Man saved from burning vehicle

ANGELS DISGUISED AS MOTORISTS — This overturned vehicle was almost a death trap for one man in Colorado City Friday, but the quick actions of two strangers are attributed to saving his life.

The quick-thinking actions of two AST workers traveling on I-20 near Colorado City may have saved a man's life. Jerry Edwards and Bill Elliot were westbound on I-20, near exit 220 (FM 1899) when they saw a vehicle leave the roadway and flip several times. As they stopped their truck, flames could be seen coming from the 2008 Dodge Caliber. Inside, the overturned vehicle, now resting on its driver's side, was 56-year-old Keith Poile of Fort Worth, unable to escape.

Before firefighters or EMS could arrive, the two men gave no thought to their own safety and proceeded to extinguish the fire on the under carriage and engine of the Dodge.

Sergeant Bryan Sheridan of the Texas Department of Public Safety said the actions were crucial in determining the outcome of the day for Poile.

"It was some pretty quick thinking," Sgt. Sheridan said. "Most people would not be able to act that quickly. Mr. Poile is a lucky man they were there."

Poile was transferred to Mitchell County Hospital for non-life-threatening injuries.

The accident is under investigation by Trooper Kyle Simpson of the Texas Department of Public Safety's Colorado City office and though the actual cause of the accident cannot be released at this time, one eye-witness of the accident said he saw the whole thing.

"I was traveling behind him for about 30 miles," John Larrington said. "He went off the road on the left side (of I-20) and then real quickly turned the wheel back to the right, overcorrecting."

Tito Betancur, the men's supervisor at Advanced Stimulation Technologies, Inc. out of Midland said he was not surprised to hear what the men did.

"They are two really great guys," Betancur said. "It doesn't surprise me at all they were willing to pitch in to help someone."

Fire at P.J.'s Wrecker Service destroys home, trailer

Colorado City firefighters were joined early Monday morning by Westbrook and Loraine fire departments in an attempt to save the main shop building at P.J.'s Wrecker Service on Business I-20.

The CCFD was called out at 4:30 a.m. to a call of a travel trailer on fire south of the shop building. When they arrived, the trailer was already well-engulfed in flames which had spread to the trailer house between it and the metal shop building. According to Assistant Fire Chief Tom Carlock, they made a decision to concentrate on the trailer house, to contain the fire there and keep it from spreading to the shop.

"With the owner's input, we decided to try our best to save the shop," Carlock said. "We concentrated on the roof of the trailer house until we were able to break some windows and get some water in through them as well."

The shop, trailer house and travel trailer are owned by Pat Crow. According to Carlock, Crow had relatives living in the trailer, but everyone got out safely before the fire got out of control. Carlock attributed the saving of the shop to cooperation between the three fire departments and other entities.

"We had 13 men out there," he said, "and along with 6-7 people from Loraine and another 6-7 from Westbrook, we were able to save the shop. We also got help from Mitchell County Sheriff's Office, Colorado City Police Department and Mitchell County Emergency Medical Service. It was the group effort, working together as a team, which allowed us to save the shop. I cannot say enough how much we appreciated the help from these other departments."

Parked beside the travel trailer was a pickup owned by Crow. According to Carlock, the travel trailer and truck (both covered by insurance) were completely destroyed. He said the trailer house was not covered by Crow's insurance, but he was certain it would be a total loss as well.

The department was called out to the location again late Monday afternoon when smoke appeared at the top of the trailer house. Several Colorado City firemen returned to the location and put out the "hot spot."

Loraine ISD has new faces, if not new building

It may be another year before Loraine ISD unveils their new school building, but they are coming out with a completely new look this year, just the same. A new baseball coach, a new principal and a new athletic director and head football coach are only the beginning for a school now hoping to be in its new digs by the start of the 2013-2014 school year, which is three months sooner than originally hoped.

Matt Billings will take the reins of the baseball program this year in Loraine. Billings is a fifth year coach originally from Snyder. The son of a former Texas Ranger, Billings went to Colorado ISD for a couple of years as a child as well. But he is only the tip of the jackpot iceberg Loraine ran into this off season.

Dave Campbell's pick for 6-man football's Coach of the Year, as well as coaching 6-man Team of the Year in Grandfalls Royalty, is coming to town as well. Folks in Loraine may know the new athletic director/head football coach better than they think. Coach Kyle Hauk, along with the Cowboys, is the one who knocked Loraine out of the playoffs last season.

Coach Hauk has spent the last 19 seasons coaching 6-man football, bringing a lot of experience and knowledge to Lo-

Banks sworn in at MCHD

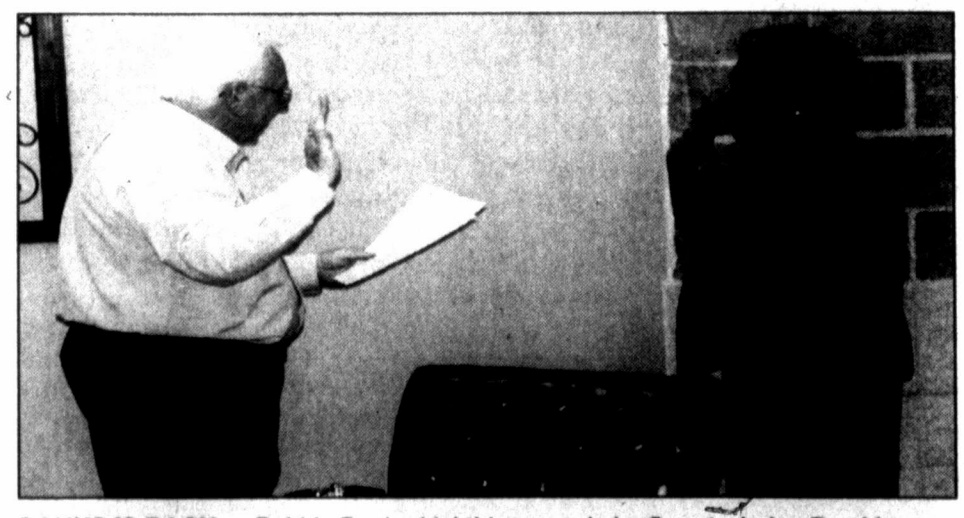

In a called meeting Monday night, Board of Directors of Mitchell County Hospital District stood witness as County Judge Ray Mayo swore in newly appointed board member Bobbie Banks. Banks is replacing Delynn Hackfeld, who resigned from the board in July.

Immediately following the swearing in of Ms. Banks, Faye Lee addressed the board on the subject of setting a tax rate for the district. Though a reduced rate, the new tax rate of .186409/$100 will actually raise revenues for the hospital district.

What does the new rate mean to taxpayers? Simply, $74.17 in taxes per year on a home valued at $100,000. This is a drop of approximately $16.

