18-Footers In Mitchell Are Said Complete

Unofficial reports indicated this morning that R. L. Moore, Colorado City cafe operator, has completed three wells in the Sunflower Sand field in the west side of Colorado City on total depth of 18 feet.

John Hoyle of Scurry County Tractor Co. said he installed a jet pump yesterday on the three wells, which he estimated will produce about 40 barrels combined daily.

Moore dug the wells with a shovel, beginning last Friday and completing them yesterday afternoon. He cased the hole with railroad cross - ties to prevent sand from caving in.

Hoyle said he believes gravity is about 46 degrees on the oil.

KENT COUNTY

Globe Oil & Refining Co. of Midland will start by March 1 to drill its No. 1 Spires, wildcat in Southwest Kent County.

It is 330 feet from north and 615 feet from west lines of section 35-4-H&GN, about 10 miles southwest of Clairemont and 25 miles north of Snyder.

Using rotary tools, it will drill to 7,500 feet to test the Pennsylvanian lime.

Location for this wildcat was reported about a month ago by Healy & Heartwell for their No. 1 Spires. They have turned the deal over to Globe and have retained an interest in the operation. It is on a lease secured on a farmout field from Sunray Oil Corp. and Seaboard Oil Co. of Delaware.

DAWSON COUNTY

Seaboard No. 1 King, five miles northeast of Lamesa in Dawson County, has been completed as a wildcat discovery for a daily pumping potential of 20.07 barrels of 33.7-gravity oil plus 20 per cent water.

It was completed from open hole in the San Andres between 3,945 feet and the plugback total depth of 4,340 feet. Gas - oil ratio was 100-1.

Operator asked that the field there be named the Arvanna Field. The discovery is 2,355 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 2-35-t6n-T&P.

BORDEN COUNTY

Official completion report of Superior & Intex No. 10-535 Jones in the Fluvanna field of Northeast Borden County showed a daily flowing potential of 195 barrels of 41.3-gravity oil.

Gas - oil ratio was 830-1, and flowing tubing pressure was 100. Flow was through a 20-64th inch choke. It was completed from the open hole in the Mississippian at 8,170-157 feet.

It is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 535-97-H&TC.

DRILLING REPORT

Humble No. 1 Nachlinger in the Buffalo Creek Ellenburger field of East Scurry is preparing to drillstem test after deepening to 7,660 feet.

It found the top of the Ellenburger at 7,594 feet. Elevation on the derrick floor is 2,419 feet.

On the last drillstem test at 7,633-645 feet with tool open 75 minutes, it recovered five feet drilling mud with no shows.

Texaco, No. 2 Fuller, North Scurry wildcat, is now on plugback total depth of 2,381 feet swabbing to clean out and test. On the last 20 hours of swabbing it recovered 104 barrels of load oil.

Blount No. 1 Cary, Southwest Scurry wildcat, has set and cemented eight and five-eights inch casing at 1,898 feet and will drill the plug and drill deeper.

DEATH CASTS GLOOM

A festive New Orleans Mardi Gras parade suddenly turned to sadness when a 17-year-old participant in the Krewe of New Orleans parade jumped from the trailer on which he was riding and was crushed to death beneath the wheels. The body of Phil Warren Stratton, Jr., (arrow), Tulane University student, lies covered with a blanket as horrified Krewe members await the arrival of an ambulance.

Chances Said Good For Rains Falling

By The Associated Press

"This might give us the rain we've been needing," a weather forecaster said Thursday as a slow moving but apparently tough norther drifted toward Texas.

The norther at mid-morning had not entered the state. It lay across New Mexico and stretched into Kansas, pulling damp Gulf air toward it.

The Weather Bureau forecast snow and bitter cold—as low as 10 degrees—in the Panhandle and South Plains Thursday night. Stockmen were warned to take cold weather precautions for their herds.

SLOWER THE BETTER

Light rains fell ahead of the front. The Weather Bureau said these came from circulation of Gulf air.

"The low-pressure area of the cold front keeps air rotating toward it," the Weather Bureau said. "The longer the front takes to get into Texas, the more circulation we get and the more rain we're likely to get."

Light rains were falling Thursday morning at Corpus Christi, Waco, College Station, Victoria, Houston, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells, Fort Worth, Junction, Del Rio, Tyler, Longview and Dallas. Corsicana had measured .80 inch.

The Weather Bureau said the front probably wouldn't drop Texas temperatures much below freezing east of the South Plains.

DUST BLOWS

A few clouds of dust swirled in West Texas before dawn Thursday. El Paso was the only point reporting dust as late as 4:30 a.m., however. Gusty winds blew at Amarillo, Lubbock and other Panhandle and South Plains points.

The norther was expected to drift into the Panhandle late Thursday afternoon and push below Dallas and Fort Worth before midnight.

Wednesday night, there were dust storms in the Panhandle and far West Texas, light rains in North and East Texas and thunderstorms in Central Texas. The drizzling, light rain in East Texas persisted at 4:30 a.m. Thursday, when springlike temperatures continued. Brownsville had a 69-degree reading at that time and Dalhart, which would be one of the first towns in the state to feel the norther, reported 37 degrees.

Intruders Are Given Warning

TOKYO (AP) — A Foreign Office spokesman today warned that Soviet planes which invade Japan's territory can expect more gunfire from U. S. interceptors.

Two American jets and two Russian propeller-driven craft tangled over Northern Japan Monday. One Red plane was riddled with machine-gun bullets in a brief air duel and was smoking when it sped back to the Russian Kuriles with its comrade.

Mitsuo Tanaka, the spokesman, told a news conference the incident "is indicative of the treatment other planes will get if they come over.

"When any foreign country invades Japanese territory," he said, "and we feel it is against our national security, we will ask the U. S. Air Force to assist us in the same way it did."

Tanaka said his government is satisfied with a report on the incident received through the American Embassy.

PARIS (AP)—The French Communist newspaper L'Humanite prominently displayed today what it described as a recent photograph of Maurice Thorez, secretary general of the French Communist party who went to Russia more than two years ago for medical treatment.

The caption under the three-column Page 1 picture — showing Thorez and his wife, Communist leader Jeannette Vermeersch, seated out of doors at the foot of some steps —said the secretary general was in "excellent" health.

Thorez, however, looked a little thinner and older than when he left Paris Nov. 11, 1950, bound for Moscow to be treated for a paralytic stroke. The caption said the photograph was made Feb. 1 of this year.

GI Charged In Shooting Of His Superior

FT. DIX, N. J. (AP) — A young Brooklyn soldier, described as a former mental patient, was held today in connection with the death of a lieutenant who at first was believed killed accidentally while on training maneuvers, Army authorities said.

Capt. Harry Lapham, public information officer at this Army post, said Pvt. Edgar Owens, 21, has admitted shooting the lieutenant in a signed statement, but that no motive was determined.

An investigation into the death last week of Lt. Richard M. Davenport, 22, New London, Conn., determined that he "apparently was murdered," said Maj. Homer W. Kiefer, commander of the 9th Infantry Division.

"Owens will be charged with murder in the next 48 hours," Lapham said yesterday.

The first announcement of Davenport's death termed it a freak accident, because it was thought he was killed by fragments from a shell that exploded 225 feet away, far beyond the safety limit in training maneuvers.

But an autopsy later disclosed that it was a .30-caliber M-1 rifle bullet.

Owens had been treated at the Pilgrim State Hospital for about five months. He joined the army three months later, his father William told reporters in New York.

The father said the Army "should have spotted him when he enlisted" and never should have accepted him. The soldier has a five-year auto theft record in New York City. He served a term in Elmira Reformatory in 1949.

Fuel Tanker To Aid China

WASHINGTON (AP)—A second Finnish tanker, loaded with jet fuel for Communist warplanes, has been spotted in the Mediterranean by Western security agents.

But American officials believe the ship's operators may have changed their minds about hauling its highly strategic cargo to Communist China.

The ship, Neste, is reported carrying 5,000 tons of aviation jet fuel picked up at the Romanian oil port of Constanta on the Black Sea.

The vessel is reportedly chartered by the same company which tried to move another tanker, the Wiima, from Romania with 7,000 tons of jet fuel bound for Communist China. The Wiima, defying a U. N. ban on such shipments, is now anchored about 20 miles off Singapore, carefully watched by Western security agents.

BigAir Strike By UN Planes Hit Communist Posts Again

SEOUL (AP)—U. S. fighter-bombers today blasted the smoking ruins of a Communist training center with tons of high explosives in their third devastating strike in two days.

Screening U. S. Sabre jet pilots shot down two Russian-built MIGs and possibly a third, the U. S. Fifth Air Force said. Col. Royan N. Baker of McKinney, Tex., shot down his 10th Red Warplane and became the second double ace of the Korean War.

