James Wolf was just planning to make a left-hand turn from 15th Street onto Dallas Street Tuesday morning. But it turned out to be a bigger turn than he planned. Jack Campbell's tractor that Wolf was driving rolled over, but the cab prevented the tractor from turning completely upside down. Wolf received minor injuries. City officials turned on the nearby fire hydrant to wash away leaking diesel fuel before the tractor was winched upright.

5-Community Reunion August 14-15

The Five-Community Reunion which brings together present and former residents of a large area of the west central part of the county, will be held Saturday and Sunday, August 14 and 15 in Bura Handley Community Center.

These communities are Marella, Quail, Salt Fork, Lillie and Cross Roads. "The local people are urged to attend," declared County Judge Zook Thomas, president of the organization. "The people who come from a distance like to visit with those who presently live in these communities. This is a great way for the younger people to learn about the early days of these communities and of our county."

The get-together will begin Saturday at 6 p.m. for those who want to begin visiting. The remainder of the evening will be spent in more visiting, according to Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, reunion secretary.

Sunday activities will also begin with visiting at 10:30 a.m. There will be a worship service at 11:15 and a basket dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring food.

The afternoon will be open for singing and visiting.

There will be a short business meeting for the election of officers.

In addition to Thomas, officers are Hugh Bledsoe, vice president; Billye Dodson Owens, program chairman, and Mrs. Wilson, secretary.

Ingram in State Junior PGA Golf Tournament

Heath Ingram, 15-year-old Wellington golfer, will compete in the Texas Junior PGA tournament of champions to be held at Midland Monday through Wednesday, August 9-11. This is his second year to play in this major event for young golfers.

Ingram qualified for the state tournament Thursday, July 22, at Clarendon, when he shot an 80 on the par 72 course at Clarendon Country Club.

This put Heath in second place and qualified him for the state event.

Earlier he won third place in the Amarillo tournament on Ross Rogers Municipal Golf Course.

Tom Kite, a member of the pro tour, will be in Midland for the Tournament of Champions and will hold a clinic there Monday, which Ingram will attend.

He will compete in the 14-15 year old age group, in which approximately 200 young Texans are entered.

There are other age groups for 12-13 year old players and another for those 16-18 years.

Ingram, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ingram, has been playing golf since he was 7 years old. He has received most of his instruction from his father and the two play together often on Wellington Country Club golf course. The family belongs to the country club.

He will be a sophomore in Wellington High School this year and he has also played tennis and basketball.

He is active in First Baptist Church youth organizations.

He will be accompanied to Midland by his mother and younger brother, Eric.

Norden Bombsight Recalls WW II Incident

Thirty-seven years ago this week, the first atom bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, Japan, to bring to an end World War II. A few days later the second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki.

Ex-Students to Gather Saturday

If early response is an indication, the Wellington Ex-Students Reunion Saturday, August 7, will be the largest of recent years. Headquarters will be Bura Handley Community Center.

A few Exes are already in town!

Jerry Manuel, president, announced plans.

The time-proved format will be repeated: Ex-students will be given as much time as they want for visiting. There will be no program, and the business meeting Saturday night at the barbecue will be short.

The Ex-Students Dance will be held Saturday evening.

There will be 8 class reunions, some meeting Friday night and Saturday, others on Saturday only. They are classes of 1928-29, 1942, 1945-46-47, 1957, 1962, 1967, 1977. (Information of each of these is on page 5).

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 4 p.m. at the community center under the direction of Vickie Mayhugh Porter.

The general get-together will continue until noon. Several classes will have luncheons but all others will be on their own for lunch.

They will return to the community building for more visiting, through the afternoon at the community center.

There is a new location for the barbecue--the school cafeteria which is located at the Elementary School on 15th Street. Jerry Duncan is barbecue chairman. The Childress Street entry to the cafeteria will be used.

The business meeting will be held during the barbecue with Jerry Manuel, 1981-82 association president, presiding.

The Ex-Students dance will start at 9 p.m. and end at 1 a.m. This also will be in Bura Handley Community Center large auditorium. The Red River Band of Hollis will play. Jerry Manuel is dance chairman.

"We look for a large turnout for the whole reunion," Manuel said. "Everyone has worked hard for this reunion and many local people have tentative plans to attend."

