ARCHER DEVELOPS SENSATION

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR GATHER HERE FOR COMMANDERY MEET

Seven Hundred and Fifty Visitors in Wichita Falls for Grand Conclave of Masonic Body.

By A. B. GRIFFING

With 380 visiting Knights Templar registered, according to the report of R. E. Shepherd, in charge of the registration booth at the Kemp hotel, and another hundred from Fort Worth who failed to register, already in the city and each incoming train bringing in additional delegations of Sir Knights, C. R. Hartsook, Tuesday night estimated that the total of visitors here for the grand conclave, Knights Templar would pass the 750 mark before assembly for the parade, at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Arrangements Go Through

Arrangements made for the entertainment and care of visiting Knights Templar went through without a hitch Tuesday, and although hotels were at an early hour Wednesday beginning to report their establishments crowded to capacity, not a single visitor, so far as known, was given the slightest embarrassment in obtaining a lodging place.

Reception committees from the local commandery met all trains and automobiles, placed at the service of visiting Sir Knights, by local masons transported practically all to their hotels and to all other places they wished to go.

The perfection with which all arrangements went through, occasioned considerable favorable comment and praise for the local Knights Templar and the other Masonic bodies of the city, who co-operated in the arrangements for the conclave.

Prominent Oklahoma Masons

Prominent among out-of-town visitors who registered Wednesday, was a delegation of thirty Knights Templar from Oklahoma, among whom were:

C. S. Highsmith of Altus, Okla., past grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Oklahoma.

J. Angus Gillis of Frederick, Okla. past grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Oklahoma.

B. M. Wooldridge of Altus, Okla., member of the visiting delegation of Oklahoma Sir Knights reported the only mishap of the day, in the loss of his suit case, containing his uniform, saber and plumed hat.

His suit case had Headrick, Okla., inscribed as his address, he said and asked that any one finding it report

IRELAND POLICIES APPROVED

Province Governor General Commended for Work in Erin Isle.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 19.—The British government approves fully the general policy of the military governors in Ireland, it was declared in the house of commons today by Austen Chamberlain, the government leader. Asked whether a policy existed or official reprisals by the crown forces in Ireland, Mr. Chamberlain replied.

"It is within the discretion of the military governors in the martial law area to direct the carrying out of punishment on the districts in which outrages have been committed. The imposition and collection of fines is a legitimate and recognized feature of martial law, but as far as my information goes, the occasion on which such fines are imposed are very few. The general policy pursued by the military governors in Ireland has the full approval of the government."

SECRETARY HUGHES URGES RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Rigid restriction of immigration was recommended here today by Secretary Hughes in official documents transmitted to congress.

They were interpreted by house and senate leaders as reflecting increased need for immediate passage of the immigration bill, reported today by the house committee, limiting admission of aliens for 14 months, beginning next May 10, to three per cent of each nationality resident in the United States in 1910.

Debate in the house will begin tomorrow under special rule.

MEXICAN REBELS ACTIVE

Bandits Hold Up Train Between Chihuahua and Juarez, Robbing All.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Tex., April 19.—A Mexican National train from Mexico City due here at 12:55 this afternoon was held up at Suzac, 300 kilometers south of Juarez some time early this morning. Meager reports received by the Juarez police were to the effect that the holdup was perpetrated by a band headed by Nicolas Rodrigues, a former Villa general. A report that Enrique Creel, former ambassador to the United States and his brother-in-law, Alberto Terrazas, were among those robbed could not be confirmed.

At military headquarters, it was said the wires had been cut and no particulars from the holdup had been received. General Escobar, in command of the troops in the state of Chihuahua promised an official statement when communication was restored. A company of infantry and a troop of cavalry left for Suzac this afternoon.

NORTH AND SOUTH AMERICA JOIN HANDS AS HARDING UNVEILS BOLIVIAN HERO'S EQUESTRIAN STATUE IN NEW YORK

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Republics of North and South America joined hands across the Caribean today in two notably historical events commemorating their heroes who showed each continent the road to liberty.

Amid the roar of cannon and the plaudits of a distinguished gathering, President Harding, at the Bronze Equestrian statue of Simon Bolivar, unveiled in Central Park, New York, proclaimed anew the fundamentals of the Monroe doctrine and cited the desirability of standing firmly together for service both to the new, and the old world.

Simultaneously in Caracas, Venezuela's capital, President-elect Gomez and the people of Bolivar's native land, gathered around the statue of George Washington, which was unveiled with appropriate exercises in Washington Park, a new site to which it had been transferred.

"President Harding's brief visit to New York gave the public its first opportunity to greet him as president. From the moment of his arrival until his departure three and a half hours later, crowds waited and cheered cordially. He was generously applauded when he declared the United States is ready to fight in upholding the Monroe doctrine.

"The history of the generations since the doctrine was proposed," he said, "has moved that we never intended it selfishly, that we had no dream of exploitation. On the other hand, the history of the last decade certainly must have convinced all the world that we stand willing to fight, if necessary, to protect these continents, these sturdy young democracies, from oppression."

The president's arrival at Bolivar Hill was signalized by a salute of 21 guns. After he had been escorted to the stand, facing the statue, followed by Secretary of State Hughes, R. E. Viviani, envoy extraordinary from France Governor Miller, Mayor Hylan, Dr. E. Gil-Borges, Venezuelan foreign minister and host of Latin-American diplomats and representatives of patriotic societies of both continents, the ceremonies began promptly.

Recommendations to Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—Recommendation of laws to permit an air mail route between Chicago and St. Louis was made to congress today with President Harding's approval.

The report also emphasized need of a far-sighted policy in the development of both commercial and war aviation.

The report was compiled at the request of President Harding by the advisory committee for aeronautics.

Other recommendations which the president said had his approval, included retention by the army and navy of separate control of their own air services; the encouragement of the invention of new air craft; the maintenance of a peace-time nucleus of trained aviators and modern type planes for a war emergency and the expansion of the air mail service.

To encourage commercial aviation, the committee recommended the establishment of a bureau of aeronautics in the department of commerce.

The report said it was the pressing duty of the federal government to regulate aviation to prevent confusion growing out of conflict in state legislation.

An appropriation of $2,000,000 to be available during the next two years was recommended to enable the war department to carry forward its program of air routes.

The committee said that while the postoffice department already had authority to establish an air mail route between New York and San Francisco there was a question whether existing law permitted the department to establish additional routes.

"It is recommended," the report continued "that legislation be enacted which will definitely authorize the postoffice department to establish air mail routes between Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul and between Chicago and St. Louis and such other routes as the postmaster general may determine as the need for them arises."

TEXHOMA'S TAYLOR NO. 1 FLOWS 300

Well, Cleaned Out, Increases Production from 50 to 300 Barrels Daily on 1,330-Foot Sand.

Section Given 'Double Importance by New Development, Showing Good Yield From Two Depths.

Tuesday morning developed a new sensation in the new Texhoma, Archer county field, when the Texhoma's No. 1 Taylor, started flowing at the rate of between 200 and 300 barrels, from the 1330-foot sand.

The well which had been making around 50 barrels, was cleaned out Monday night, and drilled a little deeper.

Its remarkable performance is arousing almost as much interest as the discovery well occasioned.

It gives this section a double importance, with two rich shallow sands already opened up.

Casing is to be reset in the Texhoma's No. 2 Gose, also on this 1330-foot sand, and the Lee Bass well, the third to get this shallow sand, has not set casing, acording to Tuesday's reports from the field.

New Test on Sand

Couch and Winfrey's No. 1 Nat Henderson, 2,500 feet northwest of the Texhoma's discovery well, is on the sand at the shallow 1300-foot depth, according to Tuesday afternoon reports from the field. Preparations are being made to test out the sand immediately.

This is the fourth well to get this shallow sand within a week's time.

Interest Is Keen

A considerable increase in leasing activity, reminiscent of the sensational developments in other pools of the district, has been stimulated by the developments in the opening up of the new sand and the increased production in the discovery well.

Acreage and royalty sales of considerable importance are reported, and the prices are reported on the increase.

New drilling operations are also forecast by the successes of the first of the week.

COLOMBIAN TREATY RATIFICATION IS EXPECTED TODAY

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Ratification, with votes to spare, was the forecast of administration leaders in the senate on the eve of tomorrow's vote on the long pending Colombian treaty. Opponents of ratification for the most part tonight conceded defeat in their efforts to bring about the rejection of the $25,000,000 pact.

Polls taken by advocates of ratification were said to show that approximately 40 Republicans and 30 Democrats would vote in favor of the treaty.

This would be half dozen more than the necessary two-thirds.

PAUL REVERE RIDES AGAIN NEAR BOSTON

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, April 19.—Splashed with mud from hat to spurs, riding again to Lexington, "Paul Revere," and "William Dawes" revived in Middlesex county memories of the historic events that preceded the "shot that was heard around the world" 146 years ago. The rides of these latter day couriers was one of the picturesque features of the Patriots' Day celebration.

The horsemen departed from Boston sped by the cheers of thousands.

They slackened pace only at points where history said Revere and his fellow rider Dawes had halted to give the alarm that the British troops were on the march.

Wherever the two drew rein, celebrations had been arranged. The observance had its climax on the green at Lexington where sturdy minute men gathered in the early hours of April 19, 1775.

Pros Now Seek To Make Canada Dry as Sahara

TORONTO, April 19.—Placing the majority vote for "bone dry prohibition in Ontario yesterday at 200,000 the Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant, secretary of the Ontario Referendum committee today announced immediate steps toward procuring measures against the manufacture of intoxicating liquors in the entire dominion. He predicted the manufacture, sale or importation of liquor would be prohibited throughout Canada within five years.

As a result of yesterday's vote, six provinces—Alberta, Nova Scotia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Prince Edward Island and Ontario—are now dry and government control of liquor is in effect in Quebec and British Columbia. New Brunswick and Yukon will hold a referendum during the year.

The dry legislation affecting Ontario will be effected in about three months.

Disorders in Rome Continue, Papers Reports

By Associated Press.

ROME, April 19.—Distressing details of a battle between fascisti and the communists at Fiano are reported today by the Giornale d'Italia, which says that the communist villagers attacked fascisti motor lorries there with rifles, revolvers, spades, hoes and sickles.

One of the chauffeurs, named Rossi who abandoned his car when it collided with a tree, was beheaded by the crowd, says the newspaper, and others of the fascisti were mutilated, the women urging the men on. Particulars of the incidents were given by one of the fascisti who feigned death and later was rescued by the carabineers.

Three republican were assassinated at the communist hall held last night at Civitella di Romagna, near Bologna, to which the victims had been invited. When the dance was well in progress cries of "Republicans and fascisti are all the same to us" were sent up, and the victims were then beaten to death.

Cowboys and cowgirls who will take part in the Round-Up which will be staged at the ball park April 28, 29, 30 are beginning to arrive in force, Monday arrivals including Hugh Strickland of Fort Worth, Tex., who won the bronc riding events at Cheyene, Wyo., in 1916 and again in 1920; Mable Strickland, world's champion cowgirl relay rider, who piloted the fastest string of thoroughbred relay racers to the wire at the Pendleton (Ore.) Round-Up last September; Ike Armstrong of Cheyenne, Wyo., bronc rider and calf roper; Roy Quick of Casper, Wyo., calf roper and bulldogger; Yakima Canutt, Canadia champion bronc rider; Bud Timmons of Denver, Colo., wild steer and bareback bronc rider; Jack Brown of Lusk, Wyo., calf roper and bronc rider; Bonnie McCarroll of Boise, Ida., cowgirl bronc and steer rider, and Frank McCarroll, the cowboy wrestler, who is one of the fastest bulldoggers in the entire country ad who will make a strong bid for the crown worn by Champion Jim Massey in the bulldogging event of the Round-Up here.