Even though the proposed rate is a reduction, a change is a change and MCHD is required to post public hearings on the subject.

In Monday night's meeting, the board decided on Aug. 7 and Aug. 13 for the public hearings. The meetings will be held at the Mitchell County Hospital Board Room and will begin at 5:30 p.m.

LIONS CLUB HISTORIAN — Lion Bob Reily gave a historical record of the Colorado City Lions Club at Saturday night's 90th anniversary dinner.

C-City Lions Club celebrates 90 years

David Stubblefield and his Gas n Grub crew served steaks and baked potatoes at the Civic Center Saturday night as the Lions Club celebrated their 90th anniversary. Sally Neff played a stirring piano rendition of the Sound of Music soundtrack as background music for the dinner, while Colorado City Mayor – and Lions Club President – Carol Sue Dakan presided over the festivities.

Past International Director Marshall Cooper was in town for the event and was the guest speaker. Cooper boasts a 48-year perfect attendance record with the Lions Club, but as impressive as that may be, he brought even more to the table. It seems PID Cooper is capable of producing a Louisiana accent which would make any Cajun proud. Cooper brought it during his talk, as he told stories of Boudreaux and Thibodaux, two characters which provided much entertainment with their dealings with the world.

Lion Bob Reily gave a brief history of the Colorado City Lions Club in a light, colorful, story-telling manner which added humor to the honor of the club. Though he did not give the final score of the 1948 football game between the Lions Club and Kiwanis Club, everyone at the Civic Center Saturday night had a pretty good idea what happened.

Though filled with fun and laughter, Lion Boss Dakan ended the night by asking all in attendance to stand and sing God Bless America, traditionally sung at the Lions Club lunches in Colorado City.

So 90 years have passed, with the Lions Club serving Colorado City, and now begins the countdown to the century mark.

Low turnout for runoff elections in Mitchell County

Voting numbers were low Tuesday in the runoff elections for one Democratic nomination and four Republican nominations. But the low numbers had been predicted nationwide leading up July 31.

In the Democratic runoff between Paul Sadler and Grady Yarbrough for the United States Senate, the vote was tied at 4-4 after early voting, but Sadler pulled away to carry Mitchell County with 24 total votes to Yarbrough's 13.

In the Republican runoff elections, the candidates for U.S. Senate were Ted Cruz and David Dewhurst. Cruz held a 52-45 lead after the early voting and went on to take the Mitchell County nod by a margin of 145-122.

Christi Craddick got the highest votes in the county for the Railroad Commissioner nomination. Craddick's 138 votes were enough to defeat Chisum. The Railroad Commissioner, Unexpired Term was the closest among Republican voters in Mitchell County. Barry Smitherman received 119 votes to Gary Parker's 108.

Receiving the Mitchell County nomination for Supreme Court Justice, Place 4 was John Devine. Devine received 144 votes to David Medina's 92.

Of the 4508 registered voters in Mitchell County, only 305 cast a ballot during the runoff elections. Of those, 37 were Democrats and 268 were Republicans.

County accepts wind turbine bid

In a short court called meeting Monday, the Mitchell County Commissioners Court accepted a bid from General Dynamics in the amount of $695,000 for a 500-kilowatt wind turbine for the county's desalination project. General Dynamics, based in Dallas, entered one of the two bids received by the county for the project. It was a unanimous vote with all commissioners present.

Fort Worth's Wind Inc. was the second bidder, with a bid for two turbines at a cost of $2.255 million. Sue Young said representatives from General Dynamics would be in Colorado City sometime this week with a contract in hand to further push the project along.

Dunn birthday to be marked by balloon release on August 25

August 25, the 15th birthday of missing Colorado City teenager Hailey Dunn will be observed. Missing since December of 2010, Dunn's birthday will be marked with a prayer vigil and birthday balloon release at her residence at 1804 Chestnut Street.

Stacey Campbell, with Hope for Hailey, said the organization has placed a new flyer on their website hopeforhailey.org.

"We want to keep her story out there," Campbell said. "We are still searching for Hailey and we still want her to come home."

The vigil is planned for 7-7:45 p.m. Hope for Hailey is also planning to have a candle available for the family to light on that evening. In addition, Kara Fuentes will be singing a special song for Hailey during the evening. The Coahoma youth's emotional song can be heard on Youtube.

Fuentes said she had to record the version "a million times" before she could get through it without crying.

Hope for Hailey personnel distributed the new flyers at HemisFair Park in San Antonio and the Texas Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo Parade in Stamford this Fourth of July.

Campbell said she wanted people to remember Hailey Dunn was still missing and that was the organization's concern.

"It's not about the parents or the media," Campbell said. "It's about Hailey."

Anyone with any information about the whereabouts of Hailey Dunn should contact the Colorado City Police Department at 728-5294.

Patrolling the streets of Colorado City

Riding along in the squad car with Sergeant Traven Berry

Everybody in Colorado City has seen him cruising the streets for the last five years, but has anyone ever been able to get him to slow down long enough to say why he does it? This last Saturday, Sergeant Traven Berrie of the Colorado City Police Department allowed the Record to ride along in his squad car, trying to get a glimpse of a typical day on the streets.

The 29-year old policeman patrolled the city with what he described as pattern, with no pattern to it. In the course of the ride, the Colorado City Sergeant made his way down every street twice in combinations of turns which left the mind reeling.

"It's best not to use the same route every time," he explained. "We don't want people to get used to us being in certain places at certain times."

He was on his own this particular Saturday, with one officer at school and another officer out on vacation, but he has become use to it.

"You know we are still short a man," he said. "Actually, truth be told, we could use two or three more, but one sure would be helpful."

The department is in the process of getting some of the officers some vacation time in before school starts, plus trying to rearrange some of the men's hours. But Sergeant Berrie, who stands as a go-between for the officers and the department's administration, says it's all part of the job and doesn't get him down.

During the ride, the San Angelo native made two traffic stops. First, he met a pick-up on Hwy 208 between Business I-20 and the interstate. The vehicle was traveling 64 miles per hour in a 50 mile per hour zone. Berrie did a quick u-turn and the truck was pulled over, waiting for him.

The man was running behind, on his way to meet someone. Sgt. Berrie reminded him what the speed limit was and gave him a warning.

The second offender was not so lucky. With the eyes of an eagle, Sgt. Berrie spotted an expired inspection sticker on a vehicle as it sped by his cruiser. After he pulled the vehicle over, he learned it had been out since December of 2011.

The man told him the truck would not pass inspection due to a missing catalytic converter and that he had purchased the vehicle in that shape. With it being out of compliance for such a long period, Sgt. Berrie issued the man a citation.

