States' Rights Convention Opens Today

Dixie Demos Plan To Enter Border States

By LEROY SIMMS
Associated Press Staff Writer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 16—Revolting southern Democrats planned today to take their battle for anti-Truman electors into the President's home state of Missouri and at least a dozen other states.

These moves were mapped at pre-convention caucuses today by delegates to the states' rights meeting called by Gov. Fielding H. Wright of Mississippi to open Saturday.

Wright led the walkout of his state at the Philadelphia convention. A decision today by the caucus on the Missouri move also included a plan to have states' rights electors on the ticket in Kentucky, home state of Senator Alben Barkley, the Philadelphia choice for vice president.

Chairman Named

Senator Eastland (D-Miss) of the southern revolt predicted the man nominated here tomorrow would "carry more states than Mr. Truman."

Former Gov. Frank M. Dixon of Alabama tonight was named temporary chairman for the convention.

The appointment was announced by W. W. Wright, Jackson, Miss., conference co-chairman, after a pre-convention huddle of early arrivals for the meeting.

Laney Changes Plans

The Jackson attorney said preliminary plans were being drawn up pending arrival of Gov. Wright and Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas.

"At the termination of the Philadelphia convention," Wright's statement said, "all delegates completed their authority to represent the Democratic party of their respective states and, if any attend this conference, they will attend as individual states rights Democrats.

At St. Louis, Gov. Laney, on the way home from the Democratic national convention, decided to attend the states' rights meeting at Birmingham. He changed trains and headed for

Stage Set For Hectic Session

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 16—Capitol scene shifters set the stage today for a command performance by Congress. Nobody, however, was sure how the acts would run.

President Truman knows what he wants. He told the Democratic national convention all about it in his acceptance speech when he disclosed he is calling Congress back. But the House and Senate are made up of some 500 super-individualists with their own ideas. Some of these are strikingly different from Mr. Truman's.

Although nobody was taking the idea very seriously, there was some talk of adjourning Congress as soon as it meets a week from Monday. Senator Olin Johnston (D-SC) plugged for this plan. He also worked for General Eisenhower and against President Truman at Philadelphia. A House Republican, Ben Jensen of Iowa, said he thought a quick adjournment might be the best move, although he didn't say he would make the motion personally.

Ticklish Situation Seen

Neither House can adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other, under the constitution. Even if Congress voted to quit, the President could

South Carolina Demo Party Ordered To Enroll Negroes

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 16 (AP)—The South Carolina Democratic party was directed today in a federal order to enroll negroes and grant them full rights in party affairs.

William P. Baskin, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee who had led the Palmetto state delegation at the national convention in Philadelphia earlier this week in condemning civil rights proposals, said the order "will be carried out fully."

The directive was contained in a preliminary injunction issued by federal Judge J. Waties Waring upon petition of a Beaufort negro, David Brown, who asked that negroes be allowed to participate in the party.

"It's a disgrace and shame when you must come into court and ask a judge to tell you you are an American," Judge Waring snapped.

He warned 87 state and county party leaders, who were named defendants, that imprisonment awaited any party official who failed to comply with the spirit and letter of the decision.

Deadline For Cease-Fire In Palestine Set

By MAX HARRELSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

LAKE SUCCESS, July 16—Jews and Arabs agreed tonight to stop fighting in Jerusalem and the UN mediator fixed 9 a. m. (CST) Sunday as the cease-fire deadline for all Palestine.

Israel has agreed to a truce for the Holy Land if the Arabs go along. The Arab league is meeting in Lebanon and may give its decision tomorrow.

Count Folke Bernadotte, mediator, leaves by plane tomorrow for Rhodes, his headquarters. In a statement tonight he said he sent messages to both sides notifying them of the cease-fire hour.

300 Observers Asked

He also told them that at the start of the truce he would have no peace observers to help him. He asked the Jews and Arabs "to observe scrupulously both the spirit and the letter" of the armistice.

The Swedish count is asking the United States, France and Belgium to supply a total of 300 observers, 125 each from the U. S. and France.

The UN Security Council gave the Jews and Arabs 24 hours to accept a cease-fire in Jerusalem and three days for all Palestine or face forecful measures. In view of the agreement on Jerusalem it was assumed the Holy City cease-fire would be effective sometime tonight, possibly at midnight, Greenwich mean time (6 p. m. CST).

Jews Capture Nazareth

In Palestine, Jewish troops today captured Nazareth, the boyhood home of Christ, and northern stronghold of Fawzi Pasha Al Kaukji's Arab irregulars, an Israeli announcement said. It was taken following a steady Jewish advance in the city.

An Arab legion communique said a Jewish attack on Bab El Wad, on the important Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway was repulsed. It said the Jews left 87 dead on the battlefield. The communique added that legion forces had captured the villages of Beer Maain, Elberg and Kulla, north of Beit Nabala in the Lydda area.

Virginia Man Arrested After Child Is Hurled To Death

CINCINNATI, July 16 (AP)—Eight-year-old Patricia Jackson was thrown to her death from the western hills viaduct, 125 feet above the ground, today and a man booked as Harry Hobertson, 33, of Richmond, Va., was charged with murder.

Two motorcycle riders, John Theobald and Walter Backherms, told detective chief Clem Merz they saw a man throw the girl over the railing and the man tried to reach the dead girl's brother, Charles, 3, and Edna Kidwell, 5, a companion.

The warrant charging murder was signed by John Jackson, father of Patricia.

Robertson was seized by several persons on the viaduct.

Thirty-Five Dead, Missing In Crashes In U. S. And Far East

(By The Associated Press)

HONG KONG, Saturday, July 17—Twenty-three persons were reported today to have perished in the crash-landing of a flying boat during its 40-miles flight from Macao to Hong Kong late yesterday.

Cathay Pacific airways officials reported the plane sank after a crash landing about four miles east of Macao.

Later, F. J. Gillien, manager of the Macao Power Light company, told the Associated Press by telephone there apparently was only one survivor among the 20 passengers and four crewmen.

At least two Canadians and three Americans were among those aboard.

Details were unavailable, but the company had reports that the Catalina flying boat was seen to go down four miles east of Macao about 6:30 p. m.

The company reported the only passenger rescued at an early hour was Wong Yu of Hong Kong. His arm was reported broken.

Company officials expressed hope more passengers got off before the plane sank.

Others listed as passengers included Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Stewart of Canada, who left their three children in Hong

U.S. Steel Boosts Wages, Plans Early Hike In Prices

By WILLIAM G. SMOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer

PITTSBURGH, July 16 — The giant U. S. Steel Corp., today capitulated in its avowed fight against inflation by giving wage raises averaging 13 cents hourly and announcing price hikes soon would follow.

The wage boosts, ranging between 9½ and 25 cents or about nine per cent, went to some 170,000 CIO-United Steelworkers in "big steel's" producing subsidiaries. The union quickly ratified the increase, hailing it as "a great victory." U. S. Steel said comparative raises would be handed to about about 100,000 salaried workers.

Admits Plan Abandoned

President Benjamin Fairless of the corporation in a statement admitted U. S. Steel's plan to stabilize the cost of living by pegging wages and cutting prices was abandoned. This intent was avowed last April when Fairless first rejected the union's wage demands and instituted price cuts on some items.

Fairless hinted that failure of "other members of the steel industry" to join "big steel" in price cutting and wage pegging forced his hand today.

"The prices of many products, other than steel, have continued to advance materially as a consequence of higher wages and higher production costs in general," he said. "Various other members of the steel industry did not follow this action (wage pegging and price cutting) of U. S. Steel and did not reduce their prices for similar steel products."

Price Hikes Forecast

"The steel-producing subsidiaries of the United States Steel will soon announce increases in their prices for various steel products at their mills or shipping points, following the completion of the cost study now being made. . . The forthcoming price increases are solely due to the fact that steel prices have not kept pace with rising costs."

He said also that:

"These forthcoming price increases are not occasioned to the slightest extent by the recent abandonment by these subsidiaries of the basing point method of selling steel in order to comply with the law of the land . . ."

Amount of the coming steel price boosts have been a subject

Crime Doesn't Pay, Says Former Player In 'Our Gang' Films

(By International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, July 16—Joseph Strauch, jr., 19, former member of the "Our Gang" comedy troupe, was described by police today as a "Fagin."

But Joe insists he is only a "fence."

Joe, who also has acted in Gene Autry cowboy movies and had a bit part last year in MGM's "Good News," sadly declared from behind jail bars:

"It's not very original, but you can quote me as saying that crime positively does not pay."

Teen-agers Arrested

Young Strauch—along with Herbert C. Sutter, 22, and two teen-agers—is being held in connection with a number of burglaries.

Police claim that the two younger boys, impressed by Joe's experience as "Tubby" in the gang comedies and "Tadpole" in the Autry movies, readily took his direction in crime.

The teen-agers were arrested Wednesday morning while trying to break into the rear of a bar. They confessed previous burglaries, and the arrest of Strauch and Sutter followed.

Strauch denied directing the boys in crime. He said his only offense was buying stolen sport coats for two dollars and reselling them for $10.

The former kid actor, who said he once earned $350 a week on film sound stages, now makes $133 per month as a department store stockboy.

Prominent Waco Physician And State Official Dies Suddenly

WACO, July 16 (AP)—Dr. Herschel Frank Connally, 70, executive secretary of the state board of medical examiners and former mayor of Waco, died at his home here late today of coronary thrombosis, a heart condition.

Gov. Dan Moody appointed Dr. Connally to the state board of medical examiners in 1927. He was mayor of Waco in 1925.

A native of McGregor, McLennan county, Dr. Connally was graduated from Vanderbilt university in 1900 and then began the practice of medicine at Bruceville, Texas. He moved to Waco in 1912.

Although busy as a physician and surgeon, Dr. Connally found time to take an active role in medical association affairs and state and local politics. He was a past president of the Texas Medical association.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. J. Taylor Frazier of Bluefield, W. Va., and Mrs. Betsy Maness of Waco; a son, Dr. H. F. Connally, jr., of Waco; and two brothers, Clarence Connally of Waco and Tom Connally of Clarendon.

Irrigation Well Thefts Continue

Three complaints received by the sheriff's department Thursday and Friday indicate that Lubbock county irrigation farmers may be in for another concerted wave of burglaries and thefts from their wells.

Three complaints have already been made, and there are unconfirmed reports of two other wells having been stripped.

A. A. Hood of Lubbock route 2, near Shallowater, reported Friday morning that a battery had been taken from his well, and he said he had heard of two other wells in that section which had been visited by thieves.

Two Thefts Reported

The stripping of machinery and other irrigation well equipment from two wells northeast of Lubbock in the Becton community had been reported to authorities Thursday.

The thefts were reported by L. O. Kurklin of five miles west and a mile north from Becton, and C. L. Huff of 14 miles northeast of Lubbock.

