Commissioners Tour Facilities

Hiring Jailers Is Questioned

Mitchell County Commissioners apparently do not believe in the necessity of some of the things they have been told to do to the local jail by the Texas Commission of Jail Standards.

Commissioners made a tour of the jail Wednesday afternoon and afterwards all expressed thoughts against some of the things they have been told to do.

"Some of these requirements are not necessary according to state law and the commission is going to have a hard time making me vote for spending these funds," said Commissioner Paul Hunter, "especially in regard to a requirement to have a jailer on the same floor with prisoners 24 hours a day and be paid the same as certified law officers."

Commissioner Johnny Shackelford said it would take a lot of pressure before he would ever hire the jailers.

Commissioner Marc Vest said, "I don't see that hiring jailers is necessary but that's what they say." He said he didn't like the idea of spending money this way but guessed it will have to be done.

Commissioner Robert Bruce did not make a comment.

Hunter added that they (the Jail Standards Commission) is going to be around every six months or so and "we need to leave something for them to find wrong."

"We've got a good jail. There's no denying you can find some things to be corrected," Hunter noted.

Before leaving the jail, the commissioners agreed to proceed with a number of improvements to the jail as required by the Jail Commission.

As the commissioners began the tour of the jail Wednesday, they were welcomed to the jail by Sheriff Bill McGuire.

The inspection was a result of the report received by the Sheriff's Department stating the jail did not meet the Texas Commission of Jail Standards.

Commissioners Robert Bruce, Johnny Shackelford, Marc Vest and Paul Hunter, accompanied by Judge Bill Carter and the news media, were directed through the different areas of the building.

Deputy Wendell Bryant assisted the Sheriff in the explanation of existing problems and possible solutions.

The correction of most of the discrepancies, it was

No Manpower, No Ambulance

Mitchell County Ambulance Service Board of Directors have spent the past week investigating the possibility of private businesses interested in taking over the ambulance service in this county.

They have contacted services in both distant and surrounding counties inquiring as to the feasibility of a private company in Mitchell County.

Several companies have expressed interest but the problem of manpower seems to be the deterring factor according to board member Johnny Shackelford.

He did note that the board had contacted one individual, who has several years experience making ambulance runs and is a trained Emergency Medical Technician, that would be interested in the service if able to solve the manpower problem.

The board is requiring anyone assuming the responsibility of the service to utilize the existing two ambulances, furnish one EMT and one other person on each emergency run and only one EMT for each regular transfer. They must also furnish fuel, tires and insurance.

The County, Hospital District and City will subsidize the service and pay major expenses on the ambulances.

Members of the board are to meet with other interested companies Monday morning.

"We have to find a solution and will keep trying until we do," Shackelford commented.

Merchants Offer Sales

Local merchants are offering special sales Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in recognition of spring, which officially begins tomorrow (Monday).

Merchants participating in the spring sale include Britton's Furniture and Accessories, Landau's, Kirschbaum's Clothiers, Ramage Appliances and Fuller Foods.

Coxes Purchase Food Service

The sale of M&T Food Service was announced Friday.

James Cox and sons, Richard and Robert, have purchased the meat processing plant featuring custom butchering. The sale is effective Monday.

The plant will now be known as Cox Quality Meats.

The sale was jointly announced by the new owners and previous owners, Jimmy Moody and Leo Thompson.

James Cox said there will not be any changes in personnel at the plant at 102 Oak Street, and no changes will be made in the operation.

The Cox family has long been active in farming. James Cox, and his wife, Marcelene, are natives of Mitchell County. Their sons, Richard and Robert, also are engaged in farming. Richard is married to the former Debbie Kelley.

Sun Oil Begins To Move

Sun Oil Company personnel are beginning to move from the Colorado City-based office to new assignments.

Although official notice of where each employee will be assigned has not been given yet, it is expected by March 31, according to a spokesperson for Sun Oil.

Bob Shamburger has been assigned to be materials manager of the Oklahoma City-based Sun Oil office. He will report to his new assignment by April 3.

