Preparations Are Made To Elect Pope

By FRANK BRUTTO

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Preparations were nearly completed today for the conclave that will elect a new Pope of the Roman Catholic Church.

Scores of carpenters and masons put final touches to temporary walls and enclosures that will shut off the electing cardinals from the outside world beginning Saturday.

In a corner of the famous Sistine Chapel, where the cardinals will vote, a shiny, pot-bellied stove was ready to burn their ballots.

In St. Peter's Square workmen cleaned the famous Bernini fountains and prepared the area for the throng that will gather there while the voting is in progress.

The cardinals gathered for the conclave held a final congregation to make their last arrangements.

Saturday morning they will gather in St. Peter's Basilica for a "Mass of the Holy Spirit," a service specially intended to beseech divine guidance during the conclave.

Fifty-two of the 54 living cardinals are in Rome and expected to attend the conclave. There was still a slight hope that last-minute arrangements could be made to bring Josef Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary here for the conclave.

The U.S. Legation in Budapest, where the cardinal has been a political refugee since November, 1956, was unable to obtain a safe-conduct for the cardinal from Communist authorities.

Nonethless, just in case, a throne for Cardinal Mindszenty has been placed in the Sistine Chapel. There are 53 such thrones, each topped by a canopy.

The only other member of the College of Cardinals who will not attend is Alojzije Cardinal Stepinac, Primate of Yugoslavia. He is sick and confined by Communist authorities to his native village of Krasic.

Canadians Due For Highway Session

MCALLEN (AP) — Delegates from Canada and the United States will arrive Sunday for the U.S. Highway 83 Assn. convention here Monday and Tuesday. The principal speaker will be Marshal Formby, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission. John Mayfield, Perryton, Tex., is association president.

NEW TREATMENT FOR STROKE

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An operation described by its originators as offering a way of successfully treating some kinds of stroke was reported today.

Stroke is a paralysis of some body function such as sight, speech or movement. It is due to the stoppage of the blood supply to a certain part of the brain, usually because of a clot. When it hits the part of the brain governing breathing, the result is often fatal.

Medical science up to now has been able to achieve little toward undoing the damage by stroke, and the outlook for curative treatment has been a dismal one, the sponsors of the new operation said.

But a large percentage of the clots occur in arteries in the neck leading to the brain, not to little arteries in the brain itself. These trouble spots in the neck can be reached handily by surgery, they said.

Results of 67 of these neck operations on 50 patients were reported to the American Heart Assn. by a surgical team from Baylor Medical School, Houston, Tex. The team was made up of Dr. E. Stanley Crawford, who reported the results, Dr. Michael E. Deakey, Dr. Denton A. Cooley and Dr. George C. Morris Jr.

X-ray studies showed the clots in these 50 cases to be located in blood vessels of the neck or upper torso. The treatment was to remove the blockading material surgically.

Normal circulation was restored to a majority of the patients, Dr. Crawford said, with the return of the lost functioning.

"It is felt," Dr. Crawford added "that a curative form of treatment now is available for many people with strokes."

Hopes Fade For Rescue Of 91 Trapped In Coal Mine

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — A violent shift of rock in the depths of a coal mine today trapped 91 men, six of them supervisors. Hope of rescue grew dimmer by the hour.

Eighty miners had reached safety. One body was recovered. A company spokesman belatedly announced that six supervisors were with 85 men still trapped hours after tons of rock and coal had tumbled down from tunnel roofs, choking the passageways.

After talking with the rescued men, Arnold Patterson, a coal company spokesman, said:

"The situation is not encouraging. It looks pretty grim. We are hopeful, of course."

A company official said a barrier of gas prevented rescue crew from reaching 55 of the men who had been working 13,000 feet from the pithead. The others were believed scattered in other parts of the mine.

Through the night and into the morning, survivors trickled out of the mine portal and through lines of waiting, anxious relatives.

Some of the survivors were injured and had to be helped or carried out by rescue crews.

With tears in his eyes, the vice president and general manager of the Dominion Coal Co., H. M. C. Gordon, told newsmen that there is no hope for miners trapped on two levels of the mine. He added there is only a glimmer of hope for those on the third level.

Rescue workers have determined the location of 55 men trapped by fallen rock. But they have been unable to find the other 36, and it is for these that there remains some small measure of hope.

A silent crowd shivered in a cold drizzle through the night as five-man teams of draegermen—volunteer mine rescue workers — cleared rock and debris from dust-choked tunnels.

The draegermen wore respirators. One of the first survivors to come out said the "bump"—the miners' name for underground rock shifts of explosive force — had smashed the mine ventilation system and pockets of deadly gas were forming.

The mine is the No. 2 colliery of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Co., a subsidiary of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corp. Cumberland No. 2 adjoins the now-closed Cumberland No. 4, where an explosion and gas killed 39 persons in November 1956.

The worst mine accident in this town of 7,000 near the New Brunswick border was an explosion in 1891 that killed 125. Canada's worst mine disaster was at Hillcrest, Alta., in 1941, when 193 were killed.

The bump occurred at 8:05 p.m. Dishes tumbled from shelves in Springhill and houses also shook 14 miles away in Maccan. Veteran miners called it the worst in memory. Six smaller bumps between last March and Sept. 1 injured 14 men. The cause of bumps often is undetermined.

The mine slopes to a depth of 4,400 feet underground in a length of 14,300 feet, sometimes descending as steeply as 45 degrees. The company considers it North America's deepest coal pit.

The son of one trapped miner, Gary Embree, said he hoped that "after this they close the mine for good—even if it means the end of Springhill."

Mayor Ralph Gilroy agreed this might be the end. The No. 2 colliery was the only mine left open.

A reporter from Halifax was killed when his car crashed at Truro as he hurried to Springhill. He was John Thompson, 28.

The first of the 88 miners to reach safety in 1956, Charlie Burton, was among the missing today. Frank Hunter, another of the 86, also was trapped and so was his twin brother Fred, but another brother, Percy, got out unhurt.

Ernel Spence lost his son in the 1956 explosion. Spence himself was missing this time.

Vote Set Saturday On Urban Renewal

Polls will open at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning in the central fire station at the city hall for a special election to decide whether Snyder enters into an Urban Renewal program.

Persons qualified to vote in the election are city tax payers who are residents of Snyder who have poll tax receipts.

Urban Renewal is a nation-wide program to better America's housing conditions through elimination of slum and blight areas through cooperation by citizens of local cities and the federal government.

The program has three main purposes: to prevent the spread of blight into good areas; rehabilitate and conserve areas that can be economically restored; and continue clearance and redevelopment of areas that cannot be saved.

Under Urban Renewal the federal government pays two-thirds of the net cost of any urban projects undertaken, and the city pays one third of the net cost. The net cost is computed by subtracting the resale price of lands and property in the area from the purchase cost of that property. Private enterprise finances reconstruction on government guaranteed loans. The city's one-third of the cost may be paid in cash, or in the form of public improvements made in the area or to benefit the area.

All administration of the Urban Renewal project is left up to a local Urban Renewal Agency appointed by the city council, all appraisals of condemned properties are made by local boards of appraisers appointed by local officials, and each piece of property in any area is considered on its own merits—no blanket condemnations of areas are made.

Anniversary Of U. N. Is Celebrated

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United Nations celebrates its 13th birthday today with a parade of U.N. Emergency Force troops in the Middle East and a peace concert in the West.

The anniversary, hailed by statesmen around the world, also marks the start of a weeklong television series on the U.N., broadcast by 42 stations in 36 U.S. cities.

The transatlantic broadcast concert, combining performances by noted soloists and orchestras playing in New York, Paris and Geneva, features Pablo Casals, renowned 82-year-old Spanish cellist.

Making one of his rare public appearances, Casals will take part in the New York program this afternoon at the General Assembly hall.

In Paris, American violinist Yehudi Menuhin and David Oistrakh of the Soviet Union will join in Bach's Double Violin Concerto.

Also on the program were the Boston Symphony Orchestra and U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold in New York, the Orchestre de la Suisse Romande in Geneva and Indian musician Rivi Shankar in Paris.

The television series, "Dateline: U.N.," will lead off with a statement on disarmament by U.S. Ambassador James Wadsworth.

China Duel Continues

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Communist and Nationalist artillery engaged in a day-long duel on the Quemoy front today, punctuated by a heavy, hour-long shelling in the afternoon.

A dispatch from Quemoy said the Nationalist guns had struck back strongly and pounded the Communist coastline. The Nationalists were putting to good use the U.S.-made eight-inch howitzers and other guns brought in during the two-week, Red-proclaimed cease-fire.

The number of rounds fired by the Red batteries was not given, but AP Correspondent David Lancashire on Quemoy said the Nationalists had answered shell for shell. Sporadic firing continued until nightfall.

Exchange Of Letters Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks resigned today, and Adm. Lewis L. Strauss was named to succeed him in the Cabinet.

The White House announced that:

1. Weeks has tendered his resignation to be effective not later than Nov. 10 because of "pressing business, personal and family considerations" which he said made his return to Boston imperative.

2. President Eisenhower is making a recess appointment of Strauss, 62, who has been assistant to the President on peaceful uses of atomic energy since his recent retirement from the chairmanship of the Atomic Energy Commission.

An exchange of letters between Weeks and the President was made public.

Weeks' letter dated Oct. 22, tendered his resignation. He recalled that he had conversed with Eisenhower on his departure several times and assured Eisenhower that in the future "if I can serve you in any way, you have only to call upon me."