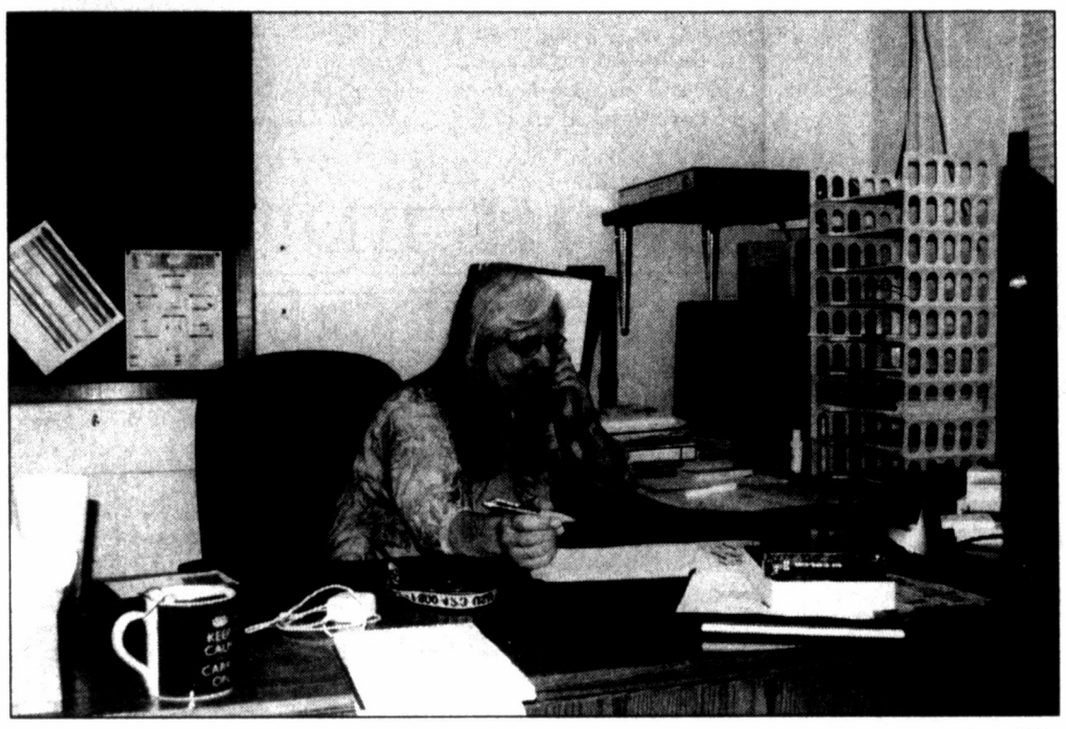

"That has always been our goal," he said. "You and I have to get our vehicles in proper order before we can drive them. That goes for everyone. I hate that he has to spend the money, but it has to be done."

After the second traffic stop, the Record asked Berrie what an individual should do when pulled over by a policeman.

"Pull immediately to the right and be respectful," he replied, giving the short answer. He went on to explain he understood some people were nervous about pulling over into dark areas and it made sense to him.

"If possible, wait until the officer approaches your vehicle and ask if you can pull up to a lighted area," he said. "Most officers will not have a problem with that. It's when people take an incredibly long time to pull over initially that makes us nervous. We are not sure if you are hiding something, getting a weapon or

HEAD OF THE CLASS — Reida Penman sits at her new desk as the principal at Loraine ISD. Penman will take over the duties Superintendent Travis Edwards handled during the 2011-2012 school year.

New Loraine ISD school could come earlier than expected

After the bond election was passed, things have been moving along at a fairly fast pace at Loraine ISD. The school sold their bonds July 16 at an all-time low interest rate of 2.81. The floor plans are just about finished and Superintendent Travis Edwards says he has hopes of moving into the new school by August of 2013.

"We were originally thinking we could move in by Christmas (2013)," Edwards said, "but we have put things on a fast track by getting the plans done early. We have been doing some preliminary work like moving the portable building over here."

The building will be the school's locker rooms for the time being and Edwards said he knew it was not the best situation, but it would allow things to keep moving smoothly.

Edwards said the district would open up to bids for demolition starting this week.

"That will start the ball rolling," he said. "We've had soil tests done, asbestos tests and an asbestos survey done. We are going to have to do some asbestos abatement done in August, we found out, but things are going well."

Edwards said the old gymnasium would come down first and then the playground equipment will be moved. But it will not go to waste as the district is donating the equipment to the City of Loraine.

"We are going to relocate it (the playground equipment) to the city park," he said. "That way, the kids can still use it."

Notice of Public Hearing on Tax Increase

The Mitchell County Hospital will hold two public hearings on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in the preceding tax year by 5.74 percent (percentage by which proposed tax rate exceeds lower of rollback tax rate or effective tax calculated under Chapter 26, Tax Code). Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property and the tax rate that is adopted.

The first public hearing will be held on August 7, 2012 at 5:30 PM at Mitchell County Hospital District Board Room.

The second public hearing will be held on August 13, 2012 at 5:30PM at Mitchell County Hospital District Board Room.

The members of the governing body voted on the proposal to consider the tax increase as follows:

FOR:	Jerry Reynolds	Geneva Ratliff
	Patty Pharis	Hollis Gainey
	Bobbie Banks	Mark Merrell
AGAINST:
PRESENT and not voting:
ABSENT:	Florence Bodine

The average taxable value of a residence homestead in Mitchell County Hospital last year was $37,956. Based on last year's tax rate of $0.211500 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed last year on the average home was $80.28.

The average taxable value of a residence homestead in Mitchell County Hospital this year is $39,791. If the governing body adopts the effective tax rate for this year of $0.176287 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed this year on the average home would be $70.15.

If the governing body adopts the proposed tax rate of $0.186409 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed this year on the average home would be $74.17.

Members of the public are encouraged to attend the hearings and express their views.

OPINION & COMMENTARY

TUMBLEWEED SMITH
A portable cotton gin

Joe D. Rogers of Hereford collects old carpenter tools. Some of them date back to the days of the American Revolution in 1776. He has traveled throughout the New England states looking for the ancient items. "My wife says I can spot a rusty chisel a hundred yards away while traveling at 70 miles an hour," says Joe, a teacher who holds a few history degrees. He fell in love with tools while working in his dad's shop.

Joe uses the old tools to make things that were invented more than 200 years ago. He made a cotton gin that he carries around in his car to show students how cotton is ginned. He did a lot of research on the internet to find out about the components and how a gin works. I asked him why it was called a cotton gin. "The word gin is a shortened version of the word engine," he said. "It was first called a cotton engine. Later on, words like spinning ginny came into use. It's just another word for engine."