J. P. Hendrix will be district manager of the Oklahoma City office and will leave this week.

Cliff Thomson is being transferred to Tulsa, Okla., to become district engineer. He leaves this week.

Within the next two weeks, Bob Stricklin will be moving to Shreveport, La., to become mechanical engineer.

A full report of the new assignments of Sun Oil personnel will be printed in the Record as soon as it is available.

CHS Band Takes UIL Sweepstakes

Colorado High's band took sweepstakes honors in the UIL Region II South Zone competition held in Hamlin Wednesday.

Competing in class AA, Colorado High was the only band to receive superior ratings in marching, concert and sightreading.

The marching competition had been previously held and the Wolves received a superior rating at that time.

Holder said that the band received a superior rating from each of the judges in the three areas of competition.

The Colorado High band also was named the Outstanding Band at the Angelo State University Homecoming parade in the fall.

Other class AA schools competing in the UIL band contest included Merkel, Abilene Wylie and Stamford.

AN ERA ended Thursday when the cooling tower was removed from the old ice house at First and Oak Streets. At one time the plant hired as many as 20 people. The cooling tower was built in about 1926 and the plant served this area during the heyday of block ice during the twenties, thirties and forties. However, with the advent of refrigerators, the days of the local ice plants across the nation were numbered. The cooling tower here was used until about 1970. Pictures above show the crane hooked up to the tower, lowering it to the ground and bottom photo shows how building now looks without the tower. The cooling structure proved to be more substantial in structure than many people thought.

Gilstrap Nabs Spelling Title

"Global" was the winning word for Billy Gilstrap as he managed to outspell his cohorts and win the Mitchell County Spelling Bee.

Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilstrap, will compete in the regional spelling bee to be held in Lubbock April 15.

Allyson Haggerton, a Middle School seventh grader, took second place. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Haggerton.

Words such as "catamaran," "discophile," "aldermanic" and "constabulary" stumped a few of the contestants, knocking them from the spelling bee.

When the competition was narrowed down to Allyson and Billy, the pair went several rounds before Billy took the first place title after spelling "gondola" correctly, a word Allyson had missed. Billy then correctly spelled "global" to become the champion.

Michelle Haggerton, Allyson's younger sister, was fourth place winner in the contest. She attends Hutchinson and is in the fourth grade.

Pronouncing the words for the contestants was George Womack. Judges included Joe Earnest, Bob Reily, Kathryn Wilson and Rita Latimer.

Farmers To Meet Tuesday

A countywide meeting for farmers and ranchers will be held at the City National Bank in the C. C. Thompson Room Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Director Don Stewart reported the meeting will be held to discuss current farm programs.

The County and Community Committees will be present to assist with the meeting.

Stewart also noted a new Emergency Conservation program is now available to livestock owners.

This is an 80 per cent program for anyone who's tank has gone dry or well has failed. The program is designed to build or enlarge stock tanks, drill water wells, build concrete storage tanks or lay pipe lines for the purpose of watering livestock.

More information on this and other programs can be obtained through the ASCS Office located in the G-Kell Building.

School To Adjourn For Easter

Easter holidays will be celebrated by Mitchell County students with a few days off from classes.

Spring break will begin tomorrow (Monday) for Colorado City students and classes will resume March 27.

Loraine students will be off from school March 27-31, not March 23-29, as was previously stated in the Record. School will resume for Loraine students April 3.

Ray Dillard
Distinguished Service Award Recipient

Dillard Is Jaycees' Choice For Award

"...Honor is but the reflection of a man's own actions shining bright in the face of all about him, and from thence rebounding upon himself..."

This year, honor was cast upon Ray Dillard as he was presented the Jaycees Distinguished Service Award at the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet held in January.

Made through the combined recommendations of other service clubs in the city, the selection this year was based on Dillard's "contribution to the community welfare during this year and during his lifetime, evidence of personal or business progress, cooperation with individuals and civic organizations and evidence of leadership ability."

Certainly Dillard's qualifications fit the bill.

Regarding his contribution to the community welfare, Dillard is a volunteer fireman and has been since his family moved to Colorado City in 1975.

