Multi-Billion Dollar Housing Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's signing today of a multibillion dollar housing bill gave new direction to government efforts to help poorer Americans buy homes.

The law represented for the President a major legislative triumph.

The $5.3 billion measure authorizes construction or rehabilitation of about 1.7 million homes and apartments over the next three years, a substantial first step in Johnson's goal of six million new housing units over the next decade.

It includes a new home ownership program to help low income families buy modest homes with the federal government paying all of the mortgage interest except the first 1 per cent.

The new law also offers subsidies to some builders of low income apartments, sets up programs for riot and flood insurance, and extends the program of rent supplements for lower income Americans.

Coroner Investigating Local Woman's Death

A coroner's ruling by Justice of the Peace E. L. Anderson is pending in the gunshot death of a Pampa woman early today.

She was identified as Mrs. Orville Terry, 47, of 1213 E. Francis.

Mrs. Terry died at 4 a.m. today in Highland General Hospital, approximately two hours after the shooting.

Her husband told police that his wife had been despondent and that the wounds were self-inflicted.

He said he and his wife were in the bedroom of their home when she got up, left, and returned a short time later. He said she then bent over, picked up a pistol from behind the bed, and shot herself.

Foreign Aid To Be Smallest Ever

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Senate hardened by heavy war costs and burgeoning domestic needs has dashed President Johnson's hope for an ally in his fight against congressional cuts in the 1968 foreign aid bill.

Senate agreement Wednesday on a $1.95 billion authorization bill followed House passage of a $1.99 billion measure and insured that the U.S. foreign aid program in fiscal 1969 will be less than $2 billion for the first time since its inception two decades ago.

Senate-House conferees will have to iron out minor differences in the two bills. Johnson's $2.9 billion request was the lowest sum ever asked of Congress, but his staunchest ally of prior years, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, slashed it by a third.

Since many of the programs provided in the bill contain subsidy commitments spanning 40 years, total federal expenditures could exceed $50 billion. Congress later appropriates all funds sought.

Existing programs of model cities, urban renewal and mass transit are continued under the new law, which has these major features:

Home ownership: The federal government would pay mortgage subsidies to eligible families with incomes ranging generally from $3,000 to $8,000. Except for certain areas where the homes could cost $20,000, price tags would be limited to $15,000. The families would pay 20 per cent of their income for housing costs. Some 500,000 families could be eligible for help over the first three years.

Low rent apartments: A similar interest subsidy program would go to nonprofit or limited profit organizations to develop apartment complexes, to keep rents low for poor.

Her husband was found tending her wounds when police arrived.

She was taken to Highland General Hospital, where she died two hours later.

SAIGON (UPI)—A band of U.S. Marines two weeks ago shot and killed a white American male identified as a Marine who they said was leading Communist troops into battle, the Leatherneck patrol leader said today.

The Caucasian wore green fatigues, regulation webbed gear and a red sash around his waist and carried a U.S.-made M14 rifle, Marine Cpl. Charles H. House of Glendora, Calif., told UPI cameraman Charles Gerretsen.

House said four of the five Leathernecks who saw the man identified him from photographs as a U.S. Marine missing in action since September, 1965.

A fifth Marine, however, disagreed and said the white Communist soldier was an American civilian, also listed officially as missing.

The Marines described the Caucasian as about five feet eight inches tall, sharp-faced with slightly pointed ears and with long brown hair combed back.

The report from House's patrol was the first concrete indication of an American fighting on the Communist side in the Vietnam War, although there have been numerous unconfirmed rumors.

House, with the 1st Marine Division, said his nine-man patrol had set out on a reconnaissance mission in the lowlands around Phu Loc, about 12 miles southeast of Phu Bai, on July 13.

It was two days later, he said, and they had "just finished eating" around noon "when I saw this Caucasian walking from behind a big rock."

"He wore green fatigues, regular webbed gear and a red sash around his waist," said the Leatherneck.

House said the man "held his rifle in the Marine fashion, weapon held out in front of his body" and that "the VC or NVA (Viet Cong or North Vietnamese) were behind him."

House said the Caucasian glanced behind him, and that "this gave me time to go for my M16 (automatic rifle)."

At the same time, he said, Lance Cpl. Perry C. Gordon of Baldwin, Miss., "opened up, killing the VC or NVA and wounding the Caucasian."

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Navy pilots joining in another assault against North Vietnam today forestall an expected "massive" Red offensive shot down a MIG21 today in a three-way dogfight. In South Vietnam, U.S. strength rose to a record 541,000 men.

Ground fighting also stepped up and U.S. and South Vietnamese troops beat off seven light Viet Cong probing attacks around Saigon while an allied task force in the Mekong Delta killed 120 Communists in the offensive that opened Tuesday.

Spices Perk Up A Cheese Souffle

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Nutrition Editor

Eggs are reasonable and offer first-class economy nutrition. Also, Americans generally need more milk in their diet. So why not incorporate eggs, milk and cheese into a delicious main dish cheese souffle for the family meal? You might want to spark it for a change with a touch of spice.

Basil leaves and instant onion powder are an excellent blend, or use a teaspoon of Italian seasoning and a half teaspoon of powdered mustard. Other good spices for cheese souffle include pepper—black, white, or red—ginger, paprika, marjoram, parsley, oregano and caraway. But be cautious—not too much spice.