"I want everyone to please come to everything and have a good time. People are waiting to see you."

"There will be new officers elected in the business meeting. Let's have a memorable celebration."

Much has been added to make the reunion more festive, Manuel explained.

Anderson Studio of Childress will be in the Club room from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. to take Exes packs. This is a one shot photo, similar to the photos taken at proms. The payment will be requested at the time the photo is taken.

"We thought exes might like to have a photo with former classmates. Each person will need to talk with the photographer for more details," said the president.

Registration will have a spark of interest as each person registering will receive a pin stating "I'm a Skyrocket Super Fan!" said Mrs. Porter. Attached to the name tag will be a red ribbon noting Wellington Rocket Alumni '82. We wanted our Exes to go home with memorabilia."

Duncan, the barbecue chairman, said the barbecue table decorations will again carry out the theme of

Before that, the rate could be raised only 3% without hearings.

Hundred Attend Loco-Arlie Reunion

Approximately 100 present and former residents of the Arlie and Loco communities, including guests from Fresno, Dodson and Pleasant Point, who were included for the first time, met Sunday for reminiscence and fellowship. They had traveled from as far as Pennsylvania, Oregon, California and New Mexico.

In the traditional election of community kings and queens, Laverne Chaudoin of Canton and Mrs. Geneva Bearden of Hale Center represented Loco and Lowell Savage of Muleshoe and Mrs. Mary Scott, represented Arlie.

Among those present when it was determined who had traveled farthest, Laverne and Juanita Chaudoin of Canton were the former Loco residents, and Philip and Jean Wynn of Coahoma represented Arlie.

During the business meeting, hosts elected for the 1983 reunion were Pauline Patterson, Sammy and Lucille Motsenbocker, Loyd and Ethel Clark, Rev.

and Mrs. John Stout of Clarendon, and Clarence and Merle Black of Dodson. Lucille Motsenbocker and Edith Copeland Carter were elected co-secretaries.

Other plans for the 1983 reunion were decided. A devotional will be held at 10:30 a.m. by Rev. Stout, and the two oldest persons present at that hour will select the hymns to be sung.

Door prizes will be given and will include paintings by Louise Bouchelle, Pauline Patterson and Goldie Hillman along with a book by Velma Stephens Davis. Others are expected to be added to these.

Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Motsenbocker will be in charge of the project to find the names of all graduates of the Loco and Arlie Schools and to do this they will search the records of the Childress county school superintendents.

Three former Loco teachers were present, Chaudoin, 1935-37; Maurvine Vaughn Greer of Morton, 1931-33; and Edith Copeland Carter, 1942-43.

Graduates who were present were Chaudoin, Juanita Greer, Lottie Wolf, Frank Hall, Alma Ruth Loveless, Buddy Gibson and Johnny Dyer.

Those present then recounted memories they had of their home communities. Many of these centered around the schools or community events. Examples were Chaudoin's recollection of a year when an entire class played hooky on April Fool's Day--and their teacher joined them, and Savage's memory of the entire community hauling water for home use from a well on the Levi Lawrence farm.

Those who registered at the reunion were Tom and Maurine Greer of Morton; Laverne and Juanita Chaudoin of Canton;

Edith Copeland Carter, Edna Copeland Crow, Bob Copeland, Helen Pierce Mitchell, Ruth Lawrence, Tom and Stella Sexton all of Hollis; Leonard McGinnis, Harold McGinnis, Etta Adkins, and Carl Sexton all of Amarillo.

Goldie Hillman and Geneva Bearden of Hale Center, John H. and Johnnie Stout of Clarendon; Finis and Leota West, Jean and Joyce Wolfe, all of Borger; Phil and Jean Wynn of Coahoma; Maude (Mrs. Frank)

Prince of Lubbock; Mrs. Carroll Ray, Mildred Ray Osborne, Mary Nell Tinder, and Buddy Ray, all of Oklahoma City;

Cleo Newman, Virginia Prince Stroud and Jim Prince, all of Whittier, Ca.; J.B. Sexton of Happy; Fern Stout Elledge of Farmington, N.M.; Sue Adkins Boggs of Choctaw, Ok.; Bertha Mae Vandiver of Placerville, Ca.; Mrs. Orville Beckett; Vada Harris of Floydada;