He was a member of the committee to raise funds to purchase a rescue truck to be used by the fire department.

A paramedic, Dillard is trained in advanced life support procedures and is currently teaching--along with Joe Stockton--a course in emergency medical technician training at the Wallace Center.

Concerning personal and business progress, Dillard established Colorado Machine and Tool Company, located at 225 W. 3rd Street, in 1975 and his business has continued to grow from that time.

A 1960 graduate of Colorado High School, Dillard received his Bachelor of Science Degree from North Texas State University in 1965. In 1968, he earned his Master's Degree in Industrial Arts from North Texas State University.

While Dillard was working on his Master's Degree in Denton, he and his wife lived at the Cumberland Presbyterian Children's Home and served as houseparents for 12 boys.

In the operation of his business, Dillard has provided time, material and labor to many charitable and nonprofit organizations without charge, demonstrating his cooperation with individuals and civic organizations.

Dillard's leadership ability is suggested by his involvement with various organizations.

A Master Mason, he recently received his Scottish Rite Degree and Shriners Degree. He is also vice president of the Colorado City City Square Dance Club.

A deacon in the First Christian Church, Dillard is a member of the Board of Directors and has served as Sunday School Superintendent.

Dillard is also a member of the Mitchell County Gun Club and the Colorado City Bass Club.

A Colorado City native, Dillard and his wife, Anna Lee, married in 1960. They have two children--Charles Ray, 13, and Christi Lynn, 10.

Woody Anderson, the 1976 recipient of the Distinguished Service Award, presented the award at this year's Chamber Banquet.

Based on his creditials, Dillard appears to have been an appropriate choice for the honor.

Patterson, Dickson Address C-City B&PW Club Members At Tuesday Meeting

Mrs. Temple (Cathy) Dickson and Carolee Patterson of Sweetwater presented the program on "Personal Development" to the members of the Business & Professional Women's Club Tuesday, March 14 at 7 p.m.

Before opening her program, Cathy Dickson reminisced with the B&PW members of the time she had spent in Colorado City campaigning for her husband, a former state representative. Mrs. Dickson is a resource person for a Pastorial Group in Abilene.

"The key to happiness lies within ourselves," Mrs. Dickson stated. "I own all my trimphs and successes, all my failures and mistakes" and the joy and contentment comes when you decide that you are OK regardless of any of them, she added.

If you will only believe in yourself, your resources are boundless. It also goes with you must learn to love yourself and become aware of what you are experiencing emotionally and physically. This awareness is what gives you control, Mrs. Dickson stated.

Further, she urged each to "be happy with this moment, never being critical or angry with yourself." This growth will lead to self-confidence, she concluded.

The club members then listened attentively as Mrs. Patterson, a Sweetwater High School teacher of psychology, divulged the theories of Sigmund Freud and how these theories have affected her life; how one is responsible for one's own emotions and development.

"I choose my own emotions," she related. "I am answerable for my behavioral patterns, whether it be anger, the duration of that anger, joy, serenity, love or fear." Blaming others for how you feel is futile because you choose anger and unhappiness or vice-versa, she added.

When you take responsibility for your own emotions, you gain control of your life and the basics for controlling emotions is your choice to do so, she further noted.

Her closing remarks were:..."we are created in God's image, vibrant, dynamic, beautiful and unique."

Following the speakers' address, a business meeting was presided over by the president, Mildred Free. Aldred Pickens moved that Ida Kirschbaum, who joined the B&PW Feb. 19, 1932, be an Honorary Lifetime Member. The vote carried. The members voted unanimously to accept several new prospects into the club including: Donna Dye, Nelma Gandy, Mary Womack and Donna Watson.

Members attending were Mildred Boyd, Molly Bruce, Katy Byrd and guest Peggy Maddox, Margaret Ann Conaway, Virginia Dearen and guest Joan Beach, Shirley DeLaney and guest Ola Mae Johnson, Jackie Dennis, Bobbi Elwell and guest Pat Cawthorn, Mildred Free, Nelda Garrett and guest Marie Helm.