Estimated loss from the three wells was said to be between $300 and $400.

County court officials said that Ray Bloodworth, about 35, of Slaton, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of violation of the state plumbing license act.

Alice Helms, about 30, was as-

Renewed Civil Strife Feared In Italy If Wounded Red Dies

By MICHAEL CHINIGO
INS Staff Correspondent

ROME, July 16—A possible renewal of Italian civil strife hinged tonight on the life of wounded Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti, whose condition grew worse.

The government kept troops alerted, and announced an official toll of 14 killed and more than 200 wounded in disorders touched off Wednesday by the shooting of Togliatti.

The Communist-led general strike of 36 hours ended in failure at noon, but officials still were fearful at the possibility of Togliatti dying.

Togliatti's wife and other close Communist friends were worried early today when signs of bronchial pheumonia appeared in the victim at polyclinic hospital.

But a late hospital bulletin said that the pneumonia showed no sign of spreading. Togliatti's general condition was reported unchanged. His temperature reading is nearly 102 degrees.

The 55-year-old Communist leader is under an oxygen tent and is being given injections of penicillin brought from the country he fights politically — the United

Allies Strike At Movement Of Red Goods

By OMER ANDERSON

BERLIN, July 16—The Western Allies took a sharp thrust at Russia tonight by banning delivery of any food or fuel from the west side of Berlin to the Soviet-controlled section of the city.

This move strikes at the Russian economy, because some large food stocks for the Soviet sector of Berlin are in the western sectors.

The Soviet foodstocks from German farms were put in the western warehouses because of lack of storage space before the Russians began their blockade of the western approaches to the city.

Reds Increase Troops

German informants simultaneously reported from Nelmstedt that Russian troop strength has been increased at the Soviet-British zonal borders west of Berlin.

They also reported an increase in Soviet-controlled German border police.

The move in Berlin for the first time called a halt to all movement of goods between the western zones and that of Russia in the cold war now being waged.

The British earlier had shut off Ruhr coal shipments to the east. Reparations and other deliveries have been banned in the grave political struggle.

Another Record Set

The stroke followed by two days the Soviet formal diplomatic note to the United States, Britain and France refusing to lift the blockade of the city.

Many Allied officials have concluded that the Russians are determined to oust them from the city to gain a capital for a Communist puppet government.

An American official said that Washington takes a serious view of yesterday's British announcement that Russian ground troops fired tracer bullets recently in the direction of RAF planes in the supply corridor.

U. S. planes, they said, also use the British corridor at times in the supreme effort against weather and time to fly in enough sup-

Shots Fired In Dupont Strike

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 16 (AP)—Ineffective shots were fired at a gate to DuPont's big Belle ammonia plant today. The local head of a union on strike there was called to court to answer contempt charges.

The shots were fired at a food convoy which took supplies into the plant for workers who have stayed inside since the strike was called Monday night. No one was hurt.

Ten persons were injured in picket line disorders Wednesday and Thursday before a 40-man state police detail went on patrol outside the plant last night.

Truck Drivers Threatened

Sherman Blackshire, president of the Belle local of United Mine Workers district 50, was summoned to court by Judge William T. O'Farrell for a hearing tentatively set for next Tuesday.

The judge on Wednesday issued an injunction which said the union could use no more than two pickets at a plant entrance.

Attorneys for the company charged today that Blackshire and several carloads of pickets followed two company truck drivers to a Charleston warehouse and threatened bodily harm if they loaded food intended for the 2,500 workers the company says are staying inside the plant.

The company contends this vio-

Six Girls Drown In Iowa Auto Accident

UNION MILLS, Ia., July 16 (INS)—Six Iowa girls, ranging in age from six to 16, were drowned this afternoon near Union Mills when the car in which they were riding stalled on a steep hill, rolled backwards over a 25-foot embankment, and overturned in seven feet of water in a graded ditch.

The victims were the four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McMahon of Union Mills—Geraldine, 15; Rowena, 14; Illa Ruth, 12; and Carolyn six—their cousin, Mona McMahon, 15, of Gibson, and Helen Van Kampen, 16, driver of the car.

Sole survivor of the tragedy was Helen's five-year-old sister, Iva Mae, who squeezed through an open window in the car and fled to safety, although she cannot swim.

Man Suffers Slight Injury In Car Collision Near City

One Lubbock man was treated for a cut finger at a local hospital and then jailed last night following a collision on East Broadway.

Texas Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident reported that Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Potts, 620 Avenue B, were driving toward Lubbock on the Ldalou highway near a drive-in theatre when they attempted to make a left turn. The Potts car, according to their report, was struck on the left side by a car headed toward Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Potts escaped injury in the mishap, investigating officers said, but the driver of the second car was taken to a hospital where he was treated for an injured finger and released to officers who placed him in county jail pending filing of driving while intoxicated charges.

Two Killed In Amarillo Fire

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, July 16—Two men were dead and two were seriously injured when fire razed the $100,000 Phillips Petroleum company warehouse here late this afternoon.

Dead are Jodie Foster, 27, Amarillo, and Dick Sikes, 22, Amarillo.

G. Hunter, 22, Leroy Phillips, and Dave Mitchell, all of Amarillo received minor burns.

Foster, whose gasoline-soaked clothing burst into flame after the fire swept the warehouse, died in Northwest hospital at 8 o'clock. Sikes died at 10:40 o'clock tonight.

Warehouse Roaring Inferno

The warehouse became a roaring inferno at 4:40 p.m. when a broken high octane line caught fire as workmen tried frantically to repair the leak.

A truck driven by Spec Hodges of Melrose, N. M. had crashed against the line causing the break.

Describing the outbreak of the fire, Hodges said, "I was on top of my truck helping to fix the break when I noticed the flame. I jumped down and started to run. I was knocked down when I ran into something. As I got up, a man ran toward me yelling for help. I was soaked with gasoline and realized that I could not help him. I shoved him away and he rolled on the ground but it didn't do any good."

Hodges was treated for slight burns about the face and released from the hospital.

Firemen Battle Blaze

Firemen continued to battle the blaze tonight. A heavy thunderstorm which swept Amarillo shortly after the fire started was credited with helping halt the spread of the blaze to adjoining property.

The blaze sent flaming gasoline over the plant and ignited four 12,000 gallon gasoline storage tanks and four sheet iron warehouse buildings.

Eye-witnesses said that one of the injured men was literally blown from the warehouse by the explosion.

The storage tanks caught fire almost immediately and thousands of gallons of gasoline sent billowing black smoke southward, driven by a strong north wind.

Soldiers Stand Guard As Boats Carried Through Picket Line

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., July 16. (AP)—Soldiers with drawn guns and approximately 70 policemen stood guard today as the U. S. Army transported four liftboats through a picket line ringing the Welin Davit and Boa Co. plant.

The task was accomplished without incident except for booing by some 120 strikers, members of the Perth Amboy Industrial union, and independent. The lifeboats were bound for use aboard and Army transport.

Members of the industrial union are involved in a jurisdictional dispute with the CIO industrial union of marine and shipbuilding workers. The latter group are not on strike.

All-Time High In Voting Is Possible, Texas Official Says

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—An all-time high in voting is possible this year.

The state comptroller's office reported a record total of 1,722,333 poll taxes have been paid. A record 528,000 eligible voters are estimated holding exemptions, R. S. Calvert, of the comptroller's office said.

This adds up to 2,350,333 Texans who have the right to vote in this summer's elections.

British Bases Reactivated For Planes

By LEON SHLOSS
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 16—The U. S. Air Force today tripled its European heavy bombing force to a strength capable of unleashing 2,300 tons of bombs in a single strike.

Sixty B-29 Superfortresses—two groups of the planes which leveled Japan—were ordered to English bases on a "training flight" coinciding with the approach of a possible showdown in the East-West quarrel in Berlin.

Thirty of the "heavies" which are now called "mediums" are already in Europe.

Range Increased

It was learned that improvements to the B-29s now makes it possible for them to lug 26 tons of bombs apiece on short missions, 10 tons on long-distance raids.

Maximum range of the bombers, which was about 1,500 miles in World War II, has been increased to around 3,000 miles.

Diplomatic observers in Washington interpreted the warplane movement as a blunt punctuation to the U. S.-British-French warning that Russia cannot force them out of Berlin by its food-and-fuel blockade.

Flights Said "Routine"

The Air Force announcement said the bombing force would be under "operational control" of Lt. Gen. Curtis Lemay.

Lemay, commanding general of U. S. Air Forces in Europe, has been directing the mammoth "air lift" which is supplying Berlin with food, coal, medicines and other needed items.

An Air Force spokesman pointed out, however, that the B-29s could not be used to augment the "air lift" because their huge bomb bays, which take up nearly the entire interior, are not suitable for cargo stowage.

Both the Air Force statement, and a statement from the U. S. embassy in London, emphasized that the plane movement is a "routine" maneuver under the long-range training program.

Significant, however, was the fact that basing of the 60 bombers on English airfields marks the

Scattered Rains Fall In Area

Scattered thundershowers, coupled with high winds and lightning, dotted the South Plains area last night.

Most of the rain apparently was centered in the west and northwest part of the South Plains section. Santa Fe railroad officials at Slaton reported a good shower in Muleshoe. Littlefield received approximately one-fourth inch rain.

Heavy Winds Reported

Sudan reported a light shower, and strong winds, together with a brilliant electrical display. No rain was reported in Levelland.

Most of the showers fell in the early part of the night, it was said.

Anton reported no rain, although there was a high wind that swept the area, along with an electrical storm. Heavy clouds were reported to the west and northwest of Anton late in the night and prospects for rain continued.

Circuits apparently were out of order to Morton, and efforts to reach that city were of no avail.

The Weather bureau reported a heavy early evening downpour in Amarillo, accompanied by hail. No damage was reported from the hail storm. A ball game between Borger and Amarillo in Amarillo was postponed because of the rain, however.

The U. S. Weather bureau at Municipal airport reported the high temperature for Friday was 96, while the low was 72. Partly cloudy weather, with little change in temperature was the weather man's forecast for today.

Methodist Bishop Is Visitor In Lubbock For Church Meet

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

TEXAS life will be no new experience to Bishop William C. Martin, newly appointed bishop of the Dallas-Fort Worth area of Methodist Churches, when he moves his residence from Topeka, Kas., to Dallas, early this fall.

He has been pastor of churches in three Texas cities. He was pastor of Grace Methodist church in Houston four years, First Methodist church in Port Arthur three years, and Dallas First Methodist church six years.

Bishop Martin, who was assign ed to the Dallas-Fort Worth area at the South Central Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist church held in El Paso last month, was in Lubbock Friday for his first meeting with the cabinet of the church's Northwest Texas conference, one of three conferences in his area.