Lowell and Ila Savage of Muleshoe; Dema Justice of Clarendon; Ruthell Lemly Meyers of Nazareth, Pa.; Forrest Lemley of Cedar Hill; Ruth Lacy Royal of Weatherford, Ok.; Willard Harris Spencer and M.C. Spencer both of Memphis; R.M. and Lottie Hodge of Tulare, Ca.; Hattie Bohannon of Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Boley Kincheloe of Marion, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of Pampa; Clarence and Merle Black of Dodson; Olean Bearden and Evelyn Bearden Lane, both of Childress; and Juanita Harris Crider of Monahans.

Those who registered from Wellington were Lucille and Sammie Motsenbocker, Ethel and Loyd Clark, Floyd Clark, Mamie King Terry, Mary Ann Clark and Jim, Jimmy Fickling, Loyd and Gladys King, Pauline Brown Patterson, Doris White, Louise Bouchelle, Jack and Ruby Brown, Mrs. W.E. Brewster, Allene Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolf, Mrs. Felix Hunt, Stacie Cannon, Tracey Cannon, J.V. and Mabel Emmert and Mary Scott.

They drop in and quilt any time they have a little spare time and besides all the nice quilting they do, they have a nice time, visiting and seeing all their old friends who also come by the center."

I Saw... by Virginia Robey

The David Pruitts have had plenty of help, especially from children, since their fluffy white Spitz, Snowdie, disappeared in early summer.

The first call came from children in the south part of town and their description fit Snowdie to a T.

But this turned out to be the new dog in town out looking over his neighborhood. When the Pruitts arrived, he was back with his family, the Tom Allison.

Next time, the description was again perfect. A man arrived just ahead of them and was a little nonplussed when the children were reluctant to let him have his dog.

The third dog (again the description fit) was positively hostile to the Pruitts.

"I've found out how many Spitz dogs there are in Wellington, but none of them Snowdie," says Pat Pruitt.

But if you find a medium size fluffy white Spitz, with tail curled over back, call and the Pruitts-David, Pat and the three children will hurry over to your place.

Jona Gayle Stages and Kevin Wayne Meek exchanged wedding vows Friday, July 23, in First United Methodist Church in Shamrock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stages, Jr., of the Samnorwood community, while Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Meek of Briscoe are the parents of the bridegroom.

The double ring wedding vows were read by the Reverend C.R. Hankins, pastor of Glen Davis Memorial Methodist Church Dozier.

Members of the wedding party stood in front of two heart shaped candelabras, with a matching unity candle holder in the center. The candelabras were entwined with greenery and satin bows in rainbow colors. Bouquets of silk fern and pastel colored flowers were on pedestal tables at each side of the altar, and the altar rail was entwined with foliage and flowers in rainbow colors. Bows marked the pews where the parents were seated.

Connie Stages, sister-in-law of the bride, played a prelude of nuptial music as guests were seated and accompanied DiAnna Oldham as she sang.

After the unity candle was lighted by the couple, the bride's prayer was said in unison.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a formal gown of white bridal satin. The bodice was designed with a standing collar and yokes, which had appliques of Chantilly lace enhanced with seed pearls. The front yoke came to a point at the waist. Lace and seed pearls trimmed the fingertip length fitted sleeves. The modified fullness of the skirt was edged in lace and the chapel length train flowed gracefully from the shoulders. Her headpiece was covered with applique flowers and pearls matching those on the dress, and to it was attached her finger-tip illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of silk roses in spring colors, tied with satin streamers in rainbow colors.

The bride carried out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue, and with a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Brown, her pearl earrings to Donnie Knoll and her blue garter was from Mrs. Cecil Amerson.

Roberta Maddox of Paris, formerly of Briscoe, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Crystal Breeding, Sheryl Sheer, Ravena Lang of Borger and Becky Baxter. They wore long dotted Swiss dresses with off shoulder ruffled collars. Each wore a different color: pink, lavender, blue, green and yellow. They carried bouquets of matching silk roses tied with rainbow ribbon.