Others included Ethel Hardegree, Jean Holbert, Lee Hutchins, Etta Jones, Ida Kirschbaum, Ida Miles, Erdine Morgan, Velma Moseley and two guests Allie Ball and Elizabeth Moore of Sweetwater, Margaret Oyler, Aldred Pickens, LaRue Powell, Sallie Rogers and Juanita Schafer.

Also Nell Shackelford, Rochelle Smith, Faye Spivey, Thelma Tidwell, Fern Thompson, Neva Turner and two guests Donna Dye and Nelma Gandy and the two guest speakers: Cathy Dickson and Carolee Patterson.

THE MAN WHO CHANGED OUR WORLD

Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt
Pastor
First Baptist Church

The last week of our Lord's earthly life has been known through the centuries as Passion Week. These terms come from Luke's words: "To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs" (Acts 1:3). Passion Week speaks of the deep suffering of the Saviour from the night of the Last Supper to His death on the cross. It speaks of the events that led to the crucifixion. The poet, Isaac Watts, urges us to "survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died." This is a time to think of the man who changed our world!

Have you ever taken the time to think through the fact that at His birth, Christ actually was made man? The miracle can never be fully understood. But, the Holy Spirit laid hold of deity and humanity and fused our Lord's two natures together. It is astounding! The everlasting One was born and died. Deity was given name, rank and serial number. Or more; "...God was manifest in the flesh" (I Timothy 3:16).

Throughout His ministry Jesus showed us graphically how God reacts to mankind. He showed the compassion of God for the sick. He showed the concern of God for the hungry. He showed the love of God for the sinner. He showed the mercy of God for the helpless.

It is, however, in the death and the resurrection of Jesus that our thoughts center during the week of Passion. A sense of awe fills me as I think about our Lord praying in the garden of Gethsemane, ajudicated in the so called halls of justice, and sacrificed at Mount Calvary. Man did not take His life. He willingly gave it for us. He said: "I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine...and I lay down my life for my sheep" (John 10:14, 15). The One who died, rose again and is alive forevermore is none other than the Son of God who became the Son of Man that, through His cross, sons of men might become sons of God!

I hope that during this week of passion you will meditate about Him. I hope you will feel the same awe as you mentally walk with Him from Bethany over the dusty road into Jerusalem, on to the garden of prayer, into Pilate's judgment hall, up Golgotha, and finally into the glorious triumph of that resurrection morning.

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

"The First Easter" Presented Monday

Frances Godwin presented the program on "The First Easter" at the Monday meeting of the Agape Circle at the First United Methodist Church parlor at 7 p.m.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Marie Helm followed by a short business session presided over by the president, Della Fox. Betsy Davis gave the secretary's report and Nelda Garrett presented the treasurer's report.

To begin the program, Mrs. Godwin was joined by Marie Helm in singing a duet of Ten Thousand Angels. Scripture was then read from the 27th and 28th chapters of Matthew.

Mrs. Godwin read stories of the Crucifixion and Ressurection of Jesus from a book written by Peter Marshall.

Hostesses for this meeting, Della Fox, Mildred Morgan and Wilma Reynolds, served refreshments to the following members: Mrs. Dewey Davis, Mrs. Lucretia Small, Mrs. E. M. Fisher, Mrs. Jewell Richter, Miss Nelda Garrett, Mrs. L. B. Elliott, Mrs. Charles Godwin, Mrs. Tom Glover, Mrs. Ethel Hardegree, Mrs. Arnel Smith and one visitor, Miss Marie Helm.

Conservation Essay Winners Announced

Jimmy Harrison, chairman of the Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors has announced the winners of the district's 1977 conservation essay contest.

The first place winner was John Boyd; second place, Tony Truelove; and Shelia Martin, third place. The first place winner will receive $20, 2nd place $15 and $10 for third place. Trophies will also be awarded to the winners.

Harrison stated that there were a large number of entries this year and he wished to thank the students and teachers on behalf of the directors for their participation. Harrison said the directors had a difficult time in selecting the top three winners as a number of them were outstanding. He also said that plans are being made to present the awards.

