Two Unknown Soldiers To Be Selected

By ELTON C. FAY

ABOARD USS CANBERRA (AP)—This gray warship sailed today for an open sea meeting with ships bearing the bodies of the honored nameless dead of World War II and Korea.

The Canberra, a guided missile cruiser assigned as the ceremonial ship for the transfer of the three bodies, left Norfolk and glided out between the Virginia Capes in mist and slanting rain.

On two other ships were the three nameless dead of America's two most recent wars.

Two of them were bound for the homeland for which they died in World War II and Korea, to be buried beside World War I's Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery.

The third, the unchosen of the two World War II dead, will find his final resting place in the sea before the day is done.

This guided missile cruiser, the Canberra, is the ceremonial ship. Its, after deck was cleared for locating the three bronze caskets under the shadow of missile launchers.

The appointed meeting place at sea was 25 miles off Virginia's Cape Henry.

The orders called for the Canberra, her sister ship, the Boston, and the sleek destroyer Blandy to gather there. But forecasts of moderately bad weather at sea raised the possibility the rendezvous might be moved into the protected waters inside the Virginia Capes.

The Boston, inbound from Guantanamo, Cuba, carried the man who died in the Pacific's World War II and the one who died in Korea. They had been flown from the military cemetery in Hawaii to the United States naval base in Cuba.

The Blandy was bringing the body of the nameless man who fell in Europe or perhaps in North Africa.

At the meeting point, the Boston and the Blandy will transfer their dead to the Canberra.

Aboard the Canberra was 26-year-old William Richard Charette, Navy hospitalman first class, who fought with the Marines in Korea and wears the Medal of Honor for his bravery in that war.

Upon him was conferred the honor of choosing which of the two World War II dead would go on to Arlington—and which would be given a sailor's burial at sea.

Intricate arrangements made it impossible for Charette to know whether his choice was the man from the European or the Pacific theater of war.

Below decks, compartments in the Canberra were set aside for transfer of the bodies to three identical bronze caskets. The men who performed this mission for the two World War II Unknowns would have no contact with the men who later would handle the caskets on deck—nor with Charette. In this way, anonymity would be preserved.

Hearing On Will Delayed

CLEBURNE (AP)—A hearing on the will of the late J. E. Sexton, millionaire oil and cattleman, awaited today the appointment of a special judge by Gov. Price Daniel.

The hearing had been reset for this morning after the governor has been asked to appoint a special judge. Daniel was expected to consider the request on his return to his office this week.

County Judge Horatio Littlefair disqualified himself and lawyers were unable to agree on a judge to hear the probate case.

The litigation developed after Sexton, 80, died earlier this year.

He bequeathed in a 1954 will most of his wealth, estimated from two million to 60 million dollars, to Mrs. Agnes Kirk, owner of a Cleburne rest home. Four nieces and a sister of Sexton are contesting the will.

Two Patients Die In Fire

TORONTO (AP)—Two elderly people died today in a fire that filled a Toronto nursing home with suffocating smoke. At least 12 others were reported in critical condition.

Nurses and police quickly emptied the home of other residents who ranged in age from 75 to 85.

Dep. Fire Chief William Mitchell said there were reports the fire was started by an elderly patient playing with matches. Mitchell said an investigation was ordered.

Purcell Challenges Woodley Charges

AUSTIN (AP)—Wichita Falls Dist. Judge Graham Purcell today challenged Judge K. K. Woodley to go to court with their argument over Purcell's bid to unseat Woodley on the Court of Criminal Appeals.

"If Hon. K. K. Woodley desires to obtain a court decision on the question of my qualifications to hold the office of the judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the courts of this state are open," Purcell told the State Democratic Executive Committee today.

Woodley has asked the committee to refuse Purcell's application for a place on the July 26 Democratic primary ballot. Woodley claims that Purcell, his only opponent, does not have the necessary 10 years' experience as a lawyer and judge which Woodley says the state Constitution requires. Purcell claims that the Constitution requires only seven years' experience.

The legal subcommittee of the State Executive Committee has scheduled a meeting June 7 to consider Woodley's protest and make recommendations to the full committee June 9.

Purcell said in his brief presented today that he was a duly qualified candidate by virtue of a section of the Constitution that has remained unchanged since 1891. That section requires seven years legal experience.

"The question of whether a 1945 amendment to the qualifications of Supreme Court judges would have any effect retroactive as to the qualification of judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals is a matter for the courts of this state," Purcell said.

The 1945 amendment made it necessary for Supreme Court judges to have 10 years experience.

Purcell then asked that the committee certify his name for the ballot. If Woodley wanted to contest the certification by court action there was sufficient time for courts to determine the question before the July 26 primary, he said.

Traveling Preacher Sought In Slaying

HOUSTON (AP)—A travelling preacher was sought today for questioning in the mystery slaying of an ex-Marine here.

The body of Glynn McMahan, 32, was found yesterday by his father, a Madisonville farmer.

McMahan was shot five times with a 45 pistol. His body was sprawled on the bedroom floor of his home in south Houston.

Damage Award From Union Upheld By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld a $10,000 damage award won from the United Automobile Workers in an Alabama state court by an electrician who said excessive union picketing prevented him from working.

Justice Burton delivered the 6-2 decision which establishes the principle that federal labor law does not exclude such state court actions.

Chief Justice Warren said in a dissent that the majority decision could open the way for staggering punitive damages making it too risky for unions to engage in some activities protected by federal law.

Justice Douglas joined in Warren's dissent. Justice Black took no part.

The electrician, Paul S. Russell, complained picketing prevented him from entering the plant of the Calumet & Hecla, Consolidated Copper Co., in Decatur, Ala., from July 18, 1951, to Aug. 22, 1951.

The union, which had been certified by the National Labor Relations Board as representative of employes of the firm, called a strike on July 18, 1951.

Russell earned slightly more than $100 a week at the time. He sued the union for $50,000 and a jury awarded him $10,000. His complaint charged mass picketing intimidiation, stopping of his car and threats to turn it over, and threats of personal injury and property damage. The plant resumed operation Aug. 22, 1951, with state highway patrolmen on hand. Russell returned to work that day.

Burton's majority opinion said the union activity in the Calumet and Hecla case "clearly was not protected by federal law." Indeed, he said, the strike was conducted in such a manner that it could have been enjoined by Alabama courts.

Warren said in his dissent that the Taft-Hartley act represents an attempt to balance the competing interests of employe, union and management.

Showers Forecast Over State Today

By The Associated Press

Texas weather promises to be showery and warm for at least two more days, the Weather Bureau said Monday.