There has never been a contest staged in this state, according to the information given out at Round-Up headquarters, where contestants have begun gathering in so large numbers 10 days before the opening of the contest, and it is said that this fact denotes the importance of the contest in the eyes of the contestants. They are here getting ready for the event, each entrant taking daily training in order to keep their condition right until the opening of the contest.

The advance sale, which opened Tuesday at Miller's drug store, Kemp hotel cigar stand and the City National bank building cigar stand started with a rush that indicates that all boxes for the season will be sold by Saturday night.

CARTER GETS FOUR CASINGS FOR AUTOMOBILE

Nick Carter, publicity director of the Chamber of Commerce, has four brand new tires on his Buick roadster, part of the expense of which was born by an insurance company and part by himself (alas). The reason—some automobile driving hi-jacker needed four casings and proceeded to steal Carter's machine Monday night, leaving it near the Riverside cemetery minus the aforesaid tires.

Nick, or C. F., as he is sometimes called by bank presidents and senators, says his feelings are hurt because they left his car so close to the cemetery because some people might think his car was a dead one.

GRAHAM PLANS FOR RECEPTION ARE COMPLETE

Final arrangements for the reception of the excursionists at Graham next Friday were perfected by the main committee of the Chamber of Commerce there at a meeting held Tuesday morning, according to advices from that place. A committee of four, consisting of H. D. Hemphill, formerly with the City National Bank of Commerce here, and A. W. Kay and two others were appointed by the president of the Graham chamber to meet the train at Newcastle and distribute ribbons and tickets admitting the visitors to a banquet.

From the time the committee meets the excursionists in Newcastle, the Graham citizenship will have charge of the entertainment features. While the members of other chambers of commerce in Young county will be the guests of the Graham body on this day, it was announced that Graham expects every town in Young county to assist in entertaining the visitors in honor of completing the Wichita Falls & Southern extension.

Telegrams were sent by the Graham chamber Tuesday to all of the towns in Young county and to this city extending an official welcome. Programs are being mailed out also by this body.

From the plans formulated by the Graham chamber the program will start with a luncheon served to the visitors upon the arrival of the train about 12:30 p. m.

Speeches at the courthouse square by Graham citizens and local people will follow, after which the visitors will be free to visit Graham stores. Then will come the baseball game between the Wichita Falls Elks' team and the "Hi-Jackers," Graham's entry in the Texas-Oklahoma league.

The schedule of the special train which will consist of about 10 cars is as follows:

Leave Wichita Falls 8 a. m.
Arrive Archer City 9.15 a. m.
Leave Archer City 9:30 a. m.
Arrive Olney 10:30 a. m.
Leave Olney 10:45 a. m.
Arrive Newcastle 11:05 a. m.
Leave Newcastle 11:25.
Arrive Graham 12:05 p. m.
Returning leave Graham 5 p. m.
Arrive Wichita Falls 9:30 p. m.

Decatur Banker Throws His Hat In Senate Race

State Senator Guinn Williams, one of the two avowed candidates to succeed Congressman Lucian Parrish, candidate for the senate, was a visitor here Tuesday meeting friends and in a way taking inventory of the local situation preparatory to the beginning of the congressional campaign next January.

"I like politics," declared Senator Williams, who lives at Decatur, and who is an active vice president of the First National Bank of that place.

"It might seem unusual to see a business man in politics, but I have reached that state of life when I don't have to bother about my private business, and I am very much interested in public matters." Questioned as to the probable lineup in next years race, he said that he didn't know, except that he knew "who the other fellow's opponent will be."

First Senate Term

Senator Williams is serving his first term in the state senate, having been elected without opposition a year ago from the district composed of Montague, Denton and Wise counties.

This is his first political experience other than a four year term he served his home county as county clerk beginning 22 years ago.

Since that time he has been a banker and stock man—before that he was a farmer, having been a resident of the county for 34 years.

In the senate he was a hard fighter for redistricting to give West Texas a fair representation in the legislature, and expects to fight again for this in the special session. Incidentally he was chairman of the penitentiary investigating committee, which has resulted in certain resignations from the penitentiary board.

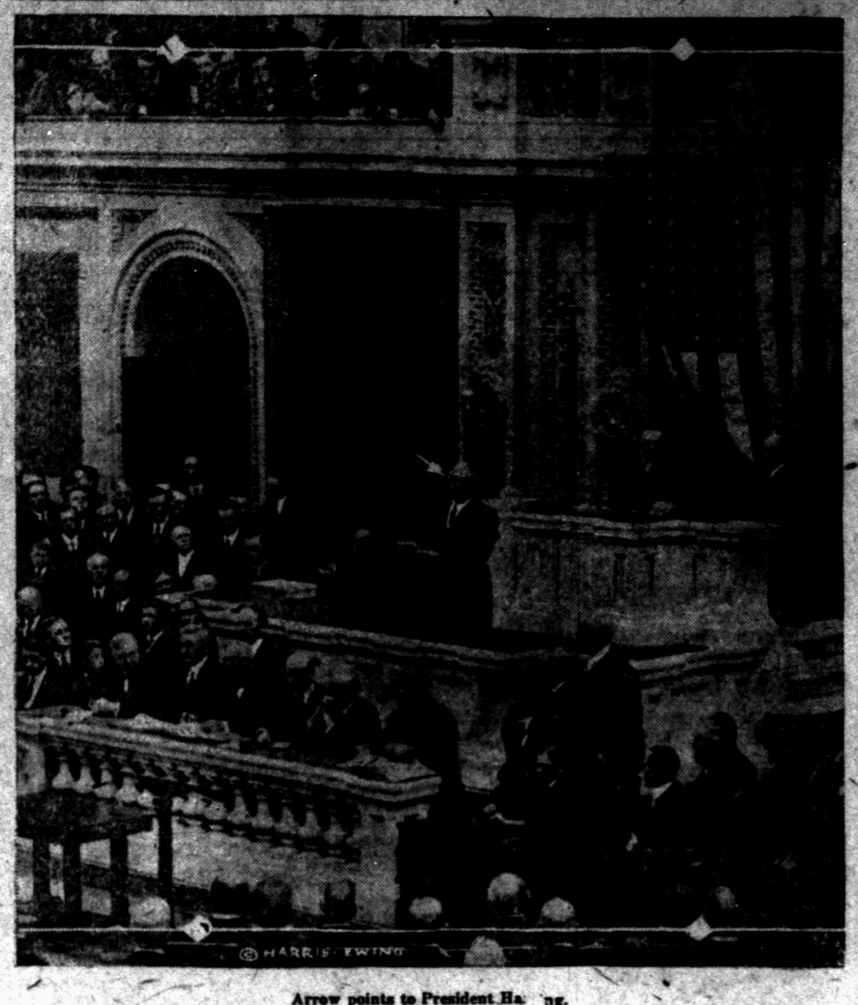

ESKIMO OPERA MAKES BOW IN ROYAL DANISH OPERA HOUSE IN COPENHAGEN

The Royal Danish Opera House in Copenhagen was recently the scene of the presentation of "Kaddara," an Eskimo opera. The scenes of the opera are all laid in the frozen north. Tenna Frederikson, Danish prima donna, plays Kaddara, the Eskimo heroine in the opera.

LOCAL LADIES TO TENDER RECEPTION TO WOMEN GUESTS

MRS. R. C. SMITH.

Tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kemp the ladies of Wichita Falls Sir Knights Templar will tender their premier hospitality to the visiting ladies of the Grand Conclave.

Mrs. R. C. Smith, the ladies' chairman and her committee have completed plans to make this lawn party a notable event, and all the wives of local Knights Templar are expected to attend.

A half hundred visiting ladies were in the city by Tuesday night, and a number of others are expected to be here by tonight. Mrs. Smith urges that all the members of her committees, and also all other wives and daughters of Wichita Falls Knights be present at the garden party and show the same measure of hospitality that the local knights are showing their out-of-town brothers.

JUDGE WILSON DEFERS PASSING HIS SENTENCES

Sentences were deferred Tuesday by Judge James C. Wilson of the federal court to three pleas of guilt. Henry LaForte pleaded guilty to stealing and transporting an automobile.

Tom Willey pleaded guilty to a charge of having morphine and cocaine in his possession.

J. C. Crum pleaded guilty to a charge of manufacturing liquor.

MEDICINE COMPANY CHARTERED HERE

Preparations for the incorporation of a $100,000 medicine company, to be known as the Wichita Medicine company, are nearing completion, according to announcements Tuesday.

J. C. Nichols, J. C. Ward and Leslie Humphrey are the incorporators and the documents for the granting of the charter will be forwarded to Austin soon.

Twenty thousand dollars was the sum paid J. S. Nichols for the trade mark of the Nichols Famous Rheumatic Remedy, which has been on the market for the last six years, according to announcements.

According to testimonials in the hands of Nichols, the remedy is very efficacious for the use intended.

Judge Wilson to Address Shrine Club Luncheon

Judge James C. Wilson, judge of the Federal district court, will be the principal speaker at the Saturday luncheon of the Shrine club, according to an announcement by C. M. Crowell, who is chairman for the day.

Judge Wilson's subject is not known, as he is to choose the subject of his talk himself.

The luncheons are held at the Kemp hotel and begin at 1 o'clock sharp.

WADDELL CASE WILL GO TO JURY THIS MORNING

The case of Waddell Brothers against J. D. Parnell, which has been on trial with jury before Judge James C. Wilson of the federal court since Monday will go to the jury at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The evidence in the case and arguments of attorneys was completed late Tuesday evening.

The case involves a contract in connection with a contemplated bridge over Red river near Vernon. The project was abandoned and the suit is for $3,000 alleged to be due the contracting company.

BOTH SIDES STAND PAT ON WAGE SLICE

With both sides declaring that they were standing pat following Tuesday meetings, the carpenters wage question, precipitated by a notice by contractors recently in announcing an $8 per day wage for carpenters on all new work has for the time, apparently reached an impasse.

Contractors participating in a committee meeting Tuesday told a committee from the carpenters local that the contractors would not recede from their decision for an $8 wage for new work.

"We are powerless to do otherwise," one of them declared following the meeting. "The move came about through conditions which are nation-wide and world-wide and over which we nor any other human agency has any control."

Carpenters Deny Report

This contractor declared that carpenters were still at work on new work under way by one member of their organization on which they were drawing $8 per day, and predicted that the carpenters would return to work at least on the unfinished jobs of the member of the association following which they quit after the first $8 pay day by that contractor.

Union carpenters at the Labor Temple deny that any of the members of the union were working for less than the $10 wage.

No recession from their stand for $10 per day for their work was made by the carpenters at their meeting Tuesday night, according to statements of members of the local following the meeting, nor do the carpenters intend to accept a reduced wage, the member declared.

Local 156 of the Cooks, Waiters and Waitresses met with a good attendance. Labor conditions with them are quiet and no further reduction in the scale of sixty-five dollars for first cooks (chefs); forty-five dollars for second cooks and thirty-five dollars for counter men with table waiters at nineteen dollars per week is contemplated.

The say there is no friction between employers in Wichita Falls and employes.

A series of entertainments is being planned by this union, officials say and recreational features are on the program for the next month or so.