BASIL CHEESE SOUFFLE
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup all-purpose flour
1½ cups milk
2 cups grated sharp Cheddar cheese
1 teaspoon salt
6 eggs, separated
1 tablespoon basil leaves, crumbled
¾ teaspoon instant onion powder. . . .

In top part of a double boiler melt butter. Blend in flour. Remove from heat and gradually stir in milk. Cook until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add cheese and salt. Cook over hot water, not boiling, until cheese is melted. Remove sauce from heat. Beat egg yolks. Stir a few tablespoons of the hot mixture into yolks. Return entire mixture to the hot sauce, mixing well. Stir in basil leaves and onion powder. Set aside to cool slightly. In a large bowl beat egg whites until stiff, not dry. Gently fold cheese into egg whites. Turn into a 2-quart souffle dish which has only the bottom greased. Place in a pan of hot water. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325 degrees) 1 hour or until firm. Six portions.

Chocolate fudge frosting will cook faster if the sugar is stirred in after the mixture of other ingredients is hot and the chocolate melted.

and praised the senator for "putting his country before his party."

Jim Campbell of Pampa, District Committee member, issued a statement late yesterday in which he said:
"I would welcome Sen. Hazlewood and any other Democratic office holder and candidate who, like Sen. Hazlewood, feel the party has deserted them, to join us in our fight to return America to its rightful place of leadership."

Mrs. Frances Fatheree of Pampa, GOP district committeewoman, had this comment:

"If the action of the Democratic Executive Committee in demanding the resignation of state Sen. Hazlewood means that only Hubert Humphrey supporters are welcome in the Democratic party, then I am confident that they will have a very small, exclusive club for November."

Some Democratic county chairmen indicated they didn't approve of Senator Hazlewood's statement at the GOP fundraising dinner in Amarillo, but apparently wanted to await the Aug. 10 meeting before taking any formal action.

Letters of invitation to the Dumas gathering of 31st senatorial district Democrats went into the mail from Amarillo today.

House added, and "was in pain." He said the man cried out "help me, help me," twice.

"He must have had 10 bullets in him," House said. "I did as he asked—and shot him."

Almost simultaneously, he said, another Marine, Lance Cpl. Sam Wilker of Waseca, Minn., threw a hand grenade which lifted the caucasian off the ground.

The white man was "in his death spasm" and "we were receiving heavy fire from a ridge to the left, then about 20 to 25 Viet Cong or NVA came charging down," Walker said.

House said he pulled his patrol together and "we high-tailed it out of there."

House said that when the patrol members told their story to military authorities in Phu Bai, "they showed us pictures of people who had been missing in action."

Campaign workers for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today were once again carrying around the latest public opinion poll to show delegates to the GOP national convention.

The new Harris poll, published in today's Washington Post, showed Rockefeller running well ahead of either of the two Democratic hopefuls, Hubert H. Humphrey or Eugene J. McCarthy.

At the same time, the Harris survey showed either Humphrey or McCarthy defeating former Vice President Richard M. Nixon by a substantial margin.

The Rockefeller camp, had been jolted by a Gallup poll published earlier this week. That poll showed Nixon running stronger than Rockefeller against either Humphrey or McCarthy.

While the battle of the polls was warming up in Miami Beach, Nixon, Humphrey and third party candidate George Wallace all appeared in Washington Wednesday to address the annual convention of the National Association of County Officials.

All three—appearing separately—were received with about equal warmth, but while Nixon and Humphrey generated only applause, Wallace stirred the officials to cheers with his strong attack on crime in the streets, the Supreme Court, and college professors who sympathize with Hanoi.

"Isn't it a sad day when, in your nation's capital, you cannot leave your hotel after dark," Wallace said.

Nixon told the officials he could not support either a guaranteed annual income or any similar such subsidy for the poor because it would simply perpetuate the problem.

"Instead of more millions on the welfare rolls, we need more millions on payroll," he said.

Humphrey cast aside a prepared speech on Vietnam and instead talked about domestic problems. He said "the overwhelming majority of Americans want law and order and progress."

A thought for the day:

Austrian writer, Baroness Bertha von Suttner, said, "After the verb 'to love,' 'to help' is the most beautiful verb in the world."

Refreshing Change Of Pace Here

For a police employee, dealing so often with crime, violence and lesser forms of law-breaking, it was a refreshing reminder.

Mrs. Leota Pollard, police dispatcher, said a woman came to the police station and gave her an envelope which apparently contained money.

She told Mrs. Pollard that she was from out of town and that she was just passing through, Mrs. Pollard said.

The woman said she had found the envelope, which was addressed to a local woman, when she stopped at a newsstand to buy a paper.

She told Ms. Pollard that she started to mail it to the woman, but since the police station was just a short distance away she decided to just take it there.

"We don't get too many cases like this," Mrs. Pollard said wryly.

Two Fire Calls Are Reported

Firemen answered one call yesterday and a 4 a.m. alarm this morning.

A vacant house at 539 S. Gray sustained heavy damage to a bedroom from the fire which broke out about 4 a.m.

Hoover Says US Should Throw Off Its 'Guilt Complex'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Americans must throw off the guilt complex which threatens to envelop the country, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said Wednesday.

"America is not a sick society," he said. "Let us stop condemning our whole populace for the sins of a few. Let us stop this nonsense of self-reproach and self ridicule and throw off the guilt complex which threatens to envelop our country."

