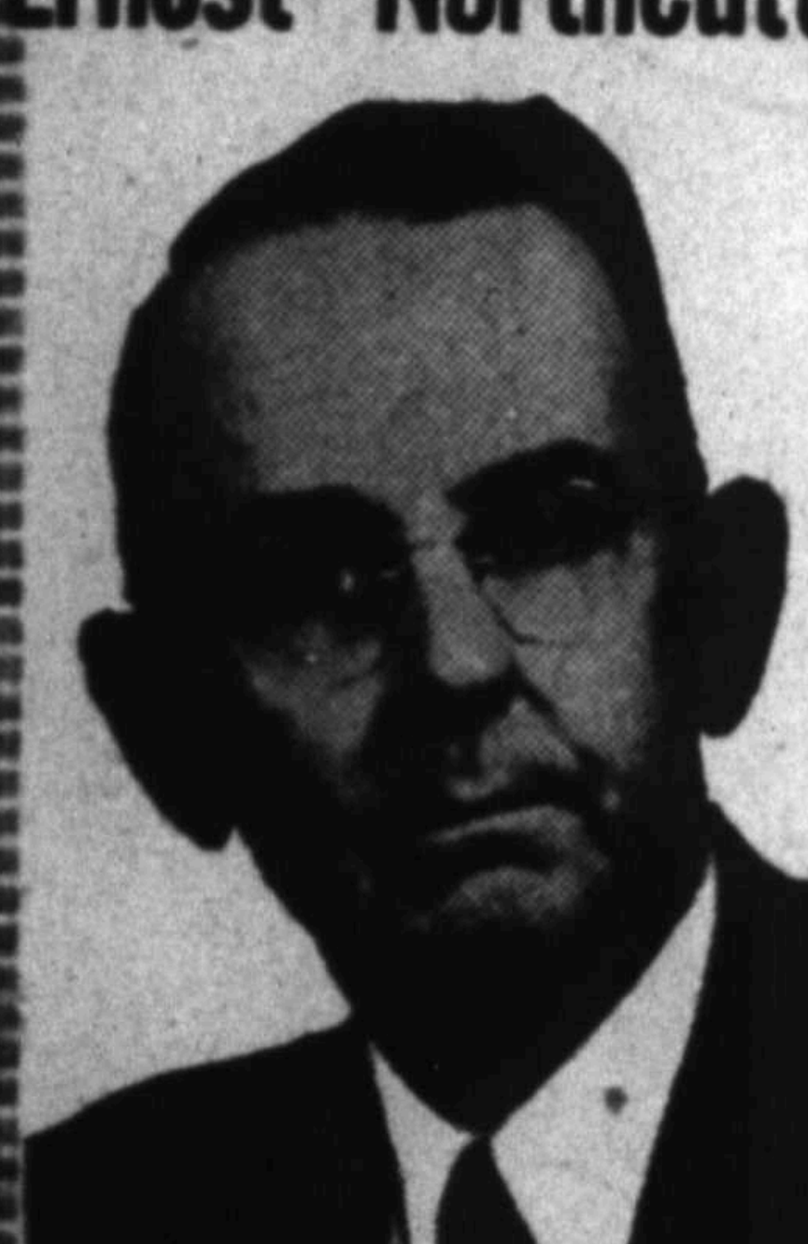

Newfoundland, a bleak island of 320,000 inhabitants which fits like a stopper at the mouth of the St. Lawrence river, once enjoyed independent dominion status like Canada. In 1934 it found itself unable to sustain its national debt of about $100,000,000. To make ends meet financially it reverted to colonial status.

A governor was appointed by the British crown and a commission sat as a sort of bankruptcy administration to settle the debt. War, and the establishment of American military bases, helped restore the island's prosperity.

Britain agreed to a vote on changing the island's staus. Crosbie charged that the proposition of economic union with the United States was deliberately left off the ballot in the first referendum.

He contended this is Newfoundland's only hope of permanent prosperity as it would open American markets to the island's products and bring millions of dollars in capital here.

FORT WORTH, July 23 (U.P.)—Mrs. Dorothy Maddox, admitting clerk at Pennsylvania avenue hospital, admitted today that the case of Mrs. Green had her confused, no end.

