Butch Avery was in the studio recording his first record last week with the assistance of his father, Rev. Homer Avery, and sister, Evelyn Avery Lewis. The guitar was played by Ira Horton, with Butch Avery on the keyboard.

You've got to hear this for yourself! The title of the recording is: "Time Is Running Out."

Keep listening to your favorite station on Sunday mornings. "We would appreciate your support, and your prayers. We're on the move for the Lord, because 'Time Is Running Out,'" said Butch Avery.

Youth Annual

The Youth Department of Christ Temple COGIC would like to invite the public to attend their Youth Annual set for February 17 & 18, 1990. Theme is "Is Your Living In Vain?" I Cor. 15:58.

A musical workshop will be held Saturday, February 17, 1990 at 1 p.m. Elder David Haynes, Jr. of Ft. Worth, Texas will be the conductor. Also, there will be a musical Saturday night beginning at 8 p.m.

The guest speaker for Sunday, February 18, 1990, at 3 p. m. will be Elder Gary Buntion of Houston, Texas. "All things are ready, come to the feast!"

including Best Picture. The movie stars Whoopi Goldberg (in her film debut), Danny Glover (the "Lethal Weapon" films), Oprah Winfrey (superstar TV host), Margaret Avery, Adolph Caesar ("A Soldier's Story"), and Rae Dawn Chong ("Soul Man"); and was adapted from Alice Walker's best-selling, Pulitzer Prize-winning novel.

A film of great visual poetry, THE COLOR PURPLE spans nearly 40 years and deals with joys, misfortunes and hopes of a poor black family in the rural South of the early 20th century. The changes that occur, and the impact these changes have on the lives portrayed, represent an emotional story of heroism, achievement, and humanity. The film conveys both the frailties and strengths found in life, and the power of love as a unifying force.

Reese Air Force Base Black History Celebration

Reese AFB, Texas -- This year's theme for Black History Month is "The father of black history, Dr. Carter G. Woodson, 'A Living Legacy'".

Although there were others who were interested in and wrote about Afro-American history before he did, Dr. Woodson was the first scientifically trained historian who wrote in the field of Afro-American history.

After retiring from teaching in 1922, he devoted the rest of his life to writing, editing, researching and promoting popular interest in African-American history. Along with the long lists of books he wrote, which include, "The History of the Negro Church," "Negro in Our History" and "African Heroes and Heroines", he also wrote hundreds of articles, reviews, addresses and newspaper articles. His writings have covered

LWV Sponsors Public Forum

"Superwomen: Can We Be Everything to Everybody? And How Do We Cope?" is the subject of the League of Women Voters Public Forum Thursday, February 8 at the Mahon Library Community Room.

The public is invited to the meeting, which begins at 11:45 a. m. Reservations for the optional luncheon ($6.00) may be made by calling 744-0023.

A "Superwoman" or "high-achieving woman" is defined by psychologist Harriet Braiker as "any woman with multiple roles who desires to excel in these roles." The inner struggle to be everything to everybody can result in a high degree of stress, taking its toll on a woman's health, personal relationships and/or career.

A panel will examine the physical and emotional problems of the stress cycle and methods of coping.

Panel members are: Dr. Debi Overton, Ph. D. and Shaun Callison, Ed. D., health care professionals, and Lorri Bellair and Betty Anderson from the League of Women Voters.

The popularity of the week continued to grow until it became a national scope. During the country's Bicentennial celebration in 1976, Americans everywhere had a heightened interest in learning about the people from all ethnic groups who helped to construct this nation. During that year, Negro History Week was developed into Black History Month by the Association of Afro-

American Life and History (another of Dr. Woodson's foundations). Dr. Woodson had a theory that interpretation of American history would be far different from what is has been if the role -- positive and negative, active and passive -- of the Negro is taken into account.

INFECTIOUS JOY, CONTAGIOUS KNOWLEDGE -- Chadian villagers sing and dance to call their neighbors to join in a community health meeting, sponsored by CARE, the international relief and development organization. RUBY JAY'S CORNER

New Hope Baptist Church is the Church where the people really care. It is located at 2002 Birch Avenue and Rev. B. R. Moton is the proud pastor.

Worship services began last Sunday morning with Deacons Jenkins and Givens in charge of devotions. A surprise selection was sung by the Male Chorus and Senior Choir.