Charles Thompson Inducted Into Texas Academy Of Honor In Agricultural Credit

Charles C. Thompson was inducted into the Texas Academy of Honor in Agricultural Credit on March 10, at the annual stockholders meeting of The Federal Land Bank of Houston held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Houston.

The Texas Academy of Honor in Agricultural Credit was founded in 1968 by the Farm Credit Banks of Houston to honor individuals who have made a significant and lasting contribution to agricultural credit.

Thompson, a prominent banker, attorney, farmer and rancher, served on the Farm Credit Board of Houston 34 years, 26 of which he served as chairman, longer than any person in the United States.

In the Citation read by Joe Harper, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Haskell, Thompson's service and leadership to the Farm Credit System, not only statewide but nationally, were recognized.

Also recognized was his 50 years of distinguished service as an association director, manager of an association, and member of the Board of Directors of the Farm Credit Banks of Houston.

A Medallion was presented to Thompson by C. R. Duran of Henderson, present Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Farm Credit Banks of Houston.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH by Russ Arnold

JEST FOR LAUGHS by PAUL FUNG JR.

A boy was practicing on his violin. A dog outside his window started howling. The boys father came into the room and pleaded, "For goodness sakes, son, play something the dog doesn't know!"

James McNeill Whistler, the great portrait painter, came home one day and found his mother on her knees scrubbing the floor. "Mother," exclaimed Whistler, "you're off your rocker."

A museum guide was finishing a tour: "And here, ladies and gentlemen, at the close, is this magnificent Greek statue. Note the noble way in which the neck supports the head, and the splendid curve of her shoulders. Also notice the natural way in which the opened hand is stretched out as if to emphasize, 'Don't forget to tip the guide.'"

The wife asks: "Is it true that money talks?" "That's correct," stated her husband. "Well," she said, "leave a little here to talk to me today. I get so lonely."

America unquestionably has the highest standard of living in the world. Too bad we can't afford it.

A typical American is a fellow who has just driven home from from an Italian movie in his German car, sits on Danish furniture, drinking Brazilian coffee out of an English china cup, writing on Irish linen paper with a Japanese ball-point pen, complaining to his congressman about too much American gold going overseas.

Tis true. Sign in a Hong Kong used car lot: "We pay highest prices for cars we buy. We get lowest prices for cars we sell. How we stay in business? We lucky.

Sherri Long, James Boyer Exchange Double Ring Wedding Vows Saturday

The chapel of the First United Methodist Church was the setting for the Saturday evening-March 11 wedding uniting Miss Sherri Long and Marshall James Boyer in marriage. The Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mary Ellen Beasley of Colorado City and Thomas Bob Long of Loraine and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall James Boyer of Las Cruces, N.M.

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged before an altar flanked by two hurricane candelabrum accented with yellow bows and greenery. On the center of the altar was an arrangement of yellow gladiolas, daisies, and mixed flowers in the bride's chosen colors. Yellow bows marked the family pews.

The bride was presented in marriage by her uncle, Billy J. Long of Brownfield. She was attired in a floor length gown of crystal sheer fabric accented with peau d'ange lace on the high-rise neckline. A repeat of lace on the ruffle marked the hemline of the gown and chapel train.

Mrs. Marshall Boyer
...the former Miss Sherri Long

For the traditional something old the bride wore a penny in her garter; something new was her shoes; something borrowed was a pair of gold earrings belonging to her sister Lori; and something blue was her garter.

Mrs. K. L. Taylor of Loraine, aunt of the bride, provided wedding music on the organ and accompanied soloist Laurie Hutson of Lubbock as she sang "Wedding Song," and "More." Mrs. Taylor played the selection "Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Sue Fuller, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Maid of honor was Lori Long of Colorado City, also sister of the bride. Both were attired in yellow floor length dresses with sheer white capes sprinkled with daisies. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies and baby's breath and wore hairpieces of yellow daisies to compliment their outfits.