Changing from semi-monthly to monthly meetings characterized the meeting of Plasterers and Concrete Finishers Union 440 Tuesday evening at the Labor Temple. From now on this body will meet the first Tuesday of every month.

This body on March 15 made a voluntary reduction in their scale from 14 dollars per day for plasters and twelve dollars per day for finishers, to twelve for plasters and ten dollars for concrete men.

According to representatives of this union, the Wichita Paving Company is the only city contractor employing union men.

They say city and county bids by out-of-town contractors have seriously hurt their trade; their members being on half time basis only.

MISS GUSSIE KIEL AND WM. CLOUD CHAPMAN WED.

A wedding of unusual beauty was solemnized at the new Floral Heights Methodist church Tuesday evening at 8:30 oclock when Miss Gussie Kiel became the bride of William Cloud Chapman. The auditorium of the church was artistically decorated for the occasion with arches formed of southern smilax, smilax covered canopy huge baskets of roses and bell made of pink and white carnations and roses where the ring ceremony was read by the Reverend W. L. Tittle, the pastor.

Preceeding the ceremony, Mrs. E. L. Fulton gowned in white lace with blue sash, sang the pre-nuptial solo, "O Promise Me." She was accompanied by Mrs. F. R. Collard who also played softly, Liebling's Spring Song, during the ceremony. Mrs. Collard wore a lavender taffeta gown.

Preceeding the entrance of the bridal party, two small flower girls, little Misses Mary C. Boone and Ona Bell Britain strewed a path of rose petals and opened miniature smilax covered gates at the altar for the bridal party. Little Pauline Jane Art acted as the ring bearer and daintily dressed in a fluffy white net over pink, carried the ring in the heart of a rose. The bride, who was lovely in a white taffeta gown, with over skirt of chantilly lace, and tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, was given to be married by her brother-in-law, Mr. T. R. Boone. She carried a shower boquet of brides roses and lillies of the valley. Her attendants included her sister, Mrs. Mark Moore, matron of honor, Miss Katherine Brothers, maid of honor and Misses Mary Colquit and Florence Brown, bridesmaids. Mrs. Moore wore a white crepe de chine with all-over lace gown and corsage of lilacs. Miss Brothers wore baby blue taffeta with arm boquet of pink roses, Miss Colquitt wore a Maybelle model pink taffeta and Miss Florence Brown wore orchid silk with silver trimming. All wore daintily trimmed picture hats.

The groom had for his best man, Dr. C. B. Kiel, brother of the bride, groomsmen were Messrs. Julian McFall and R. B. Randolph. All wore dress suits and buttonieres. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kiel of this city and has a large circle of friends.

She was a teacher in the city schools for three years, and is active in church and social circles.

The groom is connected with the Automotive Accessory company here, and is popular in business circles. He is an ex-service man having been First Lieutenant during the war and served seventeen months over seas.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the bridal party and a large number of friends, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Boone. The reception suite was beautifully decorated for the affair with roses and ferns, and Mrs. George Henderson had charge of the bride book. In the dining room, Mrs. Luther Hoffman and Mrs. R. B. Randolph served brick ice cream and angel food cake. The table was beautifully decorated, with the bride's cake forming an attractive center. Mrs. Julian McFall and Mrs. George Famich, a sister of the bride, served punch. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left for a short wedding trip which will include New Orleans and other southern cities. Mrs. Chapman wore a handsome traveling gown of blue poiret twill with gray blouse and other accessories, with small hat of henna.

Upon their return, they will be at home at 1611 Buchanan street.

Mesdames George Henderson and Julian McFall entertained members of the Kiel-Chapman wedding party Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. McFall, 2007 Huff avenue, with a prettily appointed wedding breakfast.

The table was dainty with decorations of pink and white rose buds and ferns. A huge bowl filled with these flowers forming the center.

The place cards were original and attractive, being a kewpie bride and groom in wedding attire.

The bride and groom took advantage of this occasion to present their attendents with pretty gifts, the matrons of the party receiving hand-painted rose jars, and the maid of honor and bridesmaids, bottles of Houbigant perfume.

Mr. Chapman presented his best man and groomsmen with silver belt buckles.

Mesdames McFall and Henderson were assisted in entertaining by Mesdames K. E. Bauch Jr., Zeigler and T. M. Stroud.

Two course breakfast was served.

LARGER HATS FIND FAVOR AS SUN'S RAYS GROW HOTTER

The coming days of early summer bring out larger and broader brimmed hats. The turban, the small, snug fitting hat may be popular in winter and spring and in windy weather, but when the warm days arrive and frilly summer frocks appear the large hat becomes the vogue.

Here are three models which are distinctive and charming. At the left is a large shade hat made of rough straw in a pretty shade of blue. It is trimmed with clusters of small fruit and flowers. A band of velvet ribbon encircles the crown and some of the fruit and flowers are fastened on the under side of the crown in the manner which is so popular just now. It gives a rather bacchante effect.

The hat in the center is made of white horsehair braid with a wide flange of the fancy braid on the edge of the slightly drooping brim. The trimming of this hat is most unusual, being nothing but many white worsted balls hung about the top of the crown and also at the base.

The charm of the black lace hat is undeniable, particularly when it is worn with just the right degree of coquetry. This model is of black satin and lace. The lace forms a drape on the hat and extends into a scarf which is worn carelessly thrown over the shoulder. A long bead tassel finishes the scarf end.

MRS. HENDERSON HOSTESS TO GIRL'S FRIENDLY

Mrs. George Henderson, 1620 Eleventh street, was hostess to the Girl's Friendly club which met in regular session Friday evening. After the business session a program on Home Economics was given. With the Women of Today

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch.

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch is exceedingly well trained for her position as chairman of the committee on unification of laws and legal status of women, one of the eight standing committees of the National League of Women Voters. Since her marriage in 1890 to Frank H. McCulloch, she has been associated with him in the law firm of McCulloch and McCulloch. The firm is really very much a family affair, for now the oldest son in the family, Capt. Hugh W. McCulloch, is associated with his parents in the firm.

Besides being the mother of four grown children, Mrs. McCulloch is a member of the Chicago and Illinois Bar associations, president of the Illinois Woman's Bar association and master in chancery of the superior court of Cook county. She was the first woman in the United States to act as justice of the peace, being first elected in 1907, and by votes of men only. She was admitted to practice before the supreme court of Illinois in 1886, and the supreme court of the United States in 1897.

For many years Mrs. McCulloch has worked for suffrage in her state, preparing bills for securing the passage of several, among them being those for joint guardianship, raising the age of consent, and presidential, municipal and town suffrage. She is very proud of the fact that her honeymoon some thirty years ago was spent in a suffrage campaign through the Dakotas.

She has served in the same capacity for the League of Women Voters since its organization.

WOMEN MASONS NOT RECOGNIZED.

At the quarterly meeting of the United Grand Lodge of Masons, in London, the "woman" question came up for discussion. It is well known in Masonic circles in England that women as well as men are initiated and become members in several lodges regarded by the grand lodge as clandestine. A petition requesting recognition was received, signed by two women and two men. The grand secretary replied that the prayer of the petition could be recommended to the grand lodge and that the lodge would exercise its disciplinary powers towards any members at or assisting in assemblies which professed to be Masonic and admitted women.

THE CENTRAL DRIVE.

The proposal to combine the local money drives for charitable use into one, should receive the endorsement and active support of each Wichita Falls citizen.

One of the advantages the war brought us, was the more businesslike basis on which our charities are handled; and along with that, the cheapest and best way to obtain the money with which they are to run.

The central drive system had been successfully carried on in Cleveland, O., for many years prior to the war. Charity has been put on a business basis in such a way that Cleveland has, for years, been the leader of American cities, not only in her immediate humanitarian efforts, but in constructive work, such as support of the Pediatric Clinic, which is perhaps the foremost institution for treatment and study of the diseases of children in the United States.

Adequate funds are provided for the work of this institution, whose contributions to science are of tremendous moment, and while supporting this institution's great work, Cleveland citizens, also generously support all charitable work of a temporary nature.

This strikingly successful Cleveland experiment should have been enough to have inspired other progressive communities to try the plan. But we learn slowly.

However, 83 per cent of the State of Ohio was "war-chested" during the war and this section of the State had only one drive when money was obtained for the war and home charities. This shows conclusively that those close enough to the Cleveland experiment to observe its success, recognized, fully, its soundness.

One striking advantage of the central drive is the certainty of adequate financial support of each properly managed charity.

The present dragging out of the Boy Scout's campaign shows plainly the weakness of the individual campaign system.

No more important work is being done for our citizenship, than by the boy scouts. Its financial requirements are exceedingly modest. Our best business men handle its funds. Its funds are in highly competent hands and yet all the money has not yet been obtained for next year's work.

This failure is due partly to the fact that only a few of our leading citizens can give the time for soliciting due to activities in other charities; another reason for its failure is that under the individual charity system too many people hide behind the threadbare excuse that they are tired of giving. One central drive would relieve the first difficulty and eliminate the second.

With one central drive, each person worthy of being a citizen of this man's good town would give generously of both his time and means, because of the certainty of "nothing to do until next year" in this kind of work.

To save the time of our biggest business men, for they after all are the ones who really raise the money, is alone reason enough for adopting the central drive. When coupled with this, there is the certainty of adequate financing of our city charities, there should be no hesitations or delays in its adoption.

Perhaps the greatest advantage of all, would be the central committee's adoption of the budget for each local charity, which would insure businesslike efficiency in expenditures, elimination of over-lapping efforts and certainty of adequate funds.

If the plan is adopted, there should be provision for the support of charitable work outside of Wichita Falls. The trustees of the central fund could well have charge of the disbursement of this portion of the funds, and with the decision within the power of a few business men and leading women, those who had contributed would be well assured that only those charities which came up to all requirements would receive support.

DIVISION OF TEXAS.

Different movements are under way to bring about one or more divisions of Texas, but they are only gestures, as yet. States and Nations have been divided before, but such division came only after continued and grevious injustice.

We do not pretend that West Texas has her proper representation in the State Legislative bodies, or gets her rightful share of appropriations from the State Treasury. The plank in last year's Democratic platform serves as a public acknowledgement of the inequalities above mentioned.

It is to be regretted that the State legislative session did not take up the question of re-districting the State. This was not done, likely, because of the lack of realization of the impatience of West Texans for their rights.

Should the coming special session of the legislature fail to take action then steps could well be taken for West Texas to secure plain justice.

In a Democracy such as ours, there is fortunately the ballot, through which a political division can get justice.

If special sessions should not take any steps for relief there would still be sufficient time before the 1922 elections for making an intensive educational campaign for justice.

If a majority of the citizens of the State should vote for the status quo, which they would never do, then steps for a division could be taken seriously.

The history of man's advance is one of chafing minorities. They, with a right cause, have become our majorities and have eventually brought us our every advance.

But our chafing minorities do not become our progress making majorities, unless they have a holy cause or a persistently ignored injury.

It is refreshing to see a citizenship quicken for its rights in this period of general indifference.

Editorial Digest

FOR A QUICK PEACE.

When President Harding declared himself, in his message before congress, as favoring speedy peace by resolution, he reflected the majority opinion of the American press as expressed in the days preceding the convening of congress. While there are, of course, varying opinions as to the difference between a "separate" peace and such a one as is defined by the Knox resolution, the opinions on the general question of the new administration's attitude found definite form in comment divided largely, according to prejudices for or against the Wilson policies.