Clearing skies in nearly every section called a halt by dawn on mildly damaging thunderstorms in West and South Texas. Only the El Paso area was cloudy.

Forecasters looked for more scattered thundershowers, generally in the afternoons and evenings, in all areas except North Central Texas.

Wind and hail during an electrical storm inflicted damage in the Midland area and another struck in the southeast part of San Antonio Sunday.

The wind wrecked a sheet metal tool shop in the west edge of Midland and two chicken houses on the poultry farm of Frank Davidson two miles south of town. Only light rain fell inside Midland.

In San Antonio, the wind whipped the roof off the patio of a cafe owned by Herman Pizzini and tore away a large awning. Pizzini placed the loss at more than $1,500. Hail the size of marbles pounded tender plants.

Areas adjoining the Texas Panhandle on the northwest were under a severe thunderstorm alert for six hours Sunday evening. The Weather Bureau issued a special advisory for the sector along and 75 miles each side of a line from 50 miles southeast of Raton, N.M., to 50 miles northeast of Akron, Colo.

The only measurable rainfall in Texas reported to the Weather Bureau in the 24 hours ending at midnight Sunday was .56 inch at Palacios on the coast.

Sunday's top temperatures ranged up to 103 degrees at Presidio. Other marks were generally in the 90s and high 80s, scaling down to 82 at Amarillo.

Readings early Monday varied from 60 at Amarillo and Dalhart to 78 at Galveston.

High winds knocked down utility poles, disrupting service, when a violent thunderstorm struck the Cuero area Sunday afternoon. No tornado funnel was sighted. The rainfall ranged up to one and one-half inches in the rural areas around Cuero.

Streety Rites Here Today

Funeral services were to be conducted here this afternoon for James Larry Streety, 11, who was killed in an accident in Odessa Saturday afternoon.

The child, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Streety of Odessa, was killed when an automobile went out of control and ran through the Streety's yard and crashed into the house.

C. Dale Brooks was to officiate at the service set for 3 p.m. today in the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ. Burial was to be in the Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Survivors include the parents, one sister, Dianna Lu Rae Streety, two brothers, Douglas Leon and Doyce Wayne Streety, all of the family home in Odessa; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis House of Snyder and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Streety of Fort Worth.

Pflimlin Warns Of Civil War Threat, Calls For Defense

PARIS AP — Premier Pierre Pflimlin today warned an emergency session of Parliament that a civil war is threatening and called on all Frenchmen to defend their basic liberties.

The embattled Premier went before the Assembly as the rightist drive to boost Gen. Charles de Gulle to power spread through the overseas empire. France's worst postwar crisis was darkening hourly.

Insurgents in Algeria and Corsica claimed new successes. They boasted their crusade to put De Gaulle at the helm had spread to French Equatorial and West Africa, and New Caledonia and Tahiti in the Pacific.

Renewed fighting between French and Tunisian forces in southern Tunisia posed a grim problem. The government, in an effort to avert a Tunisian complaint to the Security Council, reportedly agreed to withdraw all French troops to the north coast area around the Bizerte naval base. But there was no assurance the military would honor the order.

In France the giant Communist-led Confederation of Labor called on its members working in government arsenals to "meet immediately to plan counteraction against the Fascist aggression." This raised the possibility the workers would try to seize arms if rightist mobs took to the streets in support of De Gaulle.

Friends of De Gaulle reported he would come to Paris tonight, and there were unconfirmed rumors that a meeting had been arranged between him and Pflimlin.

Previously De Gaulle was cool to an overture that the mediate between the government and the insurgents in Algeria, but his friends said the general within 48 hours would issue a declaration deploring the insurrection in Corsica. They added he would say once again that he is available to lead the government.

Pflimlin told the Assembly there had been "no justification and no excuse" for the military-led seizure of power in Corsica.

He said the government has already increased its security measures to prevent spread of the pro-Gaullist insurgency to the French mainland.

Striving to stem the tide of revolt, the government:

1. Cut off communications and supplies to the insurrectionists who consolidated their control of Corsica with Algeria-type public safety committees.

2. Extended censorship to all news distributed in France — whether from French territories or from abroad. The French police seized today's issue of the European edition of the New York Herald Tribune for publishing a declaration of support for the rebel generals in Algeria by Adm. Philippe Auboyneau, the navy commander in the Mediterranean.

3. Announced government officials and military personnel who took part in the Corsica uprising would be fined and jailed.

4. Asked the Assembly to order expulsion from Parliament of any deputy who works against the unity of the republic. The bill was aimed at Corsican Deputy Pascal Arrighi, who helped direct paratroopers and civilians in seizing power on the island. It could also be used against Jacques Soustelle, top Gaullist deputy who fled to take a top role in the Algeris revolt.

Pflimlin told the Assembly he was not sending new forces to maintain order in Corsica but that all "necessary" measures would be taken. This brought laughter from the rightist supporters of De Gaulle.

The rebellion spread to Corsica Saturday. Mobs led by paratroopers marched into the Plaza of Ajaccio, capital of the mountainous island, seized public buildings and installed their own junta.

There was no word of bloodshed.

The Corsican junta pledged support to Gen. Raoul Salan, French military commander in Algeria, and demanded installation in Paris of a De Gaulle government.

The Premier in a radio speech denounced the revolt in Corsica but said there was some emotional justification for the upheaval in Algiers.

Pflimlin is putting his future on the block by demanding that the Assembly vote for constitutional reforms strengthening the executive. It has thus become a matter of confidence, and any deputy voting against knows he may be opening the way for De Gaulle.

Security forces under Interior Minister Jules Moch have been alerted all over France to nip any insurrection attempt in the bud.

"The government ordered four of its ships just back from NATO Mediterranean exercises to sail from Malta for France. Their mission remained a mystery and caused uneasiness here.

Seniors Urged To Use Bible As Guide

Snyder High School's 157 graduating seniors were admonished to prepare themselves for leadership by looking to God for guidance at the baccalaureate service Sunday night in the school auditorium.

The Rev. G. M. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, compared the graduation of the seniors to the crossing of the children of Israel into Canaan in Biblical times.

The children of Israel were going into a land they had never known before, and the seniors are entering a phase of life that is new to them, Rev. Cole said. He reminded that the children of Isreal, as they were led from bondage in Egypt by Moses, went through a period of transition, education and preparation.

Those three factors are continuous in life itself, he declared. Education begins in the home, is extended by social and business life and formally through the schools, but it never ends during an individual's lifetime, Rev. Cole asserted.

He urged seniors to continue their formal education by attending college if possible. Above all, he said, they should take the Bible as their guide, because the preparation phase of life is directed toward eternity.