Miss Marina Boyer, sister of the groom and Miss Penny Laws lighted the candles. They were dressed in gowns of blue, patterned after the bride's attendants' dresses.

Best man was Randy Boyer, brother of the groom. Groomsmen was Danny Fuller, brother-in-law of the bride.

The wedding reception was held in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church. A floral arrangement of yellow gladiolas and daisies accented the bride's table. Serving the cake and punch were Mrs. Kay Willingham and Miss Debbie Farrell. Mrs. Anita Graham registered wedding guests.

For the couple's wedding trip to Odessa, the bride chose a pale green pantsuit with plaid vest, coat and pink blouse. Upon return, the couple will live in Las Cruces where the groom is employed by Burrico Construction Co. The bride plans to teach elementary school there.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Tech University.

Rose Circle Meets In Hughey Home

The Rose Circle of the First United Methodist Church met for their regular monthly meeting on March 6 in the home of Linda Hughey at 7:30 p.m. The meeting was opened with a surprise baby shower for Sandy Schaffer.

After the gifts from the members were opened refreshments of cake, punch, nuts and mints were served.

The business meeting was opened by vice chairman Faye Welch and the group entered into a period of sharing concerns. Afterward the secretary and treasurer read their reports. Tricia Aston gave a report on certain needy families that could be considered for a project. It was also reported that next month the group will go bowling in Big Spring and everyone voted to eat at La Posada before bowling.

A moving program entitled "The Giving Tree" was given by Mac Perkin and Libby Ford and it was enjoyed by all. Libby Ford closed the meeting with prayer.

JIM SNOWDEN

Jim Snowden Has Statement For Voters

Jim Snowden of Tye, Democratic candidate for U.S. Representative, District 17, has authorized this newspaper to publish his statement to the voters as follows:

• • •

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 17th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

Basically, I believe that government should be the embodiment of equality and not an instrument through which special and individual advantage can be gained.

I believe our government is determined to pauperize a segment of our society through maladministration of welfare programs.

I believe in the supreme worth of the individual and his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; that the government is the servant of the people and not their master.

I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand, that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

I believe that thrift is essential to well-ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring nation.

I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character-not wealthier or power or position - is of supreme worth.

I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and-that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

I believe in the all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individuals highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with his will.

I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might.

Sincerely yours,
Jim Snowden

"Conversations On Carpeting"

By Fred Butts

INDOORS OR OUT

Last time I talked about nylon,one of the marvelous synthetics that have brought exciting changes to carpeting in recent years. Maybe after hearing about the great strength and wearability of nylon,you decided,"Thats the one for me." But don't be too hasty. There are a number of other marvelous synthetics that have appealing propertities of their very own-special properties that you'll want to know more about.

Take Polypropylene for example. Polypropylene, also known by its generic name Olefin, is the fiber most often used in indoor/outdoor carpeting. As you can probably guess, Olefin is wonderfully weather-proof. Its non-absorbant qualities actually resist moisture. Carpeting made of this all-weather fiber offers a minimum amount of static, so dirt and dust don't cling to the carpet surface.

Olefin's moisture resistant properties are equally at home outdoors under the stars, or indoors by the kitchen sink. That's why it's also a popular fiber for making kitchen carpeting.Olefin is highly resistant to stains. Spilled milk and other liquids can be wiped up with a damp cloth.

Whether you're thinking of beautifying your patio or redoing your kitchen, why not look into carpeting made of Olefin? And whenever you're considering carpeting of any kind, always think of

If you grow sorghum on sandy soils, it's time you tried Igran.

Because Igran® is the sorghum herbicide that really fits the sandy soil conditions in the South High Plains and South Rolling Plains.

And because it fits, Igran is easier to use. There's no guesswork or experimenting with rates. Just follow the label directions.

Then watch your sorghum come through clean and healthy. Because Igran controls those tough broadleaf weeds like carelessweed and annual morningglory. Controls them early, before they have a chance to rob your crop of vital soil moisture and nutrients.

Igran. Once you try it, you'll keep on using it. Because now you've got a sorghum herbicide that really fits your sandy soil conditions.