The deduction that the Roanoke World News (Dem.) draws from the president's position is that "apparently we are to have peace by resolution," which will not in reality be "a separate peace resolution," but rather, as the Philadelphia Jubilee Ledger (Ind.) expresses it, "a separate peace in name only." The New York World (Dem.) elucidates this contradiction from its viewpoint thus:

"The Knox resolution for a separate peace with Germany is to be adopted, but it is not to be called a separate peace. It is to be described as a resolution to end the war. The separate peace is to come in the form of a mutilated ratification of the Treaty of Versailles, for the enforcement of which the United States is to assume no obligations."

Analyzing the president's position further, the Public Ledger agrees with the World that he "accepts by implication the Treaty of Peace, with its settlement and its imposition of penalties on the vanquished, and rejects the agency that would enforce those penalties." But, it adds, since this is apparently the program, "the approval of a separate peace by resolution is logical." This plan would, in the opinion of the Birmingham Age Herald (Dem.), constitute "a great republican victory," but "to declare a separate peace with Germany without regard to the Versailles treaty and the League of Nations is not practical." It would be "a simple matter" to pass such a resolution, the Newark News (Ind.) concedes, but "it would be an equally simple matter, and just about as effective, to pass a resolution that the moon is made of green cheese."

Technically ending a war that has in fact been over for two years will "mean nothing," the Des Moines Register (Ind. Rep.) points out, "except as it is viewed at home and abroad in its relation to the future." This popular reaction, as the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch (Ind. Dem.) sees it, would be that "the French would certainly feel that the United States had deserted them and forsaken the allied cause, while the Germans would feel that they had scored a distinct victory." It would mean essentially, to the Charlotte (N. C.) News (Dem.) "the entire elimination of the United States as a factor in the equation of compelling Germany to pay the reparations" at a time when "France and England are in need of all the moral assistance they can get from this country." More definitely, the Muskegon Chronicle (Ind.) holds, "the resolution, no matter what platitudes may be included in it, is a distinct move in assistance to Germany, the most positive assistance that could be offered to that power," and, the Milwaukee Journal (Ind.) adds, "stiffens Germany's resistance."

Despite the plea of the president for peace by resolution, the Knoxville Sentinel (Ind. Dem.) hopes that there will be found, "able, sane and responsible statesmen in congress" who "may be counted on to combat this suicidal course," particularly since the country, the Des Moines Register (Ind. Rep) holds, "is not going to respond to the Knox resolution nor to any sort of proposal for an independent treaty with Germany."

DINNER STORIES

Said the jeweler to the new boy: "Did you sell anything while I was out, Harold?"

"Yes, sir. I sold six plain gold rings."

"Good, my boy. We'll make a first-class jeweler of you one of these days. You got the regular price, of course?"

"Oh yes, sir. The price was marked on the inside, 18c, an' the gentleman took all there was left, sir."

Quite an interesting article, we fancy, could be written on "The Humor in Wills." For example, take this passage from the will of Lord Pembroke: "I bequeath nothing to Lord Say, because I know he will bestow it upon the poor."

Or this: A Lancashire gentleman bequeathed an ounce of modesty to the editor of the London Journal, explaining the small quantity by saying that he was "convinced that an ounce would be found more than he would ever make use of."

"Go to h— out of that!" stormed his master.

The old man leaned on his spade handle. "An' if I do go, Master Harry," he said, "I'll just tell ye're father how ye've treated me."

Everybody else having started some sort of a subscription list, we are now ready to announce ours. We will get up a fund to buy some new clothes for the Statute of Liberty. We have felt sorry for the old girl. She hasn't been in style, sartorially, for many years. While all the other girls wear short skirts and fur coats she has had to get along with the same old robe or toga, as it were. In freezing weather she has to stand and suffer in that thing and so far as we know she has never had a stylish hat. We think so much of Liberty, we ought to dress her up, as she is the first lady to greet all visitors to our shores. Therefore our fund will furnish a complete outfit for her, including lingerie; morning, afternoon and evening gowns, opera coat, fur wrap and hats. We would be glad to get the opinions of our readers on this plan.

MORGAN SAYS DANGER TO U. S. FROM WITHIN

Declaring that the United States need never fear for dangers due to foreign aggression and that the real menace is developing from within on account of the complacence of the people to the spread of radicalism, S. A. L. Morgan, local attorney and candidate for congress, sounded a warning note in a talk before the University club Tuesday.

Combined in his appeal for thoughtful consideration to the dangers due to the spread of radical doctrines was the voicing of the necessity of choosing able, representatives in the branches of government and trusting them to look after the details and judging their fitness by the results they obtain.

The speaker of the day was preceded by an excellent musical program and a brief talk by State Senator Quinn Williams, of Decatur, also a candidate for congress. Mr. Williams cast a few flowers at Wichita Falls for the evident growth that has taken place in the past few years.

Representative government such as is in force in this country, is still in the experimental stage, Mr. Morgan declared, and has not reached the point where it is perfect or where it can go along on its own momentum. Constant vigilance to the problems of representation is needed lest the government fall into evil days, he said.

Radicalism a Danger

It is time to take an inventory, declared the speaker, and search out the dangers that beset the government.

Chief among these he said is the present day tendency by Radicalists to preach direct action in government matters. That form of government was tested out by Robespierre during the "Reign of Terror" in France and proven to be anarchistic in tendency and working, he added.

"If we allow ourselves to go to sleep, wrapped up in business and neglect the problems of government, we invite the breeding of secret foes in our midst," he continued.

The recent nomination for president by a political party in the United States of an inmate of a federal penitentiary, who was convicted of disloyalty during the war, and the fact that several millions of people looked upon this man as a martyr, was cited by Mr. Morgan as an example of just how far radicalism has spread in this country."

The best ways to strangle the 'red' movement, Mr. Morgan said, is to keep informed on matters of government and elect capable and conscientious representatives.

"Then after you have elected a man," he added, "give him your wholehearted support and trust in his honesty and purpose to carry out the administration of his office."

Mayor Speaks

In response to a call from Guy Rodgers, president of the club, Mayor Cline made a few remarks urging thoughtful consideration of Mr. Morgan's address.

C. A. Kleinman, rose to the occasion of a missing violinist in the orchestra and after a little encouragement gave an exhibition of versatility by whistling, singing, and would have made a good speech if the members had not drowned out his efforts with cries of "louder."

Action was taken by the club in the matter of raising money to help entertain the district federated women's clubs convention here soon.

C. H. Clark appeared for the Chamber of Commerce and upon a motion a subscription was taken on the spot.

It was decided that the clubs would have a separate car with a proper banner in the Graham excursion next Friday.

Next week's speaker was announced to be Cullen Thomas, of Dallas.

Are You Pale? Thin? Weak?
Enrich Your Blood!

Read this carefully: If your blood were rich and wholesome, you would not be pale; if your blood were rich and nourishing, you would not be thin; if your blood were rich and vigorous, filled with red corpuscles, you would not be weak.

Poor, disordered blood is responsible for a host of ills and weaknesses. If you would attain ruddy health, a robust body, and muscular strength, you must first provide yourself with that which builds all these—a rich, wholesome, nourishing blood supply! Any doctor will tell you that.

Why suffer longer with sallowness, thinness or weakness, when thousands have remedied their conditions by taking S.S.S., the famous old blood remedy compounded of fresh herbs just as the Indian made it?

S.S.S., by driving impurities from the blood and helping to put red corpuscles in, lays the foundation for sturdy, vigorous health.

If you want this, don't wait longer, but get a bottle of S.S.S. from your druggist right now while you are thinking of it. Begin taking, and then write in detail about your condition to Chief Medical Advisor 367 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia. He will give you individual medical advice free.

JUDGE AWARDS INSURANCE TO STATE WORKER

In a decision which attorneys conceded involved a point of law in connection with the workman's compensation act that had never previously been an issue in any court of the state, Judge Ed Napier of the 78th district court Tuesday decided in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of Lawrence C. Cassell against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance company, awarding the plaintiff $3,000, based on the total disability clause of the insurance contract. According to the award, the defendant's liability will continue as long as the plaintiff is totally disabled.

The suit grew out of the accidental shooting in the Wichita theater in October in which the plaintiff was shot through the spine by Clifford Carver, stage manager of the theater. The men with others, were playing on the stage after the close of the show. The plaintiff has been totally disabled.

Since that time the state industrial board made an award against the defendant company which the plaintiff refused to accept, bringing suit against the insurance company.

In the trial of the case the defendant company claimed that it could not be held liable due to the fact that the plaintiff was not engaged in work for his employer at the time the accident occurred. Judge Napier in announcing his decision, held that while previous decisions had held employers not responsible for accidents occurring to employes while engaged in an "act of frolic" a liability did exist in this case, due to the fact that the employe was injured as a foreman and not a fellow employe holding the foreman to be vice-principal.

Chief Boyd Returns to Duties Here

Chief of Detectives William D. Boyd Monday evening returned to his duties with the city and announced Tuesday the completion of a hard but interesting case in behalf of Temple bankers, on which he worked through permission of Commissioner Bralley the past week.

Though no arrest has been made, a blackmailing case is "sewed up," the man being in the hospital recovering from an operation.

This is not the same case as led Chief Boyd through the Philippines, into Australia and over Europe a few years ago in behalf of over $200,000 stolen from Temple banks and which is said to have involved the theft of over $50,000 from Wichita Falls institutions, still this arrest has some bearings on the case and may prove of more value than it indicates on its surface, police station attaches say.

COUNCIL WILL ADOPT BUDGET ON WEDNESDAY

City commissioners are expected in the council room at the Morgan building by 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, according to announcement made by Mayor Walter D. Cline at the meeting of the commissioners Monday.

This will probably be a long drawn out session, as recommendations as to personnel and salaries are expected to be submitted by commissioners and tentative outlines of the budget for the coming year will be submitted.

Walter S. Curlee, street commissioner, whose department spends the greater part of Wichita Falls, improvement money, said that he would not at this time announce his budget requirements as he had not completed them.

To Improve Light System.

William N. Bonner, utilities commissioner, announced "ready" but beyond saying that extensive improvements in the light system of the city was recommended and all possible improvements in the way of water extensions, he would make no "startling" recommendations.

Commissioner Bralley of the police and fire department has prepared and will submit a list of all employes of his department together with their salaries and recommendations for increase or decrease in force.

Chief of Police Lee Huff said Monday that his recommendations for the efficient policing of the city had been submitted Mr. Bralley and said he had not recommended the employment of more men.

Dr. J. F. Read, parks and sanitary commissioner, has previously announced the trend of his recommendations.

No sweeping changes are expected in any of the departmets, according to officials, but some changes in personnel and salaries are expected to follow a close investigation of such matters by the council.

In inaugurating the investigation prevailing in city departmental affairs the mayor by his call for recommendations, commented on the fact that the matter would come before the council as a body and would not be rushed to the detriment of any class of employes.

RURAL SCHOOLS SHOW GAIN ON YEAR OF 1920

The rural schools of the county made a net gain of 7 percent over last year, according to the school census for the year which was announced Tuesday by Burl Bryant, county superintendent of schools. The final figures for the census show a rural scholastic enumeration of 2,480, a gain of 162 over last year.

Among the towns of the county, Electra shows a gain of 9 percent over last year with Burkburnett and Iowa Park showing small losses. The report to Suprintendent Bryant shows that Electra has a scholastic enumeration of 1,525, an increase of 120 over last year. Burkburnett's total for the year is 2,276, a decrease of 51 over last year, with Iowa Park showing an enumeration of 465, a decrease of two over last year.

Final reports on the scholastic census have now been reported to the county superintendent from all rural and independent school districts with the exception of this city. The total gain to date is 229.