Janna Stages of Amarillo,

MRS. KEVIN WAYNE MEEK

niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress in rainbow colors and carried a net and lace basket filled with silk rosebuds. John Bynum of Fritch, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Terry Tipps of Amarillo was the bestman, and groomsmen were Keith Meek, brother of the groom, Norman Morgan, Ricky Gatlin and Kent Hall, all of Briscoe.

Seating the guests and lighting the candles were John Stages III and Larry Stages of Amarillo, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Lynn Stages of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests. Special guests were the grandparents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Bynum of Fritch and Mrs. Eula Stages, of Erick, Oklahoma.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents honored the couple with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth with matching underlay. Her bouquet, set within six-branched candelabra holding white tapers was the centerpiece, and silver and crystal appointments were used. The bride's cake was elaborately decorated and also featured a miniature fountain.

The groom's table was laid with a beige lace cloth over beige and his cake was the traditional chocolate in the shape of a book. This table was centered with a five-light wooden candelabra with white tapers. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

Guests were served by Jayne Bell, and Donnie Knoll of the Samnorwood area, Rita Fillingim and Karen Hefley of Briscoe, Elaine Bynum of Fritch and LaVanda Barnard of San Antonio. The latter two are aunts of the groom. Miniature scrolls were distributed by Lindsey Fulgim and Alicia Hefley of Briscoe, while guests received tiny bags filled with wheat from Janie Bynum of Fritch and Brandi Barnard of San Antonio, cousins of the groom, and Alicia King of Fort Smith, Ark., cousin of the bride.

Since returning from their wedding trip to Branson, Mo., the couple lives at Greenbelt Lake.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Samnorwood High School and the groom graduated from Briscoe High School, also in 1981. They attended Clarendon College during the 1981-82 year.

Birthday Party Honors Levi Huntress Sun.

Levi Huntress of Higgins was in Wellington for his second birthday party, held in Ellison Park. His parents, Mark and Renee Huntress were the hosts Sunday, August 1 from 3 to 4 p.m.

A western theme was used and Levi's birthday cake design was a horse shoe with boots. Homemade ice cream was served with it.

Guests were Dallas and Natalie Holland with Dusty, Brandon and Carrie; Calvin and Patsy Mitchell; Dallas and Angie Smith; Don, Linda, Brant, Kristen and Beth Gray; Joyce Kersten; Kathy Wischkaemper with Jason; Lana, Deedra and Brandon Ward; Ronnie Ward; and Tammie Hernandez.

H. Lee Roy, Seven Children Gather for Wellington Reunion

The Lee Roy family returned to Wellington for their reunion Friday through Saturday, July 30-August 1.

This brought together brothers and sisters and their families from California, Michigan, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and in Texas from Wichita Falls, Beaumont, Amarillo and Clarendon. Heading this family is H. Lee Roy of Sweetwater, Tenn., and joining him were his 7 children.

The Roy family lived one mile south of Wellington from 1920 until 1953, when Mr. Roy moved to East Tennessee. Since 1954, their reunion is held every two years, and this is the second time they have met in Wellington.

Mrs. Lonnie Neeley (Oleta Welch) was the Wellington hostess. She is a niece of Mr. Roy.

The family gathered at Bura Handley Community Center Friday for visiting, looking at pictures and for the meals that were served.

One highlight was looking at and discussing the family history prepared by Claude Roy of Battle Creek, Michigan. This traces the Roy family from the marriage of John Roy and Frances Gillespie in Prince Edward County, Virginia in 1796.

In their Collingsworth

County heritage, those attending the reunion were descendants of Rote Roy and Della Thomas Roy. Della Roy was a sister of Haywood Thomas, a pioneer of Collingsworth County.

The family returned to the community building Saturday for more visiting and to visit with Wellington area friends.

On the final day, Sunday, they went to the Farm Bureau building to complete their reunion and part of the group began their trips home.

By families, they are: Claude N. and Treva V. Roy of Battle Creek, Michigan;

Elmer R. and Joyce Roy of Sweetwater, Tenn.; with Tony Roy of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Phil and Yvonne Roy with Jason and Will of Sweetwater, Tenn.; Dianna Roy, Gloria Roy and Nathan Roy of Knoxville, Tenn.;

Wilson and Martha Roy Dobbins, Larry Dobbins, Johnny and Cindy Dobbins with Paul and John, all of Amarillo;

Glenn R. and Dora B. Roy Roberts of North Highlands, Ca.;

Louella Roy Culwell, Bobby W. and Carole Culwell Sinclair with Kelly and Kenneth, all of Wichita Falls.