Mrs. Maddox admitted two Mrs. Greens to the hospital within 10 minutes. Both had the same doctor. Both were in for the same type of major surgery. Both their husbands worked for the same drug store.

First admitted was Mrs. Mary L. Green, wife of the fountain manager of the drug store. Next was Mrs. Lois Green, wife of the store manager.

Each wife had met the other's husband, but had not yet met each other. Both were admitted July 15 and both are recovering satisfactorily.

housing, stressing that while the majority of home building being carried on at present by building contractors is of a low cost nature, it is not of low enough cost to accomodate the numbers of home seekers with little money. The strongest argument, he pointed out, against government-sponsored housing is to build houses that people without much money can buy.

In conjunction he showed floor plans of a house that could be built to sell for about $3,200—a plan that has met with the approval of the national association.

He also pointed out that this house plan is adaptable to later additions and improvements. He urged that some member of the local group construct such a house in Lubbock in time for National Home Week.

Officers of the local group in addition to Thompson are Jim Reid, vice president; Floyd Read, secretary; and J. D Sanders, treasurer. Directors are Sam Lemons, J. W. Gray, D. C. Kennedy, J. J. Tyson, and J. C. Clark.

Stranded Ohio Boy Hopes For Ranch Job Rather Than Have Trouble With Officers

FORT WORTH, July 23. (U.P.)—A husky, brown-eyed lad of 13 wished fervently today that someone would offer him a job on a Texas ranch so he wouldn't have to return Sunday to his Ohio home where he expects to "get into trouble again."

Sunday, the boy will return to Columbus, where he said he had been staying with his mother and older brother His parents are separated. But the boy, who will be 14 this Tuesday, said he felt that if he did go back, he probably would become associated with his old companions and have trouble "with the cops" as he has previously.

He came to Texas originally to seek a job as a cowhand in the Lone Star state, but was picked up broke and without a place to stay or eat. Then Skeet Richardson, a photographer, took him over, decked him out in fancy cowboy regalia and has been giving him riding lessons so he can end his stay in Texas in grand style Saturday night by leading a rodeo procession here.

Richardson said he learned from Ohio authorities that relatives of the boy had no money to return him. So he will ride to Ohio Sunday with a Fort Worth couple driving that way on their vacation, unless some last-minute, hoped-for ranch job turns up.

The boy, described by Richardson as nice looking and intelligent, wants to finish his schooling and is now in the seventh grade. However, he wants more than anything to remain in Texas on a ranch. It would be a nice present for his 14th Birthday Tuesday.

French Conservative Seen As New Premier To End Dispute

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, July 23.—Andre Marie, a 51-year-old lawyer whose health was impaired in a Nazi concentration camp, appeared assured today of becoming France's next premier.

Marie, a Radical Socialist (conservative), telephoned President Vincent Auriol his formal acceptance of the nomination to form a new government. He will seek the national assembly's approval Saturday afternoon.

Earlier outgoing Premier Robert Schuman's Popular Republican movement (MRP) announced its "sympathy" for Marie. Like the Socialists the Popular Republicans made their support conditional on the policies he will outline to the assembly.

Communists Opposition

Marie, a tall grayhaired Norman, apparently will face the outright opposition of only the Communists. His colleagues said even Gen. Charles De Gaulle's followers had promised him "watchful neutrality."

If accepted by the assembly Marie possibly could form a cabinet by Sunday night. The crisis then would have lasted six days. Because of the present uneasy foreign situation, the French are eager to have a government formed as soon as possible. Marie worked far into the night negotiating with party leaders.

Before the Popular Republicans announced their conditional support, their leaders said they were worried about Marie's economic policies and anti-clerical views. The MRP is a Catholic party.

Primary Issue Stated

The main point at issue during Marie's negotiations with the MRP was his insistence on refusing to formally divulge his cabinet selections before he is approved by the assembly.

The Popular Republicans wanted to know whether three of their ministers in Schuman's cabinet were acceptable to Marie. All three have been criticized recently.