Rev. Cole urged the seniors deliberate carefully in choosing their marriage partners.

"That is the greatest decision you will make in life, except for claiming Jesus Christ as Savior," he declared.

The invocation at the baccalaureate service was by the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and the benediction by the Rev. Donald Hungerford, vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Special music was presented by the high school a capella choir, under direction of Robert Clinton.

AT LITTLE ROCK BACCALAUREATE

Racial Tension Is Revived

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP — An historic baccalaureste was held at Central High School last night against a backdrop that resembled an armed camp. There was at least one racial incident.

About 120 armed National Guardsmen and some 100 policemen rolled into the school area shortly before the first racially integrated baccalaureate began.

The service went smoothly on the floodlit field. But before it started seven Negroes were arrested in a car a few blocks away. And afterwards a white youth was arrested for spitting at a Negro visitor.

Among the 600 seniors to be graduated tomorrow is Ernest Green, a 16-year-old Negro. He is the first of his race to get a diploma from Central High, the scene of rioting last September when Green and eight other Negroes entered the school.

Green stood calmly outside the stadium before services. Asked if he were nervous, he said, "Sure I'm nervous. It's baccalaureate."

No one molested Green. He waited outside the stadium awhile after the ceremony, apparently for relatives. Then three detectives escorted him to a gate.

As some 1,500 persons, including 25 Negro visitors, filed outside the stadium, a white youth spat at one of the Negroes. He was arrested by city police, charged with disturbing the peace and released on $200 bond.

A photographer for the Arkansas Democrat who tried to take pictures of the incident was almost slugged with a board by a white woman. Officers took him away from other hostile whites.

Nearly an hour before the baccalaureate seven Negroes were arrested in a car a few blocks from the stadium. All were booked for disturbing the peace and two were charged with carrying a concealed weapon — a gun and a knife. All were released under bond.

Police said the chase actually started far from the school area. They declined to say whether the incident had any racial connection.

A newsmen on the scene said he heard one of the Negroes say that all were on the way to the stadium to protect Green.

The Negro student seemed to need no further protection. Uniformed police and plainclothesmen mingled with the crowd and watched for signs of trouble. Soldiers in battle dress entrenched themselves inside the school while jeeps patrolled around the massive building.

Several Negro newsmen charged that Supt. Virgil Blossom had barred them from covering the services. Asked for comment Blossom said before the ceremony: "You didn't ask me that. Ask me tomorrow. You didn't see me tonight."

White newsmen had been restricted earlier by Blossom in various phases of coverage. Last night some officers eyed them suspiciously. A photographer was ordered to stop taking pictures. Several newsmen were told to go inside the stadium. All were herded into a roped-off area and told by police to stay there.

Seven Persons Die In Beach Tragedy

ROCKPORT, Tex. (AP)—Struggles of a drowning child drew 10 rescuers off a sunny beach late yesterday and seven persons perished, including the little girl the others tried to save.

Also drowned were an Air Force chaplain, the little girl's mother and four other children.

The tragic sequence started after Janice Bailey, 9, stepped into a deep hole off the small public beach opposite this Texas port on the Gulf of Mexico.

Leonard Berry, 40, an Air Force priest from Syracuse, N. Y., dived in.

The father of another child, who also drowned, and Janice's mother Mrs. Mary Bailey, 26, followed. Efforts to help were made by seven other children, including the four who went down.

Wayne Bailey, an airman from Foster Air Force Base at neighboring Victoria, Tex., was in the crowd of more than 3,000 persons who saw the bodies of his wife and daughter pulled from the water.

"That's my wife!" he cried out as Mrs. Bailey was brought ashore dead. "That's Father Berry! Oh, my God—there comes my daughter!"

Fire Chief Dick Fox, who also heads the Arkansas County emergency corps, said most of the surf bathers knew what was happening, but there was no panic.

He identified these other dead: David Curby, 7, Aransas Pass, Tex.; and Margarita Torres, 11; Sussanna, 8, and Aurelia Tomas, 10, all of Rockport.

Joining in the vain rescue attempt was Concepcion Tomas, who saw a little girl threshing in the water and dashed from his parked car. He arrived too late to reach Janice or his own daughter.

Two prominent Snyder life underwriters received double honors Saturday night at the annual meeting of the West Central Life Underwriters held in the Wooten Hotel in Abilene.

Don G. Robinson, representing the American Founders Life Insurance Co. and Ernest Sears, representing Southwestern Life Insurance Co., each received the National Quality Award, as well as appointment to membership in the Texas Leaders Roundtable.

H. L. Skinner, chairman of the awards committee, said that the awards were given in recognition of superior quality life underwriting and service to the public.

"When an underwriter receives this award made jointly by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association, it is evidence that he is really in the business in a serious way. This National Quality Award is especially a great honor in the profession," Skinner said.

New officers of the West Central Texas Association of Life Underwriters were installed during the meeting. Tony Kucholtz of Southland Life was made president, and Eldon Roberts of Fortune Life was made vice president.

Health Rules Important In Summertime

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeatures

TIME WAS when summer was a fearful time for mothers of young babies. Death rates were high during the hot weather season. There used to be an old fear that the "second summer" in a child's life was the most dangerous of all.

The big difference between now and times past is our knowledge of bacteria and sanitation. It was bacteria in the food that caused the greatest trouble. Food spoils easily in warm weather and babies who were fed contaminated food developed diarrhea. In those old days we didn't know how to treat diarrhea and all too often the disease proved fatal to the little patients.

Baby Foods

Nowadays there are a multitude of safe prepared baby foods, and everyone has a refrigerator so that food in the home doesn't spoil any more quickly in summer than in winter.

The first summer a baby was on the breast in the old days and the danger of the second summer was the unpasteurized milk and other unprotected food he was fed.

The chief danger to our children of today with respect to food in the summer is in the meals eaten on picnics and away from home.

Food spoils in 1958 just as it did in 1858. When you go on a picnic, be careful what you feed your children. A delicious potato salad kept warm for three or four hours can cause severe food poisoning. The same thing is true of a meatloaf.

For picnics take food in unopened cans — that's always safe. Or else take raw food that you cook over a campfire. Watch the milk you give your children. It's better to skip the milk on a picnic meal rather than give the youngsters milk that has been warm half the day. Or you can take along some cans of evaporated milk and a little chocolate syrup. The chocolate disguises the canned flavor and the children will drink the special treat with gusto.

Milk Precautions

For the baby never, never carry milk warmed on a picnic or anywhere else. If you take a feeding with you away from home for your baby, keep it cold in a thermos and warm it up at feeding time. You wouldn't think of warming the 2 p.m. feeding at 10 a.m. if you were staying home. Don't do it away from home.