Clesta Roy Fuson of Hollis.

Ruth Roy Briggs of Beaumont.

Other relatives included: Lonnie and Oleta Welch Neeley; Jim and Lonetta Neeley Ingram with Heath and Eric; Cary Don and Pam Neeley with Curtis and David; Wade R. and Maxine Welch; Joey and Generah Welch Manuel;

C.E. Welch and Helen

Welch of Clarendon; Cecil Welch, Janie Welch and Cory James Welch of Amarillo;

Friends who visited with the family included Mabel Clement, Inez Clement, Larlu Hayes, Myra Hayes, Velman and Dora Fern Warrick, Mrs. Nell Cook, Mrs. Dona Tucker of Shamrock, Bessie Jean West, Mac Willis, Paul Wauer, George and Dorothy Scott, Todd Bradley of Childress and Ollie Raburn.

Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hanna of Sulphur Springs are the parents of a son, Rusty Alan, born July 28. He weighed 7 lbs. 14 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hanna, and Mr. and Mrs. James Tate of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Rosser of Dalhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Richie Brotherton of Claude are the parents of a son, born July 20 at Neblett Hospital, Canyon. He was named Cody Lin and weighed nine pounds and one-fourth ounce. Grandparents are Mrs. Richard Peters, and Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Brotherton of Canyon. A great-grandmother is Mrs. H.A. Brotherton of Canyon.

The first words said on the second time man landed on the moon, Oct. 27, 1969, were "Whoopee! Man, that may have been a small one for Neil, but that's a long one for me!" said Charles Conrad.

School Taxes

Wellington School administrators and school board members are puzzling this week over ways to cut the school's '82-'83 budget in order to keep this year's tax increase to the smallest amount possible.

But no matter how much they cut, school taxes will be going up.

The school district this year is hit with a 3-fold problem.

First, interest and sinking fund taxes must be increased to pay bonded indebtedness. The school district has had a surplus in its interest and sinking fund which could not be used for any other purposes.
Rather than raise taxes as much as was needed last year, the school board decided to keep I&S taxes low and use up the surplus. That surplus is just about gone now, so the I&S rate must go up.

Second, inflation continues to affect the school.
For instance, the school expects to pay about 20%
more for its natural gas this year than it did last year.
It all adds up, and it means that it will take more money to operate at the same level as last year.

And third, the school lost several million dollars in valuations when livestock and farm equipment were exempted from the tax roll by an act of the legislature.
That means that the remaining property on the roll will have to pick up the burden that had been carried by livestock and farm equipment.

It all adds up to higher taxes during tough economic times in the county. If you have any constructive ideas on the situation, we're sure the school board and administration would appreciate hearing them at or before the public hearing on the budget
next Monday.

Reports

NOT INSANE

AUSTIN -- Was John
Hinckley, Jr., really insane?
To answer that question
from a legal point of view,
we have to see what the law
considers insane.

Insane in Texas and insane
in Washington, D.C., where the shooting occurred, do not mean the same thing.
The rules for an insanity defense in Texas are much stricter, as they should be.

For example, all states recognize the defense of insanity for a person who does not know right from wrong -- if he did not know the nature and quality of the act he committed, or if he did not know it was wrong. This is the only insanity defense in Texas, and also is one insanity defense in Washington.

However, Washington does not stop there. It is also a defense in the nation's capital to commit a crime as a result of an "irresistible impulse," as long as the impulse was caused by a true mental disorder and not by passion or anger.

As strict as the insanity
defense is in Texas -- it accounts for only a small fraction of the criminal cases tried in this state --
there have been cries recently to make it stricter or abolish it altogether.
Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls has been working on a bill that would allow the jury in a criminal case to find the defendant
"guilty, but mentally ill."
This would allow for punishment and treatment.
The insanity defense is rooted in a desire to punish only those who are responsible for their actions.

Insane persons cannot help themselves, the theory goes,
so punishing them would be pointless and cruel.