The report from the 25 rural districts and that of Burkburnett was especially gratifying Superintendent Bryant said Tuesday. It had been expected that the schools would show substantial losses. Burkburnet, with a loss of only 51, retains its leadership in the county as showing the largest comparative scholastic census based on its federal census return for 1920. The scholastic census, according to Mr. Bryant, indicates a population of 15,000 in that district, Mr. Bryant said.

Following are the final reports for the year from the rural districts: Fairview, Deep Creek, 18; Bean Creek, 19; Valley View, 111; Pleasant Valley, 33; City View, 47; Sunshine Hill, 81; Clara, 424; Fowlkes, 29; Lakeview, 54; Weeth, 60; Alendale, 45; Rocky Point, 21; Harmony 23; Prairie Cottage, 21; Howard, 83; Frieberg, 74; Cashion, 142; Everett, 39; Enterprise, 106; County Line, 131; Barwise, 43; Cobb, 25; Pond Creek 23, and Cooper, 54.

HELD FOR ALLEGED THEFTS FROM CARS

Suspected of car thefts on interstate shipments, Jack Lawson is in the city jail held on investigation charges. He was brought to Wichita Falls Tuesday morning by Pat Garrett, special agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad.

Detectives Hawkins and Miller are also interested in the case and believe charges will be filed Wednesday.

Spudders Fight Hard but Lose First Game of Series to Gassers

SHREVEPORT GAINS LEAD IN FIRST HALF OF GAME WITH SEWELL IN THE BOX

Spudders Make Great Rally in Sixth and Ninth Frames but Fall Short by One Solitary Run.

Playing rings around the opposition but unable to overcome the big lead obtained by the Gassers during the first half of the contest, the Spudders dropped the first game of the Shreveport series yesterday afternoon after a long up hill fight that fell short by one run. The final score was 10 to 9 in favor of Billy Smith and his Louisiana crew.

Salm Guesses Wrong

Salm guessed wrong when he sent Sewell back to the mound to open the series for the Gassers duplicating Patterson's Marines, pounded Jim hard and often, scoring six runs on seven hits during the three frames Sewell pitched. Ruth was sent in to bat for Sewell in the third inning and after getting a single that gave Rothfuss a chance to score Works with the first Spudder tally took up the job of holding the visitors during the rest of the game. "Babe" pushed through two rough innings but from then on sent the Gassers back in order, not a man reaching first base in the last four innings.

Ledbetter Starts

Ledbetter started the contest for Billy Smith's club and looked during the first two frames as if he was going to duplicate his opening day performance of scoring a shutout. However, in the third and fourth, the Gassers got to him for five hits and two runs and in the sixth battered the ball hurler to every corner of the lot. Verbout relieved Ledbetter after the fifth and although the Spudders threatened to win in the last chapter, failed effectively.

Spudders Fighting.

That the Spudders came within a run of overcoming an eight-run lead, is proof enough to local fans that Salm's bunch has the power and the pitch to win if given a little more airtight pitching. The home gang are hitting all the time and generally make enough runs to win but big leads obtained by the visitors during the first few innings have been too big to overcome.

The visitors broke into the run column in the first stanza when Storey walked on Clark's bobble, but was caught at second trying to steal; Bowman fanned. Ewoldt shot the ball between Miller and McElwee for two bases and scored on Jackson's single to left. Elbel bounced. The Spudders went out in order.

In the second neither club was able to get a man to first, but in the third the visitors broke loose with a parade of five hits including a home-run by Elbel and coupled with a wild throw to first by Tanner, scored five runs.

Kitchens Scores First

Kitchens was the first to score for the Spudders, getting on by a fielder's choice, going to second on a single by Ruth and scored when Rothfuss dropped the pill into Elbel's hands back of first, who dropped it. The Gassers claimed the infield fly rule should apply but Daly ruled otherwise. Smith informed the umps the game would be played under protest. Neither Tanner or McDonald were able to blow, both going out at first, leaving Ruth and Rothfuss stranded.

Ruth didn't start the fourth looking any better than Sewell, walking two and allowing two hits which counted for two runs. The Spudders came back with one tally. They should have had more for Clark, Miller and Works singled but a fast double play stopped what looked to be a rally.

Visitors Step In Fifth

Three doubles and a single by the Gassers brought the visitor's total to 10 in the fifth and indubitably brought their scoring to a close. Rothfuss got his second hit of the game in the Spudders half, but his base was filled to help him scored.

The ninth talliest about Spudder attack developed in the sixth, the locals batted around and Clark tied the plate twice. Four singles, a home-run and a two-bagger walloped Ledbetter to the showers and brought the Spudders within striking distance of tying the count. Six runs were pushed across Le pin in this frame and we would hesitate to say by the local ump.

Six and Six In Sixth

Clark, first up, showered through ing for two bases and went to third on Miller singled through short. Storey singled to right, Clark scoring, Miller taking second. Works hit the ball at Rothfuss and was safe at first, filling the bags. With the nation up to Kitchens, the veteran pitcher fooled off about a dozen and finally slid the pill to Rothfuss who flew him out at first, Miller scoring. Works and McElwee taking third and second. Ruth came through with a smart clout of the fray, a single through pitcher that would like and Rothfuss tried his best but failed. Tanner lifted a high fly to Miller that looked sure to be over the fence. The ball however was curbed in its by the wind and bounced in the hands of Miller for the third out.

closure for a home-run. McDonald got on when Jackson fooled his fly but died at the initial corner when Clark gave Jackson another chance which he caught, ending the inning.

Verbout started the seventh for the visitors and was the hero of a fluke double play grabbing Works' liner and tossing out McElwee, who had walked at first. Ruth was invincible.

Rally In Ninth

Both clubs went out in order in the eighth and things looked dark for the Spudders. Tanner started the final frame by jamming a single to left. McDonald and Clark went out at first but Miller was safe and Tanner went to third when Hartford fumbled Jake's grounder. McElwee again came through in a pinch dropping a single in right and Tanner scored. With the winning runs on the bags, Works, who had twice driven in runs during the day, slapped the ball to Holihan who ended the game by throwing Works out at first.

Salm and Verbout Clash

During the last couple of innings a verbal duel between Verbout and Salm grew personal and some mean language was thrown by the duo. Verbout on his way to the clubhouse stepped at the Spudder's bench, said a few cuss words to Salm who resented and but for the presence of mind of Umpire Kane, fistic hostilities would have taken place. Kane informed the two that he would see both regretted it should a fight occur. Jake Miller, crabbed on the ball field but the best kind of a fellow off, told Kane, the umps, had nothing to do with the players after the game and for a few moments it looked as though a general argument would be in progress. However, Salm pulled Miller away and everybody concerned, went to the clubhouse ending the episode for the day.

The Gassers are due to get licked (on the ball field) this afternoon. The game starts at 4 o'clock.

Jersey City Decided on For Big Bout

Special to The Record News.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Definite election of Jersey City as the scene of the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight titular bout July 2 marks another step in the staging of what is expected to be the most important fistic battle in history of the prize ring.

It was generally understood several days ago, that Jersey City would be chosen, due to its proximity to greater New York with its five million population. Promoter Tex Rickard in discussing this angle, said he figured a total population of close to 15,000,000 persons to draw from within a radius of three hours travel.

Widespread interest in the bout is evidenced by a rapidly increased mail each day containing applications for tickets. Thousands of dollars in checks, money orders and currency are already being banked to await the [illegible]

Glancin' 'Round The Sport World

WITH VAN

Profanity on the ball field has been ruled a fineable offense by several leagues in the country and from the spectator's viewpoint, every league would do well to follow the example. Several episodes on the ball field yesterday afternoon came in for severe censor by those who attended the game and the near fight in front of the boxes after the contest between Manager Salm and Pitcher Verbout of the visitors, did not bring credit to either. Language not used in the presence of women folk was bantered frequently by visiting players on several occasions and it was audible to those sitting in the grandstand.

There was perhaps some excuse for Manager Salm resenting the name called him by Verbout, for Salm had virtually forgotten the things said during the tense ninth inning and would have passed on in to the clubhouse without further discussion if allowed to by the visiting pitcher. However, Verbout continued the verbal abuse hurled at Salm during the game when passing the Spudder's bench and Salm promptly resented it. Umpire Kane stepped in between the belligerents and stopped what both would have regretted later. The presence of the many Knights Templar with their women folk made the episode all the more undesirable.

Kane has had little trouble with the Spudders, although some of his decisions might seem to favor the visiting clubs. Just the opposite is true, however, with the visitors, for it was from both the Marines and the Gassers that Kane has stood more verbal abuse than the average umpire is subject to. The ump had several opportunities to send both the Dallas players when they were here and the Shreveport performers yesterday to the showers but refrained from doing so because he did not want to have it appear he was favoring the home club. Floyd Kroh drew the gate during the yesterday's fray, but as Floyd is used to getting canned from the bench and as there was no chance of being sent to the mound, the canning didn't mean anything except that Kroh was able to beat the bunch to the showers.

The playing of Pierce Works at first base seems to be getting better as each game is played. The tall slim one reached for a throw of Tanner's in the ninth that looked like a sure wild peg, but Works snagged the ball high in the air and came down touching the runner as he went past. The boy also hit two sharp sing scoring three of the Spudders.

Earl Puryear is the latest bantam to aspire to a chance at Joe Lynch's crown. Earl thinks the best way to get it is by disposing of Pete Herman, the former title-holder, who has been flattening all comers ever since he lost the title. When Herman was champion he twice encountered Puryear in no-decision bouts and the champion ran second on each occasion. The first bout took place out in Denver, Puryear winning the newspaper decisions after ten rounds in which he kept the titleholder on the run throughout. Last year Puryear easily outpointed Herman in a bout at Trenton. Since then Herman cannot be induced to display any interest in a match with Puryear. The Denverite says that if Herman wants the public to believe that he deserves a return match for the title he should attempt to wipe out those defeats.

Six young players have been turned back to the minor leagues by John McGraw following their trials at San Antonio this spring. One of them is Jess Winters, who has been with the Giants since the spring of 1913 and who on more than one occasion has looked like a really great pitcher in the making. Winters goes to Toronto, and with him goes Vernon Spencer, who was obtained from Toronto last summer. The others released are Roy Grimes, who has been sent to Toledo; Raymond Evans, destined for Norfolk; Leo Kane, who goes back to Hartford, and Ray Barcroft, who has been sent to Chattanooga.

Jess Winters, released by the Giants to the Toronto club of the International league under an optional agreement, must make good this year or John McGraw will lose interest in him. This fellow has all the stuff necessary to make him a first class hurler, but for some reason or other, probably because he is very high strung, he has failed to make good in fast company after an extended trial. Perhaps a year in the minors will steady him and teach him how to get the most out of his natural skill in manipulating a ball. Fortunately Winters has been sent to a club managed by a man who knows his capabilities and his faults thoroughly. Larry Doyle will know how to handle the temperamental Texan and will aid him more than any other minor league leader could.

Sixteen full-blooded Indian baseball players, graduates of the famous Haskell Institute from the United States Indian Training school at Lawrence, Kan., will invade the principal cities of the east and middle west during the months of June, July and August. The Haskell Indian Red Sox, in full war paint, will tackle the leading colleges and clubs. The entire tour will be under the personal supervision of Dick Jess, who managed the barnstorming trip of Babe Ruth and the House of David Bearded Giants.