Aside from food the next most important thing to watch for summer health is the question of chilling. When it's hot children run and play and get wet and sweaty. Then even a little breeze chills them as it dries the perspiration. Watch out that sweaters and shirts go back on when they stop playing.

In the early part of the summer watch out for overdoses of sunshine. Let the children get tanned gradually. A nasty case of sunburn is no fun.

Teach your children to recognize poison ivy and to stay away from it.

Bacon-Stuffed Hamburgers

Ingredients: 1 pound ground chuck beef, 8 slices bacon, 4 teaspoons chopped chutney, 1 tablespoon butter, salt, pepper.

Method: Make 8 thin flat patties of the beef. Cook bacon in heavy 9 or 10-inch skillet very slowly, until crisp, turning as necessary; remove to paper towels to drain. Put 1 teaspoon of the Plum Sauce in center of each of 4 of the patties, break bacon to fit length of patties and pile over chutney; do not crumble bacon. Place remaining 4 patties over topping; mold edges of patties together well. Pour bacon fat from skillet and wipe pan. Heat skillet thoroughly; add butter; when butter is melted and hot, add stuffed hamburgers. Brown rapidly on both sides, cooking to desired doneness. Sprinkle both sides of patties with salt and pepper during cooking. Makes 4 servings.

Ingredients: 1-3 cup cold water, 2 tablespoons thawed orange juice concentrate, 1-3 cup instant nonfat dry milk powder, ½ cup cooked pitted prunes (½ pound before cooking and pitting).

Method: Mix water, orange juice concentrate and nonfat dry milk powder in a deep bowl. Beat with electric mixer at high speed until stiff (this may take 8 minutes). Add prunes and continue beating until combined — about 2 minutes. Serve at once or refrigerate for no longer than 1 hour because dessert will not hold up beyond this time. Makes about six ½ cup servings — 82 calories in each. If ¾ cup is used for each serving, there will be 124 calories in each. Cover and simmer until groats are soft and cooked through — 10 to 20 minutes usually. Water should be evaporated. If groats are not cooked through and there is no more water, add it by the ¼ cupful. Fluff with fork and serve hot. Or reheat over boiling water. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

THE PLUS-MINUS BEAUTY TRICKS

Many of us are plagued with the same trouble those ten extra pounds! They don't sound like so much while you're gaining them but when you try to get rid of them, they turn into monsters. They just won't go away. With a little effort and at practically no expense you can not only lose those pounds but at the same time gain a glowing, tanned complexion, a healthy, straight figure and a wonderful serenity of mind. It's easy, just take up gardening. Your principle investments in this beauty course will be inexpensive packets of garden seeds, an all-purpose fertilizer, several garden tools and a small plot of ground.

Exercise is painless when you have your mind on other things. While you're preparing your soil, planting your seeds, weeding and watering your garden, you'll be using flabby muscles that need tightening up for a good figure. You'll be so interested in your garden, you'll forget that you're bending, kneeling and stooping which are all exercises you'll need to take off that extra poundage. The vitamin-rich vegetables you grow will be the vegetables and salads you'll want to eat. Out in the fresh air and sunshine, working at your own speed, you'll not only dig your way to health but you'll gain a happiness and serenity of mind that are the reflection of true beauty in a human being. Try it. You'll be surprised what it will do for you.

Handy Husband Sews All His Wife's Dresses

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)— Mrs. Shirley Ramsey doesn't worry about her clothes - her husband makes all of them.

He turns out chiffons, satins and beaded gowns at what he estimates is a $75 savings. He's been designing and making the dresses for nine years.

George Ramsey majored in fine arts at the University of New Mexico. He formerly was a technical director of the Little Theater here and now is a free lance commercial artist, designer of floral arrangements and fashion coordinator at fashion shows and stage productions.

He does his sewing as three young Ramseys and two puppies romp through the house.

Mrs. Ramsey is 5 feet 6 and has no figure problems, he says. Sometimes he creates a dress on paper; sometimes as he goes along. At times he fits it as he makes it; at other times he sews from a pattern.

"Any man familiar with construction fields, interior decorating, color, line and detail should be able to sew," he says.

He not only makes his wife's clothes - he made all the furniture in their home, also.

Sponge Layers

Ingredients: 4 large eggs (they should almost fill a 1 cup measure), 1 cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1¼ cups sifted cake flour.

Method: Grease bottoms of two 8 by 1½-inch layer-cake pans; line bottoms with waxed paper. Beat eggs in large bowl with electric mixer at high speed until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually beat in sugar; continue to beat until ivory colored. Beat in salt and vanilla. Fold in flour gradually. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until cake tester comes out clean — 25 minutes. Cool in pans on cake racks. Ease cakes out of pans and strip off paper.

How To Make Pillow Bag For Pajamas

AP Newsfeatures

A GOOD WAY to teach a child neatness is to provide easy storage places for such things as pajamas and slippers.

A gay pajama bag will add a note of color to the junior bedroom and double as a pillow in the daytime. Local sewing center experts suggest you make your own covering for a round foam rubber or kapok-filled pillow, with room for pajama storage.

To make the pillow-bag, first measure your cushion. Cut two round pieces for top and bottom and a long strip for the boxing around the side. The drawstring section is the same length as the boxing strip, and seven inches wide. Remember to cut all pieces to allow for a half-inch seam allowance.

Make bias cording for edges of pillow. Stitch cording around top and bottom sections. Stitch ends of boxing strip together. Baste boxing strip to bottom section and stitch. Leave opening for zipper. Trim seam edge so it will lie flat. Insert zipper.

Make drawstring casing for top of strip which makes the bag section. Stitch bottom edge to outside edge of top section of pillow cover and stitch both to boxing strip. Use remaining fabric to make bias cording for drawstring. soc Miss Martin Named with 2 col pix Jacqueline Martin Emma

OUR VIEW

Caution Slows Tax Cuts

SAN ANGELO-STANDARD-TIMES:

CONGRESS IS APPROACHING cautiously the matter of tax revision because deficits, growing now, catch the country between the rock and proverbial hard place. The excise levies, under close scrutiny because some of them are due to be reduced automatically at the beginning of a new fiscal year, nevertheless bring in quite a pile of money.

The Treasury lists $10,900,000,000 as collected from "excise taxes" during 1957. But $6,300,000,000 of this total came from a group that nobody proposes disturbing now—the ones on alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, gasoline, documentary stamps. That left $4,600,000,000 from those of which some, at least, are on the defensive.