The Air Force said 195 Thunderjets and Shooting Stars unleashed tons of bombs, following up a 360-plane raid yesterday on the sprawling area near Pyongyang, North Korean Red capital.

Pilots reported the target was flecked with smoke and flame from yesterday's raid. Today's strike was the fourth in the area in less than a week.

Today's toll of MIGs brought the six-day bag to 16. Additionally, 23 others have been damaged or probably destroyed.

The Air Force said the trip-hammer blows destroyed at least 150 buildings and knocked out tanks, vehicles and repair facilities.

Lt. Gen. Glenn O. Barcus, Fifth Air Force commander, said the Reds would "feel keenly the loss of the tank and vehicle repair facilities in addition to the many tanks and vehicles destroyed."

On the frozen battlefront, Allied soldiers hurled back six small-scale Communist ground probes in brief predawn clashes.

Fifteen U. S. B29 Superforts roared over North Korea last night and bombed Red supply and troop areas. B26 light bomber pilots reported destruction of 116 Communist trucks.

Battlefront temperatures dropped to 2 below zero during the night.

The Reds hurled three probes against Allied positions in the Kumhwa area of the Central Front. The squad-sized attacks were beaten back in sharp fights of 10 to 15 minutes.

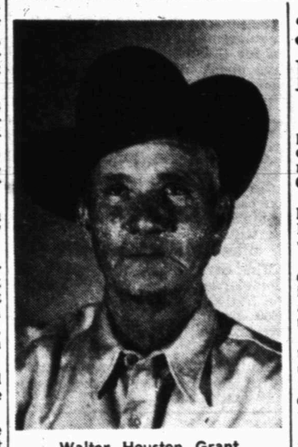

Allied soldiers hurled back other Red probes southwest of Kelly Hill on the Western Front and west of the icy Nam River on the Eastern Front.

3 Councilmen Announce For Re-election To Present Posts

Three candidates filed for the places they now hold on the city council which will be filled in the regular city election April 7, Mrs. Clara Jones, city secretary, said.

The candidates are Eugene E. Harper for place No. 1, C. N. von Roeder for place No. 3, and Malven K. Stevenson for place No. 5.

Those men and three other councilmen and a mayor were elected in a special city election Dec. 16 after the adoption of a city charter by voters here on Oct. 21.

Under the city charter three of the six councilmen were to serve until time for the city general election in April this year, and the other three until the general election in April 1954.

Councilmen whose terms run until next year are: J. L. (Broadway) Browning, J. W. Phillips, and Dr. Robert H. Hargrove. Harry T. Holbrook, mayor, also serves until the April 1954 election.

Terms of city councilmen are for two years, with three new councilmen being elected every year.

Harper is owner and operator of the Pal-O-Mar Cortel in East Snyder. Von Roeder is a rental property owner, and Stevenson is owner - manager of the Cash Food Market on Twenty - fifth Street in East Snyder.

City officials said no other persons have indicated they will become candidates for the posts.

All three candidates said when they filed for the offices in the earlier election that they did so at the insistance of a group of Snyder citizens.

Walter Grant, 67, Precinct No. 1 Commissioner Is Dead

Walter Houston Grant, 67-year-old county commissioner, died yesterday afternoon at Hogan-Malone Hospital in Big Spring.

Mr. Grant, who had been in failing health the last few years, was taken to the hospital at noon Tuesday. He died about 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon of kidney infection. He also suffered from high blood pressure and anemia.

Mr. Grant was born in San Saba Feb. 15, 1886, moved to Breckenridge in early childhood and lived there until he came to Scurry County in 1900. He has lived at Ira where he married Jan. 19, 1908. At the time of his death, he and his wife, Mrs. Fannie Crowder Grant, resided at 1412 Avenue I.

Operating the first road maintainer machine for the city shortly after World War I, Mr. Grant continued road construction and maintenance work for the city, county, state, and individual contractors 26 years, resigning from the city street department to seek election as county commissioner in 1950. His first term as commissioner of county precinct No. 1 began Jan. 1, 1951, and he was re-elected last fall. He was active in his office work until his death. His precinct virtually covered the northeast quarter of the county.

Funeral services are pending the arrival of a son, H. P. Grant, from his home in Clinton, Ill. Other survivors besides his wife are two sons, W. H. Grant, Jr., and Balumn Grant, both of Snyder; a daughter, Mrs. L. B. Taylor, Snyder; four brothers, Bob Grant and Pat Grant, Snyder, Euna Grant of Ralls, and Ed E. Grant of Dunn.

Services are to be at the Church of Christ on Twenty-fifth Street with the Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by Ted Norton of the Church of Christ, where Mr. Grant was a member. He was also a member of an Odd Fellows Lodge. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Pallbearers are to be Edgar Taylor, county judge; Doyle Parmer, commissioner of precinct No. 4; Pat Moore, commissioner of precinct No. 3; Cullen Toombs, commissioner of precinct No. 2; Abb Floyd, M. W. Bavousett, and Henry Rogers.

Flower bearers are Mrs. Nelda Alsup, Mrs. Thelma Bishop, Mrs. Helen Robison, and Mrs. Doris Bayers.

Mr. Grant's successor is to be appointed by Judge Taylor. In cases of death among county officials other than members of the commissioners court, the court appoints successors. Judge Taylor said this morning that no appointment had yet been made.

Small College Coach Hired As Head Grid Mentor At SMU Today

DALLAS (AP)—Big-time Southern Methodist reached into one of the country's smaller schools today and picked Chalmer E. Woodard of McPherson College as its new head football coach.

Woodard succeeds H. N. (Rusty) Russell, who resigned Feb. 1 while under fire from the alumni.

Athletic Director Matty Bell said SMU had tried to hire a big-name coach but couldn't find one who was interested. Bell said he had contacted such men as Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech and Wes Fesler of the University of Minnesota.

Woodard, 36, is director of athletics and head football, basketball and track coach at McPherson, a little college in Kansas. He has an outstanding record.

Military Cuts For Balancing Budget: Mahon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Mahon (D-Tex) told the House yesterday that billions must be cut from defense funds to balance the budget.

Speaking in debate on a supplemental appropriations bill, Mahon said "the military establishment is where the most of the money is to be spent."

"We must save money in all agencies and wherever possible," he added, but "if you are going to balance the budget and save really big money, you must save billions in the Department of Defense or you do not save enough to change materially the fiscal picture."

Vast sums can be saved in procurement of materials for defense, he said, because 60 per cent of every defense dollar goes to procurement. It is practically impossible to save money in military pay or maintenance and operation and keep up the nation's military strength, he said.

"In the field of procurement," he added, "real savings can be made if our defense leaders have the skill and the will to get the job done."

Mahon added that the nation is fortunate in having businessmen of great integrity and skill in key places in the Defense Department.

"If they do their job and do it well, they will save billions of dollars," he said.

Ten Prisoners Escape Jail In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH (AP) — Ten men, including badman Floyd Hill, smashed their way out of the Tarrant County Jail here last night. Early today, only one had been recaptured.

Hill is one of three men charged in the $248,000 robbery of two Cuban exiles here last Oct. 3 at the lush Western Hills Hotel.

The break occurred shortly after 10 p.m. when three prisoners on the fifth floor slugged Jailer Jim Holcomb with a shower pipe, took his keys and then freed Hill and four others.

After taking an elevator to the basement, they attacked deputies Jason Young and Jim Smith and trusty Eulon Knight and unlocked an outer door to the jail office.

Lonnie J. Baugh, 23, charged with receiving stolen goods, was recaptured about 30 minutes after the break as he walked downtown.

The other escapees identified included: Fred H. Walters, 22, charged with burglary; Ray Bayless, 20, charged with burglary; Bobby Dean Baker, 18, indicted for rape; Lloyd D. Lesher, 19, charged with car theft; William P. Hill, 19, charged with burglary; and Michael Kenneth Davis, 19, charged with rape;

Manuel Hernandez, 17, indicted for burglary, and Glenn C. Crawford, 22, rape charge.

Officers said the nature of the break indicated it was not planned solely to free Hill. The first prisoners escaping went to other cells and asked if anybody wanted to join them.

Warmer Weather Here

The temperature at 7:30 o'clock this morning was 51 degrees after a low last night of 36 degrees, according to Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, official weather observer. The maximum yesterday was 64 degrees,

Congressional Leaders Given Arms Briefing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders of both parties reviewed the global military situation with President Eisenhower today and a House member said afterward it was a portrayal of "a grim picture."

The Republican and Democratic leaders of the Senate and House spent an hour and a half with Eisenhower.

They were briefed on Korean War strategy and the military and diplomatic situations elsewhere by Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and by Allen W. Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency.