Members of the cabinet are the nine district superintendents in the conference, including Orion W. Carter, Abilene district; E. D. Landreth, Amarillo; W. E. Hamilton, Clarendon; J. O. Haymes, Lubbock; W. C. Hinds, Plainview;

Man Is Fined On Assault Charge

Julian Florez, 49, one of two Mexicans charged Friday afternoon with aggravated assault of Josephine Alegra, about 40, a Mexican woman, paid a fine of $25 and county court costs.

The other, Alfonso (Pancho) Urtado, 20, had not been reported arrested late Friday.

The case earlier had been described by arresting police as a possible abduction.

Three Witnesses Heard

Three witnesses, Miss Alegra, Joe Tyerina, a World War II veteran, and Marguerite Aragon, about 17, said they were driving to their homes to lunch when they met a car driven by Florez and also occupied by Urtado. Florez turned about and stopped in front of them, they said, and attempted to drag Miss Alegra from the car.

Two of the witnesses said that when she resisted Florez asked Urtado to get a gun, and that Urtado did so. He held the weapon on Tyerina, they said. The witnesses explained Florez said that if Tyerina moved Urtado would shoot.

Miss Alegra was placed in Florez' car by the two men, over her protests, witnesses said, but she escaped when Florez stopped the car at the Mexican park to allow Urtado to get out.

The incident allegedly happened by the railroad north of Fourth street, behind Forrest Lumber company.

Officials said Urtado, 20, is under $1,500 bond conditioning his appearance before an Aug. 9 grand jury in Judge Dan Blair's 72nd district court on a charge of felony theft of three suits from Russell Harding cleaners on June 18.

Shot Out Of Car

They also said he was one of two Mexicans recently "shot out of a car" which police were chasing over the Monroe overpass to investigate ownership of two tires in the car.

Questioning was under direction of E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, and Captain of Detectives Pat Davidson.

Group To Select Equipment For New TB Building Named

A committee to help select office equipment when the new building of Lubbock County Tuberculosis association on Ave. N and between Ninth and Tenth is completed was appointed at the monthly luncheon meeting of directors of the association Friday in the Aztec room at Hilton hotel.

Those appointed to the committee were Mrs. Robert J. Allen, Mrs. Virgil Robbins and Mrs. Preston James.

Roy Boyd, president of the association, presided at the luncheon. Mrs. Roy Sanford, registered nurse of the association, reported 24 new patients had been examined in the last month and three had been found to have active tuberculosis. Applications were made for admittance of those three to the state sanitorium and one patient was accepted. One death as result of tuberculosis in Lubbock county was reported.

Mrs. Elsie Alles, executive secretary, reported on new business.

Board members attending were Boyd, Dr. W. H. Gordon, Miss Mayme Alexander, Mrs. Robert J. Allen, Mrs. Ralph Bedford, Ely Fonville, Mrs. Preston James, Dr. Pauline Miller, Mrs. C. A. White, Hack Lassiter of Slaton, Mrs. Virgil Robbins of Idalou and E. R. Evans of Shallowater.

Most Of Southwest Produced Wheat May Go Under U.S. Loan

DALLAS, July 16 (AP) — More than half the wheat grown in the southwest this year may end up under government loan in the opinion of Federal Commodity Credit Corp. officials.

More than 2,000 wheat loans have poured into the Dallas regional CCC offices which covers Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. They are continuing at the rate of 300 a day.

"If the market price of wheat continues to hover near the loan rate," regional C. C. director Latham White said today, "more than half the crop may be under loan."

Texas state Production and Marketing administration offices at College Station estimated that the loans in Texas were 800 per cent over this time last year.

The 2,000 loans received cover more than 2.5-million bushels, worth almost $5,000,000.

"This is not the whole story," White said. "The loans are made at the county level and it takes a week or two for them to be processed up to the regional office. Farmers have until the last of the year, also, to make applications.

She had insisted she lost all appetite for food nine years ago after an illness.

Gromyko Leaves For Russia On 'Vacation'

NEW YORK, July 16 (INS) — Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko departed for Russia and a "vacation" today carrying a topcoat and a long fishing pole.

Russia's chief delegate to the United Nations, his wife, and their two children sailed aboard the Swedish American liner Gripsholm, ending a two and a half year stay in the United States.

The New York Daily Mirror reported that Gromyko snapped "I hope not!" in response to a question as to whether he will return to this country.

The young Soviet diplomat, apparently unmindful of the heat wave in New York, wore a heavy dark brown business suit, and toted the coat over his arm.

Stewards following Gromyko's party lugged along 22 suitcases.

Gromyko, after trying to dodge newsmen, finally consented to a brief farewell interview, and when asked if he thought the UN would succeed, declared emphatically:

"It absolutely must succeed."

District Scout Swim Meet Scheduled Here July 27

A Plainsman district scout swim meet is scheduled to take place at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 27, at Mackenzie State Park pool, according to W. R. Postma, scout executive, who said the event would be the highlight of the summer activities in the Plainsman district.

Scouts from Lubbock county's 20 troops and two senior units will be eligible to compete, providing they are under 18 and in good standing with the troop. Competition will be in the three classes: Juniors, 12, Intermediate, 13 and 14, and seniors, 15 and over.

Postma explained that similar meets are being scheduled in other districts of the South Plains Council, and that winners of first place in individual events and team relays in the various district meets will be eligible to compete in the council meet scheduled here Thursday, Aug. 12.

Scoutmasters need not turn in the entry lists prior to the meet, Postma said, but should have the completed entry forms ready for their troops when they come to the park on July 27 for the meet. Each troop must be accompanied by its adult leader on the evening of the races.

British Scientists Give Up Hope Of Atom Control Agreement

LONDON, July 16 (AP)—The council of the Atomic Scientists association announced tonight that it has given up hope of international control of the atom while the cold war continues between Russia and the west.

The asociation, organized in early 1946, has Britain's top nuclear physicists, including Professor M. E. Oliphant, among its members.

The council's views were set forth in a statement issued tonight which said:

"Seeing no hope of an early agreement regarding the atomic bomb and other weapons of mass destruction, it believes that the solution can now be sought only through the constant promotion of all measures designed to made war less likely, and to reach a settlement between east and west. . .

Women's Page

PAGE TWO, LUBBOCK, TEX., SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1948

BUT CAN SHE READ IT?—Linda Weaver, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt A. Weaver, 2209 Twenty-first, turns a puzzled expression on laughing Mrs. William J. (Bill) Murray, jr., wife of the incumbent railroad commissioner of Texas, who is seeking to remain in office, when she attempts to hand her a political handbill. The picture was taken at the Josey ranch party held recently near Carrollton. Linda's sister, Sharon, is in the center and the little boy is Charles Ray Heofloein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Heofloein of Fort Worth. Mrs. Weaver is behind the steering wheel and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Roper of Jacksboro is on the back seat.

Women, Girls Take Course In Sewing

Twenty-four women and twelve girls are enrolled for a 3-weeks' sewing and wardrobe improvement course that opened this week at Senior High school under instruction of Miss Gertrude Watson. The class meets Monday through Friday from 8 until 12 p. m. in room 125.

Interpreting patterns and learning to use sewing machines are the main interests, Miss Watson said. Some of the women are restyling old clothes; others are sewing for their families and the girls are planning fall wardrobes.

This is a part of the adult summer school program.

Others present were Mesdames S. A. Stapleton, G. W. Oatman and Bill Smith. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Youth Outsprints Two Officers, Drives Away In Patrol Car

WACO, July 16 (AP)—A 16-year-old Gatesville reformatory escapee broke away from two deputies here today, sprinted around a tourist court with the officers in close pursuit and returned to their police car in time to drive it away.

Chief Deputy Bill Harris and Deputy Mcall, panting after the chase, watched the car speed away.

They said the boy broke and ran as they started to put him in their car.

Harris said the boy, who lives in Texarkana, was being returned to the Gainesville state school for boys by his parents. He said enroute the boy gave his parents some trouble and they asked the sheriff's department for assistance.

Burglars Enter Littlefield Firm

LITTLEFIELD, July 16 (Special)—No new clues were reported late today in the breakin of the Kline and Hufstedler Implement company at 400 East Fourth street here, from which a safe was hauled away Thursday night.

There was approximately $120 in money and about $180 in checks in the safe, as well as all records of the firm, Harry Kline told investigating officers of Littlefield and Lubbock.

Tools Also Taken

In addition, Kline said an estimated $200 worth of hand tools were taken from the shop of the L-shaped building.

That would have made the total loss, exclusive of the 500-pound safe, approximately $500.

Sheriff Hugh Rice and Chief of Police Lawrence Walraven, both of Littlefield, were joined in the investigation by two rangers from Lubbock, Raymond Waters and Razz Renfrow.

Entrance, it was found by Lloyd Chesher, bookkeeper who opened the place about 7 a. m., was through a window, the pane of which was smashed so that a latch could be reached. Burglars went through the shop to the office, then loaded the safe into the alley through an east side double door which could be opened only from the inside. The overhead door then was pulled down, which automatically locked it.

The safe, it was believed, was loaded into a passenger car.

E. K. Hufstedler, jr., is the other member of the company.

From Plainview it was learned that the E. K. Hufstedler and Sons Implement company there was burglarized two nights ago, but only $7 was taken. A large safe there was not damaged, it was learned. Loot was taken from a cash drawer. George Busch is manager of the Plainview implement house.

One famous oriental rug had designs of brooks, paths, lawns, trees and flowers.

Coleman Drug Store Owner Is Found Dead In Burning Home

COLEMAN, July 16 (AP)—Morrison Taylor, 45, drug store owner, was found dead when firemen broke into his burning home here late last night.

Fire chief F. W. Parker said Taylor was found stretched across a bed in his pajamas. The interior of the house was charred by flames. He lived alone.

Justice of the Peace Barclay Martin ordered an autopsy and said tests in the Department of Public Safety laboratory in Austin would be awaited before he would give a coroner's verdict. He said Taylor had a superficial cut on the forehead.

Pampa Drops Hubs Again, 15-5

Fortin's Homers Enough For Oilers

PAMPA, July 16 (Special) — There's no substitute for pitching and hitting, which the Hubbers are finding out to their sad knowledge these nights, Pampa throwing both weapons against them again last night to win their second straight victory, 15-5.

The Oilers only needed three innings, the first, third and fifth, in which to wreck the Hubber ship that was being manned by Cotton Russell and Red Ramsey on the mound. Joe Fortin's pair of homers, one with the sacks loaded and one with two men aboard, were enough to turn the trick.

Richardson Still Hits

Virgil Richardson, the perennial siege-gun of the Lubbock nine, got the visitors off to their usual lead in the initial frame, smashing a home run out of the park after Gene Hixson had singled. After that Foster White, a lame-winger, looked great for eight innings.

The Oilers pushed over four runs in the first on a walk to Bob Belford, Frank Teyema's single, Jack Riley's walk and Fortin's grandslammer. They added another four in the third on singles by Teyema and Riley preceding Fortin's second homer, after which Bob Dews singled, Bob Bartholomew and White walked and Dews scored on R. C. Otey's fly.