Scripture was lead by Sister C. Howard; and prayer by Rev. Mims. A selection was sung, followed by the Mission & Educational offering by the Deacons and Ushers.

Another selection was sung by the Male Chorus. Announcements were read by Cynthia Ball, followed by another wonderful selection by the Male Chorus. The choirs are just wonderful. Men, you are doing a great job! Mrs. Ann Taylor is their musician.

Pastoral observations were given by Pastor Moton. The morning hymn was sung. Pastor Moton spoke on the subject: "God is." His text was Psalm 27: "The Lord is my light." It was another wonderful message.

Pastor Moton extended the invitation to discipleship and one came by watch care; one came for prayer.

The welcome of visitors was done by Sister Celestine Kyle, followed by the lithe and offerings. Benediction was offered by Pastor Moton.

There were several visitors from Texas Tech University who came by. You are always welcome.

The installation of Officers of New Hope and Communion were conducted Sunday night.

The Youth of New Hope had on their new uniforms last Sunday. Boy, they looked real good! Speaking of youth, Youth Retreat will be conducted February 10th in Odessa, Texas at St. John Baptist Church. Rev. Jasper P. Williams is the host pastor.

Enrollment will begin at 8:00 a. m. with classes beginning at 9:00 a. m. The Youth of the church and workers are making preparations to attend.

We still have the sick and shut-ins. Why not go by and visit and pray for them. God is able.

Sister Maude Hamilton, who was once a member of New Hope, called and asked for prayer. She is in a bad condition. Her mother has passed. She asked about everybody in New Hope. She would love to come back, but can't make the journey.

"A Look Back In Black History: From Africa To The New World"

(To 1619)

"E. Pluribus Unum." The national motto of the United States means: "one from many." Suggested by the patriots at the outbreak of the American Revolution. This motto was originally used in a political sense, to demonstrate that out of thirteen separate states, one new sovereign power had come into existence. But since the time of the Revolutionary War, this latin expression has taken on a larger meaning. It has come to suggest that America is made up of many people from many lands, having become, in essence, a nation of nations. Certainly one of these many people came from the continent of Africa. A group that numbered first to arrive in the new world. Of the varied old world stocks that entered America, none came from as wide a geographic area as the blacks. The vast majority came from the West Coast of Africa, a 3,000 mile stretch extending from the Senegal River, down around the huge coastal bulge, to the southern limit of present day Portuguese Angola.

A small percentage came from Mozambique and the Island of Madagascar in far away East Africa, and still fewer came from the Sudanese grasslands that bordered the Sahara. Just as the ancestor of the American Negro came from no single region, so he was of no single tribe or physical type. The "West Coast Negro", the predominant type that came to the New World, was marked by such characteristics as tall-stature, wooly hair, broad features, full lips, little growth of hair on face or body, and a skin color approaching true black. However, slave ships bound for America carried a variety of the genetic stocks. This is how we as a black race came to America.

MAKE $25,000 SITTING AT HOME!

DON'T LET THIS OPPORTUNITY PASS YOU BY.

Can you picture yourself making at least $5000 dollars a week, every week? If you can, I urge you to read this article, it could be worth thousands of dollars to you!

My name is Mark Preston. I am 32 years old and a self made millionaire. A few years ago I discovered a money making method that changed my life forever. This is not just another "get rich quick scheme." This is a unique new system that is in demand everywhere, yet few people even know it exists.

Anyone can do it. Trust me. If you want to make money, this system is for you. When I first started this money making program, I was flat broke and at least $10,000 dollars in debt. My family thought I was crazy and said I should be out looking for a "real job." That did not stop me. I was determined to make it with this fantastic money making plan I had discovered.

I started at home on the kitchen table with no capital. Within a year I was taking in over $20,000 A WEEK. . . MORE THAN A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. You heard me right, OVER A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR! I went from driving an old beat up Pick-Up to a Brand New Lincoln Continental. I paid for it in cash. I bought a new home in a prestigious neighborhood, a waterfront summer cottage, and a Townhouse in Florida. I do not mean to brag, but these are my results using this amazing money making system. Do not envy me, join me!

THE SECRET REVEALED

I knew then I had discovered a revolutionary new money making program that would continue to make me thousands of dollars a day. It seemed so easy. I asked myself why everybody wasn't rich? Then it dawned on me that not everyone knew about this secret method of making money. You do not need special training or even a college education for this money making system to work for you.