The President accepted in a letter headed 'Dear Sinny." He expressed sorrow that the departure of the New England industrialist was now so imminent, and added:

"I appreciate that you have already put off this unhappy event for quite some time, much to my benefit and the administration's.

"I accept your resignation as of Nov. 10 with keen regret that it will interrupt the warm and close association we have had."

Strauss conferred with President Eisenhower at the White House this morning. He left the executive offices by a side door, however, and did not talk to reporters.

Since he stepped out as AEC chairman last spring, Strauss has been special assistant to the President on peaceful uses of atomic energy.

Weeks, a New England businessman, is an original member of the Eisenhower Cabinet.

As long ago as 1954, Strauss said his AEC post would be "my last public job on earth."

He first went on the commission in 1946 during the Truman administration. He had a big hand in development of the hydrogen bomb, and originated the development of the detection system that informed the United States of Russia's nuclear explosions.

In the Commerce job he could offer background experience ranging from that of traveling salesman to banker. As a youth of 21 he was selling shoes for his father's firm when he took a job with Herbert Hoover's Belgian Relief Commission. He left a New York banking career to go on the AEC. He is 62.

Fog Cloaks Some Areas

By The Associated Press

Heavy fog cloaked the San Antonio area in South Texas early Friday, halting air traffic temporarily.

There also was fog along the Gulf Coast and around Wink in West Texas. San Antonio had ceiling zero and one-sixteenth mile visibility for a time.

The only measurable rain reported to the Weather Bureau in the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m Friday was .03 at Laredo, on the Mexican border.

Dalhart again was the state's coolest point with an overnight low of 37, nine degrees warmer than the day before. Other readings ranged up to 74 at Corpus Christi.

Forecasters were undecided whether another cold front, stationary across the Texas Panhandle early today, might touch off another round of showers. For the next day or two they anticipated partly cloudy skies and mild temperatures.

Housewife Becomes Hula Hoop Victim

ATLANTA (AP) — Mrs. Ann Mask, 27, a housewife from nearby Fayettesville, is in a hospital in traction with eight-pound weights on her legs every other hour.

Doctors say she may have to undergo an operation for a slipped disc in her back.

Mrs. Mask said she had learned to hula hoop, became sore, decided she needed more exercise and tried a new round of hula hooping. Pretty soon she couldn't walk. She then entered the hospital.

Dulles Charges Reds Trying To Block Formosa Efforts

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles charged today the Chinese Communists are trying to "throw roadblocks" in the way of efforts to pacify the Formosa Strait.

Dulles made the accusation in a statement at the White House. He had just reported to President Eisenhower on his conferences with President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China.

The secretary said the Communists are trying to achieve domination of the western Pacific by combined use of military and propaganda means but he declared his confidence that their efforts will be defeated.

"All of the free countries of the Far East increasingly realize that Chinese Communism is a mortal danger," he said.

"They are heartened by the manifest power of the United States and our stand against retreat in the face of armed aggression.

"The will of the free peoples of Asia to resist Chinese Communism intrusions is, I judge, more solid than ever before."

Returning from his conferences with Chiang, Dulles reached here after midnight. He reported to Eisenhower after a few hours of rest.

He and Chiang had joined Thursday in a statement in which the Nationalists renounced the use of force as a means of returning to the Red-ruled mainland.

Landing here shortly after midnight, Dulles said in a brief airport statement that his consultations with Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek had been "eminently satisfactory."

He praised the Chinese Nationalists as being among this country's staunch allies without which, he said, the United States would be in a desperate position of Communist encirclement.

Dulles was reported by informed officials to have obtained from Chiang a conditional promise to cut his forces on the Quemoy and Matsu islands. The conditions were that he get more modern weapons and that the Chinese Communists institute a long-term cease-fire.

Dulles himself declined to discuss the reports.

The Red Chinese have refused thus far to make any agreement regarding a halt to their artillery barrages on Quemoy, the Nationalist-held island just off the China mainland.

Communist guns returned to at least a daylong wuiet period Thursday, leading to some speculation that the Quemoy war was entering an unproclaimed cease-fire.

Earlier statements—one by Dulles in a British television interview and the other a joint Dulles-Chiang communique on their three-day conference — also stressed that the United States and its Nationalist Chinese allies will not start a fight.

"We are not going to attack or tolerate attacks against the Chinese Communists," Dulles said in the TV interview. "But when they attack then I think we have to stand firm."

SAYS EXTORTION TRIED

Minister Tells Of Trap, Quits

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A Baptist minister resigned Thursday after telling police of his entrapment in a former prostitute's bedroom by her husband and another man. He accused the trio of attempting extortion.

Officials of the First Baptist Church of Oakland withheld immediate acceptance of Dr. Ronald K. Adams' resignation, saying "this is no time for hasty judgments."

The shapely woman denied taking part in an extortion plot and declared: "I've always had a strong desire for him."

Adams, 36, father of three, told police he was with Mrs. Virginia McFerren, 28, in her bedroom Tuesday night when her husband, Ronald, and Ronald Lawrence popped out of a closet with flash cameras.

They snapped pictures, the minister said, then threatened exposure to his wife and congregation unless he gave them $6,000.

McFerren, 28, unemployed Oakland boiler operator who went under the name "Jack Michaels," has a petty criminal record dating back to 1947, police said.

Mrs. McFerren was arrested in 1949 and 1953 on prostitution charges.

Police said Lawrence, 30, an unemployed carnival worker from nearby San Leandro, has a record of arrests going back to 1943 and was sent to Atascadero State Hospital in 1955 as a sex psychopath.

The three were jailed on charges of conspiracy and attempted extortion. They denied the charges.

McFerren declared he had set the trap in order to get evidence for a divorce.

Mrs. McFerren said she had been going to Dr. Adams for inspirational advice once a week during the three years he has been in Oakland. "I love him," she declared. "I've always had a strong desire for him."

Mrs. Page Dies Here

Mrs. Ora Byram Page, 86, resident here more than 25 years, died at 11:10 p.m. yesterday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. M. Higgins, 1710 Twenty-eighth Street.

Graveside services will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Woodbine Cemetery at Artesia, N. M., with the Rev. Gerald Hand officiating. Burial will be under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Page moved here in 1932, shortly after the death of her husband, John Edward Page.

She was born March 27, 1872, in Georgia, where she was married to Mr. Page in 1891. They first lived at Crawford when they came to Texas in 1900, then moved to Hill County before moving to Sweetwater in 1906. In 1907 the family moved to Artesia.

Mrs. Page was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

Survivors include six daughters, Mrs. H. M. Higgins of Snyder, Mrs. Poca Rodman of Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. Earl Collins of Artesia, Mrs. Earl Griffin of Clinton, Wash., Mrs. Edna Doughtie of Aztec, N. M., and Mrs. Laura Wells of Weed, N. M.; 30 grandchildren, and 41 great-grandchildren.

4 Expelled At Baylor

WACO (AP)—Four Baylor students were under indefinite suspension today in the splashing of paint on the student union building of Texas A&M.

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor, wired apologies to Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of Texas A&M, who quickly accepted them.

The students, whose names were not released, denied after being picked up by A&M police Wednesday that they had painted the building.

The A&M campus security chief, Fred L. Hickman, said unopened cans of paint were found in their car. The youths said they had intended to paint the building but somebody beat them to it, Hickman said.

A Baylor spokesman said it was Southwest Conference policy to suspend automatically any student who destroys or defaces property on any other college campus.

Pet Owners Offering Reward In Poisonng

JUNCTION, Tex. (AP) — Angry owners of pets in this southwest Texas ranch town are offering $567 reward for information leading to the arrest of whoever is poisoning dogs and cats. Charles Evans, radio station KMBL owner and organizer of a crusade to protect the city's pets, said more than 50 animals have been poisoned this week.

Heart Attack Fatal To Gaines Sheriff

SEMINOLE, Tex. (AP)—Gaines County sheriff V. A. Harris, 43, died early today after a heart attack.

He had been sheriff four years and previously was a deputy for six years. Harris moved to Seminole from Amarillo in 1942.

Rockefeller, Nixon Arrange Hasty Display Of Harmony

By The Associated Press

Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller, potential Republican presidential rivals for 1960, breakfasted together today. Both insisted they weren't even thinking about things on the other side of this year's election.

The harmony demonstration was hastily set up in New York City after an episode Thursday night in which Rockefeller, GOP candidate for governor, didn't attend a dinner for Nixon.

Afterward the vice president hurried away to catch a plane for Wisconsin to carry on his slam-bang campaigning for election of a Republican Congress in the voting a week from Tuesday.

Some Democrats were turning campaign guns more directly on President Eisenhower as leader of their opposition, with an accusation that he has shirked leadership in the school integration controversy.

But the Democrats had their own internal squabbles to deal with. For instance National Chairman Paul M. Butler was complaining Thursday night that he was being "Smothered." He referred to a call from Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla) for Butler to quit talking so much about party differences over civil rights.

Nixon himself set the stage for the teamwork display with Rockefeller. He went out of his way in a New York broadcast Thursday night to praise Rockefeller as an able administrator who offers New York "dynamic leadership."

Some observers had read into Rockefeller's absence from the dinner an implication of coolness between him and Nixon.