The cotton gin he made is about the size of an apple box, approximately the same size as the original cotton gin built by Eli Whitney in 1792. "The idea for the cotton gin came to him while he was watching a cat chase a bird. When the bird flew through a chicken wire fence, the bird was on one side, but his feathers were on the other side. His brain kicked in and he thought about a series of combs and brushes to remove seeds from a cotton boll. The comb and brush idea came from watching a slave curry a horse. As the horsehair collected on the comb, he would knock it off with a brush. So Eli went to his blacksmith and built it in about a week."

Joe says Eli hoped to make money from his invention, but while he was waiting for a patent, several people stole his idea. "It was so simple everybody could copy it and they did, so Whitney never made any money off it. Not that he really needed it. He had invented a nail making machine and was the sole manufacturer of hatpins. He wanted to corner the market with the cotton gin, like an operating system for computers. He had ideas of controlling all the gins and all the cotton would come through him."

The cotton gin brought about the Industrial Revolution. Some say the invention encouraged slavery and ultimately led to the Civil War. "Before the cotton gin was invented, farmers could produce three pounds of cotton a day, then after the gin came along they could do 150 pounds a day. So they needed more cotton. To get it farmers had to clear more land, do the planting and harvest, which required more slaves. Then you had to have all those other machines: the spinning ginnys, the mills, factories and all the rest."

When Joe demonstrates his homemade cotton gin to students, he starts with raw cotton. "I gather up cotton left in the fields after harvest and put it through the machine. I turn it with a hand crank that came from an old sausage grinder. It makes a great tool to teach about the social changes that came about during the time when our nation was young. When the students can touch something, it tends to make them focus on whatever you're trying to teach. I love teaching with artifacts."

You can smell it in the air!

By Robert Griffin

You can smell it in the air already and even though those who do not understand may only smell dirty socks and sweat, the rest of us smell something completely different. We smell the coming of fall, and along with it, the start of football season.

I've been walking around the office chanting, "Let it begin!" like Rhino from the movie Bolt and the ladies here are already loading their guns, just in case they have to take me down at some point.

The debate scenarios are already playing out in my mind as I begin my own 2-a-days, preparing to battle for space on the front page.

"Are you running the City Council picture or the one from Commissioners Court?" will be the question.

"I was thinking of running this picture of Mark Henderson crossing the goal line," I will respond.

The battle will be on at that point, of course, and though I will give it my all, history tells us all I won't be successful very often. It's a war I cannot win, but given the proper ammunition, I believe I can win some of the battles, just the same.

The boys from all three area schools will be hitting the field next Monday to begin their workouts. In the meantime, I have archived last year's sports photos and sit here – not so patiently – waiting to refill the folders.

Let it begin, indeed!

The days get shorter and the nights will begin to cool down nicely, while football stadium lights will light up the Texas landscape like crop circles in a field of darkness every Friday night. The lines of cars, carrying fans, parents and friends to the fields of battle, can be seen from space and felt in the hearts of everyone who has ever suited up. Friday Night Fever, it's called, and it burns like wildfire this time of year in the veins of the Texas faithful.

Flags and banners will be flying and the faces of the warriors and their fans will be painted. The smell of popcorn and hamburgers will blend into the night with that of the grass and blood to be offered on cool winds as a sacrifice to the football gods, may they smile upon us all.

Boys will become men and heroes will be made as this most important rite of passage is fulfilled in every town in the state. And while some mothers and girlfriends will wince when the warrior meets his foe, even they know how important it is to him, to his heart. Fathers will swell with pride as they quietly wish they were down on the field with their sons and when it is over, we will all have memories strong enough to carry us through until the next game.

Yes, let it begin. Let it never end.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

A good friend of mine received a citation in Loraine, signed by Judge Blassingame. He told them that he wanted to plead "not guilty" and asked to have a jury trial. The U.S. Constitution states that anyone accused of a violation of the law has the right to a jury trial.

As time went by, he was called in for a pre-trial hearing. At that time, he was told that he was guilty and the fine was $561.00. He had no jury trial or any other kind (again by Judge Blassingame.)

This is a clear case of a civil rights violation. I do not know what the penalty for THAT offense is, but I expect to find out in the near future.

Letter to the Editor:

I wanted to let you know that the people of Colorado City are wonderful! Of course you probably already knew that.

My daughter was traveling to Dallas on Wednesday when her car broke down near Colorado City. She called the local wrecker service, and they said they would be out as soon as possible. They asked about the occupants in the car which were my daughter, her seven-year-old and her one-year-old baby. The wrecker service said they would get someone out to make sure they were safe. The K-9 sheriff unit came and stayed with her and the kids until the wrecker came.

The wrecker service took my daughter to the motel and said they would call her in the morning and let her know what was wrong with her car and give her an estimate. The next day they called and told her she needed a new radiator and they would have to order it. They got it in on Friday morning and made the repair. They picked up my daughter and the kids so they could pick up the car. The repair bill, I am sure, did not even cover the cost of the parts much less the towing!

While she was waiting for these two days she visited places close to the motel and said how nice everyone was. The motel gave her milk for the baby and even called before they retired to see if she needed anything else.

I believe everything happens for a reason. My daughter's car broke down in Colorado City because she needed, especially at this time in her life, to know that there are good and kind people who do care. Thank you, good people of Colorado City for showing her kindness and restoring her hope for the future!

GRABBING THE LEASH — Coach Kyle Hauk is Loraine ISD's new head football coach and athletic director. Coach Hauk coached at Gandfalls Royalty last season, with the team which beat Loraine in the playoffs.

LORAINE

raine. For parents who have not met him and his staff, there will be a registration Wednesday night at the new gym at 6 p.m. Coach Hauk spoke highly of his predecessor and said he looked forward to coming to Loraine.

"I know Coach Jackson well," he said. "After all, we played in the playoffs this year in a true slugfest. We won because we had the last chance to score."

He said he did not expect too many changes in the plays from last year's offense.

"Coach Jackson did a great job getting this team back into the playoffs," he said. "I really just want to try and take them to the next level and be the district champions."

Dave Campbell seems to think he has a shot, since the Bulldogs are picked to do just that very thing, but that's in the future. Now, the next step is 2-a-days. They start Monday morning at 8 a.m.

Along with Coach Hauk, comes his wife Monica. She will be taking over as the IT/Technology director at Loraine ISD.

Another new face at Loraine this year will be that of a new principal. The district did not have one last year and Superintendent Travis Edwards was forced to fill in at the position, but no longer. Another lucky find for Edwards during the summer was Reida Penman from Haskell. The 10-year administration veteran is really excited about the move and is looking forward to seeing the new faces at Loraine.

Penman was a principal for 2twoyears and then after a consolidation, was vice-principal for seven more. She said her old school was similar in size to Loraine and so the transition should not be too great.