"It is time for Americans to shed their apologetic demeanor and stop belittling themselves," Hoover said in his monthly message in the FBI law enforcement bulletin. "Too much attention is given to various dissident elements which have a lot of noisy energy but little purpose," Hoover said, without identifying any of the dissidents.

"Many of them are complaining about conditions which they help to create," he said. "Now, they want our whole society to plead guilty to mass ineptness." He said no country "has ever done, or is doing, more for its own underprivileged citizens and for the unfortunate people of the world than the United States. We have no reason to be ashamed; indeed we have much to be proud of."

"America is a world leader in the cause of justice, liberty, and the dignity of man," Hoover said. "We have no reason to act or think as losers or second-rate citizens."

He suggested that "we check the pulse of the self-styled diagnosticians who see a social malady from every soapbox."

School Board Meeting Set For Tonight

The Pampa School Board will meet at 7:00 p.m. today to consider personnel changes and announce a decision on the use of Carver Elementary School for 1968-69.

Other agenda items include rezoning of Carver, Baker, Lamar, Wilson and Austin Elementary Schools, and consideration of purchase of electric typewriters for the typing lab.

The board, meeting at the request of Superintendent Dr. James F. Malone, has considered using Carver School building for school administrative purposes, and transferring its students to other Pampa elementary schools.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare officials visited Pampa school trustees in 1967 and advised against keeping Carver open as a one-race school. After consideration of the HEW regulations and the district's needs, the board voted in December, 1967, to close Carver as a school for the 1968-69 term, but to maintain the building and its facilities for other uses.

We Apologize For 'Head Start' Story Mistake

The Pampa News wishes to apologize for an unfortunate error in a story in Tuesday's paper relating to the "Head Start" program now being conducted in St. Mark's Methodist Church (CME) for 16 pre-school youngsters.

The News reported that most of the youngsters are from lower economic class families which left the impression most of the youngsters were from indigent families. That is not the case, according to officials of the school.

"Social or economic background is not involved in this program and has no bearing on it," Mrs. Nancy Helms, one of the teachers said.

It was also pointed out that in the "Head Start" school, as in all others, there are different levels of achievement. The News attempted to explain the impact of the program by pointing out achievement through a "before" and "after" device. That, unfortunately, was misconstrued by parents, who felt their children were maligned.

The News endorses the local initiative shown in starting the program, and most sincerely regrets the error and misunderstanding.

covered missing about 8 a.m. today.

County Buys Bonds For School Fund

Gray County commissioners court today approved a motion to buy $21,000 in bonds to be used for the permanent school fund, authorized the transfer of $50,000 from the general to the salary fund, and passed a motion to accept $26,668 from the state for road funds.

The commissioners also paid bills and salaries and took care of routine first-of-the-month budgetary matters.

The $50,000 will be transferred from the general fund to the salary fund when the general fund time deposit matures August 8.

The $26,668 will be transferred from the State Board of County and District Road indebtedness fund to the county treasurer. The funds are OK'd annually by the state for maintenance and construction of county lateral roads.

TABLETOP STYLISHNESS for outdoor dining comes in many forms. Popularity of the cookout brought a bonanza of colorful and practical table accessories. For those who like eating with a flair, a variety of permanent press, patterned tablecloths and solid color treated napkins (top) shug off spots and spills. Another contemporary touch for outdoor eating is the plexiglass-domed server for either hot or cold entrees. Table is set with enameled metal plates, a second setting (bottom) is keyed to plastic dinnerware with bright yellow, orange and pink flowers. Floral centerpiece picks up colors. Other ideas are: Heavy blue drinkware and wooden accessories on a bright orange Mexican sisal table runner. Other accessories are teak.

The more patterns combined in a single costume, the lighter within reason of course, the more contemporary it looks for summer. Plaids, stripes, checks or dots are often mixed. For instance, a striped dress may have a checked skirt with the darker color played up in one piece of the ensemble, the lighter color in the other. An example in the mixing of patterns and fabrics could be a silk dress with the bloused bodice checks or dots are often mixed. DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of mine has a daughter who is 24 years old. Linda is a college graduate so she can't be dumb. Well, this Linda girl happens to be very pretty with a knock out shape, so she went to the city and took a job posing for an artist who specializes in painting girls with nothing on.

Aren't there laws against indecent exposure, and can't this shameless girl be arrested if caught?

ARKANSAS

DEAR ARKANSAS: There is a law against indecent exposure but I don't know how (or if) it would apply to your neighbor's daughter. The young woman is well past the age of consent, and if the artist is legitimate, and Linda is indeed his model, no one can stop her from making a bare living.

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday my girl friend and I were standing in front of my house talking to a bunch of boys, and one of the boys said something real dirty. I felt my face getting real hot, but I didn't say anything. Nobody else said anything either, but a couple of boys laughed. Greg, who is sort of my boy friend, but we don't go steady or anything like that because we are only 14, just stood there and didn't say anything.

Later on when Greg walked me to the door I told him I was disappointed in him because when that boy said something dirty in front of me he didn't tell him he shouldn't

The August meeting will be with Mrs. H. E. Crocker at 319 N. Purviance. Each member is to bring a salad. Speaker will be Mrs. Edna Brown, teacher of the Dorothy Carnegie Course.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. H. F. McDonald.

Mrs. Louther had tendered her resignation to the hospital board here April 30 but had remained until this time working with her successor, Miss Mary Riley.