A presidential assistant, Robert J. Cutler, also took part in the briefing. He is in charge of liaison with the National Security Council.

After the session, Rep. Halleck (R-Ind), House floor leader, told reporters:

"Everybody knows it is a grim picture."

Another Congress member who attended said no conclusions were reached, "unless you might say we are in a hell of a fix." He asked not to be named.

Senate Republican Leader Taft brushed by reporters, declaring he had "nothing, nothing at all" to say.

Then he tossed back over his shoulder as he strode from the White House:

"It was a briefing on a lot of facts, military and diplomatic."

Halleck called it "a very informative briefing," which he said covered the whole military outlook.

He added it dealt with both the Korean and the Indo-China Wars, among other things.

When Halleck declared that everybody knows the world situation amounts to a grim picture, a reporter asked whether he meant on a military or economic basis.

Halleck said he meant both and added that the situation represented "a burden on the economy."

"The President said he wanted to tell us about the 'hot spots' generally," Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said on arrival at the White House.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee and president pro-tempore of the Senate, was one of 12 senators and 13 House members invited.

Vice President Nixon also joined the lawmakers for the meeting which is likely to affect important decisions and defense spending.

Eisenhower called on Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Allen Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency; Robert Cutler, White House liaison man with the National Security Council; and Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge to tell the legislators what the country is up against militarily and financially from the Iron Curtain in Europe to the fighting fronts of Korea.

Such a far-ranging review presumably would include possible new action against Communist China. Secretary of State Dulles said yesterday that every conceivable measure to stop the flow of military supplies to Red China is being weighed by his department—including a naval blockade.

Who Got Paid For January 20-Ike Or Harry? It's Big Poser

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, with pen in hand and tongue in cheek, said today he isn't sure whether he got paid for a full day last Jan. 20—when he turned over his office at noon to President Eisenhower.

The former Chief Executive's latest excursion down the byways of the public post involves a "Philadelphia lawyer" and a third person to be known only as "Constant Reader."

The "Philadelphia lawyer" is a columnist for the Philadelphia Bulletin. Under that byline—his actual name is cloaked in literary anonymity—he discusses and answers legal questions submitted by his readers.

Recently the "Philadelphia lawyer" received a letter in which "Constant Reader" wrote:

"According to the Constitution, President Truman's term ended at noon on Jan. 20 and he went off the U. S. payroll then. President Eisenhower's term commenced in the middle of the day and he went on the payroll as soon as he took the oath of office.

"With the President's salary at $100,000 a year, a day's pay or even a half day's pay, amounts to a considerable sum. Now, which one of the two got paid for Jan. 20, or were both paid for the day? Or did Truman get paid for half the day and Eisenhower for the other half? Can you tell me who got what?"

"A puzzler," commented the Philadelphia lawyer in today's column.

Fast calculation, he added, reveals that the President of the U. S. is paid at the daily rate of $274 (before taxes, of course)—so that if either the outgoing Chief Executive or his successor was paid for the full day, he was overcompensated in the amount of $137.

The Bulletin columnist decided there were only two men completely competent to provide the answer. One, he realized, was far too busy taking up the reins of government, so he wrote to the "First Citizen of Independence, Mo." and put the problem squarely in his lap.

In due course, there arrived a letter dated Feb. 11 and bearing this letterhead:

"Harry S. Truman, Federal Reserve Bank Building, Kansas City 6, Missouri."

"Dear Philadelphia lawyer," Mr. Truman wrote:

"In reply to yours of January twenty-eighth, I am not able to answer your question.

"It looks to me like a 'Philadelphia lawyer' ought to be able to figure it out. It is more than I can do because I have never had an occasion to do it. I merely accepted the check the secretary of the Treasury sent me, hoping the government would remain solvent long enough for me to cash it.

"Sincerely yours,

"Harry S. Truman."

Republican Farm Officials Say Agriculture Situation Firm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eisenhower administration farm officials today cited strengthening prices in the nation's hog markets as evidence supporting their contention there is a firm foundation under the agricultural situation.

An Agriculture Department market survey showed today that producer prices of hogs have advanced an average of $1.76 for 100 pounds or about 9.7 per cent on eight major Midwest markets since mid-January.

Furthermore, the survey showed that the hog prices on those same markets now average about $2.05 for 100 pounds or about 15 per cent above those of a year ago.

Agriculture Secretary Benson, in replying to congressional critics who charged he was not being aggressive enough in dealing with falling prices, said recently that declining cattle prices largely reflected a normal economic adjustment of big supplies and heavy marketings.

Cattle numbers climbed to record numbers last year, whereas hog numbers declined. Thus, the adjustment that has come in cattle prices in recent months came to hogs last year, officials said.

No recovery in hog prices could be expected, department livestock experts said, if the national economy were not sound and if slaughter houses, packers, processors and so on—expected an early farm recession.

Through most of 1952 and until recent weeks, the ratio between the price of corn used to fatten prices farmers got for hogs and the price of corn used to fatten them was largely unfavorable. That is, most farmers who bought corn could get little more for their fattened hogs than the cost of the feed. Or those who had corn could store it under government price support loans and get as much for their corn as they could for hogs fattened on the grain.

That ratio has again become favorable. The market survey reported that it stood at 13.3 to one Saturday. That means that 13.3 bushels of corn were equivalent in value to 100 pounds of live hogs. The smaller the ratio, the less favorable are feeding operations. For most farmers a ratio of less than 11.5 to one offers little financial reward.

A year ago, the ratio was down to 9.6 to one.

The survey also indicated the cattle industry has not given up. It said upturns in slaughter cattle prices the past two weeks tended to stimulate renewed interest of livestock feeders.

"Although the start of a new grass season is still some weeks away, demand broadened for little cattle to put on pasture," the survey said. "This was evidenced not only in a more aggressive attitude at terminal markets but also in increased activity at country points."

Father Joins Sons In Jail Yesterday

Three members of one family—a father and two of his sons—are now serving jail sentences here for bootlegging. The father, Anderson Davis, Sr., well - known Snyder Negro bootlegger, joined his sons in the jail yesterday when he started a 60-day sentence.

Davis pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon to four charges of bootlegging which had been pending against him for several weeks. No other cases are pending against Davis, who has previously been convicted on similar charges numerous times. Fines assessed in the four cases yesterday totaled $794, including court costs.

In the only case filed against him this year, Davis was assessed $400 plus the usual court cost for a non-contested case, $23.50. His jail sentence was also assessed in this case. In each of the other three cases, some of which had been pending several months, he was assessed the minimum fine allowed on a plea of guilty, $100 plus court cost.

His 31-year-old son, Anderson Davis, Jr., is serving a four - year bootlegging sentence put into effect Nov. 1. Another son, Pete Davis, less well - known as a bootlegger, recently started a 30-day sentence assessed in his only case in recent years.

The father told Wayland G. Holt, county attorney, yesterday that he was definitely through bootlegging in Scurry County. Although he has made such statements several times before, including such made to the House of Representatives Crime Investigation Committee at its Amarillo hearing last November, Davis says this promise will stick.

Gordon Goss Sells Big G Night Club

Gordon Goss, operator of the Queen Drive In cafe on Twenty-fifth Street in East Snyder, said he has sold the Big G night club on the Lubbock highway north of Snyder to John Thomas of Amarillo.

Goss said the new owner of the club is associated with the National Chemical Co., in Amarillo, and will not move to Snyder, but is to employe a local manager for the club.

363 Parking Tickets Issued First Three Days Of This Week

Cooperation in helping to provide more parking space on Snyder's downtown street was asked for today by Walter Suttle, chief of police.

Suttle said that persons using the parking meters have become very lax in their parking habits, and that many cars have been left for several hours on dead meters in the past few days.

Members of the police department patroling the meters the first three days of this week have issued 363 parking violation tickets, Suttle stated.

Approximately half of the persons receiving parking tickets have redeemed them within one hour of the time they were issued by placing five cents in the parking meter head on the police desk in the police department, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drake, 204 Twenty - ninth Street, have returned from Walters, Okla., where they visited her father, C. L. Jones. They all visited a daughter, Mrs. F. M. Dodson in Olney, Tex.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: PHIL REAGAN AND T. O. DAVIS, DEFENDANTS IN THE HEREINAFTER STYLED AND NUMBERED CAUSE:

San Angelo Stock Show Boosters Coming Here

The Chamber of Commerce has requested a police escort through Snyder for a delegation from San Angelo to come here next Thursday to boost the San Angelo Fat Stock Show, Walter Suttle, police chief, said.

Suttle said the local chamber has been assured escort will be furnished for the motorcade. It is to arrive about 2:50 o'clock that afternoon.