The 10 per cent tax on passenger cars brought in $1,300,000,000; the 3 per cent on freight, 478 millions; the 10 per cent on passenger tickets, 224 millions. If these are cut to help the depressed auto and railroad industries, pressure for cuts could be expected from other lines of business. And the Treasury got 434 million dollars last year from the 10 per cent on luggage, handbags, jewelry, furs, and toilet preparations alone.

Little rhyme or reason now pertains to the excise tax structure as a whole. Though some excise taxes bring in too little to justify collecting them, to remove them would probably be politically inexpedient because they're on alleged "luxuries"—safe deposit boxes, phonograph records, long distance calls, cameras, mechanical pens and pencils, sporting goods and light bulbs.

As for local telephone service (360 millions), TV and radio sets (152 millions), tires and inner tubes (270 millions), electrical home appliances (113 millions), if users object, "These aren't luxuries today," they're asked, "Where else would you go for the money?"

If the business curve fails to move upward in the next few weeks, a good guess is that the excise levies will be reduced as one of the quickest business stimulators and certainly as one of the best ways to help the railroads.

Mail Provides Its Usual Unusual List

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That it really does take money to make more money ... Right now it costs the federal government a dime to make 100 pennies and six dollars to make $500 worth of 50-cent pieces.

That a spoonful of diesel fuel oil in a locomotive will carry a ton of freight one mile ... Well, downhill anyway.

That some Canadian cinemas now are thoughtfully providing double seats ... for courting couples.

That the sparrow hawk is misnamed ... It actually eats far more grasshoppers than it does sparrows.

That there is still plenty of big game hunting left in crowded America ... in the last 10 years more than 600,000 buck deer were killed in California alone.

That although machines don't lay eggs, some two million dollars worth of hen fruit is now sold by U.S. vending machines each year.

That people in Chicago and St. Paul consume more fresh pork per capita than the residents of any other major American cities.

That one man can tend 40 milking cows on a typical U.S. dairy farm ... But in Russia, where the farms are less mechanized, a husky milkmaid can care for only 10 to 12 animals.

That U.S. newspapers publish more than 300 million individual classified ads each year ... and news-hungry Americans now spend a billion dollars annually to read their daily free press.

That you'd probably flunk a TV quiz if you were asked to name a half dozen of the most important vegetable diseases ... Here they are: Cucumber mosaic, lettuce yellows, tomato early blight, tomato blossom end rot, cabbage club root and bean blight.

That the teeth of elephants continue to grow throughout their lifetime ... But isn't this true of rabbits and squirrels, too?

That Bob Bobo of Black Springs, Ark., spells his name with only two letters.

That Sinclair Lewis gave this insight into human nature. "There are two insults which no human will endure: The assertion that he hasn't a sense of humor, and the doubly impertinent assertion that he has never known trouble."

That one way to keep a small child from dawdling over his meals is this: Light a small birthday candle and bet him he can't finish what's on his plate before the candle goes out.

That the porpoise does have a purpose ... Its oil is used to lubricate delicate precision instruments.

That it was President Woodrow Wilson who observed: "A few people who achieve fame grow—most of them swell."

Suspect In Fires Held

CHICAGO (AP)—A former mental patient was seized yesterday when, police said, he was about to set fire to a church. He admitted setting recent fires in a church and five other buildings, all on the West Side.

Police said Isaac Wilson, 35, admitted he set fire early yesterday to the Christ Temple Church, which was destroyed at a loss estimated at $100,000. On Saturday, he said, he started a fire in a four-story former church building. Damage was $30,000. Wilson, a Negro, was seized as he bent over a pile of rags and papers against the door of the First Congregational Church.

He told police he set fire to the church buildings because he had been refused permission to bring his dog to church. He also told police he set fires in trash cans wherever he finds them because it "keeps rats away and destroys germs."

France Injured By Split Personality

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The root of the troubles of France, once again in crisis, is in its split personality. It has a bagful of splits.

It has an ancient political history but in 1958 it is still a political juvenile and can't adjust.

For Frenchmen freedom is a one-way street. Freedom is for them—not for the colonial peoples under their control.

This cradle of European liberty has never stopped being colonial minded.

In their insistence upon maximum freedom for themselves they have operated through a mess of political parties which have made every postwar government unstable, paralyzed the nation and brought them to the edge of chaos.

And the French, once the masters of Europe, cannot get used to the idea that in the evolution of history they have become only a second-rate power at best. They still dream of glory.

Out of their chaos, their dreams of glory, their desire to hold what they have—in this case their Algerian colony—they look more and more not to freedom but to authority.

That authority is represented to them now in the person of one man: Charles de Gaulle.

The French pride themselves on being practical minded but the growing devotion to and the desire for De Gaulle is in the realm of mysticism.

The French do not know—because De Gaulle has never said—exactly what he'll do or what direction he will take.

If they choose him as the master of their fate they are relying on hope and not on a stated policy.

He has not stated his policy—he has not even clearly said whether he wants to be a dictator—except to indicate he wants plenty of power.

The freedom-minded French held on to their Middle East possessions until they could hold no longer. Their power in the Middle East is zero now.

They held Indochina until in World War II they were forced out by the Japanese. It was the British who had to go back into Indochina after the war and hold it for the French until they could resume control.

They showed no evidence of giving freedom to the Vietnamese, training neither an administrator nor an officer corps which would have been necessary to run a new government.

In the end the Indochinese nationalists, led by the Communists, revolted and forced the French to give up their hold on the country altogether.

They lost their grip on what they held in North Africa except for Algeria. They made the mistake of trying to invade Egypt until ordered by the United States and the Soviet Union to get out.

To the rebels in the last stronghold of French colonialism—Algeria—the French said no to freedom. In short, they had learned nothing from all their disasters.

In an effort to crush these rebels, France had to pull its forces out of the NATO defense of Europe and send them to Algeria, and it still hasn't been able to win there.

All Should Vote, Blakley Declares

FORT WORTH (AP) — Senate candidate William Blakley told Texas Wesleyan University graduates last night that "our elections should be decided not by the vote of a handful but by the vote of all."

The Dallas lawyer and businessman who is running against Sen. Ralph Yarborough talked at commencement exercises.

Honorary doctor of laws degrees were conferred on Eugene Jud, Waco, Central Texas Methodist lay leader, and Gordon Sweet, an executive of the Southern Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Blakley urged the graduates to "exercise the muscle of freedom" and take part actively in all levels of government.

"Our elections should be decided not by the vote of a handful but by the vote of all. The meetings of public agencies where public policy is made should be fully attended by all affected by the decisions which are reached," he said.

"Each of us has a duty to inform ourselves—and stay informed—about the operation and administration of public functions and public programs which are carried on in our name and with our tax support."

