

Seek Softball League for City This Summer

Efforts are being made to organize a softball league, with four teams now participating, Durant McInnis, manager of the VFW-Buddy's Supermarket team announced.

The major problem now is financing the lighting for the night games, McInnis said. So far no charge has been made for watching the games.

The big thing we need is for people to come out and watch the games," McInnis said.

While the league could be organized with four teams, six or eight is more desirable, he said. Now playing are VFW-Buddy's, the First Baptist Church, Royce Daves manager; West Texas with Tom Ferguson manager; and a colored team with Joel Honeycutt manager. In league play, there would be games probably three nights a week and Sunday afternoon.

Changes in SCS Office Personnel

A change in personnel in the Soil Conservation Service Office was announced this week by Fred Squires, work unit conservationist.

T. M. Tucker, soil conservationist, for the last year has been transferred to Perryton and promoted to work unit conservationist. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker have not moved, due to his illness.

Replacing him here is J. C. Yeary, Jr., who comes here after 10 months as soil conservationist at the SCS office in Ballinger.

Both Yeary and his wife are from LaGrange. He graduated from Texas A&M College in 1941 and served in the armed forces from Australia to Japan during World War II, being released from service in 1945.

He taught vocational agriculture at Tyler and Star in Mills County, until 1951, when he returned to LaGrange to farm. He joined SCS when he went to Ballinger.

Yeary is a master sergeant in National Guard. He is a member of the Lafayette Lodge No. 34 at LaGrange, which observed its 125th anniversary a few years ago and is one of the oldest in Texas.

Mrs. Yeary is attending Baylor University and will receive her degree in August. She was a substitute teacher in the Ballinger school. They have two children, Jimmy 8, and Sara, 5.

One of Eight from Over Nation

Dr. Jones to Address Group at Chicago

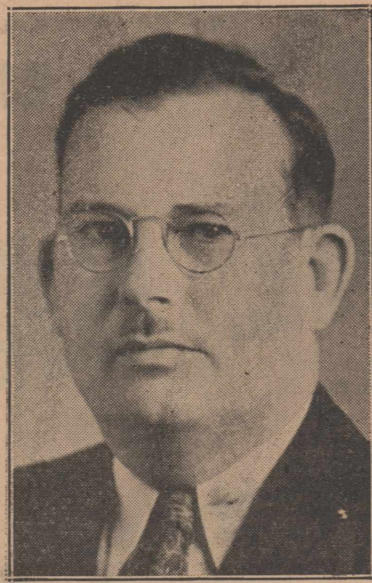

Dr. Chas. B. Jones will be one of eight speakers on the program of the American Blood Irradiation Society when it meets in Chicago Saturday and Sunday, June 9 and 10.

Dr. Jones is to give a paper pertaining to his work in this field on the Saturday program. Other speakers at the two-day meeting will come from all parts of the United States.

The meeting will be held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Dr. Jones explained that blood irradiation has been used in the United States since 1928, and was introduced at the Wellington Clinic in 1952.

He did considerable work and study in this field during two years in Dallas, before returning to Wellington last year.

Bindweed Control Equipment Now Available Here

A sprayer-distributor and sodium chlorate for spraying bindweed is now available for area farmers, County Agent Lefty Thomas reported this week.

The equipment and material was bought with a revolving fund of the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District, and the charge for its use will be only to cover the cost.

M. L. Burks, Wellington vocational agriculture instructor, is in charge of distribution, and farmers should contact him or Mr. Thomas.

Bindweed control has been approved by the county ASC committee, and farmers planning to spray should get their applications for payment into the ASC office, Mr. Thomas pointed out.

A limit of $200 per farm has been set, which will treat between two and three acres per year, and bring the control cost to the farmers down from around $88 per acre to approximately $20 per acre.

The sodium chlorate can be used as either a spray or put down dry, but Thomas warned that it is more hazardous if used as a spray and caution should be taken.

The best time to put it down is when moisture is in the ground, he said.

The Commissioners Court has agreed to hire an assistant for Burks in bindweed control work. The highway department has been contacted regarding control along its rights-of-way.

Bindweed infestation appears to be concentrated in the Fresno and Kelley areas, Thomas said.