If the Yankees fail to win the pennant this season it will not be because of handicaps placed in the way of Miller Huggins. The mite manager has been put in absolute charge of the team and is responsible for the style of play and the conduct and condition of the men. Huggins called several meetings on the way up from the south, and outlined his policies most clearly. One or two of the lordly athletes mumbled a bit, but Huggins promptly informed them it was a case of obey the rules of the club as interpreted by him or have their pay checks considerably diminished on pay day. Yankee fans therefore may be assured that Huggins will stand no nonsense whether from star or mere candle.

It would not be surprising if Johnny Bassler, formerly with the Cleveland team, became Detroit's regular catcher.

Bassler is the favored one among the four backstops that Tyrus Cobb is carrying. The other three are the veteran Eddie Ainsmith, Clyde Manion and Larry Woodall.

Newest in the receiving quartet is Bassler. The others were all with the club last year.

Bassler, besides being a good physical catcher, can do a swell mental job behind the plate. He is a keen analyst of a batter, he knows how to work his pitcher and he can receive. It is because of his smartness that he is favored among the Detroit receivers. Bassler is a strategist.

RED SOX WANT HARMONY WITHIN THEIR CLUB

Hugh Duffy, new manager of the Boston Red Sox, doesn't subscribe to the old saw about "too many chefs scorching the consomme."

Contrary, Hughey believes that a pair of good cooks can improve the broth, so to speak, for he recently appointed himself a 50 per cent manager and allotted the other 50 per cent of the management of his team to Jimmy Burke.

In short, the Red Sox will be operated under a dual management this season as an experiment, and Duffy predicts that it will be a huge success.

Burke, who managed the St. Louis Browns last year and whose major league experience dates back as far as Duffy's, was originally signed as coach and scout by President Harry Frazee. But after working with the former boss of the Brownies at the training camp in Hot Springs Duffy decided that Jimmy was a real ace and that his counsel was needed in the daily battle plans of the team.

Aim Is Harmony.

Duffy's innovation should work well, for he and Burke are the fastest friends, and Duffy, personally, doesn't care for any glory but that of winning ball games. If the Red Sox can go out and make themselves conspicuous in the coming pennant race it will be glory enough for Hughey and he is willing to share it with Burke and the members of the team.

Duffy's policy is certainly constructive. One of the greatest assets to a successful baseball team is perfect harmony, and Hughey is going to have that first of all. In connection with his announcement he made it plain that every member of the team will be asked to chip into conferences or "skull practices" offering suggestions for the betterment of the work of the club. In this way each player will be made to feel that the club is depending on him personally to lend his thought as well as his physical efforts toward its success, and it appears that the system ought to be a winner.

The Red Sox are being rebuilt. Trades and sales of players during the last two or three years have resulted in the complete breaking up of the old-time championship combination and Duffy and Burke have a regular construction contract on their hands. As both are thoroughly seasoned baseball men who know the pastime inside out they are bound to get the best out of the material at hand, and if Prexy Frazee sees his way clear to give them free rein in the matter of getting new talent when and where it is needed, it is possible for them to do so, the Beantown Americans will soon regain much of the prestige they have lost in the American League.

HOUSTON 1; BEAUMONT 0.

HOUSTON, April 19. — Barfoot and Bailey staged a pitcher's battle here today with Bailey on the short end by the score of 1 to 0. A walk in the sixth followed by a smash to centerfield which should have been good for three bases by Manager Whiteman scored the lone run. Whiteman was called out for failing to touch first. Score:

FRENCH CALL CLASSES.

PARIS, April 19.—Orders calling to the colors the military classes of 1918 and 1919 have been received in [illegible], says a report from that city. The National Veterans' union has passed resolutions exhorting young men called to the colors to "respond as valiantly as did their elders in 1914."

FROM THE ROOF

Tanner's home run looked like a sure out and several occupants of the press box gulped thrice after the ball had taken the fluke bounce over the wall.

The police chief tells us that if any more profanity is heard on the diamond during the future games here the offender will take a "ride in the wagon."

The Spudders are, as a lot, conspicuous by their absence when it comes to using profanity, but the visitors think the more they sling the more they can get away with. Personally we should worry, but as a warning issued for the good of the game some of the ball players are due to spend a few days in the cooler unless they cut it out.

McElwee came through in the pinch twice yesterday as did Works. Works, however, fell down the third time.

Speaking of falling down, Works don't spare himself to go after everything that comes his way or that comes within several blocks. He made several sensational stabs yesterday.

Rothfuss should practice playing hits off the fence. "Froggy" looked bad on one yesterday and several in the first series.

May we suggest Miller and McElwee come through in the pinch twice yesterday as did Works. Works, however, fell down the third time.

Rothfuss should practice playing hits off the fence. "Froggy" looked bad on one yesterday and several in the first series.

May we suggest Miller and McElwee teach the otherwise proficient "Froggy" the trick. Mac and Jake have it down to a science and when Rothfuss learns the trick there won't be a better outfielder outside of the majors.

Injured When Car Overturns Near Wichita

Pinned beneath an overturned Buick automobile for over forty minutes before assistance could be summoned to move the car from the prostrate bodies of A. Baughn, 1501 Travis street and a driver, Mr. Baughn sustained painful but not serious injuries to his right hip Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the sharp turn on the Burkburnett road, one and one-half miles from Wichita Falls.

He was brought to Wichita Falls by a Mr. Scott, insurance man, who was the first person to arrive on the scene. His companion was also hurt but Mr. Baughn did not know his name as he was making a business trip to to Burkburnett in a hired car.

Though the ditch into which the car turned when a front wheel gave way was only a slight declivity with water only six inches deep, occupants narrowly escaped drowning, according to Mr. Baughn.

It is believed that both passengers of the automobile will recover.

Death Claims Seymour Mayor

Special to The Record News.

SEYMOUR, Tex., April 19.—Mayor M. R. Fuller died here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the effects of an attack of paralysis on March 24, at the age of 55 years. A second attack followed at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from which he never regained consciousness. He was the sole owner of the Fuller Grain Company of this place and had wide acquaintance among the grain and milling men of Texas.

Mr. Fuller has been one of the most important factors of recent years in Seymour's development. He was very active during the late war in Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. work and was one of the largest individual bond buyers in this county. As chairman of the United States Charities he relieved suffering through this organization, besides the many personal gifts to those in need.

He is survived by his wife and two brothers and two sisters, Ed Fuller of Van Buren, Ark., and one brother and the sisters of Schenactady, N. Y.

Funeral services are awaiting advice of distant relatives and will be conducted some time today or tomorrow by his pastor, Rev. Callan W. Yates of the Presbyterian church.

SIX VAGRANCY CASES FILED IN POLICE COURT

Six cases of vagrancy, bringing the total to eighteen on this charge in the last three days were recorded Tuesday.

Raids on four crap shooters and five drunks were also booked by the police.

Over one hundred vagrants are in Wichita Falls, according to statements of the police, but convictions on such charges are seldom, officials say.

THANKFUL HE WAS NOT A WOMAN

The late Lawson Tait, of England, the great woman's doctor, said he never went to bed at night without thanking heaven he was not born a woman. No doctor ever knew better than he what women have to suffer at some times of their lives. It was an American woman, long since passed to her reward, who introduced a combination of roots and herbs called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that has proved wonderfully successful in mitigating suffering and relieving diseases of women. It has brought relief to thousands of women who suffered from female ills.—Adv.

Draw Prison Sentence for Auto Thefts

Sentences of eighteen months and twelve months and a day were imposed Tuesday by Judge James C. Wilson of the federal court when two youths entered pleas of guilty to federal charges of having stolen automobiles and transported them to another state.

Raymond Wright, one of the two young men was given the minimum penalty of one year and a day. Marian Fetters, who confessed that he had been in jail for various offenses and that he had been confined in an Oklahome reformatory for a time, was given an eighteen months sentence at Ft. Leavenworth. Both youths were indicted at the present session of the federal grand jury.

According to confessions of the two men, they stole automobiles and delivered them to a third party in another state obtaining $50 for each machine that they delivered.

Pleads Guilty Counterfeiting American Coins

G. A. Cooper, resident of Seymour street the first of several alleged counterfeiters indicted at the recent session of the federal grand jury to be arraigned, plead guilty Tuesday noon before Judge James C. Wilson and was given an eighteen months sentence in the federal penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

"I stand before you, judge, with hands up and ask your mercy" Cooper said to the court when brought before it for sentence following his plea of guilty. The accused explained at length to the court his connection with the counterfeiting schemes in this city investigated recently by federal and county officers.

Others indicted for counterfeiting by the federal grand jury were not arraigned Tuesday. It is understood that at least one of the men held at the county jail on that charge will enter a plea of not guilty. The case will probably be tried during the present term of court.

The Dirt that Sifts from Your Clothes

If you could see the common street dirt, dust and grit that sifts from your clothes when they are dusted in our special dusting machine before we clean them, you'd wonder what happens when you wear clothes that are not dry-cleaned.

Of course the dirt sifts through, onto your under apparel—and your person.

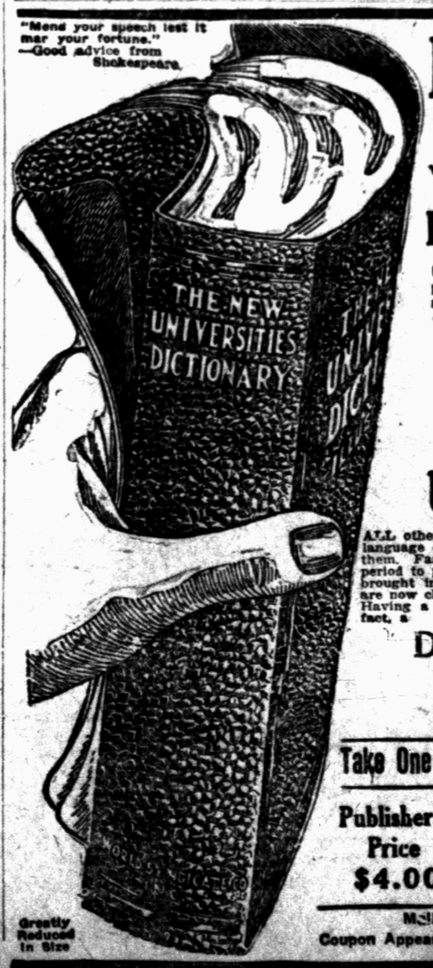

More than that, it grinds and cuts the fibres of your outer garments—they wear out faster than they should.

Both for health's sake and economy's sake, skirts, jackets, suits and coats should be dry-cleaned frequently—and of course there is the matter of good looks to be considered, too.

Have us call for your things today. We dry-clean the modern way.

NEW YORK COFFEE.

NEW YORK, April 19.—After opening one point lower to one point higher, the market for coffee futures sold about 5 to 6 points above last night's closing quotations on private cables reporting that the Brazilian government intended to buy any quantity necessary to sustain the primary markets, and slightly steadier official cables. There was no important demand, however, and the market later sagged off under renewed May liquidation and reports that some cost and freight offers were a shade easier, although the average showed little change. Coffee trade interests were credited with selling May and a good deal of the business consisted of switching. May eased off from 5.76 to 5.67 and September from 6.60 to 6.51 with the market closing at a decline of 1 to 4 points. May 5.68; July 6.12; September 6.52; October 6.68; December 7.00; January 7.09; March 7.27. Spot coffee dull, Rio 7s 6s; Santos 4s 9@9½.

NEW YORK SUGAR.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The raw sugar market was easier today and the Cuban committee reduced its quotations ⅛c to the basis of 4⅝ for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 5.64 for centrifugal, the quotations at which uncontrolled sugars have been selling for the past week.