He told the youths the future holds promise not only of startling discoveries but also of significant battles for freedom.

"In your lifetime men may discover worlds that will make almost insignificant the world Columbus discovered 500 years ago," he said.

"I believe it quite possible that your generation will see the frontiers of man's learning pushed forward—this is your own lifetime—farther than in the total past of recorded history."

"It is interesting and worthwhile to note that in the 1,900 years of Christianity, man has explored and discovered and invented as during no other period in history. Yet I regard it as a matter of no small significance that, for all man has done, he has never yet discovered nor invented any new source of freedom.

"The advance of our technology into the space age has all but eliminated the prospect of the kind of wars that we have known in the past.

"But this does not necessarily mean that your battles for freedom in the future will be earlier."

Scott Captures Tourney Title

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

Donald Ray Scott, the only Snyderite to survive the first two rounds of match play in the Championship Flight of the 4th annual Country Club Invitational here Saturday, went on to win the title yesterday, defeating Judge R. H. Weaver of Big Spring in the finals, 2-1.

Scott thus became the first local player to win the title here since Dr. Dean Strack won it in 1955, the first year of the tournament.

Scott's victory over Weaver did not come easy. Weaver, in fact, led as late as the 12th hole in yesterday's gruelling finals.

The match was even through 11 and then Weaver took the lead on 12 when Scott missed a three-foot putt to take a bogey four, Weaver having already holed out in three.

After halving 13 with par fours, Scott evened up the match on 14 with a par three. Scott hit the carpet off the tee box on 14 while Weaver was off to the right of the green about 30 yards. Scott two-putted for a par while Weaver who chipped on the green nicely about five feet away from the cup, missed his par putt and the match was even.

Scott took the lead for good on 15 with a par four. Weaver missed a three-foot putt on 15 to take a bogey.

Both finalists ran into trouble on 16 with each taking bogey fives. Weaver hit a tree on his second shot on 16 and then chipped on in three and two-putted. Scott's tee shot on 16 landed in a road and his second shot was way to the right of the green. He was still short of the green on his third shot but chipped up nicely and sank his first putt for a bogey.

The match then came to an abrupt end on 17. Both were on in three on the par five 17, Weaver some 20 feet away and Scott seven feet off. Weaver's putt stopped inches away from the cup and then Scott calmly putted his in for a birdie and the match.

Highlight of the first nine came on No. 6. Going into the sixth hole all even, Scott's second shot was on the back side of the green behind a bunker while Weaver's second shot was five feet in front of the green.

Scott then chipped over the bunker and the ball trinkled into the cup for a birdie. Not to be dismayed, Weaver followed up by chipping his third shot into the cup to match Scott's bird and keep the match even.

After No. 7 was halved, Scott won 8 with a par five but Weaver battled back to even things again at the turn with a par on No. 9. Scott missed a 4-foot putt in his bid for a par on 9.

The match stayed even then until the 12th when Weaver took the lead only to see Scott wrest the lead back on 15 and then staving off the Big Springer down the stretch.

In the morning semi-finals, Scott took out Sweetwater's Gary Alston, 3-2, while Weaver nipped Buster Tuttle of Lamesa, 1-up.

In the latter, Weaver made a fine chip shot for a birdie deuce on 18 to win. Tuttle just missed making a hole-in-one on 18, his tee shot hitting the pin and stopping 18 inches away for a "gimme" birdie two.

Weaver, who led 1-up going into 18, was on the frog hair on his tee shot about five feet off the green. Facing a "make it or go extra holes situation," Weaver knocked the little white pill into the hole to match Tuttle's deuce and ending the match right then and there.

Scott and Weaver had even par 35s on the frton nine of their title match. When the match ended, Scott was one over and Weaver three over.

Dr. R. J. Kidd of Snyder won the consolation title of the Championship Flight, defeating Shelby Coker, also of Snyder, in the finals, 3-2.

Tiger football coach John Conley won the First Flight. Other titles went to Ralph Howser in the Second Flight, Earl Fish in the Third Flight and Tony Holcomb in the Fourth Flight, all of Snyder.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE FANS TURNING out for yesterday's Championship match of the Country Club Invitational Tournament were treated to some very fine golf.

You could hardly ask to see a better match that pitted Snyder's Donald Ray Scott and Big Spring's R. H. Weaver in the title go.

Until Scott dunked in a birdie on 17 to win the hole and the match, neither player had ever held more than a 1-up lead.

Both players came up with some fine golf shots throughout the title match. Both encountered trouble with their putting but other than that their golfing was superb.

Had either one been "hot" on the greens, a course record probably would have been set.

Once In A Lifetime

The thing that will stand out in the minds of the galleryites for a long time to come was the chip shots made by the two finalists on No. 6.

The two had been battling tooth-and-nail going into the sixth with one looking for a chance to take the lead.

On No. 6, each holed out from off the green to halve the hole with birdie threes.

We've followed a lot of championship golf matches but that's the first time we've seen both finalists hole out from off the green on the same hole.

No one else in yesterday's gallery, either, could recall ever seeing such a feat and, we might add, there were some "old timers" in the gallery.
add Emma Lee

Scott, in carding his birdie on No. 6, also made one of the finest recoveries of the title match.

Scott's tee shot on six appeared from the tee box to be out of bounds to the left. Scott, in fact, hit a second ball just in case. Don's first tee shot, though, stayed in bounds by a matter of inches.

Don still had a difficult shot as he was forced against a barbed wire fence to shoot his second shot.

But Scott, performing as a champion he is, came out nicely, his ball hitting the green but rolling off the backside over a bunker.

Then Scott came back with his chip shot that saw the ball "plunk" in the hole. If this shot unnerved Weaver, it didn't show it when Weaver hit his third shot into the hole for a matching birdie.

All in all, yesterday's title match was a very interesting, spectacle.

Snyder golfers did right well in the tournament, winning all of the flight titles and all but one in the consolation brackets.

The only title not won by a local golfer was in the Second Flight consolation where Pat Gerald, Jr., of Sweetwater beat Vic Baze of Snyder in the finals.

The final totals showed there were 36 Snyderites and 34 out-of-towners entered in the tournament.

Rhubarb Erupts In Giant-Buc Tilt

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The San Francisco Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates tangled in a 15-minute rhubarb at Forbes Field yesterday. Park police and umpires finally broke it up.

It all began in the fourth inning of the first game after Giant pitcher Ruben Gomez hit Pirate second sacker Billy Mazeroski. Umpire Frank Dascoli warned Gomez.