But Penman also has a connection to the area, as her daughter Teddye Harris taught fifth grade math at Hutchinson Elementary last year in her first teaching assignment. Her love for the school and the kids were in this area was not lost on Penman.

In addition, a new counselor will be coming to Loraine ISD in the form of Doug Fortenberry. The Reagan County man is, in a sense, coming home as well. Fortenberry has a ranch between Loraine and Roscoe, so he too was an easy hire for Loraine, as they seem to be focused on hiring employees with a connection to the district or the county. Whether they are bringing them home or making Mitchell County their home, Edwards has gotten them here and it is starting to look like things are coming together at Loraine ISD.

46th Annual Spade Reunion held July 28

The 46th Annual Spade Reunion was held and those attending gathered for another reunion at the First Baptist Church Activity Building in Colorado City on July 28th.

Friends and neighbors came to enjoy musical entertainment by Russell Logan's Wild Horse Band.

Registration began at 10 a.m. with coffee, visiting and catching up on the news. The noon meal was catered by David Stubblefield, and it was enjoyed by all.

The decorations were western motif with white tablecloths and crock jars full of white daisies and red napkins. Old pictures of the people in the community were placed on the tables. A slide show of the old school building and bridges and people who lived in the Spade Community years ago was enjoyed by all.

Kregg McKenney, president of the reunion, presided over the business meeting. Gifts were presented to the one family, the youngest person attending and the ones coming for the first time.

The same officers were elected again. Approximately 56 people attended, and it was enjoyed by everyone.

Relay for Life route set

The schedule and route for this year's Relay for Life 5K and Fun Run has been released in Colorado City. The schedule begins at 8 a.m. with registration, lasting until 9 a.m. Luminaria sales will be 8-11:15 a.m. and the opening ceremony will begin at 8:45 a.m.

The Survivor Lap will be at 9 a.m. and the kids fun run will start shortly after, at 9:10 a.m. The 5K will begin at 9:20 a.m.

All survivor activities will be 9-11 a.m. and a hamburger lunch will be served at 11 a.m. The Luminaria Ceremony will be held at 11:30 a.m., followed by the Fight Back Ceremony at 11:45 a.m. and closing ceremonies at 12:30 p.m.

The route will begin at Hutchinson Elementary and will head down 5th Street toward Austin Street. Runners will take a left on Austin and then a right on 7th Street.

Runners will follow 7th Street and go through the arches at Ruddick Park and they will cross the bridge and follow the path past the softball fields in the park before taking a right on Hwy. 208.

The route then takes a right at Business I-20, following it until it reaches Austin Street where runners will take another right. A left back onto 5th Street will lead the runners to Short Street, where they should follow the chain link fence to the entrance of the playground. There, runners will take their final lap around the track.

Runners are reminded that the streets will not be blocked off, so they should use caution and stay on the right of the streets. On Business I-20 and Hwy. 208, runners must stay on the shoulder for their safety.

Sgt. Berrie also said people should keep their hands on the wheel as the officer approaches and not make any sudden movements.

"If you can, have your window down when we get there," he added. "We will ask for your paperwork and that is the best time to reach for your glove compartment, not when we are walking up to the car."

But what is the most important thing, according to Berrie?

"Be respectful. I cannot tell you how far a bit of common respect can take you."

What is this?

Last week, the Record challenged you to identify a black and white photograph of a flower. You responded in fine fashion. As promised, we hereby heap great praise and recognition upon Jesse Gonzalez, as he was the first to identify the flower as Passiflora Edulis ...or... a Passion Flower.

Joining Gonzalez with the correct answer, though a tad late, were Rose Holguin, Thomas Clay, Melody Morris, Roxann Hilley and B. Turnage. We will also give credit to Scott Free for "Crucifix Flower."

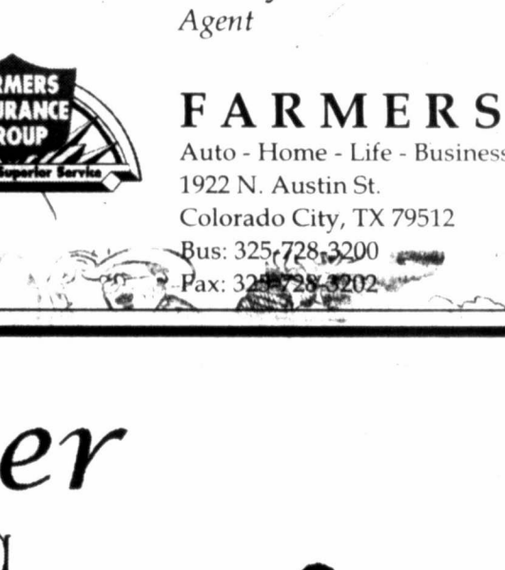

For everyone else, would you like to try again? For a second week in a row, much praise will be given to the first person to correctly identify the object in this picture, but this week, we are going to up the stakes. If you are the first to raise your hand – no seriously, I cannot see you when you raise your hand – shout out the answer, we will publish your name in the Colorado City Record, along with a triumphant photograph of you smiling victoriously. Good luck kids!

A teacher takes a hand, opens a mind, touches a heart.

Teaching is a noble profession without which the civilized world would have no hope. What teachers do in the classroom is very important and each of them play a part in the grand scheme of society. We are proud of the teachers we have in Mitchell County. May we encourage you to keep on going, keep up the good attitude, keep the faith. You make the world go round.

Just as being a teacher is a big responsibility, so is being a full-service community bank. We also touch so many lives in this area. We're proud of the work we do, and grateful for the support the community has given us. By sharing the Hometown Spirit together, we're building a brighter future for our children and for all of us.

2012 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN MITCHELL COUNTY

This notice concerns 2012 property tax rates for Mitchell County. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

	General Fund	Farm to Market/ Flood Control Fund
Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$3,843,452	$676,474
Last year's debt taxes	$0	$0
Last year's total taxes	$3,843,452	$676,474
Last year's tax base	$1,130,427,059	$1,127,456,667
Last year's total tax rate	0.3400000/$100	0.060000/$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$3,841,847	$676,143
÷ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$1,356,913,614	$1,354,032,354
= This year's effective tax rate for each fund	0.283131/$100	0.049935/$100
Total effective tax rate	0.333066/$100
(Maxiumum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearings.)
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property and adjusting for any transferred function, tax increment financing, state criminal justice mandate, and/or enhanced indigent health care expenditures)	$4,063,451	$936,854
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$1,356,913,614	$1,354,032,354
= This year's effective operating rate	0.299463/$100	0.069190/$100
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	0.323420/$100	0.074725/$100
+ This year's debt rate	0.046129/$100	0.000000/$100
= This year's rollback rate for each fund	0.369549/$100	0.074725/$100
This year's total rollback rate	0.444274/$100
- Sales tax adjustment rate	0.019142/$100
= Rollback tax rate	0.425132/$100

NRCS, SWCD invites public to annual conservation stakeholder's meeting

The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) and the Local Working Group invite the public to their annual conservation stakeholder's meeting at 9 a.m., August 9 at the C. C. Thompson Room of the City National Bank, located at 228 Elm Street in Colorado City.