They are Mrs. Germaine Poinsot-Chapuis, health minister; Pierre-Henri Teitgen, minister of national defense, and Georges Bidault, foreign minister.

Possible Assignments Given

Marie was said to have replied he would keep Bidault but not at the foreign office where he preferred to have Schuman. He was reported to be planning to offer Bidault the post of minister of state.

Rene Mayer, Schuman's finance minister, is believed slated to replace Teitgen with former premier Paul Reynaud going to the finance ministry.

Leon Blum is said to have been picked for a ministry of state and Paul Ramadier for minister of national economy. Both are former premiers.

After Single Meeting 20 Years Ago New Zealand Woman To Wed Ex-U. S. Navy Man

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 23. (AP)—A New Zealand brunette and a retired U. S. Navy chief petty officer who met only once before—20 years ago—today were happily looking forward to their marriage.

Miss Julia Margaret Isdale, of Napier, N. Z., who arrive here by plane yesterday, and Thomas A. Cotter will be married Aug. 17 at Holy Name Catholic church.

Weather Only Complaint

Miss Isdale said she was "thrilled to be here" and "everything is just fine."

Her lone complaint was getting used to the high summer temperatures.

"You know this is the winter season in New Zealand and I'm having a little trouble getting used to this hot weather," she said.

"But everything is wonderful and I like this country very much," she added laughingly.

Plane Fare Talks

Cotter, who met his bride to be at a party in Napier in 1928 when his ship was on a cruise there, said they planned to go to New York on their honeymoon.

Miss Isdale wrote Cotter a letter some years later when she saw his name in a stamp collector's magazine.

Other letters followed and eight months ago Cotter proposed by mail.

"I thought he was fooling at first," she said, "but when he sent the plane fare in the next letter I knew he meant it."

Hogs which are kept cool during the summer months eat better, gain faster and put on weight at less cost.

Russian Chief Gives Explanation Of Berlin's Blockade; U.S. Blamed For Starting Dispute

(EDITOR'S NOTE: United Press Correspondent John B. McDermott attended a party in Berlin last night. Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky also was there. Granting an unprecedented informal interview, Sokolosky agreed the Russians would lift the Berlin highway blockade if the Americans opened their zone to the Russians. The interview is the first time the Russian commander has spoken directly about the explosive Berlin situation to a western correspondent).

By JOHN B. McDERMOTT
United Press Staff Writer
(World Copyright, 1948, By United Press)

BERLIN, July 23. — Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, agreed informally last night that the Soviet highway blockade of Berlin would be lifted if the Americans opened their zone to the Russians.

Sokolovsky told the United Press the Soviet blockade was imposed in retaliation against American regulations requiring special permits for Russians wishing to visit the American zone.

"For three years we permitted Americans free access (over international rail lines and superhighways) through our zone to Berlin," the Soviet commander said.

Visas Were Ordered

"But in June the Americans ordered that all Russians going to the United States zone would have to have 'propusk' (visas), so we reciprocated."

The interview took place during a supper party at Polish mission headquarters celebrating Poland's national holiday. It was the first time in several months that Sokolovsky had attended an international gathering or appeared in public.

"Would the Soviets lift their blockade of American traffic if the Americans opened their zone to the Russians?" he was asked.

"If you did that, we would," Sokolovsky replied.

The conversation up to that point concerned only highway traffic.

"Would that apply to train traffic as well?" Sokolovsky was asked.

The Russian marshal grinned, shrugged his shoulders and made no answer.

Sokolovsky apparently referred to an American order dated May 27 and made public early in June. The order required members of the various Soviet missions to cross to and from the United States zone by way of the Helmstedt checkpoint west of Berlin. Previously the Russians were permitted to cross at any border point they wished.

Col. Frank Howley, American comander in Berlin, said no such complaint as registered unofficially by Sokolovsky had ever been made in four-power meetings.

"It is too high level for my comment," he said.

(In Washington, Gen. Lucius D Clay, called home to report on the Berlin crisis, declined to comment on Sokolovsky's remarks.

(A high Army department official pointed out, however, that the United States is entitled by international agreement to free use of the international railroad and superhighway into Berlin.