No Injuries In Car Collision Last Night

No one was injured in a two-car collision last night on the farm-to-market road connecting Fluvanna with U. S. Highway 84 about 15 miles north of here.

The cars involved were a 1950 Chrysler sedan driven by John Calvin Surratt, 49, route No. 2, and a 1950 Ford sedan driven by Merton B. Noel, 59, route No. 1, Fluvanna.

Damage to each car was estimated at $250 by E. W. Green, highway patrolman.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Bertha Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell of Carlsbad, N. M., are guests in the home of Mrs. Bertha Mitchell's sister, Mrs. Elmer Evans, 2006 Avenue L. Another sister, Mrs. Daisy Ingram of Odessa and a niece, Mrs. Mary Henderson of Houston, are also guests.

Mrs. Mildred Brown Lokey of Slaton and her uncle, George Weatherall of Clarendon visited Mrs. H. P. Brown, 2812 Avenue U, and other relatives over the week end.

Right-Of-Way For Diversion Ditch From Bull Creek To Lake

Plans for a diversion channel from Bull Creek to Lake Thomas became more definite this week as the Colorado River Municpal Water District completed buying right-of-way.

R. A. Schooling, a member of the district, said today that district officials were in Snyder yesterday to complete the right-of-way procedure.

The channel will be cut from Bull Creek northwest of the dam and will be run to the lake, where water will pour into the lake about two miles upstream from the dam. The channel will be about three miles long.

Schooling said construction of the channel probably will not begin for about 30 days or more, explaining that the district must advertise for bids two weeks.

The board member estimated that about 39 per cent of the Colorado River's water below the point where Bull Creek runs into the river originates from the creek itself.

The district's differences with Martin County, where CRMWD now has water wells, have not yet been settled. The state supreme court yesterday refused to hear CRMWD's injunction case against the Martin County district, which has indicated it will cut down production from the water wells. The court had previously ruled CRMWD's injunction against Martin's district invalid.

Any moves to resolve differences between the two districts must "come from the boys over there," Martin County Judge James McMorries said yesterday, speaking of CRMWD. McMorries said any offers for some type of agreement on use of Martin County water, now that court litigation has ended, must be initiated by the Colorado River district.

Schooling said he does not know what the district will do now about the two districts' differences, adding that he supposes it is up to CRMWD's lawyers. He said he does not know of any meeting scheduled with Martin County representatives in the near future.

Kennon Says Shivers Just At Age To Run

DALLAS (AP) — Louisiana Gov. Robert Kennon says Texas Gov. Allan Shivers "is an extremely able man and just the right age to consider for president."

Kennon made his statement in a question-and-answer session yesterday following a speech before a Dallas Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

"I feel that America will want a new look in government four to eight years hence," Kennon said, "and I can think of no better man as a candidate."

New Administration Takes Over At Guam

GUAM (AP)—Gov. Carlton Skinner said today he will turn over administration of this island tomorrow to Randall S. Herman, secretary of Guam.

Herman was named acting governor by Secretary of Interior McKay Feb. 12, when Skinner's resignation was accepted.

Bible On Sale For One Million Dollars

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—An old Bible was offered for sale today for one million dollars.

Norman Malik Yonan of Washington, D. C., said his Bible is a fifth-century manuscript written in flowing Aramaic scroll.

Harold Todd, who is acting as sales agent for Yonan, said:

"We've got two nibbles already but we are not anxious to see this Bible go into a private library. We would like to see it in a university library where it would be available to scholars."

Mrs. Norman Phinney of Dallas and Mrs. Ed Grissom of Abilene spent Tuesday with Mrs. Grissom's mother, Mrs. H. P. Brown, 2812 Avenue U, and with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown and family, 2404 Avenue I.

Former Harris Law Official Subpoenaed

HOUSTON (AP)—Jake Colca, one-time chief deputy sheriff of Harris County, has been subpoenaed to appear before a federal grand jury at Waco Tuesday.

Colca said he didn't have any idea why he was summoned.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Neal Matthews said two other subpoenas had been served here for the Waco grand jury. They were for Steve J. Bruno, a valuator for the Federal Housing Administration, and Ike S. Warner. Neither could be reached for comment.

The federal government collects more than seven million dollars a year in taxes on playing cards.

MEN AND WOMEN TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many men and women have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs less than most reducing preparations. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add 12 ounces of grapefruit juice. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

ABILENE MAN LOST 15 POUNDS

Mr. Paul Gordon, 526 Chestnut St., Abilene, Texas, wrote us as follows: "I have lost 15 pounds taking Barcentrate. I take a bottle or two occasionally to keep my weight down and I have never found anything any better for keeping down gas on the stomach."

SAN ANTONIO LADY LOST 20 POUNDS

"Before taking Barcentrate, I weighed 160 pounds," writes Mrs. Nellie Browning, 827 King Ave., San Antonio, Texas. "I now weigh 140, a loss of 20 pounds, and feel like a new person."

PIGEON FINISHES THIRD

Two years a pigeon at New Orleans' Fair Grounds made news when photo finish pictures showed it crossing the finish line ahead of the last place horse. Now another Fair Grounds pigeon has done a little better—it won in a photo finish for third place in the first race on Feb. 17. The pigeon appears to be crossing the line just ahead of Bog's Pride (10), but the track stewards decided that McCreight (4) was rightfully entitled to third place.

BUSINESS MIRROR

High Cost Firms Will Not Like Reduction In Tariffs

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK, (AP)—Henry Ford II wants all tariff walls to come tumbling down—even including the 10 per cent tariff on imported cars.

The Ford Motor Co. of which he is president makes and sells a considerable number of cars overseas. If tariff walls toppled, Ford believes almost everyone would benefit. Foreigners would sell more goods here and have more money to spend—including more dollars to spend on American-made cars.

Wall Street has estimated Ford's overseas business now nets a profit of around 20 million a year.

Some businessmen, naturally, aren't going to go along with the Ford proposal.

Example: The American watch making companies who complain bitterly of the competition from Swiss watches made by workers with lower pay scales than American watch makers. Another example: American textile mills.

The president of the Detroit Board of Commerce—which also urges an end to tariffs—tells business men attending the Chicago World Trade Conference that tariff reductions "would have to be worked out to deal with problems of adjustment."

He is John S. Coleman, president of Burroughs Adding Machine, a company which also does a good overseas business—and doubtless would like to do more.

W. Rogers Herod, president of the International General Electric Co., doing a lot of business overseas, tells the Chicago Conference that our tariffs should be reduced gradually to increase trade and lessen aid."

But he adds: "It certainly would be a mistake to just throw open the doors of our markets on an unselective basis to all products competing with our own from countries having anything from one-third to one-fifth of the wage rates that we have here."

Ford, however, says that if U. S. tariff walls were razed, we could absorb an additional five or six billion dollars worth of foreign goods each year to the benefit of business, labor, agriculture and the consumer. That five or six billion dollars presumably would be spent by the foreign nations in buying more U. S. farm products and manufactured goods.

Housewives Cooking With Gas, Not Water

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — Housewives of Brasil Avenue put away their umbrellas and went back to cooking with gas last night. It was the first time in 10 days they hadn't been showered with water when they turned on their stoves.

The gas company reported it finally had discovered somebody hooked a water line onto the gas pipe. The water backed up in the gas lines along the avenue and the housewives found themselves with kitchen fountains and no way to cook.

Carlos Villalvazo, gas company manager, sent out crews to pump out the water. He also went to see the prosecuting attorney, who promised to make an investigation.

CLAIMS NEW RECORD

Harlan Caton, 18, of Houston, Tex., staked claim to a National Junior bowling record when he hit 748 in a high school league match with games of 238, 256, 254. Houston bowling officials said a check with the National Junior Bowling Congress indicated the score broke a 1950 mark of 726 by Carmen Salvino, Chicago, Ill.

Dead Whale On Beach Is Frisco Problem

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A weighty problem — about three decaying tons of it — was washed into the laps of San Francisco authorities last night.

But no one could be found who was willing to do anything about it.

The problem was a dead whale the size of a small truck. It was first sighted—and smelled—rolling in the surf off the city's ocean beach by 12-year-old Norman Linoreaux.

Norman called Policeman Charles Sandoval. Sandoval called his sergeant at Taravel station.

"It's not in our district," the deskman replied. "Our district ends at the beach."

Next, the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals: "You can't be cruel to a dead whale."

Then, the Coast Guard: "That's out of our jurisdiction. It's on the tidelands—and didn't the administration promise to give the tidelands back to the states?"

The State Department of Fish and Game: "We're interested only in live fish and game."

The city health department: "What problem? — maybe you've got the wrong number."

There was one hope — that the rising tide might carry the dead whale back out to sea.