Each year, the local working group hosts a public meeting to determine the resource concerns and needs of the area and how to best address those needs. The NRCS and their local conservation partner, the Mitchell SWC, provide agriculture producers with professional consultation and financial assistance through Farm Bill conservation programs to apply conservation practices on their land that address soil erosion and health, water quality and quantity issues, as well as wildlife habitat. The local working group includes community agricultural producers, owners/operators of nonindustrial private forest land, professionals representing agricultural and natural resources interests, and individuals representing a variety of disciplines in the soil, water, wetland, plant, forestry and wildlife sciences who are familiar with agricultural and natural resource issues.

All landowners and land managers in Mitchell County are encouraged to attend and participate in this meeting. This open discussion public meeting will focus on identifying area natural resource concerns that can be addressed using conservation programs and activities.

"Effective conservation stems from a locally led process," says Steve Shrode, NRCS District Conservationist for Mitchell County. "The Mitchell County NRCS office operates on the concept that local residents better understand local issues and are the key to solving problems.

"Our conservation stakeholders meeting gives everyone the opportunity to decide how the assistance from the NRCS and Farm Bill funds can be most beneficial for our community," adds Shrode.

Through the Mitchell SWCD, the local working group will provide recommendations to the NRCS District Conservationist on local natural resource priorities and criteria for conservation activities and programs planning for the upcoming fiscal year. These issues will be especially important in decisions made for financial assistance when implementing the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP). This program is administered by the NRCS and provides incentive payments for the installation of several conservation practices on eligible participant's land. The information gathered from these meetings will be used to help carry out the EQIP and other programs in 2013.

While the NRCS brings the technical expertise and farm bill funding to the table the goods and services are delivered through the local SWCD board. SWCDS's are local units of government made up of fire members elected by the public. Their office is usually co-located with the NRCS office. Members of SWCD Boards are actively engaged in farming and ranching.

For more information, including eligibility requirements, call or visit the NRCS office in the USDA Service Center 2302 N. Hwy. 208, Colorado City, TX at 325-728-3473. Service Center locations, meeting dates and program information can be found on the Texas NRCS website at www.tx.nrcs.usda.gov.

These cowgirls just finished riding in the WTRA Sweetwater, were they all placed and won awards. Their outstanding hard work and dedication to the sport of Barrel Racing, Pole Bending, Goat Tying and Break Away, must be commended. They have practiced long and hard; endured cuts, bruises, rope burn, getting stepped on and even eating dirt, but they all walked away winners. To watch these cowgirls take care of their horses, and run their races is a site to see. Deidra Hale has done a excellent job with these girls, as thier coach and mentor.

Brae Boedeker (9-12 GIRLS) placed 7th in Barrel, 8th in Step off Goat Tying, 9th in Pole Bending and 9th for All Around.

Tagan Dickson (9-12 GIRLS) placed 6th in Pole Bending, 7th in BAW, 4th in Step off Goat Tying, 11th in Barrels and 7th in All Around.

Tips given to all CHS students

Dalton West, Principal at Colorado High School, has some important tips to know about the first day(s) of school:

Students will report to their first period class on the first day of school. There will also be staff guiding and directing students, as well as lists posted by grade level.

Schedules will be handed out on August 17th. Schedule changes before school are not allowed unless students are missing a core class or there is an extenuating circumstance. Extenuating circumstances must go through the building counselor or principal. Schedule changes will NOT be made if you are concerned that you do not know anyone in the class or you don't want the class that period (i.e. you only want PE 6th period). We ask that students with complete schedules try their schedules for two weeks before requesting any type of changes. Scheduling at the high school level is different than middle school in that you have to forecast for your electives and they are only offered certain periods. Sometimes, schedules changes may result in loss of electives. The office staff will let you know of these conflicts if a schedule change is to be made.

We, at CHS, want your child in class on time. We have a 4-minute passing period between classes; this is ample time to get around our campus. The staff at Colorado High School also understands that the first few days of school are difficult with eight different teachers, lockers, etc. Tardies counting will begin on the third day of school. Again, if you are having difficulties getting to class on time discuss it with a staff member; we pride ourselves at figuring out issues.

Fall athletics start before school, please visit our athletic page on our website for more information and any of the forms you may need at www.ccity.esc14.net.

Colorado High School is on the web. We are located at www.ccity.esc14.net. Parents and students have access to the student handbook, curriculum guide, counseling information, and teacher web pages on this site.

West encourages all parents, especially freshman and sophomore parents, to attend the orientation meeting scheduled for August 16th in order to get a clearer understanding of the new graduation requirements and accountability standards.

For more information, contact the high school by calling 325-728-3424.

WESTBROOK ISD FREE & REDUCED-PRICE MEALS INCOME GUIDELINES

Westbrook ISD has announced its policy for providing free and reduced-price meals for students served under the National School Lunch Program and/or School Breakfast Program.

The central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The household size and income criteria identified below will be used to determine eligibility for free and reduced-price benefits. Students from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. Foster children who are the legal responsibility of the state agency or court are eligible for free meal benefits regardless of the income of the household with whom they reside. Application forms are being distributed to all households with a letter informing households of the availability of free and reduced-price meals for their children. Applications also are available at the administration office.

To apply for free and reduced-price meals, households must fill out the application and return it to the school. Applications may be submitted anytime during the school year. The information households provide on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and verification of data. Applications may be verified by the school officials at any time during the school year.

For school officials to determine eligibility for free and reduced-price benefits, households receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits (formerly Food Stamps)/Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) only have to list their child's name and SNAP or TANF case number. An adult household member must sign the application.