(The United States cannot give the Russians free entrance into the American zone in return for use of these two routes, the Army department official said.)

Asks For Interview

The informal interview with Sokolovsky came about when the Soviet Marshal's English-speaking aide agreed to ask him if he would talk for a few minutes.

Sokolovsky was standing with a Polish official in a far corner of the crowded room, near one of several large tables covered with food.

I jokingly said that I had a complaint to make—that I couldn't get out of Berlin by automobile and therefore couldn't take a vacation.

I blamed the Russian blockade for my troubles. That seemed to amuse Sokolovsky. He shook with laughter and his eyes twinkled.

"But there is no blockade," he insisted.

I insisted that there was. Sokolovsky said if any correspondent wanted a visa for a trip outside Berlin he would be given one.

(A correspondent for the New York Times applied through routine channels, and made visits to 19 Russian offices, without finding anyone who knew how such a permit could be obtained.)

Reports Are Refuted

The conversations were conducted in Polish, Russian and English with a Polish representative serving as interpreter. Sokolovsky's English-speaking interpreter listened without interrupting.

I told Sokolovsky it was a pleasure to see him, for it refuted any reports that he had been recalled to Moscow and had not returned.

"But why are there such reports?" he asked. "Here I am."

"Do you think that because of the Berlin crisis—the blockade—there is any danger of war between the Soviet union and the United States?" Sokolovsky was asked.

Before he could answer we were interrupted by Russian officers who had been trying for several minutes to present friends to the marshal.

Although he failed to answer, I received the impression that Sokolovsky personally believes the Berlin question will be settled peacefully.

Confederate Flag Sales Zoom Upward

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 23 (AP)—The sale of Confederate flags has skyrocketed here — and the Birmingham chamber of commerce credits the recent meeting of rebellious Southern Democrats for the boom.

Letters and telepohne calls from throughout the nation for the stars and bars have swamped flag dealers, chamber officials say.

One woman from Santa Barbara, Calif., wrote for "a lot of Confederate flags." She said "there are hundreds of thousands of people in the west who will join in the states' rights fight."

Another flag seeker from California said she was a Republican but that didn't matter.

Still another woman from Brooklyn said she not only wanted the Confederate flag: but the Alabama flag as well.

Vernon Mandrell Is Hit By Automobile

A Lubbock youth, Vernon Mandrell, 20, of 229 N. Ave. H, suffered minor injuries Thursday night when he was hit by an automobile in the 1200-block of Ave. H. He was treated and dismissed at Lubbock Memorial hospital.

Driver of the car was Truman Edward Richerson, 16, of Abernathy, box 423, according to police reports. Richerson said he was blinded by the headlights of oncoming cars.

Mandrell, struck by the left headlight and fender of the car, was treated for a cut on the back of the head and a bruised shoulder, the hospital said.

Two Texas Doctors Discover Technique Of Taking Person's Temperature Through Ear

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 23.—Ears are useful for more purposes than hearing, supporting eye-glasses, or as pencil racks, two Texas scientists reported today.

Some day the doctor won't have to push that troublesome glass thermometer under your tongue, to take your temperature.

Because, according to the Texans, the ear can be used to determine body temperature. Their new technique may enable nurses and physicians to keep constant watch on a patient's temperature while he sleeps.

Two Instruments Used

The scientists, Drs. Roger J. William and Roy C. Thompson, of the University of Texas, Austin, reporting their experiment in the magazine Science, official publication of the American Association For the Advancement of Science, said they had used two electronic instruments in development of the new technique.

One of the instruments is a thermistor and the other a recording micrommeter, including photo-electric equipment.

The thermistor, originally developed as skin temperature tester, is placed against the outer end of the auditory canal—the passage that leads into the middle ear.

Patient Not Disturbed

The temperature is recorded by the other electric instrument, the recorder. The temperature, minute by minute, and hour-by-hour, is recorded on a graph.

Meanwhile, the patient can go on sleeping or not be disturbed.

The scientists found that the temperature taken by the new ear-technique was somewhat lower than by mouth.

But the readings are consistent and allowances can be made.

The Texans reported they had tried the technique on one patient, and that "extensive data have not been obtained."