Mrs. Louther was presented with a traveling bag as a going away gift. Those present were Misses Mary Riley, Patsy McCormick, Sheila Foster and Evelyn Bender, and Mmes. Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Arguments, confrontations, ill will with others can certainly cause this to be a very adverse day and evening for you, so make it a point to get out from under that grouchy humor that is apt to pervade you as well as everyone else and show you can consider the other fellow and his feelings as your own.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — If an associate is acting rather peculiarly, find out what the matter is instead of letting this silent gripe go any further. You had better wait until tomorrow before going out on that fun trip. Conditions are not quite right now.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Look about you and see what needs to be fixed or gotten rid of, expenses cut down as well, difficulties, etc. A fellow worker has a gripe. Listen patiently to him and then please wisely.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — When a family tie is apt to complain about something, don't get angry, but listen calmly. Find out the right, reasonable solution to the problem. Everything can turn very nicely then at home in the future.

LEO (June 22 to Aug. 22) — Take real care in driving or you can get into a very bad situation that is best avoided. Be sure you cooperate more with others, too, or you get into some unnecessary arguments and avoid points of contention also.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) — You have to use more practical methods if you want your monetary affairs to be more healthy. Put aside that worry you have to apply perfection to material things and get right into the work ahead of you.

MOON CHILDREN (June 23 to July 23) — You think that some problem has no good solution, but by relaxing, and thinking objectively, you know exactly what to do. That new idea, concerning how your mind is just not ripe as yet. Shave it for awhile.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Some friend you have is not willing to give a helping hand for whatever your needs may be, so don't try to force anything. Plan what other friends can do for you, and then wait the right time to ask them.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — You need to please co-workers or partners now, so do whatever will do just this, without upsetting pleasant mode of procedure now. Be sure you pay that bill and avoid trouble later on. Be astute.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Welcome those ideas from an expert who really knows his business and get ahead faster instead of being so independent and poor. You have to use the right words if you want to gain prestige now. Be honest.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Good day to discharge those responsibilities ahead of you, but don't get caught in some tangent that now is appealing. Taking time to see how sensible your idea is will make you appreciate her more. Be good.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Your ideas for handling outside affairs are radically different to those of associates, so tone down a bit or you get into trouble. You have some rough spots, so be very diplomatic and avoid future worries.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY: . . . he, or she, will be one of those fascinating young people whose intention is to get along famously with others, but will at minute details, etc., that the opposite could be the result. If you don't test this, it will make you appreciate her more. Be good.

In 1943 the French Committee of Liberation appointed General Charles de Gaulle chairman of the Committee of National Defense.

Prairie Trails & Pioneer Tales

By TRACY D. CARY
Chairman, Gray County Historical
Survey Committee — Box 676

We certainly are glad the postal authorities have decided the Saturday mail will go through as before, since our most interesting correspondence from Gray County pioneers and others interested in our history has come to us on Saturdays! Is it especially nice to know that so many are reading this column and finding it enjoyable.

Mrs. J. D. Paris, Box 81, Miami writes: "Just a note to say I have read your 'Prairie Trails and Pioneer Tales' and find them most interesting. I do a weekly column in the 'Miami Chief' called 'Heritage' and I have advised those with Gray County heritage to send in their history to you. Hope you don't mind the advertisement. I am working on the Paris family history for your book and should get it to you soon. I know there are a lot of folks in Miami who were early-day Gray County citizens, and when the Gray County history is finished we will want several copies." (a list of pioneer names was enclosed).

Our deepest thanks to Mrs. Paris for her assistance in our project. We do appreciate the "advertisement" and the names and addresses which she sent along.

If you know of Gray County Pioneer descendants who have not yet been contacted by the committee, it is probably due to the fact we do not have their present addresses. . . . please send them in to us and they will be contacted as soon as possible.

MRS. CHARLES JOHNSON, 809 4TH STREET, PALACIOS, TEXAS 77465 writes: "A friend has sent me a copy of your column from the Pampa Daily News, and I understand that your readers are sending in family histories for a book on Gray County. Would you please inquire if anyone has information on a Mrs. DELOACH (or DELOATCH), a widow who married a Mr. FLY and had a son who was a doctor? This Mrs. DELOACH had a son, TURNER DELOACH by her first marriage, who moved to Madison Co., Tenn. near Jackson about 1842 or '43. TURNER DELOACH was my grandfather. So far we are unable to find the name of his father." Can any of our readers assist Mrs. Johnson?

MRS. DONALD LOCKE, 1010 THOREAU CT., MODESTO, CALIF. 95350 writes: "While talking with Mrs. Elmer Locke, my husband's aunt, we got on the subject of family trees, at which time she mentioned reading your column in a copy of the Pampa Daily News a neighbor had loaned her. . . I would like to know if there are any descendants of the LOCKE FAMILY from Arkansas (near Paragould) living in your area? Am especially interested if these LOCKES were descendants of those who originally settled in the New England States. I would appreciate any information and will be happy to pass along any that I have. My husband's grandmother was ELIZABETH PHILLIPS who married GEORGE H. LOCKE. Hoping to hear from you soon, thank you."

We have sent Mrs. Locke several names and addresses, and if anyone is researching these families she will appreciate hearing from you.