Once you have learned how to use it, your money worries will be over for life. You will have financial security and peace of mind. This money making system is perfectly legal and amazingly simple. It has nothing to do with real estate, the stock market, or gambling of any kind. It does not matter what your financial situation is now. You can start this money making program at home in your spare time with less than $15.00. In a few short weeks you will see the cash start to roll in. Once you put this money making system to work for you, the sky's the limit! You will have cash to spend on whatever you want, whenever you want it. Think of it! Enough cash to finally put an end to economic nightmares forever!

HERE'S PROOF

I am sure you are somewhat skeptical at this point. That just shows you have good business sense. Read what a few people had to say about my money making program.

Dear Mark,

I ordered your program 3 months ago and started using it the day I got it. To say the least I was shocked at the results. Last month I deposited over $11,000 in my bank account. Thank you so much.

N.C., Stuart, Florida

Dear Mark,

When I first saw your article I had my doubts. I said to myself I might as well try it, at least I'll be $25.00 ahead with your guarantee. Well, your material changed my life from being flat broke in July to practically a millionaire in December! If I can do it, anyone can.

J.S., San Diego, CA

Dear Mark,

Before I ordered your money making method, I was slaving away cutting lawns for $4.00 an hour. At 19 years old my future looked bleak. Last week I made over $14,000 in less than 20 hours of work. I am the envy of all my friends. Thanks for a new life!

J.E., Loudonville, NY

IT'S UP TO YOU

Your life can change now by taking simple action. Order my money making program today and see for yourself. All you have to do is follow the step-by-step procedures I provide you with. ROSA PARKS KNEW.

ON DECEMBER 1, 1955, ROSA PARKS BROKE THE RULES and took a bus ride to freedom in Montgomery, Alabama.

But even before that day, Mrs. Parks had committed herself to the pursuit of equality and individual freedom. She made invaluable contributions to the work of the NAACP. She was a key figure in the Civil Rights Movement, working closely with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. She is the founder of the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute for Self Development, an organization to help young people fulfill their highest potential.

Mrs. Parks has been honored time and again for her contributions to the quality of life for all Americans. She is the recipient of ten honorary doctorate degrees, as well as the NAACP Springarn Medal and the Martin Luther King, Jr. Non-Violent Peace Prize.

On Feb. 4, 1990, Rosa Parks celebrated her 77th birthday. She was honored that day with a special tribute at Washington's Kennedy Center commemorating her lifetime of achievement.

We at Burger King® Corporation salute Mrs. Parks for her unceasing dedication to freedom and justice for all people. And we wish her a continued lifetime of breaking the rules for the betterment of humanity.

SOMETIMES YOU'VE GOTTA BREAK THE RULES.

Car Safety: The Focus For 1990

With incentives like cash rebates and offers of low financing, new car bargains often attract consumers at the beginning of the new year. As with any purchase, consumers should carefully check out all offers and discuss buying options with different dealers and lenders before signing a contract.

While considering options, consumers should not overlook the importance of advanced vehicle safety features which are now available as standard or optional equipment. Because of a new Department of Transportation ruling requiring passive safety restraints on new cars, auto manufacturers are placing a priority on vehicle safety this year.

The ruling directs car manufacturers to include either automatic seat belts or air bags on all 1990 models. Rear shoulder belts and anti-lock brakes are also available on many new cars. Although this ruling does not apply to vans, pickup trucks and utility vehicles, such safety devices are found on many such vehicles.

PASSIVE RESTRAINTS

The term "passive restraints" refers to restraining devices which work without any conscious action on the driver's part. There are two kinds of passive restraints: automatic safety belts and air bags.

AUTOMATIC SAFETY BELTS

Most auto manufacturers satisfy the federal restraint mandate by installing automatic seat belts. The most unique thing about the automatic safety belt is that you don't have to remember to buckle up. The belt fastens itself around you.

Points to remember

- The automatic lap/shoulder belts are just as effective as the manual type. In many cars, however, only the shoulder portions fasten automatically. You still need to buckle the manual lap belt for full protection.
- If you spend part of your time in a car with automatic belts, you may forget to buckle up when you go back to a car that has manual belts. Remember -- a crash can happen any time!