But the explanation from Rockefeller—who is wooing some of the Democratic voters Nixon has been lambasting as radicals—was that he simply had a long-standing prior date. His opponent is Gov. Averell Harriman, a favorite of Democrats who call themselves liberals.

"Sheer bunk ... absolute fabrication," Rockefeller said, after the Nixon session, in reference to the reports of political coolness. He said he wasn't interested in the presidential nomination—only in becoming governor — and expected to serve four years.

Nixon's angle was that "we have enough things to do in '58."

Soviets Agree To Finance Arab Dam

By EDWIN SHANAE

CAIRO (AP) — The Soviet Union has agreed to lend the United Arab Republic 400 million rubles worth of materials and equipment to start Gamal Abdel Nasser's dream dam at Aswan on the Nile.

The credit, amounting to 100 million dollars by Soviet reckoning, was seen by some diplomats here today as the clincher in Moscow's economic penetration of the Middle East. It may mean Nasser has finally turned his back on the West, giving up any idea of serious economic cooperation or reconciliation with Western powers.

The United States, Britain and the World Bank three years ago had offered to lend Egypt 270 million dollars for the $1,300,000,000 dam in southern Egypt. Secretary of State Dulles abruptly withdrew the offer a year later after Egypt started buying arms from the Soviet bloc. Nasser in retaliation nationalized the Suez Canal.

The Soviet credit, announced by Premier Khrushchev in Moscow Thursday night, does not mean that the last hurdle to the starting of work on the vast project has been cleared.

The proposed dam 600 miles south of Cairo would flood miles of territory across the border in Sudan and would displace at least 50,000 Sudanese. The Sudan government, through whose territory the Nile flows before it reaches Egypt, has not agreed to this new use of the waters, and Sudan has a plan of its own for a system of dams farther south to develop thousands of acres of cotton land.

If Egypt goes ahead with the Aswan project without Sudan's consent, a new International crisis could be touched off.

The Soviet credit marks a turn in policy by both Nasser and Khrushchev. Before the Western powers canceled their offer of financing the Soviet Union was reported to have offered to help build the dam. Later the Russians announced they were not interested, preferring to help with projects which would show more immediate results.

When he nationalized the Suez Canal, Nasser declared Egypt would build the dam from her own resources and would use the revenue from the canal for the necessary foreign exchange.

Nasser's revolutionaries who overthrew King Farouk dusted off old plans for the dam and pushed them forward as a bright new dream for Egypt's future as soon as they came to power six years ago. According to these plans:

The dam would be 300 feet high, three miles long and would create the world's largest man-made lake. It would irrigate 1,400,000 parched acres, increasing Egypt's cultivated area by 16 per cent, and would produce 10 billion kilowatts of electricity annually to pump water, light homes and turn factory wheels. It would take about 18 years to complete.

To Nasser it was the principal hope of raising miserable living standards of Egypt's rapidly multiplying 23 million peasants, 90 per cent of whom live in the crowded Nile valley.

He already has swung Egypt's trade pattern sharply to the Communist bloc as a result of his 1955 arms deal, in which he bartered Nile cotton for the arms the West wouldn't sell him.

A year ago he accepted a 178-million-dollar credit from the Soviet Union to help Egypt industrialize.

Despite these deals, however, Nasser has insisted the U.A.R. was following a policy of neutrality in international politics.

He sent Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer, vice president and defense minister who negotiated Soviet economic aid last year, to Moscow last week to request the loan. He previously had appointed Amer head of a committee to supervise the Aswan project.

Khrushchev's announcement of the credit was made at a Kremlin reception for Amer. He said it would be used by the U.A.R. to buy Soviet machinery and materials for the dam and for Soviet engineers and technicians. He gave no clue to the interest to be charged or other terms, but Soviet loans to underdeveloped countries are usually at 2½ per cent interest with repayment over a long term.

Students Want Boy As Halloween Queen

WHITEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Students of Mrs. Hugh Stout's first grade class at Williams Township School were hurt this week when they found their nominee for Hallowe'en queen was ineligible.

Their unanimous choice, 7-year-old Bill Ward, is a boy. "We still want Bill," stubbornly said campaigner Debbie Jacobs, 6. "He's the prettiest."

After much coaxing, the vote was changed and Debbie was changed and Debbie was made the nominee.

Service Station Burglary Probed

Juvenile Judge Is Honored By Inmates

CHELTENHAM, Md. (AP) — A judge was honored Thursday by inmates he had sent to Boys Village.

A dinner was held in his honor, he was presented with a lamp, and a cottage at the institution was named for him — Judge Charles E. Moylan of the Baltimore Juvenile Court.

It was a way of expressing appreciation for Judge Moylan's work in behalf of extensive improvements at the southern Maryland institution.

Old buildings which once housed dingy cells are gone or are being torn down.

Eight campus-like areas have replaced them. The cottages include a dormitory and private rooms for about 25 inmates.

Fisherman Boasts Of Smallest Catch

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Most fishermen brag about the big fish they catch.

But Hal Roche believes he caught the world's smallest tarpon. The fish was 4¼ inches long and weighed three ounces.

Local sportsmen said they could not remember a tarpon that small being caught on a line before. Most are measured in feet.

Roche said he was going to have the fish mounted.

Marie Due Her Salary

DALLAS (AP)—Marie McDonald gained the legal right yesterday to $8,000 for a night club stint here over the protest of a New York furrier.

But while the case is on appeal, she probably will not get the money.

Miss McDonald's salary had been tied up by furrier Milton Herman who claimed the actress owed him $5,000 on a $7,000 chinchilla coat bought a year ago.

She testified several days ago her former husband, Harry Karl, bought the coat and she had not seen it since last Christmas.

Dist. Judge Paul Peurifoy ruled the actress' salary could not be claimed by the furrier but said his decision had no bearing on any alleged debt the furrier claims.

Newlyweds Outsmart Group Of Friends

ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — Friends of newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright prepared to greet the young couple with the traditionally painted car with old shoes and noise makers attached, but were foiled in their attempt.

As the couple came out of the church, up whizzed an ambulance, siren blaring, and whisked them into nearby Louisiana, where a car was waiting for them.

Newsom Attends Meet Of Hospital Assn.

Bill Newsom, superintendent at Cogdell Memorial Hospital here, yesterday attended the annual convention of the Northwest Texas Hospital Association in Abilene.

Speakers at the meeting included W. P. Earngey, Jr., of Fort Worth, Phil Overton of Austin, and Horace Cardwell of Lufkin.

Almost 200 representatives of hospitals attended the meeting.

Mrs. Randolph Is 'Shocked'

AUSTIN (AP)—Mrs. R. D. Randolph, Democrats of Texas (DOT) chairman, said yesterday she was shocked that Republican gubernatorial candidate Edwin Mayer believes liberal Democrats will go over to the GOP.

"Mr. Mayer obviously doesn't know the political facts of life in Texas which stated simply for his benefit are that it is the liberal Democrats who always support all the nominees of the party and vote the ticket straight," she said.

A long-time foe of Democratic nominee Gov. Price Daniel, Mrs. Randolph said Democrats should vote a straight ticket "and that includes Price Daniel. When a Democrat scratches a Democratic candidate for governor in a November election, the only person he spites is himself."

Junior Editors Quiz on WINDS

QUESTION: Where is the windiest spot on earth?

* * *

ANSWER: The Weather Bureau tells us that in the United States the windiest spot is at the top of Mount Washington in the White Mountains of New Hampshire, where scientists have recorded winds blowing at the rate of 231 miles an hour. This record was established in 1934.

Other countries do not use the same kinds of recording instruments — as are used here, and weather stations cannot be set up on the tops of inaccessible peaks that defy even the most adventurous mountain climber.

From first-hand experiences of mountain climbers, however, we know that the Himalayas in India, the Andes Mountains in South America, and many peaks in the Alps are swept by very strong winds.

AAUW Has Program On Worlds Fair

The American Association of University Women met at the Martha Ann Woman's Club, Thursday, at 4 p. m. with Mrs. Aline Parks, as hostess.

Mrs. H. G. Burchett gave a delightful report on the World Fair which she attended this past summer. She told of the many highlights of the fair and the group felt they had toured the fair ground after viewing her slides of the event.

Mrs. Burchett brought out the fact that the World's Fair was a reunion of all nations to seek peace and to have an internation exchange of ideas benefiting mankind.

The next meeting of AAUW will be Nov. 20th, at 4 p.m. at the Martha Ann clubhouse.

Mrs. Patterson Speaks On U. N. To Altrurian Daughters

The Altrurian Daughters Club met Wednesday afternoon at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. Harold Brown as hostess.

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. William Atwood, president. Twenty-one members answered roll call.

Program topic for the day was "Rich is the Gift of Unity". Mrs. R. R. Patterson spoke on our U.N. Assembly—How it functions.

She told the group: "There can be no doubt in anyones mind that the people who took part or colaborated in formulating the U. N. charter, were all truly and honestly seeking methods by which they could present a design for peaceful living for the entire world. None of them were under the delusion that acceptance of the charter would automatically banish conflict in the world, but they did believe that peace was impossible without observance of the principles set up in the charter, and they hoped under the charter to construct international machinery that would foster cooperation among nations in the varied fields of human activity, and thereby through better mutual understanding increase the desire of all peoples to live without war.

"The main parts of the charter plan consist of six principal bodies: 1. The general assembly. 2. The security council. 3. The economic and social council. 4. The trusteeship council. 5. The international court of justice. 6. The secretariat. These six principal bodies comprised the three main councils.