Such thinking would be appropriate if there were widespread agreement on what insanity is. Most of us think we can spot insanity
when we see it, but apparently experts cannot.
Psychiatrists and psychologists can spend days at a trial, with half of them swearing the defendant is perfectly sane and the other half of them swearing he's crazy. Many never have testified for the other side.
In other words, many experts never have seen an insane defendant, and many never have seen a sane one, or so they swear. It's not something that gives one a great deal of confidence in psychiatry or the law.

None of us wants to punish someone who cannot help himself. But on the other hand, we all want dangerous people off the streets. We want them off
the streets for a long time.
We may feel sorry for the insane defendant, as our morals and our religion tell us to feel, but we want him locked up.

We hope Senator Farabee's
bill will accomplish both these objectives -- treatment and punishment. We would like to hear your thoughts on the subject.

Sarpalius, P. O. Box 12068,

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN -- A strong Department of Energy and decontrol of all fuel prices are the cornerstones of Gov. Bill Clements' national energy policy, unveiled last week at the Southern Governor's Conference in Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Clements took it upon himself to draft the proposal stating that he was tired of waiting for six Republican and Democratic presidential administrations to come up with one.

Despite the fact that President Reagan has proposed to dismantle the DOE, Clements says a strong energy department is essential to "ensure priority attention" to making the nation energy independent.

The key to that independence is deregulation of energy prices, the Republican governor says, adding that "maximum reliance"
should be placed on the private sector and free market system to develop energy reserves, set prices and distribute that energy.

Some Capitol observers,
however, saw Clements proposal as a complete reversal of his previous belief that DOE should be abolished.

That reversal could be attributed to the fact--as pointed out by Railroad Commissioner Jim Nugent--
that DOE has acquired more officials who are pro-oil industry.

Attorney General Mark
White, Clements' opponent
in this year's gubernatorial campaign, refused to comment on the governor's plan
other than to describe it as
"too bland."

Textbook Fight

And while Clements was unveiling his energy proposal, a group calling itself
People for the American Way, began their fight against censorship of textbooks in Texas' public schools.

People For The American
Way, a national non-partisan group founded two years ago
to "protect Americans' constitutional freedoms," announced the opening of a Texas office to monitor the state's textbook adoption process.

They immediately attacked Mel and Norma Gabler, the controversial Longview couple who have worked to remove textbooks -- and even dictionaries -- they don't like from classrooms.

The group labelled the efforts of the Gablers and others as attempts to "purge schools of all material that encourage thinking and discussion or is inconsistent with their narrow religious and political orthodoxy."

The State Textbook Committee, which is responsible for selecting the books used in public schools, is scheduled to hold hearings on new textbooks in August.

Those hearings promise to be lively, to say the least.

Budget Projections

Texas taxpayers got some good news last week when State Comptroller Bob Bil-

lock announced that lawmakers should have $5 billion dollars more to spend in 1983 than was available
in 1981 without any new taxes.

Bullock's projection also showed that the state will have a surplus of $1.3 billion in fiscal 1982.

BOMBSIGHT--

In early, 1942, Major John Coleman, U.S. Army, Retired, then a captain, had ordered the dismantling and disposal of the only two Norden Bombsights which United States Forces had in the Philippines. He never saw the bombsight, but his order was carried out and the instruments were disposed of in 200 foot waters
of Manila Bay.

A few days later he was a prisoner of the Japanese and would remain a prisoner
until the end of World War II.

Recently Coleman received a miniature but exact,
replica of the Norden Bombsight, encased in lucite. It was a gift made possible by his son, Spencer Coleman of Fort Worth.

The younger Coleman,
who is with General Dynamics, was in the Pentagon on business for his company. One of the miniatures was on the desk
of a general, and he learned that only about 25 had been made.

Business took Spencer
Coleman to Connecticut a few weeks later, and this time he came home with a Norden Combsight to add a new demension to his father's 37 year old memories.

What followed the disposal of the bombsite was grim.

Coleman recounts this in his book, "Bataan and Beyond." He tells of his refusal to give the Japanese information of the bombsight, and of the beating he received. With two other officers, he was able to escape into a milling crowd of prisoners, and although the Japanese soldiers tried to locate him, they never did.

requested recently.