The Hubber ship was wrecked for good in the fifth on four walks, two of which forced in runs, a scoring fly, two singles and three errors. It was this inning in which Ramsey came on in relief and he managed to hurl a fair game from that point on.

Final Game Tonight

But the Hubbers couldn't mount a rally, even though they scored three times in the eighth. Richardson led off with a walk, Don Moore doubled and Richardson came in on Floyd Walker's fly to right. Frank McAlexander singled to plate Moore, Charley Scarborough walked, Ramsey fanned and Jackie Wilcox singled to get McAlexander home.

Tonight the Hubbers conclude their unpleasant three-day stand in Pampa with a single game, in which Lefty Fred Pollack will be sent to the mound in an effort to salvage one game. Then the Hubbers return to Lubbock for another trio of contests with the team that now leads them by four full games.

Carter, Barizen Gain Quarter Finals In Clay Court Tourney

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP) — Tom Brown of San Francisco and Gardner Larned of Chicago, seeded No. 1 and 4, were upset today in the quarter-finals of the National Clay Courts tennis championships.

Brown was defeated by Sam Match of San Francisco in a four set duel, 6-1, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Larned was dropped by sixth-seeded Clarence Carter of San Francisco, 5-7, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1, in a three hour marathon.

In the quarterfinals of the men's doubles, Larned and Bernard Bartzen, San Angelo, Tex., defeated Herbert Behrens, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Irving Dorfman, New York City, 6-2, 6-4.

Gunther, Riley Gain Finals In Southern Women's Tourney

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 16 (AP) —Margaret Gunther of Memphis won her way into the finals of the Southern Womens golf tournament today by defeating Bopie Whitaker, Florida state champion, 6-5 over the Belle Meade course.

In the other semifinal match, Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., had a three-up lead on Mrs. E. S. Blanton, Enid, Okla., at the turn.

TELEVISION EXPLORED

COLUMBUS, O., July 16 (AP) — George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, said the major and minor leagues may take some action on television at a meeting next December. The subject was explored, he said, at a meeting of the joint minor-major league committee on television and radio in St. Louis Monday. No conclusions were reached, Trautman added, but some recommendations are expected to be prepared in time for the December meeting.

FIRST METHODISTS WIN

Al Miller, and Chuck Dunham shoved across the three home runs to break a 14-14 tie and give the First Methodist nine a 17 to 14 win over the First Baptists in a City League game Friday afternoon.

Baker-Fleming, Bennett Motors Gain Consolation Games In A. S. A. Tourney

Bennett Motor company of Seminole and Baker-Fleming of Plainview won consolation round games in the A.S.A. softball tournament at Jumbo Webster field last night, as two Lubbock teams, Barber college and Levines were eliminated from the tourney.

Bennett turned in a six-inning defeat of the barbers, 12-2, and Baker-Fleming had little trouble disposing of Levines in the same span, 10-0.

B. B. Brewster subdued the Barber college nine on five hits, four of which he allowed in the first inning when the losers tallied all their runs. He had eight whiff victims and pitched easily, while his mates hit the ball hard.

The Seminole nine started slowly, but gathered speed as the game progressed. They took advantage of barber errors, getting more hits than runs in only one inning. And they clinched the tilt in the sixth with five runs.

In the second contest, it was no contest after the second frame, when Baker-Fleming scored four runs on only one hit and that a single to left. A hit batsman, an attempted sacrifice that went for life on an error, a fielder's choice and a single, along with two more errors sent the winning runs in.

Burch gave up only three hits in winning his shutout and never was in trouble, good infield play supporting him with men on the bases. One runner was thrown out stealing and two threats were erased by good work at third.

The tournament will resume play Monday night, with two games in the championship bracket.

The line scores:

BARBER COLLEGE	200	000—	2 5 0
LEVINES	000	000—	0 3 6
BAKER-FLEMING	041	104—10	9 2

DUROCHER TAKES OVER GIANT CLUB

Giants, Brooklyn, Phils Make New Managerial Agreements

(By The Associated Press)

Three national league baseball clubs changed managers today in the greatest one-day mid-summer shift on record.

Leo Durocher, brash manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, resigned to accept a similar post with the New York Giants, replacing Mel Ott. Ott also had resigned.

Burt Shotton, who piloted Brooklyn to the National League pennant last year, returned to the Dodger helm.

Ben Chapman, fighting manager of the Philadelphia Phils was dismissed and replaced by Allen (Dusty) Cooke, who joined the club last year as a trainer.

Ruled Dodgers Since 1939

Until Leo Durocher was given his release today by Brooklyn he had the distinction of having piloted the same club longer than any other active National League manager. He took over the Dodger reins in 1939, and except for last year when he was suspended by commissioner A. B. Chandler, had ruled the Dodgers without interruption.

The Giant-Broklyn transaction, completed withina 24-hour period, took effect immediately with Shotton flying to Cincinnati to take over the Brooklyn club at Cincinnati this afternoon and Durocher flying from New York to Pittsburgh to guide the Giants in a night game.

End Of McGraw Era

The quick change thus brought to an end the "McGraw Era" of Giant management, for Ott was the last of the players who came to the Giants while John McGraw managed the club. At the same time it brought in an aggressive, noisy manager of the McGraw type.

Ott, who joined the club as the "Boy Wonder" in 1926 and never has been associated with any other team, will remain in the Giant's organization in an undetermined capacity, although he resigned as manager. He will serve out the term of his contract, which runs through 1950, after taking a brief vacation.

Durocher was hired for the remainder of the 1948 season and for 1949 under the exact terms called for in his Brooklyn contract. This was understood to give him a basic salary of $45,000 a year with additional amounts based on attendance figures.

In Cincinnati, where Brooklyn president Branch Rickey announced Durocher's resignation simultaneously with president Horace Stoneham's revelation of the Giant change, no mention was made of the terms of Shotton's contract.

Terms Discussed Earlier

Stoneham and Durocher met to discuss terms last night and Durocher then went to Brooklyn to give Rickey his resignation.

The first suggestion that Ott should quit as Giant manager came about ten days ago when he and Stoneham met to discuss the plight of the club, which has been wallowing around in fourth and fifth place.

Asked what the club needed most in the pennant race, Ott replied—"maybe it is a new manager."

Today when reporters asked Ott if his resignation was his own idea, Mel smiled wanly and replied, "partly."

The reasons for Durocher's decision to change jobs remained secret. Loquacious Leo insisted that his relations with the Brooklyn management had been the best but that he always had admired Ott, Stoneham and the Giant organization.

"I definitely think I will better myself by the move," he added.

Phils Caught By Surprise

Ben Chapman's dismissal caught the entire Philadelphia team by surprise.

Club president R. M. Carpenter, jr., called Chapman into his hotel suite here to advise him that he was making the change. Afterward both said they were parting as good friends.

"I want to put the facts on the line," Carpenter told newsmen later. "We have decided on a change. As a matter of fact, Ben and I decided between ourselves that a change might help."

Carpenter declined to give a more specific reason for his decision or to indicate whom he had in mind to take over as the permanent manager. He said Chapman would be paid his full salary for the remainder of the year.

SHIVAR WINS AIR FORCE PLAY

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 16 (AP)—First Lieut. Bill Shivar of Perrin Field, Texas, won the Southern Air Force tennis championship today. Shivar defeated First Lieutenant Bertram Tesman of the Greenville, S. C., air base, 6-4, 6-1, 6-0.

GHEZZI PACES DAPPER DAN

PITTSBURGH, July 16 (INS) —Red hot Vic Ghezzi of Englewood, N. J., continued to set the pace today at the halfway mark in the $16,500 Dapper Dan golf tournament in Pittsburgh, with a 12 under par 132 for 36 holes.

Midland Manager, Two Players Fined And Placed On Probation

ABILENE, July 16 (AP)—Owner-manager Harold Webb and two players of the Midland Indians of the Longhorn League today were fined for their part in a July 10 episode at Midland in which they were evicted from a game with the Oilers.

President Howard Green of the class D doop assessed a $100 fine against Webb and $15 each against players Jim Prince and Harvill Jakes. They were tossed out of the game by umpires Milton Eiler and Joe Tondrick.

The $100 fine is the stiffest in the two-year league history. In addition, the announcement said Webb and Prince were "severly reprimanded, and put on probation for the remainder of the season with ejection from any future game . . . meaning automatic suspension" Jakes was promised a "severe penalty . . . if he is the source for any future trouble."

Prince was the nation's minor league batting champion in 1947.

Stymie, Gallorette To Run In Rich Brooklyn Handicap

NEW YORK, July 16 (INS)—Two of the world's top money-winning thoroughbreds will come to grips tomorrow in the $50,000 Brooklyn handicap, closing day feature of the Aqueduct race track.

The favorite will be Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Stymie, the Cinderella horse who tops the all-time money list with earnings of $904,835. Stymie's handlers hope to push his total gleanings up to the million mark by the end of next month, and a victory tomorrow would be a long step in that direction.

One of Stymie's main rivals tomorrow will be W. L. Brann's Gallorette, top money-winning mare with earnings of $392,535. Another strong contender will be the unpredictable Knockdown.

Feller Booed As A's Down Indians, 10-5

PHILADELPHIA, July 16 (AP) —Bob Feller, booed in his first start since declining to play in the All-Star game, lasted only a third of an inning tonight as the Philadelphia Athletics beat the Cleveland Indians 10 to 5. Lefty Lou Brissie gave up ten hits, including Ken Keltner's 22nd homer with two on, in winning his ninth game of the season.

Yanks Edge Dodgers 18-3 In Kid Game

McDonald Dunnigan hurled his Pee Wee league teammates, the Yankees, to a hard fought 18 to 13 victory over the Dodgers Friday afternoon at the Lubbock Boys Club.

Pacing the Yankee hitters was Leonard Jarett, who batted out a double and two singles in five times at bat. For the losers, Dave Allen pitched and also managed to get three singles and a triple in five times up. Both Dunnigan and Allen went the route for their respective teams.

In the other afternoon tilt, the Junior League's Exchange Club nine edged past the Jaycees, 15 to 14, in a tight duel. Bobby Craig drove in three runs on a double in the third inning. Duane Ramphy was the winning pitcher.

The Jaycees drove in their 14 runs in the last four innings, but in the final minutes of play the losers had men on second and third when Morgan Hall blasted out a long fly to center field to end the game. If the game had lasted a few seconds longer, a 15-15 tie would have been the result.

Altus Edges By Lubbock Legion Nine, 8-5, In Exhibition Clash

Oklahomans Rally In Tenth Frame

Jerry Shaw's tenth-inning single scored Johnny Risinger and Rodney Herring from second and third to give the potent Altus American Legion nine an 8-5 victory over the Lubbock "A" team Friday night at Rosenthal field.