"Besides the three councils, the general assembly has six main committees to help it function: 1. Political and security. 2. Economic and financial. 3. Social, humanitarian and cultural. 4. Trusteeship, including, nonself governing territories. 5. Administrative and budgetary. 6. Legal. It also has four categories of lesser committees.

"When does the general assembly meet? According to the rules of procedure, the general assembly meets in regular session once a year, starting on the third Tuesday of September.

"When does the security council meet? According to the charter, the security council 'shall be so organized as to be able to function continually', meaning that state members of the security council have permanent representatives at the headquarters of the U. N. so that they are available for meetings called on quick notice.

"The U. N. has grown from a family of 55 nations to one of 82 nations. How much power does the U. N. have? The U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge says, 'The United Nations has scarcely any power of its own—it must depend on the members to provide the muscle and the influence to keep peace in the world'.

"James J. Wadsworth says 'Behind general assembly resolutions there is only one ultimate force—public opinion'.

"There are four purposes of the United Nations. 1. To maintain international peace and security. 2. To develop friendly relations among nations based on respect for the equal rights and self determination of peoples. 3. To cooperate in solving international problems of an economic, social, cultural, or humanitarian character; and in promoting respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all. 4. To be a center for harmonizing the actions of nations to attain these common ends."

'Golden Age Coffee' Held By Snyder Garden Club

A "Golden Age Coffee" was held by the Snyder Garden Club Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Martha Ann Woman's Club, with Mrs. J. M. Milam and Mrs. Bill Davidson, hostesses.

Corsages presented to the honorees were made by Mr. F. G. Sears, Mrs. Richard Brice, Mrs. R. H. Melton, Mrs. H. J. Brice and Miss Myrtle Harrell. The honored guests, introduced by Mrs. Sears were: Mrs. A. J. Towle, Mrs. Fred Graham, Mrs. T. C. Davis, Mrs. H. G. Towle, Mrs. Katie Thrane, Mrs. Ola Leath, Mrs. Dave Dorward, Mrs. R. E. Gray, Mrs. J. C. Dorward, Mrs. Joe Strayhorn, Mrs. Nancy Caton, and Mrs. Joe Stinson. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Bill Davidson, president.

The program for the day was presented by Mrs. Frank Miller whose subject was "Indoor Horticulture'.

This subject covered potted plants and dish gardens. Mrs. Miller said that indoor horticulture is a wonderful recreation and hobby for anyone and especially those who cannot garden outside. Four "S" was stressed by Mrs. Miller in the horticulture of houseplants. They were: soil, sun, saturation and sanitation. Mrs. Miller named such plants for potted planting as begonias, colius, ferns, shrimp plants, African violets, and many others. Instead of grouping plants all together in one place, plants should be used as important decorating accents in various rooms of your home. Dish gardens are also nice hobbies as well as decorative pieces and Mrs. Miller named such plants as succulents and cacti to be used for dish gardens.

During the business meeting plans were discussed for the flower show which will be held by the club on October 30, at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. The public will be invited from 3 to 8 p.m. The club also made plans for a bake sale to be held at the Martha Ann Clubhouse on November 25th.

Twenty-four members were present for the meeting.

Fruit Of Wise Men

The botanical name of the banana is "musa sapientium." It means "fruit of wise men." Anyway you slice them, bananas add variety, nutritive value and flavor to meals. Baked bananas served with ham present an interesting flavor combination. Peel the bananas, arrange in greased shallow juice, honey and a little melted butter. Bake in a oven preheated to 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve ½ banana with each serving of ham.

Accent On Lamb

Seasonings such as garlic, thyme, rosemary, marjoram and dill are compatible flavors with lamb. Before broiling lamb chops and steaks in the broiler, remember to score the edges to prevent the meat from curling toward the flame. Broil lamb about 3 inches from the gas flame, 10 minutes on the first side, 5 to 8 minutes on the second side. While the meat is broiling, it is a good idea to warm the serving platter and dinner plates in the oven.

Twentieth Century Club Hears Interesting Program

The Twentieth Century Club met in the Martha Ann Clubhouse October 21st. with Mrs. J. N. Dunn presiding.

The meeting opened with the reading of the club collect. The thought for the day was given by Mrs. Ola Leath.

The program topic was "Woman in a Changing World" and was led by Mrs. G. W. Hicks. Mrs. Hicks discussed the life of Madame Pandit. She said in part:

"Madame Pandit is the only woman who has served as president of the the United Nations, Ambassador to the United States and Russia. She has held many high offices and has been a wonderful help to the freedom of India. Many times it would help us appreciate our freedoms more if we could understand the hardships and trials gladly borne by such strong spirited people as Madame Pandit. During her life she and her family suffered much for freedoms cause for their land and people.

"Since coming to the United States Madam Pandit has become wholly absorbed in her career, and she has achieved much fame.

"Madame Pandit may at times strongly disapprove of American politics, but she is more at home in America than in India. She has more personal freedom here. Although she seems to have no eye for color, she always replenishes her wardrobe, after returning to India, by buying sari materials of gray, blue, purple and black. She then makes broadcloth borders and blouses to harmonize with her saris.

"As she sits at a high level conference table, flashing her famous smile, the differential government officials around her melt a little and tell their wives that gray and lavender silk worn by a woman over forty is the most flattering color in the world."

Mrs. J. P. Strayhorn discussed the life of Clare Booth Luce—Ambassador Extraordinary.

"In the whole history of democracy — for fifty thousand or more years, no woman has held so important a diplomatic past as Clare Booth Luce, Ambassador to the Republic of Italy.

"Clare was well fitted for the public life through years of writing and lecturing and the association with her publisher husband. She had reached intellectual and emotional maturity when she became politicaly inclined. Her travels in Asia and Europe had awakened in her the challenge of its great needs. So it is no accident that she should be appointed the first woman to the military affairs committee, and the first woman Congress elected from the state of Connecticut.

"During her last term in Congress, Clare Luce did much service working steadily for the American cooperation with other nations for peace and liberty, to create immigration laws, to take care of refugees from Europe displaced by either Nazi or Russian totalitorism. She helped to write the atomic energy act.

"What more can be said of the woman who was born in comparative poverty, was a child actress at 10, a war correspondent, congresswoman, lecturer, wife to a leading American publisher, and now our Ambassador to Italy."

A salad plate was served to the 18 members present by the hostess, Mrs. H. W. Cargile.

OUR VIEW

The Truman Way

THE ABILENE REPORTER-NEWS:

Everybody expected Harry Truman to "give 'em hell" when he took to the hustings. That was his style, almost his trademark, and it was in keeping with his training as a tough politician. He used the slam-bang style of campaigning with no punches pulled; for that matter, he is still at it, and he probably will still be at it, if there's a campaign going, as long as he lives.

Whether you like that approach to politics or despise it might depend on whose corner you're in, or whether you're the one who's getting gored, or maybe only bored.

Ike Eisenhower comes of a different breed. He has, until this week, studiously avoided arm-waving, hair-tearing, give-'em-hell tactics. He left the hatchet work to Richard Nixon, and he usually spoke with restraint about Democrats—as well he should, seeing that they gave him his whopping majorities, and pulled many a congressional chestnut out of the fire for him when Republicans went the other way.

So, in hitting the Philistines hip and thigh in the Mid-and Far West, Mr. E. was out of character. He was taking a leaf out of Harry's book without, perhaps, reading the fine print.

One wonders why this sudden about-face by a man who has been a model of temperate speech and a paragon of aloofness from the madding crowd's ignoble strife. The question is, has Mr. E. enhanced Republican congressional chances at the expense of his own personal dignity? Or has the long suppression of personal feeling in behalf of personal popularity finally resulted in an understandable human letting off of steam?

Everybody Claims Victory In Talks

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a little something for everybody in what happened on Formosa between Chiang Kai-shek and Secretary of State Dulles.

The Red Chinese can claim a psychological victory. Dulles can claim to have soothed world fears, and Chiang can claim renewed American support.

But in this writer's view Chiang came out a real loser and the United States moved closer to recognition of two Chinas.

Chiang has talked of recapturing China ever since the Communists drove him to Formosa from the mainland in 1949. It's been empty talk, so much so that Chiang needed U.S. help even to defend what he already held.

He couldn't go any place without big American support. But his talk kept alive the hopes of his Nationalists on Formosa and non-Communist overseas Chinese.

Then last August the Communists began shelling Quemoy, held by Chiang's men close to the mainland, although Formosa is 100 miles away.

The Eisenhower administration backed Chiang's continued occupation of Quemoy and his defense of it.

Many worried Americans and American allies, fearing United States involvement and then perhaps world war, questioned the administration's wisdom.

They raised this question: Is Quemoy, right in Red China's back yard and so far from Formosa, really necessary to the latter's defense?

Dulles on Sept. 30 indicated a shift in policy. He offered to try to trim Chiang's military forces on Quemoy if the Reds quit shelling it; said Chiang was foolish to put so many of his troops there; and gave a terrible setback to any hopes the Nationalists had to returning to the mainland.

He said: "I don't think that just by their own steam they are going to get there." This shook Chiang. He implied his forces would not attack China except in self-defense. Yet, this was not a full renunciation of force.

But as a result of his agitation Dulles went to Formosa to talk to him. After their conference a communique was issued Thursday. In it Chiang publicly ruled out force as the main means of returning to the mainland.