They also got 15 nice sized crappie weighing up to 1 lb. on minnors and 1 bass. Leroy Holiman of Odessa caught 18 crappie on minnows up to 1 lb. Mae Loller from Big Spring caught 20 nice channel cat on liver and minnows.

Chamber Basketball Tournament Planned

The sports committee of the Chamber of Commerce is in the process of forming a church league basketball tournament involving teams from area towns.

According to Jerry Putman, Chamber president, "We're shooting for March 31 as the beginning date of the tournament."

So far, out-of-town teams which have agreed to play in the tournament include First Christian Church of Big Spring, Midway Baptist of Big Spring and First Baptist of Roscoe.

Putman noted that some of the teams which participated in the local church league competition, which ended March 13 when Westbrook Baptist took the first place title, will be playing in the chamber tournament.

Putman said that persons wishing to participate in the Chamber sponsored church league tournament should contact Ken Godsey, Don DeLaney, Ed Newton, Bobby Nobles, Bill McGuire, Bob Grayson or Putman.

National Wildlife Week Is Slated March 19-25

"Wildlife Needs You" is the theme of the 1978 National Wildlife Week March 19-25.

The conservation endeavor is sponsored by the National Wildlife Foundation with the help of the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas, Inc.

C. W. Cox, range conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service at Colorado City, said his agency is cooperating with the observance by offering publications about wildlife to interested people.

"All of us in Soil Conservation Service have a keen appreciation of wildlife," Cox said. "Wildlife provides aesthetic, environmental, economic, and other benefits. Because wildlife requires food, cover and water, the best way to help is to provide adequate habitat."

Most farms and ranches, are inhabited by wildlife. This land provides hunting, fishing, trapping and other values inherent in a well-balanced landscape. Farmers and ranchers play a key role in maintaining wildlife populations, Cox noted.

The following publications can be obtained from the SCS office: Invite Birds to Your Home; Catfish Farming; Warm-Water Fishponds; Rural Recreation Enterprises For Profit-An Aid To Rural Areas Development of Recreation and Wildlife and others.

A small staff of biologists trained in wildlife and fisheries can be called on through SCS to help landowners improve their wildlife habitat. Anyone wanting this type of help should contact the local SCS office at the G-Kell Building.

The Colorado City team took the win 15,3, 15-3.

Arsonists Are Burning Everyone

Arson today accounts for more than 40% of all property losses from fire. This destruction amounts to over four billion dollars a year. And arson cases are rising by about 12% annually.

These fires are set for many reasons, but primarily to collect on the insurance.

The insurance companies, with the cooperation of the police and fire departments, are doing everything they can to take the profit out of arson. And a National Fire Prevention and Control Administration now has been set up by the federal government.

Despite these efforts, more insurance dollars are being paid out for crooked fire losses. So premiums have to go up to cover them.

Insurance, after all, is simply a means of spreading risk. Insurance companies collect premiums from many people and compensate the few who have losses.

The price of insurance must reflect to costs of paying for those losses and the expenses of handling them.

No one likes higher prices. But we're telling it straight.

noted to the commissioners by McGuire, will require the services of a welder.

The list of problem areas included the need to cut holes in existing bars allowing the passage of food now ushered under the door.

Unbreakable light fixtures to prevent vandalism, air vents, improper floor drainage and door stops were on the list.

Bryant explained the reasoning behind the required door stops to be the result of a jailer in some other district receiving two broken fingers from a slammed door.

He went on to explain the covers for the drains and covers for the lights were difficult to find but the department was making inquiries and would hopefully locate something suitable.

The air vents or fans to remove fumes were a bit more difficult, however, McGuire explained, "We are looking into the possibility of installing units in the ceiling."

The commissioners moved down the hall to the detoxification cell or drunk tank, another area out of compliance.

McGuire explained that the persons placed in this area were usually violent therefore the requirement to place padding on the walls. Currently only a mattress is in the cell which is totally enclosed by steel walls.

On the second floor the commissioners were led into the lock-up area. This consists of a cell block surrounded by a walkway. This area can be totally secured by remote controlled sliding steel doors.