No Tax Increase, Says Judge

Plans Being Drawn For New Jail For County

A new jail for Collingsworth County was announced this week by County Judge R. L. Templeton, who said construction would start before the end of summer.

Condition of the present jail, built in 1912, has made it necessary that some action be taken, he pointed out.

The new $45,000 jail will be built with no increase in taxes, Judge Templeton said, since the county has the court house bonds down to the point that this can be done. The commissionery court has hired the architectural firm of Cantrell and Associates of Lubbock to draw the plans.

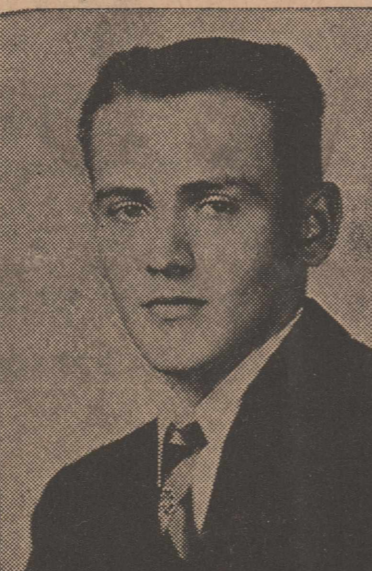

The new prison will be in the same location as the 44-year-old one now in use. It will be of concrete block construction with brick exterior, and one story in height. There will be juvenile quarters, quarters for women, and facilities for 16 men prisoners. The jailer or sheriff's quarters will be attached and will probably have two bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bath.

It will be a maximum security structure.

The present jail has been condemned by federal officers for years, and there are no facilities for women or juvenile prisoners, Judge Templeton said. The bricks were put together with lime instead of concrete, and in places a prisoner could kick his way out. The roof has separated from the wall on the east side, and there is only one two-man cell that officers can be certain a prisoner cannot get out of, he continued.

Judge Templeton recalled that as far back as 1946, he was accidentally locked in a cell with a prisoner he was defending, and when the jailer did not return, the prisoner simply shook the cell door until he shook it open to let Templeton out. Four years ago a 16-year-old juvenile delinquent broke out.

Penny Day At Airpark Pool On June 14

Penny Day will be featured at Marian Airpark pool Thursday, June 14, Frank Lindsay, manager has announced.

In this event, beginning at 2 p. m., 1,000 pennies will be thrown in the pool, and the will belong to those who find them.

In addition there will be many free prizes offered by Wellington merchants, and live gold fish will be turned loose in the pool. Any person who catches a fish with his hands will be given a season ticket free of charge, Lindsay said.

Free swimming lessons will begin Monday, June 11, and will be given each Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Those interested in lessons may get details from Mr. Lindsey.

Swimming pool hours will be 1 to 10 p. m. Monday through Saturday, and 1 to 6 p. m. Sunday. Arrangements may be made for special parties after 6 p. m. any day except Sunday.

Life guards will be on duty at all times, Lindsey said.

Farmers Looking at Guar as Money Crop on Land Taken Out of Cotton

Guar as a money crop has proved it is adapted to the Salt Fork Conservation District, and more farmers this year are looking at it as giving better cash returns per acre than grain sorghums at normal production. They are thinking in terms of income from acres that have had to come out of cotton under acreage control.

The local market price will again be $3.40 per hundred for No. 1 beans, Jones Singley of Singley Mills and Elevator, agent for General Mills, has announced.

John Esser of General Mills, Kennedy, was here recently to confer with Singley regarding marketing, and with Fred Squires, Soil conservation Service work unit conservationist, about the production by farmers in the district.

Squires estimates there will be around 8,000 acres of guar planted in the county again this year. This means there is no drop-off after last year's unusual weather condition that ruined much of the bean crop for commercial sale, but made it available for high protein supplement in livestock feeding. "Last year's experience was most unusual," Esser declared. "Year before last, the bean crop produced here graded No. 1 across the board."

"The thing farmers here are talking about is the condition of the soil when they started plowing land where guar was grown," Squires said. "Most of them report that this land plows much better and this condition exists as deep as any of the land has been deep plowed."

Apparently there is always some kind of seed crop.

"Some of our Salt Fork SCD co-operators feel they have three chances with guar -- as a money crop by selling the beans, as a soil builder where they will get their profit in increased production from next year's cotton crop, and finally, if the seed goes into stock feed, livestock men are finding it the cheapest high protein supplement they can get," Squires continued.