He held out, instead, the hope that nationalism, democracy, and social well-being would do the trick. This seemed to say his only hope of going back was an internal collapse or profound change in the Red regime. Neither is in sight.

The communique, to put it another way, can be interpreted as saying Chiang is reconciled to abandoning all hope of returning to China unless a miracle happens.

This can hardly boost the morale of his Nationalists on China. If they get dispirited, he may be in for trouble.

The Red Chinese can claim this as a psychological victory, because Dulles wouldn't have gone to Formosa and the communique wouldn't have been issued if the Communists hadn't created crisis and raised world fears by shelling Quemoy.

At the same time it was reliably reported on Formosa that Dulles had persuaded Chiang to reduce his Quemoy forces if the Reds quit shooting.

Dulles can claim that this and his statement made public Thursday—that this country is not going to attack or tolerate attacks against the Chinese Communists—reassure Americans and American allies against fear of war over Quemoy.

At the same time it was reported at Taipei that Dulles promised Chiang this country would provide him with modern weapons to replace any military strength he relinquished by reducing his forces on Quemoy.

N. Khrushchev Is A Versatile Man

By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet party and government, is a man of tremendous agility.

He has a seemingly tireless energy, wide ranging ability and that all-important Communist knack of knowing when to jump.

He has made more enemies in Russia in the last few years than any other Soviet leader except Stalin. But so far he is still in complete control.

His control has been challenged. But when he can't lick them he joins them. Most of the time he's managed to lick them.

He uses no terror in the Stalin pattern. His enemies are still alive.

His agility vaulted him to the top in the scramble after Stalin's death, and has kept him at the top despite bloopers and reverses that would have felled a less nimble man.

Khrushchev has played many roles since he came to power. His early characterizations were popular.

When he played the clown the Russians roared. They laughed at him but in their way they loved him, made up anecdotes about him and slapped their thighs.

Then in February 1956 he denounced Stalin and a hush fell over the land, broken only by the coaxing singsong of orators and party agitators rallying the masses.

After 30 years of Stalinism the new line was hard to swallow whole. As the people slowly digested it a new excitement stirred the country.

It stirred the people of Poland and Hungary even more. They rioted in Poznan, revolted in Hungary.

Khrushchev reared back.

At a New Year's banquet in the Kremlin's gold and marble St. George's Hal, Khrushchev announced that Stalin was a great man after all.

The cynics smiled. "We knew it all the time," they said. And Khrushchev even joked about it, and the people laughed.

They fell a little silent again in June and October 1957 when he started purging his onetime partners in the Kremlin. For a spell the ghost of Stalin seemed about to rise in earnest.

But the crisis passed and Khrushchev bounced back to clown again. The Russians started to laugh again, but now they listened more seriously, for Khrushchev was obviously a very serious man.

People who saw him right after what is generally considered to be his latest reversal—when he returned from Peiping and switched signals on the East-West summit conference he had been fervently espousing—said he looked gray and shaken.

But they said he has bounced right back and, never idle or timid, has ordered a complete overhaul of the Soviet education system.

The plan is far from popular with the Russians. But neither was his original "virgin lands" development program, nor his drastic decentralization of industrial and economic management, nor his decision to abolish machine-tractor stations and set up a new pricing system for agriculture produce.

Each of Khrushchev's purges and programs has created enemies—among the so-called Stalinists, the hard-core Marxists, the intellectuals, in management, in the army and now even within the ranks of settled, middle-class Soviet parents.

Can a man with so many enemies survive in Russia?

Interestingly enough, every time Khrushchev has made a new set of enemies, people not directly affected have felt he was acting in the best interests of the country. For though he can quote the Marxist scriptures better than most, Khrushchev is essentially a practical man.

Inflation Is Still Cause For Debate

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Thanks to a bountiful harvest the government's cost of living index has been practically unchanged since July.

That means that fresh fruits and vegetables dropped enough in price to make up for slight rises in clothing, housing, transportation and other items.

It points up one of the sharpest debates today: whether continued creeping inflation is inevitable—whether corrosion of the dollar's purchasing power must go on.

Washington has been using some of its biggest guns to fight the spread of the idea that the nation is set on a course of further inflation of the prices of goods and services.

As it often has in the past, Washington points the finger at Wall Street. It says that the stock market's rise in the summer and early fall was due to a belief in the inevitability of further inflation. And Washington officials and economists fear that this belief will spread throughout the economy and set up the psychology that will bring more inflation in its train.

Stock exchange officials note, as they have in the past, that the market doesn't sponsor psychological notions, but merely reflects them. That is, if there's a feeling in the market that more inflation is on the way, it's because many people around the country have made up their minds and have been buying stocks because of that.

The Washington argument that more inflation isn't inevitable is based on more than just such a passing event as a good harvest. It takes into account: (1) the excess industrial capacity which must be turned to full use before there could be shortages to boost prices; (2) the keen competition in most lines which has led many manufacturers to absorb some of the recent rises in operating costs; and (3) the increase in productivity due to new machines which have let more goods be produced with less labor cost.

But Wall Street can point a finger at Washington too. One of the reasons that so many think further inflation inevitable is that the government is running in the red—something that pumps up the supply of money. Credit is getting a bit tighter and interest rates are rising — something that usualy feeds inflation psychology.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

MAYBE THERE'S SOME taking the Colorado City Wolves lightly tonight but one of them isn't Coach John Conley.

The last time the Wolves came to town in 1956 they sported almost the same type record they will bring into tonight's game and they put up a stubborn fight against the Tigers before yielding in the second half.

In 1956, you perhaps remember, the Tigers went undefeated over their 10-game schedule, the only time this has been accomplished in history of Snyder High School. That same year, Colorado City went through the season without a victory.

But when the Wolves and Tigers hooked up that season, the fans and Conley began to wonder through most of the first half whether or not the Bengals were going to measure the Wolves.

Colorado City held the Tigers scoreless in the first quarter and it was well into the second period before the Bengals finally found a scoring punch. The Tigers were forced to take to the air to get their scoring attack underway. Powell Berry hit end Milton Ham with two touchdown passes that gave the Tigers a 14-0 halftime lead.

These two TD's took the "spunk" out of the Wolves and the Tigers went from there to a 49-6 triumph.

Colorado City at least has a victory under its belts this season whereas she didn't get one all season in 1956. And the Tigers, overall, aren't as strong as the '56 club, so you can see why Conley and the Tigers aren't taking the Wolves lightly tonight.

Chips On The Line

Well, the chips are going to be on the line for the Tigers in games from here on out. The past games don't count a thing in the district standings and it's just as well we forget those games for now and concentrate on the four games coming up, all of which will be District 3-AAA affairs.

The Tigers, after tonight's game with Colorado City, will catch Sweetwater, Lamesa and Lake View in that order in their remaining games.

Right now it looks like Sweetwater is going to take home the bacon with the Tigers and Lamesa fighting it out for the runnerup spot. If either the Tigers or Lamesa should upset Sweetwater, then the race could very well wind up in a three-way tie. Although it isn't likely that either the Tigers or Tornadoes will be able to measure the talent - loaded Mustangs, it isn't out of the question.

Still having trouble with my Crystal Ball but we're game enough to keep tryin'. No correct scores last week but we came mighty close on one. We predicted Auburn would nip Georgia Tech 8-7 but the game wound up in a 7-7 tie.

Here goes with this week's scores:

Snyder 34, Colorado City 0.
Sweetwater 20, Lamesa 7.
Gail 34, Knott 20.
Hobbs 14, Moran 6.
Ira 27, McCaulley 6.
Blackshear 18, Lincoln 7.
Georgia Tech 14, SMU 8.
Texas 21, Rice 14.
Texas A&M 13, Baylor 8.
Odessa 14, San Angelo 12.
Abilene 40, Big Spring 0.
Borger 20, Tom S. 14.

Tigers Open District Slate Tonight

Meet Wolves At Tiger Stadium

Snyder and Colorado City will battle for the 27th time on the gridiron tonight at Tiger Stadium with a crowd of 3,500 expected.

Kickoff time will be 7:30 p.m., thirty minutes earlier than the usual starting time. All District 3-AAA games will start at 7:30.

Tonight's game opens the 3-AAA slate for both teams. In another 3-AAA game tonight, Sweetwater is at Lamesa. Lake View, the fifth team of the district, has an open date.

The Tigers will carry a 4-2 season record into tonight's game as comparde to Colorado City's 1-5. The Wolves' lone victory was an 8-6 verdict over the Kermit Yellow Jackets.

The Tigers have beaten Borger, Andrews, Big Spring and Midland and have bowed to Levelland and Breckenridge.

The Tigers and Colorado City have met only one common foe, Andrews. The Bengals thumped Andrews, 34-12, early in the season while the Wolves bowed 36-0 to the Mustangs last week.

Colorado City holds a wide edge in the overall series between the two clubs, winning 15 to nine for the Tiger with two ending in tie games.

The Tigers have measured the Wolves in the last two outings, winning 49-6 in 1956 and 35-0 in 1957. Prior to '56, the two teams hadn't met since 1951.

Colorado City is playing its first year under head coach Homer Jefferson. Jefferson is succeeding Bob Reily who resigned last spring.

The Tigers will go into tonight's game in possibly their best physical condition of the season. Only halfback Jimmy Allen is ailing. Allen, however, will play defense tonight but will give way to sophomore John Weaver on offense. Allen is nursing a leg injury.