The two Legion squads were deadlocked at 5-5 at the end of nine full innings of play in the exhibition tilt, but consecutive singles by Risinger, Herring and Shaw in the top of the tenth provided the margin of victory for the smooth-working Oklahomans.

Lefty Jackie Martyn, who relieved Hulen Fowler in the ninth stanza, was charged with the loss. Martyn retired Altus in order in the ninth, but was the victim of the bingles that tallied the winning runs.

Big Jerry Shaw, who took over mound duties for Altus after starter Carlton Ray had given up four consecutive hits in the first frame, gained credit for the win. Shaw gave up just four safeties in ten innings, while striking out 14 Lubbock batters.

The Lubbock boys took a three run lead in the first stanza, when Bob Brown led off with a triple, Jesse Fullerton dropped in a single and Dorrance Guy and Charles Galey followed with bingles. Two more Hub city tallies were chalked up in the fifth on Guy's double and Galey's second single, but that was all for the home nine.

BETTINGFIELD DRAWS NEW OPPONENT

Villa To Replace Obregon In July 22 Jaycee Boxing Lineup

Enrique Villa of El Paso has replaced Kid Obregon as an opponent for Abner Bettingfield of Dallas in one of the featured six-round fights on the Junior Chamber of Commerce fight card Thursday night at Rosenthal Field.

Villa, one of the classier middleweights in Texas today, is a soudly built fighter with a stiff jab and a heavy punch. He has a difficult style to follow and has been a crowd-pleaser wherever he has fought.

The remainder of the card has no changes in it, with Billy Loudermman meeting Howard Steen and Jobe Andreas facing Tony Olivas in the eight-round features. Two of the main six-round events has J. D. Kirkpatrick of Petersburg fighting Baltimore Hernondez and Bill Henderson of Levelland takes on Ignacio Godinas.

The two four-round fights also are set with Pohn Brown opposing Gilbert and Joe Music fighting Tommy LeNoir.

General admission tickets, which have not been placed on sale yet, will be available Monday, Jaycee officials have announced. General admission tickets for the grandstand seats will sell at $2.40 each, while bleacher general admission tickets will go at $1.80 each.

Only a few ringside seats remain available, while three-fourths of the box seats have been sold. Grandstand reserved seats are going more slowly, although they are among the best in the stadium.

Tickets for Negroes are available at Goldstein's Drug store, with a special section at the park.

Crannell Captures Junior Golf Crown

SAN ANTONIO, July 16 (AP)— L. M. Crannell, Jr., 21-year old North Texas State college golfer, knocked in a 35 foot putt for a birdie two on the 36th hole Friday afternoon at Brackenridge park to defeat Gene Towry, wiry 19-year old Dallasite and North Texas team mate, 1-up in the 36-hole finals of the State Junior golf championship.

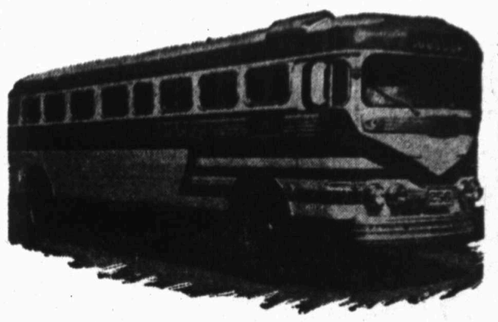

Crannell, who was behind all the way to the 31st hole, thus became the second player in the 22 year history of the tournament to capture the title more than once. He also won the crown in 1943. Buck Luce, now a professional, won the title in 1935, '37 and '38.

That 35-foot putt climaxed a brilliant up-hill rally in which the husky Dallas shotmaker birdied five of the last nine holes after being three down at the end of the morning round. Crannell and Towry each was five-under Brackenridge's par of 142 for the 36 holes.

AN UGLY PICTURE

Chiseling In Dallas

LITTLE defense can be offered for the 27 Dallas residents indicted by a federal grand jury this week if they are guilty, as charged, with perjuring themselves to obtain GI loans for applications upon homes at profiteering prices.

But if these wholesale violations did occur, something assuredly was wrong in the federal agency which approved those loans. The agency either was incredibly inefficient if it failed to discover that something wrong was going on; or it was guilty of a connivance which allowed such violations to take place.

Thus, it will not be sufficient to make every effort to determine the guilt or innocence of those indicted, and to punish severely those who may be convicted. It is no less than equally important to ascertain, and correct, the defects of personnel and procedure which allowed the veterans administration to place its stamp of approval upon loans now labeled by a grand jury indictment as fraudulent.

In passing, it is well to remember that credit for action in the Dallas loans and building cases must go not to the officials charged with the responsibility of attending to such matters. Credit, must go to Drew Pearson, the newspaper columnist, who was the first to bring out that whether or not there is "something rotten in Denmark, there was a terrible odor in the vicinity of "big, friendly Dallas."

Mr. Pearson "blasted" the warning over the country. Official action came later.

General Pershing

DURING the years immediately following World War I, the tendency was widespread to belittle Gen. John J. Pershing's contributions to that victory. Most of the laurels were heaped upon the late French Marshal Foch, generalissimo of the Allies when the struggle ended.

But, for whatever satisfaction it may have given him, General Pershing lived to see himself accorded an unchallenged place as one of the greatest in a generation of great soldiers.

Facts compelled this recognition.

When General Pershing reached France, Allied leaders acknowledged their plight was so desperate that only the United States offered any hope of saving the day European generals outdid each other in trying to belittle America and Pershing later. But they screamed their despair to the high Heavens then.

So Pershing organized the separate American Army, which was opposed violently by Foch and others. He led it as it carried the ball to victory in November, 1918, a victory which the most optimistic among Allied leaders said could not be won for at least another year. Only brilliance of the highest order can explain such achievements. But recognition was slow in coming for General Pershing, probably due chiefly to jealousies among other commanders and to his natural austerity, which appealed to neither the imaginations, nor affections, of the masses.

But recognition did come, and Americans are few who would deny now that he has earned his place in the very front ranks of those who served their nation well during one of its periods of deadliest peril.

ON the spur of the moment, Paul decided to return to London. He got out of the train at Liverpool Street, looked up Roger Dickson in a telephone directory, hesitated about phoning him, then decided it might be better to go right along and call in person.

A manservant answered the door.

"Mr. Dickson?"

"I'm sorry, sir. Mr. Dickson isn't at home."

"I see. You can't tell me where I could find him?"

"Well, no, sir, I'm afraid I can't. He should have been back this evening, but I've had a telegram to say not to expect him till the morning."

Paul took a tight hold on himself.

"He's out of town perhaps?"

"Mr. Dickson's been in Paris, sir, for the week-end. Would you care to leave a message?"

Paul's face was white and set. A tumult of emotion surged through him. Rage. Jealousy. And a very real anxiety.

"I don't think so, thanks. I'll call again."

"Very good, sir."

He turned away as the door closed upon him. Well, that was that! He shouldn't have been such a fool as to come chasing up to London. Hadn't he only got what he'd expected? Only what had he expected? And what had he got for that matter? There might be 50 explanations as to why Roger Dickson was in Paris. It might even be that Patience wasn't with him. Or, if she were, perhaps they'd both gone over in a party. But supposing they hadn't? Supposing just the two of them had gone—

MORNING found him, after a sleepless night, wondering what was the best thing to do about it. Meet all the trains from Paris? Meet all the planes? Since he couldn't very well be in several places at once, this wasn't a very feasible proposition. On consideration, he decided to go to Dickson's flat again.

"Ah, yes, sir," said the manservant. "You called yesterday. Will you come in, sir?"

"Mr. Dickson's back?"

"Yes, sir. He arrived only a short while ago. I'll tell him you're here."

The man showed him into a sort of combined sitting and dining room. Paul admitted grudgingly to himself that it was exceedingly comfortable. Books lined the walls. There were deep leather arm chairs.

"You wanted to see me?"

He turned to find Roger standing in the doorway, disgustingly handsome in a red-and-white-striped dressing gown, a red silk scarf around his neck.

"I'm sorry. Please forgive me. The trouble is I've got such a shocking memory for faces. I know you, of course, but I just can't place you."

"You don't know me," said Paul aggressively.

Roger's brows drew together. It struck him that the young man looked white and strained, and rather as if he might be after his blood.

"But you know someone I know," went on Paul. "Patience Mond. Perhaps you'd be good enough to tell me where she is."

Roger looked at him.

"Is your Christian name Paul by any chance?"

Paul glared at him.

"Yes. But what's that go to do with it?"

"Only that she's mentioned you to me."

"Where is she?" demanded Paul hotly.

Roger held his temper. "Patience?" he said easily. "Oh, she's on her way back home to the country. I've just seen her off on the 8:40."

"Your man told me you'd been in Paris."

"So I have. I traveled back over night."

"Was Patience with you?"

Roger reached for a box of cigarets, offered it to Paul who refused to have one, and lit one for himself. So this was what all the trouble was about!

"She wasn't with me exactly. I mean, there were other people there too. Her sister and another man, as it happened."

Paul started.

"Her sister?"

"Yes. Her twin sister, Charlotte."

"Jumping Jupiter!"

"I say, is anything wrong?"

Paul swallowed hard.

"Was the sister at a party given on the stage at the Apollo after that new show opened there a week or two back?"

"Sure. She's Carlotta. She's in the show. I say, you must be the young man who mistook her for Patience. Of course! I'd forgotten. Patience was most upset about it."

Paul pushed a hand back over his hair.

"This Paris business," went on Roger, "was a bit of an escapade. Unfortunately, Patience and I lost the plane home yesterday afternoon."

"Patience and I—" Paul's jealousy stirred again. "How convenient!"

"Don't be silly," said Roger shortly. "If it had been convenient do you think we'd have traveled back by night on that awful Newhaven-Dieppe route without even so much as a couple of berths? Incidentally it was whilst we were sitting up on deck beneath the stars that you came into the picture."

"I?"

Roger looked at him.

"Yes. From one or two things Patience let fall, I've an idea you matter a very great deal to her—"

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

YOU wouldn't believe that one could get a lesson in humility from a little thing about five inches long, a half inch in diameter, looking like a pencil done up in brown wrapping paper. Or would you?

Well, a few evenings ago I was sitting in my living room, looking at a movie taken about twenty years ago with Ben Turpin as the hero. To see that kind of stuff I had just bought a new television set and invited several friends to share in Turpin's ancient artistry. Suddenly there was a clap of thunder, preceded by a terrific flash of lightning.

BRANDEIS

The television set, man's newest invention, went off. The lights went out. The water pump stopped. The refrigerator ditto.

While the wife rushed madly all over the house to close doors and windows, I rushed to the telephone to call up the power company.

The phone was dead.

So there we sat, my wife, our friends and myself.