Households that do not list a SNAP/TANF case number must list the names of all household members, the amount and source of the income received by each household member, and the last four digits of the Social Security number of the adult household member who signs the application. If the adult who signs the application does not have a Social Security number, the household member must indicate that a Social Security number is not available by writing the word "None," "No Number," or some indication that the person does not have a Social Security number. The application must be signed by an adult household member.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced-price meal policy, Dana Moody will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the reviewing official on an informal basis. Parents wishing to make a formal appeal for a hearing on the decision may make a request either orally or in writing to Todd Burleson, Superintendent. If a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size increases, the household should contact the school. Such changes may make the students of the household eligible for benefits if the household's income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In accordance with Federal Law and U.S. Department of Agriculture policy, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

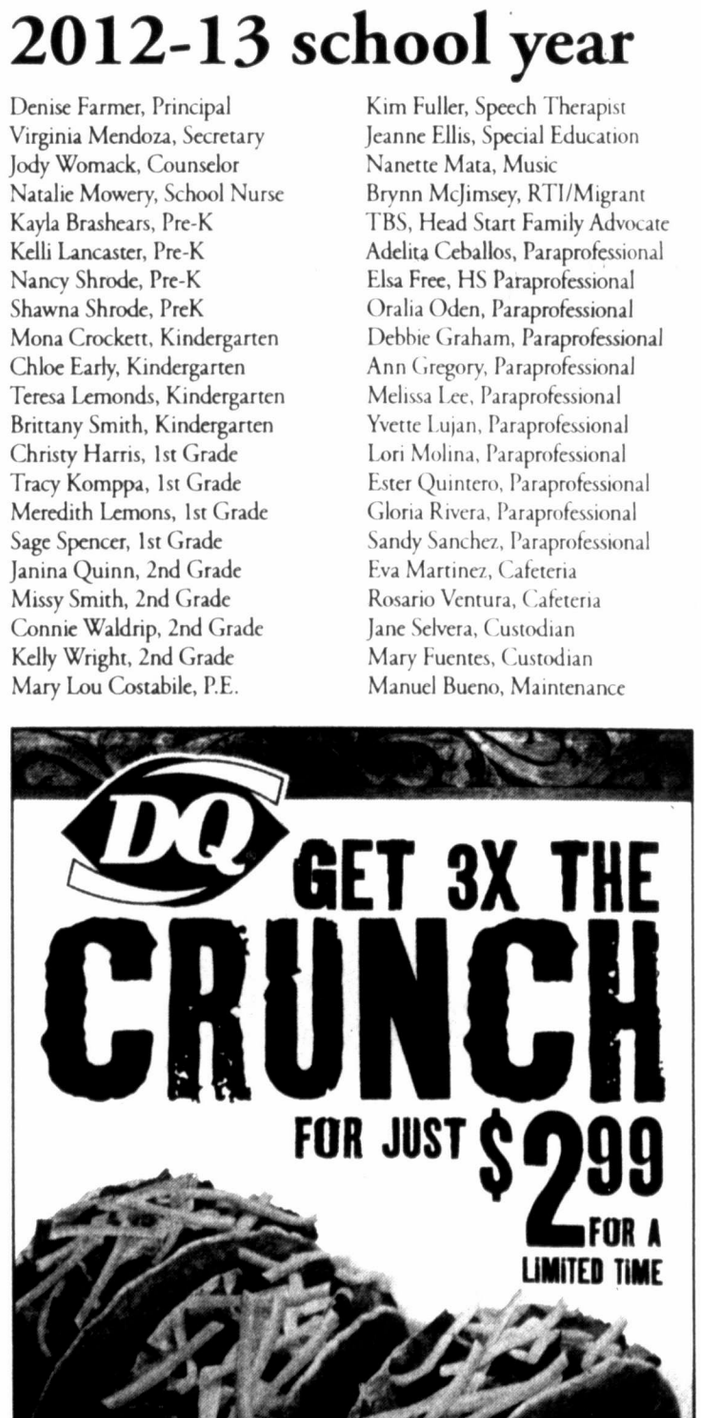

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 or call toll free (866) 632-9992 (Voice). Individuals who are hearing impaired or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339; or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish). Loraine registration information given

Loraine ISD is getting ready to kick off their 2012-13 school year. Many events are scheduled to take place early and parents need to be informed to help them get ready for the start of school.

Football and volleyball two-a-days will be starting August 6. Football with Coach Kyle Hauk will begin at 7:00 a.m. Volleyball with Coach Vasquez will begin at 9:00 a.m. If you are coming or thinking of coming to Loraine and are a new high school transfer, you need to speak with Mrs. Reida Penman, Principal and Coach Hauk as soon as possible. All athletes in grades 6, 7, 9, and 11 must have a physical done this year.

Students transferring should be aware that the office has a transfer policy that must be signed and agreed to by students and parents.

Students participating in ag, or wanting to participate either in showing or judging, should let the ag teacher, Mr. Galloway, know as soon as possible. He will help in finding animals and proper care directions.

Remember dual credit classes start August 27th. All classes are on the Loraine ISD campus. You must have registered with the counselor, Mr. Doug Fortenberry. The tuition and books are still being covered by the district. Fortenberry will be available August 6th at the school campus for information and registration packets.

New elementary, junior high and high school students may come any day during the month of August to register prior to the beginning of school. Please bring birth certificate (issued from the courthouse), immunization record, social security card, and the driver's license of the enrolling parent/guardian. You can also pick up athletic schedules, supply lists, and school calendars at that time.

All students will be able to come meet the teachers, drop off school supplies and pick up schedules on August 24th from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Keep in mind that the first day of school is August 27th.

The new school year is coming fast and here at Loraine ISD it's Learning for all...whatever it takes!

2012 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN CITY OF COLORADO CITY

This notice concerns 2012 property tax rates for the City of Colorado City. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$396,791.00
Last year's debt taxes	$283,491.00
Last year's total taxes	$680,282.00
Last year's tax base	$947,587,577.00
Last year's total tax rate	$0.697100/$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$679,120.00
÷ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$100,599,021.00
= This year's effective tax rate	$0.675000/$100
(Maxiumum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearings.)
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property and adjusting for any transferred function, tax increment financing, state criminal justice mandate and/or enhanced indigent health care expenditures)	$601,100.00
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$100,599,021.00
= This year's effective operating rate	$0.597500/$100
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$0.645300/$100
+ This year's debt rate	$0.285500/$100
= This year's total rollback rate	$0.930800/$100

A hospital district or city that collects the additional sales tax to reduce property taxes, including one that collects the tax for the first time this year, must insert the following lines:

- Sales tax adjustment rate	$.201800/$100
= Rollback tax rate	$.729000/$100

Statement of Increase / Decrease

If the City of Colorado City adopts a 2012 tax rate equal to the effective tax rate of $0.6750 per $100 of value, taxes would increase compared to 2011 taxes by $5,285.

Schedule A - Unencumbered Fund Balances

The following estimated balances will be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund	Balance
General Fund	$427,372

Schedule B: Current Year Debt Service

The unit plans to pay the following amounts for long-term debts that are secured by property taxes. These amounts will be paid from property tax revenues (or additional sales tax revenues, if applicable).