Barring that —

"Well," said Patrolman Sandoval, "it might be up to Norman. You know — finder's keepers."

Rotarians To Hold Banquet

About 100 Rotary Club members are expected to attend the group's annual Rotary - ann banquet tonight.

The ladies' night affair will begin at 7 o'clock at Ballards' Dining Room.

Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, will be featured as main speaker, while a male quartet from McMurry College, the Indianaires, will entertain.

Last year, Dr. D. M. Wiggins, then president of Texas Tech, spoke to the group. In 1951, Professor R. E. Jackson of Texas State College for Women at Denton was speaker.

The West Indies are often called the Antilles.

HST Writes Another Note, Doesn't Cuss

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remember Paul Hume, the music critic who got that letter after he panned Margaret Truman's singing?

He got another one. From the same author.

This one commented on an article in which Hume said President Eisenhower's piano-playing predecessor had contributed more to the development of music in Washington than any other president.

The letter, published today on Page 1 of the Washington Post (Hume's employer), was dated Feb. 16 and went in part:

"Dear Mr. Hume:

"The article which you wrote on my contribution to the music lovers of the nation has just been called to my attention. I appreciate it very highly.....

"Sincerely yours,

"Harry Truman."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hodges Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hodges are celebrating the anniversary of the day they gave their wedding vows 60 years ago on the front porch of her home near Alexander. He is 81, and she's 78.

Relatives and members of the Church of the Nazarene will visit their home this evening at Fourteenth Street and Avenue K. Covered dishes brought by them will comprise the supper topped off by a tiered wedding cake. There will also be group singing. "I think we can study up some nice times," Mrs. Hodges said.

The Hodges first met at a singing held at her grandmother's. Mr. Hodges was cutting up and showing off for the girls, according to his wife. "But she got a good look at me," he joked. The couple's courtship was three or four years before they married when she was 18 and he was 21. "We had fusses, but we finally made up," Mrs. Hodges said smiling. "Couples can stay together if you try your best and mind God," she added.

Her wedding day was an eventful one for Mrs. Hodges. The ceremony was held at her home while a multitude of friends watched from the yard. "Weddings were different then," she said. Afterwards the couple rode in a buggy to church. But the Hodges had a little tiff just before the ceremony that they both remember and laugh about. Mr. Hodges accidentally stepped on her wedding dress train, and it made Mrs. Hodges so angry that "if it hadn't been for disappointing all those people I just wouldn't have done it," she said. The dress was made of cream colored challis with a scalloped puff trimmed in lace.

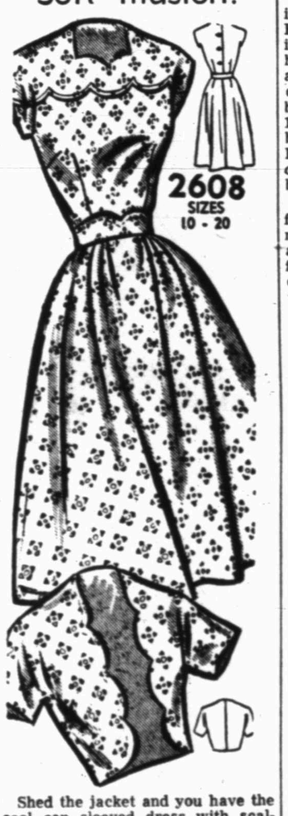

The Hodges have lived in Snyder five years, and they say they are going to stay here. Previously they lived in Polar six months where they moved from New Mexico. But near Brady where Mr. Hodges farmed they reared their family composed of four boys and five girls, seven of whom are living. One son, Tommy J. Hodges lives near the couple now. They have 22 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Large families are nothing new to the Hodges. Mr. Hodges had seven brothers and sisters and Mrs. Hodges had 10. He was born in Tennesse but later moved to Arkansas before coming to Texas. Mrs. Hodges was born in Coryell County which joins Erath where they met. She was the former Dosia Kolb.

Although neither of the two fought any Indians, Mrs. Hodges recalls when she was a child and the neighbors gathered in one place for mutual protection. Her father fought on the Rebel side during the Civil War, she said. One uncle was killed and another one participated in a battle she believes was Bunker Hill.

Mr. Hodges remembers the log cabin days when in a one-room school building girls recited from one end of a log bench and boys from another. Two fireplaces were used for heating the room.

What can be done to keep baked custards from being watery? R.

Prepare the custard as usual in custard cups or molds, then set them in a baking pan partially filled with water. Then place pan in a lukewarm, almost cool, oven and let the custard set. Never let the water in the pan come to a boil or the custard will lose its firmness.

What meatless main dish could you suggest? There must be something new to do with eggs besides the eternal omelets we've had. A. M. A.

Gather together the following ingredients: 6 hard-cooked eggs, 1 can cream of mushroom soup, 1-3 cup milk, ⅛ teaspoon paprika, ¾ cup diced cheese, 2 tablespoons green pepper, 3 cups toasted bread cubes, 1-3 cup butter.

Heat the soup and milk. Add cheese, paprika, peppers and 2 cup toasted bread cubes which have been tossed in melted butter. Pour into 1½ quart casserole. Arrange egg halves on top. Top with remaining bread cubes. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) for 20 minutes.

How do you remove cod - liver oil from a white cotton material?G.

The oil presents quite a stain problem because spots are colorless when fresh and therefore are not likely to be noticed at the time they should be removed. Soak stain in cleaning fluid and rub between fingers. Then wash in hot suds and rinse. If stains are old or have turned light brown from ironing, use 1 tablespoonful of household bleach to each quart of water and soak for 15 minutes. Rinse 3 times.

Mrs. Andress Is Club's Nominee For HD Posts

Mrs. M. L. Andress was named nominee to two home demonstration club posts when the Tri Community Club met yesterday with Mrs. Wyatt Lipscomb.

Mrs Andress was named nominee to council as delegate to the district meeting in Lubbock and also was named Texas Home Demonstration Association nominee for county chairman.

Members voted to participate in sponsoring a district 4-H scholarship by giving $5.

Miss Ruby Butts, county agent, gave a demonstration on walks and drives. She emphasized delaying before building walks as they should be built for convenience and drives should be planned for safety. As a sidelight to the demonstration she told that a good breakfast is the basis of the day's energy.

Refreshments were served to 12 members.

Health Nurse Speaks To Emanon Study Club

Miss Leah Davis, city - county health nurse, was guest speaker at the Emanon Study Club Tuesday when Mrs. O. B. Brown was hostess.

Miss Davis told of her duties and the services offered by the local health unit.

Eight members attended.

DINNER IN A SKILLET
. . . cover meat balls with corn meal dumplings

One-dish Meals Are Just Right For Those Hurried Occasions

Every woman wants recipes in her filing box that can be made in a jiffy when unexpected company drops in at dinner time or the afternoon club meeting lasts late, a one-dish meal can save the day. The working wife must rely on such recipes often.

Serving a one-dish meal, either on a single platter or in a casserole, pays added after-dinner dividends in shorter dish washing time.

Ground beef and frankfurters are the basis for many one-dish meals, but leftover roasts and canned tuna can make as delicious a dinner.

Here are six recipes designed to make meal planning and serving easier. Just add a salad, beverage and dessert and dinner is ready.

Tuna Divan is a seafood casserole that is easy to make, stretches the pennies and makes a colorful and appetizing one dish meal. The preparations are simple—just canned tuna set on broccoli and covered with a cheese sauce.

TUNA DIVAN
4 cups cooked broccoli
2 7 oz. cans tuna
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon pepper
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon pure monosodium glutamate
1 cup milk
2 cans condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ pound cheese food

Arrange stems of cooked broccoli in bottom of shallow casserole. Stand blossoms around edge. Break tuna into fairly large pieces, place in casserole. Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, paprika, salt, pepper and monosodium glutamate. Add milk, stir over low heat until thickened. Add soup and cheese food, broken into small pieces. Continue to cook and stir until cheese melts. Pour over tuna. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., 10 minutes.

Frankfurters are a "natural" for one-dish meals. A tasty example of one which can be cooked on top of the stove in a minimum of time is this one.

FRANKFURTER ONE-DISH MEAL
4 tablespoons fat
1 bunch green onions
6 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
1 box frozen mixed vegetables
1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 pound frankfurters
rice

Melt 4 tablespoons fat in a skillet and in it lightly brown one bunch of green onions, including part of the stems. Stir in 6 tablespoons flour and gradually add 3 cups milk, stirring constantly until thick. Add 1 box frozen mixed vegetables which have been cooked according to the directions on the package. Add 1½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper and 1 pound frankfurters which have been sliced in ½-inch thick pieces. Cook about 10 minutes. Serve on hot boiled rice.