End Bill Dubose, who missed last week's game with Midland, returns to the lineup tonight.

Although the Wolves have taken their lumps this season, they have two of the finest tackles in West Texas in Ray Weaver and Kenny Simmons, both 180-pounders.

Weaver and Simmons goes both ways and consistently do a good job both offensively and defensively.

The Wolves have good speed in the backfield with Luck Merket of track fame the top speedster.

Tiger 'B' To Sweetwater Tomorrow

The Tiger "B" team will be seeking its third straight victory tomorrow night in a contest against Sweetwater "B" at Sweetwater.

Kickoff time has been set for 7:30 p.m.

After losing two of their first three games, the Tiger B teamers have come back to win their last two games to even their season record at 3-3.

Coach Jim Stehley's B squad defeated Lamesa last week, 36-14. The week before that the locals had beaten Big Spring, 40-6.

The other win chalked up by Tiger B was a 20-8 decision over Lamesa.

Losses have been to San Angelo, 13-12, and twice to Midland, 28-14 and 30-24.

Coach Stehley has announced his starting five for tomorrow's game as follows:

Ends—Roger McMennamy and Ronnie Wylie.

Tackles — Keith LIoyd and Lynn Herndon.

Guards—David Wiman and Jan Lindsey.

Center—Mickey Wharry.

Halfbacks—Jesse Crawford and Jimmy Maroney.

Fullback—Wayne Berry.

Local Teams Win, Lose, Tie In Thursday Grid Contests

Snyder football teams batted .500 in three games last night, winning one, losing one and tying one.

Emerging victorious was the Tiger Freshmen who romped past Big Spring Runnells, 34-0, in the second game of a doubleheader at Tiger Stadium. In the first game of the twinbill, the Snyder Junior High Blue Devils battled the South Junior Coyotes of Abilene to a 6-6 draw.

The local 7th graders ventured over to Colorado City yesterday and were surprised by the C-Citians, 14-6. Snyder 7th had beaten C-City in an earlier game, 20-0.

A rock-ribbed defense and an explosive offense contributed heavily to the Tiger Freshman victory last night. Big Spring never seriously threatened to score against the Tiger Yearlings as the locals kept the Big Springers outside their 20-yard line all night.

Snyder Frosh took advantage of the breaks to surge into a 20-0 halftime lead and then coasted home the final two periods.

The first Freshman score came after a minus 10 yard punt by Big Spring that placed the ball on the Big Spring 34. The Big Spring punter hurried his kick in the face of fast-charging Snyder linemen, the ball going straight up and then bouncing back 10 yards.

Snyder got a touchdown quickly after that with Spencer Dyer going the last 15 yards. Eddie Phy tossed to end Freddie Miller for the conversion but the Cats drew a five-yard penalty and on the second conversion try, Mike Morris was stopped just shy of the doublestripe on an end sweep.

A bad snap from the Big Spring center on fourth down set up the next Snyder TD in the second quarter. Snyder took over at the Big Spring 26 from where Morris blasted over right tackle and raced into the end zone standing up. The point failed to leave the score at 12-0.

Tackle Joe Burns intercepted a Big Spring pass to set up another Snyder TD just before the half. Burns ran the interception back to the Big Spring 25 and the locals scored in three plays with Dyer picking up seven and Morris 18 and 3 for the touchdown. Morris converted on a run to make it 20-0 at halftime.

Snyder drove 45 yards to paydirt after Miller returned the second half kickoff 20 yards into Big Spring territory. Quarterback Steve Free passed to Miller for the final 19 yards and Morris converted for a 28-0 lead. A few seconds prior to this TD Snyder had a touchdown nullified when Morris scampered 37-yards on a "statue of liberty" play from punt formation.

A clipping penalty at the Big Spring 15 nullified the TD but Snyder still had enough yardage for a first down and she went from the Big Spring 30 to the touchdown in three plays.

Reserve Bax Calloway went 37 yards in the fourth quarter for the final Snyder touchdown. The point-after failed.

Snyder 8th and South Abilene hooked up in their second straight deadlock last night. In an earlier game, the two teams scrapped to a 0-0 tie.

The Blue Devils opened the scoring last night in the third quarter when fullback Bob Pena rammed over from the South four. The touchdown was set up by a beautiful 45-yard run by Luke Nigliazzo who was finally chased out of bounds on the South 4. Pena scored on the ensuing play. Pena hit the line again on the conversion try but was stopped short.

South tied the game up in the final minutes on a screen pass that netted 65 yards. Freddie Wagner passed to Dickie Newman at the line of scrimmage who followed a wave of blockers down the west sidelines to go all the way with just 3:05 minutes left in the game. South's running attempt for the conversion failed.

sports 1st add 3-36 Local Joan

The Blue Devils quickly drove to the South 34 after the kickoff but was halted at this point.

Two local lads were injured in last night's games here. Bax Calloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Calloway, suffered a dislocated collar bone in the Freshman game. Jimmy Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, was knocked out in the 8th grade game but was released from Cogdell Hospital after emergency treatment.

Colorado City grabbed an 8-0 lead in the first quarter and then fought off Snyder in yesterday's 7th grade game at C-City.

Ygnacio Benitez scooted 60 yards for the first Snyder touchdown to narrow the count to 8-6 at halftime.

Snyder 7th threatened again after the second half kickoff, driving to the Colorado City one before yielding on downs. Colorado City then shook one of its halfbacks loose on a 99 - yard touchdown scamper for the final score of the night.

Snyder reached the C-City 15 twice after that but lost the ball on a fumble one time and on downs the other.

Benitez' running and the quarterbacking of Jimmy Feather were bright notes in the Blue Devil ranks.

72,000 To Watch Texas-Rice Tilt

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Texas risks its unbeaten record and fourth place in the national rankings to the surge of Rice in the headline game of a short but telling Southwest Conference football schedule Saturday.

The Longhorns meet the defending champions at Houston with 72,000 bulging the stadium expecting another of those good to the last block battles.

Rice is after its third conference victory, which would give it the undisputed lead. Texas is seeking its second and a tie for the top.

Down at Waco, Baylor's Golden Bears, feeling their oats after a brilliant day against Texas Tech, take on blood enemy Texas A&M in a survival-of-the-fittest melee.

Baylor is after conference triumph No. 2, A&M is just trying to hang on. The Aggies have to win or their season is over for all practical purposes.

Possibly 37,000 will be jammed into Baylor Stadium on homecoming when all Golden Bears are supposed to hit the highest tide of the season.

Texas Christian, tied with Rice for the lead, will be an interested onlooker only. The Christians take the week off. So does Texas Tech, which isn't playing for the championship, anyway.

Meanwhile Southern Methodist and Arkansas will be trying to better the league's intersectional record, neither given a strong chance of doing it however.

SMU faces Georgia Tech at Dallas. Arkansas takes on Mississippi at Little Rock.

Southern Methodist still doesn't know if its ace passer, Don Meredith, can play. If he can SMU's chances would be brightened considerably—but still not enough to warrant an estimated victory by the three-time-losers.

Arkansas not only is winless for the season but it comes up to its big battle with sixth-ranked Mississippi with a flock of regulars on the shelf with flu or injury.

Things just don't look good for Arkansas any way you look at it.

Three out of four last week (those Methodists failed us) causes more confidence this week. Here goes:

Rice-Texas—Logic says Texas But there's little logic in this one.

Baylor-Texas A&M—This looks like a cinch for Baylor.

Georgia Tech-Southern Methodist—Georgia Tech in a squaker.

Arkansas-Mississippi — Picking Mississippi faster than we can spell it.

IN HOME FINALE

Lincoln Hosts Odessa Tomorrow

Lincoln High Schools' Trojans will close out their home schedule tomorrow night when they host Blackshear of Odessa at Tiger Stadium. Kickoff time will be 8 o'clock.

Tomorrow's game will be the third of the season for Lincoln. In the two games to date, Lincoln has tied Vernon, 6-6, and lost to Amarillo Carver, 36-6.

Blackshear will bring a 2-2 record to town. The Odessans have beaten Vernon, 64-0, and Plainview 52-8, and have lost to Waco, 65-8, and Lubbock, 36-14.

Lincoln will play one more game after tomorrow's tilt. The Trojans go to Plainview Nov. 1 for their season finale.

This is Lincoln's second year to field a football team. Lincoln is classified as Class B in the Negro schoolboy setup. Blackshear is in Class AA. In a game between the two clubs last year, Blackshear won by 40-26.

Following are the probable starters for tomorrow's game with uniform numbers:

LINCOLN

Ends: Randolph Williams, No. 70; and Gene Taylor, No. 80.

Tackles: Buford Thompson, No. 73; and J. B. Archie, No. 81.

Guards: Mack Taylor, No. 63; and John Choyce, No. 60.

Center: Charlie Joe Archie, No. 50.

Quarterback: Lloyd Hood, No. 10.

Halfbacks: Columbus Crayton, No. 32; and Will Clay, No. 30.

Fullback: A. C. Thompson, No. 11.

BLACKSHEAR

Ends: Hubert Gibson, No. 43; and Joe Arrington, No. 44.

Tackles: Oliver Day, No. 47; and Joe Turner, No. 35.

Guards: Charles Lucas, No. 24; and Will Hudgins, No. 39.