Ten minutes before we had guffawed at Ben Turpin's outmoded antics.

And here we were, in the dark, with the lightning blazing away and the thunder making an ungodly (or should I say godly?) racket.

Nobody spoke. There didn't seem anything to talk about when the elements were doing all the talking.

* * *

After a while the lightning and the thunder stopped. The lights went on again. The pump started pumping. The refrigerator took up its familiar hum. Man's inventions were at work once more.

The television set came on again, but I turned it off. Somehow we had lost our interest in it.

We had a cup of coffee and after a half hour or so the friends went home and we went to bed.

NEXT morning I tried to put in a telephone call. But the phone was still dead.

So here we were, out in the country, cut off from the world. My wife wanted to call the grocer. I had to call the doctor, the office in New York, and several other people. I fumed and fretted and realized by what a slender thread civilization hangs.

For four or five hours we were isolated. Then a man came from the phone company.

He was a plain working man, in overalls, tousled hair, no coat, no

GOP'S FACE BATTLE

Truman Is Confident

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA — President Truman sent word to the delegates here through National Chairman J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island that he is convinced of his reelection next November. Although he seemed to be the only man in this city with that faith in his chances, he has moved to suppress the defeatist spirit which has fallen upon the party as it prepares to face the Dewey-Warren ticket.

Mr. Truman expects to win by adopting the same formula which elected Franklin D. Roosevelt four times. He does not agree with some political experts who think that he will lose possibly four Southern States, or with those who maintain that he will be one of the worst defeated chief executives since Alf Landon carried only two commonwealths in 1936.

TUCKER

The Missourian, in talks with prominent delegates just before they left Washington for the convention city, insisted that the groups which have made up the so-called Rooseveltian party for sixteen years would cling to him. He plans to denounce the GOP ticket as dominated by "Wall Street," and will campaign as the champion of the "little people."

* * *

VOTES: President Truman, according to Chairman McGrath, Keynoter Barkley and Permanent Chairman Sam Rayburn of Texas, thinks he will sweep the great metropolitan centers, whose votes enabled Mr. Roosevelt to carry the key, electoral states.

He places no trust in reports that various racial groups are resentful of his foreign policies in Palestine, Poland and Italy, and will support his opponents.

He believes that Secretary of State George C. Marshall has done an excellent job—again he is almost alone in the belief—and he hopes that the World War Chief of Staff will make several speeches in vital, strategic cities during the election struggle.

LABOR: Mr. Truman also banks upon labor for heavy support, despite indications here that several former high members of the Labor Department will soon announce that they prefer Messrs. Dewey and Warren to the Democratic slate.

In fact, one labor department executive who recently resigned—John Kmetz of Pennsylvania—is reported to have said publicly that he quit the "baby cabinet" so as to relieve the President and himself of embarrassment when he declares for the GOP combination.

Nevertheless, President Truman has told party bigwigs that he will get the labor vote, the city vote, the regular Democratic vote and, of course, the solid South.

If he has that much confidence in himself, then his belief that he will win becomes understandable. But very few politicians here, in their off-the-record talks, share his triumphant spirit.

PROPAGANDA: The fact is that there is some circumstantial evidence that Mr. Truman may have more reason for his happy expectations than is generally believed.

The Democratic publicists have already begun to depict the Republicans' ticket as a New York-Wall Street affair. Signs of their success in this propaganda effort are evident from talks with the "little people" upon whom the President depends—taxi drivers, hotel employees, folks on the street.

As was obvious at the Republican convention which nominated Mr. Dewey and Mr. Warren, there is no great enthusiasm for the slate. For a party which expects to sweep the country, the Republicans are strangely apathetic, and this lack of a strong, victorious spirit extends to the so-called man on the street.

GRUNDY: The Democrats here also refer to the GOP convention as a "Grundy Party" because of the key role which the famous tariff lobbyist and Senator Edward H. Martin of this state played in forcing the nomination of the New York governor on an early ballot. Also, in view of the great ovation given to former President Hoover when he addressed last month's assemblage, Mr. Truman's publicists are going to highlight this question:

"Do you want to go back to Hoover and Grundy?"

PART: An authentic post mortem of the Republican convention suggests that the GOP's erstwhile banner state—Pennsylvania—played a more important part in that shindig than is generally known, and largely because of the Grundy-Martin contribution to the winning ticket.

As soon as their anti-Duff switch to Gover-Dewey settled the scrap, it was decided that the position of National Chairman should go to Pennsylvania.

Representative Hugh Scott of the Keystone State was finally chosen, but he was one of three possibilities who were discussed between Governor Dewey and his managers.

As evidence of the close tieup between Governor Dewey and the Pennsylvania Republicans, there is the fact that George Bloom, Administrative Assistant to Senator Martin, was first choice for the chairmanship.

He is a lawyer, an experienced politician and was Senator Martin's secretary when the Dewey-maker occupied the Governor's post at Harrisburg. Such a selection, however, was vetoed as too palpable an acknowledgment to the Grundy-Martin faction.

CONSERVATIVE: Another pre-Scott prospect was "Cap" Roland of Harrisburg, a well known Pennsylvania politician best described as a "Republican George Allen," meaning that he has a likeable personality and is a shrewd political operator. But "Cap" bowed out with the explanation that he was "just a simple Harrisburg boy, and would be out of step in bigtime, political company."

However, the fact that the party chairmanship fell to the conservative, Republican wing headed by Senator Martin, who once referred to Senator Robert A. Taft's Federal Housing bill at the last congressional session as "bolshevistic," suggests that Mr. Truman may go farther than most people think in denouncing his opponents as a Wall Street-Harrisburg conspiracy against the "plain folks."

Although murder is against the law, you wouldn't even be arrested if you were to kill the person responsible for most of your troubles.

We don't know whether or not this is food for the gossips, but the fact is that Santa Claus is more liberal to young women whose stockings are well filled the year round.

"Man Applies for Insurance Against Having Triplets."—Headline. For the love of Mike, doesn't nature insure a man against a contingency like that?

It is generally agreed that it is futile to worry about yesterday or tomorrow. And surely it is foolish to worry about anything so temporary as today.

WITH DEMO FOES AND GOP

President Ready For Showdown

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA — As well as putting Republicans on the spot by calling Congress into special session a few days hence, President Truman aimed also at certain results within his own party by the coup he announced so dramatically from the platform of the convention.

This bold stroke in his acceptance speech, which aroused the delegates and the galaries to the only real spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm seen at either Republican or Democratic conventions, has these other designs:

STOKES

1. To unite along the battle front of Congress in Washington during the campaign the labor and liberal leadership which was hesitant, where not actually reluctant, to go along enthusiastically and wholeheartedly for his renomination. They must get into this fight, shoulder to shoulder with President Truman, because he has sounded the call for a fight for measures which are demanded by their rank and file. It will force them, of necessity, to his side.

Also Blow At South

2. To reveal, so that all may see, that it is from the same southerners who so resisted his nomination that Republicans continually draw allies in Congress to check-mate the Truman program as they did the Roosevelt program before.

Behind the convenient cover of civil rights hide great economic and financial interests. They continually use the civil rights, state rights issue to check progressive measures. They work through their agents in Congress who are creatures of the rotten borough political system in the South. This system is perpetuated by the very lack of civil rights which the President has asked so that the franchise may be spread broadly to the people of the South, white and black, by abolishing poll taxes, white primary subterfuges and other discriminations.

Conversely, the drawing of issues in a special session of Congress will throw in bold relief those Democrats in Congress from the South who have progressive inclinations on economic and social welfare measures so that the people of the South can separate these from the state rights bitterenders. That will be healthful and will point to the avenue through which southern progressivism can slowly build itself into a potent force. The President is keenly aware of this difference in the South and was talking over the heads of the bolting southern conservative leaders to the people in his acceptance speech.

His appeal for a united party was a refreshing contrast to the shabby performance some time before when the Mississippi delegation and half of the Alabama delegation walked out of the convention in protest over the civil rights program. Few seemed sorry to see them go. Their departure served to cleanse the atmosphere.

GOPs On Spot

Republicans, by their omissions in the 80th Congress, permitted President Truman to choose the battlefield for this campaign, which is the Republican Congress, and there is always some strategical advantage in that. They left themselves wide open when they came here at their convention and blithely promised in their platform to do certain things that they had refused to do in Congress on the eve of the convention, so that the contrast was most dramatic by this unfortunate timing. The President capitalized this effectively in his straight-from-the-shoulder housing talk to the convention.

It is clear now that the President's strategy for the campaign is to leave the generally discredited bolting southerners to their own devices for the duration of the campaign, confident that a majority of the people in the South will vote Democratic as usual, and concentrate on the big eastern and northern strongholds essential to victory.

That explains that appeal to labor by advocacy of outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley act, in which the convention backed him in its platform, and the appeal to minority groups so powerful as a balance of power in the East and North through his civil rights program. Here, too, the convention backed him up by substituting a forthright civil rights plank for the compromise submitted by the resolutions committee, and by repudiating by an overwhelming vote the mealy-mouthed state rights plank sponsored by the southerners.

By his insistence on his nomination and by his bold speech to the convention at its end, the President revealed himself as a scrapper. He lifted the pall of defeatism and gave notice that he will challenge the Republicans every step of the way between now and the November election.

MARKET AGAIN PLUNGES

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—The stock market plunged to the lowest level in two months today after selling developed for the second day in a row.

Already shaky after yesterday's heavy pounding, the market was in no shape to stand up against news that giant U. S. Steel Corp. had raised wages and intended to raise prices.

Some of the hardest-hit issues included Gulf Oil 73¼, Mission Corp. 84, Texas Co. 81¾, Standard Oil (NJ) 82¾, Nickel Plate Railroad 83, Union Pacific 89¾, Youngstown Sheet 82½, General Motors 81¼, J. I. Case 46¼, Douglas Aircraft 86¼, Hiram Walker 23¼, U. S. Gypsum 103½ and International Paper 80¾.

U. S. Steel lost only ½ at 80¼ and Bethlehem ⅛ at 36⅛.

Curtiss-Wright, which ended ½ higher at 11¼, was one of the few gainers.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 16. (AP)—Corn prices weakened shortly before the close on the board of trade today, giving the entire market an easy undertone. The sell-off in corn developed at about the same time that weakness cropped up in securities and cotton in New York.

Prior to the slump, July corn had acted strong, advancing nearly 2 cents at times on short-covering.

Oats eased but wheat showed a little more resistance to the late slump.

Wheat closed ¼-¾ lower, July $2.27, corn was ½-1¼ lower, July $2.10½-¾, oats were ⅛ to 2 cents lower, July 80¼-85.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Cotton futures turned irregular in slow trading today. Scattered hedging and liquidation were offset by mill buying. Some commission house demand was attracted by prospects of a higher loan on the next cotton crop. Dullness in textiles and spot cotton, along with excellent private crop reports discouraged rallying tendencies.