MRS. CHARLES C. WADDELL, 4617 N. W. 32ND PLACE, OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. 73122 writes: "Will you please inquire of your readers to see if any of them has any information on the following families. . . we recently found a WYNNE family connected with our BEARDEN line in Virginia and South Carolina and on to Bedford Co., Tenn. We have a JOHN BEARDEN born in Virginia, who enlisted and served from South Carolina, who was a Revolutionary War veteran. He was born in 1744, son of JOHN BEARDEN of Caroline Co., Virginia. The first JOHN married LETTICE WINN OR WYNNE (b. ca. 1723) of Caroline Co., Va. She was the daughter of MINOR WYNNE.

I have the names and information on the children of John Bearden and Lettice Winn along with information on descendants in Bedford Co., Tenn. I would also like any information on WILLIAM WARE BROWN of Moore County, Tenn. Do you know of a WARE-BROWN connection? WILLIAM WARE BROWN was the son of WILLIAM BROWN of Tenn. who married FANNIE WELCH. His parents were DANIEL BROWN and ELIZABETH GOWEN. DANIEL BROWN was a resident of Bedford Co., Tenn. in 1840. Will be wife. STEPHEN ALLEN ACKERMAN, bn. July 25, 1818 in New York (where?) and wife LAVANTHIA JANE ROOT bn. Sept. 10, 1832 also in N. Y. They were married in N. Y. (where?) Please give me a hint try and would like to know if on how to go about this procedure. Thanks."

We appreciate hearing from your great-grandfather and his these correspondents, and to know that the Pampa Daily News is being read in so many distant places. We are sending Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Waddle, Mrs. Locke, and Mrs. Darling a copy of a helpful information sheet which we trust will assist them in their family history research. It was compiled by the Pampa Genealogical & Historical Society, and any one locally wishing a free copy may obtain one in the genealogy section of Lovett Memorial Library.

By United Press International. DENVER—Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, commenting on a Gallup poll showing him trailing Richard Nixon in popularity with the voters: "One Gallup doesn't make a race."

MIAMI BEACH—Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, in a statement to be delivered before the Republican platform committee: "If we are to eliminate the Catholic theologians, claiming that Pope Paul VI's ban on crime and violence in this birth control is not the last country we must eliminate the hopelessness, futility and alienation from which they spring."

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Twelve of Reno's "quickie" wedding chapels have asked the Better Business Bureau to draft a code of ethics which might improve their image. Among the reforms under consideration—closing Sunday morning to avoid competition with church services.

SHOW RESTRAINT

LONDON (UPI) — Gerald Moss, who "apparently has a grudge against those in the law," has been forbidden to sue anyone without obtaining permission from a judge. In the past three years, Moss has sued or tried to sue two county court judges and the wife of one of them; a county police chief and his wife; two police inspectors and Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

Scientists Studying Undersea Buildings

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Scientists have perfected devices for studying possible building sites more than a mile beneath the surface of the sea.

Successful tests of the new instruments, first of their kind, were reported Wednesday by the Environmental Science Services Administration.

The tests, Essa said, "are part of a long-range program which may help pave the way for habitations and engineering activities on the ocean floor."

They were carried out last May in Exuma Sound in the Bahamas, about 250 miles southeast of Miami, at a depth of 5,520 feet.

Essa and the University of Illinois cooperated in the project to develop and test devices for analyzing and load-bearing strength of deep sea bottoms.

Dr. George H. Keller of Essa's Atlantic oceanographic laboratories in Miami and Prof. Adrian F. Richards of the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign directed the operation.

Surplus Wheat Climbing Again

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department today studied the prospect of wheat surpluses climbing back towards levels which had farm surpluses a major national problem a few years ago.

Department economists said the "carryover" stockpile of surplus wheat will probably rise from 537 million bushels on July 1 this year to between 676 million and 701 million next July.

Stocks at the predicted level would be several hundred million bushels above the amount most government experts have said are needed for basic working reserves. The 676-601 million bushels stock would be the largest since 1965.

U. S. wheat surpluses, which rose to about $4 billion bushels in the early 1960's, had been shaved to $2 billion by mid-1966 through a combination of production controls and heavy exports, including food aid programs.

But a bumper 1967 crop started rebuilding the stockpile and this year's crop has been forecast, on the basis of July 1 conditions, at a record of nearly 1.6 billion bushels.

This would be enough to fill all prospective domestic and export needs with enough left over to add about 140-160 million bushels to surplus stocks.

To combat this trend, the Agriculture Department has reduced production allotments in its 1968-crop control and price support program for wheat. This follows a cut in the 1968 allotments which was more than cancelled by increases in per-acre yields.

The instruments measured the physical properties of sediments not only on the sea floor but to a depth of 10 feet beneath it.

Such tests, Essa said, are necessary if structures are to be built on the seabed to enable man to live in this environment and develop the resources which lie there.

An aluminum tower 14 feet high and eight feet wide at the base was lowered to the ocean floor from the Coast and Geodetic Survey ship Whiting. It served as a platform for probing devices.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Thursday, August 1, the 214th day of 1968 with 152 to follow.

The moon is in its first quarter.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1970 the first U.S. census was taken totaling 3,929,214 persons.

In 1907 the U.S. Air Corps was founded with an aeronautical division being set up in the Army office.

In 1946 the U.S. Atomic Commission was formed.

In 1966 Charles Joseph Whitman killed his mother and wife, then from the top of a tower at the University of Texas, fatally shot 13 other persons. The sniper wounded 32 other persons before being killed by police.

A thought for the day: George Kenna, said, "Heroism, the Caucasian mountaineers say, is endurance for one moment more."

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — With the Republican and Democratic conventions soon to get under way, it is fascinating to consider television's impact on the mid-back-room style of politics.