Smith Picks Texas, Baylor, Ga. Tech

The college football campaign, which each week has managed to produce one game of overshadowing importance, turns up another "natural" Saturday in the meeting at Columbus, Ohio between the powerhouses of Ohio State and Wisconsin. In this contest between two crack Big Ten representatives the Smith Touchdown Tendency System of Ratings calculates the sixth-ranked Buckeyes to eke out a 6-point triumph.

In their annual battle for the "Little Brown Jug," Michigan should overpower Minnesota by 7.

In other Big Ten supporting features, Iowa should show a one touchdown superiority over Northwestern, and Michigan State is rated a 6-point winner over Illinois.

Purdue, the System's No. 9 club, has been installed a bare one-point favorite over eleventh-ranked Notre Dame.

Texas will make its title aspirations known by gaining a one touchdown win over Rice, while Baylor is defeating Texas A. & M. by 7. Oklahoma's juggernaut, No. 4 in the System, is calculated 34 points better than Kansas State on the Smith slide rule.

Auburn is given a 13-point advantage over Maryland. In other Southern stadia, Clemson is slated to muffle South Carolina by 6, Duke should prove a 13-point victor over N. C. State, Kentucky can level Georgia by 6, and Florida is slated to suffer a 13-point loss to Louisiana State. North Carolina is a 7-point selection over Wake Forest.

In the East, Navy figures to continue its domination with a 20-point conquest of Pennsylvania, while Army is taking the measure of Pittsburgh by 14. Princeton can master Cornell by 14, and Yale should clip Colgate by 7.

The major intersectional collisions should result in a 7-point win for Miami (Fla.) over Boston College, a 7-point defeat of Southern Methodist by Georgia Tech, a 13-point triumph for Mississippi over Arkansas, and a 20-point decision for Tulane over Kansas.

On the Pacific Coast, it's UCLA by 6 over Stanford, Oregon over California by 6, Oregon State over Washington by 7, and Southern California by 6 over Washington.

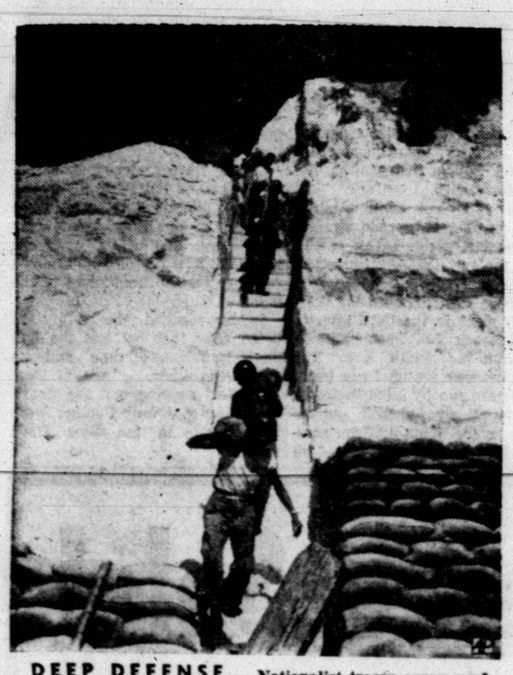
ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

TWITTING REMINDER — Pair of "donkeys" precede a mock wedding procession in Huetten, Germany, as villagers ridicule a recently-married couple. Ceremony of ridicule was invoked because bridegroom apparently forgot to hold bachelof spree.

CAPITOL PREVIEW — The Robert A. Taft Memorial is lighted at celebration for construction force which built it. In background is the U. S. Capitol Building.

KEEN ON RAIL HISTORY — Two schoolboys move in for a detailed scrutiny of large-scale working models of old electric tramcars at model railway hobby show in London. Show featured special exhibits from both the English and French railways.



DEEP DEFENSE — Nationalist troops carry sandbags down steps carved out of the white stone of Quemoy to further fortify the island against Chinese Red shelling.

AIR CZAR — Elwood R. (Pete) Quesada, 54, a retired U. S. Air Force general, was chosen by President Eisenhower to head the new Federal Aviation Agency. It will make and enforce safety rules for all types of flying.

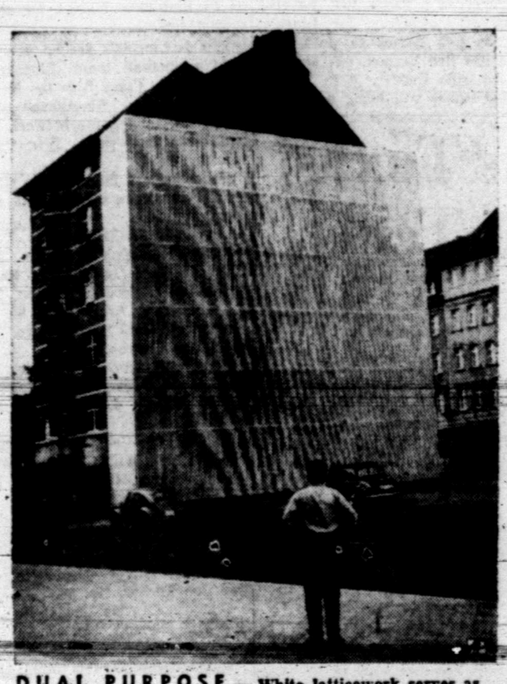
PRETTY PICTURE — Hanni Ehrenstrasser of Vienna, the Miss Europe of 1958, holds leopard cubs for check with her fur coat while on visit to the Frankfurt zoo.

TAX CHIEF — Dana Latham, 60, a Los Angeles tax lawyer, has been given a recess appointment by President Eisenhower as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The appointment is subject to confirmation by the Sena-

SALTY SILKY — The ocean front near San Francisco is exercise site for Silky Sullivan as the three-year-old colt is worked out in preparation for return to racing.

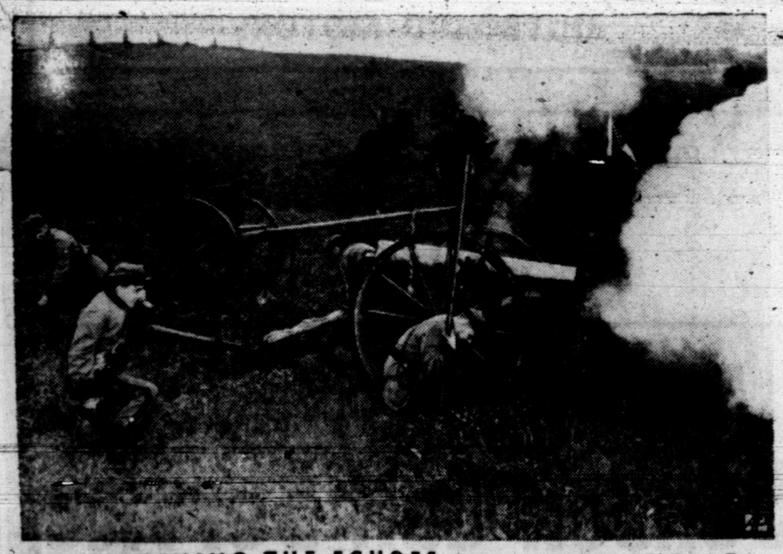
NOVEL SIGHT — Jeff Ruth, 14 months old, apparently enjoys two different views of himself as he plays by mirrors in father's clothing store in Bisbee, Ariz.

DOUBLE DATE — Ernest Truex is joined by Ann Sothern and George Murphy on Hollywood TV set for celebration of his 69th birthday and 65th year in show business.



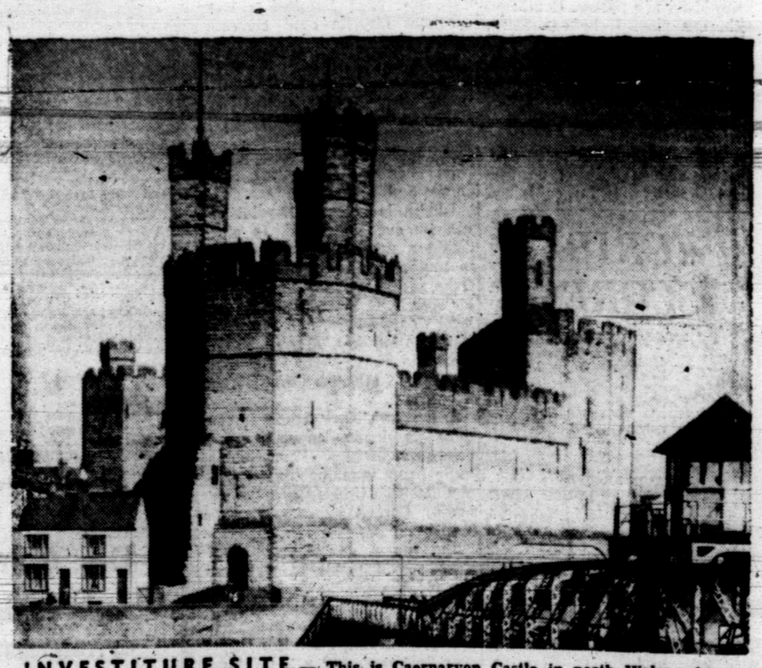
DUAL PURPOSE — White latticework serves as decoration and cover for partition wall of Duesseldorf, Germany, building. Wall was exposed by bombing in last war.

ROYAL PEEK — Britain's Princess Margaret peers through opera glasses fixed in wall of theater section of British Pavilion during visit to Brussels World Fair.