AIR BAGS

Air bags, which are usually hidden inside the steering wheel or dashboard, are designed to inflate automatically in frontal crashes. Used in conjunction with a safety belt, they provide additional protection against head, facial, and chest injuries.

Points to remember

- An air bag does not replace the need for a safety belt.
- Air bags work only in frontal crashes. They won't protect you in a sideswipe, a rear-end collision, or a rollover.
- The air bag will inflate only once. If your car hits two or more different objects, several seconds apart, you'll need your safety belt to protect you from the second and third impacts.

OTHER SAFETY FEATURES

REAR SHOULDER BELTS

The rear shoulder belts are becoming more popular on new models. Virtually all vehicles are to be equipped with this safety feature by 1990. As with front shoulder belts, these devices offer rear seat passengers added protection.

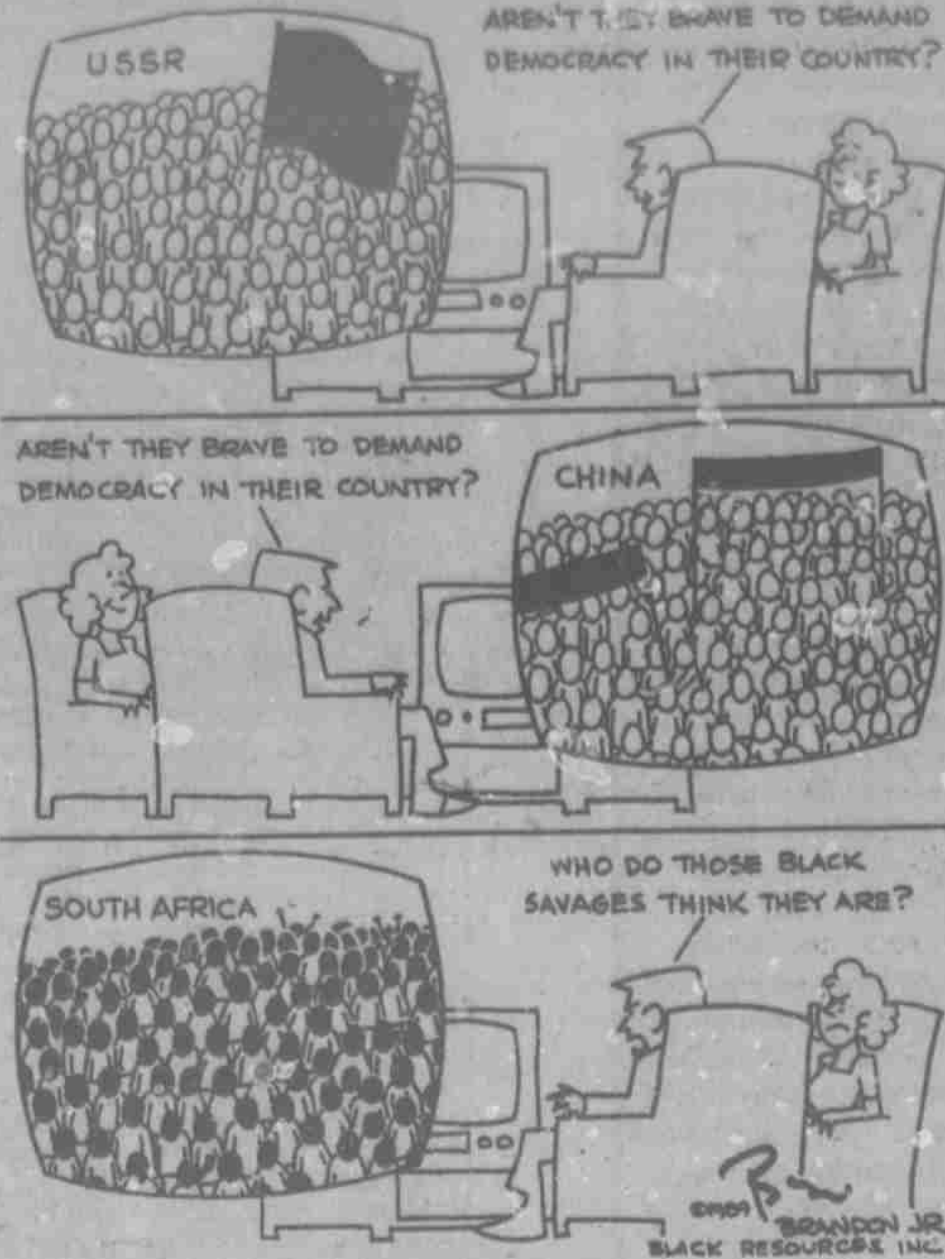

ANTI-LOCK BRAKES

The anti-lock brakes help drivers avoid crashes under difficult braking conditions. Anti-lock brakes are designed to prevent car wheels from locking when the brakes are applied, providing a more efficient braking force.