"Guar will generally beat maize as a money crop," he remarked, pointing out that a 500 pound per acre guar production, selling at even $3.20 per hundred, will give a farmer a return of $16 per acre, and that will be equal to a 1100 pound per acre maize crop selling at $1.50. Five hundred pound production for guar is considered normal on an average here.

"Our experience in the Salt Fork SCD is that land that makes the best guar is land that produces the poorest maize -- the deep sand," he said.

"If a man wants to plant maize we certainly are not saying he shouldn't, but we feel that our farmers should know the potentialities of any crop that is adapted to this part of the country. Then they can make up their own minds about planting it," Squires pointed out.

"The Board of supervisors of the Salt Fork District urge ever farmer to plant some soil building crop, and the board feels that guar

1956 Construction Seen for County Already Tops Million Dollar Mark

New homes and public buildings in Collingsworth County already slated, under construction or certain of approval for 1956 already exceeds the million dollar mark, with only five months of the year gone, a survey by The Wellington Leader reveals.

As nearly as can be estimated, this construction figure stands at $1,012,400.

This does not include construction of the farm-to-market road due in the Lillie and Salt Fork communities this year.

The largest single construction project will be the $250,000 gymnasium for the high school and cafeteria for elementary school.

Now under construction at Dodson is the new Farmers Co-op Gin plant, valued at approximately $140,000.

All steps to date point to the housing project for Wellington sought by the Wellington Housing Authority. This will be a $225,000 project.

The newest step in Wellington's building picture is the development of the McMillin Addition by Mr. and Mrs. Dudley McMillin -- the first project opened and built up by one owner.

In addition to these, approximately twenty new home are under construction over the county.

The McMillin Addition is located just south of Ellison Park, and when the 10-house unit is completed will be valued at around $120,000.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillin are selling lots and building houses to the buyers specifications. The land was bought from Claude McKinney, and a new street, Park Lane, opened, with all lots fronting it. This street will be paved, with a circle turn at the end, and sewer, gas and water lines are being laid or will be started soon. Street lights will be installed.

Already buying lots in the addition are Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Vaden, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Brantley, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Brantley, and Mr. and Mrs. McMillin will build their own home there. Almost complete is the Vaden home, a five-room house of frame and brick construction.

Each of the 10 building sites is 60x153 feet.

The new addition is in the vicinity of the schools and hospital. All homes will be in the same general price range and while each will be of individual style and design, all in the addition will be in harmony.

Other new homes being built over the county include: that of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Saied Jr., started recently at 1507 El Paso Street. Built along modern lines, it is of imported Mexican brick construction. It will be a three-bedroom house with carport attached, a composition roof, many built-ins, and an electric kitchen. There will be a circle drive in front.

Recently completed in Wellington is the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brewster in the 1000 block of Amarillo Street. This is a three-bedroom home with soft grey-green insulation shingle siding, and wrought iron trim.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Wright have completed a two-bedroom home at 1609 Amarillo Street, next door to the house they have occupied for a number of years. This house is of grey wood exterior finish with pink trim.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Jones are finishing a three-bedroom home in the 300 block of 8th Street. It is of white frame construction with a den connecting the house, and attached garage. Large windows across the front and a recessed porch are features. Mr. and Mrs. Jones chose location because they formerly lived nearby, and because it is close to their laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith are completing what builders call "the biggest four-room house we've seen." Located on the corner of 14th and Arlington streets, it is of pink brick construction and has a number of unusual features. The house has four rooms, including two bedrooms. The large living room has a fireplace and picture windows. Doors and wood trim are mahogany and this wood also forms the paneling above the fireplace. Much closet space is found near the bedrooms.

At Mavelle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farmer are completing a three-bedroom pink brick modified ranch style home for the daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Carson. The latter couple returned here this spring after living for several years at Hurst, a Fort Worth suburb. The home is located across the road from the Farmer house and will have approximately 1368 square feet of floor space.

Also north of Quail, Mr. and Mrs. Obie White are building a two-bedroom frame home, using insulated siding for the exterior finish. This is of frame construction and some old material will be utilized.