More and more, one gets the impression that somehow the old closed-door manner of selecting nominations is eventually doomed to extinction—chiefly because of the contrasting raw openness brought by video.

There is an unquestionable restlessness in the land over the old-school way, and it has been well-documented in countless publications and broadcasts that much of the population feels it is not getting what it really wants.

In the pre-television days, there was doubtless the same feeling, but the remoteness of the public figures and the whole process made it difficult for the mass population to get as emotionally involved in the procedure. Because of the remoteness and the accompanying lack of visual contact, one was more inclined to just trust the powers in charge.

Myth Exposed
Television has exposed this myth of assumed rightness. No longer can paraphrased statements and quotes in news stories cover up the deficiencies of public figures who for so long had been—and have been—covered up by the clamor of distance.

Now we look in the Television screen and we see the imperors without their clothes. Fools like like fools, sound like fools and act like fools. People who are not trustworthy come across precisely like that. Obvious power-seekers are immediately discernible. Politicians who lack civility, the finer qualities of manhood and contact with various generations draw immediate and deserved distrust.

Yet the old procedure hangs on. And if change is not coming tomorrow, can it be far behind? For the highly skeptical younger generation soon will be of voting age in large numbers, and its current distrust of the old system is bound to become much more pronounced and demanding. And if changes are not brought about in reasonable time, can there be much doubt that there will be serious disturbances?

Demand Democracy
The trouble with television is that it brings the democratic procedure right up close, and suddenly—of all things—people are demanding democracy in action; that is, the rights of all the people, and not just a few.

Washington Report

Bob Price
Member of Congress

An important educational bill passed by the House recently, the Vocational Education bill, was amended by the Senate and is now before a House-Senate Conference Committee, where the differences will be resolved.

The House bill brushed aside Administration proposals which amounted to little more than a few administrative changes and passed a strong and meaningful bill which should be a long step toward training the nation's disadvantaged youth in our overcrowded and crime-ridden cities as well as in isolated rural areas where trained employees would help attract industry and stop the migration of young farm people to the over-crowded cities.

The critical shortcomings of our current vocational-technical education programs can readily be seen from the report, submitted in January of this year, by the Advisory Council on Vocational Education. It shows that, while only one out of six high school graduates achieve a full college education, only one out of four high school students is enrolled in a vocational education program. In other words, approximately 60 per cent of high school students enter the work-world unprepared to hold a job.

The Administration has a large and growing profusion of manpower programs which, unfortunately, add up to a sorry record of performance, and which reveal an extraordinary lack of any sense of priorities. For example, more Federal dollars are budgeted this year for the 40,000 enrollees in the Job Corps than for the support of vocational-technical education with 7-million enrollees. In this connection, an excellent feature of the bill is the section directing the Commissioner of Education to study the means by which the existing Job Corps facilities and programs might be transferred to State or joint State-Federal operation in conjunction with the residential vocational schools program.

Enactment of the present bill will be a good start in meeting the need for a modern structure of occupational education which will satisfy the requirements on the total population in all parts of the country. We can

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—A business downturn would be politically unpalatable and would force the government to prime the pump, says Walston & Co., Inc.

"We always end up spending a lot more than we think we will—not only Uncle Sam, but state and local governments as well," the firm said.

Walston also observed that when the new president takes office next January, a prime task will be boosting employment among minority groups in our cities and "you can't do that with jellybeans."

E. F. Hutton & Co. says current worries over the fiscally restrained U.S. economy are believed to be the major deterrent in the market and the Soviet-Czech situation and the June trade deficit haven't helped matters.

Indicator Digest believes the sell-off in glamor stocks has been overdone and a rally is in prospect, but one "of a temporary nature and not the sort that can be depended on." The firm said the market outlook is for a further general decline, subject to occasional rallies, but adds that it has no technical reason to assume that we are witnessing the start of a drastic major decline.

It is a new day, and the combination of television and youth is going to help it come about sooner than is comfortable for the persons who believe that all people are equal but that some people are more equal than others.

not permit millions of young Americans to grow into adulthood without salable skills, or preparation for additional training that will be needed in a fast-changing job market. Vocational education in the Panhandle has assumed added importance in both high schools and junior colleges. The new Technical Institute planned for Amarillo Air Force Base will offer training in special and advanced skills. The vocational bill will assist such schools to expand training opportunities for vocational educators, to help modernize vocational-technical curriculums and to involve more citizens at the local, state, and Federal levels in assessing employment needs and the performance of our schools.

Coaching School Ends With Football Contest

FORT WORTH (UPI) — The Texas High School Coaches Association coaching school comes to a close tonight with what is billed as an aerial battle in the North-South football game.

The footballs should fly in the 34th annual game between the top players in Texas, but that does not necessarily mean the points will be piling up on the board.

A crowd of 35,000 persons is expected to be on hand at Texas Christian's Amon Carter Stadium for the battle that could revolve around the abilities of two men — Northern quarterback Jack Mildren of Abilene Cooper and Southern quarterback Gary Hammond of Port Arthur Jefferson.

See Open Offense
Both coaches plan to use wide open offenses. Coach Merrill Green of Abilene Cooper, in charge of the North, will run a pro-type offense to take advantage of his star pupil's passing ability.

The South probably will do a little more running than will the North, what with the ball-carrying ability of Gordon Gilder of Kountze and Miles Langhennig of Brenham.