In presenting the Department of Agriculture's proposed 1984-85 budget to the Legislative Budget
Board, outgoing Agriculture Commissioner Reagan
Brown asked for $34 million to fight fire ants over the two-year period.

That figure represents half
of Brown's budget request, which is nearly double the department's 1982-83 budget.

State Rep. Dan Kubiak, D-Rockdale, earlier had asked for $10 million from the Legislature for fire ant
research and eradication programs.

Wellington Christian School Sets August 16 Opening Date

The opening date for Wellington Christian School is Monday, August 16, according to an announcement made Monday by the principal, Glenn Rowe.

The school is located at the southeast corner of the court house square, across the street west of Lewis Grocery.

The enrollment date for all pupils will be Friday and Saturday, August 13 and 14.

Each child will start at his own level in each subject, said Rowe. If a student excels in a subject, he will not be held back in that subject because of grade level.

The fee for each student is $50 per month. The school expects to enroll between 25 and 30 students.

Rowe attended Cameron College, Lawton, Ok., in addition to receiving electronics training in the U.S. Navy. He also attended numerous training sessions in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

He has 15 years experience in the electronics-computer field and taught two years for the U.S. Postal Service in Norman, Ok. During this time he attended instructional methods classes administered by the U.S. Army.

He also taught at United Electronics Technological Institute in Oklahoma City.

Holsomback Rites Held

Holsomback, 60, died July 28, in a hospital in Trinity. He was a resident of nearby Riverside.

A native of Douglas, Texas, he was a former custom combiner and shop owner and a World War II veteran.

Holsomback is survived by his wife, Winona Holsomback, Riverside; a son, Theodore W. Holsom-back of Tulsa, Ok.; a daughter, Barbara Holsomback of Ft. Worth; two brothers, M.E. Holsomback of Texas City and Jesse J. Holsomback of Pearland; three sisters, Edna Brock of Lufkin, Annie McDuffie of Livingston and Bessie Shoemaker of Wells; and a granddaughter, Robyn Holsomback of Tulsa, Ok.

Those interested in enrolling children in the Christian School should contact Rowe at 447-5011 or Raymond Neeley at 447-2787.

Thomas Speaks on Road System

County Judge Zook Thomas explained the operation of Collingsworth County Unit System Tuesday, July 27 when he was guest speaker at Childress Lions Club.

The Unit Road Law was passed by the State Legislature in 1947.

Childress county residents will vote on the adoption of this system on Saturday, August 14.

Judge Thomas said Collingsworth adopted the unit system in 1957, when the county was heavily in debt, and at the same time enacted a 30-cent road tax. He estimated it took about 10 years to overcome the indebtedness.

The county hired a road administrator whose sole purpose is to maintain county roads and who is accountable to the Commissioners Court. This frees the commissioners to spend about 90% of their time taking care of the county's financial system, he added.

Thomas said the system is acceptable to all present commissioners and they would not have it any other way.

Graveside Rites Here For Mrs. Smith

Graveside services for Mrs. Mattie Sims Smith, 85, will be conducted at the family plot in Fairview Cemetery at 3 p.m. Thursday, with the Rev. Stanley Hughes officiating. She was a long-time county resident.

Local arrangements are under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Her body will lie in state at Kelso Chapel from late Wednesday afternoon until the hour of the service Thursday.

Many here will remember her as Mrs. Hunter Sims. The late Mr. Sims was employed at LeDerer Hardware and was county treasurer. He also operated a store in Dodson. She was active in the Nazarene Church.

Mr. Sims died Dec. 10, 1940.

Later she married J.N. Smith and they lived in Lefors until his death. She made her home in Dallas for a number of years.

She was born Mattie Dawson in Bonham August 11, 1896.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Nell A. Smith of Dallas; one granddaughter, Mrs. Jan Blandes of Dallas; one grandson, Don Crawford of Sherman; six great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

W.C. Ray Former Loco Resident, Dies

William Carroll Ray, a former Wellington and Loco resident, died in Oklahoma City, July 18.

Mr. Ray was born in 1900 in Georgia. He moved to Dallas as a young man, then came to Wellington in 1927, later moving to Loco.