McGuire pointed out the bunks to be removed from each cell, according to regulations, in order to comply with the necessary living space per inmate. He also noted the requirements to place safety glass mirrors, drain covers, a shelf and proper lighting covers in each cell.

A drinking fountain must be placed in the kitchen area and a set of wooden shelves must be replaced with metal ones he noted.

At this point in the inspection, Hunter pointed out the steel mesh grates covering the push out windows. "This is what they are going to require other jails in the state to install," he commented.

Two inmates were cleaning the kitchen area during the inspection. "These men will be required to have health cards in the future," according to the Texas Standards," McGuire noted. He added these two men would be leaving the jail before long having completed their sentences.

The State inspection indicated each cell would be required to have a method of audible communication between inmates and custodial personnel at all times. The Sheriff pointed out to the commissioners it would be possible to install an intercom system between the cells and the dispatchers' desk.

"This roof is concrete reinforced according to the original design," McGuire noted as he led the commissioners down a walkway behind the cells and indicated the roof on the north side of the building. "It was designed to allow for expansion of the jail facilities," stated the Sheriff, "when the building was built."

The State Inspection required all inmates be allowed one hour of physical exercise at least three times per week in a secured area.

McGuire pointed out the roof could be enclosed with an eight foot fence with two feet of barbed wire on top to allow an outside exercise area.

He also noted that the door made to allow exit to the exercise area would comply with the state's requirements for two exits on each floor. There is only one exit now.

Bryant informed the commissioners that 19 coverall uniforms had been ordered to cover the requirement that clothing be provided and laundered once eack week. He also stated that additional bedding would be necessary to allow all linens to be washed once each week as per the state report.

When the tour was completed the Sheriff reminded the Commissioners of another requirement the state had insisted be complied with (that being the positioning of a jailer on each floor of the jail, 24 hours a day).

The commissioners noted this item and indicated they felt it would take four men to meet those requirements.

They were unanimous in their opinion that things which could be corrected easily should be started at once. They did suggest careful consideration of the plumbing, air vents, communications system, exercise area and additional jailers.

Hunter commented "We want to be certain that what improvements we do make will bring us up to standard and not be a wasted effort."

Hubenak Runs For Ag Office

"I'd like to challenge Reagan Brown to a debate," said Joe Hubenak, candidate for Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, at a press conference held Thursday in Colorado City.

"I'd like to see Brown tell the people what he's done," Hubenak said, noting that Brown had not been involved with the recent farm bill although he is the current Texas Commissioner of Agriculture.

Hubenak noted that the major issues facing Texas agriculture today include:

--A need for qualified agricultural leaders.

--A need for additional agricultural research.

--Taxation of agricultural land on production.

--Increased markets, especially domestic, but including foreign.

--Availablity of adequate farm credit.

Alternate sources of energy for agricultural use was one of the issues Hubenak stated Texas was facing in the future. He said a federal farm bill addressing the issues and needs of agriculture--"one that will work for farmers and ranchers and not against them"--was necessary in the future.

"We don't have a problem with overproduction," Hubenak said, "but poor distribution--the government took away the market."

Hubenak suggested that legislation was necessary to rule on imports to insure the American farmer and rancher of a good market.

A state representative since 1968, Hubenak has been chairman of the house agriculture and livestock committee for six years.

Hubenak owns an accounting firm and is a farmer and rancher for the retention of family farms.

Hubenak and his wife, Sandra, have three children and live in Rosenburg.

Kindergarten Registration Is Wednesday

Wednesday pre-registration for Loraine kindergarten for next school year will be held.

Registration will be held from 8 a.m.-11:30 a.m. at Loraine School.

According to Principal Mike Hartman, parents should have their children at the school by 8 a.m. and return to pick them up at 11:30 a.m.

Children will tour the school and will eat lunch in the cafeteria.

Hartman said that the purpose of the pre-registration program is to "familiarize children with the school."

Children who will be five years old by Sept. 1 are eligible for the kindergarten class.