Ground Beef has a multitude of uses for cooking and one of the nicest aspects is the easy preparation and quick cooking of most of the recipes. A really different treatment is this skillet supper of juicy meat balls in rich tomato sauce covered with light corn meal dumplings. This is a filling main dish supper.

MEAT BALL DUMPLING STEW
Meat Balls:
1 pound ground beef
½ cup rolled oats (quick)
¼ cup chopped onion
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1½ teaspoons prepared mustard
½ cup milk

Corn Meal Dumplings:
¾ cup sifted enriched flour
¾ cup enriched corn meal
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon sage
¼ cup grated sharp cheese
2 tablespoons shortening
½ cup milk
1 egg, beaten
Sauce:
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1 can tomato soup
1½ cups hot water

Combine all ingredients for meat balls. Shape meat mixture into small balls; roll in flour and brown in hot fat. Remove meat balls from the pan.

For the sauce, mix flour with remaining fat in pan. Add chili sauce, soup and hot water. Stir over low heat until well combined and thickened. Replace meat balls and bring mixture to a boil.

For corn meal dumplings, sift together flour, corn meal, baking powder and salt. Add sage and cheese. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk and egg, stirring lightly only until ingredients are well combined. Drop by tablespoonfuls on to boiling meat ball-sauce mixture. Cover tightly and simmer for 12 to 15 minutes. Do not remove the cover while cooking. Serve immediately.

A little ingenuity and a lot of imagination can make leftover meat go a long way. The crowning touch of this economy dish, which uses less than a pound of meat, is a topping of mashed potatoes.

YANKEE-STYLE CASSEROLE
2 onions
2 cups diced, left-over cooked pork
2 tablespoons fat
4 tart apples
½ teaspoon salt
few grains pepper
⅛ teaspoon puré monosodium glutamate tamate
dash cinnamon
5 instant chicken bouillon cubes
3 cups hot water
½ cup flour
2 cups hot, well-seasoned mashed potatoes

Slice onions; brown with pork in hot fat. Peel apples; dice; combine with pork and onions in casserole. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, pure monosodium glutamate and cinnamon. Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot water; blend flour with a little bouillon; add remaining bouillon; cook, stirring until thickened; pour into casserole. Cover; bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. one hour. Top with mashed potatoes; return to oven to brown. Makes six servings.

Rice and green cabbage are a combination that is a little unusual. This recipe for creole cabbage adds tomato for color and seasonings for taste and comes out with a good main dish meal.

CREOLE CABBAGE
3 cups hot cooked rice
2 pork chops, cut in ½-inch cubes (or ¾ cup cooked meat)
1 cup onions, chopped
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes
6 cups green cabbage, shredded
½ cup canned mushrooms sliced
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon chili powder

To make three liberal cups of fluffy rice, put 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt into a two-quart saucepan and bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover saucepan with lid and leave over this low heat for 14 minutes. Do not remove lid nor stir rice while it is cooking. Turn off the heat and it is ready.

Brown meat in skillet. Continue cooking until meat is done. Enough fat should cook out of the meat so that it is not necessary to add additional fat to the skillet. Add onions and some of the juice from the tomatoes, and cook until onions are tender. Add tomatoes, cabbage, mushrooms, salt, pepper, and chili powder. Cover skillet and cook only until cabbage is tender. Do not overcook. Cabbage should retain its green color. If there is not enough juice from the tomatoes to prevent the mixture from sticking add a small amount of water. Spread cooked rice on a platter. Serve cabbage over the rice. Deviled eggs are an ideal accompaniment to be served with the rice and creole cabbage. This recipe will make eight servings.

Leftover roast can be the basis for a shepherd's pie. Dressed up with a fluffy, lightly browned mashed potato topping, the meat will be popular on the second day as the first. The vegetables and meat can be combined in the morning and left in the refrigerator until half an hour before dinner.

SHEPHERD'S PIE
2 cups leftover meat, cubed
½ cup diced celery, cooked or raw
8 to 10 small whole peeled onions
2 cups leftover gravy, or water and bouillon cubes
3 to 3½ cups mashed potatoes
1 egg

Put meat, vegetables and gravy into the casserole. Stir. If leftover mashed potatoes are used, beat with a little hot milk and the egg. Otherwise, prepare potatoes and whip with milk and egg. When using raw vegetables, cook casserole for one hour, top with mashed potatoes and brown. If cooked vegetables are used, top with potatoes and cook for half an hour at 425 degrees F.

A complete dinner can be made with hamburger in a casserole dish that takes 1¼ hours baking time. All the vegetables are there.

Hamburger-Harvest Casserole
1 pound ground chuck
1 cup minced onions
1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2½ cups)
1 tablespoon Worcestershire (or 1 teaspoon curry or chili powder)
2 teaspoons salt
2 cups thinly sliced, pared raw potatoes
1-3 cup flour
1 package frozen cut corn, thawed just enough to separate
1 package frozen lima beans, thawed just enough to separate
1 slivered green pepper
1½ cups grated process American Cheddar cheese (6 oz.)

Heat oven. Combine chuck, onions, tomatoes, Worchestershire, and salt. Pat into 1-inch layer in 3 qt. casserole. On top place in layers, potato, flour, corn, lima beans, then green pepper. Bake, covered, 45 min.; then sprinkle with cheese; bake, uncovered for 30 minutes longer, or until vegetables are tender.

Bodies Stack Up In New York As Union Gravediggers Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A gravediggers' strike at 10 New York metropolitan area cemeteries has stranded 571 bodies.

At Evergreen Cemetery, one of the three nonsectarian cemeteries affected, all vaults have been filled and 77 coffins have been stacked in tents, with the chill February winds their only refrigeration.

Many relatives have dug graves, then carried their loved ones to their last resting place because hearse drivers refused to cross cemetery picket lines.

About 200 grave diggers struck Jan. 7 in a demand for a $10-a-week wage increase plus other benefits. They made $69 a week.

Cold weather has forestalled thus far any sanitary crisis.

Said Norman L. Jeffer, a Brooklyn director:

"After funeral services, bodies are left with us, and now there are more bodies in many chapels than there is refrigerator space for them. Many undertakers have to alternate bodies in refrigerators—there are bodies all over the chapels. What's going to happen, I don't know."

Madame Talks In Jelke Case

NEW YORK (AP) — A 28-year-old alleged call house madam was due on the witness stand today to tell what she knows about cafe society vice.

"I can't remember any names," said red-haired Erica Steel in advance of her appearance at the trial of oleomargarine heir Minot (Mickey) Jelke III.

The ex-dancer made this comment yesterday as she left another courtroom room with a rich mink coat tucked over one arm.

The state claims she is the madam in the case against Jelke, 23, who is accused of inducing three young women into prostitution and of living off the earnings of one.

She was in Special Sessions Court to be sentenced on her guilty plea to running a public nuisance —a plea she entered after being accused of operating a bawdy house. Sentencing was postponed until March 18.

Meanwhile, a onetime movie bit player was testifying in the Jelke trial.

Richard Short, 39, an admitted procurer, testified of his checkered life and of relationships with Jelke.

The state claims he co-operated with Jelke in allegedly promoting a prostitution career for 23-year-old Pat Thompson, Short's fourth wife. Short has pleaded guilty.

Short testified he was with Miss Thompson when he first met Jelke in 1952. He conceded spending time in jail.

Defense Atty. Sam Segal summed up Short's testimony this way for newsmen: "He didn't earn any money. He hasn't done a stitch of work for years since he got out on parole."

HEART BEATS AGAIN

Jesse Freeman, four, whose heart stopped beating for 15 seconds and started again after a surgeon opened a chest cavity and massaged his heart, shows his dad, James Freeman, 31, how he winks at nurses in Community Hospital, Long Beach, Calif. The boy was in a coma 27 days after a fall on cement. His heart stopped during brain surgery Feb. 8 to remove a clot.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Floyd, 2811 Thirty - second Street, have been in San Angelo on business this week.

Mrs. T.A. Newton of Yale, Okla., is attending her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Don N. Newton, 115 Browning, who is ill.

Scout Drive Over $2,000

More than $2,000 has been collected in the Boy Scout finance drive to date, according to Bob Eastus, field executive for the district, which started its campaign Tuesday.

Although all funds already collected have not yet been totaled with funds already turned in, the total so far will easily amount to $2,530, Eastus said.

The Buffalo Hide District's collections so far bring the grand total collected to date to $76,348, Eastus said, which is more than 82 per cent of the council goal of $91,700.