Description of Debt	Principal or Contract Payment to be Paid from Property Taxes	Interest to be Paid from Property Taxes	Other Amounts to be Paid	Total Payment
C.O. 2004	$232,579	$57,421		$290,000
Total Required for 2012 Debt Service				$290,000
- Amount (if any) paid from funds listed in Schedule A				$0
- Amount (if any) paid from other resources				$0
- Excess collections last year				$0
= Total to be paid from taxes in 2012				$290,000

2012 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN CITY OF LORAINE

This notice concerns 2012 property tax rates for the City of Loraine. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$73,039
Last year's debt taxes	$21,919
Last year's total taxes	$94,958
Last year's tax base	$7,764,820
Last year's total tax rate	$1.222926/$100
This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$94,493
÷ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)	$8,087,250
= This year's effective tax rate	$1.168419/$100
(Maxiumum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearings.)
This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property and adjusting for any transferred function, tax increment financing, state criminal justice mandate and/or enhanced indigent health care expenditures)	$89,828
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$8,087,250
= This year's effective operating rate	$1.110736/$100
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$1.199594/$100
+ This year's debt rate	$0.268239/$100
= This year's total rollback rate	$1.467833/$100
- Sales tax adjustment rate	$0.209056/$100
= Rollback tax rate	$1.258777/$100

Statement of Increase / Decrease

If the City of Loraine adopts a 2012 tax rate equal to the effective tax rate of $1.168419 per $100 of value, taxes would increase compared to 2011 taxes by $872.

Schedule B: 2011 Debt Service

Mitchell Kickin it Kountry in Midland

KICKIN KOUNTRY IN MIDLAND -- Shady Mitchell (left) is shown with Tamarey Fosdick and Dallas Frasier at a Mudrock Recording Studio. Mitchell's band was asked to back Frasier at the grand opening of the studio Saturday night, July 28th.

Band leader Shady Mitchell of Loraine and his band "Kickin Kountry" performed with the legendary Nashville song writer Dallas Frasier and upcoming Nashville star Tamarey Fosdick at the grand opening of Mudrock Recording Studio and Nashville on the Brazos Productions in Midland on Saturday, July 28th.

Mitchell said, "It was an honor for our band to be asked to back this Nashville legend who has written countless hits for many top entertainers. Hits like 14 Karat mind for Gene Watson, There Goes My Everything for Jack Greene and Beneath Still Waters which have been recorded by several artists. He also wrote many fun songs like Ally Oop, Mohair Sam and Elvira!"

Mitchell's band is comprised of himself, his wife Debby, Robbie Nolan of Snyder, Todd Baird of Abilene and Ken Morgan of Midland. They are the house band of the C City Opry which is held at the Opera House in Colorado City every third Thursday of the month.

No license means big fines after wreck

A Colorado City man is facing several fines after an accident near the intersection of Highway 208 and Business I-20 Wednesday.

Robert McGrath was traveling eastbound on Business I-20 in a 1985 Chevy pickup when he negotiated a left turn in front of Michelle Lancaster, who was traveling west in a 2005 Chevy Cavalier.

THIS SMASHED CHEVY is a result of another vehicle pulling in front of the driver Wednesday.

Lancaster, along with passenger Courtney Lancaster, travelled to Mitchell County Hospital by private vehicle for minor injuries.

McGrath, who refused any medical treatment, was cited by the Colorado City Police Department for failure to yield and for no driver's license. He was making a turn into a local body shop when the accident occurred.

By Sandra Graham
Loraine Correspondent

Greetings! "This is day the Lord has made, let us be glad and rejoice in it!"

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Sandy Graham and I will be reporting the Loraine news. My phone number is 728-0432, and I would like to invite you to please call when you have some news.

We would like to welcome Max and Joan Hutchins from Midland to our community. Hope you'll be very happy here.

The children of Loraine First Baptist vacation Bible school brought their offerings each day. On Monday, July 23rd, Brother Dale Hartley presented the Loraine Senior Center with a donation of $100.00. It was greatly appreciated. Thank you and job well done.

Penny Mitchell was here from Stephenville last week visiting with her mother-in-law, Elnora. She comes up about every two weeks to visit and check on their home here. Good to see you, Penny.

Susan Sanchez made a trip to Seattle, Washington from July 17th to the 24th, for a family reunion on her mother's side, the Pina's. She met her cousin Pauline from Venus, in Arlington and then they flew out of Dallas together.

The reunion was held in Sunnyside on Saturday. In attendance were four aunts and five uncles and their families. Susan says a fun time was had by all.

Arthur and Jennifer Zuniga left Sunday, July 22nd and went to Palo Duro Canyon and Amarillo for some sight-seeing. They returned home on Tuesday.

Rosemary Aguilar went to Dallas on Saturday and Sunday for a family get-together and surprise birthday party for her sister, Esther Rivera. Those in attendance were: Jesse Vallejo; Frank and Manuela Garcia and their children and grandchildren, except for Adrian and his family; Esther, her husband and children; Rudy and his family from Lubbock; Oscar and his family from Stephenville; Lupe Brumbly from Louisiana; Martina Day and family from San Diego, California; two nephews, Justin and O. J. Vallejo from Austin; and David, a friend of Jesse's.

There was a waterslide for the children. Sunday evening, three family members went to see a Rangers baseball game. Everyone had a good time.

We also want to welcome new head football coach/athletic director, Kyle Hauk and his family. They come here from Grandfalls/Royalty school district.

He is attending six-man coaching school in Lubbock this week prior to the start of two-a-day football workouts on August 6th.

Well, that's the news for now. See you next week.

The staff at the Record would like to welcome Sandra Graham to the team and we look forward to working with her on a weekly basis.

MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Notice of Public Hearing on Tax Increase

The City of Loraine will hold two public hearings on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in the preceding tax year by 4.67 percent (percentage by which proposed tax rate exceeds lower of rollback tax rate or effective tax calculated under Chapter 26, Tax Code). Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property and the tax rate that is adopted.

The first public hearing will be held on August 9, 2012 at 6:00 pm at City Hall Board Room, 111 South Main, Loraine, Texas 79532.

The second public hearing will be held on August 14, 2012 at 6:00pm at City Hall Board Room, 111 South Main, Loraine, Texas 79532.

The members of the governing body voted on the proposal to consider the tax increase as follows:

FOR:	Richard Alvarez	Susan Sanchez
	Norma Perez	Scott Edmondson
AGAINST:
PRESENT and not voting:
ABSENT:	Mark Diaz	Rebecca Benivamondez

The average taxable value of a residence homestead in City of Loraine last year was $14,963. Based on last year's tax rate of $1.222926 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed last year on the average home was $182.99.

The average taxable value of a residence homestead in City of Loraine this year is $14,092. If the governing body adopts the effective tax rate for this year of $1.168419 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed this year on the average home would be $164.65.

If the governing body adopts the proposed tax rate of $1.222926 per $100 of taxable value, the amount of taxes imposed this year on the average home would be $172.33.

Members of the public are encouraged to attend the hearings and express their views.