The market for refined was easier owing to the unsettled feeling in the spot market and prices were from 15 to 25 points lower with fine granulated now quoted at 7.50 to 7.75 for hards, while softs are quoted at 7.40 to 7.50 by some of the local refiners. The market for sugar futures was active and prices were lower under scattered trade and commission house selling, as well as some selling for Cuban interests. Final prices were several points up from the lowest on covering, but still showed declines of 14 to 16 points. Final bids: May 4.35; July 4.43; September 4.44.

LIBERAL RUN DEMORALIZES STOCK TRADE

FORT WORTH, April 19.—Increased receipts today, following a liberal run yesterday, served to bring about demoralized trade conditions in the cattle division. Around 2,600 head of cattle and 900 calves arrived, a large quota of the supply consisting of common yearlings and stockers, for which there was little demand. Good steers and cows sold steady to weak, but yearlings were 25 to 50c down and calf values were trimmed to the extent of 75c to $1.

Hogs sold freely on a steady market, total receipts reaching 1,500 head, although only 500 were here for the morning bidding. The top was $8 and most of the sales ranged from $7.75 to 8.00. Pigs remained steady, good stockers making $7.25.

Sheep and lambs were steady and the market was fairly active. Receipts were 2,500 head. Good wethers sold at $5.50. Quotations:

Cattle — Beeves $5.00@8.00; stockers $5.00@6.00; cows $2.00@6.50; canners $1.00@2.00; heifers $4.00@8.00; bulls $2.00@4.25; calves $2.00@9.00; yearlings $4.00@8.50.

Hogs — Light $7.80@8.00; medium $7.50@7.85; mied $7.00@7.50; common $6.00@7.00; heavy $6.00@7.00; rough $5.00@6.00; pigs $5.00@7.25.

Sheep—Lambs $5.00@8.50; yearlings $5.00@6.00; wethers $4.50@5.50; ewes $3.50@4.50; culls $1.00@2.00; goats $2.00@3.50.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK.

KANSAS CITY, April 19.—Cattle receipts 11,000 head; beef steers weak to 25c lower; bulk of sales $7.25@8.00; yearlings and she stock steady to weak; best yearlings $8.60@9.00; choice cows $6.50@6.85; bulls and calves fully steady; best vealers $8.50@9.00; canners and feeders weak.

Hogs — Receipts 9,000 head; mostly steady to 10c lower; light lights to shippers $8.50; bulk of sales $7.60@8.50; packing sows and pigs steady; best pigs $9.00.

Sheep—Receipts 1,000 head; killing classes 25@35c higher; mostly 25c higher; wooled lambs $10.35; clipped $9.00.

OIL SHARES PROMINENT ON 'CHANGE

NEW YORK, April 19.—Apart from oil and petroleum shares, which were unusually prominent at gross gains of 1 to 5 points today's session of the stock exchange was dull and frequently reactionary.

Buying of the oils came mainly from bull pools and similar professional sources and probably had its basis to a considerable extent on announcement of further price advances fr the crude product.

Contrary conditions doubtless accounted for the market heaviness of certain other issues, such as sugars. These were under intermittent pressure as a result of cuts in th raw and refined products, coupled with adverse dividend rumors.

Extreme declines from 1 to almost 5 points accompanied the lethagic movement of steels, equipments and several of the unclassified specialties. Shipping and rails also recorded irregular, but moderate reversals, the latter making no response to the proposed probe of transportation conditions by a senate committee.

Money rates showed a slight relaxation, call loans on the exchange easing to 6 percent in the latter part of the session, despite further heavy withdrawals from the local federal reserve bank.

The ultimatum of the allied reparations commission demanding the transfer of Germany's gold holdings to Soblenz and Cologne probably had some bearing on the day's movements in foreign exchange.

Rates on London were comparatively steady, but remittances to all continental points favored this center, including German marks and Austrian kronen.

In the bond market movements were of a piece with the uncertain tone of stocks. Liberty issues closed at mixed gains and losses, rails continued to sag and internationals lacked deft trend.

WHEAT PIT LOWER ON RECEIPTS

CHICAGO, April 19.—New declines in the wheat market today carried the July delivery down to the lowest price this season. Liberal receipts and good weather were more or less responsible. The close was unsettled 2 to 3c net lower with May 1.21¾@1.22 and July 1.02 3-4 and 1.03. Corn finished the same as yesterday to 1 1-8 cent down. Oats off 3-8 cent to 5-8 cent and provisions at a setback of 17 to 21c.

Bears put stress on the fact that receipts of wheat at primamry points points were more than twice as much in volume as a year ago. Arrivals at Minneapolis and Duluth were especially scrutinized owing to changed circumstances likely to result from passage of the emergency tariff by the senate. Warmer temperatures desirable to promote the growth of the new crop were likewise of much advantage to sellers. Late in the session, however, the market had alittle recovery owing to word of export business believed to total 2,000,000 bushels, and destined for the most part, to go to Germany, Italy, Spain and Belgium.

Corn and ats sagged with wheat, but declines were checked some by knowledge that vessel room to Buffalo and Montreal had been chartered for 1,425,000 bushels of corn.

Considerable liquidation one the part of holders of provisions was induced by the weakness of grain.

COTTON GOES FURTHER DOWN ON SELLING

NEW ORLEANS, April 19.—The downward movement in cotton continued today under liquidation of both spots and contracts and prices reached their lowest on the close when the list showed net losses of 38 to 42 points. The opening was lower and at no stage was recuperative power displayed. The few slight reactions were not long maintained. The market was steady at the decline because of the cold weather over the belt and private reports from many interior points that damage to young cotton had been extensive and that much replanting would be necessary.

Liverpool news was not so good and some private messages claimed that the recent improvement in Manchester was not being sustained, to some extent these accounts were offset by news that one of the largest mills had fully sold up on some line for fall delivery and had withdrawn from the market. The forecast of fair and warmer weather caused moderate selling for a while, but this was balanced by predictions from some observers that the weekly crop review from the government tomorrow would be highly unfavorable.

KANSAS CITY CASH GRAIN.

KANSAS CITY, April 19.—Cash wheat No. 1 hard $1.25@1.35; No. 1 red $1.25.

Corn, No. 2 mixed 48½c; No. 2 white 50c; No. 2 yellow 54c.

Oats, No. 2 white 35½@36c; No. 2 mixed 33½c.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Reports of increased southern selling led to liquidating in the cotton market today and there was a sharp break in late trading with July selling at 12.21 or 46 points net lower. That delivery closed at 12.29 with the general market closing easy at a net decline of 27 to 40 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 6 to 9 points in response to easier late cables from Liverpool. Trade advices attributed the early steadiness of the English market to a good tone in Manchester and a moderate spot demand, but said hedge selling was heavier and there was also a good deal of southern selling around the local ring. This was fairly well absorbed on moderate declines during the earlier trading as a result of Wall street and local buying, but small rallies met offerings from one source or another and the market became very weak and unsettled late in the afternoon on reports of freer spot offerings and liquidation in the near months.

May sold off to 11.67 and October to 12.81 with active months generally showing net losses of 30 to 46 points. Lost prices showed rallies of a few points from lowest on covering. Holders of the local stock were credited with buying May against sales of July at the May discount of about 55 to 57 points, but other spot firms were sellers of both May and July. Exports for the day 6,404, making 3,927,310 so far this season. Port receipts 22,883. United States Port stocks 1,456,586.

LIVERPOOL SPOT.

LIVERPOOL, April 19.—Spot cotton quiet; prices lower. Good middling 8.70; fully middling 8.15; middling 7.50; low middling 6.45; good ordinary 5.20; ordinary 4.45. Sales 5,000 bales, including 4,400 American; receipts 9,000 bales, including 1,400 American. Futures closed quiet: April 7.79; May 7.96; July 8.17; October 8.45; December 8.59; January 8.62; March 8.68.

44 LEGAL NOTICES

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.
The State of Texas to the Sheriff of any Constable of Wichita County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon Taylor Hudson by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the County court of Wichita county at law, Wichita County, Texas, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Wichita Falls on the first Monday in June A. D. 1921, the same being the 6th day of June, A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 21st day of October, A. D. 1921 in a cause numbered on the docket of said court No. 4137, wherein the Nash Automobile and Truck company, a private corporation organized under the laws of Texas, doing business in Wichita county, Texas, is plaintiff and G. A. De Vien, C. Wood, R. H. Graham and Taylor Hudson are defendants, and said petition alleging: That heretofore, to-wit, about the 27th day of March, 1920, defendants, De Vien and Wood, made, executed and delivered to plaintiff their certain promissory note in the sum of Nine Hundred Seventy-one and 77-100 ($971.77) dollars, due in monthly installments; among the installments being one for One Hundred Sixty-One and 97-100 ($161.97) Dollars, due Aug. 27, 1920; and one for One Hundred Sixty-One and 92-100 (161.92) Dollars, due September 27, 1920, which note bears interest from maturity of each installment at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, and provides for an additional 10 per cent of the amount due as attorney's fees, if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or sued upon. That to secure the payment of said note a chattel morigage lien was retained by plaintiff upon one Nash 7-passenger automobile, being Model 452, Serial No. 155,826; Motor No. 41758; said automobile is now of the value of Nine Hundred ($900.00) dollars, and is now in the possession of the defendants, R. H. Graham and Taylor Hudson, of Wichita county, Tex.; that all of the installments of said note have been paid except the two above mentioned, due August 27, and Sept. 27, 1920, both of which are past due and unpaid; that said note and mortgage provided that in the event of failure in payment of said note in whole or in part the holder thereof shall be entitled to remove said automobile and sell the same, and that by virtue of said fact and the failure of payment of the above installments plaintiff is entitled to the possession of said automobile; that these installments are past due and unpaid and the defendants, De Vien and Wood, refuse to pay the same and it has become necessary to place the same in the hands of an attorney for collection and attorneys fees are now due thereon; that the defendants, R. H. Graham and Taylor Hudson are made defendants herein, because they have possession of the automobile, and are claiming some interest therein, which interest, however, is in all things subordinate to the rights of plaintiff. Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, on this the 5th day of April A. D. 1921.
W. J. HARRIS, Clerk County Court of Law of Wichita County, Texas.
By M. F. TEAGER, Deputy.

Rex Beach Perpetrates Crowning Atrocity on Wichita Falls in First Chapter of Current Story

It has remained for Heart's Magazine and Rex Beach to perpetrate the crowning atrocity of all atrocities relative to Wichita Falls and the oil fields.

Anyone who doubts this has only to look at the first illustration of Beach's new alleged novel "of the oil fields" which commences in the May Hearst, just put on sale at local magazine stands.

The artist, drawing on his imagination and the delirious misinformation contained in the body of the story has created a depot and main street for Wichita Falls which is something fearful and wonderful, a cross between Newtown and Bratley's corner.

Wooden shacks, with derricks heavily lining the background, make up the street extending from the station, while trucks and disheveled automobiles fill the street.

A girl steps from the wooden platform to rush into the arms of a much bewhiskered, delopidated old man, and across the way there is a bunch of loungers attired in keeping with the remainder of the picture. And the reader is informed that a "niftier," or some similar sort of adjective, "girl had never appeared in Wichital Falls." Ye gods!

On the next page is another illustration that is a perfect gem! The girl, obviously the heroine of the story, and it is greatly feared that she will be in breeches and boots before the next chapter opens, is burying her face in a bunch of long-stemmed flowers, or flowering branches, and saying, "And— you didn't even forget how I loved blue bonnets, did you, Dad?"