EVER since a fast-talking salesman pushed the first batch of parking meters off on Lubbock, city officials have maintained (with straight faces) that the revenue involved is of no interest to them. They claim they buy more and more meters to "solve the parking problem," and not for the nickels thus garnered.

If that is true, we have a suggestion. It is:

Why not have the meters in outlying areas made in-operative on Saturday afternoons, forcing payment of nickels only in the downtown retail areas?

As things stand now, most meter stalls are vacant on Saturday afternoons outside of the retail area. People who wish to park all afternoon are forced several blocks further than they like to be from the stores, leaving acres of meter space unused.

What do you say, gents? Interested in revenue, or just in parking?

PRESIDENT TRUMAN soon again will be taking to the political trails and when he does his rail travels will, as usual, be super-de-looxey, as the boys say.

The "Ferdinand Magellan," which is the name of the Presidents private pullman, is something really slick in the way of transportation.

A massive car, "Old Ferdinand," as the special Pullman is known, weighs 285,000 pounds. Heavily sheathed with armor plate, the car has bullet-proof windows, three inches thick.

Finely outfitted, the car, however, didn't cost the taxpayers very much. As a matter of fact, it cost the government exactly $10. "Old Ferdinand" was originally just "assigned" by the American Association of Railroads for exclusive use of the President of the United States. But after a complete overhaul, in 1941, the association transferred ownership to the government, the $10 "purchase price" simply making the deal legal.

The President's Pullman has five bedrooms, a dining-room, a kitchen, and a good-sized lounge. It is fully equipped, too, for both telephone and radio communication. The President can keep constantly in touch with Washington, or anywhere else, as he rolls along on the rails.

Four of the bedrooms of the car are pretty much like bedrooms in ordinary Pullmans, but the fifth, occupied by the President, is considerably better. Instead of the customary upper and lower berths, the Presidential bedroom has an ordinary bed. It also has a dresser and an adjacent shower.

THE car's diningroom will seat 10 people very comfortably and the kitchen, in addition to ordinary cooking equipment, has sleeping places for the two people who work in it.

When the President of the U. S. goes railroading, he isn't assigned a porter by the Pullman company. His porter is a negro named S. C. Mitchell, who is as special as "Old Ferdinand." Mitchell customarily works as a messenger in the White House, but he has portered for Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman on every occasion when they, as Presidents, have gone onto the road.

Franklin Roosevelt used "Old Ferdinand" more than the rest of the Presidents from Coolidge to Truman, combined. While in the White House, he used the car 150 times, while making his 399 rail trips. Roosevelt also took the longest jaunt on which "Old Ferdinand" has rolled. That was in 1943, when he made his highly publicized "secret inspection" of defense installations and then went down to Mexico City, ostensibly to confer with President Avila Comacho, but probably to take an interesting vacation.

When a President travels by rail he always goes by special train and when campaigning the train becomes a long one.

In addition to carrying baggage cars, etc., it has Pullmans, lounges and diners for reporters, cameramen, political bigwigs, Presidential aides, etc.

All Pullmans are of the bedroom type — including those for "visiting firemen"—meaning the territorial politicians who always climb aboard and accompany a President through the areas where they are supposed to control the votes.

SOMETIMES efforts are made to make the routing of a Presidential train "secret," or partly so.

A few weeks ago, when President Truman was returning from the West Coast, we knew the train would have to pass through Big Spring and Abilene; through Clovis and Amarillo, or through Albuquerque and Tucumcari. If the train were to pass through either Amarillo, or Big Spring, we planned to put an Avalanche-Journal reporter and cameraman aboard for about 300 miles, to get a special story and pictures for the papers.

When we called the Santa Fe headquarters at Amarillo, to find out about the routing, we found that the route was supposed to be secret—even though the newspaper had printed the train's movements, and the radios announced the routing from the newspapers.

However, we were able to discover that the train wasn't going to come near here, so let the matter drop.

Despite the "secrecy" of the routing, people at such places as Winslow and Tombstone, Ariz., Gallup, Albuquerque, etc., in New Mexico, knew well in advance of when the train would pull in. Naturally, they turned out, en masse, to see the Great White Father, who obligingly made platform appearances.