Be sure that the safety features you want are available on the vehicle you are purchasing.

Ask Bob Bullock

Dear Bob Bullock:
I'm curious. If you have dinner in a restaurant where part of the building is located in the city limits and part of the building is outside the city limits, do you pay city sales tax on your meal?

J. M.
Dallas

Dear J. M.:

You'd be surprised how many businesses are split by city limits and county lines. The sales tax rate you're charged depends on the location of the cash register. If the cash register is in the city limits, you pay city sales tax. If it isn't, you don't pay city sales tax.

Dear Bob Bullock:

My company hired an audio-visual firm to produce a slide program for sales presentations. The program cost more than $8,000, plus tax. Should we have paid tax on this service?

M. T.
Dallas

Dear M. T.:

The slide presentation is similar to a portrait taken by a photographer. While the audio-visual firm was providing a service for you, the end result was the slide program. The slide program is taxable just like the portrait is taxable.

Dear Bob Bullock:

I do yard work for several people. I buy plants and fertilizer at the discount store and mark everything up about 15 percent. Do I charge my customers sales tax on my cost or on the marked up cost?

S. N.
Port Arthur

Dear S. N.:

You should collect tax on the full amount you charge your customer, including the price of your labor. You may offset the tax you send to the state by the tax you paid to your supplier on the plants, fertilizer and soil additive.

Dear Bob Bullock:

Do auctioneers collect sales tax at auctions?

C. E.
Irving

Dear C. E.:

An auctioneer is treated like any other seller when it comes to sales tax collection. The auctioneer either should collect sales tax, or get a properly completed resale or exemption certificate from a buyer who claims he doesn't owe tax.

Health Editorial: Lice

Dr. Heenan Johnson, III

Lice are tiny, but visible insects that live in the hair and suck blood from the skin. Infestation is often spread among children at school. Head lice, the human louse differs from crab lice (pubic louse) which lives in pubic hair and are usually spread by sexual intercourse.

The eggs of lice are known as nits, and they too are visible. The look like tiny white grains clinging to the hair. Most people believe that black folks don't get lice; this is not true, although pubic lice is more prevalent. The bites of lice cause itching in affected areas, and there is a possibility of infection. For the most part, however, these parasites simply irritate their hosts. Lice are most common among people who live in unhygienic and overcrowded conditions. If you find that your child has lice, report it to the school your child attends, or many times the child's teacher or the school nurse may send the child home with a report that your child is infected with lice. Since lice infestation is considered a public health hazard, the Lubbock Independent School District will not allow the child to return to school unless the child is free of lice. For treatment, whether for a child or an adult, consult your physician, who will prescribe a special shampoo, lotion or both. There are a few over the counter treatments, but they are not as effective as the one's obtained by a prescription from your medical doctor. Two or three applications of the medication are necessary to kill nits, as well as lice. Hats and other clothing where nits may be lodged should be treated with an appropriate insecticide or burned.

Tackling Illegal Drug Use

It is a sad state of affairs when a sports column has to focus on the use of illegal drugs. But in a time when some of the National Football League's best players have been sidelined because of illegal drug use, the issue cannot be ignored.

The main cause of illegal drug use in the NFL is, as I have said time and time again, that many players think they can get away with everything. From the time they first became football stars in high school and college, someone has always been there to help them out of trouble. They get the feeling they are above getting punished.

Which is not to say that illegal drug abuse is not discouraged. In college, the NCAA takes great care to educate college athletes on the dangers of illegal drugs. By the time players get to professional football, they have had four or five years of lessons on it. Then in the NFL, they get the same thing. The point is that players can't claim ignorance. They know they are not supposed to be using illegal drugs.

There comes a day when the players who think they can get away with everything must pay for their mistakes. And some pay with their football careers.