The council is composed of nine districts whose principal towns and the amounts collected to date are: East District, Sweetwater, Rotan, and Roby, $4,165; Lone Wolf, Colorado City, $2,306; Lone Star, Big Spring, $10,800; El Centro, Midland, $19,225; Black Gold, Odessa and Andrews, $20,800; Keystone, Kermit, $1,850; Arrowhead, Monahans, $5,700; and Pecos Valley, Pecos, $9,207.

There are 136 English names for the salmon and sea-trout.

Mexico Tries Curbing Tourists Robberies

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 19 (AP)—The Mexican Tourist Association has asked President Ruiz Cortines to take drastic steps to halt holdups and robberies of North American tourists.

The powerful association asked for an immediate investigation into recent violence, saying that not only was the tourist trade being endangered, but Mexico itself was getting a bad name as an uncivilized nation.

Three of the holdups have occurred within a month between Mexico City and the pyramids at San Juan Teotihuacan. Each of the pyramid robberies, took place at about the same locality, and involved two men and a woman, the latter apparently the leader of the gang.

Scouters Hold District Meeting Here Tonight

A district meeting of Boy Scout leaders is to be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the elementary school cafeteria on the present high school campus, according to Bob Eastus, field executive.

M. H. Roe, district chairman, is to lead the district committee. Leon Huff will lead the "scouters" on the subject of the district round-up, and Frank Weaver will lead "cubbers" on the theme of program planning.

Host for the meeting is Troop 38, sponsored by the First Baptist Church.

Beaumont Votes To Keep Parking Meters

BEAUMONT (AP)—Beaumont voted, 4,141 to 1,811, yesterday to retain parking meters. The vote was taken after a six-months trial of the meters, originally approved by a 134-vote margin.

The city voted against parking meters in 1947 and until last April's election was one of the largest cities in the nation still without them.

Gas Turned On Again

WHITNTY (AP) — This dam site town had gas restored early today after a measuring station mishap last night left it without fuel.

Lone Star Gas Co. officials said the gas had to be cut off from both industrial and residential consumers because of the accident in which no one was injured.

'Uncle Tom's Cabin' Rated Next To Bible

PARIS (AP) — French Education Minister Andre Marie last night lauded the American antislavery novel "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as the second most widely known book in the world. He put the Bible first.

Marie spoke before a group of French statesmen and intellectuals gathered at the University of Paris to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the publication of Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous work.

He characterized Mrs. Stowe as "this woman of action, this militant" and declared that "only this book has survived from all the literature favoring emancipation of blacks."

Ike Handles News Conference Much Differently Than Truman

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have now taken their plunges into the chilly, and sometimes slippery, pool called the Washington news conference.

They swam around all right, kept their heads above water, and neither seemed to be breathing hard when the dip was over. Eisenhower held his first conference since taking office on Tuesday. Dulles held his yesterday.

The two men did not handle their conferences in exactly the same way. Both had one thing in common: Neither produced any news sensations.

Eisenhower's conference lasted 30 minutes. He used up more than half that time himself, making statements. In the time that was left he answered questions. When the half hour was up he broke off the conference.

Dulles' conference also lasted about 30 minutes. He had no general statement but submitted at once to questioning. Instead of ending the conference himself he let the newsmen do it.

Former President Truman, because of his years in the Senate before becoming president, knew more when he entered the White House about the inner workings of the government as a whole than does Eisenhower, whose whole career until now was in the Army.

Nevertheless, Eisenhower made no bobbles. He answered questions with some rapidity, at no time dodged behind the "no comment" which is the customary Washington method for not answering questions, and once when he felt unsure of the answer said he would provide it later.

Truman, in spite of his broader government background in the beginning, had a tendency sometimes to answer questions so fast that he made mistakes which later had to be corrected.

After he had been scorched that way several times Truman became more cautious although he retained to the end his habit of firing rapid answers.

Truman was always accompanied at a news conference at least by his press aides and frequently, probably most of the time, had scattered around him, as he faced reporters, other White House assistants or government officials.

Eisenhower came into his first news conference with only his two top press aides, who sat some feet away from him and were not asked for, and did not volunteer, any help on answers.

Sometimes, as Eisenhower did yesterday, Truman began his news conferences with a prepared statement. Eisenhower started off with several sheets of notes in front of him. He referred to them as he made his statements.

He didn't bother with them later when the regular questioning started. Like Dulles, but unlike Eisenhower, Truman let the newsmen end the conference when they had run out of questions or thought they had asked enough.

Dulles walked into his first news conference as secretary without any notes. In this he was unlike his predecessor, Dean Acheson, who always walked in with prepared notes in a black book.

Acheson was almost always accompanied by only two men, his top press aides, Michael McDermott and Lincoln White. Both are State Department fixtures, it seems. They had held the same job under previous secretaries. Dulles, who has known both for years, retains them. They sat close to him yesterday, together with Carl McCardle, assistant secretary of state for public affairs, a Dulles appointee. He sought no help from the three during the conference.

This was not the first time Dulles faced quizzing by newsmen. He had held many news conferences in the past. Like Acheson before him, Dulles had had long experience in the State Department before becoming secretary.

Acheson almost always handled himself carefully. Dulles was careful yesterday. Both men answer questions fairly rapidly, in the sense that they don't have to search for answers. Neither, however, talks fast.

Because of the nature of the secretaryship, Acheson and Dulles both knew one wrong word could cause an international explosion. Both are capable of picking their way through the language gingerly.

All-Stars To Meet Roadkings In High School Gym Tonight

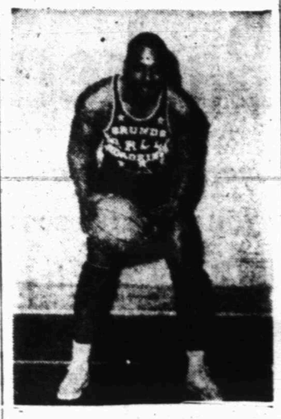

Professional basketball comes to Snyder tonight when the Harlem Roadkings, meet the all - stars of the city basketball league.

Play will open at 8 o'clock in the high school gym when the all-stars will attempt to handle the Negro team that has only lost 162 out of 2,542 games since it started playing 20 years ago.

Heading up the list of all-stars in their game will be Gene Gibson, former Texas Tech ace and now high school coach, who averaged 12 points per game in his last two seasons of college ball and led the nation in free throws one year. Gibson is a member of the C & S Sporting Goods team in the city league.

Other members of the same team who will be on the all - star roster will be James Bowers, Bobby Shipley and Miller Price. From other teams will be Jack Dillon, Joe Burney, Bob Blake, and Jack Medford, all of Chuck Wagon, the city league champion team last year; Bill Voss and Robert Minton of National Guard, a top threat for the title this year; and Bill Hanks of Wade Pipkin Motors, second place team last year.

Cleo Johnson, who has been with the Roadkings 13 of its 20 years, will lead that team. Johnson, 5-10, is called an expert on set shots. Others include Stan Burt, 6-3, who averaged 30 points per game last season; Bud Collins, 6-1, in his second season with the team; LeRoy Harteman, 6-2, the team's speediest player; Bill Roseborough, 6-8, former Globetrotter; and Chuck Bowen, 6-2, who has been with the Trotters and Roadkings for six seasons.

Cleo Johnson, 5-10 ace who has been with the Harlem Roadkings 13 seasons, will lead that team in play against the city league all-stars at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school gym.

A special section in the gym will be provided tonight for Negroes, according to Glenn Snyder, Quarterback Club league chairman. Tickets will be on sale at the door for $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The game will be the kickoff for the city league. League play is to start next week in the gym.

Foreigners Call Their Top Boxers Title Contenders

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing had its own little U. N. session yesterday in a quiet dining room over a swank 50th Street restaurant.

J. Onslow Fane was in town. As you might suspect, J. Onslow is British, very British. In fact, he is chairman of the British Board of Boxing Control.

As the angular British gentleman also is president of the European Boxing Union, he was a prize catch for the luncheon meeting of the Boxing Writers Association.

J. Onslow ran over the same old story that he has been telling in London for weeks. How he would insist that Randy Turpin fight only for the championship. No tournament or "eliminators," as he said.

"A fortnight ago," he said, "almost every American, except the women, were included in your middleweight tournament. Even a French welterweight. That struck me as slightly peculiar. But then, it might have been a slip of the pen."

He talked at some length on the qualifications of Turpin, the British, British Empire and European middleweight champions. He made it clear that the British would not budge from their position.

"We feel a fight between Turpin and the leading American should be for the title," he explained. "Or a fight betwen Turpin and Charles Humez. But no eliminator."

The next international visitor was Gilbert Ben Aim, the leading French promoter, speaking on behalf of Humez, his box-office ace.

He unlimbered some Gallic logic, after excusing his English.

"If you feel Turpin No. 1 middleweight. If you follow advice of those oo say Humez can beat Turpin, you must say Turpin and Humez at least equal. If they fight, it should be for championship.