In the Buck Creek community, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Patterson are moving into a three-bedroom house of pink brick construction they designed themselves. It is of modified ranch style, with a hip roof and attached garage. Upon completing their house, they will move out of one of the older houses still standing in the county, built more than 50 years ago with lumber hauled from Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith recently completed a three-bedroom frame house south of town in the Houselog community, they are using insulation siding for the exterior finish.

East of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Carthel Lewis are nearing completion of a conventional type three-bedroom type house. This also is of pink brick construction.

Just north of town on Highway 83, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Lindsey are completing a two-bedroom brick home located on a two-acre tract. It has 1120 feet of floor space, and has been planned especially for their needs. Mr. Lindsey has done much of the work himself.

In Wellington, Ben Wilhelm is finishing a two bedroom, living room and kitchen home with a 14' x 14' basement and attached garage. It is of white frame construction, and the outstanding characteristic is the flat roof with deep overhang.

In announcing the purchase, Mr. Hale said: The personnel of the firm will remain the same to help us with the continuation of the fine service and friendly atmosphere that the store has always maintained.

Leroy Oswald will continue on with the store as buyer of produce and the frozen foods department. Roy Bounds will continue to be manager of the grocery department and James McDaniel as manager of the meat department. Mrs. Leon Roberts will continue as checker and Clyde Powell as produce helper.

Mr. Hale said: Nothing has been changed so come by and receive the courteous service and take advantage of the low everyday prices that you have always received at Buddy's Super Market.

SPECIAL BARGAINS
that nobody else can ever match

IT'S A FACT . . . that our home merchants give us a SPECIAL type of BARGAIN every time we trade with them.

And no competitor of theirs in the city can give us, who live in this area, anything like as good a deal. It's just simple economics.

The dollar we spend at home buys about the same GOODS that it will buy anywhere else . . . but . . . to make each home purchase a SPECIAL BARGAIN, we also get to SHARE in, and to PROFIT from, the more prosperous community that bigger trade volume naturally builds.

And this EXTRA VALUE alone, which we do not get when buying away from home, is the real key to our own greater prosperity and enjoyment of better things for ourselves.

WITH THE U. S. SEVENTH FLEET -- Parker E. Turner, machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Turner of 1406 ave., Wellington, is serving aboard the Pacific Fleet destroyer USS Porterfield (DD-682).

The Porterfield, along with three other Navy ships, completed a five-day goodwill visit to Sydney, Australia, on April 5 and is now with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

While in Sydney, largest of Australian cities, the 1000 men were guests of honor at luncheons and dinner parties given by organizations and private individuals.

Free transportation and gratis admission to the race track, zoo and Agricultural Show were offered by the hospitable Australians. Sydney's Taronga Zoological Gardens is one of the world's famed zoos and the Royal Agricultural Show, similar to the American State Fair, is Australia's big event of the year.

Open house was held each afternoon aboard the destroyers and approximately 32,000 Australians streamed across the ship's gangways. On one day, 10,000 persons visited the destroyers during the three-hour period.

The Australian Navy reciprocated by feting their visitors with a luncheon aboard Her Majesty's Australian Ship Penguin. The Aussie servicemen guided the American servicemen around the city and the sailors of the two countries compared operating equipment on their respective ships.

Following the five-day visit the U. S. destroyers sailed for Far Eastern waters where they are expected to visit ports of Sasebo, Yokosuba and Hong Kong before returning to the United States.

Turner reported aboard the Porterfield in February 1955 and is assigned to the engineering division. His duties are in the forward engine room.

Before entering the Navy in August 1945, Turner attended Wellington High School, Wellington, Tex. and was employed by the Bureau of Reclamation, at Ysleta, Texas.

Capt. and Mrs. John T. Alexander and their seven-year-old daughter, Kathy, arrived recently after three years in Germany and are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alexander of Loco, and members of her family at Childress.

Capt. Alexander had assignments at Heidelberg and Munich during the time he was in Germany.

At the end of their 30 day leave, Capt. Alexander will report for duty at Albuquerque, N. M.

Mrs. Alexander is the former Betty Joe Jones of Childress.

During the time they were overseas, the family visited points of interest in Western Germany, also in Switzerland, Austria, France and other areas.