The offensive ability is there on both teams, but all-star football games are notoriously defensive struggles and this one could be the same.

"Our defense has come along much quicker than our offense," said Green on the last day of workouts Wednesday. "But that is always the way it is in an all-star game."

"Let of Offense" Despite past history, Southern coach H. W. Wilson looks for a lot of offense.

"I really look for a high-scoring ball game," he said. "And after all, that is what people come out to see. I like it too. People want to see a good running back like Gilder run and they like to see a good passer like Hammond throw the ball. I think they will enjoy this one."

The soreness experienced by both quarterbacks during practices Tuesday was gone by Wednesday, and both were throwing fairly well by the final hard workouts Wednesday morning.

Mildren and his coach will have a special incentive in tonight's game.

It was on the same field last December that Abilene Cooper lost its bid for the state class AAAA championship by a 20-10 decision to Austin Reagan.

The man who spoiled that bid by scoring two touchdowns was John Kleinert, and Kleinert will be on the South squad in a defensive halfback position tonight.

Barry, Warriors Case Is Frozen

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Basketball's lengthy lawsuit between Rick Barry and the San Francisco Warriors went into the deep freeze today with no ruling scheduled until the end of this month.

Superior Court Judge Walter Carpeneti heard final arguments Wednesday, then said he was leaving on vacation this weekend. He added that he would decide the case by the end of the month. He is due back Aug. 26.

The Warriors, a member of the National Basketball Association, are suing to have Barry play another season for them or give them $812,000 in damages.

ADD PITCHER

CHICAGO (UPI)—Outfielder-pitcher John Ugham was brought up by the Chicago Cubs from their Tacoma farm team Wednesday.

Ugham hit .400 as an outfielder in 25 games and posted an 8-1 record in eight relief appearances for the Pacific Coast League club. Chicago optioned pitcher Darcy Fast to Tacoma to make room for Ugham.

White Sox Rally For 12-8 Triumph

By AL DALY
UPI Sports Writer

Although they're prime candidates for the team most likely to be shut out, the Chicago White Sox collected season high totals in runs and hits Wednesday night, and Tommy Davis has solved the mystery of the American League hitting drought.

Chicago scored six runs in the ninth inning, three of them on Tim Lincecum's tie-breaking double, as they thumped out 18 hits and rallied to a 12-8 triumph over the Minnesota Twins.

The Pale Hose, who have been shut out 14 times to lead the American league in that negative statistic, were trailing 8-1 after four innings. However, they peeked away and at the end of six innings have narrowed the gap to 8-6. Four relievers, Chicago's strong suit all season, held the Twins scoreless over the final five-and-a-third innings.

Changes Strategy

Davis, who blames the umpires for the low batting averages in the junior circuit, contributed three singles to up his average to .247.

"In this league the umpires call strikes that are inside and outside of the strike zone," Davis said. "At the start of the season this bothered me because I knew if I hit those balls, the only place they were going was the dugout. Now I'm not having as much trouble with them because I've learned to just guard the plate and foul them off."

Wilbur Wood, who pitched a scoreless eighth inning, was the beneficiary of the White Sox' ninth-inning uprising and upped his record to 8-5.

In other American League action Detroit blanked Washington 4-0. Baltimore downed Cleveland 4-2. New York beat Boston 7-3.

In the National League, Chicago beat Houston 6-1 in a day game. Under the lights, Cincinnati split a doubleheader with the Pirates. The Reds took the opener 8-2 and lost the nightcap 10-1, the league leading Cardinals nipped Philadelphia 3-2. Atlanta edged New York 3-2, and Los Angeles stopped San Francisco 6-3.

McLain Adds Shutout
Denny McLain spun a four-hitter as he pitched his 18th complete game 21st victory and fifth shutout. Dick McAuliffe scored all the Bengal runs with a perfect four-for-four night at the plate.

Gene Brabender hurled one-and-two-thirds innings of scoreless relief and rookie Ellie Hendricks smashed a two-run homer to give Tommy Phoebus his 11th victory against 10 defeats.

Horace Clarke's ninth-inning two-run double sparked a five-run rally as the Yankees, who were twice within one strike of defeat, rallied to overcome a 3-2 deficit. Ken Harrelson led the Red Sox' attack with an RBI single and his 25th home run of the season.

Mike Hershberger's eighth-inning three-run homer gave Jim "Catfish" Hunter his ninth victory. Hunter and Angel rookie Bill Harrelson dueled to a 1-1 tie through the first seven innings.

Another late inning rally gave the Athletics a second game victory. This time it was Ted Kubiak's ninth-inning triple that scored two runs.

Oilers Meet Redskins In Exhibition Contest

By STU CAMEN
UPI Sports Writer

Pro football moves indoors tonight when the Houston Oilers meet the Washington Redskins at the Astrodome to kick off the first weekend of exhibition play.

Also on tap tonight is a clash at Anaheim, Calif., between the Los Angeles Rams and the New Orleans Saints.

Both the Oilers and Redskins are expected to find the going a bit tricky when they take to the Astrodome's carpet-like plastic surface for their inter-division clash.

Astroturf has been known to do strange things to both man and ball, as any National League baseball club will readily testify. Football players are not expected to escape its slippery going, both tonight and during the regular American Football League season when the Astrodome will serve as the new home of the Oilers.