The tip-offs, of course, came from special arrangements made for loading ice and other essentials, and from evidences of special care always taken in advance of the running of a Presidential train.

INCIDENTALLY, stories seeping in here from New Mexico and Arizona points where the President made appearances during his recent trip indicate that it is to his best interests to "get out among the people" in the coming campaign.

Reports are in agreement that Mr. Truman makes a very good personal impression; that people are won by his being "no part of a stuffed shirt."

The President has a knack, too, of picking up something purely local, and playing on it in his impromptu speeches to crowds at station platforms.

At Tombstone, Ariz., for instance, the President recalled that a marker over the grave of an oldtime miner reads: "I done my damndest." He cracked that the inscription very well describes his efforts in the White House.

He has a knack, too, of making acquaintances feel important. When introduced to some stranger, the President often says, "What was that name again, please?"

Mrs. Truman and Margaret also "rang the bell" in New Mexico and Arizona, where they conducted themselves as just plain people of good manners, totally unaffected by the limelight.

BY DREW PEARSON: BERLIN CRISIS DANGEROUS AS REDS LOSE GROUND IN EUROPE

Ike Wept When He Signed No-Politics Statement

WASHINGTON—Most important factor influencing the dynamite-laden Berlin situation is that throughout most of Europe the Russians are losing out.

PEARSON

This is what makes Berlin even more dangerous—for the Russians cannot afford to backdown. To do so would be a mortal blow to their prestige in all of Europe. It would mean even more cracks in the iron curtain.

A nation that is winning can afford to be magnanimous, but a nation that is losing, can't. And government leaders who are desperate, are dangerous.

In addition to the Tito revolt, here are some of the signs indicating that the Soviet's alleged far-flung empire is beginning to crack up:

Bulgaria — Georgie Dimitroy, Communist leader of Bulgaria, is so afraid the long arm of Moscow will reach him that he doesn't go outside his home without an armed guard.

Poland—Russian attempts to communize the farms are stirring up increasing opposition from Polish peasants.

Czechosolovakia—Klement Gottwald, the Communist leader who deposed President Benes, has now been eased to the sidelines. Moscow has put Rudolf Slanski, secretary of the Communist party, in his place. Several top Czech leaders have deserted to United States protection, including Gen. Antonin B. Hasal, Czech deputy chief of staff.

Italy—Moscow wasn't pleased with Communist leader Togliatti even before he was shot. Some intelligence observers believe Togliatti was shot by a Moscow agent: first, to get rid of him, second, to arouse turmoil in Italy.

With these cracks beginning to appear in the iron curtain, Kremlin prestige in Berlin is vitally at stake. The 14 men who govern Russia need a psychological victory to keep their straying disciples in line. When a government's prestige is at stake anything can happen.

Why Eisenhower Withdrew

A battle-toughened soldier like General Eisenhower doesn't often cry. But when, in George Allen's presence, he wrote his historic statement finally taking himself out of the presidential race, real tears swelled in Eisenhower's eyes.

The complete story as to why Eisenhower signed that statement is not yet known. This writer has tried to find out, but is not yet satisfied with the answers.

The fact that some of the big political bosses, such as ex-mayor Hague of Jersey City, hopped on the Eisenhower bandwagon unquestionably had its effect. The general thought he was being used for political purposes. Also the fact that the Republicans nominated a good ticket was important.

Also it is a known fact that some of Ike's own best military friends pleaded with him not to get into politics. As one of his closest battle-comrades told Eisenhower: "Every time one of us goes up to Congress for an appropriation from now on, they'll be wondering whether the money they vote us will go to building up another candidate for president."

In addition, the White House inner circle hints that there was another personal factor, very close to General Eisenhower, which President Truman, cocksure and confident, seemed to know all about.

HOWEVER, Eisenhower, himself, did not seem at all sure in his own mind, and right up to near the end, he talked with high-up Democrats as if he could be drafted. Most significant of these conversations was with William Ritchie, Democratic state chairman of Nebraska, who took careful notes on his talk with the general, and here is exactly what he said:

"The gravest issue before the American people and the nation is world leadership for democratic institutions. If America does not back firmly, sincerely, and efficiently the Vandenberg-Marshall plan, then the world outside of America will go to dictatorship, with the result that American prosperity, the American way of living and American liberties will be gravely endangered.