"Oo would get hurt if we let go Humez and Turpin? Maybe we would give your men a little more ambition to have somebody ready to fight the winner in September."

That prompted Abe Greene, the National Boxing Association commissioner, to warn American middleweights (Bobo Olson, in particular) to stop being "prima donnas" and get in the tournament or risk U. S. recognition of Humez-Turpin as a title bout.

2 Invitations Out For Nat'l Cage Tourney

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Invitations have been extended to Seattle and Manhattan to join Defending Champion La Salle, unbeaten Seton Hall and Western Kentucky in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament opening in Madison Square Garden March 7.

H. A. Brightman, coach of Seattle, which features high-scoring Johnny O'Brien and his twin brother Eddie, announced last night school officials have received an invitation but had not acted on it.

And from an authoritative source here it was learned Manhattan also has been invited to participate in the 12-team tournament, which will extend through March 14.

These are the only two invitations that actually have been sent out, the source said, although feelers have been extended to a number of other schools.

Asa Bushnell, chairman of the selection committee, said feelers were sent to 15 schools, including those already named, but he declined to identify the others.

The group, however, is believed to include Duquesne, St. Johns of Brooklyn, Louisville, Miami of Ohio, Niagara, Oklahoma City, St. Louis, North Carolina, North Carolina State and Holy Cross.

Most of the schools under consideration, including Seattle and Manhattan, also are eligible to be selected either as a conference representative or a competitor at large for the National Collegiate Athletic Association's 23-team tournament opening March 9. Under NCAA rules, teams competing in its tourney cannot enter any other postseason competition.

Hoskins Says Notes Threatened Him Not To Play Baseball

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) — Dave Hoskins, who was the first Negro ever to play in the Texas Baseball League, revealed his life was threatened before a game at Shreveport, La.

Hoskins, property of the Cleveland Indians, is here for pre-season training with the Indians.

Yesterday he said last June 9 he received three letters, one at a time.

"First one said I'd be shot if I sat in the dugout. Second one said I'd be shot if I went on the field and the third one said I'd be shot if I took the mound.

"I figured all three were from the same person. Probably some one just trying to scare me. I didn't tell Dutch Meyer the manager of our club, because I was afraid he wouldn't let me start. Dutch doesn't know about it to this day.

"Even though I thought the person who sent the letters was only bluffing, I was a little scared when I went out to the mound. Later on, I didn't even think about it and it was just another ball game. We won it without any trouble."

Hoskins, who won 24 games for Dallas last season, said outside that one incident he was fairly treated in the league, particularly in Dallas.

Bevo To Stick With Rio Grande College

RIO GRANDE, O. (AP)—Clarence (Bevo) Francis, the hottest thing in college basketball today, says he will stick by Rio Grande College and the coach who pushed him into national prominence.

Bevo denied he was going to leave Rio Grande and blamed misinterpretation of statements he made over a radio station for the report he might quit.

On a Portsmouth, O., radio station, Bevo had been asked if he intended to remain with the Redmen for his entire college career. He replied:

"Yes; if they're going to have a bigger schedule, I'll stay there."

Asked if that meant he would go elsewhere if a schedule with big-time teams wasn't provided, Francis, who leads college cage scorers with 1,646 points in 33 games, answered:

"Well...if I know Coach Oliver, we'll have a bigger schedule."

"I'll go wherever Oliver goes," Bevo promised. "I owe him everything for my success. I'll play for him even if he wants to schedule high school teams...."

Miceli Shoots Toward Title

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Joe Miceli, aggressive New York soldier, planned a campaign in the middleweight ranks today after chopping out a 10-round decision over Bobby Dykes in the Coral Gables Coliseum Wednesday night.

The tough Army private, who used a slashing left to pile up a heavy point margin against the favored Dykes in the early rounds, is scheduled to leave the service in a month.

Then, he said, he plans to go after a shot at the middleweight crown vacated by Sugar Ray Robinson.

"I'm in wonderful shape," Miceli declared in his dressing room after he had been awarded a split decision over Dykes, a 2-1 favorite. "I could have gone another 10 rounds."

Miceli, the sixth-ranking welterweight contender, weighed 151, four pounds over the welter limit.

Dykes, making his debut as a middleweight, weighed 157½. His performance was extremely disappointing to a home-town audience that saw him at his best last year when he held Kid Gavilan to a narrow decision in a battle for the welterweight crown.

Successor To Neyland Will Have It Rough

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Harvey Robinson, heir-apparent to Gen. Bob Neyland as the Tennessee Vols' 1953 head coach, would step into one of the toughest coaching jobs lying around loose.

The ailing Neyland, who announced yesterday he wants a year's medical leave from his coaching duties, has Vol fans used to winning. Since he came here from West Point in 1926—with six years out for Army service—Neyland-coached football teams have won 171, lost 26 and tied 12.

The 61-year-old Neyland made it clear he wants to drop out for one year only. He'll remain as athletic director, a job he holds by lifetime contract.

The University Athletic Board, to pick Neyland's successor Monday, says it will accept applications from anybody—but for 1953 only. This gimmick seems to mean the nod goes to Robinson, assistant athletic director and backfield coach, or Louis (Farmer) Johnson, defensive coach.

The odds favor Robinson, when you consider that Neyland has said he'd pick Robinson as his successor if he were to retire, and Robinson got the job of coaching the Vols for their Cotton Bowl date with Texas New Year's Day. Both are Neyland products.

Competition Rough In Florida Tourney

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Such favorites as Sam Snead, Babe Zaharias, Betsy Rawls and Jacquelyn Pung were still around for today's second round of the International Mixed Two-Ball Golf Tournament, but they had a reminder or two to keep bearing down.

The big reminder came in Wednesday's first round defeat of one of the three medalist teams—Don Bisplinghoff, Orlando, and Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga. They were upset by Marilyn Smith, Wichita, Kan., and Lou Barabaro, Deal, N. J., 2 and 1. Just a day earlier Bisplinghoff and Miss Faulk, two of the best young amateur golfers in the South, qualified at 68 and Miss Smith and Barbaro had 74.

Mrs. Zaharias and George Bolesta, Tampa pair who also shared the medal at 68, had to go 19 holes to get by Vonnie Colby, Hollywood, Fla., and Eddie Bush, Hammond, Ind.

Other favorites came through a little easier.

Kilgore College Has New Football Mentor

KILGORE (AP)—Jasper R. Flanakin, line coach at Tyler Junior College, has been named head football coach at Kilgore College.

Flanakin, a graduate of Baylor, succeeds Woody Johnson, who resigned two weeks ago.

Ivy League At Deadlock

NEW YORK (AP)—The Ivy League today faced the possibility of not having a basketball champion before its representative is scheduled to play in the NCAA's postseason tournament.

Columbia's 81-58 victory over Princeton last night sent the Lions into a tie with Pennsylvania. Each has a 5-1 record with six games remaining. They meet at Columbia, March 4, in what may prove to be the deciding game. In a previous meeting at Penn, the Quakers won, 63-56.

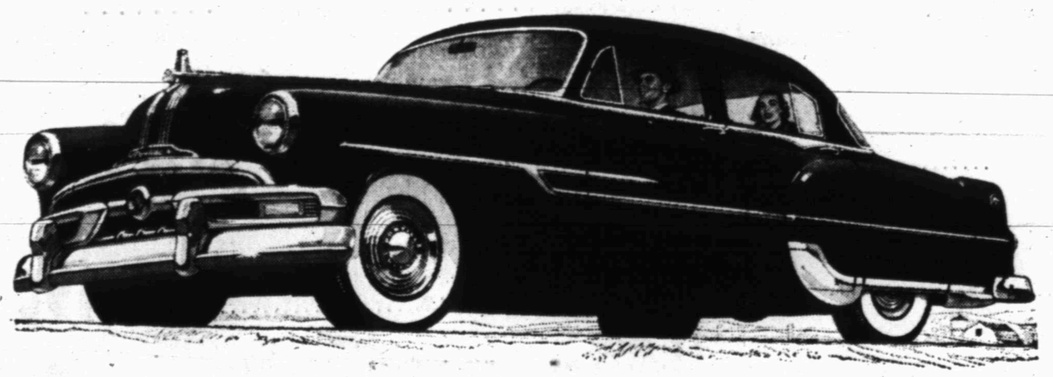

But Columbia doesn't finish its season until March 11 and Penn doesn't wind up until three days later. The Ivy champion has been given a bye through the first round of the NCAA play but is scheduled to show up in Chicago March 13 for one of the four regional tournaments.

HS Coach Resigns

CROSBYTON (AP)—G. L. Erwin, football coach at the high school here for two years, has resigned.