Beathard Leads Oilers

Houston, defending AFL Eastern Division champion, will go with No. 1 quarterback Pete Beathard, but Washington will alternate reserves Jim Ninowski and Harry Theofiles at the signal-calling spot. Sonny Jurgensen, the Redskins' starting quarterback, is recovering from an off-season operation on his elbow and is expected to miss most of the exhibition season.

The Rams will take on the Saints minus the services of holdouts David Jones and Jack Snow. Jones, an All-Pro defensive end, and Snow, the Rams' starting split end, have been placed on the reserve list to bring the club's roster down to the required 60 players.

Both Jones and Snow are demanding pay raises, even though they are both currently under multiple-year contracts.

Morris Retires

The Chicago Bears lost veteran pass-catcher Johnny Morris through retirement Wednesday, while John Gordy, the All-Pro offensive guard of the Detroit Lions, decided to postpone retirement and play another season.

Morris, 32, who set a National Football League record with 93 receptions during the 1964 season, said a recurring groin injury and failure of surgery to entirely correct a knee injury led to his decision to retire.

In addition to tonight's two games, the first weekend of exhibition play finds the Green Bay Packers meeting the College All-Stars at Chicago Friday night, Baltimore meets Ing night, Baltimore meets Oakland, Chicago plays Dallas, San Francisco tackles San Diego and Kansas City battle Cincinnati. On Monday night, Detroit plays Buffalo.

AMERICANS ACCUSED

WEIDEN, Germany (UPI)—A West German prosecutor demanded life imprisonment Wednesday for two American soldiers accused of slaying and robbing a taxi driver Dec. 17.

Pvt. Thomas Stanton Overko, 24, of Beacon, N.Y. and Larry Allen Miller, 20, of Junction City, Kan. were accused of slaying Walter Datzko, 32, in Amberg, Germany, and robbing him of $10.

Young Golfer Forced To Go Extra Holes

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI) Lanny Wadkins, a 17-year-old from Richmond, Va., had to go two extra holes Wednesday to advance in play in the 46th annual Broadmoor Men's Invitational Golf Tournament.

Wadkins, last year's medalist and runnerup in qualifying action this year, finally eked out a 1-up win after 20 holes against Chip Stewart of Dallas.

It was the toughest match in the opening round, although Tom Connell of Colorado Springs, who tied Wadkins in qualifying, also had to go an extra hole before defeating Tommy Vickers of Wichita, Kan.

Grier Jones of Wichita, Kan., the 1968 NCAA golf champion, moved into second round match play today with a 7-6 victory over William Waggoner of Denver. Medalist Tom Reed of Bloomfield, Colo., had a 2-1 win over Loy Martin of Tulsa, Okla.

Other results: Warren Simmons, Air Force Academy, def. Tim Macy, Fresno, Calif., 1-up; Rik Massengale, Austin, Tex., def. Ben Martin, Air Force Academy, 5-3; Tom Messinger, Colorado Springs, def. Richey Norville, Oklahoma City, 3-1.

Joey Dills, Muskogee, Okla., 1-up; Robert Baker, Fort Collins, Colo., def. Mel Hughes, Atlanta, 2-1; Ron Moore, Denver, def. R. B. Lau, Lincoln, Neb., 5-4.

Ted Polumbus, Denver, def. Wilbur Bartels, Kansas City, Mo., 3-1; Dr. James Liggett, Denver, def. Jack Stevens, Wichita, Kan., 5-4, and Charles Pepper, Wichita, Kan., def. Charles Fish, Hutchinson, Kan., 1-up.

Lenox Leads South Over North, 95-85

By MICHAEL RABUN
FORT WORTH (UPI) —

Early in the short week of practice before Wednesday night's Texas high school all-star basketball game, Northern coach Charley Taylor cast an eye on Joe (Scooter) Lenox working out on floor of Daniel-Meyer coliseum. As Lenox popped in another jump shot, Taylor could only shake his head and say:

"That boy learned to say 'basketball' before he learned to say 'Mama' and 'Daddy'."

Lenox showed Wednesday night he still knew the meaning of the word "basketball" before 7,032 fans.

He shot some life into a lethargic Southern offense in the third quarter to bring the South from behind to a comfortable victory. It was the sixth straight win for the South in this series and evened the game at 12 apiece.

Looked Bad

The South had done nothing for the first 20 minutes, hitting only 15 or 50 shots in the first half and getting two of its big men — Ennis Watson of A&M Consolidated and Rick Duplantis of Port Neches-Groves — in foul trouble with four each.

Then, minutes deep in the third quarter Lenox hit running, hook shot and things started to happen. He scored 15 points in that quarter and the South outscored the North 31-15 during those 10 minutes.

"When I made that shot, it really gave me a boost," said Lenox, a Clear Creek product who is a member of one of the most famous basketball families in Texas.

Perked Team Up

"It short of perked the whole team up," he said. "You get the feeling that everything is going to drop."

Lenox said he did not think there was any nervousness involved in the slow start the South got off to, but coach Jack Whitton of West Sabine disagreed.

"I guess the boys were a little nervous," he said. "I think George Price (of San Antonio Brackenridge) was a little nervous."

But Whitton said the lack of shooting ability in the first half did not bother him.

"We knew we had three real good outside shots in Price, Lenox and (George) Thomas," he said. "We knew that situation would turn around."

Lenox wound up with 24 points, Price had 19 and Thomas had 17. Tres Elankenebecker of Waxahachie, who was the main cog in the second quarter spurt that gave the North a 46-36 halftime lead, wound up with 19 points.