In the fifth Vernon Law of the Pirates cut loose with a fast high pitch and sent Gomez sprawling to the ground. Dascoli ripped off his mask and started for the mound to warn Law.

Danny Murtaugh, Pirates manager, leaped out of the dugout and he too headed for the mound. On the way he looked in Gomez's direction and pointed a finger to his forehead.

Danny also had a comment for the Giant's pitcher. Gomez in return made a gesture that Murtaugh did not like and the Pirate manager went after him.

Giant Coach Herman Franks tried to restrain Murtaugh but he broke away and tried to throw a couple of punches at Gomez. The Giant pitcher twice swung his bat at Murtaugh, but he missed.

By this time, the players and coaches of both teams were pushing, shoving and mauling each other at home plate. A few fisticuffs also broke out in the stands.

Later, Murtaugh said umpire Dascoli blamed him for starting the fracas. He was right as Dascoli later pointed out.

Said Dascoli: "I warned Gomez when he struck Mazeroski. I likewise warned Law when Gomez had to go down. All the umpires can do is enforce the law. Murtaugh was the aggressor when he charged after Gomez. The ruckus then started in earnest."

Said Murtaugh: "The reason I charged Gomez let us say is that he made an uncomplimentary gesture towards me. I saw red and went after him. They tell me he swung a bat at me, but that I did not see."

Dascoli said an official report will be made to the National League headquarters. He did not indicate whether he and the other umpires would recommend any fines. Murtaugh was the lone participant banned from the game.

The league-leading Giants won the double-header 5-2 and 6-1.

Tony Ruvo, Colby junior from Rutherford, N. J., hurled the second no-hit, no-run game in the school's history when he beat Williams this spring.

Castoffs Haunt Ex-Teammates

By JOE REICHLER
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four National League clubs — Milwaukee, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis—learned yesterday just how vicious the vengeance of a castoff can be.

Taylor Phillips, Sammy Taylor, Bob Rush, Bill Wight, Curtis Flood, Harvey Haddix and Steve Bilko were the men who gained sweet revenge.

Phillips, dealt by Milwaukee to Chicago last December, pitched the Cubs to a 1-0 victory over the Braves in the first game of a double-header. Catcher Taylor, involved in the deal that brought Rush from Chicago to Milwaukee, scored the only run of the game. Then Rush softened the pain by pitching the Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Cubs in the nightcap.

Flood, traded by Cincinnati to St. Louis last winter, singled in the two runs that gave the Cardinals a 4-2 first-game triumph over the Redlegs. Wight, released by the Reds, quenched a bases-loaded, one-out threat in the seventh and went on to hurl hitless ball for 2 2-3 relief innings.

Haddix, traded away by St. Louis two years ago, pitched the Redlegs to a 7-4 second-game victory. Bilko, another ex-Card, ignited the Reds' four-run fourth inning with a home run.

STAR GAS CO. FORMALLY OPENED—Althought it has been in operation for several days, the new Star Gas Co. Service Station above, located just east of the Star Auto Salvage on the East Highway, is having its formal opening this week. The self-service station features Bell gasolines and Bell Oil Co. products, and offers the get-acquainted prices of 23.9 cents per gallon on 90-octane gasoline and 25.9 cents per gallon on 98-octane Ethyl gasoline. Star Gas Co. Station Sets Formal Opening This Week

The Star Gas Co. Service Station located just east of the Star Auto Salvage on the East Highway is having a get-acquainted formal opening this week.

Special get-acquainted prices of 23.9 cents per gallon of Bell regular gasoline and 25.9 cents per gallon of Bell Ethyl gasoline are being offered.

"We offer these prices to help our many friends and everyone else become acquainted with the new station and its facilities," H. H. McDonald, owner, said.

The new station is self-service with the customer pumping gasoline into his own car tank. However, an attendant, Ray H. Blair, longtime resident of Snyder, is on duty to make change, and to offer any special services needed by the customer.

The station features Bell Oil Co. products including the famous Bell 90-octane regular gasoline and Bell Ethyl 98-octane gasoline.

All major brands of oil are also stocked, and sold to the customer for 35 cents per quart. Economy brands of oil are 25 cents per quart at the Star Gas Co. station.

"We believe that our customers will find it a pleasure to trade with our new station, and we feel sure their pocket books will appreciate the savings made possible by the self-service operation of the station," McDonald said.

"Persons who are acquainted with the quality of Bell gasolines already are our best salesmen, because they know the gasoline is top quality and offers peak performance in all types of car engines without the annoying clatter and value-ping which many interior gasolines cause," McDonald said.

"Most all Chrysler-made automobiles, even the newest models, and many other makes of late model cars get top performance from Bell regular gasoline, and perform just as well on it as on Ethyl gasolines," McDonald said.

The station has an all-weather paved drive, water, air, and all other necessary features of any service station to provide the customer a complete one-stop service any time.

It is to be open from 7 o'clock each morning until 11 o'clock at night.

"We cordually invite everyone to drive out and get acquainted with us and the facilities of our new station," McDonald said.

Johnson Says Leadership Is Confused

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) says the United States is suffering from a lack of leadership and initiative which Congress can do little to remedy.

Johnson said yesterday that "the first American answer was slow in coming" after the firing of the first Russian sputnik. "There was no great unity, no immediate dedication."

He made the remarks in his weekly broadcast over a number of Texas radio stations.

"This same confusion, this same sort of cross-purposes appeared in our midst" again when the recession developed," Johnson said.

"The American spirit has not shown through the gathering clouds of darkness. Boldness, courage, new ideas, new directions, new intiative these have not been forthcoming," he said.

As for recent anti-American outbreaks, Johnson said "It is far too easy to say that the Communists have been at work." He added:

"Many of these nations love freedom and loathe communism no less than we do. While the stonethrowers and the mobs in the street may be in the minority, there was a day, not long ago, when these elements would not have dared attack symbols of American freedom so openly."

They were fighting a fire at Ten Broeck Motors, Inc.

BODY KEPT 11 YEARS

Nurse Is Held In Death Of Child

NEW BOSTON, Tex. (AP)—A former Army nurse was held for murder today in the death of a baby whose body was said to have been kept in a trunk for 11 years.

Sheriff W. J. Watlington of neighboring Texarkana, Tex., lodged a murder charge late Sunday against auburn-haired Mrs. Rose Powers, 46.

The sheriff quoted the tall, comely nurse as telling officers she bore the child illegitimately 11 years ago while living alone in a house trailer near Augusta, Ga.

He said her only explanation for keeping the body was: "I just couldn't bear to get rid of it."

Watlington said her husband Elburn Powers, 42, called officers after discovering the body in his wife's steel foot locker Saturday night.