For example, Washington Redskins' defensive end Dexter Manley recently ended up with a lifetime suspension from football for use of illegal drugs.

It's a shame, because he's a guy who was really working to make some improvements in other areas of his life. If someone had stopped him a little earlier along the line and made him realize he could ruin his life, he might not be where he is today. He was never taught to look at the big picture of life. Now who is going to take a chance on Dexter Manley?

The use of steroids is another problem facing football. While I don't believe that the use of steroids is as widespread as some people claim, there's no question it has changed the face of the game. Players are getting bigger and bigger, and while most of it is due to better weight training and diet, some players go the steroid route. It's completely wrong, and I think steroids should be thrown in the same category as other illegal drugs.

While the NFL is not a harbor for abusers of illegal drugs—I'd say only 3 percent or 4 percent of the players use illegal drugs—it is a problem that won't go away until taken more seriously. My suggestion is to make the penalties more substantial. Don't teach these guys that they can get caught a couple of times and get away with a short suspension like the NFL does now. A mandatory lifetime suspension for the first incident of illegal drug use should be the rule.

Teach the guys "one time and you're gone." With a penalty like that, I guarantee you'll see an end to illegal drug use in the NFL. I!

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning in the lovely home of Delbert and Dorothy Hood at 9:00 a.m. It was scheduled to meet in the home of Sister Mary Ward, but due to her illness it was rescheduled. Also because of many other ill persons around the city, we only had an opportunity to eat spiritually food, and was in prayer for all the people having problems.

Devotional scripture was led by Sister Elnora Jones, and prayer by Sister Ruby Johnson. President Christine Burleson presided.

Morning scripture lesson was taught by Sister Judy Stahl. Her text was Nehemiah 4:8; 17-19 and Nehemiah 1. Her subject was "God Gave Them A Mind To Work."

Despite the fact that the returned exiles had been in Jerusalem for many years, the walls of the city remained unrepaired. Leaving its people defenseless and vulnerable. Upon hearing this news, Nehemiah seeks permission from the Persian King to go to Jerusalem, arriving in Jerusalem, he mobilized the people to begin rebuilding the wall. Face with opposition, both from without and from within, Nehemiah perseveres until the project is complete and the city resettled. Seemingly a impossible task it could be accomplished when God is helping those who honor him and when their efforts are united. This teacher said: "Nehemiah was the king's cupbearer. He had nothing to give, he was not serving for honour. No one promised him a dime. He was laid out for God, an intercessor with a heart for the people. They had a job watching on that wall. Today there are many walls. Walls of confusion. Walls of knowledge. Walls of prayer. The elders saw everything that came into the city. We have to watch at all times to keep the enemy out, if we are watching, we can't see what others are doing. We are to do our own job well. The enemy is destroying everyday, because the watchman -- some are not doing their job. We need to watch others back. As watchmen for God, the Christians truly need to bind together, and as the walls of separation and confusion are coming down, we need to build a wall of righteousness, and truth and love for all men. This is the year of victory for the Christian, all over the world and take back what the enemy has taken for years.

The people have a mind to work.

Thanks, Judy, for this lesson. We love you!!

Thought of the week: "When you throw the Bible out, the absolute truth, you began to believe an absolute lie!" Think about it!

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

One may be aroused with excitement when they read the stories of ancient monarchs visiting their subjects. However, exciting these stories may be, they are incomparable when placed alongside the story of God visiting the world that He made -- "He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name" (John 1:10-12). It is incomprehensible that He who created the universe would live in that universe at a time and place in history. Yet Jesus did just that. The sad part is that His own people did not receive Him.

Israel is certainly signified in this rejection. They had been chosen as His special people and had been told about His coming throughout their history. The prophets had talked about Him and the psalmist had sung about Him. All of Israel's history had been training to know and receive Him when He came. But Israel slammed the door in her King's face, accused Him of doing His mighty works by the power of the devil and finally crucified Him.

Israel's rejection of her King is no more serious than our rejection of Him. Churches today are filled with people who have not received Him. It is not that we so much do not know Him, or disclaim Him with our lips, but it is a rejection from our hearts. We have a tendency to live out our lives by our own plans, depend upon our own resources, make our own decision, worry about our own failures, and become engrossed in our own fears, as if there were no Jesus. That same Jesus who visited His world nearly 2000 years ago is with us today by His Spirit. He wants us to receive Him and believe in His Name.