Buyers Attend Fashion Market

Mack Saied, Mrs. Percy Wells, Mrs. J. L. Burt, Miss Marie Shadd and Miss Rose Shadd attended the American Fashion Association's Fall and Back to School market in Dallas, May 27 - June 1, in the Adolphus, Baker and Dallas hotels.

The American Fashion Association, comprised of nearly 400 salesmen, displayed more than a thousand lines of women's and children's apparel to the 5000 buyers in the market.

The featured event of the week was AFA's Sales Merchandising Clinic fashion show, presented on Monday and Tuesday nights, May 28 and 29, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel. The theme of the two identical shows, "Fashion Hits A New Cycle," projected leading fall colors and new advances in fabrics as well as the latest styles in ready-to-wear and accessories, with school years from kindergarten through college being given special emphasis. The fashions shown were from the lines being displayed in the market. Mrs. Evelyn Lambert, formerly director of sales and promotions at Neiman-Marcus, Dallas, directed and commented the clinics.

The next market week to be held in Dallas will be August 19-24, 1956, and will feature holiday and midwinter fashions.

Ceremony Saturday Afternoon Unites Miss Gayle Young and Duggie Jameson

In a home ceremony attended only by members of the families and close friends, Miss Gayle Jeannine Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young, became the bride of Duggie Jameson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jameson of Dodson.

The Rev. Russell Pogue, pastor of First Baptist Church, read the vows Saturday, June 2, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

An arch entwined with greenery and white gladiolas set in front of a picture window, provided the setting for the double ring ceremony. On either side were lighted white tapers in seven-branched candelabra, and pedestal baskets of white gladiolas. A white covered prie dieu, on which the couple knelt for the benediction, completed the arrangements.

Miss Bette Elliott played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Vesta Lee Orr as she sang "O Promise Me," and "Bless This House."

Mr. Young gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride chose a dress of lace and tulle over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a broad square neckline, scalloped at the edge, short sleeves and a long waistline pointed at the front and back. The bouffant skirt was waltz length. The half-hat in bonnet style was of white satin and pearls, and the attached veil fell to elbow length. She wore white lace mits and carried a white pearl Bible, a gift from two aunts, topped with an orchid surrounded by white carnations and stephanotis. The white satin shower streamers were tied with stephanotis flowerlets.

Miss Elouise Bowen, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress of orchid lace was designed similar to that of the bride, and her headpiece was of orchid and white flowers. She wore matching mits and carried an arrangement of orchid carnations on a heart-shaped satin pillow to which also was attached the groom's ring.

Stanley Brooks, of Belton was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip, and upon returning they will establish their home at Dodson. For travel the bride wore a pale green suit styled with a straight skirt, fitted jacket, short sleeves and a high collar. Her accessories were white and her corsage was an orchid.

Both the bride and groom were graduated from Wellington high school last week, where they were among the outstanding students. The groom also formerly attended Dodson school. Business Research
 Plan Outlined

Plans for a bureau of business research serving West Texas were outlined at a meeting in Amarillo
 Tuesday, May 22, of businessmen,
 chamber of commerce officials
 and faculty members of the School of Business Administration at Texas Tech.

The bureau would be supervised by the Tech business school and faculty members would contribute to its services.

The presentation was arranged by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce which is supporting the plan, and includes the local organization.

Dr. George Heather, dean of the School of Business Administration, explained that Texas Tech finances do not now permit the College's supporting the bureau.

The business research bureau
 would publish a monthly magazine giving a detailed report of business statistics and trends in the 132-county West Texas area.
 It would also be available for special research assignments on behalf of business concerns.

Attending the meeting from here
 were Mrs. J. W. Thomas, C. T.
 Hubbard, and George Shadid.

Important to Irrigation Farmers

THRIP AND FLEAHOPPER CONTROL MEANS MORE COTTON MONEY

Control of thrips and fleahoppers resulted in gains of 310 to 602 pounds of seed cotton an acre in the High Plains area of Texas in 1955, County Agent Lefty Thomas reported this week in discussing experiments conducted by Texas A&M College. Average gross value of the increased yields was $50.44. This is of special importance to irrigation farmers, he added.

Two or three applications of toxaphene, dieldrin and heptachlor controlled thrips and cotton fleahoppers effectively on the High Plains when initial treatments were applied soon after cotton had reached the fruiting stage.