REAWAKENING THE ECHOES — Cannon roar again at Antietam Battlefield as Civil War buffs mark the 96th anniversary of the battle. The action at Sharpsburg, Md., was the bloodiest day's fighting of Civil War with more than 25,000 casualties.

CONTEMPORARY NOTE — Head of West German President Theodor Heuss, sculptured in stone, decorates wall of St. Katharinen Church, Oppenheim, Germany.



INVESTITURE SITE — This is Caernarvon Castle in north Wales where Queen Elizabeth II will formally present her son, Prince Charles, as Prince of Wales to the Welsh people. Castle, on banks of the Seiont river, was built at end of thirteenth century.

Special Services Slated By Several Churches Here

Two Snyder churches are observing layman's day and another Reformation Day in services scheduled for Sunday. Another church will have a retired minister as guest speaker.

• • •

Trinity Methodist

Sunday is Layman's Day at the Trinity Methodist Church, where Bill Newsom, superintendent of Cogdell Memorial Hospital here will be main speaker at the 10:55 a.m. service.

Theme of the service will be "Seek Ye First." Newsom will be assisted in the service by other laymen.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the Women's Society for Christian Service will have charge of the program, with Mrs. Howard Grice as main speaker, assisted by other women of the church.

• • •

First Presbyterian

At the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. R. Charles Spivey, pastor, will speak on "Blessed Are the Meek" at the Sunday 11 a.m. service. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m.

At the 5:30 p.m. Westminister Fellowship, Jane Butler will be in charge of the program.

The theme for the Inquirer's Class, which meets at 7p.m. Sunday, will be "The Christian Life."

• • •

St. John's Episcopal

The Rev. Donald Hungerford, vicar at St. John's Episcopal Church, will speak on "The Third Commandment" at the Sunday Morning Prayer and Holy Baptism service.

Holy Communion is at 7:45 a.m. church school at 9:45 a.m. At the Tuesday 7:30 p.m. Inquirer's Class the subject will be "Meaning of Baptism and Confirmation."

• • •

Grace Lutheran

Grace Lutheran Church will observe the Festival of the Reformation and birthday of the Lutheran Church at the Sunday 10:45 a.m. service at West Elementary auditorium.

The Rev. Walter L. Lentz, pastor, will speak on "The Reformation—Its Significance to All Christians." Sunday School is a 9:45 a.m.

Rev. Lentz speaks at 11:45 a.m. Saturdays on Religion in the News on KSNY.

• • •

Union Baptist

Guest speaker at the Union Baptist Church Sunday will be the Rev. Jim Fields of Big Spring, retired minister and former pastor of the church.

Rev. Fields will speak at both the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m., training union at 6:30 p.m.

• • •

25t Street CC

"Sullen Saints" will be the subject of Glen Pace, minister of the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ, at the Sunday 8:45 and 10:55 a.m. services.

At the 7 p.m. service, his lesson will be "Freedom to Slavery," fourth of a series of chart illustrations on first principles of Christianity.

Colonial Hill Baptist

Layman's Sunday will be observed at the Colonial Hill Baptist Church this weekend, with men of the church filling various positions in the Sunday school. The men have been conducting a special visitation program this week.

The Rev. Jimmie Nelson, pastor, will speak on "Man in the Space Age," both at the new 8:30 a.m. service and at the 11 a.m. service. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m.

At the 7:30 p.m. service, Rev. Nelson will speak on "The Verdict of Men." Training union is at 6:15 p.m. The youth choir will sing at both the 8:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. serivces.

• • •

First Christan

The Rev. John Reaves, pastor of the First Christian Church, will speak on "The Road to Happiness" at the Sunday 11 a.m service.

The choir's special anthem will be "Bless His Holy Name."

DR. ROYAL E. LESHER

Lutheran Synod Head Is Due Here

Dr. Royal E. Lesher, president of the Texas-Louisiana Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, will be here Monday in connection with an every-congregation visitation of Lutheran churches in West Texas.

He will present causes of the church to the Grace Lutheran Church at West Elementary School auditorium, 3601 El Paso Avenue, at 7 p.m. Monday.

De. Lesher recently attended the convention of the United Lutheran Church at Dayton Ohio, and he will make a report while here on the forthcoming merger of the United Lutheran Church with two other Lutheran bodies, the Augustana Lutheran Church and the Finish Lutheran Church, creating a Lutheran synod of over three million members.

Presbyterian Men To Meet Monday

The Presbyterian Men will hold a supper meeting at 7 p.m. Monday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Bill Greggs, president, and Elmo Weyel, vice-president, will be in charge of the program.

REV. M. W. MELTON

Northside Meeting To Open Sunday

Revival services will open Sunday at the Northside Baptist Church and last through Nov. 2.

Evangelist for the meeting will be the Rev. M. W. Melton, full-time evangelist from Nashville, Tenn., who will arrive here Monday.

At Sunday services, the Rev. Jack Dean, pastor, will speak on "A Revival for Me" at the 11 a.m. service and "Secret Sins Brought to Light" at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Rev. Melton will be speaker at other services, which will be at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. weekdays. Leading music will be Leland Davis, music-education director for the Fifth Street Baptist Church at Marlow, Okla.

Rev. Melton, born to rich Orthodox Jewish parents, was disinherited by his parents when converted to Christianity and refused a $1 million offer made by his father when he was 30 to stop preaching. He pastored a church at Bogalusa, La., more than 12 years before entering fulltime evangelistic work. Since that time he has conducted meetings in all 48 states and Canada and Mexico.

Wednesday Supper At Presbyterian

A covered dish supper has been scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at the First Presbyterian Church, folowed by a program.

The program will include a film, "The Middle East Profile."

PRAYING THROUGH

(Question) "I am not a Christian. Will God save me by Prayer?"

(Answer) If you mean by prayer alone then my answer would be, no. "For we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth." (John 9:31) "For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous and his ears are open unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." (1 Pet. 3:12) "And whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things which are pleasing in his sight." (1 John 3:22) "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination." (Prov. 28:9) Cornelius prayed to God and through God's providence Peter was sent to tell him words whereby he might be saved. (Acts 10:-2,6) Lydia and her household were praying and God sent Paul to give them instructions that they might obey and be saved. (Acts 16:13-15) But there is no example in the New Testament where an alien sinner prayed through for forgiveness of sins. Many have been taught such today, but in the absence of New Testament authority, I believe them to be In error.

(Address letters to Mr. Pace in care of the 25th Street Church of Christ)

REV. NEWTON A. GRAVES

Revival To Open Sunday At Green Hill

The Rev. Newton A. Graves, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Dunedin, Fla., will be evangelist for a revival meeting opening Sunday at the Green Hill Baptist Church.

Rev. Graves, a graduate of Baylor University, also holds bachelor of divinity and master of theology degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. He pastored churches in Texas, Ohio and Kentucky prior to going to Florida.

Music will be led by Freddy Franks, music director of the Green Hill Church.

Sunday services will be at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., and weekday services will be at 7:30 p.m. The revival meeting will last through Nov. 2, according to the Rev. Bill McCrary, pastor.

The junior choir of the church is to meet at 6 p.m. Sunday.

Dean In Charge Of Daily Devotions

The Rev. Jack Dean, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church, will be in charge of the Daily Devotions program on KSNY next week.

The program, aired at 9:15 a.m. weekdays, is scheduled by the radio committee of the Snyder Ministerial Alliance.

Recipe gifts: When you're writing out a recipe for a friend, make kitchen life easy and list the ingredients in the order in which they are to be used.

Commission Meeting

The commission on education of the Trinity Methodist Church has scheduled a meeting for Tuesday.

The meeting will be held at the church at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, according to Dale Clemmer, chairman.

REV. E. L. JONES

Meeting At Morningside

The Morningside Baptist Church will open a revival meeting Sunday, which will continue through the following Sunday.

Evangelist will be the Rev. E. L. Jones, pastor of the Bryan Street Baptist Church at Lamesa.

At the services at 11 a.m. and 7:15 p.m. Sunday, however, the Rev. O. M. Barger, pastor, will speak.

Weekday services will be at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

CHURCH NEWS

Youths Here To Help Get CROP Funds

Plans are now underway for the annual citywide canvass by youth of Snyder churches for the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

The solicitation program, begun by youths in Texas in lieu of the traditional Halloween "trick-or-treet," is used to raise funds to help send commodities overseas to be passed out by church workers on the field to the needy without regard to race or creed. The program here is set for Nov. 1, the night after Halloween.

Started six years ago, the program last year in Texas raised close to $50,000. Each dollar raised in the program will take care of handling costs of 300 pounds of food. The surplus commodities are given the CROP by the federal government.

The program here is sponsored jointly by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Snyder Ministerial Alliance. "We are hoping the youth of all the churches here will participate," the Rev. Ralph Odom, committeeman on the CROP program, said.

The youths will meet at their own churches and begin their solicitations from there at 6 p.m. Nov. 1. At 8 p.m. those who have been working in the program will gather at the First Christian Church fellowship hall to turn in funds they have raised and have an hour of fellowship and refreshments.

An Inspired Life

OH, the power of an Inspired life. Joan of Arc opened the eyes of the world and established for all time a place in world affairs for consecrated womanhood. Her conviction, courage, enthusiasm and determination won for her battles that could hardly be won. She fixed her eyes on God and found her answer. Young churchmen today are leading a wicked world to God. As Joan looked up and got her answer, may we in the same measure of consecration and faith look to God and get our answers. May the Christian dignity exemplified in her behavior be ours.