"I meant what I said," General Eisenhower continued, "when I said that I didn't want to be a candidate. But I will say this: If the necessity arises, I will answer any draft to serve the American people along the lines that I have just discussed—even if it requires me to carry a gun in the rear ranks.

"I will not let down the boys who fought under me in Europe and Africa and who made me what I am today. I will never let down the boys who gave their lives for democratic institutions.

"If Vandenberg should be nominated," Eisenhower told Ritchie, "I know he will interpret the Republican platform in such a way that America will be safe.

After some further conversation Eisenhower concluded:

"If I should be president I want you to understand this: I will be an American president, not a Republican or Democrat. And I would make appointments on the basis of what a man stands for and his qualifications for the job. I would pay no attention whatsoever to party labels. I wouldn't consider taking any office on any other basis and I hope the occasion will not call for me to change my first statement. I have no desire to run."

NOTE—If the Berlin crisis had become more acute one week earlier, Eisenhower might have been drafted after all.

Merry-Go-Round

Few people know it, but President Truman tried to get Mrs. Roosevelt to telephone Supreme Court Justice Douglas to get him to run for vice president. Mrs. Roosevelt would not telephone, but sent a long wire instead. Simultaneously Jimmy Roosevelt called Douglas urging him to run for the presidency against Truman. Pulled in so many different directions, no wonder Douglas declined . . . A shake-up is due in the Democratic national committee. Truman will clean out all those who opposed his renomination . . President Truman was so irked at his bemedaled military aide, Gen. Harry Vaughan that he didn't want Vaughan to come to Philadelphia, finaly let him make the trip provided he wore civilian clothes . . . BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

THERE'S no getting around the fact, the welcome mat just isn't out for today's children. For the most part, nobody but their parents and doting grandparents want them around.

Perhaps, most of the fault lies with modern parents. Children might be more welcome if parents would: See that their children don't annoy the neighbors by hanging around at mealtime, going into their houses without knocking, meddling with their possessions, refusing to obey their requests, etc.

MILLETT

See that their children are quiet and well-behaved in public places.

KEEP THEM TAME

SEE that when the children go visiting they don't go hog wild, racing around the house leaving destruction in their wake.

See that the children show some respect for adults, since few grown-ups enjoy an encounter with a smart-alecky child.

Know where their children are all of the time. The kids who are a nuisance are usually the ones whose parents never know and never care where they are and what they are doing just so they aren't underfoot.

Make certain that any damage their children do to others' property is taken care of.

It is rather sad that today's children are so often unwelcome. But they won't be welcome until their parents wake up to the fact that a poorly trained child is as much of an annoyance to others as a poorly trained pet.

"Try And Stop Me"

ONE night, in the midst of the fabulous Prohibition era, when Texas Guinan was the best-ksown hostess on Speakeasy Row, an anonymous stranger appeared at one of her frolics, responded cordially to her standard greeting of "Hello, Sucker," and ordered drinks for everybody in the house. He topped this display of generosity by not only giving each "little girl" of Miss Guinan's a "great big hand," but a crisp new fifty-dollar bill.

Awed by this display, Miss Guinan requested the benefactor to disclose his identity. "Aw, I'm nobody much," protested the embarrassed philanthropist. "I'm just a fellow who has made his pile in the dairy business."

On the spur of the moment, Miss Guinan coined a phrase that has become part of our language. "Everybody here get up and give a hand," she proposed, "to our wonderful butter-and-egg man."

Today's Journal Editorial

"LYNDON" AND "COKE"

The most important statewide office to be voted upon tomorrow by Texans is that of United States senator.

Although there are three "leading candidates" in the race, all indications are that most Texans will vote for either Congressman Lyndon Johnson, or former Governor Coke R. Stevenson.

Fortunately for Texas, both Messrs. Johnson and Stevenson are honest men. But there the similarity between the two ends.