"She was charged with murder because she had a dead body in her possession and no satisfactory explanation as far as we were concerned," the sheriff told newsmen.

He said the partly decomposed body was packed amid clothing with a preservative powder. A physician told investigators, however, that he could not determine the cause of death nor the sex of the baby.

Watlington said Mrs. Powers came here from Nashville, Tenn., three weeks ago to work as a registered nurse in the county hospital of this northeast Texas town.

Authorities at Vanderbilt Hospital, where she had been working, recommended her highly, the sheriff reported.

He said Mrs. Powers gave vague answers to investigators' questions and had only an indirect reply when he asked whether the baby was stillborn or she killed it.

Train Used For Senior Class Party

CHICAGO (AP) — A special train carrying 812 high school youngsters rocked and rolled its way across parts of two states this weekend.

The jiving teen-agers swayed to the music of lively combos in baggage cars. Dining cars became cafes for the occasion. Thousands of balloons were strung through the length of the train.

The occasion was an after-the-prom party cooked up by parents of junior and senior students at suburban Arlington Heights High School. The idea was to keep the kids off the highways and safe from traffic mishaps.

The youngsters boarded the special train early Saturday after the last strains of Friday night's prom dance had died away. Sleep was the last thing they were thinking of.

The train took the teen-agers, plus several nurses and chaperones, to the George Williams College camp in Lake Geneva, Wis., about 50 miles northwest of Arlington Heights. There they danced some more, swam, boated, played golf, tossed horseshoes and ate.

Late Saturday afternoon the party returned home with all safe and happy.

There was one possible aftermath. Tom Wade, 16, was found to have German measles when he boarded the train for the homeward trip.

The jaunt cost $10,000.

Yarborough Pays Tribute

FORT WORTH (AP)—A call for a rededication to the cause of freedom was voiced yesterday by Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex).

He spoke in tribute to this country's soldiers in all wars at the Memorial Day service held by an American Legion post here.

"A grateful nation must not forget its duty to hospitalize the ill, care for the disabled, and widows, and educate the orphans of those who defended her liberties in her hour of need," Yarborough said.

"This ceremony is to show that you are a remembering people."

"A people who forget their heroes of yesterday are not apt to produce heroes of tomorrow.

Push Button Helicopter Is Demonstrated

By VERN HAUGLAND

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—The Navy demonstrated publicly for the first time today a newly developed push botton helicopter Sikorsky: the HSS-1N.

Sikorsky Aircraft, Stratford, Conn., called the helicopter the first capable of nighttime and bad weather hovering on instruments "a major breakthrough in rotory wing flight."

The single engine craft is the newest Navy version of the familiar sikorsky s-58 which is widely used in military and commercial service.

Its unique flight capability was demonstrated in flight by Jack Stultz, an engineering test pilot, at a meeting of the Aviation Writers Assn.

Stultz said the new helicopter had an unprecedented potential for improving the regularity of scheduled passenger helicopter operation, and in the military version was an important development in anti-submarine warfare.

The HSS-1N uses automatic stabilization equipment which has been in production since 1954, in combination with new radar equipment which measures ground speed and altitude accurately.

An automatic "hover coupler" uses the radar to determine ground motion and enable the helicopter to go on automatic control at 200 feet altitude and at about 90 miles an hour speed.

Automatically the helicopter then drops to zero speed to hover at 50 feet altitude over a pre selected spot.

Earlier the Royal Canadian Air Force showed its new Argus CL-28, anti-submarine reconnassiance plane, largest craft built in Canada.

Glamorous Service

DETROIT (AP)—Patrons of a new city bus line are getting a touch of glamor with the ride today. With pretty hostesses on board, the city is inaugurating a new express run covering the seven miles from a municipal outskirts to the downtown district. It's called the "Imperial Northwest Express."

In Trinidad, in the West Indies, a common sight is rice spread out by the road for drying after the harvest.

Showdown Is Near In Negotiations

DETROIT (AP)—This is showdown week as negotiations between the United Auto Workers and the auto industry's Big Three enter the final stage.

Contracts at Ford, Chrysler and General Motors covering hundreds of thousands of workers expire within seven days or less.

With expiration in mind, 250 Ford Motor Co. executives, from across the nation assembled here to figure out steps to be taken in any eventuality. The Ford-UAW agreement runs out next Sunday.

"Because of the many uncertainties involved, the company is preparing to handle any situation that might arise," said John S. Bugas, Ford vice president for industrial relations and head of the company's bargaining team.

Bugas said possibilities run a wide range from a new contract to continuing operations without one. Ford and the UAW have not operated without a contract since 1941.

Chrysler's agreement also expires Sunday. General Motors' contract runs out Thursday night. Ford and GM resumed negotiating today with Chrysler waiting until tomorrow.

The Big Three legally could shut their plants to force a contract settlement. But there was no hint of what they would do if contract deadlines pass without agreements.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said a management lockout "would mean a deterioration in long-range collective bargaining."

The UAW previously ordered its members to work without contracts if agreements were not attained.

The UAW is standing firm on its demands for an annual wage boost of at least 10 cents an hour, increased supplemental unemployment benefits, and cost of living allowances for retired workers, Reuther said.

Pantie Raid Is Broken Up

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A pantie raid which Florida State University officials claimed a disc jockey helped incite was broken up with tear gas.

Damage was light around Jennie Murphree Dormitory for Women. Loot included an assortment of wispy garments flung from upper windows by cooperative coeds.

The raid, involving 1,000 men students and some local residents, lasted about four hours.

No arrests were made and no injuries were reported.

Robert M. Strozier, president of the university, said a broadcast by Red Evans, disc jockey for Tallahassee station WTAL, contributed to the uproar.

Easy Way To Kill Roaches & Ants

Junior Editors Quiz on HOBBIES

QUESTION: How are model ships built inside bottles?

* * *

ANSWER: For hundreds of years sailors have whiled away long hours at sea by making models of their favorite ships. Some are even built inside bottles, a puzzling sight to many people.

There are several ways of getting them inside. The simplest is to cut off the bottom of the bottle, place the completed ship inside, and then fuse the bottom back on. But some model builders use long tweezer-like tools to reach through the narrow neck of the bottle and construct a ship, piece by piece inside. Glue is applied to each piece before it goes into the bottle. This takes steady hands and a lot of patience.

Another method is to build a ship on which the masts will fold flat. Once it is inside the bottle, the builder pulls the masts erect with tweezers or strings. This method usually requires a bottle with a large neck.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: You can build a ship model yourself with a kit bought at a store. But don't try the inside-the-bottle kind until you are older.

* * *