Three thrip and fleahopper control tests with spray formulations of toxaphene, dieldrin and heptachlor were conducted. First insecticide applications were made soon after plants began to produce squares. Two applications were used in one test and three applications were used in the other two tests.

Treated cotton set fruit earlier and showed less growth than plants in untreated plots. The increased number of forms set by plants in treated plots shed fruit excessively when insecticide applications were followed by too early or delayed irrigation, says Owen.

Toxaphene, dieldrin and heptachlor proved effective in control of thrips and fleahoppers. Although differences were not significant toxaphene and dieldrin gave somewhat better control than heptachlor at the dosages used. Two applications held fleahopper infestations to low levels in one test. In the other tests a third application was necessary to control rapidly increasing infestations of fleahoppers.

Control of thrips and fleahoppers resulted in economical increases in yields in all three tests. Two applications of the materials produced gains of 310 to 370 pounds of seed cotton per acre states Owen. Three treatments produced increased yields of 321 to 391 pounds of seed cotton per acre in one test and 565 to 602 pounds per acre in the other. Gross value of gains in production ranged from $36.62 to $71.32 per acre.

Mauldin and Brim Buy Dairy Cows

John Brim and Hubert Mauldin, Grade A dairymen living in the south edge of the county, accompanied by County Agent J. W. Thomas, were in Mansfield recently buying additional cows for their herds.

Mauldin bought 20 Jerseys, all of producing age. Brim bought two Holsteins.

Both men got their cows from the herd of H. Henry Hogg and his son, Bill Hogg, who bring in dairy cattle from the Middle Western dairy states.

Highway Patrol Seeks Recruits

Captain J. W. Blackwell, Commanding Officer of the Amarillo District of the Texas Highway Patrol, said today that applications are being received from young Texans who are interested in appointment of the state patrol force.

The Patrol Captain said that he will be happy to talk to prospective candidate at his office in Amarillo, located at 2200 East 10th Avenue. He pointed out that the last Legislature authorized an increase of 200 men in the Patrol's strength and that the remaining vacancies would be filled through examinations given state-wide late in June from the list of applicants filing between now and June 10.

General qualifications for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol, according to Captain Blackwell, include the following: age 21 to 35 years, inclusive; high school education, or equivalent; minimum height of 5 feet 8 inches; weight in proportion to height; good moral character; perfect physical condition; and excellent character.

Rookie Partolmen are paid during their training and probationary period, the Captain said, and other job benefits outlined by the Captain include: two weeks paid vacation annually; sick leave; State Retirement and Federal Social Security.

Applications blanks may be obtained from the District Patrol Austin, Texas.

Completed their three-in the 1500 block
 street. This home is of man brick construction
 contrasting brick and iron-trim. This house has many in features, planned especially for this family.

Also completed recently was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oris West, in the 1600 block of Amarillo
 street. Built in conventional style, it is of brick and green wooden exterior construction, with a carport.

Considerable home remodeling
 has been under way since the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White have remodeled a farm home in the Kelley community that is being occupied by the daughter and son-
 in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tarver.

In Wellington Mr. and Mrs.
 Charles Allen 1412 Childress St., have added a bedroom with a full basement 14 by 20 feet beneath it.
 This has been finished with green insulation shingles to match the remainder of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bratten have added a 11' by 20' TV room located just off their kitchen. In addition to space for the television, the room has a fireplace, and a built-in desk and shelves. The wainscoting is in knotty pine, with textone finish above.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hunsaker have added a bathroom to their home
 and did considerable remodeling inside.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hightower near Dodson added a 20' by 20'
 double garage of frame construction, finished with insulating siding.

W. P. Head of Vinson has added
 a room and bath to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Duncan have added a 24-foot family room to the south of their house at the corner of 9th and El Paso Streets.

Faith Baptist Church this spring did considerable remodeling to the church annex.

Mrs. L. A. Moore has done repair and remodeling to her home
 at the corner of 15th and Bowie Streets, and her son-in-law, H. L.
 Duncan remodeled the building into which he moved Duncan Hatchery.