"The Lord Jesus, He Is The Answer!!"

Part 2

Revelation 3:20 -- Jesus said, behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come into him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Lord, many people are committing suicide; they say that's the only way. They're followers of blind leading the blind; "You said You were the way."

John 14:6 -- Jesus said, I'm the way, the truth, and life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Lord, many have followed leaders, and it has come to no good, children are following classmates, and would turn back if they could.

Many are now on drugs and some are "pregnant out of wedlock: with a child." They're blind leading the blind, and "their rights are driving them wild."

Mark 10:14 -- Jesus said, suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the Kingdom of God.

Lord, then there's the preachers "greedy, lazy & want for sex." King David & J. Baker were with idle minds; and the body wanted to be relaxed.

Galatians 6:7 -- Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Isaiah 56:10-11 -- The Lord said, his watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they can or bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, everyone for his gain, from his quarter (Anniversary).

Lord, we had R. M. Nixon: President trying to "steal the country," the top position in the land: "but a thief is a thief."

I John 2:15 -- Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

Lord, we had M. L. K. His best friend (Abornathy) told what he was about. "Your word: the Bible tells us; your sins will find you out."

Numbers 32:23b -- Behold, ye have sinned against the Lord: and be sure your sin will find you out.

James 1:14 -- Every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

Lord, we have top sport players, now drinking and using cocaine. "Just the other day, the mayor of the leading city, go caught using it." The doctors will treat him for the cocaine; "but the drug Lite Beer, he won't quit."

Romans 10:9-10 -- If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him (Jesus) from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

John 8:32 & 36 -- Jesus said, ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

God is not through with us yet!! Let's pray for one another always.

BBB News

North American Enterprises

Another telemarketer is in trouble. The Federal Trade Commission has charged North American Enterprises, Inc., a Las Vegas telemarketer, with misrepresenting a $1,000 government bond prize offered as part of a promotion to sell vitamins, and with failing to honor money-back guarantees. The company agreed to settle the charges and pay $60,000 in refunds to consumers. NAE told consumers that if they made a purchase, they would receive a prize, such as a $1,000 government bond with a current cash value of over $500. However, consumers did not receive a $1,000 government bond, but only a share in a unit trust with a current value of $17.50. In closing, the Bureau gets many strange consumer inquiries. For example, a gentleman asked the BBB's help in finding out if he was divorced from his last wife - or any others he may have had - as he was contemplating remarriage in Canada. Another consumer sent a note to the bureau stating, "Please notify this company I need my pants. I can't turn around in my shorts." Lives never dull at the BBB.

Ewing Fairchild/International Marketing Data (BOATS)

Here we go again - the boat scams are back. EWING FAIRCHILD INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION is one company that is sending out notices in our area informing consumers that they have been chosen to receive a new electric sport fishing boat and outboard motor. All the consumer has to do is fork over $99.50 for shipping and handling. The Federal Trade Commission has just charged one such boat promoter, International Marketing Data, with deceptive advertising of their power motorboat. The company represented the boat as being worth $1,000 to $2,000 when it really was worth about $70. Consumers paid around $250 for shipping and handling. That's a big price for a boat that shows up in a large sized shoe box. The normal "boat" letter from all of these companies informs consumers that they are conducting research and that the consumer is being asked to "test" the boat. If you are ever tempted about one of these "boat" offers, come by our office and see the boat we have which we acquired from a consumer who answered such a letter.

Misconceptions And Funny Stories

Today, more misconceptions about consumer rights. Many consumers believe that the BBB and the Attorney General's office will accept a complaint and act on their behalf to get what they want. This is not so. Both organizations act as mediators between the consumer and business, neither actually represents the consumer in a legal sense. The Attorney General's office does represent groups of consumers when they take action against a company they believe is engaged in deceptive acts against several consumers. Now an interesting story: A man offered to paint a woman's house for $150, which she paid. The man used a spray gun on the house, painting everything including windows, bushes, etc. When she asked how he was going to get the paint off the windows and bushes, he said, "don't worry, it'll come off when it rains." Too bad the lady did not call the Bureau before getting taken. And now an interesting classified ad, "Solar clothes dryer, easy to assemble, saves energy, $10.00." That's right, it's an ad for a clothes line.