He was the bus driver for the Loco Schools many years and then for several years drove the bus carrying Loco High School students to Wellington High School when the two consolidated.

His service totaled 26 years.

He was an active worker in Loco Methodist Church and more recently in Capitol Hill Methodist Church, Oklahoma City.

Final rites were held in Hunter Memory Chapel Tuesday, July 20, at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Justice Edmonson officiating. Burial was in Sunny Lane

Rockets Reminded of Physicals, Ins.

Head Coach James Williams has reminded Skyrockets that they will need to have their physical examinations before they can work out Monday, August 9.

These may be had from the doctor of choice.

Williams also reminded that the boys will need their insurance coverage before the first scrimmage on August 19 against Lefors.

He explained that the school pays for insurance which covers football, but that ends when football season is over. If the player wants additional coverage for basketball, track or any other activity at school, insurance coverage can be secured for $13 per student, to be paid by the student or his family.

If a player does not take this, he will not be covered after the football season.

The student can also select 24-hour coverage plan for approximately $33, so he will be covered in workouts, as well as in basketball, track and other athletic activities. He will also be covered at home, traveling to and from school and to and from games.

"This is real important if he is going to participate in something else after football," Williams said.

Two-a-day workouts will start Monday, Aug. 9, at 6:30 a.m. and the coaches will announce then the time of the afternoon workouts.

The store, located in the American Legion building, will be in operation both Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10 and 11, Frances Schmidt, fair chairman, has announced. The location is diagonally across from the community building.

Open House for Resources Office Scheduled August 9

Open House for the Texas Department of Human Resources in its new office space will be held Monday, August 9, from 7 to 9 p.m.

This is on the third floor of the court house, and those coming to the office may use the elevator, located beside the Justice of the Peace office, or they may use the stairs to the third floor.

The public is invited. "The new offices offer a much larger reception area, as well as private offices for the departments," said Beth Molsenbocker, children's protective worker.

There are also a meeting room and an office where those with business in one of the offices can fill out forms with more privacy said Mrs. Molsenbocker.

1967 Samnorwood Class Holds Reunion Saturday

BY JOE LACKEY

A group of six graduating seniors of the Samnorwood Class of 1967 gathered Saturday afternoon, July 31, in Pioneer Park for a reunion on the 15th anniversary of their graduation from high school.

Although eight members of the graduating class could not attend because of conflicts, the six class members who were able to come thoroughly enjoyed hashing over old times, filling each other in on everything which has flowed under the bridge over the last 15 years, and discussing future plans.

The group and a number of visitors enjoyed a meal prepared for the class party by several class members and guests.

Plans were discussed for a future class get-together.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Tate, and children Tammy and Thad, Rt. 5, Box 1208, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Ward, and children Amy and Dennis, Arlie Route, Childress; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kincannon, and children Bryan and Tim, 923 Cinderella, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Littlejohn, and children Bryan and Donald, 52150 Teton Dr., Ft. Hood; Jay Wischkaemper, 5201 Indiana, Lubbock; Joe Lackey, 2213 South Polk, Amarillo; Jennie Montgomery, Shamrock; Zola Tate, Dozier; Mot Coleman, Shamrock; and Betty Rives and children, Rochelle and Amanda of Wheeler.

The six seniors attending were Danny Tate, J.D. Ward, Calvin Kincannon, Brenda Coleman Littlejohn, Jay Wischkaemper, and Joe Lackey.

Jennie Montgomery, a long-time cook at Samnorwood High School, was dedicated the 1967 Samnorwood High School Annual. Zola Tate and Mot Coleman were class mothers.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Brittell, Jessie, Amy and Jenee of Chester, Pa. were house guests of her aunt, Mrs. Lola Estes, last week. They also visited Mrs. Lala Peeples, Hubert Peeples, Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Peeples, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peeples and Denzil Peeples. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peeples of Groom also joined the group.

Special Film At Abundant Life

"Hudson Taylor," a film about a man who pioneered missions to the interior of China will be shown at Abundant Life Fellowship Church Sunday evening, August 8, at 6 p.m.

"To some, Hudson Taylor seemed a maverick. To others, he was a man ahead of his time. In reality, Hudson Taylor was a common man with whom Christians can identify," say the sponsors.

The public is invited.