Private advices said that mills were showing more interest in prices on the new crop, withs fair volume of sales put through in the Carolinas.

Futures closed 45 cents a bale higher to 8 cents lower than the previous close.

necktie, nothing that smacked of the parlor.

But without any ado he went down into the basement, stayed about three minutes, came back and said: "Your phone is all right again."

Then he showed me that little thing which gave me a lesson in humility—about five inches long, a half inch in diameter, looking like a pencil done up in brown wrapping paper—a blown-out fuse.

"Is that all?" I asked.

"That's all" he said, got into his truck and went to the next place that had been made an island by a blown-out fuse.

Sometimes when I get a lot of fan mail, when I see my name in a hundred newspapers, I think I am quite some pumpkin.

That little blown-out fuse taught me otherwise.

Texas Senatorial Candidates Go Into Final Week Of Campaigning

(By The Associated Press)

Senatorial candidates today headed into the final week of campaigning before the July 24 primary.

Lyndon Johnson called yesterday for political unity on foreign policy in this election year in order to show Russia that "this nation has no inclination to retreat an inch."

He put emphasis on the need for youthfulness and congressional experience in the man whom Texan voters will send to the U. S. Senate.

Coke Shakes Hands

Coke Stevenson shook hands with people in Greenville, McKinney and Denton.

He said other politicians might not like the way he campaigns but that he does not underrate the intelligence of Texas citizens.

"They do not fall for sideshow antics, mudslinging and wild-eyed promises. The people of Texas are down-to-earth, and it is pretty good soil," he said.

George Peddy promised in a speech at Glen Rose that he would fight to cut federal expenses by relieving the government from "thousands-upon-thousands of useless employes who are rendering no necessary services."

He advocated limitation of public spending and enforcement of the limits.

"The nation is headed for a place where the government will be taking all the profits out of industry and will thereby be destroying private industry unless we stop this terrific drain which federal taxes are making on the country today," he warned.

Johnson Attends Funeral

At Bowie, Johnson declared: "Civilized nations are united in determination to prevent the spread of dictatorship. Members of Congress, both in the House and Senate, must be united now regardless of party, and that means presidential and senatorial candidates also.

"Unity is essential to prevent military aggression abroad."

After V-E day Russia bet on a depression in this country and lost. Russia is now betting we'll be more concerned with tax rebates than with world leadership. We must prove them wrong again," he said.

"The senator Texas elects will be one the people think is young enough to do the job, experienced enough to get it done. They will vote for the candidate they think has the best training and equipment to serve the nation," Johnson continued.

He interrupted his campaign at Wichita Falls to attend the funeral of an uncle, Sterling Price at Brady.

Stevenson said in Greenville he has enjoyed every hour of his handshaking campaign because "it means continuation of the people's confidence in me and my confidence in them. The warmth of the Texas spirit is in handshaking and talking with people—200,000 of them in the last six months."

Walking the sidewalks of Greenville, he said shaking hands would give him "personal contact with 200 Hunt county voters, whereas no more than 50 would stand in a hot sun to hear a speech."

Holmes May, candidate for governor, said in his hometown of Orange yesterday he is opposed by two professional politicians.

He charged Gov. Beauford H. Jester with insulting and forgetting the people who elected him. Roger Q. Evans, said May, has done nothing for the veterans, old people or laboring man in eight years in the legislature.

Caso March, another gubernatorial candidate, said he would fire presidents of two state colleges if elected governor because "they're Charley McCarthys for the major oil companies."

He planned to campaign today in Jacksonville, Tyler, Estes and Whitewright.

TWO PERSONS KILLED IN CRASH SOUTH OF CLAUDE

AMARILLO, July 16 (AP)—Billy Kitzler, pilot, and Miss Florence Whipple, 21, were killed in a plane crash 10 miles south of Claude, Tex., late today.

The accident occurred north of the home of Kitzler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riney Kitzler, with whom he made his home.

Miss Whipple was a registered nurse at Northwest Texas hospital here.

Claude is east of here in Armstrong county.

GEORGIA PLANE TRAGEDY CLAIMS SIX PERSONS

JUNCTION CITY, Ga., July 16 (INS)—The Civil Aeronautics authority is investigating tonight the crash of a converted BT-13 plane near Junction City that claimed the lives of six persons.

A state highway patrol report said the dead were:

Lonnie Taylor, Jr., Greenfield, Tenn.; Louise Taylor, his wife; Tommie Taylor, their 22-year-old son; Patricia Taylor, their 10-month-old daughter; Mrs. Dewey Paradise, of Americus, Ga., Mrs. Taylor's sister; Bobby Ratliff, Plains, Ga., 13-year-old brother of Mrs. Paradise and Mrs. Taylor.

The highway patrol said Taylor's father in Greenfield had said that all six left Tennessee aboard the plane bound for Augusta by way of Americus. Taylor was the pilot.

FOUR MEN DIE IN CRASH OF PLANE IN W. VIRGINIA

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 16 (AP)—Four men were killed tonight when a private plane crashed during a rainstorm in a wooded area off a highway near Newburg, Sheriff Hobart Spindler reported.

The sheriff identified three of the victims from papers on the bodies as Herman Mellett and Herman Mellett, jr., of Connellsville, Pa., and James M. Green of Bedford, Pa. The fourth man remained unidentified.

Minister To Report Here On Conditions Found In Japan

Featuring a report on his findings during a several weeks survey of conditions in Japan, E. W. McMillan, minister of the Union Avenue Church of Christ at Memphis, Tenn., is to speak at 8 p. m. Sunday at the Broadway Church of Christ here, it was announced yesterday by Dr. M. Norvel Young, host minister.

The Memphis church, one of the largest in the Church of Christ organization; is sponsoring, as it has for many years, mission work in Japan and other Oriental countries. Mr. McMillan spent several weeks in the latter part of 1947 and early this year in a general religious and economic inquiry there.

His address here is open to the public, with special invitation extended to Church of Christ members throughout this area.

FORD REFUSES AID OF CONCILIATION SERVICE

DETROIT, July 16. (INS)—The Ford Motor company rebuffed Federal conciliators endeavoring to revive wage negotiations with the UAW-CIO today, increasing the possibility of a nationwide strike.

The company announced, however, that it has granted 25,000 salaried employes a nine per cent pay adjustment. Office workers earning less than $625 will receive a monthly increase of $20 to $50. Those in higher brackets will be considered individually.

But the dispute centering on the UAW demand for a 14-cent hourly wage increase, plus 14 cents in social security to 116,000 production employes appears destined to culminate in a strike.

Ford officials shunned conciliators' overtures with the statement that:

"The Ford Motor company stands ready to meet with union negotiators at any time. We appreciate the offer of the United States Conciliation service, but we always have been able to solve our differences with the union and we prefer to follow this policy until every possibility is exhausted.

This created a curious impasse, in view of the union's earlier avowed intention to renew bargaining when the company signifies it is ready.

Neither side appears willing to take the initial step.

Russia Plans Flights

One official said that an investigation showed that the Russians fired toward low-flying British planes with 50-calibre machineguns and then answered a British protest by saying it was "merely a fireworks display."

The Russians also announced this morning that "several Yak fighters" will fly from three airports into the British and American aerial corridors at heights of 600 to 5,000 feet.

American officials said this obstructive tactics could mean anything from "the literal several to several hundred planes."

They said this is part of the Soviet bluff to try to slow down the vast western aerial convoys.

The Americans announced that their "operation vittles" in the 24 hours before 4 p. m. had flown 1,535 tons into Berlin in 259 flights.

The total since June 26 is 16,606 tons in 3,738 flights of 2,323,610 mileage.

The cost of these daily flights caused by the Soviet blockade is estimated at more than $100,000 daily.

ACE PILOT KILLED

ORANGE, Va., July 16 (INS)—Col. Leroy Rainey, 37, much-decorated veteran of the 15th Air Force in Italy, was killed today when his P-51 fighter plane exploded at about 5,000 feet and crashed in a dense woods.

Bishop Visits City

J. H. Crawford, Stamford; O. P. Clark, Sweetwater; T. M. Johnson, Vernon; and Luther Kirk, Perryton.

At Friday's meeting, the cabinet and Bishop Martin discussed plans for the advancement of foreign missions—a movement which is underway in the Methodist church to establish new missions in the fields where the church already is serving, and which is a continuation of the church's four-year "Crusade for Christ" program.

Church Fund Discussed

Discussion also centered around plans of the church to raise four million dollars annually over and above regular missionary giving for mission continuation and advancement. Methodist church college programs also were topics of discussion.

The church leader plans to move with his family to Dallas sometime in September, after he returns from the meeting of the World Council of Churches, to be held in Amsterdam, Holland, August 22 through September 5.

The bishop, accompanied by his wife, will embark for Europe on August 6. The Amsterdam meeting, the first of its kind ever to be held, will be attended by 450 delegates representing approximately 150 Protestant denominations, including nearly all the major Protestant denominations, and the Eastern Catholic churches.

At the gathering, Bishop Martin will represent the Methodist Council of Bishops. Before returning to this country, the Martins will visit in London with friends, and in France and Belgium. They will return about September 13.

Leaves For Fort Worth

From Lubbock, the bishop went to Fort Worth, where he is scheduled to preach a sermon Sunday morning in that city's First Methodist church, and Sunday night in Polytechnic Methodist church.

Although the new bishop plans to visit as many churches in his area as possible, he stressed that inasmuch as there are over 1,400 in the area, it would take him about 14 years to hold services in each church if he held two services every Sunday, each at a different church. He said that in his travels connected with his new duties, he had visited a number of churches on weekdays, a practice which he plans to continue. In addition to the Northwest Texas conference in which Lubbock is located, Bishop Martin also heads the North Texas and Central Texas conferences.

Bishop Martin was born in Tennessee July 28, 1893. He received his education at the University of Arkansas, Hendrix college, the University of Aberdeen, and Southern Methodist university. He has received honorary degrees from Hendrix college, Baker university, and Nebraska Wesleyan college. He was elected bishop in 1938, and has headed the Kansas-Nebraska area for the past nine years.

The tall, gray-haired church man, when asked to summarize his opinion of the place of the church in the confusion and tension of the present day, said, "I think of the church as a divinely appointed institution for keeping people aware of the presence of God in the world, and of making available to people Christian resources for victorious living. It is the only power in the world that can create a world fellowship that transcends the barriers of nation, race, and class."

Along with this, Bishop Martin commented that in the territory covered by the Northwest Texas conference, a leadership in educational, commercial and religious life has been produced which is out of proportion to the population. The pioneering spirit is still needed. He added, as man pushes out the frontiers of the Kingdom of Christ.

UN Sets Deadline

the Tel El'Arish airport near the Palestine border. The Israeli government, which announced the sortie, said new Egyptian air attacks had been made on the Tel Aviv area. Both sides appeared to be stepping up their air warfare.