And we who have known the blue bonnet in it's native haunt can but marvel at the great change that has taken place.

It would perhaps not be amiss to send to M'Sieu Armand Both, who is guilty of these illustrations, a copy or two of some of Louis Onderdonk's famous blue bonnet water color sketches, and let him get slightly acquainted with his subject enough, at least to know that it doesn't grow on trees.

"Flowing Gold" continues through some four or five pages filled with naivete.

For instance.

The heroine from Wichita Falls has gone to some Hudson river finishing school and this fact is such a novelty that the entire town comes down to see her come home. Her apparel is very fetching, though not expensive. But her dad bothers for fear that she has forgotten how to ride and shoot.

And the view from the back door of her home in Wichita Falls contains numerous oil derricks, mixed up with the landscape! If it is this bad in the opening chapter, who can foresee what is to come?

Such as this is humorous enough to the citizens of Wichita Falls, were it created only for their amusement. But there is an absolutely dangerous aspect to such misinformation. Bad as it reflects on the American people, it must be admitted that the Hearst does have some circulation, and much of it is among people who know absolutely nothing about the oil fields, or about Wichita Falls.

Those who read this story and see the illustrations, will be justified in picturing Wichita Falls as nothing more than a temporary oil camp.

They will possibly have no information as to the real facts concerning Wichita Falls.

Certainly one who has attained the standing as a writer that Rex Beach has, could be expected to achieve a slight amount of information concerning the story which he is to write.

Beach was supposed to have been in Wichita Falls last summer, gathering data. He never made himself known to any one of the men who were in any way connected with the oil industry, as far as could be learned at the time.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Beach had not remained in Wichita Falls long enough to gain some real, accurate information. That he did not know some of the oil men, whether they were the men who drilled with their money, or with their hands, for both classes are equally to be credited with the upbuilding of Wichita Falls.

It is unfortunate that he could not have seen the magnificent office buildings, eight, ten and twelve stories high, the paved streets, the beautiful homes.

And surely a writer such as Mr. Beach has been supposed to be, should not overlook such a detail as derricks mixed up with the houses in Wichita Falls, when the nearest derrick was three miles from the city limits. And to get to the nearest cluster one has to go about a dozen miles.

There is a distinct and decided reflection on Wichita Falls and the people of Wichita Falls in the opening chapter of this book. Such a deliberately false portrayal as is given can be nothing but the grossest insult.

Magazine articles, and newspaper specials which have given Wichita Falls wild and wooly attributes previous to this time are as nothing compared to this latest.

Wichita Falls pictured as a wooden shacked oil camp, peopled by uncouth "diamonds in the rough" though they are supposed to be, and ignorant men and women should be represented by the entire citizenship. This is ostensibly to be perpetuated in book form, to give the fiction readers of the present and the next several years the impression that Wichita Falls is a new Red Gap, Roaring Camp, Rocky Gulch, or any other of the fiction immortalized mining camps, with oil instead of metal as the reason for being. It is unspeakable.

Man Tricked Into Giving Himself Up

"You wouldn't have taken me if I had known what you were working," Howard Day is said to have declared to officers early Tuesday as he was being brought to the county jail following his arrest late Monday night at a farm house several miles north of Electra. Day, who is said to have been a fugitive from justice for several months, is wanted at several points in Oklahoma on various charges.

Day's arrest without bloodshed was made possible, the officers say, by the strategy of Deputy Sheriffs Robinson and Clynch.

After being told by Day's wife on their first visit that he was not at the farm house and had not been there for several weeks, they say, they returned with a supposed message from a brother-in-law of Day to the effect that he should accompany the officers to this city.

The officers had arrested the brother-in-law and he was being held at the jail at Electra while the officers returned after Day.

Fires Cause $3,000 Damage Here Tuesday

Fire losses of over three thousand dollars were sustained in Wichita Falls Tuesday.

W. S. Cowling's home at 1725 Truett street, was a total loss, according to fire department officials. It was not occupied at the time the fire started, 12:30 o'clock Tuesday. The value of house and furniture is estimated by officials of the department at $4,000. Insurance was carried to the extent of $3,500.

Earlier in the morning fire did slight damage to the home of L. R. Bolton, 1406 Burnett street.

Baby Monkey Dies Shortly After Birth

Birth of a baby monkey at Shoot-ester's Eatorium, on Seventh street between Indiana avenue and Ohio avenue, attracted a deal of attention and led to universal comment on the "humanness" of the monkeys which have long been an advertising attraction at this eating place.

The baby monkey died shortly after birth and was burned by Billie Gil- birth and was buried by Billie Gil- charge and who has made progress in their training.

Grief of the mother mammal aroused sympathy from customers at the cafe but was not allayed by night as she wept copiously throughout the day.

EMPRESS LOBBY IS ATTRACTIVE WITH DISPLAYS

The most pretentious lobby display which has been arranged by any local theater is attracting attention in front of the Empress theater in connection with the showing of the film version of "Kismet," with Otis Skinner.

Manager Harwell, of the Empress has made quite a record for his attractive lobby set-ups but this is a record for beauty and size. The front of the Empress has the appearance of An Eastern castle, entrance to which reveals the ticket office cleverly disguised.

WHERE TO GO

Wichita—Majestic Big Time Vaudeville.

Olympic—Wallace Reid with Agnes Ayers in "The Love Special."

Strand—"The Scoffer."

Empress—Otis Skinner in "Kismet."

Majestic—Douglas Fairbanks in "The Molycoddle." Also Bill Duncan in "Fighting Fate."

Plaza—Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins present "All Vaudeville." Also Mabel Trunnelle in "Ghost of Old Moro."

WICHITA

The combination of vaudeville which will be offered theater-goers starting with matinee this day brings to Wichita Falls a good many old favorites among them is Billy Arlington and Company who are presenting a farce of much originality in "Mistakes Will Happen." Mr. Arlington paints with a broad brush but each stroke is telling as a delicate touch on a miniature. Travesty is Arlington's forte. The man, woman or child who knows vaudeville and vaudeville artists know Billy Arlington and to remember him is to smile at the name as a comic. Mr. Arlington has no peer is seen as a very dignified highbrow hobo, a character he has made famous. If you enjoy a good, hearty laugh, you must see Billy Arlington. Assisting Mr. Arlington is Elinore Arlington, C. I. Taylor and E. F. Hennessy. A quartette of vaudevillians who furnish fun at a furious rate.

Edith Clasper and boys in "Love Steps," is another big time caliber act which is beautifully staged in colors and costumes and see dancing into fame assisted by Nelson Snow and Charles Columbus. Lovers of the terpsichorean art will find in Miss Clasper's work that of the artiste who bids fair to grace the top ladder in her own special line of endeavor, her assistants Snow and Columbus introduce some truly remarkable eccentric dancing.

Bob Murphy and Elmore White, are with us again. This clever team of songsters and rapid-fire delineation are not new to the vaudeville audience of Wichita Falls, the announcement of their engagement here once more should bring out a great many of their admirers. These boys have cheerful personalities. Their voices are better than good. They have been careful in selecting their songs with the result that there is melody in their tunes, and fun in their laughs.

Miss Emily Darrel, comes to the Wichtia for a debut to our theatergoers bringing with her a new skit "Late For Rehearsal." There are many singles in vaudeville some that are and some that are not. Miss Darrel, is in the some that are class.

Reo and Helman styled as "Physical Masterpieces" offer a routine of sensational feats. Their hand to hand balancing is beautifully done and their speed and skill are big factors in enhancing their success.

The News Reel and Topics of The Day with a musical program of merit by the Wichita Orchestra will make up another vaudeville week-end offering that promises "Lots O'Pep."

Our display advertising in this paper should be read by every housekeeper. We are having a Wednesday sale on brushes, brooms and mops. Not a lot of old worthless odds and ends, but nice clean goods, just received with several entirely new ideas in brushes. The big adv. gives you full description, with the regular and the special Wednesday sale price. Remember, this cut price holds good only for Wednesday, in order to introduce the new line.—Wichita Hardware Co.—Adv.

"MOHICANS" ONE OF YEAR'S BEST FILM SHOWINGS

"Never has such a picture been booked at the Strand theater," was the verdict of Manager E. D. Stowe, after he had seen Maurice Tourneurs picturization of "The Last of the Mohicans," by J. Fenimore Cooper which starts here Thursday.

"There is everything for everybody," he continues "and not a member of the family can miss it, because it pleases the old folks by bringing happy remembrances of other days; for the middle aged—the fathers and mothers of today—the appeal is strong because of the personal entertainment element with the value of the picture solely as an amusement. These parents have another interest, that of educating their children, for Cooper's famous book is used in school work, and by seeing the film, the youngsters are doubly impressed, and their interest in literature is stimulated.

"Then for the boys and girls! What kid has not 'played Indian' and enjoyed it Not a one, indeed. Therefore, every lad and lassie of Wichita Falls will have the very time of their lives at the Strand when this big historical picture is shown.

"Every American in whose veins flows the blood of our forefathers, wants to see this thrilling picture. I could go on for an hour and tell of the wonderful scenic beauties—the mountains—the splendid acting, stage settings and photography."

KISMET ONE OF BEST FILMS EVER SHOWN LOCALLY

In all the length and breadth of fiction one will have to search long to find a more picturesque character than Hajj the beggar of Bagdad rere of the famous story "Kismet." Edward Knoblock, the playwright made Hajj famous in the stage version of "Kismet" and Otis Skinner, perhaps the best known and most popular actor in the country, immortalized Hajj during the years he gave life to this characterization on the stage.

The Robertson-Cole company has filmed this famous play, which started Monday at the Empress theater and will run for four days.

It is a safe prediction that the swaggering crafty, adventure loving and amusing old Bagdad vagabond will win every one's heart and in the years to come, when old plays are discussed, his memory will be green.

On the stage Hajj made an instantaneous hit wherever "Kismet" was played; the screen version will do that and more, for, on the screen Hajj has an opportunity far beyond the limitations of the speaking stage, and Skinner's interpretation of this role in the screen version will stand for a long time to come as the finest study in character work that the moving picture cameras ever recorded.

Coming to the Strand Thursday, Friday and Saturday, James Fenmore Cooper's American classic —"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS."

Negro Comes From Dallas To See Wife

Determined to see his wife and packing a society-sized razor, a negro from Dallas county Tuesday afternoon invaded the privacy of his wife's home, a servant house at the rear of 1900 Ninth street, according to Detectives Miller and Hawkins.

Threats of death and mutilation had been made, according to the negress in the case, who told the officers over the telephone that the man had said he would kill her on sight.

The negro woman did not leave the main house the whole afternoon until after the officers had sent the negro back to Dallas with a warning, it was said, at the police station.

LOCAL MAN IS PROMOTED TO ARMY CAPTAINCY

With the promotion of Lieutenant John Markham Ferguson of the regular army, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Ferguson, of this city, to the office of captain, Wichita Falls gives the army one of the youngest captains in the establishment, friends say. He has an enviable reputation behind him, both at home and since his entry into the service.

His record. Born and reared in Wichita Falls, and entered the first training camp at Leon Springs in May, 1917, when just passed 21; obtained his commission as second lieutenant; attached to the 90th Division at Camp Travis; was attached to 15th Cavalry on Mexican border, in December of that year, where he served until ordered to France, July 1918. Was sent directly to the front on arrival in France, went through the Meuse-Argonne campaign and into Germany with the army of occupation where he remained until midsummer, 1919.