Just outside the northeast corner of the county, but of materials bought here, is the home of the E. W. Blaine ranch, described as one of the best built frame houses put up in years. Built in the way home were built 30 years ago, this house has four wall thicknesses, including the wood siding and sheet-rock interior wall. The interior finish is textone. There are six rooms, and the house is built along conventional lines. A number of built-ins are featured.

Dodson leads in business construction in the county.

This includes the Dodson Farmers Co-op Gin.

Finished recently was the completely remodeled First State Bank, one of the most modern and finely finished of any in the area,
 and comparing with city banks in everything but size.

Two churches, South Baptist
 and the church of the Nazarene,
 are building annexes.

Home construction at Dodson includes remodeling work being done
 by Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jameson.

In Wellington, J. W. Chapman
 recently built in a new store front in his building on the west side of the square, into which Mrs. J. L.
 Burt moved the Fashion Shop. The building now has a broad plate-
 glass window of modern design, which with the two doors extends completely across the front. The interior has been remodeled and redecored extensively.

John Holton recently finished a new Conoco Service Station, operated by Merle Phipps, at the corner of Haskell and 8th Streets. This is of concrete block construction, with white stucco finish, with attached wash and grease rooms, and the awning extending across the pump areas.

Herman Childress is enlarging
 the Herman Childress Mattress Factory, adding a large room to the east of the present building.
 In connection with this he is remodeling the entire front of the building, and a large display window in the new section matches
 that in the other part.

Announcement was made this week of a new jail for Collingsworth County with construction to begin this summer. This will be a $45,000 project.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wiley a short time ago completed remodeling of their home at 1209 Floydada Street. Light brick was used to finish the exterior, new windows were installed, and remodeling and redecored completed for the interior. The structural lines of the house were not changed.

Lowell Wells remodeled and modernized the display window
 area of Lowell Wells Clothiers,
 with a glass front set at an angle,
 and one large and one small display window of modern styling.

The Wellington State Bank removed marble from the front of the building and replaced it with light roman brick.

Four miles north of Dodson, Glenn Elliott is building a new home of frame construction.

 It is still a little early to say just how much guar will increase production on cotton planted on guar land, but it is known in a number of cases last year, substantial increases resulted.

Guar should be planted about cottonplanting time. It may be planted in rotation with normal crops, or it may be strip-cropped with cotton, feed crops and other small grain.

It is best adapted west of the 25-inch rainfall line, and is adapted to a wide range of soils. It
 "Chili" originated in Texas.

grows best on sandy loams and lighter soils and does not "yellow out."

Farmers are advised to plant on moist soil an inch and a half to two inches deep, and only five to six pounds of guar seed per acre should be put down. It should be planted in rows, not broadcast.

Growers are also advised to inculcate their seed when planting.
 If a grower wishes to fertilize, he can use phosphate at the rate of 200 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate or the equivalent per acre.
 On truly worn out fields, a balanced fertilizer is advised.

A final warning given farmers is that guar is a row crop and fields should be kept clean.

Maxine Uselton—
 tives each year, one from the senior class and one from the junior to attend the convention. Miss Uselton was chosen by the student nurses as junior representative.

Sixty four Texas nurses, five from Parkland, attended the convention. They left May 12, and spent a week at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Miss Uselton entered the School
 of Nursing in September of 1954,

and having attended both summer
 and winter courses, she will complete her training next year.

Until March of this year she served as vice-president of the student nurses, an office which automatically made her chairman of the Recreation-Finance and House-Uniform committees. She also served on the Judiciary Court
 for two years.

Miss Uselton is here now for a month's vacation. She will return to Dallas June 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gray were here last week visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Garrison, in King's Rest Home. Also visiting Mrs.
 Garrison was her son, Jack Garrison, of Wheeler.

What Is Volume Control

Volume Control is a new and simple device, available on all Neck models, with which the volume of Air-flow into the room or building is controlled easily and efficiently. It consists of a damper, installed in the "throat" of the cooler and controlled by a knob on the grille panel. When the knob is pushed all the way in,
 the cooler operates at full CFM capacity. As the knob is pulled out the damper is gradually closed, reducing the air flow to a point, comparable to low speed on the 2-speed cooler. The control can be set at any point between wide open and closed to provide an intermediate volume of air flow. Single speed motors are used with the VOLUME CON-TROL MODELS.