Fighting Stepped Up

The Jews bombed Cairo for the first time last night. The sprawling Egyptian capital was ordered to begin a partial blackout as a precaution against further raids.

An Egyptian communique said Egyptian planes attacked Tel Aviv last night an hour and a half after Jewish planes had raided Cairo. The communique said considerable damage was caused and large fires started in the Jewish capital.

Arab and Jewish military commanders appeared to have begun a race against time in view of a possible new truce period. Arab forces using armored cars, tanks, planes and heavy artillery launched a strong counterattack on the northern front. The Syrian army was reported to have opened a heavy attack following a week-long defense against the Jewish offensive in that sector.

Clamp On Oil Urged

The Jewish army appeared to have launched an all-out drive to wipe out Kaukji's forces in the Nazareth hills. It was believed aimed at preventing these forces from threatening Haifa from the southeast in event of a new truce period.

A spokesman for the Israeli army's sixth brigade said Jewish batteries had been firing on Arab gun emplacements in the vicinity of the Damascus and St. Stephen's gates of Jerusalem's old city, and the Sheikh Jarrah quarter of Jerusalem.

Newspapers in Baghdad, Iraq, urged all Arab states to cancel oil concessions to all nations supporting Zionism if the UN tries to force a truce.

Pershing Burial Rites Announced

WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—A mighty military cortege will escort General Pershing to his grave in Arlington National cemetery Monday.

In it will be two elements symbolizing the long span of Pershing's military years—a cavalry horse like those he rode in the Indian wars, a flight of jet fighter planes used in this atomic age.

The army today unrolled the plans for the funeral of the 87-year-old general of the armies and World War I commander, a ceremony equaled in latter years only by that of the burial of the Unknown Soldier in 1921.

Truman To Attend

Thousands of men — Army, Navy, Marines and air—will make the four mile march behind the gun caisson carrying the casket from the capitol rotunda to Arlington.

At the grave will be many of the famous of this nation—President Truman, his cabinet, high ranking officers of the military service. The list of those asked to come to the funeral include former President Hoover.

Following the casket caisson, to be drawn by six grey horses, will be the somber symbol of the dead cavalry-man—a riderless black horse, its trappings black. In the stirrups, reversed with the toes pointing to the rear, will be a pair of cavalryman's black boots.

Body To Lie In State

As the procession, with these traditional trappings, moves slowly down Constitution avenue, the flight of eight jet planes will give modern "air cover" for the general on his last march. The planes are assigned from the fourth fighter group, based at nearby Andrews Field, Md.

Three days of ceremony will attend the general's burial. On Saturday relatives and old friends will pay their respect in the chapel at Walter Reed Army hospital where Pershing lived out his final, ailing years. Then for 24 hours, beginning about Sunday noon, the general's body will lie in state in the capitol rotunda, there to be viewed by the public.

On Monday, Pershing will join the other soldiers of World War I who sleep in Arlington, just down the hill from the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Hectic Session Seen

call it right back again.

A ticklish situation might develop, however if a majority of the members didn't show up for the opening. Then, under the rules, it would be up to the members present to compel the others to return. If they chose not to compel attendance, or couldn't do so, there wouldn't be much Mr. Truman could do.

The President presumably will lay down most of his program in a message on the opening day. There isn't any indication yet whether he will do so in person. But after those recommendations are presented, it's Congress' ball on the five-months line.

Telegrams Favor Session

Republicans control both houses. They can expect support in some instances from southern members disgruntled by Mr. Truman's stand on the racial issue. In other cases, notably on so-called civil rights legislation itself, the southerners will be a lonesome if talkative minority.

The Republican steering committees will decide the order in which bills reach the floor. Those committees are not likely to confine their recommendations to legislation asked by the President. They may be expected, however, to clear one or more of the civil rights measures endorsed in their 1948 party platform, then stand back and watch the Democrats fight.

The White House counted telegrams and announced that sentiment in favor of the extra session was running about 20-to-1.

Some Democratic lawmakers said that Congress ought to respond seriously and get down to business on some of the social and economic issues mentioned by the President. These include matters such as housing, broadened social security, a health program, aid to education, standby price control, and an increased minimum wage.

Strike Violence

lated the injunction.

Workers going through the gates were unmolested today. Some gates weren't manned by pickets.

The point at issue in the strike is complicated.

District 50, which is the John L. Lewis catch-all unit for workers outside the mining industry, had a work contract with DuPont covering about 4,000 of the plant's 4,800 workers.

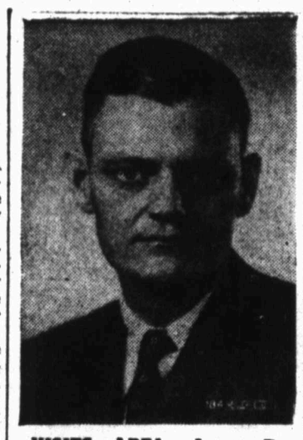

Then a CIO chemical workers union claimed it represented the employes and maneuvered a National Labor Relations board election.

District 50 could not appear on the ballot because its officers have not filed the non-Communist affidavits required by the Taft-Hartley act. The district 50 leaders campaigned for "no union" votes and there were 65 more votes for "no union" than for the CIO.

The company contended this voided its contract with district 50, which still had some time to run. The union argues the contract is still in effect and called the strike when it said the company refused to recognize its grievance committee.

Dixie Demos Plan

Alabama.

Previously, at Cincinnati, he indicated that neither he nor any of the Arkansas delegates would go to Birmingham.

Asked if he would accept if nominated for president by the southern conference, he said "I don't care to answer that question at the moment."

Rebellious Dixie delegations were called to a states' rights meeting here by Gov. Wright of Mississippi, who led the walkout of his state at Philadelphia.

Deep-south party members were angered by passage of a strong civil rights plank and by overwhelming defeat of a states' rights plank.

States Are Named

Senator Eastland, who made the prediction concerning Mr. Truman's November chances, outlined a plan of action for the meeting.

Alabama and Mississippi, with 20 electoral votes between them, already are committed against Mr. Truman. He named as "certain against Truman and probably for our nominee," the following states:

Georgia 12 electoral votes; South Carolina, 8; Florida, 8; Arkansas, 9; Louisiana, 10; Texas, 23; Virginia 11.

Tennessee's 12 and North Carolina's 14 electoral votes, he said, either will go for the Birmingham nominee or for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate.

Southerners Plan Slate

In addition to working for anti-Truman electors from these states through regular state party machinery, he said a full slate of states' rights electors would be placed on the ticket in such border states as Oklahoma, Missouri, and Maryland.

Early arrivals for the meeting huddled in various hotels, as final arrangements were hurriedly made. The states' righters will meet in the city auditorium, which seats 6,000.

Two chief possibilities for the states' rights nomination are Gov. Wright of Mississippi and Gov. Laney of Arkansas.

Gov. Wright called the meeting "to begin the fight to save the south."

To Keep South Solid

"It has been made clear at Philadelphia," he said, "that the greatest discrimination existing in this country today is not racial or religious, but discrimination against the south."

An Alabama delegate, still smarting from the Philadelphia defeat, said on arrival—

"We will keep the south solid—solid against Truman and his obnoxious program to deprive us of control of our domestic affairs."

He was Albert Stapp, Birmingham businessman and delegate at large.

"The south feels like a mother who has been kicked out of her own home by upstart in-laws," Stapp said. "We were not even given a courteous hearing at Philadelphia.

"We will never forget it—and President Truman and the city machine bosses will never forget it either. These cynical ingrates forget that we have kept the party alive through the dark years when they had no federal patronage to dole out. We are through with them."

There were no claims of victory for the Birmingham candidate.

Rail Lines Order Six State Wheat Embargo

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 16 (INS)—The American Association of Railroads today ordered a six-state embargo on shipment of storage wheat effective at 11:59 p. m. (CST) tonight.

The car service division of AAR, which at the same time lifted a week-old ban against wheat shipments to Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo., said the move was to "prevent the accumulation of wheat because of a lack of storage facilities."

Texas Included In Area

Affected states are Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Missouri, except at Kansas City and St. Joseph, Oklahoma and Texas. The embargo also will be invoked at Council Bluffs, Ia., and East St. Louis, Ill.

H. H. Albers, division manager of the car service division, said the embargo does not affect shipment of wheat for sale in the cash market.

He added that only shippers who have made prior arrangements for storage may ship for such purposes.

The embargo order came as outlets were flooded with grain from the bumper winter wheat harvest.

The ban will save much spoilage since deterioration is rapid in carstored wheat.

Albers added: "The general embargo will be both a protection to farmers and shippers and as a means of freeing grain cars needed in other areas."

first reactivation of the installations from which Allied planes flew to crumple the Nazis.

The doughty, cigar-chewing Lemay is rated the Air Force's top combat commander. From his headquarters at Wiesbaden, Germany, he could bring the Superforts winging over the British and American air corridors into Berlin.

It is through these airlanes that the supply planes fly, one every minute, and over which the Russians have scheduled fighter plane "training" flights, while hinting they may employ barrage balloons also to hamper the blockade flyers.

More Planes Available

The Air Force spokesman said that 1,500 maintenance troops, transported in a fleet of C-54 cargo planes, will accompany the B-29s.

Announcement of the "pressure" move followed closely disclosure that MATS (Military Air Transport service) has 285 of the C-54 Skymasters which could nearly double the 2,000-ton daily supply deliveries to Berlin. An Air Force spokesman said Thursday that if more transports are needed in Germany "we can let them have them."

The B-29 bristles with machine guns which can be fired from a central control station. The two groups going to England will be fully armed, but will not carry bombs. Unquestionably, there are stockpiles in England of the two-ton blockbusters which fit the Superfort.

Italy Fears Strife

States.

A ten-minute fistfight over the assassination attempt broke out in the chamber of deputies this morning, causing a suspension.

This occurred after De Gasperi revealed that Togliatti had refused some time ago Interior Minister Mario Scelba's offer to provide a bodyguard.

Strike Said Error

The premier offered this as further proof that the government had nothing to do with the shooting of Togliatti by a young Sicilian law student, Angelo Pallante.

De Gasperi declared that the Communists had made a "great error" and weakened their own labor federation ranks by calling yesterday's general strike.

"It is impossible," said De Gasperi, "to continue to allow that the nation's economy must be in the hands of a bank clerk, or that the distribution of electric light current is in the hands of a powerhouse worker."

In anticipation of anti-strike legislation the premier said "this state of things must cease."

IKE TALKED AGAIN

MOBILE, Ala. July 16 (AP)—Alabama's Democratic party leader Gessner T. McCorvey tried to revive the Eisenhower-for-president boom today. In a statement before leaving for Birmingham, he said he believed the Dixie states' rights meeting could bring about the election of the general in the House of Representatives and that the general would accept.