Mr. Johnson, with 11 outstanding years of Congressional service under his belt, knows Washington and its maze of bureaus; its bundlesome methods of operation. Mr. Stevenson does not, his only Washington experience having been garnered in two or three trips to the capital as a political tourist.

Mr. Johnson is young (age, 39) and energetic; he has imagination; he is attuned to these times and today's world. Mr. Stevenson, at 61, is aging; he is slow to think and slower to act; his viewpoints are colloquial.

Texas needs in the Senate a young man, experienced in Congress, whose expectancy in the office is four terms, instead of one, or two. Texas needs Lyndon Johnson, his energy, his foresight, his proven ability.

Let's send Lyndon Johnson to the Senate, where he is better fitted to serve than his opponent.

Laff-A-Day

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

President Truman Will Bear Down On High Price Issues

WASHINGTON—In his opening message to Congress President Truman intends to bear down with all possible force on the issue of high prices. How explosive the message will be can be judged from the efforts of the White House researchers who are now supplying raw material for the grand opener.

CHILDS

They have come up with those full-page newspaper advertisements published two years ago by the National Association of Manufacturers. The NAM was then leading the campaign to destroy price control.

Those remarkable ads blamed the postwar price rise on government regimentation. Takeoff the controls, they said, and prices will certainly go down. By killing OPA and removing controls, America's productive forces would be released, industry would turn out a flood of goods, and prices would come tumbling down.

So went the siren song. The ads were echoed almost word for word by Senators Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska, Republican leaders who led the attack in Congress that cut the heart out of OPA.

No Charts Needed

The housewife needs no statistical charts to tell her what has happened in the two years since the country was told that the death of OPA would mean lower prices. Hamburger costs twice what it did in June of '46 and so do a great many other essential items in the budget of the average householder. But the figures are available, too, and the President will use them in his message to the returning Congress. The index of the price of food is at 211, about half a percentage point more than at the peak in January of this year. That is 44 points higher than in June two years ago.

The President does not intend, as of this writing, to ask for across-the-board price-control. About a week after his message he will send a bill to Congress calling for allocation and rationing of commodities essential to the household budget.

What answer the Republicans will make has not yet been determined. They cannot simply ignore the case presented by the President. The inflationary spiral is too menacing for that, particularly now that a third round of wage increases makes another price boost certain.

THE GOP could, of course, go back to one of President Truman's first acts to show that original sin in this matter of inflation can be assigned to the Democrat in the White House. The President urged Congress — it didn't take much urging —to repeal the wartime excess-profits tax, which kept down the soaring profits of large corporations.

Once that step was taken, a whole chain of consequences was bound to follow, including the demand for higher wages to match the higher profit ration. The President went even further. He backed up higher wage demands on the theory that increases were necessary to compensate for the loss of overtime worked during the war. Raises were essential so the theory went, to sustain purchasing power and make it possible for the mass of Americans to buy the products of a greatly expanded industry.

The Republicans might cite original sin on the excess tax if their own tax record in Congress was not so bad. They cut the federal income tax by about five billion dollars at the session that ended a month ago. Nothing could have been more inflationary its effect than that.

In the same revenue act they changed provisions of the inheritance tax in favor of the wealthy. Leaders, such as Chairman Harold Knutson of the House ways and means committee, wanted to pare it down even further.

TAX RECORD GOOD

In contrast, the President's tax record during the past two years has been good. He has fought hard to keep federal revenue at a level that would mean a surplus and reduction of the staggering federal debt.

Faithfully he has followed the recommendations of his council of economic advisers. The council's firm warning against any tax cut was not likely to win any votes in an election year. But Mr. Truman followed the unpopular course and was promptly tagged by the Republicans, "high Tax Harry."

The council of economic advisers is working closely with the White House on the message to Congress. Their role, naturally, is technical rather than political. It was on the basis of the council's reports that the President presented his 10-point inflationary program to Congress last November.

Since that time, as the President will make clear, the price speedometer has jumped ahead at an alarming rate. Today, therefore, more drastic measures are called for, and these the President will recommend. As seen from the White House, this will give the Republican Congress a choice of accepting responsibility for high prices or passing legislation so often denounced in the past.
